The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

26 VIC., CAP. 29.

An Act to authorize the ST. JAMES'S CLUB OF MONTREAL, to issue Stock for the purpose of raising the necessary funds to build a Club House.

[Assented to 5th May, 1863.]

WHEREAS the Corporation of the ST. JAMES'S CLUB OF MONTREAL have, by their petition to the Legislature, represented that they have recently acquired the lot of ground hereinafter mentioned and described, on which they are desirous of erecting a Club House and dependencies, but, for want of sufficient funds, are unable to do so; and the Petitioners have prayed for authority to issue Stock for the purpose of raising the necessary funds for the purpose aforesaid, which prayer it is expedient to grant; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enact as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation to issue stock, to such extent as they may deem necessary, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of forty thousand dollars in shares of five hundred dollars each; such stock to be subscribed for in a book to be opened for that purpose by the Committee of the said Club, and to be paid up in such manner and within such delay as may be determined by the said Committee. Corporation may issue stock
2. The funds arising from such stock shall be applied exclusively to the erection of a Club House and dependencies, on the following described lot of ground recently purchased by the said Corporation, and to the liquidation of the purchase money or cost of such lot, to wit: The certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate within the said City of Montreal, and forming the corner of Dorchester and University Streets, bounded as Money raised to be applied to build a Club House
Description of the site of Club House

10. This Act shall be deemed a Public Act.

55-56 VIC., CAP. 84.

An Act to authorize the "St. James's Club of Montreal," to increase their capital stock, and for other purposes.

[Assented to 24th June, 1892.]

Preamble

WHEREAS the corporation of the "St. James's Club of Montreal" have by their petition, prayed to be allowed to increase their capital stock, and to dispose of, or hypothecate, in favor of trustees, or otherwise, the real property of the said Corporation, to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition:

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enact as follows:

Capital stock may be increased to certain amount

1. It shall be lawful for the St. James's Club of Montreal to increase their capital stock to a total sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, by the issue of ordinary shares, or bonds, or otherwise, as may be determined upon by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the members of the said Corporation present at a meeting of such members specially called for that purpose.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation to dispose of, or hypothecate, in favor of trustees or otherwise, the real property held or to be held by the said Corporation, to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Property may be disposed of etc.

3. This Act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Coming into force

ST. JAMES'S CLUB. CONSTITUTION.

[As Amended to 1st May, 1907.]

1. This Association is known as the ^{Name} "ST. JAMES'S CLUB OF MONTREAL," and its membership is limited to seven hundred, exclusive of Privileged and Supernumerary Members.
2. Politics and religious questions ^{Politics and religion} of every description are absolutely excluded from the Club.
3. Each Candidate for admission ^{Candidates} shall be proposed by one member, seconded by another, by a proposal in writing, to be inserted in the Book of Candidates, and signed by both mover and seconder; and shall be balloted for at any ballot which may take place after the lapse of one week from the time the name of the Candidate and his proposer and seconder have been posted in the coffee-room, under the hand of the Secretary.

Ballot

4. The ballot for members takes place between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. on the first Wednesday in each month, when there is a candidate approved by the Committee. No ballot is valid unless twenty members actually ballot; and one black ball in ten shall exclude.

New Member

5. On the admission of each new member, the Secretary shall notify him, and furnish him with a printed copy of the Constitution and Regulations, and request him to remit the amount of his entrance fee and subscription to the Hon. Treasurer.

Entrance and
subscription

6. The Entrance Fee is two hundred and fifty dollars and the Annual Subscription fifty dollars; the subscription is payable in advance, on the 15th of April in each year; but the subscription of new members balloted for on or after the first day of January in any year shall extend to the 15th of April in the following year.

Non-resident
members

Members who have paid the entrance fee and whose permanent place of residence is distant at least one hundred miles from the City of Montreal may have their names placed upon a list of non-resident members, and shall have all the rights and privileges of the Club on payment of half the amount of annual contribution required from ordinary resident members.

7. No member shall be admitted to vote or enjoy any of the privileges of the Club, until he shall have paid whatever Entrance Fee or Subscription may be due by him. Members pay before voting, etc.

8. In the event of any member failing to pay his Entrance Fee or Subscription within six weeks after his admission, if he reside in Canada or not farther south in the continent of America than the 45th degree of north latitude, or within three months if he reside elsewhere on the Continent of America or on the Continent of Europe; or within six months if he reside in any other quarter of the world, the Secretary shall report such failure to the Committee, who shall cause the name of such Member to be erased from the list of Members, Members failing to pay on entrance unless the delay is justified to the satisfaction of the Committee.

Member failing to pay annual
subscription

9. The name of every member failing to pay the Annual Subscription due on the 15th of April shall be exhibited in the coffee-room on the 15th of May, if not then paid; and if the Subscription be not paid on or before the 15th day of June, the Secretary shall report the facts to the Committee, who shall cause his name to be erased from the list of Members; but he may be re-admitted by the Committee upon assigning to them reasons which they may consider satisfactory for his failure of payment.

Dues

10. All Entrance Fees and Annual Subscriptions shall be made payable to the order of the St. James's Club.

Supernumerary
members.

11. Any member who may be absent from the Dominion of Canada during the whole period for which the Annual Subscription is payable, may be considered as a Supernumerary Member and shall pay an Annual Subscription of Ten dollars (to be collected only from those who may be placed on this list after 1st April, 1895) during the continuance of such absence, but any member availing himself of this indulgence must notify the Secretary by letter, posted before the 15th day of April of the first year of his absence, otherwise he shall pay the regular Annual Subscription for that year.

The Secretary shall, on compliance with the foregoing formality, insert such member's name in the list of Supernumerary Members.

Any such member shall be re-Re-admission admitted to all his privileges, upon his return being notified in writing to the Secretary, provided such notification be given within one month after his return to Canada and upon payment of his subscription for the then current year, and failing such notification and payment, such member shall be considered as having withdrawn himself from the Club.

Should a member return to Canada Return between January and March between the 1st day of January and the 31st day of March of the same year, he shall only be called upon to pay one-half the regular Annual Subscription for the then current year.

Return
temporary

Should his return be only temporary, he may, with the consent of the Committee, be admitted to the privileges of the Club on payment of Five dollars for each month of residence in Canada, but the aggregate payments are not to exceed the Annual Subscription of ordinary membership.

Privileged
members

12. The following persons shall be eligible for election as privileged members without payment of an entrance fee, but subject to payment of $25.00 for each period of six months dated from the date of their election, and subject to the Provisions of the Constitution and Regulations of the Club.

Who are eligible
as privileged
members

Officers in His Majesty's Army and Navy, and persons holding military and civil appointments under the Imperial Government, who may be stationed in Canada for an indefinite period, and officers of His Majesty's Active Militia Permanent Force of the Dominion of Canada.

and also any member, civil or military, of the staff of His Excellency the Governor-General for the time being.

Every candidate proposed as a privileged member shall be stated to be so on the List of Candidates for election which is posted in the coffee-room.

No candidate for privileged membership shall be placed on the list until the cause of the privilege has been sanctioned at a meeting of the Committee.

Privileged members shall enjoy all the advantages of the Club, except that of being elected members of the Committee, of voting in the affairs of the Club, or of introducing strangers as fortnightly guests.

Privileged members elected as such under any provision of the Constitution of the Club, now repealed, who shall become permanent residents of or within a radius of 100 miles of Montreal, must in order to continue as such privileged members have their names placed on the list of ordinary candidates awaiting election, and deposit with the Club the amount of the entrance fee, which will only be returned to them in the event of non-election after ballot.

Re-ballot

From privilege to ordinary

Any privileged member desiring to become an Ordinary member of the Club, must be balloted for again under the provisions of Rule 3 of the Constitution.

Visitors

13. Any ordinary member may introduce a friend resident elsewhere than in Canada, or who may be an ordinary member of the Toronto Club of Toronto; The Garrison Club of Quebec; The Hamilton Club of Hamilton; The London Club of London, Ont.; The Rideau Club of Ottawa; The Halifax Club of Halifax; The Union Club of Victoria, B.C.; The Vancouver Club of Vancouver, B.C.; The Manitoba Club of Winnipeg; and the Union Club of St. John, N.B., who shall be duly certified as such, and whose usual place of residence shall be distant at least one hundred miles from the City of Montreal, or who may be an officer of His Majesty's Active Militia Permanent Force of the Dominion of Canada, resident elsewhere than in Montreal, for a period of two weeks; such visitor shall be eligible for a further period of one month, immediately following the two weeks privilege, but only with the consent of the General Committee, and on payment of the sum of Ten dollars.

Any ordinary member may for a similar period introduce a resident of any place in Canada where no affiliated Club exists, after having previously obtained permission from the Active Committee of the week. The General Committee at a subsequent meeting may either confirm or cancel this permission.

The name and residence of such visitor shall be first entered in a Visitor's Book, provided for that purpose, and such entry shall be signed by the member introducing him, who shall be responsible for all bills incurred by him.

No visitor shall be introduced more than once in six months.

The privileges of visitors may be terminated at the discretion of the Committee.

Visitors may not entertain guests.

Strangers' Room

Any member shall have the privilege of introducing a friend to breakfast, lunch or dine in the Strangers' Room, at his sole expense, and of admitting him, when so introduced, into the Smoking Room and Reading Room, provided the name of such friend shall have been previously inscribed for at least one day in the book to be kept for that purpose. No more than eight persons shall be admitted under this rule, at any one meal, on any one day, and the order of admission shall be regulated by the position of their names in the book; and no other person, not a member, shall be admitted at any time, unless to view the house, and then accompanied by a member. The Committee may in their discretion relax the rigor of this rule as regards previous notice, and the number of persons whom a member may introduce.

visitors limited

Strangers, non-resident in Montreal, may under certain conditions and regulations to be made from time to time by the Committee, be admitted to the use of the Billiard Room.

Strangers
non-resident in Montreal

14. Any member whose dues are all paid shall be at liberty to withdraw from the Club, on his written application to that effect, sent in to the Committee before the Annual General Meeting of the Club, to be held on the third Wednesday in April.

Members may withdraw

15. Any member wilfully infringing the Constitution or any of the Regulations of the Club shall be liable to suspension or expulsion by a vote of two-thirds of at least one-half of the Committee present at any meeting specially held for that purpose; reasonable notice of such meeting having been previously given such member.

Suspension or expulsion

If any member be guilty of conduct, which, in the opinion of the

Expulsion of
members

Committee or of any ten members who shall certify the same in writing, is detrimental to the character or interests of the Club, the Committee shall summon such member to appear before them to explain his conduct, and if he neglect to appear before the Committee, or, having appeared, fail to satisfy the Committee, the Committee may suspend such member from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding two months, or the Committee may call an extraordinary meeting of the Club to consider the matter, and it shall be competent for such meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present thereat, to suspend or to expel such member from the Club.

Leaving—forfeit
all claims

16. Any member who shall withdraw, resign or be expelled shall cease to be a member of the Club, and shall forfeit ipso facto, all right or claim thereon, or in or to its property or funds, and any member who shall be expelled shall forever thereafter be ineligible to be re-admitted a member of the Club.

17. The Committee consists of nine ^{Committee of Management} members, three of whom shall, subject to the provisions of the next Article, be elected every year.

The Committee shall have power to make such rules and regulations from time to time as they may think fit, not inconsistent with the Constitution.

The Committee shall cause to be ^{Retiring and new members} posted in the coffee-room, fourteen days before the Annual General Meeting, a list of Retiring Members and of the names of those proposed by them to supply the vacancies. Any two or more members desiring to substitute for the vacancies occurring on the Committee by retirement, the name or names of any other member or members for those proposed for the Committee, shall send a list of such name or names, at least seven days before the election, to the Secretary, who shall thereupon post such name or names in the coffee-room.

18. At each Annual Meeting, three ^{Term to serve} of the nine members of the Committee shall retire, so that no member shall remain more than three years on the Committee, nor be eligible to serve again on the same until the lapse of one year. The three members so to retire are declared by the Committee at some meeting previous to the date of election.

Vacancy on
death, etc.

If any member elected to serve on the Committee shall resign, or should a vacancy occur by death, or should any member of the Committee have ceased to attend the regular meetings of the Committee for a period of three months consecutively, the Committee shall have power to choose a qualified member to act in his stead until the Annual Meeting next ensuing, when the member so chosen shall retire, but shall be eligible for re-election.

Weekly meetings

19. The Committee shall meet weekly on a stated day, to transact current business and to audit the accounts of the preceding week. Three shall form a quorum.

Infraction of rules

20. It is the duty of the Committee to take immediate cognizance of any infraction of the Constitution or Regulations of the Club.

21. The Annual General Meeting of ^{Annual meetings} the Club is held on the third Wednesday in April of each year, for the purpose of electing one-third of the Committee for the succeeding three years and filling any vacancies; for receiving propositions for any new rule or alteration of any existing rule of the Club; and for the consideration and discussion of the same and of any other subject connected with the affairs of the Club

At this meeting the Committee ^{Annual Report printed} shall submit a report and an annual financial statement of the Club for the past year.

The report and annual financial statement are printed and laid on the table in the reading-room of the Club at least one week before the annual meeting, and a copy can be had by a member on application to the Secretary's office.

All new propositions that are to be ^{New propositions} submitted to the Annual General Meeting, whether emanating from the Committee or from individual members, shall be posted conspicuously in the coffee-room for fourteen days previously, duly signed by the proposer and seconder, and this shall be sufficient notice that they are to be taken into consideration.

Quorum

Twenty qualified members are necessary to constitute an annual or special meeting of the Club.

Extraordinary meetings

22. The Committee may at any time convene an extraordinary meeting of the Club, on giving fourteen days' notice, to be posted up during that period in the coffee-room, specifying the object of such meeting in the form of a resolution; at any such meeting, no subject shall be discussed beyond that specified in the notice; and the Committee is bound to call such extraordinary meeting, upon receiving a requisition to that effect signed by twenty members, and stating succinctly the object of the meeting.

House hours

23. The Club-house shall be open every day for the reception of members at 7 o'clock A.M. in the summer and at 8 A.M. in the winter, and shall be closed and the lights extinguished at 1.30 A.M., except on Sundays, when the hour of closing shall be midnight. It shall be the duty of the waiters in attendance to announce the hour of 11.30 P.M. on Sundays, and 1 o'clock A.M. on all other days, in each room then occupied by members, and all such members are required to leave the Club before the time fixed for closing and putting out the lights under a penalty of ten dollars. The servants on duty at the time of closing the Club must report to the Secretary the names of members remaining in the Club after such time, on pain of dismissal.

24. No member shall on any pretence or in any manner whatsoever receive any profit, salary or emolument from the funds of the Club, nor shall any member give any money or gratuity to any of the servants of the establishment, upon any pretence whatsoever; but this rule shall not preclude any member of the Club

from receiving a salary as Secretary or Manager, or remuneration for professional services, or from selling property or goods, or stocks or money securities, to the Club, or from buying any of the same from the Club.

Take away papers

25. No member shall take away from the Club, upon any pretence whatsoever, any newspaper, pamphlet, book, map or other article, belonging to the Institution.

Servants on errands

26. No servant of the Club (the messenger excepted) shall be sent out of the house upon any errand, upon any pretence whatever.

Provisions, etc., taken out

27. No provisions cooked in the Club-house or wines or other liquors shall be sent out of the Club-house on any pretence whatever.

Complaints

28. Any complaint that may arise in the coffee-room is to be written and signed by the member so complaining on his bill, and such complaint must be specially noticed by the Committee on settling the weekly accounts and any inattention or improper conduct of a servant is to be stated by letter, under the signature of the member complaining, which shall be put in the Secretary's box, and must be laid before the Committee at their next weekly meeting.

29. Members shall pay their bills Pay Club bills monthly, at the beginning of each month. The Committee shall, on the fifteenth day of each month, cause to be posted in the coffee-room, the names of members in arrears for the previous month; and any member so posted, who fails to pay his bill by the end of the then current month, shall not receive further credit, and shall be liable to suspension or expulsion, under Art. 15 of the Constitution.

30. Each member of the Club shall Member's address communicate his address or that of his Banker or Agent to the Secretary, and all notices sent or posted to such address shall be considered as duly delivered; but such address shall not be communicated to others without the written consent of the member.

31. At least seventy-five dollars Sinking Fund out of each Entrance Fee received during any year shall be annually set aside and invested as a sinking fund to provide for the redemption of the capital of the bonded indebtedness of the Club, and for no other purposes. The bank book or other books or documents, showing where and how this fund is invested, and the amount to its credit shall be placed upon the table at each annual general or extraordinary meeting for inspection by the members. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to the Entrance Fees of one hundred members admitted during the years 1905 and 1906.

No gambling

32. No dice shall be used in the Club-house except at backgammon. Whist shall not be played for any higher stakes than dollar points. Other games may be played for limited stakes. The limit of the stakes is to be fixed by the Committee.

Censures

Any member infringing the above Article, on his name being reported to the Committee, shall be censured, and the censure shall be posted in the card room; and any member whose name shall be twice so posted within twelve months shall ipso facto cease to belong to the Club, and his name shall be erased from the list of members, Article 15th to the contrary notwithstanding.

33. No smoking shall be permitted ^{Smoking} in the Club House, except in the rooms set apart for that purpose.

37. The foregoing shall be printed and distributed to each member.

REGULATIONS
ST. JAMES'S CLUB
MONTREAL

ST. JAMES'S CLUB

AS AMENDED TO 1ST OCT., 1907.

COMMITTEE.

The ordinary weekly meetings are held every Friday, at 5.30 o'clock P.M., at which three shall form a quorum. The Committee may change the day and hour of said meeting and make them fortnightly during the summer. In the absence of the duly appointed Chairman, a Chairman for the day will be first elected, and the minutes of the last meeting having been read, the question is put by the Chairman "that they be confirmed."

If the minutes be objected to by a majority of the members present, the objection will be reserved for consideration, either at an extraordinary meeting or at the next ordinary meeting, as may be decided upon, and, if not objected to then, the Chairman will affix his signature thereto.

After the disposal of the minutes of the previous meeting, all such matters as require the consideration of the Committee are brought before them, and are discussed and decided upon.

For the dispatch of business, the Committee will at each weekly meeting appoint two of their number, to be called the "Active Committee," to superintend the ordinary business of the Club, and submit a weekly report of their proceedings.

SECRETARY AND MANAGER.

As Manager, he has the general control and superintendence of the establishment, under the Committee.

As Secretary, he attends all meetings of the Committee and Active Committee, notes their resolutions, and minutes them in the book of their proceedings.

In all his written official communications he will state expressly that they are made by direction of the Committee.

Besides his attendance upon the Committee, he conducts, with the aid of a Bookkeeper and clerks, the official correspondence of the Club, draws up Reports, keeps regular accounts of all the financial concerns of the Club, an account of the wine and other stores in the Stock Cellars, and accounts with the Steward, Barman and Housekeeper for wines and stores delivered for the consumption of members and for the use of the establishment; examines the accounts of the Tradesmen previously to their being submitted for final adjustment, and pays the same when passed by the Committee.

He ascertains that all the goods and provisions delivered are in strict accordance with the orders given, and are correctly charged in the Tradesmen's Books, and he signs such books.

He receives information upon all subjects connected with the business of the Club, and particularly all matters relating to the members thereof.

He submits to the Committee a weekly statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Club.

He places before the Committee the receipts for payment which have been authorized by the Committee at its previous meeting, with the exception of such as are paid directly by the Treasurer, and deposits moneys received by him in the Bank. He enjoys all the privileges of the Club if he is a member.

BOOKKEEPER.

The Bookkeeper has control of the office under the Secretary, and shall attend to all work appertaining to the office.

He shall, if the Manager so desires, attend to the receiving of wines and cigars and the giving out of the same to the Bar, as well as perform other duties which may from time to time be conferred on him by the Secretary. Office hours shall be from 1st April to 1st October, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. or later if necessary; from 1st October to 1st April, 9.15 a.m., but one office hand must be in attendance daily to 6 p.m., except Sunday.

HOUSEKEEPER.

She is responsible for the cleanliness and order of the house, the conduct of the female servants, the care of the linen and liveries, and checks the same both on its delivery to and return from the Laundress and Tailors.

STEWARD.

The Steward has general control, under the Manager, of all the men servants. Examines the pantry and ice boxes morning and evening, and every evening after dinner, with the Chef, goes over the kitchen larders and then makes up the market list for the following day. He goes over the Chef's Bill of Fare book every evening after dinner and leaves it on the Secretary's desk the same evening, and sees that the office clerk gets it by 10 a.m. to copy. He purchases the fish, vegetables, meat, etc., required for the Club, and makes an early personal selection of the same in the markets and elsewhere. He receives all orders for dinners, etc., and sees the same are properly carried out.

He accounts daily with the Secretary for all moneys received by him.

He makes the established charges for all provisions, wines, etc., extends the members' bills and deposits them in the office, keeps a book with the different charges for different articles at different seasons.

HEAD WAITER.

The Head Waiter has the control and superintendence, under the Steward, of the waiters, and is responsible for their conduct and cleanly appearance, and that they carry out the different duties assigned to them, and in case of negligence or misconduct, he reports the same to the Manager. He has custody of the China, Crockery, Plate, etc., of which he must take stock once a month, and said stock book shown the Secretary after stock is taken.

HEAD BILLIARD MARKER.

The Head Billiard Marker has the control, under the Manager, of the Billiard Rooms, and has custody of the cues, balls, etc., etc. He is responsible for the conduct and appearance of the markers.

BARMAN.

He has the custody of all Wines, Liquors, Cigars, etc., as issued to him by the Manager.

He accounts daily to the Secretary for all moneys received from the members, and gives in an account of all amounts due by members for supplies received from the Bar. He is charged with any deficiency that may occur in the stock of Wines, Liquors, Cigars, etc., placed in his custody.

CHEF.

The Chef has the immediate direction-of the Kitchen Department, and of the Assistants therein as far as concerns the performance of their duties; he prepares the daily Bill of Fare with the concurrence of the Steward, who reports it to the Manager for approval, keeps all orders for the issue of the Kitchen supplies for daily comparison with the Dinner Bills. No supplies shall be issued without an order. Must visit larders with the Steward after dinner in order to make out the market list for the following day.

HALL PORTER.

He enters in his book once a day the name of every member coming into the Club House.

Strangers calling to see members are shewn into the Reception Room, and intimation of their arrival is immediately sent to the member inquired for.

Answer the door bell at Ladies' entrance.

If a letter for an absent member be applied for by another who may wish to forward it, the latter will be required to pay the postage (if any), and to sign an acknowledgment in the Porter's book of his having received the letter, in case of any future question, but this must only be done with the authorization of the absent member.

He has charge of the Lavatories, Library, Cafés and Smoking Rooms, the fires in them, also the newspapers, and sees that the rooms are kept regularly supplied with writing materials.

WAITERS.

The Waiters and all other servants in the Establishment are subject to the order of the Manager, and under him to the heads of the different departments, and perform such duties as he or they may prescribe.

HOUSEMAN.

The Houseman cleans all windows, blinds, brasses, rugs, mats, verandah, and cleans out the grates and lights the fires, cleans knives, brushes boots of members in coat-room when called on, waters flowers and assists Housekeeper whenever called upon. Commences work daily at 4 A.M.

YARDMAN.

The Yardman lights the fires, prepares kindling wood, conveys fuel at proper times to the various apartments, keeps ice-boxes filled, keeps the sidewalks of the Club and yard in rear of the House constantly clean, and performs all such other duties as the Manager from time to time may direct. He also assists the women servants in house-cleaning, when called on to do so by the Housekeeper. Commences work daily at 5 A.M.

GENERAL SERVANTS' REGULATIONS.

No officers or servants shall receive any present from members of the Club; and any tradesmen detected in giving presents will not be dealt with hereafter.

No male servant shall absent himself from the Club House without leave from the Manager, nor any female servant without leave from the Housekeeper.

No stranger will be admitted into the Club House except on business, and the servants are strictly prohibited from receiving visitors or followers.

Servants on duty in the coffee-room must not leave it, unless sent by the head waiter or a member.

Servants absent without leave will have their wages stopped during said absence and be liable to instant dismissal. Servants who are late in reporting for duty will be fined.

Servants while on duty must not talk to each other except on matters connected with their work, and then in a low tone; and no servant is permitted to address an individual member in the house on matters either personal or relative to the concerns of the Club. All communications of the latter kind should be made to the Secretary for the information of the Committee.

If any money or articles are found by the servants of the Club House, they are to be delivered to the Manager.

No application for the re-appointment of a servant who may have been dismissed on the representation of a member will be read or taken into consideration, unless it comes through and is recommended by the member on whose representation he or she was dismissed.

ENTRANCE HALL.

No stranger will be permitted to view the house unless accompanied by a member, and then only between the hours of 10 to 12 A.M., except by special permission of a member of the Committee.

No large boxes or articles of baggage belonging to a member will be admitted into the hall, and bags or portmanteaus sent by members wishing to dress will be conveyed to the dressing-room.

COFFEE-ROOM.

Breakfast may be served from eight until noon; luncheon and dinners from one o'clock P.M. until eight o'clock P.M.; hot and cold suppers up to 11.30 P.M. on Saturdays, and 11 P.M.

on Sundays, and 12.30 A.M. on all other days; and liquors, tea and coffee up to one o'clock A.M.; after which no orders of any kind can be received, unless specially authorized by the Active Committee of the week, on timely application in writing to the Secretary. Members ordering dinner or luncheon will fill up their order bill themselves and not employ the waiters to do so.

CARD AND BILLIARD ROOMS.

The regulations as to charges, etc., etc., in the card and billiard rooms shall be made as required by the Committee. The upstairs card and billiard room may be reserved for private parties, for which a charge of $2.50 will be made.

No card or billiard playing will be allowed on Sundays.

Strangers are not permitted to play in the lower billiard room, or to play cards in the card room.

The upstairs billiard room, when not reserved, is set apart for the use of strangers who have lunched or dined with a member, and not otherwise. If reserved, a charge of $2.50 will be exacted.

LADIES' ROOMS.

Two rooms at the westerly end of the building are appropriated for the entertainment of ladies by members, one to be used as a reception room and the other as a dining-room.

Any member shall have the privilege of introducing ladies to any meal in the rooms set apart for them, provided he accompanies them.

In order to make proper arrangements for tables, etc., members are requested, as far as possible, to notify the steward by 11 o'clock in the morning for lunch and by 3 o'clock in the afternoon for dinner, the number of guests they are entertaining in the ladies' rooms, and the time lunch or dinner is required.

HOUSE DINING ROOMS.

The house dining rooms are appropriated for house dinners on such days as the Committee may decide; on all other days, any member may engage the rooms for a party of not less than six, provided he gives previous notice to the Steward, who shall report it to the Manager; and on days when the rooms are not engaged, parties, if not less than four, can dine in the rooms, subject to their being occupied by others if required.

The lower house dining room can be used for ladies' dinners, provided the party is not less than ten, but the room cannot be engaged before 6 p.m. of the day previous to which the dinner is to be given, and this only when not used as the strangers' room.

Both the house and strangers dining rooms can be used for card playing on the following conditions: If required for dinner or supper, the room must be vacated one hour and a half before required for either meal. A charge of $2.50 will be exacted for an afternoon or an evening, unless a private and special luncheon or dinner of eight is ordered in one of these rooms, in which case no extra charge will be made for the room should the same party remain to play cards afterwards.

DRESSING ROOM.

Portmanteaus, bags or baggage of any kind must be taken away immediately after use, and not allowed to remain in the Club House for future use.

No servant of the Club is to be employed by any member to clean clothes, or to assist him in dressing.

No servant of a member is allowed to go into any other room than the dressing room, and then only to assist his master in dressing.

MISCELLANEOUS.

No pamphlet, advertisement, or advice of any kind will be laid on the tables, or put in the Club, by a member; but any pamphlet, etc., which it may be wished to make known to the Club, shall be sent to the Secretary to be laid before the Committee for approval.

No eatables beyond a sandwich, toast or biscuit will be allowed in any room except the coffee room, house dining rooms, and ladies' dining room.

No members, except on special duty, will be allowed in the bar, or to go down to the basement story of the house.

Any Club property which may be broken or injured by members is to be paid for by them.

Fortnightly guests may not entertain guests unless they be members.

The Committee may add to or alter any of the foregoing regulations as occasion may arise
