Board of Trade

Annual Meeting Elects Officers and Makes Plans for Year's Work

The annual meeting of the Wolfville Board of Trade was held on Tuesday evening at the Town Hall, and although the attendance was not large an interesting meeting was held. President H. E. Woodman was in the chair and after the reading of the minutes of the last meeting the president made his report of the year's work with suggestions for the coming year. He said in part:

"I take pleasure in presenting to you the report for the year 1921. The board has held three general meetings, all of which were well attended and great interest taken in the discussions.

"The big thing that has engaged the attention of the board this year has been the question of the improvement of the harbour facilities. This is a matter of vital importance to this town and one that will be well worthy the attention of the new council. This question starting with the preceding year's work was carried on almost continuously throughout the year with the result that the Minister of Public Works was here in the fall and gave his promise that the work would be attended to. This has not been done and the incoming council can do no better than to work along these lines until we have a harbour worthy of the town and its business requirements. We are fortunate in having interested in this project one of the largest corporations in the Valley, and which is ready to back us in every move for better harbour facilities. With the new member in parliament a resident of this town, it is hoped that the work will be pushed on to completion.

"During the early part of the year the question of a town manager engaged the attention of the board. At that time the decision seemed especially propitious for pressing one and the matter was urged upon the town council, but no action was taken by them. At present the business of the town must be carried on by men with the best interests of the town at heart, being men having their own private businesses, cannot give to every department of the town affairs the attention merited. It places the town in somewhat the position of a corporation that has an excellent board of directors but no general manager.

"Permanent sidewalks is another matter that engaged the attention of the board. In this connection a committee was appointed who interviewed the property holders on Main St., relative to paying half of the cost. This the property holders agreed to do and the matter was placed before the Town Council but no action was taken.

I would like to conclude this with an appeal to the business men of Wolfville for greater support for this organization. The Board of Trade is nothing more than what you make it. The town needs an organization of the nature of a Board of Trade as does every wide awake town. I bespeak for the incoming officers and council your hearty support shown by regular attendance at the meetings and the free discussion of all matters coming before such meetings."

The report of the president being accepted and adopted the following were appointed a nominating committee for officers for the coming year:

B: O. Davidson, Edson Graham, H. A. Peck, A. M. Wheaton and J. L. Franklin.

While awaiting this committee's report the following new members were elected: A. G. Guest, G. S. Bauld, P. W. Davidson and Dr. W. Grant.

The report of the nominating committee was then heard and adopted with the name of Dr. J. T. Roach substituted for H. W. Phinney who said he could not possibly serve the coming year.

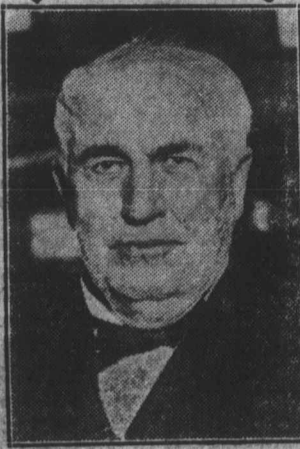

President—H. E. Woodman.
Vice-President—W. D. Withrow.
Sec.-Treas.—H. P. Davidson.

Council—J. L. Franklin, H. A. Peck, Edson Graham, J. E. Hales, A. J. Mason, L. E. Shaw, J. W. Williams, Dr. J. T. Roach.

B. O. Davidson then made a report for the Harbor Improvement Committee drawing attention to the fact that it was absolutely necessary that the work be done if Wolfville was not to lose its boat service on the Basin. Attention was also called to a number of ways in which improved dock facilities would help Wolfville and to the business firms that felt the need of the improvements as planned for. The blue print of the government survey and plans were produced and following the report there was a lively discussion of ways and means. The following motion was made by H. W. Phinney and adopted by the meeting:

"The Board of Trade shall ask the member from Kings county to try and secure sufficient assistance from the Federal Government to make our port suitable for present needs."

Death's Harvest

JOHNSON H. BISHOP

Wolfville lost another of its veteran citizens when the death of Johnson H. Bishop occurred at his home on Main street at about 9:30 o'clock on Monday morning. The deceased celebrated his 84th birthday in October last and was practically during all his long life a resident of this locality.

Born at Greenwich, he was a son of the late Jesse Lewis Bishop and a descendant of John Bishop, one of the original grantees of this section. He was one of a family of ten, and is survived by three brothers, Raleigh, of Greenwich; Charles, of Trainer, Pa.; and Geo. L., of Wolfville; and three sisters, Jessie (Mrs. James N. Borden), Julia (Mrs. T. J. Borden), and Annie (Mrs. J. L. Read). Two brothers, Estey and Gustavous, and one sister, Louisa, predeceased him.

Mr. Bishop was widely known and highly esteemed throughout the county. Many years ago he did a large potato shipping business and was at one time the largest shipper in this place of that commodity.

He remembered Wolfville when there were only seven buildings on the Main street and ever took a deep interest in the growth and development of our town. He was at the time of his death the oldest living member of the Wolfville Baptist church, having united with the church in March, 1856. Always a faithful and interested member he was rarely absent from any of the services while health permitted.

Fifty-four years ago on January 29th, he was married to Miss Freedom Borden, of Town Plot, who survives him as do three sons, Harding Y., of Wolfville and Lewis and Mosten, of Saskatchewan, and one daughter, Lola (Mrs. J. F. Ryan), of Truro.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from his late residence and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., who was assisted by Rev. Dr. Manning.

Two selections, "Looking this Way", and "Sometime, Somewhere", were feelingly rendered by a male quartette. Many and beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the sympathy and respect of friends. Dr. Manning gave the address in which he referred to the many good qualities of the deceased and his faithful devotion to the home, the church and the community. The interment was at Willow Bank Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. W. F. and C. S. Fitch, G. B. Porter and B. O. Davidson.

GEORGE BROWN

The death of George Brown, a well known farmer and fruit grower of Lower Wolfville, occurred at his home there on Monday morning after a week's illness of pneumonia. The deceased was a son of the late William Brown and was 65 years of age. He is survived by one brother, Fred, residing in the United States, and three sisters, Minnie, Julia and Rowena, with whom he resided at the old homestead. The deceased was an ardent Liberal and took an active part in every political campaign. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended, the service being conducted by Rev. R. F. Dixon, rector of St. John's church. The interment was at the Church of England Cemetery at Wolfville.

JAMES LYMAN

James Lyman, son of Mrs. Christine Lyman, died at the home of his mother on Monday morning. The deceased, who was forty years of age, was practically an invalid all his life. He bore his trials cheerfully and took a lively interest in community affairs. He devoted much of his leisure time to chess and checkers, in which games he was an expert. Lately his health had not been as good as usual and he gradually failed until the end came on Monday. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning, Rev. Dr. MacDonald officiating. The interment was at Willow Bank Cemetery.

MRS. GEORGE MARSHALL

News has been received of the death at her home at Malden, Mass., on Thursday, Feb. 16th, of Elizabeth J., wife of George P. Marshall, a prominent resident of that city. The deceased was before her marriage Elizabeth Lewis. Her mother was formerly Miss Nancy Pick, a sister of Mr. M. W. Pick, of this town. She is survived by her husband, one son and one daughter. The deceased had for years spent her summers in Wolfville and had many friends here. She was 67 years of age. She was a great lover of Wolfville where her annual visits will be greatly missed by a host of friends.

John T. Hawke, editor and proprietor of the Moncton Transcript, passed away at his home last Friday.

The Acadia hockey team played the Amherst Amateurs at Amherst last Friday evening, and lost by the close score of 4 to 3.

The same evening the Acadia Collegiate team defeated Mahone Bay at Bridge-water by the score of 8 to 6. Both teams displayed good combination and stick handling, while checking was hard, though clean, throughout. Mahone Bay led by the score of 5 to 4 at the end of the second period but the Acadia boys came back strong in the final period.

Mount Allison defeated U. N. B. at Moncton on Monday night for the championship of the Western Inter-collegiate League. After playing two periods and a half with neither side scoring, Mount Allison tallied twice in the last ten minutes of play.

CANNING DEFEATS YARMOUTH

YARMOUTH, Feb. 17.—The Canning hockey team, this evening, walloped the Yarmouth team by a score of nine to three. There was only a small attendance owing to the extreme coldness of the weather. The game was a fast one, and the Canning boys excelled in individual and team work over the locals. In the first period Canning scored four goals, while Yarmouth managed to push the rubber through only once.

In the second period, Canning added two more goals, while Yarmouth failed to score. In the final period, the Yarmouth boys made a desperate effort to pull up, but scored only two, while Canning added three more goals. The line up:

Canning—Grant, goal; L. Lyons, Houston, defence; Eaton, H. Lyons, Bennet, forwards; Burns, Hogan, Blenborne, subs.

Yarmouth—Burrill, goal; J. Cook, H. Cann, defence; Selvage, Chipman, Selvage, forwards; Critcher, MacKinnon, Comeau, subs.

Acadia Defeats

Dalhousie

Local Basketball Players Outplay Halifax Collegians

HALIFAX, Feb. 23rd.—The fast Dalhousie Basket Ball team went down to defeat at the hands of the Acadia Quintette at the Dalhousie Gymnasium last night by the score of 35 to 27 after a game that was listless in spots, but which in others produced the fastest basket ball that has been seen here this year. The Acadians came here with a very heavy team and checked the lighter Dalhousie five to a standstill. Acadia were blessed with several sharpshooters who were able to sink the ball in the Yellow and Black basket without taking the trouble to beat the defense. The Red and Blue victory was a surprise to the locals and was won by their ability to score from long range. The light Dalhousie forwards had no chance with the heavy Acadians after the first ten minutes of play and their attempts to get in close were well blocked by the heavy pair of guards that were playing for the visitors. Dalhousie had the edge in speed and combination, but lacked the ability to shoot that was possessed by the Acadians who sank the "pill" repeatedly from long distances and difficult angles.

Play opened fast, and the Dal. team went out in front when Ivan Mader netted three baskets in a row from close in, but after that the guarding of the Acadia men was superb and the locals did not get within scoring range until near the end of the session. While they were holding the Dal. team at a distance the Acadia long range guns went into action, and when the smoke cleared away they had run up a total of 23 points for the first half. Towards the end of the session Dalhousie came to life, encouraged by their supporters, and went into the game with all the "pep" that has characterised their play in the City League, getting eight points without a return from the visitors who were out paced by the fast work of Coster and his team mates.

In the final session Acadia showed good generalship by taking advantage of the eagerness of the local collegians to score. More than once they had a man camping under the basket while the local guards were up with the forwards trying to get a basket, and this resulted in their getting several easy tallies from close in. With a big score rolled up against them, the count being 33 to 16 at one stage of the game, the Yellow and Black began to demonstrate the fighting spirit that they are famous for, and staging a wicked attack on the Acadia end they rolled in basket after basket until it seemed that they were going to come from behind and win. Acadia halted them while she netted one lone tally, bringing her score to 35, but the locals were not to be denied and they commenced another terrific bombardment on the Acadia net, but were not able to score sufficient points to bring home the bacon.

Dalhousie had a big edge in the last session, but were hopeless in their shooting, and their defeat may be traced to their weakness in this department of the game. Acadia, on the other hand, were positively brilliant in their shooting and made most of their shots on the Dal. basket count for goals. They had the edge in the first session and in the beginning of the second, and are perhaps one of the smoothest working and best balanced teams in the Province.

The line-up:
Acadia—Robinson, forward, 13; Brown forward, 10; Wigmore, centre, 8; Carey, guard, 4; Chipman, guard; Dobson and Lewis, spares.

Dalhousie—Mader, forward, 10; Wilson, forward, 4; Grant, centre, 4; Muir, centre, 9; MacNeill and Miller, guards.

BUY IN NOVA SCOTIA

Buy at home. Every dollar spent at home helps to keep the wheels of industry in your own city or town turning. Every dollar spent in your own city or town helps to give some other person employment. And it helps the man or woman who does the spending.

People forget about the efficiency of the dollar bill. The big enterprises grow from small beginnings. Business is never attainable unless the small details are carefully watched. Economy in small things equals success in great things.

So it is with the spending of money by the people of a city or town. There are two ways of spending. One way is to spend it so it will bear fruit in your own community. The other way is to spend it so it will give employment in other places and do good to the people of another city or town.

In this town, for example, we have to keep up our schools, build our streets, provide our water supply, and fire protection, pay for light and power, maintain our churches and charitable institutions. These matters call for dollar bills. One dollar bill may not look very large. It may not seem to be of much importance. But if you have thirty or forty thousand men and women spending dollar bills every day the total soon grows into a big pile.

If the most of these people, or half of them or quarter of them are spending their dollar bills outside of their own city, they are leaving it to the others to maintain the essential work of the town.

Let your dollar bills be working every day for the benefit of your own city or town. Every time you put one in circulation you stimulate your own community, help others to earn wages, and assist in building up your city or town. If you send your dollar bills out of the province, when you can buy at home, you add to the payroll of some other community. Help to give employment to people there, and set back your own city or town to some extent.

Thousands of dollar bills go out of Nova Scotia for goods that citizens can buy at home. The goods from abroad seem better because they come from Winnipeg or Boston or New York. They are no better. Just as good values can be got on the streets of your own town or city. Why not buy there, and put your dollar bills at work at home?

Thus is one of the great secrets of city building. Patriotism, civic pride should impel every citizen to give first consideration to his or her city. And every one should think about the small things. These when put together make the big successes. Write this down—BUY AT HOME—and begin to practise it at once, and keep on practising it.—Halifax Herald.

POTATO CANKER

(Experimental Farms Note.)

Potato Canker or "wart disease" of the potato is a disease happily known to most Canadian farmers only by its name, perhaps to some few by its notoriously dangerous character to the potato growing industry in other countries.

Some ten years ago the Federal Department of Agriculture succeeded in averting the very near danger of its introduction into Canada from abroad, principally from Europe. The Department then placed an embargo against the importation of potatoes from Europe with the usual emphatic objections generally resulting from such measures. Today Canada has every reason to be grateful for the foresight of the Department. In Great Britain, notwithstanding every effort towards the eradication of the disease, some 22,000 cases and more have been reported during the period of one (recent) year. The disease affects potatoes in various degrees of severity; either there may be slight infection or wholesale destruction of the crop, rendering useless all efforts to harvest a yield. Moreover, the disease persists under certain conditions in the soil for 10-15 years, always re-infecting a crop even when planted after an interval of so many years duration. The presence of this disease has caused Great Britain and other European countries serious losses, not alone within their own borders, but also in the valuable export trade in potatoes. Canada is quite free from this disease which causes such serious losses in other countries; but the danger once more looms on the horizon, since this disease has been discovered in certain areas of the United States.

Canadian farmers are well advised to continue their vigilance, especially as potatoes imported from the States are concerned. The person who through neglect on his part causes the disease to become established in Canada, will cause this country serious injury, probably of a lasting and irreparable character.

WORKING COLT AT IMMATURE AGE

One great mistake that many farmers make in rearing young colts is in not allowing them time to mature. They put them to work at an immature age in order to make them pay for their board. But when a farmer buys an automobile he does not count the cost of upkeep with such a close scrutiny as he does when he is discussing the cost of rearing colts. It is a frequently advocated theory that colts should be put to work at two years and pay for part or all their feed. Another wasteful method is the keeping of mares that have to do the work of an equal number of geldings and look for foals to pay for their keep over and above what they give in work. Both theories work far better on paper than they work out in practice. A rapidly growing draft colt at two years old is too soft and easily injured to be put to any steady work. It will take considerable time to break and harden him so as to get any work worth while out of him. With the high-priced labor which the farmer has to employ now he cannot afford to waste time during the rest of making and saving crops by fooling with two-year-olds. The colts will make him more money if they are allowed to run on good pastures. What little work they can do is entirely out of proportion to the expense and risk involved, to say nothing of the loss of work delayed, and the stunting of the growth which is so liable to take place when hitherto a steady tug at an early age. Heavy work between the age of two and three years is certain ruin to a young colt.

KEEP FIT

Never let your system get run down -- keep fit all the time

As long as you keep yourself strong and healthy, it is almost impossible to contract colds and other contagious diseases.

Don't wait until your system becomes weakened, but immediately you notice you are not feeling up to the mark, start fortifying your system against disease by taking Carnol. These remarks apply especially to children who do not realize the importance of taking proper care of themselves.

The peculiar feature about Carnol is that, while it is a preparation containing cod liver oil, it has a delicious taste.

Carnol is the ideal preparation for all run down conditions. It is an excellent remedy for anemia, consumption and all diseases of a wasting nature, due to impaired nutrition, poor and insufficient blood supply. Carnol provides food for the nerves and food for the body. It increases weight and builds up the whole system.

Carnol is of special value in the treatment of all nervous conditions marked by depression of the vital forces and usually caused by prolonged mental strain, overwork, nervous prostration.

Carnol has proven an excellent remedy in Rickets, that common disease of ill-nourished children, and in other ailments.

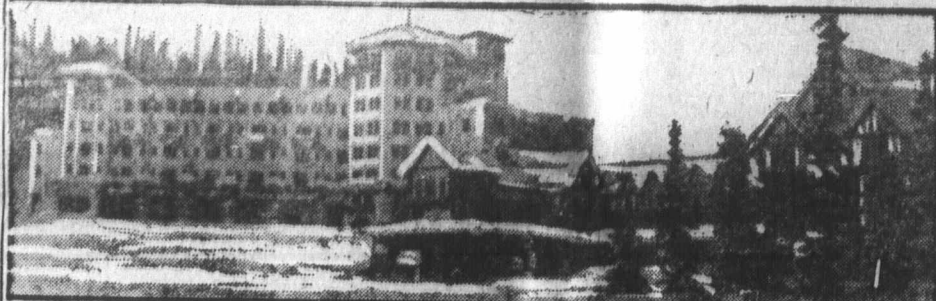

Carnol is composed of that wonderful nerve tonic—glycerophosphate salts. This is commonly known the world over as "The Blood Salts." It is the best blood builder and nerve invigorator yet discovered. Carnol also contains the soluble nutritive properties of fresh beef which stimulates and nourishes the system.

In addition, there is cod livers' extract with all the nauseating, bad-tasting elements removed.

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 5-122

Winter Recreations in Canadian Pacific Rockies

You cannot play golf at Banff in the winter time. Neither can you explore the Lake Louise region on a saddle pony when the last grey goose has honked good-bye and the marmot and the Pika are far underground and fast asleep. For six long months these forest filled valleys and star high peaks are mantled in a matchless robe of spotless white.

There are many outdoor winter sports and recreations which are only made possible by deep snows and keen frosts. These pastimes are luring more people to the Canadian Rockies every winter. At this time of the year tourists are travelling to and from the Orient and the great islands of the southern seas and a large number of them, attracted by the witchery of winter in the Rockies, are enjoying a novel and delightful holiday in this highland country where winter is a sparkling pageant.

There is no snow in the lands from whence these pilgrims come, yet, were you to travel there, you would find many a pair of snow shoes which have been carried across the Pacific as souvenirs from Canada's winter wonderland.

Banff Winter Carnival allures many visitors to the beautiful mountain resort. In 1922 it will be held from January 28th to February 4th. The carnival will feature—spring, art skating, figure skating, skating races, hockey matches for ladies and men, snowshoe races, toboggan races, dog races, snowshoe traps, bob-sledding, trap shooting, swimming in the hot sulphur springs, ski joring, sleighing, dancing. There will be an illuminated ice palace and fireworks. On the opening day there will be ski jumping by professionals and a ladies' hockey match.

Snow shoe "hikes" on moonlit nights are glad some events. To take part in a picnic in the pine woods at such a time is a never to be forgotten experience. There is a primitive urge which compels you to build a roaring firewood fire. Hot coffee and toasted bacon turn your picnic into a paradise.

Of the many thousands of tourists who visit lovely Lake Louise in summer, few there be who do not ask about this district in winter time. Is it very cold here? And is the snow very deep? It is not excessively cold in winter. There are no high winds and no blizzards. No mid-winter thaws to spoil your furs and your sports. The average depth of snow is about five feet. It is very beautiful here after a fresh fall of snow. Trees are loaded down with it. Huge mushrooms of snow grow on every stump. Telegraph poles carry a tremendous "overhead" on their cross arms. IS THERE A GOD ?

Often have I thought it odd
That men ask, "Is there a God?"
Have they never breathed a prayer
And rejoiced to feel Him there?
Have they questioned what man knows
How to shape a fell-blown rose?
Have they ne'er heard the refrain
Of a robin in the rain?
How each morning all anew,
He bejewels earth with dew!
How He paints the sun at rest
On the canvas of the west!
Who has taught the tender art
Of a mother's loving heart?
Who but God could fashion guile
Like a tiny baby's smile?
Is there not a God to send
The warm hand-clasp of a friend?
Sceptics ply their questions rife;
There remains the fact of life.
Not alone in temples grand,
May we feel His moving hand,
Not alone at time of prayer—
God is present everywhere.
To the open soul each place
Holds some glimpses of His face.
Listening, Devotion hears
The sweet music of the spheres.
Mysteries of mind and heart
Show divine creative art.
The need of man is eyes to see
The presence of Divinity.
—Charles Nelson Page.

WISPS OF WISDOM

What we are tomorrow is what we make ourselves today.
Idleness travels leisurely, and poverty soon overtakes it.
Look upon your duties not as so many obligations, but as opportunities.
Never climb a mountain till you come to it—then perhaps it won't be there.
A country is not made great by the number of square miles it contains, but by the number of square people it contains.
A man should never be ashamed to admit that he has been in the wrong, which is but saying that he is wiser today than he was yesterday.
The more a man thinks about himself—if he thinks clearly—the more humble he will become. Conceit is a sign of confused perceptions.

POLISHED METAL FITTINGS

After the car has been brought out of its winter storage the metal fittings are usually dull and tarnished. They may be restored by the following method: First apply a weak solution of Oxalic acid and water to tarnished surfaces by means of cloth wrapped around a stick. Any acid accumulations are then loosened and may be cleanly removed by simply wiping. After this, ordinary metal polish used for brass work should be applied with a linen cloth and the polishing carried out with a soft woolen cloth. If the surfaces are slow to respond to the polishing try a good carriage maker's metal polish made as follows: Twenty parts of whiting, one part of soda, one quarter part of citric acid. This compound is moistened with water for using.

Daddy came home from the office early one evening and mother had not returned from some friend's whom she had been visiting for tea.
Little four-year-old Gwennie ran up to her father's side.
"Daddy," she cried, "I've been wanting to see you for a long time, when mother is not near."
"Why, my little girl?" asked father.
"Well, dad," answered Gwennie, "please don't tell mother, because she's an awful dear, but I don't think she knows much about bringing up children."
"What makes you think that?" asked her father.
"Well," replied Gwennie, "she makes me go to bed when I am wide awake, and she makes me get up when I am awfully sleepy."

GETTING READY FOR THE ROYAL WEDDING

It is 640 years since the child of a sovereign was married in Westminster Abbey. The bridegroom was Edmund Crouchbank, son of Henry III and the bride, Aveline, Countess of Lancaster. They were buried in the sanctuary and this picture shows a workman cleaning the canopies over their tombs.

FORMING GOOD HABITS

My pupils habitually used "ain't" instead of "isn't," "aren't" etc. Whenever one would say "ain't" I would place his name on the blackboard under "ain't," written with a colored crayon.

However, this did not encourage the pupils to correct themselves, as their name would already be on the board. I therefore changed my method, putting on only the names of pupils who did not correct themselves. Now I very seldom hear the children use "ain't."

This not only helped the children but in some cases the parents. As the parents became accustomed to hearing "aren't" instead of "ain't," and heard the children correcting each other, they also began using the correct form.

Many of the boys often forgot to take off their caps when they entered the school building; so I wrote on the blackboard, "Hats off," and underneath this placed the names of any who failed to remove their caps.

You may guess the result from what one of the nine-year-old boys said: "I have got so in the habit of taking off my cap when I am in a building that I almost took it off when I went into the hog house this morning."—Blanch Seeley, Teacher.

The man who decides to hold off until things improve may find, when things improve, that the man who held on and helped them to improve is so far ahead that he can't be caught.—Vision.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

A mother asks for an old rhyme of wedding anniversaries which she heard in youth. There are doubtless many, but here is one which may be well known, as it is preserved in an old collection.

Roses white and roses red,
For the bride just one year wed.
Five years wed—'tis understood—
Pretty presents all of wood.
Then, with jollity and din,
Come the treasures made of tin.
Twelve means linen soft and sheer;
Fifteen, crystal, bright and clear.
Twenty, dishes patterned gay
For the china wedding day.
Twenty-five comes clear and shining—
All its clouds have silver lining.
Thirty is the year of pearls
For the loveliest of girls.
Forty is of amber, mellow,
Fifty is of gold, so yellow
Sixty years together spent,
Tenderness and sweet content,
Sixtieth anniversary
Brings the diamond jubilee.

"Father," said an Irishman, on meeting the parish priest one day. "phwat is lumbago?" Seeing an opportunity for needed reproof, the good father replied: "'Tis a terrible disease which comes from drinking and chasing around nights." "Is that so?" said Pat. "It says in the paper that the Pope has lumbago."

THIS WORLD

Take it by and large, and all in all
This world is pretty decent to a guy.
Of course sometimes the graft is kind of small
And Fate quite often bangs you in the eye;
But mostly you can sort of wriggle by,
And Lady Luck will hear you when you call—
Take it by and large, and all in all.

At times it seems you're up against a wall
With not a chance to climb it, it's so high;
But if you keep your gumption an your gall
You'll find a way to scale it, when you try.
'Twon't get you nothing if you whine and bawl.
For folks won't listen to a quitter's cry;
But—take it by and large, and all in all—
This world is pretty decent to a guy.

There's always those who'll help you when you fall,
Unless you squeal and whimper where you lie.
(Man ain't no worm that's meant to cringe an' crawl);
There's friends who will be faithful till you die,
There's love to fill you with a glory high;
There's work an' play—a gink is pretty small
Who crabs about the game, his nerve is shy.
Don't listen to him when he makes his squall.
For, take it by and large, and all in all,
This world is pretty decent to a guy!
—Berton Brayley.

THE RULING PASSION

A number of darkeys were unloading a boat with a cargo of anvils, for which they received two cents for each anvil carried ashore.

Jose—Cap'n, if I carry two anvils at a time how much do I get?
Cap'n—Two cents each, boy.
Jose started down the plank when it broke and he fell in to the river with the two heavy anvils. When he came to the surface he cried: "Captain, if you'll don't throw me a rope I 'se gwinn' t' drop these 'ere anvils an' lose mah fo' cents!"—Judge.

Editorial Notes

At the regular meeting of the Council next week it is expected that the estimates for the various departments of the town's activities for the current year will be passed. The different committees are now busy out-lining their requirements and it is safe to say that along every line due regard will be made for the present financial condition and the desirability of keeping the tax rate as low as possible. We must not lose sight, however, of the fact that if we are to continue to keep Wolfville in the fore-front among the towns of Eastern Canada, we cannot afford to stand still in the matter of expenditure of money on our streets and other public works. We believe that a town or community rarely suffers as a consequence of a wise outlay of public funds, and that often a niggardly regard for such things as make for public progress tends to the detriment of all concerned in the end. By this we would not be understood as not favoring the most careful oversight of every expenditure and the seeking to make every dollar count to the utmost.

If the Wolfville Board of Trade is to become the useful instrument that is well within the range of possibilities, it must receive a much better support than it is now getting. The absence of most of the merchants and business men at the annual meeting on Tuesday evening shows a most regrettable lack of interest on the part of those who ought to be alert in every possible activity that tends to the progress and prosperity of the town. That the business of this town might easily be very greatly increased is unquestioned and who more than our business men ought to be active.

Naturally it makes us blush to read the many good things that are being said these days concerning THE ACADIAN by correspondents. We are glad to know that our efforts to produce a paper that will creditably represent our town and county are appreciated and shall endeavour to merit all these flattering expressions of goodwill. Without compromising our editorial policy, we are always glad to receive suggestions from our readers with regard to the conduct and improvement of the paper, and even a well intentioned criticism to the extent of an apparent "Knock" may be assured of our due consideration.

MAIL ORDER BUZZARDS

In applying for information relating to press clipping services furnished by one of the leading Canadian Press Bureaus, a large mail order concern says: "We would like to receive information regarding country papers of Nova Scotia that do the least advertising, and data regarding towns most likely to prove profitable for our mail order business, as we intend opening a wide campaign for new customers. We can sell cheaper than the country store and give better service. We are out for more business".

And there you have it—the mail order buzzard that seeks to compete with the local merchant and grab local money for commodities that can be purchased at home. Of course, the distant mail order house is bluffing when it offers "better values than the small town store", but there is a moral in it, too. The very fact that these mail order people want information on towns that are not interested in advertising in the home paper, shows quite clearly, they have no hope of competing with local merchants that carry a regular message in the home paper. Two lessons are conveyed in this: One is to trade at home and keep the money from getting away, and the other is the necessity for advertising by the local merchant, if he wants to gain and retain home support.

The New Brunswick Legislature will meet on March 2nd. One of the items to be discussed will be provincial control of liquor.

APPRECIATION

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Dear Sir:—I was interested in the letter by "An Old Reader" in your last issue and pleased with the contents. A new-comer in your bright little town I have not had the privilege enjoyed by your correspondent of last week of such an intimate knowledge of Wolfville or its local paper. I have learned, however, to appreciate the advantages of life in such a favored community and to look forward with keen enjoyment to the weekly visits of THE ACADIAN. Your paper, Mr. Editor, is a credit to Wolfville and richly deserves the large measure of support which is apparent from an inspection of its columns. I enjoy your breezy editorials and interesting news, and admire the consistent stand which your paper takes with regard to public matters. Your patriotic support of every Wolfville institution is most commendable and it is no wonder that citizens are proud of their local paper and ready to speak a good word for it when opportunity offers.

Yours truly,

A NEW READER.

One of the greatest musical treats ever heard in Wolfville was given at the Baptist church last evening by the Zedeler Symphonic Quintet, under the auspices of the Acadia Conservatory of Music and Fine Arts. The auditorium of the church was fairly well filled but the entertainment deserved a much larger attendance. All those present were loud in their praises of the artistically rendered program. The enjoyment of the audience was evidenced by the prolonged applause that greeted each number, drawing forth numerous encores. The playing of the violinist and the cellist were specially worthy of mention, their solos being the best of its kind heard here for some years.

ENGLISH-SPEAKING CANADA VOTED CONSERVATIVE

Outside of Quebec Province the total Dominion vote for the Conservatives in the last election exceeded the total vote outside of that Province for the Liberals by 69,092 votes, and exceeded the total vote cast for the Progressives in all Canada by 38,372 votes. The total vote cast in the Canadian constituencies outside of Quebec was as follows:

For Conservatives 807,759
For Liberals 738,667
For Progressives 737,589

So the Liberals got the smallest part of the vote in English-speaking Canada and the Conservatives got the largest part.

WHY COAL IS DEAR

American bituminous coal can be landed in Halifax at $6.50 a ton.

How much the industry of the country has suffered from the cause of shorter hours may be gathered from Lord Weir's calculation that the change has added no less than $1,000,000,000 a year to the cost of British production or an amount equal to nearly two-fifths of our export trade before the war.

The delegate from Springhill on being asked by the Chairman of the Conciliation Board what he deemed a small wage replied, six dollars fifty a day and to the question "a fair wage?" the reply was "seven to eight dollars fifty a day". And yet the question is asked, "Why is coal so dear?"—Mining Record.

HOLIDAYS FOR 1922

With the year 1921 finished queries are already being made regarding the holidays and holy days for 1922. New Year's Day, of course, began the year's festivities. Ash Wednesday will be March 1; Palm Sunday, April 9; Good Friday, April 14; and Easter Sunday, April 16. This is later than usual. Last year Easter Sunday was March 27. Victoria Day will be Wednesday, May 24th. The King's birthday, June 3, will be on Sunday. Dominion Day will be on Saturday, July 1. Labor Day will be Monday, September 4. NOTED SCULPTOR DEAD

Col. Francis E. Elwell was known in Wolfville—His Wife a Former Resident

While waiting for a trolley on Noroton Hill, about noon today, Col. Francis Edwin Elwell, sculptor, of Hillside Avenue, Noroton, dropped dead. His body was taken to Pritchard's undertaking establishment. It is thought death was due to apoplexy. Col. Elwell is survived by his wife and one child. The Colonel was married twice.

Col. Elwell lived for many years in Weehawken before he became a resident of Stamford, a year ago.

Col. Elwell was very active during the war, taking part in the important work of "Americanization" conducted by the government.

Dr. George Noxon, of Darien, medical examiner for Darien, and acting medical examiner for Stamford, in the absence of Dr. George Sherrill, announced this afternoon, after an examination of the body, that Col. Elwell had died from cerebral apoplexy.

Col. Elwell was a son of the American Revolution, born in Concord, Mass., in 1859, where his ancestors date back in history over 250 years. Having lost his parents in early childhood, he was adopted by Miss Louise Alcott, the famous poetess, and her influence, also the later environment of Ralph Waldo Emerson, left a lasting impression upon the youth, whose mind was receptive to thinking on ideal, spiritual lines.

It was that basic training which equipped the youthful student to grasp quickly the lofty principles of sculpture as taught by Prof. Falguiere at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in France. Every piece of Col. Elwell's work is an inspiring embodiment of the mysterious, heroic soul qualities.

Before receiving the honor of being the first American sculptor who was commissioned to erect a monument in Europe, Mr. Elwell was decorated by the King of Belgium for the best work done at the Royal Art School in Ghent, Belgium.

The statue of the Mayor of the city of Edam, Holland, erected by Col. Elwell, is one of the art treasures pointed out by Baedeker to all tourists as worthy of seeing. Another piece of Col. Elwell's European work is a bronze portrait of Sir Peter Easlemon, member of Parliament, which beautifies the Library of Aberdeen, Scotland.

Believing that the history of a nation survives in its art, Col. Elwell set to work upon return to his native country to perpetuate some of the greatest monuments of the life of America.

His famous statue of Lincoln is the center of attraction of the Orange Park way.

About twelve years ago the Government commissioned him to erect the statue of Admiral Davis for the Vicksburg Naval Monument at Vicksburg, Miss., valued so highly that it was later transferred to the Smithsonian Institute in Washington.

The statue of Gen. Steele, erected on the battlefield of Vicksburg, and particularly the statue of "The Flag," owned by the State of Rhode Island, are known all over the world for their grandeur of conception. The latter work is unquestionably the Colonel's immortal piece of American art.

Mr. Elwell was made honorary colonel of the Seventh Rhode Island Infantry, by the State of Rhode Island, about seven years ago.

During the Chicago Exposition, the colonel received the highest reward for his "Dickens and Little Nell," which is erected in the Clarence Clark Park of West Philadelphia, and highly valued by its owners, the Fairmont Park Art Association.

In 1901, the colonel was awarded a silver medal at the Pan-American Exposition, and later the grand gold medal given by the Art Club of Philadelphia. He has several statues at the Universities of Harvard Yale and Toulaine; also in the Library of Topeka, Kan. Two statues are preserved for posterity in the Hall of Fame, at Washington.

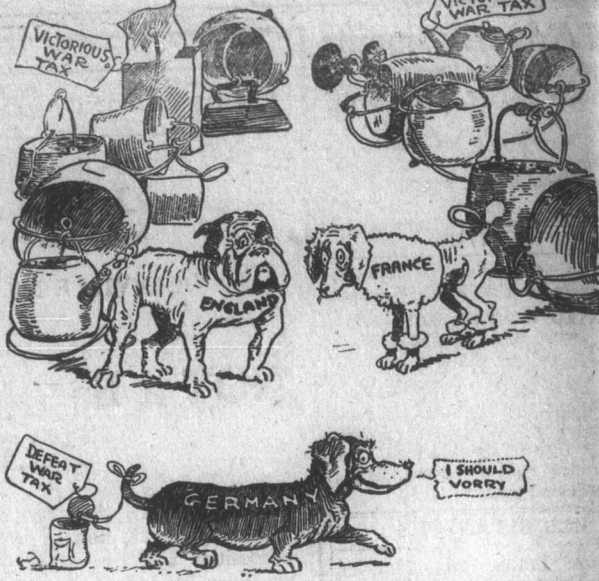

At the time of his death, Col. Elwell was working on a statue to be dedicated to the Child Welfare League, in which he had become interested through the efforts of Mrs. F. T. Towne. The statue was one of a child and a dog, and it was about completed awaiting criticism by Mrs. Towne, who suggested the subject. It was his last work and it was his hope that it might be erected in a central section of the city of Stamford.

[The above from the Stamford, Conn. Advocate of Jan. 23rd, refers to a gentleman who has several times visited Wolfville, and is remembered by a number of citizens. His widow, nee Miss Annie Marlon Benjamin, is well known in Wolfville, where she resided for some time.—Ed.]

TO EXECUTE CRIMINALS AS THEY SLEEP

The execution of the first two men to be sentenced to death by lethal gas was set in Carson City, Nevada, for some time in the week ending April 22.

The condemned men are two Chinese tong men convicted of murder at Mina, Nevada. The statute provides that the exact day of execution is left to the discretion of the prison warden, who is to put the prisoners in the lethal chamber for several days and turn on the gas some night while the condemned men are asleep.

PLEA FOR ORAL READING

Each year we have seen silent reading crowded down through the grades, till at the present time, in some schools there is so much "silent" or "comprehensive" reading done, that there is practically no time left for oral reading. While it is possible that reading aloud in some former years consumed too much time in preparation to the benefit derived from it, the lack of this form of oral expression will be a handicap to many a man and woman of a later day. For how great an asset to one is it in everyday social, business or professional life to be able to read with good inflection and well modulated voice?

There is of my acquaintance, a young man who will serve as an example of one handicapped by not having had any practice in oral reading in his high school days, having been excused from regular class reading then because of a tendency to stammer. This defect in his speech he overcame during his college days by perseverance and will power; but, although today he is a high school teacher, he is perfectly miserable when obliged to read aloud even a few words, being uncertain of his pronunciation. He counts this slight in his elementary education the most serious one of all.

Each teacher of considerable experience has discovered that pupils, when reading silently, adopt many peculiar pronunciations, which cannot be corrected unless made obvious by oral reading, while at the same time, they may be getting the content so as to pass a "comprehensive" reading test with high rank. I should not wish anyone to think that I advocate eliminating silent and comprehensive reading from our schools, but are we not making a disastrous mistake in substituting it for oral reading?—W. P. Wentworth.

"I hearn tell," said Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, upon his return from the county seat, "that they are figgering on putting a pipe organ into the new church in town."

"Well, it may be all right for them that likes it that-away," severely returned Mrs. Johnson, "but as for me I'm plum ag'in smokin' in church!"

ADVERTISING HELPS CREDIT

There is one way by which a business man's credit is improved, says a contemporary, and that is by a policy of consistent advertising. Bank men believe in advertising, for they know it pays. The feeling, therefore, is that when a merchant who is a good advertiser applies for a loan that a reasonable amount of goods, bought by him on credit, is likely to be turned over quickly and promptly paid for, on account of his methods of keeping his goods constantly before the public. The banker would have confidence that the goods would be disposed of and turned into cash before they got out of date or shopworn.

Discriminating buyers of every class know they can get fresh goods from the store that advertises. The merchant who advertises seldom has shop-worn goods. And in that way advertising helps the merchant's credit not only with the banks but with his customers. And one is just as important as the other.

"Well, doctor, if I got to die, I die content. My life insurance is ten thousand dollars."

"I think, with the aid of stimulants, I can keep you alive a week longer."

"Don't do it, doctor. Der breimium comes due der day after tomorrow."

INSECTS VS. HUMANITY

No more important gathering of learned men has ever met on Canadian soil than the American Association for the advancement of Science, whose seventy-fourth annual convention was recently held in the Convocation Hall of the University of Toronto. Nearly every field of knowledge and research in the scientific world was included in the lectures and discussions which followed. The practical nature of the work of these scientists was illustrated in the presidential address of Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of the Bureau of Entomology of the United States Department of Agriculture, who gave a picturesque description of the ceaseless war, unknown to a large section of humanity, which is being waged between the human race and insects. Best fitted of all living creatures to challenge man's supremacy, Dr. Howard said, insect life threatened humanity's food supply, clothing, and even its very existence. The work of one of the great departments of scientific research is to discover means of meeting and averting this great peril to humanity. Today governments on both the European and American continents are spending large amounts of money to enable men of science to carry on their work. Few laymen realize how much we all owe to the researches and discoveries of such men for perils averted, relief from suffering, and comforts of life enjoyed, apart altogether from the intellectual satisfaction and enjoyment furnished through the new vistas of knowledge opened up in many provinces of life.

GIVE YOUR CHILDREN PLENTY OF MILK

Some Reasons Why This Is An Indispensable Food for Growing Humans

A quart of milk a day for every child, if possible, a pint without fail. Plenty of milk will help give all your children, big and little, the chance for health they ought to have.

Give your boys and girls milk for their chance to grow. Look at children who do not get milk, but get tea and coffee instead.

Most of them pale and sickly? There are always very many sick children in cities and in countries where milk is scarce. When milk prices go up and mothers begin to economize on milk, more children become sick.

Milk gives your children lime, iron and phosphorus and other salts which they need. There must be plenty of lime and phosphorus in their food, for a great deal of it is needed for their bones and teeth.

What has become of the old time bowl of porridge and milk? There is no better—cheap, nourishing, and palatable. Its larger use everywhere would decrease living costs and add much to the joy of living.

Don't skim the milk for children. Let them have it with its cream. Plenty of it makes them grow. It gives them rosy cheeks, bright eyes, strong bodies, good brains.

Refuse the children tea and coffee, but always give them milk. Encourage them to drink it. Put in on their cereals. Pour it on the toast. Make it into puddings. Mix it into custards. Stir it into soups. Use milk, and use it freely.

Milk gives to your children the body building protein, one of the materials from which their bodies are made. Milk is like eggs and meat in this. This body building substance, the protein of milk, is not new to you, for curd is milk protein.

Milk should not be the only food for children, of course. They need vegetables, fruits, and cereals. But even the bigger boys and girls should have milk. Milk is good for grown people, too.

Milk is a food. One quart of milk is equal as an energy food to any one of the following: 1 quart of oysters, 2 pounds salt cod fish, 3 pounds fresh cod fish, 1 pound tenderloin steak, 8 large eggs, 3/4 pound cottage cheese, 3/8 pound cheese.

THE PASSING SHOW

The pirate thrives on his victims' lives, an' revels in boundin' health; he knows no strain of the bed of pain, as he lolls on his couch of wealth; he feels no sting that the fierce winds bring, nor scorch of the blazin' sun; and the starvelin's groan or the widder's moan, they never annoy him none.

An' the saint strives hard for his scarlet reward, an' faints betimes with his load; he trusts his God as he leaves his blood on the flinty stones of his road. . . . He defies the worst when his bubbles burst, an' laughs at the lesterin' sore; he struggles on, an' knows when he's gone, he'll never come back no more. . . .

Minard's Liniment for Coughs and Colds.

FOOD SUICIDE AND THE COST OF LIVING UP

Here is one thing that is worth cutting out and pasting somewhere where it will be frequently seen. It is that prosperity ruined many a stomach. When money was flush in wartime, people slipped away from plain food and bought lobsters, fancy jellies, candied fruits and high-priced canned meats.

Steadily mounting wage demands of men for whom work was provided by the government in Ottawa to relieve distress have led to the discontinuance of the work. One hundred men who have been receiving $4 a day will again be jobless.

THE END OF A PERFECT DAY

There was a little man And he had a little match, And the fire was still glowing In its head, head, head; He dropped it in the wood, Among the leaves just where he stood To light his pipe before he camped And made his bed, bed, bed. (You must admit he didn't Use his head, head, head.)

Soon this careless little man— Defend him if you can— Found the forest all about him Blazing red, red, red; He ran to the brook— But he wasn't any duck. And he floated to the bottom Quick as lead, lead, lead. (When the forest ranger got him He was dead, VERY DEAD) F. H. BYSHE, Dominion Forest Service.

NEW YEAR APPLE PRICES PROMISE WELL

While there have been a few ups and downs in the apple market, just enough to keep the interest keen, the general trend of prices has been most encouraging. All signs point to a strong wind-up of the apple year.

Last year Nova Scotia sent quite a quantity of her choicest fruit across the water in boxed form, with very satisfactory results. This year, however, boxed fruit has not given returns sufficiently satisfactory to warrant a continuation of boxing for the remainder of the season.

WHO LIVES HIGHEST?

What is the greatest height at which people live on the earth?

There is, it seems, a shepherd living with his family in the Andes at a height of 17,100 feet, and this has been claimed to be a record, that is for permanent habitation.

When it comes to a question of a temporary abode, however, this altitude, great as it is, is easily beaten, for on one of the Himalayan passes, 18,400 feet high, a small band of hardy men live during the summer.

The men, numbering less than half a dozen, are Tibetan Custom House officers and are specially selected for their powers of endurance, as one would expect them to be, in order to exist even for a few weeks, in air which must contain so very much less oxygen than there is at sea-level. From such an elevated pass these men must have a magnificent view of the great Tibetan plateau, the inhabitants of which, themselves seem to live comfortably at heights of 15,000 or more feet. It would be interesting to know at what height human beings could accustom themselves to live. There is no reason to suppose that 18,400 feet is the limit.

Sometimes children are the better for a day or a half a day in bed. Make it a quiet interesting holiday for them. If the child "does not seem like himself" or if he cannot eat any breakfast or has a very pale face; eruptions or rash; nausea or vomiting; fever; chill; water running from the eyes; convulsions; water running from the nose; dizziness; redness of eyes; faintness; sore or inflamed throat; swollen glands; cough; by all means let him go back to bed and rest and usually it is better to send for the doctor.—Dr. Helen MacMurphy, in The Blue Book Home Series.

OUT IN FRONT

By the Pioneer Sergeant.

APART from the COMMON belief that CANADA is destined TO be purely an AGRICULTURAL country— THAT we will all go about EVENTUALLY in COWSBREAKFASTS and PITCHFORKS— WE are of the opinion THAT this country HAS a future in the INDUSTRIAL world. VERY soon now CANADA may expect HER boom, AND who can say BUT that some ENERGETIC manufacturer, WHO does not realize WOLFVILLE'S "SLEEPY HOLLOW" ambitions, WILL bring his DIRTY old plant here AND enlarge the town, PROVIDE employment, REDUCE the H. C. L., HELP pay the overdraft AND awaken us from OUR hibernation. WE are of the opinion THAT steps should IMMEDIATELY be taken TO prevent any such UPHEAVAL of our PRESENT mode of LIVING. WE thank you.

MINORITY RULE PREVAILS IN CANADA

(From Yarmouth Times.)

The Liberal party is now in control of Canada's national affairs, members of that party would tell you, by right of the sovereign will of the people. Yet while 1,296,723 citizens of Canada voted for the Liberal party, no less than 1,925,121 citizens voted against it; in other words there are 628,398 more people opposed to the Liberal rule than are in favor of it. And yet this Government is supposed to represent the will of the people notwithstanding that three-fifths of the people of Canada did not want it! Is this sort of thing supposed to be in accord with Liberal principles?

WILL RETURN TO CANADA

The following from the Boston Globe will be read with interest by Rev. Mr. Eaton's friends in this vicinity:

Rev. Ross C. Eaton, pastor of the Mattapan Baptist church, Boston, since May, 1920, created considerable surprise among his parishioners recently at one of the vesper services when he read his resignation. He announced that he had accepted a call to the Baptist church at Charlottetown, P. E. I. His resignation is to take effect April 2nd. In reading his resignation he stated that it was with regret that he was concluding his work in Mattapan, in an aggressive and growing church, but the urgency of the call to the maritime province has created such a situation that he could not refuse to accept. He announced that the church he is going to is one of the stronger churches in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Eaton is a native of Canada, N. S., and attended the schools there. He was graduated from Acadia College in 1913 and served as associate pastor in the church at Amherst, N. S., for two years. In the fall of 1915, he entered the Newton Theological Seminary, and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1917. He then assumed pastorate of the church in Mansfield and later came to Mattapan. While at the Mattapan church he took several special courses at Harvard. He is married and has two children.

A COMPLETE LINE—
How often that expression has been misused— no doubt thoughtlessly; and yet at times without realizing the full meaning of the words.

However, we believe that our lines are complete and we can give our customers real service if they will only let us know what they require.

In fact the A B C of successful buying is being able to order your requirements from the place which has the stock and can deliver it on time.
