It found him on the field

His sword was in his hand,

Oft with its fiery force,

The alien-armies low :

Bent on such glorious toil,

He hung upon the cross.

At midnight came the crv.

His spirit, with a bound,

A darkened ruin lay.

The pains of death are past

Labor and sorrow cease ;

Burst its incumb'ring clay

His tent, at sunrise on the ground,

And life's fierce warfare, closed at last

He started up to hear :

Tranquil amidst alarms,

Rest from thy loved employ ;

The battle fought, the victory won.

A mortal arrow pierced his frame.

A vesteran slumbering on his arms,

Beneath his red-cross shield ;

Still warm with recent fight,

Ready that moment, at command.

His arm had quelled the foe,

And laid resistless, in his course,

The world to him was loss

Yet all his trophies, all his spoils,

Then strong in faith and prayer.

Through rock and steel to smite.

THE PEOPLE'S ADVENT. BY GERALD MASSEY.

'Tis coming up the steep of time, And this old world is growing brighter; We may not see its dawn sublime, Yet high hopes make the heart throb lighter We may be sleeping in the ground When it awakes the world in wonder But we have felt it gathering round, And heard its voice in living thunder-'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

Tis coming now, the glorious time Foretold by seers and sung in story-For which, when thinking was a crime. Souls leapt to heaven from scaffolds gory ! They passed, nor saw the work they wrought, Now the crown'd hopes of centuries bloss But the live lightning of their thought And daring deeds doth pulse earth's boso 'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

Creeds, empires, systems rot with age, But the great people's ever youthful ! And it shall write the future's page To our humanity more truthful ! The gnarliest heart hath tender chords. To waken at the name of "brother," And time comes when brain-scorpion words We shall not speak to sting each other-'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

Fraternity ! Love's other name ! Dear, heaven-connecting link of being ! Then shall we grasp thy golden dream, As souls, full statured, grow far-seeing : Then shall unfold our better part, And in our life-cup yield more honey ; Light up with joy the poor man's heart And love's own world with smiles sunny-

'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

Aye, it must come ! That tyrant's throne Is crambling, with our hot tears rusted; The sword earth's mighty ones have leant on Is cankered with our heart's blood crusted. Room ! for the men of mind make way ! Ye robber rulers, pause no longer, Ye cannot stay the opening day ! The world rolls on, the the light grows > stronger-The people's advent's coming !
