Alexandra, Ag. 5.—The object of operations to day was to recommissiance in force.
Commencing at 4 o'clock this afternoon a steady advance was made by the marines upon the railway lines, the rifles upon the west bank of the Mahmoudieh canal, and the South Staffordshire regiment and mounted infastry upon the east bank.

THE REKEN WERE DRIVEN
in from all advanced posts, and compelled to bring into action all their troops available from their principal line of entrenchments at Kaff El Dwar, namely about four battalons of infantry, a force of cavalry and several guns. The latter were completely silenced by the accurate fire of our forty pounder. The Egyptian infantry held their ground with considerable steadiness. The marines on the railway under the immediate command of Gen.
Alison pushed the enemy back upon the second line of entreachments. The OPINION OF IRISK MEMBERS.

BOSTON, Aug. 5—The Herald's London special says: The united opinion of the Irish members of parliament is that the proceedings of the English government is Egypt are most unwarranted and brutal, Parnell says the present operations in Alexandria are apparently the outgrowth of a long series of plans of government agents in the east. He thinks the whole policy a mistaken one and against the best interests of the country. Healy says the operations of the government in this affair will not bear the slightest investigation. The war was a premeditated attack on a weak foe and grew out of prejudice and the EULLYISM OF EUROPEANS in Egypt. The bombardment of Alexandria is the most infamous proceeding on record. If England should arouse a serious general disturbance the time will arrive

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7. 1882.

It is estimated that from two to THREE HUNDRED EGYPTIANS WERE KILLED yesterday. An officer and fourteen men of the Mustaphian regiment were captared. The prisoners were offered the option of returning to the enemy's camp. They all refused, saying there was great discontent there. Arabi has sent as prisoners to Cairo some officers who asked what they were fighting for. The prisoners reckon the force at Kafr-el-Dwar at 16,000. A great move at Kafr-el-Dwar at 16,000. A great move the collective protection, with a modificluding the Turkish representatives, accepted the collective protection, with a modification that there should only be a provisional supervision of the canal. Lord Dufferin again insisted upon the proclamation of Arabi as a rebel. He said the rumors spread in Egypt that the Sultan protected Arabi and would send troops to DRIVE OUT THE ENGLISH.

The Porte had not yet given a written statement of its adhesion to the terms of the identical note. England might regard delay as an actual refural and set accordingly. The Turkish delegate promised a written reply at next meeting. Said infermed the Conference that the troops which started for Egypt at the beginning of the week are recruits who will remain at Satarica. The real expedition will comprize 5000 men. A council of war composed of Hassan Pasha, the minister of marine and three colonels will go to Suda Bay, which will be used as a military depot. It is stated that Server Pasha will proceed to Alexandria.

DROWNED LAND IN MANITOBA. -The accounts that we get from Manitoba are not always favorable. For one thing it is said that a very large section of country lying between Lake Winnipeg and Lake Manitoba to the north, and the Assiniboine river to the south, is liable to be more or less drowned out almost every spring. Going up the Assiniboine from Winnipeg the traveler finds the river flowing through a level country, making very little of a descent in hundreds of miles distance. . It Assiniboine as a future great highway of commerce, that it can be ascended for a long distance without encountering rapids This fact shows on the face of it that the river takes its course through a long stretch of level country. Now it so happens that Lake Manitoba, a considerable sheet of water, sometimes rises to great heights over the ordinary level, last spring as much as twenty-five feet so it is said. The main cause of the rise is the jamming of the ice, and still another, some people say, is the insufficiency of the lake's outlet to carry off the immense overflow of the spring season. Various proposals for permanently lowering the level of lake Mani toba have been agitated; but so far nothing has been done. Some think that the cost of this work should be assumed by the dominion, and some name the provincial government as the responsible party; while

The rumor reaches us that just now the sale of landiliable to be flooded by the overflow of lake Manitoba is practically stopped. It is stated, further that the district affected is much larger than is generally supposed, even by those who know something of the country. Over this large district, extending southward to the Assiniboine, much land that would otherwise bear good crops is so under water in the spring that the season for sowing is past ere it is dry enough to do anything with it. It is to be remarked, by the way, in connection with statements now coming out as to drowned land, that the present is not and so far has not been a wet season in Manitoba. About the middle of July Mr. Harder, assistant traffic manager C.P.R. collected reports on the state of the crops from some forty or fifty localities, which have been published. In none of them, as far as we have observed, are there any complaints of too much rain; but several of them speak of rain being badly wanted. If, as now reported, much land has actually been damaged and cultivation rendered im possible by an overflow of water, this certainly has not happened through a wet summer season, but in another way, through the lack of a sufficient outlet for Lake Manitoba. We should say that the matter is one for the prompt consideration of the dominion government, to begin with.

A NEW PROPOSAL FOR A LIBRARY. The World suggests that one of the bes ossible means of securing a free public library or the city would be to purchase the build ing on King street occupied by the extinct U. E. club. It could be got cheaper than any other and would exactly suit the pur pose. No educational influence can nore important than this of a public library which reaches in every direction so muc farther than the schoolmaster's ferule, being suited to every age and adapting itself t every taste and requirement. It would ost on a rough calculation not more than half a mill on the dollar. No more benicent tax could be enforced.

Considerable dissatisfaction appears to exist in the lower province in the conservative ranks with regard to the late shuffle in the inisterial cabinet. The leading French organs are in no way lax in giving vent to their disapproval, and the general public opinion seems to regard the movement with spicion, as being too much like a piece of "political juggling." The suddenness of the change and the unceremonious discharge of the Chaplean cabinet do not seem to wit the taste of tory Frenchmen accustomed as they are to having things done a la node. There is, however, some reason to hope that it will be a change for the better and that Quebec affairs will be hereafter administered with more regard to justice and to the principles of statescraft. Certainly Mr. Mosseau could not have taken a better step on entering upon the duties of premiership, than dismiss the mem-bers of a cabinet which, to say the least, vas not eminently distinguished for its The corrupt and wheedling practices of some of these gentlemen are too wellknown to need enlargement. The standard of political morals, low enough as it was the Joly administration, has, if anything, been retrograding during that of Mr. Chapleau. Government has been carried on in a manner which bespeaks for its officers a woeful lack of the better qualities of good statesmen. From the initiative which Mr. Mosseau has taken in weeding out these double-dealers we would naturally munity. So much for the objectors and munity. GRAMMATICAL CRITICS A correspondent signed "F." writes on the Sunday question, but all his arguments are directed against the bad English in the ompositions of "Ulster Protestant." Bad English may be a flaw, sometimes is an inexcusable one, but surely a grammatical error or two is not an awful thing that it should "grate so harshly" on the ears of the norrified "F." The man who is on the ookout for bad grammar whenever he eads, is undoubtedly cut out for a school teacher. He ranks in the lowest class of writies, those who carp at the form, not at the substance, those who criticize the dress of a man, not the man himself.

THE SABBATH QUESTION.

(To the Editor of The World) Late on Friday night or early on Saturday moraing the store room of the Messra-Leslie & Son was broken into and upwards of sixty baskets of raspberries stolen.

The residents of Gerrard street east, Riverside, bitterly complain of the existence of two large piggeries in their midst. This hot weather the stench is unbearable. SIR: Absence from town has brought pon me considerable arrears of unanswer objections to a relaxation of the black laws of Canada. My playful allusion to Mr. "Saintly" has brought down upon my devoted head the bludgeons and shillalaghe of the whole family of the "Saintly's." Even "Lawyer" thinks I am a little too Rev. Mr. Carroll, father of Dr. Carroll, Kingston road, has written and published a very readable book descriptive of his boyish days, showing the early struggles and privations of settlers of the country in the Billingsgate" in my choice of epithets, and "J.L." does the martyr to a turn and says am more "eloquent in my silence." But he is not the first great philosopher that early part of the century, the stirring times of 1812 being particularly alluded to John Tumblety of Gerrard street east Riverside, was sentenced by Mr. Doel J.P., to sixty days imprisonment for beat says that "silence is eloquence" and this is especially the case with my sapient objecors whose arguments either do not touch he question at issue or like the arrows of Jouathan go beyond the mark. The strongest argument to my mind used by my opponents is the "drunken rowdyism" that is supposed to be called out by Sunday excursions; and as some thirty millions of excursions; and as some thirty millions of dollars are spent annually in religious teachings in Canada and proportionately large sums in other parts of christendom, and this for about 1500 years, I respectfully ask my objectors, "J. Evidently the money is lost and preaching is powerless to make men and women good christians. And as New York, Chicago and other places have been pointed to as special moral plague spots, I will just ask my objectors to take a trip to Niagara Falls, N.Y. This is within reach. Let them watch next Sunday where the hotels are open and liquors are to be had in any quantity on Sunday at all hours, and if they find as many drunken men in proportion to the population as they can on any Sunday in puritan Toronto, I will concede the whole argument. Again, British statistics gives EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 5.—The man who walked off the dock at East Saginaw on Thursday night was a Canadian named Dennis Judge. I examined my change and found that each cake was stemped with the name of a town and of a manufacture authorized by the government. The cakes of soap were worth 1½ cents each. Afterwards in my travel I frequently received similar change. Many of the cakes showed signs of having been in the wash tub, but that, I discovered, was not at all uncommon. Provided the stamp was not obliterated, the soap did not lose any value as currency. Occasionally a man would borrow a cake of a friend, wash his hands and return it with thanks. I made use of mine more than once in my bath, and subsequently spent them.—Cor. Philadelphia Press.

The life of Lord Spencer at the vice-regal lodge, Dublin, forms almost a parallel to that of the emperor of Russia. All visitors are closely watched by armed constables from the moment they enter the gates of the park. Mounted policemen partoi the roads of the park, detectives lurk in the bushes, and British soldiers guard the approaches. When Lord Spencer goes to Dublin castle he always chooses a different path from that followed on the previous visit. When he goes out for a drive he is always accompanied by dragoons, and the friends who may ride with him are warned not to start without their revolvers.

The California forests are being sacrificed for leather. One of the handsomest trees in the state is known by the name of chestin the state is known by the name of chest-nut oak. It furnishes the only native bark suitable for tanning leather. The leather business has been unusually good for the last two or three years, and the consequence is, says the San Francisco Bulletin, that over large districts this beautiful tree is slashed down for the bark. The trunks are over large districts this beautiful tree is slashed down for the bark. The trunks are peeled and then left to decay. Great openings are made in the forests and the sun is let in, evaporating the moi-ture so rapidly that these trees do not propagate. The result will be that this immense waste will only terminate with the destruction of this tree and the decay of the fallen timber.

During a county election Jim McSnifter worked very hard for Colonel Percy Yerger one of the candidates. They were personal friends. Colonel Yerger had never promised Jim anything, so he thought he would sound him on the subject. "Colonel Yerger, people say that if you are elected you are going to appoint me your deputy," remarked Jim, suggestively. "Don't your let them fool you Jim," retorted Colonel Yerger indignantly; "that's a campaing lie classes. If you hear anybody saying that I am going to appoint wou my deputy, tell him I'm not that kind of a man, and you will oblige me very much." The uncatholic king of Italy would not allow twenty-two bishops to take possession of their sees. The king was very like Henry VIII., who wanted to have several of his courtiers made bishops. These courtiers would say "Amen" to everything that was his wish. In presenting the offering of the congregation to the pope his holiness expressed himself very grateful indeed, for he remarked, "I have nothing now to depend on but the alms of my people." The government of the church requires so many cardinals, theologians and secretaries to manage its affairs that the expense falls heavily indeed upon the pope. upon its officers scattered throughout the world, but the empire of the pope—the world, but the empire of the pope—the spiritual empire—is far greater, three to one at least. The pope has to pay all his officers, vicar-generals and missionaries throughout the world. He was much grieved at the conflict now waged by infidels in various shapes and forms under the names of agnostics, freethinkers, skeptics, etc., not only against the Catholic faith, but against the faith of all Protestants who believed in Jesus Christ. The latter, however, is divided, but infidelity finds the Catholic church a compact and powerful body tholic church a compact and powerful body and will never waiver from her respect, but cut off its gangrene members—any mem-bers who will speak out against the faith of the church. He believed that the people of Toronto did not look upon this salvation army as an auxiliary of Christ to bring true worshippers to true religion, and yet the heads of the church of England

The archbishop of Canterbury sent them subscriptions to help this work of christianizing London. If London required such apostles they must be very low indeed. Europe at present, both political and religious was in a very sad condition. This unfortunate war in Egypt will complicate things very much and people should pray for the peace of the world. England is bearing the brunt of the battle, and the other powers quietly lock on, waiting to see if there is something to fall to them. Ireland is considered a catholic country as the lics are at least five to one, and to i vestigate or to explain away any of the miseries of Ireland would be to investigate in a certain sense the Catholic church, for the honor of the Catholic church is at stake in Ireland. One-twentieth of the Irish people were dissatisfied and enraged at the oppression of the people. These

NOT COMMITTED BY THE REAL IRISH. The murders are done in a scientific way and with such extreme precaution and with such level shots that they cannot be supposed for a moment to be the work of the Irish. Viewing the question of Catholic Ireland and the murders as given in one of the German papers as to its relation with the Cavendish and Burke murder, he was struck by the fact stated that the only Irish thing about it was that the police al-Irish thing about it was that the police allowed these men to escape at all. There were well grounded suspicions that this murder had no relation whatever to Irish politics at the time it occurred. During the last year 50,000 persons had been evicted. Ten thousand men were now threatened with evictions. Let them who justly enough denounced agrarian crime consider what an eviction was—the family turned homeless one statistics. turned homeless on a roadside, the women and children screaming, the roof torn off the house, the little stock of provisions scattered to the winds, and all this under BAYONETS OF BRITISH SOLDIERS: and it was not so wonderful if men turned on their oppressors. In Rome he heard nothing that disgraced Ireland, and when the pope heard of the poor people and the evictions, he was horrified. He threw up wickions, he was normed. He threw up his hands, looked towards heaven and sighed but said nothing. He would take another occasion to tell them of the miracles of Knock, but he had visited the parish, and before entering it had made full inquiries about the miracles. The parish of Knock was in charge of a priest of exceptional learning and judgment, who had carefully investigated the evidence for the PERSUADED IN THEIR TRUTH.

The archbishop of Tuan believed in them, the primate of all Ireland believed in the apparition at Knock. He himself was per-suaded of its truth. But when he went to Knock he went not to investigate but to pray. He feared from the incessant rains in England as well as Ireland they would have an other very bad harvest this year and they would need assistance. There was not would need assistance. There was not a village in the United States or Canada that could not take a few of the 350,000 heads of families who are each starving upon five or six acres of poor land. The Island Baths.

The swimming baths on the island were well patronized on Saturday—so well indeed that many had to return without enjoying that many had to return without enjoying a plunge owing to the rooms being occupied. This need not happen or only to a limited extent if the managers would place some reasonable restriction on the time for which bathers may retain possession of the keys of the bathing rooms. On Saturday a number of boys and young men kept the keys nearly all the afternoon. Most of the time they were not bathing but disporting themselves on rafts or on the beach thereby excluding others from the enjoyment of a bath after paying for their trip over on the ferry. If the baths are to become popular this sort of thing will have to be stopped. 3d. D C Ross.
