SURE TO HEQULATE THE BOWELS. Dependupon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourself, and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say with confidence and truth of it, which we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never best it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when tisely used. Never did we know an instance of disastinfaction by any one who used it. Oa the contrary, all are delighted with to operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," infer thirty years experiment, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost sway, instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or tweenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skilful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in

THOUSANDS OF CASES. It not only relieves the child from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly re-

The brilliant dyes of the Autumn woods
Have gladdened the forest bowers
And deucade their pathless solitudes
Like a blooming waste of flowers;
In their hidden depths no sound is heard
Save the low and nurmuring wall
As the rustling leaves are gently stirred
By the breath of the dying gale.

The heavy clouds in the mellow light,
Float with the broezes by,
Where the far off mountain's misty height
Seems mingfed with the sky;
And the purple hills rejoice again
In the glow of the golden sun;
And the flocks are glad in the grassy plain
Where the sparkling waters run.

Tis a season of deep and quiet thought, And it brings a calm to the breast, And the broken heart, and the mind o'er-May find in its stillness rost.

May find in its stillness rest.
For the gentle voice of the dying year,
From forest and sunny plain,
Is sweet as it falls on the mourner's ear,

Yet over all is a mantling gloom,
That saddens the gazer's heart.
For suon shall the Autumn's varied bloom
From the forest trees depart;
Their bright leaves whirl in the eddying air,
Their beautiful tints are fading fast. And the mountain tops will soon be bare, And the Indian Semmer past.

That is all I wish! This will do the work, be assured! The other parts of our plan will work out of themselves to-morrow, as you know.

Yes. I should like to be a witness!

As I shall be! But I will report to you all. Give me the tetter, and I will see that he gets it to-morrow in time. Now about this charming operagic—this adorable Jewess! Have you been able to learn who she is, or anything about her vince I saw you? No one knows how or where; and it is my belief that she lives in Jerusalem, fer I can't find any body that knows where she lives here, in a quiet way.

You know! Then I must know. How did you ascertain? The sum I offered you—one hundred dollars—when I was here night before last, to her, shall be yours. How did you'find out?

The usme by which she made her debut, and is known to the public, I learn is not her true name! She is the daughter of a Portuguese nobleman, and a Jewers, his wife. The nobleman is a widower, and is accomplished daughter in the position she has down taken before the world. My knowledge of the Portuguese, and my character as one in the society of the hotels and in the street, gave me faciliites, you perceive, in making my inquiries, and, as a Portuguese, of obtaining their confidence. Disorders of the Liver and Stomach.

Most persons will, at some period of their lives, suffer from indigestion derangement of the liver, stomach or bowels which if not quickly semoved, frequently-wittles into a dangerous illness. It is well known in India, and other tropical climates, that Holloway's Fills are the only temicity that can be relied on in such cases. Almost every soldier abread see rises a box of them in his knapsake. In England most presons knowthat these Fills will cure them whomever the liver, atomach or bowels are out of order and that they used he physician.

Weakness and Debility. Weakness and Deblity.

Such as suffer from weakness, or debility, and those who feel want of energy, should at once have recourse to these Fills, as they immediately purify the blood, and acting upon the main-spring of ide, give strength and vigor to the system. To young persons entering into womanhood, with a deringoment of the functions and to mothers at the same of life, these Pills will be most efficacious in correcting the tide of life that may be on the turn. Young and elderly ness suffer in a simular manner at the same periods, when there is always dangers they should therefore undergo a course of this purifying modicine, which ensures lasting health.

Disorders of Children. If these Pills be used according to the printed directions and the Cintment rubbed over the region of the hidneys, as least once a day as salt is forced into meat, it will geneticate the kidneys and correct any derangement of their organish. Should the affliction be stone or gravel, then the Cintment should be rubbed into the neck of the bladder, and a few days will convince the sufferer that the effect of these two medies is astonishing.
