Would you know a Biblo from a brick-bat or a card of gingerbread, if 1 were to throw you one ? I thought I had one in my coat pocket, but that's my pow-der flask. No, I know you wouldn't; but it's of no consequence whether you' would or nof, for you can't read, any 'more than the wind that fumbles over the leaves in the word ? It's a great country—but you haven't got there yet, and I'm afraid you never will zy ou wou't, certainly, unless you first know there is such a place, and belated Wind-whilere, is up there ! What you see overhead that looks like my blue cotton umbrella, here, when spread out, is make some sort of preparations to get there. Well, heaven, O ye poor, benighted and belated Wind-whistlers, is up there ! What you see overhead that locks like my blue cotton umbrella, here, when spread ou', is heaven. You live under the centre of it, and are the farthest off, while we, civilized and entightened beings, dwell round the edges—where the golden skies comningle with earth, and where perpetual peace and happiness prevail. We have no cares nor anxioties to trouble us. We take no thought as to what we shall eat, what we shall wear, or how withal we shall be cloath-ed—only fashion and respect require that we shall cat the best we can get, and were tho finest we can afford. MEMORANDUM - to shew that the Town-ships of Mornington and Wellesley were reserved to form part of the Huron District. On the 6th of March, 1838, the Act was passed, erecting the Huron District, (1st Vic. chap. 26). By the 23rd clause, two rights were established, as reserved for this District, viz: a range of townships to the north of the Huron District, and the division of the District of Huron (at a fu-ture time) into two counties. That clause the elevation of the Mechanical and other working classes to that moral standard in the scale of being which it is the privilege, and should be the ambition, of all to attain. Among the numerous periodicals of the day, there is not one devoted to the moral day, there is not one devoted to the moral improvement of the people, but is chiefly distinguished for its partizan zeal or religi-ous peculiarities. It will be the province of the proposed publication to fill up the vacuum between these two unavoidable extremes by presenting, every week, to the reader's consideration, such while as will strengthen the intellect, refine the mind, and source all mend the heart.
