Of His Grace's Consecration.

FESTIVITIES AND FUNCTIONS.

(The following report is based on the Nor'-Wester's report, with important additions.)

One year ago on the 19th inst. Father Langevin, St. Mary's pastor, was consecrated a prelate of the Catholic Church. So universal is the filial feeling towards their diocesan which permeates Catholics of all kinds in this province, that where an opportunity occurs for manifesting the same in a public manner it is embraced cordially. Toursday being the first anniversary of His Grace's consecration, class seemed to vie with class, and community with community, in expressing its love and loyalty. Commemorative functions began as early as Tuesday afternoon, the 17th inst., when His Grace visited

THE ACADEMY OF THE IMMACU-LATE CONCEPTION,

And received a most pleasing welcome from the little ones who had for some time past been eagerly looking forward to this occasion and had prepared the following very choice programme:

PROGRAMME:

Instrumental duet, "Pas Redouble," Miss L. Landers, E. Cloutier; chorus, "Song of Welcome"; declamation, "Presentation of Flowers," Miss C. Jones; declamation in concert and alone, "Cur Aspirations for the Future," Masters W. Somes, H. Hinds, J. Picard, L. Russell, R. Somes, L. Tobin, W. Markinski, M. Barry, G. Hinds. The boys informed His Grace of the noble work they will do in his diocese, when they are men. Cautata, "Happy Festal Day !"; soloist, Miss S. Nagengast; declamation, "The Rainbow's Greeting," seven little girls dressed in white and wearing sashes representing the original colors of the rainbow; violet, C. Harrington; indigo, M. McDonald; blue, I. Connell; green, N. Tobin; yellow, H. Booes; orange, E. Landers; red, H. Markinski. Address, Miss E. Klinkhammer; instrumental trio, L. Landers, E. Cloutier, H. Markinski.

Each item was given in a most creditable manner and, as we have before remarked in connection with this academy, the performance of the children on all occasions of this nature is really surprising and must be in the highest degree gratifying not only to the pastor but to the parents who are under great obligations to the good Sisters for the pains they evidently take in the training of the little ones. His Grace was delighted with his reception and did not hesitate to give warm expressions to his feelings. He thanked the children for the pleasure they had given him and complimented the teachers on the success they are achieving.

On Wednesday at 9 A. M. His Grace attended a reception at

THE ORPHAN'S HOME.

The young folks mustered in full strength, and one of their number presented an address, which, to judge from the happy faces of all around was no more than an index of the feelings of affection and gratitude which pervaded every breast. His Grace, who has ever taken a keen interest in the welfare of the dear little ones, bereft of natural protectors, and taken into the special charge of holy church, was much touched by the tribute of the little orphans.

TACHE ACADEMY.

At 10 a.m. the Tache Academy was visited, an address was presented, and several vocal numbers were discoursed by the pupils.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

At 10.30 His Grace proceeded to the Industrial School, where he was met by Mr. McCall, Indian agent: M. Ed. Betournay, Inspector of Indian schools; Dr. Lambert, Dr. Moody and others. A programme of more than ordinary interest was gone through, which convinced His Grace that anything that can be done for the amelioration of the red man is not wasted, but may be be turned to good account. When Father Langevin purposed, some years ago, to become a missionary of the church to the great North-fill when the Indian children, of whom Mr. J. Giroux played with great way in which they had commemorated a position in the commemorations equal search of employment and meritto that of other and more favored portions of the community.

HOLY ANGELS SCHOOL.

At 3 p. m. a visit was paid to the school of the Holy Angels, adjoining St. Mary's. The programme gone through there was varied and interesting; the decorations of the class room by the good sisters were most chaste and appropriate, and it was easy to see that the young people were enjoying the privilege of entertaining His Grace, as he was enjoying the entertainment offered.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

On leaving the school the archiepiscopal party proceeded to St. Mary's Academy, where an elaborate and beautifully arranged entertainment was given Those, who at times talk in condemnation of the education in Catholic institutions, should have been present at this gathering. Then, if they could only have been persuaded to admit it, their objections would have vanished into thin air The programme was such as did the greatest credit to the labors of the sisters of the Order of Jesus and Mary, and would have done credit to any educational system in this great Dominion.

An orchestral selection formed the prelude to the function. Miss L. Boire was pianiste, and the other instruments were arranged as follows: Violin, Miss C. Denholm; banjos, Misses Rogerson and Landers; guitars, Misses Gelley, Tierney and Prud'homme; and mandolins, Misses Stanford, Grasse, Haverty, O Brien, Ten nant, Becher and Newton.

The "Cantate de Fete" was received with loud applause.

An instrumental duet was next given by Misses Bernhart, R. Sprado, M. and E. Prud'homme, A. Dubuc, T. Stuthard A. Boire and M. Bernier.

The elecution class showed the admirable training they had received by the recitation in concert, of "John the Beloved."

Miss Denholm's violin solo was much appreciated.

In the juvenile chorus one could not help noticing the splendid execution of Miss Edna Hooper on the mandolin, She is only a little maid of 7 years, but the business-like way in which she performed her part merited the attention it received.

The other items of the programme another instrumental duet, "Marche de Concert," and the presentation of a congratulatory address to His Grace. Nine young ladies took up the role of presenting, poetically, a sketch of His Grace's life, while one young lady acted as historian. The recitation of this called back to the listener the lovely poem of Glassford Bell on "Mary Queen of Scots." His Grace made a suitable and feeling reply The whole entertainment was worthy of the strongest commendation, and was an evidence that Catholics are quite capable of attaining to great heights in their educational methods.

THE MASSEY HALL MEETING.

Letter From Mr. Ewart to the Toronto Week.

Sir,-Every one must be glad that a meeting which might have done much to embitter the present relationships between Protestants and Catholics developed with such great good humor; and that all, except a very few ultra-serious people, so thoroughly enjoyed themtime politicians to play the innocent, ingenious, and non-partizan role, and yet to make much political capital for their respective parties, was exceediagly comical, and the audience, thoroughly tickled, cheered everything and voted for everybod v.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Second Reading.

The majority of eighteen on the second reading of the Remedial

Bill is, on the whole, very satisfactory, albeit many names appear among the nays which will make Catholics ashamed of their so-called sympathizers. The Government have stood bravely to their guns. Mr. Foster's speech which we regret we have no space to reproduce entire, was one of the ablest ever heard, in the Canadian Commons His peroration was justly punctuated with repeated cheers and closed amid prolonged applause. "This parliament," the eloquent Minister said, "is asked to decide; it is watched by Canada, it is watched by the world. On grounds of courage, on grounds of justice, on grounds of good faith. make your answer to those who appeal, make your answer to Canada, who is watching you. to the world, which will judge of your actions." And the first definite answer has been triumphantly given. God grant the final answer may be given as definitely and soon.

For no reliance can No Hope be placed on any com-Elsewhere.

promise or on any other measure of relief. Those who object to the bill because it does not grant us enough or because the case must be examined further, might be compared to a benevolent crank, who, seeing a poor man receive half a loaf of bread snatches it from his famished grasp, saying: "This is an outrage; half a loaf is not enough; I will see that you get a square meal six months hence; meanwhile, I am going to organize a commission to find out if you are really dying of hunger." What, indeed, can Mr. Greenway give that will be comparable, in permanency and completeness, to the Remedial bill? And, as to Mr. Laurier's vague promises depending upon a problematical lease of power, foolish forsooth were he who should set store by them.

That A respectable contemporary thinks it Conference. "a deplorable thing if the steps toward a settlement are obstructed by an extravagant or obstinate attitude on the part of those who represent the Roman Catholics." This is an evident allusion to what we wrote last week about the conference. And yet we still hold we are right. Some of our well-wishers seem to entertain the fond delusion that the proposed conference will restore our rights. Even that excellent paper, the Catholic Record, of London (Ont.) says: "We directly after the concert, he knew its duty in this regard, for we have no authorized to state that, had His desire to see legislation forced upon the Province against its will, but we to follow the concert and was are firmly of the conviction that it is its refusal to observe them, the legislation of Parliament on the subject becomes a necessity demanded by all the principles of honor and good faith." If the Record were obliged, as we are, to hardly be even so moderately hopeful. The Tribune of the 19th inst. said: "The request for a conference . . is merely a trick to deceive the members into voting for the bill . . . The course the government has taken in the matter stamps it as a fraud on its face." . . . "That" the conference "is pre-doomed to failure may be taken for granted . . . It is impossible to see what good can come of a conference held under such auspices and attended by such peculiar circumstances." In its issue of the 20th, the same organ of Mr. Greenway's government says: "The next step will be the conference in Winnipeg. That anything but failure will result from it seems extremely doubtful. Mr. Greenway cannot concede separate schools, and that lhe minority will accept less is very problemetical." Finally, on the 21st, last Saturday, the Tribune treats us to a flippant article comparing Greenway's stubbornness to the obduracy of Pharaoh, and asserting -in answer to a contemporary who had spoken of this as Greenway's fourth chance '-" that Mr. Greenway has had a perpetual 'chance' ever since 1890 to restore separate schools." So he has. At first, it was not the way but the will that was wanting. Now, even if the will has been won over, the way is hard to find.

Mr. Ewart's Letter.

Read Mr. Ewart's humorous and tell ing letter, which we copy from the Week of the 6th inst His masterly analysis shows how that recent Toronto mass meeting, which might have been a serious protest, was really an amusing and good-humored farce. His closing paragraph makes a particularly good point. As the law now stands in Manitoba a school in which all the children are Catholic, and there are several such schools, cannot have religious exercises acceptable to Catholics; the Protestant majority in sist with 'rank tyranny' that the religious exercises, if there be any. must be Protestant. The tyranny of this measure was recognized by the Toronto mass meeting.

A Terrible Percentage.

The Tribune fellow who gets up the Editorial and General Notes must have gone wool-gathering last Saturday when he gravely stated that "among the diptheria cases treated (in Philadelphia) without the anti-toxine the mortality was 125.99 per cent." How does it look when we translate this statement into another form? Out of 455 cases—the remainder implied in the Tribune's figures, 757 minus 302-573 died! Wonderful mortality indeed! The Philadelphia doctors, at that rate, would soon make Moliere rise from his grave to lash them with unparalleled zest.

A Puzzle A "Puzzled" correspondent writes to the Evening News Bulle tin. wondering how it happened that His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface was, during the Lenten season, present at the St. Vincent de Paul society's entertainment, which concluded with a dance. "Puzzled" somewhat uncharitably takes it for granted that His Grace approved the dance. Not only the Archbishop did not and does not approve it, but, as he left the hall shall be rejoiced if the Manitoba gov- nothing about the dance till he heard ernment shoud do what is undoubtedly of it several, days later. We are Grace known that the dance was patronized by the St. Vincent de Paul the duty of Parliament to insist on the Society, he would have declined the adherence of the Province to the con-invitation and taken good care not to stitutional guarantees under which be present. The shock which this affair Manitoba became a Province of the has administered to certain Pharisees they found fault. The Archbishop of St. Boniface, accompanied by two wellknown priests, dined with Sir Donald Smith on Ash Wednesday. The choice of the day was not left to His Grace; read the Winnipeg Tribune, it would it was Sir Donald's only available evening, as he was leaving on the Friday morning. Under similar circumstances, when the dinner is a purely official affair, any Catholic would be justified in dining out on Ash Wednesday or any other day. It should, moreover, be borne in mind that the Archbishop and his priests religiously abstained from all flesh meat in spite of all the tempting viands laid before them, thus giving a valuable example of selfdenial. It would have been much pleasanter and more gratifying in every way to refuse, as some did, on the plea of Lent and then enjoy a substantial roastbeef at home. Those who adopted the latter pharisaical course must have felt like little Jack Horner, who sat in a corner eating his goodly pie and saying, 'What a good little boy am I!'

DUPLICITY IN POLITICS.

The apologists for Mr. Laurier's treatment of the Remedial Bill say: "The bill is no good anyway. It does not go far enough." This is not honest. It is a mere subterfuge. The fact that Mr. Laurier is receiving the highest praise from the most implacable enemies of the claims of the minority, is sufficient answer to this assumption. The Winnipeg Tribune has nothing but encomiums for Mr. Laurier's conduct. That, in itself, is the best reason why Catholics should look upon his recent motion with the greatest suspicion. Mr. Laurier has two strings to his bow-one for the ultra-Protestant element in Ontario and the other for his supporters from Quebec. The latter need reminding that the bill has been accepted and endorsed by the aggrieved and persecuted minority, who are, assuredly, qualified to decide that question. His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface has accepted the principle of the bill and given it his approval. It is, therefore, a mere subterfuge on the part of the Quebec Liberals, or any section of them, to pretend that they oppose it on the ground that it does not go far enough, especially as, in opposing it they are supporting a motion, the object of which is to destroy, not only the bill, but the very principles on which it is

We can respect the honest convictions of some of the opponents of the bill, who conscientiously believe that separate schools are wrong in principle, and whose narrow views are the result of the early prejudices in which they have been reared; but for men who profess to be Catholics, and who know that the principles for which the minority are contending are the outcome of conscientious convictions, grounded on the teachof truth, no such excuse exists. Opposing the bill on the ground that it does not go far enough forcibly reminds us of the excuse given by the Greenway government for abolishing our schools, viz. that they were doing it for our good and to protect us from the designs of the Quebec hierarchy. Let the Quebec Liberals be honest in their treatment of us and tell us that they are sorry the exigencies of party politics and the action of their leader compel them to vote against giving us relief. The violent wrench which they must necessarily give to any clinging tendrils of Catholic conscience that may have escaped the tugs of political warfare is straining enough without adding to it the twist of deceit and hypocrisy. It is bad enough, God knows, to betray the minority, who have been looking with confidence to them for relief, without adding to that betrayal an excuse that gives to that betrayal a deepdyed duplicity. We do not wonder at their beifaying us, if they do so openly and searlessly; but to betray their co-religionists and compatriots under the thin and unspeakably dishonest guise of friendship and solicitude for our welfare is something we cannot let pass without entering a most solemn and emphatic those of her own household, who, Judaslike, betray her with a kiss.

FOUR OF A KIND.

Greenway, Sifton, McCarthy and Laurier — all sympathizing and devoted friends of the Catholic minority; all fearful that the Remedial bill, even though passed, will not give the relief sought. How grateful ought not the Manitoba minority to be at having such warm, true and devoted champions? The ranks of the great Liberal Party are once more closed up; they have at last a policy on which they can unite. And that policy is the same as the Irishman's at Donny. brook. They love the Catholics; but for love they knock them down. Hurrah for the Big Four! Hurrah!

A WISE BOYCOTT.

The Tribune comes out with a plaintive whine-such a whine as could be expected from a whipped cur-that a Catnolic benevolent society would not advertise in its columns. When Catholic benevolent societies advertise, they do so for the purpose of appealing to the benevolence and generosity of the charitable portion of the public. They, therefore, very wisely select journals that are taken and read by the better and more charitable element in the community. As a matter of cold business, then, it would be utter folly to throw away good money for advertising in a paper that is read only by the narrow, intolerant and Catholichating portion of the community. For that element of the community Catholics have only pity; but for the papers that cater to their passions and prejudices they have the greatest contempt.

MR. DEVLIN'S SPEECH. In these days of party slavery when every member of Parliament is supposed to fall into line with his leader and when to act otherwise is to incur the enmity of men with whom he has formed not only party but strong personal ties, the speech of Mr. C. R. Devlin, M. P., for Ottawa County, merits the highest enconium. Mr. Devlin, in taking the stand he has, has incurred the enmity of his leader and the censure of the party to which he is politically allied; but he has earned for himself the esteem and respect of all honest men and the lasting gratitude of the Catholics of the Dominion. In refusing to sacrifice his Catholic conscience to the demands of politics and party, Mr. Devlin has taught a lesson in perial? Let us plant our feet on the firm political integrity and the responsibilities incumbent upon public men to act in accordance with honor and justice, that reflects the highest credit upon himself and the fathers of Confederation came safely the Catholic principles in which he has out from times far more troublous, and been reared. Not long ago Mr. Devlin was invited, at Montreal during the byeelection, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr Curran's elevation to the Bench, and the Manitoba school question was, we might ing of the Church, the pillar and ground | say, the only question discussed. The Liberals, including Mr. Laurier himself outbid the Conservatives in their zeas and determination to pass a Remedial bill restoring to the aggrieved minority in Manitoba all the rights of which they had been ruthlessly deprived by the Greenway government. Mr. Devlin delivered some telling speeches during that campaign and in every one of them he indignantly repudiated the assertions of his political opponents that the Liberals would oppose remedial legislation. Mr. Devlin was quite sincere and honest in making those promises to the electors of East Montreal, and we can imagine the chagrin and indignation he must have felt when his leader suddenly and unwisely repudiated all former utterances on that question by moving the six months hoist to the very legislation which he had previously pledged himself to support. In refusing to follow his leader and in openly and fearlessly standing by his promises Mr. Devlin has proved to all Canada that he his an incorruptible man of honor who is ready to sever his political allegiance to his leader at the dictates of conscience. To those who know how close party lines are drawn and how much so fearless a course costs, this conduct of Mr. Devlin is protest. But it was ever thus; the worst | little short of heroic. In the name of the cause Mr. Devlin has so generously espoused, we tender to him our sincere and heartfelt thanks. In the long run his course will receive the reward it so richly deserves. In the meantime his reward is in the consciousness of doing a sacred duty to a persecuted minority and in the gratitude such a noble sacrifice must win for him in the eyes of his coreligionists throughout Canada.

GEORGE FOSTER'S

Splendid Peroration  $\mathbf{on}$ Manitoba Schools.

"After six years we come here under circumstances such as I have detailed. What is there then for this Parliament to do? On the one hand there is a well founded repugnance to do what even though clearly within our right to do, the province can easier and far better do than ourselves. There is along with that a lot of subordinate considerations, ranging from principle through considerations, and party considerations. that have brought some to vote against this bill and against remedial legislation. On the other hand what is there? There is the genius and the spirit of the constitutional dictates of this country. There is the splendid lesson of toleration and of compromise which has been read to you in that constitution, and which has been evidenced in its harmonious workings for nearly thirty years. There is the cry of the minority, small in the area of those who suffer, but large, let me tell you, in the area of those who sympathize with it in this country: from one end to the other. There are the minorities in the other provinces demanding of you where they shall stand and how they shall be treated, if in coming years, their time of trial comes, and they will have to appeal to the same high court of parliament, and invoke this same jurisdiction. (Cheers.) There is a parliament invested knowingly, definitely, positively invested by the fathers of Confederation, in the constitution with the jurisdiction to maintain these rights and to restore them if they are taken away. This parliament is asked to decide; it is watched by Canada, it is watched by the world. On grounds of courage, on grounds of justice, on grounds of good faith, make your answer to those who appeal, make your answer to Canada, who is watching you, to the world which will judge of your actions. (Cheers.)

"History, sir, is making itself in this eventful day. Shall the chapter be a record of nobleness and adequacy, or a record of weakness and inefficiency'? Shall we stamp ourselves as petty and provincial, or shall we be recorded to future ages as magnanimous and impath of constitutional compact and agreement, of good faith and of honest fair dealings. Let us take, and pass on, that gleaming torch under whose kindly light far less advanced than these times of today, into an era of harmony and continued peace. (Cheers.)

"Let us do justice to the weak and patient minority, and thus settle for ever the question of the sufficiency of the guarantee of confederation. Let us follow with cheerful emulation the shining example of our great mother country, whose foundations were laid on the solid granite of good faith, and whose world-wide and wonderful superstructure has been joined together with the cement of a strong and generous toleration. Let us prove ourselves now, in the thirtieth year of our existence, as we did under the circumstances of our natal days, a people worthy of nationhood and worthy to rank amongst the best and greatest of nations." (Prolonged appiause.)

which conclusions could be formed with a reasonable degree of certainty." "Shall we, therefore, now press upon the Dominion Government the necessity of adopting this safe middle course, or shall we allow them to light the fires, or-" (Prolonged cheers). Remembering that Mr. Laurier recently said at Merrickville: "There is not a man in this audience but who would like to see the Catholic schools restored by the Legislature of Manitoba"-and that for him the idea of an inquiry is that the public may be satisfied that Catholics have, a grievance, which ought to be remedied. Mr. Mulock's speech was directly opposed to that of the gentleman who seconded his resolution (Mr. Craig), upon whom, nevertheless, the audience, with thorough impartiality and the best of good taste, showered its commendations. Mr. Craig said that "he was not in favor of a com-Dominion, and if Manitoba persists in reminds us of another event with which enemies the Church ever has had are Catholic minority of Manitoba, whose mission. He was in favor of leaving

Manitoba alone. He opposed the policy of the Government, but he was not with reported as having said: "My learned benefit, but with the first signs of imthe Opposition." No inquiry or concilia- friend, in the first place, dealt with what provement he took fresh courage, and tion for him. The resolution so happily framed that a member of the Opposition. for Opposition reasons, could move it, pact that was made . . . prior better than he had for years. Mr. Garry and a gentleman, who "was not with the to the passage of the Manitoba Act"-Opposition" could second it, "was put to and, therefore, prior to 1871. At pages ly." Of course that is just as it ought to you are to deal with the matter upon its be at "a non-partizan meeting"; but it leaves one entirely uninformed as to glad to say, which was pressed upon you whether Mr. Mulock or Mr. Craig won yesterday by my learned friend, Mr. various medicines without deriving any the first bout and that is what one wants. It is upon the merits that he benefit from them. With not much hope the first bout, and that is what one wants | Ewart. It is upon the merits that he to know.

The fun naturally got louder when Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Martin appeared for the next set-to. No inquiry, no commission, would suit Mr. McCarthy. Nothing fitted the occasion but "positive ment which has taken this step." (Loud and long continued applause.) Had he not said in Cardwell: "I do not think there is a corporal's guard of men in Cardwell who want further information. the decision they did." The bishop And now he does not despair that he never said so. The Rev. Dr. Bryce said may get "even Mr. Laurier's support, in that "he knew" that the Presbyterian the modified form in which he opposes the Remedial Bill." Mr. Martin, the effect upon the decision which was seconder of this resolution, agreed, of given." course, to the "positive and absolute hostility to the Government": "To put the Grits in power? That's the issue. . . . If not, then this is not a non-partizan meeting," he said. But as what as I understand, the resolution calls for. . . I am for a commission. I am for an investigation." Wherenpon, as the Globe report tells us, "there was some laughter"; and later, that "the resolution was put and unanimously carried." Whether Mr. Mc-Mulock-Craig contest.

rare blows. The Hon. Mr. Wallace once, attacked the "positive and absolute such a happy party? hostility to the Government" proposition. "We Conservatives," he said, "have been invited by previous speakers to leave our political party. But what for ?" The meeting may take care of able to Protestants only, and only to a itself, but as for Mer. Wallace he will remain a Conservative - that is good enough for him. Then in flat-footed opposition to Mr. Mulock, and to the resolution which had just been carried (as its seconder understood it), Mr. Wallace said: "I've made up my mind on this matter. I don't want any commission." Mr. J. K. Kerr, in seconding Mr. Wallace's resolution, flew to the rescue of his political friends. He "wanted an inquiry," and he appealed to the Conservatives not to refuse "to vote for that amendment which will call for delay"that is, for a commission. The resolu- fer to suit themselves; and that they tion, of course, "on being put was car- have the intolerant bigotry—the "rank ried without dissent"; but whether tyranny"-to deny to Catholics that in Wallace or Kerr won, no body probably schools in which there are none but will ever know.

asserted that "nobody wanted the Bill desire-insisting that it shall be such as of the Conservative party, and a certain question in a nut-shell. All the rest is section of the Liberal party in Quebec, mere detail and machinery. and a Government, which," etc. - nobody but somebody-a remark well adjusted to the paradoxical condition into which the meeting had good humoredly drifted.

Was there ever such a meeting? Can any one tell for what it voted. Was it for Mulock, Martin or Kerr, or for Craig, McCarthy, and Wallace? Was it for Mr. Mulock's "safe, middle course"; for Mr. Martin's understanding of the second resolution; for Mr. McCarthy's "positive and absolute hostility to the Government"; for Mr. Craig's "no commission"; for-for what under the sun? Was there ever such a complacent audience, such good humored voting for everybody and everything? The ignorance, sad lack of memory, on the part of the speakers, was another remarkable feature of the meeting. The chairman wanted to know "why was not the Parliament of Canada asked to pass coercive legislation, interfering with the educational legislation of New Brunswick? (Hear, hear; and cheers)"; and "wby was the Parliament of Canada not moved to pass remedial or coercive legislation against Quebec" in the Jesuits' Estate matter?; just as though every school boy did not by this time know that the answer to the first question was that Parliament had no jurisdiction, and to the second that the proceedings, commenced with a view to obtaining remedial legislation, were withdrawn by the applicants themselves. Mr. Mc-Carthy summarized, he said, my arguments before the Governor-General-in-Council "in five words : separate schools had been established by the half-breeds had been established by the likeholes had been abolished by the intelligent people of abolished hy the intelligent people of liams' Pink Pills a trial. He felt so ut-1890." I did not atter a single syllable terly worn out that several boxes of the

he called the historical question, that is continued taking the pills for three months, by the end of which time he was to say, the bargain, or treaty, or commerits, and that is a view, I am very invokes your interference, etc." Mr. McCarthy's memory is very short. Mr. Wallace said that "separate schools are an unmitigated evil in this country and half the scholars in denominational schools. Mr. Wallace asserted that "Bishop Gravel says that he influenced the Lords of the Privy Council to give Synod resolutions "had an important

Rhetoric, too, of exalted order was not wanting-startling evidence of the efficiency of some schools. Read that fourth resolution :- "We ask you in our united names appended, with a Canato the inquiry, he asserted that "that is dian voice given to each of the many names, to appeal to whatever force has made this measure a possibility, to stay its hand." Stay the hand of some force by an appeal with a Canadian voice given to each name! And read, also, about Mr. J. K. Kerr's dynamite-when he invoked those twenty-five members Carthy or Mr. Martin can be said to of Parliament, who are going to stand up have won the second bout, and whether in such a manly way, to quit themselves that resolution calls for a commission or like men," asserting that if they did. not, are as uncertain as the result of the "this law, which has been thrown like a fire brand, nay, like dynamite, into The next two aspirants were fairly the field of politics, will disappear, will matched, and hit one another some explode into the air, and not reach the ground, and we will be saved, etc." Loud moved the resolution, and leaving it at cheers for that, too! Was there ever

And there was acclaimed, also (and this is the comforting feature for me), Mr. Martin's declaration "that to allow religious exercises which were acceptmajority of Protestants, in the schools, and to refuse to allow religious exercises acceptable to the Roman Catholics, would in my opinion, be rank tyranny." If, in the opinion of the meeting, the same may be said of religious education as of religious exercises, then the Catholic view is vindicated and triumphant. For the situation in Manitoba is this: that the vast majority of both creeds insist upon having some religion, both in education and in exercises, in the schools: that the majority of Protestants, however, insist upon these being of a charac-Catholics, the religious exercises and Mr. Maclean closed the meeting and education shall be that which Catholics . . . but the hierarchy of Protestants declare to be sufficient and Quebec, backed up by a certain section proper. Frequently the Most Rugged Constitutions are Broken Down-A Prominent Farm. er Tells of the Wonderful Recuperative Powers of a Famous Medicine.

From the Assiniboian, Saltcoats, N. W. T.

Everyone around Yorkton knows Mr. Dan. Garry, and what a pushing active business farmer he was until la grippe took hold of him, and when that enemy left him, how listless and unfitted for hard toil he became. For months he suffered from the baneful after effects of the trouble, and although he still en-deavors to take his share of the farm work, he found that it was very trying; he had become greatly weakened, had lost both appetite and ambition, and was tired with the least exertion. He tried several remedies without deriving any benefit, and as one after the other had failed he determined to give. Dr. Wil-

Yours gratefully,

DAN. GARRY. Dr. William's Pink Pills strike at the root of the disease, driving it from the system and restoring the patient to health and strength. In cases of paralysis, spinal troubles, locomotor ataxia, sciatica, rheumatism, erysipelas, scrolulous troubles, etc., these are superior to all other treatment. They are also a specific for the troubles which make the lives of so many women a burden, and especially restore the ricl, glow of health to sallow cheeks. "PLAIN FACTS FOR FAIR MINDS."

Important Announcement.

As an inducement to prompt payment of subscriptions, we hereby engage, from this date out, to furnish to each subscriber who pays his arrears or pays in advance, a copy of "PLAIN FACTS FOR FAIR MINDS" by Reberend George Mt. Searle, the distinguished Paulist and Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy in the Catholic University of America and Director of said University's Observatory. This book of 360 pages, which appeared only last Easter, has already reached its fiftieth thousand. It is a lucid statement and defence of Catholic belief Financially as well as controversially, it is the greatest success in the annals of English Catholic literature. It is as full of wisdom and wit and practical knowledge as an egg is of meat. The author, while wonderfully correct in doctrine, button-holes his reader in a way that is simply irresistible. His knack of apt illustration shows that the book is no mere result of wide reading, but the outcome of a series of personal experiences. Pay your subscription and get a copy of this admirable book as a gift from us.

The Rev. Father N. Weckel occupied the pulpit at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday evening and preached on the necessity of penance. The choir at this church are busy preparing appropriate music for the Easter festival.

Mr. John W. Little, mayor of London, Ont., President of the London and Port Stanley railway and of the Huron and Erie Loan company, and member of the successful dry goods firm of Robinson, Littie & Co., was in Winnipeg this week and returned home to-day.

The committee in charge of the St. Vincent de Paul concert wish to thank those who assisted in carrying out the programme on the evening of St. Patrick's Day, and also those who lent flowers and bunting used in decorating the hall and the chairs for invited guests.

The True Witness, in an able article on the school bill, points out very cleverly, by reducing them to sydogistic form, three out of about fifteen contradictions in Mr. Laurier's latest speech. Our Montreal contemporary also contains a good letter from "one of the laity" showing how laymen agree with the clergy in this school question.

The local legislature has adjourned until the 16th April. In the meantime a conference on the school question will take place between the representatives of the Provincial and Dominion Governments. The delegates of the latter body left Ottawa for Winnipeg on Monday. They are the Mirister of justice (Hon. Mr. Dickey) Sir Donald Smith, M. P., and Mr. Desjardins, M. P.

The branch lines of the C. P. R. will have a three-trains-per-week service after Sunday next. Trains for the southwestern branches will leave the city on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, returning to Winnipeg on the alternate days, at the same time as in force last month. On the West Selkirk and Stonewall branches, trains will go out from the city on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, as before returning the same days. To Estevan on Saturday, returning Monday; to Alexander on Wedneslay, returning on Thursday. The de termination of the company to restore the old train service will be welcome news to the towns interested.

The Catholic Truth Society have received from England a large consignment of tracts and leaflets on important subjects. These are inte ded for general distribution and will be placed by the members where they think they will do the most good. This is a good start in the right direction, but it is only a start, and the members intend, if possible, to follow it up and arrange for a constant supply of good, healthy Cath-olic literature of this nature. These leaflets are published by the parent society in England and written by some of the most eminent among the clergy and laity of the old country. The local society is now a regularly affiliated branch of the parent organization, and at the last meeting it was decided to in future will be known as "The Catholic Truth Society of Winnipeg," instead of as formerly, "The St. Joseph and Catholic Truth Society of Northwestern Canada." change the name of the local body which

The political atmosphere which has been thick with the fog of uncertainty as to the probable fate of the Remedial Bill has been cleared with a veritable thunderbolt in the shape of news that the bill has been passed and that the affirmative vote and voice of our own M. P., figured largely towards granting that justice to the Manitoba minority.

To those of us accustomed to see parliamentary servants stifle their own ideas of right and justice in response to the demands of loud-mouthed intelerance, a different vote from Mr. Davin would not have caused surprise, nor would it have driven us into camps where less rights and greater wrong holds away. It remains to be seen if a similar spirit animates partizans who share the honors and obligations and in many cases the profits arising from adherence to party, but who view the school question from an opposite standpoint and with a negative interest.

THE REMEDIAL BILL.

Resolutions Passed by Local Catholic Societies.

ST. MARY'S BRANCH NO. 52, C M. B. A. At the regular meeting of St. Mary's Branch No. 52 of the C. M. B. A., held last week, a portion of the evening was spent discussing the debate in the Dominion House of Commons on the Remedial Bill. The vote had not then been taken, but there was a unanimous feeling amongst the members in favor of expressing in some way their appreciation as Catholic laymen of the stand taken by the Dominion Government in 394 Main Street. defence of the constitutional rights of the minority in this country. Special reference was also made to the noble action of certain members of the Ottawa opposition, who had been outspoken in their determination to vote for the bill regardless of party considerations, and in this connection the names of Mr. C. R. Devlin, Mr. McIsaac and Mr. Beausoliel were received with great enthusiasm, and a committee was appointed to draft a letter to these gentlemen expressing the feelings of the branch. In accordance with this action the following letter was the next day despatched to each of the three gentlemen named:

WINNIPEG, MAN., March, 18, 1896. Sir -At a regular meeting of Branch No. 52 of the C. M. B. A., held here this evening, a resolution was unanimously passed, instructing us to convey to you the appreciation of our members of the noble stand you have taken on behalf of our schools, in the debate going on at present in the House of Commons. In common with all our fellow-Catholics in this city and country, we are watching the proceedings in the Dominion Legislature with the very greatest anxiety. As Catholic laymen we have a vital interest in this matter, and while we shall forever be grateful to all who assist in seeing that justice is done, we feel that we owe special thanks to those members who, like you, have separated from their political friends for the defence of our most cherished rights.

We beg to ask you, therefore, to accept this feeble expression of our obligation to you, and may assure you that in thus addressing you we are voicing not only our own sentiments, but those of, practically, the whole of the Catholic laity in this city and Province. We have the honor to remain,

> Your obedient servants, L. O GENEST President.

H. A. RUSSELL, Secretary.

CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY OF WINNIPEG.

At the meeting of the Catholic Truth society held on Tuesday evening the following resolution was unanimously carried and copies have been forwarded to Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. T. M. Daly and Mr. C. R. Devlin :

"That we, the members of the Catholic Truth Society, have, as citizens of this grand Dominion, witnessed with pride the noble stand taken by the Dominion Government in what is known as 'The Manitoba School Question'; that we feel they are entitled to the admiration of all patriotic citizens for the statesmanlike way in which, after vain endeavors to induce the Manitoba Govern ment to take up the matter and settle it in accordance with the Privy Council decision, they have recognized their own responsibility to deal with it in the manner directed by the constitution; that, as Catholics resident in Manitoba, we look upon the Remedial Bill as a measure which embodies the principles upon which a just solution of the difficulty must be based and which should be accepted and supported by all those who desire to see right and justice prevail in the government of the country: that in our opinion the action of those members of the opposition who, regardless of party considerations, have supported the Government by their voice and promised to do so with their votes, is worthy of the deepest admiration, for it shews them to be men who when the best interests of the country are at stake, and when the most cherished rights of their co-religionists are assailed, are true Canadians and Catholics, able to raise themselves above the level of mere party politicians.

Be it, therefore, resolved that this expression of our feelings be placed on our minutes and copies be sent to Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. T. M. Daly, as members of the Government; and to Mr. C. R. Devlin, Mr. Beausoliel and Mr. McIsaac, as representatives of members of the opposition supporting the bill.

F. W. RUSSELL, Sec'y Catholic Truth society. Winnipeg, March 19, 1896.

Sergt. Oliver writes to the Evans Gold Cure as follows:

WINNIPEG, FEBRUARY 8TH 1896.

Seven months having elapsed since left your Institute, cured of all need or desire for liquor, I deem it a great pleasure, as well as a duty to humanity, to add my testimony in favor of your wonderful "Gold Cure," which has wrought such a change for the better in my life. For 14 years previous and up to entering your Institute, my life was one continual drunk, my entire wages went for whiskey, and very often I pawned my clothes to obtain sufficient money to pay for a drink. I actually hated whiskey as a beverage, but found life unbearable and a burden without it. To-day I am per-fectly free from all taste or need for it and am happier in my "new life" than for many years and pray to God that it may so continue, and feel certain it will.

You may publish this if you see fit and any desirous of corresponding with me can rest assured of an answer being

Most sincerely. STEPHEN OLIVER, 458 Balmoral St., Winnipeg.

STIMULANT. A TONIC. A FOOD.

> FOR OLD PEOPLE. FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

Should you find the cold, raw autumn winds chilling you to the bone and making you led as though it would be almost impersible to stand the still colder weather yet to come. Try say a half-pint bottle a day of our Extra Porter; the cost will be but a trifle over five cents per day and may do you a great deal of good.

Porter enriches the blood, warms up the system and generally produces a cheerfulness of mind and a desire to look upon the brighter side of life.

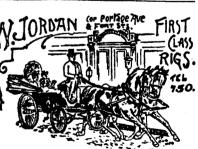

Many people say "I don't like porter or laver, if I did I would use it regularly and no doubt be benefitted by its use." Now, people, as a eneral thing, don't use only the medicines prescribed for them, that are palatable or that just suit their fancy, they take anything and everything the doctor sends. So we say to such people take your porter as an article of fully recognized medicinal value, whether you like it or not. Porter—and this applies equally to our ale or lager—is sc mild a stimulant that none of the depressing effects sometimes felt after using stronger stimulants experienced.

Bottled in quarks, pints and half-pints, the latter one glass, no waste always fresh.
