Lloyd George Announces That Bank of England Will Provide Acceptors of Ante-Moratorium Bills With Funds to Meet Their Obligations.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Sept. 4, 9.50 p.m.—David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, announced tonight that an arrangement has been arrived at to remove the difficulties caused by the breakdown of foreign exchange.
Under this arrangement the Bank of England will provide acceptors with the funds necessary to pay at maturity all bills contracted before the moratorium was declared. Acceptors will be under obligation to collect from their clients the funds due them as soon as possible and apply those funds to the advance made by the banks, for which interest will be charged at two per cent. above the ruling bank rate.
The bank undertakes to claim repayment of any amount not recovered by acceptors from their clients for a period of one year after the close of the war. Until the end of this period the banks' claim will rank after claims in respect of post moratorium transactions.
In order to facilitate fresh business and the movement of produce and merchandise from and to all parts of the world, the joint stock banks have arranged, with the co-operation of the Bank of England and the government, to advance to clients the amounts necessary to pay their acceptances at maturity where the funds have not been provided in due time by the clients of the acceptors.

The Cedric arrived from Liverpool with 1460 passengers, including many American refugees.
Dr. Elliott would not say in what part of England he was when he saw the troop trains. He estimated the number of Russians at more than 70,000 and declared they had come by way of North Scotland and were on their way to the English Channel to embark for the continent. Passengers who arrived on the Mauretania from Liverpool yesterday brought the first information concerning the reported transportation of Russians to Belgium by way of British territory and mail advices from London today told of 80,000 Russian troops having reached France.

Ask Kaiser's Intentions Suggestion to Wilson

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Spectator, discussing the German operations at Louvain, says:
"We venture to take this opportunity of again suggesting that President Wilson should approach the German emperor and ask him for a plain declaration of what his intentions are with regard to all the treaties signed in his behalf at The Hague. Those agreements have been shamelessly disregarded so that no earnest man can now place any trust in German promises."
"Does the German emperor repudiate the Geneva convention, and—understanding of Europe that has grown up in the last two hundred years? Does he repudiate the Hague conventions? We ought to know. In our opinion the United States owes it to civilization to find out for the rest of the world."

CALL TO ARMS GIVEN BY PREMIER ASQUITH STIRS BRITISH SPIRIT

Announcement Made That Nearly 300,000 Men Have Been Recruited—Two Divisions of Indian Troops on Way to Front—Churchill Praises Navy.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 4, 1:15 a.m.—In the historic Guildhall of London Premier Asquith today started the crusade to stimulate enlistment under the British flag, which he intends to push through the country. He is calling upon every able-bodied Briton of military age to come to the help of his country in the hour of need.

which symbolizes unity and which no arms could sever or dishonor. Referring to affairs at home, the premier declared that since the order of mobilization had been given, between 250,000 and 300,000 recruits have been secured. He made an appeal to non-commissioned officers to return to the army and offer their services. The premier said his appeal was addressed as much to employers as to the men who should be assured of reinstatement in their positions on their return.

Speaking with great emotion the premier called attention to the fact that it was just three and one-half years ago that he had spoken in the Guildhall, on the occasion of the decision of the two English-speaking nations of the world to settle their differences by arbitration without resorting to armaments. "No one was then sanguine enough to think, or even hope, that the era of war was at an end," the premier continued. "But no one anticipated such a terrible spectacle as confronts us today at a time when we thought we were confident in the security of peace."

A Protracted Struggle. As to the progress of the war, the premier declared that in his judgment, in whatever direction he looked, there was abundant ground for pride and comfort. "I will not say more," he said, "because I think we should bear in mind that we are at the present time watching the fluctuations of fortune in the early stages of what is going to be a protracted struggle. We must cultivate patience, endurance and steadfastness, and every one must do his or her appropriate part in the common cause."

Might Versus Right. "We now find ourselves involved with the whole strength of this empire in a bloody arbitrament of might versus right," the premier declared, "that has been entered into with clear judgment and a clear conscience. What would have been our place among the nations if we had been base enough or so paralyzed in our sense of honor and duty to be false to our word and faithfulness to our friends? We should have been standing by with folded arms and such countenance as we could command while this small and unprotected state, Belgium, was defending her vital liberties and making an heroic stand against overwhelming forces."

Hon. Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, spoke briefly. "I am of the opinion," he said, "that the navy will be able to give you the means to live and power from the uttermost ends of the earth. It will give you time and it will give you the means to create the powerful military force which this struggle is brought to the attention of. I am of this—that you have only to endure to conquer. You have only to persevere to save yourselves and to save all those who rely on you. You have only to go right on at the end of the road, be it short or long, victory and honor will be found."

Barbaric Vengeance. "This shameful holocaust," the premier continued, "was performed by blind barbaric vengeance. Soon thereafter stand aside we would see this country of ours blotted out from the pages of history." Continuing the British prime minister made the declaration that the invasion of Belgium was the first step in a greater policy to crush the freedom and autonomy of the free states of Europe.

Towards the end of his speech Mr. Churchill's voice rang out and cheerfully answered his prediction of the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem. Later in an apartment adjoining the Guildhall a number of recruits were enrolled.

Praised Allies. He praised France and Russia as two of the greatest powers who did not mean to separate themselves from Great Britain any more than Great Britain meant to separate herself from them. He declared that if Great Britain were to play a worthy part in this war she must enlarge the scale of her forces, increase her numbers, and multiply many times her effective fighting power.

Indian Troops on Way. Referring to the Indian troops, Premier Asquith said that two divisions of that magnificent army were already on their way. Their association with the home and the dominion troops, he declared, would maintain the flag

KEEP MONEY IN CANADA IS WISH OF BOARDMEN

Will Employ Toronto Stone-masons—No Case Against School Contractors.

"Spend the taxpayers' money in Toronto" was the slogan at the board of education meeting last night. A deputation from the Stone-masons' Union asked that natural cut stone be used instead of terra cotta at the Commercial High School. Owing to the European war the Stone-masons' Association is now idle, and it was very important that the $22,500 so expended in Toronto.

The board sent a recommendation to the advisory committee in favor of stone being used instead of terra cotta. A signed opinion of J. F. Hellmuth and E. P. Brown was submitted, advising the board that it had no case against the contractors who had been accused of failing to comply with specifications, as reported by Judge Winchester.

CITIZENS COULD DRILL IN SCHOOL GROUNDS

North Toronto May Have Rifle Corps—W. G. Ellis Suggests Scheme. It is likely that a volunteer rifle corps will be formed in North Toronto, says W. G. Ellis, D. D. Reid has offered the use of a field for drill purposes, and the Citizens' Association may assist in organization. Discussing the proposal last night W. G. Ellis expressed the opinion that every school ground throughout the city should be made available for citizens' drill and competent instructors provided. "We cannot all go to the armories," he said, "and in any case each municipal district should have a training centre. We don't need uniforms and the drill can be carried out with as little change in existing conditions as possible. Each man who attended would just get preliminary training necessary to prepare him to take his part in home defence if necessary."

Kitchener's New Army Will Soon Be Complete

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 4, 9:20 p.m.—The events in northern France and the campaign started by Premier Asquith and other leaders, have given immense impetus to recruiting, and it is confidently predicted in official circles that Lord Kitchener soon will have the half million men he desires. Cricketers, football players and other athletes who at the beginning of the war were inclined to keep their engagements, have now cancelled all their games and are flocking to the colors. The association of rugby football players has cancelled all its matches, most of the players having joined the forces. Every player in last year's international team is either serving the army or navy, or in training for service. Every Salvation Army corps in the country has contributed its quota of men to the army or navy and other members of the organization have volunteered for Red Cross work.

LONDONOR BANK OF FRANCE NEVER COULD GO BANKRUPT

It Might Be Possible to Starve the People, But No Combination of Powers Could "Break" the Country—Germany Would Go First.

Before the European stock exchanges closed last week the demoralization there was the worst that has been witnessed since Waterloo, or within the last hundred years. William C. Brewster, one of the governors of the New York Stock Exchange, has just written a book called "The Stock Exchange From Within." This is what he says in a chapter on the London Exchange: "In trying to picture what would happen in the London stock market should such a war as the which Englishmen are always discussing, really occur, we must take into account not only the mass of securities that would be directly affected, but also the great burden borne by London banks and bankers in security issues all over the world. London's capital expenditures on new issues in various quarters of the globe in a single year exceed $287,000,000; in the quarter just closed these disbursements ran £25,000,000 above the previous year's record. "That they will continue so to increase is open to no doubt, as long as England's abstention from war is assured; but if there should arise even the possibility of war, it would result in an embarrassment of credit with terribly serious results, such as have never been dreamed of in the world's history. "Today the bankers of London and Paris are the war lords of creation. Both these centres loan money on early maturing bills to all the world. Stop London's discounts thru an outbreak of war and gold would pour into this centre at the rate of $200,000,000 a month. "It might be possible to starve it, but no combination of the powers could bankrupt London. In the event of war Paris could bankrupt Germany in a week. No war could disturb the credit of the Bank of France; all Germany's capital is in her own shop. It is doing a great business, and quite properly, a great part of it on borrowed money. But if its loans were called it would have to put up the shutters."

Jersey Competitors

The honor for the Jersey cow and bull classes were about evenly divided yesterday between R. J. Fleming and R. H. Bull, and sons, of Brampton. The latter showed a Jersey bull in yesterday morning which had not been defeated for the past two years at the Exhibition, but this year Robert John brought an imported four year-old which far out-classed those exhibited by R. H. Bull.

Small Fire at Exhibition

The fire department at the Exhibition had a run to the exhibit of the forest school shortly after eight o'clock yesterday morning when a fire broke out on one of the cots became ignited. The damages amounted to about $10.

PROMINENT EXHIBITORS

ART IN PIANO BUILDING. PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS SHOW GOOD WORK

One of the World's Finest at the Canadian National Exhibition. Partly because of the setting, but most of all by reason of the magnificent display of the instrument itself, a fine piano in the exhibit of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Company, Limited, at the Canadian National Exhibition, is being enthusiastically appreciated by every visitor.

Forgetting for the moment, if one can see the horrors of the present terrible war, it is interesting to know that the high standing of the Heintzman & Company piano in the public and Australian eyes has been placed in the well-known Canadian instrument gives promise of taking the place of the great German pianos. Heintzman & Company reports a number of inquiries already from these points.

He walked into the barn and carefully looked it over. He examined the trusses and the construction of the frame. Then he went thru the stable back to the steel truss barn. When he came back he had his mind made up. "What will you take for the new buildings and equipment?" he asked his question to the expert.

Salada Tea Company. This widely known tea is again exhibiting at the usual stand in the industrial building. A special show is being made of their new aluminum package in which SALADA is now put up, and makes an interesting exhibit.

W.C.T.U. Restaurant. Well-known for its special appeal to every one. That is why "those who know" go to the W.C.T.U. restaurant at the Exhibition. On Friday the York Pioneer Society, under the leadership of Mrs. M. E. Oliver, wife of the president of the Exhibition board, Mrs. S. Hughes, wife of the minister of militia, and Mrs. H. C. Hocken, wife of the minister of agriculture, were in the hall in the south end of the new government building, west of the post-office.

Quality is Clean. For cleanliness, courteous service and the best of food Nasmit's grill room cannot be surpassed. Their grill room under the west end of the grand stand is the best place for a meal on the grounds.

Fine Exhibition Number. The second week fair number of Exhibition Illustrated, which contains the most magnificent illustrations of Toronto's great exposition—its grandeur told in pictures. For sale by newsmen and newsboys. Five copies framed and set in an alcove of dark green plush, well lighted by concealed lamps, this picture shows with fine attention to detail, the rare beauty of the vast island with its other lesser innumerable and its wonderful inland sea, dividing the island in twain. Many favorable comments have been heard, and all visitors should make it a point to see it.

Bird's Private Room. For clean and wholesome meals Bird's private dining room has the reputation at the Exhibition. The meals are cheap when the quality of the food is taken into consideration. Their other restaurant serves good $5 cent meals.

ELKS AT 85 CENT MEALS ATTRACT ATTENTION. In order to look after visiting members the Elks have taken Exhibition headquarters in Society Row. The Benevolent Protective Order of the Elks of the Dominion of Canada, after closing of some, and taking over of their clandestine lodges, known as the "Elks," has been firmly established in the City of Toronto.

Deputy Grand Master Taylor, assisted by members of the several Elks lodges in Toronto, is in charge of the tent at the grounds, and a warm welcome is given not only to the many points where lodges are located in Canada, but also from lodges in the United States. The tent is one of the most tastefully decorated on the grounds, looking the lake, is providing a quiet resting place for tired Elks and their friends.

It is a well known fact that the policy of Elks, both in Canada and the United States, is to have one large lodge and club in a city. Toronto has at the present time four lodges and a movement will be launched, as soon as the Grand Lodge Session in Moose Jaw next week is over, to consolidate at least three of these local bodies to be located with

SAFETY FIRST THIS YEAR'S SLOGAN

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS

Warm Welcome is Being Extended to All Members and Visitors at I. O. F. Tent in Society Row at the Exhibition Grounds.

"Safety First," this year's slogan of the Independent Order of Foresters, is the motto on the tongues of the many visitors and members of the society when meeting at the large tent holding its usual premier position at the head of Society Row at the Exhibition grounds. A warm welcome is being extended to all members and their friends at the spacious tent, just south of the press building, beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers. As in former years G. A. Mitchell again assumes charge and is being ably assisted by the general deputation especially detailed to look after the wants of the many visitors.

Brother Mitchell, one of the Order's oldest and best known members, is very enthusiastic on the Order's wonderful progress, and a chat with him, particularly with reference to the adjustment of rates, is most interesting. He expressed himself to the World in a most enthusiastic manner of the loyalty and good-will shown by the officers of the Order at the time they were doing that wonderful mission work in educating the members to fully appreciate that in order to continue the splendid work the organization is doing it was necessary to have their order placed on a strong and sure financial basis. If this is done as Brother Mitchell explained, there would be no disappointments for the many beneficiaries of the future. On account of the beneficial charges put into effect recently, the financial question of the Order had been settled for all time, and the officers know definitely that they can now go out and complete the great fraternal work that was adopted by the order forty years ago and has been continued ever since.

During his recent visit to several high courts on the American side, where the greatest enthusiasm reigns among the members, he formed the opinion that despite the depression of business both in Canada and the United States the Independent Order of Foresters would have a most encouraging record for the coming fall. Good Policy Offered. Regarding the policy offered by the Independent Order of Foresters, Brother Mitchell pointed out to the World the splendid investment it makes. Thru its system the new member is put under protection the moment he enters the Order. If sickness arrives he receives a sick benefit ranging from $3 to $5 a week, besides a free doctor, and in cases where necessary, a free nurse. Over and above this the member can carry a policy from $500 to $50,000, with the privilege of drawing 70 per cent. of it at any time if he be permanently and totally disabled from work thru accident or sickness. As Brother Mitchell pointed out that is the time when one needs protection and aid, but not all societies or companies in the insurance benefits paid in 1913. Paid to beneficiaries... $2,498,032.20. Paid in disability benefits... 126,242.87. Paid in old age benefits... 711,573.74. Paid in S. & F. benefits... 313,642.94. That a hearty welcome has been extended to all the members and friends of the Independent Order of Foresters, particularly those who are interested in fraternal work, to visit the I.O.F. tent. There will be found a most restful spot from the hustle and bustle of sight-seeing at the Exhibition, as it faces the beautiful lake, and is away from the dust and noise. Some of that fraternal spirit which exists among the many thousands of members of this great Order will be passed along. Each visitor is being given a souvenir safety pin—something that is useful and something that will remind one of the motto adopted by the Honorable E. G. Stevenson, Supreme Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters.

W. F. MACLEAN AND HIS PROGRAM FOR BANKING AND CURRENCY LEGISLATION

BY TOM KING, TORONTO.

What are the views of Mr. W. F. Maclean, M. P. for South York, upon the financial question? How does he propose to help the business of the country by revising the banking and currency laws of Canada?

A good many people who are asking these questions today were less interested two years ago when Mr. Maclean first outlined his proposals in parliament...

The Maclean program is not one brought forth overnight to meet an emergency, it is proposed as permanent legislation. At the same time, it will meet the present emergency conditions...

It may, therefore, be interesting to note what is the program which has been presented to parliament and the people by the member for South York.

1. In the first place, Mr. Maclean believes that the government, and only the government, should issue money. At present we have in Canada two kinds of currency...

2. If the government is to have the sole power of issuing money, then the notes of the banks now in circulation will have to be retired, and Mr. Maclean proposes to issue to the banks at a nominal rate of interest, Dominion notes or national currency...

3. Mr. Maclean would also deal with the abuses in our banking system which grow out of the desire for liquid assets. The bankers' pet theory is that money loaned "on call" can be collected in a few hours' notice...

4. It is not proposed to issue national currency beyond the real needs of the country, or beyond its powers of redemption. Just now specie payments are suspended all over Canada...

5. Mr. Maclean believes that the 25 per cent. gold reserve, which is more than ample for an issue of $50,000,000, would be quite adequate for an issue of $500,000,000...

6. At the last session of parliament the government took authority to increase the issue of Dominion notes upon a 25 per cent. gold reserve from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000...

7. Then again a law was passed by which the government could redeem the paper of the customers of any bank if the paper was good. That is to say: the government was authorized to indefinitely increase the national currency or Dominion notes by way of loan to the banks on good security...

8. At the last session of parliament the government took authority to increase the issue of Dominion notes upon a 25 per cent. gold reserve from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000. This would have enabled the finance minister by purchasing $5,000,000 of gold to increase the government paper money in circulation by $25,000,000...

9. Then again a law was passed by which the government could redeem the paper of the customers of any bank if the paper was good. That is to say: the government was authorized to indefinitely increase the national currency or Dominion notes by way of loan to the banks on good security...

seem that the government's plan will fail to work unless it is enlarged to include Mr. Maclean's proposal for the retirement of all bank circulation.

Meeting Business Demands. But here it may be asked, pertinently enough, what is the amount of currency upon which we are endeavoring to conduct the business of the country...

The excess or emergency currency the banks are allowed to issue is a cumbersome, roundabout way of financing. In no way to be compared with the national currency of the United States, which is deposited with the banks for the express purpose of assisting the public thru the banks with the national credit.

As we have seen, the government issues of paper money do not take any part in the business of the country, except for the purposes of small change and for settling clearing-house balances between the banks. So far as the business of the country is concerned it depends upon the bank issues, which fell on July 31 to considerably less than $100,000,000.

Mr. Maclean believes that the troublesome problems we have discussed can be solved by proper financial legislation. In short, Mr. Maclean stands upon a platform of progressive financial reform, which may thus briefly be summed up:

- 1. The government to supply all currency, based on the credit of the country and further secured by a percentage gold reserve. 2. The government to organize a bank of rediscout, on the lines of the new system of national reserve banks in the United States...

MORE ABOUT THE BANKS AND THE STRINGENCY

There is no sign yet that the general managers of our banks have decided to follow the advice of their social managers in the clearing house to accept bank notes now made legal tender by parliament...

The World takes direct issue with them on this point, and we will give an all-sufficient reason for these grounds, viz., that, inasmuch as the government and parliament have made bank notes legal tender through the country in every transaction...

Our contention, therefore, is that $30,000,000 would be immediately available for the necessities of trade, for the requirements of municipalities and others if the banks made the change in the clearing-house rule which we have advocated...

And it is because there are some of the banks who refuse to take this stand that we are compelled to say that there is a lack of unity in the banks...

As a matter of fact, the recent legislation of parliament has put all our banks in the one pot, and they are all in together, and they must stand or fall together; and if Britain were to lose in this war, Canada would lose and our banks would lose...

One thing more: If our banks do not mobilize as they have in England they are hastening the day when a national bank will be established here to do the work that parliament has legalized "to conserve the financial and commercial interests of the country."

The real fact is that our banks are not anxious to step in between the legislative aid of parliament and those who would borrow the national notes provided by parliament on the credit of the nation! If that is so, then we must have a national bank to do it.

"WAR BULLETINS."

The Southern Press has issued a set of "war bulletins" which should appeal to business men and others who understand the duty of "the man who stays at home," the man who has to fight without weapons...

Washington Points Out Selling of Arms and Munitions is Legal.

Canadian Press Despatch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Count Von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States, said today that he had received positive information that two British cruisers, lying ten miles from New York harbor, had received supplies of coal, provisions and ammunition from a vessel flying the American flag.

The supplies, Count Von Bernstorff said, were taken aboard yesterday. The neutrality laws were so vague, he declared, that he did not know yet exactly what he was going to do.

Count Von Bernstorff said that he had made an official complaint to Secretary Bryan at Washington about the provisioning and coaling of the British ships.

NO EVIDENCE AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Count Von Bernstorff has not presented to the state department any evidence of coaling and provisioning British warships at sea by an American vessel.

At the British consulate, Sir Courtenay Walter Bennett, consul-general to New York, declined to take any notice of the allegations made by the German ambassador.

The ambassador said that the coal and provisions were supplied by American firms. At the British consulate, Sir Courtenay Walter Bennett, consul-general to New York, declined to take any notice of the allegations made by the German ambassador.

As to coaling warships at sea, the state department established a precedent in the recent sailing of the Mexican steamer Mazatlan, from San Francisco, suspected at the time of an intention to coal the German cruiser Leipzig.

America--The Peacemaker

—By H. G. WELLS—

Written Expressly for The Toronto World and The London Daily News.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—It may be possible for the United States to avoid actual participation in the present world war. But it is impossible for America to escape considerable share in the consequences and in the settlement after the war. If Great Britain and her allies are defeated it will be in the consequences rather than in the settlement that America will participate. The defeat of Great Britain will mean the loss of sea power by the English and presumably the dissolution of the bonds of the British Empire. German fleets, no longer jealously restrained, will sail the North Atlantic circle, and along the whole coast line states will be accessible to the German striking force.

Cry of "Wolf" Too Late

For a half century it has been manifestly resolved not merely of British governments, but of the whole British people, that America should be immune from overseas attack. Britain has been America's sleeping partner, maintaining her doctrine. It will be different when American ports look out at German fleets in command of sea purveyors. The panic in the yellow press will at last have something material to go upon. No longer will they have to work hard scaring a hundred million people because the little plucky nation of Japan goes on existing. They will be able to shout "Wolf" until the big United States is specialized for war. They will be able to shout "Wolf" and exasperate and falsify America's international position until they are thoroughly verified, killed and eaten. The immediate result in America of a German victory in Europe would be an immense compulsory increase of the United States army and navy.

For manifestly Americans will have in that case to hold the Atlantic for themselves, instead of trusting security to British and Canadian goodwill and they will be no longer immune from raids and invasions. America will find herself within European militarism. The Monroe doctrine will disappear with a cough and never be heard from again.

If Russia Turns

For it is not only that Germany will be changed from antagonist to ruler. Russia, thwarted on the west and disillusioned about the power of the liberal nations of western Europe, may fall under the spell of the conqueror and turn back to the east again. Russia will then press upon China, and it will no longer be a discreditable thing for the United States to pose as the single-handed protector of China.

East and west of us thru a half century the British flag on the high seas has been as good for America's peace as if it were the Stars and Stripes. It has not only protected American trade, it has splintered her overseas expeditions. When it is lowered the American millennium will end and America will face armed and hostile nations just like the rest of the world. Let us not think of conquest of continents and such impossible things; but there are lesser evils. We must face the possibility of New York seized, held and fled as Brussels has been fled, and New York would have to pay quite a world's ransom.

No Longer Sheltered

In fine she will be brought well within the sphere of practical policies. On the day Great Britain and her allies admit defeat America will become amenable to disciplinary treatment by the Germans. Over and above the indubitable good will of Great Britain, the United States has had Canada like to do in dreary competition in armadas. She will have to build against Germany, Russia and Japan. She will have to build far more than the three of them together because of Panama and her double coast. These very manifest considerations may seem novel to many Americans; indeed they must be so or the United States would not display its present contentment with an unarmed neutrality. It is possible, of course, that this contentment is based upon a serene assurance of Germany's defeat. Certain it is that such inconveniences as I have sketched can happen to America only if Germany is victorious, and no Englishman or Frenchman at any rate interferes for her to be victorious.

If Kaiser Falls

She is going to be beaten back. Europe is resolved at any cost, and fortunate America may rest pretty comfortably assured of the continuation of her present immunities. Belgium is already burned and harassed. France is strained to a terrible pitch of heroism. All England is full of marchings, houses turned to hospitals, and there is no other thought in the land any more but the thought of French, Belgian and Polish battlefields. All this is for the peace and safety of America.

Should the allies win decisively and the German purpose be utterly defeated America will have grave responsibilities. Victory for the allies will involve the annexation of Italy, Ireland to Italy; the creation of a new and greater Serbia; the enlargement of Roumania and Greece; the restoration of Cyprus to Greece and large portions of Macedonia to Bulgaria; the possible union of German Austria to Germany and the Schweitzerization of residual portions of the Austrian dominion. It also means the salvation of that small, peculiar and most unfortunate land, Albania, by the establishment of a cantonal republican confederation that will live after their own manner at peace; and Irish home rule.

But that is settled. This present war makes all this justifiable, practicable, and with it there would vanish one of the prime causes of European and world unrest, the discontent of subject peoples.

But the liberal purpose of western Europe which it is most urgently necessary that American opinion should understand, share, and assist, does not end with redrawing the map. We want also to bring about institutional changes.

"What Use Are Kings?"

At the outset of this conflict an American correspondent wrote me a letter in which he asked among other characteristic American questions, what was the use of this king business. Now that is also very much in the minds of intelligent Europeans. There can be no doubt that several of the European monarchies, and particularly some of the newer ones, are an intolerable nuisance. There has never any real need of them. It has been a tradition of the old system in Europe to set up these little figureheads whenever a people worked its way to independence. The last of the lot is this ridiculous Prince of Wied, emperor of Albania, where the entirely republican spirit of his subjects has chafed him about his dominions ever since he entered them; and the manifest intention of sane European thought at the present time is to mitigate or get rid of all these centres of disturbance.

About each of these monarchies there has gathered a group of statesmen, little sham Bismarcks, sham Mellernicks, scheming aggressions, imitating great war lords, arming and organizing popular belligerence. Mixed up with these were the usual features of court finance. The operations of Montenegro's anti-Sartari for example were notoriously ruled by the stock exchange operations of King Nicholas, and endless lives were sacrificed to these manoeuvres.

A Menace to Peace

Do but glance at this smallest of court scandals. Except for the English monarchy, which does not so much aspire to head armies as subscription lists, a whole system concentrating on foreign policy, military administration and court is almost everywhere a thing dangerous to the peace of mankind.

It is extraordinarily important that the whole weight of liberal opinion in the world should be directed against the creation of any more kings, and should labor to develop constitutional control over those who exist already. But it is doubtful if Western European liberal opinion be weighty enough in this matter without the support of the American Republic. Without the support liberalism may find itself without leading power and a voice, a great force indeed, but scattered and disorganized.

May Disember Germany

The militarism of Germany has necessarily reflected itself upon every other part of her life. At the present moment has censured the press and is under military law. As this war draws to its bitter end and the victors begin to think of something else than the war and today's battles. Liberalism may find its expression hampered and its control over the soldiers and diplomats of the victorious side insufficient. In particular if the German defeat is so great that it may be necessary for western opinion to express itself vigorously against a too vindictive treatment of the American Republic. Without the support liberalism may find itself without leading power and a voice, a great force indeed, but scattered and disorganized.

What U. S. Can Do

If Great Britain loses this war, she will be destroyed and not even the belated intervention of the United States will save her, but that is no reason why she should, if victorious, destroy Germany. The north, after the civil war, and Germany after 1871, both committed the sin of over-severity. A resolute and understanding America may be able to save us from that. Moreover, it is strongly felt in western Europe that this war must end in peace-making that will be something more than the usual agreements and treaty.

We don't want series of treaties, with perhaps secret understandings behind them, between England and Russia, Italy and Russia, and France and Italy, and so on, and so on, engaging Europe in a new set of uneasy relationships. Superfluous, they light the souls of diplomats and world politicians, but are hateful to all right spirited men. We do not want any more of that four wheelers in the darkness of whispering undertakings. We want to Americanize the methods of this vast settlement.

One World Treaty

We want open diplomacy, and an open conference of all states in the world, and we want no more treaties, but one to which all nations of the earth must subscribe. This is no dream now since only America and China can even pretend to be still detached from this discussion. We want every nation subscribing to the new boundaries the settlement will establish, and engaging its strength to maintain them. Surely the age of changing boundaries is not to go on forever, and the counsels of England, the departments of France, the Canadian border are marked out in permanent line—why should the whole political map of the world be drawn in permanent lines?

Close Out the War Trust

The thing to hand for doing now is to close out the war trust. It may cause it to be done. And another huge opportunity there is that America may take or waste. It is bound up with the war, and conception of the ending of private trade in war material, the closing down of the business of the war trust for ever. This is a business that has been developed in Germany and Great Britain, and it is probable that many Americans fall to realize how their advertisement department is bound up with the war, and how the navy league and war propaganda of the national suspicion and hatred in the world is not too much to say that while there is private industry in armaments anywhere in the world it is impossible to dream of ending belligerence. The profits are too enormous. Given a court, given a big armament firm, given a little royal warrant and aggressive patriotism will rule the state. The Kaiser's close association with Krupp is only the monstrous demonstration of this reaction. There is no need to be hypocritical about it. It is not a year ago Mr. Philip Snowden published a list of English public men who held shares in armament firms. It was a very startling list, and no one pretends the polling list, and no one pretends the polling list, and no one pretends the polling list.

Needs a Strong Hand

The whole governing system of the world is more or less in it. Its trade is more damnable than any trade, a trade in accumulating danger. It must be broken up and cannot if any neutral power chooses to stand out and shelter the traffickers. If Venezuela for example chose dissent from the general resolution Krupp, Armstrongs, Vickers-Maxims would go thither, long and set up works. They would go there just as the worst business corporations in America go to the Grand Canyon. It is necessary that a strong group of nations should be prepared to enforce this most urgent and salutary suppression upon any attempt to carry on this trade in excess just as slave trade was suppressed by wholesome force.

This is a thing that only the United States can set going and carry through. It is a thing that needs arms, but the United States for all its pacific purposes has never hesitated to use weapons for a legitimate end.

The Way of Safety

Here then is the program for America. The program for the world to come forward into the community of nations as a strong man comes into a dangerous quarrel neither noisily nor weakly, but decisively. It is the line of duty and also it is her line of safety. For if there be no liberal settlement of this great conflict, then even the Germany be crushed for ever militarism will become the sole business of life in every country, and the war path its only object. America will not escape that universal militarism unless she can narrow every year and the suns and bayonets creep closer.

Take a Boat Trip on "Labor Day"

Attractive boat trips will be offered by the commodious steamers of the "Canada Steamship Lines," Limited, after the civil war, and Germany after 1871, both committed the sin of over-severity. A resolute and understanding America may be able to save us from that. Moreover, it is strongly felt in western Europe that this war must end in peace-making that will be something more than the usual agreements and treaty.

FUND IS NOT CLOSED.

MONTREAL GRAIN MARKET. MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—The feature of the local grain market today was the demand from London buyers for Manitoba spring wheat, 11 to 12 loads of No. 1 northern for nearby shipments at 45c and 10 loads of new crop for October, 45c and, and on spot sales were made of 200,000 bushels of wheat to exporters for shipment from Fort William within fifteen days. No. 1 northern sold at $1.24; No. 2 at $1.23 1/2. There was also some demand for Manitoba barley from Glasgow, and sales of two loads of No. 3 were made at 52c. The local trade in oats is rather quiet, but the tone of the market is very firm.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN MARKET. MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 4.—Wheat—December, $1.23 1/2; No. 1 hard, $1.23 1/2; No. 1 northern, $1.18 1/2 to $1.27 1/4. Corn—No. 2 white, 49 1/2c to 50c. Flour—Pancys patents, $6.65; first clear, $5. second clear, $4.50. Bran—$2.50.

DULUTH GRAIN MARKET. DULUTH, Sept. 4.—Wheat—No. 1 hard, $1.25; No. 1 northern, $1.24; No. 2 do., $1.23; December, $1.24.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET. WINNIPEG, Sept. 4.—Wheat prices opened unchanged to 3c higher, advancing steadily thru the first two hours 3 1/2c to 3 3/4c. Oats opened unchanged to 3c higher and in the same time had gained 1 1/2c on both months. Flax opened 1 1/2c to 2c higher.

Liverpool cables were delayed, but private advice say the market there was higher. This influenced the local market.

Offerings of cash wheat are light despite the high values, farmers continuing to hold. Oats were in good demand. There was little enquiry for flax.

Private advice say the market there was heavier than usual. Later, the advance of the day was not maintained, the close being down 3c from the high points, but 2 1/2c to 3c higher than Thursday's close.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE DECLINED SUDDENLY

New York's Foreign Obligations Understood to Have Been Adjusted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—A notable event of the day in the financial situation was the abrupt decline witnessed in foreign exchange, London cables falling to 502 and demand for as much as 5c in the pound sterling from the highest rate of the week and are believed to change operations from the outcome of negotiations between New York City officials and a banking group, which is said to have agreed to finance all of New York's foreign obligations maturing between this and the expiration of the year.

There was absolutely no market for continental exchange, the Paris precluding all possibility of exchange operations with that centre. Efforts to negotiate 30-day bills on Berlin were unavailing.

Heavy Collateral. Money brokers see no indications of a pronounced hardening of the market, but the foreign conflict should be unprolonged.

Forecast of tomorrow's bank statement are somewhat conflicting, in that a moderate cash gain is likely to be offset by shipments of the interior. The known movement points to a reduction of the loan account and a further reduction of the currency in circulation.

Advances from the interior state that the mercantile world is adjusting itself to the unexpected conditions arising from the European situation, with a resultant increased demand for domestic textiles.

BRITISH SHIP SINKS AUSTRIAN VESSEL. The sinking of the Austrian steamer Bathori by a British cruiser in the Bay of Biscaya was reported this afternoon. The Austrian refused to heave to and until the cruiser put a shot across her bows. The warship then took off the crew of 28 and sent the steamer to the bottom. The prisoners taken include a German staff officer and a lieutenant. The Bathori was a steamer of 1889 tons. She plied between Flume and French ports, and was last reported in Havre roads August 5.

GUARDED STATEMENTS INDICATING SHE AND MERCHANT STEAMER STRUCK MINE. The Speedy was an old torpedo gunboat of 800 tons and prior to the declaration of war she was engaged on fishery protection on the North Sea.

This additional information regarding the probable loss of the torpedo gunboat Speedy of the British navy and the Austrian merchant steamer Bathori, which was sunk by the British, is that the British censors have thus far permitted to come thru.

War Not Stopping Routine Business in St. John, N. B. (Special Correspondence.) ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 4.—While the people of this city realize the gravity of the war situation, they are not allowing it to interfere any more than is necessary with their regular business routine. Public works are being pushed forward with all speed and private enterprise is supplementing public effort to the best of its ability. The directors of the Exhibition Association, believing that the exhibition will have a stimulating effect at a time when people are inclined to feel depressed, have decided to go on with their exhibition program. The opening ceremonies will take place on Saturday, Sept. 5, at 8 p.m. A splendid exhibition is looked for.

While general business has been somewhat dislocated by the war, the crops of the province were never in better condition than they are today with potatoes. This is particularly the case with potatoes, the estimated increase in this branch being at least one quarter over last year. All other root crops show up well. The European war has necessitated the shipment of some of our crops to France and Belgium, as those countries have been devastated by the military movements now in progress.
