The New York Weekly Sun Doubled in Size without Increase in Price. With the beginning of 1872, THE WEEKLY Sun has been doubled in size. It now contains eight pages instead of four, making it equal in dimensions to any other weekly secular journal published in this country. At the same time its price has not been increased. It will be furnished to subscribers at the uniform rate of one dollar a year for each copy. To this rate no exception will be made and no reduction will be possible, either to clubs or agents. Every subscriber who sends a dollar will receive a copy for a year. While THE WEEKLY SUN thus furnishes as much reading matter as other papers published at double or treble the price, it will contain new features which will add greatly to its interest and value as a family newspaper. Its independence of opinion, and its unqualified hos-tility to Tweedism and Grantism, and every news its readers may rely upon always receiving
