Strenuous Objection to Clause Regarding Income Taxes in Proposed County Bill—To be Considered This Week at Legislature.

If the atmosphere which pervaded the mayor's office when the matter was referred to at this morning's council meeting is an indication, there will be sharp and strenuous opposition to the last section of a bill relating to assessments in the county of St. John, when it comes before the municipal bills committee of the legislature at Fredericton on Wednesday morning.

Following the announcement by the mayor that the St. John county bills would be considered on Wednesday, Commissioner Frink asked if the mayor had seen the last paragraph of the bill referred to, which reads as follows:

"Notwithstanding any act relating to assessments, section 29 of the said Rates and Taxes Act is hereby amended by adding the following sub-section: (a) 'Every person residing in the parishes of Lancaster or Simonds, in the City and County of St. John, shall be assessed on his income in the parish where he resides, and he shall not be assessed elsewhere on such income.'

Commissioner Frink said he did not remember that section in the proposed bill. He had asked the county secretary about it and was informed that it was inserted at the suggestion of the Lancaster councillors. The mayor said that on the date the bills committee was to meet he attended at the county secretary's office at 10.30 and waited until eleven o'clock, when he left to attend a meeting of the city council, and nobody showed up for the meeting.

Dr. Frink said that the proposed section would affect some 1,000 people and a considerable amount of the city's revenue.

It was left to the mayor to arrange for the attendance of representatives of the city council at the committee meeting at which the county bills would be considered. He said the city bills will not come up until later in the session.

GOOD NEWS FROM SEALING FLEET

Newfoundlanders So Far Have Killed 50,000.

Airmen Reported Refusing to Guide Main Fleet Because Terms Not Agreeable—Ancient Colony Cheered by Business Revival.

(Canadian Press) St. John's, Nfld., March 20.—The first week of the Newfoundland sealing voyage has ended with excellent prospects for capacity trips.

This spring for the first time in the history of the seal fishery, airmen have reconnoitered the Arctic flocks of the east coast and have discovered the location of the main herd.

The aviators wanted a good round sum for their information, but the owners of the ships refused their terms.

The result of this news from the seal hunters has been to give a great fillip to the general trade of the country.

The merchants who supply for the seal fishery also show prominently in the cod fishery practically assured are disposed to supply much more readily for the summer's fishing industry.

The speech from the Throne at the opening of the local parliament last week, has also inspired great optimism.

The outlook for Newfoundland, a great staple industry, the cod fishery is particularly good for 1922. Marked improvements are reported in conditions in the markets to which Newfoundland fish is exported.

The country has got round the corner of the trade depression and is rapidly getting back to normal economic conditions.

TOM MOORE AND QUEBEC HOUSE

Quebec, March 20.—(Canadian Press)—Premier Taschereau, when his attention was called to a statement by President Tom Moore of the Quebec House of Representatives of Canada, said that he had no comment to make for the moment.

Officials of the government commenting on the statement considered that Mr. Moore was issuing a challenge. They held that neither the premier nor the government was afraid of Mr. Moore, who they said, took a strange view of the resolution passed. There was nothing in the resolution about passing a law, it simply invited Canadian workers to get a Canadian constitution.

They intimated, however, that it might eventually come to passing a law, but it would not be done at the present session.

The Moore statement was that if any legislation was introduced against international unions, the international unions would be heard from.

As Hiram Sees It

"Look-a-her!" said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter. "Them fellers that stands around the head o' King street an' along Charlotte street in the evenin' an' makes remarks about wimmin or says things to 'em when they go pass—hev they got a license?"

"Not that I know of," said the reporter. "Well, then," said Hiram, "I'm goin' down to City Hall to tell 'em how they kin raise enough money to keep the streets clean. Jist put a good tax on them wimmin."

"If you wimmin folks got to put up with that sort of thing you might as well give some revenue out of it. I ain't sayin' that's the best thing to do. If it was out to the Settlement we'd hev a committee on good manners—each of 'em with a club, but I guess you're not that kind of pacifist in St. John."

"But if some of the girls like it?" suggested the reporter. "They ort to be spanked an' put to bed," said Hiram.

Stefansson Announces That He Has Claimed Arctic Land for Great Britain.

New York, March 20.—Wrangel Island, one of the most important lands in the Arctic region, has been claimed for Great Britain by a party of three Americans, a Canadian and four Eskimos, so it became known last night through Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer, organizer of the expedition.

Mr. Stefansson said the British flag had been planted on the island on Sept. 21 last.

Stefansson, a British subject, said his first and last Arctic expedition, made up of Allan Crawford, a son of a Toronto university professor, W. L. G. Reade, M. D., of the University of Toronto, and four Eskimos, was sent by him into the northern part of the island on Sept. 21 last.

New York, March 20.—Tex Rickard, sports promoter, was to appear for trial today on an indictment charging criminal assault, based on the testimony of Sarah Schoenfeld, 15, an east side school girl.

Two indictments charging criminal assault were returned against Rickard. He resigned from all connection with sports promotion in Madison Square Garden soon after his arrest. His accusers were school girls ranging in age from 11 to 15 years.

Assistant District Attorney Posora, who is in charge of the prosecution, said another young girl would corroborate the Schoenfeld girl's testimony.

Although provision for an overdraft at the bank was made by the city soon after the new year in anticipation of the collection of 1922 taxes, the first debit balance against the city was registered in the February statement, presented by the mayor as commissioner of finance at this morning's session of the common council committee. On motion of Commissioner Bullock the council resolved to renew the lease of John Jackson for the privilege of collecting revenue from North and South Market streets and the adjacent streets, and to provide that the city would have the privilege of carrying on repairs and putting material for such repairs without a reduction being made in the cost of the lease.

The mayor Commissioner Bullock said that the revenue from the harbor master and the scheme had been tried with varying success. He said he had no idea what Mr. Jackson's profit was on the enterprise.

Referring to an application by L. W. Simms for the purchase of four lots in the town planning area in the Main and Bonspiel roads, Commissioner Bullock said that a suggestion had been made to divert the route of Dominion road.

The purchase of the lots was made by Mr. Simms for $300, and in this another lot and $400 each for two front lots. The commissioner said there was an application that the purchase should build within a specified time. On his motion it was decided to accept Mr. Simms' offer.

A request from S. L. Squire, secretary of the Dominion Good Roads Association for the city taking membership in the association at a cost of $100 was ordered laid on the table. Mr. Squire was anxious that the city should be represented at the Dominion convention of the organization in Victoria, June 13 to 15.

A letter from A. I. Machum, secretary of the G. W. V. A., asking the city for the use of the Shamrock grounds for the staging of a show by the G. W. V. A. auspices, July 24 to 29, was referred to the mayor for enquiry and report.

MARRIAGE TO THE FRONTIER

Getting to be Quite a Business Helping Women Out of Russia.

Odessa, March 20.—Marriage-to-the-frontier only is one of the new forms of commerce in Russia. Women are willing to pay handsomely foreigners who, by virtue of their passports, may pass freely out of Russia and also enter Poland, Rumania, Germany, or other countries, and take with them women passing as their wives. As Russian subjects, neither men nor women may easily get permission to leave Russia, and, if so, the other countries will not receive them.

Subjects of Turkey and other Moslem countries engaged in this marriage business sometimes take out four wives at a time, the number allowed by their marriage laws.

Sometimes such marriages of the moment end unhappily. The husband of a Balkan lady succeeded in getting out, and then planned for his wife to marry for the Canadian Press, a local official. The official fell in love with the woman and insisted that she remain as his legal wife, and she had in fact become through her own declaration before the local soviet marriage bureau.

NO REDISTRIBUTION IN ONTARIO AT THE PRESENT SITTING

Toronto, March 20.—Provincial redistribution will not be an item of government business to be dealt with at the present sitting of the Ontario legislature. In all probability, however, it will be dealt with at the next session, the last in which Premier Drury and his colleagues may occupy the treasury benches without a new mandate from the people.

Premier Drury readily admitted existing discrepancies as to representation between rural and urban districts, but when asked about the government expected to deal with the matter in the light of the new census, he said, "not this session." The government, however, realizes its responsibilities in the matter and will not shirk its duty.

Peasek appeared to be in a little better condition than the Canuck, but the latter was a specialist and made a great hit with the crowd. Walker has been matched to meet John Friehberg here next Friday night and local fans look for him to fall from Stanislaus Zbyszko.

NORTH BAY HAS SECOND WINTER

North Bay, Ont., March 20—After two weeks of spring-like weather, during which citizens had done much of their spring tending, winter again set in yesterday, and last night a severe snowstorm was in progress. The danger of heavy spring floods throughout the north has been greatly minimized by the recent thaws and a large amount of the snow has disappeared. In the northern sections, however, the snow is several feet deep in some places.

ABOUT BAROMETERS.

(Ottawa Journal).
The members of the Canadian Geodetic Society had the pleasure of listening yesterday afternoon to a most interesting and instructive paper on Aneroid Barometers by W. C. Way of the Survey Laboratory. The president, F. A. McDermid, introduced Mr. Way as an authority on this subject. This claim was fully justified.

Having first stated that very little alteration had been made from the type of barometer in use as long ago as 1847, Mr. Way showed diagrams on the lantern screen on which contours of varying barometric pressure were marked under different weather conditions. He then went fully into the construction of the aneroid, and explained how the atmospheric pressure was transmitted and multiplied by levers until it reached the pointer. The lecturer had made a detailed study of the various influences which detract from the accuracy of the instrument and of these he now gave clear and interesting explanations. Among them may be mentioned (1) faults of construction, such as bad material and want of rigidity, and (2) adverse influences, such as changes of temperature and shocks received in transportation. In this connection the lecturer stressed the importance of testing and correcting aneroids by means of mercurial barometers at frequent intervals. In the last part of his lecture Mr. Way showed diagrams of a new form of aneroid recently constructed under his own direction at the Survey Laboratory, and especially designed to minimize loss of accuracy from the causes mentioned above.

OPERA COMPANY IS COMING BACK

Arrangements have been completed by word over the week-end whereby the Boston English Opera Company will stop in the city en route back to Boston from Nova Scotia on Thursday evening, the 20th, when they will sing Ballo's grand old classic "The Bohemian Girl," with an all-star cast. There will be no matinee, as the company will arrive by Digby boat. In the past the "Bohemian Girl" has usually been entrusted to relief singers and understudies by representative opera companies, but in the approaching presentation of the famous work Helene Morrill, Mr. Arnold, the tenor; Mr. Orchard, the basso; Mr. King, brilliant baritone; Miss Bott, contralto; and the other "leads," who made such a fine impression in "Il Trovatore," will sing the principal roles. New scenery will grace the settings and music-lovers may be assured of a highly artistic revival of the romantic music-story of Count Arminio's kidnapped child. Mail orders will be filled from now on in the order of their receipt.

CONFERENCE ON SUSSEX PROTEST

Meeting in Fredericton This Afternoon—Suggestion of Application for Membership in Canadian Association.

Fredericton, N. B., March 20—Max Mowat of Campbellton, vice-president of the N. B. and P. E. I. Amateur Hockey Association, is due here this afternoon to have conferences with Dr. Allan Sterling, the president, and Sandy Staples, who was referee of the Sussex-Charlottetown game at Sussex in the league play-off. The Sussex Hockey club carried an appeal from the decision made on their protest by President Sterling. Sussex took the ground that there was no reason for upholding a decision by a referee upon interpretation of the rules when he was admittedly in error, although it was true that on question of fact the referee's judgment was final. The executive considered the matter at a meeting at Moncton last Friday, but final decision was postponed until today. The deciding vote seems to rest with Vice-President Mowat.

The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association at their annual meeting in Toronto this afternoon will have a message from Dr. Sterling notifying the organization that the N. B. and P. E. I. association will seek membership before another playing season with possibility of participation in the play-off for the Allan cup.

"The action which is being taken by the N. B. and P. E. I. A. H. A. is the result of dissatisfaction with the present control over hockey exercised by the maritime branch of the A. A. U. of C.," so the Gloucester says today. "Correspondence which has been going on between Dr. Sterling and President Granger of the C. A. H. A. showing that membership in the C. A. H. A. would put amateur hockey in the maritime provinces under the direct control of the C. A. H. A. and that the days of dues, sanctions and similar tributes to the M. P. B. A. U. of C. would be over."

THE BADMINTON CHAMPIONSHIPS

The badminton championships for the Army Badminton Association were concluded on Saturday afternoon before a good gallery, when in the mixed doubles Miss A. McLeod and John Hollister defeated Miss B. Refreshments were served at the close.

SPRING DEBILITY

Loss of Appetite, That Tired Feeling and Sometimes Eruptions. Thousands take Hood's Sarsaparilla as spring medicine for that tired feeling, nervous weakness, impure blood and say it makes them feel better, eat and sleep better, and "makes food taste good." Spring debility is a condition in which it is especially hard to combat disease germs, which invade the system here, there and everywhere. The white blood corpuscles, sometimes called "the little soldiers" in the blood, because it is their duty to fight disease germs, are too weak to do good service. Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens the "little soldiers" and enables them to rapid germs, grip, influenza, fevers and other ailments; relieves catarrh and rheumatism. It has given satisfaction to three generations. Get it today, and for a laxative take Hood's Pills.

THE TREATMENT OF PRISONERS

Every Province Should Have Indeterminate Sentence and Parole System.

(Montreal Gazette).
Agencies that are in operation in the province of Ontario for the cure of the criminal, were reviewed by Dr. Alfred P. Lavell of Toronto, secretary of the Ontario Parole Commission, in addressing the Young Men's Canadian Club in the Windsor Hotel last night. There were three ways in which a man might find himself out of prison, legally outside, though not pardoned. There was the Ticket-of-Leave Act still operating, a dominion law, under which a man could be freed on condition of reporting to police authorities. That act had been valuable when first introduced, but fault was that it had remained as it was. Then there was the indeterminate sentence law, under which a definite sentence of three months up to an undetermined period not exceeding two years less one day, could be passed; and then there was parole, by which the parole commission had power to release a man provisionally under special supervision. The speaker explained how this board, of which he was secretary, operates, and he declared that a prisoner did not need a lawyer, money or influence to be brought before the parole board. A case was raised as to whether it was in the interests both of the individual and of society that a man should be allowed to complete his sentence outside prison walls, if a man was never paroled unless there was guarantee of employment, and every man who was sent back to prison had the right of appeal to a board, composed of eight prominent citizens and one woman. The parole work had been successful to the extent of ninety-two per cent, and in the last two years there had only been eight per cent. of failures.

ST. JOHN WILL NOT BE IN THE CIRCUIT

Joe Page Announces That Plans for This City to be in Eastern Canada League Have Not Materialized.

Joe Page, who was in the city on Saturday, said that hopes of having St. John included in the Eastern Canadian Baseball circuit have now filtered away, much to his regret. Mr. Page has been working on this project for many weeks. In Upper Canada and here he started an organization which involved a great deal of work consulting those interested and perfecting plans. A few weeks ago conditions in this city were apparently favorable for representation in the new league. The matter was taken up with John Russell, but the unfortunate circumstances of Mr. Russell's illness made it necessary for him to abandon his interest in the project. Mr. Page took the matter up with St. Peter's in hope of interesting that organization to link-up and represent St. John in the new circuit, the games to be played on St. Peter's

FOR five years Worthington travelled the highways and byways, setting his nets in the currents of business. And his catches were increasing in size and importance.

The clear head and steady hand of Johnson, his partner, put his orders through the factory for a profit. They were well on the road to prosperity.

But now Johnson is gone. The factory that worked smoothly under his guidance has lost something in efficiency. Someone must take his place.

Worthington decided to come in off the road and to hire someone to take the orders—to reap where he had sown. But the new man didn't seem to have any luck, so Worthington got another idea: He would spend half of his time inside and the other half on the road.

The latter scheme didn't seem to work either. The books showed losses week after week. Down, down went the business, and shortly the "Factory for Sale" sign was hung out.

Someone could have taken Johnson's place—no man is indispensable. Worthington knew of a good, proved man—but a high-priced one. "If I only had ten thousand dollars cash I could tempt him," Worthington had said. But he didn't have the ready money, the business went to smash and he had to start anew.

Business Life Insurance would have saved this business, as it has saved others. Ask us to send you our booklet which tells all about it.

On his arrival here on Saturday Mr. Page announced that St. John would be out of the circuit for this year at least. The other clubs in the league are Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Sherbrooke and Three Rivers.

CRITICAL WEEK IN INDIAN AFFAIRS

London, March 20—The Delhi correspondent of the London Times under date of Saturday, referring to the conclusion of five days discussion in the second stage of the budget, says that undoubtedly the next week will be the most critical in the history of the reform schemes in India. The democrats threaten refusal to support taxation amounting to eleven crores, partly in protest against the military budget. The items most likely to be rejected relate to machinery, cotton and Indian produced kerose. If the nationalists join with the democrats other items which will probably be rejected are the salt tax and yarn duty.

This, says the correspondent, consequently can create a deadlock, leading to serious results.

THE COUNCIL AND HYDRO

It is not surprising that citizens are growing impatient with the city council in regard to the hydro question. It is quite incorrect to say that the citizens are going ahead too fast. The city council has been too slow. As the civic elections are at hand it is right and proper to call for a show-down, and nothing short of a clear statement of his views by each member of the council will satisfy the electors. The latter know what they want, and it is that that the city receive the full benefit of the hydro development at Musquash. Early in January the Hydro Electric Commission submitted a tentative contract to the city council. There were just two things required of the council. One was to get the best possible bargain with the commission for the delivery of power at the sub-station in Fairville, and the other was to find out the cost of a civic distribution system which would give consumers the full benefit of the contract. So far as the record goes the council has not betrayed any marked eagerness to make a contract with the commission for the power; nor did it at once take steps to learn the cost of a distribution system. When it did take action in the matter it was backed up with a wholly unnecessary and unwarranted enquiry as to the ability of the New Brunswick Power Company to distribute the current. From the very beginning City Hall has conveyed the impression that it regarded the power company as a necessary party to the agreement. Because of that apparent attitude the citizens have grown more and more dissatisfied, and if any gentleman at City Hall, or any prospective candidate for a seat in the council, believes they are not dissatisfied he is very ill-informed. However great his prestige as a citizen, if he is not sound on this vital question involving the industrial future of St. John, he cannot expect popular support; and to be sound on the question he must take the time that it will be time enough to listen to the power company when we know at what approximate price a civic distribution system can deliver light and power to the consumer. The suggestion that because the New Brunswick Power Company owns a street railway and gas plant, it must therefore be given the benefit of the Musquash development will not get votes in the civic elections. What St. John wants more than anything else is cheap light and power. Given these, it can solve other problems as they arise, and it wants the light and power free from any contract with a third party that would prejudice its interests two or three or a dozen years hence. If, therefore, the city fathers were well-advised they will show a little more interest in getting an agreement with the Hydro Electric Commission for the required quantity of power, and make clear their attitude in regard to distribution. It is rumored that some members of the council favor a deal with the power company, regardless of relative cost of distribution. If it is true the electors ought to know, and if it is not true it should be denied. The council has had before it since early in January the most important business it has been called on to transact for many years, and yet on the eve of the elections it is without a policy. The plain question to be decided has been obscured by dragging in that of the ability of the government of the province to fulfil a contract, and by bringing the New Brunswick Power Company in as a third party in the case when its only justification for being considered at all would be a definite offer more favorable to the city than civic distribution would ensure, having regard not merely for the present but for the future. If the city council is well-advised it will get down to business. There has been more than enough time to get all necessary information and formulate a policy.

PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS.

Rev. Father Tompkins, in his address to the Rotary Conference, made short work of the argument of the people cannot afford to provide for education. He submitted a list of figures showing the amount of money spent in the United States for luxuries, such as tobacco, chewing gum, face powder and a few others and then quoted the expenditure for education, which was amazingly small by comparison. The most interesting part of his address, however, dealt with the experiment of providing a people's school at Antigonish. To this school last year and this year came grown men, some of them past fifty years of age, to broaden their knowledge, and it was proved conclusively that such men can learn. No student was compelled to take any one subject, and yet in a course in literature there was almost perfect attendance. The farmer, the miner, the artisan, were alike keen for study, and Father Tompkins read a number of letters from students showing how greatly they appreciated the opportunity. One asserted that he had gained more real knowledge in one course than in his whole time at school, though he perhaps overlooked the fact that his school training gave him the groundwork for later study. The important fact emphasized by Father Tompkins was that men with even a little knowledge gained at school in early life can learn rapidly in classes with the right type of teacher, and that thus their whole outlook on life is broadened, they acquire a taste for reading and study at home, and become better and more intelligent citizens. He pointed out that seventy per cent. of our people get only a sixth grade education; and hence the need of people's schools where for a short course grown people may go and get such an intellectual awakening as will change their whole outlook and enable them to live fuller lives. Such schools would be a boon in every county or large community. The experiment at Antigonish has attracted much attention in the United States and England. But Father Tompkins touched upon another matter of great importance, and that was the question of a great university for the maritime provinces. He made a comparison which showed how unfavorably we compare in that respect with other countries. Colleges we have in plenty, but the great university is yet to come, and in his view must come if we are to complete our educational system. Rotarians from half a dozen cities and towns in the provinces heard with intense interest the message of Father Tompkins, and it cannot but have a good effect. He is making a splendid contribution to the cause of education.

INTERESTING FIGURES

An examination of a table in the annual report of the schools of New Brunswick reveals the fact that our population has shown little increase in ten years. In the June term last year the total enrollment in the schools of the province was 68,092. In the June term of 1911 it was 68,078, but away back in 1899 it was 69,536; and it may be assumed that today the proportion of children of school age enrolled in the schools is larger than it was twenty-two years ago. Hence there has been little real growth in the number of children of school age in that period. The figures for the towns are worth noting. Taking the December term in 1911-12 and 1920-21 we find the relative enrollment as follows:

	1911-12	1920-21
St. John	7,423	8,684
Fredericton	1,817	1,640
Moncton	2,056	3,038
St. Stephen	504	516
Millville	280	315
Woodstock	628	704
Marysville	321	310
Campbellton	425	1,088
Chatham	311	786
Newcastle	601	595
Sussex	859	482
St. Andrews	199	282
Shediac	235	382
Sackville	419	570
St. George	233	267
Grand Falls	271	414

The figures for Devon last term were 389, Becharof, 379; Edmundston, 468. Looking over the table it is seen that some towns have less pupils in school than they had ten years ago; others have been almost stationary; and even St. John showed little more gain than Moncton, which with Campbellton makes much the best showing. Of course if compulsory attendance were the rule throughout the province there would be a larger total enrollment, but the figures when compared show very clearly that this province is not holding its natural growth of population. Such increase in enrollment as there has been is found chiefly in some of the cities and towns. A consideration of these figures makes it very clear that this province not only needs immigrants but the fulfilment of the pledges of confederation, so that its resources may be developed and it may be able to offer its sons and daughters such advantages as will keep them at home.

LONG-LIVED LAWYERS.

They and Artists Outlive Members of Other Professions. Do lawyers live longer than men who follow other professions? The death of Lord Halsbury, a former Lord Chancellor, at the age of ninety-eight, and that of Lord Lindley, another famous lawyer, in his ninety-fourth year, suggests that they do, says The-Bits. Lord Trevelin, the Lord Chief Justice, is seventy-eight, while both Lord Sturdee, the Master of the Rolls, and Mr. Justice Darling are seventy-two. Other legal men who seem to defy old age and lead vigorous lives are Sir Edward Clarke, the oldest member of the English Bar, who is nearly eighty-one; Lord Wrenbury, the Chancery Judge, who is seventy-six, and Lord Loreburn, an ex-Lord Chancellor, who is seventy-five. Artists also are long-lived folk, for W. W. Oules is seventy-three, Sir Luke Fildes seventy-seven, Sir Thomas Brock seventy-four, Frank Dicksee sixty-eight, Benjamin Leader ninety, Sir Thomas Jackson eighty-six, and Sir Hamo Thornycroft seventy-one.

How Much Will You Give on Wednesday? It is not a question of will you give—but how much will you give? That is what will interest the Y. M. C. A. canvasser when he calls on Wednesday next. $5,000 is needed. 3-20.

THE FLOWER MAIDEN.

Oh, where did you gather such fair fresh flowers,
And where did they blossom, my
The flower maiden?
They lived in the sunshine and nursed
In the showers,
And soothed to their sleep by the birds' serenade.

Deep down in the woods by the banks
Of the stream,
High up the hills where the winds
are at play,
Far out on the plain where the slack
waters gleam,
'Twas there that I sought them since breaking of day.

Oh, what will ye do with your blossoms
so fine,
And what will ye do with your blossoms
so fair?
Oh, many a garden I hope to entwine
In the silken mesh of my bonny brown hair.

Yet tell me, sweet maiden, for much do I muse,
Which of your blossoms you mostly do
prize,
And which of their wonderful petals you choose
To match with the glow of your innocent eyes.

And tell me what odorous flowers you shall seek?
Not roses shall vie with your willow grace,
Nor roses shall blush with the rose in
your cheek,
Nor shall you shine with the light of
your face.

Whatever is fairest, whatever is best in bloom
of the garden, the forest, the streams,
Whatever is purest to lay on your breast,
Shall fade in the glow of your wonderful dreams.

Whatever is fairest, whatever is pure,
Of these ye shall weave in a crown for your head.
Though well do I know it, they cannot endure
To be worn in the light of the smiles that ye shed.

Oh, tell me, sweet maid, by what mystic charm
Amid these rare blossoms you surely shall find,
One worthy the holiest shrine of your heart,
Might match in its pureness, your virgin mind.

LIGHTER VEIN.

A Winces. A young but exceptionally brilliant professor in a western college was dismissed from the faculty because of his inordinate betting. The president, interested in the case, secured him a position in an eastern college. To the president there he wrote: "The young man has a promising future, and anything you can do to cure him of betting will be a benefit to society."

The professor went east, and was cordially received. Conversation had just proceeded in a friendly way when he said to the president, "I'll bet you seventy-five dollars you have a wart between your eyes."

The president hesitated. "Young man,"
he said, "I never bet, but just to teach you a lesson I will take you up."
His hesitating reluctance to the young man's satisfaction that he was in error,
and the professor paid the seventy-five.
The president went west relating the incident, concluding—"I hope that I have cured him."

The other wrote back—"I fear the case is hopeless. The greatest old gentleman, you want to marry by daughter,
here he bet me one hundred dollars that
he could make you take off your shirt."

Water in Water-Melons. A certain man has a wonderful garden, where he grows water-melons. One day he put the water in the water-melons?
a facetious friend asked him,
"Oh, I plant the seeds in the spring,"
he said.

Writing to Overlook. "What said the oldest gentleman, 'you want to marry by daughter,'
here he bet me one hundred dollars that
he could make you take off your shirt."

A Fair Exchange. A rich elderly bachelor named Page dropped the glove of a charming young lady and returned it with this note:
"If from your glove you take the letter

for thee."

In reply the young woman wrote:
"If from your name you take the letter
p, then give me age, and that won't do for me."

A CHILD WONDER. IS MURIEL KERR
(Ottawa Journal). Their Excellencies the governor General and Lady Byng have graciously extended their patronage to a recital to be given by little Muriel Kerr, in the Russell Theatre, Friday evening, March 24.
No child pianist of Anglo-Canadian birth has, in modern times, created such a sensation as this little child wonder pianist, ten years of age. Muriel was born in 1911 and has studied piano work for only a few short years. She plays the best composition of the great masters, including Mendelssohn, Chopin, Bach, Liszt, Beethoven, as well as modern composers. By her beauty of tone, romantic vision and emotional power she establishes a strong communicative sympathy with her audiences.

Only recently when playing for Frey Trainger, he pronounced her the child genius of the age and expressed come in a few years one of the world's greatest pianists.

GRASSHOPPERS ALREADY.
Many Appear on Hills North of Brandon.
Brandon, Man., March 18.—As the result of the warm sunbath of the past few days, hundreds of grasshoppers are out on the southern slopes of the hills north of the city. A good frost would kill many of these little destroyers of the wheat crop which have made their appearance unusually early this season.

With one leg broken and his skull fractured, Nat Capitan, an Italian, residing at 200 Market square, West End, was rushed to the General Public Hospital at 8:50 o'clock yesterday morning and now lies there in a critical condition as the result of falling almost forty feet to the bottom of the hold of the C. P.
liner Sicilian, on which steamer he was working at the time of the accident.
Capitan, who is married and has three children, is not expected to live.

CHALLENGE TO LABOR LECTURER

Henry Somerville, of Oxford, Promptly Accepted Invitation of Marxian—Spoke on Catholic Work.

(Montreal Gazette.) It became evident last night that the presence in Montreal of Henry Somerville, M. A., of Oxford, a lecturer in economics, regarded as a change. At the conclusion of his lecture on "Labor Colleges," delivered in the Bourget Academy, Mountain street, under the auspices of the Loyola School of Sociology and Social Service, when the meeting was open to general discussion, there arose a man, who afterwards was identified by his name, answered, "Call me Jimmie Higgins," and promptly drew to the attention of the audience that there now exists in this city a labor college, The Montreal Labor College, at 70 Jeanne Mance street, which he described as a college "where economics are taught to workers from a different angle, and not from the religious viewpoint. There are lectures along the Marxian theory and on revolutionary theories. We invite Mr. Somerville to visit the Montreal Labor College and address the revolution workers. We may teach him something. Particularly addressing the organizers responsible for last night's lecture, Mr. Higgins added: "We may come to teach you how to run your own school of sociology." In reply to this challenge, Mr. Somerville said that if anything were required to supplement his lecture and to provide the necessary foundation for following Catholic principles, it had been stated by the speaker who followed. Mr. Somerville promptly accepted the invitation to speak at the Montreal Labor College, and as Wednesday night was free, said he would be glad to go down on that evening. He added that when confronted by the revolutionary workers he would like to show them they were on the wrong road.

Undoubtedly the lecturers or visitors before the Loyola School have been pleasant family affairs, but last night in addition to the representative of The Montreal Labor College, who had come prepared with a supply of literature, other speakers rose from the floor, asked questions, and imparted information, ranging from the advanced of socialism to the apathy of the masses. Mr. Somerville answered all questions, and proved quite adept in facing the various queries raised.

Mr. Somerville has come to Montreal after delivering a series of lectures at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish. He is about to return to Oxford, where he is associated with the Catholic Workers' College, established there in conjunction with the university, and designed to provide bright men in trades and professions with the opportunity of obtaining such education as will best them to accept leadership in their organizations, and to qualify themselves for public life.

His theistic pronouncement in this subject of the lecture delivered last night. In his introductory remarks, Mr. Somerville said that the idea was to have been founded following the organization of the other similar institutions, the Catholic Workers' College, and the latter were being selected for these institutions, many of them possessing but scant early education, and all destined to become leaders. It was somewhat of a sacrifice for men to attend these colleges, because they had to sacrifice two years of their earning period. Their reward would come later by leadership in the labor movement.

The whole labor movement in England is becoming more and more Catholic. It looks to the country. It knows it hasn't got the men. It is spending money in training the younger men so that they may be ready for government. Labor has no illusions as to its lack in this regard."

Frank Hodges, secretary of the Young Federation of Great Britain, was quoted to the effect that labor will not gain power by education, but only when the public has become irritated through some crime and then, probably will not long remain in power.

Mr. Somerville drew a distinction between the Ruskin College and the Labor College. He said that he attended the former usually had their socialistic tendencies tempered and left sobered at the end of two years. At London they kept free from the connection with the universities regarding the latter as capitalistic. They were frankly sectarian, even to the extent of preparing their own text books. They get a certain amount of education for revolution and trained their students as leaders for class struggle. A great deal of the unrest in England was due to the propagandists from these labor colleges. Sir Basil Thompson, until recently in charge of political investigations at Scotland Yard, and his members had attributed the spread of Bolsheviki ideas in England to the influences of these educated labor men. Dr. Shadwell drew attention to the fact that the young college-trained men by virtue of their superior intelligence and intellectual training secured an influence in the trade unions out of all proportion to their numbers.

The Catholic Worker. This led Mr. Somerville to a consideration of the subject from the standpoint of Roman Catholics in England and their realization that the save their members from the labor classes from such influences of leadership it was necessary to secure counter influences. They had established social study clubs and then found it necessary to establish a residential college. The organization had been a memorial to the late Father Charles Plater, who furnished the inspiration, but who died before seeing his idea in being. There had been many difficulties in organization. Funds were limited, and it was necessary to build for themselves in lodgings in Oxford. They were well equipped with tutors, when the real work is done at Oxford. They had started on friendly relations with Ruskin, but their intimate studies were carried out under Catholic principles.

The whole broad question of special education was discussed by Mr. Somerville, who touched upon the fact that for years the Socialists had been regarded as the great men, because they had studied and had become fluent in expounding their theories. "But soon the Catholics will be ready to go out on the street corners," he said.

"I have been reading of the early foundations of Oxford," said Mr. Somerville, "and found that they, too, began in a very humble way. I found too, that their principles could be accepted by us today as charters without change."

POLICEMEN ON SKATES.

They Patrol Park Lakes to Keep Skaters Out of Danger.

Everybody who is fond of skating and other winter sports cannot go to St. Moritz or Canada for his fun. Yet when the weather is cold enough there are plenty of places in the city and its vicinity where the skating is excellent. These are city park lakes, and lakes and ponds in New Jersey and Connecticut that are within easy commuting distance of the city, says the New York Times.

On pleasant afternoons the surfaces on these lakes are thronged with many men, women and children of all ages. This season the women are displaying bewitching and attractive costumes, and it is surprising how many feminine skaters there are who in grace and skill on the ice outdo the men. The number of fancy skaters has increased materially, and this paragon of the ice is an often following in the footsteps of the founders of Oxford. We are founding a new Oxford Movement that is going to be as important as any Oxford movement of the past."

APPEAL WITHOUT COSTS SECURITY

Winnipeg Widow Succeeds in Application to Privy Council—Precedent Established.

A Winnipeg widow's petition to appeal to the Privy Council without furnishing the usual security for cost was presented to the judicial committee of the Privy Council last week by Geoffrey Lawrence for the petitioner, Mrs. Amelia McColl, whose husband, an employe of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, was killed in a train wreck. Leave had been obtained from the Manitoba Court of Appeal to appeal to the Privy Council on the question of compensation, but the petitioner had failed to find security for the costs of the appeal, and now asked permission from the Privy Council to appeal without it.

Lord Haldane remarked that there might be important points of law involved, therefore there might be parties who quite legitimately supported this lady because they wished the matter to be tried out as much as she did. It would be a little hard on the railway company, His Lordship said, if the appeal should take place in London on the terms that the company would not get its costs even if it succeeded.

Mr. Lawrence said the petitioner had no means whatever to prosecute the appeal. Lord Phillimore asked how she had contrived to conduct the litigation thus far.

Mr. Lawrence pointed out that the costs of fighting the case in the Manitoba courts, naturally, were much less than those of fighting the case in London. The fact was, Mr. Lawrence continued, he had been approached as a personal matter by a well-known member of the Canadian Bar, who had sought his interest in promoting the petition.

Counsel for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company submitted that, if the case were of such importance as was suggested, there were bodies in the industrial world who might be expected to assist in promoting the appeal on the usual lines.

Lord Haldane, giving judgment, said the points of law upon which the opinion of the Privy Council was sought were in themselves important. Their Lordships of the Privy Council, he said, thought the petitioner ought to be permitted to appeal under the circumstances although their Lordships were quite conscious of the hardship this might involve to the other side in having to pay the costs even if successful. However, he continued, this result of such procedure in certain instances entered into the very bones of the law.

This judgment is regarded as exceedingly important in that it establishes a precedent in the case of appeals from Canadian courts.

The judgment delivered in the Manitoba courts by Mr. Justice J. E. P. Frensdorff on the McColl vs. Canadian Pacific Railway case was of far-reaching importance inasmuch as it constituted a ruling on the effect of the Workmen's Compensation Act upon other compensating acts when dependents of the workman are plaintiffs. His Lordship found: No right at any time, in case of death of a workman, for his dependents to claim damages at common law. No right ever existed for dependents of a

THE METAGAMA MADE FAST TIME

The C. P. liner Metagama arrived yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock from Liverpool and Glasgow docked at No. 2 and 8 berths, Sand Point. She carried 252 cabin and 461 third-class passengers in addition to a fair sized general cargo and a consignment of royal mail. This is the first appearance of this liner in this port for more than two months, as she has been in drydock at Glasgow undergoing her annual overhauling and inspection. This is a new route for this liner as she was formerly in the direct Liverpool service.

The steamer made a fast trip this time as she sailed from Liverpool on March 11 and took only eight days for the voyage. She only encountered rough weather on one day and the rest of the trip was made under good steaming conditions. The presence of ice compelled the vessel to take the most southerly route, which added nearly a day to the length of the voyage, although no large quantities of ice were sighted. The Metagama was in charge of Captain A. Rennie, formerly of the steamer Corsican, who is making his first round trip in charge of this liner. A feature of the voyage was the birth of a baby early yesterday morning. The mother, who is not very well, was removed to the General Public Hospital immediately upon the steamer's arrival here. Outside of this birth the voyage was uneventful.

More than half of the passengers on the steamer are returning to Canada after visiting various parts of Great Britain, while most of the others are coming to Canada for the first time. The cabin and the larger portion of the third-class passengers got away to their various destinations on two special trains which left last evening at 9:15 and 10:15 o'clock, respectively.

The only passenger on board from the maritime provinces was G. E. Roberts, of Halifax. Among the prominent arrivals were: A. W. Atwater, K. C., of Montreal; Lieutenant V. G. Brodeur, of Ottawa; Dr. C. R. Fisher, of Hamilton; Dr. J. H. McKay, of Berwick, Scotland; Dr. and Mrs. A. Stewart, of Montreal; and R. J. McKay, of New York.

Two Shipwrecked Crews.

Also on board were the crews of two schooners which foundered in the Atlantic. The crew and captain of the Lunenburg schooner Kathleen Spindler foundered on the voyage from the Bahamas to Lunenburg, and the captain and crew of the Newfoundland schooner Valerie, which was lost on her trip from Spain to St. John's, comprised the thirteen mariners who arrived yesterday. The crew of the Kathleen Spindler comprised Captain Alvin Spindler, Foster Corburn, James Keddy, Ronald Lohnes, Percy Jennings, Scott Miller and Frank McNeil. Their vessel sprang a leak and they were compelled to take to the boats, being picked up by the Argalia and taken to London, from which point they came to St. John on the Metagama. They left for their homes in Lunenburg today.

A traveller who has covered more than 600,000 miles in his career arrived yesterday afternoon on the Metagama in the person of Commander A. Bates, anti-air general of the world-wide activities of the Salvation Army. He is in

JOHN J. GRAY.

"The best investment I ever made in my life was when I bought Tanlac. I have not only recovered my health, but I have also gained twenty-five pounds in weight and feel just bristling with new life and energy," said John J. Gray, 1830 Holywood St., Philadelphia, Pa., a popular salesman at George's Clothing Store.

"When I began taking Tanlac I had been in failing health for some time as a result of stomach trouble and indigestion. I missed many meals rather than suffer the discomfort I knew was to follow if I ate anything at all. I suffered especially from shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart. Frequent dizzy spells and headaches added to my discomfort, and I was so nervous I got little rest either day or night. "Since Tanlac toned up my stomach I am like a new man in every way and eat, sleep, work and feel better than in years."

Tanlac is sold by The Ross Drug Co., Ltd., and F. W. Munro, and by leading druggists everywhere.

Canada on a tour of inspection. Commander Bates was in charge of a party of thirty-nine immigrants. He said last evening that his duties in this country would be mostly in connection with immigration. This is his twenty-seventh trip to Canada, he has circled the globe several times, and has visited all the larger countries on the earth.

Another Salvation Army officer who arrived on the Metagama was Colonel A. N. Hipsley, who is also connected with the auditing department of the army. He has spent more than thirty-four years in missionary work in India. Commander Bates and his party left on the special train last night for Montreal.

Does Your Stomach Let You Sleep

Simple Intestinal Antiseptic Will Remove Gas and Sourness and Give Stomach a Rest

"I have received wonderful improvement from Adierka (intestinal antiseptic). I can sleep ALL NIGHT now, something I could not do for years." (Signed) Cora E. Noblett. Note: Sleeplessness is often caused by gases and sour decaying food in the system, which should be brought out. Intestinal Antiseptic. There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adierka, acts as follows: It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here. It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowels and removing foul matter which poisoned the system for months and which nothing else can dislodge. It brings out all gases, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adierka draws from the alimentary canal—matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter it brings out which was

RING OF THIEVES IN RAILWAY THEFTS

Detectives, Saloon Keepers, Merchants, Chauffeurs and Farmers Indicted—Robbed Freight Cars. Buffalo, N. Y., March 20.—Thefts of merchandise from New York Central Railroad cars on an enormous scale resulted in the indictment of several detectives, saloon keepers, railroads, and farmers, who are alleged to have made up a ring of thieves and "fences" that handled goods worth $2,000,000 a year for the last three years.

NEWSPAPER WORK FIELD FOR WOMEN

Editors, Guests at Luncheon, Show Recognition of the Changing Conditions. (Toronto Mail and Empire.) It was the contention of C. A. C. Jennings, his address yesterday before the Toronto Women's Press Club at their luncheon held in honor of the men editors of the city, that the present is an age in which women have developed themselves and are proving capable in the various professions hitherto reserved exclusively for men. Women, he considered, were grasping the realities in newspaper work and were dealing with social subjects in a human rather than a sensational way. Len years ago Lord Northcliffe had made a statement that the circulation of newspapers was extended by the presence of women writers and that the appointment of women to the editorial staffs was greatly increased. Mr. Jennings complimented the Women's Press Club on their active interest in journalism.

BAD HALIFAX FIRE

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Halifax, N. S., March 19.—Four families were burned out and property damage of $25,000 was caused this afternoon by a fire in the building at 417 Barrington street. The lower floor was occupied by the Merit Clothing Company and H. V. McLeod, Jeweller. Smoke and gas also caused damage to The Vogue, a ladies' wear store, the A B C Store, the Maritime Dental Parlors adjoining. The various merchant firms' losses are covered by insurance but the four families burned out had no insurance. A fire occurred in the same building some weeks ago.

NEGOTIATIONS HAVE BEEN BROKEN OFF

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Sydney, N. S., March 19.—Because the concessions made by further negotiations might be construed as "further crawling" on the part of the company, officials of the Dominion Coal Company have broken negotiations over difficulties at mines Nos. 6 and 7 at Springhill, according to Robert Baxter, president of the United Mines Workers, District 26. The trouble at these two collieries has been going on for more than a year. One conciliation board reported on the affair, but the report was never adopted. When the Gillen board met at Halifax, it was admitted that a settlement could be reached without much trouble, and Mr. Baxter and J. J. McDougall for the company were ready to fix things up, with the result stated by Mr. Baxter.

DIVORCE CUSTOM DEFIED

Japanese Woman Sues Her Husband in Spite of Mrs. Grundy. The first Japanese woman to bring divorce proceedings against her husband is Mine Aki-ko, a cousin of the emperor and a well known authoress. Hitherto only men have been permitted to sue for divorce in the "Land of the Rising Sun," but Mine Aki-ko has revolted against an age-old custom, and her daring has caused considerable discussion. She was married to a very old man, who she has never loved, and whom she did not love, and who treated her in a manner that no western woman would tolerate. The majority of Japanese men and women are shocked at her bold step, and the women of the town of Fukuoka, where she lives, have expressed their thankfulness that she has left the town, "as her action corrupts the good manners of other women there."

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just plain Mulitised coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls of Mulitised will clean the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub in it. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine, sleek, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Mulitised coconut oil shampoo at its pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure you get Mulitised. Beware of cheap imitations for the name Wavens on the package.

HEARTBURN A SEVERE CASE

Many people are troubled with heartburn who really do not realize just what it is. In cases of this trouble there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by disturbed appetite. It is generally caused by great acidity of the stomach, and whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, causing heartburn. In such cases vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up is sour and sometimes bitter. The one way to get rid of heartburn is to keep your liver active by using MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles such as constipation, jaundice, water brash, floating spots before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, etc. Miss Agnes Cutting, Shallow Lake, Ont., writes: "I have had heartburn for a long time. There were gnawing and burning pains in my stomach, and when I vomited there was a sour and bitter taste. I used two vials of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of my heartburn. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine." Price, 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by T. T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PROBATE DECISION. Matter of Claim Against the Estate of Walter Leonard Bradley.

In the matter of the claim of Maria Morrissey against the estate of Walter Leonard Bradley judgment was given this morning by His Honor Judge McInerney in the Probate Court. This was a claim for services and compensation alleged to have been promised the claimant by the deceased. Mrs. Morrissey had lived with him for about eight years and had been responsible for his early upbringing, as the court said "certainly from the time his stepmother died and probably long before, since the deceased was a delicate woman. Mrs. Morrissey mothered the boy. She deserved every credit and indeed something more material. If Walter Bradley were here he might very well see that she received it. Indeed anyone knowing the circumstances would expect him to do so. "Whether I am in a position, however, to provide her with compensation," said the judge, "depends in my view upon whether there was an agreement for compensation between the claimant and Walter Bradley." Evidence as to certain statements made by the deceased as to caring for Mrs. Morrissey while he lived was given during the hearing. It was found by the court that the evidence did not disclose an intent upon Mr. Bradley's part to provide for the claimant after his death and judgment was given against the claimant against the validity of the claim. The balance of the undistributed estate is $7,000. M. B. Lines appeared for the claimant and J. H. A. L. Fairweather as proctor for the estate.

CROWDED COURT

Twelve Prisoners and a Room Full of Spectators This Morning.

The police court this morning presented a very crowded appearance both in the number in the dock and the large audience outside the railing. There were an even dozen men in the dock when court opened at ten o'clock and the magistrate took the opportunity to deliver a ten-minute lecture on the immorality of St. John giving some examples of things which he said he could prove had happened.

George Boasch pleaded not guilty to a charge of being drunk and not guilty of having broken and destroyed a spread in a room of the Asia hotel. Policeman Storey told of going into the Asia hotel last evening and seeing the accused under the influence of alcohol and having an argument with Lee Shue. Lee Shue said he rented a room to Boasch about 10 o'clock on Sunday morning. About 4:30 o'clock he went out but returned at about seven. In the meantime it was discovered that a glass pitcher had been broken and a hole burned in a spread in the room. When the defendant returned he asked for a scarf he left in the room and was accused of having destroyed the property. Just about this time the police arrived and he was arrested.

The defendant went on the stand and said that the spread had been burned when he got the room. He was remanded.

Eight men pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and were given their choice of $200 fines or eight months in jail. Capt. J. O. Farrow, of the steamer West Lashaway, bound from New York to Spain and Italy, appeared against Alberto Cecada, an Italian, and Henrique Radrigues, Portuguese, charged with being stowaways. He said that the men were on their way from New York to their own countries under orders from the United States immigration authorities. They will be held until the ship sails tomorrow.

Alexander C. Grant was before the magistrate this morning on a charge of bigamy. The charge was read to him and he was remanded. It is understood that the case against him will be started tomorrow morning.

In a case against William Speight, charged with selling liquor to Bruce Lovely, Lovely was recalled to the stand by W. M. Ryan, counsel for the prosecution. He said he had lived in St. John most of the time since 1916 and knew the North End well. He remembered going there with the liquor inspectors. He was not sure that it was Speight's shop he had been in. A witness in another shop told him something which led to his going into the shop in which he got his liquor.

In answer to E. S. Ritchie, for the defence, he said that his memory was not good that morning because he was suffering from "that poison." He did not know whether or not he had offered to give the inspectors information if they would let him go. He said they had promised to let him off at four o'clock in the afternoon if he would tell them where he got his liquor.

The case against Archie MacNeill and Walter Sproul, who are out on bail of $3,000 each on a charge of selling liquor, was postponed till this afternoon. W. M. Ryan, for the defence, J. Starr Tait also for the defence and E. J. Henneberry for the prosecution.

C. E. Staples Loses $5,000 in St. Stephen Theatre Fire—Is Now in the City.

The Bijou Theatre, which was destroyed by fire at St. Stephen on Saturday morning, was operated by Charles E. Staples of this city, a son of A. G. Staples. Mr. Staples, Jr., arrived in the city on Saturday evening and is now at his father's home in Press street. He has been located in the border town for the last eleven years.

In conversation with a Times reporter this afternoon, Mr. Staples said that his loss would be in the vicinity of $5,000, and, on account of the fact that much of the motion picture property is unsalable, his loss will be practically total. Regarding his plans for the future, he said that he had not yet made up his mind.

DR. ALLEN HOBEN'S WORK IN THE WEST

Dr. Allen Hoben, who is a brother of Mr. R. Robinson of this city, is now professor of sociology in Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota. During the month of February he delivered a series of four addresses in Plymouth Church School, Minneapolis, the subjects being: 1. What is childhood? 2. What are the problems of youth? 3. What should be the parents in the family group? 4. What should our children do? The series was a series of talks to parents and teachers on Childhood, Its Charms and Opportunities. Dr. Hoben was described in the Plymouth church school bulletin as foremost among the sociologists and psychologists of the northwest, and it also said of him: "Dr. Hoben has an A. B. and M. A. degree from New Brunswick University, a B. D. degree from Newton Theological Institute, and a Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. For many years he was pastor of the Baptist church of Detroit, and Professor of Practical Theology in the University of Chicago. As field director for the Juvenile Protective Association and as field director of the Y. M. C. A. Fifth Division American Expeditionary Forces, he secured first hand information on the very problems considered in this series of addresses. Among his writings are 'The Minister and the Boy and a Church School of Citizenship'."

Last month, also, Dr. Hoben was one of the speakers at the state convention of the Minnesota Y. M. C. A., and he is in great demand as a public speaker on subjects relating to youth and education. He has also been prominent in the tree-planting movement in the west.

Mr. Akceley's biggest was five feet five inches from head to feet, but the arm spread was seven feet eight inches. "My lion was a 'boma' lion. That means a lion that you lie in wait for, instead of a lion that you go after. I waited five nights for mine. We sat in a little thorn shelter, with the kill about a dozen feet in front. We could hear them near us for several nights, but they didn't come. Finally, on the last night, after the moon came up and the animals all came out, we could hear lions getting nearer. We heard the thump of their tread, for they weigh 400 pounds, and at last mine came out of the brush right in front of me. He looked as big as a house. He was suspicious, and sniffed at the kill and looked all around, and then I shot him. The shot hit his backbone, and he went down paralyzed, but just to make sure, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley fired after me. He had a lovely skin and mane." Miss Miller and the others ate their Christmas dinner in the jungle. It was an odd meal, a bit of gorilla, some elephant flesh and a lion heart, as well as beans. She didn't like the gorilla, said her conscience hurt her, it seemed so cannibalistic. She also felt a bit squeamish when they began to cut up the elephant. Q.—What is the number of cases of liquor and the value thereof in provincial warehouse at the present time?
 A.—1,799 cases duty paid; 10,514 cases in customs bonding warehouse, representing a value of $129,607.24.
 Q.—What is the average monthly sale thereof?
 A.—The average monthly sales since the commission began to function is $40,972.50.
 Q.—Does the commission consider it necessary to carry such a large stock in order to handle the sale thereof in strict accordance with the terms of the act?
 A.—No. But the act of 1919 made necessary for the commission to take over the entire stock on hand and transit held by the wholesale license vendors of the province. If the commission had been buying their initial stock direct from the distilleries in the countries of origin they would not have had so large a quantity on hand.

WOMAN LION KILLER SORRY FOR GORILLAS

Didn't Have Mean Faces, and She Squirmed at Eating One for Christmas — Shot the Only Elephant.

(New York Times.) Miss Martha Miller didn't exactly go to Africa to get a pair of elephant ears to make tea tables and an elephant foot to make a waste-paper basket, but while she was there she thought she might as well add these two useful articles to her sitting room, and she got them. It also happened that the elephant was the only one bagged on the expedition led by Carl E. Akceley of the American Museum of Natural History, but, as Miss Miller said, "I think it was mostly my good luck."

Be that as it may, Miss Miller was so successful in her first attempt at big-game hunting that the museum officials have nicknamed her the "Museum Diana," and the goddess of the hunt wouldn't have been at all chagrined to have Miss Miller named for her. She is twenty-three years old. With Carl Akceley, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley of Chicago, and six-year-old Alice Bradley, Miss Miller has just arrived from Africa after an expedition through the gorilla and lion country. Mr. Akceley went to get a group of gorillas for the new African Hall to be built back of the Roosevelt Memorial Hall on the Central Park West side of the museum. He got five of them, and when they are mounted they will make the best gorilla group in the country.

Jungle "Perfectly Lovely." They left New York last July, when it was hotter here than they found it at any time in Africa, and arrived in Cape Town late in August. The party went by railroad to Elizabethville, then up the Lufubo River on a boat through the jungle, a trip which Miss Miller described as "perfectly lovely." After journeying overland again to Lake Tanganyika, they went on another boat to the head, where they started on an eight-day journey on foot to Lake Kivu. "We had just made camp on the fourth day out when Mr. Bradley saw a herd of elephants," said Miss Miller. "We started after them, and forded small rivers on the backs of our porters. Finally, we got to our station below the elephants and waited until almost sundown for them to move down to us. When they got close enough Mr. Akceley told me I could have third shot. We were almost ready to shoot when I turned around and saw my gun-boy had put on my helmet, and that upset me more than the elephants. After two others had fired, I picked out my elephant and fired. I was the most surprised person there when he fell. All I could do was to jump up and down and say, 'I go him, I go him!'" They next went after gorillas, which, Miss Miller explained, live in the moun-

DOLLS HOSPITAL, 93 KENNEDY St. 21916-4-1

DR. CUMMING ON LEPROSY. Surgeon General Says the Disease is Still a Problem.

Though leprosy is comparatively rare in Continental United States, according to Surgeon-General Cummings of the U. S., it is still a public health problem of much greater seriousness than seems to be popularly supposed. Its virulence waxes and wanes in accordance with laws that are not known, and he says, "our present comparative immunity does not lessen the necessity for being on guard."

"In the past we have not escaped," he continues, in a bulletin of the Health Service on the disease. "In 1786 leprosy was so common in New Orleans that they had to be segregated in a leprosarium. In 1864, three per cent. of the population of the Hawaiian Islands were lepers. In 1890 California had to establish a leprosarium, and Louisiana and finally Massachusetts followed."

"In 1902 the Public Health Service found 278 lepers in the United States, 145 of whom had been born in this country, and seventy-three only of whom were under any restraint. Today, according to the best estimate obtainable, there are from 500 to 1,500 lepers in this country, a number of whom are known to have acquired the disease in the Philippines. When we acquired the Philippines several thousand lepers had been brought to this country, and still are segregated in a settlement at Cullon. Foci of the disease exist in the United States on the Pacific Coast, in the Northwest, in the Gulf States and along the Atlantic seaboard."

"It was not until 1889 that the United States government took its first steps to prevent lepers from coming to this country; and the preventive laws are now sufficiently explicit. Nevertheless, the long period during which the disease incubates before declaring itself makes it very difficult to shut out all potential lepers. To meet this difficulty the law provides that for three years after admission, any alien leper may be deported if the cause of the disease existed before he came to the United States. Within the United States lepers may not travel in interstate commerce except under permits prescribing special precautions to prevent the spread of the disease."

"Protection against the disease is rendered more difficult by the fact that leprosy is found in a very large portion of the habitable globe, ranging from Russia and Iceland to India and America, north and south, and that the ever-increasing ease of communication offers many facilities for its importation to the United States. Nine lepers were turned back at Quarantine during the fiscal year 1920-21."

"In February, 1919, Congress provided for a national home for lepers to be administered by the Public Health Service; but so strongly did various states object to the founding of such an asylum within their borders that it was not until four years later that the service was able to carry out the provisions of the act by acquiring the state leper home in Louisiana. Part of this home has been remodeled and work on the remaining necessary alterations and additions is proceeding.

"The gloomy outlook for lepers has recently been tinged with hope by the discovery of a mode of treatment involving the use of chaulmoogra oil, which for 200 years has been reported to be of beneficial effect for leprosy. Since 1912 a total of 183 patients have been paroled from the Kalaikolli Investigating Station of the Public Health Service in Hawaii (140 of them since July 9, 1919) as being apparently cured. Of those who have received the chaulmoogra oil derivatives only twelve (eight per cent) have returned for further treatment."

"While it is too early to say that a specific cure for the disease has been found, it is certain that the ethyl esters constitute a most valuable agent in the treatment of leprosy, especially for young persons and those in the early

BASKETBALL

Now Hold Cup.
By winning Saturday's game from the Provincial Normal School, the local High School team slipped one more tentative step above the Intercollegiate Basketball floor on Saturday afternoon when they defeated the Normal School by a score of 24 to 18.

As there was only one section this year the High School will take the cup. The standing of the league to date follows:
Won. Lost.
St. John High School..... 9 0
Provincial Normal School..... 8 3
Rothesay Collegiate School..... 2 8
Fredericton High School..... 1 8

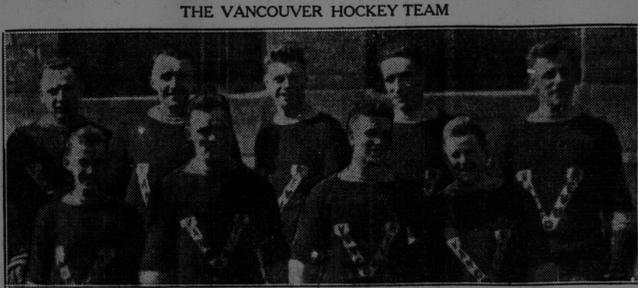

S. J. H. S. Team Champions.
The St. John High School's strong team clinched the 1922 Intercollegiate basketball title on the Y. M. C. A. floor on Saturday afternoon when they defeated the Provincial Normal School, handing them a 24 to 18 licking. One more game remains on High School's schedule—that with Rothesay—and if they win, they will have completed the season without a single defeat—which is something no other team in the city can say. Half-time score was 28 to 14, with the crowd finding little to enthuse over as the High School machine rolled up the counts. They are a hefty crew and there are few who have seen them in action but would back them against any intermediate team in the Dominion.

Previous to this game, the Y. M. C. A. Outlaws took on the Y. M. C. A. Business Boys and to the general surprise of the gallery, the Outlaws were beaten, 23 to 18. The Business Boys had been beaten twice by the Outlaws and Saturday's result upset the dope.
R. C. S., 24; St. George's, 13.

The Rothesay Collegiate School quintet defeated the St. George's A. A. C. team of West St. John by the score of 24 to 18 in an exhibition game of basketball on the Rothesay floor on Saturday afternoon.
An excellent card is being offered basketball fans on the Y. M. C. A. floor on Wednesday next when the Intermediate Celtics from Moncton would play the Y. M. C. A. Intermediates. Two other games are scheduled between the Sparks and the Young Ladies League team from the Y. M. C. A. and the High School 1922 champions and a team of "Old Boys." Numbered amongst the old boys are "Beef" Malcolm, the Trojan star, as centre; Leslie Kerr and Murray Nixon, as defence; and Robertson and Millage as forwards.

English Defeat Scottish.
Glasgow, March 19—(Canadian Press Cable)—An inter-league match here Saturday, when the English defeated the

The Vancouver "Millionaires" are in Toronto to play off with St. Patrick's for the Stanley Cup, emblematic of the professional hockey championship of the world. The players from left to right are: Ernie Parkes, Art Duncan, Lloyd Cook, (Captain), Jack Adams, Alf Skinner, Hugh Lehman, "Mickey" McKay, Charlie Tobin and Eddie Ostman.

Scottish three to none, opened quietly, each side alternately testing the other's goal-keeper. The first work of the English halves spoiled several Scottish attacks, then the Englishman got going, their forwards attacking in dazzling style. Chambers, the centre forward, scored. The visitors now showed marked superiority in all departments, and the Scottish defence proved unequal to the task of stemming their persistent and strenuous attacks. Smith, the English left wing, quickly added a second goal, and at the interval the game stood England 2, Scotland 0. With resumption of play, Scotland showed improvement, but they were pitted against a stone wall defence. Lucas, Wadsworth and Smith, right half, were magnificent. With the addition of the third goal by Chambers, the game was as good as over, but the Scottish defence was harassed to the end of play.

Two Rounds on Home Courts.
New York, March 20.—The executive of the United States Lawn Tennis Association has sent cablegrams to all challenging nations in the Davis cup matches offering to have the first and second rounds played on the home courts of Europe. Dwight W. Davis, donor of the international trophy, it was said, was among those who were particularly anxious that England, France, Belgium and Spain be given a chance to see their own teams in action. It was suggested that home games would stimulate international interest in the sport generally.

Carpenter's Plans.
Paris, March 19.—Georges Carpenter, the world's light heavyweight pugilistic champion, has signed an agreement to fight in Paris any American, British or French heavyweight or light heavyweight who may be selected not later than September of this year. The fight is to take place in an open air ring seating 40,000 persons, which it is proposed to build.
If the fight is arranged it will be Carpenter's first battle in Paris in three years.

International Series.
Arrangements have been completed for an international championship series between hockey title teams of the United States and Canada. Games will be played in Toronto on March 26 and 27, and will be continued in Boston on March 30 and April 1. The Canadian representative will be the winner of the Allan cup yet to be decided, and the United States team will be the Westminster Club, largely composed of players from the maritime provinces. The Westminsters Win Title.

The Westminsters of Boston won the amateur championship of the United States Saturday night by defeating St. Paul 2 to 0. The Westminsters won three out of the series and tied one game.
SKATING.
Bobby Hearns' Victory.
(New York Post.)
Bobby Hearns of Brooklyn, widely known as an expert comic and fancy skater, surprised himself as well as the crowd in the 181st Street Ice Palace last night by winning the metropolitan one-mile indoor ice-skating championship from a well-seasoned field in 3:21. Bobby held the same title last year, but for some reason or other he seemed to think Mr. Jinx had him by the feet this year and it wasn't until a late hour that he definitely decided to defend his title. While roaming around Brooklyn he chanced to meet one Chris Dalton, worthy patriarch of the Tinner's Club and staunch supporter of amateur sport in the east. After five minutes' earnest conversation, Chris convinced the dubious Bobby that he simply had to defend that title for the honor of Brooklyn if not for himself. So Bobby won.

Among his opponents were Paul Forsman, Tremont Skating Club, holder of the Eastern and metropolitan outdoor speed skating championships; West Becker, another Tremont skater, and Sam Goldberg, also of Tremont, who has been skating remarkably well lately and looked like a winner. Henry Niebuhr, Tremont, who is an expert at setting the pace, led the field in the early stages of the race. West Becker passed Niebuhr as the race neared a close. Bobby, who was modestly hiding in the rear, released a burst of speed on the home stretch and passed Becker, who finished so close that he almost held the Brooklyn youth to a tie. Niebuhr took third place.
R. Lyons of Public School 132 won the metropolitan 440-yard indoor junior championship for boys under fifteen years of age. Lyons had yards to spare as he sped across the finish line, but R. Kline of George Washington High School probably will not have a second round honor if B. Rothschild of Trinity Prep had not stumbled and fell a few yards from the tape. The winning time was a fast fifty-five seconds.
Bill Murphy, Louis Morris, Don Robinson and West Becker qualified for the final 440-yard indoor metropolitan senior championship races, to be contested next Monday night.

Smashes Records.
New Haven, Conn., March 19.—Fifty world's records were smashed in Carnegie pool on Friday night by the championship Yale swimming team. N. T. Guernsey, of Yale, broke his own record for the seventy-five foot plunge on a flat. A Yale relay team made up when he won the event in thirty-five seconds, eighteen swimmers established new world's marks for the 400, 600 and 800 yard and one mile relay races. Yale won the dual meet with Columbia by a score of forty to thirteen.

BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD.
Buffalo, March 18.—Hal Cutbill, the flying parson and captain of the Boston A. A. truck team, broke the indoor and outdoor world records for the 1,000 yard run here last night at indoor games at the 174th Regiment armory. Cutbill's time for the distance was 2:12.

MARITIME CHAMPIONSHIPS.
Arrangements have been virtually completed for staging the maritime amateur wrestling championships, which will be held on Wednesday of next week under the auspices of St. George's A. A. C. in the City Hall West St. John. 10 gold and silver medals for first and second places have all been donated. An entry list of about twenty-five is expected. An outside man is expected from Halifax. The officials for the meet, as announced last evening, are as follows: Referee, Walter O'Toole; timers, N. E. McLeod, A. W. Covey; chief scorer, W. Bowie; clerks, L. J. Maxwell, N. Lambert; judges, F. T. Barbour, W. E. Sealey, M. E. P.; weighers, L. Wilson, P. Mitchell; doctor, Dr. J. A. McCarthy. It is proposed to have a small number of boxing bouts in connection with the meet.

NOT FOR DECISION.
Boston, March 19.—Benny Leonard will engage Johnny Clinton, New England lightweight champion, in ten rounds without a decision on Monday night, the Massachusetts boxing commission has decided. It was reported that the commission would insist that there should be a decision, as the bout has been advertised as a real fight, but as Leonard is under contract with the motion picture concern not to box to a decision for a six months' period the commission has agreed to permit the exhibition.

O'DOWD IS VICTOR.
New York, March 19.—Mike O'Dowd, of St. Paul, former middleweight champion, was awarded the judges' decision over Solder Bartfield, of Brooklyn, in a twelve-round bout here last night. O'Dowd forced the fight all the way.

SUN'S RAYS MAKE FOOD AND FUEL

Chemist Will Learn to Do What Plants Do Now, is Promise—Amazing Strides.
(Toronto Mail and Empire.)
In one of the most interesting addresses delivered before the Royal Canadian Institute this year, Dr. E. E. Slosson, Director of Science Service, Washington, U. S., on Saturday evening, at the University Physics Building, outlined the part that the chemist must play in providing the means by which civilization can renew its supplies of food and fuel.

If the world's work had to be accomplished through the agency of actual horse power, he said, the world could not grow hay enough to feed the number of horses that would be required to produce the "horse-power" required today. With the discovery of steam, the iron man had stepped in to take the place of the horse. It fed on the crops of the carboniferous age. The coal deposits resulting from those crops were rapidly being used up and would eventually be completely consumed. Similarly, the world's gasoline tank was running low. Experts estimated that all the oil in sight in the United States would supply that country for only twenty years.

To Dr. Slosson's way of thinking, there were only two possible solutions for the shortage of fuel which must result when present supplies have been exhausted. One of these was the discovery by the chemist of some means of fixing radiant energy—the energy given out by the sun. The other was the liberation and utilization of the forces within the atom. It was on the former that the speaker placed most reliance, and he was hopeful that the problem would one day be solved.

At present, however, every blade of grass flaunted across in the face of the chemist for it could do what he could not—combine hydrogen, oxygen and carbon into those life-giving substances which are the basis of the world's food and fuel.

Power in Sun's Ray.
Exemplifying the power that lies untapped in the sun's rays, the speaker pointed out that forty square miles of the Arizona absorbed as much heat in six hours as was produced by all the coal burned in the world in twenty-four hours.

Turning to recent strides made in chemistry, Dr. Slosson told of some developments and of the discoveries following hard on each other's heels, he created new theories so rapidly that a theory is abandoned in favor of another almost before the first one is well understood.

Not long ago chemists had figured out how the atom acted when substances combined. A series of convenient little books linked together to form the nebulas. Now the physicist has come along with his mathematics and discovered that the atom was in reality a little solar system, with a number of negative particles whirling around a positive centre. How was the chemist to explain his formulas in terms of such theories as that?

Although the difficulties were many and serious, continued the speaker, as accomplishments had been many and marvelous. For instance, the chemist was now making artificial silk that for some purposes was better than the natural product. The ancients had talked about a dye called royal purple, taken from a substance found in a certain shellfish, and dropped to a fish. The modern chemist the result of the discovery of the position of that dye could now make by the ton.

To illustrate the complexity of the processes which the chemist utilizes, and the close connection between substance and energy, he pointed out that the chemist is responsible for the epidemic of influenza and green which had appeared amongst dress goods. A comparatively simple process had enabled the chemist to turn the gas into dyes. Still another turn and the result was a powerful violet perfume, which was now being manufactured in quantities in the United States.

Conference of Actors, Dramatists, Managers and Vice Crusaders Fixes Details — Mayor Hyland Approves.

(New York Times.)
The organization of a voluntary jury system, designed to eliminate indecent plays and thereby make unnecessary a political censorship of the stage, was launched late yesterday afternoon at a meeting of dramatists, managers and producers, actors and vice crusaders at the American Dramatists' Society, 148 West Forty-fifth street.

An important feature of the proposed jury system is the insertion of a clause in all future contracts between dramatists and producers and between actors and producers that they will abide by the decisions of the jury.

Those attending the meeting were informed that Mayor Hyland's approval of the undertaking had been given in an informal manner. Early next week a committee will endeavor to see the mayor and obtain his formal approval. Many interests represented.

The details of the jury system were worked out at a meeting representing the Authors' League of America, through Jesse Lynch Williams, president; Channing Pollock, vice-president, and Le Roy Scott, chairman of the executive committee; its subsidiary, the American Dramatists, represented by Owen Davis, Eugene Buck and George Creel; the Actors' Equity Association, represented by John Emerson, president; Frank Gilmore, executive secretary, and John W. Cope of the Equity council; the Producing Managers' Association, represented by William A. Brady, Charles Coburn and Winthrop Ames; the Better Public Shows Movement, represented by John S. Sumner, head of the Society for the Prevention of Commercialized Sex; Edward J. McGuire and A. G. Boyle of the Y. M. C. A.; Mrs. Herbert J. Glover of the Widows Board of the Protestant Episcopal church, Mrs. Marian Tucker and Cranston Brenton and Mrs. Coffin of the Drama League.

"These people believe that a political censorship is impossible without destroying all that is finest in what affects," explained Channing Pollock, spokesman for a committee delegated to give out the facts concerning the meeting after its adjournment. "They believe that the theatre is not in a bad way. However, they agree that there are four or five bad plays and that there is a tendency to produce other plays without which the theatre would be better off."

Their programme contemplates the drawing of a panel of 800 citizens. Nominations are to be submitted by the organizations on the joint committee representing the theatrical organizations on the one side, and the Better Public Shows Movement and the city administration on the other. Each group will be permitted to nominate 150 candidates for the panel, the qualifications for which will be chiefly "good citizenship and common sense," according to Mr. Pollock.

"If a complaint against a given theatrical production is received by the city officials," said Mr. Pollock, "they may call for a jury of twelve to be selected from the panel above described, as representing the theatre on the one side and the public on the other. Each side will have two preemptory challenges. First, they must decide whether any part of the production is objectionable from the point of view of public morals. Second, is the play as a whole objectionable? A vote of nine to three constitutes a verdict. If the jury decides that a manager must readjust his play, he will have one week in which to make the changes. Then the jury will review the play. If the jury decides that the play as a whole is objectionable, all interests, including the dramatists, owners, producers, actors and the public, agree that the play shall be taken off the boards and that there shall be no appeal to the courts. This agreement is to be included in every contract made by the managers with both, dramatists and actors."

"We agree with the public," said Mr. Pollock. "The theatre must be a decent place."

Acadian Manners And Customs: A Compilation

(MARY KINLEY INGRAHAM IN HALIFAX CHRONICLE)

A few days ago the writer was asked for information concerning the manners and customs of the Acadians who lived in Nova Scotia between 1719 and 1755.

First, I found a small book entitled "Acadian Reminiscences" by Felix Voorhies. An old Acadian dame is telling her grandchildren stories of her early life.

The above letter is anonymous, but it was written, I am quite sure, by a French gentleman named Dietrich, who visited Acadie in 1710.

Increasing interest in the research work and laboratory methods of the University of Toronto was evident last night, when many scientists and their friends availed themselves of the opportunity to see what was being done in the scientific world at the demonstration held by the Biological Society in the biological building where the laboratories were given over to botany, etymology, marine and other research.
