CARVELL IN FIGHTING TRIM

Denounces Government for Interference in Western Elections---Tells What Defeat of Reciprocity Cost.

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—Parliament's sitting was electric, and at times disorderly this afternoon. F. B. Carvell, the forceful, plain spoken New Brunswicker, whose deadly sting has already disposed of one of the Goliaths of the Borden administration, in the person of Mr. Morine, the deposed "commissioner" directed his missiles at the minister of public works.

Hon. Robert Rogers cut a sorry figure and beat a hasty retreat from the house, while the Liberals vigorously called for him to "come back and take your medicine."

"Without a doubt, he, the minister of public works, is charged with being the archpriest of all the electoral tyranny and debauchery that went on," declared Mr. Carvell, amid Liberal cheers.

A roar of laughter greeted Mr. Rogers as he rose to leave the house.

"Hold on," said Mr. Carvell, in an effort to stay his exit. "I do not want the minister to leave. I have a few words to say to him."

But Mr. Rogers evidenced his conviction that discretion was the better part of valor. He vanished amid renewed Liberal laughter.

"I wanted to tell the minister," proceeded Mr. Carvell deliberately, "that when he told this house a few moments ago that he had a series of other affidavits to defend the MacDonald election which he would submit to the house some other time, he was putting up one of the biggest bluffs of his career. He has not got them, and he knows he has not."

Mr. Carvell wasted no time on preliminaries. In his opening sentence he scoured the minister for furnishing an exhibition which had disgraced his position. There was blow, bluster and threat with no semblance of argument. He had read affidavits which he knew would never be accepted in law—all hearsay. The opponents had testified that the half-breeds had told them that certain parties had offered them money. He also read the affidavit of a half-breed, "but," added Mr. Carvell bluntly, "he didn't tell us how much the half-breed got for giving the minister that affidavit."

Mr. Carvell directly accused Mr. Rogers of responsibility. The minister of public works was himself the archpriest of the whole system of tyranny and debauchery. Under his aegis methods had been adopted which would not be tolerated in Russia.

Mr. Carvell dealt with the proposed bill of the government to extend the Northwest Mounted Police by adding a system of plain-clothes men. Was it the purpose of the minister of public works to seek to sully the good name of this splendid force by thus trying to extend the Manitoba system throughout the whole of western Canada? He paid a glowing tribute to the Northwest Mounted Police. No crime had ever occurred which was not traced by them, and throughout all of their record-breaking animals they had proudly worn his majesty's uniform. What need of plain-clothes men now but for the minister's designs?

"They will become," said Mr. Carvell, "mere gunmen for the minister of public works. He has read us affidavits from two of his gunmen. As well read evidence from Gip the Blood or Dago Frank on Lefty Louis who, like the hirelings of the Robt'n government, merely carry out the orders of their chiefs. And yet, Mr. Rogers has the nerve to say that this organized attempt of the Tory government of Manitoba abetted and engineered by him with the object of driving every Liberal worker out of the constituency, was a smashing defeat for reciprocity. We will give this thing such an airing that it will never happen again, and no such desperate attempt to throttle the free expression of free men will again be tolerated."

When Hon. W. T. White declared in the commons on Tuesday that the Liberals were afraid to resurrect their trade of policy prior to the election of 1911, and challenged them to declare whether or not they wished to still make it an issue, he let loose a boomerang that came back today with telling effect.

Mr. Carvell effectually resurrected

the issue, declared in unmistakable terms where the Liberals stood upon it, promised that the fight on the Liberal side would continue, and coupled with it, while the government benches sat visibly uncomfortable and silent, a declaration of Liberal belief in the policy of a further expansion of the British preference and in every other form of tariff relief that would make for the relief both of producers and consumers from restricted markets and high cost of living.

It was a notable utterance, and was cheered to the echo by every Liberal in the house.

After discussing the MacDonald by-election issue, Mr. Carvell went on to refer to the trade issue raised in the speech from the throne. According to the minister of finance, he said, relief for the turning down of the agreement with the United States was to be found in the hope of larger trade with the West Indies and Australia. But Canada's total trade with these countries was but a drop in the bucket compared with daily increasing trade with the United States.

Every day Canada, despite the tariff, was sending $1,000,000 worth of products across the line. Mr. White had sought to drag the reciprocity question into the debate. He was living in the glory of holy Toronto, where he was surrounded by his manufacturing magnates, his bankers and his railway friends. Apparently he thought the question of reciprocity could be made useful to the Tory again.

"Let me tell him," said Mr. Carvell, "that from my standpoint and the standpoint of millions of people in Canada reciprocity has paid economically in September, 1911, it is good economically today and it will be good economically always. He is living in a fool's paradise. With all the money of the manufacturers and the transportation magnates money and the American money and the British Unionist money he cannot again defeat reciprocity as he did a year ago."

"He cannot do what Mr. Rogers charged Sir Wilfrid Laurier with doing; he can't raise one penny in Quebec and another in Ontario. He cannot again join together the Nationalists of Quebec and the management of Ontario. He and his friends are now in power and must be on guard for consistency. He will find that he cannot crucify the leader of the opposition in Ontario because he is Roman Catholic and in Quebec because he is too British."

The minister, he talks about Liberals having one policy in one part of the country and another policy in another part of the country. I tell him that we want to resurrect reciprocity and we want to resurrect more than that, we want to resurrect the British preference. We want to resurrect any policy that means cheaper food for the laboring classes of Canada. We want to resurrect any policy that will afford us a chance to discuss whatever will make for better economic conditions and a reduction in the cost of living in this country.

"The minister of finance, surrounded by his followers, intoxicated with his own importance, grandiloquently asked: 'What have we lost by the rejection of reciprocity?' We have lost power, but we did not lose honor, and in the rejection of reciprocity we Canadians have lost money and lost it by the millions."

Mr. Carvell then went on to point out some instances of the lost millions. One man, George Lane, a western cattle dealer, had himself lost between $40,000 and $50,000 on this year's transactions of cattle shipped to Chicago. The farmers of the west lost millions of dollars last year by reason of the impossibility of marketing their wheat at any price, let alone the loss through not obtaining the higher prices ruling in the American market. During the last three months between 200 and 300 carloads of cattle were shipped from the western part of Ontario to the United States. Over $100,000 was paid in duties on these shipments, representing a loss to the Ontario cattle raisers. Quebec and the maritime provinces last year paid on hay shipments alone $2,672,000 in duties to the American treasury.

The W.C.T.U. held a sale of fancy goods in the I.O.F. Hall on Wednesday evening which proved a success from a financial point of view and otherwise. Music was furnished throughout the evening by phonograph. A tasty lunch was served and all expressed themselves as being well pleased with the results of the evening.

A horse shed has just been completed at the Primitive Baptist church. This shed will accommodate about ten teams and will be much appreciated by the horses which formerly were kept out in the storm.

Mrs. Gray and family who came to the village last spring has returned to Cabano, Que., where they formerly resided. During their stay here they made many friends who were very sorry to lose them.

Mrs. Foss is spending a few days at Edradon visiting friends before removing to Boston where she will in future make her home.

Michael Welsh who has been very ill for several weeks has so far recovered as to be out driving Saturday last.

Oak Boyer spent last week hunting on the Tobique. He succeeded in capturing a fine deer.

Owing to the departure of Mrs. Foss the Library of the Bristol Book and Literary Club has been moved to the home of Mrs. Geo. Caldwell. Meetings of the Club are held on the first and third Monday of each month at the homes of the members. Preparations are now being made for a public entertainment on Dec. 16.

Miss Augusta and Georgia Oser were the guests of Mrs. Albert Jones on Sunday.

Mrs. John Hill, Jr., was visiting Mrs. John and James Crabb last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Chas. Wallace who has been spending a few days at Avondale with her daughter, Mrs. S. G. Barter, returned home Friday. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Barter.

Mrs. Daniel Coughlin is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Hill were guests of Mrs. John Hill on Sunday.

Mrs. Maud Wallace spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Harvey Jones.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of our much esteemed friend, Mrs. George Knox of Knoxford, and are sure Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wallace have our sincerest sympathy in the death of their daughter, also can sympathize with the brothers and sisters.

We were sorry to learn of the illness of our friend, Mrs. Stephen Fowler, of Carlisle. Hope for a speedy recovery.

As I am a correspondent to the Observer will say I was glad to see the letter taking the part of the Go-Frenchers and will say that I for one agree with residents of Highgate for it was just as we found them in our vicinity; saw no way to condemn them and if they are right there is something for some one to do. We trust they are true servants of God, as we need some one of that stamp in our neighborhood as well as lots of other places that cannot afford to hire an up-to-date preacher now-a-days.

Our school is progressing fine under the skilful management of Miss Mary Fleming of Scotch Lake.

Middle Simonds.

Mrs. Thomas Waugh of East Florenceville was the guest of Mrs. Ed. and Ebbett on Thursday.

The W.C.T.U. met at the home of Mrs. Scott Sippell on Thursday. A large number of the members were present. After the opening exercises the ladies began making and filling comfort-bags for the Sailors and Seamen's Mission.

A nice lunch was afterwards served by Mrs. Sippell.

The ladies of the Union manifest great interest in trying to instil a temperance spirit in the village and to uphold purity in life.

The meetings are both helpful and interesting and afford an opportunity for doing much good.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Nixon, the subject being "Lumbermen." The Union was unable to obtain a missionary to go among them this year. They have decided to send them suitable literature. All members or friends who have books or papers or Bible readings are requested to bring or send what they can to Mrs. Nixon's on Dec. 12.

VanWart-Tarney.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. W. Knox, Bowdoin St., Houlton, Me., on Nov. 28, Miss Lucy G. VanWart was married to Rev. Joseph Byron Tarney by Rev. F. Clarke Hartley, pastor of the Free Baptist church. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives of the bride being present. The bride, becomingly attired in satin-faced miter, and chignon trimmings with train, and with pearl ornaments, carried a beautiful bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Knox, as matron of honor, who was handsomely powned in brown and green changeable silk with brown velvet trimmings. Mendelsohn's Wedding March was played by Miss Louise Buzzell. The bride party stood beneath the chandelier with a background of potted plants. At 2.45, when the ceremony began the lights were turned on and the effect was very pretty. After congratulations the party repaired to the dining room which was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums. During the course of dinner telegrams were read from the Central Square church and Sunday school of Fall River, Mass., in which the groom is an active worker, extending congratulations. At 5.50 the party left by train for Boston. The bride's going away dress was of maroon whipcord and hat to match.

The bride received many handsome and valuable gifts from her host of friends. That of the groom was a handsome crescent of pearls; that of the matron of honor a beautiful chain and pendant set with pearls and amethysts.

Mrs. Tarney, the youngest daughter of the late Rev. T. S. VanWart, for a number of years resided in Hartland, and was born in Somerville. She has many friends here. Early last summer she graduated from Dr. Macy's hospital at Cambridge, Mass., as a trained nurse. The groom is assistant pastor of the Congregational church at Fall River, Mass.

An Enterprising Firm.

Stevens Bros. the well known Woodstock Druggists have taken into the firm their younger brother J. Chesley Stevens and have purchased the stock fixtures and good will in trade of G. C. Richardson, Druggist of Centreville.

J. C. Stevens took charge of this branch on Dec. 2 and will endeavour to attend to the wants of the people in that vicinity in an obliging manner. Mr. Stevens is a registered druggist and a graduate of the lecture course of the Ohio College of Pharmacy.

Stevens Bros. will follow the same fixed policy of business as in the Woodstock Store; that is: honest value for your money and will no doubt be able to largely increase the business in the drug line at Centreville.

HARTLAND AND WOODSTOCK

XMAS

This season finds us better fitted than ever to supply the wants of Christmas Givers. We have learned in the course of years just what the local trade demands, and it is our pride that we carry the Largest Assortment of High Grade Goods in Carleton county, or in any place outside of the cities of the Provinces. This is a fact thoroughly well known to those who have visited our store in former seasons. We often are told that the equal of our Christmas stock is not seen anywhere this side of Boston, Montreal or Toronto.

Is this an idle boast, think you? It is not, let us assure you. We challenge anyone to dispute that a more elaborate showing of high class goods for Christmas giving can be found in any single store in this province. This being true will it not be to your advantage to trade here?

CANDIDATES URGED TO GET COUPONS.

Now is the Time to Get Votes Off the Merchants—All Candidates Make Big Gains.

Candidates in the Piano Contest are strongly urged to distribute the purchase coupons among their friends and coax, urge and plead with them to spend their Xmas money at the stores that give the Coupons. It is very easy to get votes in this way. The best plan is to distribute the coupons among friends and implore them to assist by presenting the coupons to any of the merchants they buy from and getting the amount of purchase properly marked and the coupon countersigned. The coupons should then be sent to us. Candidates would do well to make a point of collecting the coupons they have distributed among their friends after allowing a reasonable time for the purchases to be made.

It will be noticed Mrs. Armstrong still leads. She deserves to win the Piano. But there is no earthly reason why other candidates should not do as well. The ground Mrs. Armstrong has been working was already pretty well covered by The Observer, while there are sections of Carleton and Victoria counties where the paper is hardly known that candidates would do well to canvass. No candidate can expect to win who confines their effort to one locality. We are looking for Miss Dickinson to make a big leap ahead. She will do it if her friends will rally round her. Be sure and ask for coupons when making purchases at any of these stores:

Baird's, Hartland.
S. W. Smith's 2 stores, Mount Pleasant, East Florenceville.
Mrs. C. A. Phillips, Bristol.
Bohan & Co. Bath.
C. M. Sherwood, Centreville.
Belyea Bros., Coldstream.

To every reader of The Observer we commend these stores as having in stock at rock-bottom prices all the needs for Christmas shoppers. If you have a favorite among the candidates don't fail to ask for a coupon when you buy a cent's or ten dollars' worth. Then send us the coupon direct or deliver it to the candidate. You can make the candidate no better Xmas present than a good-sized coupon.

The standing of candidates on Monday was as follows:
Mrs. Arthur Armstrong 113,000
Myrtle Dickinson 81,035
Mrs. Harry Sewell 31,660
Ellis Carmichael 16,000
Lizzie Wiley 7,000

Record Railroad Construction will cause British Columbia to be the scene of greatest development in Western Canada during the next decade. Premier McBride says will be spent in British Columbia between now and the end of 1915.

$100,000,000.00

Fort George

Is in the centre of this great development

All lots in Central Fort George were sold in sixty days. Other Additions have been put in since. These are going rapidly.

Lots may be had from one hundred and fifty dollars each—Double Corners, three hundred and twenty-five, payments $10 per month per lot or 10 per cent discount for cash.

Now is the time to buy, before the railroads get there. Those who invested in Fort George one or two years ago have already made big profits, but the growing time is ahead.

If you have a few or many dollars to invest is the place to put it. I can sell you lots in town sites from St. John to Vancouver, but I believe Fort George is the surest and quickest money maker.

Reduced in Flesh Sleepless Nights

Kidney Disease and Gravel Caused Keenest Suffering—Cured by
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Mr. W. Smith.

That disease of the kidneys cause the greatest suffering is well known, and when stone or gravel is formed in the bladder the torture is almost beyond human endurance. The disease should never be allowed to reach this dangerous stage. Pains in the small of the back, pain or smarting when passing water, frequent urination, loss of flesh and weight (all of the need of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to regulate and invigorate the kidneys and restore these organs to health.

Mr. W. Smith, Port Dalhousie, Ont., writes:—"For some years I was afflicted with kidney disease and gravel in its most severe form, having often a sharp pain of water, accompanied by the most dreadful agony. As the disease wore on me I became reduced in flesh and passed sleepless nights. No doctor was able to do much for me, and I used many medicines without obtaining more than temporary relief. My attention was directed to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and by using this treatment the disease was eradicated from my system in less than six months. I have gained in weight, sleep well, and feel better than I have for twenty years."

Carvell in Fighting Trim.

The farmers of Quebec and the maritime provinces were at the present time losing from $4 to $5 a ton because they could not get the higher American price. In fish duties during the last year there had been paid $1,081,000 on laths and shingles over $250,000, all representing loss to the pockets of the Canadian electors.

To offset this nothing had been gained. The railways still had to haul produce to the south and the very first act of the government after it came into power was to go on their knees to the Yankees and beg for a preferential rate on wheat over their railways.

"I would not be surprised," said Mr. Carvell, "if we find the minister of finance himself going to Washington before the next election and trying to secure a reciprocal trade agreement there. It would be the best policy that Canada could adopt outside of an increase in the British preference."

After instancing the increase of 25 per cent in the Canadian exports of paper to the United States this year following the removal of the American duty, and noting other items on which similar increases would undoubtedly result if the trade restrictions were removed, Mr. Carvell concluded, amid resounding Liberal cheers, by turning towards the minister of finance and saying: "I thank him for resurrecting reciprocity."

LETTER FROM TEXAS.

Former Hartland Business Writes
Interestingly.

DEAR EDITOR: We are always glad to get the "Observer," as we regard it as a letter from home—in fact it is sent regularly to us through the loving kindness of home folk.

Am always glad to read the interesting letters written from Forsythe, Georgia, by Mr. Mallory. Have been reading them for years first in the "Carleton Sentinel" and later in your publication, and I always find them instructive, well written articles. Mr. Mallory's description of Georgia climate and products is good. The writer has passed through Forsythe several times but never has stopped off there. Am better acquainted around and in Atlanta and Savannah, Ga., and on in Jacksonville and points south in Florida. Mr. Mallory's description of the costumes that are now in vogue with the women in Georgia holds good in Texas only more so. It is a fright if it's not a shame.

This is the beginning of winter in southwest Texas, and today the temperature is 67° in the shade. Our fall months and spring months are particularly beautiful, not too warm or too cold, simply comfortable and grand. The hot summer does get a little tiresome at times, but the beautiful fall and winter makes up for it. The writer finds after experience in both north and south Texas that the south has the better climate.

We get cool breezes off the Gulf of Mexico which makes sleeping a comfort through the hot summer months. Am writing these notes from the city of Laredo which is situated on the bank of the Rio Grande river, which as you know, is the boundary between U.S.A. and old Mexico. Laredo is the home of fre

Bermuda Onion. One man told me today that he handled 1500 carloads of the last crop. Shipment usually begins in March. They have also taken up the culture of cantaloupes quite extensively and they are turning out fine. Being on the market earlier than the Colorado product they command good prices. Ten years ago land sold from four to twenty dollars an acre, now they are holding it for $500 an acre. This land grows practically everything except apples and hard wheat. They can grow soft wheat and grow oats farther up the valley.

The writer frequently goes to Corpus Christi the main sea side resort of southwest Texas, and in some future notes may tell you some of the things to be seen there if you think it would interest you and your readers.

GEO. M. SHAW

San Antonio, Texas.

From Calgary.

DEAR EDITOR: Have been taking your paper for some time, and am very much taken up with it as it contains so much news from home and surrounding places. Have been in Calgary two years. I like it fine here. I have one sister here whom I believe takes the "Observer." My father, mother and two sisters are at Bristol, N. B. They were out here but my father being in very poor health thought the change would do him good so they went east in June last.

We are having a lovely fall and are looking forward to a mild winter. We had a very nasty summer, quite a lot of rain very cold by spells.

Calgary is growing to be a beautiful city. It has many magnificent buildings.

The cost of living is very high. People coming into these western cities think they're coming to a land of money. But they soon get their eyes opened after being here a few weeks. Of course one thing in favor of the people is that wages are good, but property is high unless you take a homestead. We have a homestead ninety-five miles from here, south east, a place called Lone Bank. We will be going on it in April.

Wishing your paper every success.
Yours Truly
Mrs. M. E. LEWIS.

Grade VI.—Frank McAdam, Mabel Morgan, Herbert Rogers, Edna Allen, Jean Miller.

F. E. Robertson, Teacher.

Died of Lockjaw.

Frederick Dickinson, aged 70 years, of Victoria Corner, who had his hand mangled by a threshing machine on Nov. 24 died on Friday, lockjaw having set in. He leaves a widow, two sons, Carey, of Middle Simonds, and Arthur, of the John MacLaughlin Co. Hartland; three daughters, Mrs. D. H. Boyd, of Fort Fairfield, Miss Emma and Ade, at home; two brothers, Randolph, of Canterbury, and Duncan, of Victoria Corner; two sisters, Mrs. Jonathan Brown, of Lower Brighton, and Mrs. George Stewart, of Innis, Me. Deceased was a well-known and highly respected farmer and a member of the United Baptist church. The funeral was held on Sunday, and the services conducted by the Rev. E. C. Jenkins.

Succeeding With Purebred Stock.

Shaw Bros., the enterprising proprietors of Highland Stock Farm at Victoria, found through an ad. in The Observer a ready sale for the purebred Berkshire swine and the Bronze turkeys they had to dispose of. It is the better for having men that make two blades of grass grow where but one previously grew. The country is far better off for having men who succeed in raising purebred stock where scrubs grew before. That is what Shaw Bros. are doing.

Mr. Vince's Funeral.

The funeral of Col. D. McLeod Vince was held at Woodstock on Tuesday from the Baptist church and was largely attended. Rev. A. C. Berris, Rev. Dr. McLeod, of St. John; Rev. Mr. Kennedy, of Houlton, and Rev. R. W. Wendall of the Methodist church here took part in the impressive funeral services. Sheriff Tompkins, J. T. G. Carr, A. B. Connell, Dr. Rankine, Chas. Watson and Donald Munroe were pallbearers. Interment was made at Upper Woodstock.

A Carleton County Fox Farm.

Dr. Rankine, Geo. E. Balmain, George McPhail and J. A. McIsaac of Woodstock and Dr. MacIntosh of Hartland are applying for incorporation as the Gulqueze Fox Ranch Co. for the purpose of operating a fox ranch near Woodstock. It is said they have negotiated for a pair of black foxes from a P. E. I. rancher, and the price to be paid is $14000.

Some Worker for The Observer Gets It Free!

It is made by Willis & Co. of Montreal, the largest Piano concern in Canada. The Company writes: "We will do our best about shipping the Piano and you will certainly have it before Christmas."

$400.00 PIANO CONTEST.

Rules and Regulations.

Any person without restriction may enter this contest—man or woman, boy or girl, anywhere. Each will have an equal chance to get subscribers and thus win votes. The person who wins the most votes will get a beautiful Willis Piano, in a handsome Mahogany case—a piano which always sells for $400. A Gold Watch will be given as a consolation award to the candidate who, failing to win the piano, gets the most votes in the district he or she resides in. The districts are described as follows:

District No. 1—Parishes of Brighton, Peel, Wakefield and Simonds.
District No. 2—Parishes of Aberdeen, Kent, Wicklow and Wilnot.
District No. 3—Parishes of Northampton, Richmond and Woodstock and Woodstock town.
District No. 4—Victoria county.

How to Get Votes.

For every new or renewal subscription to The Observer votes will be given as follows: For one yearly subscriber at 75 cents a year, 1000 votes; for one subscriber at $2.00 for three years, 5000 votes. Those who are now paid into 1913 may pay still further ahead—into 1914 or 1915 if they want to. The rate, remember, is 75 cents for 1 year, $2.00 for three years. Subscribers in the United States must pay $1.00 a year on account of extra postage.

A candidate may secure subscriptions in any or all districts, or anywhere outside.

To become a candidate it is only necessary to fill out the Nomination Blank below and mail it to "The Observer Contest," Hartland, N. B. To REMAIN a candidate it is necessary to increase one's number of votes by 1000—the amount given for one subscriber—each week. No candidate can withdraw in favor of another; votes once cast cannot be changed.

Certain merchants will give voting coupons for cash purchases. A list of them will shortly appear. They will give 5 votes for every cent spent with them.

Every candidate should ask their friends to assist them by paying a few years ahead for The Observer and by securing voting coupons from the merchants.

Below is a subscription blank which may be used, but so long as names and addresses are written plainly and the amount each subscriber has paid is correctly indicated any kind of paper may be used. More blanks will be supplied candidates. The names of old subscribers should be given just as we have them on our books.

Candidates are invited to call at The Observer office. We can offer some helpful suggestion, perhaps. Anyway we want to meet personally each one who enters the contest so that we can be sure of no misunderstanding. Of course it is not absolutely necessary.

Make remittances promptly by postal note, post office order or registered letter. Do not send postage stamps.

No candidate should at any time become discouraged. Always remember that someone will surely get the piano and no one has a favor over another.
