CARLETON COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION

Report of Annual District Conventions Held March 12-22, 1918

Owing to the severe storm and blockade on the I. C. R., Rev. J. W. Brown, Ph. D., was not able to attend the first convention held at Mt. Pleasant on March 12. The Brighton District Convention at Windsor was postponed on account of bad roads. Dr. Brown arrived on Wednesday evening at East Florenceville and attended his first convention in the county at Florenceville on Thursday evening, March 14. The County Secretary accompanied him at all the conventions held, the last one at Debec on Thursday, March 22. The largest attendance at any place was at Upper Knoxford on Sunday, March 17. There was a good interest taken in Sunday school work and much helpful discussion at all the conventions. Dr. Brown charted the different schools, and in several districts there was a gratifying increase in standing since last year. The highest average standing of the schools reporting, according to the International Sunday School Chart, was for the district of Kent with an average of 75 per cent. Woodstock came next with an average of 72.5 and Richmond with 66.17. Three schools reached 100 per cent, Bath U. B., Woodstock U. B. and R. B. Richmond led in number of Cradle Rolls. The C. R. membership of the Woodstock churches was reported as follows: United Baptist 87, Methodist 30, Reformed Baptist 18, Adventist 16, Presbyterian 11. The Home Department enrollment was as follows: United Baptist 50, Reformed Baptist 25, Adventist 21, Methodist 18.

Dr. Brown's addresses and talks on Sunday school work and problems were very practical and instructive. He condemned strongly the sending of cigarettes to our soldier boys. He gave instances of the rapid increase of cigarette smoking among the girls and young women of our land. At two of the conventions resolutions were passed, strongly protesting against Canadian grain being shipped to England to be used in the breweries to make beer and whiskey.

In the election of District of ficers for 1918-1919, a different arrangement of Departments was used. The Superintendent of the Elementary Division has charge of the work among children up to the age of 12 years. The Secondary Division includes those between 12 and 24. Adult Division includes the Home Department, Education Division includes Teacher Training, Temperance and Missions. Administration Division is a new Department and has to do with the proper organization of schools.

All the new officers are being supplied with manuals of instruction as to their duties. These manuals are supplied free to County and District officers by the New Brunswick Sunday School Association.

Any others wishing to obtain copies may procure them for five cents each by writing to the N. B. Assoc. Headquarters, St. John, or to the County Sec'y, Clark A. McBride, Centreville.

FARMERS' ATTENTION!

On Tuesday, April 23 there will be held in the Agriculture school at Woodstock a public meeting for the purpose of forming the Central Organization of the United Farmers of N. B. Every branch of the U. F. N. B. are asked to send delegates according as constitution provides. Every member of the organization is urgently required to attend this meeting. All farmers are asked to be present.

Make April 23 the Farmers' Big Day and celebrate by being at Woodstock. There will be a speaker from the United Farmers of Ontario, also J. D. McKenna, Editor of Maritime Farmer, and other speakers. Two meetings 2.30 and 7.30 p.m. Organizing committees of the different parishes are urged to push the work of organizing branches, so that they might have full representation of delegates at the meeting.

Penalties for Waste of Food

Proprietors, managers or other responsible parties, private householders and transportation companies, or others convicted of wasting food intended for human consumption, through careless storing or other causes, are subject now to heavy penalties. The maximum of $1,000 fine or not less than $100 may be imposed, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or both fine and imprisonment.

Rev. Henry Hart

The death took place on Saturday evening, at his home in Jacksontown, of Rev. Henry Hart, of the United Baptist church. He was 74 years of age, and is survived by a wife, two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Hazen, a missionary in India, Mrs. Richard Syson, of Stettin, Alta., and one son, Bedford, at home. The funeral was held on Monday, the Rev. A. L. Fenwick officiating.

Letter from the Front—Tells of Soldier 73 Years Old

Somewhere in France
Dec. 27, 1917.

Dear Lottie and Children:

Christmas has passed and I had a very nice time. It was a cloudy night with moon peeping through at times Christmas eve. Next day was pretty nice but a cold raw wind. Breakfast as usual and I was on tent cleaning fatigue. Wrote a few letters and got one from Susie dated Nov. 11. For dinner we had chicken, mashed potatoes, ground bully beef, cabbage, bread, English Christmas pudding and ginger beer or pop, was waited on by sergeants and corporals. For supper we had tea, sliced ham, bread, butter, cheese and a nice piece of raisin pie with tea. In afternoon Jock (my dog) and I went out to sand dunes, which here are covered with pine woods—a dwarf pine or Jack pine. We spent two hours roaming around looking for rabbits who dig holes in sand hills and Jock dug for some but got none. We had a good walk and Jock was delighted. Albeit Jock will have some good old hunts if I can get him back to old N. B. won't he Charlie boy? In evening I went to Y. M. C. A. but called Gordon Hut where each soldier was handed a little cloth or cotton bag of candy. Mine was all stuck up as it was acid drop but one of the girls in Hut gave me an extra bag for Jock. It's a dandy and I expect to send a box home soon and it will be in box if I can keep it good (Jock had chicken bones and some nice pieces for Christmas dinner and real English bread for tea). We had all cake (cookies) real English currant bread and tea free also an apple. We formed in two lines and walked by a Christmas tree. Santa Claus, a real tall Santa Claus, with red cloak and pants, trimmed in white fur and wool and bushy grey or white looking young ladies—one from New Zealand and the other from Yorkshire in England, handed each of us a present as we walked by and went down to the lecture rooms where we listened to a Band Concert for an hour. It was grand the way all public huts were decorated and our beautiful Union Jack was freely displayed in every public hut. It's the most beautiful flag that flies in earth's breezes and the truest liberty our world knows is seen and felt wherever it flies. God bless our Flag!

My present was a nice writing case with a good stock of paper and envelopes, a most welcome present to me. Oh! it brought Christmas near to the hearts of us soldier boys. I could not go out without going up to our good old Christian officer who had charge of ceremony and giving him my thanks for the real good home-like Christmas cheer, he and they had given. No one home can realize how the Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army, Church of England, and Catholic and other church huts are doing out here in this war for us soldiers. We can hardly realize (Continued on next page)

FOOD WASTE

Canadians have for perhaps a generation been a young nation of wasters. The natural resources of this country have been so bountiful that our people have been inclined to consider them inexhaustible. In the matter of food particularly, millions of dollars are wasted every year. Wheat for example, is wasted on the farms; wasted on the road to the mill in some cases; wasted at the elevator; wasted throughout the course of its transportation, wasted at the flour mill by reason of the over-refinement of flour to which we have become accustomed; wasted in the homes. Of foodstuffs in general, it is calculated that $50,000,000 per annum is a conservative estimate of waste that has gone on in Canada in recent years.

Canada is now involved in the greatest war of all time. She is fighting a nation who has organized her resources, men and materials on a most thorough, modern, systematic basis. The wastefulness which goes on in Germany in time of peace is small in comparison to that which characterizes this Continent, including Canada. In time of war, Germany still more strictly conserves and organizes, otherwise she could not withstand practically all the rest of the civilized world in this struggle. In the four years of war the lessons of organization and avoiding waste have been brought home to the British people and to the dominion overseas. "Waste in war time is a crime" said the Canadian Food Controller, and his words have been paralleled by the Food Controllers of Great Britain and the United States.

In Canada this statement has now become literally true. By reason of an Order-in-Council now in effect as the law of Canada, the Governor General in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture, and pursuant of the advice of the Canada Food Board, acting on the power conferred upon them by the War Measures Act, has penalized wilful waste of food, due to careless or faulty storage. It is now the duty of each municipality in Canada to enforce this regulation within its municipal limits. Where conviction is obtained, in a case of waste of food or food products, resulting from carelessness or from the manner of storage or any other avoidable cause, a fine not exceeding $1,000 and not less than $100, or a period of imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both fine and imprisonment, will

AT 60 ENJOYING PERFECT HEALTH

By the time a man or woman is 60, the kidneys and bladder need a little help to keep them in good working order.

Rheumatism and backache so often accompany the later years of life, most people have an idea health and vigor cannot be expected much after the fiftieth year.

As a matter of fact there is no basis for these fears, we could show a number of letters proving our contention that if GIN PILLS are taken to keep the urine normal, prevent colds settling on the kidneys or bladder, and ward off rheumatic attacks, almost everyone can enjoy perfect health at this late period.

To quote from a letter received from a prominent Consulting Engineer of New York City:—"Your remedy I find, at 60 years of age, to give perfect relief from the Kidney and Bladder troubles incident to one of my age."

Perhaps you know a man or woman whose life is made a torment by Rheumatism, Backache, Sciatica, or Swollen Joints. Don't let it continue, for Gin Pills will surely bring that longed-for relief. You don't have to buy Gin Pills to try them. Write for a free sample. Address the National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada Limited, Toronto; or if you live in the United States write to: Na-Dru-Co Inc., 202 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

be imposed. This fine shall accrue to the municipality or the province, depending upon the authority of the officer conducting the prosecution. The Canada Food Board is empowered to seize food which is in danger of deterioration from improper storage or other causes, and have it sold. This new law should make it possible to prevent cases of food which has been stored too long having to be thrown out or destroyed.

we are in a foreign land at war as we stand in these huts and see our British flags, our British pictures, our British papers, and books and dear British faces aglow in kindness and real Anglo-Saxon beauty. No matter if some of the heads are grey and faces wrinkled with years. The officer told us of one Canadian soldier seventy three years of age who got by the M. O. concealing his age and coming over in a labour battalion who worked here helping best he could to do his bit for King, Country and loved ones, till he was compelled to return to Blighty en route for Canada on account of rheumatism and old age. This soldier had said in presence of officers, he would go back satisfied if he had only had a chance to see his good King, and the officer had written to a friend of King George's daughter who took word to her father King George, and the King had graciously sent word to our old but noble comrade that he would be given an audience with him, the King. We gave some lusty cheers for the old comrade and mighty cheers for our Democratic King, George V. Long may he reign over us! I met many of our old 140th boys here that night—Eddie Britain, Emmerson Broad, Young Donthright, Fred Thompson, John Wallace and Keith Johnston and many more. The war is holding us here longer than we expected but wonderful victories have been won. The British Empire who only had a small army which was a subject of ridicule to Germany has grown into the biggest and best army amongst the Allies, has met and defeated the very best troops that the Kaiser can muster and we are advancing on every front in the world and have won from Germany and Turkey more land surface in the last three years than any other single nation on earth except Russia, and she is at present dissolving like a snow ball in a summer day. We have delivered the Holy City of the Christian Jews, Jerusalem from Turkish cruelty and bloodshed and it is one of the most momentous acts of all history and in this we see the hand of God revealed, and the liberty loving British Empire his instrument of grace. Are we down-hearted? No and Canada has sent a thrill of patriotic fervor all through our army. Even India is glad while Germany sees the wall stronger after three years of war and she sees British arms as the real barrier that she cannot break. So Christmas is a day of thanksgiving to use for this Christmas is the first for centuries that our Holy City was in the hands of Christian people. All of us hope to spend next Christmas in our homes and if, by reason of Divine Will we do not live till that time our work has not been in vain and may next Christmas find our nation in peace, victory won and the clouds all cleared away. After a lusty singing of "God Save the King" we dispersed full in stomach and pleased in spirit to end Christmas day in our canvas tents under woollen blankets. This was Christmas 1917 in B. E. F., C. G. B. Depot.

Local Officers Have Initiative

Medical health officers of municipalities, police officers, attorneys and other parties having to do with the enforcement of law, are now responsible for the enforcement of the law against waste of food which has just been passed by the Dominion Government on recommendation of the Canadian Food Board. Where proceedings in any case in which a fine is imposed were taken by a municipal officer, the fine accrues to the municipality. Similarly in case of a provincial officer the fine accrues to the provincial treasurer.

POTATO POINTERS

Although the potato is a very important food product in Canada, the methods of cultivation can be much improved.

The potato succeeds well in Canada almost everywhere where the season is long enough for the tubers to develop before the tops are killed by frost.

There is no farm crop the yield of which can be increased so much by one season's work as the potato.

Potatoes have been grown at the rate of over 700 bushels per acre in small plots at the Central Experimental Farm. The average yield for the whole of Canada for the years 1905-14 is estimated at 161-34 bushels per acre.

The potato is a native of South America and Mexico and was introduced into Ireland in 1585 or 1586, and from there to England. New varieties of potatoes may be originated from seed, by bud variation, or changed by selection.

Varieties may be affected either favourably or unfavourably by change of seed. If seed is obtained from a comparatively cool, moist climate it will give a much larger yield, as a rule, than seed from a drier and warmer climate.

Strong vitality and freedom from disease in potatoes are of great importance.

Potatoes succeed best in a moist, somewhat cloudy and temperate climate and in a rich, deep friable, warm, sandy loam with good natural drainage, a constant though not too great a supply of moisture and well supplied with decayed or decaying vegetable matter.

A crop of 200 bushels of potatoes, exclusive of the potato tops, removes from the soil approximately 40 pounds nitrogen, 20 pounds phosphoric acid, and 70 pounds potash.

Potatoes succeed well after clover, there being an average increase in a three-years' test of 37 bushels per acre where clover was used than where it was not.

Heavy manuring with barnyard manure is not recommended but the use of a moderate quantity is advised applied on the clover in the autumn. If used in the spring the manure should be rotted.

Chemical fertilizers, if used, should be applied at the rate of 500 to 800 pounds or more per acre in the proportion of 250 pounds nitrate of soda, 350 pounds superphosphate, and 200 pounds sulphate of potash or muriate of potash.

The soil should be very thoroughly prepared; the better the preparation, the better the crop is likely to be.

The best time to plant varies; it depends largely on the condition of the ground and spring frosts. As a rule, the best time is as soon as possible after danger from frost is past.

Sets should be cut from medium or large potatoes and planted, and covered as soon as possible after planting. If allowed to wither the crop will be less. An increased yield will be obtained by coating the sets with land plaster, gypsum or lime, especially if potatoes are cut a few days before planting. A set should have a large amount of flesh and about three eyes.

The best depth to plant is from four to five inches.

Potatoes should be planted in rows 30 inches apart with a set from 12 to 14 inches apart in the row.

The crop of potatoes will usually increase in proportion to the number of times the potatoes are cultivated during the growing season. There was found to be an increase of 40 bushels per acre in a crop of potatoes cultivated six times over those cultivated three times.

Level cultivation will sometimes give better results than ridging, and vice versa. Where the soil is stiff, ridging is advisable. Where the soil is loose and liable to suffer from drought in a dry time, level culture is recommended. Where the soil is both loose and moist, ridging will usually give best results.

Potatoes can be forced by some days and the yield increased by sprouting the potatoes before planting.

The crop of marketable potatoes can be almost doubled by having three weeks' growth in September.

Potato tops should be protected from insects and diseases as the yield will be in proportion to the leaves uninjured.

The Colorado Beetle and Cucumber Flea Beetle are the most injurious insects. The former can be killed by using Paris green or arsenate of lead, and the latter can be prevented from doing injury by Bordeaux mixture and Paris green or arsenate of lead.

The principal disease affecting the Late Blight, which can be prevented by spraying thoroughly with Bordeaux mixture, beginning before the disease appears and keeping the vines covered. From three to four sprayings are sufficient. In a three years' test the increase in yield by spraying with Bordeaux mixture was 94 bushels. The total cost per acre will be from six to eight dollars on large areas and about thirteen dollars on small areas, although good results will be obtained in some seasons with less expenditure.

The spores of the potato scab may be destroyed on the potato before planting by soaking the tubers for three hours in a solution of corrosive sublimate, or for two hours in a solution of formalin.

If potatoes are diseased it is best to leave them in the ground as long as possible.

Tubers should be stored in a dry, cool, well ventilated cellar and kept at a temperature between 33° and 35° F. if possible.

It is usually more profitable to market potatoes in the autumn than to store them.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, and hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier. By squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whiter and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvellous to smoothen rough, red hands.

Waste of Food Illegal

The wilful waste of any food or food products where such waste results from carelessness or manner of storage, or is due to any available cause, is now penalized by the law of Canada, and it is the duty of each municipality to enforce the regulation. The managers of storage warehouses, private residences, railway cars and other conveyances containing food stores or in transit, may be called upon to sell food or food products when there is danger of loss from deterioration.

Military Service Act

Important Announcement to All EXEMPTED MEN and to the Public Generally

IN dealing with the very large number of claims for exemption brought forward for consideration in connection with Class 1 under the Military Service Act, it has occurred, as was inevitable, that as a result of false statements and difficulties put in the way of investigation, some individuals have secured exemption whose proper place is in the Army.

It is not the intention of the Government to allow these men to evade permanently their obligation to bear their part in the military defence of the Country and of the ideals for which we are fighting. To do so would defeat the purpose of the Act, and cause grave injustice to men in the second class necessarily called out to fill their places.

Exemptions Granted on False Grounds

It is, therefore, proposed to scrutinize carefully all exemptions granted to date in order to separate those which have been granted on false or insufficient grounds from those that are well founded. With this object in view the various Registrars under the Military Service Act have been instructed to issue a series of questionnaires to exempted men. These questionnaires must be filled up correctly and returned promptly under penalty of forfeiture of exemption for failure to do so.

Exempted Men Who Have Changed Address

It is therefore important in their own interest that all exempted men who have changed their address since their exemption was granted and who have not already notified the Registrar of such change should notify him at once. Under the Regulations it is the duty of exempted men to keep the Registrar advised of any change of address, and failure to receive the questionnaire by reason of neglect of this duty must be treated as equivalent to failure to return the questionnaire after receipt.

Citizens Urged to Assist

In many instances information has been furnished by members of the public which has led to the cancellation of exemptions obtained by false or misleading statements. Further co-operation of this character is invited. The Government regard it as the Duty of all loyal citizens, not only to the Country, but to the men at the front, to assist in this way in securing reinforcements on a just and legal basis. Correspondence of this character will be treated as strictly confidential and will receive the fullest investigation.

CHARLES J. DOHERTY,
Minister of Justice.

Correspondence should be directed to W. A. Ewing, K.C., Registrar under the Military Service Act, St. John, N.B.

What Will I Look Like in Ten Years from Now?

What woman hasn't asked herself this question? How often have you worried about it? You have heard it said that "beauty is only skin deep". Don't believe it. The key to good looks is health, and the first essential to good health is to keep the digestive organs in perfect working order. For this purpose nothing is so helpful as Chamberlain's Tablets. An occasional dose will prevent or relieve constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache, and all their train of attendant evils.

Specific for Bronchitis

The turpentine used in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lined and Turpentine is not the ordinary commercial article, which is little used because of the unpleasantness of taste, but is specially extracted from tamarac and spruce gum and so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be at the same time pleasant to use and wonderfully effective in the cure of affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs.

A Ford Car Takes the Place of all These Things

WHEN you own a Ford you can do away with many articles that are a source of continuous expense to the man who still drives a horse. For instance, not only your driving-horse and buggy, but the single harness, blankets, whips, currycombs, brushes, horse-shoes, pitch-forks, feed-bins, etc.

In their place you have a speedy, dependable, dignified, roomy Ford Car—complete in itself. It is vastly superior to the narrow, cramped buggy that travels so slowly. And when a Ford is standing idle it does not eat three meals a day, and it requires no "looking after."

A Ford will save you time, trouble, and money. It is the utility car for the busy farmer and his family.

The Quality Goes Clear Through

ACCURACY

THERE you have the secret of Gray-Dort goodness—accuracy, balance, precision, smoothness, scientific design—everything that makes for harmony in a motor car.

Take the motor for example. Designed by Etienne Planche, perfecter of the world-famed Peugeot motor. Built by a corps of engineers who devote to it the care given to the costliest motors. Simple and strong; yet so accurate, so finely co-ordinated, that it gives unusual power, speed, smoothness, long-life.

Every other working part is the same. The transmission, the brakes and operating parts—all work smoothly, with watch-like accuracy. And you know the life of a good watch.

The same spirit of harmony makes the body lastingly handsome—the tonneau comfortable and roomy—the driving easy and untroubled—the frame sturdy and safe.

Trouble, as known to most motorists, is absent from the Gray-Dort. It demands the minimum of attention and repairs. Care in manufacture has made it to be relied on—serving not only well and long, but serving season after season unfalteringly.

Undoubtedly Canadian motorists are coming to the Gray-Dort. Ultimately you will join them.

The new Gray-Dort embodies all the good features that won instant success for former models. The 4-cylinder motor is a triumph of smooth, economical speed and power. The chassis is sturdy and quiet. The springs are long. The upholstery is deep. The equipment is absolutely complete from electric starting and lighting to the tools. New lines of beauty have been given this model. The five-passenger touring car is $1,125; the three-passenger fleur-de-lis roadster is $995; the Gray-Dort special, beautifully finished and with extra details of equipment, is $1,250 above the list. All prices are f.o.b. Chatham.

A very quiet but pleasing event took place at the home of C. W. Clark at Woodstock on Jan. 24, when Mrs. Clark's brother, Coy Elwood Birmingham of Brook, Sask., and Miss Elizabeth St. Clare Lee, late of Portland, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. A. S. Hazel, rector of Woodstock. They took a short trip from Woodstock to St. John, returning to Mr. Birmingham's old home at Connell where they since have been visiting relatives and friends. They took the train on March 25 for their future home in Saskatchewan.

The Hartland C. S. E. T. held its weekly meeting last Monday. The series of Bible discussions on "Men who dared" was continued. In the business session plans were considered for an open-air program for spring and summer. When the boys grouped for closing by singing "God Save the King" they took occasion to express their strong disapproval of the custom which prevails at Hartland public gatherings, of putting on coats and wraps during the singing of the national anthem. They resolved that C. S. E. T. boys would enter a silent protest against this by standing at attention as British audiences may be expected to do.

A number of friends of T. A. Pankhurst met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Rourke at Upper Brighton on Wednesday evening of last week and gave him a surprise party. The evening was pleasantly spent with games, music and refreshments. Mrs. Bert Day, on behalf of those present, in a few well chosen words presented the guest of honor with a fountain pen. The National Anthem closed the evening. Mr. Pankhurst who has been engaged for the past year as book-keeper for C. H. Berry of Houlton has resigned and accepted a position with the Central Garage Co., of Bath, Me. He left Houlton on Friday to take up his duties there. Mrs. Pankhurst will visit her parents at Upper Brighton until May 1, when she will move to Bath.

With the Fingers!
Says Corns Lift Out
Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heel footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.

The Country Store

IN the evening, when the day's work is done, men like to stroll over to the village store to discuss the war, politics, or whatever may be of local interest.

It is under these circumstances that the health of the family is referred to and experiences are interchanged in regard to medicines that have proven particularly effective.

After Dr. Chase had introduced his medicines to the druggists he found that many who wrote to him for treatment lived many miles from doctor or druggist, and had to depend on the country store for their medicines. Thus it came about that Dr. Chase's medicines were placed in general stores, and you can now obtain them wherever medicines are sold.

Instead of trying to imagine what the man in the picture is saying about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, we shall publish a letter from Mr. James Carr, who attributes his good health and that of his large family to the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

18 Miles From Drug Store.

Mr. James Carr, Maynooth, Ont., writes: "About nineteen years ago I received an envelope containing two of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I was doctoring at the time with two doctors and, as they did me no good, I used the pills, and by the time I had finished one box I was cured of the pain in the back and shoulders."

"We have great confidence in Dr. Chase's medicines. I have a family of ten children and have never had a doctor in the house for any of them. We live eighteen miles from a drug store, and find that these pills cure nearly all the ordinary ills by regulating the liver, kidneys and bowels. That we are all well and sound I attribute to their use, and I have recommended them to hundreds and given away many a box because I believe there is no medicine so good."

After long experience with Dr. Chase's Medicines we have found that people who try them are soon convinced of their exceptional merits.

We have published thousands of letters to give you an idea of the benefits others have obtained by their use, but if you are still skeptical we shall be glad to send you our
