A MEDLEY.

Can any of our correspondents, young or old, name the author of each of the following lines, and where each line is to be found?

Breathes a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said,
"Shoot folly as it flies?" Ah, more than tears of blood can tell Are in that word farewell;
'Tis folly to be wise.

And what is Friendship but a name,
That turns on Etna's breast of flame?
Thus runs the world away.
Sweet is the ship that's under sail To where yon taper points the vale With hospitable ray.

Drink to me only with thine eyes Through cloudless climes and starry skies, My native land, good-night.
Adieu, adieu, my native shore;
'Tis Greece, but living Greece no more, Whatever is right.

Oh! ever thus from childhood's hour, Daughter of Jove, relentless power, In russet blanket clad,
The rocks and hollow mountains rung While yet in early Greece she sung—I'm pleased, and yet I'm sad.

In sceptred pall come sweeping by,
O thou, the nymph with placid eye, By Philip's warlike son;
And on the light fantastic toe Thus hand in hand through life we'll go; Good-night to Marmion.

BETTY MBAIN'S COURTSHIP.

In a snug little burgh o' famous memory in the heart o' Eife there once lived a cantankerous body ca'd Betty M'Bain.
Her age—at the time I speak o'—was a matter o' doot, an' great curiosity tae a when o' her neebours—honest bodies wha dearly loved a bit o' gossip an' scandal.
She might ha' been forty or sae; but cer-tes ten years was mair tae her likin', an' naething pleased her better than tae say in a canny way that she juist looked like a bit lassie o' twenty or sae. She had lang labored under a sair disappointment in consequence o' luicin' remained a finely jewel in the matrimonial market that ne'er a compeer had thoit worth spierin' the price o', an' sairly did she take this unmanly neglect to heart.

Her woo-begone face seemed tae say:
"Wha's wantin' a wife?" But sheep's cono' love aye faund in anither quarter a glass that reflectit brichter hopes an' better harmony than was tae be seen in her gray-paper countenance. She had hae broken her heart wi' haein' tae king sae lang on the nail hae not a bricht ray o' hope like a gowden fringe round the dark water-carts o' a treacherous March morning cheer'd her up wi' the thoit that some canny wicht might yet spier her price.

Her house was a pattern o' cleanliness an' thrift. Frae the aicht-day clock standing in the door-way that hept 'oor for 'oor wi' the toon aye, tae the lookin'-glass —which Betty mintoed no'er tauld the truth—on the drawers-head in the ben-house, everything tauld that the oident hand o' care was present.

Like Sabbath she might hae been seen takin' her way tae the Kirk, spruce an' trig as a penock. Heech was her head, an' quick was her step; could was her nod tae her neebour wives; but o' it was a siekt for siekt for sair con to see the beamin' smile she gave tae a' the wanters she kent, and tae nane was she mair gracious than tae John Tamson, the precentor.
John—wha was kn awn to hae some thoits o' takin' a wife—was as gude a teaylor as the burgh clock boast o'; an' had in his time made coats for some o' the best gentry in the parish.

Some ill-thinkin' folk—tho' admittin' that John did brawly as a cutter o' clath —mentioned that he was but a poor hand at the singin', and that tho' he opened his mouth, his nose did the biggest part o' the performance. However, that didna hand Betty from settin' her een on him, as a very gude match could be only be brocht tae the stickin' point. He had ance or twice o' late made up tae her on the way frae the Kirk, an' crackit awa' in a real friendly way tae her ain door was reached, but naethin' hae come o't; sae she determined tae try what a little skill an' canny drawin' wad dae tae bring about the consummation sae devoutly tae be wished.

She soon fell upon a plan which promised success tae her hopeful heart. Her parrot —the best friend she had—was awee gleg in the uptack, an' had a sharp answer for everybody.

She set herself tae teachin' it some few phrases o' a love-makin' nature in which the name o' John often occurred. The parrot set tae the task wi' richt gude will, but appeared by certain enquirin' side-looks o' its head tae wonder what its mistress was drivin' at. In a short time it had mastered its task, an' cu'd rattle off a string o' gallant sentences that wad hae been a perfect treasur tae mony an airt-less wooer.

As it happened ane Sabbath shortly after, John—his lang, godly face lengthened tae a ghostly sanctity—conveyed Betty hame frae the evening service, an' was warmly investit in tae see this wonder o' the feathered tribe.

Scarcely was he past the door when he heard a shrill, rattlin' voice screech out:
"Hee are ye the day? Come in bye; tak' a seat; sit doon!"

Honest John was fairly dung dootit wi' wonder, an' gapit aboot open-mouthed for the pairty who had spoken; but seein' nae body, he turned his godly face enquirin'ly tae Betty's beamin' countenance, when he again heard the voice comin' frae the bink at the winnock, croak out:
"Could day, John; draw in a chair an'
sit doon!"

He soon sa' hoo matters stood, an' congratulated Betty in the genteel words he cu'd waite on bein' the possessor o' such a rare creature.

While she was preparin' in a hurries a bit chuck o' supper, John an' the parrot grew freens an' crackit awa' together in a real off-on bondit way. Aifter John had satisfied a certain yawpishness which he said he felt aboot the stomach, an' had handit a dainty bit tae poll tae keep up the freenship, he found himsel' sittin' on an extreme corner o' his chair tryin' a' his might tae get a canny corner tae lay his hands in till they were wantin', when Betty, —demurely seated at his left—by way o' openin' up a crack, ventured the remark that the cuttin' an' sewin' o' clath was a noble profession, an' shily contrastit it wi' that o' cobblin', tae which she brawly kent John had what she ca'd a "dignified aversion."

She had struck the nail on the head, for he startit aff at a canter tae uphiss his ane callin' an' tae run down the chimas o' St. Crispin. He grew particularly eloquent in dispraise o' a certain member of the cobblin' fraternity wham wi' a lofty sweep o' his arm in the direction o' the door, he ca'd:
"That snuffy-nosed, seahnle boy, Davie Blair, an' there was no sayin' when he wuid ha' halfit hed not the parrot sung out frae its perch:
"Well doon, John; that's grand!" which brocht the conversation round tae poll, frae poll tae the hoose, an' frae the hoose tae the landlady—tae wit: Betty hersel'. An' no' affairs began tae grow very interestin'.
John's chair showit a strange likin' tae Betty's, tae which in some queer way it came nearer an' nearer, till they were fairly together.

His een beamed intae Betty's wi' that sheepish look for which she had sae often scoed an' sabbit, an' his face bore a wee-shy-washy milk-an'-water color, frae which she drew great hope. Fain wuid he hae said somethin'; but he cu'd only mak' his jaws jirk up an' doon, which set the melancholy lookin' drap at his nose into a comical trimmel. Here the parrot struck in wi':
"That's it, John; draw near her, John; tak' her round the neck, John!" which he considerin' his previous bashfulness was wonderful quick in doin'.

"Gie her a bit smack, no', John!" an' it resounded wi' a thumper.

"Speer her, no', John!" sung 'oot the parrot.
Betty fearing tae spoil the brawth wi' ver quick a fire, lay quietly in his arms, her breast heevin' up an' doon like the waves o' the Atlantic.

"Betty, Betty," he began; but his tongue stuck tae the roof o' his mouth, an' his worshipful voice refusit tae dae its part.

Again he tried: "My—my—dear—Betty—Betty—my—my—"
"Will ye be my wife?" chimed the parrot in the nick o' time.

"Will ye be my wife?" repeated John in sepulchral tones.

A laich "Yes," cam' frae the bottom o' Betty's stomach, an' John in a gush o' feelin' gatherit her pantin' form tae his manly bosom, an' wi' his face turned to the rafters, cried out:
"Oh! I'm a happy man this night!"

The parrot becket an' bobbit aboot in great glee, an' skirled at the top o' his voice:
"That's it John; ye've got her now.
Poll's the man!"

Charlotte County Agricultural Show and Fair.

The Annual Cattle Show and Fair of the Charlotte County Agricultural Society was held at the Bay Side, Parish of St. Croix, on Wednesday the 10th inst. The weather was most unpropitious, the rain during the day, pouring steadily down with scarcely a moment's intermission. The Committee of management had at one time decided to postpone, but on the arrival of the President, Robert Stevenson, Esq., the action was reconsidered; he president said that he had for thirty-nine years attended the annual fairs of the Society, he knew of no postponement being had on account of unfavorable weather and thought that the fair should be held on the appointed day. Several gentlemen from the upper part of Wauveig, Bocabec and other distant points, who had come prepared to exhibit also protested against postponement, in view of all these circumstances the decision to postpone was reversed and the hour for receiving entries extended to half past one o'clock.

The Secretary, John S. Magee, Esq., was on hand prepared to receive entries, in which duty he was soon busily engaged; the total number of entries was only twelve short of those of last year. The display of root crops was simply magnificent, proving that in the direction of agricultural improvements a great step in advance has been taken and that the soil is ready and willing to return ample remuneration for the labor bestowed upon it.

Mr. Thomas Finlay showed a squash weighing forty pounds, there were several other large ones exhibited. James Russell, Esq., had Norfolk white turnips weighing sixteen pounds each. Thomas J. Beckerton purple top Swedes sixteen and a half pounds each; Joseph H. Mears had a basket of purple top turnips (Suffolks) the seed of which he raised in the early part of the season, and from that seed he grew the turnips now exhibited; Charles E.
Mowatt had a basket of Mangold Wurtzell, single roots of which weighed ten pounds, very large blood beets were shown by the same gentleman; Thomas Hipwell had cabbages weighing 25 pounds each, splendid onions, celery, and tomatoes. The potatoes of which a number of varieties were exhibited, were of immense size, and shapely proportions, noticeably a basket of Early Rose shown by Alexander Gilman, each potato weighing not less than one pound and a quarter.

Samples of Wheat weighing 63½ lbs. to the bushel; Oats, 48 lbs.; Barley, 54½; Buckwheat, 56; Beans, 65; Peas, 64.

A number of crows of very choice butter were on exhibition,—in many cases the butter would have tasted better had less salt been used in the manufacture.
Amongst the fancy articles was a cross made of feathers, which had a pretty effect, the blending of the different colours was artistically done, and creditable to the skill of Miss Simpson, daughter of Mr.

Abram Simpson. In the domestic manufacture department there were some good woolen yarns, socks, mitts, counterpanes, rag carpets, hearth rugs. One pair of mitts knitted by Mrs. Joseph Linton were particularly good, just the articles to keep ones hands warm on a cold drive.

In the Poultry department Mr. Thomas Hipwell had a pen of very fine Brahmas; Geo. S. Grimmer, Esq. one of game fowls; H. J. Carlow one of Geese, and John Mc-Farlane one of turkeys.

In consequence of the drenching rains, the show of horses and Neat Cattle was more limited in numbers than usual, the exposure to the weather did not improve their appearance, still there was some good pure bred stock, such as an Ayrshire Bull exhibited by James McFarlane, a Jersey do. by Robert Dinsmore, and one by Geo. S. Grimmer, Esq., a Durham by George Mowatt, an Ayrshire cow by Geo.
H. Bartlett, an Ayrshire Heifer by James Russell, and a Durham by Geo. Mowatt.
There was also shown some good grade and native stock, sheep, and lambs, and a handsome three year old entire colt, the property of Robert Dinsmore.

One thing is sure that the improvement in stock in this section of the County reached by the operations of the Charlotte Co. Agricultural Society is marked and unmistakable. A number of visitors from sections of the County were present, amongst whom were A. H. Gillmor, Esq., M. P. and Mrs. Gillmor, Thos. Cotterell, Esq., M. P. P., who were pleased to express their approval, and admitted that they were somewhat astonished to see such magnificent specimens of root crops, cereals, flour, etc., etc. Of the flour there was five barrels, ground at Grimmer's Mill, Chateauc, from wheat raised by the owners, it tasted sweet, and no doubt will make good bread. Mr. John Curry, at his residence near the Agricultural Hall, made ample provision for the entertainment of all comers, spreading a table that would not discredit a first class hotel, his table was, as it deserved to be, well patronized. The judges went to work at two o'clock p. m., and at five o'clock the last report was handed in, half an hour later Mr. Magee read the list of awards which we give below, and immediately thereafter paid the premiums to the successful competitors.

The Secretary was presented with a fine squash by Mr. Abram Simpson, for which he expressed thanks.

FORGERY OF THE BANK OF MONTREAL.

THE FORGER ARRESTED, AND PART OF THE MONEY RECOVERED.

For some time past two youths, belonging to very respectable French-Canadian families in this city, became conspicuous for the manner in which they spent money about town, but more especially with the demimonde. They first excited their parents' attention by keeping late hours, and sometimes staying out all night, and finally, we believe, remaining from home altogether. At last rumors reached the fathers of these boys (whose names we withhold at present) that they were lavishing their expenditure on the needful, and the old folks immediately hired cabs and drove around to all the dens of debauchery they knew of, but without finding any trace of their sons. Seeing that their search was in vain, they did what they might easily have done at first, they notified the police. Sunday Detectives Lafont and Arcand took the affair in hand, and, in their turn, paid the principal fast houses a visit, but in most instances they found that the parents of the missing youths had already been there before them, and thereby given notice to the runaways of their being pursued. The officers, however, in one of these houses, discovered, in the possession of one of the inmates, the following address: "J. B. Duseau, care of Mr. George Denholm." Mr. Geo. Denholm being a well known commissionaire and agent for the "Guardian Fire and Life Insurance Company," and having an office at No. 11, St. Sacramento street, the detective proceeded thither and enquired of Mr. Denholm if his bank and account books were all right, and whether he had any suspicion that his clerk, a youth 17 years of age named Charles Renaud, was abstracting any funds, or in any way tampered with the bank accounts, &c. Mr. Denholm replied that his clerk was at his work upstairs, as usual; that he never had the least cause for suspecting him of any irregularity in his books, which, on the contrary, were perfectly kept. He thought all was correct. The detectives were not so well satisfied in their minds that all was right; they knew that the name "J. B. Duseau" must be assumed by Renaud for a certain purpose, and that he was probably the bank on which the other two lads, before referred to, were in the habit of drawing. However, these lads could not be found and they let the matter rest for the time being. Yesterday they were not much surprised to see Mr. George Denholm enter the Central station and declare that his name had been forged to several cheques for different large amounts on the Bank of Montreal, and that his clerk, Charles Renaud, had left at 3 p. m. without returning. Detectives Lafont and Arcand again took up the trail and by 8.30 p. m. had young Renaud in custody. They arrested him on the street, and in his possession was found a fine scarlet pocket book containing $906 in fives, tens and fifties of the Montreal bank. The bills had never been used; $51 in American money were also taken from him, besides a cheque on the same bank for $1,500—with George Denholm's name forged to it—which the prisoner was about to cash. The Bank of Montreal will probably lose something in the vicinity of $500 or $600. The prisoner resided at No. 28 Monodet street, and was evidently just on the eve of joining his comrades across the lines, whom he used to supply with money at the Bank's expense, as a ticket for New York via the Vermont Central was found in his pocket. He will be brought before the Magistrate for examination to-day.—Star, Montreal 10th inst.

[From the Scotsman 1st inst.]
On the 20th September, at St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Saffron Hill, London, the Rev. T. A. Engleism, M. A., a professor at Worcester College in the University of Oxford, was received into the Roman Catholic Church.

Admiral Sir Hastings Yelverton has (the Times says) sent in his resignation as senior Naval Lord Commissioner of the Admiralty. Admiral Yelverton has been induced to resign owing to the unsatisfactory condition of his health. He has not derived the benefit which was anticipated from his recent sojourn at Ems.

TROOPS FOR AFRICA.—On Saturday the British and African Company's royal mail steamer Louisa left the Mersey for the West Coast of Africa, having on board 5 naval officers, 19 blue jackets, and seven marines, who go out to relieve the crew of H. M. S. Pioneer, stationed on the Gold Coast. The Louisa had also on board five Housa non-commissioned officers, who have been receiving military instruction in this country for some time past, to enable them to organize a corps of Housa police on the Coast. These natives, it will be remembered, rendered valuable assistance to the British authorities at the time of the Ashantee disturbance, under the direction of the well known officer, Capt. Glover.

NEW RAILWAY CARRIAGES.—The Midland Railway Company have, the Leeds Mercury understands, decided to permanently adopt a new style of carriages for their line. The proposed first-class carriages will be almost similar to the Pullman drawing-room cars at present in use upon this railway, to ride in which no extra charge above the ordinary first-class fares will be demanded. The carriages will be opened throughout, but for persons of a retiring disposition a space at the end of each carriage will be provided, so that all the semi-privacy attached to a present first-class compartment may be enjoyed.

The third-class carriages will be laid out upon the same plan, but they will, of course, not be so elaborately fitted up. The wheels will be on the 'bogies' principal, and the carriages will, in weight, be equal to three of the present ordinary carriage.

The St. Andrews Standard.

Saint Andrews, October 17, 1877.

THE ELECTION FOR THE COMMONS.—It is self-evident, that the election for the Commons will hinge upon the merits of Government or Opposition; in every County the matter is being debated. In York it is reported, that four candidates will offer. Among them a son of our old friend, Mr. Henry Fisher. We remember the time when the name of Fisher was a tower of strength in that County, and well it might be, for did not Charles Fisher and L. A. Wilmot fight the battles of the people, and won for them Responsible Government, thereby opening the avenues to office to the sons of the humblest. The old and new stock will not surely reject any man of ability named FISHER; the very best representatives should be sent to Ottawa, not merely "good fellows," but men of education and ability who can advocate the interest of the Province, and insist upon its rights. A change is desirable at times—an infusion of new blood is beneficial to the body politic.

THE ST. PATRICK'S CENTRAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, held its Annual Show and Fair at the Agricultural Hall, Bocabee, on Friday last. Notwithstanding the heavy rain of the previous day and the showers on Friday, there were several visitors present from other Parishes, among whom were the Sec'y of the C. C. Agl. Society, Mr. Magee, and his wife, Mr. GILLMER, M. P. Mrs. Gillmer, and others. The exhibition of root, grain, dairy produce, (for which Bocabee valley is celebrated) domestic manufactures and neat cattle, was very good. As the Secretary is to furnish a list of premiums we will publish them in our next number.

One feature connected with this Society is the excellent dinner provided by them for the farmers and visitors, and the kind attention of the President and officers to visitors. The dinner, a substantial one, was under the charge of Mr. Elias Hanson, at his residence, and was gotten up in excellent style, and was equal to any to be had at a hotel, reflecting great credit to Mrs. Hanson and her assistants, whose untiring efforts to please called forth expressions of good will to them.

In the afternoon the weather having cleared up a number of the young men amused themselves by jumping and running races, which were well contested, but a 'po' was rather too quick for them, coming in ahead at each race.

It will be noticed that the Bocabee farmers have carried off a fair share of prizes from all the Agricultural Societies of this County.

LITERARY.—Mr. Ross of St. John, teacher of Vocal culture and Elocution, gave one of his popular readings, on Saturday evening, in the interest of the Reform Club, in Stevenson's Hall. Among the selections was Tam O'Shanter, the Charcoal Man, Sir Peter and Lady Teazle. Owing to the short notice, the audience was not as large as it would have been, but those present evinced their pleasure by frequent plaudits. Mr. Ross reads well, and throws his feelings into each selection. His imitation of a Highlander—Tam O'Shanter and the Highland Exhortation were particularly well rendered. We hope he will visit St. Andrews again.

The Telegraph's correspondent in his description of the Bocabee Fair, gets off a good hint to the Society Members. He says—"Mr. Smith was made the recipient of tangible tokens of the regard of the farmers of Bocabee." We wish that it was in our power to endorse this excellent idea, but the fact is the Editor of this paper did not get even a "big squash" or "pumpkin" at either fair. The farmers will surely do something towards confirming the correspondent's statements, we will cheerfully acknowledge it.

There is nothing new of importance from the seat of War in Europe, except that the Russians like Caesar of old, have gone "into winter quarters." The accounts generally agree, that the only way Russia can conquer the Turks, is by force of numbers; the Russians, however, are losing as many men by disease as on the field of battle.

LOCAL MATTER.

Late Boston papers have been received from T. T. Odell, Esq., at present purchasing in the United States markets, for which our thanks are tendered.

A number of St. George gentlemen were here on Friday last—Directors and officers of the Grand Southern Railway, upon business connected with the line.

The weather for the past few days, gave warning that the harvest is over and the Summer ended. The atmosphere—cool, with raw easterly winds.

Mr. Hipwell presented the Editor with some superior celery, carrots, tomatoes and a few excellent potatoes the products of his ground, for which he will except his thanks.

An extra Session of Congress was opened on Monday last, to secure appropriations to meet deficiencies in the Army and Navy. Mr. Randall was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Indian War in the States is now over—Chief Joseph was taken prisoner. The Nez Percés, were badly treated and their sense of the wrongs inflicted upon them, led to the war.

The Great Boat Race at Toronto, which caused such excitement, and at which upwards of 30,000 people were present, resulted disastrously to St. John, Hanlan having beaten Ross one hundred yards.

Thos. Wheelock, Esq., of Shanghai, India, Mrs. Wheelock, child and servant, arrived here yesterday, on a visit to their relatives, C. M. Gove, Esq., Collector of this port. Mr. Wheelock's friends here gave him a hearty greeting.

The Rev. Mr. Foley, P. P. in consequence of failing health, resigned his charge here, for a few months. Rev. E. Doyle of St. George officiates twice a month for the present, his ministrations are received with much acceptance by the congregation.

The Agricultural Fairs in this County held during the past week, were largely attended—and were a credit to the Province. The roots and grain crops were superior in quality and largely in excess in quantity, and the cattle exhibited showed a marked improvement. The large quantity of wheat raised will curtail to some extent the sale of imported flour. The only product that did not come up to the usual average, was the hay crop, but yet there is sufficient. On our outside page we have published the list of the C. C. Agricultural Society from the Secretary's pen; and in another column will be seen a brief notice of the St. Patrick's Society's Show. The St. Croix Agricultural Society's Fair, we learn, was very good; no doubt, a list of the prizes, etc., will appear in the Courier. Had it not been so wet on each Fair-day, many would have attended who were not present on the grounds.

FREDERICKTON BREVITIES.
—The river is rising rapidly owing to the late rains, and the steamers will commence running to Woodstock this week.

The Metropolitan Theatre has returned from St. John and is drawing good houses here. The Company is much improved since its last visit, having several additional players and a larger orchestra.

We are to be favored this week with a visit from the Anna Granger Opera Company, who will perform in the City Hall on Thursday evening. This will be a rare musical treat for the citizens and the hall should be filled.

The Mayor and Aldermen of the city, with some of the citizens made an excursion to Bangor on Thursday last, for the purpose of inspecting the "Holly system of water works," and other public works there. The principal object of their visit was to ascertain the adaptability of the water system to the wants of Fredericton with a view of introducing it, at some future time. We have not heard the result of their enquiries yet, but believe they were favorably impressed with the system. The party was hospitably entertained by the civic officers of Bangor, and returned home on Friday much pleased with their trip.

The steamer Soulanges met with an accident on Saturday night, on the trip from St. John, and sad to say two of the passengers, (women) lost their lives. When near the head of the Long Reach she was run into by a deal-laden woodboat, tearing away a large portion of the Star.

board side where the ladies' cabin was situated, precipitating two women and one of the hands into the water. Although efforts were made to save them, they were only successful in rescuing the man. A tug was despatched on Sunday to search for the bodies.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER.—The November number of Ballou's Magazine is a marvel of beauty and interest. The first article is an illustrated subject on Chinese Life and Character, by the authors of "The Gold Hunters," and then follows some ten or fifteen stories of great interest, and several pieces of poetry of much merit. The "Child of the Wilderness" is continued, and increases in interest as it approaches completion. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, and for sale at all the periodical depots in the country.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Standard:
DEAR SIR:—I wish you would use your influence in getting up a petition to the proper authorities, to return to the old system of bringing the mails from St. John to St. Andrews by Stage. I am sure the majority of the inhabitants will agree with me, that it is a much preferable and more expeditious mode of conveyance than that now in force. The Railroad is so uncertain, from what cause I know not, whether it is worn out, or decrepit from age or want of exercise, I am not in a position to say, nor do I think it matters a cent to the inhabitants; but, this I say, that the Government ought to do their utmost to have a reliable, certain, and expeditious mode for the conveyance of Her Majesty's Mails. By your advocating the above and using your interest in the good cause, you will confer a great boon and deserve the everlasting gratitude of all the business men of St. Andrews.
Yours Truly,
A. MERCHANT.
St. Andrews, 13th Oct., 1877.

IRELAND.
Bishop Moriarty, Roman Catholic Bishop of Kerry, has been struck with paralysis. He was prayed for in all the churches of the diocese.

Sir Jas. Power, Bart., died on the 30th Sept. at his residence, Eldermine, county Wexford. Sir James was chairman of the Dublin, Wicklow, and Wexford Railway Company, and represented the county of Wexford in Parliament from 1835 to 1847, and from 1865 to 1868.

The John Bull is informed that the Society of the Holy Cross will in future admit none but beneficed clergy to membership.

It is announced that the Queen has approved the appointment of the Rev. T. Valpy French, late Fellow of University College, Oxford, and for many years Head of the College at Lahore, to the newly created See of Lahore.

A STOLEN MAIL BAG.

Last Eight Months, and not Mined.

Last Saturday Mr. Main, the agent of the Grand Trunk road in this city, sent word to Mr. Emery, the chief clerk in the Portland post office, notifying him that a mail bag had been found in one of the woodsheds of the company and requesting his presence. Mr. Emery, accompanied by Mr. Chenevix, the cashier, immediately went down to Mr. Main's office, whither the bag had been carried. He there ascertained that one of the employees of the road, while getting wood out of a woodshed, near the station, discovered what looked like the leg of a boot sticking out from the top of a pile of wood. Investigation revealed the fact that mail-bag had been cut open and, after its contents had been thoroughly overhauled, the empty bag—or rather the bag containing a few newspapers—had been placed on the pile and covered with loose wood. The papers in the bag were post-marked February 6th, showing that the robbery was committed eight months ago.

This bag belonged to the regular mail train from Montreal that leaves Island Pond in the morning and reaches Portland at noon. The mail is made up at the different stations by the mail agent on the train, on its way to this city. It is a mail bound south and west: not a Portland mail. Consequently it does not come to the Portland office. When it arrives in Portland, the bag is locked by the mail agent, and delivered into the hands of the baggage master of the train, who takes it, on the train, across the city to the Eastern railroad station, where it is delivered by him into the hands of the mail agent of the Eastern road. When the Grand Trunk mail agent has locked the bag, he affixes a tag marked "B. B., R. P. O. West." When found, no such tag was attached to the bag, but the agent is certain he tagged it at the time.

As the bag is usually full of letters, it is of course impossible to state what amount the robber, or robbers, succeeded in obtaining, but it would not be remarkable if they secured a considerable sum. No complaints have ever been made, and there never has been the slightest suspicion but what the lost mail like all others reached its destination in safety.—Portland Advertiser.

FALL & WINTER IMPORTATIONS.—Messrs. Odell and Turner, in addition to their fall stock received, are opening a large invoice of European Goods which arrived since our last issue, and with fresh arrivals from the United States, form a varied stock for fall and winter use.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED!!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY of the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, impediments to Marriage, etc. resulting from excesses.
Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.
The celebrated author in this admirable Essay clearly demonstrates, from thirty years successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured, without the dangerous use of internal medicine, or the application of the knife, pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

New Brunswick, ss.

To the Sheriff of the County of Charlotte, or any Constable in the said County, Greeting:

WHEREAS Jane Frankland, Administratrix of the Estate and Effects of Simon J. Frankland, late of the Parish of Grand Manan, in the said County of Charlotte, deceased, hath by her petition bearing date the second day of June, instant, represented that the personal estate of the deceased which has come to her hands is insufficient for the payment of the debts due and owing by the said Estate, and hath prayed that Licence may be granted to her to sell a part of the Real Estate of the said deceased, sufficient for the payment of the debts due by the said Estate.

You are therefore requested to cite the heirs at law of the said Simon J. Frankland, and all persons interested, to appear before me at a Court of Probates, to be held at my office in Saint Andrews, on SATURDAY the 30th day of JUNE instant at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the consideration of the said petition, and the granting (if deemed necessary) of such Licence.

Give under my hand and the Seal of the said Probate Court, the 2nd day of June, A. D. 1877.

I FEEL I'M GROWING AULD, GUDWIFE.

BY JAMES LINES, SAN FRANCISCO.
I feel I'm growing auld, gudwife—
I feel I'm growing auld;
My steps are frail, my e'en are bleared, My pow is unco bauld.
I've seen the snaws of four score years O'er hill and meadow fa', And hinnie, were it no for you, I'd gladly slip awa'.
I feel I'm growing auld, gudwife—
I feel I'm growing auld; Frae youth to age I've keptit warm The love that ne'er turned cauld.
I canna bear the dreary thocht That we maun sinder be;
There's naething baird my poor auld heart To earth gud wife, but thee.
I feel I'm growing auld, gudwife—
I feel I'm growing auld;
Life seems to me a wintry waste,
The very sun feels cauld.
Of wordly freen's ye've been to me Among them a' the best;
Now I'll lay down my weary head, Gudwife, and be at rest.

I tell yer I've ridged to fix them blasted Injuns, if they try to raise my hair! ex. claimed a Black Hill adventurer, leaning against a Chicago depot the other morning.

"How's that?" said a companion.
"You've heard of dynamite, ha'n't ye?"
continued the speaker.

"Yes."
"Well, I've got some of the durned stuff shaped into an infernal machine to wear up here under my hair, an' I'd just like ter see any durned redskin tempt ter lift my scalp!"

"But if it should go off—"
"It would blow the Injun ter—" "I mean what would become of your head?" put in the other.

"Blest if I ever think of that," replied the would be dynamite fiend; and then he continued, thoughtful, "I recon I won't try ter wear the durned thing after all!"

WHAT PAYS?

IT PAYS very Manufactures, Merchant, Mechanic, Inventor, Farmer, or Professional man, to keep informed on all the improvements and discoveries of the age.
IT PAYS THE HEAD OF EVERY FAMIL-Y to introduce into his household a new paper that is instructive, one that fosters a taste for investigation, and promotes thought and encourages discussion among the members.

The Scientific American

which has been published weekly for the last thirty one years, does this, to an extent beyond that of any other publication; in fact it is the only weekly paper published in the United States devoted to MANUFACTURES, MECHANICS, INVENTIONS and NEW DISCOVERIES in the Arts and Sciences.
Every number is profusely illustrated and its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical, and Scientific Progress of the world.
Descriptions, with beautiful Engravings of New Inventions, New Implements, New Processes and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Receipts, Suggestions and Advice by Practical Writers, Workmen and Employers. In all the various arts forming a complete library of New Inventions and Discoveries; containing a weekly record, not only of the progress of the Industrial Arts in our own country, but also of all New Discoveries and Inventions and every branch of Engineering, Mechanics, and Science and Art.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN
has been the foremost of all industrial public papers for the past thirty one years. It is the oldest, largest, cheapest and the best weekly illustrated paper devoted to Engineering, Mechanics, Chemistry, New Inventions, Science and Industrial Progress, published in the world.
The practical Receipts are well worth ten times the subscription price, and for the shop and house will save many times the cost of subscription.

MERCHANTS, FARMERS, MECHANICS, EN-GINEERS, INVENTORS, MANUFACTURERS, CHEM-ISTS, LOVERS OF SCIENCE, and PEOPLE of ALL PROFESSIONS, will find the SCIENTIFIC AMER-ICAN useful to them. It should have a place in Family, Library, Study, Office and Counting Room; in every Reading Room, College and School. A new volume commences January 1st, 1877.

A year's number contains 52 pages and Several Hundred Engravings. Thousands of volumes are preserved for binding and reference.
Terms, $3.20 a year by mail, including postage.
Discount to Clubs. Special circulars, giving Club rates, sent free. Single copies mailed on receipt of 10 cents. May be had of all News Dealers.

IN connection with the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, Messrs. Munn & Co. are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency.
Patents are obtained on the best terms. Models of New Inventions and Sketches examined, and advice free. A special notice is made in the Scientific American of all Inventions Patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. Patents are often sold in part or whole, to persons attracted to the Invention by such notice. A pamphlet containing full directions for obtaining Patents sent free. THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Reference Book, a volume bound in cloth and gilt, containing the Patent Laws, Census of the U. S., and 142 Engravings of mechanical movements. Price 25

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BIT-TERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Regenerator and Invigorator of the system.
Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

M. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and General Agents, San Francisco, California, and cor. Washington and Charles Sts., New York.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs beyond repair.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary.
There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offerings of Dyspepsia.
One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scorfula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Gout, Rheumatic Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Blisters, Benighted and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Painters, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VIN-EGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Itch, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurvy, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthel-mintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of manhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Jaundice.—In all cases of jaundice, read assured that your liver is not doing its work.
The only sensible treatment is to promote the secretion of the bile and favor its removal. For this purpose use VINEGAR BIT-TERS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
