Loxnon, February 31, 1881.

Political mattern have created some interest this week, owing to the increasing unpopularity of the Government, and the consequent changes of a Ministerial crisis. The financial statement of the Chancellor of the Exchequer was made on Monday last, and has called forth a storm of dissatisfaction; and a decided anti-progressive tendency shown by Lord John Russell on a subsequent evening, on a question relating to the suffrage, has further alignated his supporters.

As respects the ratious details of the proposed financial measures, it is enough to remark that they are mostly of an imperfect or complicated description, and, consequently, give satisfaction to no one. The repeal of 50 per cent, of the timber duties is only a half measure, and as it still leaves the importaa half measure, and as it still leaves the importaition of that article subject to all the obstructions

Foreign affairs have not attracted much attention during the week, although, there are several important items of intelligence. In Germany there is suspected to be some disagreement bethere is suspected to be some dangered to tween Austria and Frussia, in the concection of their reactionary plans, and it is rumored that Austria now demands her old anpremacy as head of the confederation. Between Turkey and Egypt there is also a new misunderstanding. DOWNING-STREET, Jan. 27, 1851.

My Lond,—I have hitherto deferred answering your Lordship's Despatch No. 198, of the 19th of July last, in which you transmitted to me an Address to Her Majesty from the House of Assembly, on the subject of the Clergy Reserves, because when this Despatch reached me the Session of the Provincial Legislature having already been brought to an end, and that of the Imperial Parliament being about to close, nothing could for some months be done on the subject referred to, and I, therefore, thought it advisable that it should be reserved for that tull and deliberate consideration of Her Majesty's Government, which its difficulty and importance deserved.

2. I have now to instruct your Lordship to before the House of Assembly, when it shall again be called together, that their Address to the Queen, which was transmitted to me is your Despatch, has been laid before Her Majesty, and that her Majesty has been pleased to receive it very graciously. You will further inform the House that while Her Majesty's servents greatly regret that a subject of so much difficulty as that of, the Clergy Reserves should after an interval of some years have again been brought under discussion, it has appeared to them, on mature deliberation, that the desire expressed by the Assembly in this Robessa ought to be accelled to, and they will accordingly be prepared to recommend to Parliament that an Act about he passed, giving to the Provincial Legislature full authority to make such alterations as they may think fit in the existing arrangements with regard to the Clergy Reserves, provided that existing interests are respected.

3. In coming to this conclusion, Her Majesty's Government have been mainly influenced by the consideration, that great as would, in their judgment, be the advantages which would result from leaving a fund for the rovince, will the question whether that arrangements is to be maintained or

CORONER'S INQUESTS .- The Coroner of the Dis trict held an inquest on Sunday last at the village of St. Edouard, on the budy of Acting Corporal William Jones, of the Royal Canadian Riff s, sta tioned with a couple of men in that village. It appeared by the evid nce, that the deceased had been confined to his bid from sickness during the whole of Saturday, and that bearing a shot fired in his room, towards the evening, the people of the house entered it, and found he had destroyed himself, by firing a pistol into, or rather in, his mouth, for his teeth were uninjured. He was quite dead when found. The jury returned a verdict of " suititle committed when in acstate of temporary derangement."

An inquest was held at St. Martin, Isle Jesu on Friday last, on the body of Philibert Hotte an old and respectable inhabitant of the Parish who rose from his bed about 4 o'clock, A. GANADIAN AFFAIRS. I JUA PROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT,) Tonoure, March 5, 1858

A rumor, not much circulated, but sufficiently o find its way to the Cabinet, though not into the newspapers, that Wm. Lyon McKenzie had gone up to feel the pulses of the electors of Haldimand, has been whispered about town for three or four days. Yesterday there was another rumor that Mr. George Brown, of the Globe, had followed on a like errand-both gentlemen having an intention of offering themselves as candidates for the ntation of that constituency. I am not very well informed as to the temper of that constituency, and cannot at present pretend to predict the probable result of any contest that may naue. That McKenzie has several old political chums in that quarter is unquestionable, and no doubt he will get a certain amount of support. Whether it will be sufficient to secure his election Whether it will be sufficient to secure nearly against a grantee and printed occase and it with is another question. The Government influence, a Meteal by regulation under the Act: but iscale and perhaps the Conservative too, will be against explained in not to be raised thereby.

If in the House, he would be a thorn in the side of any Ministry; and would be likely to give his support alternately to one side and the other, according as the measures of each might suit him Joseph Hume is his great exemplar; but whether he copies exactly after the member for Montroll is a question to be decided by a comparison of their respective courses. Recent events have shown an entire absence of sympathy between McKenzie and the Clear Grits proper. But 1 rather think that the Clear Grits do not muster strong in Haldimand. It has been announced that McKenzie has for some time been engaged in preparing what is called a " Voters' Manual," which will, no doubt, be a curious production, contain ing all sorts of awkward facts about votes, laws passed, and reminiscences personal and political. To his claim for compensation as Manager or Commissioner of the Welland Canal, the Governnent appear to have turned a deaf ear. From what I have seen of the case, from his own published statements, his claim appears to be on that it is impossible to repudiate. It dates long laring solely to the business of the Post Office, anterior to the rebellion-an event in which his share is not altogether correctly understood. His per each is in a system of money order own peccasi is on record. A few days will most produced by one Postmaster on another;—likely bring some tidings from Haldmand. I have heard, but canuot vouch for the accuracy the information, that the Government have received some sort of assurance, that the Address of the Legislature, to the Queen, on the Clergy Reserves, has received, or is likely to receive favorable consideration at the hands of the Imperial Cabinet.

What singular changes sometimes take place the position of parties in the political game Here is an example. Mr. Kneeshaw's offence was the signing of an Annexation Manifesto, which proposed to ask the consent of the Quren to the ired change. AND THE FARMERS' GUIDE.

No. 54. Gold Street, New York, ONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quar-terly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in ad-tion to which they have recently commend the pub-ation of a valuable Agracultural Work, called THE FARMERS' GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AN

PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE."

By HENRY STEPHENR, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, Author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c., assisted by John P. Norton, M. A., New Maven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yaie College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable Work will comprise two large royal octave volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 aplendid Steel Engravings, and more than 600 Prigravings on Wood, in the highest syle of the Art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the beat methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The Work is being published in Semi-Monthly Numbers, of 44 pages each, exclusive of the Steel Engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or 26 for the entire Work in Numbers, of which there will be at least 22.

The British Periodicals Re-Published are as follows, viz. 1—

The Westminster Review, (Liberal.)

Alb

Blackwood's Rdinburgh Magazime, (Tbry.)

Although these Works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their coutents is devoted to political subjects. It is their blackwork character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confeaseful far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidanth of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial Works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtoner' and "My New Novel," (both by Baltwer,) "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be repunted by those publishers from the pages of Blackward of the series of the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
