IT WAS A WILD STORM.

How the Snow Blocked Traffic in Maine on Wednesday Night.

(Bangor Commercial.) The effect of the heavy storm of Tuesday night and Wednesday began to be felt during the early part of the night, Wednesday. The midnight train from Bangor was one hour and 20 minutes behind into Bangor; the morning Pullman from the west, due at 4:15 o'clock, was two hours and 15 minutes late, and all the connecting trains were far behind their schedules in pulling from the city. The Bangor train from Greenville was reported late soon after she had started, and was losing time at every station. It was one of the heaviest storms for traffic to back against that has settled over the State for years, as the snow was hard and packed down around the track in determined style. Locomotives that came in at the head of the late trains Thursday morning were buried in white, and the running gear on the cars was caked hopelessly. The crews of freight cars were covered deep and brim-full with a hard time being had in the yard while trains were being shaken out. Passengers and the crew of the early morning Pullman from Boston reported a hard night all along the line. Wind blew hard across the open, although it wasn't felt here, penetrating even the thickness of the double windows on the Pullman. The vestibules were filled with fine snow which made passing from car to car disagreeable and the knowledge that time was being constantly lost was disconcert-

ing. People who were depending on connections for the Aroostook and Washington County roads were hurried over the danger of losing connections, and the brakemen were kept busy answering questions and assuring the doubtful. Snow slides from pitched-roof buildings on Main, Exchange and other business streets made it dangerous for pedestrians on Thursday, and in several instances persons had narrow escapes from being engulfed and perhaps seriously injured.

CLEVER BULLDOG.

(New York Times.) People passing at Broadway and Thirty-sixth street, New York, one recent afternoon were horrified to see an elderly woman who was crossing toward the Marlborough hotel become suddenly confused in front of a cab that was being driven rapidly down town, and which struck her, hurrying her down on the trolley tracks, along which a car was rapidly approaching. As she fell a big, homely bulldog rushed from the sidewalk and seizing her skirts in his teeth vainly tried to drag her from the rails. The motorman, however, saw the danger and stopped the car in time, before she was crushed.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—

Manager Charles Guay has returned from taking the census of Labrador, from which he is absent since April 11, during which time he, his assistant, Cook, and two sailors travelled 3,000 miles. The population was found to number 9,500, comprising 1,000 Indians.

A BALAKLAVA HERO.

One of the Famous Six Hundred Kicked to Death by a Horse.

BUFFALO, Nov. 15.—A dispatch to the Courier from Lockport, N. Y., says: To pass through campaigns in India the foremost of the first British "then red line" in the Crimea, to come unscathed through the historic charge of the Six Hundred at Balaklava, and then to retire to private life, in the peace and quiet of the grocery business, and be kicked to death by the delivery horse, was the fate of Ambrose Short, hero of many wars and formerly a servant in the service of the queen.

Mr. Short went to the barn to get his horse and falling to speak to the animal, as he usually did, the horse kicked out and struck him in the abdomen. The blow knocked Mr. Short down, and the horse continued kicking, but he evaded the additional blows and finally crept to the house. Doctors were called, and it was found he had sustained a fractured rib and severe bruises. Their fears of internal injury were too soon realized. He began to grow worse Wednesday morning and sank rapidly, passing away at an early hour this morning.

Ambrose Short was born in Bristol, England in 1837. At the age of seventeen he was away and joined the famous Star line steamer Cymric, which has arrived here from New York, reports having encountered terrific adverse gales.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 15.—During a snow storm of five hours, ending about ten o'clock last night, four inches fell. The wind velocity reached 32 miles per hour in the city and much higher at Charlotte-on-Lake. For several hours the car service was suspended.

IN COLD BLOOD.

Boers Shot a Cape Pollemaan Who Had Surrendered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, writing from Middelburg, Cape Colony, says that within the last two days the Boers have approached nearer to Cape Town, either to obtain fresh horses or to revenge themselves on the Dutch farmers who have not supported them as they were expected to do. In the northeast district, a commandant Fouché and sixty men, leaving the main body, made a raid last Saturday to Miling siding. The raiders blew up a few yards of track and shot in cold blood a Cape policeman who had surrendered. Fouché has since returned to the neighborhood of Jamestown. A patrol of district mounted troops was worsted on Monday by an insignificant force of the enemy.

MISS STONE IS WELLED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Sofia, Bulgaria correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser, writes from Bucharest: Gregory Tellek, Albanian missionary and husband of Miss Tellek, Miss Stone's companion, has arrived at Sofia. He said: "I have received a letter from my wife saying that Miss Stone and herself are well and that the first they have known that liberators were not to be speedy. The brigands are satisfied with their captures and in no hurry. Frequently they get to eat something like bologna sausage. The letter says that Miss Stone's accented horseback life has enabled her to bear the brigand regime well. The words 'the earth' are written where the name of the place whence the letter came should be. But the Turkish officials at Raoul, Macedonia, have had information about the captives right along."

MONCTON BOY'S FREAK.

MONCTON, Nov. 15.—A boy named McLeod, pupil at the Victoria school, created a mild sensation this morning by telling a story of being shot in the back by a vicious looking stranger, presumably a tramp. The boy has a bullet wound in his arm and his clothing was burned. The police set an investigation on foot and after hearing the boy's story arrived at the conclusion that he had shot himself. He had trouble with his teacher and it is supposed he committed the act to create sympathy.

AN OPIUM SMUGGLER.

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 15.—H. Ferguson Watson, alias Henry Ferguson, has been found guilty of piracy and that he admitted that during the past five years he had smuggled 9,000 pounds of opium, valued at $70,000, which he delivered at Tacoma, from which point the stuff was taken to Portland. He also swore that there was an organized gang of smugglers at Puget Sound, with headquarters at Victoria, where a Chinaman is in charge.

M. SANTOS-DUMONT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Herald says M. Santos-Dumont is bringing to a close negotiations with the Prince of Monaco's engineers for the construction of an aerodrome below the city of Monaco on ground bordering on the boulevard de La Condamine. The superficial area of the bay is about 300,000 square metres. Whenever the weather permits the aeronauts will leave the bay and carry their experiments out over the Mediterranean.

CANADIAN REVENUE.

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—The ordinary revenue of the Dominion for the four months ended Oct. 31, exceeded the expenditure by $5,371,117. On the other hand the capital expenditure amounts to $1,668,070, so that the net surplus would be $3,703,047.

FROST AND SNOW.

Unprecedented Weather in Great Britain—Damage on Newfoundland—Snow in New York.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The gale has been succeeded by frost and snow of unprecedented severity so early in the season. Ten and fifteen degrees of frost are common, while the snow on the northern hills is seriously impeding railroad traffic and is causing the rivers to overflow. Hundreds of sheep have been drowned in the neighboring meadows. The lakes in the London parks are covered with ice.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 15.—A terrible gale moved along the coast last night, and it is feared that many fatalities have occurred among the fishery vessels. The lakes in the London parks are covered with ice.

QUEBENSTOWN, Nov. 15.—The White Star line steamer Cymric, which has arrived here from New York, reports having encountered terrific adverse gales.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 15.—During a snow storm of five hours, ending about ten o'clock last night, four inches fell. The wind velocity reached 32 miles per hour in the city and much higher at Charlotte-on-Lake. For several hours the car service was suspended.

GERMAN MILITARY SAVAGERY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Berlin correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times reports an address given at the graves of Lieut. Blaskovitz, who was killed in a duel which he did not want to fight, but which the military court of honor insisted he should fight. The preacher entered a protest against "the spirit of slavery" at will not manipulate itself from the degrading bonds of antiquated medieval prejudices. Supt. Gemmet said he expected to be harshly criticised by some army officers, but, on the other hand, many, including men of high rank, would acknowledge the justice of what he said. He declared that dueling was no longer supported by the sympathy of the nation or the army, remarking that there was an outbreak of indignation at every fresh case.

REMARKABLE CANCER CURE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—According to the London representative of the Journal and Advertiser, the Onlooker contains an account of a most remarkable cure of cancer, which medical circles are eagerly discussing. It says the cure was discovered by the case of Lady Margaret Masham, sister of the Earl of Romney. Lady Margaret became so ill that her throat nearly closed, and she was expected to be administered artificially, and her death was expected in about a week, when a friend prescribed the use of fresh green violet leaves. The suggestion was followed. Relief was immediate. The large, hard external tumor disappeared, and in a week all pain had ceased, and the cancerous growth in the throat disappeared in a fortnight.

DAMAGED BY EARTHQUAKE.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 15.—A special report from Rickfield, Sevier county, states that the damage to property in that county from the recent earthquake will amount to almost $100,000. Scarcely a building escaped injury of some kind. The Morrison tabernacle at Rickfield was damaged to the extent of $2,000. In many parts of the country landslides have occurred, blocking railroads, changing the course of streams and causing general disorder.

CONFESSED AND DIED.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Nov. 15.—Before going to the scaffold, Joseph Keith, who was hanged here at an early hour this morning for the murder of Miss Nora Kiefer, made a confession of his guilt. The confession he addressed to Keith's wife. He said Nora Kiefer annoyed him much, and fearing her, he put the girl out of the way for the sake of his wife.

MR. TARTÉ'S FRIENDS.

The Montreal Witness has given offence to Mr. Bourassa. It has advocated the sending of a third Canadian contingent to South Africa. Les Debats, a violently anti-British Sunday paper, published in Montreal, and which is said to express the views of Mr. Bourassa, has attacked the Witness and declared that Canada has neither men nor money to fight women and children, plunder towns and burn farms. The same paper calls on the French-Canadians to withhold their money from Father Lacombe, the Northwest missionary because English is taught in the schools in the west. In fact it is stated that Les Debats and Le Pioneer continue week after week to publish articles intended to inflame the prejudices of French-Canadians against England and English-speaking Canadians. This is a kind of Sunday work that may well attract the attention of more than the members of the League Day Alliance in this British colony.

TIRED OF FREE TRADE.

The London Times advocates the re-implication of a duty on wheat. It also published in an issue a letter from Sir Bernhard Samuelson, an old liberal and free trader, who advocates a tariff for revenue. He suggests a general duty of ten per cent on imported manufactures, and 71-2 per cent on articles of food and drink which are now exempt from taxation, while raw materials should be left untouched.

"No doubt," says the Times, "under arrangements of this kind it would be easier to make compact and concessions in dealing with the colonies and foreign countries, and the reasons in favor of such a system are greatly strengthened by the development in modern policy of trusts, which possess the power of flooding the British market, for a time at least, with goods which are sold below cost price in order to cheapen production and maintain remunerative trade in their home markets."

HON. MR. POSTER SPEAKS.

The following observations made by Hon. Geo. E. Foster at a political meeting in Ontario last Saturday will be read with interest by the forgers of the Rothesay lists:

"You are not free in this province," said Mr. Foster. "If a man attempting to enter the polling booth and deposit his ballot in the interests of the country were met by a bludgeon or an armed soldier, there would be a revolution. Does it matter whether it is an armed soldier sent by the government to do it, or whether it is the means and methods of the machine, put on at the instance of the government which fairly beats the will of the elector? Does it make any difference? It does. You met the soldier you would see the gleam of the bayonet and hear the sound of the bullet, but it is the silent, insidious, secret mechanism you do not see, and if you are a partisan you will not believe it if it is told you. You don't see it and you don't rise in revolution. There is a wrong to be made right in this country of ours. (Cheers.) I don't care whether it is the employer who puts force on his employee or the dealer with his insidious temptations of pelf or money, or the thief who steals the ballot, or the incendiary who burns it. The one is just as bad as the other."

THE POPE AND HALL CAINE.

The delay of Pope Leo XIII. to put Hall Caine's novel, "The Eternal City," upon the Index Expurgatorius is thus commented upon by a writer in the New York Times:—Pope Leo XIII. evidently has no intention of placing "The Eternal City" upon the Index Expurgatorius. Several conclusions may be drawn from this fact. In a recent edict of the Vatican the Holy Father expressed the wish "to soften the severity of the ancient rules heretofore governing the Congregation of the Index." This may have saved Mr. Caine's novel from becoming notorious among Catholic readers. Or, it may be that the Pope, who of late years has become an eager student of the philosophy of fame, has come to the conclusion that the prohibition upon which the "Index" was founded nowadays works contrary to intention, and that the aforesaid congregation has it within its power to arouse curiosity in quarters which otherwise might never hear of the novel.

A plan to spread knowledge in the Southern States is being discussed in New York city. The central idea of the scheme, says a recent letter, is that energetic efforts shall be instituted in the South at once for the spread of educational propaganda among the people of that section. The purpose will be to interest the Southern people in the minds of those not possessing it a zeal for knowledge. To accomplish this to be circulated, and missionary work of a progressive character is to be undertaken. In carrying out the designs of this new organization it is planned to expend the sum of $40,000 annually for two years.

CHURCH-GOING ON THE WANE.

Pastor Declares That Multitudes Spend Sunday in Recreation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Rev. Dr. Rainford, in the year book of St. George's church, says: "There is a steady though slow falling away in the attendance of our Sunday evening congregations." This lessening of interest in Sunday services Dr. Rainford traces to a general change in Sunday observance, of which he writes:

"Multitudes of men—good men and good citizens—who used to come to church more or less regularly, now spend Sunday in outdoor recreation of one sort or another. There has been a lamentable increase of social entertainment on Sunday, and this among a class that have absolutely no excuse for making this misuse of the Lord's day, for they have plenty of leisure the other six days of the week to entertain as much as they choose. By using the seventh day for such purposes, they overlook their servants and they add to the strain and stress of life. They generally neglect their children, if they have any, and, consciously or unconsciously, they take away somewhat from the respect and quiet that are more needed by our best generations than ever before."

To meet these unfavorable conditions Dr. Rainford urges improvement in church organization and the employment of every possible means to reach the young and hold them.

KNOCKED OUT BY LANKY BOB.

Jack McAuliffe, Loser of Impromptu Battle Fought With "Fitz."

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Lanky "Bob" Fitzsimmons and "Jack" McAuliffe fought to a finish Tuesday night in the billiard room at Supper's hotel in Bath Beach. The fight was not advertised, and there were neither gloves nor gate receipts. McAuliffe was put to sleep in the first round, which lasted about 90 seconds.

The trouble began, it is said, during a game of pool. McAuliffe, it is said, was railing at Fitzsimmons, and among other things told him he could not remember the year he landed at Coney Garden. Fitzsimmons lost his temper and retorted by telling McAuliffe that he could not whip one side of a yellow dog and that he was the cheapest kind of a "looking glass fighter."

This was too much for McAuliffe, who delivered a right swing with his billiard cue. Fitz got in an uppercut with a beer bottle, which happened to be within reach, and which proved to be a most effective weapon at short range. McAuliffe is still under a physician's care.

THE J. B. VANDUSEN LOST.

The schooner J. B. Vandusen was wrecked and sunk off Cape Cod on Monday. Her crew were taken off by the schooner Ann Louie Lockwood.

The J. B. Vandusen attained considerable notoriety two years ago on account of the murder of her master, Captain George A. Baisley by Elmer Maxwell, of Sackville, one of the crew.

The murder took place in the Bay of Fundy, where the vessel was on a passage from St. John, N. B., to Boston, November 11, 1899. Maxwell was arrested a few days afterwards and brought to this city. The following day he was tried in the United States circuit court and convicted on the charge of manslaughter. He was sentenced May 19, 1900, to eight years in the state prison at Thomaston, and fined $1. Maxwell set up a plea of self-defense, which was not accepted by the court. He was taken to Thomaston on the day that the sentence was imposed.

SCHOONERS IN TROUBLE.

The woodboat Comrade, owned by C. T. White and commanded by Fred. Tuttle was Wednesday driven ashore against the breakwater, and somewhat disabled. She drifted in the mouth of the harbor, where she now lies in a perilous position. The Comrade is loaded with lumber from Apple River for St. John.

The schooner Annie E. Rickerson, which arrived here on Wednesday, struck on Gull Rock bar, near Westport, Tuesday morning, and was abandoned. She was rescued by Capt. Colin Thompson, who with a crew of Westport men, brought her to St. John. She was yesterday put on the blocks. Capt. Thompson arranged with the captain of the vessel to take the Rickerson to a place of safety for $300, and this is the claim he makes for bringing her here.

DEATH OF MAJOR ANDERSON.

CALAIS, Nov. 14.—Major Orrin H. Anderson, who was well known in this city and in Milltown where he formerly resided, died at an early hour Wednesday morning at his home in Red Beach at the ripe age of 79 years. Major Anderson was born in the province of New Brunswick, but came to Maine at an early age, taking up his residence in Calais or Milltown, in the year 1831 when the Civil war was begun and Maine was called upon for volunteers for the defence of the union. Orrin H. Anderson was among those who responded and he was assigned to Company A, First Maine Light Artillery. In July, 1865, he was honorably discharged after a continuous service of nearly four years, and again took up his residence in Milltown, engaging in the occupation of wheelwright.

REV. J. W. FALCONER.

Of Rev. J. W. Falconer, of Truro, who has been called to Fort Massey church, Halifax, the Recorder says:—"Rev. J. W. Falconer is well known as a brilliant preacher, a faithful pastor, and a young man who has cleared a high position in the councils of the church by reason of his acknowledged scholarly attainments. He has travelled quite extensively, and pursued his arts and theological training in the country, Edinburgh and Germany. He has been a settled pastor now for some eight or nine years. Rev. Professor Falconer, of the Presbyterian college Halifax, is a brother, their father being Rev. A. Falconer, of Pictou, formerly of Trinidad and Dartmouth."

REV. W. O. RAYMOND'S LECTURE
On Early English Settlements in New Brunswick.

The period covered by Rev. W. O. Raymond's fourth lecture in the New Brunswick history course began at the end of the French regime and ended with the close of the revolutionary war. Mr. Raymond dealt principally with the colonies on the St. John river and at its mouth, though he made brief reference to the trading operations on the Miramichi, the Swansco colony at Sackville, the German settlement at Chapeau, and Owen's edifice at Campbellville. The greater part of the lecture was devoted to an account of the life and times of Messrs. Simonds, Hazen and White, early traders and settlers at Port au Port. Those who have read Mr. Raymond's interesting papers in the early numbers of the New Brunswick Magazine will have a fair idea of the operations which he described in his interesting talk last evening.

Dr. Alward presided and the attendance was even larger than on previous evenings. It was announced that the remaining lectures of the course would be postponed for a time, as circumstances have arisen which may for the present interfere with Mr. Raymond's regular engagements. The audience expressed their appreciation of the lectures by a hearty vote of thanks.

COURT LOYALIST ANNIVERSARY.

The eighteenth anniversary of Court Loyalist, I. O. O. F., one of the largest and most active courts in the jurisdiction, was celebrated in royal style last evening by a hearty supper of oysters and other viands served in their rooms after the regular meeting. Court Deputy W. J. S. Myles presided, and after an opening address by E. T. Chapman, H. C. H., gave a brief historical sketch of the court, after which Dr. Grey gave an interesting account of its foundation. During the evening brief addresses were given by Bros. Thomas McSwaters, D. Oram, Frank Siddons, Samuel Thorne, James Andrews and others. A number of songs added to the enjoyment of the evening, among the contributors being Bro. W. J. Cox and J. Kemp.

RAMBLES THROUGH LONDON.

Before a large audience in the vestry of German Street Baptist church, last evening, a lecture on Rambles through London was given by Mrs. S. McC. Black. The address consisted of a series of graphic descriptions of the varied scenes of natural and historic interest in the world's metropolis, as viewed by Mrs. Black during her trip abroad last summer. Her descriptions, cleverly given, were enlivened by numerous anecdotes from the speaker's experience, and were illustrated by lime light views exhibited by Mr. Farron. The whole lecture was one of intense interest, and was heard with eager attention throughout.

NO POLITICIAN NEED APPLY.

He declared this policy to Clinton Rodgers Woodruff, of Philadelphia, of the National Civil Service Reform League. Mr. Woodruff is chairman of the committee on dependencies and called to ascertain what the president's policy would be. President Roosevelt told him in the most emphatic manner that absolutely no appointments in the insular possessions would be dictated or controlled by political considerations.

PORTLANDS STEAMSHIP BUSINESS.

(Portland Press.)

The information was given out yesterday that the Thomson line which has been scheduled for one boat a week from Portland during this winter would run only one steamship every two weeks. This change is due to the lack of freight and the very low rates for carrying and will mean the loss of considerable work at this port from now until next spring. This decrease is not a discrimination against the city as low rates are small freights are at present the rule all over the country.

Don't forget that it is time to send in your Union Blend Tea keys.

MAJOR MCBRIDE. Advises Americans to Put Their Money in Guns to Arm the Irish for the First Opportunity.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—Major McBride, of the Irish Transvaal Brigade, interviewed in regard to the programme for the presentation of a sword and address to him by a committee of Irishmen, said that it would be a demonstration that Ireland refuses to tamper any longer with parliamentarism, which is played out, besides being a useless and expensive farce.

"The Irish in Ireland and America," he said, "have made more of me than I deserved in clubs and at dances, etc., and named associations after me as though I had already been enrolled in the pantheon of Irish martyrs. The reason is that they have taken me for a living symbol of open and honest opposition to English misrule, which is depopulating Ireland faster than the concentration camps are depopulating South Africa.

"As opposed to the wordy humbugs who are spouting at the expense of America's dollars in Westminster, let me put my dollars into a sinking fund to arm the Irish for the first opportunity rather than throw them into the parliamentary gutter.

"I advocate open and frank hostility when it is possible. Till then there should be steady preparation. Already, thanks to Maudie Conne, they have stopped recruiting. The next step will be the transfer of Irishmen who must fight to the ranks of the European powers which are most likely first to meet England.

"A movement is on foot, but I am unable to say more just now. Peasants on Monday I may speak more fully. That depends upon the opinions of the other chiefs. But this much I may say—Ireland is awake and preparing."

COMMERCIAL. LEADERS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Mr.—hypocritical criticisms from facile sources are constantly indulging in condemnation of British treatment of the Boers. And, indeed, such criticisms are largely induced by English vanity of desire to pose upon a moral pedestal. It might be said, in this connection, that English people will have to awaken to the fact that they will need to be much stronger than they are before they can afford to assume such a position. But, certainly, an unusual stand is taken by those among the English who join in the condemnation emanating from foreign interests. In no war have individuals that aided the enemy been spared from spoliation. To come to a recent great war, that of the rebellion in this country, as an instance, Sherman and Sheridan burnt and destroyed everything before them on the march, and were execrated in so doing because it hastened the ending of the war.

A Southern woman of prominence and much character, and zeal for her country, as an instance, Sherman and Sheridan burnt and destroyed everything before them on the march, and were execrated in so doing because it hastened the ending of the war.

After hearing evidence the Magistrate held that Dr. Price was Without Blame.

Continuing his evidence yesterday afternoon in the matter of the report against Dr. Price, Dr. Morris stated that he would not say Mrs. Alward was recovering from smallpox, although her appearance resembled a person in that condition.

Dr. Price said that he had been called to see Mrs. Alward on Oct. 24. He found her suffering from pneumonia and treated her for it.

The magistrate said that the Board of Health had acted wisely in reporting the matter, but that, according to the evidence given there could be no charge against Dr. Price for not reporting smallpox when no such disease existed.

Dr. Scammell gave evidence supporting Dr. Price, and Dr. Stockton asked that the case be dismissed.
