Forbes Lindsay, Noted Writer, Claims Auto-Suggestion Turns Time Back Fifty Years.

STAYING IN LONDON

Has Long Believed in Power of Doctrine To Build and Interesting sidelights on Coueism projected by one who is probably the most authoritative exponent of the science, with the exception of Coue himself, in America, were given to The Advertiser today in an interview with Forbes Lindsay, noted writer and psychologist, who is staying in the city.

Mr Lindsay is the author of morthan thirty books, an eminent traveler, and particularly distinguished for his largely-circulated dissertations, such as "The Psychology of Success." "The Elements of Salesmanship," and other compendiums on various branches of playchology. He believes Coue is doing an the benefits of auto-suggestion is unbounded. To demonstrate that he is not merely a satellite of Coue, but that he believed, preached and practiced auto-suggestion long before Coue was heard of, he produced a number of books on the subject written by himself many years ago.

Witch Doctors Cured.

"The gospel of the witch doctor of savage tribes is laughed to scorn by the present so-called civilized man," said Mr. Lindsay; "but there is no doubt that the old-time witch doctor wrought marvelous cures, not by the employ-ment of medicine, but by auto-suggestion. He would tell his patients they were getting well, and by the sheer He would tell his strength of his own personality would convince them that they actually getting better. Thus much sickness vas cured through the unconscious use of auto-suggestion.

"Fifteen years ago my elbows were worn out. I was down and very much out. I acquired the idea of autosuggestion by mere accident, and con-vinced myself that everything is possible if man will only believe in himself. Proof of the efficacy of that theory is borne out in my own experience. I am 64 years of age and only look 50. I married four years ago and have two of the finest children. In 1908 I was about 70 years of age, computing age as I judge it. Today I am about 35 years of age. What is responsible for this change? Only the application of Fire Almost Destroys Property To Be Sold by School Trustees.

A small real estate transfer from the board of education to Hyatt Bros., local builders, was almost terminated when fire broke out in an old barn on the Trafalgar and Oliver street property at 3:22 yesterday afternoon. The blaze was, however, extinguished before any damage had been done. The barn was insured.

A coincidence lies in the fact that the board of education only last week hotel. The cause of the fire has not authorized the sale of the barn to the Hyatt firm for the sum of $100 to be used for the housing of construction material while building operations are under way on the new public

Secretary W. A. Tanner informed the Advertiser this morning that the property would be legally trans-ferred without further delay. He in-sisted, however, that the board of education would have broken even, had the fire destroyed the structure, as adequate insurance had been car-by the secretary-treasurer, George F. Janew, showed a gratifying surplus.

In an able review of the work of the year, President S. A. Gibson called attention to the advancement made. There has been a material increase in the attendance on fair days, while the new grandstand has been a factor in adding to the so-ciety's revenue. He referred to the splendid exhibits of horses, and mentioned that it would not doubt be advisable to discuss with business-

ONTARIO PLAN BEST

Scheme to Import Boys to Farms in Province Highly Praised.

By HENRY SOMERVILLE. Special Cable to The Advertiser. London, Jan. 22.-The Canadian public hardly appreciates the keenness of interest on this side in Canada's immigration policy. There is surprise and wonder at Canada delaying so long in taking advantage of the overseas settlement act after Australia and New Zealand had negotiated schemes and prosecuted most aggressive propaganda to get British immigrants. The first Canadian movement has been made not by the federal authorities, but by Ontario Cables reached London newspapers Thursday night from Canada an-nouncing that the Ontario government had completed schemes placing British boys on Ontario under a novel scheme of scattered reception homes. London papers immediately despatched reporters to get details from Agent-General Noxon and tried to interview him Thursdey night of a public her and the combined to the public her and the combined to him Thursday night at a public ban-quet in Sheffield, where Mr. Noxon

This will cost the British government another £80,000. The third agreement covers immigration of boys between fourteen and sixteen years of age, who will first go to reception stations in different parts of Ontario, each station under a skilled superintendent. The boys will then be placed on farms, but they will keep in touch with the reception station as with a second home, and the superintendent will watch their interests. The ultimate

If your blood-vessels become thick-ened and hard, if your heart overworks or if it flags in its action, you are old. If your blood-pressure is much too high, or much too low, your body will deteriorate.

It stands to reason that to stay young you must have pure blood, free from the taint of disease. You cannot carouse, take every chance of infection and be indifferent to physical consequence, without paying the stay of the consequence, without paying the of the high-powered rum-running boats, and is making the best of a very limited shore leave.

He cleared up some of the mystery surrounding the operations of the wholesalers who bring the "stuff"—for that is the name it is best known by—to the points off the shore where the residents can get it to sell. He has been off New York City on several occasions in the last six months, but this was the first time he had been able to come ashore.

Keen Ready Wit.

Keep Ready Wit. "Topping" is his way of describing the profession of rum-running. "But you have to keep your skypiece busy," he continued, "because if you get just a few yards inside of the legal limit and the revenue boats can get you, it is all off. That and being seasick through tossing on the waves off Sandy Hook is one of our troubles. Most of the runners are English and French. The boats, of course, all carry regular papers, being under foreign registry. A few of the cus-tomers, I mean the fellows who come out in motorboats to get the stuff, are a bit rough. There are a few I would hate to meet after dark, but lot of them are very decent chaps ndeed, well educated and all that,

Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 22.-The crown so far has been playing a sort of indirect game in the preliminary charging of George Armstrong, postmaster, and former mayor of Edmon ton, held on a charge of stealing $50,000 from the mails in 1919. COAL OWNERS PROFIT
BY RUHR OCCUPATION

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Jan. 22.—Whatever the political outcome of the Ruhr occupation, British coal owners expect to profit by the situation. German inquiries for coal have made the British and Welsh coal fields active and prices have already hardened. It is stated, however, that there will be some delay in filling any orders for Germany because the British exporters stipulate that payment must be deposited in sterling with London or Dutch banks.

The first part of the program consisted of a cora ert, the talent being practically all employees of the firm. While the numbers were all good and interesting, perhaps the selections by the new orchestra, which has lately been organized, deserves special mention. Two solos were given by John Stephenson. While this was his first effort as a soloist, the range and quality of his voice was very much admired.

King Government Looks With Anxiety on March of France on Ruhr-Will Sow Seed of Trouble and Make Disarmament But Idle Dream.

LEAGUE CAN PROVE ITS EFFICIENCY

It is naturally difficult to expect France, once that she has Germany by the throat to let her go, but there is general agreement, except in some pure blind circles, that her latest action, if it does not produce immediate disaster, will sow the seed of gigantic troubles, which will make peace and disarmament an idle dream

for many years to come.

The French are apparently oblivious to these possibilities, but there looms up before sane British minds the spectre of a ruined and desperate Germany turning to Russia for suc-cor, and the whole vast region between the Rhine and the Urals a mass of revengeful anarchy. It is a spectre which bodes ill for the future of Britain, and Mr. Law has spared no effort to bring France to reason. But domestic political considera-tions drive Poincare on his rash course, and the clear-cut disapproval, both of British and American opinion, has no effect upon him or his as-sociates. With things at this des-perate pass, saner minds are looking round for some remedy. Point of Difference.

One of the real points of differ-ence between the British and French concerns the interpretation of the fol-lowing article of the treaty of Ver-

"The measures which the Allied and associated powers shall have the right to take in case of voluntary lefault by Germany, and which Gerwar, may include economic and financial prohibitions and reprisals, and in general such other measures ARE KING'S TABLE NAPKINS ircumstances.'

The British take the view that the of default should be by joint action of the Allies and not by the separate act of an individual power; but the French argue that the wording of the treaty gives any ally the power to act independently of the others. Clearly, if, as the British claim, the words contemplate only joint action, then the occupation of the Ruhr is the occupation of the Ruhr is an act of war, and as such is a breach and full of complications.

of the covenant of the League of Permanent Court.

There is a growing body of opinion in Britain which thinks that the Law government should have insisted on the permanent court of international justice, which both Britain and press purpose of interpreting treaties and adjudication of doubtful points

The French themselves have al-ready invoked the court to interpret contain clauses in the Lahor section. certain clauses in the Labor section of the treaty. To this suggestion the reply is made that the French would certainly reject any plan of reference to the international count of justice, whereupon the critics of French policy declare that in face of such a contingency Britain has a friendly right, if not a moral duty, to invoke the council of the league un der the terms of Article I. They argue that the commission of an act of doubtful validity, and which, if invalid constitutes an act of war, is an international episode which world "or the good understanding between nations on which peace de-pends." Article II provides that cir-

PRIMITION INTO THE Conservative Candidate Predicts Coal Operators Grant First Concession to Those Seeking Strike Settlement. Special to The Advertiser Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 22.-Edmor ton coal operators granted their first concession to those seeking to find a settlement of the strike in this field when they gave permission for two members of the committee named by the Alberta Federation of Labor to examine payrolls in all the local mines for the past three months.

J. Rae and W. H. Potter, both of Calgary, will carry out this investi-gation, the purpose of which is to see if a majority of the men now at work in the mines were employed prior to the calling of the strike. The striking miners have claimed that a majority of all men working in the Edmonton field walked out during the first week in December.

The operators denied this, declarir that new men taken on since the strike started form but a minority of their present employees. O.H.A. Winners To Bob Up This Week: Mackey Signs As Manager: Ottawa and Canadiens Win

THIS WEEK'S O.H.A. BILL WILL SHAKE OUT GROUP WINNERS

Local Teams Have Busy Week—Intermediates Play Twice Away—Juniors Can Cinch Group With Two Wins.

RACE RESULTS AND ENTRIES

This week's O. H. A. games will tighten up the races being staged in every group, and what happens will practically cinch group homors for most of the teams.

The local teams by the work this week can either prolong the affair or cut it right off short. The intermediates have two games away, tonight at Till-sonburg and at St. Thomas on Friday night, St. Thomas plays at Woodstock tonight, but the Saints would have to take all their remaining games, the last one of the group being Woodstock here a week from tonight, for the locals to win out. Tilisonburg might have an other coupie of wins in their system such as they threw off Friday night, when they unexpectedly ran the neat St. Thomas crew ragged, and therefore, London might lose there tonight, thus practically handing the group honors to Wode's Woodstock crew on a platter. The juniors go to Ingersoll tonight, and the lingersoll team come back here friday. Two wins gives London the group without any argument; a splitties the whole thing up in a three-connered affair, as when St. Thomas croped out Glencoe, fortunately, hadn't played the about-to-be defaulters, and the straight with the honors practically hadn't to give a redit for two wins.

The Londoners should, on the form they displayed against Chencoe Friday might, come back from their journey tonight with the honors practically hadn't played away, but they are juniors after all, and the youngsters are apt to be a little inconsistent once in a while.

The rest with a stational content of the rest of the same evening.

Other group races are not threatening any big upsets. Listowel and tucked away, but they are juniors after all, and the youngsters are apt to be a little inconsistent once in a while.

Local Girls Have Big Chance To Cinch LEE MACKEY SIGNED AS St. Thomas Girls Group With St. Thomas Here Tonight

The complexion of the local girls' hockey situation will be cleared up to-night—or become still muddier—when the local ice beauties and the Floradora sextet from St. Thomas "sisterize" for the third time this season. At present London girls are two up on St. Thomas, and it will be three up and no more to go if they win again tonight, as they confidently hope to.

The local girls hope to make a sort of party of the affair, but of course there's a big chance that the girls from the striving city to the south might be uncouth enough to go and spoil it.

It's' the third game, but only the second chance for London fans to see what Mack Sennett might have done if a snowstorm had ever struck California with the difference, of course, that the girls of these learns make a much better fist of hockey than Mack's string could ever hope for.

St. Thomas girls since their second defact, are more gently insistent than ever that tonight's affair must be won and they might just do the trick. In the first game, only one goal separated the two teams; in the last one, London won 2 to 0, more goals than ordinary politements of party of the affair, but of course there's a big chance that the girls from the striving city to the south might be uncouth enough to go and spoil it.

Woodstock, Jan. 21.—Much interest is being manifested in the O. H. A. intermediate game here on Monday night when the St. Thomas crew play here. A win for the locals will practically mean the district, while if the Saints can put over a win it will put them back in the running, from which they were deposed Friday night by their unexpected defeat at Thisonburg. The junior management will run a special trein to Kitchener on Wednesday night, when the locals meet the Kitchener juniors. A win for Woodstock will give the Red and White the district, while a victory for the Kitchener crew will tie it up. The "Wossa" hockey league will be got under way on Tuesday afternoon next, when Stratford Collegiate play the College here. A fast game is expected, as both teams have a number of O. H. Defeat C.C.I.31-10

St. Thomas girls smothered the London girls in a "Wosso" fixture by a score of 31—10, at the L. C. I. sym Saturday night. The Kelpies beat the Kudus in a City League game 12—5 and the London C. C. I. juveniles lost to a picked team 20—19.

St. Thomas girls put one over on the London girls when they defeated them 31—10 in a one-sided game. E. Black kept the London crew guessing whon she scored 22 of the visiting girls points. M. Hayden, M. Drew and M. Bowle were the best for London, while E. Black, M. Moody and M. Bean were the best for St. Thomas. This game was played with new girls' rules, calling for six on the floor at one time. The London girls got lost in the crowd.

The lineups:

St. Thomas—M. Bean (3), E. Black (22), M. Moody (6), R. Wardle, M. Turner, F. Stockman, G. Tanner, R. Adams. London—M. Hayden, M. Wilson, M. Drew, M. Bowle, H. Rowat, B. Dickinson, F. Talbot, A. Bolton.

The Kelpies and Kudus played a fast game, with the former team winning 13—5. For the Kudus, M. Colbert and M. O'Dell were the best, while M. Pegler and D. Thorne were the best for the winners.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Jan. 21.—Ottawa retained its lead in the National Hockey League race here Saturday night, defeating Hamilton by a score of 2 to 0. It was one of the most strenuous games seen here in years and at times threatened to get beyond control, so great was the feeling injected. On the rin of the play Ottawas deserved their win, but the issue was in doubt right to the end, the Hamilton team making several desperate rushes.

Gibbons' Defi Is Thrown Out

Canadian Press Despatch.

New York, Jan. 21.—The New York match sought by Tom Gibbons. St. Paul boxer, with Jack Dempsey, has been thrown into the discard by William Muldoon, chairman of the New York Athletic Commission. Gibbons' "challenge," which was accompanied by a $2,500 certified check, has been declined, Muldoon, said, because Gibbons is too small for Dempsey, and he thinks he can find enough to keep him busy in the light heavyweight class.

"A match between Dempsey and Gibbons would be merely a repetition of the affair between Dempsey and Carpentier." Muldoon said.

Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, has been notified to call for the certified check.

BILLY SHADE IS TO MEET GREB 12 ROUNDS TONIGHT

Special to The Advertiser.

New York, Jan. 21.—Billy Shade, the California light heavyweight, will try to remain on his feet through twelve rounds of a fight with Harry Greb, American light heavyweight champion, in Jersey City Monday night. Greb is believed to have lost some of the fire which carried him along at which believed to have lost some of the fire which carried him along at such a furious pace a year ago, but still retains spark enough to win with ease from the lesser battlers of the division. Now that the New York commission has ruled that Tommy Gibbons is too light to be permitted to fight Jack Dempsey, Gibbons probably will be sent in pursuit of Greb for a return match. Greb whipped him a year ago. The disqualification of Gibbons from chance at the heavyweight title will revive interest in Georges Carpentier and also in Battling Siki, if there remains any profitable locality in which the latter is permitted to wear the gloves for professional purposes.

MARKET UNAFFECTED BY EUROPEAN CRISIS

Wall Street Retains Confidence in Spite of French Occupation.

HOME DEMAND RULES

Steel Production Increases and Prices Display Tendency To Rise.

By STUART P. WEST Special Correspondent of The Advertiser.

Copyright. New York, Jan. 20. - The home security market has effectually demonstrated this week that domestic business conditions are the supreme consideration, and that even the serious possibilities suggested by the French ccupation of the Ruhr are a matter of secondary importance. The purely technical explanation for the steadi-ness of the stock market—that is, the essional mind—is that there had been G no chance during the upward move- G of December, to distribute stock on a arge scale.

There is, however, the broader view of the situation—that it must be proved that the European troubles might executed that the European troubles conditions before these become a major factor in the price movement. Wall Street has been expressing its judgfactor in the price movement. Wall Street has been expressing its judgment that the worst that may happen to Germany, or even the complete failure of the French effort to collect reparations, will not impair the favorable outlook for trade in this country. The London security market and the course of sterling exchange have shown that Great Britain feels the same confidence in its position, regardless of developments on the conditions.

Business Recovery Rests on Home

Business Recovery Rests on Home Demand.

The one way in which a breakdown in Germany and France could possibly affect our situation would be through curtailing the demand for American goods. But, as has been pointed out repeatedly, our business conditions for the past year and a half have accommodated themselves to a minimum export movement. The recovery of the past twelve months has rested almost entirely upon the home covery of the past twelve months has rested almost entirely upon the home demand. A decided insrease, to be sure has occurred during the last few months in the export totals, mainly due to larger purchases by South America and the Far East, but we have probably seen European buying power at the lowest it can conceivably be, and American business has adjusted itself to this condition.

Both these factors may quite easily reoccur in the situation this year. As yet there are no signs that the supply of new capital issues has overtaken the demand. On the contrary, nothing in the whole experience of bond issues during the last twenty years has been more remarkable than the outcome of the Anaconda Copper financing, where, with a combined issues of $150,000,000, the larger subscribers received only 20 per cent of what they had applied for.

What this has meant for the companies was strikingly disclosed by the statement of the Republic Iron and Steel chairman this week. He said that after two years of continuous loss the earnings of his company during the last quarter of 1922 were sufficient to cover preferred dividends twice over. Favorable Retail Buying.

In other directions the trade reports are equally cheerful. December was the largest month on record for retail sales and for building activity. It also was the largest December ever known in railway car loadings, which are the most reliable measures of the general volume of trade. Under these circumstances the strength displayed in Well volume of trade. Under these circumstances the strength displayed in Wall Street, despite the disturbing news from abroad, is intelligible enough. The one danger of the present situation in the market is that speculation will overdue things, will go beyond the facts of the business situation, as it did last spring and again in midsummer. As yet, however, the customary signs of excess have not appeared.

DEMAND FOR RAW COTTON SENDS PRICES UPWARD

Special to The Advertiser.

New York, Jan. 21.—One of the most significant developments of the week has been the fact that raw cotton has gone over the 28c price level. Based upon the world's statistical position, cotton must go still higher, for there is a wide discrepancy between demand and actual supply. The new crop is nine or ten months away, and with it will come an entirely new demand, so that if the price has risen to 28c this early, it foreshadows a situation which, to say the least, contains possibilities. If there should be any change for the better in the European situation which will permit some new credits to be established for the purchase of American cotton by countries which in preward movement for prices would be pronounced. If the worst should happen and war should be renewed in Europe, it could have only a temporary effect upon cotton prices, but, on the contrary, it would increase the demand for war purposes. There is no reason, therefore, to anticipate a collapse in prices below present levels more than temporarly from any cause whatever.

In connection with the eggs which have been brought in from British Columbia, the cost of transportation is about 10c per dozen, including freight and other charges. With prices at country points in British Columbia ranging from 28c to 30c, these eggs can be laid down cheaper at the present time than States fresh. A further shipment of chickens is reported to have been made to Great Britain.

CHICAGO. Chicago, Jan. 22. — Wheat took a downward swing in price today during the early dealings. The German stoppage of work in the Ruhr district and défiance of the French being construed as indicating further shrinkage of European buying power. Rains in important parts of the domestic winter wheat territory tended also to handicap friends of higher prices. Buying, which heretofore of late has become aggressive on declines below $1.18, for May was no longer in evidence this morning. The opening, which ranged from %c to %c lower, was followed by a decided general fall in values.

Despite scantiness of receipts corn and oats declined with wheat. After opening a shade to %c lower, the corn market underwent a material sag. Oats started unchanged to 4c off, and later showed a setback all around.

Provisions were strengthened by an upturn in quotations on hogs.

CLAIMS FRANCE AIMS TO DISUNITE GERMANY

Dr. Wirth Sees Annexation of Rhineland Foreshadowed by Present Action.

LAMENT U.S. ABSENCE

Claims Reparations Question Failed Because Judges Were Also Litigants.

By DR. JOSEPH WIRTH, Ex-German Chancellor. Special Cable to The Advertiser, Copyright.

Berlin, Jan 21 .- "The French inention is to break Germany up politically, destroy her economic powers and to annex the Rhineland. "We now understand why Lloyd George, in an article drawing the pasic lines for a sensible reparations policy, said that the fateful hour of evil is at hand if there is not a returf to the peace treaty at its basis.

"Britain and her ministers heeded Lloyd George, who continually leaded for a sensible reparations ettlement after the figures of the London ultimatum proved a mistake. "The reparations commission was tended to be an instrument of just and sensible application of the peace reaty concerning German payments. s task was not to formulate new dictatorial demands wherein some power was interested, but the comssion, according to expressed emn clauses of the Versailles treaty, was brought into being to sermany's capacity to pay, and thus

As near as can be ascertained at if we would only halt for a time and this moment, a deadlock of sorts review our situation how much easier it would be for all of us to see the direction of our traveling and the point to which we are headed, asserted the speaker. Attention was a state of listening. This was the time when, if we would, we could find out what God would to for us, and what He had promised to do for our salvation, no matter how deeply we had sinned. For most of us there was always time when "Right about Face" was movement in the direction of god-iness, and there need be no fear on our part of the fullness of His for-giveness, for do we know that "fff we confess our sins. He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins."

Then there came the final order,
"Quick march." Having had a come to attention and turned about to attention, and turned about and knowing the direction in heard this definition of salvation thought it one of peculiarly apt expression and concise description. He had cherished it ever after, and Mr. Coombs recommended it to his hearers as a fitting close to his week of evangelistic work.

SOFT COAL EMBARGO

Removal of Ban Will Release Big Shipments For Canada.

Toronto, Jan 22 .- The embargo on soft coal and coke shipments on a portion of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which was in force for several days last week, was lifted at midnight tonight. Coal will now be accepted from the mines in the area affected, which is the bituminous field of Pennsylvania, for shipme Buffalo and points in Canada. The removal of this embargo will have the effect of releasing for ship-ment to Ontario many carloads of hoft coal and coke, which will go a long way toward helping to make up for the shortage of anthracite. The embargo on this road against anthracite shipments was raised on Wednesday last, but as not much coal is handled on this railway such an

FIND FLY SWATTERS IN PHARAOH'S TOMB SHOW DECIDED GROWTH

Ornate Appliances With Carved Ivory Handles Unearthed At Luxor.

By ARTHUR WEIGELL (Copyright, 1923, by North American Newspaper Alliance.) Luxor, Egypt Jan. 22.-A number if interesting objects were removed from the tomb of Tut-ankh-amen here today and taken to the workshop which has been specially prepared for them. Among these was another footstool on which two golden figures are cleverly inlaid, representing bearded Asiatics—a fact which shows again that this Pharaoh had particular contempt for Semetic

Four alabaster vases containing erfumes were also removed. Marvelous as it may seem, a slight scent can still be detected from them. The Pharaoh fly-swatters made of horsehair with beautifully carved ivory handles also appeared, and several musical instruments, including reed pipes and a golden fife, came up from

ALL FAT PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW THIS

Fat people owe a debt of gratitude to the author of the now famous Marmola Prescription, and are still more indebted for the reduction of this harmless, effective obesity remedy to tablet form. Marmola Prescription Tablets can be obtained at all drug stores the world over at the reasonable price of one dollar for a case, or you can secure them direct on receipt of price from the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. This now leaves no excuse for dieting or violent exercise for the reduction of the overfat body to normal.—Advt.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE ENTERS LAST SESSION

Members Gather at Toronto for Opening Tomorrow-Much Interest Evinced.

Canadian Press Despatch Toronto, Jan. 22.-The members of the legislative assembly of Ontario are beginning to arrive for the opening tomorrow afternoon, which will be accompanied by the usual cere-

Lieut.-Governor Harry Cockshutt will read the speech from the throne and the great number of applications to Speaker Nelson Parliament for tickets of admission to the chamber, indicate the keen interest taken in the event by people, not only of To-ronto, but from many even distant constituencies.

This will probably be the last session before the provincial general elections, and the government's announcement of program as will be contained in the speech from the throne will be awaited with a great deal of interest by all parties.

In connection with the opening there will be two new members introduced, Col. John A. Currie, Conservative, from Southeast Toronto, and A. Goulet, Liberal from Russell County, the successful candidates in the by-elections held during the summer. The parties line up: Government 556, Liberals 26, Conservatives 26, Independents 3.

RUSSIA SEES NO WAR, BUT PREPARES ARMY

Officials Confident of Peace, But Adopt Watchful Attitude For Protection. Associated Press Despatch Moscow, Jan. 22.—Although Russia has reduced her active army to 600,000 men, she has not shut her eyes to possible military danger, and t is understood that the government has taken a number of measures to create at the necessary time a force able to repulse any attack. Thus writes M. Steckloff, editor of Izvestia. He then goes on to express the opinion that there are more war possibilities in the European situation today than in 1914.

Maintaining a watchful attitude Russia, according to some communist leaders, would probably adopt a policy of strongly armed up to the moment her territory or her vital interests were menaced. The press notes that Poland has long intended military intervention to split the Ukraine and White Russia from the Soviet federation.
"The Ruhr occupation has created everywhere an intense situation, says Steckloff's journal, "and if it come to serious clashes then there would be great danger to Soviet Russia as the total suppression of Germany would make imperialistic France Russia's neighbor." Despite the press comment and the recent proclamations, several of the government officials expressed to the correspondent the opinion that there will be no serious war. ALL EMPLOYERS COMPLY

WITH THE REGULATIONS Threats of immediate and drastic action through legal channels have achieved the desired effect, report the municipal assessment officials. All the employers have complied with the requirements of this department, filing the regulation income return of their employees within the five days' grace allotted them. The authorities are now busy with the "personal" incomes for ward four. Opportunity to fool the assessment experts has been reduced to an ap-preciable minimum as employers are compelled to file what is practically a copy of their salary and wage roll, and the people over in the city office ordinary way, but they daren't teil because there is a $200 fine attach-

COLLAPSE OF SOCIETY PREDICTED BY HORNE

Former British Chancellor of Exchequer at New York Luncheon.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Jan. 22 .- An early collapse of civilized society in Europe unless some means not now seen can be devised of averting it, was predicted Saturday by Sir Robert Horne, former chancellor of the Brit-ish exchequer, at a luncheon of the English-Speaking Union of the United States. Viscount Burnham, president of the British Press Union, and chief owner of the London Daily Telegraph, and Dean A. V. Baillie of Windsor Chapel, were other speakers. Viscount Burnham urged a clear tion of the British debt ques-

British People Again Confronted With Question of Supporting Prince

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Jan. 22.—The coming marriage of the Duke of York to Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, daughter of the Earl of Strathmore, brings before the British people a question which has not arisen in many year, but which in times past has been a point of difference between the crown and parliament. This question is the financing of a younger member of the royal family.

The Prince of Weles has his own

This was expected as the earnings, running as they are now three times the amount of the dividend, the distribution to shareholders is likely to be increased. Marland Oil was the feature of the oil group, still responding to the publication of the produc-tion figured showing that the average daily output ince the first of the year had nearly coubled the average gross last year. It was evident from the action of the sugar stocks today that the fur-ther cut in the price of refined sugar had been discounted. Sugar shares as a group simply marked time in face of the announcement that all refiners had reduced their price to 6.70 cents per pound and that raw sugars were barely steady. The opinion is quite generally held that although there will be shading of sugar prices during the next fortnight, the sugar stocks will not be much affected.

Wall street spent most of its morning wondering just what the perpetrator of the Baldwin fake hoped to accomplish by the bogus letter sent out Friday. Some thought the forged letter might have been used by some one bullish on the stock who hoped to get some cheap stock by breaking the price of Baldwin.

RANGERS WILL HELP

Man and Woman Found Murdered by Side of Lonely

Road.

Special to The Advertiser. Waco, Texas, Jan. 22.—Texas rangers joined local authorities in efforts to solve the mystery of the death of W. E. Holt. 45, and Mrs. Ethel Denecamp, 21, whose bodies were found side by side in a lonely road near here yesterday. A charge from a shotgun had torn a part of the left side of Holt's face, and he had several wounds in the left side of the back.
Mrs. Denecamp was shot at least three times and has a wound about four inches long in the back of her head, thought to have been made with a hatchet. While sheriff Stegall and Constable Butts believe Mrs. Dene-camp was killed at the place where her body was found, they are positive that Holt was slain in another spot. A small rope was found tied around his right ankle. This is believed to have been used to drag him behind a car for a considerable distance. The couple had been missing sings late. couple had been missing since late Friday. The car in which they had gone riding was found in the down town section here Saturday after-noon, the windshield had been shat-tered by a bullet.

When the Jamaica fleet put to sea some few days later, Lord Julian sailed with Colonel Bishop in Vice-Admiral Craufurd's flagship. Both set out to hunt Captain Blood.

But they cruised in vain, and after month of it, returned empty-handed to Port Royal, there to find awaiting them the most disquieting news from the Morld.

The megalomania of Louis XIV had set Europe in a blaze of war.

The French legionaries were ravaging the Rhine provinces, and Spain had joined the nations leagued to defend themselves from the wild ambitions of the King of France. There were rumors of civil war in England.
It was reported that William of Orange had been invited to come

Weeks passed, and every ship from home brought additional news. William had crossed to England, and in March of that year, 1689, they learnt in Jamaica that he had accepted the crown and that James had thrown himself into the arms of France for rehabilitation. To a kinsman of Sunderland's this was disquieting news, indeed. It was followed by letters from King William's secretary of state, informing Colonel Bishop that there was war with France, and that in view of its effect upon the Colonies a Governor General was coming out to the West Indies in the person of Lord Willoughby, and that with him came squadron under the command of Admiral van der Kuylen to re-inforce the Jamaica fleet against eventualities

Bishop realized that this must mean the end of his supreme authority, even though he should continue in Port Royal as Deputy-

That, I think, is largely responsible for the increase in attendance. People appreciate the wonderful playing of certain stars and go out to see them regardless of what team they play on. Formerly the artistic work of these stars was seen only through a cloud of bitter partizanship. There was a feeling that eemed to be quite himself again, and no man on the other team could do eter became anxious to get back to anything particularly meritorious. At any rate, such feats were never welcomed or appreciated

The spectators are really an important part of the game, even though the players do not trust their encouragement puts the players on the their toes. It is just like the estabThis darkey was witty as well as

'Round-the-Table Conversation

By JULIA HOYT

It is said that table manners invariably denote the manner in which one has been brought up. But to me bad table manners indicate carelessness and lack of observation as well. A person's early training is usually a matter of luck, but carelessness is one's own fault. I know many people who have been trained correctly but permit themselves to become careless in table manners at home so quite sly they forget themselves when they are out.

Often people who appear to be most careful about their dress and other observances seem to give absolutely no thought to their mode of eating. Such an attitude I cannot understand because in reality it is such unimportant things as the manner in which one eats that help to make one's association with other people more agreeable.

I never realized how many careless people there were until a few even-ings ago. A friend and I were discussing table etiquette and he aston-shed me by declaring that about sixty per cent of all the people did not know how to eat properly. I thought that he was exaggerating and told him so.

To prove his point he suggested that we go and dine at one of the hotels. We chose what we considered in the best—or rather one of the best—in New York. To me it scarcely seemed the sort of a place to go in search of bad table manners but we found a place to go in the search of bad table manners but we found plenty to justify my friend's used to suffer from terrible headclaim, at least as far as that place aches and dizziness. Last summer, my friend drew my, attention to a I got a dizzy spell and fell in the nearby table at which there was a middle of the road. An old gentleperfectly groomed man. possible because one would have to spot, and by the time you say Jack actually shout to be heard. That is the reason the conversation at such pain and distress. St. Jacobs Oil is times is confined to those sitting on a harmless rheumatism linimer side of us. But at the small or informal dinner of four or perhaps six persons the tete-a-tete con-versation is decidedly bad form, because usually those present are sup-posed to be intimate enough to make the conversation more personal.

The host or hostess should open the conversation, for they are expected know exactly what subject interest most of their guests. ever, this does not mean that the host or hostess is supposed to do most of the talking. They should act, in effect, as "cheer leaders." They begin the conversation, and then by appropriate and timely remarks keep it going. But never under any circumstances, unless, of course, their guests are all imbeciles, should they occupy the center of the stage. Even when the guests are intimate friends of the host or hostess they hesitate to interrupt them.

My advice to people who enjoy the sound of their own voices would be to invite to their house only patient friends or those devoid of all ideas, theories and views—always provided they can find them. I never haveand never want to.

I can write feelingly on this subject because it has been my misfortune to be the victim of just such a host on more than one occasion. One man I have in mind is one who aspires to be an ideal host, but I dare say that were it not for his charming wife none of us would ever accept an in vitation to his house.

I thoroughly enjoy listening if

But the word conversation indicates the presence of at least two eople. Consequently the other person's response and voice must heard occasionally. I recall one particular occasion when eight normally intelligent peo-

There is only one thing that is worse than the host who tries to monopolize the dining-table conversation, and that is the guest who tries to do the same thing. Mrs. Hoyt's next article, "Manners of Men," will appear Wednesday.

No word of apology issued from the pulpit where the recalcitrant minister stood in his accustomed of Bishop Manning, although none doubted that it was an accurate fore-cast of that his reply would be. Instead, he again denied the divinity of Jesus Christ, and reterated his rebellion against the will write his reply to the bishop this week, and will then indicate whether he prefers to withdraw or stand trial for heresy, which latter course would give him an opportunanons of the church which ordained im a minister. Neither did he inicate that he would resign and thus void a procedure, which Bishop fanning regards as abhorrent, a rial for heresy.

Dr. Grant's sermon summed up as challenge to the bishop: If this heresy, make the most of it.

"I have always preferred to receive ny picture of Christ from His asso-iates," the rector said, coming to the Rev erucial point of his sermon of disbe-lief. "I would rather hear about Christ from Matthew, Mark and Luke the Episcopal Church as a result of his denial of the divinity of Christ, no than from St. Augustine. I said last Sunday that when Christ was on learned Sunday.

The Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot, of he did not possess the powers of God. This is certainly a teaching of the first three gospels, Matthew, Mark and Luke. Bishop Gore, a most eminent voice in the Church of Eng-land, said that the virgin birth was not a part of the teaching of the early church. Jesus said: 'My Father is greater than I.' Is this not what t. Paul also, affirms when he says: Christ emptied himself?"

Claims Conception Altered. "Jesus was perfectly human. By in Greece, and later under the in-fluence of Aristotle of Rome, the idea for his book, "What Jesus Taught,"

There are plenty of results favorable to the plenty of results favorable to the needs of man produced by a religion which worshipped fetishes. Should Make Religion Easy.

"Religion ought to be an easy thing instead of a difficult thing.
