

The Union Advocate.

Established 1867. NEWCASTLE, MICHIGAN, N. B. WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1892.

Editorial Notes.

The English elections are about over and Mr. Gladstone is said to have but a small majority, the result being considerable of a disappointment to the liberals, who expected a much larger majority.

The results up to Monday morning are given as follows:—

The number of members thus far returned is 652. This leaves 18 seats yet undeclared. England has sent 234 Conservatives, 193 Liberals (including members of the labor party), 30 Unionists.

Scotland sends 11 Conservatives, 50 Liberals, 10 Unionists; Wales, 2 Conservatives, 26 Liberals; Ireland, 17 Conservatives, 5 Unionists.

64 McCarthyites, 9 Parnellites, 20 O'Connellites, 20 O'Connellites, 242; the Unionists 310. Of the 18 seats yet unreturned, seven Irish and six British were in the late Parliament held by the opposition and five by Unionists.

It is likely that the next Parliament will consist of 355 Gladstonians and 315 Unionists. The Unionists returned by Great Britain are 292 and the total Gladstonians 275, including the results in 18 remaining districts. The total number of votes recorded to date are: Opposition, 2,199,594; Unionist, 2,004,292.

Owing to the results of the elections it is stated that Lord Salisbury will not resign but will hold office until voted out, which is not to be expected.

When it is considered that the Tory party exceeds the Gladstonian party in numbers, and can only come into power by a united vote of labor members, Parnellites and anti-Parnellites.

The members of the Dominion House of Commons did not succeed in the endeavor to have their indemnity raised to fifteen hundred dollars as it was last year, to the disgrace of the government in complying with the request, and the parliament is going for it.

The presence of the long session was as usual the excuse for the request, but if the long session had been caused either this year or last by a press of public business then the people might not object to such extra payment, but as the length of the sessions were caused by long winded orations on the part of members of the house, not for the despatch of the public business but rather purposely to obstruct it, then the excuse for long sessions is not sufficient to cause their pay to be increased fifty per cent.

Parliament has too many holidays, and on very little more than half the number of days spent in Ottawa are the members engaged in parliamentary session. With statutory holidays and holy days, and the customary adjournment of the house from Friday night until Monday, which may suit members in Ontario and Quebec, who can go to their homes and spend part of Saturday attending to their private business and Sundays with their families, but it is a nuisance to other members. Representatives of former constituencies have to lose round on Saturdays as if they were to go home they can not get back in time for Monday session and have had deducted from their indemnity the sum of eight dollars per day for every day they were absent while the house was in session. Fewer of days would mean more expedite public business and enable it to be brought to a close before the hot summer weather came.

A change was suggested during the last hours of the recent session of parliament which would seem to be an equitable arrangement, allowing all members to be absent with leave for ten or twelve days without charging the eight dollars per day from their sessional indemnity. This would place all on an equal footing, and would be but a fair arrangement. A resolution was afterwards passed to that effect.

Discussion was also had in reference to sick members indemnity, which has usually been paid if sick in Ottawa but deducted if they had to return home from sickness, the general opinion being that a sick member should be paid his indemnity in full no matter whether he remained in Ottawa or not.

Profratation took place with a smaller number of members present than ever before, after session of unprecedented length, and no doubt all were heartily glad to be for the time relieved from attendance at parliament sessions.

The Question of the Hour.

The important question now before the electors of this country is that of the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act, and it is their duty to study the question so that they may vote right and in accordance with their convictions. A paid advocate of the rum business advised the Advocate and others to "keep cool," and then proceeds to lecture us for appealing to the people to reject by their votes the disgrace of licensing a traffic which is altogether evil, the results of which are felt everywhere with sorrow.

The friends of temperance are fighting for a principle, that the happiness of thousands would be secured could prohibition become the law of the land, and the waste, destruction and crime caused by the liquor traffic be done away with. The paid advocate of the liquor dealers seeks to lead the people of this country to take a backward step in the cause of total abstinence and to render a disgraceful traffic more respectable (?) by making it legal, which is objected to by total abstinence simply because they object to license a traffic which will continue the business of making paupers, criminals and lunatics. If such a business is necessary, and the assertion is emphatically denied, then the manufacturers of such classes as those stated above be outside the pale of the law, and do not for the sake of a bribe (such as a license fee) vote to make us all sharers in the disgraceful traffic.

Look at those who are now engaged in fighting on one side or other of this question and then judge which of them have the people's interest most at heart.

One side is working for its own pecuniary interest, the other is working for the general good of mankind; one side is spending its money so that it may have power legally to debauch the people, the other side is spending its money in the endeavor to keep temptation out of the way of those too weak to resist it; the liquor side is all for self, while the motto of their opponents is: "For God, and Home, and Native Land"; one side seeks to enslave the human race by the use of alcohol, the other presents prohibition for the liberation of the race. Every elector must decide which side he is on and vote accordingly.

Good Templars of New Brunswick.

The Grand Lodge has concluded to dispense with the services of a paid Lecturer for the present year. Mr. Robinson declining the reappointment as he has had worn him out and he had to take a much needed rest.

The time of meeting of next session was left to the executive, conditioned that it be between the 1st and 3rd Tuesday in July, 1893.

Carlton, St. John, was selected as the next place of meeting. In the evening a public temperance meeting, under the auspices of the Grand Lodge, was held in the B. K. C. T. Rev. B. H. Thomas, occupied the chair, and there was quite a large audience present. Mr. E. B. Jones presided at the piano, and during the evening nicely rendered a solo.

The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. G. W. Swin, after which the chairman delivered an address and was followed in brief speeches by the following:—Revs. Geo. C. Crabbe, R. S. T. Irvine, G. W. Swin and P. G. C. T. H. Colter, M. P. P. G. Secy. W. R. Robinson and W. D. Baskin.

At the close of the public meeting the Grand Lodge adjourned to the hall and finished their session.

Blackville. Blackville, July 11.—Indications point to an abundant harvest this year. The crops in this section are looking fine, there is doubt that the hay crop will exceed that of several seasons past.

The picnic held under the auspices of the order of Sons of Temperance was a great success; the handsome sum of three hundred and seventy dollars was realized.

A few parties have begun bark peeling, but the demand is less than it was last year. There are still several hundred cords of last season's bark in the station yard, which is being gradually shipped to the American market.

Miss Alice Logie, of Chatham, Miss Beacie Castlehill of this place, are popular school teachers, are enjoying a well earned vacation, the school being closed for six weeks.

Mrs. Hugh Balkham, of Milltown, and her sister, Miss Marshall, of Brockton, Mass., have just been visiting at Chatham and Nelson.

Mr. Geo. W. Adams, of Fredericton, is spending a few weeks here, the guest of Mr. J. McLaughlin.

The pie social held by the ladies of the Episcopal Church on the 8th inst., was a very successful affair, the sum of $55.00 being added to a fund to procure a library for the Sunday School.

Dr. Wilson of Derby, paid his weekly visit to Blackville on Saturday last.

Our enterprising merchant, Mr. James Barr, is adding quite an addition to his store, increasing business demanding the enlargement.

Mr. Louisa Underhill is building a very neat dwelling house.

The Roman Catholic church being erected in progressing rapidly, and when completed, will add greatly to the appearance of the place. We understand it is the intention of the congregation to hold a three days' banquet in honor of the late Mr. James Barr.

Mr. Wm. McLaughlin, who has been seriously ill, is now able to sit up, and is rapidly improving. In order to save his life it was necessary to perform a difficult operation, which was successfully performed by Dr. John Benson, of Chatham, Dr. Wier, of Doaktown, Dr. Wilson of Derby, Under Dr. Wilson's care Mr. McLaughlin will no doubt soon be himself again.

Several of our boys are anxiously awaiting the return of several young ladies, who are now in the States and are expected home in a few weeks and will no doubt be the first to speak for them.

The Temperance Champion.

The appointment of Mr. Krebs by the licensed victuallers to prepare their case for presentation to the Prohibition Commission has shown the necessity of the appointment of a good man to present the other side of the case, and the appeal for funds for this object is being willingly responded to. A fund of $5,000 has been asked for and already about $1,000 have been subscribed for this object.

The Montreal Witness gives the following particulars in reference to the appeal for funds and the man who has been selected to carry out the investigation and presentation of the case to the commission:—

The good Templars of the Province are officially endorsing the suggestion of the Witness in providing eminent representatives of the prohibitionists of the Dominion to attend the Prohibition Commission on the liquor traffic.

The Grand Secretary for Quebec, Mr. D. H. Howard, has been selected to represent the lodges of Quebec to support the proposition. In it, he says, he calls attention to the fact that it is the intention of the good Templars to support the proposition in all its forms, and in general to keep the evil of the liquor traffic from the Province by the Commission by securing sworn testimony.

The circular makes the first formal announcement of the choice of a temperance champion by remarking, "I am pleased to see that the Prohibition Commission has been organized, and that the good Templars of the Province have pledged liberal support to the cause."

Mr. Frank S. Spence is the corresponding secretary of the Dominion Alliance, and Grand Chief Templar, I. O. G. T.

Meetings of the Commission have now been arranged to be held in the following places:—Halifax N. S., July 20; St. John's, N. B., August 1; Charlottetown, P. E. I., August 10, 20, 31; Fredericton, N. B., August 18, 19; Moncton, N. B., August 19; Chatham, N. B., August 20, 21; Summerside, P. E. I., August 24; Quebec, P. Q., August 25. The meeting at Montreal, commencing on September 8.

The Scott Act War.

Mr. Desrochers was before the Police Court, on Friday, charged with liquor selling. The witnesses who were examined denied having bought any at his house. The case was postponed till Saturday.

The case against George Stables was also taken up on Friday. He was charged in the complaint with having a bar fitted up on his premises, said bar contained a counter, beer pumps, liquors, and other articles prohibited by the provisions of the Canada Temperance Act. It was proved that the liquor was secretly placed on these premises through a hidden door and then removed to the adjoining premises through the store of the house.

The evidence for the defence as given in Saturday's World is as follows:—The evidence showed that he leased a corner of his house to J. L. Johnston, who stored two cases there and made the same for the purpose of selling liquor. The witnesses who were examined denied having bought any at his house. The case was postponed till Saturday.

The Other Side of It.

St. John's Press has been writing under the name of the Temperance Advocate, and is creating the impression that the Scott Act was repealed in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, Newcastle, on Monday last.

The petitions contain the names of 1000 persons, 500 of whom were unable to sign their names, a large number of whom are evidently very poor, and employed to carry out the petitions. The names will be compared with the latest revised lists of voters and those not on the said list will be added to the list of voters.

The law requires the petitions to be made in the registry office for ten days so that any electors have the privilege of examining them and if their names are there without authority they should be removed. The names of the electors are to be taken from the list of voters.

Bestigouche Notes.

Messrs. Reid, Mat & Co., are rebuilding a shingle mill, about two miles above Campbellton, on the river. The one that was burned three weeks ago, they have had run only four days. They have a large quantity of lumber to manufacture into shingles, and are pushing on the erection with all convenient speed.

The lobster fishing has closed for the season. The catch has been greatly below the average, the traps have been taken up long before the expiration of the legal season, as it would not pay to fish them.

The Rev. Mr. Palmer, Methodist clergyman, preached a farewell discourse on Sabbath 10th inst., on the words "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all, Amen." which was listened to by a large and highly appreciative audience. The discourse was intellectual, rich in grand thoughts, expressed in choice language, and delivered in an expressive manner.

Mr. Palmer has been two years in Campbellton, and has deservedly won the high respect of all classes of the people. He has been a most successful pastor, and has been a most successful promoter of the cause of the gospel. So says a Presbyterian.

Mr. George Dutch, Black Point, Bestigouche died, after a brief illness, on Friday 15th inst. The deceased was much beloved. Great sympathy is felt by the whole community for the afflicted family.

"The Advance" on the Robinson and O'Brien Suits.

The Miramichi Advance has a characteristic editorial on the subject of the suits instituted by the proprietor of this paper against Messrs. Robinson and O'Brien, M. P.'s for Northumberland, and the late Premier, for the violation of the Independence of Parliament Act. The Advance, with its usual disregard for the truth, would seek to create the impression that the action was really instigated by Dr. Stockton and certain members of the political party of which Dr. Stockton is leader, and that Mr. Crook is the real author of the suits.

Dr. Stockton and the others in pushing the case to punish Mr. Robinson for not voting in support of their party. For the information of those who may happen to see the Advance, we say that the local opposition are in no way responsible for the action against Messrs. Robinson and O'Brien, nor did they have anything to do with the suits.

The proprietor of this paper had retained Dr. Stockton in his professional capacity to take the matter in hand. It is quite natural for the editor of the Advance to assume that the newspaperman who has taken the case in hand, is himself being the sponsor and slave of political bores and sectional cracks, and not capable of existing without the crumb of a vote from the tables of the electors, but who have neither confidence in his respect for him. Such creatures are very much given to attributing motives and methods to the character of the others.

The Advance is a charge against some other newspaper man of stealing McCully's clock.—Gleaner.

Facts Not Palatable.

Those subscribers to the ADVOCATE who have of late got their papers at the store of Mr. George Stables are hereby notified that they will have to call our office for them or have them changed to the post office, Mr. Stables having returned last week's bundle with a request not to send any more to his store for delivery as he did not want them there.

Of course it will be readily understood that Mr. Stables has taken umbrage at the recent remarks in the ADVOCATE in reference to his turning his premises into a liquor depot for the accommodation of his neighbor and to aid him in violating the laws of his country. Mr. Stables has also withdrawn his advertisements from the columns of the ADVOCATE and requested his account of the same to be closed. Mr. Stables has a perfect right to do so if he thinks proper, but if he supposed that because he patronized this office that his premises should be made in reference to the legal status of liquor on his premises then he has by this time realized that he was mistaken. We are in favor of the laws of the country being carried out and enforced, and when they are broken we hope always to be independently able to make our comments on such violation no matter whether the person concerned is a customer of the ADVOCATE or not.

We but stated the facts in reference to the case and could have said much more about it if we had thought it to do so. Our opinion is that for his own credit sake he had better have left the illegal trafficking in liquor alone, as we are not prepared to be equally guilty with the violator of the Canada Temperance Act whom he has aided and abetted in defying the law and its officers.

Death of Mrs. Parsons.

Our readers generally will sympathize with the people of Benton over the serious loss they have sustained in the death of Mrs. S. J. Parsons, whose demise, after an illness of a few weeks duration, from inflammation of the lungs, occurred at her residence on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Parsons was a lady widely known and as widely respected for her kind disposition, her readiness to respond to calls for relief, her loving ministrations to the sick, her earnestness exhibited in the cause of the W. C. T. U., and Sabbath School work, in a word like her Master, whose she truly served, she was ever going about doing good. The memory of her noble life will never be forgotten by those who knew her. To her sorrow-stricken husband, the sympathies of thousands of friends, all over the Province, will be most sincerely extended.—Carlton Sentinel.
