MAUSER'S NEW INVENTION.

Berlin, June 11.—Herr Mauser, the inventor of the well-known rifle bearing his name, has submitted to the German War Office a new mechanism that is applicable to pistols and carbines, which makes it possible to fire 90 shots a minute. He asserts that it will revolutionize cavalry equipment. The chief feature of the invention is the rapid automatic ejecting of the spent cartridge.

PRIVATE STEWART WINS AGAIN.

London, June 11.—At the royal military tournament yesterday, Pte. Stewart, of the Canadian Highlanders, won the Empire prize in the bayonet vs. bayonet contest. The award, with others, was made by the Duchess of Connaught, in the presence of the duke, Lord Wolseley, the commander-in-chief, and other military officers of high rank. The prize distribution was attended with great enthusiasm.

FOUGHT WITH SWORDS.

Paris, June 11.—A slighting remark regarding a cane carried by Count Robert de Montesquion by Mlle. Heredia, sister-in-law of Henri de Regnier, made the count furious. He at once issued a challenge to M. de Regnier, and it was as promptly accepted. The men fought savagely with swords for ten minutes, when Count de Montesquion received a severe wound on the back of the right hand, and the surgeon stopped the bout. The trouble had its origin in the alleged rank cowardice displayed by certain noblemen at the charity bazar fire.

FOR THE FAR NORTH.

London, June 11.—The steamer Windward started again for Franz Josef Land yesterday, in order to bring back from the Arctic regions the members of the Jackson-Harmsworth expedition, who have now spent three winters in the Arctic settlement, Elmwood, near Cape Flora, where they erected an observatory 2,000 feet above sea level. During the present summer the expedition was to make an attempt to reach the highest point north through an opening in Queen Victoria Sea, the open water discovered by Mr. Jackson. The Windward was enthusiastically cheered by a large crowd of people as she made her way down the River Thames. Included in her freight are four kayaks, made by Dr. Nansen for Mr. Jackson, and a folding boat intended for Prof. Andree, who expects to cross the Arctic regions this summer in a balloon from Franz Josef Land.

The Pall Mall Gazette, this afternoon, publishes a long editorial on the business and political outlook in America, during the course of which it says that no one but the most optimistic can see anything satisfactory or hopeful in either. Continuing, the Pall Mall Gazette criticises President McKinley, who, it says, "instead of playing the part of President, has been satisfied with the role of a party man."

Greece and Turkey.

Terms of Settlement Proposed by the Powers.

The Question of Evacuating Thessaly Proves Troublesome.

Constantinople, June 11.—In a memorandum submitted to the Turkish Government the powers propose that the crests of the mountains on the Greek frontier be occupied by Turkish instead of Greek troops, and also that the indemnity be in proportion to the resources of Greece. It is further proposed to modify the capitulations, or special privileges enjoyed by Greek subjects in Turkey, with the view of abolishing certain abuses which have been the subject of complaint upon the part of the Turks. It now rests with the Turkish Government as to whether peace will be concluded speedily or not, and it is believed that the sultan will resist as long as possible.

London, June 11.—The correspondent of the Daily News at Constantinople, under date of Wednesday, says: "The session of the peace conference called for today has been postponed. It is believed that Turkey is prepared to evacuate Thessaly, except the large tract north of the River Peneus, which includes Tyrnvos, Milouna Pass and other important points.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Standard says: At Tuesday's conference of the ambassadors for the discussion of the terms of peace, Tewfik Pasha was present, armed with categorical instructions to persist in the retention of Thessaly, given him by the sultan personally. When the conference ended, the sultan summoned his ministers to a special council at the Yildiz Kiosk, which decided that the evacuation of Thessaly was impossible, but that there was no necessity to precipitate action. It was also decided to continue actively the preparations for war.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Athens says: Extraordinary rumors are current as to the attitude of Germany. It is alleged that the German Government seeks to overthrow the Greek dynasty and to establish a rigorous control of Greek finances. In order to attain this object, Germany wants a continuance of the war, and to have the terms of peace finally dictated in Athens itself. These statements seem scarcely worthy of credence.

One of the Irish newspapers publishes a letter from Mr. Gladstone, in which he refers to the "insolence and audacity of the sultan's imperious request to be permitted to send envoys to the jubilee." Mr. Gladstone expresses the hope that prudence and decency will induce the Government to stifle the request, saying, "The envoys of the great assassin would meet with a disagreeable reception in England."

Looking for Laurier.

Warm Reception Awaiting Canada's Premier,

Who Is Expected to Reach Liverpool Today by the Lucania.

Liverpool, June 11.—A cordial reception has been prepared for the Canadian Premier, Mr. Wilfrid Laurier, who is expected here today on board the Cunard Line steamer Lucania. Sir Donald Smith, the Canadian High Commissioner, and others are waiting here to meet Mr. Laurier. The latter and Sir Donald Smith will remain in Liverpool over Saturday in order to attend the banquet of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce tomorrow. They will go to London on Monday.

Col. Ivor Herbert also is here making arrangements for the reception and transport to London of the Canadian contingent on board the Vancouver.

The Northwest Police horses arrived today. Two of them died while on the voyage across the Atlantic, but the others are in good condition.

ESPECIALLY HONORED

The Position of Canada's Representives in the Jubilee Procession.

London, June 11.—The Times gives the official programme of the procession for June 22, the Diamond Jubilee Day:

An imposing array of regulars, with bands, and seven batteries of artillery will form the vanguard. Then will come the royal aides-de-camp, the field marshals and their equerries, the foreign attaches and deputations, the Queen's Prussian Dragoons, the lord mayor, thirty-six English and foreign princes, the Indian escort, and Lord Wolseley, the commander-in-chief, immediately preceding the Queen, who will have the Duke of Cambridge on her left. Then will follow the gold-sticks-in-waiting, the masters of horse, and the masters of buckhounds, with their equerries, and the royal grooms. A large body of home and colonial troops will come next, the colonial troops forming the Queen's escort.

In the separate colonial procession, it will be noticeable that the Canadian troops are followed immediately by Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, who will be first of the advance guard of the Royal Horse Guards, while a portion of the Canadian troops will bring up the rear.

All the papers publish editorials, welcoming the colonial premiers and delegates, especially Mr. Laurier.

The Times, in an editorial upon the evident design that is displayed in the arrangement of the procession, says that the presence of the colonial premiers, headed by Mr. Laurier, a Frenchman and a Catholic, testifies to the breadth and solidity of the constitutional freedom the British colonies enjoy.

IRISH FAIR IN NEW YORK

Passenger Train Near Havana Blown Up by Insurgents.

Havana, June 11.—The early morning passenger train for Matanzas was dynamited about twelve miles from this city by insurgents. The engine was wrecked and fell into a pit 29 feet below, dragging three first-class cabs after it. At the same moment another explosion wrecked the pilot engine, which came to the rescue, and it fell into the pit also.

Both engineers, one fireman, one conductor and seven soldiers were killed and three passengers were severely injured, while 32 suffered more or less serious bruises.

MR. WHITNEY'S TOUR.

The Ontario Opposition Leader Reaches Chatham.

Chatham, June 11.—On the arrival here at noon of Mr. Whitney, leader of the Opposition in the Ontario House, he was met at the depot by a delegation of representative Conservatives, and he and his friends were driven to the Garner House, where they lunched. The Conservative Association of West Kent met during the afternoon and nominated Dr. W. R. Hall, of Chatham, as their candidate for the Legislature. The association also chose its officers for the year. The retiring president, Mr. C. J. O'Neil, of Chatham, read an address of welcome to Mr. Whitney, which, among other things, expressed the conviction that before the June roses bloomed again the new leader would be the Prime Minister of Ontario. Mr. Whitney addressed the meeting, which was well attended. Among the other speakers were Messrs. P. Killackey, Dr. Hall, Col. Matheson, and Mr. St. John.

Treacherous Foes!

Serious Trouble on India's Northern Frontier.

Small British Force Attacked by Overwhelming Numbers.

Desperate Encounter—All the British Officers Wounded—The Commander Killed.

Bombay, June 11.—A dispatch received here from Simla, the residence of the Indian Government officials during the heated period of the year, announces serious trouble on the northern frontier and the massacre of a number of British officers and native soldiers in the Government employ.

From the particulars obtainable at present it seems that two guns belonging to a Bombay mounted battery, escorted by 300 men belonging to the First Regiment of Sikhs and to the First Punjab Infantry, were treacherously attacked in the Techi Valley by a large force of hostile natives. The first report said that Col. Bunny, the officers and 25 privates had been killed and three officers and 25 men had been wounded. Later reports, however, seem to indicate that the affair is more than a mere conflict with warlike natives, and that the notorious Mullah of Poindah is at the bottom of the trouble.

It seems that a political officer, Mr. McGee, was visiting Shirani with an escort of troops, when he was attacked at Maiza by vastly superior forces. The British troops were compelled to retreat, and were followed for several miles by overwhelming numbers of the enemy.

THE FIGHTING WAS DESPERATE.

All the British officers were severely wounded. Capt. Brooke, of the First Sikhs, a son of the late Sir James Brown, and Lieut. Crookshank, of the Royal Artillery, were killed, and Surgeon Higginson, Lieut. Higginson, of the First Sikhs, and Lieut. Seaton-Browne, of the Punjab infantry, were wounded.

The second dispatch does not mention the death of Col. Bunny, but from the fact that it says that Col. Gray, from Miranshan, has taken over the command of the British forces engaged, it is inferred that Col. Bunny is also among the dead, as at first announced.

Techi Valley lies north and on the road to Ghuzni, and Waziristan. It is controlled by the British since the delimitation of the Indo-Afghan frontier. The tribes there have always been turbulent and anxiety is felt lest the other tribes rise against the British.

Bombay, June 11.—The news of the disaster on the frontier of British India has been officially confirmed.

Canada's Future Hopeful.

Significant Statement by General Manager Hague of the Merchants' Bank.

Montreal, June 10.—At the annual meeting of the Merchants' Bank the general manager, Mr. George Hague, delivered an interesting address. Mr. Hague considered the operations of the past year, on the whole, satisfactory, and the outlook hopeful. He dwelt on the need of developing, preserving, and protecting Canada's natural resources, her forests and her mines. He believed that Canada possessed all the fundamental requisites of a great manufacturing country. He spoke of the surprising progress of the Northwest, where 60,000,000 bushels of grain were now produced in what 25 years ago had been a wilderness. In no other place in the world as in Canada had as much wealth been produced by such a small number of people. England would do well to divert immigration hither. The people of Great Britain should be taught that Canada is not a land of snow and ice, and a work devoted to a description of life in Canada during the summer months should be serviceable to the country. Referring to the jubilee year, Mr. Hague quoted some interesting figures. In 1837 the capital of all the banks in Canada, including four in this province, three in Upper Canada, as well as those in the Maritime Provinces, had been $6,100,000, now it was $61,000,000; rest in 1837, practically nothing; 1897, $26,000,000; deposits, 1837, $2,500,000; 1897, $206,000,000; circulation, 1837, $3,600,000; 1897, $30,936,000; loans and discounts, 1837, $11,900,000; 1897, $217,000,000.

Mr. Hague also spoke of the appointment of Mr. Fyshe as his colleague, and explained that it had been his desire at his advanced age to be relieved of a certain portion of work, while at the same time he would be able to give his coadjutor and ultimate successor the benefit of his own long experience in managing the affairs of the Merchants' Bank. The report was adopted, and the old board re-elected.

A captive bee striving to escape has been made to record as many as 15,540 wing strokes per minute in a late test.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

Parliament.

Extension of the National Railway to Montreal.

The Intercolonial to be Made a Paying Investment.

Ottawa, June 11.—At yesterday afternoon's session in the House of Commons, Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Blair, who had been fighting keenly in the Railway Committee in the forenoon, crossed swords in the House in a discussion of the terms for the extension of the Intercolonial Railway to Montreal. The principle on which Mr. Blair proceeds in advising the extension of the Intercolonial, the Government Railway, is that to make the terminus of that road at Levis, near Quebec, as at present, will always prevent it from doing business in competition with the C. P. R. and G. T. R., which touch the great commercial centers of the country. He has therefore made provision, subject to the consent of Parliament, for the lease of the Drummond County Railway (33 miles of which are still to be built) for 99 years, at $70,000 a year, inclusive of $6,000 for the use of terminals at Chaudiere, the eastern terminus. At the end of the 99 years the railway becomes the absolute property of the country without further cost. The lease of this railway, which runs through a good country in the southern portion of Quebec, brings the Intercolonial to St. Rosalie, near St. Hyacinthe, a point on the Grand Trunk some 35 miles from Montreal. The Intercolonial after reaching this point will run to Montreal over the G. T. R. tracks and the Victoria bridge. For this $77,500 a year will be paid, $40,000 being for the right to use the bridge. For the use of the Grand Trunk terminals in Montreal $62,500 a year will be paid. On that part of the road between St. Rosalie and Montreal the Intercolonial acquires the right to do business and pick up passengers in the same way as if the Intercolonial owned the road. The Victoria bridge is to be double-tracked and improved by the Grand Trunk at a cost of almost $2,000,000. The total annual cost of the extension from Levis and getting into Montreal is $210,000 a year for the first 99 years and thereafter $146,000.

Sir Charles thundered against the arrangement and more than insinuated that it was a political one to relieve a prominent Liberal of Montreal, Mr. Greenshields, of a railway that does not pay and to give something to the Grand Trunk for the purchase of its good-will. He declared that after all the railway would, when extended, fail to take the business, because the C. P. R. has a shorter route by about 75 miles to Halifax.

Mr. Blair retorted to it all that the Intercolonial when it got to Montreal would have a commercial terminus, something it had never yet had. It was the business of the Government to put the road in a position effectively to compete with the other great railway systems of Canada.

Mr. Foster, following his leader, scented a political job and declared that it meant an addition of $7,000,000 to the debt of the country, capitalizing the annual cost at 3 per cent.

To this Mr. Tarte replied that it meant more than that—meant all the difference, in fact, between a deficit and a surplus of revenue in the Intercolonial. He believed, and the Government believed, that with a terminus in Montreal the Intercolonial would pay. In this belief they would go forward confidently, knowing that to extend the road in any other way than that decided upon would have added $15,000,000 at least to the public debt, the greater part for terminals in Montreal.

In the evening Sir Charles Tupper once more denounced the new scheme to make the Intercolonial a paying line.

The Minister of Railways added a number of important particulars in regard to the proposal. He pointed out that the Intercolonial in the past, although it cost $50,000,000 and runs 1,200 miles through Canada, had not a right to representation on the traffic boards of the great railways, no say in the fixing of rates, no means of effectively competing for traffic. Under the new arrangements, having its terminus at a great competing point, the Intercolonial will have a representative on the board, with power to force compliance with his reasonable demands, and the Intercolonial will have its traffic agents all over Western Canada, and under an agreement with the G. T. R. get that road to haul freight from the west to Montreal and hand it over there to the Intercolonial. This arrangement will result, Mr. Blair believes, in the diversion to Halifax and other Canadian ports of much produce now exported to Europe in winter by way of the Grand Trunk line to Portland. Turning to a discussion of Sir Charles' anxiety that the public debt should not be increased, Mr. Blair pictured, amid the cheers of the Liberals, the leader of the Opposition on his meteoric flight across Canada in June scattering promises of millions everywhere in the hope of securing the return of his party to power.

It was a speech that made Sir Charles rather savage, but that did much toward swinging the Liberals in enthusiastically behind the proposal.

The discussion ended for the evening after a few further observations by Mr. Foster, Mr. McMullen and others.

The House spent the remainder of the evening on the railway and canal estimates.

Nothing in the supplementary estimates relates to Western Ontario.

SPLIT OFF.

Ontario Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. Will Withdraw From U. S. Control.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 11.—It is practically settled that the Ontario Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., will sever all connection with the order in the United States.

The Supreme Lodge special committee last night decided to refuse the request of the Ontario delegates to continue fraternal relations and to end financial connection with the general order.

The case has been placed in the hands of the new supreme officers, and the excision of the Ontario branch, it is said on authority, will be ordered.

ARTISTIC JUBILEE TESTIMONIAL

From British-American Residents of Jamestown, New York.

Jamestown, N. Y., June 11.—Richard E. Toothill, an artist, of this city, has prepared his masterpiece in artistic penmanship, at the instance of the British-American residents of Jamestown, in the way of a testimonial, to be sent to Queen Victoria, for presentation on the anniversary of her 60 years' reign. The testimonial reads as follows:

"We, the British-American residents of the city of Jamestown, county of Chautauqua, State of New York, United States of America, hereby extend to you our hearty congratulations on the completion of the 60th year of your Majesty's reign as Queen of Great Britain and Ireland. While many of us have become adopted citizens of the United States and are loyal to its institutions, yet we appreciate and are proud of your many noble traits, and admire your devotion to and interest in the many trusts that have been reposed in you during your eventful and unprecedented reign. We assure you of our strong affection for your most gracious Majesty, and of the pleasure it gives us to be enabled to celebrate such a memorable event. We feel grateful that an all-wise providence has given to the world such a noble and true woman, and it is our hope that you may long be spared to reign over the millions of your devoted subjects. WALTER C. SUNDERLAND,
"RICHARD E. TOOTHILL,
"Committee."

This testimonial has been prepared by Mr. Toothill on a sheet of cardboard 15 by 18 inches in size, in five colors—gold, red, a tinge of green, blue and royal purple, with a border of gold and blue. Sunday it is to be sent to Hon. John Hay, Minister to Great Britain, for presentation to her Majesty.

BASEBALL.

HOW LONDON LOST.

Special to The Advertiser.

Guelph, June 10.—A small crowd witnessed one of the most exciting and hotly contested games of the season here this afternoon, when London and Guelph battled for supremacy on the green.

Sayers, the Leafs' latest acquisition, was in the box, and while he has undoubtedly wonderful speed and great curves, it cannot be said he altogether charmed the fans with his work. The Londons were evidently in great batting form, and they rapped out the ball in a most annoying and certainly surprising way to the natives, who expected a comparatively easy victory.

For the first three innings, third base was as far as a Leaf man could get, while clean hitting gave London a run in the third and fourth. In the fifth they were blanked, while the Leafs evened matters, when, on hits and a couple of errors and injudicious plays, they secured two runs. In the sixth and seventh the home team were blanked; in fact, they only hit Kershaw at all hard in the eighth inning, when they unexpectedly batted out five runs, after London had apparently won the game by their hard hitting in the seventh, netting four, and another in the eighth.

London failed to score in the ninth, and the score being a tie, the excitement was at fever heat, while the small attendance were straining their lung power to the limit in a vain hope of giving the visitors the "rattles."

Mellroy led off with a hit; big Dan died at first, and Sayers flied out. The chunky little Frenchman then selected a hickory, and, picking out a nice one, lambasted it over the fence, and won the game.

At the end of the seventh inning, with the score 6 to 2 in London's favor, the people were looking very blue, and had abandoned all hope of overhauling such a lead at that late stage of the game. But Kershaw revived hope when he allowed Vigneaux and Green to walk in the eighth after Mellroy had made a two bagger and Sayers a single. O'Brien also hit for a base, and Fischer sent the ball to center field for two bags.

London's clean hitting gave them the lead, and the Leafs' timely rapping out won the game.

Reid's umpiring caused any number of kicks on both sides, and in several cases there was cause for it. But he stuck to his decisions, and on the whole favored neither team. Score:

EAST END MERCHANTS AT BAT.

An exciting, but hardly scientific, game of baseball was played yesterday afternoon on the Military School grounds. One team consisted of London East merchants whose places of business are on the south side of Dundas street and the other of north side merchants. Only five innings were played, and, as one of the beaten batters expressed it afterwards, "That was enough." There was a large attendance, chiefly consisting of East End residents, who cheered losers and winners, good plays and bad plays, impartially and enthusiastically. Two East End physicians were on the grounds, and so was the military ambulance corps, with a stretcher, so that it was evident the players put themselves in great danger with their eyes open. Fortunately these elaborate preparations were not needed, as the worst did not happen. The score was 19 to 16 in favor of the south side players, who were W. E. Leng (captain), J. Ferguson, A. Mohr, Marlow, J. Fortner, Brooks, N. Willis, Smith and Brown. The north side were J. Childs (captain), J. W. Metherall, A. Farrow, J. Somerville, H. Gould, A. Black, Grose, Smith and Fawkes. Corp. Cockburn was an efficient umpire.

SUNDAY BALL KILLED.

Cleveland, June 11.—The jury in the case of John Powell, the member of the Cleveland Baseball Club, charged with playing baseball on Sunday, returned a verdict of guilty. This settles the fate of Sunday baseball in Cleveland.

HAMILTON'S POSITION.

Hamilton, Ont., June 11.—President Stroud, of the Hamilton baseball team, says he has had no correspondence in reference to transferring the Wilkesbarre franchise to Hamilton, and as far as he is concerned he would not consider it for this year at any rate. He is perfectly satisfied with the Canadian League, and, as the Hamiltons are making money, and stand at the top of the league, he prefers to keep them here and win the Canadian League pennant.

TORONTO MAY DROP OUT.

Guelph Herald: Daddy Downs and Conn, two members of the Toronto team, passed through the city this morning on their way to Port Huron, where they will play for the balance of the season. The Torontos are in the last throes of dissolution, and it is likely the team will disband Saturday night. They play in St. Thomas today and in London Friday and Saturday. President Davis has been apprised of the situation, and is hustling today to get the prospective vacancy filled. St. Thomas and Galt are spoken of. Should it be impossible to get another city to take Toronto's franchise, the league will likely continue with three clubs, and a schedule something after this style arranged:

Monday—Guelph at Hamilton.
Tuesday—Guelph at London.
Wednesday—London at Guelph.
Thursday—London at Hamilton.
Friday—Hamilton at London.
Saturday—Hamilton at Guelph.

By such a schedule arranged around to give each club its fair share of Wednesdays and Saturdays, the league ought to pay better than it has in the past. The traveling expense would be less than it is now, and there would be a game every day.

FLYS.

The Pittsburgs have made fewer errors than any team in the league.

Manager Watkins fines every Hoosier who is put out of the game $25.

The Reds have won thirteen games by one run so far this season.

Breckenridge, the champion home-run hitter of last year's New England League, has been appointed an umpire in that league.

Montreal won't do until the people turn out better than they did in the games with the Hams.—Hamilton Spectator.

The St. Thomas Journal claims that the Toronto baseball club promised to play there today, but broke the promise in order to play in London. The Journal says that "the Londons, who are afraid to play a game with the St. Thomas club, had undoubtedly a hand in Toronto's breaking off their agreement." This reference to London is altogether untrue. Toronto plays here at its own request.

The sale began at 1 o'clock, and was preceded by refreshments served to the visitors and intending bidders, most of whom had come down from London by the Great Eastern Railway during the forenoon. The luncheon previous to the sale was served in a great tent outside the stables. The Prince of Wales presided and toasted the Queen. The Princess of Wales, Princess Victoria of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark, and Mr. Wm. Waldorf Astor were among the notable onlookers. TROTTING AT STRATFORD.

Stratford, June 11.—The second day of the Stratford races was an ideal one, and it is estimated that between 2,500 and 3,000 persons paid admission. The track was in excellent shape, but fast time was not in evidence, except in the 2:50 green trot, which was a particularly fine race and created much enthusiasm. For the 2:24 pace there were seven entries, but Miss Delmarch was distanced in the second heat, leaving six starters in the final. Altar, the favorite, won in three straight heats, with Grit second, and Fred Darling and Molly Harper third and fourth. Summary:

There were six entries in the 2:30 trot, but Hilda was withdrawn in the third, and Lisbon in the fourth, leaving four starters in the race. There were seven collisions in this event, causing much damage to tires. It took seven heats to decide the winners of the first three places. Big Fanny withdrew with fourth money in the fifth heat, and three starters, Memona, Alean and St. George, contested the final heat. Summary:

2:23 trot; purse $500:

Memona, ch. m., D. Donnelly, Montreal	4	3	2

DEFENSE OF THE RED HEAD.

An Artist Who Fancies That Color of Hair Above All Others.

We went to our favorite bench in Lincoln Park, sitting so we could view the lake. I watched my artist friend who had asked me to take a quiet stroll with him. Between us there had been no great friendship; only a sincere responsiveness on my part to a most charming influence. He lazily puffed away at an excellent cigar. He was in a dreamy mood, and I was afraid he was going to be silent. He was a man of striking personal appearance, tall, dark, strong and sinewy. His eyes, though of fierce black, had kindly lines about them, softening the expression almost to tenderness.

I tried to open conversation by remarking:

"Come now, let us play 'truth upon honor' for one half hour."

"Very well. What shall the topic be?"

"Oh, anything from the Humphrey bills to the question, 'why has red hair been looked upon in all ages with aversion.'"

"Red hair!" exclaimed he. "There's no such thing. Don't let anyone convince you that there is any such thing as real red hair. What people call red hair is a mixture of two or three shades of yellow and brown. Call it auburn or Titian."

I saw that my friend was getting a far away look and would soon become reminiscent. He continued:

"I never knew a red haired girl to be stupid. She is always interesting, quick of action, quick of speech, quick to resent, quick to forgive, and, above all, sympathetic. She makes many bright speeches, and sometimes with the greatest naivete. For instance, I know a charming young lady on the North Side, a golden-haired belle, who boasts a family crest over 300 years old, whose wit is equalled only by her love of fun. She is somewhat religiously inclined. To a young gentleman who earnestly entreated her to waltz the other evening she returned the startling negative: "I'll be damned if I do.' Of course she meant it as a statement, not as an asseveration."

Red hair brings with it great sensibility. When the owner has blue eyes and brown brows and lashes she is of a sentimental turn of mind and always musical. Brown eyes and dark lashes are noted for their beauty and often develop great dramatic talent. Red hair always goes with strong emotions, and the red haired girl laughs and cries at the theater, while her dark haired sister looses half of life by being more dignified and less appreciative. "Yes," signified my friend, meditatively. "She is a lovable darling when she likes you, but sharper than a two-edged sword when she doesn't."

I looked at my artist friend in utter astonishment and wondered why my innocent remark had called for so much enthusiasm. However, I was rather pleased than otherwise, as my hair barely escaped the suspicious color.

"I see here is no room for argument here," I ventured to remark.

"Well, no," he laughingly replied, "but I'll tell you something for your own consolation. When I was abroad last year I came across a red haired club in Vienna, and to prevent fraudulent admissions every candidate was obliged to wash his hair in hot water before the committee."

"Your apology is accepted," I remarked.

"Oh," said my artist friend, "I am just freeing my mind."

"I glanced sideways at the artist. He had not quite recovered from his far away look, and I felt that I had unwittingly probed his very heart and wrested the secret of his life. Surely his heart, as well as his mind, was engaged in the defense of the red head, and, smiling inwardly, I said to him:

"Who are our red headed women of fame?"

"Well, there was Helen of Troy. No one can deny that she played a prominent part in history. Then there was Elizabeth of England, Joan of Arc, the ex-Empress Eugenie. The famous actress, Adelaide Neilson, had red hair, you know, and even one of her severest critics spoke of her hair as 'burnished gold that floated round her royal head.'

"In the literary world red hair is intensly admired. Emerson loved it. James Whitcomb Riley has written many poems on it, and in one he calls it 'nut brown hair with a golden gleam.' Dante Gabriel Rossetti's wife, who died when very young, had hair of yellow red, long and curling. He buried all his poems with her, but the friends who had wished for his fame had them removed a few years after, and found that the beautiful red hair had twined itself all about the manuscript."

"Well, this is all very eloquent," said I, "but it has aroused my curiosity. It makes me anxious to ask a question. As we are still playing at 'truth upon honor,' I suppose I may dare, for old times sake, er—er—Who is she? What is the name of your Titianesque beauty?"

But with a little, low laugh, my friend of the brush said:

"The half hour is up. Au revoir."—Chicago Times-Herald.

WHEN KATIE COMES.

When Katie comes climbin' to kiss me,
With the golden an' light-givin' hair,
An' is holdin' me tight
With her soft arms an' white,
It's "Oh! but you'll smother me, dear!
Then, what will you do for a mother to kiss?"
"An' I don't want no mother," says Katie, "but this!"

When Katie comes climbin' to kiss me,
It's "Oh! for the blue skies an' fair,
An' roses that bloom
In the valleys of gloom
When she's kissin' an' callin' me dear,
An' what would you do with no mother to kiss?"
"An' I'll always have this one," says Katie, "like this!"

THE CEDARS OF LEBANON.

Several Groups of the Famous Trees Are Still Standing.

In St. Nicholas there is an article entitled, "Silk and Cedars," by Henry Fenn, the artist, describing a visit to the mountains of Lebanon. Mr. Fenn says:

Every boy and girl of the Christian world has heard and read, over and over again, of the "Cedars of Lebanon," but very few have any idea of the locality and surroundings of the famous grove. It is a popular error, by the way, to suppose that there are no other cedars remaining besides this group at the head of the "Wady" (valley or canyon) Kadisha. There are to my knowledge ten other groves, some numbering thousands of trees. This particular group that we are about to visit is called by the Arabs by a name which means "Cedars of the Lord." They number about 400 trees, among them a circle of gigantic fellows that are called by the natives "The Twelve Apostles," upon the strength of an old tradition that Jesus and his disciples having come to this spot and left their staves standing on the ground, these staves sprouted into cedar trees.

There is every reason to suppose that in the time of King Solomon these scattered groves were part of an enormous unbroken forest, extending the entire length of the Lebanon range of mountains, about 100 miles, running nearly parallel with the Mediterranean shore from a little beow Beirut. The summits of the range are from fifteen to twenty miles from the coast.

The Lebanon—that is, the "White"—does not derive its name from glittering snow peaks, but from the white limestone cliffs of its summits. The first historical mention of the tree is in the Bible (II. Samuel, v., 2): "And Hiram, King of Tyre, sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built David an house."

From that day to this the people have been almost as reckless and wasteful of these noble giants of the mountains as our own people are of these cedars' first cousins, the redwood trees of the California coast range. As we approach the grove, which stands upon the top of a small hill, the foliage is almost black against the snow-covered crags of Dahrrel-Kadib, which rears its highest peak over 10,000 feet above the sea.

There is a Maronite chapel in the grove, its patriarch claiming the sole right to the sacred trees; and, luckily, the superstition with which the trees have been surrounded has been their salvation. All the cedars of Lebanon would have been demolished for redwood years ago were not the people threatened with dire calamity should they take a single stick.

Stevenson's unfinished novel, "St. Ives," will be completed by Mr. Quiller Couch.

His Work Done.

Dr. Parkhurst Retires From Politics.

Ceases to Exist as a Public Reformer and Will Take a Good Rest.

New York, June 11.—Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Parkhurst has retired from politics. He has also retired from the active work of the Society for the Prevention of Crime and of the City Vigilance League, and sails on the Germanic in order to recuperate. He was too weak to preach a farewell sermon but wrote in part as follows:

"My entire thought this summer will be given to the re-establishment of my health, and upon my return my one devotion will be to my pulpit, to the life and work of his church, and to the interests of its families, and individual members."

Mr. Rudd, the assistant pastor, was asked last evening if this sentence meant that Dr. Parkhurst intended to retire wholly from public life.

"If plain English means anything," Mr. Rudd said, "it means that you may state as strongly as possible that Dr. Parkhurst's career as a public man is ended. He intends to devote himself to the interests of his church. Dr. Parkhurst has won a magnificent victory. His outside work has kept him away from his church work a good deal."

"Then he will take no part in the coming campaign?"

"Exactly," said Mr. Rudd, "although if he feels called upon by some unusual circumstances to speak he may do so as a minister."

"How will this affect his connection with the City Vigilance League and the Society for the Prevention of Crime?"

"He will take no active hand in their proceedings, although he will not lose his interest in them."

"Does that mean that he will sever all official connection with them?"

"I do not think that this follows or that it is necessary," said Mr. Rudd, "but Dr. Parkhurst, as a public reformer, has ceased to exist."

Big Reduction in Freight Rates East and West.

Running Powers for Other Railways Guaranteed.

Monopoly in Coal Lands Broken by the Deal.

Ottawa, June 11.—Following is the text of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway resolution introduced by the Government last night:

Resolved—That it is expedient to grant an appropriation for a line of railway from Lethbridge, in the Territory of Alberta, through the Crow's Nest Pass, to Nelson, in the Province of British Columbia, and in consideration of the concessions hereinafter set forth a sum of $11,000 for each mile of said railway, not exceeding in the whole the sum of $3,630,000, payable by installments, on the completion of the several sections of the said railway of the length respectively of not less than ten miles; and the remainder on the completion of the whole, subject to the condition that a contract and agreement between her Majesty the Queen, acting in respect of the Dominion of Canada, and therein represented by the Minister of Railways and Canals, of the one part, and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, hereinafter called "The Company," of the other part, shall be first entered into in such form as the Governor in council may think fit, containing covenants, inter alia, on the part of the company to the following effect, that is to say:

(A) That the company will construct, or cause to be constructed, the said railway by such route and according to such descriptions and specifications and within such time or times as may be provided for in the said agreement, and, when completed, will operate the same forever.

(B) That the said line of railway shall be constructed through the town of MacLeod, and a station shall be established therein, unless the Governor in council is satisfied by the company that there is good cause for constructing the railway outside of the limits of the said town, in which case the said line of railway shall be located and a station established at a distance not greater than five hundred yards from said town limits.

(C) That so soon as the said railway is opened for traffic to Kootenay Lake, the local rates and tolls on that railway, and on any other railway used in connection therewith, and now or hereafter owned or leased by or operated on account of the company's main line in British Columbia, as well as the rates and tolls between any point on such line or lines on such railway, and any point on the main line of the company throughout Canada, or any other railway owned or leased by or operated on account of the company, including its lines of steamers in British Columbia, shall be first approved by the Governor in council, or by a railway commission, if, and when such commission is established by law, and shall at all times thereafter and from time to time shall be subject to revision and control in the manner aforesaid.

(D) That a reduction shall be made in the general rates and tolls of the company, as now charged, or as contained in its present freight tariff, whichever rates are now the lowest for carloads or otherwise upon the class of merchandise hereinafter mentioned, west bound, from and including Fort William and all points east of Fort William on the company's railway, to all points west of Fort William on the company's main line, or on any line of railway throughout Canada, owned, or leased or operated on account of the company, whether the shipment be by all-rail line or by lake and rail, such reduction to be to the extent of the following percentages, respectively, namely: Upon green and fresh fruits, 33⅓ per cent; coal oil, 20 per cent; cordage and binder twine, 10 per cent; agricultural implements of all kinds, set up, or in parts, 10 per cent; iron, including bar, band, Canada plates, galvanized, sheet, pipe, pipe fittings, nails, spikes and horseshoes, 10 per cent; all kinds of wire, 10 per cent; window glass, 10 per cent, paper, for building and roofing purposes, 10 per cent; roofing felt, box and packing, 10 per cent; paints of all kinds and oils, 10 per cent; live stock, 10 per cent; wooden ware, 10 per cent; household furniture, 10 per cent; and no higher rates than such reduced rates or tolls shall be hereafter charged by the company upon any such merchandise which shall be carried by the company between the points aforesaid, such reductions to take effect on or before the 1st of February, 1898.

(E) That there shall be reduction in the company's present rates and tolls on grain and flour from all points on its main line, branches or connections, west of Fort William, to Fort William and Fort Arthur, and points east, of three cents per 100 pounds, to take effect in the following manner: One and one-half cent per 100 pounds, on or before the 1st day of September, 1898, and an additional one and one-half cent per 100 pounds on or before the 1st day of September, 1899, and no higher rates than such reduced rates or tolls shall be charged after the dates mentioned on such merchandise from the points aforesaid.

(F) That the Railway Committee of the Privy Council may grant running powers over the said line of railway, and all its branches and connections, or any portions thereof, and all lines of railway now or hereafter owned or leased by or operated on account of the company in British Columbia south on account of the company's main line of railway, and the necessary use of its tracks, station and station grounds to any other railway company applying for such grant upon such terms as such committee may fix and determine, and according to the provisions of the Railway Act and such other general acts relating to railways as may from time to time be passed by the Parliament of Canada. Nothing herein shall be held to imply that such running powers might not be so granted without the special provision herein contained.

(G) That the said railway, when constructed, together with that portion of the company's railway from Dunmore to Lethbridge, and all lines of railway branches, connections and extensions in British Columbia, south of the main line of the company in British Columbia, shall be subject to the provisions of the Railway Act and of such other general acts relating to railways, as may from time to time be passed by the Parliament of Canada.

(H) That if the company or any other company, with whom it shall have any arrangement on the subject, shall, by constructing the said railway or any part of it, as stipulated for in the said agreement, become entitled to and shall get any lands as a subsidy from the Government of British Columbia, then such lands, excepting therefrom those which, in the opinion of the director of the Geological Survey of Canada (expressed in writing) are coal-bearing lands, shall be disposed of by the company or by such other company to the public, according to regulations and at prices not exceeding those prescribed from time to time by the Governor-in-Council, having regard to the then existing provincial regulations, applicable thereto, the expression "lands," including all minerals and timbers thereon, which shall be disposed of as aforesaid, either with or without the lands as the Governor-in-Council may direct.

(I) That if the company or any other company, with whom it shall have any arrangement on the subject, shall by constructing the said railway, or any part of it, as stipulated for in the said agreement, become entitled to and shall get any lands as a subsidy from the Government of British Columbia, which, in the opinion of the director of the Geological Survey of Canada (expressed in writing) are coal-bearing lands, then the company will cause to be conveyed to the crown, in the interest of Canada, a portion thereof to the extent of 50,000 acres, the same to be of equal value per acre as coal lands, with the residue of such lands, the said 50,000 acres to be selected by the Government in such fair and equitable manner as may be determined by the Governor-in-Council, and to be thereafter held or disposed of, or otherwise dealt with by the Government, as it may think fit, on such conditions, if any, as may be prescribed by the Governor-in-Council, for the purpose of securing a sufficient and suitable supply of coal to the public at reasonable prices, not exceeding $2 per ton of 2,000 pounds, free on board cars at the mines.

The C. P. R. will send an iced refrigrator car with perishable freight for St. John, N. B., and intermediate points every Saturday, traveling from all points in Western Ontario.

A Winnipeg, Man., dispatch says a transaction has just been closed at Port Arthur which transfers the charter of Ontario and Rainy River Railway from the first directors to W. and B. A. McKenzie, of Toronto.

A train of eight cars of race horses for the Detroit meet, made the run from Hamilton to London, 76 miles, in two hours and fifteen minutes, including a stop of twelve minutes. The train left Hamilton at 7:15, arrived in London at 9:30, started again at 11, and reached Windsor at 1:55. The distance is 119 miles.

Detroit Free Press: A mortgage for $50,000,000, given by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, was filed in the county registrar's office yesterday. The mortgagees are the United States Trust Company, of New York, and John T. Dyer, trustee. The object is to secure bonds amounting to the face of the mortgage, running from June 1, 1897, to June 1, 1997, and bearing 3½ per cent interest. Both principal and interest are stipulated to be payable in gold. These bonds are issued in consequence of the action taken at a directors' meeting held March 16 and approved by a majority of the stockholders at a meeting held May 20. The object of the loan is to redeem and refund the bonds and other obligations of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway, amounting to $43,192,000. Dyer & Co., of New York, bought the bonds about two months ago, and this registration is made to meet the requirements of the law.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has introduced an innovation in the way of a "newspaper," which will be distributed among the passengers on its east-bound "Soo" trains at Sudbury, containing the most important late American and foreign news. From Minneapolis to Sudbury is a long stretch to travel without access to the world's news, and the C. P. R.'s idea will probably meet hearty approval from the traveling public. The news will be that contained in the regular Associated Press reports, and will be reported from Montreal over the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Company's wires. At Sudbury the news will be taken in manifold and the duplicate sheets distributed among the passengers.

The late Myles Pennington, in his book, "Railways and Other Ways," gives an account of the freight charges on the first "railway" with which he was connected. It was a species of tramway between two canals. When Mr. Pennington had to make out his first way bill from Manchester to Preston he asked his employer where the rates were. "Oh, call in Joe, he knows most about rates," was the answer. Joe was one of the carters. The following conversation is then given as showing the way rates were arrived at. Mr. Pennington called out "Tommy Careful, one bale." "Fourteen pence," says Joe. "Billy Sharp, one bale." "He'll only stand a shilling," says Joe. "Peter Careless, one truss." "He'll stand eighteen pence." And thus the making out of the way bill went on, parties paying different rates for the same description of goods from same place. Rates were fixed at what a man would stand. Mr. Pennington gave this as a humorous reminiscence and contrast with the customs of today, but unfortunately we have not advanced so far beyond those methods as we would like to believe.

Crop Prospects.

Reports of the Outlook on Both Continents.

Big Deficit in the Wheat Crop of France—Manitoba Leads the List.

Washington, D. C., June 11.—The Agricultural Department has issued the cereal crop report. The report makes the acreage of winter wheat at present growing, after allowance for abandonment, 94.6 per cent of the area harvested last year, or 89.9 per cent of the area sown in the fall of 1896. This in round numbers is 21,562,000 acres. The percentage of spring wheat area for the entire country, as compared with that of 1896, has been increased, being 110 per cent of last year's acreage. The total area of spring wheat sown is therefore, in round numbers, 13,000,000 acres, and the combined winter and spring area is 34,569,000 acres, or 99.9 per cent of that harvested in 1896. The condition of spring wheat shows an average for the whole country of 89.6 per cent, against 99.9 per cent on June 1, 1896. The condition of all wheat is 82.7, against 87.6 per cent the same date last year. The acreage of rye is 93 per cent of last year's condition of rye, 89.9 per cent; acreage of barley, 92.2 per cent of last year's; condition of same, June 1, 87.4 per cent.

Reports from the consular offices of the United States in Manitoba and Western Ontario indicate good crops of both winter and spring grain. The spring acreage in the Winnipeg consular district is about 15 per cent greater than last year; while crops are about ten days earlier.

Reports from Eastern Ontario and Quebec are less favorable.

Inquiries made by the United States Minister to Argentina tend to show that this year's wheat acreage will not exceed last year's, and may be much less. Wheat growth is generally retarded by the backward season, and in Spain, Italy and Hungary, its quality is deteriorated by persistent rains. Condition is reported improving in Northern Europe; also in Roumania; Bulgaria and parts of Russia, but not in Poland or the southwestern provinces. The deficiency of the crop in France is now estimated from 35,000,000 to 55,000,000 bushels.

New York, June 11.—The Liverpool Corn Trade News cables Bradstreet's a revised total of European and afloat stocks of wheat, showing a decrease of 3,000,000 instead of 300,000 bushels last week, owing principally to the decrease in Russian supplies.

JOHN CAMERON, President and Manag. Dir.

God's in His heaven,
All's right with the world.
—Browning.

London, Friday, June 11, 1897.

In Lexington, Ky., boys who steal bicycles are soundly whipped for the first offense. They very rarely try it again.

Almighty Voice is undoubtedly dead, but Almighty Imagination continues to lead the Opposition in the Dominion House of Commons.

The Dominion Government is taking steps to secure the return of French-Canadians now finding it hard to make a living in the towns of the Eastern States. The intention is to place them on the new and fertile lands of Northern Quebec.

The Montreal Star, though generally supporting the Opposition, admits that Mr. Laurier "has got together an emphatically go-ahead Government. It does things." And candid critics admit that it is working for the promotion of the whole people.

What has become of the old-fashioned 20-odd-year-old maiden who was willing to wash dishes while her mother took a much-needed nap?—Philadelphia Ledger.

In Canada that kind of maiden married happily, and is now enabled to enjoy life, by the agency of her well-trained daughter, as did her mother before her. Does our contemporary find the species extinct in its bailiewick?

There is considerable complaint in many of the churches of a lack of money—of indisposition to contribute liberally to the funds for promoting the work of the church. A candid investigation would probably reveal the fact that the reason for the shortcomings in this regard is the long period of depression through which the country has passed. Now that it is emerging from this unsatisfactory condition of affairs, improvement all along the line may be expected.

The Canadian hen is on the top. Hon. Mr. Fisher, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, has been advised by the egg dealers of Western Ontario that they will require 50 cold storage cars during each of the months of July, August, September, October, and November, for the carrying of eggs to be shipped to the British market. And the trade, under cold storage facilities, is but beginning. Let the roosters crow and the hens lay, and confounded be he who first shouts, "Hold! enough!"

Referring to the visit of the Premiers of Britain beyond the Sea, the London, England, Empire says:

"It is a commentary on the system under which the honors of the Most Noble Order of St. Michael and St. George are bestowed, that of the ten Premiers, the four strongest are untitled. Messrs. Laurier (Canada), Reid (New South Wales), Kingston (South Australia), and Seddon (New Zealand), would outweigh any four of their fellow Prime Ministers, mentally as well as physically."

It is never too late to mend.

By the death of Mr. Nicholas Awrey, registrar of Wentworth county, a man of marked personality has been removed from the public service. Mr. Awrey, who was a native Canadian, early entered public life, and from 1879 till two years ago represented South Wentworth in the Legislature. He was a Liberal, and took an active part in promoting a number of progressive measures. When Dr. Lewis Springer died two years ago, Mr. Awrey was appointed to the office of registrar, his selection being approved on all sides.

Hon. Mr. Wark, the New Brunswick veteran statesman, who made the masterly address in the Dominion Senate the other night in favor of in every possible way promoting closer relations between the motherland and the colonies, is the father of Parliament. He has entered on his 95th year, and has been a legislator in his province or a member of Parliament for the long period of 52 years. Senator Wark is by birth an Irishman, and he is a fine type of the progressive citizens which that island has given to every English-speaking country in the world.

Bishop Sweetman, of the Anglican Diocese, Toronto, at the opening of the synod, spoke strongly on the question of divorce and the sacredness of the marriage tie. Pending more stringent legislation, the bishop urged the clergy not to sanction the marriage of divorcees, and to discourage clandestine marriages by giving as much publicity as possible to the ceremony. These are important suggestions. Divorce has been encouraged in this country by the ease with which a dissatisfied person could cross the border, get a divorce, and remarrying, return to Canada, where all was forgiven. In future, marriages so contracted will not be held valid in Canada, and other salutary legislation along the same line is now pending in the Dominion Parliament.

To light a six-roomed house for $1 a month by means of an electric mixture, which can be sold around the streets in rubber pails as a milkman delivers milk, is what John F. Magner, a deputy sheriff of Mill Valley, Cal., says he can do. Magner is an electrician, and two years ago, while trying to find a method of running an electric elevator by a battery instead of a motor, the idea came to him to get an arc light out of a battery. He experimented, and two months ago produced the light. Then, trying to increase the light by increasing the solution, he lost it, only to find it later. He uses four cells, producing about five volts each. In each cell are two poles of carbon and zinc. Other batteries differ in this respect by having but one pole to each cell. The results, however, are produced by the solution, which, of course, is secret. If Mr. Magner can make good his promise, he will easily make his fortune in a short time. It will be a comical thing to have an electric light delivered in the same basket as the groceries!

Going Ahead.

Everything and everybody except the disgruntled politician is working to promote good times these days. The tide has turned. The crop outlook is good. Railway and mining development are about to proceed in Northern Ontario and British Columbia. The tariff of Canada will be a settled quantity in the next few days. Our neighbors in the United States say they cannot buy and sell, even as freely as a restrictive tariff will allow, till their tax rates are fixed, but they, too, are hurrying along the Dingley bill, and the revised measure will be law in a week or two. British trade is good, prices of articles needed there are not so low as they were last year, our cold storage arrangements will help to largely increase profitable shipments, and so one agency or another will add to the prosperity of the producer and the consumer, and promote the confidence which is the root of all staple advancement.

Equestrian Feats Extraordinary

The Hamilton Spectator is prepared to take Mr. Whitney on trust on the liquor question, and to support him without knowing what his attitude to it is. One thing only it guarantees—that "no attempt will be made to ride two horses."

Where does our contemporary get this guarantee? Certainly not from the past attitude of the aggregation which has the making and unmaking of Mr. Whitney as a party leader.

It is not so long ago since Mr. Whitney and his friends were enthusiastic supporters of a scheme to take the control of the liquor traffic out of the management of the provinces and to place it under the control of the Dominion Government of the day. The scheme so far succeeded that Dominion license commissioners and inspectors were appointed and a large sum of public money was squandered in endeavoring to maintain the illegal attack.

At another time, Mr. Whitney and his friends were enthusiastic promoters of a scheme to place the license-granting power in the hands of the councils, and to re-establish the very unsatisfactory order of things which prevailed prior to the passage of the Crooks Act.

Still another policy of the Opposition, as developed immediately prior to the last Ontario general elections, was to abolish the retail trade in liquor altogether. Mr. Marter, Opposition leader, in this city, at the bye-election in which Mr. Essery was the Conservative champion, laid that line of prohibition down as part of the party platform, though he subsequently stated that the declaration was made in a moment of weakness.

Talk of riding two horses on this question! The Ontario Conservative Opposition has endeavored to ride half a dozen nags, sometimes tackling two or three at a time, and it is not probable that the electors will now accept any pea under the shell policy from Mr. Whitney on this or any other question.

Which horse rides Whitney and his followers now?

Finish the Feeding.

Last week nine carloads of stocker cattle were shipped by way of Port Huron from Canada to the Western States. They will be fed there by the enterprising farmers and shipped to Great Britain. Why should our agriculturists not profitably feed these animals themselves, and market them in the motherland? Once the excuse was that there was no cheap feed, and that was why thousands of half-fed animals were sent to the old country or to the States. Now, with corn tax free, the feeding conditions are as advantageous in Canada as in the United States, and it seems a shortsighted policy to lose the money-making agencies resulting from selling the animal to be fed in a foreign country, and afterwards sent to the old country to be sold in competition with our exports of meat.

Consolation.

When they read some of the prophecies regarding apprehended jubilee day casualties and calamities in the British metropolis, Canadians who have to stay at home will rejoice. The correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald has been considering the situation, and he records a significant moan of apprehension from the fire department. After a survey of the miles of pine board stands that have been erected along the route for the accommodation of spectators, the chief has declared that in the case of an alarm of fire when the crowd shall be in occupation of the streets it would be impossible for the department to respond with any effectual service. As a result of the jubilee celebration of 1887 there were 482 hospital cases, besides twelve persons killed outright, and something over 3,000 men and women fainted and fell in the crowd of standing sight-seers. It is estimated that as the crowd will be twice as great the casualties of 1897 will be at least 50 per cent greater than those of 1887. But for all that June 22 will be a gay occasion.

EXTRAORDINARY.

Montreal Herald.

What an extraordinary Government this is we have at Ottawa. First, they make a steamship contract at a price lower than the unsuccessful contractors, whose tender was refused, think the work can be done for; and here now is the Postmaster-General making public how he has been cancelling hundreds of mail contracts which had been entered into by his predecessors at high prices without tenders, and making new ones at much lower figures; and thus, as the Gazette warmingly says: "Setting a precedent that Liberal Ministers may yet have reason to regret."

THE SUCCESSION TAX.

Ottawa Journal.

Some of the planks of Mr. Whitney's platform in opposition to the Liberal Government of Ontario are very good ones, but it is a pity that he questions the desirability of the succession tax.

The imposition of a moderate tax upon the large estates left by wealthy men surely seems the least oppressive of all kinds of taxation. It imposes no burden upon anybody, it is accurate, and easily levied, it is a fair contribution by large properties to the maintenance of the laws and institutions which facilitated the accumulation and protected the enjoyment of the wealth.

Under the Ontario law, no estate worth less than $100,000 is taxed if bequeathed to direct heirs. From $100,000 to $200,000 the tax is only 2½ per cent, and over $200,000 only 5 per cent. Those who inherit large fortunes which they have not worked for, fortunes built up partly by the assistance of the laws, can well afford to let so small a part pass to the maintenance of the state. Taxation is based upon expediency; There is no clearer expediency than this. It is a pity that Mr. Whitney criticises the principle.

The Keystone Gun Club, of Windsor, has arranged a two days' shoot at Sandwich, commencing on June 24.

The Walkerton Town Council has requested the Masonic Grand Lodge to lay the foundation stone of the new town hall.

Mr. James Armstrong's general store at Lyons was entered by burglars on Wednesday night and a number of articles stolen, besides some cash.

Mr. W. Hales, of Dutton, and Mr. Wilkinson, of Galt, shipped four cars of cattle to the old country the other day, for which they paid over $5,000.

Owing to recent excessive rains new fungoid growth has developed on the wheat fields of the St. Thomas district. The parasite is not the ordinary rusts of wheat.

A convention of the Liberals of West Elgin will be held in Dutton on Tuesday, June 29, for nominating a candidate to contest the riding for the Ontario Legislature.

The Walkerville Council has passed the bylaw permitting the street railway to build a lop line in that place, connecting the Sandwich and Wyandotte street lines.

John Davey, painter, Windsor, fell on Curry avenue, a distance of twelve feet. He has concussion of the brain, and his right wrist is broken, but he is expected to recover.

A big gray horse, weighing 2,800 pounds, owned by W. Chaplow, Southwold, fell into a cistern on Sunday. It required fourteen men to get it out, and they labored for an hour.

The Leamington company of the Essex Fusiliers has accepted the invitation to take part in the jubilee celebration by Walkerville. The Essex company has not made up its mind yet what it will do.

At the June sessions of the County Court at Sandwich, a true bill was returned against ex-Mayor Mason for breaking into a store in the Fleming block, Windsor, and removing and destroying property.

David Clock, aged 80, who had been an inmate of the Elgin House of Industry for twenty years, is dead of old age. Deceased was a bachelor. He worked many years for Ed. Weldon, on the Port Stanley gravel road.

On Wednesday night the general store of Wm. Schroeder, Chesley, was broken into. Entrance was made by breaking a large pane of glass in one of the street doors, but they took away no plunder, and the only damage so far as seen is the breaking of the glass door and the smashing of a valuable show case.

The Essex County Council has cut the salaries of county treasurer from $1,600 to $1,450, the county clerk from $630 to $600, and the county stenographer from $600 to $450. The county auditors put in bills for $8 a day, but were cut down to $5. The bylaw authorizing the loan of $10,000 to pay the balance of the indebtedness incurred in repairing the county buildings was passed.

On Friday evening, at her father's residence, Head street, Chatham, Miss Eva Bolton was married to Isaac French, of Chatham township. Miss S. Greenwood, of Wallaceburg was bridesmaid, the bridegroom being supported by his brother, J. French. The knot was tied by Rev. F. H. Larkin, in the presence of relatives from Wallaceburg, Florence, Croton and other places.

At the meeting of the St. Clair district, No. 14, I. O. O. F., held in Sarnia on Tuesday, representatives were present from Petrolea, Moorestown, Brigden, Point Edward and Sarnia lodges. D. D. G. M. Wood, of Mooretown, presented a very encouraging report of his official visit to each subordinate lodge. The representatives added verbal reports of satisfactory working and progress in their several localities. C. Sanders, of Sarnia, was elected D. D. G. M., and R. E. LeSueur district secretary.

Inspector Levitt, of the customs department, Toronto, made a descent upon the tobacconists of Windsor on Thursday morning, accompanied by Provincial Detective MacRae. They were looking for smuggled American chewing tobacco and cigarettes, but it happened that the tobacconists had none of these articles with the exception of Charles Steward, barber and tobacconist. The officers seized a quantity of goods in his store, amounting in value, Steward says, to about $7.

Chas. W. Moore and Chas. Brown were convicted in the general sessions at Chatham on Thursday of robbing the store of John McConnell on April 26. The men held up the proprietor, clerks and customers and secured about $100. The case occupied the day. The jury was out about 40 minutes, returning with a verdict of guilty. The prisoners will be tried today (Friday) on charges of attempting to murder Detectives Mahoney and Campau, of Windsor, who arrested them. Detective Mohoney, who was shot during the scrimmage, is now almost fully recovered.

Chatham Banner: "The outlook for tobacco growers in South Essex is very poor. The growers generally raise their own plants from the seed in the spring. They select a spot where the earth is fine and rich, and much heat is needed to make the plants grow well. This spring has been so cold and wet that the seed will not germinate. As few of the growers tried to raise the plants in hot-houses there is a great scarcity of them. One man near Union had 300,000 plants, but this supply was soon exhausted. It is quite possible that there will be very little tobacco grown near Leamington this year."

A fatal accident was narrowly averted at Cainsville, three miles from Brantford, on Wednesday afternoon. Three men were employed at the erection of a building at the rear of the new cheese factory. Suddenly the building took a lurch for ten feet towards the river bank, and buried the three men in the debris. Hately and his assistant had a marvelous escape, with only a few scratches, but a man named Homes was pinned to the ground by falling timbers, and held there for twenty minutes before he could be released. His legs and the lower part of his body were pretty badly injured.

Walter Wright, who was conducting the case of his uncle, the ex-county treasurer of Essex, before the county council, died suddenly Wednesday night of apoplexy. His uncle was accused of being short in his accounts. Wright undertook to show that the apparent deficiency arose from a defective system of book-keeping, and so recover the amount that had been demanded from his uncle's bondsmen. The council refused to see it in that light, and Wright was pressing the case when he dropped dead. He was 56 years of age, and unmarried. Deceased was a brother of Dr. J. B. Wright and Arthur Wright, both of Detroit, and had three sisters in Windsor.

John Mulder (colored) was acquitted of stealing wheat from Wm. Heaton, of Colchester South. At his last trial, the jury disagreed, but convicted Hughbanks of being an accessory to the robbery. He was sent to Kingston Penitentiary for four years, but was brought up to give evidence against Mulder. He swore that he was hired by Mulder, to drive the wheat, but some saloon-keepers from Harrow swore that Mulder was in that place at 10 o'clock of the morning following the robbery, the time that Mulder was said by the crown witnesses to be selling the grain at Essex.

RUSH OF GRAIN FOR EXPORT.

The present elevator capacity at Midland, Ont., is being tested to the utmost by the amount of grain arriving there for shipment through by the Grand Trunk for export. At the present time three grain vessels are unloading there, and seven more are expected to arrive this week. All this grain comes by way of Chicago and is not exported from Montreal, but by way of Boston usually.

CHESTERVILLE.

Chesterville, Ont., June 10.—At a meeting of the cheese board, held here this evening, 1,200 boxes of cheese were boarded—840 colored, balance white; 8⅝c offered for white and colored, and 619 sold. A large number of buyers and salesmen were present, and a great deal of enthusiasm prevailed.

Live Stock Markets.

MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., June 10.—There were about 500 head of butchers' cattle, 400 calves, 600 sheep and lambs, and 50 store hogs and small pigs offered for sale at the east end abattoir today. The butchers were present in large numbers, and trade was fair. Prices were somewhat lower all round, excepting for large sheep to ship to Britain. Prime beeves sold at about 4c per lb, a few of the best bringing nearly 4¼c per lb. Pretty good stock sold at from 3½c to 3¾c, and the common animals at from 2¼c to 3c per lb.

Some calves were sold at from $1 50 to $7, but most of the sales were at from $2 50 to $4 each.

Sheep sold at from 3¼c to a little over 4c per lb; lambs brought from $2 to $3 50 each.

Fat hogs rather plentiful, and sold at from $5 to $5 40 per 100 lbs. Store hogs usually bring from $5 to $7 each, and the small pigs from $1 25 to $2 each.

NEW YORK.

New York, June 10.—Receipts of beeves, 847; none on sale; dressed beef firm, at 7c to 9c for native sides; no exports.

Calves—Receipts, 373; active and firm; veals, $4 to $6 25; buttermilk calves, $3 50 to $4 25; city dressed veals, 8c to 10c per pound.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 6,528; slow; sheep weak; yearlings steady; lambs ¼c lower; sheep, $3 to $4 50; yearlings, $4 to $5; lambs, $5 to $6 25; dressed mutton, 7c to 9c; dressed yearlings, 8c to 10c; dressed lambs, 8¾c to 11¾c.

Hogs—Receipts, 2,041; steady, at $4 to $4 35.

EAST BUFFALO.

East Buffalo, N. Y., June 10.—Cattle—Receipts light; only one fresh car of sale cattle, and the same number held over; the market ruled with a poor inquiry from all sources, and even some of the small butchers' lots that came in since Monday were not sold until today; reports from both ends of the line are not at all encouraging, but dealers here look for fully as good prices on the good dry fed stock, as obtained early in the week.

Veals and calves—Receipts, 75 to 85 head; trade was fairly active, and good stock brought the full prices of several days past; prime veals sold at $5 50 to $5 75; good to choice lots, $4 75 to $5 25; common to fair, $3 50 to $4 50.

Hogs—Receipts, 20 double deck cars; the demand was neglected; packers offered lower prices, and sellers were forced to accept; good to choice Yorkers, $3 60 to $3 65; mixed packers' grades, $3 65 to $3 70; medium weights, $3 60 to $3 65; heavy hogs, $3 60 to $3 65; roughs, $3 10 to $3 25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, exceedingly light—only two cars of fresh stock and 3½ that held over; the market was higher, but the principal cause of this was the light supply, and almost entire absence of good dry-fed stock outside of the few choice export lambs, which are in very good demand at present, or good heavy export sheep, but lambs are preferred. The good handy sheep here also sold strong, but the bulk of the light handy sheep that have been offered this week were too green for any purpose; extra export lambs, $4 95 to $5 10; native lambs, choice to prime, $4 70 to $4 85; good to choice, $4 40 to $4 65; common to good do, $4 25 to $4 40; common to good culls, $3 25 to $4; fair to choice mixed sheep, $3 75 to $4 20; culls and common sheep, $2 25 to $3 65; export sheep, $4 15 to $4 40.

TORONTO HOG MARKET.

Toronto, Ont., June 11.—Receipts today, 984 hogs. Singers, $5 50; thick, fat and light, 5c, off cars.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, June 11.—Hogs—Estimated receipts today, 26,000; left over, 4,000; fairly active, steady; light, $3 35 to $3 55; mixed, $3 35 to $3 50; heavy, $3 15 to $3 45; rough, $3 15 to $3 25.

Cattle—Receipts, 3,000; slow and weak; beeves, $4 to $5; cows and heifers, $2 to $4 50; Texas steers, $3 25 to $4 40; stockers and feeders, $3 60 to $4 60.

Sheep—Receipts, 6,000; slow, but steady.

They Are Good.

Mr. James Hagan, the well-known ex-alderman of Kemptville, Ont., says: "For some years I have been greatly troubled with pain across my back. Urinary troubles caused me much loss of sleep, and I suffered from a tired, worn out feeling. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief in a short time. The pain in my back has disappeared, and I feel that I would be doing wrong not to recommend them to others suffering as I did. They are the best medicine I ever used."

Powerful saline and other drastic purgatives should be strictly avoided except in extreme cases. When an aperient is called for, take Ayer's Pills. They restore natural action by imparting strength and tone to the bowels, and their use is always attended with good results.

Closing Hours

Of the Synod of Huron's Sessions.

Personnel of Important Committees — The Bishop's Final Remarks— Decisions of the Executive Committee.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON—CONTINUED.

The address to the throne was read, the Synod standing. It was as follows: "We, the bishops, the clergy and lay representatives of the Church of England in the Diocese of Huron, in Synod assembled, approach your most gracious Majesty on this 60th anniversary of the happiest, longest, most prosperous and progressive reign in British history, to convey to your Majesty the expression of our devoted loyalty, as members of the Church of England in Canada, to your Majesty's most gracious person and to your ancient and illustrous throne. We believe the advances made in the perfection of responsible government throughout your Majesty's dominions, the greater mingling of mercy with justice, which has characterized the legislation and government of your Majesty's reign, the elevation of the standard of morality, public and private, the sending abroad the light of the truth and the bringing out of darkness into light, through the agency of your Majesty's subjects, of more nations and peoples than in any age since the first ages of the church, have been largely due, under God, to your Majesty's high and true sense of duty to God and your subjects and to the inspiration of God's holy word and the teaching of his church, and we thankfully recognize God's blessing in the unparalleled progress, prosperity and peace which he has sent to us in your Majesty's long and happy reign, and we pray that the King of Kings and Lord of Lords may continue to preserve, bless and guide you for many years to come as our ruler upon the throne of your fathers."

The address, as read by Rev. D. Williams, was unanimously carried, the members, at the suggestion of Col. Gilkinson, joined in singing the National Anthem.

Rev. Canon Young moved for a committee to draft an address to the bishop on the occasion of his leaving to attend the Lambeth Conference. Chancellor Cronyn took the chair, and the motion was carried amid applause.

The following address was subsequently presented:

"We, the members of the Synod of the Diocese of Huron, hearing that it is your lordship's intention to attend the approaching meeting of the Lambeth Conference, at the invitation of the Primate of all England, on the 1,300th anniversary of the foundation of the See of Canterbury, this Synod cannot allow you to leave your diocese even thus temporarily, without assuring you of our deep appreciation of the unwaried diligence, faithfulness and zeal with which, for the past 13 years, you have administered the affairs of this large diocese, and of the unfailing kindness which you have shown to all the members of the church, both clerical and lay. We unite in praying that your lordship's visit may afford you much pleasure and benefit from intercourse with the members of the Episcopate of our communion, and also result in unison with the councils of your brethren in promoting unity and extension of the church among the English-speaking peoples of the world, and to those nations and tribes who yet lie in darkness and the shadow of death; that Almighty God may watch over you in your journeyings by land and by water, and bring you back to us and to your family in safety and peace is our wish and prayer in your behalf."

The report of the committee on temperance was presented by Rev. W. J. Taylor, and showed, first, the state of the cause in England to be making good progress, many bishops and clergy heartily laboring to promote it. Next, the cause in Canada is stated to be making progress, as evidenced by instruction given in schools, and the exclusion of liquor sellers from various societies. The cause in this diocese is also making progress. The report refers to the new license act as being, though not perfect, a progressive one. No prohibition act is of service unless supported by public opinion, and while we would hail with delight a really effective prohibitory law, we are inclined in default of that to refuse any restrictive measure. In regard to the coming plebiscite, the committee refer to the declaration made by the Synod. If a further struggle is to be inaugurated against the traffic in liquors, then our church will be found on the Lord's side, fighting against evil. This states the position of the synod with regard to the coming plebiscite. The Synod of Montreal pledged itself to do all in its power to make the next plebiscite a success. Reference was made to the Gothenburg system, and much credit given to Mr. R. D. Noble for efforts put forth. Judgment is reserved in regard to the success of that system.

The report was unanimously adopted.

Principal Dymond presented the report of the board of management of the Lay Workers' Association. The principal features have already been published. The report was adopted.

The committee on religious instruction asked to be continued. Granted.

Mr. Wilson asked that the committee on the general synod be allowed to report at next synod instead of at this. Granted.

The business named on the convening circular was then taken up. Chancellor Cronyn asked for a committee of three clergymen and three laymen to be nominated by the bishop, to act as a committee on patronage, the bishop or commissary to be chairman, said committee to be for consultation purposes only. After considerable discussion the resolution passed in the above form.

Rev. W. Craig asked for a committee to look into the case of unused churches. Granted.

Principal Dymond moved to amend the canon on the episcopal and archdeacons' fund (canon 25), in order to comply with the terms of the award.

The first clause provides that the sum of $33,333 33, being the amount of the award from Toronto, and the sum provided by the Diocese of Huron, shall be set apart as a specific fund to be called the award provision for bishop and archdeacon. The second clause provided that the capital of said fund shall be held in trust by the synod to invest and manage, and out of the net proceeds to pay to the bishop four-fifths and to Archdeacon of Huron one-fifth of the same. These two clauses carried.

The synod then adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

Clause 3 of the proposed canon on the episcopal and archdeacons' fund provided that the executive committee or synod shall direct which archdeacon shall receive the portion of the award. This was amended to read that the bishop shall say who shall receive it. The fourth clause provided that the balance be paid to the bishop. The new canon as amended was then passed.

Col. Gilkinson moved that women be allowed to vote in vestry. The colonel urged the qualification of women to vote as evidenced by the business done by the W. A. M. A.

Mr. G. T. Flory seconded, and spoke of the good work accomplished by ladies, and said they should be encouraged.

Dr. Bowlby thought ladies would then want to become delegates to synod, and in that case it would extend the length of the session.

Mr. H. Macklin favored the motion in a vigorous speech, showing women to be equal to men in education and intelligence.

Rev. J. Hill spoke in favor of the motion, and pointed to the fact that the privilege had been taken away by the Synod of Huron.

Rev. J. Ardill thought women were not anxious to become members of vestries.

The motion was lost.

Resolutions proposed by Revs. D. Williams, W. Craig and T. L. Armstrong were withdrawn or sent to the executive committee.

Rev. T. L. Armstrong's motion in regard to the mission fund was amended to read that the pro rata clause shall not be enforced to a sufficient extent in any case to reduce the total income to which a clergyman may be entitled below the sum of $700.

Rev. W. T. Taylor's motion in regard to the disabilities of colonial clergymen was withdrawn.

The bishop announced the advisory committee on patronage to be Archdeacon Davis, Canon Young, W. Craig, V. Cronyn, Matthew Wilson and T. H. Luscombe.

The synod adjourned to 9:30 a.m. today.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The synod reassembled at 9:30 a.m., the bishop in the chair. After prayer by the dean the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. The bishop named the following committees:

Committee on Sunday Schools—Revs. John Downie, G. C. Mackenzie, Wm. Shore, R. McCosh, W. J. Taylor, J. Edmonds, Messrs. Jas. Woods, T. H. Luscombe, J. B. Dale, J. D. Noble and Judge Woods.

Church and Parsonage Building Committee—Revs. Canon Young, W. Craig and J. Downie, Messrs. V. Cronyn and P. Holt.

Provincial Reorganization—The dean, Archdeacon Davis, Canon Young, A. Brown, T. R. Davis, R. McCosh, R. Hicks, J. Downie, Messrs. V. Cronyn, R. Bayly, C. Jenkins, Judge Ermatinger, Matthew Wilson, P. Holt, A. H. Dymond and James Woods.

THE BISHOP'S CLOSING REMARKS

The bishop said he had approached the synod at first with feelings of anxiety, knowing that they were called upon to face a deficit and to make reductions in the salaries of men who were already receiving little enough. He thanked God that the business had been brought through with so much calmness and unanimity. He trusted they would all separate, determined to do all in their power to rectify matters. He trusted that all had been done for the promotion of God's glory and the good of his church.

The synod closed with the doxology and benediction.

The new executive committee met at the close of the synod, and after routine the matter referring to the reorganization of Port Stanley, Dutton, etc., was reconsidered, and after discussion it was resolved to confirm the separation of Port Stanley from St. Thomas and to separate Dutton from Tyrconnel.

On motion it was resolved that the pro rata reduction of salaries should commence with May 1, 1897.

The Presbyterian General Assembly Meets at Winnipeg.

Unanimous Choice for Moderator, Dr. Moore, Ottawa.

Important Business to Come Before the Gathering.

Winnipeg, June 11.—The Presbyterian General Assembly opened in St. Andrew's Church last night. Rev. Dr. Gordon, of Halifax, the retiring moderator, preached from the text: "We would see Jesus," and at the close of the sermon the assembly was constituted with prayer.

The roll of the assembly was held as called, and the election of a new moderator was proceeded with, and on motion of Principal King, seconded by Mr. Herridge, of Ottawa, Rev. Dr. Moore, of Bank Stret Church, Ottawa, was unanimously elected, and upon taking the chair made an impressive address.

This assembly is the 23rd since the union of the four branches of Presbyterianism in 1875.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

One of the questions sent down by the General Assembly last year for consideration by Presbyteries during the twelve-month was: "Is it desirable that the General Assembly should decide on a central permanent place of meeting?" Along with this question was one asked, viz.: "Should the billeting system be done away with, and, if so, what arrangements should be made in regard to expenses of commissioners?" A decision on both subjects is expected at this meeting.

The number of commissioners to the General Assembly of last year was 533, an ingrease of 30 on the representation of the previous year. As the church advances in age the representation will become larger still. Presbyteries were asked to inform this assembly whether it is advisable or not the representation to one-sixth of the membership on the Presbytery rolls instead of one-fourth as at present.

A third matter that has been before the Presbyteries since June of last year, and which is to be reported upon to the Winnipeg Assembly, bears upon the establishment of a board of Sabbath school publication, and the appointment of an editor.

The Book of Praise, which has been a subject occupying much attention for two or three years, will come before the assembly again as an accomplishment. Probably the earliest public use that will be made of the new publication in Canada will be on Assembly Sabbath, June 13.

PHENOMENAL PROGRESS.

A hundred years ago there were less than 25 Presbyterian ministers, and perhaps not more than 20,000 Presbyterians all told in the provinces of British North America. Fifty years ago the Presbyterians of the British portion of the continent had confined their work to themselves, without undertaking any outside obligations. The present day conditions tell of growth, progress and prosperity. Mission fields under the direction of the church, and supported directly by the church, are found in India, China, Trinidad and the New Hebrides, while the field for home missionary enterprise is one of the largest and grandest in the world.

No less than three foreign colleges are owned and opened by the Canadian church in the foreign field, one in Formosa, a second in Central India, a third in Trinidad. Pictou Academy was the only home institution for the training of men for the ministry from 1817 to 1842. Today there are theological colleges in Halifax, Quebec, Montreal, Kingston, Toronto and Winnipeg. The number of churches and stations supplied at present is in round numbers 2,700, affording accommodation for quite 550,000 worshipers. The roll of membership in the Presbyterian Church in Canada at the present time is about 200,000. Not very much behind that number is the number of young persons in Sabbath schools who are coming to fill vacancies as they occur in the ranks and to offer their presence and assistance to the Presbyterian religious forces of the Dominion.

Last year the Presbyterians from ocean to ocean contributed well on to $950,000 to the salaries of ministers, and expended nearly $500,000 upon its building equipment in the form of churches and manses. For strictly congregational purposes there were paid over $1,178,000. In outside expenditures there were between $200,000 and $60,000 devoted to theological education, between $60,000 and $70,000 to home mission enterprises, over $30,000 to help those ministers who, without aid from the augmentation fund, were receiving less than $750 per annum and a free house. Over $105,000 were expended upon work in the foreign fields, nearly half of which was raised by the Presbyterian women through their societies and auxiliaries. The total payments to the missionary schemes of the church were considerably above $280,000. To this amount is to be added another $100,000 for benevolent purposes. The total payments last year for all purposes by the Presbyterian Church in Canada presented the figure of $2,175,000.

NO PAID PRAYERS.

Toronto, June 11.—Under a city by-law, passed several years ago, the request of the Epworth League convention committee for permission to hold early morning prayer in High Park and Reservoir Park has been refused.

Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

URINARY TROUBLES CURED BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

I have been troubled for some years with urinary trouble. I could not hold my urine. Was constantly broken of my rest, as I had to get up six or eight times every night. I tried doctors and many remedies without getting any relief until one of my friends advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I felt relieved from the first box and six boxes completely cured me. I cannot thank you enough for the new lease of life and comfort your Dodd's Kidney Pills has given me.

C. P. R. land sales in the Northwest for 1897 are largely in excess of any year since 1892. The purchasers are principally farmers who are enlarging their area. This is another indication of the improvement in business.

Arrangements have been made for the Canadian jubilee contingent to remain in England sufficiently long that they may take part in the great Sons of the Empire review, which is to be held at Aldershot on Dominion Day. If the steamer cannot be held for the Canadian regiment for 24 hours, it is likely they may be kept in England for another week. Some of the men have asked for permission to stay in England for some time after the jubilee fetes are over, and it is not expected that any obstacles will be placed in the way.

The Postoffice Department at Ottawa are now busy sending out jubilee stamps to distant points in the Dominion. Stamp dealers are begging for advance supplies, but none will be sold before June 19. The colors in the stamps are very pretty.

Jubilee Hospital Committee to Be Superceded.

A Joint Stock Company Will Manage the Memorial.

An Application for a Charter — Stock $120,000 With $10 Shares—The Directors.

The jubilee hospital committee have decided to obtain a charter under the Ontario Joint Stock Companies Act for a company to be called the Victoria Diamond Jubilee Hospital Company (Ltd.). The application states that the object for which incorporation is sought is to establish as a permanent memorial of the Diamond Jubilee of her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria by her loyal Canadian British subjects, a modern hospital, with an endowment fund therefore to secure its maintenance in perpetuity and for that end to be incorporated for the following purposes:

1. The purchase of a site and the erection, equipment and maintenance of a general hospital in London, to be called "The Victoria Hospital," for the reception, treatment and care of non-paying and paying patients, and incidental thereto of providing facilities for the training of physicians and nurses to be carried out by the capital stock and operations of the company and by donations and grants for the immediate requirements of the company.

To create an endowment fund for the future maintenance and equipment, for all time to come from the net or surplus revenues arising from the operations of the company and by donations, bequests and grants. All moneys of the endowment fund in excess of $1,000 shall be invested in Dominion or provincial bonds or municipal debentures, and moneys less than $1,000 to be deposited in a chartered savings bank.

The amount of the capital stock of the company is to be $120,000 and the shares $10 each.

The stock shall not be transferable except to the direct issue of the original subscribers, and no dividends or profits shall at any time accrue or be payable thereon.

The provisional directors so far as yet decided upon are Messrs. R. W. Puddicombe, V. Cronyn, John Labatt, T. S. Hobbs, M.P.P., John Bowman, Dr. F. P. Drake, Dr. John D. Wilson, P. W. D. Brodrick, W. M. Gartshore, Chas. B. Hunt, Chas. S. Hyman and Thos. Beattie, M.P. Two, and possibly five, more directors will be added to the above list.

The idea in taking this step was to put the scheme in a more definite shape. A management will in this way be provided who will settle the question of site and control all the moneys subscribed. It will be necessary that the capital stock shall be fully paid up before the hospital is erected, as it is the intention to expend only $60,000 at first and add to the building afterwards as the funds will admit. The subscriptions already collected and which are still being collected on the original lists will when collected go to the endowment fund of the new company. The promoters are determined to have a new hospital, and it is believed the action taken will stimulate public interest and support.

Waylaid in the Dark.

Richard Scott, of West Nissouri, Has a Lively Surprise.

Richard Logan, of the Same Township, Charged With Attacking Him — Alleged Sequal to a Recent Action for Breach of Promise.

An interesting assault case is booked on the court records to come before Squire J. B. Smyth on Tuesday next. The plaintiff is Richard Scott, of Nissouri, and the defendant Richard Logan, of the same township. The plaintiff alleges that on Sunday night about 10:30, as he was on his way home from church, he was waylaid by Richard Logan, who, he says, struck him over the head with a club, inflicting a severe wound. He was knocked down and lost his hat, and when his assailant came at him again he ran down the road without his hat, and returned for it the next morning.

The assault is said to have grown out of an action for breach of promise of marriage brought by plaintiff's sister, Rebecca Scott, against defendant, Richard Logan, claiming $6,000, but which Logan settled by paying Miss Scott $1,000. Logan, it is alleged, stopped Scott and questioned him concerning some stories that Scott had circulated in the Northwest about the breach of promise case, and when Scott refused to deny or confirm them Logan used the club.

Scott was to have been a witness in the case against Logan, and came all the way from the Northwest, but arrived too late.

It is alleged that Logan on Sunday night first approached a well-known hired man, under the impression that it was young Scott. Scott was advised by his solicitor, W. C. Fitzgerald, to lay information against him, and as a result Logan has been charged with assault, occasioning actual bodily harm. The crown will prosecute the case.

The Fruitful Hen as an Aid to the Farmer.

Adjournment of Parliament May Take Place Next Week.

Special to The Advertiser from Our Own Correspondent, per C. P. R.

Ottawa, June 11.—The whole forenoon was spent in the Commons discussing the Prince Edward Island matter of expenditure of a few hundred dollars for the survey for a bridge. This was on the railway estimates.

The House will not sit tomorrow.

There is still a belief that the business of the session will be closed by Saturday next, though a great deal of business has to be done yet.

THE FRUITFUL HEN.

At the meeting of the agriculture committee today Mr. Frank T. Shutt, chemist, gave valuable evidence of the work done in his department during the year, and Mr. Gilbert, of the poultry department, showed that with 50 ordinary barnyard fowls since April, 1896, he made a profit of $93 93, or about $2 per head. This experiment was taken in hand at the request of the committee. When speaking to the farmers he never held out a greater profit than $1 per hen. The cost for feeding artificially for the 50 hens was 10 cents per diem. Mr. Featherstone said that this branch was the only paying one at the farm.

THE MILITARY COLLEGE.

A return presented to Parliament last night in regard to the Military College, Kingston, provides that the course of instruction be reduced from four to three years. The course in military engineering is confined to subjects necessary to cadets passing into the imperial service. Fees are reduced from $200 to $100, and the fine of $100 without completing the course is cancelled.

Touched at Queenstown.

Message From Laurier to the United Umpire Trade League.

Regretting That He Could Not Get to Their Banquet.

London, June 11.—The United Empire Trade League gave a lunch to the colonial premiers today. Speeches were made in favor of imperial preferential trade relations.

The Premier of New Zealand, Mr. R. J. Sodden, declared Great Britain must take the first step because the colonies could not combine. He also complained that Great Britain listened to protests against the Canadian tariff from three nations which were hostile to Great Britain, and he advocated denouncing the treaties.

Those present included about 100 members of Parliament and Gen. Jas. E. Huddard, the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Halsbury, the Duke of Marlborough, Sir Joseph C. Colmer (secretary of the Canadian Commission), Sir Roderick Cameron, and Mr. Rudyard Kipling.

A dispatch was read from Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, who touched at Queenstown this morning, on the Cunard line steamship Lucania, bound for Liverpool, regretting his absence from today's banquet.

The hall was prettily decorated with Canadian and other colonial flags.

Mistress of the Sea!

Britain Will Not Consent to the Cession of Thessaly.

Turkey's Prime Minister Struck Dumb With Astonishment.

London, June 11.—Advices from Constantinople say that Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador, has served notice on the sultan that Great Britain will under no circumstances consent to the cession of Thessaly.

This represents a cleavage of sentiment among the powers, as Germany is entirely willing that Turkey should keep the conquered province. Should Turkey decide to defy Great Britain, relying on the support of the Drei Kaiserbund, the Eastern question will again assume an acute phase.

The Turkish Prime Minister is reported to have grown dumb with astonishment when England's ultimatum was delivered. England at present has an immense fleet in the Mediterranean and is undisputed mistress of the sea. She has ships at Malta, Gibraltar and other convenient points.

A DINNER PILL.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

Middlesex County Council.

The Report of the Equalization Committee Adopted.

The Jubilee Hospital Delegation Before the Councilors.

The Amalgamation of London West to Be Considered—Other Matters.

THURSDAY.

It was 3 o'clock when the council assembled for business, and they worked until 6 o'clock, when they adjourned. There is every prospect that their labors will be completed Friday evening or Saturday. A portion of the afternoon was taken up in hearing the delegation representing the jubilee committee regarding the proposed jubilee hospital. The delegation comprised Messrs. Broderick, W. H. Bartram, L. W. Burke, and Dr. John Wilson, all of whom spoke hopefully of the consummation of the scheme.

Mr. C. C. Hodgins moved that the hospital matter be referred to a committee consisting of the warden, S. McLeod, James Murray and James Gilmour, to confer with the jubilee hospital committee as to the interest the county should take therein, and report. This carried.

John Bradley and F. Stewart moved, "That in the event of the amalgamation of London West with the city a committee consisting of the warden, S. McLeod, D. B. Burtch, and C. C. Hodgins, together with the auditor, W. D. Stanley, be appointed to settle the basis of indebtedness and other liabilities, if any, to be assumed by the city in consequence of said amalgamation." Carried.

The application of Leslie Griffiths, of Byron, for appointment as county representative at the Model Farm, was referred to the agricultural committee.

The second report of the House of Refuge committee was adopted. It recommended the payment of $8 75 to D. F. Stewart, for the benefit of Ann McDonald, an indigent, and that five acres of land in front of the House of Refuge be purchased at the cost of $1,100. The warden and chairman of the House of Refuge committee were added to the committee to complete the arrangement and purchase.

The advisability of building a bridge on the Giles site, between Caradoc and Delaware, was referred to the board of directors for consideration.

Mr. C. C. Hodgins gave notice that he would move for the passage of a bylaw to raise $31,000 to retire debentures falling due this year.

The question of leasing a portion of the county property to the city was referred to the jail committee.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The report of the equalization committee was adopted. The equalization is the same as last year, and the rate, although not decided upon, will undoubtedly be 1 mill on the dollar for general purposes, and 9-10 of a mill for debentures. The report of the equalization committee caused considerable discussion. On motion of Simon McLeod, the council went into committee of the whole for the consideration of the report.

Simon McLeod moved that the rate of East Williams be reduced $1 per acre.

Mr. Leitch, speaking in support of this motion, stated that Ailsa Craig, owing to the natural location of the village, was annually put to great expense in building and maintaining bridges. The motion was carried.

Mr. John Morgan thought the rate for Metcalfe was higher in proportion than East Williams, and had been for years. The motion was defeated.

Mr. C. C. Hodgins moved that Lucan be reduced from $147,000 to $140,000. It was a well-known fact, he said, that villages had been going back for some time. Lucan had been very unfortunate during late years owing to a large number of fires. The property destroyed had never been rebuilt, and made the rate heavy and unfair.

Mr. Thos. Duffin asked how Lucan compared with Ailsa Craig, and in reply Mr. Hodgins stated he could see no comparison. Ailsa Craig was blessed, inasmuch as it was one of the best shipping stations in the north. Lucan had a high school, but it was a burden rather than a help.

Mr. Morgan submitted a motion to refer the report back to committee, with instructions to reduce the rate of Metcalfe $1 per acre.

This was also lost.

Mr. Morgan stated that he would appeal to the judge for a proper equalization of assessment for the township of Metcalfe.

The report was then adopted, and the council adjourned until 3 o'clock.

COUNTY FINANCES.

County Treasurer McEvoy submitted a statement of the receipts and expenditure from Jan. 1, 1897, to June 3. The total receipts were $118,644 24, of which $21,000 was derived from the sale of debentures, and $28,161 60 being a balance from 1896. Of the county rate the different townships paid the following: Adelaide, $3,599 74; Biddulph, $1,789 55; Caradoc, $3,969 15; Delaware, $1,911 23; Dorchester, $4,003 57; Ekfrid, $3,938 28; Lobo, $4,490 86; London, $9,688 04; McGillivray, $2,976 75; Metcalfe, $2,526 25; Mosa, $3,013 86; Nissouri, $3,609 44; Westminster, $6,232 10; East Williams, $3,219 39; West Williams, $2,329 93. The expenditure of the county had been $39,139 52, leaving a balance of $79,504 72.

The report of the finance committee recommending that $100 be voted for the building of a lockup at Newbury, was adopted.

Mr. Pole, turnkey at the jail, was allowed $40 as remuneration during his illness.

A New Building.

A Swine Annex to Be Erected at the Fair Grounds.

The Present Cattle Shed Two Small—The W. C. T. U. Hall to Be Removed to the Rear.

The Western Fair Board have decided to still further increase the facilities for exhibitions by erecting a new building for swine, 156 by 36 feet. It will be built at the south end of the new cattle shed, which, despite its immense size, was found too small at the last fair for the cattle, sheep and swine combined. In future it will be used by cattle and sheep only. The new annex will hold 304 swine.

Another improvement will be the removal of the W. C. T. U. dining hall to a spot about 150 feet southwest of its present site. In will be in a line with the other structures, and will leave the whole center of the park unobstructed by any building. The W. C. T. U. hall will be used as an office by the superintendent of the grounds, and cattle exhibitors will also be allowed to boil feed and get hot water there, so as to save building fires on the grounds. The W. C. T. U. are arranging handsome quarters on the east side of the park.

Queen's Park will present a wonderfully improved appearance before long.

AT THE CITY HALL.

More Land Offered to the Charities Society—Good Homes Found for Children.

A meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held yesterday, at which ten applications for children were approved. Six of them are for girls and four for boys. The society will have no difficulty in granting the requests and the little ones will find good homes. The applications for boys are increasing. The society discussed the maternity bill at length, but took no action.

The garden stuff has begun to sprout in Pearce's potato patch. Mr. George T. Hiscox has kindly offered the Charities' Society a patch of land for similar purposes, but it is too late to utilize it this year.

Building permits have been taken out by Mr. James Matthews for a brick veneer dwelling at 531 Grey street, to cost $1,000, and by Mr. James E. Downs, for a brick veneer dwelling at 15 Hamilton road.

Ald. Parnell was acting mayor today.

This is corporation pay day, and the arcade was crowded with horny-handed sons of toil.

A Lover's

GERALDINE:

Romance.

"If indeed you insist on going up to her, Mrs. Morrison, I will take the liberty of accompanying you," he said in a tone so strange, with such a calm suggestion of secret power, that she faltered, and, instead of persisting, said: "Have you seen her?"

"Not yet," he answered, quietly. "I was afraid, after what Miss Otway said at dinner, that the sight of me will do her more harm than good. However, if it would set your mind at rest——"

"No!" said she, sharply; and then she paused. It was the first time she had met Dr. Ledbury alone, and the total change of his manner toward her bewildered and alarmed her. He was no longer statuesquely cold, reserved, courteous; his face and attitude expressed nothing but insulting defiance. She considered for a few moments as she stood under his impertinent scrutiny, and then she raised her head and said quietly:

"It is very good of you to take such an interest in the poor old thing, Dr. Ledbury, and I dare say you are right about the excitement. I will get the vicar to come and see her, for I can give you my word his discourses are not of an exciting kind," and, with a smile, she turned away.

But he followed her.

"Mrs. Morrison, if you will allow me, I have something to say to you." His voice was raised above its usual almost inaudible tones, and sounded harsh and strident.

But she pretended not to hear, and hastened along the corridor toward the front staircase, on which she could hear her husband's footsteps coming up. At that moment, in her anxiety to escape from the doctor, who, in those few moments of unreserve, had made a profound impression upon her by the unexpected assumption of the boldest confidence in look and tone, she was ready to welcome the appearance of anyone to break up the tete-a-tete. But before Capt. Morrison came in sight, Dr. Ledbury had caught her up in a couple of strides, and whispered close to her ear, as she shrank away:

"Why put it off? I tell you I will speak to you alone; and the sooner you give me an opportunity the better it will be for—someone you are interested in."

"You had better say what you have to say to my husband, whom I shall at once inform of your remarkable change of manner."

"Oh, do so, by all means! Tell your husband—your loving husband—that I have insulted you; and then he will kick me out of the house, and I shall be free to set about some business I have on hand."

She gave a cry, started forward, and almost fell against her husband, who had just set foot on the top stair.

"Hallo! what's the matter?" he asked.

For a moment she hesitated, confused and breathless, as her husband drew her toward him and looked anxiously into her frightened eyes. Then, glancing behind her, she saw that Dr. Ledbury had disappeared, but the influence of his hard face and voice was upon her still, his last words had borne a horrible meaning to her, and she dared not disobey him. Her husband was caressing her, not prepared for any awful disclosure.

"What is the matter?" he repeated, whispering the words close to her ear.

"Oh, nothing! I came upon you unexpectedly," she faltered.

"Well, I'm not an ogre! To whom were you talking? I heard someone talking."

"Only Dr. Ledbury. He told me I had better not disturb Mrs. Symes; I thought I should just have time to go and see how she is before dinner. Now I must go and dress."

After the first moment of impulsive gladness to get away from Dr. Ledbury, her usual restraint toward her husband had returned.

"You are in a great hurry to get away from me," said he, with some bitterness, without, however, releasing her. "Look here! You are so frank in your undutifulness and so loyal to yourself in your disloyalty to me, that they haven't been able to make me hate you or even really doubt you—yet; but if you persist in repulsing me—me—your husband—whom you seem to forget you have sworn to love as well as obey, why, why, I shall end by cutting somebody's throat—not my own! For that I don't suppose you would mind!"

"Yes, I should, Philip—yes, I should!" cried she, hurriedly. "I must tell you; I—I wanted to speak to you this morning, but I couldn't get the chance. I had something very important to say to you. I——"

The words froze on her lips, for, as she stood there, with her husband's arm round her, and with one of her hands laid persuasively on his shoulder, her face lovely with the light and color which the excitement of confusion brought there, a step behind her made her start, and her husband withdrew his arm. Dr. Ledbury appeared, smiling urbanely, from the turn in the corridor.

"Have you dropped a letter, Mrs. Morrison?" he asked, in his usual soft voice, and with his usual dignified manner.

Geraldine could not repress a slight start and a still more tell-tale rush of blood to her face. Her husband noticed both signs, and his dark face became livid as hers became red. The doctor proceeded imperturbably, apparently noticing none of these things:

"Because I have just picked up a letter from the floor; I don't know whose it is."

Before he handed it to her, Geraldine had entirely recovered herself, and was able to take it from him with an air of perfect indifference. it was a half-sheet of a letter from which the beginning was missing; it was in an unknown hand, and the signature was that of a man she had never heard of.

"No, it is not mine," she answered, quietly, with inward rage at having been tricked; for she felt sure that it was part of one of his own letters.

It had done its work, however; it had produced in her a guilty start which far more than counterbalanced in its effects upon her husband's mind that weak attempt at confidence which the doctor had interrupted.

It had done more than this, for it had given Geraldine a speedy and convincing proof that the man's insolent words to her contained more than an idle threat; that he was a strategist of resource, an enemy to be feared. She glanced from his bland, treacherous face, calm, smiling and handsome, to the savage frown of her husband, and the candid anger which distorted the features of the latter seemed suddenly attractive and noble in her eyes; and in that moment she was amazed to think that she had ever looked upon Dr. Ledbury as her husband's tool in a base and cowardly crime. But, as the two men went downstairs together, the doctor murmuring speeches she could not hear in his low, persuasive voice into her husband's ear, she asked herself whether the reverse of that position was not more dangerous still.

CHAPTER XXXII.

As she had been prepared to expect, Geraldine found no opportunity during the rest of the day of seeing either Mrs. Symes or her husband alone. As for the latter, while her belief in his innocence of the real character of the man whom he had brought to Warningham as his guest grew stronger every hour, and her anxiety to enlighten him increased in the same proportion, she soon found that this step had become practically as impossible as if there had been a distance of a hundred miles between them. The anger and suspicion against her which showed themselves in every look and word while she was in his presence had raised a barrier which her efforts were now as powerless to break down as his had formerly been to storm the fortress of dislike in which she had obstinately entrenched herself. From the moment when, in the company of Dr. Ledbury, Capt. Morrison left his wife in the corridor, and went down stairs toward the library, the impulses of tenderness which a few gracious words or a sign of distress on her part had hitherto been able to rouse in him, seemed dead. When they met again at dinner, she saw at once the effects of the doctor's influence in her husband's mocking expression as he looked at her, and in the cut-and-dried sneers at women with which he, with bad taste unusual in him, garnished his share in the general conversation.

When, later in the evening, she tried the device of playing his favorite music—spirited marches, pretty waltzes—he failed, as he had never failed, to express appreciation of the compliment. Dr. Ledbury made a courteous attempt to atone for this neglect. Leaving the rest gathered around the fireplace in the long drawing-room, he crossed over to the corner where Geraldine sat at the piano, and, as if he had entirely forgotten the little episode of a couple of hours before in the corridor, expressed his pleasure in her performance in the terms of one who neither knew nor cared much about music.

Geraldine received his remarks with coldness, which did not disconcert him in the least.

"For myself," he continued, "I like operatic music best—Italian operatic music."

"'Lucrezia Borgia,' for example," she broke in, looking at her with a quite unmistakable expression of loathing.

He seemed taken aback by this speech, the meaning of which he apparently understood. But his face showed no shame and no anger; his features were, indeed, naturally so immovable that the faint surprise and inquiry which he implied accusation caused in him were only to be guessed from a jerking movement of the hand he had laid on the piano and from his momentary silence. His next words were spoken in his usual low voice, but with a threatening snarl:

"Yes, 'Lucrezia Borgia' is a very nice opera. It is about poisoning, isn't it?"

AERIAL NAVIGATION.

Balloon Burst, But the Professor Came Down Via Parachute.

Nashville, Tenn., June 10.—Professor Barnard undertook to try another voyage in his airship yesterday. The balloon appendage had been too highly inflated, and when high in the air, the machine began to descend rapidly. The balloon had burst, but the parachute appliances enabled the professor to land safely.

It is folly to build upon a poor foundation, either in architecture or in health. A foundation of sand is insecure, and to deaden symptoms by narcotics or nerve compounds is equally dangerous and deceptive. Canada's Penitentiaries.

Report on the Prisoners and Their Management.

Ignorance and Intemperance as Promoters of Crime.

Ottawa, June 10.—The report of the Minister of Justice for the year ending June, 1896, was laid on the table last night, and is not pleasant reading for those who think that crime is upon the decrease in the Dominion. The following was the total penitentiary population on July 1, 1895, and July 1, 1896:

	1895.	1896.
Kingston	520	605
St. Vincent de Paul	396	333
Dorchester	167	192
Manitoba	96	80
British Columbia	98	101
Totals'	1,277	1,361

The increase during the year is equal to 6½ per cent, and in the past two years has been more than 10 per cent. Only one successful escape occurred during the year. The record of pardons during the past three years was: 49 in 1893-4, 73 in 1894-5, and 52 in 1895-6. By provinces the numbers were:

	Number.	No. to each 10,000 of Population.
Ontario	577	2.7
Quebec	402	2.7
Nova Scotia	111	2.5
New Brunswick	67	2.1
Prince Edward Island...	21	1.9
Manitoba	46	3.0
British Columbia	113	11.5
Northwest Territories...	24	3.6
Total for all Canada..	1,361	2.8

Fifty per cent of the sentences are for terms of less than five years. Life sentences constitute 4 per cent. Of the total number of prisoners 126 were under 20 years, 625 between 20 and 30, 348 between 30 and 40, 161 between 40 and 50, 81 between 50 and 60, and 20 over 60. The number and proportion of convicts of the various large religious denominations are:

Denomination.	No.	Per cent.
Roman Catholics	543	47.25
Church of England	288	21.17
Methodists	200	14.63
Presbyterians	112	8.23
Baptists	73	5.36
Buddhists	14	1.03

Of the total number of convicts 937 are natives of Canada, 136 of the United States, 132 of England, 57 of Ireland and 34 of Scotland.

IGNORANCE AND INTEMPERANCE

Intemperance does not seem to be so common a failing of the professional criminals, who continue the bulk of the penitentiary population, as of some other classes of prisoners. There are 122 total abstainers, 706 temperate persons, and 533 intemperate in the penitentiaries. The lack of education is not so great either as might be anticipated. Although many of the convicts are colored, Indian or Chinese, only 235 of them cannot read, while 1,049 can both read and write. The inspector, Mr. Douglas Stewart, reports: "An examination of the list of offenses shows that about 20 per cent of the offenses were against the person, 70 per cent against property, and 10 per cent against the public generally. About one-third of the total number is for larceny. Prisoners guilty of murder or of manslaughter constitute about 5 per cent. A striking feature of the returns in this regard is the undue proportion of those who have not had the advantage of a training in any trade or profession, and who consequently have been seriously handicapped in the race for existence. Common laborers constitute about 4 per cent of the population of the country, but embrace 36 per cent of our convict population. Practical farmers and skilled mechanics constitute a very small percentage.

WITH ENGLISH MONEY.

Vast Coal Fields in Tennessee and Kentucky Being Bought Up.

Cincinnati, O., June 10.—It transpired yesterday that an English syndicate has secured an option on all the coal fields on the Cincinnati Southern Railway in Southern Kentucky, formerly owned by the Cumberland River Railroad and Coal Company. It consists of enormous coal fields with railroads along the Cumberland River near Point Burnside and extending seven miles along the Cincinnati Southern Railway.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 10.—In the deal for coal lands in East Tennessee and Southern Kentucky the amount of money involved will be between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000. The only mine of any consequence left to compete with the syndicate will be State mine, at Brushy Mountain.

DURRANT'S DEATH DELAYED.

San Francisco, June 10.—Theodore Durrant, the murderer of Blanche Lamont, will be reprieved today. Governor Budd has decided upon this course in order to settle the question of the rights of the federal courts to interfere in the execution of a sentence imposed by the State court. He has named July 9 as the day upon which the sentence shall be carried out. If the position taken by the governor be supported by the States Supreme Court the sentence will be carried out on July 9, just as it would have been tomorrow, but for the habeas corpus proceedings.

A Terrible Vigil.

Alone All Winter on the Great Bird Rock in the St. Lawrence.

Mrs. Campbell Tells the Tragic Story —Husband and Two Hunters Carried Out to Sea on the Ice.

A tragic story from the lonely lighthouse on Great Bird Rock, far out in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, 50 miles northeast of the Magdalen Islands, reached North Sydney, N. S., by the schooner Rob Roy a few days ago. The supply steamer of the Dominion Government, which visits the lighthouses quarterly, called at the rock on May 5. The rock is precipitous and rugged, and has no beach, its storm-battered sides sinking perpendicularly into the sea. The supplies are hoisted by a derrick to a ledge of the rock.

The skipper of the Government steamer was surprised to see a wan, gray-haired woman standing alone on the ledge. He did not recognize her at first glance. A closer view convinced him that she was the wife of the lighthouse keeper, Angus Campbell. She had apparently aged ten years since the skipper had seen her three months before. Then there was not a trace of whiteness in her hair, and she was a plump and handsome woman. The skipper looked up from the deck of the steamer, and when he was within hailing distance he shouted:

"Where's the old man?"

This answer came back in tremulous tones:

"Angus is dead, and so are Jim Duncan and George Bryson."

The skipper said no more, but straightway had the derrick rigged and was hoisted up to the ledge. Mrs. Campbell tearfully told how her husband and Duncan and Bryson, the latter two professional seal hunters, had been lost, and how, for more than two months, she had kept lonely vigil on the rock.

Campbell and his friends went out from the rock with their spears to hunt seals on the morning of Feb. 27. It was a cold day, and there was no open water within five or six miles of the lighthouse in any direction. Seals had been seen on the ice they day before. Mrs. Campbell was somewhat reluctant to have her husband go out.

"If the wind changes, Angus," she said, "the ice will break up and you may be carried out to sea."

"Suppose I am, Maggie," he answered, laughingly, "I shall come back again, and even if I don't you are able to take care of the light."

The three men started across the ice. They had not been gone more than four hours when the wind, which had been blowing from the eastward, shifted to the southwest. This is a dangerous wind in the gulf in winter, and breaks up the ice with marvelous swiftness.

Mrs. Campbell became alarmed and hoisted the danger signal flag. She soon saw the hunters hurrying toward the rock. They had doubtless realized their danger even before the flag fluttered from the lighthouse. They were within a mile of the lighthouse when the ice cracked in a line running east and west, parallel with the rock and North Bird Rock, about five miles west of the lighthouse.

Mrs. Campbell was in the lighthouse when the reverberation of the cracking ice impelled her to run out and see if her husband and his companions were safe. The cracking was followed by the breaking up of the field of ice into floes, which began drifting slowly seaward. Mrs. Campbell, realizing her helplessness, simply stood on the ledge and cried. Her husband waved his hands at her. She fell on her knees and began praying as darkness set in. Then she waved him a farewell, and he responded. He was then so far out and the twilight was so deep that his motions were barely visible.

Mrs. Campbell remained awake all night, mechanically lighting the oil lamp and attending to the other duties about the lighthouse that were usually performed by her husband. She had hoped to see something of the castaways at dawn. She swept the horizon with his glass and saw nothing but stretches of ice-dotted water. The three men were either drowned by the breaking up of the floe, or, if it held together, they died of hunger and exposure.

The skipper of the supply steamer asked Mrs. Campbell how she managed to get through the winter. She said:

"I can hardly tell. I know that I have kept the light burning. It was a dreadful experience, all alone on a rock that might just as well have been in the middle of the Atlantic so far as the prospect of getting relief was concerned. Never a day passed during the first month of my isolation that I did not sweep the sea with my husband's glasses with the hope of seeing some vestige of him.

"I do not think I slept two hours consecutively since my husband was carried away on the floe. Although I have plenty of provisions, I do not think I have eaten more than one meal a day.

"As you see, my hair has turned gray, and I have grown so thin that I believe I do not weigh much more than 90 pounds, although I weighed 170 when my husband disappeared. I have seen no living things except sea birds and seals. The seals gave me some little comfort when they swam up and lay around the base of the rock. I fancy I was just beginning to go crazy when you came."

Mrs. Campbell consented to stay on the rock until May 13, when she was relived by a man from the Magdalen Islands. She is a native of Prince Edward island, and is of Scottish descent. Her husband had been a coasting sailor before he took charge of the lighthouse, many years ago. Mrs. Campbell used to spend three months on shore every year, leaving on the supply ship in May and returning in August.

STYLISH WEDDING.

The Son of the Late Gen. Anderson Weds a Multi-Millionairess.

Boston, Mass., June 11.—A wedding ceremony, the character of which placed it in rank as the grandest this city has ever seen, and which, in point of the wealth represented also was first among the great weddings of the century in this country, was that whereby Mr. Larz Anderson, until very recently a member of the United States diplomatic corps at Rome, Italy, and Miss Isabelle Perkins, of this city, heiress to $17,000,000, yesterday became husband and wife.

The bride is the daughter of Captain George Hamilton Perkins, United States navy (retired), and a grand-daughter of the late Wm. F. Weld, of this city, whose millions she inherits, together with her cousin, Mrs. Charles F. Sprague, the wife of Congressman Sprague, of Massachusetts. The groom is the son of a well known Washington family, the head of which, Gen. Nicholas Anderson, died abroad a few years ago. He was associated with Hon. Robert T. Lincoln in the United States embassy at London, England, and later was first secretary of the legation in Italy, under Hon. Wayne McVeagh.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Cuckson in the Arlington Street Church at noon, and among those who were present as guests were some of the most wealthy and prominent members of society in nearly every large city of the United States.

The gowns of the bride and the bridesmaid were the exquisite creations of Worth, Doucet and Faxon. The bride's gown was composed of heavy cream satin, lined throughout with taffetta silk. The seams are outlined from waist to hem with orange blossoms, and the corsage with a surplice effect, with fluffy trimmings of tulle.

When they read about the Peasant-women of Europe who labor in the fields, Americans are prone to condemn the political conditions that cause this state of affairs, and to lavish a great deal of pity on these poor abused women. Our condemnation of some European institutions is doubtless all right, but we had better save a little of our pity and lavish it right here at home. The American wife and mother who labors morning, noon and night, in the close confinement of the home is in some respects worse off than the abused Peasant-woman. The latter enjoys fresh air, sun-light and out-door exercise and retains that most precious endowment, her health.

American women, ever busy in the close confines of the home, get delicate and soon suffer from weakness and derangement of the delicate feminine organs. Confinement to the house runs down their health and they suffer from internal ulceration and inflamation, giving rise to debilitating drains on the system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes the important feminine organs, that are the cradle of the race, strong, healthy and vigorous. It is invaluable to nursing mothers and overworked housewives. All medicine dealers sell it.

"I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. G. J. Fender, of No. 6 Logan Street, Pittsburg, Pa., "up until the day baby was born and it helped me so much. I had a very easy time, was only in labor a short time and suffered very little. Baby is a lovely big girl, and your wonderful medicine has made me well of all my female troubles."

Nothing so many times pays for itself as a good medical book. The very best one is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Now for a limited time, an edition, paper-covered, will be distributed FREE. Send 31 one-cent stamps (to pay the cost of customs and mailing only), to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.; cloth-covered 50 stamps.

Tobacco Heart.

Gentlemen,—My heart troubled me with violent palpitation, shortness of breath and sleeplessness. This was caused, my physician advised me, by excessive use of tobacco. Since taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills the distressing symptoms have entirely disappeared. They have cured me, and I am thankful to testify to their good effect. Signed W. J. SATURDAY, JUNE 12.

BREAKFAST—Pineapple. Rice, with sugar and cream. Ham balls. Radishes. Breakfast rolls. Tea.

LUNCHEON—Brown bread and butter. Egg salad. Strawberry shortcake. Iced Tea.

DINNER—Cream of asparagus soup. Mutton chops, with tomato sauce. Potato souffle. Young onions. Banana pudding. Lemonade.

Cut out these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Ham Balls—Chop fine pieces of cold cooked ham. Add four tablespoonfuls of stale bread crumbs to one-half cup of milk, stir and cook until thick, add yolks of two eggs, take from the fire and add one cup of chopped ham, one-half saltspoon of pepper and one teaspoonful of chopped parsley; mix and stand away to cool (may be prepared the day before). When cold form into balls, dip into the beaten whites of the eggs, then in bread crumbs and fry in smoking-hot fat. Serve very hot and garnish with sprigs of parsley.

Breakfast Rolls—Two quarts of sifted flour, one pint of milk, two tablespoonfuls butter or lard, one tablespoon sugar, one teaspoonful salt, half a cake compressed yeast. Put the flour into a bread pan, pour into it the milk (which must be boiled and then cooled), add the butter, salt, sugar and yeast; knead and let rise over night. Cut off pieces and carefully shape into rolls the desired size by rolling between the hands, but do not knead them. Set in a warm place and they will quickly rise ready for baking.

Egg Salad—Eight hard-boiled eggs, four crackers rolled fine, one-half cup vinegar, one teaspoon each of mustard, celery seed and salt, one saltspoonful of pepper and one tablespoonful of butter. Separate eggs and chop fine each part, heat the vinegar with the butter and pour over the eggs; then add crackers and spices. Mix lightly and garnish with lettuce.

Potato Souffle—Steam six large potatoes; when done peel and mash; add a tablespoonful of butter, half a pint of hot milk, one teaspoonful of salt and a saltspoonful of white pepper; beat until very light and perfectly smooth. Froth the white of an egg, stir it gently in with the potatoes, heap on a dish and set in a quick oven to brown.

Banana Pudding—Put one pint of milk over the fire in a custard kettle. Beat two eggs with three-fourths of a cupful of sugar into which has been mixed one teaspoonful of cornstarch. Stir this mixture into the boiling milk, and when it thickens remove from fire and add the juice of half a lemon. Cut stale cake in thin slices and line a dish with the slices. Cover the cake with banana sliced thin, and over this pour a cupful of the custard. Then add another layer of cake and banana, and over all pour the remainder of the custard. Set on ice and let get very cold. Just before serving cover with a cupful of whipped cream.

BIG TROLLEY RIDE.

The World's Record Broken — 53 Cars in Line.

Detroit, June 11.—The Mystic Shriners, who have been holding their annual meeting here, wound up their business and jollification on Wednesday night with a grand procession in the streets and a river parade. One incident was a trolley party—the biggest ever seen in the world. There were 53 open cars in line, reaching from Congress street to the ferry dock, and gaily decorated with flags. When the start was made there were 2,350 Shriners and their wives on board. The long procession moved up Woodward avenue, amid cheers and the blowing of horns, turned at the railroad crossing, came back down Woodward avenue to Jefferson avenue, and out Jefferson to waterworks park, where the Shriners visited the pumping station. Then they were given a boat ride back to the city. The immense excursion was handled without the slightest hitch, and in such a clever way as not to interfere with the ordinary street car traffic.

A BRIDGE AT KING STREET.

Board of Works Recommend a 16-Foot One—It Will Divert Traffic.

A special meeting of the sewerage committee, Ald. Parnell presiding, was held after the board of works meeting last night.

The King street bridge was the principal item of business. The city engineer reported that if it was the intention to divert traffic from York and Becher streets, the more expensive bridge would be the better. He thought a bridge on King street would have that effect, as it was free from street car tracks, and had an easier grade than Westminster bridge.

Mr. Law, of the Peterboro Bridge Company, happened to be present, and said the bridge should not be less than fourteen feet wide on account of the wind pressure. A sixteen foot bridge would be better.

It was unanimously decided to accept the Peterboro Company's tender for a sixteen foot bridge, to cost $6,020, the company to provide for carrying the sewer pipe over it free of charge.

Originally they asked 50 cents a foot, or $325 for doing this. The bridge will have a four-foot sidewalk, and be in handsome up-to-date style. The cost is $1,800 under the estimate. No doubt it will be very largely patronized by farmers and others owing to the absence of the street car tracks.

Want Asphalt Sidewalks.

The Board of Works Will Recommend Them.

Ratepayers Can Choose Asphalt or Artificial Stone—More Macadam for Dufferin Avenue.

The board of works last night took a step in the direction of encouraging more permanent street improvements.

City Engineer Graydon recommended the acceptance of the following tenders for sidewalks: The Silica Barytic Company, artificial stone, at 12½ cents per foot; P. L. Marden & Co., artificial stone at 17⅞ cents, and the Barber Asphalt Company for asphalt sidewalks at 14 cents per square foot. Each of the companies guaranteed its sidewalk for five years.

The committee accepted the engineer's recommendation. Those who petition for the walks may choose their own material, but where no special walk is petitioned for the committee will recommend the asphalt.

The petition of Sarah Harris and others for a macadam pavement on Dufferin avenue, between Waterloo and Cartwright streets, was reported as sufficiently signed, and will be granted.

About 25 cords of gravel will be delivered at Queen's Park for improvements.

The Street Railway Company intimated their willingness to lower the track on Wellington street to the street level for $500, or the actual cost of the work. This did not meet with unanimous approval, and was laid over for consideration.

Francis street ratepayers asked for a sidewalk on the north side of the street. Referred to member of the ward and engineer.

R. Parsons asked for a position as sewer inspector. Laid over.

Ald. Parnell (chairman), Mayor Little, Ald. Carrothers, Ald. Johnston, Ald. Nutkins, Ald. O'Meara, Ald. Cooper, Engineers Graydon, Ironside and Ashbridge, and Secretary Bell were present.

On Carling's Heights.

A Transformation Rapidly Taking Place

Wolseley Barracks Boys Installed Under Canvas, and Preparing for the Coming Camp.

Wolseley Barracks all this morning was the scene of great activity, preparatory to going into camp this afternoon. Already the place has assumed a lively appearance, and the pitching of the tents has, to say the least, rendered Carling Heights more picturesque. A portion of the supplies are already on the ground in the form of potatoes. And now that the R. R. C. I. boys have been installed under the canvas, the work of tenting the old camp ground will be proceeded with with vigor.

Sergt. Widgery, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Toronto, will remain over for camp, acting as drill instructor to the First Hussars.

Sergt. Wilson, of St. John's, Que., is at the barracks. He arrived yesterday, having in custody Private Vokes, who deserted from No. 1 Company a little over a year ago. Vokes surrendered himself at St. John's Que., a few days ago.

Drill Sergt. F. E. Davis has returned from Halifax, N. S., where he took a course of instruction in the new Maxim gun. The sergeant speaks in the highest terms of the manner in which he was treated by the officers and non.-coms. of the Royal Berkshire Regiment, to which he was attached. This regiment numbers 1,028 men on parade, and is soon to leave Halifax for the Bermudas.

Sergt. Price, of Wolseley Barracks, has been detailed for duty at the military camp at Kingston, and will not return until its conclusion.

Capt. Hemming, R. R. C. I., left on Wednesday for Kingston, to act as brigade major at the camp in the Limestone City.

Paid the Penalty for Infraction of the Liquor Law

At the Police Court this morning Oliver B. Scott was fined $20 and costs for selling liquor during prohibited hours. The offense consisted of the sale of four bottles of ale.

William Kehoe and Alf. Saunders, for fighting on the market, were each fined $1, or in default five days.

Pat Colley, an old man 75 years of age, without home, habitation or friends, was remanded for a week, pending inquiry.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION

Proceedings of the Annual Session at Kingston.

Kingston, June 10.—The Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec is in session here. There is a good representation of clerical and lay delegates. In the absence of the chairman, Rev. J. I. Hindley, through sickness, Rev. Prof. Warriner was appointed chairman pro tem.

Committees were named, and applications for membership were received.

The secretary, Rev. J. P. Gerrie, of Toronto, read the annual report of the union committee. More than usual prosperity was reported among the churches. Gratifying additions to the churches were reported. The financial standing has, on the whole, been encouraging, despite the commercial depression. The Government was congratulated on the removal of the Manitoba school question from Federal politics.

At the meeting held this morning, Rev. Wm. McIntosh, pastor of the First Church, Ottawa, was elected chairman for 1898. Rev. J. H. Horsey, Ottawa, Rev. M. Kelly, Listowel, Rev. G. T. Carr, Stratford and Rev. Dr. Beavis, Hamilton, were received as members of the union.

Letters of transfer were granted to Rev. Geo. Fuller to London union, and to Rev. Dr. Sime to Woburn Association, Massachusetts.

WOMEN FOIL A BURGLAR.

Discovered by One, Struck by Another and Pursued by Both.

New York, June 11.—A bold attempt at daylight burglary in Patterson, N. J., yesterday afternoon was frustrated by two women, and the arrest of the thief after a long chase followed. The entire neighborhood took part in the hunt.

Mrs. Philip Naumann, wife of the sexton of St. Boniface's Roman Catholic Church, visited the upper floor of her home at No. 46 Jackson street, and found a stranger there. He had a bundle of clothing, two gold watches, a silver watch, a gold bracelet, and two gold chains, and was preparing to decamp.

Mrs. Naumann screamed for help, and struck at the fellow as he dashed by her. Down the stairs he fled at top speed, but at the next landing something unexpected happened. Miss Julia Brown had heard the screams of her neighbor and was on hand, armed with a broomstick. With this weapon she struck the flying thief a blow on the head, causing him to stagger and drop his booty.

The two women followed the fellow to the street, and in answre to their cries of "Stop thief!" a crowd was soon in hot pursuit. James Barry captured the burglar and turned him over to Patrolman Tracey.

At police headquarters he said he was Thomas Burke, 32 years old, of Stamford, Conn.

WILL GEN. WEYLER GO?

New York, June 10.—A dispatch from Havana says: It is believed here, now that the long-suppressed news of affairs in Madrid has been made public, that Gen. Weyler's return to Spain will be the most important result of Canovas' success in retaining power. Private telegrams have been sent to persons here in which it is distinctly stated that Campos, Dominguez and Pidal had given their support to Canovas only with the plain stipulation that Gen. Weyler should go.

WHY SUFFER WITH PILES?

Dr. Chase's Ointment Will Cure Them at a Cost of But 60 Cents.

Piles, scrofula, eczematic eruptions, scald head, salt rheum and all other annoying and painful skin diseases can be easily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"I had protruding piles for ten years," writes H. H. Sutherland, commercial traveler, of Truro, N. S.; "tried many remedies and had doctors operate. It was no use. Was completely laid up at times. Chase's Ointment was recommended to me by Mr. Brennan, of the Summerside, P. E. I., Journal. I tried it, and one box completely cured me."

Mr. Statia, the editor of the Streetsville, Ont., Review, gives this unsolicited testimonial under date of Nov 6, 1895: "Half a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured my daughter of eczema. That was six months ago, and there has since been no reappearance of the disease."

T. Wallace, blacksmith, of Iroquois, Ont., was troubled with blind itching piles for 20 years. "I tried every remedy that came out in vain," he writes, "until I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was a godsend. One box cured me."
