ITALY MAY BE FACING CIVIL WAR; ARMY GENERALS ARE EXPECTED TO AID IN OVERTHROWING GOVT.

Alarmist Reports Are Being Circulated in Rome—Foreign Minister Tittoni Urges Resignations of Members in Nitti Cabinet—1,000,000 Men Are On Strike and General Dissatisfaction Prevails.

Rome, Thursday, Sept. 27.—Alarmist reports are current in this city, one being that a civil war is imminent. On one side would be ranged the nationalist and militarist factions, which would be opposed by the Socialists. Several generals are credited with the intention of heading the militarist faction with a view to controlling the Government, it being said that they believe the weakness of those in power since the armistice caused the present deadlock. Some of these generals have already been mentioned as being in league with Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio before the Fiume raid, with the object of overthrowing by force the Nitti cabinet and replacing it with a military dictatorship.

SERBIA WILLING TO SIGN TREATY WITH AUSTRIA

Change in Jugo-Slav Attitude Brings About Reconsideration.

Paris, Sept. 27.—Serbia is now willing to sign the Austrian treaty, to which the representatives of Jugo-Slavia declined to attach their signatures when the document was signed by the delegates of the other powers, with the exception of Rumania, at St. Germain, on September 10, according to the Petit Parisien today. This change in the Jugo-Slav attitude has been caused by the explanations of former Premier Pachitch and Foreign Minister Tschirsky at a convention held in Arcoia to contest the by-election for the federal seat vacated by J. G. Turritt.

D'ANNUNZIO MAKES APPEAL TO FRENCH

Tells of Conditions Under Which He Entered Fiume.

Paris, Sept. 27.—Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio, whose sensational raid on Fiume brought about serious complications in the Adriatic, has written an appeal to the French, He explains that, though ill in bed, he rose, and "under the influence of spirit," with his comrades took possession of the city and territory, some ships and a part of the line of the armistice in a few hours. He declares soldiers sent against him have come over to his side with their arms.

Big Gold Shipment From England Has Reached New York

New York, Sept. 26.—In the first free movement of gold from England to America since the outbreak of the war, a shipment of $2,000,000 from Rothschild's, while a larger but unstated amount contained in the bank of the Bank of America, arrived later in the day on the steamship Mauretania. Permission of the Bank of America had to be obtained to make the shipments, which are believed to be the forerunner of a big gold movement toward New York.

R. W. MOTHERWELL IS CHOSEN BY LIBERALS FOR SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, Sept. 27.—R. W. Motherwell, former minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan, was nominated by the Liberals of the Assiniboia constituency at a convention held in Arcoia to contest the by-election for the federal seat vacated by J. G. Turritt.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 27.—The close of the first week of the steel workers strike was not expected to see any radical changes in the situation. Both sides today virtually marked time waiting for Monday, when both steel companies and strike leaders expect a change. Steel company officials said they did not expect any considerable number of men to return to the mills today, but did look for a general influx with the beginning of the new week.

Granting of National Charter to Unions Is Also Recommended.

Hamilton, Sept. 27.—Legislation restricting the right of policemen to organize and affiliate with the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress was opposed by the special committee appointed by the congress to inquire into the question of police organization. This is included in one of two resolutions which constitute the report. The other resolution favors the granting of a national charter to unions who have expressed a desire to form a national federation. Indorsement of the report was made by the congress late last night. The motion reads:

Whereas, at a meeting of police chiefs assembled in Calgary, a resolution was passed urging legislative action to restrict the right of policemen to organize and affiliate with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada; and whereas, such legislative action would be an infringement of the inherent right of every man to associate himself with his fellows for mutual protection and advancement; therefore, be it resolved that this congress hereby emphatically protests against any such legislative action and pledges its full support to the police forces of the Dominion in the maintenance of their rights.

Employees of Underground Lines Are Expected To Walk Out in Sympathy With Railroaders—Many Citizens in British Capital Forced To Walk To Work When Bus and Tram Service Proves Inadequate To Handle Crowds—Government Officials Declare "Door Is Closed" For Future Negotiations.

London, Sept. 27.—Inquirers at all steam railway stations in London this morning received the uniform reply of "no trains running" as a result of the strike order issued at midnight by the National Union of Railwaymen.

While a number of the underground lines in this city continued operation during the early hours today, it was declared the decision of the underground motormen's union last night to support the National Union of Railwaymen will result in a complete tie-up of the subways today. Thousands could not be accommodated by the wholly inadequate bus and tram services which were in operation this morning, and were obliged to walk to work.

Many resorted to bicycles and even to roller skates. The Government, having failed in its negotiations with the union to adjust the situation, is said to be prepared to operate the railways with armed forces if necessary, but its definite program for meeting the conditions before the country has not yet developed. It has issued orders placing all England under a war regime, so far as food and fuel is concerned, and it was stated yesterday the mails would be carried by airplane. So far, the employees of the Irish railroads have not struck.

A DISQUIETING FEATURE.

One of the most disquieting features of the situation is the possibility that the miners and transport workers, who, with the railwaymen form what is known as the "Triple Alliance," may also strike. This would bring a tremendous addition to the ranks of the strikers and still further complicate an already serious crisis in the labor world of England.

Government spokesmen declare the action of the union officials in quitting the conference with the cabinet has "closed the door" to further negotiations. On the other hand, President Cramp of the union, declares the organization is ready to continue conversations, but that the Government must recede from its position which, it is alleged, brought about the decision to send out the strike order.

PERISHABLE FREIGHT TRANSPORTED IN MOTORS DRIVEN BY SOLDIERS

London, Sept. 27.—So far as could be learned this morning the members of the National Union of Railwaymen had walked out in a body, and that the stoppage of service was completed. Telephone and telegraph reports to the executive committee of the union from distant centres show that local branches are supporting the committee's action.

Railroad depots here were open this morning, but with the exception of a few people who were not aware of the strike, they were deserted. Even of the Southern Railway, which is not a member of the union, the big freight yards motor cars driven by soldiers were carrying off perishable goods which were on late trains from outlying sections.

BRITISH PRESS CALLS FOR AN INVESTIGATION BY PARLIAMENT

London, Sept. 27.—Several papers, commenting on the strike, urge an immediate summoning of Parliament, and there are some indications this will be done. It is contended that the nation does not know the full story, and that only searching debates in the House of Commons will reveal it.

All shades of opinion in the London press, except the Laborite Herald, condemn the National Union of Railwaymen. The editorial expressed the desire to treat the men fairly, and asserted they are "entitled to every consideration," but it is asserted they have put themselves entirely in the wrong by "needlessly forcing an industrial trial war upon the country three months before the negotiating period would elapse."

SMALL ATTENDANCE AT FOOTBALL GAMES BECAUSE OF STRIKE

London, Sept. 27.—A sidelight upon the nation-wide railway strike, which took effect today, was the way in which the attendance at the Saturday football games was affected. Hundreds of players and tens of thousands of spectators were prevented from attending the grounds.

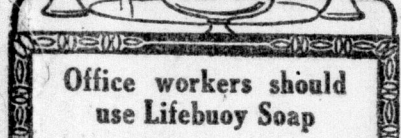

SMILLIE HOPES BIG RAILWAY STRIKE WILL NOT CAUSE UPRHEAVAL

Glasgow, Sept. 27.—Robert Smillie, leader of the miners' union, said here this morning he hoped the railway crisis would pass without an industrial upheaval. He believed, however, he said, this was possible only by the men securing the demands they had made, and the majority of the people consider just.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A five-line dispatch in Eastern papers early this summer told how 100 workers with I. W. cards had been arrested in the oil fields of Oklahoma and Kansas. These men were fed in the jails of Kansas to death by Dr. Anthonp D. Lane, said the Survey.

Life in Kansas Jails
 "The information I read in the eastern papers," says the Kenton man, "is significant for reasons not apparent on the surface. It means, if the ex-convicts are members of the I. O. O. F., W. W. during that time, that they are, as a rule, sane. It means that these men faced an indefinite confinement in Kansas jails, that they were not kept in semi-dark and disease-breeding cells; that they would be fed with nutritious food, and not with rats and vermin; that they would be educated and that they would be allowed to earn a few quarters too small for them and then to spend their days within small cells, but that they would not be kept absolutely idle and that their faculties would suffer from disuse; that they would be allowed to exercise their physical; abuse would be the strength of their own numbers; that for months they would be allowed to see the real light of day, much less to see the end of doors; and that some of their number would in all probability go into an attempt to escape."
 "That is what it is to live in many confinement of these men. They had not been proved guilty of any crime; they were merely awaiting trial. For aught anybody knew, they might ultimately be acquitted. How, then, would the United States make up to them what they had lost?

The Shawnee jail is a typical county lock-up in structure. Its outer walls are of brick. Men are confined in a sort of room within a room, formed by constructing a rectangular stockade inside the brick walls. The walls of this stockade are of steel lat-

No daylight ever reaches this part of the stockade. A single electric bulb sheds a ghostly glimmer over the faces of the men; this bulb is kept lighted day and down, as they did during my visit, their heavy shoes clanking at every step, the noise is nerve-racking.

"Only eight of the 10 cells are used for prisoners. One of the remaining two has a toilet seat and wash bowl in it, the other a bathtub. During the day the men have free access to the

Seven Injured in Mine Accident in Nova Scotia Town

SYDNEY, N. S., Sept. 26.—Seven men were seriously injured, three of them dangerously, in a bad mine accident at No. 12 colliery, New Waterford, yesterday afternoon. At 3:30 the rake or train of boxes with seats was bringing the last batch of men from the pit. In the rake were eight boxes or cars, each containing twelve men, 56 in all. At No. 8 landing, said to be about half a mile from the surface, the chains became entangled in a guardrail, and the rake jumped the track. One of the boxes dragged for some distance before a stop could be made, and seven of the men in it were very badly hurt. The injured men are in Waterford Hospital.

BILL DISQUALIFYING ORIENTAL VOTERS IS WARMLY DISCUSSED

Is Given Second Reading in House of Commons.

LEMIEUX OBJECTS TO IT

Holds That Person Admitted to Country Should Have Franchise.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—In a sitting, which lasted for about two hours and a half, the House of Commons today discussed a number of minor bills standing on the order paper. A bill to amend the Dominion by-elections act so as to provide for disqualification of Oriental voters in federal by-elections threatened to raise the vexed question of Chinese, Japanese and Hindu immigration into British Columbia.

When the bill was in the committee stage, A. R. McMaster took strong ground that any person who was admitted to Canada, Oriental or otherwise, should be allowed the franchise. Mr. H. Stevens in reply suggested that if McMaster had seen thousands of coolies arriving at Montreal, he would perhaps be less anxious to give such persons votes.

Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, speaking as one who had been in Japan, declared that the Japanese as a race were up-to-date, highly cultured and clean, and that neither they nor the Hindus should be deprived of their votes.

The bill was finally reported, and now stands for third reading.

Third reading was given a bill to amend the naturalization act by providing that foreigners in Ontario seeking naturalization might come before a judge of the court of general sessions.

Hon. Arthur Meighen introduced a bill to amend the Dominion lands act to provide for the continuation in effect of orders-in-council giving priority in entry to returned soldiers.

To remedy a oversight, the bill to amend the Dominion by-elections act, which had become necessary, said the solicitor-general, by reason of what appeared to be an oversight when the by-elections act of 1914 was passed.

Under the act of last session, provincial disqualification of Oriental voters in British Columbia would have no effect. Such voters would be entitled to vote at a Dominion by-election in British Columbia. Ernest Lapointe asked if it was correct that under its provisions a Japanese who had been in Japan, and who was a British subject would be disqualified from voting in a Dominion by-election in British Columbia, although qualified to vote in the other provinces.

A MOTHER'S TRIALS

Care of Home and Children Often Causes a Breakdown.

The woman at home, deep in household duties and the cares of motherhood, needs occasional help to keep her in good health. The demands upon a mother's help are many and severe. Her own health trials and her children's welfare exact heavy tolls, while hurried meals, broken rest and much indoor living tend to weaken her constitution. No wonder that the woman at home is often indisposed through weakness, headaches, backaches and nervousness. Too many women have grown to accept these visitations as a part of the lot of motherhood. But many and varied as her health troubles are, the cause is simple and the cure at hand. When well, it is the woman's good blood that keeps her well; when ill she must make her blood rich to renew her health. The nursing mother more than any other woman in the world needs rich blood and plenty of it. There is one always unfailing way to get this good blood so necessary to perfect health, and that is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills make new blood abundantly, and through their use thousands of weak, ailing wives and mothers have been made bright, cheerful and strong. If you are ailing, easily tired, or depressed, it is a duty you owe yourself and your family to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. What this medicine has done for others it will surely do for you.

ONE MORE MYSTERY MAN NEAR LUCKNOW SETS DISTRICT AGOG

LUCKNOW, Sept. 26.—Two young women, while driving from here to Wingham, caught up to an unkempt-looking man, poorly dressed and with a "wild mop" who has caused such excitement around here during the past month. They notified Constable Phippen when they arrived at Wingham.

He went out and found the man sitting on the veranda of George Twitt's, where he had asked for a lunch. Constable Phippen arrested him on suspicion and took him to the jail at Wingham. It is not thought, however, that he is the man seen nude at Dickie's Hill.

The latter was seen on Tuesday down Belfast by a gang of apple packers. He had no clothing except a cap and a shirt. The authorities at Lucknow were notified, but when they arrived he had disappeared into the swamp again, and has not been seen since. The appearance of so many different mystery men is causing much anxiety through the country.

Word has been received in town of the death of Mrs. Robert Irving, mother of Mrs. J. B. L. Cascade, who resided here for many years. The late Mrs. Irving died in Philadelphia, and the remains were taken to Teeswater for interment today. She was nearly 70 years of age.

A Montreal Woman's Experience — Says Internal Bathing Saved Her Life.

If the thousands of men and women with constipation and the many ill which follow would bathe internally instead of continually dosing themselves with drugs, they would soon realize why every user of the J. B. L. Cascade is so enthusiastic in its praise. There should be one in every home. Keep the colon clean and free from poisonous waste and you will not need the doctor.

Mr. Robert Gordon, 422 Cadillac street, Montreal, Que., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of the J. B. L. Cascade. It has saved my life. I have been troubled with constipation, piles and ulceration of the bowels for years. Millions of people are suffering from these troubles, and am happy to be doing my own work again after having been laid up for many months. I would not take one hundred dollars for my Cascade if I could not procure another."

The J. B. L. Cascade is the only perfect appliance for internal bathing, the invention of Dr. Charles A. Tyrrell of New York, and is doing more & saving more lives than any other means combined.

This appliance is shown and explained at Standard Drug Company, Limited. Phone or ask them for free booklet, "Why Mr. Tyrrell's Hygienic Cascade is the only 50% Efficient," or write Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute, 163 College street, Toronto.

The Franklin Sedan

Distances seem one-third less when riding in the Franklin Sedan because its light weight and flexible construction minimize road roughness, and conceal its real speed from the occupants.

One natural result of this is that persons who drive and ride in the Franklin Sedan are never as fatigued by a long trip as experience with other cars has led them to expect. They do not hesitate, therefore, to undertake longer journeys than they ever dared to attempt before.

And when the owner consults his gasoline and tire mileage, he finds, as proof of the unusual economy effected by exclusive Franklin principles, these actual results:

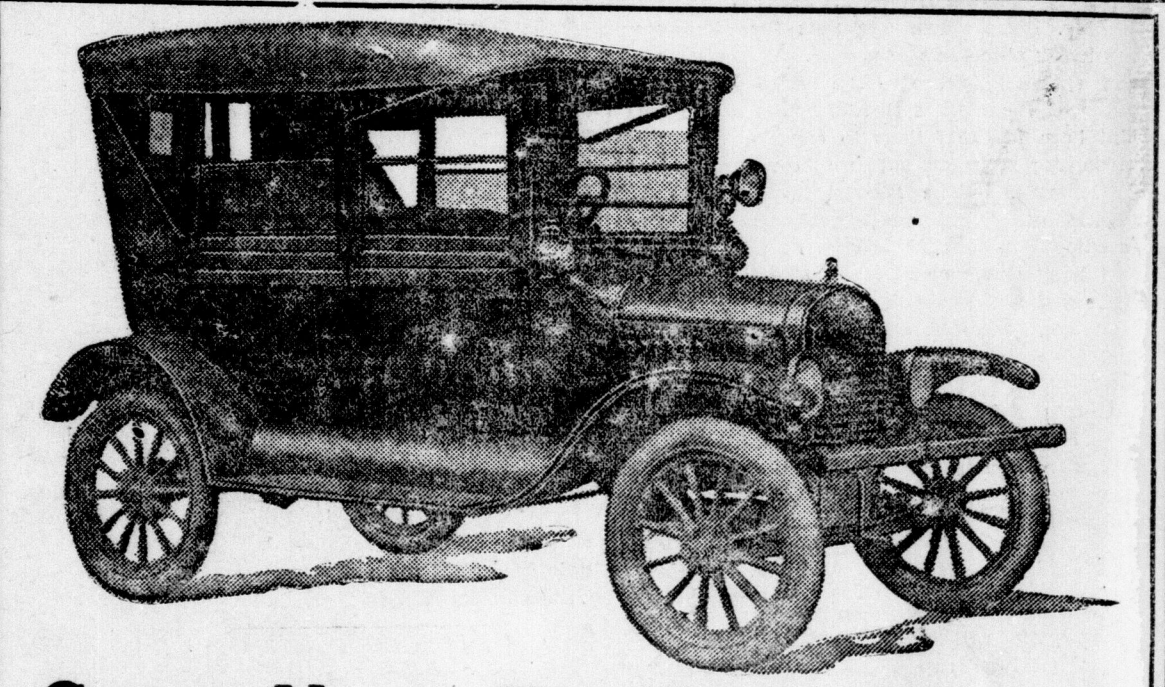

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline
12,500 miles to the set of tires
50% slower yearly depreciation

Winter or summer, the Franklin Sedan never needs extra attention, because it is direct air cooled, and has no water to boil or freeze. It can be used the year around, regardless of weather.

It is attractive and convenient in structure. Its Wide Observation Windows give unobstructed outlook; its two Wide Doors increase riding view and facilitate entrance; its Slanting V-shaped Windshield adds fine lines and broadens driving vision. Together with the Sloping French-style Hood, these features distinguish it at once from the ordinary car.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

CLEAN THE SLOUGH.

There will be a general support for Mr. McKenzie's resolution demanding an investigation of the working of the war time election act. The telegrams which have been cited indicate a very ugly business that should, like every hidden abscess, be probed and brought to light. Our governmental procedure must not be permitted by indifference to be degraded to the level of things in Mexico. Dr. Clark, who protested against the investigation as "party politics," admitted, nevertheless, that the war time election act was a "crude method." Its crudeness would seem to have developed into downright criminality or near it in the working out.

As Mr. McMaster said, the minister of the interior has hardly denied sending the telegram which called for an "allotment" of 1,000 soldier votes for Manitoba constituencies. The member for Peterborough assured the House it was perfectly all right for government officials at the front to guide the soldiers' votes to the right constituencies. Mr. McMaster replied that soldiers were dragged by regiments to vote for one candidate or another. Just what happened should come out in an inquiry. It would seem that government workers looked upon the men as conscripted not only to fight the Huns, but for the Unionist firing line in the constituencies. The manhood of our soldiers was trafficked in for party purposes, just as the British flag has been trafficked in for Conservative purposes in this country at any election since the high exclusive tariff was placed on imports from Great Britain back in 1878. The allotment of conscripted votes in masses wherever needed for a Unionist majority is a far greater crime against the spirit of democratic and constitutional government than any gerrymander ever was. Negro voters were never more contemptuously treated in any southern state than our soldiers have been by the ruling Ottawa ring. Men like Mr. Meighen bid an open and cynical defiance to democratic and decent sentiment.

Honeycombed with trickery, our Canadian capital recalls that city of Carnal Policy where Mr. Worldy Wiseman dwelt, in the Pilgrim's Progress. We should address him now as Sir Worldly. Other figures of Bunyan's allegory can be made out quite easily in the murky of our Carnal Policy. There is Mr. Facing-Both-Ways, of course, with an ear to the ground. Sir Formalist Smoothman will be finding oily reasons why the working of the infamous election act should not be inquired into. The Hon. Mr. No-good and Mr. Anything will vote against the resolution. Their slogan is "hush." What with "rotten policy" and dismal charges, Canada is coming to be, politically, a Slough of Despond. Let us have a cleaning up. It will do us as much good as the trial of the Kaiser.

MORE DEWART FACTS.

Mr. Dewart has a genius for digging up the irrefutable facts of a case. Witness his unanswerable exposure of the nickel infamy. Another of the Hearst Government's sins he has laid bare is the failure to carry out promises given the returned soldiers in regard to land settlements. The Liberal leader discovered that in establishing seventy-seven returned men in camps—although nearly half a million dollars had been spent on the purpose—the men had been grossly deceived as to the Government's promises. Schools, stores, medical attendance, instructors in farming, had not been supplied in most cases. The supply of horses and cattle was totally inadequate, and the promised supply of implements with which to till the land has been long removed. These are charges that cannot be refuted. What does the public think of a government which so outrageously neglects the returned soldier?

THE SUMMER SCHOOL IDEA.

A new publication makes its appearance in Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Western University Summer School Bulletin. It is designed to link up the students who are here for the short summer course with the wider activities of the university, and if its editors can maintain the interest and vigor that marks their first issue they may be sure that no copies will remain unread.

The summer school idea has never taken as deep root in Canada as in other countries, notably in the United States. That there is need for it in this country is quite evident when half a dozen teachers of this city go to a single American University, Columbia, for advanced work, as was the case this past summer. Western University is breaking new ground with its summer courses, and as these come to include graduate as well as undergraduate work it will doubtless be found that the constituency is large.

The attendance at American summer schools is really remarkable. Columbia had over 5,000 students in attendance during July and the early part of August. Chicago had a much greater number, while at Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Cornell and other leading universities there were from two to four thousand students in each case. Chicago University makes its summer work a part of its regular course, giving the same instruction and the same credit as to a student attending in any other quarter. Almost all summer work anywhere can be counted towards a degree, and graduate work may also be done.

When it is remembered that any of these great institutions has property in the shape of buildings, laboratories and libraries worth millions of dollars, the economic waste if allowed to lie idle during the summer can easily be seen. Furthermore, the summer work brings in the really earnest students, those who are prepared to work hard and long. On the other hand, the sojourn at a university is full of interest and pleasure to the students, and usually there are special features provided that are not on the regular curriculum. There should be every effort made to develop the summer school in London. It will perform a useful service to those who cannot attend the ordinary courses, and will eventually be found a strong influence in increasing the number of students in the regular undergraduate work.

THE O. B. U. KNOCKED OUT.

It would be unwise to say that the One Big Union is dead, so far as Canada is concerned, as a result of the denunciation by the Trades and Labor Congress, but it is clear that it has received a heavy blow. When in a representative body of Canadian trade unionists there was but one vote in defence of the organization and what it stands for, it is patent that the O. B. U. idea is unacceptable to the vast majority of this country's organized workers. It was hardly to be expected after the Winnipeg crisis that the congress would reach any other conclusion. There seems little doubt but that the flare-up at the Manitoba capital was a deliberate attempt to use the strike as a political rather than an industrial weapon, in order to upset constitutional government, replacing it with a soviet or near-soviet type of rule. At any rate, that was, and no doubt still is, the ultimate purpose of the O. B. U., as abundantly shown by the frank admission of leaders, and the methods employed in the strike. The One Big Union would have Canadian labor cut loose from every influence that has helped advance the workers' conditions in this country, notably the affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. It has shown itself to be a wreck, inclined to tear down rather than to build up. That is not the way labor has progressed in Canada, nor does it propose to permit such Bolshevistic ways to interfere with further advance and expansion. Canadian trade unionism wants nothing to do with intolerance and class hatred. That is the plain lesson in the action of the Hamilton convention in administering a black eye to the One Big Union.

ADVANCES IN LABOR LEGISLATION.

The recommendations of the Industrial Conference recently held at Ottawa with regard to needed labor legislation, give interest to the report of the American Association for Labor Legislation which has just been issued. The chief gains in 1919, as far as the United States is concerned, have been in the field of social insurance. Four additional states have enacted workmen's compensation laws, making a total of forty-five states and territories now protected. Almost all of these states have improved their law in some way during the past year, the tendencies being along the line of more liberal benefits, shorter waiting period and wider scope. Ten states raised their scale of compensation, so that there are now twenty-three states which pay injured workers from 60 to 66 per cent of their wages.

Compulsory health insurance has been passed by the New York Senate, while several states are considering recent reports of their commissions appointed to investigate this subject. Women's hours have been reduced in six states, with Massachusetts passing an eight-hour limit after a long struggle. Minimum wage legislation has come in North Dakota, making fourteen states so provided. The minimum wage for women was the one subject unanimously endorsed by the recent Ottawa conference. Eight states have improved their child labor laws this year, and Congress has re-enacted the child labor regulations which the supreme court declared unconstitutional.

Five states have passed legislation to provide vocational rehabilitation for industrial cripples, while the United States Senate has already passed the Smith-Bankhead bill extending the present federal-state system of vocational education to cover maimed victims of accidents in industry.

It is plain that the feeling shown at Ottawa that the Dominion must make considerable advance in labor legislation is warranted by what is being done along this line in the country to the south, and parallels for which would probably be found in much recent British legislation.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Mexican rebels are the latest to unionize, all hands getting together under Villa's leadership.

The coming demise of the Union Government may explain the mystery of why the custom house flag is at half-mast these days.

The mayor of Milwaukee protests against his city being visited by Belgian royalty. But who wants to go to Milwaukee, now, anyway?

A literary critic of Mr. Wilson says the president has no poetry in him. However, his senatorial critics assert he has plenty of fiction.

Those ministers who talk of striking for higher wages will have the sympathy of every fair-minded man and woman. With few exceptions the men of this noble profession are self-sacrificing in the interests of their fellows. To them we turn for spiritual comfort and support in those dark hours that enter every home, and it is given generously and effectively, as millions will testify. The clergyman is to be found wholeheartedly fighting for the cleanest, healthiest and happiest communal life, combating the mean, the indecent and the dishonest. Yet he is grossly underpaid. His is a case of the laborer being more than worthy of his hire as present stipends go.

HANDSOME IS AS HANDSOME DOES.

[Christian Science Monitor.]
There is nothing beautiful about coal. In England, the home of the open grate, where everybody sees it and most people handle it every day of the week for seven or eight months of the year, coal, even when it stands in its box of shining copper or brass makes no attempt to compete, in the matter of looks, with the birch log or the pine log or what not. But coal comes into its own when a fire has been made of it.

From Here and There

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

A man isn't necessarily smart because he says some things that do.

There are many roads to riches, but many of us travel in the wrong direction.

Many men get ahead by inducing other men to put their shoulders to the wheel.

You can learn a little every day—unless you are one of those persons who know it all.

You may have noticed that the man who can turn his hand to anything seldom has the price of a wooden overcoat when he turns up all toes.

If he only wouldn't send me roses
Each day—the stupid thing.
In a few days at present prices
He'd save enough to buy a ring.

It is easier to make complaints than it is to make a living.

You always get full measure when you go after a peck of trouble.

Some men would rather be wrong than right—if there's more money in it.

If you would be light-hearted quick looking on the dark side of everything

Men haven't much love for men, women haven't much love for women, and most men and women have less love for each other than they have for themselves.

SOME COMPENSATION.

The Literary Digest explains to its readers this week that it could not issue a full number on account of a labor dispute to which it was no party.

It prints the following excellent poetry and reference to the matter. The readers of the Literary Digest can well afford to put up with the loss of a good deal of reading matter in any issue that contains so good a selection as follows:

"Lachar No More."
[By Nell Munro.]
Farewell to Lachar, farewell to the gleam,
No more will he wander Lachar again.
Lochaber! Lochaber! Lochaber! Lochaber!
The lad will return to Lochaber no more!
The trout will come back from the deeps of the sea,
The birds from the wilderness back to the tree,
The flowers to the mountain and tide to the shore,
But he will return to Lochaber no more!

Oh, why should the hills last, that never were young,
Unperishing stars in the heavens be hung;
Be constant the seasons, undying the dream,
And that that was gallant be gone like a dream?
Brave songs will be singing in isles of the West,
But he will be silent who sang them the best;
The dance will be danced in the moonlight and mire,
But he will return to Lochaber no more!

Child of the forest! profound is thy sleep,
The valley that loved thee awakes but to weep;
When our fires are rekindled at dawn of the morn,
Our griefs burn afresh, and our prayers are forlorn;
The night falls disconsolate, bringing no peace,
No hope for our dreams, for our sighs no release;
In vain come the true hearts and look from the door,
For thou wilt return to Lochaber no more!

MERRY ENGLAND.

Mr. Lloyd George gave to parliament last week a somewhat gloomy picture of the condition of the United Kingdom. Perhaps some of it can be discounted as the result of a prime minister to magnify the obstacles that confront the Government in order that the Government may gain the more credit from mounting them; yet there can be no doubt that to a considerable extent the picture is an accurate picture of the conditions existing today. But he did not tell all. Perhaps he told all that seemed worth telling, but a different point of view seems to be certain other facts in contemporary English life, facts which may escape the notice of Englishmen through their very commonplaceness, but seem wonderful enough to Americans. For example, a certain Oxford college recently gave its old members invitations to the annual dinner, the "gaudy," an institution which should live worthily up to its name now that the war is over and there is something to rejoice about, and the information concludes with the information that unfortunately champagne is not procurable, but white wines, claret, beer and port will be provided at an inclusive charge of three shillings and sixpence.

Three shillings and sixpence! Eighty-five cents! To the citizens of a country where eighty-five cents will not longer buy anything much except postage stamps, and where white wines, claret, beer and port are abundant and plentiful, and desirable only to the turpitude, and obtainable only by the criminal, this commonplace of English domestic life comes as evidence of the historic continuity between the England of today and the land of Sir John Falstaff and Mr. Samuel Pickwick.

The war and the labor agitators, the old realm still has something of its ancient savor. The free American citizen, as he leans up against a bar covered with white oilcloth and puts down his eighty-five cents for thereabouts for a side of butter-milk, muses upon the conservative steadfastness of the British temperament, and feels a certain wistful pleasure at the realization that Merry England is merry still.

THE TEST.

[Laurana Sheldon, in New York Times.]
The testing time is here. The time
When souls of men are heated in the fire
Whereby Truth separates what is sublime
And steals the temper of her fine desire.

It is the time that tests a man's soul,
From human masses—time when what is pure
Is set aside, full soon to bring about
A peace on earth, good-will that shall endure.

The proving day has come! The day
When man shall testify to his integrity,
His love of honor, Right's eternal way—
The end of conflict and the end of strife.

None can evade and none can compromise
This solemn duty. Suffering lands await
The great decision. Now man must arise
Least justice die and love deprecate.

The turning hour is here! The hour
Wherein lies hope for future centuries,
They who uphold the hands of righteous power,
Linking their aims, attainments, destinies.

Small find in union mankind's true release
From brutal wrongs, heart-sorrow, deadly fear.
A League of Souls and Nations bodes us Peace,
He stands the test whose name is written here!

MY HOUSE IN NICARAGUA.

[Salomon de la Selva.]
When the winter comes I will take you to Nicaragua—
You will love it there!
You will love my home, my house in Nicaragua,
So large and queenly looking, with a haughty air
That seems to tell the mountains, the mountains of Nicaragua,
"You may roar and you may tremble, for all I care."

It is shadowy and cool,
Has a garden in the middle where fruit trees grow,
And poppies, like a little army, row on row,
And Jasmine bushes that will make you think of Spain.

They are so white and light, so perfect and so frail,
And when the wind is blowing they fly and flutter so!

The humming-bird is always making a sleepy sound.
In the night there's the Aztec nightingale.
And when the moon is up, in Nicaragua,
The moon of Nicaragua and the million stars,
It's the human heart that sings, and the heart of Nicaragua.

To the pleading, plaintive music of guitars.

MORE ABOUT GRIZZLIES.

We quoted lately from Mr. Enos Mill's book about "The Grizzly." Here are two more incidents which show a distinct sense of humor, or at least of fun, in the grizzly's makeup. In the south-west corner of Yellowstone Park a number of boys were bathing in a stream when a young grizzly came along and for a moment stood watching their trees upon the bank of the stream.

When the boys approached this spot, with a wild "woof, woof," he leaped into the water among them. This caused great excitement and merriment, plainly just what he desired. As he swam hurriedly away, he looked back over his shoulder with satisfaction. Another amusing incident also happened in the Yellowstone. As the stage arrived at the Canon Hotel one of the passengers, who had been having much to say concerning bears, put on his raincoat and got down on all fours, proceeding to impersonate a bear. While this demonstration was on a grizzly arrived. He made a rush at the man and chased him up a tree, amid laughter and excitement. The bear made no attempt to harm any one, and plainly enjoyed this prank merely as a prank.

THE LADY OF THE CARDS.

By Flora A. Monty.

A look of quickening interest brightened the middle-aged face of Andrew Graves as a long grey envelope slipped from the pile of letters through which he was glancing.

He tore it open eagerly and drew out a card on which was a water-color sketch of a woman's head. The faintest odor of apple blossoms clung to the card.

Graves studied it intently. It was the fifth he had received that week. He received each day in the first pile of mail brought to his desk. When the first card came, he had been slightly concerned. The second made him curious, and the third had aroused a deep desire to spring to his feet and knock down the door to the sender.

Opening a drawer in his desk, he took out the ones he had received earlier in the week. Spreading the cards in a row, he made them the objects of his most attentive consideration. The same expression, the same smile, the same pose. No word of any kind accompanied them.

He settled back in his chair and sat in quiet thought for some moments. The picture in his mind recalled the early days of his boyhood, the happiest of which were spent in the old orchard where the apple trees were laden with the fragrant pink and white blossoms. And always the lady of the cards seemed to be with him, romping with the group of children who were his companions.

His mind's eye saw the lady of the cards smiling and laughing, and the pictures came again. He finally glanced toward the window and the evidence of coming twilight swept away his dreams and reminded him of things to be done before he could keep a dinner engagement.

He reluctantly arose, replaced the cards in the envelopes, and laid them carefully away in a drawer. Then he hurriedly left the office. Throughout the evening he had a sense of disappointment. It was as if he had been very near a pleasant discovery and had been suddenly drawn back.

Before he left his hostess said: "I had hoped to have you meet an artist this evening. Mr. Graves, she is an unusually clever woman. At the last moment she was detained."

Andrew Graves frowned. "Perhaps I am fortunate, Mrs. Bowers. Really, since my new home is in process of building, I've been peering at all times of the day and night by the window for a glimpse of the artist who had been with him in the orchard, taken to refusing to see any of them. I'll look up my own," and he turned abruptly away.

As his car was speeding homeward there flashed into his mind an idea. He stopped at the house of Mrs. Bowers, preposterous, perhaps, but instant. He connected the cards in the grey envelope with the artist who had failed to appear. He leaned forward, half yielding to an impulse to go back and see the artist.

Then he decided to go on home, secretly ashamed of himself for allowing his curiosity to be turned by a pretty picture. But the idea remained and kept first place in his mind.

That Saturday morning found him at his desk a full hour earlier than he had been for years. Impatiently he ran over his letters.

No grey envelope was there! He was chagrined. To have gone so far out of his usual routine as to get down at that hour and then be disappointed! He looked now and again, but with the same result.

The morning was full of trouble for all the force of employees. Nothing dropped his jaunty bearing whenever he carried a card to his employer.

The tenth caller had been turned away despite the urgency of his errand. Tommy once more entered the sanctum. Graves looked up angrily.

"Didn't I tell you, he began, but suddenly stopped as his eyes noted the grey envelope the boy carried. "Where did you get that?" he demanded.

"Lady outside, sir, sent it in."

"A lady! Send her in at once."

He opened the envelope the boy handed him. The same face was on the card it inclosed, but somehow the expression was almost triumphant.

As he studied it the caller entered, and he started to his feet. He stared, but justifiably, for there was the lady of the cards, and the scent of apple blossoms was filling the room. She was tall and slender, and wore a gown of silvery grey. There was a touch of pink about it that matched the bloom of the apple blossoms.

"You have come," he said simply. "I felt that you must."

"Then the advertisement was successful!" A momentary gleam of mischief sparkled in the brown eyes.

"He was plainly bewildered."

"I am an artist, Mr. Graves. I have attempted to see you before, but you were never at home, so I adopted the card method of getting you acquainted with my work. I hoped I might have gained your attention."

"You have gained your purpose. I shall be glad to give you a commission."

The lady in grey said nothing, but her smile took him back to the days of his boyhood.

"I want some landscapes, not in oil, but in your charming water colors. I want them to embody certain things."

And in a softer voice she described his old home, the apple orchard, and the spring by the roadside. "I do not expect them to be absolutely true to life as it was then. But it was my childhood home. Let your work be a type. Do with them as you like. Somehow I feel sure you can make exactly what I want."

"Thank you, Mr. Graves. I shall not disappoint you. And she was gone before he realized that he did not know her name or place of residence.

The next month was interminably long never could he learn one thing about her. Mrs. Bowers, though besieged with inquiries, refused to answer.

At last, one day another grey envelope came in the mail, and the hands opened it trembled in their eagerness. Another card was in it, this time of a little girl of fourteen, with big brown eyes and waving hair. With a throw he recognized her as the little playmate of his early days who had always been with him in the orchard. Just beneath the picture was written, "Call at 11 Grey Terrace."

Exactly thirty minutes later Andrew Graves was ringing the bell at 11 Grey Terrace. No one was in the room where he was shown to wait, but hung against one wall were half a dozen daintily executed sketches of his old farm home, clear and true as the hand of mortal could make.

Hungry he gazed at them, and then turned to find the artist at his side. Without a word he took her in his arms and kissed her. She made no effort to release herself.

"Maris, I know you now! My little girl sweetheart! My sweetheart forever! Will you come to me when the apple blossoms are here again?"

And she said that she would.

"Save the surface and you save all" Paint & Varnish

An Object Lesson for all Property Owners

HERE is a structure built in our great grandfather's day—140 years ago—that has stood the test of time. Because the surface has been protected all these years.

All decay begins at the surface.

The surface is the danger point with houses as with all other structures, whether the material employed be of wood, iron, steel, cement, concrete or stucco.

Neither decay, rust, corrosion, nor wear and tear, can get a foothold when surfaces are kept painted and varnished.

A frequent protective coating renders unnecessary the expense of repairs and replacement.

Remember—weather can no longer be held responsible for weather-beaten buildings. Such loss is PREVENTABLE. And such preventable loss is just as uncalled for a loss as losing a bank deposit on the way to the bank.

In such a matter judge your savings not by what they have been but by what they may be—do not disburse money for unnecessary repairs and replacement.

Well painted homes last indefinitely. Save the surface and you save all.

Paint this Fall Because:

- of proper weather conditions.
- surfaces are now in their most receptive condition, practically every trace of moisture having been eliminated by the summer sun.
- the wood being dry it absorbs more readily, and the paint holds better.
- a surface needing protection should never be allowed to go over the winter without it.
- property needs more protection during winter than at any other time.

"Save the Surface and you save all!"

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT is issued by the Canadian Save the Surface Campaign Committee, for the purpose of educating the public in the Preservative and Protective value of Paint, Varnish and Allied Products for the Conservation of Property, and has received the approval of the Canadian Trade Commission to the following words:

"The realization of the above objects will lead to employment during the Reconstruction Period and bears our entire approval."

TY COBB WILL BE AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPION AGAIN

Detroit's Star Player Leading Batters by Good Margin.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—The closing days of the baseball season finds Ty Cobb, star outfielder with Detroit, in possession of the American League batting championship for the tenth time in thirteen years. Cobb, according to unofficial averages today, is leading the race with a mark of .373. The figures include games of Wednesday. "Babe" Ruth, the home run marvel, is in seventh place in the list of batting leaders, with an average of .323. Ruth, whose achievement of driving out 25 homers for a world's record, leads the league in extra base hitting, having stretched 153 safe blows for a total of 280 bases. He also leads in scoring, having counted 102 runs. Eddie Collins, the Chicago second baseman, is topping the base-stealers with 32. "Garry" Cravath, manager of the Philadelphia club, is ahead in the race for the National League batting title, although the race is closed. The averages show Cravath in the lead with .356, with Jim Thorpe of Boston 5 points behind him. Burns of New York, who crowded Heinie Groh, the Cincinnati third baseman, out of the commanding position in scoring, managed to cling to his lead of one run. Burns has registered 79 runs. Zach Wheat, the Brooklyn veteran, and Roush are fighting it out for honors in total base hitting. Roush has a total of 214, while Wheat's mark is 213. Culp of Pittsburgh is in no danger of being deposed as the leading base-stealer, his record of 35 being high. Cravath's home run record of 11 remains unchallenged.

RUGBY PRACTICE BILLED AFTER BASEBALL GAME

The expected game between the collegiate and the intermediates did not materialize last evening as the former failed to turn up. Twenty candidates turned up, however, and got in a good

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—Dr. Bruce McDonald, of Toronto, principal of St. Andrew's College, is the new president of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada. At the meeting this afternoon of the board of governors of the A. A. U. of C., Dr. McDonald was unanimously elected to succeed Thomas Boyd of Winnipeg.

Practically all the business of the A. A. U. was completed today. In the afternoon the board of governors held their annual meeting, and later announced the election of the following officers:

President—Dr. Bruce McDonald, D. L., Toronto.
First Vice-President—David Leth, Vancouver.
Second Vice-President—A. W. Cooley, St. John, N. B.
Treasurer—Claude C. Robinson, Winnipeg.
Secretary—N. H. Crowe, Toronto.
Assistant Secretary—Walter Trivett, Toronto.

Representatives on Canadian Olympic Committee—Thos. Boyd, Winnipeg.

A resolution was passed at the meeting of the board of governors requesting the Olympic council to restore the marathon race.

The threatened split arising out of the decision not to reinstate the soldier professionals who had served overseas was averted tonight when the board of governors, with the unanimous consent of the delegates to the A. A. U. made a concession to the west and passed a resolution allowing the western provinces to apply whitewash in such cases as they thought meritorious.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT WILL FIGHT RAILWAY STRIKE TO ITS END

Will Resort to Armed Forces If It Is Found Necessary.

600,000 ARE AFFECTED

Walkout Is Regarded As Move Against Life of the Community.

London, Sept. 26.—By the Associated Press.—The Government tonight was marshaling all the facilities at its disposal, with the avowed intention of fighting to a bitter finish a country-wide strike of railwaymen, which was due to begin at midnight, as a result of the refusal of the National Union of Railwaymen to accept the Government's proposals regarding the fixing of a permanent rate of wages as a basis for further negotiations. From an authoritative source it was learned tonight that the Government intends to use its every resource, even to the employment of armed forces, if necessary, to combat what was characterized as a "serious offence" and "a strike against the life of the community."

Already preparations have been made to continue the transport of necessities by motor cars. The war office has suspended all leave of absence, and further demobilization of the military forces, and the food minister has reserved virtually all the country's war measures regarding the rationing of food.

Resulted in Deadlock.
The decision of the National Union of Railwaymen to strike came at the final conference this morning between the union leaders and the cabinet, which had resulted in a deadlock. The only official pronouncement since then has been a brief statement that the negotiations had failed, and that the strike would take place.

J. H. Thomas, on behalf of the rail-waymen, issued a short statement, expressing deep regret over the outcome, and declaring that disorder and the destruction of property would not be countenanced by the union.

Late today the cabinet met today to consider the strike, and it is significant of the gravity of the situation that Field Marshal Haldane and Gen. Fielding, military commandant of the London district, were summoned for a consultation.

Minister of Labor Home tonight said that the attitude of the men left no hope that they would be moved by any further discussion. It is understood that Premier Lloyd George offered to continue the negotiations with the union men on a basis tending toward compromise, but that the men flatly refused to consider this.

As far as could be learned tonight,
from conversations with railway workers, they were fully determined to obey the strike order. If all the workers should go out it is estimated that more than 600,000 men will be affected, and that the entire railway transport of the country will be tied up.

GREATEST CRISIS IN YEARS NOW FACING BRITISH GOVERNMENT

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Sir Robert Stevenson Home, minister of labor, in an interview tonight on the railway strike said:

"This marks the greatest industrial crisis which has confronted this country for many years, and it occurs at a time when its consequences can be most fruitful of injury."

"The country is only now beginning to struggle toward the rehabilitation of its industries, and the effect of this strike cannot be otherwise than disastrous."

"More remarkable than anything else about the strike is the extraordinary precipitancy and the apparent complete disregard of the public. It is concerned with the question of wages, and not with the change in wages which the railwaymen fear cannot by any possibility take place before the war is over, and not then unless conditions are much altered from what anybody anticipates."

Minister of Labor Home said tonight:
"The Government cannot agree to make permanent the wages which pre-valled during the war, and it is not willing to add 100 per cent to the pre-war wages, but the men consider this too low."

"A man who was earning from 18 to 20 shillings before the war, receiving, with the war bonus, from 51 to 53 shillings. Under the government proposal the men will receive permanently 140 per cent more for a shorter day's work than before the war. There will be an addition of £7,000,000 to the railwaymen's wages."

"This is not a strike against private employers; it is a strike against the state. It is not a question of increasing the capital profits; it is purely a question of saving the state from disaster."

"I do not think there is a shadow of doubt that the miners and the port workers will join the strike," said J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen.
According to the Daily Mail, the government also expects the miners and transport workers, who, with the rail-waymen, make up the "triple alliance," to join the strike.

May Stop Coal Carrying.
The government announced that in order to assure food supplies during the strike it may be necessary entirely to suspend the transportation of coal.
It therefore calls upon the public to decrease its consumption of coal, and to economize to the utmost in the use of coal.

Illuminated advertisements are for-bidden, and householders allowed to buy only 100 pounds of coal per week. Other similar measures are prescribed by the order.

J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, tonight sent an emphatic message to the Irish branch of the union ordering the men not to cease work until further notice.

A late dispatch received from Dublin said a strike tonight was not meditated, and that the men were likely to work through Saturday.

QUEBEC, Que., Sept. 26.—The sack containing the money stolen in the mail car of the Ocean Limited, was found this morning at 5 o'clock in a barn between St. Pierre and St. Valier in the county of Montmagny by Peter Berovitch, a C. M. P. counsel for the Lloyd's Insurance Company, which is responsible for the whole amount stolen.

Mr. Berovitch, who has beaten the treasure during the last week, has only found $81,000 of the $71,000. Here is

Mr. Berovitch's story:

I arrived in Quebec on Wednesday afternoon. I immediately called the detectives working on the affair and asked them what were their clues. Each one of them had a different one, and I thought I might as well work the thing myself. Last night I had all the information I wanted, and I left Quebec at 10 o'clock.

chauffeur."

"Did you take a revolver with you?"
"I must admit that I did. It is the first time that I carried an arm with me. I do not know the matter to rest and we traveled as far as Montmagny."

I said to myself, this is not a village.
It cannot be St. Pierre de Montmagny, for it was the place I was looking for.
I entered the house of a doctor who was asleep, and you may think it was surprise when I told him who I was I explained that I had a chance to find the money and he made a plan of the country for me.

"There was Montmagny, and then,
the way back came Quebec, St.
Pierre, and St. Valier. With my plan and a flashlight in one hand, I drove as far as St. Pierre, and ordered the chauffeur to stop in front of a barn, a mile and a half out of St. Pierre."

"I entered the barn. It was full of hay. I had no fork, and I had to use my own hands to remove the hay.
After a full half-hour of search, I got out, disappointed, and we drove to other barns. I visited the country in the next ten miles surrounding, only to find barns. The habitants were incensed; they did not know who I was,
and took me of course for a detective.
Then I thought of coming back to the first barn, and I entered there alone again."

"I climbed up to what they call the 'fentil,' and I saw some more hay. I started to remove the hay, and I had moved about ten pounds of it when I found the sack."

"I have $81,000; there is $10,000 missing. I may say that all the Lloyd's are responsible for is this $81,000. The other $10,000 belongs to a Montreal bank, and I may add that I am on the track of this balance, and pretty sure that I will find it before the trial is over."

STRATFORD STILL WANTS PRESENTATION OF MEDALS THERE

STRATFORD, Sept. 26.—Stratford

the matter of having medals awarded to some of the Stratford and Perth County soldiers when the Prince of lowing an appeal by Mayor Stevenson, the military authorities advised that it was the intention to have these medals presented only at London and Windsor, but the local authorities do not intend to allow the matter to rest there. They are bringing further pressure to bear.

Representatives of the chamber of commerce failed tonight to keep their appointment with the special committee of the city council to discuss the application by the chamber for financial assistance. Declared one member of the committee, the application could not be dealt with by the council until a reconstruction was authorized by a cause by a vote of 7 to 5 the council had previously declined a grant.

The Man Who Banished Corns

Blue-jay was invented by a scientist of distinction. By a man whose lifetime has been spent in the study of surgical dressings.

This is a master's method—correct, complete and efficient. And the millions of people who know it, never think of enduring a corn.

All in One

The first step is to stop the pain. This is done by removing all pressure—by the soft protecting ring marked A.

The next step is to gently cause the corn to disappear.

This is done by the remarkable B & B Wax, which no corn can resist.

This bit of wax—marked B—is centered on the corn. It cannot spread. So, unlike old-time methods, it acts on the corn alone.

C is rubber-coated adhesive. This snugly wraps the application, protecting everything.

You apply this Blue-jay in a jiffy. The corn pain stops at once. The wrapping is comfortable and you forget it.

In two days you remove it and the corn can be lifted out. Only rare corns need a second application.

This is the scientific way, the easy, sure and right way to end corns. You will never return to any wrong method when you try a Blue-jay once. Try it tonight.

"SAHARA," A GORGEOUS SCREEN SPECTACLE REVEALING ALL THE CHARM, BEAUTY AND MYSTERY OF THE ORIENT

The Great Soul Stirring, Thrilling, Beautiful Photo Drama of the Mysterious East; the Orient; Algiers; the Great Unknown Desert; Picturesque Caravans; Dark Arabs; All Seen in This Picture at the Majestic Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Louise Glaum Starred, as the Woman Who Gave Up Her Husband and Love for Wealth and Beautiful Gowns, and Found Happiness and Love Again Clothed in Sackcloth and Ashes Far in the Mysterious Desert.

Louise Glaum, the big emotional, beautiful drama of the East, which is scheduled to open at the Majestic on Monday. Louise Glaum is the star—Louise Glaum, that wonderfully beautiful passion flower of feminine charm, typical of Oriental beauties. Supporting Miss Glaum will be Matt Moore of the famous Moore family of handsome Irishmen and splendid actors, his delightful little son Pat Moore, Edwin Stevens, a lover of sardonic villainous strength, and the philosopher servant of Miss Glaum, the picture is a masterpiece from every standpoint, guaranteeing, direction, scenario, photography, scenes and settings, cast, everything is the work of the best experts of the picture industry, and as public popularity is a classic, which will remain a standard for years to come.

The story: "Sahara" tells the story of a woman adored and flattered by all the Paris of today. Her young husband, John Stanley (Matt Moore), is an American civil engineer, who suddenly desert to construct a railroad into the Africa. Then you see a woman suddenly snatched from the world and sent to the oasis. In this environment there comes a beautiful woman deprived of admirers and luxuries. Her heart eats itself out in loneliness when suddenly a caravan brings a Russian nobleman, Baron Alexis (Edwin Stevens), to be- lieve her with the temptations of luxurious Cairo.

Yielding to the allurements of the sensuous city, Mignon deserts her en- giner husband and child, and flees in the night to Cairo, where she rules in a magnificent palace of the dawn. Into this setting are introduced the luxurious extravagances that the titled Russian schemes to drown the con- fessed quarter of Cairo, in the world-famous Street of Beggars, drifts a wrecked and drug-deadened man with a re- markable and beautiful child, and sud- denly the fugitive wife finds herself with her deserted and unkempt hus- band, devoid of memory, but seeking to kill the woman who has destroyed his happiness and mind. Remorseful, she orders Mustapha, her servant and humble philosopher-child, to the palace. They arrive when revelry at a fete to the baron is at its height. Mignon seizes the child and demands that the revellers leave. The next day a physician arrives and informs her that the stran- ger's memory may be brought back with constant, sympathetic care. Mignon is happy at the side of her husband and child, fully realizing that his recovery will mean her end. The baron, noting her interest in the beggar demands that Mignon order him from the palace. While the pair are arguing Stanley comes on the scene. Seeing danger, the baron attempts to grab a revolver, and as he does the beggar shoots him down.

With Stanley, the child and Mustapha, Mignon leaves for the desert. Arriving at an oasis, she meets Alice Fullmer, a missionary, who has long nursed the drug-crazed man. She is known as "the lady with the cool, white hands." Her attentiveness to Stanley and his apparent delight in her company saddens Mignon into the belief that the love she threw away has been found more precious by another. In spite of this Mignon redoubles her efforts to restore her husband's memory. Finally they are successful, and when he is once more himself, instead of carrying out his oath, Stanley takes her to his heart, assuring her he has forgotten everything, but that he has always loved her.

which follows "Sahara" on the schedule.
It is another big sensational drama, this time of America of modern life with thrills and emotions crowded one upon the other. It is a picture of society life, with racing motor cars, terrible gunmen, inspiring heroes and wonderful women. Then there is the First National's big picture, "Choosing a Wife."
This new big picture organization has become noted for always picking and making exceptional screen successes.

and "Comradeship," that mammoth English production. The British film industry produces attractions which are altogether different from American films, but the big ones have been as great if not greater successes from the viewpoint of popularity. They seem to have a fine intuition as to what the public wants most, and then start from the beginning and make their pictures on this foundation. But the headliner, the attraction extraordinary, that which is going to take London and its surrounding communities by storm will be
"Jack Canuck in Berlin." This is Mack Sennett's big special five-reel comedy.
The story is a riotous, glorious, furious plot of the richest comedy Sennett used his entire company of beautiful women, and famous comedians in this picture.
But that's not all. Accompanying this picture to make personal appearances with each performance will be sixteen of these same beauties which you have admired so often in Sennett's comedies.

Marie Prevost, Myrtle Lind, sixteen of them, dressed in their famous (scandalous maybe) 1920 bathing costumes. If you have lost every sense, except your sight, do not fail to see this attraction.

BRITAIN TO EMPLOY OIL-DRIVEN LINERS

Caronia Starts New Service
Between Thames and N. Y.

London, Sept. 25.—It is explained that the Cunard Company, which has half a million tons of new construction in hand, will employ a number of oil-driven liners, which are now being built, on the London-New York route.
The Cunard liner Caronia, 20,000 tons, the largest vessel actually in commercial service, which has hitherto been docked in the Thames, sailed from Tilbury on Thursday for New York, via Havre.
This voyage marks an important step both in the policy of transatlantic shipping lines and in the extension of British trade.
Before the war the Cunard Company had steamers running periodically between London and Canadian ports, but a regular service with large vessels is now to be instituted from the Thames to New York, via Cherbourg. This will obtain for British bottoms trade in freight and passengers between the United States and the continent, of which German shipowners, in pre-war years, held a large proportion.

Though bearing signs of war wear,
the Caronia has been internally refitted, and her accommodation for first class passengers restored to some appearance of its original character. She carries 270 saloon passengers, and is making the present voyage via Havre in order to ship about 4,000 Chinese who are being repatriated by way of Canada.
The next steamer in the service will be the Saxonia, which is due to leave on September 27.

Before deciding on your furnace

LET your local dealer show you the things that have made the Banner's reputation as a coal saver and heat distributor.

Let him show you the Banner firepot with the specially designed flanges which increase its radiating surface and consequently the warmth and comfort of the living rooms.

Why is it that flowers thrive in a home with a Banner Furnace? Ask the dealer to point out the gas-proof radiator, also the Banner fire chamber which takes the gases and turns them into intense heat. Banner grates save coal by keeping the sides of the fire-pot clear of ashes and permitting free and steady combustion of the fuel. Your dealer will also be glad to explain other worth-while features, such as the wide air passages, handy water pan, hot water connection, etc.

Since we deal with men who are anxious and able to build up a reputation for thorough workmanlike installations, you may rely on what he says. Certainly it is to his interest as well as ours to tell you the straight facts about the Banner.

"BIFF, BING, BANG," THE BIG SOLDIER SHOW COMES HERE MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY

"Dumbells" Comes Here as Feature Attraction First Half of Next Week—Plays Three Nights With Popular Matinee Wednesday—Original Overseas Service.

All the way from France, where they played to over five hundred audiences of Canadian and English soldiers, Belgium, where they played a season of light opera and musical comedy revue, under the patronage of King Albert, and after stopping for a month in London, where they played to over 135,000 people and hung up a record at the Coliseum, the most famous of all soldier-entertainers, the Dumbells, have arrived in Canada.

They are playing a limited homecoming tour now on the larger Canadian cities, presenting their original overseas revue, "Biff, Bing, Bang," under the personal direction of Capt. M. W. Funnelt.

Their initial appearance here will be at the Grand Monday evening at 8:15, when they will commence an engagement of three nights. They will give a special matinee on Wednesday at 2:30. The Dumbells, as they were called in France, need no introduction to the vast army of returned soldiers in Canada, and their best introduction to those of us who had to stay at home is that they were recognized as the foremost aggregation of all fighting men entertainers at the front.

When they appear here it will be an event unprecedented in the history of the local theatre, all surviving members of the original cast being among the performers. Just imagine an all-man "girl show" of soldier-actors, who have averaged more than sixteen months apiece of trench fighting, donning Lucille costumes and playing swivel young ingenuos for the entertainment of their fellow-comrades. "Marjorie," the star of "leading ladies," says it took more courage to appear before the grand in corsets the first time than it should to win a V. C. "Marjorie," of course, is R. D. Hamilton of Montreal, while "Marie," the dainty songstress, is also of that city, and answers to the name of A. G. Murray. But to the boys back from France they will always be "Marjorie" and "Marie." The management respectfully requests its patrons to secure their seats now.

NEW MUSICAL SPECTACLE, "MY SOLDIER GIRL," APPEARING AT GRAND LATTER HALF OF WEEK

Season's Success Comes for Three Nights, Commencing on Thursday Next—Popular Matinee on Saturday—Accompanied by Elaborate Scenic Settings.

The sparkling and gay musical play, "My Soldier Girl," to be presented at the Grand Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15, and Saturday matinee at 2:30, is the most brilliant success offered in years. There are two acts in this new offering, presenting the most novel ideas in stage pictures. The first act is laid at Col. Stone's home, Miami, Florida, on Biscayne Bay, and a brilliant lawn fete is in progress in honor of "overseas" boys and girls whom the colonel met while in France in the interest of the Red Cross. The picture presented outlines anything attempted in years; the effects are bewildering in their splendor, and the dazzling array of costumes, to say nothing of the wonderful performance, is good to look upon. The story—Col. Stone, a wealthy Floridian, who was a producer of theatrical enterprises, went to Europe during the war in the interest of the Red Cross. There he met many boys and girls well known in the theatrical business, and made it a standing invitation that six months after the armistice should be signed, all those in America at the time should come to his home for a reunion at his expense. Dixie Harris, a ward of the colonel's, also a clever actress, who has devoted her time the last two years to devotion for the Government, is in love with Lieut.

Dorothy Garrigue starring in "My Soldier Girl," coming to the Grand next week.

Carter, who, by the way, is just back from France, and is present at the lawn fete. Col. Stone, highly elated with the talent presented by the visiting guests, favors producing a big Follies production, and engages his many guests to participate in the same. Six months later we find the organization hearing a big musical spectacle, in which Dixie is the soprano and Lieut. Carter is playing the light comedy. The play is dedicated to Dixie, and entitled "My Soldier Girl." The brilliant stage setting, with shimmering opalescent scenery, the plots of color in the dazzling array of costumes and the wonderful story unfolded on the stage is brilliant beyond description. There are more than a score of big novelties, and an excellent cast, including Dorothy Garrigue, Maude Dexter, Billy Moore, James Becher, Leslie Jones, Billy Murray, J. G. LeRoy and many others, while a "pony" ballet of wonderful dancers trip through the novel drolls and dance ensembles fetchingly. Out of the twenty-some musical numbers, the title song, "My Soldier Girl," leads in popularity, while "Just for You," "That Dixie Wedding Tune," "Wrap Me in a Bundle of Love," and "Jasper's Ragtime Band," are big favorites. Seats on sale Tuesday. Mail orders now.

UNCLE OF LEADING LADY IS PRESIDENT OF A NEW REPUBLIC

Dorothy Garrigue in "My Soldier Girl," Has Interesting History.

Dorothy Garrigue, playing a leading role with the musical spectacle, "My Soldier Girl," coming to the Grand next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is a niece of Thomas Garrigue Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia, the new republic of Europe.

Thomas Garrigue Masaryk, before the war, was president of the University of Prague. He was a believer in free speech and when war broke out made many fiery speeches in behalf of the Allies. This so enraged the officers of the Central Powers that he was arrested, cast into prison and ordered beheaded. He made his escape from the prison and with his daughter Olga succeeded in reaching London, where he put forth all his efforts in aiding the Allies to win the war. His escape so enraged the Central Powers that they immediately arrested his daughter, Alice Masaryk, who, at that time was devoting her energies to social settlement work in Europe, having studied the problem with Jane Addams of Chicago, Ill. She, too, was cast into prison and like her parents was to suffer the death penalty. The United States at that time was a neutral power, and only through their great efforts was her life spared.

The following year Mr. Masaryk came to America, and during his stay in the States visited his relatives in Chicago where, for the first time, Miss Dorothy Garrigue met her uncle, and is now his favorite niece.

Only recently Miss Garrigue learned that the entire family are again united, except two sons who were lost in the war. They are now living in the city of Prague, Bohemia, the capital of the new republic.

It seems that Miss Garrigue's family was well represented in the war, for her brother, Fred Garrigue, enlisted with the Canadians, trained with the

A Famous New York Restaurant Files a Bankruptcy Schedule

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Delmonico's, the famous Fifth avenue restaurant, which was declared insolvent several weeks ago, filed a schedule in bankruptcy today in the United States district court, giving its liabilities as $369,029, and assets as $174,381.

Unsecured claims were divided among a large number of creditors.

Hogs Fattened, Then Weighed; Consumer Pays

Given Dried Grain and Water Before Going on Scales, Says Witness.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 23.—Disclosure of the practice at the stock yards of giving hogs dried grain and water just before placing them on the scales in order to increase weight, the inbation resulting in an increased cost to the packer and ultimate consumer, was made by George Gallagher of Gallagher, Holman & LaFrance, before the board of commerce today.

Question by Commissioner James Auld, Mr. Gallagher admitted that the commission on the stockyards ordered the watering and feeding of the animals prior to weighing.

"All food for hogs and cattle is bought through the Union Stockyards," he stated. "It is quite understood that this shall be bought for them, although I do not know of any definite rule."

Concluding, he said that everything was "clear and above board"; there was no secrecy.

BRILLIANT FETE AT DUNCAN, B. C. FOR THE PRINCE

People Assembled From Remotest Corners of Vancouver Island.

FAVORABLE IMPRESSION

Evident That H. R. H. Won Instant Popularity Among All Classes.

DUNCAN, B.C., Sept. 23.—The Prince of Wales opened the Cowichan fall fair here today. From the remotest corner of the island interior people had assembled to greet the prince, and the most brilliant fete in the history of this English settlement resulted. A glorious summer day favored the event and contributed to the success of the celebration.

Canadians from all parts of the Dominion, English people who have come here to make their homes from many parts of the Empire, Cowichan Indians whose forefathers called this land their own, and Sikhs from British East India, were all assembled to testify their allegiance. It was evident before the end of the prince's brief visit to Duncan that the present royal visitor had made a most favorable impression.

FOREGO HUNTING TRIP. "VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 23.—The Prince of Wales has decided to forego his hunting trip in the Skeena (Ontario) district in the middle of October to permit of his paying a return visit to Winnipeg, and also his proposed visit to the mining districts of Cobalt. The itinerary up to Portage La Prairie stands as originally planned. Arriving in Winnipeg during the afternoon of October 16, the royal party will halt for the second visit to the city, and the prince will attend a popular evening. It is understood that the prince will spend the time renewing acquaintances in the city and partaking of the hospitality of Manitobans. Leaving Winnipeg on October 14, the royal party will go straight to Cobalt via North Bay and the Canadian Government Railways, arriving in the mining town on October 16. The prince will spend this day between Cobalt and the mines, which he will leave on the evening of October 16, and reach Hamilton on October 18. From there the program will be carried out as arranged.

GOVT. IS IN LEAGUE WITH PROFITEERS SAYS BEN TILLET

Says This Is Cause of British Railway Strike.

MONSTROUS CONSPIRACY State Bearing Expense So That Profiteers May Rob the Country.

HAMILTON, Sept. 23.—More than three million workers will be affected by the British railway strike, in the opinion of Ben Tillet, the British Labor M.P., who outlined today the root causes of the dispute and the possible far-reaching effects of the strike.

"The root cause of the trouble," said Mr. Tillet, "lies in what is considered a monstrous conspiracy between the railways, in collusion with the government, to maintain an impossible condition of living for the workers. The railways, I believe, welcome the possibility of a strike, as this would relieve them of their pension obligations to their old employees."

"The direct cause of the present breach is that although an agreement was reached last April and ratified in May to the effect that a certain standard of wages should be given, it has been taken the board of trade, the railways and Sir Eric Geddes all this time to make their arrangements. The government has already committed itself to the profiteer traders to carry their goods for nothing and to convenience these profiteers they have inconvenienced the whole country."

"Canadian bacon by the millions of pounds is rotting on the docks and has to be used for soap-making, and millions of dollars' worth of other commodities are being permitted to waste in like manner, due to the manner in which the railways have been allowed to control all transportation affairs to their wishes, which are daily more seriously distorting the entire transportation industry and causing an all-round loss of carrying efficiency. To all these things the government appears to have consented, and in handling them they appear to have been struck with palsy. Had such policy been adopted during the war the Germans would have overwhelmed us in a minute."

"The cruel irony of it is that the merchants, traders and manufacturers are suffering no loss through it, and the state is bearing the expense so that the profiteers may continue to rob the country by holding up the prices of food. They are simply asking for revolution."

Asked for an estimate of what the loss would be daily, Mr. Tillet replied: "It is almost inconceivable. I can say, however, that it would run in the millions of dollars in an incredibly short time. I feel sure, however, that the government will be brought to book and must fully realize the situation. If they don't do so it will mean civil war."

STRONG PICKETS STOP MEN COMING ON DUTY FOR MIDNIGHT SHIFT

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Strong pickets of union men had been posted as early as 10 o'clock in the vicinity of all the depots from which traffic proceeds from London northward and also before the great freight yards. Railroadmen coming up with their lunch baskets to go on the midnight shift were stopped and gathered in groups around the pickets. Everywhere perfect order prevailed. The men still on duty carried out their work with seeming extraordinary energy.

At the Great Northern station at Kings Cross the trains for Edinburgh departed exactly on schedule time. All of them were crowded with passengers. Several trains were run on "double headers" for the convenience of hundreds of soldiers and sailors returning from leave of absence.

Refused Tickets. At St. Pancras, at the Euston station, everything was quiet. The midlands train for Sheffield left just before midnight half filled with passengers. At the Northwestern station the clerks refused to sell tickets after 10 o'clock, except for the suburbs. On the railways the employees discussed the strike, and it was evident that some of them intended to go out.

EAT AND GET THIN

This is turning an old phrase face about, but modern methods of reducing fat have made this revision possible. If you are overfat and also averse to physical exertion, if you are like pounds, do this: Go to your druggist for (or write the Marmola Co., 861 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich.), and give your ambition for a nice, trim, slim figure. He will hand you a large case of Marmola Prescription Tablets compounded in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription, one of which you must take after each meal and at bedtime until you begin to lose your fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week. Then continue the treatment until your weight is what you desire. Marmola Prescription Tablets are not only harmless but really beneficial to the general health. You don't need starvation diet or weakening exercise. Just go on eating what you like, leave exercising to the athletes, but take your little tablet faithfully and without a doubt that flabby flesh will quickly take unto itself wings, leaving behind it your natural self, neatly clothed in firm flesh and trim muscles.

Comradeship

Admiral Sir David Beatty

ADMIRAL Sir David Beatty, when speaking at Leicester a few days ago, said:—

"We have been through four and a half years of a great struggle. We have all learned something—the true value of comradeship. Comradeship has enabled us to win the war."

Realizing the significance and truth of this statement the Citizens' Liberty League appeals to the people of this Province to develop the spirit of comradeship, mutual forbearance, toleration and sympathy. Let us be fair-minded, less rigid, more reasonable, and more willing to give and take.

Samuel Gompers

The workingmen of Ontario appeal for better beer—non-intoxicating beer—beer containing 2.51% alcohol by weight—THE BEER OF THE BALLOT.

Samuel Gompers, the world's greatest labor leader, stated the workman's position clearly when he said:—

"The normal men, the men of Labor who work eight hours a day and no more, the workmen who earn decent pay, the workmen who have comparatively comfortable homes, they do not want the artificial spirit. The man of normal spirit finds comfort in pleasant surroundings; he does not need, and, as a rule, will not partake of intoxicating drinks; he shuns the effects of intoxicants. What we now ask is that the men of Labor, the masses of our people, shall have the opportunity to drink a glass of beer of not more than 2 3/4% by weight of alcohol in that beer, and I am told you cannot drink enough of that character of beer to get drunk even if you tried."

Scientific tests, practical experiments and thorough research prove that beer of even greater strength than 2.51% of alcohol by weight, is absolutely non-intoxicating. (The results of these tests have been filed with the United States Circuit Court of Appeals).

As no harmful results can possibly come from drinking beer of this quality—is there any fair or logical reason why the working men should not have the more palatable beer for which they are asking—THE BEER OF THE BALLOT?

Support the working men and the Citizens' Liberty League in the endeavor to obtain a fair, just and reasonable compromise on the present too drastic prohibitory legislation.

200,000 SHIPYARD WORKERS TO STRIKE IF ORDER STANDS

Demand Revoking of Order Against Wage Increases After October 1.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 23.—A strike of two hundred thousand shipyard employees on the Pacific coast is certain unless the navy department and the shipping board revoke their joint order prohibiting wage increases after October 1. James O'Connell, president of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor, said today.

An equal number of workers on the Atlantic coast will join in a strike unless the order is changed. O'Connell said. A meeting of the executives of fifteen international unions affiliated in the shipbuilding industry will be held here Monday to decide on action, and Mr. O'Connell has arranged for a conference Tuesday between representatives of the shipbuilding employees and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt and Director Ackerson of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO STRENGTHEN EYESIGHT 50 PER CENT IN ONE WEEK'S TIME IN MANY INSTANCES

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one 1-in.-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eye two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good drug store and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by the Standard Drug Company, W. T. Strong and others.

Formerly residents of this district have been compelled to go to Guelph for examination, but the Owen Sound office now has the same status as the Guelph office.

At present there are about fifty returned men taking vocational training in Owen Sound and a small district surrounding it, but this number will be greatly increased in the near future.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

ADELE GARRISON'S NEW PHASE OF REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

The Answer Mother Graham Demanded of Madge.

My scheme for breakfast worked out beautifully. Long before mother Graham had taken her cake from the oven the aroma of Katie's coffee was delicately scenting the air, and my mother-in-law had followed it to the dining-room.

"What in the world?" she demanded, for once too surprised to be dignified.

I looked up from the comfortable chaise longue in the bay window of the dining-room, where I was ensconced with the morning paper. I had no particular duties until Junior awakened, mother-in-law's tender mercies, especially when the elder woman was engaged in anything so nerve-racking as the concoction of Richard Second's first birthday cake. So I took advantage of the interval to read the paper.

CHILDHOOD CONSTIPATION

Constipated children can find prompt relief through the use of Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative, which never fail to regulate the bowels and stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fever. Concerning them Mrs. Gaspard Daigle, Demain, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have been of great benefit to my little boy, who was suffering from constipation and indigestion. They quickly relieved him, and now he is in the best of health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

pected gratification of her wish, not even when Katie bore in a plateful of delicately browned dainties covered with a white folded napkin. Instead, she took refuge in an old controversy. "How often have I warned you, Margaret, about your pernicious habit of eating your fruit first," she said tartly. "That food taken into your stomach the first thing cannot help but chill you. You should begin your meal with something hot."

"Don't you think we've gone over that enough?" I asked placidly. "I like my fruit first. You like your coffee. And we both have medical authorities for our course. So don't you think it would be a good idea to agree to differ about it?"

"I think you are adopting a very impertinent tone toward me," she retorted acidly, and for the next few minutes devoted herself strictly to her cereal and the delicious omelet which Katie brought in next.

"Has that ape got over her tantrum?" This was her next contribution to the conversation, delivered explosively as the girl left the room after serving the omelet. "She still looks sulky."

"I think she is simply worried for fear things aren't cooked right," I replied quickly.

"Well, see that she keeps out of the kitchen and my way until I get that cake out 'the oven!'" my mother-in-law retorted.

As if her own words had reminded her of a duty, she sprang up, rushed to the kitchen, and evidently inspected the cake, for she returned in a moment flushed and triumphant, and announced that it was "rising beautifully."

She drank a second cup of coffee and then folding her arms on the table before her, looked at me steadily.

"Is Richard coming home for Richard Second's birthday?" she demanded.

I hesitated only a second. I might as well be "hanged for a sheep as for a lamb," I quoted to myself, remembering that I had insisted to Mother Graham that there was no quarrel between Dicky and me.

"Of course he is!" I asserted. "But he is so busy that I don't expect he will get here much before night."

"Humph!" she ejaculated again, and the monosyllable, which was the only reply she vouchsafed me, held no more of doubt than did my own heart.

"Tinker Bob" Stories
by Carlisle H. Holcomb

"Here comes Jack the Rabbit," said Opossum. "He's been out on a hunt and is just getting home. Now you watch me."

Sure enough Mr. Rabbit was coming down the path with a large pack on his back. As he drew near Tinker Bob noticed Opossum acting very strangely. He began to groan and roll his eyes about, and when Mr. Rabbit came close he saw at once that Opossum was sick, and he cried out:

"Help, help, Opossum is going to die!"

Mr. Rabbit dropped his pack and pulled from his cabbage leaf and started toward the brook for water. When he had gone Opossum looked up at Tinker Bob and said: "You see I can get enough food from Mr. Rabbit's bundle to last tomorrow."

Tinker Bob was surprised to think that Opossum would steal the food. But that is just what he did, and when Mr. Rabbit came with the water Opossum drank it all and continued to play sick.

"Where is my pack?" cried Mr. Rabbit.

"Is it not where you left it?" asked Opossum.

"No, it isn't. Some one has taken it!" and Mr. Rabbit began to cry. "It may be Old Miser Hare has stolen it while I was groaning in sickness."

"Here comes Sister Bob White," said Mr. Rabbit. "Tell her to go for Dr. Coon while I find Miser Hare."

As Sister Bob White came along with her family of six, Opossum kept up his groaning. "Oh, I will go right away for the doctor," said she. "Now, children, you must stay very close to Mr. Opossum and mind what he says." Then she lifted her wings and ran away for the doctor.

As soon as she had gone Opossum told the children to go into his home under the rock for it was getting late. They were good children and did as they were told.

When Mr. Rabbit came close he saw at once that Opossum was sick.

"There, you see," said Opossum, looking up at Tinker Bob. "I will now have fresh meat for my dinner."

"You are very wicked," said Tinker, "for stealing all of these things from others."

"I am not wicked," replied Opossum. "This is the way I make my living all the time."

He rushed into his home under the rock and soon Tinker heard the cries and screams of Sister Bob White's children. He knew they were being killed. And it wasn't long until Opossum returned to the door of his home with his mouth full of feathers. What do you think of me now? he cried.

Tinker Bob hated such a wicked scoundrel. And he did not want to see any more of Opossum's tricks, so he threw the smooth black stone straight at him. Again he found himself in the funny house where the little Old Man was telling his servants what to write in the great books.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Constantine Kambie

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, SEPT. 28-29

Sunday promises to be a day with the activities centered in matters of the mind—especially with the interests focused on the occult, the metaphysical or the investigation and study of subtle forces, avoid impulsive, rash and intemperate conduct in word and deed.

Those whose birthday it is should shun quarrels and litigation. A child born on this day will be hasty and impetuous, but kind and generous.

Monday will be a lively and eventful day, especially promising for those in the employment of others. There is a warning to be careful of the health and also to be particularly careful in traveling or making any important changes. In matters outside of business these should be pleasant and prosperous, Venus and Jupiter—two most friendly

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies

Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own, that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when I months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONTGOMERY, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DELCO LIGHT

The Complete Electric Light and Power Plant

Pays for Itself

ANY one of over 75,000 users will tell you that Delco-Light pays for itself.

In money. They will tell you that the pleasure and comfort of Delco-Light cost you nothing.

CHORES are non-productive work. Cut down chore time and you can do things worth money to you. Wm. Schneekloth says the electric power from his Delco-Light plant saves him 8½ hours a week on the churn, separator and washing machine alone—over 40 working days in a year. Think of the money he can make in those forty days.

On the Helms farm at Belleville they use Delco-Light power for the chores—in milking and feeding stock, in pumping water, in ironing and washing—and save 19 hours a week, or about three months of one man's work in the year. Here's a hired man's work for three months which Delco-Light does. The cost of operating Delco-Light is less than the cost of oil for oil lamps.

But operating the small machinery around the farm is only a part of the work which Delco-Light does for you. Take the question of pumping water; with Delco-Light you can have water under pressure at taps anywhere on the farm. You can water stock easily and quickly. You can have hot and cold water in the house. S. W. Cooke & Son, of Maysville, have a big herd of Holsteins. Delco-Light has pumped the water and done the milking for three years. They figure that their saving is not less than $1,800. As Mr. Cooke says, they could pretty nearly afford a new Delco-Light plant every year. And remember this saving does not include the convenience and comfort and saving of electric lights.

J. H. Lackey raises Polled Jerseys and Poland China Hogs. He, also, needs a lot of water. His Delco-Light outfit enables him to get along without two men he formerly hired.

Delco-Light does work on the farm. Saves time for more productive things. Its electric power will, in most cases, save enough time to pay for the complete Delco-Light plant in three years. The electric light you get free.

Delco-LIGHT is a complete electric light and power plant, easy to install and easy to care for. It will give twenty-four hour-a-day electric light and power service.

Delco-Light is direct connected. There are no belts to slip, break or be replaced.

It is self-cranking. Pressing down a lever starts the engine.

It is air-cooled. There is no water to carry, to freeze, or to boil away.

There is only one place to put oil.

A simple mixing valve regulates the fuel supply. There is no complicated carburetor.

Ball and roller bearings cut down friction to a minimum.

Long-life batteries mean economy.

You need to know more about Delco-Light. We have fully illustrated literature showing Delco-Light in operation. Write your nearest distributor for it.

Throughout this advertisement we have quoted from letters received from Delco-Light users. Each of these letters is accompanied by an affidavit. We have prepared a folder reproducing some of these letters, and with photographs of some farms where Delco-Light is used. Your nearest distributor will be glad to send this book to you.

The Problem

Count the circles in the Puzzle Chart. Every circle is complete and the chart is entirely free from tricks and illusions. However, to pick out every circle and count it requires patience and care. Those who do this the best will win the valuable cash prizes offered for solving the puzzle.

Any method which contestants hit upon that seems to be best adapted to making the count may be adopted. The Advertiser will be glad to receive short notes explaining how the results were obtained. As many different solutions may be submitted as contestants wish. Before sending in a solution, however, read the general rules carefully.

This contest will not only prove profitable to the winners of the prizes, but solving the puzzle will also prove to be a pleasant and fascinating pastime. Taking advantage of this opportunity may net you as much as $864. The plan of this contest permits everyone to work out his own results. He will not only know what he has done himself, but will also have an opportunity to check up the work of his competitors.

Read carefully all the rules, then make up your mind to enter this very interesting contest. It is open to all present subscribers, as well as to those who wish to become subscribers.

As the main prizes have an increased value, according to the amount paid on subscription when solutions are filed, contestants should familiarize themselves with the prize list before sending in their solutions.

Additional puzzle charts may be obtained at The Advertiser office, or they will be mailed to all who send a three-cent stamp.

How To Enter

This contest is open to present bona fide residents of Ontario.

Anyone in this territory may enter the contest upon payment of not less than $2.00 or more than $12.48. This amount will be applied to subscription to The London Advertiser at regular subscription rates. It may be applied on either the morning or evening edition, or both.

You may submit just one solution or as many different ones as you wish. With each solution you must pay not less than $2.00 or more than $12.48. The total amount paid, whether you send one or more than one solution, will be applied to one continuous subscription, unless you otherwise direct. If you are already a subscriber the amount, or amounts, you pay will be applied to extending the time you are paid to. If you are a new subscriber the amount paid will be credited to you and your subscription started at once.

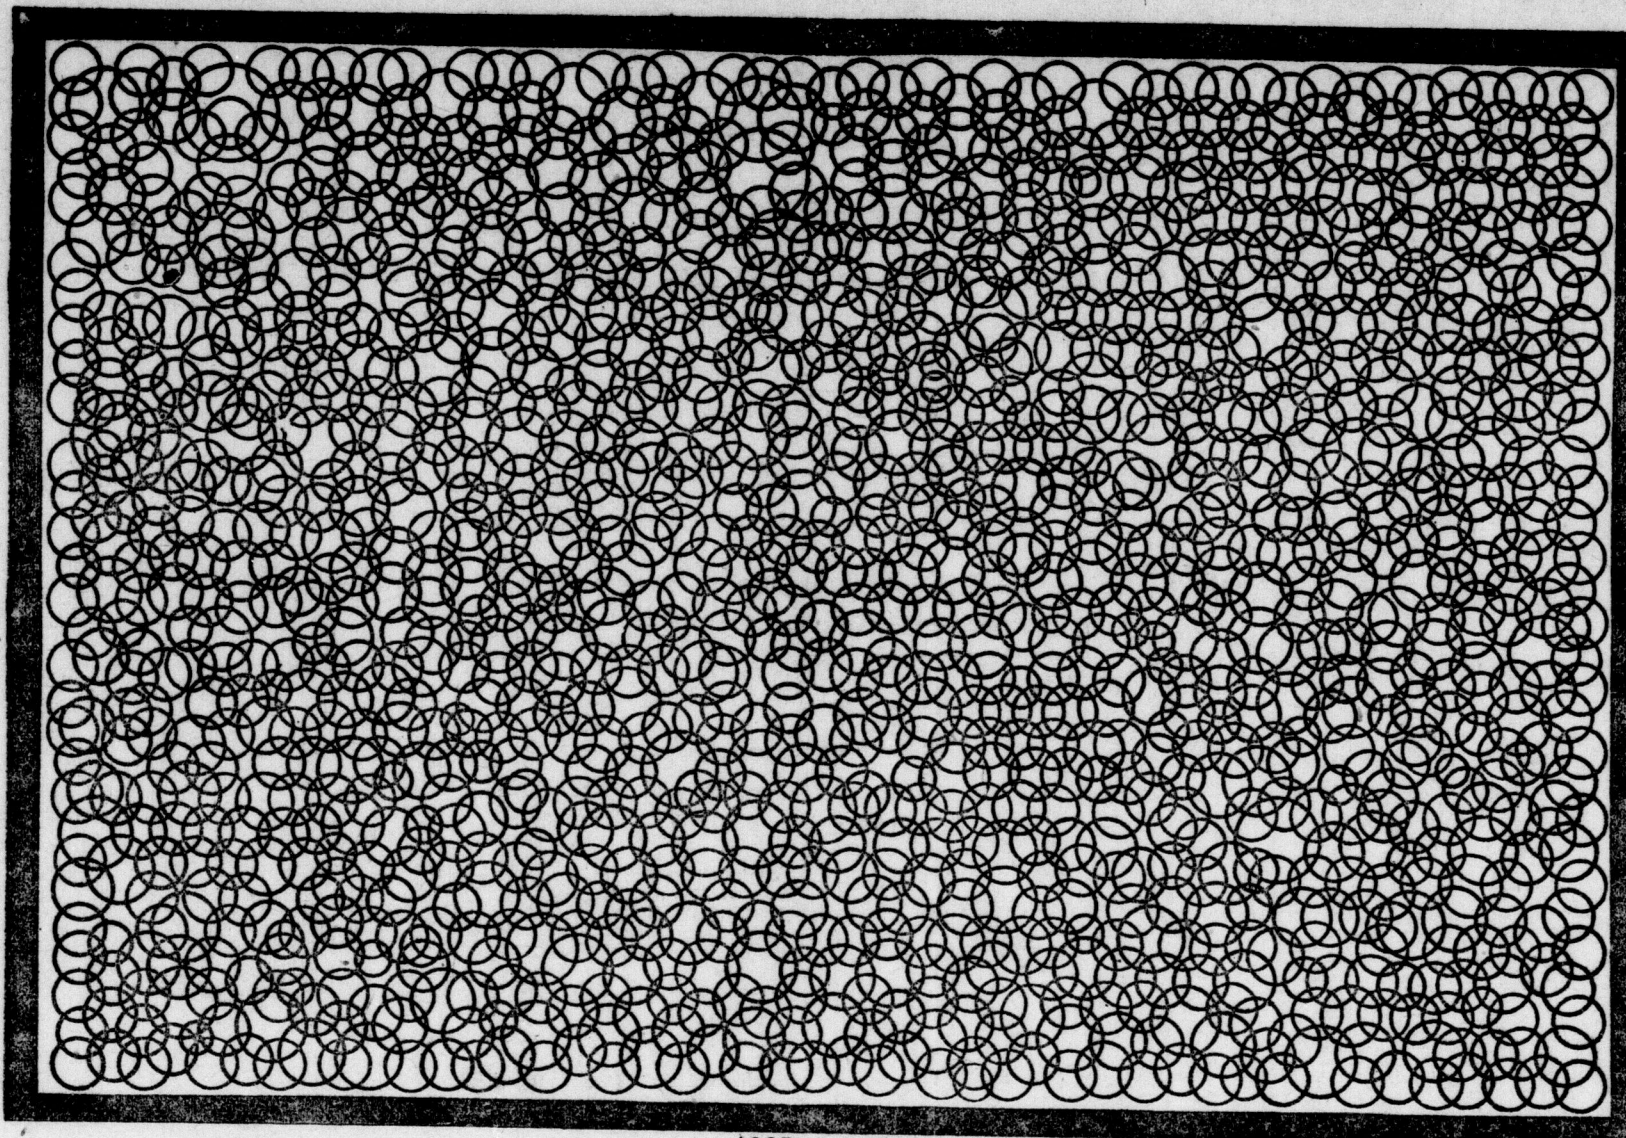

Present subscribers, wherever located, will continue to receive the paper through the same channels as now. No change whatsoever will be made in carriers where subscribers receive the paper through carrier service. All carriers will receive notice that the subscription has been paid and be instructed to collect the amount from The Advertiser office. The same will be done where the paper is being received through an authorized newsdealer.

If you send more than one solution at one time send a separate blank with each one and state in each blank the amount you are paying with that solution.

This contest is open to both men and women. You may order the paper sent to someone else if you wish, names and addresses being subject to any changes that later may be desired.

Contest Closes at 9 p.m.
Saturday, November 1

The sooner you send in your first solution the longer time you will have to go over your figures and send in another solution if you find you can do better.

Important Features

The attention of contestants is called to two important features in connection with the prizes.

1. While the amount you pay for subscription to The Advertiser has no effect on your winning a prize, it does affect the value of the first five prizes should you win one of them. For instance, each of the first five prizes has a fixed value, to which is added from five to fifty times what the winners pay when they register their solutions. This is explained further in the prize list.

2. The first five prizes may also be increased ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS each by your interesting five persons who are not now regular subscribers to become subscribers. You will receive twenty dollars for each one, whether you secure one or five. Each one of these new subscribers must pay not less than the minimum amount ($2.00) required of contestants. They may pay up to the maximum ($12.48) if they desire, and they may also become competitors for the prizes if they wish to submit one or more solutions of the puzzle. That is, they may enter the contest under the same conditions exactly as any other contestant, the payment they make entitling them to entry.

The name of each one of these new subscribers must be sent in on one of the accompanying blanks, whether he becomes a contestant or not. The fact that he was secured by you must also be indicated in the proper place provided in the blank, so you will receive credit. You may send in any or all of these five names whenever you wish, either when you send in your own solution or later. Just use one of the blanks for each one, and then there will be no mistake made in regard to your getting due credit.

Deciding Ties

In the event of ties those tying will be required to solve a second puzzle in order to determine who shall receive the prizes. This second puzzle, if one should be required, will be equally as attractive and practical as the first. Under this plan those who win will be assured of receiving the full value of their prizes without having to divide them with other contestants. Should still further ties ensue a third problem of the same order as the second will be submitted to those again tied to solve. This plan will be continued until all have been eliminated except the actual prize winners. Should there be no ties on the first puzzle, only the one, of course, will be presented. In the event that a second puzzle is required, one week will be allowed in which to solve it. This will prevent the contest being prolonged for any unusual length of time.

General Rules and Information

There is no objection to several members of one family or several friends working together to obtain a solution, provided only one of them turns the solution in. The prizes are awarded for individual effort, and it would not be proper for one person to turn in a solution, then give it to someone else, and for the latter to submit it as his own.

If the paper is already being sent to your residence, either by carrier or through the mails, send in the renewal in the name of the person who is already subscribing. If some other member of the family wants the solution credited to him, or to her, merely attach a note to the blank giving the name of the one who wants to have credit for the solution. The purpose of this is to avoid sending two papers when only one is needed.

When, in the judgment of the Contest Manager, more than one member of the same family, or any others, send in two or more solutions which have the appearance of having been worked in collusion, The Advertiser will reserve the right to use its best judgment in refunding any of the subscriptions paid in connection therewith and rejecting the solutions.

Information will be furnished and rulings made on any points contestants may want information about. The Advertiser reserves the right to decide any and all questions which arise, and those entering the contest as a part of the contract must and do agree to abide by such rulings.

The date a solution is filed has nothing to do with its winning a prize. It is always safe, however, to send in a solution as early as convenient. Then you will have ample time to go over your figures and, if you find you can get a better solution, you will still have an opportunity to profit by your later effort.

As many prizes will be reserved as there are people tied before any prizes are awarded for less correct solutions. That is, if three people should tie on the best solution the first three prizes would be reserved for them, and they would be awarded these prizes in the order of the standing of their solutions of the next puzzle. That is, the best solution would be awarded the first prize, the next best the second and the third best the third prize.

All solutions must be sent in on the blank herewith. No solution unaccompanied by a cash subscription will be accepted. No solution may be changed after it is once registered.

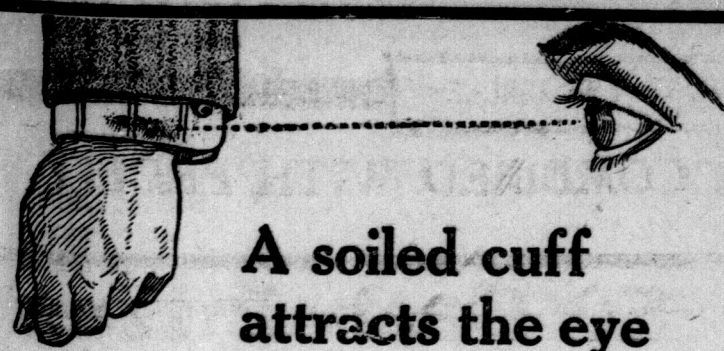

No one directly or indirectly associated with The Advertiser will be allowed to participate in this contest.

A soiled cuff attracts the eye

YOUR cuff is the most exposed portion of your shirt. It soils the quickest. And everyone knows how PROMINENT a soiled cuff is. It seems a magnet that draws all eyes.

A soiled cuff irritates a particular man. He keeps pushing or pulling up his shirt sleeve to hide it. It causes him to change his shirt when the body of it is still fresh and clean.

The Double Wear Cuff is a boon to the particular dresser. When the cuff gets soiled just turn it. It folds easily and lies perfectly flat whether turned in or turned out. And just think of the comfortable feeling it gives you to know that you can turn your cuff, if you should happen to get it soiled unexpectedly when down town, and it's inconvenient to go home and change your shirt.

SON OF FORMER LONDON BISHOP FACES CHARGE OF ABDUCTION

Rev. M. D. Baldwin Arraigned in Montreal Court on Two Counts.

A DOMESTIC MIX-UP

Alleged to Have Abducted Children Given to Mother by Courts.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—In the enquete court today before Judge Cusson, Rev. Maurice Day Baldwin, son of the late Bishop Baldwin of London, Ont., appeared on two charges, that of refusing to obey an order of the civil courts granting the custody of his children to the mother, and secondly of abduction of these children. He was committed for voluntary statement for October 2.

In April last, Mrs. Baldwin instituted an action for separation against her husband, and made a motion before Mr. Justice Coderre asking for the temporary custody of her children. Witnesses for the plaintiff were heard to support the motion, but without hearing witnesses for the defendant, Mr. Justice Coderre granted the custody of the children to the father.

An appeal was entered against this judgment, and on the 22nd of June judgment was rendered by the court of appeal reversing the judgment of Mr. Justice Coderre, and giving the custody of the children to the mother. This is the order which Mr. Baldwin is accused of disobeying.

Mr. Baldwin instituted action for separation against his wife on the ground of desertion. Both actions are pending before the superior court, and there is also a petition before the superior court in which Mr. Baldwin asks that pending final judgment the children be placed in the custody of his mother.

MOORE AND DRAPER ARE RE-ELECTED AS T. AND L. OFFICIALS

President and Secretary-Treasurer to Retain Their Positions.

HAMILTON, Sept. 26.—Tom Moore is again president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress. At the election of officers today he was re-elected by acclamation amid great enthusiasm and similar honor was accorded Secretary-Treasurer P. M. Draper. The new vice-presidents who, with the officers named, compose the executive council, are: A. Martel, Montreal; Controller H. J. Halford, Hamilton; and A. McKeown, Moose Jaw.

Lively interest was taken in the election, and the defeat of David Rees of Vancouver and Robert Baxter of Glace Bay, supporters of the "revolutionary" reconstruction program which was brought to light yesterday, was regarded by a great number of the delegates as a signal victory for the "moderate" faction in the congress. The unsuccessful candidates were: James Simpson, Toronto; J. H. McVey, Vancouver; David Rees, Vancouver; Robert Baxter, Glace Bay; Miss Helen Gutteridge, Vancouver; and W. M. Trotter, Vancouver.

Nominations for the executive council were: J. W. Wilkinson, Vancouver; Joe Gibbons, Toronto; Thomas Brannen, Brantford; A. E. O'Leary, Toronto; and J. C. W. O'Leary, Toronto. Three ballots were required to decide the election, with Delegates Halford and Martel winning on the first. McKeown won the contest for the third ballot.

The other feature of the day's proceedings was the adoption of an amendment to the constitution which is virtually the final blow to the Big Union. The amendment grants power to the executive council to revoke or suspend the charter of any provincial federation of labor, trades and labor council or federated union chartered by the congress where the officers have encouraged or advocated secession from international unions or assisted in forming independent or dual organizations.

J. A. McClelland, Montreal, was selected as fraternal delegate to the next convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Provincial executive committees were elected as follows:

Quebec—Gustav Franco, chairman; J. T. Foster, A. Mathieu, H. Monette, Ontario—J. J. Ralph, chairman; R. R. Marcell, J. Gorman, E. B. Henson, Manitoba—H. Strange, chairman; A. Broster, H. Carr, F. Robinson, Saskatchewan—J. Somerville, chairman; J. J. McGrath, D. Regan, J. McKinnon.

Next year's convention will be held in Windsor, Ont.

Settlement Board Could Not Instruct Disabled Soldiers

Such Men Require Special Attention, Which Is Given by S. O. R.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—The distinction between the work performed by the soldier settlement board and the functions of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment was clearly defined by N. F. Parkinson, director of vocational training of the latter department, testifying before the select committee now considering the act dealing with the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

Mr. Parkinson told the committee that the vocational branch of the department, of which he was the director, dealt with former members of the forces suffering from disability due to war services which prevented them from returning to pre-war occupations, and also with such ex-members of the forces as enlisted under the military age of 15 and who, on account of war service suffered a severe interruption to their training.

The soldiers' settlement board dealt only with the men who were physically fit.

When asked by the committee whether or not he considered it possible to combine all instruction in farm subjects under one head Mr. Parkinson gave it as his opinion that in view of the fact that men discharged with disabilities required a special course of training that could be adapted to their special needs, this would not be possible. Men trained under the vocational branch were under constant supervision by the vocational officer and by medical advisers.

Local food controllers are empowered to fix maximum prices of articles which previously have not been affected by such methods.

All persons able to drive vehicles are invited to offer their services to the Government.

In connection with the new food regulations the food ministry announces that there is a sufficient food supply in the country to meet normal conditions, but that the railway strike, with its effect on the most regular transport service, obviously renders the task of maintaining the local supplies extremely difficult.

Hence, the public is asked to render all possible aid by strictly observing the restrictions which are considered necessary during the continuance of the strike, and, where possible, by actively assisting the emergency transport service.

FOOD CONTROLLER HAS VIRTUALLY REVISED WAR FOOD MEASURES

LONDON, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press).—The food controller tonight issued an order virtually revising the war measures regarding food, Alcohol is a Poison!

No Man Ever Revived Who Swallowed Five Ounces at a Single Dose

FOR centuries the human race has been under a delusion about alcohol. Modern Science has pronounced alcohol a deadly narcotic poison.

Five ounces of alcohol will kill a full-grown healthy man within ten hours. Taken in smaller but repeated doses alcohol lets him live longer but gets him in the end. All alcoholic beverages are poison, slow or swift—but sure.

Medical Science Has Established These Incontrovertible Facts

Alcohol is a racial poison.

Alcohol is a national curse.

Alcohol is a blight on the home.

Alcohol injures the individual and lowers his vitality.

Alcohol decreases his efficiency, makes him more susceptible to disease and shortens his life.

No man ever revived who swallowed five ounces of alcohol at a single dose.

The unconsciousness or coma produced by alcohol if not broken within ten or twelve hours is followed by practically certain death.

Alcohol as medicine has been expelled from the American Pharmacopoeia upon the authority of the American Medical Association comprising 81,000 physicians of the United States.

Beer drinking produces degeneracy and affects children yet unborn.

Pneumonia is fatal to alcoholic patients.

2.51% Alcohol in Beer Makes it Poison

(2.51% Alcohol by weight equals 5.46% Proof Spirits)

Witnesses—

MAJOR DR. J. W. McCULLOUGH
Secretary Board of Health for Ontario

"The Public should learn that alcohol is a poison in the same class with opium, cocaine, and other deadly drugs. The money annually wasted in alcohol would pay the public health bills of a continent over and over again."

DR. CHARLES J. HASTINGS
Medical Officer of Health for City of Toronto

"Of the various habit-forming drugs, alcohol stands out as pre-eminently the greatest curse to humanity. The role played by this drug in the lowering of efficiency and in the actual production of organic diseases is such as to make it essentially a problem of preventive medicine and one demanding immediate action by administrators of Public Health."

LATE DR. J. T. GILMOUR
Formerly Superintendent of the Ontario Reformatory, Guelph

"I have never known a single case of wife murder that was not committed under the influence of liquor."

A quart of 2.51% beer contains approximately one ounce of alcohol.

Five ounces of alcohol will kill a full grown man.

Three glasses of the Beer of the Ballot contains as much alcohol as a glass of whiskey.

Beer drunkards are coarser, lower, and more disgusting than wine or spirit drunkards because beer specially attacks the finer faculties of the brain, and stagnates the natural processes of waste elimination in the body.

The evils of beer are the evils of alcohol, and "then some."

When you are asked by the Referendum Ballot if you are in favor of beer containing 2.51% alcohol by weight—which is equal to 5.46% proof spirits—in shops, bars, or anywhere else, or if you favor repealing or amending the Ontario Temperance Act, vote

"No!"—Four Times—"No!"

And Sustain the Ontario Temperance Act as It Stands

SAVE yourself, save your family, save your country for the destiny God intended, unhandicapped by "booze".

Be careful—mark your ballot after each question with an X under the heading "No" or your vote will be lost to Temperance.

DUSTIN FARNUM AT THE PATRICIA NEXT THUR., FR. AND SAT.

Popular Actor Appears in "A Man's Fight."

Dustin Farnum in "A Man's Fight" is the screen attraction at the Patricia next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The story is of one who left singing Prison and hurried home to his wealthy father in the palatial New York home. And his father disowned him. He had been an idler all his life, and when the big crime occurred which sent him to pay the penalty, his own sister cut herself off from the world and became a nun.

How the young idler and ex-convict overcame this terrible handicap and won out unaided in the far west is a story of love and thrills.

He won his heart's desire. He not only won the sweetheart, but he was successful in becoming a senator. And he won wealth. But to cap the climax he found that his convict past was to be brought against him.

And in the great denouement he was vindicated. This story is dramatized in the United photoplay coming to this theatre next week.

Dustin Farnum is the star, and the title of the production, fathered by the United Picture Theatres of America, is "A Man's Fight."

Also will be shown a special two-reel comedy, "Dull Care," featuring Larry Semon, and a special vaudeville feature, "Iwana and Girls," six artists, presenting "Cannibal Isle Dance," and Mutt and Jeff cartoon.

WILLIAM FARNUM IN ZANE GREY'S DRAMATIC STORY "THE LONE STAR RANGER" AT PATRICIA THEATRE

This Thrilling Photoplay of Western Life Will Be Presented at the Patricia on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

William Farnum appears in Zane Grey's dramatic story, "The Lone Star Ranger," at the Patricia Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Steele (William Farnum) is a Texas ranger, who has sworn to avenge the death of his friend, Neil, captain of the rangers, shot from ambush by one of a notorious band of outlaws. Steele is known throughout the border country as a fearless man and "lightning quick on the draw."

While on his way to Fairfield, the supposed centre of the band of cattle thieves, Steele meets Ray, Longstreth's daughter of Cyrus Longstreth—who is known to the girl, is the leader of the gang of outlaws, while passing on the trail of the band-chief among them being Jeff Lawson, a nephew of Longstreth, and Bully Brome, a bad man and also a lieutenant of Longstreth's.

Steele takes the "job" on Longstreth's ranch in order to be "under cover" while tracking the thieves. Soon his identity and makes clear to Ray how he loves Ray. The rufian Lawson, who interloper whose coming bodes no good, and watches him closely.

Steel learns that his employer and Lawson are the ringleaders of the band of cattle thieves, and sets about getting them into the clutches of the law. His constant attendance on Ray has resulted in a friendship which shrewdly ripens into love. Steele, having learned the true character of his father, realizes his predicament.

Having found enough evidence against the ringleaders, Steel discloses his identity and makes clear to Ray how he loves Ray. The rufian Lawson, who interloper whose coming bodes no good, and watches him closely.

The rustlers plan to put Steele out of the way. He hears of the threat, and in an encounter with Brome he kills the latter and escapes for Longstreth's ranch. There he confronts Longstreth and Lawson, accusing Lawson of having killed Neil, captain of the rangers. Steele is told by Longstreth, out of gratitude for saving Ray, that he can have a "job" on his ranch.

The arrival of Steele in Fairfield is looked on with suspicion by the members of the band—chief among them being Jeff Lawson, a nephew of Longstreth, and Bully Brome, a bad man and also a lieutenant of Longstreth's.

T. B. Windross, former city editor of the Sarnia Observer, and son Raymond, passed through London Friday morning on bicycles en route from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Oregon, under the auspices of the Sarnia Chamber of Commerce, travelling entirely via the proposed Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Highway.

To date, the pair have covered 374 miles of the journey, which represents one-fourth of the entire distance. Mr. Windross is writing descriptive articles on the trip, and reports the Ontario portion of the proposed highway to be in a disgraceful condition, as compared to the United States roads traversed. The pair have travelled two weeks and will complete the bicycle trip to the western coast in three months.

TRAVELING ON BICYCLES FROM COAST TO COAST

T. B. Windross and son using Roosevelt Memorial Highway.

T. B. Windross, former city editor of the Sarnia Observer, and son Raymond, passed through London Friday morning on bicycles en route from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Oregon, under the auspices of the Sarnia Chamber of Commerce, travelling entirely via the proposed Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Highway.

To date, the pair have covered 374 miles of the journey, which represents one-fourth of the entire distance. Mr. Windross is writing descriptive articles on the trip, and reports the Ontario portion of the proposed highway to be in a disgraceful condition, as compared to the United States roads traversed. The pair have travelled two weeks and will complete the bicycle trip to the western coast in three months.

ALL SCHOOL TEACHERS TO ASK SALARY RISE

School teachers in the public, high and technical schools are expected to ask at the next meeting of the board of education that their salaries be increased.

From time to time the question has been discussed on the floor of the board room, but nothing has been done, although at one time a committee to deal with the matter almost was formed. The teachers have been holding a few meetings with the intention of making preparations to present their demands.
