ICEMAN AND FRUITMAN IN A WARM BATTLE

Row on Dundas Street Which Will Be

Settled by Police Magistrate. A Dundas street fruit merchant has been summoned to appear in court tomorrow morning on a charge of assaulting a local iceman.

The alleged assault took place Saturday morning last, and was caused by dispute over some ice. The iceman claims that he had been leaving ice at the store for some days, and when he sent his man in to collect the money for it the proprietor said he never got the goods. The iceman said he did, and it is said that the fruitman seized him by the throat and choked him. The iceman's employee came along ,and told fruit merchant to stop, and it is alloged that the latter hit the employee over the head, cutting his forehead above the eye and stunning him. It is also stated that the fruitman knocked the iceman over against the wheel of the ice-wagon, hurting his back. The iceman went at once to the police station and laid an information,

Another Conference Yesterday Over Demand for Increased Wage

BOTH SIDES ARE FIRM

Hopes of Avoiding a Strike.

Montreal, June 27. - Nothing achieved from the conference held today between the representatives of the Canadian Pacific and the trainmen, and tonight the situation is practically unchanged. It is possible that another conference will be held tomorrow, when Vice-President Mc-Nicoll, of the C. P. R., will return to the city, but whether this will result anything remains to be seen. Neither side seems at all inclined to give way at present, but there is a very strong feeling against some of the men's representatives against a strike. It is hoped that some way will yet be found by which a compromise may be effected. The men's representatives are to meet the representatives of the Grand Trunk tomorrow, and something may follow from this conference. At today's conference the Canadian Pacific was represented by Mr. Leonard, the general manager of eastern lines; Mr. A. D. McTier, assistant to the vice-president, and Mr. Murphy, the general superintendent. There were about 40 delegates representing the men, including Mr. Murdoch, the vice-president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen. and Mr. S. N. Berry, of the Conductors' Union. The conference was private, but from what could be gathered afterwards it appeared that the C. P. R. representatives firmly position already maintained the taken, which is that the company is agreeable to accepting the award of the conciliation board, although it thinks the wages allowed excessive, but will not concede one iota.

A FENCE STARTED THE GRAFT RUMORS

the Printing Bureau Trouble.

Ottawa, June 27.-Gossip has it that fence-a plain fence around a little bit of garden-was the means of laying made bare the alleged grafting in the printing department, and of making Frank Gouldthrite, superintendent of at the time in question receiving salary of about $2,100 a year, built a fence around his home at Rockcliffe. It was a plain fence but costly. Somebody, in passing, admired it. "Yes," said a member of the family,

"It cost $1,800." So the story was started. From mouth to mouth it went. Gouldthrite paid $1,800 for that fence. People looked up in the civil service list to see how much he was earning—$2,100. So gossip began. Flour For Families.

The gossip reached the ear of the Secretary of State. He watched, He without heard more gossip. For instance, he heard that a certain flour and lealer had become suddenly wealthy. Rumor had it that this gentleman had been delivering flour to members of the printing bureau staff, but which being paid for as material for paste" for the Government offices. Forthwith did Hon. Charles Murphy commence an inquisition. He went down to the printing bureau with a at this office until 4.00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 13, 1910, for the construc-Bible and a stenographer. He called and examined them. While he was at it a lorry drove up loaded with boxes. "What is in those boxes?" asked Hon, Charles. "Sealing wax."

"From what firm?" "From - -, of New York." "Take it back and in future-" this o the receiving clerk-"accept nothing from that firm." Three More Loads. "Yes," said the clerk, "but what the depot?" "Three loads more?" echoed Hon. charles, and he proceeded with greater interest with the work of inestigation. The question now arises as to whether or not Frank Gouldthrite can be extradited, if found in the United States. The point is whether or not the accepting of "a commission" is an extraditable offence. As it is, Col.

THRIFT IN THE OLD LAND.

Lord Rosebery has been descanting on the virtue of thrift, a favorite subfect with millionaires. In a letter to savings bank company, he said:

outlook for thrift; grinding taxation and a total disregard for economy in public affairs offer nothing but discouragement for thrift. Moreover, everything points to further bur dens, and nothing to any spirit of life, too, luxury and the passion for pleasure disdain thrift . Thrift is character, the basis sound pational, as well as of individual character. If we lose that corner-stone the imperial structure is in grave danger of unsettlement and if Scotland ceases to be thrifty she will have lost one of the main foundations on which the success of her sons has been built up.'

The reference to "grinding taxation" fling at the Lloyd George budget, which has levied on some of the luxuries of Lord Rosebery's class for public pur- deer. The present duke's intimidation poses. It is easier for Lord Rosebery of his tenants in the recent election to preach thrift than for many of shows an ancestral trait. his less fortunate fellow-countrymen to practice it. There is no evidence, either, that it is a disappearing virtue. as he pretends to imagine. A few days after his lordship's homily, the Regis- current. Such prices are calculated to trar of Friendly Societies issued his annual report, showing that at the end of the last financial year there were upwards of 50,000 savings banks, trade unions, and friendly societies in Great Britain, with an aggregate membership of 32 millions, and funds of £445,-$21.849, or about two and a quarter billions of dollars. The postoffice savings bank bulks largest in the return upwards of eleven million depositors having accounts totalling £181,277,199. Friendly societies claim the biggest membership - 13,837,902 - but their funds of nearly 571/2 millions are exceeded by a million by the 21/2 million co-operators, whilst 622,000 members of building societies can show nearly 74 millions. The trade unions, numbering 634, have just under two million members and funds just short of six

These are chiefly the savings of the poorer classes. The wealth of the wellto-do does not lie in small deposits in savings banks; it is mostly invested in bonds, stocks, land, or in some form of commercial and industrial enterprise. Probably if one turned up the dropping on people, as happened twice last week, there will be a strong movement for a system of covered ways like ploring the decline of thrift. The about imperial Rome without exposure to would find some Rosebery of the day that it is accumulating less slowly than at any former period, but there is plenty of proof that the British people are spending their money to better advantage. The steady diminution in the consumption of strong drink is one of the signs.

The necessity of taking a human life, however terrible may is necessary to carry on the great of the word "one" as a pronoun. It takes for which it is demanded in expiation, engineering work on the isthmus, a word juggler to attempt it and get is a tragedy, a very real and personal town and county. McLachlan meanwhile in his cell spends his nights in half-wakeful maginings. His little girl is with him a great deal in his thoughts. In his dreams he still plays the old favorite game of tag on their little lawn at the old home in Uxbridge, and often in the still hours of the early morning, the death watch will hear him periodical fits of morality"; but Macaulay call to Monta to catch him, or come had never seen the United States of this way to find him.

Mr. Tight. former, who is the Presbyterian pastor, has been attending McLachlan since his conviction, while Rev. Mr. Tight, the Baptist minister, has been with him recently. He first came when Mr. Abraham was away to the Halifax Conference, but Mc-Lachlan took such a liking to him that he has continued visiting him every day. The prisoner is not, however, resigned to his fate. He eats well, and usually has for breakfast two poached eggs, toast and coffee; for dinner, soup, bread and butter and tea; and in the evening one poached €gg, toast and tea

Uses a Safety Razor. He retires for the evening at eight o'clock, and rises at six. He takes the same interest in his personal appearance as previous to his conviction, and shaves regularly on Saturday, Monday and Thursday, He shaves himself with a safety razor in the presence of both the turnkey, Frank Bryans, and the death watch. Saturday is also his general day for housecleaning. He will go through his cell thoroughly and see that everything is in its place. Not that this takes him a long time, however. The cell he occupies is a double one, and is about eight feee square. It contains only cot, but over in one corner McLachlan partitioned off with rags a place some religious magazines while unmistakably plain and uncompromising- in the other corner his wardrobe is collar and tie, while he always carefully folds up his trousers and places them underneath his cot. Hot Weather Affects Health. The confinement and warm weather are telling greatly upon his health and nerves. With my impression of Jeffries boxing so fresh in mind, it was interesting to have a look at Johnson only a short time afterwards. The two men are entirely differ-

Johnson has none of the pretty style of Jeffries. In fact, he looks very slow. He is constantly flat-footed on both feet. He makes no unnecessary movement at all. Johnson's eye is good; his judgmen of distance is absolutely the best and he is a marksman with his punches.

Always on Defensive.

Never carrying the battle, always on defence, he will undoubtedly try to make an extended fight of it, relying on his defence to save him from pnishment, and his youth and vitality to enable him to last longer than his older rival.

They say that he loses heart when he gets in the ring. It may be so, but there is nothing in the way he goes at Kaufman to indicate it. He has one bad fault, however, when in the ring. He is too prone in a clinch to look around the audience to see if they are admiring him. JACK SHERIDAN IS NO LONGER UMPIRE

Oldest Baseball Official Has Called "Batter" Out for Last Time,

Washington, June 27-John F. Sheridan, of the American League, for 30 years a professional baseball umpire, packed his baggage here today and half an hour before the time for the first game between Washington and New York surprised Umpire Egan with the announcement that he shouted "batter out" for the last time. WILL DICKERSON STOP THE FIGHT?

Some Anxiety at Reno Over Governor's Visit There Today.

CANADIAN CASH FOR BOUT

Twenty-five Thousand Dollars Sent From Winnipeg to be Placed-The Betting.

[Associated Press.] Reno, June 28.—Reno today is await-ng the arrival of Governor Dickerson who, it is understood, is returning to Carson City from Ely and intends to make a brief stop here. Just what would be the governor's purpose in coming to this city has not been stated, but in view of his numerous denials that he would interfere in any way with the fight no one admits the be-lief that it would be connected with the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Intervention Rumors.

The news received here, however, of the circulation in Chicago of another rumor that the fight would be called off lends added interest to the expected visit of the chief executive of the state. Promoter Tex Rickard is keenly anxious to see him, and is prepar-ing to meet him at the train. Rickard and Dickerson are said to be old friends, and though the promoter read a telegram directly from the governor from Ely, giving positive assurances that he would not try to prevent the fight, Rickard wants to hear from the governor's own lips that the constantly revived reports of intervention without foundation.

Work on Arena. Rapid headway is being made on the arena. A force of 175 men are working ten hours a day to have it com-pleted by next Friday, and so marked was the progress yesterday that the contractors said it would be possible to finish the job Thursday night. The plans call for a seating capacity of about 17,000, but according to Rickard, heavy orders for tickets in the east have pointed to the possibility of a much larger attendance than was first expected, and it may be necessary to enlarge the structure. To prepare for such an emergency lumber will be hauled and held in readiness. If necessary another platform will be placed behind the rear top seats providing standing room for about 4.000 people, thus bringing the complete capacity of the arena up to 20,000. It is expected that more than 400,000 feet of lumber and five tons of nails must be put into the building before it is ready for use. The Washoe County grand jury, which is supervising the work, is overlooking no precaution for the safety of spectators.

One of the biggest single orders for tickets yet received is from representatives of three towns in the northwestern part of the state, whose com bined population figures only 2,000, and who want 1.708 seats. Thus far the greatest demand has been for the higher-priced reservation.

Can't you just hear Jeffries, Johnson, Rickard, et al., murmuring:

love a prize fight, but, oh, you moving pictures!" For it is upon the harvesting quality of the pictures that the fighters and promoters count on making the real big money. Given a good day and a good fight, the way the public will eat up those fight pictures is sinful. G. L. "Tex" Rickard talks of hundreds of thousands as glibly as most men do about their weekly envelope and its contents. He says: "Oh, I reckon we ought to make half a million or better off the pictures," without batting an eye. Calculating upon this big return, it is no wonder Rickard and Jack Gleason could offer $101,000 and 66 per cent of the picture money to the scrappers. Rickard and Gleason's third, if the pictures bring the sum expected, will be better than $167,666, while there is reason to believe the European rights are figured too cheaply, so the chances are the pictures will be worth near $750,000.

Rickard plans to make 25 sets of films. These, according to his dope, will lease for $1,200 a week each for twelve weeks. Then he plans to lease twelve films for $300 a week. When interest wanes, films of only the best rounds will be made, and rented to vaudeville shows.

Like a lot of shrewd men, Rickard figures that if Jeffries wins the pictures will be worth a lot more cash, and he bases the figures given here upon Johnson winning, because he sayse he tries to figure safe, so that $500,-000 is his lowest estimate of the moneymaking value of the films

FIVE-CENT STANDARD LOAF IN LONDON

Is Said Local Bakers Will Give Larger Loaf for Same Money.

MATTERS UNSETTLED

It is Likely That Time Only Will Clear the Situation-Flour Goes Down in Price.

Local bakers are preparing to supply a 5-cent standard loaf after July 1. They say that owing to the decrease cost of flour they can do this now, and not suffer the loss that they would had have they had to buy flour at the prices that prevailed a short time

Some bakers were in favor of sticking out for 6 cents, at a meeting held a short time ago, but others pointed out that they would never get it, as people would refuse to pay the extra cent. The demand, according to the majority of local bakers, is for a 5-

A Five-Cent Loaf. "We are going to work along as best we can," said one baker. "We are getting in the new pans for the new-sized loaves, and will sell a 5-cent loaf." Until a few days ago there was a general opinion among the bakers that the increase in the size of the loaf would result in a raise in the selling price from 5 to 6 cents. Latterly, however, there has developed a feeling among a number that this would be unpopular, and it is said that many have determined that they will leave the price where it is. This puts the rest in doubt. They say that they cannot afford to give the extra weight, 25 or 50 per cent, as the case may be, and still maintain the quality of the "fancy bread" if the price is not increased. Some of the bakers intend to keep the old price by lower ing the quality to that of the "plain" bread without any shortening, as is done in Toronto. Others declare that their customers do not want the plain Larger Loaf, Same Price. The present indications are the the majority will go in for a time selling the larger loaf at the present price of cents until the loss to the smaller manufacturers is so serious that there will be a serious agreement to raise the price. This, at least, is the opinion of several who were interviewed. Of course, if the flour market continues to drop 40 or 50 cents more, bread would remain as it is and the trouble would be averted.

At any rate, the 16 and the 20 ounce loaf will disappear after the 1st of July, except where the baker has a contract wit hrestaurants and other wholesale customers, where the bread is not intended for sale. Then the bread may be of any size.

But how times change! Businesses which the newspaper publishers themselves scarcely considered as advertising possibilities are today using newspaper space with telling effect.

The present immigration movement to Canada is due in no small degree to a wise use of printer's ink. Public service corporations, such as electric light and gas companies, street railways, etc., are developing business through newspaper publicity.

> London, June 27 .- The Duke of Connaught, who has just been elected unanimously to be master of Trinity House in place of his nephew, King George, and who is to open the Federated Parliament of South Africa, has provided plenty of material for the anecdotist. Here is one which shows how the duke, like his brother, the late King Edward, and the present snobbery.

The duke was conducting army manoeuvres on the east coast, and some 50 or 60 newspaper correspondents from London were instructed by their respective editors to attend the proceedings, and not to lose sight of the royal commander. Toward evening the party reached a small village and the rumor went round that the duke intended to bled correspondents, meaning that fifty men would be obliged to put up with hopelessly inadequate accommoda-

N THURSDAY, June 16, we inaugurated the biggest event that has ever taken place in the Piano trade. Incidentally the Williams Piano Company, Limited, are celebrating the 61st anniversary in the Piano business in this country, the business having been established in 1849. In other words, the big Williams Club with its 200 members participating in the big purchase, is intended to really celebrate our 61st anniversary and opening of our beautiful new London warerooms, in a business way, and to im-

The Deal and the Piano

The deal is a straight out purchase of 200 pianos. The instruments are of a most reliable and trustworthy character-A GOOD, SUBSTANTIAL PIANO, in which the real value is put on the INSIDE, rather than in fancy cases with a whole lot of "Jim Cracks" on them. We have known the piano for years. We know it to be as reliable a piano as was ever put in a home. It is made by good, sturdy Canadian labor in one of the best manufactories in the world, by men, many of whom have been working in the same shop for twenty or twenty-five years.

The Value of Each of These Pianos is $350

Hundreds of these same instruments have been sold right here in Ontario at $350. Hundreds more are being sold every month all over the Dominion of Canada at $350. THEY ARE WORTH $350. Measured by any standard of value you wish, they are worth $350. They are worth it on our floors, or on the floors of any reputable piano dealer in the country. The Williams Club price is $257.50. The price includes everything. There are NO EXTRAS of any kind. No interest to be added. Nothing to be added for drayage, freight, stool-ABSOLUTELY NO EXTRAS. Two hundred and fifty-seven dollars and fifty cents is the price, and the price INCLUDES EVERYTHING.

lliams Club Terms

These 200 pianos will be sold, $5.00 cash, then $1.25 a week. The $5.00 just about covers the cartage and delivering—yet the $5.00 payment made when you join the club is credited to your account.

The piano is delivered immediately. You do not have to wait until the club is filled. You get your piano when you join. The remainder is payable every week. Club members do not have to pay more than $1.25 a week if they wish. This gives them 202 weeks in which to pay for the piano, and still get it at the club price of $257.50.

The Club Price of $257.50 Can Be Lessened

We said above that $257.50 includes everything. SO IT DOES. Though it includes everything—YET CAN THE PRICE BE REDUCED.

The Club Member's Agreement has 202 coupons attached to it—in book form. A coupon represents a week. Two hundred and two coupons represents 202 weeks, or the life of the agreement. Every time a payment is made, one of these coupons is stamped "Paid." If payments are made IN ADVANCE—that is BEFORE THEY ARE DUE, A REBATE OF 15c for each and every week is handed over to the Club

You can therefore see that the price ($257.50) can be reduced just as many TIMES FIFTEEN CENTS AS YOU WILL PAY weekly payments IN ADVANCE, or before they are due.

Special Advantages of the Williams Club

Every instrument is guaranteed without reserve—for five years. There are no "ifs" or "ands" in the guarantee—just a straight-out guarantee as strong as we know how to make it in writing.

Every Club Member has a full year in which to satisfy himself as to the character of the piano. If it does not prove to be everything that he expects, he has the privilege of exchanging it without ONE PENNY'S LOSS for any other instrument of equal or greater value that we sell-(and we sell over five different representative makes).

If a Club Member dies during the life of his contract we immediately send a RECEIPT IN FULL to his family for the instrument.

A beautiful stool to match the piano is included without extra cost.

The piano will be tuned TWICE WITHOUT CHARGE. Club members have an opportunity to still further reduce the cost of their piano by procuring other Club Members.

Membership Books in the Williams Club Are Now Open

The Club books are NOW OPEN. In other words, you can join at once. THE PIANOS ARE ON DISPLAY IN OUR WAREROOMS, where you can see and hear them. You are cordially invited. The Pianos will be delivered immediately upon your becoming a member and making the initial payment of $5.00. During the first week of the Club's life we hope to give everyone their choice of two styles of cases, and show each style in two woods, Mahogany and Walnut.

Week

The retail value of these 200 Pianos is $70,000. They will sell for $51,500. The minimum saving to the club is $18,500.

It will take 14 solid carloads to deliver this order—or one solid trainload.

The freight will amount to about $800, or approximately

The Club is given a grand total of 12,200 weeks or 240 years longer in which to pay for their instruments than if each member was to buy independently upon usual terms.

The saving to each Club Member-$92.50-will pay for the musical education of one child for two years and five months at 75c a lesson.

He has been waiting for it for the last three years, and the stories of imperial poverty on $3,000,000 a year are common knowledge in Germany. In recent years stern economy has been practiced in the Emperor's household Offered Castles For Sale.

The climax was reached two years ago, when the emperor decided to offer five of his castles for sale. By this means he hoped to avoid having to beg for a raise, but German opinion rioted against their emperor putting up the splendid castles of Germany for auction. The main reason for the Kaiser's inability to live within his means are his unparalleled generosity his love of art and the endowment of it, and his desire, when travelling, to uphold the dignity of the German Em pire. The national mourning put tended. This plan was given up. The a positive stop to Mr. Frohman's Emperor was too poor to pay for it. praiseworthy enterprise. It would have so in spite of the Kaiser's business longer than he did. He is not discouraged, however, and announces that he will start the Repertory Theatre York's after "Peter Pan" has had its annual fling. "The London critics laughed heartly at my play 'Misalliance,' yet the next morning they informed the public they had suffered the weariest roof these prices will not come your agonies of boredom, simply because It is his love of all that pertains to that is the customary thing to write about such plays. They write it just as they wear two-inch collars. As to noticing their own sensations or forming an independent opinion, they are too shy, too sheepish, to do anything of the sort."

"If your play was really a good on why did Mr. Frohman withdraw it after a few performances?" I asked. "Nobody can reasonably ask him to undertake a campaign for the education of the public and the living down of the wild vituperation of the press When he found what he was against he had to drop the play like a hot potato. The catastrophe was a perfectly friendly one. I foretold it. I urged Mr. Frohman to look into figures of past enterprises. You might as well offer figures to Don Quixote. American buoyancy is proof against figures. What an American wants is adventure with huge risks and wild possibilities, not the sober, modest certainties of classic art. Well, he did his best, but he was knocked out in a week.'

Will Continue Scheme. "But he is going on with the scheme next year?" "Yes, with the most popular play wrights. If the plays are successful they will have to be played simultaneously at different theatres. The scheme is impossible, only Mr. Frohman does not know when he is beaten. "Are you out of play production, then?

"No, Mr. Barker, and I will presently break out in a new place. London and its press may kick against the pricks as hard as they like, but they have got to come along." "Why do you call your plays conversations?"

"To find out if the London critics could tell the difference between a farce and a comedy unless the authors told them. I found they couldn't. 'Misalliance' was an example of pure comedy. The poor critics went along bleating that it was not a play, only a conversation. They really are blazing duffers. They walk into my traps every time.'

Miss Marie Lohr has already made an enviable reputation as an actress of dainty and sweet girl parts. She is soon to be premoted a step higher and become a star. Mr. Charles Frohman has signed a contract with her to come under his banner, and be a fledged star when the run of "Tantalizing Tommy" is finished and her engagement with Mr. Maude ends.

STRAWBERRIES WERE PLENTIFUL

Oats Are Scarce.

Some of the dealers are rather hard ressed for a supply of oats. The farmers are busy in the fields and are bringing n very little. Only two loads went off this morning. The dealers were very keen for these, and bid up to fancy figures, which, however, are far above the regular quotations. The loads sold for $1.25 and $1.29 per cwt. There was a fair quantity of green peas offered for sale by the market gardeners. These sold for 25c per quart retail, and 20c wholesale. New beets are still rather high, at 5c a bunch and 40c to 50c a dozen.

Some new cabbages, although rather small, brought 5c each. The only thing brought in by the butchers this morning was in the dressed pork line. A few loads were brought in and [Special to The Advertiser.] Detroit. June 28. - F. S. Gouldthrite, alleged to have grafted a large sum from the Dominion Government, is elieved to have jumped from the steamer Eastern States en route from Buffalo to Detroit. Despite a suicide note and some loody clothes found, however, it may e aplan to cover his flight from here.

When the steamer docked at Detroit this morning a straw hat was found at the stern with this writing inside:

"Look for ody in river near Detroit. Letters in inside overcoat pocket. Send letter to wife .- F. Gouldthrite." He had registered as J. Noa, and in the state room was found an overcoat and suitcase. Letters in the overcoat were addressed to wife and daughter. In the suitcase was a bloody shirt and collar. Gouldthrite was last seen at her parents' custody without their 11 last night, when he inquired for stamps to post a letter. Unable to obtain them he retired. If Gouldthrite was discharged. A Suggestion to the Churches. To the Editor of The Advertiser: Might I be permitted to suggest to the Ministerial Association that, instead of complaining about the citizens of London going to Port Stanley on Sunday to get the fresh air from Lake Erie, they seize the opportunity of reaching hundreds of people who never attend church when in London by erecting a tent on the heights next the Fraser House, capable of seating from 1,000 to 1,200 people, and hold divine service there two or three times every Sunday?

The cost of the tent and fitting it up could be borne by all the churches, and the Church of England Presbyterian and Methodist Churche could each take Sunday about to hold these services.

I am sure this would be a great boon, not only to the cottagers, but would also draw many people that seldom or ever go to church in the ho

The running of excursion boats should not be permitted on Sunday, and the utmost vigilance taken to see that the hotels sold no liquor.

I understand this outdoor service is great success along the seaside places in New York. Yours very truly,

STRAWBERRY DAY ON LOCAL MARKET

Largest Quantity of the Year at Prices Ranging From 8 to 10 Cents.

This morning was a big day for strawberries on the local market. Speaking to The Advertiser, a local dealer said: "I don't think there will, again be such a large quantity nor will the price be as cheap."

The reason for this morning's big supply was evident. There was all aturday's and Sunday's picking, and dozens of crates were offered at the reasonable figure of 8c to 10c a box. If a good-sized shower should materialize now, the growers predict that the season would be considerably lengthened and the supply augmented. With the present warm spell, how-ever, which has continued since the Capt. 19th of June, the outlook for the crop is rather gloomy.

At its best the crop is not very large this year, cold weather at a critical stage having killed off many of the The small supply of fruit is somewhat made up for by the excel-lent quality of berries offered for sale. The large, red, luscious kind sold for 10c a box, while berries of very slightly inferior quality retailed at 8c a box
