Large Shipment of Liquor From Newcastle

Fire Water to the Value of About Fifteen Hundred Dollars Sent to St. John on Tuesday

Booze by the bottle, barrel, and box to the extent of about fifteen hundred dollars was the shipment from the office of the Dominion Express Company here on Tuesday morning. Never as long as the Scott act or prohibition law has been in effect in Newcastle has such a variety of liquor been shipped from this point. In fact its value was such that two officers, armed to the teeth kept watch on it all night long Monday night and accompanied it to its destination, St. John, on Tuesday morning. It was the property of the Government, by virtue of the Prohibition law, liquor that came illegally into Northumberland County, and was seized by the inspectors. The officers in whose care it was shipped were inspectors Saunders, of Marysville, and Ashford of Newcastle, while the chief inspector, W. D. Wilson, was on hand to bid it "bon voyage."

A Beaver Colony at French Fort Cove

Industrious Animals Follow Trend of Industry and Take up Their Abode Here

Visitors to French Fort Cove this Spring were very much interested in a small house built with boughs and mud, on the bank just above the old bridge, and the fallen trees near by which told the story that a pair of beavers, have decided that Newcastle is a very desirable place of residence and have taken up their abode here. The old mill dam provides excellent water privileges, and the many white birch and poplar trees, near the stream the most delicious food for these animals, and being protected by law, it is most likely that in a few years a colony will be established there which will prove quite an attraction, not only to our citizens, but to tourists and others.

A SERIOUS RUNAWAY

A horse belonging to the Sinclair Lumber Company, driven by two young ladies of "Bridgetown," on Sunday afternoon, shied at some children playing on King street threw the occupants out of the carriage, giving them a bad shaking up, and ran away, destroying the carriage. The horse ran home. Rev. Mr. Firth picked up the girls and drove them home.

TO FORM COMPANY TO INCREASE PRODUCTION

Such was Decision of Public Meeting on Tuesday Evening.—Committee Named to Look After Work

On Saturday, 4th instant, President James M. Troy of the Newcastle Town Improvement League met the whole and presented the League's request that a public meeting be called to consider the matter of Greater Production this season. The Council decided to call the public meeting for Tuesday, 7th instant. The League met on Monday night, having a small gathering partly on account of the Y. M. C. A. campaign and a Lodge meeting, which kept some members away. There were present: Rev. P. W. Dixon, James M. Troy, J. E. Ander, E. A. McCurdy, C. E. Fish, and H. H. Stuart of the League, and Ald. Crocker. Two plans were laid before the meeting. One was that the Committee this year raise a fund to assist those who want to farm vacant lots, the money to be paid back in the fall. Mr. McCurdy resubmitted his plan of last year—that a joint stock company be formed, with an authorized capital of, say, $5000 with as much paid as possible, the produce in the fall to be sold at market prices. The meeting decided to place the two plans before the public meeting. The public meeting was called to order in the Town Hall at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, by Mayor John H. Troy. There were present at the opening: J. E. Ander, T. A. Clarke, D. A. Jackson, E. A. McCurdy, A. E. Petrie, Geo. Stables, H. H. Stuart and J. M. Troy, of the League, and Mayor Troy, Edward Hickey and G. F. McWilliam. Later there came in Andrew McCabe, of the League, and Walter Amy, Joseph Jardine, Albert Robertson, William McCullum and Walter Donovan, and, later still, after the close of the meeting of the Patriotic Fund Executive: Revs. P. W. Dixon and Dr. Squires, of the League, and Rev. W. J. Bate, R. A. N. Jarvis and E. P. Williston—22 in all of whom 11 were members of the T. I. L.

Mayor Troy explained the food situation, and advocated immediate steps to deal with the question of local production. The Council had, on Saturday decided to call this meeting and hand the matter over to the public. He had thought that, if the public responded, there could be a committee formed of, say, 16 besides a chairman and secretary, to superintend the work. He did not favor donations from a few, as were taken last year, the recipients of the produce having no work to do. He called on Ald. Stuart, secretary of the T. I. L., to address the meeting. Mr. Stuart did not favor a repetition of last year's programme because of the small size of the meeting (there were only 11 present when he spoke) he did not think it wise to act hastily. But this meeting should at least advise all who owned land to cultivate it to the fullest extent or allow someone else to do so, and appoint a committee to receive offers of vacant lots and apportion them to landless people who wanted to cultivate them, with what other assistance was possible. J. M. Troy. President Troy of the League was next called upon. He said that last year's experiment came out of the challenge of the then Mayor to the T. I. L. The Mayor and Aldermen subscribed funds and challenged the League to do likewise which they did. Potatoes were $5 a barrel, but still the venture had not been a bad one. About 100 barrels of potatoes had been raised, and sold at cost. There was a balance of $23 on hand. There were some dissatisfied with the way the potatoes had been apportioned, but they were given out as ordered by a resolution of the public meeting. He did not favor reappointing last year's plan. The object should be to arouse public interest. Selling produce at cost was not the best plan. The advances should be repaid in the fall. Perhaps as Ald. Stuart said, little more can be done than advise the people. The smallness of this meeting (there were then 14 present) shows lack of interest on the part of our people in the war. They do not seem to recognize the gravity of the situation. There was more interest in Chatham. J. E. Ander. Mr. Ander, Vice-President of the T. I. L., would not favor doubling but subscriptions to be repaid on sale of the produce. Suppose 40 to 50 people put in $10 a piece, buy seed and sell it, and put balance unsold on vacant lots. Geo. Stables. Mr. Stables spoke of what could be raised in a small plot. He would not repeat last year's experiment. E. A. McCurdy. Mr. McCurdy said that he had made a proposal last year which, he thought, would, if it had been adopted, have produced substantial results. He was rather dubious of the value of small subscriptions. One hundred barrels of potatoes had not been a large result in a town of Newcastle's size. His plan last year was to have capital subscribed and a company formed, which should buy seed and go into the work; man-fashion. Quite a number of people last year were willing to give lots of land, but the committee did not have capital to buy enough seed and till all the ground available. A joint stock company with $2,000 or $3,000 capital would have got results. A Committee of ten active people that would subscribe and go into the business actively could secure results. The object was not to make money but to increase production. People could not be expected to put money into an enterprise without being safeguarded. Some could give land, others subscribe, and the work would be got done. He thought that a plan of that kind could be worked out with good results. More than $130 was needed. The conditions were much more favorable this year than last. Last year potatoes cost $4.50 to $6 a barrel, this year they may be got for $1.25 to $1.50 a barrel, so there was less risk to run. It would be a good thing to start such a plan here and show that the town was alive and might prove a permanent venture and finally grow into a market gardening business. It would be a great help in many ways. Mr. Stables said that Manure was scarce. Mr. McCurdy said he was informed that black mud could be got from the Marsh. Mr. Stables said it was not much good. Mr. Amy said that potatoes could be grown without any manure. Mr. Clark thought that the plan of this work should have been done in January. Mr. McCurdy said it could be worked out now. The Mayor said that a committee could be appointed to work out other of the plans suggested. Mr. (Continued on page 4)

C. G. R. Officials Visit Newcastle

Inspect Railway Property and Agree to Make Improvements at Station and Wharf

On Monday afternoon, the whole staff of the C. G. R., at Moncton including General Manager C. A. Hayes, Asst. General Manager C. B. Brown, General Passenger and Ticket Agent H. H. Molanson, General Superintendent L. S. Brown, Assistant General Superintendent A. C. Barker, Superintendent of Car Service W. N. Rippey, Safety First Engineer, J. E. Long, Div. Freight Agent, A. J. Gray, Divisional Engineer J. C. Beckwith, Superintendent W. R. Fitzmaurice, Maintenance Engineer R. A. Black visited Newcastle, and looked over the railway situation. They were met by Mayor Troy, Ald. R. W. Crocker and P. Russell, E. A. McCurdy and Hon. Donald Morrison of the Board of Trade, and George Stables, chairman of the Board of Health, who accompanied them around town and to Chatham and Loggieville. The delegates were well received, and the visit of the officials was most satisfactory. As a result, great improvements will be made here. A corner of the Roundhouse at the Station will be removed, and three new tracks laid. At the deepwater terminals, more facilities for loading will be given, some tracks shifted, and dredging done, so that vessels may come up to the railhead. The Railway authorities will deed upper Jane Street to the town, and install sewerage and water from the Station to the head of Jane Street, the town to make connections. The Railway will do away with the cesspool at the station and take town water and sewerage at current rates. It will close its present unsatisfactory water system and link up with that of the town. The new vessel, the "Max Atken" to replace the Dorothy N., will be given wharage privileges at the C. G. R. Wharf in Chatham. The Town is much pleased with the prospects of further railway development here.

Presentation To Miss Edna Vye

On her Departure From Fredericton to Make her Home in Blackville

On the eve of Miss Edna Vye's departure from Fredericton to the St. Paul's Guild of the Presbyterian Church presented her with a sterling silver thimble and the following address: To Miss Edna Vye, University Ave., Fredericton, N. B. Dear Friend: The love and esteem of your friends must not be measured by the size of the moment that we are asking you to take with you as a remembrance of your associates in St. Paul's Guild, while in the city of Fredericton. It is rather emblematic of our opinion of you as a model housewife or rather a model for a housewife. Thimbles have been used since Eve was created. Sometimes they are adopted for one purpose and sometimes for another, but they are always a protection to the hand of a lady and often a medium of defence. Much has been written of them but with us, all we need say or can say, is that you may be as happy while wearing as we are in giving it and that it may, in the days to come, remind you of those who see you depart with much regret and who will always have kind and pleasant memories of your short acquaintance and friendship. On behalf of St. Paul's Guild, ANNIE L. KIRK, President.

Amos, Secretary-Treasurer; Councillor Thomas Parker and Rev. A. J. Patstone. The canvassers are: F. D. Swin, T. Parker, C. E. Betts, Dr. McDonald and Councillor Ernest Mersereau. At Douglastown, Monday evening 5th instant, Mayor Troy, Dr. Moore and Walter Amy of Newcastle, and Rev. Alex. Firth addressed a meeting. Following organization was effected: Chairman, Councillor Joseph McKnight; secretary-treasurer, Charles Spurr; Collectors—Mr. McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, and Misses McKnight, Annie Jessamin and Christie Breen. Monday evening, Rev. Dr. C. W. Squires organized the Whitesville district, and Rev. L. H. MacLean the Redbank district. THE Y. M. C. A. DRIVE Up to Wednesday night the Y. M. C. A. drive in the town of Newcastle had brought in $1548 of the $2750 needed for the whole western half of the County. The county will over-run its allotment of $5,500.

"The Family Tree of The Modern Hun"

Interesting Lecture Delivered in Moncton Last Week by Dr. D. R. Moore of Newcastle

In Moncton Town Hall, Tuesday evening, April 30th, Dr. D. R. Moore of Newcastle, delivered an exceptionally able lecture on the above subject.

The learned lecturer treated his subject, according to the report of the Moncton newspapers, in a very thorough, able manner, giving a comprehensive summary of the character development, of the characteristics and ambitions which we find predominating in the Hohenzollerns. The address was of great historical value giving much information of the ancient movements of the Barbaric races from Asia into Europe, tracing the migrations of the original Huns from the great wall of China and their pressure upon and intermingling with Teuton Tribes of Central Europe, who, in their turn raided the Roman empire. The development of modern Germany and the gradual displacement by all means, fair and foul, of the other dominant states and families by Prussia under the Hohenzollerns was exhaustively treated, and modern Prussia's schemes to spoil Austria, Poland, Denmark and France and, lastly, the world were thoroughly shown up.

In the course of his remarks Dr. Moore said:

"The great religious systems in the World—Christian, Buddhist, Mahometan, regard the precepts as laid down in the Ten Commandments, as indispensable in the regulation of human society. Prussian Kultur exacts of her warriors a renunciation of morality and bids them go forth among the infirm and the aged, among the flower of womanhood and the innocence of youth, and exploit their hellish arts of slaughter, torture, ravishment and destruction. What remedy does the world-civilization of today offer for the relief of this mad temper? Nothing but the uprooting and destruction of the despotism and militarism of the German Empire, and in this sanguinary undertaking millions of brave men, during a period of nearly four years have been valiantly and resolutely bending their efforts with the energy of Hercules in his twelve-fold labors. Pontif and Monarch seem alike helpless in their anxiety to say the rapacity and ferocity of the Prussian monster. Napoleon closed the French Revolution of his day with an historic whiff of grape shot, and later in referring to this act observed: "It is false that we fired with blank charge; it had been a waste of life to do that." So it had been a waste if life to longer fight the Prussian along the lines of the Hague code of warfare. His infernal equipment and numbers gave him much advantage early in the conflict, but his despotic cruelty has roused the wealth, intelligence and manhood of the world into the mightiest military confederation known to history, which will assuredly forever crush his power and destroy his methods.

Concluding, the lecturer said: When the grim spectre of war and its woe shall be forever fled from the fertile shores of Canada, and the memory of her sorrows has faded from the minds of her surviving sons, then again will the glory and honor of our nationhood be achieved—not by the spoils of foreign conquest or the ignoble barter of inherent right, but by industry's invasion of the solitary wastes of the land, scattering along its triumphal march the abodes and sustenance for increasing millions, secure in the imitation of those immortal examples, which, down through the checkered history of our race, have at all times commanded the admiration and esteem of the heroic and the wise of all enlightened nations!" (Loud applause.)

At the close of the lecture a vote of thanks was tendered Dr. Moore on motion of U. E. Connor Richardson, seconded by Mr. G. J. Oultram. Mrs. (Dr) W. A. Ferguson, president of the Red Cross Society, presided.

During the evening Mrs. J. D. MacNutt rendered a vocal solo.

Sciatic Pains

from Exhausted Nerves

SCIATICA or sciatic rheumatism is attended with pain and tenderness along the sciatic nerve in the hips and thighs, and indicates an exhausted condition of the nervous system.

Relief is sometimes obtained by external applications or the use of heat, but at the slightest provocation the distressing pains return and from time to time become more severe as the nervous system becomes more exhausted.

The only way to obtain actual cure is by a reconstruction of the wasted nerve cells, and this is best accomplished by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It need not cost you much to restore vigor to the nervous system, but it will take a little patience, particularly at first. After you have used a few boxes and got the building-up process established you will find improvements from day to day which will encourage you to keep up this treatment until the nervous system is completely restored.

Nervous disorders do not right themselves, but naturally, become more acute as the system becomes further exhausted. It is only wise to be warned by sleeplessness, headaches, neuralgic and sciatic pains and to take immediate action to restore the depleted nerves before paralysis, locomotor ataxia or some form of helplessness is developed.

LORD BEAVERBROOK SPEAKS

"A Double Rough"---Relations With the United States---Sir Edward Kemp and the Russian Hope---Other Speeches

(Canadian Gazette, April 11th 1918)
Some notable utterances, to which the report contributed to the Times and other London journals made no reference, were made at last Thursday dinner at the Savoy Hotel in honor of Lord Beaverbrook on his appointment as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster and Minister of Information. It was Lord Beaverbrook's first public reference to his critics; gave him as a Minister of the Crown the opportunity of indicating the new role which Canada may occupy as intermediary in a new era of unity between the Anglo-Saxon peoples of the world; and it was made the occasion of interesting and informative speeches on topics of current interest by Sir Edward Kemp, Sir George Perley and others. The hosts were the Agents-General of the Provinces of Canada, of whom there were present the Hon. J. H. Turner, Acting Agent-General for British Columbia, in the chair; Lt-Col Richard Reid, Ontario, and Mr. John Howard, Nova Scotia, in the vice-chairs; Lt-Col P. Pelletier, Quebec; Mr. J. A. Reid, Alberta; Mr. Harrison Watson, Prince Edward Island; and Mr. W. R. Bowden, representing New Brunswick. The guests were:

Sir George Perley, Sir Edward Kemp, Lt-Gen. Sir R. Turner, V. C., Maj-Gen. A. D. McRae, Maj-Gen. G. B. Hughes, Maj-Gen. G. L. Foster, Brig-Gen. D. M. Hogarth, Brig-Gen. J. A. MacDougal, Brig-Gen. H. F. McDonald, Brig-Gen. J. F. L. Embury, Sir J. M. Gibson, Col. Sir Campbell Stuart, Lt-Col. Sir H. Montagu Allan, C. V. O., Lt-Col. G. McL. Brown, C. Cambie, J. H. Horsey, Lt-Col. W. Grant Morden, Col. Murry MacLaren, Col. A. G. Cameron, Col. G. W. Badgerow, Col. Arthur C. Macdonald, F. Orr-Lewis, T. R. Whitley, Col. J. G. Ross, Col. B. R. Hepburn, Col. Donald Armour, Col. Chas. A. Hodgetts, Col. Claude Bryan, F. C. Salter, Col. W. R. Ward, J. A. Turner, F. W. Ashe, Lt-Col. R. M. Dennistoun, Col. K. C. Folger, Percy Hurd, Lt-Col. J. Obed Smith, Capt. W. H. Hayward, M. P. P. L. G. S. Haines, M. P. P. T. Terry Champion, S. Perdoe.

The Agents-General. After the toast of "The King" had been honoured, Mr. Howard proposed "Canada," and urged that Canadians in London should meet more frequently and keep better together. Both he and the Chairman expressed the hope that, despite obvious difficulties, the Canadian Agents-General, representing as they did important communities overseas, should be given a more definite status in the official life of the Empire as concentrated in London, such a status as is now accorded to the Agents-General of Australia under a constitution which, of course, differs materially from that of the Dominion of Canada.

Sir Edward Kemp, in response to the toast, spoke with enthusiasm of the wonderful achievements of Great Britain in science, industry, and other ways to meet the stupendous needs of operations in so many theatres of war. He also paid a tribute to the heroism, not only of the Canadians, but of British and Allied soldiers. Proceeding he said: "Germany wants an early peace, and wants it for more reasons than one. For instance, Russia is a great country, and there is a spirit in Russia which is as sure to rise as to-morrow's sun. The Russian people are a proud people; their soldiers are brave, and I believe Germany wants an early peace because she fears that the Russian people will yet rise and kick her out of their country. That is what I hope to see, but so far as we are concerned there is no humiliating peace, and Germany may just as well understand that now as at any other time. (Cheers.)

"I am asked, 'What are you going to do about the Military Service Act in Canada?' It is the intention to enforce that Act. (Hear, hear.) The Canadian people state their views in no uncertain way. I regret the Quebec incident, which I believe only reflects the actions of a few badly advised young men; and, as Sir Robert Borden has said, there is no reason why they should not be given the opportunity of indulging against the enemy their propensity for fighting. Meanwhile the privilege of appealing to the tribunals will be withdrawn from men of military age who endeavour to obstruct the operation of the Military Service Act in any form." (Cheers)

The Canadian Overseas Minister went on to bear witness to the splendid work done by Lord Beaverbrook for Canada, as Eye-Witness and Canadian Record Officer. He referred especially to the original way in which the cinematograph had been used to spread a knowledge of Canada's war efforts.

Sir George Perley, in response to the toast, also responded. He assured the Agents-General of his desire to co-operate with them in the interests of Canada, and spoke of the excellence of the campaign of enlightenment in regard to Canadian war achievements which they owed to Lord Beaverbrook and his associates. Notwithstanding the wonderful effort of every section of the Empire, Canadians were able to stand up and say, "We have done our share, and Canada has played a man's part." (Cheers) In saying this he was thinking primarily, of course, of the imperishable record of Canadians in the field, but they might also reflect with pride upon what Canada had done in her industrial, agricultural, and financial support of the Allied cause. It was fortunate that in so critical an hour Canadian finances were in the hands of a man of the calibre of Sir Thomas White. (Hear, hear.)

"We borrow from the United Kingdom the money to pay our troops, but we have lent to the United Kingdom the money to pay for our wheat, munitions, &c., and the amount are now practically the same. Thus the Dominion, borrowing from its own people, has been able to finance itself, and that is a great feat. (Cheers) And for this and other reasons Canada stands to-day on a far higher plane than formerly in the estimation of the British people, who now realise as they never did before the great future that lies before our country, and are willing to pay due attention to our views and wishes." (Cheers)

Lt-Col. Reid, in proposing the health of Lord Beaverbrook, said this was in a sense a Canadian family gathering to do honour to one of Canada's sons who had rendered eminent public service. Lord Beaverbrook was the first Canadian born and bred--indeed the first native of an overseas Dominion--to enter the Imperial Cabinet. Certain criticism had been directed against him; that was one of the penalties of attaining high position and possessing exceptional abilities. But Lord Beaverbrook could contain himself. They knew the motto: "Never complain; never explain." By the dinner of that evening the Agents-General wished to give a public opportunity for Canadians to express their confidence in their fellow-countryman. Many of those present had known Lord Beaverbrook from his birth and youth in New Brunswick up. They had fought with him or against him in business and in politics, and if they had found him a keen fighter and hard hitter they had found him a clean fighter. Possibly he did not always do things in the ordinary way. He was untrammelled by tradition and dependences on precedent. But originality was not a crime; and when originality was combined with an abundant fund of Canadian initiative and optimism they had qualities which would carry any man into almost any position. (Hear, hear.)

The machinery of propaganda had been creaking sadly, but Lord Beaverbrook's talents for organization might have been created for the specific purpose of putting it right. Canada knew what he had done for Canadian publicity. The other day he overheard a discussion between British officers as to the relative merits of national units at the front. One declared for the Canadians. "Ah, well," was the other's rejoinder. "I admit that they have been better advertised." (Laughter and cheers.) Canadian soldiers knew and appreciated what Lord Beaverbrook had accomplished for Canada, and they wished him every success in the work he had now undertaken for the Empire as a whole. (Cheers)

Sir John Gibson, whose name was not upon the toast list, was called upon from the chair to say a few words. He said: "I was trained in a school very adverse to Lord Beaverbrook in his political operation. As Grits we were taught by our orators and by our fellowship to consider him a very dangerous man. (Laughter) A change has come over our dream. We have a Union Government in Canada, and I have turned over a new leaf--laughter--and am proud to be a supporter of that Union Government and of Sir Robert Borden, who, I believe, is a sound, safe man. (Cheers) I hope that Union is not alone for the purposes of war, and that partyism in Canada has met its death. When we read of what Lord Beaverbrook has done we admire his achievement. The British Government knew what they were doing when they called him to his present high office. They did so because they thought him to be the right man, a man of great resource and originality, and I have faith in the wisdom of the Prime Minister of Great Britain in making this selection. (Cheers)

Lord Beaverbrook. Lord Beaverbrook was much cheered on rising to reply. He said: "Col. Reid has said that I never explain. If I were to make explanations regarding all the accusations made against me I should take up your time far beyond the closing hour under the new regulations. But this I can say to you: I have almost pathetic interest in the good opinion of my own people. It is not a strange thing that a man should look for the good opinion of his fellow-countrymen, and never have I heard as much praise as I have listened to this evening. In the years of my political struggle I have not been looked upon too favourably, and perhaps I may hope that the time has turned and that in the future I may get from my country as good and as bad a chance in English public life as every Englishman receives. I have been touched by the remarks of Sir George Perley. The Canadian Record Office could not have done what it has done but for his support and encouragement, and when he praises me I am glad to be praised. I am glad to see that Sir Edward Kemp also said to you all, 'I give my cordial thanks for coming here to-night to give me your encouragement.' Sir John Gibson's words have been sweet music to me. It is indeed a satisfaction to know that having weighed me in the scale, the balance has not turned against me. I am afraid he said you all take too favourable a view of what I have been able to do. I remember when I left Canada and came to England I was most anxious to engage in public life, as in the ambition of most young Canadians. They do not often get the opportunity that I had of doing so without the predominant preoccupation of business affairs. I secured a constituency through the influence of friends here, but when I became M. P. my heart turned back to Canada. I wanted to go there and seek the suffrages of the Canadian people, to find my opportunity in Canadian public life. (Cheers) And when the chance of taking office in England came to me, for the moment I put it aside because I wanted to go back to Canada and seek responsibility there rather than take up new duties here. I wanted the endorsement of my own people. (Renewed cheers) The time came when the Department of Information, now turned into a Ministry, was formed. The Prime Minister asked me to undertake the duties. I was loath to do so. My heart still went back to Canada, and for days I came to no decision. I tried my best to avoid the responsibility, but I was pressed in no other way, and so I took the post here. This the Canadian book is closed.

CONCERT AT MILLERTON

The members of Secret Rebekah Lodge No 60 held a concert and social evening in the Millerton hall on Wednesday evening, April 24.

A 3 act comedy entitled Mrs. Briggs of The Poultry yard was put on by the members of the Lodge, and proved entertaining.

Mr. Will Mitchell sang very acceptably between the acts and Master Albie Carter rendered two recitations.

Lunches were served after the concert and the remainder of the evening was spent in "tripping the light fantastic."

Ross orchestra was in attendance and rendered first class music both for the concert and the dance.

Mr. Jack Vanderbeck and Miss Grace Russell very kindly assisted with the music for the concert.

The proceeds amounted to $107.00. From this sum the final payment was made on the piano of the Lodge room and $15.00 was donated to the local Red Cross Committee.

Pale, Listless Girls

Are in a Condition That May Lead to a Hopeless Decline

Perhaps you have noticed that your daughter in her "teens" has developed a fitful temper, is often restless and excitable without apparent cause. In that case remember that the march of years is leading her into womanhood, and that at this time a great responsibility rests upon you as a mother. If your daughter is pale, complains of weakness and depression, feels tired out after a little exertion; if she tells you of headaches and backaches, or pains in the side, do not disregard these warnings. Your daughter needs the help that only new, rich blood can give for she is anemic—that is bloodless.

Should you notice any of these signs, lose no time, but procure for her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or her unhealthy girlhood is bound to lead to unhealthy womanhood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich the impoverished blood of girls and women, and by so doing they repair the waste and prevent disease. They give to sickly, drooping girls health, brightness and charm, with color in the cheeks, sparkling eyes, a light step and high spirits. If your daughter shows any signs of anemia insist that she begin to-day to cure herself by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Miss Grace E. Haskins, Latchford, Ont., says:—"It would be impossible for me to speak too highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few years ago my health was such that my parents were seriously alarmed. I was pale, listless and constantly tired. I suffered much from headaches, and my trouble was aggravated by a bad cough. I tried several medicines, but to no avail, and my friends thought I was in a decline. Then Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended and my mother got three boxes. They were the first medicine that really helped me and a further supply was got and I continued taking them for several months until they completely cured me. Today, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am as healthy as any girl in Northern Ontario, and I am giving my experience that other girls may benefit by it."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Basic Facts About Belting

AND PARTICULARLY
Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial"
Frictioned-Surface Transmission Belting

A Worthy Product

Years of careful study of the high-power belt problem have enabled Dunlop Laboratory experts to create "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting, the original Red Face Rubber Belting of Canada—a product worthy of the Dunlop Factories and of the quarter-century record of success back of them.

"Gibraltar RedSpecial" Virtues Are Real

Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting is to-day simple that they are now, always have been, and widely used in a multitude of ways in the many always will be, in our opinion, the bedrock of varied industries in this country. It owes its success, not to any illogical deductions or fantastic analyses, but to the simplest causes—causes so

Permanent Elasticity Means "Life" in Belting

In producing this new, this original, this master, with long "fingers," and not a quality of rubber red belt, our object has been to have the friction the elasticity of which has been sacrificed to obtain the so-called high-pulling test. its life indefinitely, and to have a quality of rubber

That "Friction Pull"

When you are informed that such-and-such a belt has a "friction-pull" of abnormal poundage, do not imagine that you are getting a quality friction. What you have to secure in a belt is a friction full of elasticity. There must be between the plies of duck only a certain class of rubber to give uniform strength and pliability.

Resilient Quality Must Not Be Sacrificed To Excess of Friction Strength

To obtain high figures, such as referred to above, you a belt, the friction of which will hold the plies together and will be sufficiently elastic in its properties to allow for the give and take necessary in rounding the pulleys. It ensures for

Duck Finest Obtainable, Made to Highest Specifications

A highly important feature of "Gibraltar RedSpecial" is the duck which enters into its construction. Only the finest quality of specially-selected duck, having the proper tensile strength in the right direction, is used. And this, in combination with a superior rubber friction between the plies, ensures absolute uniformity of service.

Universal Recognition of "Gibraltar RedSpecial"

To cite the names of users of this famous, red frictioned-surface belt would necessitate the use of much space. We have on file recommendations from almost every type of industry requiring "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting in widths varying from 1 1/2" to 48". These testimonials are available for your perusal at any time.

The Original "Red"

"Gibraltar RedSpecial," as noted previously, is the Original Red Rubber Belt—and like most things that are original, its success is of the kind that endures.

"THE FIGHTING TRAIL"

 Now that we have changed our positions, I'll ask you my dear girl, just as I was asking, will you be so kind as to turn over the other half of the chart? I would not care to take any bold steps, but, I might remind you, you are holding something which would warrant my risking almost anything to obtain."
 Gwyn, as he rode at a rapid gait down the trail, looked back once or twice to assure himself that all was well at the barn. He did not fear leaving Nan alone with Von Bleck, for the prisoner had been securely bound and could scarcely move, he thought, let alone escape. Suddenly, as he rounded another turn in the trail, his horse stopped short. Gwyn's hand, almost automatically, reached down to his holster. But a few feet ahead, riding leisurely along the trail, was Cut-Deep Rawls, the man Gwyn was on his way to town to meet—the man, in fact, that Von Bleck had confessed, held the other part of the chart to a cinabar mine.
 Rawls' horse stopped almost as abruptly as had Gwyn's, but its rider was not as alert. When he lifted his eyes to see what had caused the unexpected halt, he found himself looking directly into the business end of Gwyn's revolver. He started, surprised and frightened, and obeyed Gwyn's command to Reluctantly Rawls allowed Gwyn to remove his revolver from his belt and then, from the bosom of his shirt, he extracted the half of the chart. Gwyn took it from him, glanced at it to make sure that he had obtained what he desired and not a blank sheet of paper, and put it in his pocket. Then, ordering Rawls to walk ahead, he turned his horse about and drove slowly back toward the barn where he had left Von Bleck and Nan.

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C.B.
 "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.
 In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

tune and was still searching.
 "We located the mine this afternoon," Gwyn said, and his smile reflected the enthusiasm revealed in his voice. "It's now imperative that I arrange for the shipment of the cinabar to New York. The organization which I am representing is eager that no time be lost, and the days that have been consumed by our strife with the Central Powers, in the form of Von Bleck, have been precious ones. We must catch up now."
 "Mr. Casey, since you are at the head of the vigilance committee hunting down the murderers of Don Carlos and Yaqui Joe, the developments of the future will depend greatly upon you."
 "My warrants," replied Casey. "call for only Rawls and Drant. Von Bleck, for some reason beyond my jurisdiction, is not included."
 "If you get the men you are after—it's a pity that I didn't hold Rawls when I had him—Von Bleck will be practically helpless to interfere with us," Gwyn said. "As soon as operations are begun I am going to install you as manager of the mine. Nan will be my wife. We plan to be married within the next few weeks, you know."

During the few months that immediately followed the little town of Lost Mine enjoyed the greatest boom in its history. It was fairly alive with busy, bustling humanity, hurrying to and fro, each absorbed with his own important mission. The village, from the town proper to the mine, lost, as it was, amidst the wilds of the unsettled and dismal Sierras, resembled a busy ant-hill with thousands of scurrying ants, set in the center of an open field. And prosperity came with the new life. The opening of the mine had created a demand for men, and the majority of the town's idle population was employed in the task of taking the cinabar from the mine and preparing it for shipment to the East. As a result, the neighborhood was scattered over with little wooden houses, built in the quickest and cheapest manner possible. Gwyn and Nan, who had married, lived in a picturesque cabin but a short distance from the main shaft of the mine. Their wedding had been one of the most important, and surely the gayest, event of the year. Practically the entire town had turned out at the Lost Mine hotel, and from that time on, the young couple had been the most popular folk in town.

SAVE FOOD

In a time needing food economy many people are not getting all the nourishment they might from their food. It is not how much you eat, but much you assimilate, that does you good.

The addition of a small teaspoonful of Bovril to the diet as a peptogenic before meals leads to more thorough digestion and assimilation and thus saves food, for you need less.

FINEST IN EXISTENCE

In what Mrs. C. A. Campbell, of Fowassan, Ont., says in describing Zam-Buk. She writes:
"I blistered my heel badly by wearing new shoes. Some dye from my stocking got into it; and caused a poisoned sore. It was extremely painful and for a week I could not put a shoe on. Then I heard of Zam-Buk and commenced using it. It was just wonderful the way it drew out the poison and inflammation, ended the pain and healed the sore. Zam-Buk is certainly the best balm in existence—everyone should know of it."
Zam-Buk is also best for eczema, boils, pimples, ringworm, ulcers, old sores, piles, burns, scalds and cuts. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

The Land of Promise Features Western Canada

In speaking of her Paramount picture, Billy Burke was heard to say a few days ago: "The Land of Promise" is to me one of the real pictures I ever worked in and in portraying the inner heart-life of the little, affection-starved English girl, Norah Marsh, I almost lived the character and was quite as worried over her problems and troubles as if they had been my own.

"The part of the picture that was staged in western Canada will be very beautiful, for we passed through the most beautiful sections of the Canadian Rockies and 'shot' some scenes there as well as in the yellow wheat fields where most of the production was taken and where my film husband was supposed to have a farm.

"A queer thing that happened while we were working on this production was that I kept feeling that I had been in those places before—and, indeed, several times when we were working about looking for 'locations' I was able to tell the driver which way to turn, although I had never been there before to my knowledge.

"The mystery was explained upon receipt of a letter from my aunt in Montreal, who asked me whether I remembered the trip I had taken with her through that same district at four years of age!

"The Land of Promise" in which I starred for many months on the speaking stage, was arranged for the screen by W. Somerset Vaughan, its original author, and will, I think, prove to be even more popular than the original, as we were of course, able to secure many effects impossible for the narrow limits of stage."

Mrs. S. A. Demers has been confined to her house all week as the result of a very painful accident Sunday, when she broke her collarbone.

NURSES MEET HERE IN JULY

Lemons Make Skin White, Soft, Clear
Make this Beauty Lotion for a Cents and See for Yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart jar of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear and smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

W I NEXT TUESDAY

MIRAMICHI HOSPITAL
The regular monthly meeting of the Trustees of Miramichi Hospital, was held in the Board Room on Monday afternoon at the usual hours. The superintendent reported many generous donations during the past month and also the gardens were being cultivated and put into shape for the season's seeding. The lawn in front of the institution now presents a very pleasing appearance and it is regretted that the Town Council does not repair the roadway in front of the Hospital and make it present a corresponding appearance.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of Fressona." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.
A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, itching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.
This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Canadian man, who says that, while Fressona is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply "snaps" up the corn without lacerating or even irritating the surrounding tissue of skin.
"Don't let father die of infection or torture from whitening of his corns, but slip this out and make him pay."
