Remember THIS!
 YOU CANNOT DRIFT TO SUCCESS.

It's a good deal easier to drift with the stream than to swim against it. But there's neither glory nor safety in drifting; the world reserves its applause for the man that opposes the current and forces his way to the Harbor. The stream of life has always crowds of drifters trusting to currents of luck to float them to the Harbor of Success. That's why so many bachelors wear looks of disappointment. Their bright dreams of youth have faded with the years, their age has no refuge. Not a pleasant prospect to think about, is it? But you'll do well to think about it now while there is still time to provide for the future; it is not too late to catch up with the crowds of House Furnishers; begin to-day. Secure your partner, visit our store, and you will certainly buy.

CHAPTER IX.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE.

THE park was almost as deserted as the streets; the row, which only a few short weeks ago was all alive with thoroughbreds and their riders, was a lonely wilderness, through which trotted a butcher boy on a shaggy pony. All was silent, save the squealing of a baby on a passing perambulator, and the click-click of a guardsman's spurs, as he walked beside the nursemaid who had the miserable infant in charge.

He sulkily sat puffing out his cigarette, and staring so fixedly under half-closed eyelids at the row that presently it seemed to fade altogether, and in its place rose the brilliant vision of a crowded theater, with every eye turned upon a tall, girlish figure, as it moved with lithe grace across the vast stage; this, in its turn, faded, and in its place rose a cottage in a quaint street, with a girl—the same girl—standing with white face and flashing eyes, one hand clasped against her bosom, the other raised and pointed a dismissal.

What this second phantom of the brain might have developed into cannot be known, for, as if impatient of the scene, Dawson Slade sat upright, flung his cigarette away and got out another.

'Strange,' he muttered—and he might as safely spoken aloud, for all there was to hear him. 'Strange how this misery clings to me! It is very hard that I can't sit down quietly anywhere for five minutes without her face coming like a nightmare! Is it the heart, or the stomach? Indigestion or—love?' He uttered the last word with an eloquent impatience and irritation. 'Be it what it may, I can't get rid of it, and I've tried—tried hard,' he mused, a mirthless smile crossing his handsome face, as the recollection of his life during the last few months rose before him. 'Man is a strange animal,' he went on; 'give him what he longs for, and in a few short days—or weeks—or months—he is only too desirous to be rid of it! Who knows, perhaps if I had got all I wanted—if she had listened to me that night, instead of sending me out of her sight like a beaten hound, I should not have been haunted by her real face, as I am by the memory of it. Haunts me? Yes, that's the word. It sleeps with me at night, rises in the morning, mixes in my claret and hovers round the smoke from my cigar. If that isn't being haunted, I don't know what it is. And I cannot lay the ghost: that is the rough part of it! I've tried—been—' he paused, and let his fingers, upon which he was abstractedly about to tell of the various amusements and dissipations of the last few months, drop to his side.

'Phaw!' he said, abruptly. 'I'll have done with it! A Schoolboy, in Suffered Terrible Pain from His Kidneys.

Perhaps no other organs were harder than the kidneys to preserve the general health of the body, and most people are troubled with some kind of kidney complaint, but do not suspect it.

There is no way of getting the kid-ney poisons out of the system except through the kidneys, and no medicine so effective in taking them out as Dr. Bovey's Herb Tablets.

They help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages.

Mr. C. Jordan of Port Sandfield, writes as follows:

Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr. Bovey's Herb Tablets. I suffered terribly from kidney disease for three years, which trouble I contracted from exposure while working at my trade which is carpentering. I was advised to try your medicine. I am thankful to say that I am now completely cured, and I can truthfully recommend this medicine to all sufferers from this painful disease.

Thankfully yours,
C. JORDAN.

A Suitable Comfortable Model.

Girls' Princess Coat Dress.

The coat dress has been so popular for past months among grown ups that it seems only fair to give little folks a chance to show how pleasing and becoming the style is for them also. The model here shown has an open neck with sailor collar cut with shawl revers over the fronts. Plated extensions at the seams at skirt depth lend a graceful fullness. The sleeve is a coat-shaped one-piece model. Wash or woollen fabrics may be used for this design. The pattern is cut in 5 sizes—6, 8, 10, 12, 14 years, and requires 3/4 yards of 44 inch material for the 10 year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in stamps or silver.

his first love throes, couldn't have a worse attack than mine, and for what? All for a girl with dark eyes—an actress, who flung my honorable proposal in my face, and then, to escape a repetition of it, disappeared from civilization. Yes, I've done with it! he added, resolutely; but two minutes afterward he was harking back on the same strain. 'What became of her?' he mused. 'Where is she? Is she alive—or dead?' At this point of his mental question his lips twitched. 'Not dead,' he said, communingly, 'or I should know it. I feel I should know it somehow! But she might be as well dead as alive for me; and yet I stop in this cursed frying pan of a city, deserted by every reasonable creature, brooding over this fancy of mine, when all the world lies before me! Dawson, my friend, you are a consummate ass! Let the girl go and forget her! Go to the theater and fall in love with some other weep; go—oh, go so to the devil rather than stay here brooding over the miserable chapter of the past! Another pause; then: 'Yes, it's the stomach. Is it gout—suppressed gout? No; we don't get it until we're forty. It's dyspepsia. I wonder how Baden-Baden is looking? If one could only go and lose a thousand or two at the tables, as one used to be able to do before the prigs shut them up, there'd be some fun at it. But I've tried that, though,' he said, with a vague smile of recollection, 'and it didn't amuse me a bit. No; argue with and bully my self as I may, the girl's face haunts me, and I shall never know peace until I learn whether she is alive or dead, until I see her again!'

There was no occasion to do more in the way of restoration, for with that heavy sigh by which the sleeping soul proclaims its reluctance to return to this hard life of ours, she opened her eyes, and, raising her hand to her forehead, stared wildly at him.

It was not the same he had known at a glance; it might not have been thought so strikingly like it if the two faces could have been side by side; but here, away from that never-to-be-forgotten one, the resemblance struck every chord of his nature, and set his blood tingling. For another reason than by that of self-possession, he had remained silent; he was waiting, with well-concealed eagerness to hear her speak.

Slowly, painfully, she drew her jacket round her, put up her finger to still the quivering lips, then turned her eyes—dark, almost black, and, with a world of expression in them—upon him.

Great Conference.

What People Are Saying About the Great Gathering at Edinburgh.

Very eulogistic opinions are being expressed about the great World Missionary Conference which has just terminated in Edinburgh. "The most important of these gatherings, which were held in the spacious Assembly Hall of the United Free Church of Scotland, seem to have owed much to the remarkable personality of the young American whom public opinion designated to the chair," writes the Times in a leading article.

A Master of Assemblies.
 "Mr. J. R. Mott is henceforth to be recognized as a born master of assemblies. Himself the product of Cornell University, he has learnt to know men, and to be known, in almost every academic centre in the world."

"It is said that during a vigorous and outspoken discussion about the Congo he looked quietly through his hymn book and then as quickly announced: 'We shall now sing the last two stanzas of hymn No. 36.' It was Carlyle's splendid version of 'Ein feste Burg,' and at once those who had been most fierce in their denunciations, and those—a Belgian among them—who avowed their belief that on the Congo the tyranny of death is past, were singing with all the deliberateness of Scottish hymnology—

"And though they take our life,
 Goods, honour, children, wife,
 Yet is their profit small;
 These things shall vanish all,
 The City of God remaineth."

A Wonderful Unity.
 "But the wonder of the Conference is not in its outlook or its purpose," writes Dr. R. F. Horton in the British Weekly. "No, the wonder is in the compact, solid, businesslike combination of all these varied elements into an organism; a brain, a voice, which seems to be actually filled and used by Christ through the Holy Spirit."

"Here all nations and all churches (except, alas! the so-called Catholic Churches, Eastern and Western) sit side by side, with no conscious barriers between them. They speak as one, they pray as one. In this amazing assembly, so vast that the eye can hardly take it in, so orderly that there is no confusion, so harmonious that it might have been drilled and prepared beforehand, an Anglican Bishop is sitting side by side with a Non-conformist minister; a black man is sitting by an American pastor, an Anglican monk or nun is sitting by a Chinaman in native costume, a Japanese or Korean, in European dress, with gold spectacles, is sitting by an equally civilised Finn, or German, or Dane. All ranks of all nations are united; English and Scotch noblemen have seats in this House of the Lord; the Archbishops of the English Church address these representatives of all Protestant churches as brothers."

Missionary Spirit Not Dead.

"If," says the Scotsman, "there are any who have cherished the idea that the missionary spirit is dead or dying in the Churches of Christendom, they have had a thorough awakening. Three of the largest halls in the city have been crowded daily for the space of two weeks with audiences eager to hear what a company of twelve hundred delegates have been eager to tell. A Continuation Committee has been appointed for the purpose of giving form and energy to the future giant action of the Reformed Churches on the outside mass of heathenism and barbarism; the World Conference that has just closed is to be the first of a long series of councils of war held for the advancement of the Kingdom of Peace."

A Great World-Force.

"No man who has watched the Conference in Edinburgh through the newspapers, or has personally noted its characteristics, can have failed to realize that, notwithstanding that it was necessarily a partial Conference, he was looking on at the operations of a great world-force," writes the Guardian in a leading article.

"To a very large extent, indeed, it has been an American Conference, revealing to some for the first time the fact that no nation is taking so large a part in the evangelisation of the world at this time as the United States. The vast majority of the Conference were, moreover, in communion with each other, divided by no definite lines of doctrine or policy. We refer, of course, to what in the United Kingdom are called the 'Free Churches.'"

"There can be no doubt whatever that this is the greatest and most aggressive evangelising force in the world to-day, yearly conquering, in the name of Christ, new regions, and consolidating their work under the leadership of very able men who are devoting every energy, from the noblest of motives, to the Missionary cause. Their Missions so far outnumber all Anglican Missions that we become almost a negligible quantity."

into communities, had established them upon the Scriptures, and had changed their hearts, having given them the new Christian motive and the vision of Christ in a personal and experimental religion. Such results have been tested by persecution unto death and have survived. Ideals of education definitely Christian have been realised in many lands, and on a scale and level far above most—but not all—of the achievements of the Anglican Church. In the same manner the level of the training of workers at home and for the Mission field has been seen to be far higher and the curriculum far wider than most of the Anglican ideals. The result of the Conference therefore has been a mutual benefit. Every High Churchman must have returned from the Conference a more convinced High Churchman, but with an added experience in many directions, above all with a deepened respect for Christians not in communion with him, but who are worthy of the highest respect for their character and life-work in the cause of God."

The Missionary Problem.

The following summary of the Missionary problem was put out at the final meeting in a Message of the Churches:—

"The next ten years will in all probability constitute a turning point in human history, and may be of more critical importance in determining the spiritual evolution of mankind than many centuries of ordinary experience. If those years are wasted havoc may be wrought that centuries are not able to repair. On the other hand, if they are rightly used they may be among the most glorious in Christian history. But it has become increasingly clear to us that we need something far greater than can be reached by any economy or reorganisation of the existing forces. Just as a great national danger demands a new standard of patriotism and service from every citizen, so the present condition of the world and the missionary task demand from every Christian and from every congregation a change in the existing scale of missionary zeal and service and the elevation of our spiritual ideal. There is an imperative spiritual demand that national life and influence as a whole be Christianised, so that the entire impact, commercial and political now of the west upon the east and now of the stronger races upon the weaker, may confirm and not impair the message of the missionary enterprise."

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a broken-down, a weaker, a less vital force that sustains the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being, sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—energy.

VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY

to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of the celebrated life-reviving tonic.

and a new existence imparted in place of what had been entirely worn-out, "used up," and valueless. This wonderful medicine is purely vegetable and innocuous, is agreeable to the taste, suitable for all constitutions and conditions, of either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or debility, which will not be speedily and permanently relieved by this new-fangled, life-reviving tonic, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this purpose, and to restore to all human beings, a new and more vigorous life.

THERAPION is sold by all chemists and druggists. It is also sold by the proprietors, Messrs. J. W. Silliker, Ltd., 176 Water St., St. John's, Nfld.

Governor Takes Trip.

His Excellency Sir Ralph Williams, accompanied by Lady Williams, Miss Dean, Mr. Gale and Secretary Fitzherbert, goes in the cruiser Fiona for a trip to the Labrador Coast and will sail shortly. Mr. Geoffrey Williams, His Excellency's son, who is in the rubber business in British East Africa, is on his way here to visit his parents on a lengthy holiday and will make one of the party.

Was It Stolen?

Mrs. A. Rice, who resides on Freshwater Road, on Saturday evening placed $15 in a purse and then put it in a drawer in a bureau in an upper apartment of her house. She went to get the money yesterday morning and was surprised to find it gone. Who took it she does not know. It is thought that one of the many boys who congregate there got into the house and stole the cash.

Home Rule's Position.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, writing in Reynolds's Newspaper on the Veto Conference, says:—
 "I do not know how the idea has germinated, but the idea is very prevalent that the Conference may come to an agreement, not merely on the Constitutional issue, but also on Home Rule. One of the ablest members of the House of Lords asked me the other day whether I had directed my mind to the possibility of such an outcome from the Conference. I answered that I had, but that, personally, I had been unable to find any ground for any such hope of such a blessed consummation.
 And yet, of course, if the Unionist leaders were able to take a statesmanlike view of the situation, that is what they would certainly settle at the Conference, if they settled nothing else. I believe that many of their rank and file are of the same opinion. I have held for years that the conciliation of Ireland is the greatest of all English and Imperial, as well as of Irish, interests, and conciliated Ireland would be a greater protection to England—and to the Empire than forty Dreadnoughts, in addition to those we have already."

MARRIED AT TRURO.—The marriage of Mr. J. W. Morris, Supt. of the R. N. Co's. electrical plant, took place at Truro this afternoon. The Regatta Committee sent him a telegram of congratulation last night through the Secretary, Mr. Noonan.

DOING GOOD WORK.—Inspector Bambrick has now a gang of men macadamizing Water Street West, from Job's Bridge west. The work is being performed in a very thorough manner, the street here wanted this badly, and it will be in fine order when finished.

FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST.—Free cooking lessons are being given in the use of this famous yeast, at the British Hall on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week, at 2.30, and also on Friday night at 8 o'clock. Ladies are cordially invited to attend.—July 12, 14, 15.

GARDEN PARTY.—Arrangements are now being completed for the annual garden party at Mount Cashel on the 27th. There will be on the programme a six mile race from Torbay. Several young men are now training hoping to win the gold medals. The football boys will also be an interesting feature. All that is required now is fine weather to make the event a success.

Bad Affair at Bell Island.

We learn from people who arrived from Bell Island via Portugal Cove yesterday, that a serious affair occurred at the Island, Sunday afternoon, in one of the shacks at the green in near the mines. Some of the men had obtained and consumed considerable liquor, and a row occurred during which a woman, who was in a delicate state of health, was badly hurt and was rendered unconscious, in which condition she remained from 4 p.m. till past 10 at night. A man named Leo Moore fell through a window and had his right arm terribly cut. The main artery was severed and he lost such a great quantity of blood that he was rendered extremely weak and lapsed into unconsciousness. Dr. Guthro and Rev. Fr. McGrath were summoned to the place, and Const. John Morrissey was also on the scene when the affair had been reported to him. The Dr. gave every attention to the woman and the man. It is believed that the woman will pull through all right, but the doctor has serious misgivings about Moore who, when our informants left yesterday, was in a serious condition. The affair caused a great sensation on the Island, and Const. Morrissey and Sgt. Cox are thoroughly investigating it.

London to Paris Airship Service.

Lady Abdy Gives a Quarter of a Million Dollars to Promote It.
 London, July 6.—Lady Abdy, who paid $630 for privilege of going up with Graham White, the English aviator, in a flight at Brooklands on June 18, and who was unhurt when the machine fell to the ground, has given $250,000 towards the promotion of an aerial passenger service between London and Paris.
 A committee is being formed of leading aviators to study the best means of utilizing this gift, either by an airship or an aeroplane or by a combination of both.

TWO MILLION DOLLARS ESTIMATED LOSS.

Special to Evening Telegram. ST. JOHN, N. B., July 11. A message received here from Dalhousie to-night reports that the town of Campbellton has practically been wiped out by fire. People are homeless and are making for Dalhousie by way of Dalhousie Junction. The I. C. R. station is included in the catastrophe. There are said to be only two dwelling houses left standing, no trains are running as the track is destroyed. The loss is estimated at two million dollars.

Negros Conspire Against Whites.

Special to Evening Telegram. HAVANA, July 11. Col. George Valera and six others, most of them colored men, were arrested by the secret police to-day, charged with conspiring to start an uprising against the Government. The seven men were on their way to Bermeja in the Province of Matanzas to which place a trunk containing arms and ammunition and dynamite had been shipped from Havana. Letters and documents found on them who have been brought to Havana are believed to implicate many other persons in the conspiracy. The trunk was traced by the police to the Medical School of the Havana University. The janitor of that institute was arrested to-day and a large quantity of dynamite was found in his possession. It is not quite three months since the last negro conspiracy against the Government was nipped in the bud by the police. Agitation of the race question in various parts of the Cuban Republic culminated on April 3rd with the arrest of General Estenez, leader of the Independent Party of Color, and 4 of his associates. Following the detention of Gen. Estenez many arrests were made in various parts of the Island in compliance with orders from President Gomez who announced his determination to proceed with the utmost vigor against the people responsible for the agitation which in effect was regarded as a seditious movement calculated to develop open revolution against the Government. Indictments were returned against General Estenez and 22 of his associates, charging them with the crime of inciting rebellion and instigating anti-white violence. Later, however, all the negro prisoners concerned in the alleged conspiracy, with the exception of the negro leader, were discharged by a special judge who was appointed to try the case.

The Baltic Collision.

Special Evening Telegram. LONDON, July 11. The German tank steamer Standard which collided with the White Star liner Baltic, on June 30th, was sighted Friday last by the steamer Diamant about 500 miles due west of the North Coast of Ireland. The Diamant offered assistance but the Standard declined the offer. The collision occurred in a fog more than 1,000 miles east of the Ambrose Channel Light. The Baltic had a large hole stove in her bow, but covered it with steel plates and reached New York safely.

Boston's Baking Days.

Special to Evening Telegram. BOSTON, July 11. Such intense heat as has marked the past two days Boston has never before known since the establishment of the Local Weather Bureau nearly 40 years ago. To-day the maximum was 84 degrees, and there was one death and 18 prostrations on record to-night.

Fight Pictures Not Wanted.

Special Evening Telegram. LONDON, July 11. The British Government has no power to prevent the exhibition of pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight, according to a statement which Winston Churchill, the Secretary of State for Home Affairs, made in the House of Commons to-day in reply to a question put by Sir Howel Davies. There seems to be little disposition in England to exhibit these pictures. The leading London Music Halls have declined to show them.

High Flying.

Special to Evening Telegram. BOURNEMOUTH, England, July 11. A new British record for high flying was made by J. Armstrong Drexel at the Aviation meet here to-day, he reached an altitude of 1,850 feet.

St. Bon's and Collegians Draw.

The 13th match of the League football series took place at St. George's Field last evening, a large gathering of people attending. Excellent weather prevailed and a stiff breeze of wind blew from the westward. Though not a fast game it was doggedly fought and there was a good deal of applause for both teams from the spectators. The teams lined up: St. Bon's—W. Vall, goal; J. O'Flaherty, W. Fifth, backs; M. Power, W. Hearns, J. Rawlins, halves; E. O'Donnell, R. Brennan, J. Higgins, G. Rawlins, W. Templeman, forwards. Collegians—B. Butler, goal; C. Thomas, G. Gear, backs; T. Sparks, F. Haddon, A. Pike, halves; H. Bastow, B. St. Hill, J. Aitken, C. Penny, S. James, forwards.

St. Bon's took the western goal and during the first half had the breeze in their favor. At the start the Collegians got quickly west and Vall was called upon, and in saving the ball rebounded off one of the Collegians and rolled into the net, the Collegians thus scoring the first goal. St. Bon's now worked hard, kept the ball down on their opponents' goal for quite a while and tried hard to score, but the Collegian backs prevented this and their defence was admirable. The Collegians again got up the field but Higgins drove the leather from danger and St. Bon's again got down field and tried several times to score, but their shooting was erratic and at half time no further scoring had been done. When play was resumed it was thought that with the wind in their favor the Collegians would have an easy win, as they are a fine football aggregation and play a fast game. They kept the ball well down on their opponents' goal for quite a time and in a scrimmage, in the goal mouth they barely missed putting in the winning goal. Templeman getting the leather ran west with it, when Bastow touched the ball with his hands inside the twelve yard line, recording a penalty kick against his team. O'Dea placed the ball in the net, scoring the equalizer. After some very fast play the final whistle blew with the game a draw. W. J. Higgins refereed.

Two Fine Boats.

By the shore train last night they arrived two fine chukka built boats for the s.s. Fiona. They were built at Coley's, near Bay Roberts, and certainly reflect credit on the builder, a man named Isaac Bowring. Mr. Bowring is a first class shipbuilder; has worked abroad for years, and is a man of versatility as a mechanic being capable also of erecting first class houses. All who saw the boats highly approved of them.

A PLAYER INJURED.—Towards the close of the football match last evening B. St. Hill, one of the Collegians, was severely injured in the face, having been kicked by a man of the opposing team as he was stooping to head the ball. He was obliged to quit the field.

HARD TO PLEASE

Regarding the Morning Cup. "Oh how hard it was to part with coffee, but the continued trouble with constipation and belching was such that I finally brought myself to leave it off."

"Then the question was, what should we use for the morning drink. Tea was worse, for us than coffee, chocolate and cocoa were soon tried; of milk was not liked very well, and hot water we could not endure."

"About two years ago we struck upon Postum and have never been without it since. "We have seven children. Our boys now eighteen months old would not take milk, so we tried Postum and found she liked it and it agreed with her perfectly. She is to-day, and has been, one of the healthiest babies in the State."

"I use about two-thirds Postum and one-third milk and a teaspoon of sugar, and put it into her bottle. If you could have seen her eyes sparkle and hear her say 'good' to-day when I gave it to her, you would believe me that she likes it. "If I was mother of an infant's home, every child would be raised on Postum. Many of my friends say, 'You are looking so well!' I reply, 'I am well; I drink Postum.' I have no more trouble with constipation, and know that I owe my good health to God and Postum."

"I am writing this letter because I want to tell you how much good Postum has done us, but if you know how I shrink from publicity, you would not publish this letter, at least not over my own name."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

MARSHALL BROS.

Obituary.

MRS. BRENNAN. On Saturday morning last there passed away to her reward one of the oldest residents of the Torbay Road, in the person of Mary, relict of the late John Brennan, farmer. Born in the "Emerald Isle," County Tipperary, 1827, she came to this country when a mere child, and by thrift, industry and honest dealings was enabled to live comfortably and happily. She was one of the old stock who are 'ast going from our midst. Being possessed of a kindly nature she lived up to it; charitable amongst her neighbours in time of sickness and want. Her home was a most hospitable one. She was a strict adherent to her Holy Faith. During her few months' illness she was attended by Rev. Fr. Sheehan. Her funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended, many going out from the city to be present. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Fr. Sheehan in the Mortuary Chapel, Mt. Carmel Cemetery, and the final absolution given at the grave-side, when all that was mortal of this generous and Christian old lady was laid at rest in the family plot. She leaves a son and daughter to mourn their loss; John, who resides on the "Old Homestead," and Mrs. M. Bulger, King's Bridge. M. W. Myrick was in charge of the funeral arrangements.—Com.

McMurdo's Store News

TUESDAY, July 12, '10. If you have planned to go fishing to-morrow, you will be found wanting. If you fail to carry with you, something to keep the mosquitoes at a respectful distance. We suggest Tan Oil and Penayrol as one of the best and most economical means of keeping flies away. Its good services in this direction are known to most experienced anglers, but there are still others who might use and profit by it. For their benefit we write. Price 25c. a bottle. We have in stock a full line of Dr. Roy's Remedies, now being so effectively advertised in town. Price 25c. each.—adv.

Special Evening Telegram. CAPE RACE TO-DAY. Wind W. strong, with dense fog; several steamers were heard passing during the night; the schr. Jessie Lennox, Capt. Interesting Football.

Saturday afternoon at Bell Island an extremely interesting football match was played between the teams of the D. I. S. Co. and the N. S. S. Co. Both teams play very good football and would give some of our best city teams much trouble to beat them. Fully 2,000 spectators were present, and in the first half W. Burke, for the D. I. S., took a beauty from midfield and landed the leather in the net. This was the only goal scored and the D. I. S. won. Much money was bet on the game, and at its conclusion the winning team was dined by their friends at Wabana House. To-night the winning team is also being dined, by Mr. Joseph Murphy, and about 70 covers will be laid. This match concluded the first round of the League series. The D. I. S. lead with 2 points to their credit; the N. S. S. 1, and the Wabana, nil.

Going to Manuels.

Many people are going to Manuels to-morrow. A garden party will be held there by the Rev. J. Coady's parishioners. Manuels is a pretty place and no doubt those who go there to-morrow will spend a pleasant day. The boys of Mount Cashel will be there with their band rendering music. The football contests will begin at 4 p.m. One can go out by the 8.45 a.m., 2.30 p.m., or 6 p.m. train. The football fixtures are as follows:

- 1st Round.
(1) Star vs. B. I. S.
(2) St. Bon's vs. C. E. I.
(3) Collegians vs. Casuals.
(4) Feildians (bye).
- 2nd Round.
(a) Feildians vs. Winners of (1)
(b) Winners of (2) vs. Winners of (3).
- Final.
Winners of (a) vs. Winners of (b). The first game commences at 4 p.m.

Request for One Hundred Millions.

"A hundred Million pounds sterling is the immediate price which, according to certain distinguished officers of the Army and Navy, this country must pay to obtain security from attack," writes the Scotsman. "We publish the letter in which this startling announcement is made. It is addressed to the Prime Minister, and is signed by over a hundred flag officers and general officers of the two services. No responsible statesman on either side of the House has, however," adds the Scotsman, "suggested that, had as was the position, shown in March, 1909, it required for meeting the immediate expenditure of a hundred million pounds. It is enough to meet a new situation when it can be definitely foreseen, and it has yet to be shown that the present state of our defences justifies such a vast outlay. Moreover, the suggestion of the memorialists that the spending of this sum should be left almost wholly to the services themselves will hardly meet with universal approval."

GOT BAD KICK.—When the football match was on at Bell Island, Saturday, one of the N. S. S. team, named Lindsay, received a bad kick in the ankle about ten minutes before the game closed, and for a while it was thought the leg was broken. The man had to be carried off the field and suffered intense pain.

FISHERY GOOD THERE.—The fishery continues good in Placentia and St. Mary's Bays and it is expected that the voyage when concluded will be well up to last year's. During the past week several orders were received in town for more salt.

AT WESLEY CHURCH.—Addresses will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. K. Curtis, and Rev. J. W. Hutchinson, of Dakota, at the Women's Missionary service in Wesley Church this evening. Solos will be rendered and a collection taken up for the foreign missions. No doubt those who remember Mr. Hutchinson as a former pastor of Alexander St. Church will be pleased to hear him again.

The Clementine Here.

The Clementine arrived from Barbados this morning to A. Goodridge & Sons, 20 days on the passage. Capt. Tucker brought a load of molasses to Goodridge's. The trip was a fine one. Thomas Penny, a boy, stowed away on the ship before she left here and was not found till they got to Cape Spear. The captain then put him on the ship's articles at 25 cents a month as deck boy. He turned out to be a fine young fellow and did his work well. He will make a good seaman. MINARD'S TANNING CURE'S DISTEMPER.

Nutritive Hypophosphites

When a person feels "blue all tired out"—doesn't feel like doing anything—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares overtaxed, etc.

Nutritive Hypophosphites forms the best nerve and brain food known, and have restored thousands of sufferers to health. Large bottle, $1.00.

Do You Know Your Ailment? Or is it a complication which can be reached only by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS. There is only one medicine that can prove thoroughly satisfactory in complicated ailments of the liver and kidneys, and that is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

They begin by regulating the bowels and awakening the action of the liver, thereby effecting a thorough cleansing of the excretory system. By thus removing the poisons from the system they lighten the work of the kidneys and gradually restore them to health. Nobody who once learns of the definite and certain action of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in regulating and invigorating the kidneys, liver, and bowels, is willing to take chances by experimenting with other medicines.

Such ailments as biliousness, constipation, chronic indigestion, liver complaint and kidney disease yield readily to this treatment. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, at all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for a free copy of Dr. Chase's Receipts.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"Will you look at that beautiful old woman?" exclaimed my companion. I looked where she indicated. The only old person in sight was a woman with her face screwed up into a hundred wrinkles.

"You don't mean that woman?" I inquired in astonishment.

"Well, I did," said my companion, "but she looks like another woman with that expression on. Wait until she stops screwing her face up that way and you will see how lovely she really is."

And sure enough when the woman finally unscrewed her face from the disfiguring contortion she really was a splendid looking old woman—one of those white haired but still young, eyed, and fresh-cheeked, and wholesome old folk that you almost wish you could carry home with you to ornament your living room.

But during the contortion—well, anyone who looked at her would have looked away as promptly as possible. Do most of us realize what unpleasant looking creatures we frequently make of ourselves by permitting these disfiguring expressions to cross our faces?

From the expressions I see on the street and in the trolley cars I should most certainly say not.

You look about you in the trolley car.

Your vis-a-vis is telling you the companion of someone whom he dislikes and his plans to get the better of him, and the hatred and cunning that he feels come out into his face and screw up his mouth into an ugly leer.

Another person constantly contracts his cheeks and wriggles his mouth. No, his contortions are not the result of any particular emotion. He is simply trying to do with his tongue what should be done with dental floss.

You turn away in distaste from him and think you have found a pleasant place for your eye to rest in the face of the pretty young girl next to him. But just as you are congratulating yourself on this, the young girl begins to violently rub her right eye, sympathetically screwing up the right corner of her mouth, and the prettiness that you were enjoying is completely destroyed.

I do not know of any greater service the snapshot camera has done us than to catch us at some of these times when we are disfiguring ourselves by hideous expressions, and "the gift to give us to see ourselves as others see us."

When such a thing happens we wildly beg our friends to give us the film that we may destroy the hateful likeness, but do we try to destroy the original of it?

Undue self-consciousness is a very disagreeable quality, of course.

But it seems to me that enough self-consciousness to make us watch ourselves a little and try to guard against allowing disfiguring expressions upon our faces would be more disagreeable than due watchfulness of our language and due interest in the care of our clothes and persons.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organization soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

AT WORK IN 3 WEEKS

$4 Worth of Father Morrisey's "No. 7" Cured Her of Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Mrs. Agnes Edgar, of Grand Falls, N. B., had a terrible time with Inflammatory Rheumatism. Anyone who has had this most painful disease will understand her suffering—and her joy when she found Father Morrisey's "No. 7" had cured her. She says:

"I took Father Morrisey's Prescription for Inflammatory Rheumatism. I had suffered everything with it, but in three weeks after starting Father Morrisey's Prescription I was able to do my work, and after taking four dollars worth of medicine I was well. I highly recommend it any sufferer with Rheumatism."

Rheumatism comes from bad kidneys. The poisonous Uric Acid which they should remove stays in the blood, accumulates in joints and muscles, and causes agony. Father Morrisey's "No. 7" puts the kidneys right, removes the Uric Acid from the blood and the whole system, and cures the Rheumatism. Get a box at your dealer's, or from Father Morrisey Medicine Co. Ltd., Chatham, N. B.

Coroner's Verdict in the Shute Case

A verdict to the effect that William Miller died as the result of a blow on the head, administered by Stephen Shute, whose arrest should be maintained, was returned by the coroner's jury this afternoon.

Dr. McFaggart, of the morgue, who made the autopsy, stated briefly the nature of the skull fracture, which he said was the cause of death. There were also signs of hemorrhage, which were apparently caused by the wound.

The first witness was John Murray, 563 City Hall avenue, longshoreman. He said that deceased's name was William Miller, aged 31, and worked as a laborer. He came to the city on April 3rd last, but could not say where he came from, except from some place in the United States. Witness did not know anything personally about the affray. On Sunday he went to deceased's boarding house, at 19 Craig Street West, and found him lead in bed.

Joseph Pare, 422 Montana Street, witnessed the fight at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Witness stated he saw the man struck on the head by a piece of wood. The two were in the shed, Shute and Miller, and witness was positive that Shute was the man who struck the deceased, hitting him on the left side of the head. Miller did not have anything in his hand at the time. Shute and Miller had worked together for a few weeks, but he had not seen any fight between them before.

"He was after me all the time," was the answer Shute gave when witness ran up to him after he saw Miller fall to the ground.

Robert Rhind, assistant superintendent of the Allan Line, said he was coming through the shed, in company with Mr. Pare, and he saw a scuffle between two men. He saw that Shute was about to hit Miller with a piece of wood, and he hurried to the scene, but before he could arrive there Miller had been struck. The men were close together at the time, and he could not see whether Shute just picked up the piece of wood there or whether he had it in his hand before.

"What did you hit him for?" asked witness of Shute at the time.

"Well, this man has been nagging me for a week or more. I am a Newfoundland, and he was always poking fun at me," was the reply of Shute.

When Mr. Rhind saw Miller to be in bad shape he called the ambulance.

Noel Gendron, another witness, also gave evidence as to Shute's striking of Miller. When asked why he thought the two men were fighting, witness replied that he did not know, as the two men were talking in English, and he understood French only. His evidence corroborated that of previous witnesses.

Alfred Bevaux, a wharf laborer, also did not understand English and could not say what the two combatants were saying at the time of the fight, but he saw Shute striking Miller.

Detective Richard said he arrested Shute Monday forenoon at 11 o'clock at 29a Ottawa Street, Point St. Charles. Witness stated that Shute admitted having struck deceased three times—once on the leg, then on the body, and the last time on the head.

The jury then returned its verdict as above.

Romance of Science.

The death of Dr. Galle, the famous astronomer, recalls one of the most astonishing deeds in the history of astronomy, and one which makes the freaks of fiction pale in the white light of sober fact.

In 1781 Sir William Herschel discovered Uranus, a planet more distant from the sun than any known to the ancients. Up to that time Saturn was the most remote of the known planets. The fact that Uranus had not been discovered was not due to any lack of size, but to its distance from the sun. It is about fifty times bigger than the earth, but it is 1,752 million miles from the sun; whereas the earth's distance from the sun is only 91 million miles.

After the discovery of Uranus astronomers began to watch and to try to account for its movements. After taking everything they knew into account they could not account wholly for its motions. They naturally concluded there was some disturbing cause which was unknown to them, and the suggestion was made that there was an unknown planet more distant than Herschel's planet Uranus.

In July, 1841, Professor Adams determined to investigate the irregularities of Uranus. In 1845 Professor Adams had calculated where the planet ought to be found, and on July 29th, 1846, the large telescope of the Cambridge University began to look for it.

In September, 1846, M. Le Verrier wrote to those looking for it at the Berlin observatory, telling them where his calculations put it. His theoretical place and Adams's being close together. Two astronomers independently, by mathematical reasoning on data which was known, had predicted the existence of an unknown planet and its location. The interest in the scientific world was intense. Sir John Herschel remarked: "We see it as Columbus saw America from the shores of Spain. Its movements have been felt trembling along the far-reaching line of our analysis with a certainty hardly inferior to actual demonstration."

The question still remained whether the ocular demonstration would corroborate the conclusion of the mental eye. Romantically enough it did. On September 23rd, 1846, the looked-for planet was observed in the Berlin observatory, and astronomical reasoning won its greatest triumph. The astronomer who caught the glimpse of the planet at Berlin was Dr. Galle, who died at Potsdam on Sunday. The German astronomer by ocular proof demonstrated the mathematical reasoning of his British and French confreres. Since 1846 much had been learned about the planet, which was named Neptune. It is 54 times more bulky than the earth; its diameter is 39,000 miles as against the earth's 7,900 miles. It is 2,746,271,000 miles from the sun, which it gets round in 165 years.

Dr. Galle was born in 1812, and was 98 years old when he died.

Training Teachers.

Professor Robertson who has transformed agriculture in the Dominion, says: "The secret of our success in Canada has been in selecting teachers and in training them. In England you think that Latin needs a trained teacher and anyone can teach the secrets of nature. I think the reverse is true." Dr. Robertson is a great believer in the bench for manual training and the garden for arousing natural curiosity.

We believe that the dry bones of education will have life put into them before many years elapse.

Presentation of Prizes

At the People's Club last night the prizes won at the recent sports were presented. Mr. J. J. Healey, the Chairman, after the roll had been called and other business transacted, opened proceedings with a few choice remarks. The presentation was made by Councillor Mully, viz.: 109 yds. dash—A. Pike, cigarette holder and case. Putting the shot—P. Murphy, smoker's outfit, the gift of the Chairman, J. J. Healey. Three mile walking match—J. J. Healey, a meerschaum pipe, the gift of Mr. Edwards, the Ladies' Tailor. Card tournament—G. Roud, a meerschaum pipe, the present of Councillor Ryan. Votes of thanks were passed to the donors of the prizes and the Chairman. Refreshments were then served and a pleasant hour spent.

Postal Official Arrested

We learn that the Police Department were yesterday informed that a postal official who worked in an outport Post Office had left by the Bruce express Sunday evening for the United States, giving no warning and failing to furnish his accounts. His name and description were given and the police along the line were telegraphed to capture him. He was arrested, we learn, at Port aux Basques last night and will be brought on here.

To-Morrow's Excursion

The Shamrock Amusement Club's excursion leaves here for Brigus at 7.30 this evening by train. Fully 200 persons will go and a good time is assured them there. There will be sports and football matches, and a concert and dance to-morrow night. They leave to return at 9 p.m. to-morrow.

The Crescent Club goes by the S. S. Mary on their excursion to-morrow to Bell Island. A very enjoyable dance and a good time is in store for all who attend.

Good Fishery News.

The s.s. Home arrived at Bay of Islands from the Straits at 11.50 a.m. to-day. Capt. Blandford reports to the R. N. Co. as follows:

"Fishery from Bonne Esperance to Battle Harbor good with hook and line and trawls; traps very little. Grant at Blanc Sablon has 5,500 qts. ashore and Whiteley at Bonne Esperance has 1,500 qts."

POLICE COURT NEWS.

There was no prisoners in court to-day. Jack Quinn remanded yesterday was sent down for 6 months. The other man who was held on a charge of loose and disorderly conduct was sentenced to 30 days. As he had shown signs of insanity he will be examined by a doctor and possibly sent to the asylum.

This Year's Cure.

Quite a large quantity of new fish is now in stock at Renew and Fermeuse, having been cured within the last few weeks. A considerable quantity of this will be shipped here next week. Yesterday some small lots of new fish came to the city from the eastern settlements.

Professional people, actors, lawyers, doctors and ministers, who frequently suffer from exhaustion and prostration as a result of excessive nervous strain find Ferrovim the invigorating tonic unequalled to strengthen and renew the exhausted tissues of their body. Ferrovim is composed of fresh lean beef, Citrate of Iron, pure old Spanish sherry wine. $1.00 per bottle.

Overdue With Dynamite on Board.

The schr. Alberta which has a load of dynamite on board for Bishop and Sons is now in her way from Halifax for this port and is out a week today. She should soon turn up here though there is no anxiety expressed about her.

Coming on a Visit.

Rev. Father Galway will arrive here to-morrow by the Monkolian. He is coming from Wheeling, West Virginia, on a visit to his friends, Messrs. D. and M. Galway, tailors, who are his cousins. Before leaving Wheeling Father Galway's parishioners, members of the Holy Name Society, met and presented him with a purse of $370. He is very popular amongst the people of Wheeling.

BAV DE VERDE FISHRY.—There is now a splendid sport of fishing on at Bay de Verde and yesterday all boats and traps did well. Mr. Jno. O'Neill took 70 quintals from his twine and others had from 30 to 60 quintals.

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

Keefe and the Cabman

A young man named Keefe, and Gibbs, the cabman, had a row on Duckworth Street, near the T. A. Hall, at 12.30 this morning. Gibbs drove Keefe up around the Higher Levels to Casey Street, John Street, and back by way of George Street to Duckworth Street. Gibbs asked 80 cents for the job. Keefe refused and said that he would pay him 50 cents which was, in his opinion, quite enough. He said then: "I'll fight you for the difference." They both got out on the sidewalk. Gibbs story is that Keefe struck him first a blow in the face. The cabman then started in and beat his fare unmercifully. It is hard to say how it would have ended had not Mr. T. J. Foran, who by the way is himself a no mean disciple of Sandow, hearing the cries of Keefe, at the Daily News Office, ran out and separated the men. As soon as Gibbs saw Mr. Foran coming on the scene he left off beating his fare. It will be seen from this that the spirit of ancient chivalry will not die as long as there are Knights of the Stylus around.

Boat Turned Over.

While beating in the narrows yesterday evening as a stiff breeze blew a boat containing two fishermen turned over in the narrows. Both clung to the upturned skiff until a man named Keough of the Battery reached them and took them on board his punt. But for this timely aid they might have been drowned as both were heavily clad. They lost their catch of fish and a motor boat towed in their boat.

Cesspools and Filth.

Cesspools are to be found on the South Side in the drains in certain places. They emit a terrible stench and if Inspector O'Brien were to go over there he would find that all kinds of filth is being thrown in the bed of the river. The Inspector is just the man to bring such people to time.

Personal Notes.

Rev. Dr. Whelan arrived in town yesterday and is staying at the Crosbie.

Geo. King who formerly played a cornet in the M. Guards here has won a prize in a rifle contest held at Edmonton, Alberta, recently, where he now resides. He made a score of 97.

Train Notes.

About 40 passengers left here by the shore train at 6 p.m. yesterday. The local arrived here at 9.20 last night bringing Mr. Ross, Mr. Gibbins, I. G. Sullivan and about 40 others.

Fishery News.

To-day's news boiled down:—Herring Neck—Sign of squid; good sign of cod yesterday.

Fogo—Fair with hook and line.

Change Islands—1/2 to 2 qts. per boat on herring bait.

King's Cove—Traps at Stock Cove yesterday 3 to 5 qts.; nets at Broad Cove 1 qt. each.

Catalina—Traps, nil; boats, 1 to 2 qts.; some squid in traps yesterday.

Holyrood—Traps at St. Mary's yesterday 5 to 10 qts.

Here and There.

GOOD CATCH OF TROUT.—J. Duff and party, at Steer's, who were fishing at Bay Bulls Pond yesterday, got 17 dozen fine trout.

BANKERS AT CARBONEAR.—There are now four bankers at Carbonear seeking squid. About 6,000 were jigged there last evening and sold on board the vessels.

GETTING A PILOT.—Messrs. Bowring Bros., through the Messrs. Bartlett of Brigus, are negotiating for a pilot for the yacht Surf and will send one forward shortly.

THE RACER GUARD.—The Guard, the new race boat for the Methodist Guards, is being painted and she will be put in the water the latter part of the week. She is a beauty.

DIED FROM INJURIES.—Mr. T. Atkins, who was run over by Dr. Anderson's horse a couple of weeks ago, died from the effects of his injuries yesterday. Mr. Atkins was well known and highly respected in the city, and leaves a widow and several children.

TOOK A HEADER.—In bringing his yacht into Marshall Bros. wharf a couple of evenings ago, Mr. Bob Sexton was hit by the boom and took a header into the water. He was fished out by a man named Parling not much the worse for his involuntary bath.

Good Old Lady Gone.

The death of Mrs. J. C. Harvey, relict of the late Rev. J. C. Harvey, D.D., occurred Saturday morning last. Deceased had reached her 88th year and had been ill for a long time. Mrs. Harvey was mother of the late Mrs. Warren and grand-mother of Hon. W. R. Warren. Mrs. W. C. Job and Mrs. R. B. Job, to whom the Telegram extends its condolence. Her father was a portion of the celebrated old time firm of Pack, Gosse and Frier, which carried on an extensive business at Carbonear a century ago. The other daughters of Mrs. Harvey—Mrs. Amour, Mrs. Windler and Mrs. Sadlington—are residing abroad.

Deserters Again.

The Messrs. Chafe, planters, of Petty Harbor, are in town to-day looking for deserting fishermen. Their going off at this time of year is a serious loss to the trap owners. Some of these fellows "take up" $40 or $50 worth of provisions, etc., and clear out without any remorse of conscience. It is said that one of them is now camped at the head of Mundy Pond having a lazy time.

Marine Notes.

The s.s. Ulunda sails to-day for Halifax taking several passengers.

The s.s. Tobacco sailed for Liverpool at 7 this morning taking considerable freight and as passengers H. E. Greaves and Miss Alderidge.

The Othar left Anderson's Cove at 10 a.m. to-day.

Crosbie & Co's. new steamer Fogo is due here Saturday.

The Sulu leaves at 4 p.m. for Fogo taking a full cargo and these passengers: E. Abbott, C. Hatcher, C. J. Winsor, N. Winsor, Miss Edgar, Miss Taylor, Misses Abbott (2), Miss Grace Snelgrove and Misses Templeman (2).

The schr. Wynst, 4 days from Little Bras d'Or, arrived here to-day coal laden for W. Hynes.

Outing at Peddleton.

The Messrs. Archibald, of the Harbor Grace Boot and Shoe Factory, are giving their men an outing at Riddleton to-day. Fifty-seven of them came out by the morning train from Harbor Grace with an outfit of camps, fishing gear, boats, etc. Their programme will include football, races, etc., and they will remain camped there till next Friday, all at the Messrs. Archibald's expense. This is something like a holiday. The girls will get an outing on Aug. the 15th.

Coastal Boats.

BOWRING SHIPS. The Portia left Hr. Breton at 3.30 p.m. yesterday.

The Prospero sails north at 10 a.m. to-morrow taking a large cargo and these passengers:—

Messrs. N. Constello, W. Hart, G. Knowling, Richard St. Charles, C. Whitten, Jacob Bishop, L. Bartlett, W. Waterman, F. H. Wood, H. Bartlett, D. Fraser, J. T. Currie, Webster, Karnoff, Rev. J. C. Airships to Carry Passengers Between London and New York in Three Days.

New York, June 13.—Inspired by the many remarkable airship feats performed, several influential Englishmen are seriously considering the establishment of an aerial navy for passenger and mail service from England, not only to various continental cities, but also to Canada and the United States. So far has the plan progressed that routes have been laid out, and time tables roughly drawn up, while a large tract of land near London has been secured for the erection of stations. Baron Roenne, a Russian, is the expert at the head of the undertaking. He has just finished designing an airship which, it is announced, should make the journey between London and New York in about three days. It will be ready for use in less than a year, and upon its success will, to a certain extent, depend the establishment of the indicated general service. The contemplated London-New York airship is to be a rigid dirigible, the outer cover of which will be composed of an alloy known as chromium, having a surface like a mirror. The ship will be a thousand feet long, and 65 feet in diameter. It will be moved by sixteen propellers, and have a carrying capacity, exclusive of its own weight, of thirty-eight tons. In the case of the airships intended for flights between England and the Continent, eight motors will be employed. Of these only four will be kept working at one time, thus giving ample opportunity for any necessary readjustment or repairs.

Certain to be Sorry.

To the leader of a band, jocularly spoken of in the locality as "the worst in seven different counties," there once came a man with a request that the band play at a cousin's funeral.

"Is it a military funeral?" asked the leader.

"Not at all," was the reply. "My cousin was no military man; in fact, he was never interested in matters military. Nevertheless, it was his express wish that your band should play at his funeral."

The leader was surprised and flattered.

"Is that so?" he asked.

"Yes," responded the other; he said he wanted everybody in the place to be sorry that he died."

Ontario Bars Fight Pictures.

Toronto, July 7.—The Jeffries-Johnson set-to at Reno will not flash on the canvasses of the moving picture theatres of the Province. Following a meeting of the Cabinet, Premier Whitney announced that by an Order-in-Council the pictures of prize fights would be prohibited. Copies of the new regulation will be sent by the Provincial Police Department to the Chiefs of Police throughout Ontario, as well as to every moving picture show under license. A violation of the regulation is punishable with a fine of not less than $50 or more than $200, with $25 additional for every day that the pictures are shown. The alternative is three months imprisonment and loss of the license. Where a local police officer fails to enforce the regulation, a Provincial officer may step in and do so, and also prosecute the officer for failure to do his duty.

Attempt on Life of Jack Johnson.

Chicago, July 8.—Richard McGuirk, a St. Louis machinist, was arrested today after he had attempted to force an entrance to the home of Jack Johnson, negro pugilist. McGuirk was armed with a rifle. The police were called by excited neighbors of Johnson. They feared that McGuirk intended to kill the heavyweight champion. McGuirk is held in jail pending an investigation. When examined at a police station he said he had lost $25 as a result of the fight at Reno. He denied he intended to harm Johnson. On further questioning he said his home was in Brantford, Canada, but he had been working in St. Louis for several months.

Print Paper Supply.

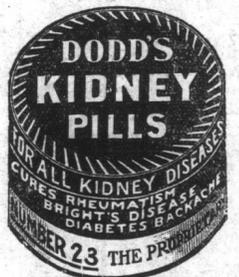

Charge is Made That Output is Under Restraint of Manufacturers. Saratoga, N.Y., July 6.—The increased price and diminished supply of news print paper was the principal subject of discussion before the representatives of the Associated dailies of New York state who met here today in connection with the annual meeting of the New York state press association, which opens its annual convention to-morrow. Mr. John Norris, of New York, led the discussion and stated in part: "An illustration of the extremes to which the coddling of the paper trade has been carried may be found in the case of the International Paper Company, which brought together twelve years ago a group of 30 mills, of which only 49 of them were then in good condition. Some months ago, before the paper strike occurred, it produced only 925 tons per day, though it had a capacity of 1,416 tons per day. At present it is producing an average of 18 tons per day per machine. Contrast that showing with the recent production in Newfoundland by American brains on American machines, of 59 tons of paper per day per machine."

The World-Peace Celebration

Joint Movement by Great Britain and United States Planned. New York, July 6.—The movement for a world-wide celebration in 1914 for a one-hundredth anniversary of peace among English-speaking peoples took form here today with the announcement of a committee selected to organize the work of preparation. The committee is headed by Andrew Carnegie as chairman, and announcement of the present status of the movement was made today by Chairman John A. Stewart of the executive committee of one hundred. The treaty of Ghent was signed on December 24, 1814, and is proposed to commemorate the event through an invitation issued jointly by the citizens of the United States and Great Britain to the world at large to take part during 1914 in a common celebration. The exact form which the celebration shall take has been only tentatively discussed.

There Isn't Any One For Me to Play With Any More.

(The last words of Mark Twain.)
 The glow is fading from the western sky.
 And one by one my comrades, as of yore,
 Have given up their play and said good-bye;
 There isn't any one for me to play with any more.
 Don't cry, dear heart! for I am worn and old;
 No longer have I largess in my store;
 E'en love's best gifts to me I could not hold;
 There isn't any one for me to play with any more.
 I miss the tender hand-clasp of old friends,—
 The kisses of the loved ones gone before;
 'Tis lovely when the heart first comprehends.
 There isn't any one for me to play with any more.
 I need these loving hearts, so fond and leal;
 I want them in my arms, as heretofore;
 When they are reached I shall no longer feel.
 There isn't any one for me to play with any more.
 JAMES TERRY WHITE.

Varsity Students in a Pitched Battle.

Lemberg, Austria-Hungary, July 2.—The two groups of Ruthenian and Polish students of the University of Lemberg got at each other again yesterday, and before the police had separated the combatants many of the band of students had been seriously wounded. The feud, born of racial jealousy, is as old as the university itself, and periodical clashes have occurred. For some time the bitter feeling has been held in bounds by the university authorities, but yesterday it broke out with renewed fury and led to a fierce battle for the possession of the campus. Hundreds of students were involved. Many of them had revolvers and these were used. When the firing began a strong force of policemen was summoned and the fight became a three-cornered affair. The officers finally succeeded in driving the students to cover. Broken heads were the rule, but in numerous instances injuries of a grave nature were found to have been inflicted.

Throw Away Tainted Meat.

LONDON, July 3.—Extreme care to avoid tainted food is urged upon the public by the medical heads of the London hospitals in a manifesto issued to-day. Practising physicians are urged to co-operate with the people in deciding what are the best hot weather foods and the most effective way of keeping them pure. The action of the hospital doctors is due to the wide prevalence of "food illnesses," arising during the recent spell of remarkably sultry weather. For days the sun was blanketed by heavy clouds, the air was oppressively close, and food, particularly in the homes of the poor, became tainted. Acute intestinal illness brought hundreds of patients to the hospital wards from nearly every part of the metropolis.

The doctors say that these attacks were often the result of blood poisoning, and that in some instances several members of a single family were fatally stricken. It is recommended that meat and fish be bought only in quantities large enough for the day, except in homes where the cold storage arrangements are adequate.

"Throw away your tainted joints."

urge the physicians. "To keep them is the falsest possible economy. Either they are fresh or they are not; there is no half-way condition in which they are safe. Cooking them again makes no difference; the danger remains. Babies generally live unless they are unwise fed. Tainted food is responsible for the vast majority of infantile deaths in hot weather. Do not give the babies milk which is in the slightest degree sour. Keep them off meat and fish and limit their diet of sugar and uncooked fruits. All eggs used should be perfectly fresh." The impression is growing in the London medical world that appendicitis increases with the use of meats and salads, and the whole tendency of expert opinion favors the limitation of the meat diet and the thorough cooking of green vegetables and fruits. Too great a reduction of one's reserve energy is also pointed out as a contributory cause of appendicitis.
