As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, they are now making cowless milk out of a mixture of peanuts, castor oil and water. It looks as if we would be able to get along without a pasture and a cow-barn.

"Don't discharge your milkman," said Hiram. "Mebbe you haint ferreted the time when they first sold maple sugar that never seen a maple tree made it out of the sugar in the bottom of a molasses puncheon."

The house operator in the market they told us we might as well chop down our maple woods to make firewood, but I don't deliver no trouble sellin' all the candy an' sugar an' honey I kin make every spring. I aint worryin' about no peanut milk. Some folks thought what we needed in this country was a no political party an' they put it on the market. Some folks comes along an' says he guesses the old party is good enough for him—an' he stands pat.

"Like the Farmers' party," suggested the reporter.

"Low here!" said Hiram. "The Farmers' party aint no party. They was the first one. They're just comin' along now. Don't you worry about the farmers. They'll put this here peanut politics out of business an' they'll go on sellin' milk, too—yes, sir."

Law Resignation A Political Sensation Of First Magnitude

London Times View—Other Papers Less Emphatic But See Considerable Political Effect—Three Named as Possibilities as Successor.

London, March 18—A political crisis of the first magnitude has been created by the resignation of A. Bonar Law, from the British cabinet, so declares the London Times.

Other newspapers, while less emphatic, agree in saying that Mr. Law's resignation is certain to have considerable political effect, and that it probably will materially weaken the Coalition government.

It is pointed out that the successor to Mr. Law is not likely to work so well with Premier Lloyd George, and Sir Edward Carson, are given more prominence as being probable successors to Mr. Law.

Who Will Be Leader? There are many forces relative to the new Unionist leader whom the party will elect on Monday. Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer; Sir Robert Home, president of the board of trade, and Sir Edward Carson, are given more prominence as being probable successors to Mr. Law.

Today's Report From the Training Camps of the Baseball Teams—Late News of Sport.

New York, March 18—Johnny Wilson, who successfully defended his title as middleweight champion in a fifteen round bout with Mike O'Dowd last night, today received as his share of the receipts $42,000.

The Boston box is the fourth to wear the middleweight crown. The initial holder was Tom Chandler, in 1867-1868.

O'Dowd, the former title holder, received a guarantee of $20,000. The contest was witnessed by 18,206 persons. It was announced today by Wilson's manager that the title holder fought with a strained right hand. This morning O'Dowd returned a statement that he had been struck in the groin. He said his physician, who examined him, corroborated this.

Boston, March 18—The Boston Braves, divided against themselves, played a winning game at Galveston yesterday. The regulars won 4 to 0, but got only two hits, both of which were made off Braxton, a left hander. Fillingim, McQuillan, who worked three innings each for the Yanigans, held the regulars hitless.

Boston, March 18—Everett Scott, star shortstop of the Boston Red Sox, pulled a "Charley Horse" in a game with the second team at Hot Springs yesterday and was forced to leave the diamond. Whether he will be able to play against "Rabbit" Maranville, former Brave, in the game with Pittsburg, tomorrow afternoon, was said to be doubtful last night. The regulars defeated the Yankees 14 to 9, in yesterday's game. Player Hurt.

New York, March 18—Frank Frisch, New York National's star infielder, wrenched his left ankle in a game at San Antonio yesterday and may not be able to appear with the team until season opens. Frisch sustained the injury in a foot first slide to third.

The Giants' squad will leave tonight for Dallas. Frank Baker, Tripp's star, has reported for duty with the New York Americans at Shreveport. The Yankees reported to be at Baton Rouge today for the opening of their exhibition series with the Brooklyn Nationals.

IT IS BETTER

Buenos Aires, March 18—For the first time since 1914 the pound sterling was quoted at a premium in the exchange market here. The cable rate on London closed yesterday at 20.80, and 4,000 men. The company normally employs 20,000.

It was announced an effort would be made to reach one-third normal production soon.

DODGE BROTHERS RESUME WITH PARTIAL FORCE

Detroit, March 18—Dodge Bros. Motor Car Company, closed since last December, resumed yesterday with between 8,500 and 4,000 men. The company normally employs 20,000.

Some one had made an offensive statement, and he expressed the conviction that "there never had been the slightest sign of jealousy here where so much had been said of what the dominion troops have done, and so little of what our own soldiers have done."

Speaking prior to the departure of the Duke of Devonshire to become governor of Canada, Mr. Law said—"The chairman spoke of Canada as a nation in the making, a statement which has rightly been corrected by the Duke of Devonshire, for it is a nation already made. When we remember that Canada and other dominions have sent these immense forces to help the empire, and have made either their purse or their man, we realize it requires great tact, good feeling and common sense, not only on the part of the dominions, but of those directing affairs at home to prevent friction. This condition of affairs cannot be permanent. The war has made a great difference. It has shown the dominions that they are of mature years. The old relationship cannot continue, and when we come to the question of working out the new relationship which is required above everything is the courage to realize the importance of what we are doing and not to be afraid to take the necessary steps to secure the desired result."

An amusing incident happened when Bonar Law opened the Ontario hospital at Oshington, during the war. When the band struck up the "Maple Leaf," Mr. Law turned to his neighbor, a lady, and asked innocently: "What tune is that?"

BIG GATHERING OF TEACHERS

Toronto To Have Second Session of Imperial Conference

Many Important Matters to Be Taken Up—Hope for Post Conference Trips—First Meeting in Nine Years.

Toronto, March 18.—(By Canadian Press)—Canada is to have the honor, in August of this year, of entertaining the distinguished educationists from Great Britain and other parts of the empire in the second Imperial Conference of Teachers' Associations. The conference will assemble in Toronto on August 16, and the session will continue for four days. The previous conference was held in July, 1912, in Causton Hall, Westminster, when the invitation of the Ontario government that the next quadrennial meeting should be held in Toronto was accepted. The war intervened, with the result that nine years have elapsed between the first and second conference.

While it is still too early to estimate the attendance of the forthcoming conference, replies already received indicate widespread interest, and it is hoped that the attendance will at least equal that of 1912. The proceedings were opened on that occasion by the Duke of Argyll and the Right Hon. J. A. Pears, president of the board of education.

Among the chairmen of the various sessions were the Earl of Neath, Sir Gilbert Parker, Prof. Gilbert Murray and Dr. James L. Hughes. Delegates assembled to the number of 600 from all parts of the empire.

The forthcoming conference the programme is arranged under five heads: (1) Imperial Co-operation in Education; (2) Canadian Education; (3) Vocational Training; (4) Health and Education; (5) Civics and Education.

Under the first head the large question of the standardizing of teachers' certificates, and the extension of the practice of exchanging teachers will be discussed. Already this movement has reached considerable proportions. Seventeen Canadian teachers are at present in London. In Toronto alone thirty-seven teachers may be granted leave to each next year in the British Isles, and the total number of Canadian teachers as exchanged will probably reach nearly one hundred. The benefits likely to accrue from such an experience in the breaking down of insularity and the impact of new methods are becoming apparent to educational authorities.

The second head, which has to do with Canadian education, should serve to familiarize the visitors, as well as some Canadians, perhaps, with the fact that we are a federation, with as many educational systems as we have provinces. The distinguishing characteristics of the system employed by the several provinces will be set forth in a series of papers. Another feature of this section will be a paper on agricultural education in Canada, which will have particular interest for the British delegates, who would like to settle on Canadian farms, but hesitate owing to lack of familiarity with Canadian methods of agriculture.

Under the third head, perhaps the most interesting discussion will deal with continuation classes. Here the purpose of adolescent education, and the reasons why the Fisher bill, as well as similar Canadian legislation, is meeting with practical difficulties of enforcement, will come up for review. Some way may be disclosed, in spite of the financial burdens of the war, of providing for the propitious years after compulsory education is concluded at the age of fourteen.

Under Health and Education, the question of medical inspection and the treatment of mentally and physically defective children will be discussed. The place of games in school life and the very interesting developments which have taken place in connection with excursions during term, and summer camps will be dealt with in papers by Canadian delegates.

The place of civics in education, one of the most delicate and important of the problems confronting educationists of today, forms the last division of the programme. Here the work of the League of the Empire and of other organizations calculated to inculcate a sane and intelligent patriotism will be presented.

The convention is being planned so that visiting delegates will have an opportunity of seeing something of the charm of Toronto in summer. The sessions of the conference will be held in the stately buildings of the University of Toronto, and the visiting delegates will receive accommodation in the university residences surrounding Queen's Park. It is hoped also that post conference trips may be arranged to enable these best of publicity agents to know something of the scenic beauties of Canada and its wealth of resources.

SELL COAL IN SEALED PACKAGES

Vancouver, B. C., March 18.—Sale of coal in sealed packages to eliminate the short-weight evil was advocated by Robert Cassidy, K. C., citizens' counsel, in an enquiry into coal prices held by Alex. Henderson, government commissioner.

There were numerous allegations of short-weighting in coal deliveries, and one witness said that in many deliveries there was five to ten per cent. of stone "believe," said Mr. Cassidy, "the only solution is through the sale of coal in sealed packages, similar to the method by which the government proposes to sell liquor, and went on to state that he thought that could be effected by the use of crates holding one or two tons of coal, filled at the mines and delivered to the consumer in that manner.

ROBINSON'S BIRTHDAY WALK UPSTAIRS AND SAVE TEN

ROBINSON'S BIRTHDAY PARTY AND SPRING OPENING Will Be Held In St. John Tomorrow Saturday, March 19th. I Will be Eight Years Old Saturday and I want you all to Celebrate with Me

I am, certainly, more proud of this Birthday than any I have ever had. I am proud of this Birthday because during the past year of uncertain conditions and high prices, I was the first to tell the people of Canada to stop buying at the high prices—and invited them all to help me to force prices down.

This was on May 1st, 1920 (before anyone had dared to think that prices could come down). For two months I fought the fight alone with the public on my side. I threw my merchandise on the market at less than cost—and, finally, forced a break in the market, which was proved later had to come.

During my eight years of business life in Canada I have dared to do many things that have caused the "ground-floor" clothiers to rise up in arms, but never have I dared to do anything that I am so proud of as this last great feat. With my enormous volume of over 200,000 customers, plus the fact that the public knew that I always handled only the better grades of reliable clothes, I was able to accomplish what no other clothier could have done.

NOW I am going to do a Bigger Thing Than Ever Before. At One Jump I Am Going Back To My Price Of Four Years Ago

What do you think of that? Won't this be "Some" Birthday Party?

Four years ago I sold good clothes for $25. Four years ago every man in Canada knew that he could come into one of my Upstairs Shops and pay me just $25 and be as well dressed as many of his neighbors who were paying double that. Over three years ago I was forced by the rising markets to have the lights taken out of the $25 price on my big electric signs.

NOW THE PRICE MARK IN THE SIGN HAS BEEN TURNED on again full blast—so "all who run may read"—and the lights ARE ON TO STAY!

It means that this Birthday Party will bring the biggest crowds that ever attended one of my Spring openings—and it also means that every man and woman who attends this party will be a self-appointed critic who will not be asked to buy—but who will buy because they will know that there are no other values like these.

What does this mean? It means—that the time has come again when the most fastidious dresser can "Walk Upstairs" to a Robinson Shop and see hundreds of good, hand tailored, all Wool Suits in a variety of models to fit all shapes at the 1916 Robinson price of $25. It means that at this low price you can be fitted perfectly without any extra charge for alterations.

It means that for the low price of $25 you can secure a Suit or Topcoat with a ROBINSON LABEL—which carries its guarantee of satisfaction and more for your money than any other clothes in Canada, or your money back.

It means that the public will no longer be hoodwinked with high prices—It means that by buying in such enormous quantities and manufacturing my own clothes and cutting out the middleman's profit, by cutting out the high 'ground floor' rents, delivery service, book losses and many other unnecessary expenses, I am able to save you $10 to $15, and to serve you well again at a price I have in former years made famous throughout Canada.

EVERY GARMENT GUARANTEED GREATER THAN ANY $35 SALE VALUE IN THE CITY $25

MRS. JOHN LANDRY INJURED BY A RUNAWAY AUTO

Mother of Little Girl Who Was Killed by Motor Car Near Haymarket Square.

Crushed under the weight of a section of the iron railing which surrounds the Centennial school, which was knocked down by a runaway motor truck, Mrs. John Landry of 264 Waterloo street, was painfully injured this morning between eight and nine o'clock. Although her external injuries are slight, she suffered greatly and it is feared that she may be hurt internally.

A motor truck belonging to the James Robertson Co. was being unloaded in an alley between the Centennial school and the Brussels street church. For some unknown reason the car started with nobody aboard, and, gathering momentum as it travelled down the grade towards the street, struck the iron, tearing away a large section of it as well as the corner post which supported it.

Mrs. Landry was passing at the time and the dislodged railing knocked her down and pinned her to the sidewalk, lying across her abdomen. The truck wheels were stopped by the broken fencing and came to a stop, part of its heavy weight resting on a piece.

The truck was quickly removed and the iron railing lifted from the prostrate woman, and she was removed to her home where she was attended by Dr. S. H. Calnek and Dr. C. M. Kelly. She will be taken to the St. John Infirmary this afternoon.

Daughter Was Accident Victim.
Mrs. Landry's little daughter, Jean Verdun, was killed when she was struck by a motor car near Haymarket square a year ago last May. Her husband, John Landry, is employed with the Brussels street branch of the Bunkers, Ltd.

News of the accident was received with deep regret by Mrs. Landry's friends this morning, and there was a general expression of hope that her injuries should not prove serious.

My Own Particular Chair

"A chair that is comfortable, a chair to cheer, a chair with distinctive personality—it is exactly what I wanted, and I found it nowhere in St. John except at Everett's."

"This chair was bought for me individually, and the price? Why, the price was even less than the dreary old, clumsy, dumb-looking leather abominations. This is more than a chair; it is a relief."

No, reader, this is not overdrawn. This is exactly what she said, besides a lot more in the same vein which it is unnecessary for us to print here. St. John has a quality furniture store, so that it is unnecessary for you either to go away from your own home city or buy ordinary furniture which you do not want. NO GENERAL
CAMP AT SUSSEX

Announcement of Plans for Training of Military This Year.

It was announced at local military headquarters this morning that according to information from Ottawa it is expected that training will be held this year by the militia in this district, at the various local camps. Cavalry, rural infantry, engineers and medical units will train for nine days while field artillery will train at the local camps with horses six days and the usual firing detachment will go to Petawawa for five days. The heavy artillery will probably train at local headquarters as they have in the past year. The St. John Fusiliers, Canadian Machine Gun Brigade, 6th Signal Company and No. 7 Canadian Army Service Corps will train at their headquarters for nine days while the Canadian Officers' Training Corps in the various colleges will train as usual during the college year. Units will train at a reduced establishment. The expense of concentrating the militia at Sussex is declared prohibitive this year, so the local camps will be held at places most convenient for the units, although it is probable that certain units, such as the New Brunswick Rangers and the 8th Princess Louise Hussars will train at Sussex camp as it is most central. The location of the various training camps has not been definitely decided.

EMPLOYERS FIND
HEALTH WORK PAYS

Proper Supervision of Physical
Welfare of Workers a Positive Asset—How the System Works.

(N. Y. Times.)
Such satisfactory results have been achieved through health service in industry, according to a report issued yesterday by the National Industrial Conference Board, that manufacturers who have tried the experiment have found that the proper health supervision of their workers pays in dollars and cents as well as satisfying a humanitarian instinct. It was found in an investigation by the conference board in co-operation with the Conference Board of Physicians in Industry, that the best working conditions produced the least sickness among employes and the smallest loss of working time due to accidents, and that where conditions insisted to the benefit of the workers are removed, the general physical and mental health has benefited, resulting in turn in increased production and lessened labor turnover.

The Conference Board of Physicians is an informal association of medical directors of industrial organizations together employing more than 500,000 men and women, skilled and unskilled, of many nationalities, speaking many languages and working indoors and out of doors in a variety of occupations. This board has developed certain uniform standards of equipment for first-aid rooms and contents of first-aid outfits, and uniform methods of physical examination and record keeping in industrial medical departments.

As a result of the studies made by the board of Physicians in Industry, said a statement issued yesterday from the office of the Conference Board, 10 East Thirty-ninth street, "it has been found that industrial medical work is rapidly developing a group of physicians capable of adapting themselves to new conceptions of the relation of the medical profession to the community and whose work today touches all departments and all activities of the industrial organization. In hand with their curative and preventive activities goes the desire to see that only men and women who are physically qualified for the work they seek are placed in the work through physical examination of applicants for employment."

"It has been found that the addition of a dental to the staff and the inclusion of work which proved a distinct advantage, for in many cases the largest single defect of workers is that of their teeth. Equipment for X-ray work has also been increasingly useful in industrial medical practice."

"In a recent investigation made by the Conference Board of Physicians in Industry covering thirty-four plants representing fifteen separate industries and a working force of over 400,000, it was found that all of the plants had introduced the physical examination of applicants for employment or of employees before they were placed on the job. In 1900 and in seventy-three of the plants such examination has been in practice since 1914. The purpose of physical examinations in industry, it is found, is to assist the management in placing the worker in occupations for which he is physically suited. Applications are rejected only when their physical condition is such that they constitute a danger to themselves, to others or to property.

"When employed, defectives were placed under the supervision of the medical department and permitted to continue in their occupation as long as they were unaffected by the work in which they were engaged. More than 90 per cent. of those accepted for employment in these establishments were sub-standard physically, and only an average of 97 per cent. of the applicants accepted could be rated as A-. These results, the report of the board says, show an extraordinary effort on the part of examining physicians to place workers in industry, rather than to deny them employment."

DR. L. M. CURREN MOVES REPLY TO THE ADDRESS

Fredericton, March 17.—More than usual interest was shown in the ceremony attending the opening of the first session of the eighth legislature of New Brunswick...

The address in reply to the speech from the throne was made by Dr. Curren of St. John county, and seconded by Mr. Boudage of Kent county, and was as follows:

To His Honor William Pugsley, D.C.L., LL.D., P.C., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick:

My duty to me as a member of the Legislative Assembly of the province of New Brunswick, now in session, obliges me to humbly thank your honor for the gracious speech which your honor has addressed to us, and to assure your honor that we will give our most careful attention to the matters referred to in your honor's speech and to all other matters which may be submitted to us.

Mr. Curren in moving the address, tendered his congratulations to His Honor Speaker on the high office to which he had been called so early in life, and felt sure that it was on account of his ability as a legislator that the house had reposed such confidence in him. He wished at the same time to tender his congratulations to the premier on the renewed expression of public confidence which had lately received. He also wished to express his thanks to the government for the honor which had been conferred on the county of St. John by inviting him to move the address.

He was pleased with the reference made in His Honor's speech to the claims of the maritime provinces against the federal government. This province had interests arising out of the western school lands and also in connection with railway conditions. He believed that the question should be discussed in an amicable mood and with a feeling that it was a family affair. Canada at the time of Confederation was composed of four provinces. In 1870 a large tract of land was purchased from the Hudson Bay Company, at a cost of $300,000. The province of Manitoba entered Confederation in that year, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia came in three years later and in 1894 the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta joined the union. The two western provinces were given a large cash subsidy in lieu of natural resources and today were seeking to obtain control of those lands. As partners in the original confederation, he held that the maritime provinces had an interest in those lands, and as a matter of justice should be paid an equivalent in subsidy. In addition there was a certain railway discrimination against the maritime provinces which was deserving of attention. Although rates had lately been increased, the national railway was rolling up a deficit of over a million dollars a week. He believed the lines in the maritime provinces were practically self-sustaining, so it was unfair that the people of these provinces should be taxed to make good deficits incurred in other parts of Canada. The government of the maritime provinces had prepared a case and he hoped would be successful in presenting it to the federal authorities. There never was a time when the mar-time provinces were so urgently in need of strong forcible representation in the federal cabinet and parliament in order that justice might be done to this section of Canada.

The Valley Railway.

He heartily concurred in the sentiment expressed by the speaker with respect to the Valley Railway. In that road the province had the image of a great monster whose fangs were fastened on the public revenue, a monster born of blunder. The road served an important farming section but at Wadsford it was hopelessly in the hands of the C. P. R. It was to have been part of the transcontinental line and was to have had direct connection with St. John by means of great bridges over the St. John river, but that had not come to pass. From Westfield, the trains were now run to St. John over the lines of the Canadian Pacific, and the rental which had to be paid practically absorbed all of the revenue which the government derived from the road. He believed that the federal government should take over the Valley road, as the province was unable to bear the burden of such an expensive undertaking.

Education. He was much pleased with the reference made in his honor's speech to the subject of education. It was to education that the state largely owed its security. It was their duty to educate the young to proper citizenship and regretted to say that it was a duty that was not often appreciated. He was glad that the government proposed to take the matter up and felt sure that the measure to be brought down would have credit from both sides of the house.

Hydro-electric.

With regard to hydro-electric development it was a matter of great importance, and would be able to give a good account of the progress already made in the work of development. It was surprising to him that the great water-potentialities of the province should have been permitted to remain dormant so long. Near St. John on the Musquash river, they had a power site capable of developing 8,000 horse power, which was double the amount now developed by the New Brunswick Power Company, and it would be supplied at one-third the cost. Already they had developed a market which would be found for the power as soon as it could be delivered. Relief was wanted probably by the end of the present year. There was a call for the immediate development of the water-power of the Lepreau river, which was capable of producing 12,000 horse power. The value of these water-potentials to the material interests of the province could not be calculated at the present time. There was also water-power to be developed on the Miramichi, and in the northern section of the province, and he believed it would be developed just as soon as a market could be found.

Agriculture.

With regard to agriculture he thought most hon. members could say that they had been born on farms. At any rate he could truthfully say that every man who was in the sound of his voice was daily fed from the farm. They had in New Brunswick fertile valleys and meadows lands which were adapted to the development of live stock, and he felt sure that representatives of the great business industry who were in the assembly would meet all requirements. He believed that the province of New Brunswick should produce sufficient for the needs of its own people in addition to a surplus for exportation to outside markets. The government had made a good start in providing crutled lime for the farmers at low cost, and he was glad to note that it proposed to lend encouragement to the growth of fax in this province. There had been evidence of sound business management in connection with the department of public works, and he felt that department was a cause for tem of federal aid, splendid highways were being constructed, the province being provided for by automobile tax fund, which last year had reached the respectable total of $200,000. Good roads would benefit them. He would ask if that was not good business. The secondary roads of the province were being provided for by automobile tax fund, which last year had reached the respectable total of $200,000. Good roads would benefit them. He would ask if that was not good business.

The Public Health. With reference to the work of the public health department he wished to say that for eight years prior to the passage of the new act he had been associated with the board of health. It was therefore in a position to say that the members of the board had worked without remuneration, and where there was no remuneration it was impossible to get service. Under the present act in the city of St. John alone 800 unfortunates had been taken in the public schools by inspection. That fact in itself was sufficient return for the paltry sum expended. He had no doubt that the same work is being carried on all over the province. As time went on the results would improve. It had been true that under preceding arrangements the collection of vital statistics had been less costly, but it also had been true that they had been useless. For a period of thirty years they had never been published. The county of Kent was brought under the operation of the present act only within the present year. With a population approaching 40,000 that county had reported 652 deaths for the year. The county of Gloucester with a population of 16,000 in the same period had reported 622 deaths. Kent had reported 267 births and in an equal period Gloucester had reported 1,600. What was the explanation? The reports were not coming from Kent county. Births and deaths in that county were not being recorded.

It might be asked what was the advantage to the state to collect vital statistics. The statistics in fact showed no advantage. In certain districts the rate of infant mortality reached 100 per cent. The rate of infant mortality was greater than that of the other children. The rate of infant mortality was greater than that of the other children. The rate of infant mortality was greater than that of the other children.

The reconstruction and maintenance of the public highways of this province under the policy inaugurated by the hon. minister of public works is a matter worthy of our most hearty approval.

Worthy of Support. The farmers should endorse the government's road policy without a dissenting voice. I am sure that improvement in the public highways throughout the province is a matter of vital importance which has been dealt with correctly and intelligently by the present administration. The farmers have long been clamoring for better roads and the construction of certain arterials that the by-roads should be given first aid is perhaps a little illogical. The funding of automobile fees for the construction of trunk roads, I believe, is a start in the right direction and has paved the way for a still more progressive policy. "I trust, Mr. Speaker, that the good feeling that has prevailed this house during the four years I have had the honor of being a member will be continued during the present session. While we differ on matters of policy, such differences should not be allowed to disturb our personal relations, and I believe that all hon. members are sincerely desirous of promoting the public welfare."

The Farming Industry. "There is no question," said Mr. Boudage, "about the prosperous condition of the country and the policy of the government in awakening, encouraging, and assisting the farmers of this province to begin to bear fruit. The operation of the government's agricultural policy has brought about a marked improvement, not only in methods of farming but in the breed and quality of live stock, and the benefits derived therefrom are heartily appreciated. The plan undertaken by the hon. ex-minister of agriculture, backed by the hon. leader of the government, in establishing lime crushers and distributing lime to the farmers of the province at cost, has had a most beneficial effect. It is a fact that the use of limestone forms the very foundation of permanent agriculture. Lime is essential to plant life, and the great regulator of soil fertility. There is evidence that this practice has been followed for upwards of thirty years. "While on the subject of agriculture, it may not be out of place to refer to the reference to the first Dominion egg laying contest now being carried on at the Fredericton Experiment Station. The hon. member for New Brunswick had been taking part in the contest, and that he was thus far leading in egg production all of the provinces of Canada, with the single exception of British Columbia, says much for the high quality of the fowls reared in New Brunswick during the past four years through the agency of the Department of Agriculture.

The strength of the present government has taken for the preservation of the Crown Lands should have hearty support and approval of all parties. When we consider the great potential value of these lands, and the revenue derived from them, the importance of safeguarding them from destruction by fire will be recognized by all. Water Power Development. "In the line of development of the natural resources of the province, the Musquash river water power, to which reference has also been made in his honor's speech, is a matter worthy of acting upon the progressive legislation passed at the last session of this house. The matter of water power development had already done good work. A good start has been made in the development of the water power of the Musquash river, and we are told that in the near future there will be available 6,000 horse power. All will be gratified to note that diverting water powers in other sections of the province will be proceeded with in due order. It is gratifying to note that the water powers in other sections of the province will be proceeded with in due order. It is important to remember in this connection that the South African party organization at the outset of the campaign was lamentably deficient and was only repaired by the enthusiasm and devotion with which General Smuts inspired his adherents. The Nationalists, on the other hand, were perfectly organized and ready for the election. Their leaders and newspapers had confidently predicted that the old South African party would be practically obliterated in the event the South African party lost only two seats on balance to the Nationalists, and probably with a longer period of propaganda to penetrate the rural areas they might have actually gained.

The tremendous swing round of the labor votes, as compared with March is due to the impressive manner in which the Nationalists brought home the danger of an indeterminate poll, also to the deep dissatisfaction with the attitude of labor members during the last session, and also to the fact that at the last election the dominating economic issue drove many Unionists into the Labor camp, whence they have now returned to the South African party.

The strength of the Nationalist vote is the amplest justification of General Smuts' policy, and South Africa realizes the danger from which she escaped. The Nationalist leaders profess satisfaction though Mr. Tielman Roos deplors "so much unfaithfulness." He insists that the Nationalists will persist and prove how little value attaches to "lies about civil war and the tearing up of the constitution by which the cowardly part of our population has been moved to vote against their own principles."

THE DIFFERENCE IN ATTITUDES

Comparison of French and German Feeling Regarding the Payment of Indemnities.

(Associated Press, by Mail.) Paris, March 17.—The French press has been comparing the attitude of France regarding payment of the indemnity asked by Germany after the Franco-Prussian war in 1870 with that of the German nation now facing its bills for the world's war.

The Journal Des Debats republishes a letter written to that paper in February, 1872, by Hippolyte Taine, in which the famous French historian suggested that "every Frenchman surrender one-thirtieth of his revenue" in order that Germany might be paid sooner. Taine proposed that every Frenchman, whether rich or poor, workingman or bourgeois, could make this sacrifice to his country. He declared that a workingman by devoting one day's pay each month to a manufacturer by surrendering the one-thirtieth part of his net income; the farmer by giving up the thirtieth bushel of oats, corn or wheat, as the case might be, would permit France to pay its then fabulous indemnity two years sooner than required and end his occupation.

The historian had figured that the amount realized from his scheme would reach 600,000,000 francs a year. The Journal Des Debats, commencing with the example of the man of straw, says: "Germany has the example of the man of straw to the man of straw, who seeks to liberate itself of its debt although that people had committed depredations, caused no damage to territory of its enemy."

COMMENTS ON THE ELECTION IN SOUTH AFRICA

Smuts' Winning Over of the Labor Vote—South African Party's Victory in Spite of Deficient Organization.

London, March 18.—(By Canadian Press)—The Cape Town correspondent of the Times writes as follows concerning the significance of the recent South African general elections:—

General Smuts' victory owes its magnitude first to the desire of the entire English-speaking part of the people to meet the Dutch-speaking part in a great joint effort to obliterate racialism from South African politics, secondly to the conviction held by the same elements of the utter failure of republicanism, a conviction which is steadily growing in the English-speaking portion by its devotion to the British constitution, and in the case of the Dutch-speaking part, and the realization of the economic, defensive and financial advantages of partnership in the British Commonwealth; thirdly, to the marvelous energy, brilliance, and development of the present government has taken for the preservation of the Crown Lands should have hearty support and approval of all parties. A Laxative The Old Can Rely On. Let them take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin for Constipation. Mild and gentle. Never loses its good effect. ELDERLY people know how much more difficult it is to get relief from constipation, and how they are often obliged to resort to drastic cathartics. The stomach and bowels become weaker with age, and as you are naturally less active, in time they work only by stimulus. You try dieting and exercise, and then take medicine. All medicines, however, are not suited to elderly people any more than to children, so you will be glad to know of a particular medicine that acts as near to Nature as has yet been found. It is a prescription written thirty odd years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is himself now in the 82nd year of his age and still active in his profession. It is known in the trade as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, and you can buy it under that name at any drug store. A sixty-cent bottle will last an average family many months, and all can use it. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts mildly, gently and without gripping. It so trains the stomach and bowel muscles that in time medicine of all kinds can be dispensed with. When people learn of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin and see how wonderfully it acts they realize how unnecessary it is to use drastic salt waters, pills and powders, for these do but temporarily good and are weakening to most constitutions. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, on the contrary, is so natural and safe, (it contains no narcotic or strong drugs), that two generations of mothers have given it to their babies. Take a teaspoonful the next time you feel any distress of the stomach, liver or bowels, if you are constipated, have a headache, cold or fever, if you are bilious, dyspeptic, tired. If Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin should ever fail to do as claimed you can have your money refunded. More people use it than any other laxative in the world. TRY IT FREE There are heads of families who will want to prove to their own satisfaction that my Laxative Syrup Pepsin is as effective in constipation, as mild and gentle in action, as pleasant-tasting and safe, as I claim. Let such write me for a free sample. It will be sent postpaid. Address: Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 24 Front Street, Bridgeburg, Ont.

AUSTRALASIA
JAPANESE PACT

Islands Must Remain White Man's Country," Says New Zealand Statesman.

London, Feb. 26—(Associated Press, By Mail)—New Zealand and Australia, says Sir John Findlay are strongly opposed to the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty and he wants the home government to bear that fact in mind when the question of the renewal of the treaty comes up for settlement.

Sir John is one of the leading statesmen of New Zealand. With Sir Joseph Ward he represented New Zealand at the last Imperial Conference in 1911. He is now again in London.

"The people of Australia and New Zealand have made up their minds that their islands must remain a white man's country," he says in the Pall Mall and Globe. This is not his opinion merely; it is a national conviction. They do not want emigrants from China, Japan or India. The color bar is definitely fixed and is a fundamental feature of our Constitution. We want the British Empire to recognize that fact and to respect it. It is apparently difficult for the government of the mother country, and possibly for the people, to realize how great is the color question with us New Zealanders and Australians. The Chinese come to us in small numbers, and we want their numbers to diminish rather than increase.

The Yellow Peril.
"The Japanese are a more aggressive people and constitute our greatest menace. We want the imperial government to understand this matter more thoroughly than it does. The Japanese peril is there all the time. The Japanese are all of one mind—object emphatically to the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty. When that treaty was made there was some excuse for it. Russia was threatening India, while Germany was threatening Europe and America was too much concerned with the Monroe Doctrine to be dependent on the German and the Russian menace. She is now ready to make the common cause with us over Japanese peril. So there is no justification for a continuance of an undesirable treaty.

"The subject came up before the last Imperial Conference, and in the coming conference I have every reason to believe it will be one of the most important questions for consideration. This time it will have to be thrashed out thoroughly."

MUSIC CAUGHT

Press Club Enjoys Dances to
Tune of Orchestras At Distances
Varying From Five to Sixty Miles.

(Associated Press, By Mail)
New York, March 16.—(Associated Press, By Mail)—The development of the radio-telephone has made possible for thousands of persons in New York and other parts of the country fulfillment of Longfellow's prophecy that "the night shall be filled with music."

Enterprising amateur wireless operators, as well as many commercial stations, now put out at night each night concerts created by attaching to sending sets phonographs and player pianos. Other more enterprising sing or play the violin and other instruments for the benefit of all who will "listen in."

Approximately one-half the amateurs in the New York district are licensed, permitting them to send. The others are content with receiving sets. Development of the radio equipment has been such that a practical receiving apparatus can be purchased for a very few dollars, the prices ranging upward in accordance with the equipment. Great stretches of materials are no longer necessary. A few feet of wire, looped over the end of a broom and hung out over the fire escape, and a ground wire attached to a radiator or water pipe, answer. So do not even call on a family broom, but attach a wire to the spring of a bed or a couch and excellent results follow.

On a recent evening one amateur residing in New York city heard seven concerts at one time coming from distances varying from two to 160 miles. By means of "timers" these concerts were easily separated so that one stood out clear and distinct from the others as desired.

Free Orchestras.

The Press Club of Jackson Heights, a suburban residence district of New York, recently featured a radio-telephone demonstration at a meeting of the members. By the aid of a "loud speaker" the members were enabled to dance from 9 p. m. until midnight to music which came in from varying distances. In a medley dance, the members of the club started with a waltz played at Woodside, Long Island, five miles away, swung into a fox-trot played at Brighton Beach, fifteen miles distant, to a one-step which came from Patterson, N. J., thirty-five miles away, then back to a fox-trot emanating from a phonograph about sixty miles up state. At ten o'clock all watches were set by the time signals, which were sent out from the U. S. navy station at Arlington, Va.

So numerous have the amateurs become, and so united their interests by being able to talk with each other at will, that they have formed an association. On March 16 to 19 they will hold a convention at a New York hotel. They propose to exhibit not only their latest possessions in modern sets, but will bring them the home-made apparatus of their pioneer days. During the convention lectures will be given and night-long concerts from distant stations will feature.

GREAT STRIDES IN ARGENTINE COTTON

Buenos Aires, Feb. 21—(Associated Press, By Mail)—The cotton industry in northern Argentina has quadrupled its importance in three years as a result of aid given to the farmers by the state railways. In 1918-19 approximately 12,000 acres were planted while the 1920-21 embraces an area of about 50,000 acres. The crop yield is from 1,200 to 1,600 pounds per acre, according to statistics published by the railroads, one third of which is fiber and the rest seed. A gin and a cotton seed mill have been constructed to take care of the crop. The great problem of the Argentine cotton farmer is lack of labor for picking the crop. Attempts have been made to use machinery for this, but these have been reported as being only partially successful.

SIR HERBERT AMES
RESIGNS HIS SEAT

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Ottawa, March 17.—Home announcements, this afternoon, follow: Sir Herbert Ames, Conservative member of parliament for St. Antoine Division, Montreal, has resigned. Sir Herbert was appointed financial adviser of the League of Nations some time ago. The house will adjourn from March 23 to March 29 for the Easter recess. The department of trade and commerce is now considering a more general extension of Canadian trade agencies. W. N. Tilley, K. C. is retained as counsel by the government in the Grand Trunk arbitration at $10,000 and $400 per day for days engaged out of the city of Toronto and $100 per day for days in Toronto. The credit of $25,000,000 which was granted to Belgium by Canada is no longer in force.

"HOLLANDERS," NOT "DUTCHMEN"

Amsterdam, March 1.—(Associated Press, By Mail)—Citizens of Holland should refer to themselves, when abroad, as "Hollanders" rather than "Dutchmen," rules the Amsterdam Handelsblad after a long debate on that subject in its columns. The correspondence in the Handelsblad has been voluminous. Especially since the war, says one writer, those Hollanders who forget that many Americans and Englishmen term Germans "Dutch," find scant welcome in the United States and England when they are "Dutch." "If in England," writes this correspondent, "a Netherlands says he is a 'Hollander' doors are open to him that are closed to 'Dutchmen.'" "Dutchman" is an opprobrious term in America, writes another.

PRESENTED CANE TO

Alexandra Temple No. 6 of the T. of H. and T. held its fifty-first anniversary last night and a fine programme was heartily enjoyed. Special features were the presentation of a gold-headed cane to S. E. Logan, one of the oldest members of the temple, who was presiding, and the presentation to the temple of $100, the gift of the ladies' auxiliary. The programme was as follows: Solo, Willard Smith; recitation, Miss Verta Roberts; piano solo, Miss Combs; presentation of cane by C. B. Black; presentation of $100 by Mrs. T. F. Miller; address by J. B. Eagles, the only surviving charter member. Refreshments were served and afterwards, through the kindness of T. O'Rourke, the gathering attended a motion picture show in the lower parlor. During the evening a series of gramophone selections were given.

START DRIVE FOR RELIEF OF THE CHINESE

Peking, Feb. 17—(Associated Press, By Mail)—A nation-wide drive for famine relief funds has been started in China by Dr. Yen Hui-ching (W. W. Yen) Minister of Foreign Affairs.

In an address to the most influential Chinese in Peking, the minister told them that, compress the figures as one might, between 20,000,000 and 30,000,000 people faced starvation. The famine calamity was becoming daily more serious, he said, and the time of greatest suffering was rapidly approaching.

He referred to the many committees and societies already engaged in relief work, of the funds being raised in America and in England and Japan, and expressed the opinion that these nations which had given generously should be shown that China to is working in populace. He proposed that the drive continue for a week and while no financial goal was indicated, Dr. Yen believed that Peking alone could be made to produce from $300,000 to $500,000. It was agreed that the drive be directed by the United International Relief Societies.

SAYS HE CAN GO
DOWN 500 FEET

Vancouver, B. C., March 18.—That he can dive five hundred feet into the ocean and still work comfortably and easily is the contention of Frank Walters, diver and inventor of an aluminum diving suit. In a recent test he reached a depth of 398 feet, said to be a world's record. The suit is made of five-eighths and half inch metal and weighs more than 300 pounds. In making his recent descent, Mr. Walker added fifty pounds of lead to the soles of his shoes. Owing to the rigidity of the suit, the pressure at the great depth attained was but forty

1921 ROTARY CONVENTION IS COMPLETED

Resolutions of Appreciation Passed at Yesterday's Session—Reception Given Last Night.

At the closing session of the Rotary convention, held yesterday afternoon, resolutions were presented by the committee appointed for that purpose. Each was unanimously adopted and the secretary was instructed to forward them. One resolution recorded recognition of the honor done the convention by the International Rotary in sending as its delegate President A. S. Adams, whose splendid address had been an inspiration. It was recommended that a summary of the address be printed for distribution. The presence of Willard Lansing and Forrest Perkins was also greatly appreciated and the convention recorded the hope that this was but the beginning of many such fraternal visitations. Appreciation of the service of Frederick Sexton as district governor and gratitude for his opening address were expressed in another resolution.

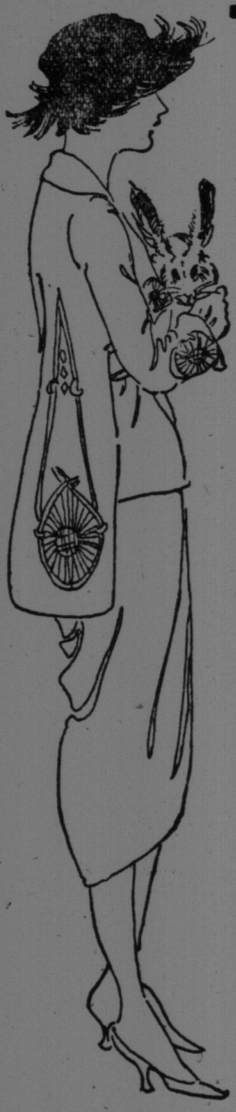

The visiting delegates presented a resolution of thanks for hospitality. A resolution regarding boys' work expressed satisfaction at reports given on boys' work and commended the enthusiasm manifested in that outstanding field of service. Emphasis was laid on the importance of personal contact with the individual boy and the great value of such practical leadership. A resolution regarding the constitution of International Rotary approved the form of government so far as drafted, and expressed belief in the development of Rotary International. The substitution of separate national governments and of national conventions in lieu of the great international convention, it was believed, would not lead to the proper development and evolution of Rotary. It recommended that the proposed form of constitution after discussion at the Edinburgh convention should be referred to the incoming executive. A telegram was read from John Gass of Halifax expressing his regret at his inability to be present. Another was read from the Charlottetown Rotary Club conveying good wishes to the convention. Herbert Wallace of Halifax spoke on how to preserve the unique features of Rotary. He referred to these features and dealt with such things as Spangler spoke briefly on what was expected of a Rotarian. An interesting address was given by Dr. P. E. Burdett of Moncton on the interpretation of Rotary. Arthur Barnstead of Halifax, chairman of the resolutions committee, introduced resolutions conveying the thanks of the convention to the ladies of the city who had been so kind to the wives of the visiting Rotarians, and also to the press for the full and excellent reports that had been given of the meetings. A resolution of thanks from the convention to District Governor Sexton was also moved. All the resolutions were passed unanimously. Dr. Sexton paid a high tribute to R. D. Paterson, nominee for the office of district governor for 1921-22. Mr. Paterson, replying, said it was the biggest moment in his life and he felt unworthy of the honor, but with the co-operation of every Rotarian he was sure that something would be accomplished. A. S. Adams bespoke support for the incoming district governor. Forrest Perkins and Willard Lansing, visitors from the United States, spoke briefly of the pleasure it gave them to be with their brother Rotarians in this convention. Dr. Sexton then declared the convention closed.

In the evening there was an informal dinner at the Royal Hotel, after which all repaired to the Venetian Gardens, where the evening was spent in dancing. Many of the delegates went away on the Halifax train about midnight. As a last token of regard Rotarian John Bond sent to the train a large box of sandwiches for the Rotarians who were making the journey to Halifax, Sydney and Moncton.

A LANDMARK IN LEGAL HISTORY

London, March 18.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The House of Lords yesterday took up the second reading of the lord chancellor's bill which consolidates the property laws. The bill has been described by an eminent lawyer as being a landmark in legal history. The criminal law amendment passed the report stage in the House of Lords yesterday.

Jury Out Less Than Hour in Edmundston Case—Verdict Cheered Wildly.

Edmundston, March 17.—It took the jury less than an hour today to lift the stigma of murder from William St. Pierre, the young man who has been on trial here for his life on the charge of having murdered Miss Minnie Stevens of Arystford (N.S.), on the night of October 11, 1920. Following the judge's charge the jury retired at 5:07 p.m. and at 6:01 they returned and announced that a verdict had been arrived at. The foreman, Ligoris M. Nadeau, read the verdict, which was not guilty. A tremendous outburst of applause greeted the announcement, and it seemed to meet with the general approval of those in the audience in the court room. The attorney-general asked that the jury be polled and each juror stood up in answer to his name he gave his verdict as not guilty. The judge thanked the jury and immediately discharged them.

Warmly Congratulated.
A. T. LeBlanc, of Campbellton, then moved that his client be discharged, which was immediately done. St. Pierre was warmly congratulated by those adjacent to him and upon his discharge walked over to the jurors with his counsel and shook each by the hand. The judge ordered the court cleared but the spectators would not leave until they had shaken "Zan" by the hand and congratulated him on his acquittal. Several of his friends followed him into the jail while he obtained his belongings and later accompanied him to his home.

Theft From C. P. R.

Montreal, March 18.—Accused of the theft of $45,000 worth of cigarettes from the C. P. R. Co. Amédée Pilon, a carter of Lachine, was found guilty of the theft of a bolt of cloth, valued at $125, by a jury in the court of king's bench, yesterday. Sentence was deferred.

William Cunningham, an official of the Imperial Tobacco Co., said that the C. P. R. had up to date paid his company $44,000 out of a claim of $58,786.47, representing the value of cigarettes lost in transit.

Pilon, who had helped distribute the cigarettes, was unaware that they were stolen goods, in the opinion of Alphonse Duliers, a witness, now serving five years in the penitentiary in connection with the same theft. Pilon had been paid since the war in the composition of the surveying flotilla, so far as home waters are concerned. The force now consists entirely of twin-screw mine-sweeping vessels built during hostilities and converted for their new duties. These are the Beaufort, Collinson, Crozier, Fitzroy, Flinders, and Kellett, of which four are usually engaged in surveying at one time, and two remain in reserve.

A White Beaver.
Winnipeg, Man., March 18.—A white beaver, a freak of the beaver family, has been brought to Winnipeg for mounting from English River, Ont. The beaver is a perfect albino. Its fur is about two inches deep. Its eyes were pink; the feet and claws are pink and white.

Elliott, who is taking over the duties of Mr. Mulhern in this district, was welcomed to the city. Those present at the dinner were W. J. Mahoney, (chairman), Mr. Brittain, A. C. Currie, J. C. Chesley, N. R. Des Brisay, A. R. Dufresne, W. S. Elliott, H. J. Fleming, R. M. Fowler, A. C. Fraser, A. J. Gray, Alexander Gray, J. W. Hill, J. R. Haycock, C. C. Kirby, D. W. Newcombe, F. L. Peters, W. J. Pickrell, D. H. Ryan, J. W. Ryan, H. R. Ross, E. J. Shreve, Mr. Short, E. A. Smith, R. A. Sewell, F. E. Williams and S. A. Thomas. The following sent their regrets that they could not be present: E. J. Terry, J. A. Tilton, J. M. Woodman, and D. J. Brown. Mr. Mulhern will leave for North Bay today.

EMPLOYEE OF CITY IS KILLED

Richard Evans, aged seventy-five, 85 St. Andrew's street, was killed yesterday afternoon when he fell from a wagon at the foot of Broad street. Harry Melanson, who had been on the sloven with him, did not see him fall, but found him a few minutes later lying face down on the street. He was carried to the city machine shop, where Dr. W. Warwick was called and, after an examination, found that the unfortunate man had sustained a broken neck. He was a city employee for many years. Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Frank, of Halifax, six daughters, Mrs. Alice M. Baxter, Mrs. David Lawson, Mrs. A. O. Patriquin, Mrs. George Lawson and the Misses Ruby and Grace, all of this city. Two sisters, Mrs. Jane Sprout of this city and Mrs. James Wallace of Chicago, and three brothers, William and Walter of Black River and Thomas of this city, also survive.

SURVEY BRITISH WATERS.

London, March 18.—(By Canadian Press)—The task of re-surveying the waters round the British Isles, which was interrupted by the war, is to be resumed as soon as the weather permits. A complete change has been made since the war in the composition of the surveying flotilla, so far as home waters are concerned. The force now consists entirely of twin-screw mine-sweeping vessels built during hostilities and converted for their new duties. These are the Beaufort, Collinson, Crozier, Fitzroy, Flinders, and Kellett, of which four are usually engaged in surveying at one time, and two remain in reserve.

WOMAN DEAN SAYS EXTREMES ADOPTED BY THE MODERN GIRL SHOULD NOT BE JUDGED TOO HARSHLY

Chicago, March 16.—The extremes adopted by the modern girl should not be judged too harshly, according to Mary Ross Potter, dean of women at Northwestern University. Speaking at a meeting of ministers' wives, last night, she said: "There is nothing wrong with the girl of today because she uses a lipstick and a little rouge and a dab of powder. Of course the dress of the girl of today — skirt to knees almost, flimsy stockings, flimsy everything — is not the dress of mother's generation. Nevertheless, she is sweet and good and kind at heart. She had an independence that did not belong to her mother's day, but such is the spirit of the times. It is the result of the war."

THE DOG TEAMS OF THE NORTH LAND

Winnipeg, Man., March 18.—The horse or the driver has no chance with the dog teams in the northland during the winter season, according to Miss Mary Clendinning, staff writer for the Manitoba Free Press.

The young men of the towns buy a dog team and toboggan instead of a sled, with which to take the girls riding. On the other hand, pioneers at remote posts do not mush the dogs as sport. The dogs are harnessed when it is necessary to make the dog of the trap lines; to replenish the larder; to fetch supplies or mail from the post or to make a hurry-up trip for the doctor.

The only wagon roads north of the Pas and vicinity run to Fin Flon mine, about 100 miles, and from Mile 82 on the Hudson Bay railway to Herb Lake, about eighteen miles. Aside from these roads, horses are unknown in the north, and where the horse cannot go the automobile has no chance.

Northern traffic goes by water in summer, and the dogs, for their sins of fighting and howling, are banished to outlying dog camps. They come into their own again each fall at freeze-up, for then passenger, freight and mail service depends on dog power.

The genuine husky is a cross between the big timber wolf of the north and the collie dog. The first generation of dogs is of little use for work. Many of the present huskies are generations removed from the original cross by which the type was produced.

Many other working dogs show points of the husky, but not exclusively in the construction of almost everything doggy.

Pure huskies are known by their sharply pointed ears, the plumelike tufts curled well over their backs, the rich, smoky silver of their coats, which are long and silky, and also by their swiftness. Such dogs cannot really bark. Some of them weigh 100 pounds, and a load of 100 pounds per dog is not considered excessive.

They are fit for work before they are one year old, and are good for the hard trips of several hundred miles with a pair of perhaps sixty miles per day, for almost seven years. After that they may be used at easy hauling for two or three years.

Fifty miles a day is considered good sledding, and 2,000 miles in a winter is a conservative estimate of what a dog at regular work will cover.

CENSUS IS NOT LIKELY TO SHOW NINE MILLIONS

What Is Back of Army of Enumerators?

Idea That Government Wants Returns in Quickly So As To Be Ready With a Distribution Bill.

(Special to The Times.) Ottawa, Ont., March 18 — On the basis of the $1,620,000 set aside in the estimates to pay the expenses of the decennial census to begin on June 1 next, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics evidently expects the total cost to be about eighteen cents for every man, woman and child in the dominion if the population proves to be the nine millions confidently predicted by many government officials.

The fact that the government has more than doubled the number of census enumerators used in 1911 does not necessarily mean that the cost will be greater. It may be intended to give half the area given to each enumerator in 1911 and thus to secure whatever political value there may be in spreading the money over twice the number of workers. The pay is so much for every name about which information is obtained, with an allowance per hundred names, differing with the various provinces for the expenses of driving.

The fact that Sir George Foster spoke of 24,000 enumerators to be appointed to take the census throughout the dominion is taken here to mean that the government intends to be prepared against the contingency of an election by having the census returns brought in much more quickly than at other census periods and thus give the government experts an opportunity to lay their plans for the next gerrymander bill which would come in the autumn if political exigencies should demand it. Experience in other census periods shows that early returns for such a purpose can be secured.

In 1901, with only 4,304 enumerators, 2,544 of these made their returns in three months. In 1901, of 8,847 enumerators, 2,284 enumerators had their returns in within three months, and in 1911 nearly all details concerning the 7,204,838 persons then inhabiting Canada had come in inside of three months. In June twenty-seven per cent. of the reports were made in July sixty per cent. of the reports were made, and in August eight per cent. of the reports were made, leaving very few reports still to come in, and these mostly from unorganized territories. With the great force which the minister of trade and commerce indicated the government would place in the field, all details they need for their work should be in early in August.

At a session called in September or October a redistribution bill could be passed, but such a session would be called only if the government planned such measures in its redistribution that it would need all its docile majority to pull them over.

Census Questions. The work which the enumerators have to do this year is much easier to understand than formerly, even though the questions are more comprehensive. In 1891 the average number of persons recorded by each enumerator with nine schedules to fill out and 210 questions to get answers for, was 1,110.

In 1901 with eleven schedules and 351 questions to get filled out the average number recorded per enumerator was 604. In 1911 with thirteen schedules and 549 questions to get answered the average number recorded was 748. This year with only four schedules and questions which are greatly reduced in number because the fewer number of schedules allowed duplicate questions which appeared on the schedules of former census periods to be eliminated, the average number recorded by each of the 24,000 enumerators spoken of by Sir George would be only 473 if the population reaches nine millions, which is doubtful. There are thirty-six questions in the population schedule. In 1911 agricultural statistics were taken on four schedules and at this census on one.

Crown Brand Syrup

A wholesome, nourishing food—the most delicious of Syrups. At all Grocers.

As annual census figures are now obtained regarding agriculture, mining, fishing, mortality and industry, it was possible to reduce the schedules and questions greatly. The four schedules concerning first population, with a supplementary schedule on the blind, dumb, physical defective, etc.; second, the agriculture schedule, with name of every farm, its owners, and details concerning it; a third, the census of animals not on farms but in towns and cities. One sheet contains all the questions about agriculture, where in the last census four sheets were used.

The pay to enumerators is five cents for every name on the schedule, thirty cents for details of every farm, ten cents for every entry concerning animals and gardens in cities and towns, $4.50 in central Canada and the maritime provinces for every hundred names in lieu of expenses for horse hire, etc.; $5 per hundred in the prairie provinces and more in British Columbia.

If the great world war had never occurred Canada would certainly have now a population of nine and a half millions. As it is, the total will be much under nine millions. It is true that the three prairie provinces showed an increase of thirty per cent at the 1916 western census, but most of that was obtained before August, 1916. The flow westward was resumed in 1919, but the result of the census will not come up to western hopes.

GIRL OF FIVE VOTES.

Professor Shows Chaos of Voting Lists.

One of the incidents of the voting was the appearance at a polling station of a girl of five years. Nancy Roberts, daughter of Professor Stanley Roberts, of University College, Aberystwyth, says in an English despatch.

She was taken to the polling station by her parents, who satisfied the presiding officer as to her identity, and, her name being on the register, she was permitted to vote.

"We took her along by way of protest against the state of the register," said Professor Roberts. "Last year my own name was omitted, while my wife's appeared, and many of my colleagues and a good many ex-service men find that they are not on the register."
