France and Newfoundland.

LONDON, May 7.—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Sydney Buxton, Under Colonial Secretary, announced that negotiations with France in regard to a treaty regulating the fisheries along the shores of Newfoundland still remained suspended. The inhabitants of Newfoundland, he said, were generally on friendly terms with the French.

Crispi Was Hissed.

MILAN, May 7.—The exhibition of arts, wines and spirits was opened here yesterday by King Humbert, accompanied by Queen Margherita, Prime Minister Crispi and other members of the Cabinet, the Duke of Abruzzo and the Duke of Aosta. Signor Crispi was hissed by a crowd of Socialists who had gathered at a point where the procession passed. This insult caused great indignation among the other people present who drowned the hisses in cheers. Subsequently the Socialists were obliged to retire in consequence of the threatening aspect of the supporters of the Prime Minister.

Hilarity in the House of Commons.

LONDON, 7.—Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, moved the second reading of the budget bill in the House of Commons to-day.

John Grant Lawson moved that the bill be rejected. The debate will be continued until Thursday.

James G. Weir asked if it was the intention to remove the grating in front of the ladies' gallery.

Herbert Gladstone said that it was not. Mr. Weir suggested the transfer of the ladies to the peers' gallery, peers were ladies he said. (Laughter.)

Sir Donald Macfarlane proposed that the wishes of the ladies be ascertained by placing in the gallery a book for signatures under the heads "yes" and "no."

Mr. Gladstone said he would be glad to ascertain the opinion of the ladies and then leave the matter to the House to decide. (Cries of "Hear, hear.")

The Windsor Beauties.

LONDON, May 7.—The Queen has consented to lend to the committee of the forthcoming exhibition of fair women, which is to open at the Grafton galleries at an early date, five pictures of the Windsor beauties, by Sir Peter Leys, from Hampton Court palace, and also "La Femme à l'Eventail," by Rembrandt. The Prince of Wales will contribute also toward the collection. From Chatsworth there will be lent the celebrated portraits of Georgiana and Elizabeth, Duchesses of Devonshire, and from Devonshire House a Greuze, and other paintings by other masters. The patroness of the exhibition is the Princess of Wales and the invitations to lend pictures and other art treasures connected with the proposed collection are signed by the Duchess of Portland, Lady Granby, and Lady Iveagh, to whose efforts and interest the success which it is sure to attain will in a great measure be due.

IMPORTANT LABOR MEETING.

Representatives of Over 85,000 Textile Workers in Conference—Mine Machinery Wrecked by a Mob.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Fifty delegates, representing over 85,000 textile workers in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine, Vermont, Connecticut and Pennsylvania, met in Labor Lyceum Hall to-day in the fourth annual convention of the National Union of Textile Workers of America. The 6,000 members of the union in New York State are not directly represented. The convention is an unusually important one, because it will decide questions bearing upon the formation of an international textile workers' union, amalgamation with the Northern Silk Workers' Union of America (at the request of the latter), which has 6,000 members; the limiting of hours of labor; the adoption of a uniform rate of wages, "upon as high a basis as possible consistent with the true interests of trade"; the delegation of a portion of the power of the National Union to district councils, and the adoption of a rule whereby no two big strikes will take place in the union at the same time. The convention will also take action upon the National Factory Law. President Thorn's annual report showed that the union has grown over 100 per cent during the year.

MINE MACHINERY WRECKED WITH DYNAMITE. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 7.—A mob, numbering from 200 to 500, went to Prince's mines, at Horse Creek, last night and blew up the boilers and other mine machinery with dynamite, and fired two shots into the company's storehouses. No one was hurt. The mob then went to the Victoria mines and blew up several freight cars loaded with coal and turned others loose down the mountain, wrecking them. It appears that the miners at Horse Creek refused to join the strike. The strikers have threatened them several times.

Mobile and Ohio locomotive engineers have accepted a cut of 8 per cent.

The car workers at Pullman, Ill., threaten to strike unless the wages of last year are restored.

Unless the wage scale of last year is restored the men in the Pullman car shops may strike.

STRUCK THE PRIEST

And Sent the Communion Flying—Prof. Corkery in a Hamilton Cathedral.

HAMILTON, May 8.—Prof. Corkery, the anti-Catholic lecturer and alleged ex-monk, created a sensation in St. Mary's Cathedral here on Sunday morning. He entered the church and knelt at the communion rail with several hundred others.

The was nothing in his appearance to lead anyone to think that he was anything but a devout Catholic worshipper. When, however, Mr. McEvay presented the sacrament the man suddenly arose, threw up his arm, striking the priest with such force as to send the host flying high in the air, over the heads of those waiting and into the aisle, where it fell upon the floor.

The fellow accompanied his erratic action with loud angry words:

"You call that the body of the Lord! That's no more the body of Christ than the man in the moon or this woman is!" he shouted, pointing at the lady who had been at his side when he knelt down, and who now shrank away in terror.

Such actions and words occurring at the most solemn moment of the communion service had a wonderful effect upon all present. The silence of the grave reigned. The faces of the women were deathlike and the men seemed as if unable to move a muscle.

But Mr. McEvay never lost his presence of mind, and his coolness seemed to unnerve his assailant. Turning to Mr. Corkery, who had also gone forward to take the sacrament, and to Mr. James Loftus, who was the second person at the rail from the man, he said:

"Take him out."

Mr. Corkery took him by the arm, and he turned and left. His defiant air had gone, and as he walked down the aisle, escorted by the usher and followed by Mr. Loftus at the other side, he looked like a newly-shorn sheep. He was taken to the door and told to go, which he did, making his way southward on Park street. No one from the church attempted to follow or watch him.

Corkery, when interviewed, said that as his mission to Protestants in Hamilton was his, he resolved to try it on Roman Catholics. A warrant for his arrest has been sworn out by Mr. McEvay, who says he does not want a reputation of the deed. It is the general opinion that Corkery's act was a fool's game to advertise himself. His lectures here have not been very profitable.

JUMPED OFF THE TRAIN.

Fatal Accident to John A. Morrison, of Woodstock, Near Beachville.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., May 8.—John A. Morrison, aged 26, employed in the James Hay furniture factory, while jumping off the 8:45 o'clock accommodation G. T. R. express at Beachville, five miles west of here, met with a fatal accident on Saturday night. He was pitched into a cattle guard, and his body struck one of the cross-sticks, causing a fracture of one of his ribs, which penetrated the bowels. The unfortunate man died at the residence of his father-in-law, Wilson Craig, at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The remains have been brought to Woodstock for interment. Deceased leaves a wife and one small child.

THE U. S. TARIFF COMPROMISE.

An Almost Entirely New Face Put on the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—It appears that the number of amendments made in the tariff bill under the compromise exceed those made in the Senate finance committee. The amendments are most numerous on the chemical, iron and steel, agricultural and sugar schedules, but they affect the entire bill, including woolens, cotton goods, metals and many other articles.

In almost every instance increases have been made, and there has been a general slaughtering of the ad valorem for specifics. The sugar schedules totally changed, and iron manufactures show an interesting transformation.

Silver Saved His Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—Jake Rudolph, a well-known politician, and his body guard, Chris Buckley, the ex-Democratic boss of this city, went to the Chronicle office yesterday for the purpose of shooting Mr. H. Deyoung, its proprietor. J. E. Rudolph, when he fired a shot from a revolver at him. The bullet struck some silver in Eliot's pocket, saving his life. The would-be assassin was arrested. He says he owed Deyoung some money and would have shot him at sight.

Around the World in Sixty-Six Days.

MONTREAL, May 7.—Mr. Griffiths reached here from Vancouver on his way around the world by C. P. R. this morning at 8:37 o'clock. He was met by Mr. H. R. Ibbotson, C. P. R. passenger agent, and Mr. W. H. Clancy, representing Cook & Son. Mr. Griffiths is commissioned by Pearson's Weekly to make a tour of the world in 66 days. He left Charing Cross at 11 a.m., March 12. He reached Paris twenty hours after and Naples on the afternoon of the 14th. He reached Yokohama on April 18. He goes to New York via Delaware and Hudson and may arrive at his original starting point with two days to spare should no unforeseen hitch occur.

CHEMISTRY seems likely to furnish substitutes for the expensive perfumes now made from flowers. It has long been known that the exact odor of the banana is produced in the laboratory. There seems a possibility, however, that even when some fragrant plants cease to be cultivated for the perfumes many may become of importance in surgery. It has been discovered that some such plants are free from the attacks of insects and from fungus growths, and this may be due to the fact that their essential oils have antiseptic properties. The eucalyptus yields an antiseptic, and so do other familiar plants.

The City Council.

A Percentage Offered for the Street Railway Franchise.

An Alleged Irregularity To Be Investigated.

The Bicycle Bylaw Results in a Dead-lock.

Inmates of the Aged People's Home Who Make Money and Won't Pay—The Band Concert Fund Will Probably Be Divided—The River Channel Question.

The City Council held a regular session last night and managed to get through before midnight. A percentage offer was received from the Chicago Electric Installation Company for an electric street railway franchise, and an alleged irregularity in connection with a petition was referred to a special committee to investigate, after a serious discussion. No. 1 committee was requested to look into the workings of the Aged People's Home, it being stated that the city was keeping persons who were able to support themselves. The bicycle bylaw was left between the deep sea and another place on a vote which resulted in a deadlock. The $500 grant for band concerts will probably be divided between the several city bands. The members present were: Mayor Essery, Ald. Taylor, Heaman, Pritchard, O'Meara, J. W. Jones, Carrothers, Thos. Jones, James Fitzgerald, Dreaney, Nutkins, F. J. Fitzgerald, Judd, Parnell, Shaw, City Clerk Kingston, and Sergeant-at-Arms Merritt. Ald. Coe came in during the evening.

A PERCENTAGE OFFER.
L. E. Meyers, of the Chicago Electric Installation Company, wrote as follows: "Concerning our offer for street railway franchise, dated April 12, 1894, after due consideration we may state that if your honorable body will grant us the concessions asked for, we will change section eight of our proposal, which reads as follows:

"We propose to pay a tax to the city of $25 per car per year for each motor car operated, and in place thereof:

"We will pay the city a percentage of the total receipts arising from the operation of the road, this percentage to be agreed upon between us.

"We would at this time name a definite percentage if we were able to estimate closely the amount of business which an electric road would do. However, in the absence of sufficient data to name a definite percentage, we will merely state that we will discuss this point with the committee or with your body as a whole and endeavor to reach a satisfactory conclusion. We could meet your committee on the 12th or 14th of this month for the purpose of going into details of this proposition."

OBSTREPEROUS OLD MEN.
In connection with Amos Johnston's application for admission to the Aged People's Home, some interesting information was given out. The mayor stated that in 1893 the city paid out for the maintenance of the Aged Men's Home $941.70, the Old Men's Home $1,825.12, total $2,766.82. It appears that some of the men were able to work, but refused to turn over any of their wages for the good of the home. Mrs. McKenzie, living near Parkhill, wanted a man and one was sent out to her. But he refused to work for less than $10 a month and his board. Then there were pensioners who wanted to use their pensions for the purchase of luxuries. It would not hurt at all, the mayor said, if the thing was looked into, because there were complaints from citizens that there are people living at the home at the expense of the city and who were able to work. Ald. Parnell said that in view of the rapidly increasing number of admissions and the expense connected with the home, it was about time to begin seriously to think whether it would not be advisable to procure lands and a home of its own to keep the aged people. No. 1 committee will investigate.

AN ALLEGED IRREGULARITY.
Geo. T. Hiseox and Robt. Pritchard said that they would not pay their street watering rates on Bathurst street and would go to law first.

Mr. Pritchard's communication stated that through the "dark deeds" of Ald. Parnell and the assistant engineer another name had been added to the petition after the council dealt with it and refused to grant it. This gave a majority of the frontage rates upon the petition of those seeking water, and the committee granted the request.

Ald. Parnell stated that he knew nothing of the affair excepting that Mr. Craig had signed the petition for his supposed property, and to make doubly sure, Mr. Seandrett (without Ald. Parnell's knowledge) had signed it again.

Ald. Thos. Jones said the matter was a serious one. Ald. Judd—Whoever is to blame, it is certainly a state of affairs that should not exist. I don't wish to have my remarks imputed as anything against the chairman of the committee, but whoever allowed it to be done did what they should not.

J. W. Jones said that such an irregularity should not exist. The engineer ought to be instructed to cease watering the street at the present time.

Mayor Essery said that the same thing on a promissory note would be called forgery. It was infinitely worse than a "back stair" communication.

Ald. O'Meara objected to Ald. Parnell being attacked and Ald. Judd rose to a point of order, disclaiming any attack.

Mayor Essery suggested a special committee to investigate the matter.

Ald. Taylor took the same view, and named the following committee: J. W. Jones, R. Carrothers, James Fitzgerald, H. Dreaney and Joseph Judd.

Mr. Parnell asked that the engineer, in fairness to himself (Ald. Parnell), be asked for an explanation. The engineer was not called and Mr. Parnell did not press the matter.

Ald. J. W. Jones said that as those for and against were so evenly divided the affair might lead to litigation, and he would move that watering be ordered stopped to-day.

Ald. Judd dived into figures connected with the petition in dispute. Mr. Seandrett's name added 110 votes to the frontage rate for the street watering. This raised the total number from 444 in favor of to 554. The petition against contained the names of owners of 523½ feet.

The motions of J. W. Jones and Charles Taylor were combined, and the street watering will cease to-day and the committee named will inquire into the alleged irregularity and report.

No. 3 committee's report was adopted, and a new house will be procured for the fire department.

THE BICYCLE BYLAW.
No. 2 committee reported no action with regard to the much-mooted bicycle bylaw. Ald. Dreaney wanted the clause referred back, at which Chairman Jones expressed surprise, seeing Mr. Dreaney belongs to No. 2 committee. F. J. Fitzgerald said that certain bicycle "smart alecks" were in the habit of running as close as they could to persons and searing them.

Mr. Garrett said a bicycle had run into his wagon and took a wheel off.

Mr. Judd advised at least the regulation of speed.

Mr. Dreaney said he knew that the bicyclists went very fast, because he had a very good colt, but the wheel left it behind. If a policeman had seen him he would have been summoned, and why not the wheelmen? Of course it was a race, but then the wheelmen ran over his dog!

Mr. Pritchard admitted that he was a little skittish and had several frights from careless wheelmen.

Mr. O'Meara rather favored the wheelmen, and said some latitude should be given to a hungry man about dinner time.

Mr. Dreaney's amendment was put, and in the absence of three aldermen the vote stood 8 to 8. The vote on the motion was the same, and the matter is deadlocked until next council meeting.

DEEPENING THE RIVER.
Mr. John Nutkins raised the question of legality when it was proposed to spend $50 in deepening the channel of the Thames between the Forks and the Cove.

As the city cannot spend money in the township, the mayor was obliged, as he was last year, to rule the clause out.

Mr. Judd wanted the matter referred back to find out whether the work to be done was really outside the city limits.

Then Mr. Nutkins moved that the clause be struck out.

Mr. J. W. Jones stated that the channel had been kept clear from year to year from the pockets of the few, and the city had derived the benefit. It was the duty of the council to assist the boating club. A grant might be given to the finance committee of the boat club.

Mr. Garratt favored the grant, as did Thos. Jones. The matter was referred back.

WILL DIVIDE THE BAND CONCERT GRANT.
Thos. H. Warren appeared before the council urging that a grant be made to the First Hussars. They were a military organization and deserved some recognition at the hands of the city.

Mr. Parnell moved that $300 be given to the Seventh and $200 to the Hussar band.

Then Mr. Nutkins wanted some concerts given in the East End park.

Mr. Taylor and Mr. Dreaney took the part of the Seventh band. It should be maintained and to divide the grant would be splitting hairs.

Mr. Pritchard moved that the Sons of England band be recognized, and then Mr. J. W. Jones wanted the pipes included.

Mr. Garratt favored the Seventh receiving the whole grant, and Mr. Carrothers wanted a division made.

Mr. Parnell then amended his motion adding a proviso that one third of the concerts be given in Queen's Park.

Messrs. O'Meara and Jones moved in amendment that the clause be referred back and a division be made at the discretion of the committee. Carried.

No. 1 committee's report passed accounts amounting to $6,699.16.

The committee refused to get the city solicitor's opinion as to whether Mr. Talbot's publication was a newspaper or not. The council by its vote also refused to refer the matter back.

A clause referring to the disputed school moneys between school section No. 2, of Westminster, was referred back in order that a settlement might be made. Progress was reported on about a dozen different matters.

NOTICES.
By Mr. J. W. Jones and Mr. Coe: That the present street railway company be asked to meet No. 1 committee and see if a basis of agreement cannot be arrived at either by a percentage on a lump sum, or on a basis of an increase of population. Carried.

By Messrs. Parnell and Judd: That No. 1 committee be requested to investigate the matter of expenditure in connection with the Old Men's Home and report back. Carried.

By Messrs. Judd and Heaman: That the opinion of the city solicitor be ascertained on A. Talbot's communication. Lost.

Notice of motion by Mr. O'Meara—That electric lights be placed at the corner of Albert and Richmond streets, and at the corner of Grosvenor and Wellington streets.

BYLAWS.
A bylaw was passed striking the rate at 18½ mills. A local improvement bylaw providing for the construction of a tile drain on Waterloo street also passed. The bylaw respecting licensing of hawkers was sent to No. 3 committee for amendment. Another one providing a sheep pound out of the dog tax was read and passed.

had made so many enemies while in the city's employ that it would be difficult for him to enter into business again.

Ed Parnell and J. W. Jones moved in amendment that it be filed. Amendment lost.

CARNIVAL OF CRIME.
Lawless State of Affairs in the Wyoming Coal Field.

PORT RICHMOND, Pa., May 7.—For a long period lawlessness has prevailed in the Wyoming coal field, and hardly a week has passed since January that a crime of a heinous character has not been committed. Within the last three months crime has been on the increase, and Capt. Whalen, chief of the detective department, states that 35 mysterious and brutal assassinations have been committed, besides other atrocious deeds. In every instance the crimes have been traced to Hungarians and Poles, who have managed to escape. Entire communities have been terrorized by members of an oath-bound organization whose influence appears to reach from the anthracite coal regions of Northern Pennsylvania to the bituminous area of Central Pennsylvania and west of the Allegheny Mountains to the coke country.

The criminal record of the sections of the State enumerated states that during the last year over 200 murders have been perpetrated and but seven of the perpetrators apprehended.

The same body of organized outlaws committing these crimes has also been guilty of wholesale destruction of property, and the value alone of coal breakers and other mine works destroyed in the anthracite country amounts to nearly $2,000,000. So great has been the outlawry within a recent period that the authorities have determined to adopt more resolute measures to apprehend the law-breakers.

Which is Right?
Is it desirable to take care of the health and do a reasonable amount of work, or to indulge in stimulants in order to accomplish more? To give pills and purgatives to strengthen the liver is like giving a weak man whisky to keep him working. They excite the digestive organs to overwork, but leave them weaker and less able to perform their functions. Eschley's Liver Lozenges assist nature to do its work and at the same time strengthen the digestive system. They are 25 cents a box or 5 boxes for a dollar at all drug stores.

The Best Food For Children? is worthy every parent's study; not only what they can eat, but what gives the most nourishment. No children are better, and most are worse, for eating hard-cooked food. If, however, their food is prepared with the healthful new vegetable shortening, COTTOLINE, instead of lard, they can eat freely of the best food without danger to the digestive organs. You can easily verify this by a fair trial of Cottoline. Sold in 2 and 5 lb. pails by all grocers.

THE CITY CONTEST.

The Free Press, in its conduct of the Opposition side of the campaign for the representation of London in the Legislature, affects the highly genteel tone, combined with a certain assumed pity for what it calls the party sacrifice which the nomination of Mr. Hobbs, in its estimation, implies. It would be very satisfactory if our contemporary could be prevailed upon to act up to what it preaches in at least a few of its issues when once the campaign gets under way. We much fear that the old Adam will get the upper hand of our esteemed contemporary long before election day.

Our contemporary is affecting contempt for the candidature of Mr. Hobbs, just as it was wont to sneer at the abilities of Mr.
 Hyman, M.P., when he had the temerity, at the behest of his fellow-citizens, to oppose the decrees of the local Family Compact. We are not aware of any special service that Mr. Meredith has ever rendered the city of London for which he has not been well paid. His opponent is a wholesale merchant and manufacturer, who can, at least, say that he has thoroughly identified himself with the city and its interests. Mr. Hobbs has recognized the fact that London, and not Toronto, should have the first care of a representative of this city, and in many ways he has been instrumental in adding to the prosperity of this western trade center.
 As a merchant and manufacturer, he is an employer of labor, and deeply interested in the progress of the city in which his all is invested. As to which of the two candidates has done most or is likely to do most to aid in the building up of London, there will be sufficient time in the near future for ample comparisons.
 But the very fact that the Free Press is driven to the ridiculous contention that Mr.
 Meredith is "abused" because it is shown that he has deserted London, has cast his lot with Toronto and become the paid servant of that rival city, shows how difficult a task the advocate of the Toronto candidate has before it.

Meantime, towering high above the mere question of personality as between Mr.
 Hobbs and Mr. Meredith, is the question whether the best Government, one might say, the English speaking world has ever seen, in point of efficiency and freedom from corruption, is or is not to be sustained at the polls throughout the Province. We believe it will be found that Sir Oliver Mowat's flag will float in triumph on the eve of election day not only in London but throughout the progressive Province of Ontario.

Mr. Meredith, his agents say, intends to appeal for election in London on the ground that if he is defeated in the city which he has forsaken he will be driven from the Legislature. He will ask for sympathy on this ground, but the reflection of a moment will show how little reason there is for the assumption that Mr. Meredith is tied up in London. He knows that in the city to which he has sworn first allegiance there are four seats at the disposal of the electors, for any one of which he could have the nomination by showing that he is desirous of obtaining it, and in either he would have a much better chance of election than in London. If Mr. Meredith neglects his present opportunity to obtain a seat in the city of Toronto, where his heart, his home and his interests generally are now centered, it is safe to assert that not two voters in this independent, self-respecting community will be influenced to support him on the untenable ground it ad to.

Ontario's Trusted Men.

Biographical Sketch of a Popular Minister.Eventful Career of Hon. J. M. Gibson, Provincial Secretary.

Lieut. Col. Hon. John Morrison Gibson, M.P.P., whose nomination for West Hamilton was so warmly indorsed at a mass meeting held in that city last night, is the Provincial Secretary, and has occupied that position in the Local Government since the office became vacant on Jan. 18, 1899, by the transfer of Hon. A. S. Hardy to the commission of the Crown Lands Department. Mr. Gibson is probably the most accomplished and finished scholar in the present Cabinet so far as literary and academic attainments are in question.
 He is the son of the late William Gibson, who came to this country in 1827 from Glamis, Forfarshire, Scotland, and shortly after his arrival married Mary Sinclair, whose family resided in Nelson township, in the county of Halton. William Gibson was a farmer and died when his son John was only three years old. The late David Gibson, who formerly represented North York in the old Parliament of Canada, was cousin to J. M. Gibson, who is the subject of the present sketch. He received his early school education at the Hamilton Grammar School, under the mastership of Dr. Sangster.
 He made rapid progress, and his studious habits and fine natural endowments soon placed him at the head of the school in regard to proficiency in the branches of learning taught in that institution, giving promise of the ripe scholarship which he attained in after years. He matriculated in University College, Toronto, in 1859. He continued the same close and laborious attention to study which had marked his course at the grammar school during his university course of four years, taking high honors and winning scholarships during the course, graduating in 1863, when he took the Prince of Wales prize, at that time awarded to only the most distinguished graduate of the year.
 During his college course he gave special attention to the study of languages, not only including the usual course of Latin and Greek, but also Hebrew, Chaldee and Syriac, as well as the modern European languages. He not only took prizes in the department of classics and modern languages, but in Oriental languages as well. After completing his college course and graduating with the highest honor, he commenced the study of law in the office of the law firm of which the present Justice Burton was the head, in the city of Hamilton, and during the term of his articles he entered the law course of the university, receiving as the reward of his close and successful study of the law the degree of LL.B. and the gold medal of the faculty in 1869. He was called to the bar in Michaelmas term, 1867, and after practising his profession alone for one year he entered into partnership with Francis MacKellon, C.C., with whom he has continued to be associated under different firm names, carrying on a very extensive law practice in the city of Hamilton up to the present time.

Mr. Gibson's solid and varied literary attainments, as evidenced by his brilliant university career, and his thorough and comprehensive study of jurisprudence, together with his subsequent experience arising from the extensive professional practice he has had in later years, have combined to place him in the first rank of the legal luminaries of the country. An able or safer counselor could hardly be found in Canada. During the Trent embargo, in 1891, he was one of the first to enroll on the formation of the University Rifle Company, and on leaving the university he joined the Thirtieth Battalion of Hamilton as a private, and has since risen in rank until he is now commanding lieutenant-colonel.
 He was present as lieutenant of the leading company of the battalion at Ridgeway in 1866 in the fight with the invading Fenians. Col. Gibson has a high reputation as a rifleman, and was one of the teammates to Wimbledon in the years 1874, 1875 and 1879, on each of which occasions he won honors as an admirable marksman. In the latter year his record was a splendid one, he succeeding in winning the Prince of Wales' prize of £100 and badge, and on the same occasion he was the winner of the Olympic or Snyder championship match.
 Col. Gibson commanded the Canadian team to Wimbledon in 1891, when the British team were defeated in the match for the Rajah of Kolapore's cup. Col. Gibson has held, and still holds, many prominent positions in connection with military affairs of the country and has been also almost as intimately connected with educational affairs.
 In the city of Hamilton, and at Toronto at the first election of members for the Senate of the University of Toronto, under the University Act of 1873, he was selected by his fellow-graduates as one of the first senators, and was repeatedly re-elected. He has been also prominently connected with the Freemasons for many years, and has held the office of grand master of the Grand Lodge of Canada for several recurring years.

It need hardly be said that Col. Gibson has actively associated with the Liberal party from his earliest manhood. For many years he was the indefatigable secretary of the Reform Association of Hamilton, and on the retirement of J. M. Williams, M.P.P., from public life in 1859, Col. Gibson was selected as the Reform candidate to fill the vacancy thus caused in the Hamilton representation, and after a very exciting and active campaign he defeated Mr. Hugh Murray, the most popular candidate the Conservatives could put in nomination, and he has been re-elected at every succeeding general election since up to the present time. At the last general election, however, he suffered an apparent defeat by the Conservative candidate, Mr.
 Stinson, who was returned by a considerable majority, but the return of that gentlemen was protested on the grounds of bribery, undue influences, etc., and a new election was ordered by the election court.
 In this second contest with Mr. Stinson, Col. Gibson was returned by an unusually large majority. It is a singular fact that though the city of Hamilton has returned Conservative members to the Dominion Parliament for many years past, it has never since Confederation returned any but Reform members to the Local Legislature. Indeed, it has sent only two different members, J. M. Williams and Col. Gibson, to the Ontario Legislature since the confederate of the Provinces in 1867. In January, 1899, Col. Gibson was called to the office of Provincial Secretary, as already intimated, by no means so unimportant an office as many people suppose, because there is little patronage connected with it.
 It involves a vast amount of labor on the part of the incumbent. In addition to the ordinary work of Provincial Secretary, prior to Hon. Mr. Hardy's occupancy, the office has attached the Department of Prisons, Charities and Public Institutions. In point of labor, therefore, the office of secretary is the heaviest burdened of all the Government departments. When we consider the vast amount of work entailed upon the secretary by the duties of his office, the numerous societies, military organizations, etc., of which he is the head, and by the law firm in which he still takes a very active part, and, in addition to all this, the legislative labors he has to perform when the House of Assembly is in session, one must arrive at the conclusion that he is one of the hardest worked and busiest men in the country; and so he is, but his vigorous and well-trained mental powers, as well as his strong physical constitution, seem to stand the strain without apparent fatigue.

In the House Col. Gibson does a large share of committee work, has been for a long time chairman of the committee on private bills, which is a position of no little difficulty and delicacy, and requiring a high degree of legal acumen, but no man is better qualified for the position than Col.
 Gibson. He is not a frequent speaker in the House, but when he addresses that body his speeches are clear, logical and always to the point, and clothed in the language of grace and precision, just such as might be expected from so accomplished a scholar. There is not a better informed man than Mr. Gibson in the whole House on all matters that come up for discussion either in the Assembly or the executive sessions of the Cabinet, nor is there one of sounder judgment. Courteous in manner, kindly and generous in disposition, self-possessed, without assumption, profoundly versed in law, literature, and the principles of sound legislation, unwearied in the discharge of his official duties, without a blemish on either his public or his private reputation, he fully merits and as fully receives the entire confidence and respect of his constituents, of the members of the House, and of his colleagues in the Ministry. Col. Gibson has been married three times and has met with several calamities in his domestic relations. He married Miss Emily Annie Birrell, of London, Ont., on Oct. 26, 1869, but she died on June 30, 1874. On Sept. 26, 1876, he married Caroline, second daughter of Hon. Adam Hope, Senator of the Dominion, and she died on Oct. 9, 1877. His third marriage was to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Judge Mullock, of Brockville, by whom he has several children.

A BRAVE DEED!

How the Helpless Steamer Ems Was Saved From SinkingAnd the Nearly Five Hundred Souls on Board Snatched From Impending Death—Women Kissed
the Captain.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 8.—The steamship Wildflower, which rescued the disabled North German Lloyd steamer Ems with nearly 500 souls aboard in mid-ocean on March 27 and towed the big liner to Fayal (Azores Islands), arrived at this port to-day from Bordeaux. The story of the Wildflower is a thrilling one, and depicts the heroism of the master in saving the ship under adverse circumstances.

The Wildflower left Cape Henlopen March 19. On March 20 she passed a number of icebergs. The Ems was sighted the next morning in the trough of a heavy cross sea and was firing guns and firing signals of distress. Capt. Livingston, the lowered the only boat left on his vessel, and after placing the chief officer in command and picking a crew sent the frail craft on its errand of mercy. After a long and tedious struggle the Ems was reached, and the chief officer was greeted as one from heaven. When the Wildflower's chief officer turned and reported that the Ems was leaking badly, and to leave her means certain death to those on board, Capt.
 Livingston promptly decided to risk everything in an effort to tow the ship to a haven of safety.

It required delicate and skillful maneuvering to work the Wildflower about in such heavy seas in a thick fog and so close to the Ems, but after four hard hours of patient toil the two hawsers were stretched between the vessels. When the Wildflower, with steam all on, her flumes belching out great thick clouds of black smoke, forged ahead and the lines creaked under the fearful strain, the passengers on the Ems sent up a mighty cheer.

The greatest peril, however, had just begun, for there was imminent risk of the lines fouling in the Wildflower's propeller and disabling her, too, but she forged ahead for Fayal. Good weather was enjoyed for two days, but on March 30 and 31 very heavy gales were encountered, and the Wildflower plunged again and again beneath the mountainous seas. Time and again she was almost wholly submerged, the towing strain keeping her stern down and preventing her from rising to the seas.

On April 1 a terrific gale came up with seas that rose to mountainous heights and the brave fellows on the Wildflower expected that their vessel would founder beneath them. Captain Livingston never flinched.

On April 20 the welcome spires of Fayal loomed up, and more mighty shouts of joy arose from the decks of the disabled Ems.
 Reaching a moorage, Capt. Livingston boarded the Ems and was at once surrounded by the overjoyed passengers. The women embraced and kissed him in spite of his blushes and protests, and the passengers cheered him till they grew too hoarse to cheer more and then told him over and over of their gratitude. When the people got off the Ems they crowded around the Wildflower in boats and cheered the officers and crew to the echo.

Toronto, May 7.—This appears to be an on an unsuspecting public in the hope of making an unmerited profit out of their worthless ideas. The unequalled success of Oswellings in the neck since I was 10 years old; am now 52. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared. It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so discommoded with the goitre and rheumatism I felt that I would soon be dead as alive. Whenever I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and I can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie Bigelow, now of Fremont, Mich., asking if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; I replied it was, and sent particulars. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla and stating that she also has been cured. Mrs. Anna Sutherland, Kalamazoo, Mich. Parliament Asked to Vote on the Prohibition Question:

Mr. Flint, of Yarmouth, N.S., Makes a Clear, forcible Statement of the Case.

The Government Scored for Its Assisted Emigration Policy.

Which Has Proved a Gigantic and Costly Failure—Labor Day to be a Statutory Holiday.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.) OTTAWA, May 7.—Private and miscellaneous business had precedence in the House to-day.

Sir John Thompson secured a first reading for a bill making the first Monday in September a statutory holiday. This is done at the request of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, who desire Labor Day to be a public holiday.

In reply to Mr. Casey, Sir C. H. Tupper said the Government had received a telegram from the Montreal Board of Trade, stating they could not believe that their representations in regard to the appointment of a shipping master would be passed over.

Mr. Lepine was informed by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries that the Government intended to appoint this year persons to act as inspectors of gear and tackle at the port of Montreal.

Mr. Wallace told Mr. Taylor that the Government intended to appoint the Montreal inspector of weights and measures referee in any disputes between buyers and sellers as to the weight of cheese.

Mr. Martin, in moving for papers in regard to immigration work, stated that the Government sent to Great Britain missionaries and experienced men chiefly to give political favorites a holiday at the public expense. He went on to speak of the policy of bringing in settlers from the United States, men who have failed to succeed there. It was necessary not only to bring these people in, but also in most instances to provide them with a loan to enable them to live. Settlers were now asking for the relief of mortgages given for these loans.

A great portion of these settlers located at Salt Coats and Yorkton, brought in at great expense, have left, and the remainder have not yet left because they have not money enough to get out. The whole transaction, said Mr. Martin, is a gigantic failure. He alluded to the Jews brought by Government agents from Chicago to Calgary as a waste of public money.

In his reply Mr. Daly denied that the Government had anything to do with the advances made to these settlers. They were made by the Canada Settlers' Loan Company. In regard to the Jews, Mr. Daly said that only 25 per cent were Jews. The others were Hungarians and Poles. Mr. Daly refused to believe that the settlers referred to were badly off, and read from the reports of immigration inspectors to show that Mr. Martin was altogether astray.

This brought Mr. Martin to his feet, with a copy of a petition sent recently to the Governor-General in council from the Salt Coats settlers, asking for legislation to prevent the land companies from taking mortgages on the homesteads, "inasmuch as not one settler would pay either interest or principal." The petition also asked that the Government should pay off the debts, and so retain the 50 per cent of the settlers who are left, otherwise there would be no alternative for the remaining half but to go.

Mr. Daly declared he preferred to believe his agents to the statements of "these people," who were trying to get the Government to pay off their mortgages, after the Government had brought them "out of their misery in Dakota."

The motion was passed.
Mr. Stairs, of Halifax, brought to the attention of the House the subject of adulterated teas in a resolution providing for inspection of teas and the destruction of adulterated teas. He described how black teas were adulterated. The exhausted leaves were spread out and sprinkled with tannic acid and otherwise prepared for the market. Green tea leaves were restored by the application of a paste composed of gypsum rice and prussian blue.

Mr. Wallace said that the tea imported under the new tariff from Great Britain would have to be of a quality fit for consumption according to the experts of the British customs. The same thing would apply to the teas from the United States, where they had a still more rigid inspection of teas. In addition appraisers were instructed to keep out of Canada adulterated teas.

Mr. Stairs declared that the Controller was mistaken, and that under the present customs machinery there was no means of keeping out adulterated teas.
The matter was shunted by Mr. Wallace moving the adjournment of the debate, which was carried after a protest from Mr. Mills, of Bothwell, who thought the matter deserved greater consideration from the Government.

Mr. Flint, of Yarmouth, N.S., moved: "That it is expedient that Parliament should enact a law to prohibit the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in Canada, except for medicinal, manufacturing and sacramental purposes." In support of this resolution, which is the official motion of the Dominion Alliance, Mr. Flint made a long and well-considered speech. He admitted that the resolution was worded a little vaguely, but explained it by reminding the House that it was made so purposely to please the supporters of Sir John Thompson in view of the Premier's declaration that nothing could be done in this direction. This session, he wanted it understood, however, that the phrase "as speedily as possible" had reference only to practical difficulties and not to any doubt as to jurisdiction or as to the ripeness of public opinion for such a measure. "Public opinion has traveled far and fast on this question of prohibition," Mr. Flint recited the history of the progress of this movement in Canada, and then took up the statistical and financial questions. He showed that not less than $40,000,000 worth of liquor and beer was consumed in Canada annually. He gave the capital invested in the liquor business in Canada as $8,309,000 in the 102 breweries, and $7,054,000 in the eight distilleries in Canada. The number of employees was 2,243, representing about 15,000 persons, and the amount paid in wages about $1,070,000. The value of the total output of distilleries and breweries was put down at $7,916,000. Whose interests, Mr. Flint asked, should be paramount—the 15,000 persons whose support depended on this trade or the 5,000,000 of the population?

He then dealt with the revenue question and the anticipated deficit, quoting Sir Leonard's statement in Parliament when Finance Minister, that he would undertake as Finance Minister to make up any deficiency in the revenue arising from prohibition. He also quoted Mr. Gladstone as saying: "The question of revenue must never stand in the way of needed reforms. Besides with a sober population I shall find a way to raise a revenue." Mr. Flint referred to the effect of Father Mathews' marvelous temperance crusade on the revenue of Ireland. The revenue did not decrease, but crime did. He replied to other objections to prohibition, such as injury to invested capital and the loss arising from throwing persons out of employment. Mr. Flint made many quotations from official and authoritative sources to show that there was nothing in these apprehensions or arguments.

While it was true that they could not make men sober by act of Parliament, it was equally true that they could greatly assist by removing temptation from the way. Parliament had always acted on the principle of interfering with anything which operated against the interests of the general mass of the community. Mr. Flint cited the plebiscites in the different provinces as showing the wishes of the people, and concluded with an urgent appeal to both political parties to combine in support of the resolution.

Dr. Roome seconded the motion, and congratulated Mr. Flint on his excellent speech. He referred to the fact that his predecessor, Hon. G. W. Ross, had once moved a similar resolution in this House. The agitation of many years had borne fruit, and both political parties were now united to stamp out the great evil of intemperance. If it could not be done otherwise, it would be a grand thing for the Government of Canada to initiate the example of England in the case of slavery and give a money compensation to ex-terminate the traffic. They should not be deterred by the question of revenue, because it was but a feather in the scale as against the beneficial results of a prohibitory law. The traffic was a tax on the mother and child as well as on the man, and if necessary to resort to direct taxation the sooner it was done the better for the country. He predicted that this agitation for a prohibitory law would be carried on until the Government of the day yielded.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Craig, Christie, Coatsworth, Dupont and McLean, of East York, and was, on motion of Sir Adolphe Caron, adjourned, and the House adjourned.

Mr. Foster gives notice of the following further tariff changes:

Chrome steel, 15 per cent.
Copper wire, 15 per cent.
Wire cloth, N. E. S., 30 per cent.

Cases for jewels, watches, silverware, plated ware, cutlery and other like articles, 50 cents each and 30 per cent ad val.

Wood pulp, 25 per cent.

Woody wheels, 35 per cent.
Mr. McLean, of East York, gives notice of the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this House the sale of spirituous liquors in the restaurant thereof ought to be prohibited."

FLAT 1.

The rear portion of the ground floor has all been thrown into one large, beautiful room, making a really magnificent Dress Goods Department. We have always enjoyed a superior reputation in this department, but with increased facilities we will be better able to display our wonderfully attractive assortments from time to time. It is now replete with the choicest Black and Colored Dress Goods, Silks, etc., etc., which every lady would do well to examine.

FLAT 2.

Our upstairs is now and will be a popular resort for the ladies in quest of Mantles, Millinery, etc. The rear portion of this flat is devoted to Millinery. It is well suited to the requirements of a showroom. Large mirrors grace the walls, and there is no darkness at all. Everything is cheerful—surroundings, as well as our beautiful Millinery Novelties. The center part is occupied by our popular House Furnishing Department, which includes such things as curtains, Table Covers, etc. The Mantle and Mantle Cloth Department occupies the entire front and gives us large accommodation which we much needed, so popular has this department become.

GO UP.

Our up departments are quite as accessible as those down. Our elevator is a great convenience. Already hundreds of persons who never before enjoyed an elevator ride are loud in its praises now. They will never take the stairs again. It is a decidedly attractive feature, as it is constructed on a principle that entirely does away with the fear of accidents. It is not on the old cable system, but has a large steel shaft running fifteen feet into the earth, which is forced up by water pressure. It cannot go higher or lower than the length of this shaft. In descending it gradually displaces the water which forced it up. The car is elegantly fitted with chairs and mirrors, is in a magnificent brass-finished cage, with sliding doors, and works as noiselessly and easily as a bicycle. Best of all, it is absolutely safe. With words we seem entirely unable to convey anything like an adequate idea of the wonderful transformation that has taken place throughout the store.

Tariff Reduction by Degrees.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 7.—A Washington dispatch says the Senate finance committee concerning which there has been much speculation says: "The McKinley tariff is to remain untouched until Jan. 1, 1895, then a reduction of 10 per cent is to be made, followed by an annual 10 per cent reduction until absolute free trade is reached." This schedule, it is reported, has been submitted to the New England manufacturers by the Democrat woolen manufacturers, and they have agreed to it. Several prominent Rhode Island manufacturers were in Washington last week and urged the committee to adopt it. The committee was favorably impressed with the proposition, it is said. This settlement of wool tariff the Democrat manufacturers claim would start the mills up immediately and enable manufacturers to make preparations for reductions in the tariff in a way that would not disturb trade seriously.

Demands of Kansas Suffragists.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., May 7.—The opening meetings of the suffragists in Kansas that have closed here after being participated in by many of the leading woman's rights leaders of the country, unanimously adopted resolutions demanding that the Republicans and Populists endorse the suffrage amendments in their state platforms. Mrs. Laura M. Johns, president of the State association, declared that if neither party saw fit to espouse the cause of woman suffrage, the women of the State would keep up the fight alone.

Paine's Celery Compound Banishes Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

A Permanent Cure After Years of Agony.

No Failure When Nature's Remedy is Used.

Mr. George Geary, of Rodney, Ont., writes as follows:

"For a number of years I was greatly troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, and tried many doctors, but got little or no relief until I purchased a bottle of your Paine's Celery Compound from our druggist, Mr. Harvey. The medicine gave prompt relief, and what has proved to be permanent relief, and I believe it to be unequalled for these afflictions, also as a nerve tonic. Deriving so much benefit from its use, I am pleased to recommend it to my friends, or to persons who suffer in the way I did, as a most reliable remedy for these ailments."

Paine's Celery Compound sweeps away disease with a power unknown to other medicines. It is the life-renewer that every suffering man, woman and child should use, when pain and agony make life miserable and unbearable.

This wonderful medicine is the noblest gift that medical science has ever given to the world. It is fast superseding all other medicines for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness and general debility. It is recommended and prescribed by physicians all over the country, as the best and safest agent for the cure of all the above-mentioned troubles and diseases. For true merit, worth and honest results, Paine's Celery Compound stands on the highest pinnacle of fame.

Let us say to those who are not laid up with sickness or disease—those who are merely ailing—that one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound will surely prevent sickness and serious trouble. When you feel tired, weary, worn out and overdone, a few doses of nature's life-giver will give you renewed strength, vigor and activity.

Two Ridgetown Men Have a Close Call.RIDGETOWN, May 7.—Mr. Wm. Perkins, of Elton, and Westland's Bank, and Mr.
Samuel, of the Molsons Bank, had a close call on Saturday. They, in company with others, went on a fishing excursion to the Eau. Messrs. Perkins and Samuel took a small duck boat, which sunk soon after getting into the channel. Their companions, who were in the boat house, did not hear Perkins and Samuel's shouts for help, and the two would doubtless have drowned but for the assistance of Mr. Wm.
Weldon, who, though half a mile away, saw them and put off to their rescue.

Intemperance Among Women.

There is much said about the growing habit of intemperance among women; perhaps more than the facts would warrant.
If this habit exists it is owing to the fact that women are often forced to perform domestic, and social duties under great physical suffering, and by partaking of liquors for temporary relief or a little protection of strength, the habit becomes a necessity. If all ladies who suffer with the complaint peculiar to their sex, would take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, they would find nature's restorative, and the evil results of pernicious drugs and liquors would be avoided. For all cases of nervous and general debility, sleeplessness, spasms, periodical pains, suppressions and irregularities, it is the only medicine so certain in curative action that it can be guaranteed to benefit or cure or money returned.

pliances as found in the first-class dental north end of No. 2 ward, to an ADVERTISER reporter last night, “I noticed a shameful fight at the rear of Carling's Brewery buildings. Two young men, whose faces were besmeared with blood, gave evidence of a most brutal fight, witnessed by from 20 to 30 boys and young men. I en-mission to lepers in India and the East, was held in Somerset Hall yesterday afternoon. The meeting was opened with scripture reading and prayer by the vice-president, Mrs. Crawford. A letter from Mr. Bailey was read by Miss Morris in acknowledgment of $40 sent by the society in March. Letters from the Mandalay Leprosy Asylum were read by Miss Yates, and a very effective solo, “Jesus Is Mine,” was beautifully rendered by Miss Lillywhite. An interesting and instructive paper was read by Miss Minnie Laidlaw, contrasting the state of the native leper asylums of Damascus and Jerusalem with those of the asylums of Chanday and Assau, which are under the control of the mission to lepers in India and the East.

brought into town yesterday by Mr.

ing on the Grand Trunk track. Then he disappeared and turned up yesterday afternoon near the asylum. He was very sore and tired and had spent the time wandering around the country.

Ward 2—W. L. Club.

Last evening the Workingmen's Legis-

The meeting was very largely attended and was most enthusiastic. H. B. Keene was called to the chair. Speeches were delivered by Messrs. Mackie, Brent, Brodie, Cummins, Keene, J. M. Johnson, Thornhill, Arter, and others. Messrs. Cummins, Thornhill, and Burrook were elected at the executive board. The general executive of the six clubs will meet in Labor Hall next Monday evening to arrange for a plan of action and amendments. In addition to the platform, the same to be submitted to a general union meeting of all the ward clubs to be called as soon as possible afterwards. The meeting adjourned at 10:15

Jolly “Dr. Bill” Thursday.

The performance on Thursday, May 10 (matinee and evening), of “Dr. Bill,” will be the laughing event of the season at the Grand Opera House. For this date the management has booked the famous farcical conceit, “Dr. Bill,” from the Garden Theater, New York, which will be presented with the same general attention and detail that characterized its production during its memorable run of 210 nights in the metropolis. “Dr. Bill” is a comedy in all that the word implies. It is one great, long laugh, and applies particularly to ladies and young folks. It points a wholesome moral as well as to a contemplating matrimony. Built upon a quaintly humorous story, and combining as it does refined high class comedy with the popular features of the vaudeville stage, makes it one of the merriest and most popular theatrical attractions now on the road. The company, which will present it here is the original one, and has been identified with its success for the past four years.

Masonic Farewell and Welcome.

Last night the meeting of Tuscan Lodge, No. 195, A. F. and A. M., was unusually interesting. The Masonic hall was crowded, the brethren being assembled to bid farewell to R. Wor. Bro. Barker, P. G. S. W., an esteemed member of the lodge, and to welcome M. W. Bro. Daniel Spry, a respected past grand master, to this jurisdiction. Wor. Bro. Baitner exemplified the sublime degree, after which R.
Wor. Bro. P. W. D. Broderick, who paid an official visit to the lodge, congratulated his brethren on the work and on the progress of the lodge. Then R. Wor.
Bro. A. W. Forté, treasurer of Tuscan, was called on. He feelingly referred to the departure of R. Wor. Bro. Barker, who had proved a most estimable member of the craft since he came to London, and had aided in bringing Tuscan Lodge to the high position which it now occupies. He then presented R. Wor. Bro. Barker with a full set of past grand senior warden's regalia of very fine workmanship. R. Wor.
Bro. Barker made a feeling reply.
He referred to the many happy hours he had spent with his brethren in London and the west. He entertained the highest regard for Tuscan Lodge, would remain a member of it, and would visit his brethren as often as opportunity presented. Wor. Bro. Barker made a graceful allusion to his successor in the postoffice inspectorate here (M. Wor. Bro.
Spry), with whom he had been first associated, 37 years ago, as a clerk in Toronto, and he knew M. Wor. Bro. Spry to be a past grand master who would be most invaluable to the craft in this western district,and while he regretted leaving he was glad his place was to be taken by a craftsman so generally respected. R. Wor. Bro.
Barker said he could not find words to express to the brethren his appreciation of their magnificent present. Mr.
Wor. Bro. Spry was vociferously applauded on being introduced to the assemblage. He came to London intending to make it his home, and to be as useful as his talents permitted him. He would certainly continue to take an interest in the craft, and hoped to be of use among them. He was satisfied R. Wor.
Bro. Barker was well worthy of his promotion, and he joined with the brethren in wishing him godspeed. Among the brethren present in addition to those already mentioned were: R. Wor. Bros. J. S. Dewar and A. B. Munson, Very Wor. Bros. Thos.
Beattie, J. D. Clarke, A. B. Smythe, E.
Burke, Wor. Bros. A. E. Cooper, A. E.
Greer, Geo. Hampton, W. D. McMillan, Dr. McLaren, Skinner, Callard, Morgan, A. Carrothers, Col. Fisher, Rowatt (Niles-town), Geo. B. Laing, Vanston, J. S.
Robertson (St. Thomas), A. McWhinney, A. A. Campbell, Wm. Thornton. A letter of regret was received from R. Wor. Bro.
R. B. Hungerford, secretary of Tuscan Lodge, expressing his regret at inability to be present to join in honoring R. Wor.
Bro. Barker. At the close of the proceedings the brethren spent an hour in toast, sentiment and song in the library.

FOR FIFTY-THREE YEARS

The Mechanics' Institute Has Been Organized.The Annual Meeting—Receipts, Disbursements, Assets and Liabilities—Books in the Library.The 53rd annual meeting of the London Mechanics' Institute was held last night, the only members in attendance being Messrs. Mm. Searrow, president, in the chair; W. J. Harvey, secretary; Alex.
Harvey, treasurer; John Shopland, T.
Partridge, R. Hannah, Talbot Macbeth, C. B. Edwards and W. J. Saunby. The business before the meeting chiefly consisted of the usual annual reports, which showed the institute in a flourishing condition.The meeting was opened with a short address by Mr. Searrow, in which he referred to the situation of the institute at present and what effect a free library would have.
The institute was in a peculiar position, and would have various things to grapple with. He thought that when the people voted on the free library question they did so on the understanding that the institute would be taken over, and thus avoid a large expenditure. This would have been easily done, and would save a great increase in taxation.The financial statement for the year was presented by the treasurer, Mr. A. Harvey. It stated that the members' fees were very small, but it was accounted for by the action of the city council in giving a grant of $500 in 1893 on condition that the reading-room and library be left open to the public. The institute has received $250 from the city for the first three
