SPRINGS THE BYE-ELECTION

Liberal Compromise Being Effected East Kent Election will be Held Nov. 11.

Ridgetown Dominion Discusses The Convention Which Nominated John Lee.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—The election to fill in the vacancy in the Legislature by the death of Robert Ferguson, of East Kent, will be held on Nov. 11th, with the nominations one week earlier.

It is understood that the election was immediately set down upon the results of the Liberal convention becoming known and the fact that the various factions had been whipped into line upon the compromise candidate of the machine.

The London Free Press this morning says:—

"The Grits of East Kent seem not to enjoy the full confidence of each other. The machine evidently manages the party differently from the electorate in common. The Chatham Planet some time ago said that Mr. John Lee, of Highgate, would be the Liberal nominee for that riding. The Banner promptly denied this; yet Mr. Lee was nominated by the party rulers as per the machine schedule. The party are of course expected to fall into line."

The Ridgetown Dominion of to-day says:—

"In selecting Mr. John Lee as the party candidate the Liberal convention probably made the best choice possible under the circumstances and avoided the difficulty presented by a situation in which a dozen minor candidates were eager for recognition. By their self-effacement at the convention, with one exception, the gentlemen admitted their position as minor candidates, so no apology is needed for the use of the term. After seeking the nomination and canvassing more or less, they quietly withdrew and permitted Mr. Lee at the last moment to secure a nomination which for weeks he had been declaring he could not and would not accept. It may be that they deemed discretion the better part of valor, but they certainly exhibited a weakness that, however justifiable to themselves, cannot but seem inexcusable to their friends and supporters, for we take it they possessed some. Nevertheless, it is not in human nature that there should be a complete absence of bitterness under such humiliation. The candidates who were simply brushed aside as if of no consequence were, as we have already stated, men of substance and character, and they cannot but feel sore and ponder how it all came about that Mr. Lee, after so many strong declarations to the contrary, stepped in at the last moment and dashed the cup from their lips. Surely they are shrewd enough to see the fine Italian hand of the Government machine behind it all. Fearing the consequences that might ensue from a plethora of candidates at a convention, calculating that Mr. Lee's long service as president of the riding association gave him a certain kind of claim and that the other aspirants would more readily give way to Mr. Lee than to any one of themselves, the Government's agents 'saw' Mr. Lee and easily overcame the difficulties he alleged to be in his way. The result of this was the virtual dismissal of the other gentlemen and the final selection of Mr. Lee. How the numerous aspirants and their friends, after thinking it all over, will regard this interference from Toronto and the practical selection of the candidate by the Government machine is a matter without our province.

As for Mr. Lee himself, he is well known throughout the riding, and in years gone by had considerable municipal experience. Neither is he wanting in platform ability. If he is satisfactory to the Liberals as a candidate to support, he is equally satisfactory to the Liberal-Conservatives as a candidate to oppose. They would as soon fight Mr. Lee as anybody. With the favorable points mentioned above, Mr. Lee has not a few weak spots in his armor, and, in a friendly way, in due time these may be pointed out in the interest of the riding and of the province."

BAD FIRE

Big Blaze at Stephenson Does Much Damage—Frames Knocked—Staves Destroyed

Stephenson, a small place on the Lake Erie R. R. in Southern Kent, was visited by a disastrous conflagration yesterday afternoon. A large stock of staves piled near the track was completely destroyed, and two box cars, one of them already loaded, were burned. The fire started between ten o'clock. The railroad track was in the centre of the blaze and they were warped by the heat. Some of them were out of place six feet. The fire started between three and four o'clock, presumably from bush fires. The trains on the Lake Erie R. R. from London and Walkerville were stopped by the fire. After transferring the mails and passengers and changing the crews, the trains returned. Neil Ruthven and J. W. Humphrey were on the train that came to Chatham. James James, of the Sutherland-Innes Co., is in Stephenson to-day investigating the loss. At one time it was thought that nothing would save the little village of Stephenson, but fortunately, this hard work. The Sutherland-Innes mill was not burned owing to the situation of the mill. The loss will be heavy.

"We were very much pleased with the design you sent. It was beautiful and appropriate." The Victoria Ave. Greenhouses receive such words of commendation every day. Telephone No. 181.

SAVED LIFE AND CASH

Gallant Fight Put Up by Express Messenger with Daring Bandits.

Lively Struggle During Hold-Up of Southern Pacific Express in Oregon.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 23.—The northbound overland express train on the Southern Pacific was held up by two masked men 15 miles south of Eugene at 3 o'clock this morning. The robbers blew open the express car with dynamite, but secured no booty, having been driven off by the express messenger. The only booty secured was one registered mail pouch.

The train arrived here this afternoon. The express car is badly shattered, but it was brought in with the train.

"The first intimation I had of anything wrong," said C. F. Charles, the express messenger, "was when the train began to slow up near Walker's Station. Shortly after that, the train came to a standstill, and I was ordered to open the door. I refused to move. 'Open up this car or we will blow you to hell,' commanded one of the robbers. I made no response and was given a salute with dynamite.

"The first charge blew open one of the doors and knocked me down. My overalls were blown into shreds and my legs scratched somewhat, but otherwise I was unhurt. Further commands to open up and threats followed, but without avail. I made no reply, knowing that the object of the robbers was to locate me in the car, and then try to put me out of the way, either by dynamite or bullets. I changed my station to the other end of the car.

"A second shot blew open the door at the other end of the car. The third shot failed to go off, as I had removed my shoes and quietly walked over to the dynamite, and detached the fuse. Two more shots exploded, each of them blowing a hole in the floor of the car. All told, four shots were off in the car, two failed to explode, and one I prevented from exploding by removing the fuse.

"All efforts to compel me to open up or leave the car failing, the engineer was sent in through the opening blown in the side. I ordered him to get out and fired a shot over his head with my shotgun. The entire affair lasted about 40 minutes. The engineer returned after I fired the shot and ordered him to leave, and I was not molested further."

Engineer Burt Lucas, describing the capture of the mail pouch, said: "The mail clerk was covered by the robber, while I was compelled to open the mail sacks. After the mail was dumped out the robber sorted it and had the messenger hold the sack while he took what he wanted. The robber wound up the job by helping himself to the messenger's lunch."

"I was then taken back to the engine and commanded to take him to a point about a mile from Eugene. He made me stop as soon as the lights of the city could be seen and he jumped off and disappeared in the direction of the river."

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The Southern Pacific Co. has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest of each of the robbers implicated in the Eugene, Ore., hold-up.

GEN. BULLER AT ONCE QUIT

The Veteran Military Man Has Already Given Up His Command.

His Dismissal Inevitable—His Majesty Interested in the Ladysmith Hellograms Controversy.

London, Oct. 23.—The afternoon newspapers to-day agree that the dismissal of General Buller from the command of the first army corps, and placing him on half pay, was inevitable. It appears that the general was only officially notified of the decision late yesterday evening, the notification being delivered at his official residence at Aldershot by a special messenger from the War Office at about the same time that it was issued to the newspapers. This morning's army orders at Aldershot announce that General Buller has already given up his command.

HIS MAJESTY INTERESTED.

London, Oct. 23.—The King has taken great interest in the controversy about the Ladysmith hellograms which has been carried on without intermission since Sir Redvers Buller made his unfortunate speech a fortnight ago. Mr. Brodrick was summoned to Balmoral to give His Majesty the War Office view of the affair, and the return of the court to London was marked by the official announcement that Sir Redvers had been relieved of the command of the first army corps.

THE ROYAL TOUR ENDING

Arrival of Ophir at St. John's, Nfld., with the Duke and Duchess on Board.

A Splendid Marine Spectacle Met The Gaze of the Royal Party on Entering the Harbor.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 23.—The royal yacht Ophir, having on board the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, conveyed by four British cruisers, arrived here at daylight this morning. The city was profusely decorated and over 600 fishing gypsels had assembled in these waters, all decorated with bunting. People from the warships say the marine prospect was one of the finest witnessed throughout the tour of the Duke and Duchess. The fleet arrived here ahead of time, allowance having been made for foggy weather, which was not encountered. There is no program for the day, but the Duke this evening will give a dinner to the governor, Sir Cavendish Boyle, and the State dignitaries on board the Ophir.

The celebration to-night was exceedingly enthusiastic. The weather was clear and the town fairly blazed with illuminations and fireworks. The Ophir, Crescent, Diadem, Niobe, Proserpine and Charvillat were electrically lighted. Fifteen sailing steamers moored in a long line showed festoons of marine lanterns, while eight hundred fishing vessels were similarly decorated, making a veritable forest of twinkling lights spread over the whole harbor. From the hills surrounding the city sixty bonfires flamed. A thousand torch-bearers paraded the city, and then passed near the wharf where the Ophir was moored to be inspected by the Duke and Duchess. Five hundred fishing boats paraded the harbor, lighted with lanterns. The Duke and Duchess expressed themselves as delighted, and said the assemblage of shipping in the port, with the abundant bunting, formed one of the finest displays they had witnessed during the tour. It is reported that the Diadem grazed the rocks while entering the port.

THURSDAY, OCT. 24.

HENRI'S HARANGUE.

If the bitter, anti-British speech of Henri Bourassa, M.P., cause a flutter of excitement and make the young man talked about for a while, Henri's end will be gained, points out the Hamilton Herald. It is notoriety he is after. If Bourassa were not the grandson of Papineau the revolutionist he might have a useful and honorable career, for he is not without talent; but the man is handicapped by his ancestry. His grandfather lives in history as the arch rebel against British government in Canada, and as an ardent patriot; and the young fellow having been taught from his cradle to cherish his grandfather's fame, has come to confound Papineau's faults with his virtues, and to feel that patriotism and rebellion are synonymous terms.

In want of courage the grandson resembles the grandfather. Papineau led his deluded followers into rebellion, and then deserted them, scampering off to save his own neck. Bourassa, while bitterly denouncing or ridiculing the British government, British officers, the rank and file of the British army, the people of Britain and everything British, lacks the courage to be consistent and take a stand for the separation of French Canada from the Empire. Indeed, he says it is best, upon the whole, for his compatriots to continue to bend their necks to the hated yoke. Thus the young firebrand seeks to stir up his compatriots against British rule and make them restless and discontented, and yet holds out to them no remedy or hope of redress. It is to be feared that his only motive is an egotistical desire to be near the centre of the stage and in the glare of the limelight of publicity.

The serious thing about it all, however, is that Bourassa's harangue was received with excited approval and rewarded with frenzied approval by his French-Canadian audience. It doesn't matter much what Henri says; but as his sentiments are widely popular in Quebec! This is the important matter. Because an audience could be gathered together in a large city like Montreal to applaud Bourassa's anti-British tirade, it would be foolish to infer that any considerable number of the French-Canadian people are infected with similar sentiments. However, there can be no doubt that there is an undercurrent of anti-British feeling in Quebec which is strengthened by the advocacy of an independent French state, embracing the whole northeastern part of this continent. This insane idea is nourished even by reputable Quebec journals. La Verite for example, says: "We firmly believe this hope should be at the bottom of every truly patriotic Canadian heart. If it is not, efforts which are making to preserve our language, our institutions, our nationality, can have no sense. The struggle to preserve French-Canadian nationality in the midst of the political vicissitudes through which our people have passed necessarily presupposes the intention of forming, one day a French-Canadian nation."

We suppose that it is wisest to meet the advocacy of such schemes as this and the use of language like Bourassa's with the patience which is required in dealing with children and fools. But the Quebec firebrands should not presume upon the patience and forbearance of the Canadian people.

NO MEN, NO HORSES.

Ottawa Citizen.
If there was any doubt as to the animus of some of those in authority at the Pan-American in connection with the Canadian flag incident last June, that doubt should be removed by the unfriendly action which has refused permission to allow a party of Northwest Mounted Police to accompany Canada's exhibit of ranch horses to the exhibition. In consequence

THE OTHER WAY ON.

London News.
It is well right for the Khan to go to law to prevent newspapers from publishing his poems, for he's a poet. A persistent correspondent threatens to throw a quo warranto, or a mandamus, a habeas corpus, fidel defensor or some such thing at this paper to compel us to publish his poems.

NOT TO MENTION DAKOTA DRY-DEN.

Toronto Telegram.
Liberal candidates in the constituency are degenerating in a lot of over-loaded pack mules who must stagger along under the responsibility of explaining that it is all right for Hon. J. M. Gibson to be an electric railway magnate, for Hon. J. R. Stratton to be a power company boss, and for other members of the government to be reaching for franchises.

SOME PLAIN LANGUAGE.

Oshawa Vindicator.
J. W. St. John, ex-M. L. A., lays the charge at the door of the Ontario government that, through a Liberal heeler named Hobbs, who is in the game for a rake-off, it was a party to importing American made binder twine into the Central prison, Toronto, removing the label and relabeling it Canadian made, after which it was sold to Canadian farmers as Canadian twine.

Hon. J. R. Stratton excuses this kind of thing on the ground that the sale of prison-made twine exceeded the output, and the plan was adopted to supply customers.

Now, we have this to say about the matter:

In the first place we do not believe any man but a scoundrel will change a label.

Suppose the McLaughlin Manufacturing company, of this town, could not supply their trade with the farmers in carriages, and quietly slipped in a few carloads from the States, or anywhere else, and labeled them "The McLaughlin Co., Oshawa."

Suppose J. D. King & Co., Toronto, were a few thousands pairs of boots short, and imported the quantity from Yankee shops and labeled it the "J. D. King Quality."

Suppose the Rennie Seed company was short and secured a lot of seeds from the other side and relabeled them.

Would any farmer buy from any of these companies afterwards? In the farmer always to be gulled by any sort of a fraud?

Suppose the McLaughlin company were manufacturing binder twine, instead of carriages, and had not only to compete against convict labor at 50 cents a day, but also twine imported and relabeled to make it sell.

The farmer is made the victim of a piece of rank deception, and then is told he was fooled for his own good.

In these days we are supposed to swallow anything that politicians on our own side say, but it is hard to have to now go a step farther and become the personal victims of what they do.

We don't accept Hon. J. R. Stratton's explanation as being anything but adding insult to injury.

Farmers have as much right to honest labels as anybody else.

LAURIER'S BROKEN PROMISES.

Kingston News.
The McGregor Herald, a Liberal paper in the N. W. T., points to Laurier's failure to carry out many of his promises and says: "We are compelled to protest and tell him that he is not faithful to the trust reposed in him and ought to resign. There is no place among true Liberals for such men." Mr. Bailey, the editor of the Herald, stamped at the last general election for Laurier candidates.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP SCORES.

Toronto Telegram.
Public ownership of the telegraph lines to the Yukon has already reduced the toll. The scale of prices fixed experimentally yielded a revenue which exceeded the estimate, and Hon. J. Israel Tarte cut down the rates. Private ownership of such a line would have kept up the rates and taxed the business all it would bear. The failures of public ownership are largely dwelt upon, but perhaps the people pay more in dollars and cents for the successes of private ownership than they would have to pay for the failures of public ownership.

THAT RACE CRY.

Hamilton Spectator.
Tarte and his friends—including the Hamilton Times—have a habit of attributing to a hatred of Tarte's nationality everything—that is said against Tarte's public actions. That fine old Liberal paper, the Montreal Witness says:

Our minister descends to the lowest tactics known to politics when he accuses the Witness of opposing his preposterous course because he is a Frenchman. No man in the country knows better than Mr. Tarte does that this is not true. It is very small to sneer behind the maternal apron of nationality, and like a naughty boy, dragging his mother into his quarrel, ask his people to ward off the rebukes which his erratic behavior has brought upon himself.

All Eye Pains Mean Something

Everything isn't right. What it is that is wrong can only be revealed by a careful examination by a competent optician.

We examine eyes carefully—and fit glasses accurately. Call and let us test your eyes. Maybe there is not the least thing wrong with them—but it's a good thing to know that there isn't. And it's a good thing to know that there is. It may seem slight—probably is slight—but a little right treatment at the right time will save you any amount of annoyance at some future time.

Better let us examine your eyes, it costs nothing.

ORGANIZING THE FORCES

East Kent Liberal Come natives will not enter the Lists until the General Election

Meanwhile Convention will be called and a vigorous and successful Campaign will be instituted.

The executive of the East Kent Liberal-Conservative Association is in session this afternoon in the parlors of the Hotel Rankin with a view to instituting a thorough and successful organization for the coming general election.

The meeting is a most representative and enthusiastic one, among those being present being—ex-Warden John Davidson, of Thamesville, the president; Mayor W. D. Graham, of Ridgeway, the vice-president; P. H. Bowyer, T. P. Watson, B. W. Willson, W. E. Bottoms, Ridgeway; J. W. Sharp, Dresden; County Commissioner Harry French, Camden; Edwin Beattie, Highgate; Henry Bulger, M. Wade, Howard; M. Arnold, Stanley Arnold, Harwich; Dr. S. Storey, Blenheim; W. R. Hickey, Bothwell; W. C. Armstrong, Thamesville; Geo. Langford, Kent Bridge; James Clancy, M. P.; Dr. McRitchie, Dr. Steen, Howard; Frank Gifford, A. M. Mason, Camden; Neil Watson, Harwich; Robert Jarvis, Harwich, and many others.

The proceedings were of a spontaneous and largely informal character. Much enthusiasm was manifested and a vigorous and decidedly energetic campaign was outlined.

In reference to the approaching by-election a resolution was unanimously passed that in view of the fact that it preceded only the last short session of a dying parliament and the exceptional and unusual promptness of the issuing of the writ, the Liberal-Conservative party would not place a candidate in the field for the by-election, but would call a convention at an early date for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the general election and definitely instituting the campaign.

FELL ASLEEP

Impressive Service at the Funeral of the Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip.

All that was mortal of little Margaret Elaine, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Philip, Wellington street, was solemnly laid to rest in the Maple Leaf cemetery yesterday afternoon at two o'clock.

The services were conducted at the house, by Rev. Rural Dean McCosh, were very impressive. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, including a pillow and bouquet from the family; a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Derek; a wreath from the First Presbyterian choir, of which Mr. Philip is a member; a harp from the 24th Regiment Band; a star from the L. E. & D. R. R. office staff; a bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Sloan and Mr. and Mrs. W. Poole; a bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young, Jr.; a bouquet from Master Ernie Harvey, and a sickle from Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Glenn.

The First Presbyterian quartette was present and sang two hymns. The first one, which was very appropriate, was:

Tender Shepherd thou hast killed,
Now thy little lamb's brief weeping;

Oh how peaceful, pale and mild,
In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping.
And no sigh of anguish more
Heaves that little bosom more.

In the world of pain and care,
Lord, thou wouldst not longer leave it;

To thy meadows bright and fair,
Lovingly thou dost receive it.
Clothed in robes of spotless white,
Now it dwells with Thee in light.

Oh, Lord Jesus, grant that we
There may live where it is living,
And the blissful pastures see
That it's heavenly food are giving;
Lost awhile our treasured love,
Garnered forever safe above.

The second hymn was "Someday, Some time we'll understand."

The 24th Regiment Band attended the funeral in a body, out of respect to their honored and bereaved leader.

DR. THORNTON'S RESIGNATION.

"The Banner-News have a perfect right to criticize my action, as a public officer," said Dr. A. W. Thornton, this morning, "but they have no right whatever to insinuate that I was masquerading behind the word principle."

"I had intended to reply to their attack on me in last night's edition, but upon after thought I considered it was not worth it. The Banner-News has not been a howling success as an article since it came to Chatham, as is clearly evinced by paid attempts and I thought that this outbreak was not worth noticing."

It is rumored that other members of the Board are intending to resign also.

Finger Purses

The approach of unsettled weather, with its attendant mud and slush, brings to mind the need for a finger purse. For a lady there is nothing to equal it for convenience and utility. Leaving the hand free to raise the skirt or carry a small parcel or do a dozen and one-half things that can only be awkwardly done with the ordinary purse. We have them in a variety of choice leathers, at $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00, adorned with a tasty sterling silver initial. They are a "thing of beauty and a joy forever."

BARNS BURNED

Serious Fire by which the Stock and Outbuildings of a Mrs. Robert Were Destroyed.

A very disastrous fire took place in Dover yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, when the barns and all the outbuildings belonging to Alexis Robert, Jr., Lot 9, Bear Line, were totally destroyed, together with all of their contents.

Mr. Robert was threshing clover at the time, when a spark from the engine fell in the straw-stack, and it was not long before the stack was in flames. The men who were helping at the threshing, did all in their power to check the progress of the fire, but all their efforts were fruitless. The stable caught fire and then the flames were soon beyond all control. A strong wind was blowing at the time and the barns and other buildings were soon reduced to a mass of ruins.

Mr. Robert's loss will be about $5,000, partly covered by insurance in the Gore Fire Insurance Co., through Frank P. Weldon's agency.

NEGLECT

If the tooth aches the owner goes to a dentist; if the stomach, he goes to the doctor; if his corn hurts he goes to a chiropodist, but if his eye aches he blames it to overwork or perhaps to a cold in the head. A man in New York who once had good eyesight but turned blind offered $1,000,000 to have his sight restored. We do not know what the diagnosis of the case is, but as the offer has been pending for a long time, and the man is still sightless, we presume he is permanently blind. Perhaps his eyesight could not have been saved, but it is an undeniable fact that many are blind and many others are practically so whose sight could have been preserved by the early attention of a reliable optician. He was like hundreds of other people of the present day and who are troubled with a dull headache, which they blame to overwork, study, or perhaps to being up late the night before. There are others who complain of objects being dull, and again there are people who see specks floating in the air like dust, which is not dust, but eye trouble. These troubles can all be relieved by consulting E. J. MacIntyre, Chatham's reliable Optician, who uses all the latest methods for treating these troubles.

A warrant was sworn out at this morning's police court for the arrest of Fred Herbert, a burly colored man, charged with beating his wife.

The warrant was placed in the hands of Acting Chief Dezella and he placed his man under arrest by noon. He was released on $100 to appear to-morrow morning.

The case against Mrs. Bertha Scott, charged with perjury, was enlarged for a week. Officer Dezella called the witnesses to serve the warrants on the witnesses who had failed to appear in connection with the case. But he couldn't find one of them. They had all fled. The officer, following Judge Houston's advice, didn't seek them beyond the confines of the city, as His Honor thinks that thus the city is well rid of them. Meantime the case has been enlarged for a week. If the witnesses return to the city the warrants will be executed.

D. McLachlan, William St., claims that he is tired raising fruit for the boys in town and cutting grass on a large lawn, and has determined to sell two lots on Dufferin Avenue from the back corner of his property. He has also determined to sell two of the lots fronting on William St. one between his house and that of Mr. James Gray, and the other on the south-east corner. As this property is among the most desirable in the city we do not anticipate he will have much trouble in disposing of these lots. It is his intention to remove all of the old buildings from the lots fronting on Dufferin Ave., also

John Lee Will Not Contest East Kent in the Liberal Interests at the General Election.

"Well, I've got it," said John Lee this morning, alluding to the East Kent Liberal nomination. "But I can say I never sought it. I did not canvass or asking for support like some of the others. In fact I wasn't after it, and didn't want it—don't really go it now. But since I've I have got it I'm going through with it. "But I can't afford to waste much time in politics or let them interfere with my business," continued the Liberal nominee, "and I only intend to take it for a couple of months. Then I'll drop out and let the others fight it out again. "No, I'll not take it again. "The one session will do for me. I'll be a holiday, and I haven't had one for years."

SONG OF SHIRT

Its Burden Will be Ventilated Next Week in City Police Court.

Some several weeks ago John Scott wended his way to the Maple City police and poured into their ears his tale of trouble. His burden was the song of the shirt. Scott slept in the stables attached to the Kelsey Inn, a place on Wellington street popular with the colored people as an eating house. During his absence, Scott told the authorities some one had taken his shirt, and without this necessary part of his apparel he was not able to meet the rigors of a winter that fast approached. He accused Hiram Millar of being the party who had abstracted the essential garment of his wardrobe, and Scott swore out a warrant against Millar, charging him with the theft. Millar, however, was elusive and couldn't be found. He returned to the city and was arrested by P. C. Dodson last evening. This morning Millar appeared before Judge Houston, pleaded not guilty, and was remanded for a week for trial. After being removed to the cells and while waiting removal to Castle Mercer, Millar whistled away the fly slow minutes by whistling "Home Sweet Home" and singing "Every Nation Has a Flag But the Coon."

VARICOCELE

No matter how serious your case may be, or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "worn-out" veins return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and usually recover. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.

STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. DON'T let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

Cures Guaranteed

We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSS, BLADDER AND KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for "QUESTIONS BLANK FOR HOME TREATMENT."

"THESE BE THE CHRISTIANS"

Girl Confronts Judge Houston with a Question He Cannot Answer.

Sad Story of a Young Life Which Came Under a Judicial Notice Some Year Ago.

"Which one of you Christian people would be willing to let me work around your house? I would be willing to work for a dollar a week."
The speaker was Annie Reame, who lives on Queen street, and has the reputation of belonging to the "Ever Ready Society." Her audience was Judge Houston alone.
Speaking of the matter afterwards Judge Houston said: "I was never touched by anything more than I was by that woman's words. They hurt me because they were true. I couldn't answer the woman. There was no answer. She had spoken the truth—the truth that strikes deep and wounds."

"How prone we are, even when people are trying to reform, to again hurt them back into iniquity."

"Let me illustrate from one of the saddest cases I ever had brought under my notice."

"Nearly eighteen years ago, two young girls were taken in a barn, and, after trial, I released them on suspended sentence on the charge of prostitution. The girls were not altogether blameless. Their upbringing had been bad. The father and mother of one girl drank and fought. She had really no home. The other child was a little English girl, an orphan. Before releasing the girls, I lectured them kindly, and they promised to do better. Through the kindness of people who interested themselves in the case a home was found for one of the girls, with an old couple in St. Catharines, and the other went to work for a newly married couple here."

"The St. Catharines girl stayed two years and then came home to see her mother, who was dying. She shouldn't have done it, for the woman had been anything but a mother. The man in St. Catharines wrote me afterwards, speaking in the highest terms of the girl, but said that, owing to the illness of his wife, he was unable to keep the place open and had been forced to get another girl."

"While here, the girl buried her mother and then, homeless and without friends, she had no place to go. Chancy—or was it a higher power—gave the girl an opportunity for a home with an aged couple in the country. The wages were not much, but she had a good home, was well fed and dressed. The girl, who had never had anything before, had at last found a comfortable home where she was respected and loved."

"She lived here three years till one day the butcher, man by no means what he ought to be, saw the young woman in the kitchen. Going to the old folks he said: 'Do you know who you have here? That woman in the kitchen is a born prostitute. She has a suspended sentence against her for prostitution. She was tried in the Chatham police court.'"

"The man little knew the full work he had accomplished. At his words he might as well have said that the girl, because she died before her time as a result of his information. The aged couple went to the girl and asked her about it. She denied it. "She then sat down and wrote to me, the saddest, most pitiful letter I have ever read. It made me really weep when I read it."
"She told me all in the letter. The letter said in part: 'When Mrs. — asked me if the man's story was true, I just wished somebody would shoot me. I couldn't say yes. You may think bad of me for telling an untruth, but I couldn't help it. I went to bed that night, but not to rest or sleep. I cried the whole weary night through. Mr. and Mrs. — are coming to see you. For God's sake explain to them and let me down as easy as possible.'"

"The old couple believed the girl's story, strange to say, and never came to me, but from that time on her life was ruined. She lived, no scarcely lived, just existed for two years longer. But during all that time she was in mortal terror. Every rap at the door started her lest it might be some one else who would recognize her. She stood the terrible strain for two years and then left the only home she ever knew. She couldn't endure the torture any longer. The young woman went to live in a neighboring town to work for her living, but with a woman's weakness she was unequal to the struggle with the world and died a short time afterwards. It was said, as the result of a criminal operation."

"The story of the little English girl was no less sad and her treatment no less cruel."
The house secured for her with the newly married couple lasted about a year. Then the man, unable to pay the expenses of a hired girl, secured a place for her with a relative, a widow with three daughters. The girl lived there about three years when one day a woman visitor recognized her and told the widow who the girl was and her record."

"I was sent for that the truth might be learned. I begged the woman to keep the girl. She absolutely refused, saying that people would talk about her own daughter if the girl stayed. My entreaties were of no avail, and the girl was turned out into the world, alone and friendless. She went to London, where she died shortly afterwards in a house of ill-fame."

"In both these cases the girls had really tried to reform, and had succeeded till crushed by the idle tales of scandal mongers."
"Do you wonder then, that I felt sad when the girl said to me, 'which one of you Christian people will let

PLAIN TALK.

To Catarrh-sufferers.

Every person suffering from Catarrh in its many forms, knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this point or to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself, if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary relief; a wash, lotion or douch, or powder cannot reach the seat of the disease, which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poisons by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils descending to the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, continual clearing of the throat, deafness, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treatment; a remedy which will gradually cleanse the system from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane.

The best remedies for this purpose are eucalyptol, sanguinaria, and hyacinth, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curative combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

Recently this has been accomplished and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowly dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and finally the stomach and intestines.

An advantage to be considered also is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine, or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which entails a habit more dangerous than the disease.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists, at 50 cents for full sized package and are probably the safest and most effectual catarrh cure on the market.

"me work around your house?"
The Judge's auditors felt with him and bowed assent. The names have been suppressed because many of the people associated with these stories are well known in the country."

BY-LAW CARRIED.

St. Thomas, Oct. 22.—The $20,000 bonus by-law for the Thomas Brothers of Norwich, to establish their brush, broom and woodware manufactory here, was carried to-day by 1,045 majority. The Trades and Labor Council strenuously opposed the by-law.

Number of votes for by-law 1,287.
Against by-law 242.

Majority for 1,045.
The number of votes polled in favor of the by-law were 30 more than required.

TRIBUTE TO BRITISH ARMY.

London, Oct. 22.—A letter from a Johannesburg correspondent published in the Cologne Gazette is quoted by the Berlin correspondent of the Times. The letter highly praises the British troops in South Africa, and says:—

"Of one thing every unprejudiced observer here is convinced. However severe may be the criticisms to which the British army is exposed in England, every impartial observer here knows that in the circumstances it has achieved all that could be achieved. It is doubtful if any other army could have done as well. From a financial point of view, any other nation would have succumbed to the strain of this war."

The correspondent also commends the Johannesburg police, saying they are equal in politeness to the police of London.

YOUNG LADY'S GRATEFUL STORY

Mademoiselle Eugenie Dube Makes Some Startling Statements in an Open Letter.

Wife Co. Que., is Thrilled by an Almost Miraculous Cures Which a Most Popular Young Lady is Saved From Death.

St. Joseph Des Hommes, Que., Oct. 23. (Special).—A very remarkable, indeed almost miraculous, cure has been effected here quite recently. This celebrated case and its happy termination has been the sensation of Wolfe Co. for some months past.

Mademoiselle Eugenie Dube is well known and most popular and for this reason many people have been interested in her illness and recovery.

Her trouble commenced three years ago. Every possible remedy was tried, but everything failed. She was becoming very discouraged and had almost given up hope, when she heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills. She resolved to try them and her grateful letter expresses her satisfaction at the permanent cure which she found.

"I am well again, after three long years of suffering. I cannot find words to express my gratitude and no one who has not suffered as I did, can truly appreciate the full extent of my heartfelt thankfulness for my wonderful deliverance."

"All through my illness my friends were very kind and good. They recommended everything that they thought would cure me, and I tried all of the remedies that I could get hold of, but nothing seemed to help me in the least. At last I heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I was assured everybody that I could be cured by them. I was contented to be able to tell of the miraculous cure which this wonderful remedy made in my case."

"I most heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sick and suffering women."

SOME SURPRISES

Young Lady Said She Would "ave 'em for Her Woodstock Friends— She Was Right.

A very amusing incident happened on the train on my way back from the Pan-American," said an up-town jeweller to The Planet this morning. "A young man was sitting in the car where I was, and we were pretty well crowded. At Niagara Falls a young lady got on the train, and seeing no vacant seat, sat on the arm of the young man's seat. He waited a few minutes to get up his nerve, then offered her his seat. She took it, and was soon conversing with a lady opposite her, telling all about the nice things she was going to surprise the folks at home with, incidentally remarking her destination was Woodstock. The conversation died away, and the maiden, being very tired, dozed off a bit. The brakie came along singing 'Woodstock, next station, and the lady awakened. Then the young man (the same young man) nudged her and said he thought she got off at Woodstock. Thanking him for his kindness as the train stopped, she took up the valise with the 'nice things' in and got off the train."

"At London the young man grabbed up the valise from where he had been sitting before he had given his seat to the young lady, and had not taken two steps before he heard a thud, and I looked around, the young man had dropped the valise and stood looking into space, very much bewildered. He turned to his friend, who was waiting for him, and showed him the check on the valise, which read, 'Miss Minnie McDonald, Woodstock, Ont.'"

"There are things in that grip I don't want any one to see," he began, talking to his friend. "There will be, as she said, many surprises for the people at her home. The first thing she will find will be a bottle of Seagram's right on top. Then a pack or two of cards, and a box of cigars. I would like very much to see the finish of that affair," concluded the genial jeweller. Then with a smile he resumed his work at a sicklelock.

WIRED FROM WINDSOR.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 22.—The jewels seized upon Banker John Curry, of Windsor, as he landed in New York last April, have been sent to Toronto, and the charge of smuggling against Mr. Curry has been settled by his paying the costs of court. Mr. Curry maintained that the jewels, which were valued at several thousands of dollars, were being brought by him from England for the Cameron estate. He had not declared them with other baggage, and as the law provides that a person in transit has the right to carry valuables with him, the case was dropped.

Government Inspector Chas. Stiff claims to have discovered that natural gas is still going to Detroit from Windsor. He reported the find to the Ontario Government and recommended that the Interior Construction Company, of Detroit, which imports the gas across the river, and which has a lease of the river bed from the Ontario Government, be ordered to remove its submarine pipes from the Canadian channel. Evidently nothing will stop the exportation but the removal of the pipes from the river.

WILL BUILD ANOTHER SHAM-ROCK.

Glasgow, October 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton, while desiring to avoid monopolizing the British side of the America's cup contests, has already taken a step towards a third contest for the trophy. Capt. Robt. Wringe, who sailed from New York in the New Anchor line steamer City of Rome, yesterday went to Fairlie and had a long conference with W. Fife, Jr., as to whether he would undertake designing the Shamrock III. It is understood that Mr. Fife was opposed to rushing out a challenger for 1902. He considered the time too short to do his best work, but was willing to design a challenger or to race in the autumn of 1903. No absolute arrangements can be made until Sir Thomas Lipton arrives, but there is little doubt that a challenger will be built.

New York, October 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton sailed for home to-day on the steamer Celtic. His steam yacht, the Erin, will sail at noon to-morrow.

THIEVES ON THE OPHIR.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 22.—There was considerable surprise yesterday when it was learned that a robbery had been committed on board the royal yacht Ophir while lying in Halifax harbor. Strongly guarded and carefully watched as the royal yacht has been, thieves seem to have been able to get in their work, but whether these were society people, who were on board in consideration of the numbers Sunday, or were some of the ship's company, does not yet appear. The quarters of Prince Alexander of Teck, brother of the Duchess of Cornwall and York, were entered while the royal party was at dinner Sunday, and a gold watch and a purse containing five sovereigns, were stolen. The watch was valuable. It had been handed down through four generations, and was an heirloom in the Teck family. On going to his room after dinner, Prince Alexander is reported to have discovered his loss. The theft was made known to the commissioner of Dominion police and detectives on board, and every effort made to trace the stolen articles, but without success. The fact of the ship leaving yesterday morning, and the fact that no one was on board but the crew, made it impossible to get at the exact facts. It was thought the watch and money might have been mislaid, and would turn up, but this cannot be learned until the ship's arrival at Newfoundland.

THE MARKETS.

John Waddell, of the firm of J. B. Stranger & Co., gives The Planet the following grain gossip:
Wheat—Rules quiet in demand and supply, price unchanged at 66c standard. Flour millers report lots of orders and working on a very small margin in small transactions.
Coarse Grains—Demand holds good—supplies barely enough to satisfy wants, hence a firm, healthy situation prevails.
Corn, old, brings, 50c, to 53c, for wagon lots. Corn, new, offers at 40c per 80 lbs. of ears. Barley ranges 90c to $1.00 per 100, and receipts rather considerable.
Oats are at 33c to 34c.
Beans—Are unsettled and have lost in past week, about 5c a bushel, probably more. Good samples are not plentiful yet on our market and when such, fetch $1.15, and common samples from $1.05 and down. Demand so far for the new crop comparatively light, with the advent of hot weather, or at any rate two or three weeks later a brisk demand for them is looked for. So far dealers see no outlet for them beyond home requirements making the near future very uninviting for those concerned.

OUTSIDE MARKETS.

HENRY CLEWS' REPORT.
Henry Clews, in his weekly report to this journal, says:—
A large and satisfactory fall trade is in sight, and there is little good reason for being over-pessimistic. The iron trade continues to show extraordinary prosperity, and there are a number of industries that could relinquish a goodly share of present profits and yet be doing handsomely. It is both unreasonable and undesirable to expect the boom of 1900 to continue indefinitely, and moderate reactions will tend to prolong and not shorten our prosperity.

TORONTO HAY AND STRAW.
Toronto, Oct. 22.—Baled Hay—The offerings are scarce owing to the lack of cars, the demand is fair, and the market is steady. Cars on the track here are quoted at $5 to $9.
Baled Straw—Is steady. Car lots on the track here, are quoted at $5 to $5.50.

TORONTO SEEDS.
Toronto, Oct. 22.—The market this week has continued dull and inactive, and there is little prospect of improvement until the frosty weather sets in permanently. There is still no foreign buying, as a result of the high prices asked here. Farmers are not yet marketing their seed crops, and this has its effect upon both the local market and upon foreign purchasers. Red clover at outside points is being bought at $4.25 to $4.75 per bushel. Alsike brings $5.50 to $7 per bushel. Machine threshed timothy sells at outside points at $2 to $2.25 per bu. Choice lots bring slightly higher prices.

ONE KIND OF POVERTY.
Though many may be rich in pocket, if they are poor they are sick and wretched mortals. A pallid face and wrinkled skin result from impoverished blood. "Climax Iron Tonic Pills" make new, rich blood, tone up the system and nerves. Each box contains ten days' treatment. Price 25 cents, at all druggists, or mailed on receipt of price. Address: The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

When a man offers you something for nothing it will pay you to walk around it by the furthest possible route.

A childless home is a cheerless home. The maternal instinct exists in every woman, and when it is ungratified she is deprived of one of the happiness of life. It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The vigor and vitality which this medicine imparts to the delicate womanly organs, puts them in a condition of normal health, the lack of which is often the sole obstruction to maternity. Every woman should read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages and 700 illustrations. It is sent entirely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing and customs. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the paper volume, or 50 stamps for cloth covered. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

CURED TOTAL PARALYSIS!
It puzzles the Doctors and astonishes his patients how South American Nerve Cure cures so many who are "given up to die"—it never fails.
"My wife was stricken with nervous prostration, which developed into total paralysis. We had hardly any hope of her recovery, but had heard of the great cures made by South American Nerve Cure in cases of nervous troubles. We decided to try the treatment, and it was astonishing the results that followed the taking of three bottles—it worked wonders indeed. I feel I cannot speak too highly of this great remedy."

RICHARD BOYLE.
Man Known to History as "The Great Earl of Cork."

Richard Boyle, known to history as "The Great Earl of Cork," was born a commoner at Canterbury, October 3, 1556. Having lost his parents and being unable to prosecute his studies on the slender income accruing to a Clerkship in the Court of Exchequer, he went to Ireland in search of a fortune. Here he married a lady who, presently dying, left him an estate worth £500 a year and a position of influence which, as he employed it, soon raised him a host of enemies and detractors. The rebellion of Munster reduced him again to poverty, but he had gained the favor of Queen Elizabeth in the meantime, and judicious investment in Irish lands which he peopled with Protestant tenants, made him not only rich but a political figure of great importance in the troublous times that were to follow. His titles came from James I. and Charles I., to the latter of whom he gave splendid return in his services when the great rebellion broke out in Ireland. Lismore, his principal seat, was turned into a fortress, his servants and tenants armed and disciplined at his own expense in the royalist cause, and when all else failed his plate was melted into coin and placed at his master's disposal. Cromwell's significant compliment that "had there been an Earl of Cork in each county there would have been no rebellion" is perhaps the best evidence producible as to the important role filled by Boyle in the politics of his day.

Beecher's Boyishness
The following story was evidently not told to illustrate ministerial dignity; but as an amusing anecdote of a great man who loved children, and who in his own country there would remain untold.

Dr. E. K. Cressey, of Brooklyn Hills, L. I., says that one day, when he was a small boy, his mother left the house, cautioning him and his brothers to be quiet and not romp while she was gone.

There was a hair brush with which Mrs. Cressey was wont to punish violations of the domestic statutes when any such occurred, and the youngsters promised to be good. Presently Mr. Beecher arrived to make a call upon the Cresseys, and found no one to receive him but demure-looking boys. A flash of anticipation came into his eyes as he joyously told his young hosts to prepare for the romp of their lives.

"But mamma told us we mustn't romp," protested the future doctor of philosophy.
"I'll take the responsibility," replied the preacher.

When Mrs. Cressey neared the house on her return she heard indications of a small riot. Filled with indignation at this unbecoming rebellion on her little republic, she rushed into the house, with words of rebuke trembling on her tongue. At the door she paused, petrified. Henry Ward Beecher was flat on his back on the floor, with a parcel of young ladies apparently dancing a ghost dance on his prostrate form and emitting shrill yells. The spirit of the avenger immediately froze into silent consternation all the rebels except the arch insurgent. Climbing to his feet, the unabashed clergyman said:

"Mrs. Cressey, I promised my friends here to take all the responsibility for this outbreak, and (there he reached the hair brush and presented it to her with a Chesterfieldian bow) "I am ready to take whatever is due them. You may begin at once."

But for once there was an infraction of the laws in the Cressey household that was unpunished. Mr. Beecher went unpunished.

A Fatal Answer.
The smart lawyer is always intent upon detecting all weaknesses in the character of the principal and witnesses on the other side. A Congressman, as a Washington paper relates, recently told the story of an exploit of his own, when, as an attorney, he defended a man charged with the murder of a woman. He was examining the complainant in a certain case.

His client, "Hat," Wheelock, had got into a quarrel with one "Pat" McDonald over a horse trade. The quarrel led to her with a Chesterfieldian bow) "I am ready to take whatever is due them. You may begin at once."

"That you freely admit that Hat Wheelock can whip you, Pat McDonald?"
"Irish" instantly.
"Hat Wheelock whip me? Nivver!" he shouted. "I kin whip him, and anny half-dozen like him!"
"That will do, Mr. McDonald," said the attorney. The court was already in a roar, and the lawyer rested the case without further testimony or argument. The case was dismissed, for it was evident that Pat could not be under serious bodily fear of a man whom, in his own opinion, he had only to use one-seventh of his strength to whip.

Sharp Attack of Lumbago.

Know what Lumbago is? Pain catches you right in the small of the back,—makes stooping over or rising up excruciating agony. Wrong kidney action is the cause of the trouble, and if you let Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets set the kidneys working right you'll be quickly cured.

Here is some evidence:
Mr. James A. Searle, the well and favorably known boot and shoe merchant of Norwich, Ont., made this statement:—"During a recent sharp attack of Lumbago, in which the pain was extremely severe, I took a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They took the pain out of my back so quickly, and so far as I can see made a cure that is so permanent, that I consider them an affliction. I am only too pleased to recommend them to other people who may be suffering as I was."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c a box, at all druggists or by mail, The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

Knife wounds heal quicker than those caused by a sharp tongue.

PUBLIC Opinion is strong in favor of the Pain-Killer. For over sixty years the foremost household remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, and all bowel complaints. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis', 25c. and 50c.

Poison's Nerve Cures Rheumatism
The remarkable strength and marvelous soothing power of Nerviline renders it quite infallible in rheumatism. Five times stronger than any other remedy, its penetrating power enables it to reach the source of the pain and drive out the disease. Nerviline is stronger, more penetrating, more highly pain-subduing in its action than any other medicine heretofore marketed for the cure of rheumatism. Sold in large 25 cent bottles everywhere.

He who is never guilty of follies is not so wise as he imagines.

A "DEMON" DISEASE

Doctors prescriptions and strongest medicine had no effect on Mr. Humphrey's Rheumatism.

Two bottles South American Rheumatic Cure cured what he is pleased to call "this Demon from the Lower Regions."

Henry Humphrey, of London, Ont., expresses himself very strongly:—"I think Rheumatism is a demon from the lower regions, judging by my sufferings before I began using South American Rheumatic Cure. Doctors prescribed the strongest liniments with no more effect than water, but this great remedy had me up and about my work and at all as ever, after taking only a couple of bottles."

Tendency of Catarrh is to Spread
Just a slight matter at first, and because slight, neglected; but the seed sown brings forth a harvest of death. Better spend a few moments each day inhaling Catarrhose, an aromatic antiseptic that relieves at once, clears the nasal passages, and restores lost sense of taste and smell. The immediate effect of Catarrhose is magical, so prompt and efficient. Cure is certain and permanent if you use Catarrhose. Price $1. Small sizes 25c. at Druggists or Poison & Co., Kingston, Ont.

YOU NEEDN'T.

You needn't keep on feeling distressed after eating, nor belching, nor experiencing nausea between meals. In other words, you needn't keep on being dyspeptic, and you certainly shouldn't.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia—it strengthens and tones the stomach, perfects digestion, creates a normal appetite, and builds up the whole system.

CHATHAMITE FOR MURDER

Sensational Charge Against a Convict from the Maple City.

Wm. McCartney Alleges That Frank Osier Killed the Former's Wife in 1897.

Windsor, Oct. 23.—William McCartney, a tailor of this city, to-day retained an attorney to take steps towards the prosecution of Frank Osier, formerly of Chatham, who, he alleges, killed his daughter, to whom Osier was married.

Osier is now serving a term of four and a half years for stealing, but McCartney says he will proceed at once to have him pardoned for the purpose of trying him on the charge of murder. The death of Mrs. Osier occurred on August 2nd, 1897, in her home at Rodney, Ont. McCartney, according to a coroner's inquest, which is now in McCartney's possession, the woman's death resulted from a broken neck. Dr. Lake, of Ridgeway, also swore that the neck was broken.

The Ontario government promised, McCartney says, to make a thorough investigation into the case, but has not done so. He had no money, then, but has now accumulated enough cash to begin the prosecution.

ROYAL ROW

Those Hamilton Editors Are Still Fighting and Finding Themselves in Court.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—A motion for committal was made before Justice Robertson at Osgoode Hall to-day, by D'Arcy Tate, who appeared for the Hamilton Herald in the case of Herald vs. Spectator. The learned judge said as there had been a previous motion for committal, which is now being considered, he felt he could not grant this motion. Justice Robertson commended that nothing be printed in either paper in reference to their differences, as it might be the means of prejudicing would-be jurors. J. R. Cameron, managing editor of the Spectator, said that the only way he could have provoked the Herald's ire was in an editorial in which he dubbed his rival "our sporting contemporary." The Herald seeks $5,000 damages.

OIL AT WHEATLEY

The Shooting of Gas Well Brigs Forth a Large Stream of Oil.

Wheatley, Oct. 23.—What will probably prove to be a very valuable strike of oil, was made here to-day, when a gas well was shot in order to increase its capacity. After the shoot was made oil was seen to be shooting in a large stream from the well, together with the gas. Examined by experts, they claim that the quality of the oil is far superior in its natural state to any produced in America, and they say it can be put in the market as first-class lubricating oil without any refining whatever. They estimated the capacity of the well in oil at least fifty barrels daily. There is a steady pressure of about 350 pounds of gas. The well was bored and is owned by J. J. White and Arthur Lamarr, residents of this place.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

Inauguration of a Maple City Branch of a Splendid International Organization.

A meeting of the Chatham branch of the International Sunshine Society, which is becoming so well known throughout America, was held in the parlors of Hotel Garner on Tuesday evening. The work of the Sunshine Society has been commenced in Chatham by a band of young ladies, formerly known as the Ministering Circle. It is to be the aim to cheer and help those in our city who lack the sunshine they themselves possess.

His Honor Judge Woods and Mrs. Woods, who is an honorary member of the society, were present to give encouraging words to these enthusiastic workers. His Honor spoke, with effect, upon the second article of the constitution, which names the object—"To incite its members to the performance of kind and helpful deeds, and to thus bring the sunshine of happiness into the greatest possible number of hearts and homes." He expressed the wish that the Sunshine Branch might increase its numbers tenfold and the influence for good might spread accordingly.

Mrs. Woods contributed sunshine in a practical form, a handsome donation to start the good work. A meeting is called for Wednesday, Oct. 30th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Thos. Richardson, to make arrangements for an entertainment to be given in the near future. Any who are interested in the work, and would like to know more of the aims and objects of the society, will be cordially welcomed.

Brigands Will Likely Release Their Captive as Soon as the Ransom is Paid.

SARATOFF'S DENIAL.

Paris, Oct. 23.—M. Saratoff, the former president of the Macedonian committee, has written a letter to the Temps, dated from Paris, emphatically denying the reports that he is an accomplice in the abduction of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary. He says he has been living quietly in Paris for the last month.

STILL HOPEFUL.

Constantinople, Oct. 23.—Cold rains are falling in this district where the brigands who abducted Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, are concealed, and a prolonged stay in the mountains is believed to be almost impossible even for the brigands; hence it is considered likely that they will hasten to release the captive as soon as they can secure the ransom and to disperse to their homes. No word has come from the missionaries to-day, though W. W. Peet, treasurer of the mission here, to whom they communicate, is still most hopeful. Mr. Peet is not expecting news until he is asked to forward the gold, which, it is estimated, will weigh between 300 and 400 pounds.

GAS FOR WINDSOR.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 23.—Hon. J. M. Gibson, referring to-day to the statement wired from Windsor that natural gas was still being exported to Detroit, said:—"Our information is that small quantities have been exported from time to time for use in Detroit when it was a dull day. Of course, they are not doing that with our sanction, and if they begin exporting to any extent we shall forcibly take action and take up the pipes in the river. Meantime more wells are being sunk with the object of providing a better supply for the people of Windsor."

The Ontario Cabinet, at its meeting this evening, decided to order the Interior Construction Company to at once remove its pipes from the crown of the bed of the Detroit River. This makes an end of the business of exporting Canadian natural gas from the Essex peninsula to Detroit for use in that city. Ontario gas is still piped to Buffalo from the Welland field, but so far there has been no agitation to prevent this. The action in regard to the Essex field is due to protests of the people there that there is not enough gas for the home consumption.

The rates to the Pan-American exposition have taken a sudden drop, and W. E. Blain now announces via Grand Trunk and Wabash Rys. return tickets to Buffalo, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at $2.85 each, good to return six days from date. This liberal arrangement by the railways should induce a heavy travel to the exposition for the balance of the month.

The Time To Stop

The country store of pioneer days, kept open late because the hard facts of life made it necessary. The farmer striving single-handed often did his shopping after dark because the daylight hours were too precious.

But pioneer days are past and the conditions are different. No customer suffers inconvenience if the wheel of business stops at six. No customer complains, we find that early closing has made us lots of friends.

Six o'clock stopping is in harmony with the true British spirit, which gives every man a chance. When a salesman has been on duty from eight till twelve and from one till six, the world owes him a few hours rest and change.
