WRECK OF THE "NARRAGANSETT."

HOW THE DISASTER OCCURRED.

The steamer Narragansett, of the Providence and Stonington Steamship Line, sailed from her pier, at the foot of Jay street, North River, Friday afternoon, 11th June, at 5.30 o'clock, having on board, it is estimated, about 300 passengers.

The fog-whistle was blown at intervals as the Narragansett plunged on her way through the water, and this, with the splashing of the wheels and the groaning of the massive engine, was the only noise which disturbed the stillness.

Congress adjourned on the 10th inst. —It is rumored the Chinese have taken a Russian fort. —The British House of Lords has thrown out the burials bill. —Sitting Bull and his 500 Indians have left Canada for the States. —England paid Germany three millions sterling for potatoes last year. —The boarded woman exhibited by Barnum is now in a lunatic asylum. —Chicago is angry because the census takers cruelly deny it a half million. —New York expects to contain 1,500,000 noses when the present census is taken. —Chalmers Lacour, the French Ambassador to England, is a strong republican. —The preliminary workings for the tunnel under the Straits of Dover are commenced. —The Hon. John O'Connor was promoted a Manitoba judge-ship, but was sent West instead. —Mr. Cowper Temple, Lord Palmerston's stepson, has been created Lord Mount Temple. —The committee of the House of Commons, have decided to allow Bradlaugh to make affirmation. —Denis Kearney uses language as strong as ever against "rings" and "thieves" and "corner." —An anti-duelling club has been formed in Scotland, of which Judge Keenan is president. —China has 600,000 of an army, but some of them are armed with pikes and others with bows and arrows. —It is noticeable that the Republican Convention contained no Irish names, while the Democratic is full of them. —The Saturday Review thinks the English language is deteriorating, even high class novelists slinging in slang. —The harbor of the poor ex-Khedyve of Egypt is at present floating round the Mediterranean looking for a port which will admit them. —An American woman in Paris has her hair so long and so thick that standing up she covers herself with it all over. It is a heavy burden. —The Quebec correspondent of the Irish Canadian thinks there is a conspiracy among the French to keep old countrymen out of office. —The census taken last February shows that Canada, including the Province, has 1,800,000 inhabitants. Ten years ago the total was 1,738,000. —The Roumanian Administration has begun setting out forests of young trees in the Moldavia. No more than 1,000 trees have already been planted. —Evidently there is improving in Glasgow. On Monday morning last only one police returns showed 25 "drunks," against only 26 last year. —The cleanest classes in England, says the Spectator, are young ladies, who see every day, and would be wretched if there were dust on the chairs. —A man at Athens, Ga., seeing a child falling from a third-story window, pushed a barrel of water into the spot, and the little one fell into it harmlessly. —Mr. Coombs, late High Sheriff of Somersetshire, England, committed suicide last month in a delirium of grief at the loss of his wife, who had died two days before. —The reduction of the incomes of the landed gentry in England is sending many to recognize abroad, where they could live on a scale which they would not like to face in England. —Hard times have led to English squires decking the absence of their arms and there is now much murmuring about officers' expenses, which are higher in the British than in any other service. —An experiment is to be made of direct mail steamers between Italy and the United States. The Vincenzo Florio left Palermo on the 10th inst., and is expected to reach New York in eighteen days. —The crew of the Anchora are charged with cowardice after the collision with the Queen. They were the first to leave the ship after insulting the passengers, and taking possession of the liquor. —Father Martin Marty, formerly Abbot of St. Meinrad, Indiana, is appointed Bishop of Dakota, and will, it is believed, ultimately be placed in the position of remaining Peter's successor with the signature "Bismarckensis Episcopus," Bismarck being the capital of the new see. —At Aith, in Scotland, a few days since, the sun was seen, focused through the glass of a round window, which he says that the inmates but the flames were not extinguished until considerable damage had been done. —This is an Anglo-Saxon country, of course, but the Republican party has nominated for President a man whose grandfather was a German, and for Vice-President one whose father was an Irishman. Is this the way to carry out the glorious Anglo-Saxon traditions? —Boston Pilot. —A recent traveller in South Africa has placed in the hands of Dr. Cameron, M. P., a whip, more formidable than the "cat" of the British navy, which he says that he has seen in the slanting near Lake Nyanza are in the habit of flogging refractory converts. The subject will probably be officially investigated. —At Folkestone, England, lately, a married couple who only three weeks after marriage had separated by mutual consent, met on the beach, when the husband ran up to the wife, put his arms round her, and kissed her. She gave him in custody for assault, and he was bound over in $1,000 to keep the peace. —Blanche Elliott, a working man, a Liberal, and even a Radical, whose "Corn-law Rhymes" were once so popular in England, thus defined a Communist: "What is a Communist? One who has yearning for equal division of unequal earnings." —In no court, says the London Truth, are more beautiful women to be seen than in England; but it is to be regretted that more pains are not taken to teach graceful walking. Even in a ball room, what with high heels and back skirts, the art of progression is far too much neglected by Englishwomen. —Purchasers have at last been found for the large house built by Mr. Albert Grant in the Kensington road, London. A committee, acting for an intended new Club, which is to consist chiefly of subscribers to Hurlingham, the Orleans, and other existing Clubs, have agreed to give £18,000 for the property. The sum of £100,000 is to be paid at once, as cautious money, and this is already in hand.

NOTES FROM THE FARM AND GARDEN. A large portion of every day is devoted just now to the destruction of insects.

CELEBRATION IN HOT, DRY WEATHER. The stirring of the soil in the driest, hottest weather is very useful. One may readily perceive this on an examination, in very dry weather, of the soil of a garden or field which has been frequently stirred.

PAINTING BARN. The Hon. George Geddes, not long ago, startled many of those who have great confidence in his opinions, by declaring against painting barns and stables as a waste of money.

IRRIGATION OF GRASS LANDS. Every year, in some localities, crops are injured or destroyed by dry weather.

MINERAL MANURES. On my farm, however, where most of the soil was used, in no instance has any decided benefit resulted.

growth of a very thick mat of white clover in an old meadow. Whether the draining of the farm which is now completed will have the effect of demonstrating the value of the mat remains to be seen.
