EXTENSION SCHOOL IS WELL ATTENDED

Interesting Programme Being Carried Out—Social And Personal Items

Lawrencetown.—The Agricultural Extension School is going forward with an encouraging attendance and marked success under the supervision of the principal, C. E. Boulden, of Windsor.

The second day of the course (Tuesday) was taken up with studies dealing with the practical side of apple packing and dairying—the former under the supervision of Messrs. Carey, Hutchinson and Spurr, all of the Dominion Fruit Branch. The work of sorting and packing both in boxes and barrels, was done by the students themselves, under direction of competent instructors.

The class in dairying was in charge of H. R. Brown, of the Dominion Live Stock Branch, Truro. In this class, too, the students themselves do the work of testing the milk, and have the general care and handling of dairy products.

S. E. Wilson, of the Dominion Seed Branch, is giving a special series of lectures on Fertilizers. The students are enthusiastic and considering the financial stringency and other obstacles, the attendance is considered encouraging.

A debating society has been organized by the students with Arthur P. Bartheaux, of Clarence, as president and Owen Hunt, of Williamston, as secretary; and also an athletic club, with president P. B. Young, and secretary Frances L. Duncan, both of Lawrencetown.

The first lecture of the series was given by Dr. Prince, Professor of Economics and Sociology, at the Demonstration Hall, on Friday evening, Feb. 6th, at 8 o'clock, on the subject of Rural Sociology.

Lawrencetown.—The social held at the home of Mrs. I. F. and Alton Brown on Saturday 5th was greatly enjoyed by a large number of friends. The handsome sum of $25.00 was raised. The proceeds are for the Middleton S. M. Hospital. Another tea will be given in the near future for the same worthy object. Nobly done, South Lawrencetown.

Mrs. W. Selig has been ill with the grippe is now able to be out. Miss Vene of Clarence has been a guest at the home of Mrs. Selig.

Mrs. W. Prince was the leader in charge of a merry band of young people, who had a sleighing party to Middleton early in the week.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. L. Hanley left for Florida. Cards from all the Lawrencetown pilgrims in the south tell of joyous life there.

Miss Patterson, N. G., is a guest of her mother, Mrs. L. Patterson. Mr. and Mrs. Foster, who have had rooms at Mrs. Patterson's, leave soon for Boston.

Clam supper raised $20.00 for church rates. Rev. W. H. Rackham gave a lecture on Thursday, with pictures scenes from Dickens.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. A. Patterson are at Jacksonville, Florida. Mrs. Cobb, N. Y., is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Banks.

Short Course busy. Professor Prince lectured on Friday night to a large attentive and appreciative audience.

Service in the Methodist Church, Sunday Feb. 15th in the evening. Subject: "Peter, Fisherman and Apostle." Illustrated by beautiful colored lantern views.

WATERVILLE AND BRIDGETOWN HOCKEY TEAMS PLAY TIE GAME 4-4.

Waterville and Bridgetown Hockey teams locked horns here on Thursday evening before a disappointingly small house and broke even at the finish with four goals each.

Waterville declined to play to a finish in overtime. Conclusions in this way are not satisfactory and we have had two of this class this winter. In the case of Middleton the visitors were without spares and in the case of Waterville possibly the "big" patronage given scarcely justified overtime efforts. It may be said, however, that the match was not properly advertised. Out of town supporters can scarcely be expected to know when games come off unless there is some publicity.

Regarding the game with Waterville. The visitors are good skaters and some of them very good stick handlers. The match was fought out pretty strenuously but often without any too much regard to rules and regulations.

Penalties were handed out now and then but leniency was usual. In the first period Poole scored for Bridgetown and Gates for Waterville. In the second period Patterson scored one for the visitors while Durling put in two for the locals and another in the final. After ten minutes play Cox scored for Waterville and a few minutes later duplicated the trick evening up the score.

The line-up was as follows:

Waterville	Bridgetown
Goal.	Lockett.
Schofield	Defence.
Rachford	MacMichael
Foster	Centre.
Gates	Longmire
Cox	Wings.
Timmins	Durling
Spares—Patterson, Pineo, (Waterville); Crowell, Bridgetown.
Referee—K. B. Ewan.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

At this time of the year, we are sending out our subscription accounts. We respectfully ask that you will be prompt in your remittance. Your account is small, no doubt, but when there are hundreds of small accounts just like yours the total amounts to a large sum of money.

When paying your account we would ask you to purchase a postal note or money order from your postmaster or an express money order. If this is not possible please add sufficient to your check to cover the exchange as we cannot accept checks for $2.00 when we have to pay 15 cts. to the bank.

We solicit your aid and co-operation in this matter.

MEETING OF NEW COUNCIL

Mayor E. A. Hicks Swears in New Councillors, Standing Committees.—Water Scarcity Discussed.—Other Matters.

The first meeting of the new Council was held on Monday afternoon and the councillors elect P. M. Graves, Karl Freeman, and Paul W. Longmire were sworn into office by Mayor E. A. Hicks. Councillor F. M. Graves was appointed Deputy Mayor. Considerable discussion took place on water shortage and Chief Bishop was instructed to make an inspection of taps and fountains as the situation was considered quite serious. The Weekly Monitor came in for some considerable attention as a water motor is used on the plant and this possibility was discussed of turning off the water supply to the paper for a time. It is also the desire of the Council that no ice be taken this year from Crosskill Lake, the source of the town's water supply.

Mr. McCurly of the Halifax Herald and Sunday Leader addressed the Council on the matter of advertising this town as a Tourist resort. The question was left to the finance committee.

EVEN BREAK WITH WINDSOR

Local Curlers And Visitors Each Won Three Games But Visitors Lead 68 to 56 on Points.

Tuesday of last week was a big day in local curling circles as it was signalized by the arrival of three rinks from Windsor. Matches were played in both afternoon and evening. The visitors broke even on games with the locals, each winning three but led 68 to 56 in the aggregate of points.

Supper was served the visitors in the Oddfellows Hall and the evening match was followed by a luncheon in the same place. A. F. Little, President of the local curlers presided and the occasion was made a "feast of reason and a flow of soul."

An hour was spent very pleasantly in songs, speeches and stories in which both local members and visitors participated freely. Not the least among the contributions being the "Scotch" stories by Mr. A. R. Munro of Windsor. The whole occasion was most thoroughly enjoyed as are all occasions in which the Windsor curlers visit town. Scores in the games were as follows:

PUBLIC WANT LIGHT.

The Evening News, of New Glasgow, has published in full our recent article entitled "Go to the Roots," referring to the questions between the British Empire Steel Corporation and its employees, following it with an article of its own, "The News," making some suggestions as to changes in the officering of the company; but insists very strongly that it is essential for the regulation of the company's affairs that there should be a change of government in this province. The question of a change of government is one with which "The Casket" is not concerned; as it lies outside the scope of this paper's activities and work. But we think it is a pity that a matter which so closely affects the well-being of so many people and which is at the same time one which urgently requires the application of sound principles of economics and sociology, should be made use of in a partisan spirit and should have its merits obscured by party cries and party excursions. The carelessness with which grave questions of an economic character are likely to be handled when they are thrust into the party arena is fairly illustrated by this very editorial of "The News," which in one place complains of the price of coal and in another complains that the company is not sufficiently protected by the customs tariff. Is the company getting too much money and at the same time in need of more? That is fairly typical of what happens to an economic question when it is imported into party politics. We trust that the affairs of the British Empire Steel Corporation will not be made a party issue; for there is nothing to be expected but fog from a partisan conflict over such matters, and what the public want and ought to get, is light.—Antigonish Casket.)

Press Comment

PRECEPT AND PRACTICE.
Glasgow Herald.—Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, in his comments upon the King's Speech, was surprised at the mild and friendly terms in which reference was made to Russia. It would have been more surprising if Russia had been dealt with in censorious terms. We have no interest in following provocative policies; it is our main business, indeed, to refrain from answering blows according to the folly, or to put the case not less pertinently, we offer to the present rulers of Russia an example in moderation and sobriety which would be worthy of their emulation.

THE CARE OF SOULS.
London Daily Express: The pay of clergymen in the Chichester diocese is to be established at a minimum of £200 a year. While this does not represent a large income for educated men, with heavy duties and responsibilities, it will, nevertheless, bring relief to no fewer than forty incumbents in the diocese. It would be well if similar action were taken elsewhere. The pay of our poorer clergy cries shame upon Christian England. Thousands of country vicars are pinched for the most necessities of life; their meagre incomes are swallowed up in the preservation of an appearance of respectability, essential for the proper conduct of their work, and in the provision of education for their children.

THE MARITIME PROBLEM.

Toronto Globe: The Maritime Provinces contend that they have not obtained their fair share of the benefits of Confederation. It may be that here again geography stands in the way; but as we did not allow ourselves to be conquered by geography in our Western progress we ought to approach the Maritime problem with the same courage, and in a spirit of sympathy with the dwellers by the sea. It is good advice to tell them to rely upon themselves and develop their own resources. But we cannot stop there. We might not have made such gratifying progress ourselves if we had been compelled to rely upon our own unaided efforts. We have benefited by Confederation, and we should give a fair hearing to our less fortunate neighbors when they contend that they are entitled to a larger share of the benefit.

CONSUMED BY TAXES.

London Daily Mail: Every business man is agreed that taxation, national and local, is now on a most extravagant scale and that this is a deadly handicap to trade. It is nonsense to tell us that no relief is possible. Our whole system of administration since the war has become too complicated and too costly. Our Civil Service managed to conduct the business of administration in 1913 for £54,000,000. In the present year it is costing £227,000,000, or deducting war pensions, about £155,000,000. That is to say, the amount which it costs up has been nearly trebled, whereas our exports since the war have only increased in value about 50 per cent. The cost of local government has also risen nearly as heavily. It cannot be too often repeated that a nation of shopkeepers (and such we have to be to live) cannot afford this vast and unnecessary outlay on officialdom.

THE RUSSO-JAPANESE TREATY.
Springfield Republican: While the Washington conference accomplished much, it is recognized that its work was necessarily incomplete. Competition in capital ships was averted, but is now threatening to break out in other types not included in the treaty of the Pacific was stopped, but the proposed great British Naval base at Singapore has become a matter of controversy. And in regard to the Far East, it was apparent at the time, and has become more manifest that no settlement could be complete and permanent in which Russia, as one of the greatest Far Eastern powers, did not participate. With Japan's recognition of the Soviet Far Eastern diplomacy takes a new turn. We may safely assume that this development will be watched vigilantly by our State Department, and not impossibly it may lead to some revision of American policy.

NEW ZEALAND STATE RAILWAYS.
Auckland Weekly News: Clearly the intention of the Government is to close a chapter in the administration of the service. It is, however, obvious that a mere change from a single manager to a board of control will not achieve that purpose. It could be conclusively demonstrated that an independent manager, with the necessary knowledge and experience, would be the best instrument for the efficient control of the system, provided he were invested with adequate powers and actually free from external interference. It is, however, probable that Parliament would refuse to concede to a manager powers which it might be persuaded to entrust to a commission. Advocacy of management by commission does not rest upon demonstration of the superior wisdom and competence of experts in consultation, but upon the fact that only such an authority is likely to be made independent of political influence. Thus, the value and the importance of the changes now proposed does not depend wholly on the personnel of the board, but largely on the character and the extent of the powers which it is to exercise.

GOVERNMENT REACHES PERFECTION.

Kansas City Times: (The U. S. Treasury imposes a tax of $4 a gallon on all confiscated liquor before sale as industrial alcohol. The U. S. Department of Justice has declared this tax invalid. The legal staff of the U. S. Treasury are contesting the opinion of the Department of Justice.) As matters stand, both departments have a hand on the bottle, each asserting jurisdiction, and are glaring at each other much after the fashion of Sairey Gamp and Betsy Prig on the immortal occasion when the one demanded of the other than she drink fair. It is, as we say, a triumph of government, because all wheels have been stopped, no alcohol is being sold, no tax is being collected and two co-ordinate departments are standing on each other's feet. Temporarily at least, government has reached perfection. It is doing nothing. Next to going backward, that, we believe, is the goal it long has sought and grieved because it found it not.

50 YEARS OF WEDDED LIFE CELEBRATED.

Mr. and Mrs. Chipman Harris, Bear River, Receive Evidence of Regard on Anniversary.

Bear River.—On Candlemas day, 1875, Chipman Harris and Annie Troop were married at the old Troop Homestead on Sisson's Hill, by Rev. Joseph H. Saunders. They had five children, all except one, living: Clarence M., Supervisor of Schools, Ashland, N. H.; John C., a deacon of the Baptist church, Milton, Mass.; Miss Mabel V., of Boston; and Margaret, recently married to J. L. Warren, of H. M. Customs, Bear River. Many friends met at the home on Monday evening tender congratulations and offer tributes of respect. There were also messages of regret from those not able to be present. Deacon W. W. Clarke, on behalf of friends both present and absent, in a reminiscent address presented the one time bride and groom with a large array of tangible tokens of regard, consisting of gold, mingled with other gifts equally as useful, the whole representing a goodly sum.

To this the groom responded, showing appreciation, referring to the kindness of their children, and because of having such a wide circle of valued friends.

An original poem, written by C. M. Harris, B. A., was read by Mrs. Warren. Rev. R. S. Greig, Warden W. G. Clarke and W. E. Read made remarks well fitted to the occasion. A solo, to her own accompaniment, by the octogenarian singer, Mrs. Bogart, entitled "Silver Threads Among the Gold," was enthusiastically received by the company.

Mrs. H. R. Kinney gave a recitation, "Over the Hills to the Poor House," with "Over the Hills From the Poor House" as an encore, bringing out the pathos peculiar to Will Carleton's poems.

The entertainment was brought to a close with "Auld Lang Syne" and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," with the hope that Mr. and Mrs. Harris might, in health and happiness, be spared to celebrate their Diamond Jubilee.

ARGUED CASE FOR THE MARITIMES.

Hon. R. E. Finn Appeared Before Supreme Court, in Crow's Nest Nest Pass Appeal Case.

Ottawa.—Hon. R. E. Finn, M. P., Halifax, argued before the Supreme Court Thursday morning the case for Nova Scotia and New Brunswick in the appeal against the decision of the Railway Commission in setting aside the Crow's Nest Pass Act. Mr. Finn argued on six points, claiming:
1. That the Crow's Nest Pass Act was a special Act.
2. That it was statutory.
3. That the Act was binding up on the Board of Railway Commissioners.
4. That the Crow's Nest rates were limited in application to those points on the Canadian Pacific Railway in 1897 when the Act was effective.
5. That the provisions of the Crow's Nest Pass Act, in so far as they con-

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—"After my girlie was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without pains. Suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' I am sure it will do you good and I will save those doctor's bills. So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scarce at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to a few people I know and have had the good effect it has done me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those who suffer as I have to know what it has done for me."—Mrs. ROBERT G. MACGREGOR, R. R. No. 2, Sarnia, Ontario.
A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results. This is a remarkable proof of its merit. C

Ontario Gold Mines Will Have $30,000,000 Production in 1925.

Timmins, Ont.—Preliminary figures covering the month of December show the gold mines of Northern Ontario produced more gold than any other previous month in the history of the industry. Again, all tonnage records were broken, and once more the general advice from the mines is that of outstanding progress.

The aggregate income of the producing gold mines exceeded $2,400,000 for the first time on record in this province. The figures show that while the total output for 1924 was about $25,000,000, yet the mines are entering the year 1925 with production at a rate of close to $30,000,000 a year.

REV. T. C. MELLOR MEETS WITH ACCIDENT.

Nearly a serious accident befell Rev. T. C. Mellor last Sunday afternoon on his way to Perotte, which place he persists in visiting on Sundays to hold service for the benefit of a more or less appreciative people. The horse he had for the occasion, however, must have been somewhat at loggerheads with the Anglican mission, for he gave a fine shot with his off hind leg to an ice ball, striking the esteemed clergyman fairly in the right eye and causing contusions that brought the blood and narrowly escaped damaging the sight. Mr. Mellor was able to conduct service again in St. Luke's the same evening, but considerably pained and has since been wearing blue glasses. He hopes that horse is not a confirmed kicker.—(Spectator.)

NUCLEUS OF A FISHING SCHOOL BEGUN AT TRURO.

A Practical Course of Technical Instruction For Twenty-One Fishery Officers of Nova Scotia Just Completed at the Agricultural College.

Truro, N.S.—A course of technical instruction for twenty-one Fishery Officers has just been completed at the Truro Agricultural College. A similar course was given last winter to forty-four other officers. It is hoped that these courses may ultimately grow into a Fishery School. Why not? Agricultural Colleges have been carried on for many years greatly to the benefit of Agriculture in all the older Provinces of Canada, and why a college for Fishermen should not be started, it would be difficult to say. Fishing is nearly as important as farming and an improved quality of Holoistens or Southdowns, or an improved quality of grains, fruits or vegetables, is of more importance to the fisherman than to the farmer. The Government made no mistake therefore, eighteen months ago, when it decided to organize courses of instruction for fishery officers. The aim was first of all to educate the fishermen. Teachers have to be trained before it is possible to train pupils. The average school teacher could not do this special kind of work because he has been trained to teach only school children.

The Fisheries Department, therefore, is undertaking two lines of work in co-operation with the Biological Board of Canada. (1) It will educate the fishery officers to take part in the education of the fishermen, and (2) it will send round expert and well trained fish curers to show fishermen how to put up boneless fish in the best way so as to command the best price. It is hoped also in the near future to build and operate a model smoke house at the new biological station on King's Wharf, Halifax.

The course just completed at the Truro Agricultural College has been eminently practical. It consisted of experiments, demonstrations, and explanations, and as simple as they could possibly be made. Professors Bartheaux and Harlow each contributed separate courses in the physics and chemistry of air, water and earth. They tried to open the eyes of the fishery officers to what is going on around them and to bearing of these sciences upon fish and fisheries. Professor Cunningham also took part in the work of instruction. He emphasized the difference between fresh fish and stale fish and showed by experiments how the one changes into the other. The difference between the two he showed to be due to the action of bacteria. The longer the time elapses between the time a fish is caught and the time it is eaten the staler it becomes. In fact, the staler fish is due to bacteria getting on the fish and starting decay.

Dr. Kinley, the Chairman of the Biological Board of Canada, under whose supervision the course was conducted, devoted his attention to the difference between natural waters, sea water, river water, lake water, and the waters upon mountains. These latter being very unproductive of fish life because of the absence of the nutritive material known as plankton. Sea water is by all odds the most productive of life: lakes upon high mountains the least productive. He also stressed the fact that before planting fry or fingerlings in lakes in which they are not known to be indigenous, a thorough examination of such lakes should be made.

Together the men left the College very much delighted with the course and hoping that there might be a similar one offered to them each year for the next four or five years.

ZERO DUCKING LED TO HOME'S LOSS BY FIRE.
Isolated House Destroyed by Fire Built to Warm Young Ice-cutter Who Fell Into Water.
Newport.—Wednesday about noon, the home of Anthony Dimock, Woodville Section, was destroyed by fire. It is an isolated farm on the Scotch Village Station road from Woodville, and before help could be secured the fire was beyond control.

The son fell in the water where they were cutting ice. By the time they got him to the house in the zero weather he was badly chilled, and extra hot fire was made to warm him up. Evidently there was a defect in the flue in the attic.

When the fire was detected the family made strenuous efforts to extinguish it, but to no avail. When they turned their attention to saving their household effects they were unable to get out the chamber furniture. They did, however, save practically everything from the lower floors. The house had been recently renovated, and there was no insurance.

Imagination, Humor, Kindness, Athletics Attributes to Success

But Real Success Rarely Obtained Except Through Individual Effort, Says E. W. Beatty.

There are many exceptions to every rule in which accident or good fortune seem to have played a great part in a boy's or a man's life, but in the main, real success is probably rarely obtained except through individual effort.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION LECTURES. Splendid Addresses by Premier Armstrong And by Prof. M. S. Bancroft.

The University Extension Lecture Course, being delivered under the auspices of the Bridgetown Boy's Work Board, got away to a good start last Tuesday evening in the United Church Schoolroom, when Professor M. S. Bancroft, of Acadia University, (Professor of Geology) gave a lecture on "The Search of the Ocean."

The Course proper, however, has received a particularly auspicious preface the previous Tuesday evening, in the vestry of the Baptist church when under the same auspices, the Hon. E. H. Armstrong, Premier of Nova Scotia, gave a most interesting description of his recent visit to England and other parts of Europe, to a full house.

At the outset, Premier Armstrong, said he could not claim to be a lecturer. He simply wanted to tell his hearers (because he had been asked to do so) in an intimate way, of some of the things he saw, the people he met, and the impressions he received, on what to him, was a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

Let us, (merely for the sake of argument) allow the claim of the Premier to be no lecturer in the usual sense of the term. It is yet safe to say, he has the happy faculty of making you see through his eyes what he saw, and then wish you could actually see for yourself, and this is an art not given to every lecturer.

Certain it is, that when Mr. Armstrong had finished talking, the audience had no idea how time had fled.

Starting from Quebec, he had taken them across the ocean in a palatial C. P. R. steamer, the appointments and service of which left nothing to be desired. He had landed them at Southampton, where they saw docks and shipping facilities unsurpassed in the whole world.

Thence he had taken them in a non-stop train through some of the loveliest country-side imaginable to London at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Again he had shown them a marvellous sight of efficiency in the London terminal. After teaching London, he took them almost immediately ly to a Royal Garden party at Buckingham Palace, there to be introduced to their Majesties the King and Queen, H. R. H. the Prince of Wales and other notables, and incidentally to learn somewhat of the secret of the hold of Royalty and hereditary privilege on democratic England. This done, he took them on strolling excursions in Piccadilly and Oxford Circus. And such shops! The like had not been seen before nor such courteous service experienced. Then a ride on the top of a bus and a sight of traffic scarcely imaginable unless seen. Then came other trips to the English country-side. The cottager's beautiful gardens and lovely flowers. The landed estates with their magnificent houses and hoary traditions and, what must strike the eye of every visitor to England for the first time, the turf of the English lawn. The audience saw it all. Then a trip was made across the English Channel to Calais and thence, via Paris, to the battlefields regions and the war grave cemeteries. Again the description was intimate to a degree, and it must have been a source of consolation to any present, who had the mortal remains of a boy lying "over there," to know of the care being taken of their resting places.

In due course the audience were brought back to Nova Scotia to which in concluding, the speaker paid a worthy tribute, as having much of which to be proud, and as abounding with opportunities.

Prolonged applause showed the appreciation of the audience as the speaker sat down. This was again evidenced on a vote of thanks, moved by Canon Underwood and seconded by the Rev. J. H. Freestone, being put by the Chairman of the Board, the Rev. P. R. Hayden.

The second lecture in the Course was given by Professor M. S. Bancroft, was well attended and the speaker brought out many interesting facts on what is generally considered a rather dry subject even if it were the "Search of Ocean." Mr. Bancroft dealt not with life in the ocean but with the bed of ocean, the geological formations, etc.

Were there 10 per cent less water in the ocean there would be 10,000,000 more acres of undersea areas, become land surface. With an increase of 10 per cent in the waters of ocean half of North America would be under water. Depressions in ocean were discussed. The greatest depth of water is somewhat greater than the height of the highest mountains.

At the close a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. O. S. Miller, harrier, and seconded by Rev. J. H. Freestone.

The next lecture in the course takes place on Thursday evening of this week in the Baptist church vestry and will be given by Rev. R. B. Liddy, B.D., Ph.D., Professor of Psychology and Philosophy of Mt. Allison University. Subject: "Prevention of Crime."

OBITUARY.

Charles Forbes Tupper.

Clementsport.—On Sunday evening of last week, one of Clementsport's most beloved citizens in the person of Charles Forbes Tupper, passed away. Born at Round Hill in 1877, son of the late C. B. B. and Margaret Tupper, Mr. Tupper spent his boyhood and youth in his native village, and received his education in its public school. He later taught school for several years at Clementsvale and Port Gilbert.

In 1902 he married Harriet O. Millett, daughter of Alexander and Melissa Millett, of Clementsvale, with whom he resided two or three years coming to Clementsport about twenty years ago.

For sixteen years Mr. Tupper was clerk of Herbert Hicks, general merchant of this place. He was called upon for all kinds of public service and during the war did his "bit" without stint in all the great drives.

In public school and church matters he took an active part, serving for some years as Trustee of the public schools and Superintendent of the Sunday School in the Methodist church, though himself a member of the Presbyterian congregation at Annapolis.

Failing health compelled his retirement four years ago. Later he opened a small store and the last two years, with the assistance of his wife, opened his home to the public under the name of the Lucerne House.

Though confined to the house since November he did not have to keep his bed and passed away at the last without warning while seated in his chair.

The funeral service on Wednesday was conducted by Rev. M. H. Macintosh, of Annapolis, assisted by Rev. James W. Smith, of the Baptist church, and the Rev. A. W. L. Smith, Rector of St. Clements. The burial arrangements were under the direction of the Masonic Order of which the deceased was a Royal Arch member.

The Masonic Ritual at the house and the grave was taken by fellow members of Annapolis Royal Lodge, A. F. and A. M. No. 32.

The teachers, pupils and trustees of the public schools attended in a body. Flags were flown at half mast all over the village, and the whole citizenship united in rendering a most impressive tribute to the memory of a beloved citizen.

In addition to his widow, a daughter, Edna Beth; a son, James Howard, one brother, Elias, of Bridgewater, and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Rice, Minneapolis, survive him. His only other brother, Major J. H. Tupper, of the 25th Battalion, was killed at Courcellet.

Mrs. Avar Beeler and Mrs. O. P. Covert, of Bridgetown, are sisters of Mrs. Tupper.

Mr. Tupper was a life-long Liberal and to the party gave the same loyal service that characterized his life in other respects.

KARSDALE.

Roscoe Fisher and wife, and Mrs. Dickie returned to Lynn on Thursday. David M. Porter had the misfortune to lose his horse on Saturday.

DR. ROBERTSON FOR THOROUGH INVESTIGATION.

Advices Men to Fight For Their Rights. Conciliation Board Member Addresses Convention.—Wages Discussion is off, Until Today.

SYDNEY—An official statement issued to the Press Wednesday evening, at the close of the first day's session of the special convention of the United Mine Workers of District 26, called for the purpose of considering Besco's wage cut ultimatum, states that direct discussion of that matter was held over until tomorrow.

At this afternoon's session, a verbal report reviewing the recent negotiations, presented by District President MacLeod, was adopted. A request from Dr. J. W. Robertson, of the Winfield Conciliation Board, for permission to address the convention as an individual was granted. The convention's committee was disposed to treat Dr. Robertson's remarks as confidential, beyond stating that he expressed himself as strongly in favor of a thorough investigation of the Nova Scotia coal industry by a fully authorized, competent, independent, impartial body, as the only solution of the ever-recurring strife between the miners and operators on the questions of wages and working conditions, and also that he advised the men to fight for their rights so that coming generations could not accuse them of selling to do their part.

Despite strong opposition a motion pending in the press was passed at the opening of the afternoon session. Minard's Liniment for Sprains and Bruises.

side on what is most suitable for them an alteration might be made in the present Fruit Marks Act that need only apply to Nova Scotia fruit. He pointed out that the so-called free-run pack, marked No. 3, used by some, though apparently contrary to the Fruit Marks Act, is made legal by the purchase from the Fruit Department of a trade mark, and while this practice is very satisfactory to the few now using it, he believed it should be stopped, as he said it has no definite standard of quality and so guarantees nothing to the buyer.

SHORT COURSE HELD.

The course of instruction carried on by the Agricultural Department under the supervision of Dr. Cunningham during the four weeks Extension Course held in the demonstration building at Lawrenceton last winter exceeded expectations in its success and plans are already laid for another this winter. He urged giving this movement united support to help to solve one of the country's most vital questions, that of keeping the boys on the farms.

Excellent work he said has carried on by the Federal Department through Prof. Blair, at the Experimental Farm Kenville, and A. Kelsall, of the Entomological Laboratory, Annapolis, also by the Provincial Department through Dr. Brittain, Provincial Entomologist, who, judging from reports has this past season wrought havoc among the green apple bugs, with contact dusts.

BRIGHT FUTURE.

No branch of agriculture he said, has brighter prospects for the future than fruit raising in Nova Scotia, whose geographical advantages are well known, and he thought it reasonable to predict that the most advanced apple growing districts will look with envy at Nova Scotia achievements.

CANADIAN PULP CONCERN TO MAKE PAPER INSTANTLY

Fraser Companies Reported to be Building New Mill in Maine. Montreal—Canada may lose another paper mill, to be built in the United States. It is stated that the Frasers, of Edmundston, N. B., are planning the erection of a book-paper mill at Madawaska, Maine, which is across the river from Edmundston. The mill is being located in the United States because of the American tariff on book-paper, and will presumably use wood or pulp from Canada. The Frasers are already large manufacturers in Canada of sulphite pulp, which is the chief constituent of magazine papers.

WILL BE 200-TON MILL.

It was announced some time ago that a 200-ton-a-day mill would be built at Madawaska, but at that time the backers of the project were not known. Now it is stated that Fraser Companies is behind the deal. The company desires to establish a steady outlet for its sulphite pulp by controlling its manufacture into the finished product—book paper.—From the standpoint of the Fraser Companies this should be an excellent move in making the company more or less independent of the usual wide fluctuations in sulphite markets. Magazine paper will be made at the

Baby's Welfare During February

February is one of the hardest months of the year on little ones. It is a month of cold, blustery days that prevent the mother taking her baby out for the fresh air so necessary to its welfare. Baby is consequently confined to the home. More often than not the rooms are overheated and badly ventilated and the little one catches cold or gripe. What is needed to keep the baby well is a gentle laxative that will regulate the stomach and bowels; banish constipation and indigestion and in this way will either prevent or break up colds and gripe. Such a laxative is Baby's Own Tablets. They are mild but thorough in action; are absolutely safe as they are guaranteed to contain no opiates or narcotics. They never fail to be of benefit to little ones and may be given to either the newborn babe or the growing child. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Our patience will achieve more than our force.

PROBATION OF CONVICTED PERSONS.

Dr. J. G. Shearer, Social Service Council of Canada.

Probation of adult persons who are before a Court for sentence after conviction for some offence, is new in Canada. It has for years been used in the Juvenile Courts, but it was not until 1921 that an Act providing for the probation of adult persons in Canada was passed, on the initiative of Judge Hovatt of Ontario, then a member of the House of Commons.

What is meant by probation? Not parole, or extra-mural permit, or license-of-leave, all of which are methods of dealing with persons who are serving time in prison for some offence of which they have been convicted. Probation applies only to a convicted person in lieu of imprisonment for a stated period. Suppose a young man of previous good record has been convicted on a charge of theft or fraud. If the Magistrate or Judge is of opinion that he has learned his lesson and that if given another chance he may be restored to good citizenship, where a sentence might only confirm him in crime, he (the Judge) may—

- (1) Let him off on suspended sentence.
- (2) Put him out on probation under a designated officer naming such conditions as he considers wise, such as (a) he must do whatever the probation officer requires of him, accept a job secured for him, allow the officer to collect his wages, report at regular intervals to the officer, etc. (b) he must agree that his wages shall go to the support of his wife, family, or dependents.
- (3) Determine the duration of his probation, or make it indeterminate, and discharge him as being satisfied of the bona fides of the man's good intentions and sufficiency of his discipline; (The man is then entirely free so far as the legal consequences of his offence are concerned.)
- (4) Order him to make restitution for the offence he has committed.

Probation thus serves several purposes in cases concerned: (a) saves the convicted person the stigma of having become a "gaol bird" and makes it easier for him to regain his self respect, (b) it provides for his dependents, (c) constitutes an economic saving to the state, costing in the individual case in Ontario at the rate of $30. per year whereas in prison he would cost $300. (d) it makes his reformation and lasting good conduct more easy and probable, which should be the one great object of the administration of justice, (e) it provides however, for punishment of those who show that they are not deserving of social confidence.

FATHER JOHN'S

BUILDS NEW STRENGTH REAL BLEND

THE SORRY OF PROFITEERING.

How can we protect the consumers against "profiteering," as the Montreal Star characterizes it, if we give manufacturers "that kind of protection necessary to secure the market to our own people for those products which we ourselves can manufacture? If anybody can devise a method by which our manufacturers would not charge nearly as much as the American price plus the Canadian tariff, then the people would have no reason to object to high protection prices. But human nature is the same the world over. An article that costs $100 to manufacture in the United States and $125 to make in Canada is protected, say by a duty of 40 per cent. That will make it cost $140 or $150 in this country, plus the profit of the middleman, and, if he wants 20 per cent, figuring that amount to the cost the consumer would pay $180 for it. Now the Canadian article costing $125 with 20 per cent added for profit, should be sold to the consumer for $150, but do we find that it turns out that way? The Canadian article would be likely to sell for about $175, or five dollars less than the American article could be bought for, and the middleman and manufacturer, instead of making $25 on the sale would be making $50.

The Star adds that there has been such an orgy in profiteering in producer industries that protection as a policy has suffered in public esteem and asks:

How long will it be before the people of Canada awake to their danger? How long will it be before the business men and the politicians, regardless of party, get together for a consultation to lay the ground for a tariff policy which will be high enough to secure the Canadian market for the Canadian producer, and will so hedge about the concessions of protection that he profiteering manufacturer will not be able to use protection as a cloak for his cupidity and selfishness?

"Regardless of party!" The men in either party think they are just as well able to make or unmake tariffs as if they had the assistance of the best of their opponents. The trouble with parliament is they cannot see themselves as others see them. They persuade themselves that they are doing right, whereas quite frequently they are sacrificing the country to their own selfish ends. To persuade representatives to work for the country rather than themselves is a very difficult task. There are some who are honestly in earnest and who work for the state rather than for the party but how many would get together and endeavor to frame a tariff policy and hedge protective concessions to prevent profiteering manufacturers from using them for a cloak for their cupidity and selfishness? (Telegraph-Journal.)

Marketing System

The whole marketing system this year shows a greater self-reliance on the part of the farmers. Instead of waiting until some special legislation is passed to provide them with better markets or cheaper transportation or more competent labor the producers have at last solved many of their problems themselves by doing more scientific farming and more economic selling. The building of barns and granaries has enabled them to store their wheat.

Those who made money out of last year's large but cheap crop are able financially to hold back now until the better prices make a good average for the yields of the two years. Instead of buying more land, as was formerly the custom after realizing on their crop, the farmers are determined to make for themselves the profits that formerly went to the middleman. Moreover the Western farmers are taking more interest in world-wide economics. They know exactly what

CANADIAN FARMERS LEARN MARKETING

Hold Back Grain for Higher Prices Now Instead of Unloading at Once Economic Effect Apparent.

Toronto.—It is not only the smaller size of the Western crops of wheat and oats that is reducing traffic earnings on the railways of the Dominion. The farmers, in spite of, or perhaps because of, steadily rising wheat prices, are holding back some of their grain.

According to figures of the Northwest Grain Dealers Association there are at this date 100,000,000 bushels of wheat at interior points on the Canadian prairies. Of this total it is estimated that 37,000,000 bushels of export wheat are still in the farmers' hands and although this proportion is 75,000,000 bushels less than the amount that they held at the corresponding date of a year ago, it is still sufficiently large in comparison with this year's smaller yield to prove that the carry-over is quite voluntary.

The whole marketing system this year shows a greater self-reliance on the part of the farmers. Instead of waiting until some special legislation is passed to provide them with better markets or cheaper transportation or more competent labor the producers have at last solved many of their problems themselves by doing more scientific farming and more economic selling. The building of barns and granaries has enabled them to store their wheat.

Those who made money out of last year's large but cheap crop are able financially to hold back now until the better prices make a good average for the yields of the two years. Instead of buying more land, as was formerly the custom after realizing on their crop, the farmers are determined to make for themselves the profits that formerly went to the middleman. Moreover the Western farmers are taking more interest in world-wide economics. They know exactly what the chances for competition are when the crops from India, Australia, and the Argentine come on the market, while they are perfectly informed as to the total world shortage of wheat and the demand from Europe. In other words they had sufficiently advanced beyond the pioneer stage to be able to look after themselves.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Ina Hubley.

Mrs. Ina Hubley, widow of the late Daniel Hubley, passed into the home beyond in the early hours of Monday morning, January 19th-1925. Her sister was sixty years of age.

Sister Hubley had made her plans to remain in the home village at Clementsvale where she would be near those with whom she had cooperated for many years as a devoted servant of Jesus Christ and a member of the Clementsvale United Baptist church.

"The harvest truly is great and the laborers are few." This truth was borne in upon us with staggering force as we saw one who had been "steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord" in the front ranks of Christian service, struck down so suddenly by the last enemy—death.

The call for her indeed came suddenly, and in the still hours of the night, by a shock of paralysis, from which she never rallied. She was ready. The admonition of her 186 and deathrings out "Be ye therefore ready also, for ye know neither the day nor the hour."

As those who gathered about and looked upon the calm, strong features, there came into our hearts a special conviction that death had been for her swallowed up in victory and its sting removed by the Divine grace of her Lord.

We as a community will still continue to feel a keen sense of loss and sorrow because of the departure of our beloved sister from the circle of high interests which she so generously shared.

All that was earthly was laid to rest at Milford by the side of her late beloved husband.

The three daughters who are left of the family are: Mrs. Harry Lee, who resides in St. John, N. B. Mrs. Willis Potter, who lives near the old home at Clementsvale, and Miss Frelove, who had been employed in Moncton. To all these we extend our heartfelt sympathy.—(Cont.)

OBITUARY.

Willard J. D. Brown.

On Thursday morning 29th January 1925, after a long illness, borne with patient hopefulness, Willard J. D. Brown, Lawrence town, eldest son of the late Deacon John A. Brown and Caroline A. Brown, passed to the Great Beyond.

Being of a genial and social nature, Will was a favorite with old and young. His ready wit never failed to provoke smiles and in spite of long months of weakness and often intense suffering, he had a cheery word and a smile for all.

His wife and only son have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Emeline Clarke.

Karsdale.—We deeply regret to report the death of Mrs. Emeline Clarke which sad event took place on Sunday at the residence of her son, Vernon.

Mrs. Clarke was a lady very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She leaves two sons and two daughters: Vernon, at home, Henry, sailing out of Boston, Mrs. Bath, residing in Boston and Hattie, also residing in that city.

A PLEASANT GATHERING.

Last Tuesday evening, Feb. 3rd the Crokinole Club of Beauséjour, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clute. The first part of the evening was spent playing crokinole in which eight boards were used. Later there was music and other games after which Mrs. Clute served a very tasty luncheon. At the midnight hour the happy party broke up, hoping to meet again soon at the same home. The next gathering will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock Marshall.

OVER 17 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

APPRECIATION OF THE WORK OF REV. A. J. PROSSER.

Rev. A. J. Prosser, Bridgetown, N. S.

Dear Mr. Prosser.—By a vote of the Baptist church of this town I am requested to extend to you through the columns of The Monitor some words of work and assuring you of our whole hearted sympathy and co-operation. While you were our pastor you did not confine your efforts to what is generally considered strictly pastoral concerns. Your interest in social problems carried you farther afield and under the guiding hand of God you were ultimately led to sever your pastoral relations with us, and give your full time to the work which lay so near to your heart.

It was with deep regret that we parted with you as pastor, but believing that the cause which you represented was a most worthy one, and that you were eminently fitted for the same, we therefore accepted your resignation.

It is now not quite a year since you entered upon your new duties as agent of The Children's Aid Society, but already the splendid results of your work amply justify the change you made in your sphere of labor. From our own church field, we have seen your work widen until it now comprises the three counties of Annapolis, Digby and Yarmouth. In every section of these counties is your work commending itself to those who are interested in the social and moral betterment of our people.

Of course in attacking the forces of evil you will necessarily make enemies of its votaries, but be assured that you have the undivided support of the Churches and other good organizations. We have been pleased to know of the splendid moral and financial backing which the County Councils have recently accorded you, and we again want to assure you that the Bridgetown Baptist church, of which you are a member, and which you have so faithfully and acceptably served as a pastor still stands pledged to give you its most hearty support and co-operation.

In behalf of the Church,
M. C. FOSTER,
Church Clerk.

DEEP BROOK.

The many friends of Mr. Augustus Purdy will be sorry to learn of the painful accident which occurred on Wednesday last. While trying to start his mill he caught his left hand in the machinery, breaking his arm and badly lacerating his hand.

Miss Gertrude Curtis, who has been so very ill for nine weeks with typhoid fever, is making a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henshaw entertained very pleasantly a surprise party on Thursday evening. A good number of friends gathered and spent a very pleasant evening.

The Dorcas Society held a pleasant meeting on Wednesday last week with Mrs. L. E. Sherman. At the close of the sewing period a social half hour was spent. The hostess assisted by Mrs. B. H. A. Rice served refreshments.

The W. M. A. Society met on Thursday, Feb. 5th, with Mrs. Bessie McBride. In the absence of the president, Mrs. McBride conducted a very interesting meeting. The treasurer reported over $70.00 sent to the provincial treasurer since Jan. 1st for missionary work. $20. of this amount was sent to the Acadia fund. Mrs. McBride gave an interesting paper on the work in India and Mrs. Robert Curtis a well prepared paper on the work in Bolivia.

The annual business meeting of the Deep Brook Baptist church was held on Friday evening, Jan. 16th. The reports submitted by the various societies were most encouraging. FOX BREEDERS HOLD SESSION

Nova Scotia Association Hold Two Enthusiastic Meetings Here.—Registration And Other Matters Discussed.

A very largely attended meeting of the Nova Scotia Fox Breeders was held Tuesday 10th, afternoon and evening in the Board of Trade rooms. Over ninety fox breeders were present at the afternoon session and nearly as many in the evening. While the larger number were from Bridgetown and vicinity there were representatives from East and West, including Dr. Randall, of Truro, President of the Association, E. M. MacDougall, of Des Gore, Hants Co., Secretary-Treasurer, and Hon. J. W. Comeau, of Comeauville, who is the owner of a very large ranch at that place. There were members from Kings County, and Annapolis County was generally represented from end to end. The constitution of the Association was read and adopted. Dr. Randall gave an interesting address on the state of the industry and the manner in which its business was being handled. Ex-Mayor Hicks gave an address expressing interest in the industry. A letter was received from C. C. Avard, Secretary of the New Brunswick Association, giving a resume of a recent meeting at Port Elizabeth, New Brunswick, where fifty new members were added. Fifty-five members enrolled at the afternoon meeting here. The Directors of the Association are President Dr. Randall of Truro; E. M. MacDougall, Secretary-Treasurer, West Gore, Hants; A. B. Clarke, J. I. Foster, C. H. Piggott, H. B. Hicks, Bridgetown; A. L. Davidson, Middleton; H. Cruikshanks, Truro; Hon. J. W. Comeau, Comeauville. The President and Secretary gave interesting addresses on the importance of registration and discussion on the subject was very fully participated in by the members present. A petition is being prepared to be sent to the Minister of Agriculture at Ottawa asking for an extension of time of one year for the registration of foundation stock for the fox ranchers of the Province.

At the evening session F. E. Bath was appointed Auditor. A letter was read from the Prohibitory Bureau of Nova Scotia inviting the fox breeders to co-operate in an advertising campaign which would help to make known their business in other countries. Some favorable comments were made on this matter and it will be gone into further by the Directors. The Financial Report was read which showed the funds of the Association to be in a healthy condition. A report was also made by the Secretary concerning arrangements with the Government in connection with the removing of some disabilities under which the industry at present is placed. A hearing is expected from the Government at an early date. One of the matters involved is the removal of the royalty tax on pelts. The members consider that this tax should not apply to domesticated foxes and more than to other domesticated animals. The President, Secretary and Capt. Salter were appointed to interview the Government regarding redress requested on some tax impositions connected with the industry. The Secretary went quite fully into the matter of storing of foxes and strongly recommended owners to register their stock. The matter of a tax of $100.00 per year on outside fur buyers coming into the Province was discussed.
