The Silver Jubilee of the Western Fair is being suitably celebrated. The exhibition is a record-breaker in point of exhibits and attractions, and as the noontide of its prosperity approached today there was every assurance that the jubilee year would be marked by the greatest attendance in its history up-to-date.

Yesterday's attendance showed a notable increase over that of the corresponding day last year, the number of people on the grounds being fully 12,-000. The grounds did not appear any more crowded, but the various buildings proved more attractive, and almost all day long the crowd was more than ever distributed throughout the various departments. All, with possibly the exception of the dairy department, were never more worthy of the attention bestowed upon them.

THE RUNNING RACE. Eight horses were started in the running race. In the first heat the horses were bunched, and the start made was a pretty one. Fred Perkins took a lead which he held nearly the entire way, followed closely by Wilrun. In the second heat only three horses got away-Fred Perkins, Yellow Jacket and Wilfrid Laurier. In the afternoon the attendance on the grand stands reached some 5,000 persons, and all were delighted with everything they saw. ## Dairy Hall.

Dairy hall is one of the most refreshing places on the grounds. An appetizing smell of rich, creamy cheeses, which have made Canada famous, pervades the place. Golden butter displayed in crocks and rolls, and rows of delicately browned bread, looking sweet, light and toothsome, make one feel hungry in spite of a full stomach; and when to those are added long rows of delicious looking canned fruits in glass jars, and, joy of joys, a great array of pies-golden custard and rich brown pumpkin, with crisp, melting crusts-one feels that a man might not be blamed much who was satisfied to live to eat.

The butter exhibit is the largest and best ever seen here. The cheese display is rather smaller than usual. One of the most interesting features of this department is the fruit and grain exhibits from the Indian reservations. The Indian has never been considered speeding strong on agriculture, but the events consisted of a five-eighths of a shown this year in(licate a high order

Whatever capital, energy, and long experience can do in producing the best possible instrument, the Karn Piano Company has done. Every part of the instru-ment made by this company is of the best material obtainable, put together by skilled workmen under the strict supervision of experts. This is the secret of the Karn instruments' popularity and this is why Karn Pianos and Karn reed and pipe organs are unexcelled for purity and strength of tone, durability and beauty of design. The Karn reputation is based on the broad foundation of uniform and unsurpassed excellence, and the constant desire on the part of the Karn Company to give their patrons the best. How Hon. John Dryden Was Defeated.

Bribery Fully Proven and the Sitting Member Turned Down.

Whitby, Sept. 14.—Before Mr. Justice Osler and Mr. Justice Ferguson, the trial of the petition presented by J. F. Lambiyn, on behalf of the Reformers of South Ontario, against the return pay. I saw Luke again, and he gave of Charles Calder, elected on March 1 me the $30 in bills. That was the end by a majority of 96 over Hon. John Dryden, the former member for the Dryden, the former member for the riding, was conducted. Counsel in the case were Messrs. C. J. Holman, A. G. Sleight and L. K. Murton for the petitioner, and Messrs. Wallace Nesbitt, W. D. McPherson, T. A. McGillivray and J. B. Dow for the respondent.

In a few words of preliminary explanation. Mr. Holman, said, the electric states of the second states of the second states. planation, Mr. Holman said the election was held on March 1, and Mr. Calder's majority was 96. There was no intention to have a scrutiny. Charge 35 stated that John Lee, of Pickering, and George Hartrick, agents | for Calder for $5, admitted having been of the respondent, pretended to purchase from Joseph Stevenson a small jack-knife or other article and to give him therefor $9, or thereabouts, and also gave him money to vote for the respondent, or to refrain from voting at the said election. This charge is a pretty fair sample of the particulars of the petition. In the bulk of the cases a straight money bribe was alleged to have been given, but one charge is that a pig and a cow were bought at a price beyond their value; another that half a ton of coal was paid for a vote; still another that a general parcel of groceries represented a vote, and finally that a barrel of fish outweighed the scruples of a voter. The price of votes, according to the particulars entered, ranged from $1 to $10, and in cases where an elector carried two sons, $15. The proportion of fives to tens would lead to the belief that the cry "Anything to beat Dryden," had very substantial backing.

CORRUPTION. John Sherin, a voter at Cedardale at last election, gave the first evidence as to corruption. Edwin Baker had called on him and asked him to vote for Mr. Calder, "He called me up to the front room," said Sherin, "and put $2 on a table. He told me that after the election he would give me more, but he never did. (Laughter.) That was on the morning of the election, and after I picked up the bill I went right in with him and voted. Baker did not give me the money out of his own hands; I found it on the table."

A CONFESSION. Mr. E. Baker, the person whom Sherin in his evidence had accused of bribery, was then called. He had been excluded from the court during Sherin's evidence. He said his only duty was to carry voters to the polls. He told of getting a list of Cedardale voters from Secretary Burns; of meeting Mr. Calder during the election on several occasions, and Mr. Wm. Smith, ex-M.P. The latter he met several times and discussed with him the outlook in Cedardale. Baker told Smith the vote in Cedardale needed looking after closely. Mr. Smith asked witness if he could make a change of twenty votes around Cedardale. Witness replied that he could do it, and Mr. Smith told him to go ahead and do it. At this stage Mr. Justice Osler read the provision of the law permitting a witness to seek the protection of the court when about to make some statement that might incriminate him, and Baker, with manifest relief, claimed the protection of the Then he proceeded to tell how law. the vote of Cedardale was changed. "I told Mr. Smith," said he, "that I thought twenty votes could be changed for $100. He said he would give it to me, and I was to go on and contract for the votes, and he would make the amount good. He gave me $10 at that interview, and said I was to spend it at the two hotels at Cedardale. I took it and spent it at the hotels."

TREATING VOTERS. "Treating electors?" queried Mr

Holman. "Treating voters," replied the witbut Mr. Nesbitt objected strenua mean man, that the cheapest range ously to the witness being led by sug-will do; a wise man, that none but gestions, and the latter part of the gestions, and the latter part of the answer was struck out. In answer to further questions Baker gave the following list of persons whose votes he bought for Mr form and pronounced success. This is Calder with this money; John Sherin, ble degree of perfection is demanded in $5. He had also offered E. Morris $5, and made an appointment to meet him at the Queen's Hotel, Oshawa. I met him in the lobby and we went up to a private room to the right of the hallway upstairs. No one was present except ourselves. Mr. Smith gave me an order on Lewis Luke for $30. We went over the list of voters I had bought, and Mr. Smith said that was all he could pay. I gave him a list and he took it with him. I had paid money to others in addition to those I have named, but I do not now recollect who they were. When I presented the order to Luke he said he had no money. I went back to Mr. Smith, and he said it was strange; that Luke had the money, and that he (Mr. Smith) did not understand why he would not

ing. The court agreed to this. Fred McLean was cross-examined by Wallace Nesbitt, and swore that Wm. Smith, ex-M.P., came to see him a few nights before this trial began, "Smith." he said, "asked me if there was any way I could wiggle out of it. He said not to say anything about it." Judges Osler and Ferguson have voided the election of Mr. Charles Calder over Mr. John Dryden, minister of agriculture. The respondent pays the costs. The cross-petition was dismissed with costs. The decision was reached shortly after 6 o'clock last night, when twelve cases out of the 138 on the petition had been decided by the court as proved.

BRIBERY PROVEN.

Mr. Nesbitt, for respondent, admitted the sub-agency of Edward Baker, which permitted the court to find eight cases of bribery by Baker as proven. The other four were made up of two cases of giving coal by W. H. Thomas. of Oshawa, where Wm. Beare got half a ton, and David Lockwood a ton, for voting for Calder, and two cases of the payment of $3 each to two voters not to vote at all. These last were Aaron Harmon, of Prince Albert, Reach township, and George H. Banbury, a voter in Claremont, Pickering town-

The judges reserved their decision upon the question of those proved to have bribed voters, and in regard to those proved to have been bribed. NORTH ONTARIO MEMBER SAFE. Mr. Frank Denton, who appeared for the petitioner against the return of Mr Hoyle, M.P.P. for North Ontario, had no evidence to offer, and the case was dismissed.

Pills. Howsey's Rapids, Sept. 12.-Mr. Geo. C. Chalker, of this place, tells a remarkable story of restoration to sound health that rivals the far-famed St.

Anne de Beaupre cures. Briefly, Mr. Chalker's story is as follows: "I suffered horribly for years from Kidney Disease. I could do no heavy work. My pain was almost unendurable. No remedy did me the least good till I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Six boxes of this wonderful medicine have cured me completely-made a new man of me. I cannot speak highly enough of them. I can state with the utmost confidence that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure the very worst cases of Kidney Disease.

LONDON LOST. St. Thomas, Ont., Sept. 14.—The locals downed the Londons again here yesterday, the game being decidedly interesting until the seventh inning, when St. Thomas fell unto Foreman's shoots and piled up five runs. With the exception of this inning Foreman did fairly good work. Pears, al-though hit rather freely, was steady, and kept the hits well scattered. Frank Snyder's wild throw to first was the only costly error made by either

A very disgraceful affair took place in the fourth inning. Carey, the giant center fielder of the Forest City aggregation, was called out for interfer-ing with a batted ball, preventing a double play by Nugent and Busse. Umpire Lynden justly called him out.
At this the big fellow took advantage of the umpire, and dealt him several blows in the face. He was promptly escorted off the ground by two policemen. After this happened the whole team, with the exception of two or three, acted like a lot of school boys, and every time a decision was given which did not please them they would throw their caps on the ground or hurl their bats against the earth which almost shook the grand stand.

good ball again today, but Hamilton's hits were timely, and not an error was made by the locals. Baker and Mc-Ilvaine, the opposing pitchers, did ex-Chatham got two of their hits in the last inning, but a fast double play disposed of the side.

OPENING AT GRAVESEND. New York, Sept. 14.—There was plenty of excitement at the opening of the fall meeting yesterday at Gravesend. The delays at the post were so long that the fifth race had to be declared off. In the junior champion stakes, Frohsinn and Rhinelander were coupled as the favorites, with Overton second choice. There was a delay of 1 hour and 20 minutes before the starter could get them away, and then Overton was left at the post. The added starter, Armament, took the lead soon after the flag fell, and ran at the head all the way to the end, although he had to be shaken up by Maher to get the race by a short head from Rhinelander. Frohsinn came very fast at the end. The starter, Fitzgerald, then tendered his resignation, but the stewards of the Jockey Club met and permitted him to use the starting gate. and the resignation was withdrawn. Winners: Him Time, Hand Press, Armament, Briar Sweet, Wood Pigeon.

Our Tariff Policy.

The London Advertiser quotes the words of Vice-President Ellis, of the fanufacturers' Association, to the eflect that "the present Dominion Government enjoys the approbation of the Canadian manufacturers," but it neglects to state that the reason for this approval is the Government's maintenance of the National Policy.-[Toronto News.

If we still have the National Policy why does the Conservative press turn merely the N. P. Among others, our larger purchases from the States than from the mother last year it calls upon the Government "to take into consideration next session our unfair methdealing with Great Britain. are thus described by the representative of the Boston Chamber of Commerce speaking last month to the Detroit Board of Trade:

Canada was growing steadily at the expense of English competitors. In the interval between the years 1893 and as to the proper way to look at such 1897 English sales in Canada fell off by some 30 per cent., while during the same period the sales of American to Canada increased some per cent., the loss to England and the o the United States being chiefin the line of manufactured goods. On the other hand the Liberals devised a tariff schedule, which is thus described by the Boston man; "The result of this (the 25 per cent preference on English goods) will be that instead of our goods supplanting replacing English goods in th Canadian market, English goods will supplant and replace our goods to the tinct disadvantage of all our manufacturing industries.'

Canada last year purchased from the United States goods to the value of $86,587,000, and from Great Britain $32,827,000 worth. In the same period We sold to Great Britain $104,787,000 worth of goods, and to the United States only $41,122,000 worth. Nearly the United States were not for home consumption but for foreign export. The Free Press, reasoning from these figures, says that the Canadian Government has lowered the tariff against American manufacturers to the detriment of our own, and that this onesided reciprocity is a disgrace to our that points the moral, and adorns the legislators. The Government did lower the tariff against certain lines of American manufacture in the interests of the Canadian public, particularly of the farming section, but to say that its tariff policy has been detrimental to Canadian manufacturers is to ignore the present flourishing condition of Canadian industries. It was in consequence of this prosperity that we bought so heavily from the United States last year. We bought there because it was profitable. We must continue to buy there because we can get much of our raw material nowhere else-raw cotton for instance. Of our worth were free goods for consumpto our profit to have. This would not only impose a heavier burden of taxaadvantage the manufacturing interests which now enjoy cheap raw material.

As we have had occasion to say before it is unfair to criticise the preferential feature of our tariff system upon last year's record. The full preference did not become operative until July 1 last, and if the fiscal year 1899 does not show an increase in our purchases from Great Britain we shall conclude that British manufacturers do not care for or cater for the Canadian market trying to injure the United States.

Sir William Crookes suggests that city sewage be converted into nitrogen. The City Council, when it tackles the sewage problem again, should remember this. It has this year shown a rare business, and the nitrogen theory offers another brilliant chance.

We have no desire to say a word against the French nation with its millions of patient patriotic people, and all fair-minded men must sinregret the muddle in which Government finds itlying to bring confusion and shame

It was once well said that a lie is half round the world before the truth has time to get his boots on. The truth is sober and slow, while lying seems to be smart and swift. Chasing rule it is well to keep out of it. The man with a character can live them

Chamberlain's Pungent Answer,

[Boston Herald] That is a rather shrewd reply of Joseph Chamberlan in answer to the enterprising interviewer's question as to when Great Britain would probably get out of Egypt in view of her latest triumph there. "About the time the United States has settled all the difficulties she has tackled in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines-perhaps sooner," said the wily Joseph, with a wink, presumably. The moral of which would seem to be that people who are considering the matter of occupying glass houses should not ask embarrassing questions.

Labor's Privilege in Canada. [Montreal Witness.]

Last Monday the laboring people of America celebrated their annual holirecent years, in so far as the amelioration of the laboring man's position is concerned, well merit celebration. Shorter hours, time and labor saving machinery, better sanitation both in homes and workshops, mutual benefit "lodge doctor," and a host of other advantages and conditions, have rendered the laboring man very much more comfortable than in times past, without, on this continent at least, greatly curtailing his income. The laboring man in Canada perhaps enjoys more solid comfort than his fellows else-There are no fierce strikes where passions are aroused upon both sides, a fact that speaks well for the justice and honesty of both employer and employes. Food is not expensive, and the laborer in Canada, unlike his fellow in Europe, enjoys abundance of nourishing meat and drink. Wages are good, and for some time employment has been steady, while, to crown all, he is within easy reach of a magnificent stretch of prairie land where, if for bribery and corruption by agents, he is thrifty and ambitious, he can secure a homestead, and the beginning of a home for future generations.

Firmly Grounded Upon Real Merit -They Know Hood's Sarsaparilla Absolutely and Permanently Cures When All Others Fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and a little Iodide of Potassium. Besides these excellent alteratives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper

Berries, and Pipsissewa. Nor are these all. Other very valuable curative agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilia a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.

Firmly Grounded Upon Real Merit They Know Hood's Sarsaparilla Absolutely and Permanently Cures When All Others Fall.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and a little Iodide of Potassium. Besides these excellent alteratives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper

Berries, and Pipsissewa. Nor are these all. Other very valuable curative agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated pharmacist.

Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilla a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.

Lewis' stained glass store on Richmond street, and attracted the attention of every pedestrian. The wincommissioned by Col. F. B. Leys to execute the same for his residence in South London. It was designed by Mr. Walter E. Morgan, from the painting entitled "Echo," by E. Brisson, who has a continental reputation in Europe. It represents a lady standing, with her of the voice of one whom she loves. The window is built on a picturesque base, and has an ornamental top, all of opalescent glass. The production is considered by all who have seen it to be the best ever turned out in this part of the country, and the makers of it are to be congratulated on the excellency of the workmanship.

The White Palace. A model tea store has been opened up at 2061/2 Dundas street by Mr. A. W. Rowland, an enterprising and energetic business man, and will be known as the "White Palace." The term is in no measure misapplied. The artistic arrangement of goods is at once a striking feature. The window contains fine samples of the beautiful goods to be found inside this establishment. There are two departments, one for bonbons and the other for teas. This latter is a cosy and homelike large parlor, curtained off, where cups of the celebrated Ceylon teas are served to the ladies. Among the leading lines are the Silver Blend Ceylon, Pure Ceylon, and Melagama, a blend of Ceylon and Himalayan teas. There are also Assams and Indians in great variety. This was Farmers' Day at the Western Fair. Old Probs was again kind, and the day was an ideal one for the yeomen's annual fete, which the sturdy tillers of the soil look forward to with delightful anticipation. Farmers' Day usually captures the crowd, and today was no exception to the rule. Under records were easily broken today.

The street railway company kept a big procession of cars on the Dundas street line all day. Before the rush had well set in they had 63 cars and many trailers at work between Richmond street and the fair grounds.

Later all available cars, including even the antediluvian horse affairs, were added to the number. Chairman Taylor, of the main building, was satisfied this afternon that the attendance today was larger than on the corresponding day last year by several thousands. The grounds were thronged long before noon, the crush at the ticket offices beginning about 10 o'clock, and continuing on into the afternoon almost without intermission.

British Opinion of the Fashoda Occupation.

In regard to the report that the French forces under Major Marchand have taken possession of Fashoda, on the Nile, Alfred Arnold, a member of the British Parliament, who is in Chicago, says: "I do not believe France will risk the chance of a shot in the Channel for Fashoda. I do not look for any trouble over this matter, because I do not believe France has any intention of claiming sovereignty over it. The commission which sat in Paris early in the year decided that the entire valley of the Nile was to be subject to English rule. "When I saw you at Chiswick, my lord," said the lady, "I fancied you were annoyed, and blamed me." "Most certainly not," smiled the earl, "You are too old and valued a friend for that. I was annoyed, but at Esmer's folly. She, however, has fully explained, and all is forgotten." "I am exceedingly glad," and her ladyship spoke earnestly. Through her nephew she had aiready heard some of these rumors which blended Gerard's name with Lady Westbrook's, and, an old friend of the Mortmain family, had felt for the

"I am sure I wish he was not bound," she reflected. "Only a self-sacrificing saint could be happy with Esmer for wife. When wedded, however, she may be different, for I do believe she loves him."

Seeing the girl that day, few would have doubted it. Gerard could not. Apparently in the most animated spirits, she seemed to seek every oppor-tunity to please him and display her affection. She sat by his side, or on a low ottoman at his feet—for the earl had felt it imperative to devote that day to her-and chatted gaily of past and present, recalling incidents of her life at Leibrington. Once she startled him, when they were alone together, by taking his hand, pressing it to her cheek and lips, and wailing forth, with a pleading moan:

"Gerard, cousin, do love me! Don't let anything come between us. I will do what you wish. I will obey you in all things, but never let that be." Moved by so humble an appeal, the sincerity of which he was too truthful to suspect, he put his arm around the slim waist, and, sorrowing bitterly that he could not love her as he should, kissed her forehead, saying: you have never had, nor shall ever have, cause for jealousy? What do you fear?"

With subtle glance and voice calculated to deceive, she replied: "That my happiness is too great, Gerard: I fear lest it should not last. The more I look upon you, the more unworthy I feel-the more worthy all other women. Have I not cause? But for your promise you would never have wedded such a deformed little thing as I am. Now confess."

Her face was raised to his with a smile, yet there was a strange shadow dark, inexplicable eyes. The doubt possessed such truth that the earl found it difficult not to look guilty; also to make a rejoinder without hesitation. He succeeded by adopting a tone of badinage. "When pretty women deprecate. themselves," he said, "it is in order to win a compliment. I will not satisfy was Gerard's turn to color. Imperceptibly his whole being shrank and shivered beneath the contact. It was hard upon him as upon her that he could not appreciate such endearments. It was pitiable that he could not look upon Esmer but Lucille's sweet countenance intervened; also pitiable the knowledge that this ill-fated union destroyed An Explosion in Midair Followed by Lady Westbrook's happiness as well as

If the mother, during the interest-ing period, suffers from the abnormal mental states which recur periodically with women who are weak in a womanly way, these conditions will impress themselves upon the mind of the child.

Every woman wants children who are both physically and mentally healthy. Every woman may have that kind of children if she will take proper care of herself in a womanly way. It makes them strong, healthy, vigorous, virile and elastic. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, soothes pain and tones and builds up the shattered nerves. ## COST OF WAR TO POOR SPAIN

Reaches the Enormous Total of $874,-800,000-Aside From Loss of Ships and Colonies.

Aside from the loss of her colonies and the ships destroyed in battle the war has cost Spain about $374,800,000. Including the cost of preparation in anticipation of the war begun by Spain in May, 1835, these sums have been raised and expended: From the sale of 322,944 Cuban notes, $25,242,255; from the sale of 60,000 Cuban notes of 1886, $4,-784,897; loan of 400,000,000 pesetas on the customs guarantee, $74,400,000; from the sale of silver, etc., $866,338; loan of Bank of Spain on the Cuban guarantee, $59,400,000; loan of the Bank of Spain on guarantee of contributions. $32,000,000; loan of the Bank of Spain, 4 per cent internal debt, $20,000; Philippine taxes, $37,000,000.

These sums do not include debts for transports, etc., contracted by the government, which are placed at approximately $62,000,000.

According to the information all the money obtained has been expended on expeditions sent to the colonies whose total amounted to 180,431 soldiers, 6,223 officers and about 700 generals. Of the millions expended only $5,000,-000 was spent by the Spanish Government to increase its naval force.

BROKE HIS BELL

Uproar in the Spanish Senate-The President Powerless to Keep Order.

Madrid, Sept. 13 .- There was another uproarious session of the senate today. Count Almenas gave the names the generals he recently said ought to have sashes tied around their necks instead of around their waists, naming Weyler, Blanco and Primo de Rivera, after which he also included Admiral Cervera in the category, and said Gen. Linares was also incompetent, and ought to be arraigned. Thereupon Gen. Weyler and others loudly protested. Gen. Weyler called on Count Almenas to name those generals who were accused of failing "My dear Esmer, have I not told you to do their duty, and he added, if the accusations were true, and the culprits could not be legally punished, the generals would take the matter in their own hands and inflict proper punishment. A great tumult ensued the senators standing, shouting and threatening each other. The president of the senate vainly strove to restore order, and broke his bell in attempting to do so.

FROST AND SNOW

Corn. Beans and Potatoes Suffer-Five Inches of Snow.

Metamora, Mich., Sept. 14.-The first frost of the season occurred here Sunday night. Vegetables in the low-lands were badly nipped. Frost did considerable damage to corn and other crops in the vicinity of Flat Rock. The frost at Gagetown has done much damage to the late crops—beans usual fall of snow Saturday night and Sunday in Eastern Colorado, Northwestern Kansas and Sauthwestern western Kansas and Southwestern Nebraska. The heaviest snow fall is reported from Atwood, Rawlings county, Kansas, the correspondent report-ing a fall of five inches at that point, with a heavy frost in the morning.

METEORIC SHOWERS

a Descent of Missiles.

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 13.-The inhabitants of the rural district of Mille River, Jamaica, were startled on Aug. 30 by a shower of meteorites. In the oppressive heat and stillness of the early afternoon there was a loud report, followed almost immediately by a shower of sparks and spikes of smoke and a volley of descending stones. Birds and beasts showed the greatest alarm, and the people feared their houses were falling. As soon as the phenomenon had ceased the ground was found to be covered with innumerable small stones, very much resembling shot. The leaves and trunks of the trees in the vicinity were jagged and torn by the missiles, and a regia tree was bored for the whole of its length by one of the stones nearly a couple of inches in diameter. The stones are easily crushed, and seem to belong to the class known as asiderites. Of their meteoric origin there can be no doubt, as their composition is totally different from the superficial strata of the neighborhood. The hypothesis child's phys- is that a meteorite burst and that the stones which are strewn on the ground are the broken fragments of it.

FREE MELONS

37 Carloads Turned Over to Everybody in Jersey City Who Wanted Them.

New York, Sept. 14.-Thirty-seven carloads of musk-melons, consigned to a New York dealer, were rejected in the Erie Railroad yards, at Jersey City, yesterday morning by the consignee. The only reason given for the rejection was that there were too many melons in the market. The cars containing the melons went to the foot of Manhattan avenue. There the cars were opened. The melons were dumped in the meadows west of Jersey City Heights, but news of the windfall spread like wildfire. Hundreds of residents hastened to the scene and carried home baskets full of melons. The peddlers descended on the cars and loaded their wagons without interference. The fruit sold well in Lower Jersey City, as the people there were not aware of the presence of unlimited free melons near by. The melons were not exhausted late last night. It was said last night by Chief Detective Brown, of the Erie Railroad, that another consignment of meions is on its way from the west. The people of Jersey City are anxiously awaiting its arrival. The railroad authorities refuse to divulge the name of the New York firm

There is one exhibit in the main building that it is nearly always difficult to get close to—difficult because of the crowds that seem forever gathered there. But those on the outskirts wait patiently for a chance to edge in a little closer. For the tediousness of waiting is quite forgotten in listening to the most delightful music. THE MASSEY-HARRIS DISPLAY. There is one feature at the Western Fair, the absence of which would very materially mar the exhibition's char-acter as an indicator of Canada's progress. The pinnacle is, however, not yet reached, and this

The capacity of each has been taxed to its utmost in an effort to fill the orders—they come from every quarter of the globe, for the reputation of the "Massey-Harris" is world-wide-and yet there are many that the company will be unable to fill on time on acount of the deluge. SOMETHING IN A NAME. "What's in a name?" people sometimes ask derisively; and yet if they stop a moment to think they will b compelled to answer: "There's a great deal in a name sometimes." Probably no better illustration of this fact could be found than in the matter of selecttreal, who has an interesting display in the west wing of the machinery hall. Mr. D. K. McLaren has spent his life in the business, and has a thorough and precise knowledge of the requirements of millmen.

to be a guarantee of all that is best in quality, tone and durability.

Any good mechanic can make a violin, but only one man ever lived that could make a Stradivarius. And it is pretty much so with pianos. Pianos have individuality. There is a subtle something that divides mere mechanism from art as widely as though they belonged to different planets, and that something has to come from the maker, and that is why people want hose, card clothing, American the name of Gerhard Heintzman on

Nash & Co., forms an important feature of the transportation building. It is the largest exhibit ever made of this factory's products, and is one of the best at the fair. A magnificent funeral car, showing artistic workmanship of a high degree, is the central piece, and surrounding it are handsome vehicles of all modern styles. A single Victoria, built after the latest Eng lish design, makes a desirable privat carriage. Other special styles include the Ideal Trap, Ladies' Mikado, and Solid Comfort Phaeton-all of which are handsomely finished. There is also a large variety of democrats, top bug-gies and carts. This carriage factory is one of the oldest in Canada, and holds a well-deserved and long-established reputation for excellent work. WORKS OF ART IN WOOD. There are so many and beautiful and interesting exhibits at the fair that one is apt to exhaust language in describing them. But words seem poor things when one attempts to describe R. R. Bland's display of mantels, grates, fire-place furnishings and parquetry exhibit will understand why this is so. The mantels are works of art. The wood used is the finest quartered oak, specially selected, the cabinet work is perfect and the carving is the work of the most skilled artists. One may look for hours and still find new beauties. Some fine specimens of parquetry or hardwood inlaid floors are shown, and are specially interesting from the fact that in the homes of cultured people polished hardwood floors are taking the place of carpets, the former being not only more beautiful but more healthful and easier to care for. Mr. Bland also represents the largest manufacturers of fireplace goods on the continent. Several of the mantels shown are special designs, made to fill orders and will not be duplicated. Last year Mr. Bland's exhibit was awarded two gold medals. A visit to the warerooms, 229 Dundas street, would be full of interest and enjoyment
