ST. ANDREWS EVENT

Marriage to H. Wyndham Beauclerk Solemnized at 12.30 by Father O'Flaherty—Honey-moon in St. Andrews, Father and Party Leave for Montreal

(Special to Times) St. Andrews, N. B., June 3.—The wedding of Miss Alice Shaughnessy, eldest daughter of Sir Thomas and Lady Shaughnessy, to H. Wyndham Beauclerk, which was solemnized at 12.30 today in the vestry of the pretty little church of St. Andrew here, was a very quiet function. The bride was without attendants, being accompanied to the church by the immediate members of her family and a few personal friends, who had come down with Sir Thomas from Montreal. The groom was supported by George Ames, of New York.

ENGLISHMAN BEATS THE FIGHTING DENTIST

New York, June 3.—(Canadian Press)—Matt Wells, English lightweight champion, scored a popular victory over Leach Cross last night in ten rounds. Wells had all the better of it. In the ninth round, a hard left hook on Cross' chin and a right to the jaw caused the east-side boxer to stagger and back away with his head down. Wells, however, was slow to avail himself of the advantage and missed his chance to deliver a knockout.

Labor Matters

Ottawa, June 3.—(Canadian Press)—The allied trades and labor council last evening condemned W. H. Rowley, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, for running what they called a sweat shop at the Edley works. It was alleged men worked there thirteen and eleven hours shifts. The council recorded with pleasure the fact that J. B. Booth had granted his men an eight hour day and will send a letter of thanks to him.

MILLIONS GIVEN SON BY ASTOR

New York, June 3.—William Waldorf Astor of London, born and brought up in America, but for a long time a British subject has given to his elder son, Waldorf Astor, also a British subject, one-half of the Waldorf Astor hotel. It is said that this is the first step on the part of William Waldorf Astor toward such a distribution of his vast $300,000,000 New York estate during his lifetime as will avoid the terms of the new law that will, when it goes into effect last year.

If the report turns out to be correct, the state stands to lose, so far as William Waldorf Astor's estate is concerned, any amount up to $15,000,000 based on a per cent direct inheritance tax. Governor Dix has recently told the legislature that the amount of capital which has fled from this state since the new inheritance tax law was passed is to be estimated at not less than $40,000,000. The income to the state is less under the new law that it was under the old measure. The governor says $700 old per cent boxes have been surrendered by those desiring to offer their property before the tax gatherers.

Almost all of William Waldorf Astor's property is located in this city and it was included in the parcel are five buildings inherited from his father. Most of it has doubled in value in the last ten years, so that $300,000,000 is now considered by the tax assessors to be a conservative estimate of its present marketable value. The transfer referred to is by William Waldorf Astor to the Farmers Loan & Trust Company, in trust for Waldorf Astor, an American, though under the laws adjoining the hotel at 19 to 31 West 83d street.

property which measures 69.9 by 300 feet, 89 of which is occupied by the hotel, is valued at $10,000,000 the hotel itself, built in 1893, being estimated at $20,000,000 exclusive of the land. It is stipulated that the son Waldorf is to have the use of this property during his life, his title to pass to his issue if any, otherwise to revert to John Jacob Astor, another son of William Waldorf Astor.

Waldorf Astor is the eldest son of William Waldorf Astor, being born in 1879. He married Nanette Landmesser Shaw in 1906 after the famous Virginia beauty had divorced her first husband, Robert Gould Shaw, of Boston. A son was born to them in 1907 and a daughter in 1909. Waldorf Astor is an officer in a crack British regiment, has a handsome estate, known as Cliveden, in Bucks, and has gone in for racing on the English turf, being the owner of Winkfield, the champion of the 3-year-old turf in 1910.

The young man, up to 1905, proclaimed himself an American, though under the law he became a British subject along with his father, when the latter renounced American citizenship. Waldorf Astor, who 21 had the right to declare himself an American citizen, but he never made such a declaration, and then he stood for parliament in January, 1910, he was a full-fledged Britisher.

WILL FOUND BUT ESTATE HAS BEEN ALL DISTRIBUTED

Remarkable Case Arises in New Hampshire—Suit to Get Money Back

Manchester, N. H., June 3.—Papers are being served in a remarkable case, where in the property of a dead person, after having been distributed among the heirs, is now being recalled because of a will having been discovered among the heirs being made defendants in an attempt to make them return the property, which aggregates at last $30,000. The case will come before the September term of the superior court for trial. The circumstances are reported to be as follows: Sarah H. Spaulding, a resident of Lowell, Mass., died at her home in that city April 6, 1902, leaving an estate valued at $50,000, and of this amount $30,000 was in cash. She left no relatives nearer than cousins. No will was found, and C. H. Coburn, who was appointed administrator on May 27, 1902, proceeded to settle the estate, the work of which he completed in 1905. He divided the property among Lora B. Frasher of Dunbar, N. Y.; John Dodge of New Boston and Isaac B. Dodge of Amherst, who were next of kin and the only heirs. Isaac Dodge died in 1905 without heirs and his share was distributed between his brother and sister, John Dodge and Mrs. Frasher. John died in 1908, leaving a wife, Annie B. Dodge, and a daughter, Martha J. Carter, willing his property to his wife. In February, 1910, in clearing a vault in the old Lowell national bank a tin box was found bearing the name of Sarah H. Spaulding, and in it was found her will. It provided that De-Gev Frederic T. Greenhalge should be the executor, but being dead John F. Sawyer was appointed executor in the will and Mrs. Sawyer, through Allan M. Wilson of this city, is now bringing suit to recover the property distributed to and among them, and to turn it over in accordance with the provision of the will, which provides $10,000 for the American board of foreign missions, $5000 for the Seaman's Friend society, several minor legacies and the residue to the Lowell general hospital. The case is without precedent in the New Hampshire courts.

OPEN LETTER TO JUDGE OF COUNTY COURT

Justice Macfarland of Fairville Writes in Connection With Strictures by Judge Forbes in a Recent Case

Editor Evening Times: Sir.—Enclosed you will find an attempt to reply to two or three of the strictures delivered by county court Judge Forbes on the conduct of 'one Justice Macfarland of Fairville' from whose court case had been sent to the county court. I have read the old adage that speech is silver and silence is golden, but to remain too long silent in this case might lead to evidence of public, especially your grand jury of that day, to believe that your strictures were either deserved or a want of courage on my part to reply.

GERMAIN STREET AS IT LOOKED BEFORE THE FIRE

That Portion from Church Street Northward with St. John's (Stone) Church Shown in the Distance—Some of the Business Houses of That Day

In a glance at the accompanying picture one will still recognize that it shows the portion of Germain street, running northward from Church street, although the photograph was taken before the fire of '77. Quite a section of the street was destroyed by the fire but there were parts of it which were not touched and in looking at the old picture one can see the Stone church and the Vernon building, Oul Hall, at the corner of King street.

For information in connection with the picture, the Times-Star is indebted to Clarence Ward, mayor of the Elliot house and John Greer were in line above there and on the corner of Union street was a boarding house kept by Mrs. Cannon. On the opposite corner was Dr. Preston, a physician, while further along came Dr. Botsford and the home of Charles Ward, father of Clarence Ward.

Mr. Ward said yesterday that he could hardly tell what date the picture was taken, as the street had practically been the same for thirty or forty years.

Berlin, June 3.—There is a strong movement on foot here to protest against the refusal to admit Jews to the rank of officers in Prussia. The movement is based on the recent debates in the Reichstag and the utterances of the minister of war, General von Heeringen.

The minister expressed his regret concerning existing conditions, which had, he said, not the slightest justifiable foundation and to which he, personally speaking, was opposed.

The two great organizations of Jewish subjects in Germany, the German Jews Society and the Association of German Citizens of Jewish persuasion, one of which has its seat in Frankfurt and the other in Berlin, recently announced in a meeting numbering nearly 2,000 persons.

Dr. Breslau, barrister-at-law at Berlin, who was the first speaker, drew attention to the great number of Jews who had taken part in Prussian battles.

The first speaker, he declared, to receive the Iron Cross—that coveted decoration for conspicuous bravery—was a Jew named Gumbert. Many Jews, moreover, had in the capacity of officers distinguished themselves during the wars of 1864, 1866 and 1870.

It was only since the anti-Semitic movement in 1879 that the officer's patent had not been accorded to Jews in Prussia unless they had been previously baptized.

Dr. Breslau called upon every Jewish aspirant to take energetic action against this injustice, and supported by the attitude of the war minister and the liberal parties of the Reichstag to send, in case of his application being refused, all papers with a statement of the case direct to the minister.

Another speaker, an eminent Frankfurt lawyer, advised his hearers to be less generous in giving and in answer to a request for money always to reply: "If you want us to do so, we must also take and not any special advantages or privileges, but our good and legal rights."

A resolution to the following effect was unanimously carried: "In contradiction to the custom of civilized states, soldiers of Jewish faith in the Prussian army always suffer in the matter of promotion, being placed behind their Christian comrades, who are continually preferred. The meeting protests against this practice, which is contrary to the law and constitution, and demands that such shameful injustice shall be discontinued and a better condition enforced by law."

THE DOCTORS DIFFER ABOUT APPENDICITIS

Some in Association Meeting Decline for Use of Knife, Others Oppose

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 3.—A lively discussion on appendicitis marked the third annual meeting of the Ontario Medical Association in the Clifton Hotel here.

Dr. Cruikshank of Windsor, spoke against surgical operations, but admitted that if attacked he would have his own appendix removed.

Dr. Herbert A Bruce of Toronto, ridiculed such a position. He upheld prompt removal.

Dr. R. D. Eudolph of Toronto, advocated medical or non-surgical methods, as also her Dr. John Hunter of Toronto, who claimed physicians should prepare patients for operation and take full charge immediately removed.

Dr. N. T. McLaughlin of Toronto, showed by lantern slides morbid conditions and dealt with the pathological and bacteriological aspects. Dr. Armour of St. Catharines was "on the fence."

A DISGRACEFUL SCENE

Between 8 and 9 o'clock last evening Sergeant Campbell and Policeman Thomas Sullivan found what they at first supposed to be a dead woman lying stretched across the sidewalk in the vicinity of Harcourt's alley in Beauséjour street. The woman was about fifty or sixty years of age, could not be aroused and but little signs of breathing were noticeable. A doctor was sent for, but before he arrived the police had brought the woman partly to consciousness. It appears that she is a resident of Harcourt's alley, and that she had been drinking throughout the afternoon. She went home at 6 o'clock and her husband tried to keep her in the house, but she longed for freedom again and climbed out of the window and was away. About two hours afterwards she was found lying in the street.

A crowd of men, women and children gathered around and the scene was a disgraceful one. She was taken to her home.

Amherst Church History

Amherst, N. S., June 3.—C. del. Black is using for the First Baptist church, a history of the church. Last August the church celebrated the 10th anniversary and it was thought well to have the history written. Rev. D. A. Steele, D. D., is the church historian, while Mrs. H. W. Rogers will sketch the life of Rev. Dr. Tupper and Rev. Mr. McCully. The other members of the publication committee are F. J. Stockhouse and Rev. B. J. Lawson. The book will be cloth bound sixty-four pages and will contain about fifty photographs of former pastors and officials and present representatives.

The marriage of Robert Smith, son of the Conservative candidate, C. R. Smith, K. C., to Miss Moss, daughter of G. L. Moss, will be celebrated in St. Charles church.

Quebec, June 3.—Riding a spirited horse, Henri Fortin, an arts student at Laval University, met with a swift and sudden death yesterday afternoon. He was returning from a ride on the plain when his horse became frightened and plunged in front of a street car. Young Fortin was instantly killed by the fall from his horse. The animal was mutilated by its collision with the car.

Woodstock, Ont., June 3.—Kalorn Mather, aged 45, living near Hudson, was struck by an engine drawing a Grand Trunk Railway freight and instantly killed.

Ottawa, June 3.—A stabbing affray occurred among the local Polacks last evening. Several of the men started a quarrel in a hotel and concluded it outside in a free-for-all. An unknown foreigner was seriously stabbed in the throat and John Kerrill called upon every Jewish aspirant to take energetic action against this injustice, and supported by the attitude of the war minister and the liberal parties of the Reichstag to send, in case of his application being refused, all papers with a statement of the case direct to the minister.

Another speaker, an eminent Frankfurt lawyer, advised his hearers to be less generous in giving and in answer to a request for money always to reply: "If you want us to do so, we must also take and not any special advantages or privileges, but our good and legal rights."

There are serious meetings in the inner circles of the French-Canadian Educational Association as to whether or not it is becoming more political or educational in its scope. It is alleged the association is being developed into a Bourgeois organization. An arm of the matters is to be held within the organization soon.

Director General of Public Health in Canada Warns Against The Six Dps

Ottawa, June 3.—One of the interesting reports made to the government from time to time is that of Dr. F. Montanari, director-general of public health, and in his latest account of the conditions prevailing in the domain he deals at some length with the question of tuberculosis.

Dr. Montanari is a strong upholder of four cardinal principles in connection with the white plague. He states that tuberculosis is not hereditary, that it is infectious, that it is curable, and that it is preventable. On this question he says in a report to Hon. Sydney Fisher:

"If an more and more convinced yearly that consumption is mainly spread from the homes of those wage-earners who live under the least favorable sanitary conditions, helped doubtless by the six 'D's'—damp, dirt, dust, drink, dispiration and destitution. It is there that the fight against it has to be made, if it is ever to succeed and the disease be eradicated or even markedly diminished. We must get at the homes of the incipient cases and the youngest members of their families while still unimpaired."

"This can be done only by the domiciliary visit, to follow notification to the health officer, or the diagnosis at the dispensary that the cold or cough for which a cough mixture is sought is really due to tubercular trouble. The visitor to the home should be woman. She can talk to and persuade the mother as no man could do."

PRINCE OF MONACO MAY PAY VISIT TO CANADA

Quebec, June 3.—The Prince of Monaco is expected to pay a visit to Canada this summer, when he will come out to see his friend, Henri Menier. Mr. Menier, known as the "Chocolate King," and who is the owner of the Island of Anticosti, it is announced, will pay a visit to his possessions down the Gulf this summer in order to look over the works of improvement and development which are now in progress there. He will travel in his own private yacht, and later on the Prince of Monaco, who is a personal friend of Mr. Menier, will follow him in his private yacht, and pay him a visit of some duration.

Afterwards, it is probable that they will make a brief tour of Canada prior to their return.

Maid's Afternoon Out

The ever present problem of something to eat, is really the most important for solution, and is therefore uppermost in the housewife's mind. With the old way of cooking, the preparation of even a single meal can hardly be regarded as pleasant when there are dirty ashes to shake down and take up and coal to carry, especially when there is but one pair of hands to do it all.

This state of affairs is, however, becoming a thing of the past and the maid's day out is no longer dreaded in many St. John homes, where it has been learned that meets successfully the most exacting requirements of the culinary art. Cheap, Clean, Convenient, it fills a long felt want, doing away with coal scuttles and ashpans, keeping the kitchen clean and comfortable.

You can keep your kindling on the chimney shelf for you need nothing larger than a match to start your fire, which is ready to light at any moment—day or night.

A good oven for baking bread, cake or pastry is always possible with our gas ranges, for the heat can be easily controlled and regulated for slow, medium or quick baking and any temperature uniformly maintained as long as you need it, so that nothing can burn—thus giving to bread and cake a nice even inner texture and golden brown crust and producing equally good results in pastry.

There is no odor from the broiler which is entirely under cover, the "smudge" being carried up the chimney, and the heat is so applied that meat, poultry and fish can be cooked in this way with the loss by shrinkage reduced from 32 to 16 per cent., and all the natural strength, flavor and sweet juices of the food retained.

Nothing can boil over as the burners under the top of the range, like those in the oven and broiler, are under perfect control.

Awaits your inspection. Any of these we supply for cash or on easy monthly payments. Installation is reduced to the minimum cost—10 cents a running foot, all fittings included.

The Evening Chit-Chat
By RUTH CAMERON

My hand to the man or woman who knows when to admit ignorance. Among a group of us the other day was a young man who, though an exceptionally ambitious and intelligent person, has not had great educational advantages. In the course of the conversation someone used the word "deterrent" in speaking to him. "Don't you find that rather a deterrent in your work, Mr. W?"

A puzzled look flitted over his face. Evidently it was a new one to him. Nine men out of ten, seeing that the question plainly expected an affirmative answer, would have chanced it and said, "Yes, I do," or some similar bluff.

"He, being a one-in-ten man, hesitated but an instant, and then said frankly, 'I don't think I know just what 'deterrent' means.'"

"I don't know what the rest thought, but I'm sure for myself that I never admired him so much as at that moment."

Of course, someone promptly defined "deterrent," so now he does know what it means.

That's the difference between him and the other nine. They would not have known the next time the word came up and would have had to bluff again.

By confessing his ignorance he put an end to it.

"Learn to say 'I don't know,' my boy," is a useful command, in its way, as "Learn to say 'no.'"

In the course of conversation things are frequently said, explanations given, references made, information conveyed that we do not fully understand the first time.

On such occasions most of us are apt to pretend to have understood; to say, "Oh, yes, I see," when, like the blind man, we didn't see at all.

That's the easiest way, of course.

But for the man who wants his mind to grow, it's the wrong way.

For not only does he lose the information, but he atrophies his mind muscles by not insisting that they shall grasp everything that's said.

It seems so simple to say, "Pardon me, but I didn't quite understand that," and most people have enough of the diffidence, in them not to mind repeating a thing if they can feel they are instructing someone.

It seems almost wrong to me to allow one's self to read and pass by a paragraph in a book without understanding it. It seems to me that it is cowardly and slovenly not to go back and read it until one does understand.

You all know the old Arabian proverb:

"He who knows, and knows that he knows, is wise—follow him.

He who knows, and knows not that he knows, is silly—wake him.

He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a fool—shun him."

For the present purpose I should like to temporarily amend the last two lines of that, to:

"He who knows not, and admits that he knows not, is sensible—teach him.

"He who knows not, and won't admit that he knows not, is a fool—shun him."

A GRAND MEDICINE FOR OLD PEOPLE

"Fruit-a-tives" Restores The Health and Strength of Youth.

Grande Ligne, Que., Jan. 2nd, 1910.
"I heartily recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to who suffer from constipation and the painful consequences. I have been now over 50 years of age and I have for more than 10 years with constipation and Piles. I tried all kinds of medicines, but nothing cured me.

About four years ago I received a sample of 'Fruit-a-tives' and taking one or two doses, I felt that 'Fruit-a-tives' were doing me good. As 'Fruit-a-tives' were not sold here then, I wrote to the makers for several boxes.

After taking four boxes, I felt well—my bowels were regular—and the Piles had disappeared."
N. JOUBERT.

By taking one "Fruit-a-tives" tablet half an hour before meals—or one or two at night—old people can correct all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles.

"Fruit-a-tives" the famous fruit medicine is mild and gentle in action—pleasant to the taste—yet no other remedy has been found to be so effective in keeping old folks in good health.

construed that no one better than Lederer knows how to effect stage fun. "Madame Sherry" is said to fascinate not alone by its score with its ravishing "Every Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own," theme, but to enthral as well by the general beauty shimmering throughout the three acts.

The comic opportunities for this Lederer artistry are a New York gilded youth's studio, with levies of dancing feminine guests devoted to Grecian terpsichore, the salon of a millionaire's yacht at anchor in New York Bay, and the after-dinner of the same yacht under moonlight, under full sail in the waters of Coney Island, with the yacht's feminine guests as models for the Lederer ingenuity and taste in costuming.

The conduct of every member of the cast, which term takes in the feminine chorus, is said, too, to reflect this general sense of beauty, a quality that one unconsciously appreciates listening to many of the airs of the published score of the production.

"Madame Sherry" is to be presented here in the Opera House, for four performances starting next Thursday evening, by the New Amsterdam Theatre Company.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and she loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organization soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

CURED OF DRINK BY SIMPLE REMEDY. A Devoted Wife Helps Her Husband to a Cure Through Samaria Prescription.

Mrs. S. of Trenton was in despair. A loving and a careful provider when sober—her husband had gradually fallen into drinking habits, which were ruining his home, health and happiness.

But read her letter:— "I had it my duty to say a few words about your Tablets. As you are aware, I sent and got a bottle, thinking I would try them in secret. My husband had only taken them a week when he told me he was going to Port Arthur for the summer, so I had to tell him all about the Tablets. He said he would take them just the same, so I would get the second bottle for fear he would not take them.

He has not taken any liquor from the first of my giving it to him. I feel I cannot say too much in favor of your wonderful "Memory."

LONG LIVE THE KING

Today King George V receives Birthday congratulations. The tributes paid him will be universally sincere, because he enjoys the highest esteem of his subjects and the respect of the whole world. Since he came to the throne King George has borne himself so admirably in every relation of life that the good opinion formed by the world when he was Prince of Wales has been confirmed and strengthened. The people of the Empire honor him, today, and their fervent wish is that he may live long, with his beloved Queen, to shed lustre upon the British throne and to set before the people a lofty example of duties fully recognized and faithfully performed. The people of Canada feel an intimate relationship to the King and Queen, and join most heartily today in the congratulations and good wishes pouring in to London from all parts of the world.

THE VALLEY RAILWAY

The people of the St. John valley will have no difficulty in forming a correct judgment on the two railway propositions before them. There is no comparison before a second class railway, such as Mr. Fleming proposes, and the road provided for under the federal act, with inter-colonial service and control. The Fleming proposition is greatly too hazy, and involves too great a burden upon the province. Hon. Dr. Pugsley's clear statement of the case places the two projects in such a strong light that it would be folly to choose the one now favored by the provincial government. The people want a railway with grades as easy as those of the transcontinental in New Brunswick; with through connections by way of the Grand Trunk Pacific; and with an equipment and a service such as the Intercolonial provides. Such a railway is within reach. Why does Mr. Fleming persist in opposing it? What influences are behind the action of the provincial government in this whole matter? It is time to cease the game of politics and give the people a real railway. Hon. Dr. Pugsley has shown how it may be done, and he and Mr. Carvell may loyally, ably and successfully present the claims of the people of the valley at Ottawa. It is for the provincial government to do its part, with the same regard for the best interests of the province.

IN NOVA SCOTIA

The provincial elections in Nova Scotia are not attracting much attention. The excitement is all in the newspapers. The Halifax Herald is especially noisy, and apparently does not detect the humor in its appeals in behalf of an opposition that is leaderless. Public meetings are being held in the constituencies, and some general interest may be aroused during the next week. The Murray government is appealing on its excellent record, and promises to continue a progressive policy. The arguments presented by the opposition vary in different constituencies, but the chief dependence appears to be placed in the plea that the government has been a long time in power and should not be given another term. The Halifax correspondent of the Montreal Star wrote over a week ago that only the most unreasonable of Conservatives had any thought of defeating the government, and there is no apparent reason to anticipate such a result. There are no serious charges against the government, and there is not an organized and efficient opposition. Under such circumstances it would be a great surprise if Mr. Murray did not win with a strong working majority, despite the long lease of power the Liberals have had in that province and the natural tendency of some electors to desire a change. No sound reason is given for a change at the present time.

TRUANCY

In its inception the school seems to have been a sporadic affair, springing up as occasion demanded it to meet the requirements of the comparatively few who had the wealth and the interest to have their children educated. But it has long passed beyond this stage. It is the institution today through which the people attempt to realize their educational aims and ambitions. Nearly every democratic people pass compulsory education acts, realizing the danger of having children grow up without instruction. The children are brought around with care, as George Herbert remarks. Parents first season them, then schoolmasters deliver them to laws and send them bound to rules of reason. With set purpose the people seek to transmit knowledge and high ideals to the next generation. Whether the parents desire it or not, the aim and purpose of the state is that the children shall receive instruction which will fit them to become good citizens, and training in the habits of punctuality, neatness, order, courtesy, honesty, obedience, co-operation.

But with all the expense of our common school system, with the entire community taxed to support schools, we permit many children to pass school age without using them. Our truancy laws do not apply after the child has reached the age of fourteen. Children under fourteen are allowed to enter employment if they have been instructed in reading, writing, geography, composition and arithmetic and if the Superintendent of Schools certifies that they have passed a satisfactory examination in grade seven of common school work. Apparently the child can be employed even at ten or eleven years of age if it is able to qualify in the work of the seventh grade of the school course. Now children under fourteen should be eliminated as industrial factors. All children have a right to a fair opportunity of unfolding and discovering their native abilities. If the avarice of parents robs their offspring of school, such parents should be prevented from carrying out their intentions. If poverty is the obstacle, then some other means should be taken to overcome it. It is not the part of wisdom to cut down the tree to gather the fruit. In the matter of truancy the chief difficulty with the law is that there are a very large number of children in the city who on reaching the age of fourteen absent themselves from school without any intention of entering into gainful employment. These boys form gangs. They smoke, drink, form evil habits, and later break into stores and steal. Released on suspended sentence, they become proficient teachers of other boys in their own unsocial knowledge. Many boys also from twelve upwards escape the truancy officer, claiming immunity on account of age. This, as the proverb says is "as easy as lying."

It is true that in Germany, which has perhaps the best school laws, compulsory attendance is not enforced after the age of thirteen or fourteen. But the conditions are not at all similar. In towns children under fourteen are kept in the elementary schools, and on completing the course there they are taken to the middle-class or secondary schools. Then on every hand they have opportunities for technical instruction. Germany, like ancient Sparta, looks carefully after the training and education of the young till they arrive at many years to appreciate the benefits of mental and manual training.

It is a sorry tribute to our national shrewdness that we deny our boys all chance to learn an art in its principles and later import skilled laborers to displace our own sons. There are boys who will turn truant and shop-breakers because they cannot learn a language, who, with a tool in their hands, could discover their talents and work out a heritage of character. There are serious defects in our school system, for with the right sort of instruction there is seldom need to compel attendance and work; but it is the best we have and all children should be required to take advantage of it.

Mr. R. L. Borden will visit Nova Scotia before going west. Perhaps he will try to put a little ginger into the tory fight in that province, where it appears to be sorely needed.

Will the daily bulletin of the progress of the Newport down the coast to St. John be posted at city hall? An anxious public will want a daily copy of the ship's log.

The Standard continues its efforts to belaud the valley railway issue. It cannot hide the fact that the people can have a first-class railway, with through connections and intercolonial operation and service, when the provincial government does its part. That which Mr. Fleming offers as a substitute is not what the people want, nor is it what they have a right to demand.

When the Liver and Kidneys are Over-worked and Break Down Get Them Right by Using

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

In the spring the human system is loaded with impurities which have accumulated as a result of artificial winter life. There has been too much breathing of poisoned indoor air, too little outdoor exercise, too much eating of heavy, indigestible food, especially too much meat, too little fruit.

The liver and kidney struggle to get over this condition, but they are too great for them and get sluggish and torpid, fail in their work, and often become diseased themselves.

They must have help, and are given them by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. There is no great mystery of how these pills purify the blood and take away the cause of tired, aching feelings, backaches, headaches, bodily pains or derangements of the digestive system.

If the blood is to be purified the liver and kidneys must do it. And they will, if you awaken their action by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It will not take long to get these blood filters into working order if you use this treatment. A few hours will bring improvement and you will learn how to keep these organs healthy and active. One pill a dose, 36c a box, at all dealers or Ed. Lamson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE GRASSHOPPER AEROPLANES

North arching skies benignly blue,
Where strag fence skirt the lanes,
One August day I lolled aside,
And watched the myriad aeroplanes.

I saw them fuel in the grass
And preen them e'er began their flight;
I heard the little engines whirr,
And then—"ah," 'twas a pretty sight!

From stalk of timothy they sped
To light upon the jimson-weed,
Or circled in the drowsy air
Above the wheat-field's waving mead.

And some were green and some were brown,
And some a soft and elish gray
As on the air-paths undulant
They sailed and sailed the hours away.

Singly, paired, in gauzy flocks,
They rode upon the summer breeze
Mid cheers of fitch and chickadee
And loosed-fiddling in the trees!

—Richard Wagner in Success Magazine.

A PEARL ROMANCE

(Chicago Record Herald.)

Lady Noah Noel, who has been figuring as one of the heroines of Dr. Harris' Sheffield cheer, is the daughter of the Earl of Gainsborough, and belongs to a family that has many literary associations.

These, Lady Noah's aunt, Lady Blanche Noel, the sister of Lady Noel's father, the present Lord Gainsborough, died in the United States, where she made her home, from the time of her romantic marriage with Thomas Murphy, with whom she made a runaway match some forty years ago.

She became infatuated with the organist of her father's private chapel at Eaton Park in Gloucestershire. From her interest into daily contact with the young organist, a winsome, fascinating Irishman, and the rest of the family and household had left the chapel, she would remain to practice the music with him. It is nothing strange that in the hours sitting together after matins and vespers, the young and enthusiastic Lady Blanche, and the impulsive young Irish organist, should fall in love with each other.

From Winsted, Conn., it is reported that the reflection of a fire against a blanket of mist near that town at midnight deceived birds into thinking it was sunrise. Robins and other birds sang lustily until the fire died down.

What he paid for the Assisi cope stolen from the Assisi cathedral in Italy, which he returned to the Italian government when he learned that it had been purchased from its resting place, is not known, but in view of his known willingness to pay high prices for rare works of art, it is believed to have cost him $20,000 or more.

HARDER THAN EVER TO DODGE CUSTOMS

The legislature now in session refused to approve of the bill introduced at the suggestion of the suffragettes, giving them a voice in the government of the state and the leaders of the propaganda have concluded to embark on an extensive campaign, preliminary to renewing the fight next year.

Although it is costing New York about 700 a year to inspect and regulate the taxi-cab service of the city, complaints from residents of the city as well as visitors who report the overcrowding of the meters and gross overcharges, continue to pour in on the municipal authorities. Hundreds of thousands of dollars a year are latched out of the pockets of patrons, who have no remedy except to go to a station house and fight it out in the courts, which involves waste of time and money.

Most of the excess here goes into the pockets of the chauffeurs who have a facility of making the meters on their taxis to about as they please. There is hardly a day that some resentful passenger does not smell his taxi driver for overcharging him. F. Augustus Heinze the one time "Copper King" found this sort of revenue rather expensive this week when a jury in the supreme court awarded a chauffeur who had overcharged him $2 a verdict of $75 damages for injuries he claimed the stalwart man inflicted upon him by way of reprisal. Heinze cheerfully paid the judgment, asserting that the licker he gave the fellow was worth that much in satisfaction to him. The chauffeurs seem to regard this form of petty thieving as "honest graft" and continue to flourish in spite of the city's more or less principally ineffectual system of inspection.

MEN, HERE'S AN OFFER

Wear My Electric Belt Until I Cure You

You've doctored and doped till you are sick of it all. You would pay for anything that would give you back your old vim.

You don't want to pay out any more money till you are sure. I will cure you first, and you can pay me afterwards. Is that fair? Then get in line.

I know what I can do, because I've done it and am doing it every day. I'm sure that electricity is the life and that I can restore it where it's gone. So if you need what I offer, and don't want to pay my price, wear my Belt free until you are cured, then I can pay me.

And when you do pay the cost is less than a short session of drugging, and I can do much more for you. You put my Belt on when you feel the sootiness, exhilaration or for how long your body, and while you sleep, you get full of life. You wake up in the morning like a new man.

Now, I can do everything. I don't claim to, and I won't take it that I don't feel sure of, but all these troubles which come from early waste of vitality, from indigestion of any kind, from decay of nerve power, or from any organic stomach, liver or kidney weakness, can cure, and these are the cases I am willing to tackle and take the chances on. I am doing them every day.

All I ask is reasonable security for my Belt while you are wearing it.

DANGER—I got one of your Belts some time ago for a sore-back, which was very painful, and prevented me from sleeping so at times I could hardly tie my shoes. Your Belt strengthened my back and took the pain and soreness away entirely. I would not take $100 for it, and if I could not get another, I would not part with it at any price. I can recommend your Belt as a complete cure to all afflicted with this trouble.

W. McNEILL, Colborne, Ont.

Tell me where you are and I'll give you the name of a man in your own town that I've cured. I've got cures in every town.

That's enough. You need the cure. I've got it. You want it. I'll give it to you or you need not pay me a cent. Come and get it now. The pleasurable moments of this life are too few. So don't throw any away. While there is a chance to be husky and strong, to throw your chest and look at yourself in the glass, and say, "I'm a man," do it and don't waste time thinking about it.

I've got a beautiful book, full of good honest talk about how men are made big and noble, and I'll send it to you free, sealed, if you send this coupon.

The Marathons will go to Fredericton on Monday to play another game with the Fredericton team. Coach Shannon will in the meantime spare no effort in training the team into shape to play winning ball, and when the ball starts rolling the Marathons will be there.

OPERA HOUSE

The performance of Othello, by Kirk Brown and his capable company at the Opera House last night, was worthy of a large audience. The attendance was small, however. Notwithstanding this fact the members of the cast seemed to exert themselves and, as in former nights, did splendid work. The audience while small was enthusiastic and applauded generously. Brown in the title part, was seen to his advantage and from start to finish carried out the difficult part with great ability.

Miss Bertha Creighton, as Desdemona, interpreted the part fully as well as it has ever been interpreted in this city. She had a fine perception of what was expected of her and the audience was immensely pleased with her sweetness and sympathy. Miss Creighton's work during the entire engagement here has come in for a great deal of praise, but she never performed better than she did last night.

Clyde Franklin was an ideal Iago and Emma DeWalt, as Amelia, and J. H. Taylor, as Cassio, were strong supporters. Mr. Franklin's work was worthy of special mention. There was great disappointment that the audience was not larger.

This afternoon the company will play CLAMATEUR.

The musical specialties in connection with "The Lost Paradise" to be presented in the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings next under the auspices of the I. L. and B. Society promise to be distinctly novel and highly pleasing. Miss Adele Harvey will sing "For You, Bright Eyes," with chorus, and Miss Florence Halpin and Harold Turner will be heard in "Ode to a Little Closer," the hit from "The Three Wives." They will be assisted by the chorus.

Edwin McNeill of Moncton City will sing a solo "For All Eternity," with violin obbligato. The arrangement of this piece which is being supervised by Mr. A. C. Wilson will be particularly effective, as well as unique and dainty. A Clap Bitch is musical director and success in singing is assured. Wm. J. McShane's staging is assured of a high merit.

The rehearsals of the amateur players in the house itself are being directed by an John R. Pauley and indications point to an entertainment surpassing other amateur productions seen in this city. The seats are now on sale.

THE LYRIC

On Monday the Lyric Theatre will offer a list of attractions calculated to prove pleasing to every one. It is expected to be a lively show with a lot of new amusements, plenty of music and an abundance of pictorial novelties. The Stanton Brothers a singing and dancing quartette with a good supply of laughing material, will be the principal feature for the first three days of the week in conjunction with their high-class film stories. The holiday programme for today boasts of two vaudeville acts, Torry Hart, Irish comedian, and the Millard Brothers, trick banjoists. "The Leading Lady," a very amusing comedy is the feature of the picture bill.

PRAYER BOOK SOUVENIR

The Times has received from the publishers, His Majesty's printers, Eyre & Spottiswoode, 33 Paternoster Row, London, a copy of the Coronation Prayer and Hymn Books issued as a souvenir of the coronation of their majesties King George and Queen Mary. This book contains the form and order of the service that is to be performed and of the ceremonies that are to be observed in the coronation; in Westminster Abbey. Special features of the book, which is very handsomely bound, are an appropriate title-page printed in colors; photographic portraits of their majesties King George V. and Queen Mary; the coronation service; and by special arrangement the coronation anthem composed by Sir Frederick Bridge.

The above named Coronation Prayer and Hymn Books may be had in a variety of styles, and are the only editions with which the Coronation Anthem is issued.

ADVANCE THE PROJECT FOR INCINERATOR

Board of Health and Council Committee to Have Another Meeting This Week—Information Received

The proposal to establish a public incinerator in St. John will be advanced another stage when the Board of Health and the special committee appointed by the city council in the matter, meet on Tuesday night next. A number of replies to enquiries will be read at the meeting, and will give some idea as to the manner of the disposal of garbage by other cities. A member of the council committee said yesterday that the city was never in greater need of an incinerator or some other system for the removal of garbage, as with the closing up of all the east end dumps the matter was becoming serious. The only available dumps were some little distance from the city proper, and the haul was three times as much as ordinary. The tendency, as a committee, was to allow material to collect in yards and alleys.

The conditions here, it is pointed out, are somewhat different from those in many cities, but out of the replies to enquiries will be found, it is expected, some that will bear on local conditions.

Out of the many letters can be gathered ideas as to the working of garbage plants. In Boston the business is let out by contract yearly, which seems to give satisfaction, while in another city in the province the garbage is taken for feed for pigs. Information to hand tells of a city in Scotland where the incinerator is made to pay its way and in fact is a revenue producer.

The idea here is to include the up-keep in the assessment, as it seems to be the view that no other way would be practical. The cost both for the erection of the plant and the up-keep are said to be quite heavy, in fact Chairman Thomas Gorman, of the board, said yesterday that there were those who for this reason would throw a wet blanket on the proposition.

It is understood that the city engineer, who is one of the city committee, estimated the cost for the plant at about $15,000, calculating the rather large figure of $1000 a year for up-keep.

It has been suggested that some temporary arrangement might be made with the city engineer for the disposal of the garbage. There has been much work done by both the board and committee in the matter, and a satisfactory result is expected.

DISTRICT LODGE, I. O. G. T.

Resolution of Confidence in Rev. W. R. Robinson Adopted at Session Last Evening

St. John District Lodge I. O. G. T. met last evening with large attendance of representatives from all the lodges in the district. Several candidates were presented and had the degree conferred upon them. E. N. Stockford, D. C. T. presided, and in reporting for the term just ended told of a good increase in the membership and interest among the lodges. He also referred to the present movement toward the better enforcement of the license law.

The following resolution was adopted unanimously:—

Whereas, it has been a matter of common knowledge for some time past that the liquor license act in the city of St. John has been openly violated, and

Whereas, we have not with great satisfaction the splendid work of our brother, Rev. W. R. Robinson, toward better law enforcement, in having the provisions of the act carried out in both letter and spirit, therefore

Resolved that this District Lodge, I. O. G. T. hereby express its unqualified confidence in our Brother Robinson and approval of his work, and pledge him our support, financial and otherwise, in the splendid effort he is making for the temperance cause, by causing the licensed sellers in St. John to observe the law, and further Resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Rev. W. R. Robinson.

A fine programme including speeches by Rev. Wm. Lawson, G. Rodman and David Burgess and solos by Miss Bertie Campbell and Ira Stymest was carried out at the close of a most interesting and profitable evening refreshments were served by the ladies of Thorne Lodge, Bayview Lodge with which the next session of the district lodge will be held, on June 24, reports very gratifying conditions.

JUDGE OF COUNTY COURT

corded the evidence, not sworn to before the justice who heard the evidence but sworn to before and signed by H. O. McLaesney, Esq., notary public. Had you turned these papers over and read "them several times" as carefully as you would lead the general public to believe, you would have seen Mr. McLaesney's initials on each page, attached to this bundle of papers, you would also have read the signatures of the justice of the peace before whom the evidence was given, attached to a legal paper prepared by the clerk of the peace.

With all this evidence before you, one cannot understand why you let the grand jury to believe that this evidence, taken by a public stenographer, should have been signed by the witnesses giving the evidence, and by the presiding justice, when the law explicitly declares how it shall be dealt with. I will leave this important point of the law of the land with which you could not have been familiar to good judgment of public opinion.

The next time, Mr. Justice Forbes, you will feel like castigating county justices for the peace for their errors in judgment over the shoulders of "one Justice McFarlane of Fairville," make a personal effort, on your part to call to remembrance the result of the judgment given by a county court judge in the Sperdake case not very long ago, a judgment the reversal of which by a higher court should always be uppermost in the memory of all county court judges.

There are two or three other matters in that pouring out of words of yours without due discretion, as reported in the public papers above referred to, but time and space and the dignity attached to the office, not of "one Justice McFarlane of Fairville," but to the office of one of His Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the county of the city and county of St. John, forbid my taking up any more of them at this time.

The honor due the office which you occupy among the fair minded judiciary of this province prompts me to subscribe myself,

Yours respectfully,
MATTHEW MACFARLANE,
Fairville, N. B., May 31, 1911.

LOCAL I. C. R. WORK

The work of double tracking the I. C. R. from the depot to Coldbrook is being carried on rapidly under the direction of Foreman Peter Gallagher. About twenty or twenty-five men are employed, and it is expected to have the work completed about the latter part of this month. The paving which the I. C. R. are having put down in front of their sheds in Pond street is not yet completed. A slow load of paving will arrive the first part of the week, and the work will then be pushed to completion. This paving will make a great improvement to the street and it will be quite a help to teamsters who use the sheds in that vicinity.

The ball team on the Marathon grounds between the Fredericton Express team and the Marathons are creating considerable interest. The morning game started at 10:30. The battery for the Greeks is Maloney and Rootes. The other members of the team are: Bradbury 1st; Parle, 2nd; Clavson, 3rd; Fraser, s. s.; Riley, c. i.; Lynch, r. i.; Dr. Malcolm, l. i.; ad J. Malcolm, spare. The afternoon game will start at 2:30, when the battery for the Marathons will be Graverston and Nelson. Graverston is a Boston National box artist. For the visitors Connelly was on the mound for this morning, and Bill Duval will do the honors this afternoon.

NEXT SATURDAY

On next Saturday morning the children who have been preparing for the past month, will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Cathedral. Those to be confirmed will include children and adults from the cathedral, St. John the Baptist and Holy Trinity parishes. The children will also make their first Holy Communion publicly.
