Town and County News
The Fergus Express advocates the running of a daily mail between that village and Orangeville.

On the completion of the gallery in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Elora, the W. M. Punshon has promised to preach or lecture.

MISS JENNIE FRASER, an old favourite, will appear at the Catholic concert, in the Drill Shed, Elora, on the 12th of February.

Mr. W. A. COOLEY has been nominated member of the Provincial Agricultural Association by the South Westworth Agricultural Society.

Mr. BRILL informs us that to-day he bought 200 hogs, averaging 220 lbs each, for $5.10 per 100 lbs, and also 4000 hams from the Elora Packing Co.

ACCIDENT IN ARTHUR.—On Saturday, as a switchman named Clayton, was coupling cars on the narrow gauge, in Arthur, he was unfortunate enough to have two of his fingers so badly crushed that amputation was found necessary.

SALE OF PORK.—Mr. Wm. Farrish, miller, Rockwood, sold on Thursday to Mr. John Stewart 36 hogs, weighing each on an average about 287 lbs. They were for weight and quality the most equal lot sold in Guelph this season.

CORRECTION.—Mr. David Dickson, grain dealer, requests us to correct the statement made by our correspondent giving the returns of produce bought at Clifford. Up to the 17th Mr. Dickson bought 7,106 bushels of wheat for $7,896 40, and pork 27,668 lbs for $1,308 85.

AN IMPORTANT FACT.—It is a fact that the millers of Elora, Fergus and other places south of these points are buying wheat in Clifford, Harrison and Moorefield, carrying it over the railway, and laying it down in their mills at a lower rate than they can buy similar grain in their own neighborhood.

SCHOOL POPULATION.—Says the Galt Reporter:—The School population of the Town of Galt continues steadily to increase, although not very rapidly. Last year the population was 1118, comprising 598 boys and 520 girls; this year the census shows a population of 1162, made up of 620 boys and 542 girls. If these figures are correct, the increase has been exactly the same in boys and girls—22 each.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Association was held last (Thursday) evening in their rooms, and after the usual devotional services, Mr. Russell gave an excellent recitation and Mr. McIntosh gave an instructive essay, (the Glory of Young Men). Mr. D. McCreac made the Association the handsome present of a splendid volume, "Life and works of Saint Paul," and after the usual service the meeting adjourned.

LEAP YEAR.—The following is the Statute in the old Saxon code referring to Leap Year, and we suppose it is just as potent as ever. We give it for the special benefit of our bachelor friends: "Albeit, as often as leap-year doth occur, the woman holdeth prerogative over the man in courtship, love and matrimony; so that when the lady proposeth it shall be lawful for the man to say her nay, but shall entertain her proposal in all good courtesie."

THE GEORGIAN BAY.—This Bay, a magnificent sheet of water—itsself an inland sea—is skirted by a finely timbered country, from which the lumber mills of the district draw their supply of logs.—At favourable points along the whole stretch of coast from Nottawasaga Bay to French River, which affords water communication to Muskoka Lake, saw mills are established. The numerous large and important streams that flow into the bay afford easy means to bring the timber down to the shore from the woods. On the shores of the Georgian Bay alone, there are saw-mills manufacturing nearly 140,000,000 feet per season.

GUELPH POLICE COURT.
Before T. W. SAUNDERS, Esq., Police Magistrate,
January 19.
John BRITTONS was charged, on a remand, for obtaining money under false pretences from John Gibson last October. As the prosecutor could not be found the prisoner was discharged.

Prince Arthur has arrived in Berlin; and the Duke of Edinburgh is shortly to take command of the iron-clad mail-boat Sultan.

Eight weddings a day is the thing at Barrie.

THE MAYOR'S DINNER.
Last (Thursday) night Richard Mitchell, Esq., recently re-elected Mayor of Guelph, gave a dinner to the new Council, along with a number of invited friends, in the Queen's Hotel. The company sat down to a most excellent spread, which was served in the most refined and tasteful manner. His Worship occupied the chair, and the duties of vice-chairmen were discharged by Mr. James Massie, Reeve, and Mr. F. J. Chadwick. After the company had done full justice to the many good things provided, the chairman gave the usual loyal and patriotic toasts, which were honoured with every mark of loyalty. Mr. Chadwick gave the Mayor and Corporation, and in the course of his remarks referred to the able and efficient manner in which the Mayor had discharged the duties of the office, which was an excellent guarantee that they would be equally well performed this year. He also expressed the hope and belief that the new Council would give him every assistance, and work heartily together for the good of the Town. The Mayor, Messrs. Snider, Crowe, Holl, McMillan, Stewart and others responded in suitable terms. The Reeve and Deputy-Reeve were next proposed, to which those gentlemen made appropriate replies. The toast of the retiring members was next drunk, and replied to by Mr. Walker and Mr. Hefferman in short and witty speeches. The Town and County Treasurers were given, and responded to by Messrs. Harvey and Reynolds. The Town Assessors and Auditors followed, which were responded to by Messrs. Minnaek, Armstrong and Knowles. The health of Mr. Chadwick was given, which was highly honoured and responded to by that gentleman. During the evening several excellent songs were given, and loudly applauded. The company after spending a most pleasant evening, broke up after singing "Auld Lang Syne" and God Save the Queen.

The Railway Campaign in Bruce.
Kincairdine Jan. 18.
The Narrow Gauge By-law has been voted down in Kincairdine Township. A mass meeting was held here to day, when Messrs Adam Brown of Hamilton; and David Stirton M. P., of Guelph, spoke for the W. G. & B. Railway with excellent effect. The deputation consists of Messrs. Spirton, Brown, Leggat, Gregory, Edgar, Hay, Lovell and Ridout. Prospects are cheering.

Eight weddings a day is the thing at Barrie.

INTERIM SESSIONS.

The Kelly Larceny Case.
Jan. 19.
To-day at 12 o'clock Judge Macdonald gave sentence on the larceny cases which came up before him yesterday at the Interim Sessions. Herman Meyer for stealing $25 from Frederick Beck, Clifford, was sentenced to two months in jail with hard labour.

In the case of Wm Kelly, the prisoner on being asked why sentence should not be passed upon him, said he was tempted in an unguarded moment to take the goods. He was very sorry for what he had done, and for bringing such disgrace on his parents and friends. It was his first offence and he hoped it would be his last. He threw himself entirely on the mercy of the Court. The prisoner seemed to feel his position keenly, and his feelings overcame him when addressing the Court.

His Honor, in passing sentence, said a petition had been presented to the Court on prisoner's behalf. It represented that he felt deeply penitent for his offence. At the same time he (the Judge) had to look at the depositions and record, and also at the position he had occupied as night watch and constable, who was bound in this position to do all he could to protect property, and to serve the ends of justice. In the deposition it was stated that he had acknowledged receiving the goods, but not to taking them. He (the Judge) did not wish to affect his position, but he did think it would have been better for him to have made a clean breast of it. That was matter of regret, but of course he could not press it now. To make such acknowledgment might assist him afterwards in regaining the position he had lost, and it would also affect his father's position. A great deal of feeling had been exhibited in the case, as was shown by the numbers who attended the Court yesterday, and this feeling was heightened from his connection with the Chief Constable.

The prisoner said that on after consideration he plead guilty, no other person whatever being concerned in the theft.

The Judge said that he was bound to take this confession now, and perhaps it was as well it was made now as afterwards. Prisoner should have thought of his family and his position before he committed the theft. He however repeated what he had said before, that he could only have regard to his present position. In looking at this as prisoner's first offence, he could not overlook his position, which should have precluded him from committing it. With regard to the punishment, he had to regard that as it would affect the prisoner and others. He could not but feel that the admission of being guilty in this public place would be more a punishment to the prisoner than any other which could be inflicted, and the more so in that it detracted from the position and standing which his father occupied, so that even a light sentence if passed, would under these circumstances be a severe one. The higher the position the greater was the fall. The sentence was that the prisoner be confined in the common jail for six months.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES BY TELEGRAPH
LOSS OF THE "IDAHO."
Explosion in a Cartridge Factory.
Brilliant Entertainment.
Anniversary of the Order of the Black Eagle.
The Nile Expedition.

Baltimore, Jan 19.—A private cable despatch states that the ship Idaho, of this port, was lost off the coast of Ireland on the 13th inst. It is supposed the officers and crew are safe. The ship was insured for $60,000.

London, Jan 19, 5 a.m.—A terrible explosion occurred in a cartridge factory in Greenwich yesterday afternoon. The clothing of a large number of girls employed in the factory took fire, and they rushed shrieking through the town into the neighbouring marshes in hopes of drenching the flames. The factory was totally destroyed.

Washington, Jan 18.—Sir Edward and Lady Thornton gave the first reception this evening, which was attended by the foreign ministers, and was a brilliant entertainment.

Berlin, Jan 18.—The annual banquet of the Prussian Order of the Black Eagle was given to-day upon the anniversary of the establishment of the Order by Frederick First, in 1701. The attendance was quite large, including many members of the Royal family and most of the prominent noblemen in the Kingdom and Empire. Emperor William was the chief speaker, and in the course of his remarks alluded to the fact that the occasion was that of a double anniversary, viz: the coronation of the first Prussian King, and of his own assumption of the Imperial Crown. Among the interesting incidents of the banquet was a toast given by the Bavarian Minister to Emperor William, the victorious.

New York, Jan 19.—The Herald's London special says that the Nile Expedition was at Koroska on Jan 16th, and was preparing to cross the Desert for Abroo, and expect to strike the Nile near the fifth cataract in eight days, and if they find no water by that route they will take four dromedaries and fifty camels.

It is learned that Sir Samuel Baden is well and near Kartown.

The English surveyors in Soudan have nearly finished their labors.

The Herald's expedition received great assistance from the Khediv's officials.

NEWS ITEMS.
London has an excitement and a protestated election over its mayoralty.

Miss Katie McLean, a precocious four year old, sings at penny readings in Kincairdine.

The city of Montreal has determined to expend $2,000 in the renovation of Nelson's monument.

The New York Sun gives the following editorial paragraph without any comment:—"Last year there were 305 murders in this city. Nobody was hanged." The paragraph speaks volumes for the state of society at Gotham.

A despatch from Fort Garry informs us that there was a general rush of miners to the new gold diggings up the country, where miners are taking out $2,000 a day. Old Californians assert that these diggings are superior to those of California.

The fight between the Jesuits and Free Masons in Germany and Italy continues the very bitter, and the latter backed by the Prussian Emperor and steadily assisted by the Government. A few days more will see a grand lodge established under the very eyes of the offended Pope.

During the Irish famine and the year of distress following, England subscribed (including a rate-in-aid) £2,600,000, besides making a grant of £10,000,000—facts which are now forgotten by the Home Rulers and Repeaters, though the help thus rendered kept the Irish people from starving. During the same period the United States sent in produce and cash about $200,000, while France did not contribute £50,000, though the Fenians gave the French deputation an ovation in Dublin whilst hooting the Royal Family.

GOSE WHERE THE WOODSIE TWINETH.
The Hamilton Times of Thursday says:—This morning the country side of Barton became excited over the details of a love affair which has terminated in an elopement. The case is yet too fresh for full particulars, but such as may be given are as follows: A few days ago a respectable resident of the township discovered, to his great grief, that his daughter had been ruined by a man who has a wife and two children, residing a mile or so distant. The afflicted parents at last determined to send the girl West to some place where her approaching shame could be hidden in oblivion, but such was not to be the case. This morning she, accompanied by her father, went to the Western train, and he took the necessary ticket for her and left her comfortably seated in the car. At a few hours later it was discovered that the false husband had collected his effects and had gone West by the same train, leaving his wife and family to do the best for themselves. He also borrowed some money to make his journey the easier. The affair has created intense mortification to those most intimately concerned.

Riot in London.—A disgraceful riot occurred in London on Monday night, by which a meeting of loyalists was broken up by a mob of so-called republicans. The latter caused the flight of the chairmen, broke up the platform, demolished the furniture, and departed singing the well-known French revolutionary hymn the Marseillaise. The police authorities looked on quietly without interfering.

THE HERALD AND THE TOWN FINANCES.

The Herald on being cornered quibbles, and affects to have a bad memory. It has no recollection that anyone ever stated that the debt of the Town would be over $18,000.

In this connection we may as well correct another error the Herald has fallen into in commenting on the first meeting of the new Council. It states that the Market House Committee's report, showing an expenditure of over $2,000, was adopted without a single remark.

As to the complexion of the Committees, if the members themselves are satisfied, we do not think it is any one's business to grumble. They have full confidence that the members of the different Committees will do their duty faithfully to the whole Town.

Dominion Board of Trade.

OTTAWA, Jan 18, 1872.

The Dominion Board of Trade met at 10 o'clock.

The Bay Verte Canal question was introduced by Mr. Barton, of St. John, who advised its construction, as it would reduce the freight on flour 20 cents per barrel between the Upper Provinces and Bay of Fundy.

Mr. Burton moved, seconded by Mr. Lindsay, and resolved, That this Board look forward with much interest to the report of survey now in progress for construction of the Bay Verte Canal, and look upon the undertaking as one of great importance to the Dominion, and they urge upon the Government the prosecution of the work, should the survey be found favorable, as soon as practicable.

Mr. Howland introduced the question of the North Shore Railway, and the practicability of opening up a new line of railroad from the west to the seaboard, using the facilities of the Toronto and Nipissing, Canada Central, Northern Colonization, North Shore and other organizations.

After an able speech, he moved, That in view of the probable construction of the North Shore Colonization Railway, it is desirable that a line be constructed to meet the Western Railways centering in the City of Toronto, to meet these lines at or near Ottawa; and in this way a new Trunk Line from the west to the sea will be secured, which would not only greatly assist Canadian trade, but would also be connected with the Western Railway of Canada, and give a new route by which the United States products could reach our seaports.

This resolution was violently opposed, as it was to divert the Canada Central from the Upper Ottawa towards Toronto.

Mr. Watson moved, seconded by Mr. Cameron, in amendment, That the words "From Toronto or other Western cities," be substituted for the words "Centering in Toronto."

The resolution, as so amended, was carried, after a long debate. The trade relations with the United States was then brought up. This subject embraced several questions, including the Treaty of Washington, and a long debate ensued as to whether the Board should take any action in the matter, which was so soon to come up for discussion on the opening of Parliament.

It was at length decided that as there were delegates present from the National Board of Trade of the United States, it was advisable that the Board should not give any expression of their opinion on the subject, and the debate was appointed to take place at 2 o'clock.

The Telegraph, commenting on the probability of Mr. Wood supporting the present Government, says that in him it will "have a supporter whose vote will count, but whose influence and power are dead. Poor Wood! Let the Opposition handle him tenderly, charitably. Let the public life that began auspiciously, but is closing in the meanest treachery, be allowed to flicker out without a buffet or a taunt. His own conscience is exercising agony enough. Let him vote in peace for his late enemies until his tale of bricks is completed, and he can drop out of sight, and sneak into the haven that is to be the reward of his guilt, and compensation for his suicide."

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 19, 1872

HELEN MOIR

OR
Love and Honour.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.

CHAPTER XI.

"Bah! Do you think a threat will bring it from me? Were that all the pressure under which I spoke, the seal upon my lips would remain unbroken. But I promised to serve you, and I will. Listen; but first let us see that no one is near, for no mortal ear except your own must hear the words I am now to utter."

"We are alone—quite alone," said Dubosque, with nervous eagerness, but jaunty, less under the influence of impatience and excitement, stepped cautiously out from under the bushes, and stood upon the high road, where he had a clear view on every side.

The evening solitude was unbroken. No human presence but that of the owl in that secluded place. On either hand the lonely dusty road stretched in silent loneliness, and around them the woods stood dark and motionless, while the grey hills reared their lofty crests towards the stars, which were beginning to reveal themselves in the azure vault. All things spoke of peace and repose. Nature was the only listener, but Jasper Jaquin had no fear of Nature being a talker, and of the spiritual being of the universe which might be near he took no account.

And there, in the deep stillness of that twilight hour, under the shadow of the bushes to which they had again withdrawn, by the side of that beautiful loch of the water lilies, Jasper Jaquin spoke words to Victor Dubosque, to which the latter listened with bated breath and an amazed but bounding heart. The revelation was so astounding that at first he could not credit it, but the luncheon supplemented it with circumstantialities so minute that by degrees belief entered his soul, and its dark depths were stirred with wild, exultant joy.

When they left the spot, the stars were shining full out in the canopy overhead, and the sultry summer night had settled down upon the scene; but Victor Dubosque was in possession of a secret which gave him the power to meet Helen Moir as a blighter and destroyer. And he resolved to lose no time in exercising this terrible power of misery and woe, for on the morrow he meant to watch for and waylay her, and pour to very drops on her quivering heart that vial of measureless sorrow which had been put into his vindictive hand.

CHAPTER XII.

THE APPROACHING SHADOW SEEN AND FELT—HELEN'S FEAR AS SHE ENTERS THE CLYDE.

Herman had left for Glasgow with the ten o'clock boat, and Edwin had gone off to London, where he went very frequently now, and where he and Mignon Lessing might have been seen wandering by themselves on some part of the long beach fronting the Inellan Road, or climbing the heights behind, where other things could flourish besides heather—even love, which had already taken root in both their hearts, and promised to grow with tropical rapidity.

Mrs. Allerton was confined to the house with a slightly sprained foot—the result of a stumble among the rocks on the previous day—and Helen had brought her sewing work into the parlour to bear her company; but this act of loving attention the good lady would not permit, ordering her, with a pleasant smile, to be out of doors enjoying the bright sunshine and the fragrant air—a command which Helen did not strenuously oppose, for to ramble by herself on the seashore, or over the uplands, was a sweet delight. In these solitary walks she had generally a favourite author in her hand—Cooper or Longfellow, Tennyson, Browning, Dickens or Thackeray—but, truth to say, her thoughts often strayed from the printed page, following her own bright, happy fancies, and contemplating the radiant hopes with which a noble love had illumined her path.

So she went out now, and passing through the garden, where Ritchie was at work among the flowers, she went out by the gate and turned east along the shore. The boat she had brought out that morning was Tennyson's "Miller's Daughter," a poem which, in its sweet, exquisite love-breathings, was peculiarly akin to her own heart's experience. The smoothly flowing lines, the words, and the images passed through her soul like a strain of richest music, thrilling it with a delicious rapture.

The Woodstock Municipal Council have rescinded the vote of $2000 awarded the Chicago Relief Fund, and have called upon the collectors to refund the subscriptions to those who subscribed. Verily charity commences at home—up in Woodstock.
