GEN. WHITE'S LAST FIGHT WITH THE BURGHERS WAS A REVERSE

Those Two Battalions and Mountain Battery Sent Up the Hill Were Captured by the Boer Hordes, and the Number of Killed is Yet Unknown.

Great Anxiety in Britain for News, But the War Office Has Given Out Nothing Except Gen. White's Message Telling of the Disaster—Gloucester is in Mourning—Have the Wires Connecting With Ladysmith Been Cut?

Matters were much worse at Ladysmith than General White's message, published in the newspapers yesterday, would lead the public to believe. It turns out now, from a later official report, that the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mountain Battery and the Gloucestershire Regiment, sent to protect the British left flank, and whom General White in his previous message expected to return in the evening, were surrounded by the enemy in the hills and had to "capitulate." The General now fears that the losses in this column were very heavy. As for those who survived they are all prisoners of the enemy. The list of officers taken as prisoners is given in General White's despatch. The General takes full responsibility for the plan which so utterly failed, owing to cunning Boer strategy.

time must elapse before details regarding British losses are received. All in Great Suspense. If the War Office officials have received information on this point they have refrained from publishing it. General White's estimate that the British losses were about 90 is evidently quite separate from the probable losses killed and wounded among the captured battalions. On this point there is the greatest suspense among the relatives of the prisoners. It is supposed that the stampeding of the mules meant the carrying away of the reserves of ammunition, and that the troops captured capitulated after firing the rounds which each man carried. Misuse of the Cavalry. In the absence of news, the morning papers are reduced to speculation as to how the disaster occurred. The general opinion is a misuse of the cavalry was the real reason for the fall into the Boer trap. Apparently there was no cavalry to watch over the safety of the missing column.

consequence of losses sustained by these regiments in previous engagements. The Situation is Grave. Public anxiety was increased by a special despatch from Ladysmith, published in the late editions of London morning papers to the effect that before darkness yesterday the Boers recaptured the old position held by their heavy artillery, which Gen. White had reported silenced by the guns of the naval brigade from the Powerful, and had opened fire again. The despatch further says: "The enemy are again closing in and the situation is one of grave anxiety. Beyond that the Boer retirement yesterday (Monday) was a rise to draw Gen. White into the hilly country and away from the British camp." Some harsh things are said in military circles of the British tactics, which have made possible the ambush of the 18th Hussars at Gloucester and now the loss of two fine regiments.

Beyond the official telegram of General White no news has been received from Ladysmith, and the inference is that the lines of communication with Ladysmith have already been cut by the enemy.

The estimate that the British losses were about ninety, as mentioned yesterday, does not include the probable losses killed and wounded among the missing British battalions. The relatives of the captured British are under the greatest suspense, yet the War Office has no information for the public.

Bulletins also contain the information, however, that the Boers suffered a loss of between 900 and 1000 killed and wounded in Monday's skirmish.

GEN. WHITE TELLS OF DISASTER. The Column Sent to Guard the Left Flank Got into the Hands of the Enemy.

London, Oct. 31.—The following is the text of General White's despatch to the War Office: "Ladysmith, Oct. 30.—(10.35 p.m.)—I have to report a disaster to the column sent by me to take a position on a hill to guard the left flank of the troops. In these operations to-day the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mountain Battery and the Gloucestershire Regiment were surrounded in the hills and, after losing heavily, had to capitulate. The casualties have not yet been ascertained.

"A man of the Fusiliers, employed as a hospital orderly, came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column who asked for assistance to bury the dead. I fear there is no doubt of the truth of the report. "I formed a plan, in the carrying out of which the disaster occurred, and I am assuming responsibility for the plan. There is no blame whatever to the troops, as the position was untenable. "The following is a list of the officers taken prisoners to-day: "Major Major, Col. Carleton, Major Mann, Major Kincaid, Capt. Burrows, Capt. Rice, Capt. Silver, Lieut. Heard, Lieut. Southey, Lieut. Phillips, Lieut. McGregor, Lieut. Holmes, Lieut. Kelly, Lieut. Dooner, Lieut. Kentish, Lieut. Kinnahan, Lieut. Jeandwine, Chaplain Matthews.

"Of the above Captains Rice and Silver and Lieut. Dooner were wounded. "Gloucestershire Regiment—Major Humphrey, Major Capel-Cure, Major Wallace, Capt. Duncan, Capt. Conner, Lieut. Bryant, Lieut. Nesbet, Lieut. Ingham, Lieut. Davy, Lieut. Knox, Lieut. Temple, Lieut. Radice, Lieut. Breul, Lieut. Hill, Lieut. Short, Lieut. Smith, Lieut. Mackenzie, Lieut. Beasley, Lieut. Gray.

"Of the above Captains Duncan and Conner were wounded. "Royal Artillery—Major Bryant, "Mountain Battery—Lieut. Wheeler, Lieut. Nugent, Lieut. Moore, Lieut. Webb."

CURTAIN HIDES THE SCENE. Britain is in the Dark as to Further Information Regarding the Position at Ladysmith.

London, Nov. 1.—An ominous curtain has again descended upon affairs in Natal. No despatches except the official telegrams of General Sir George Stewart White have thus far been permitted to mention the disaster, and no telegram from Ladysmith has been received in London since the advice from the British commander. This gives rise to a belief that communication has already been cut, in which event some

A TALK WITH DR. LEYDS.

The Transvaal Agent was Surprised at the News—20,000 Boers in Arms.

Brussels, Oct. 31.—Dr. Leyds, the special representative of the Transvaal Government in Europe, in the course of an interview to-day regarding the situation at Ladysmith, said: "I was greatly surprised at the news of the British disaster. While paying a warm tribute to the valor of Sir George White, he pointed out that a tactical error had been committed by the British commander in dividing his forces and underestimating the strength of the Boers. He declined to give an opinion regarding future developments. Telegrams of congratulation had been received by him, he said, from all parts of Europe and from all classes of society.

THANKS TO WINNIPEG.

Major Arnold Sent Messages From Quebec Just Before the Sardinian Sailed.

Winnipeg, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—The following message was received this morning from Major Arnold from Quebec, sent just before the Sardinian sailed: "Col. Ruttan, Winnipeg, Man.: Good-bye, colonel. Best wishes to all my old comrades. (Signed) H. M. Arnold."

MRS. STERNAMAN'S THIRD.

Has Buried Two Husbands and Now Takes Another.

Buffalo, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Olive Adele Sternaman, who about a year ago was sentenced to be hanged in Cayuga, Ont., for the alleged poisoning of her husband, was married last Saturday at Niagara Falls, Ont., to Frank Creutzburg of No. 220 Bird-avenue, this city. The marriage was a quiet one.

DISMAY AT GLOUCESTER

Over the Engagement at Ladysmith, Which Made Many a Wife a Widow.

London, Oct. 31.—Throughout the length and breadth of Great Britain the news traveled fast that about 2000 men had been killed or captured, for such is the estimate of the best authorities, based on Gen. White's despatch. As the day wore on the crowd around the War Office swelled to enormous proportions, and at Gloucester, the home of many of those engaged, the wildest excitement prevailed. The special edition of the local newspapers were speedily exhausted, and the same thing occurred at Bristol and other towns in that county. The fighting at Hlletfontein had made many a Gloucestershire wife a widow, and this second overwhelming loss, coming so soon after the previous engagement, where the Gloucestershire suffered so heavily, brought dire dismay to the little county.

Offer Cannot be Accepted.

London, Oct. 31.—The Daily Mail, referring to an offer made, through Mr. Hiran Maxin, from 200 American gentlemen, who propose to give £250 each, and to provide their own horses and equipment, tendering their services to the British in South Africa, says: "Of course, this offer cannot be accepted."

HOWARD WAS JUST TOO LATE.

Gatling Gun Man Wanted to Go to Africa But Missed Connection and Was Left.

Quebec, Oct. 31.—Captain A. L. Howard, of Gatling gun fame, who arrived in the city last evening, is to-day a disappointed volunteer. He arrived here just in time to be too late, and consequently does not form one of the contingent on board of the Sardinian, now sailing for the seat of war in South Africa. Mr. Howard proffered his services to the military authorities to act in any capacity in the ranks, and allow his salary to be devoted to the ambulance corps, and on last Saturday morning started for Quebec, from where he was located, about 100 miles north of Lachine. He drove in a team for many miles as far as Colinet, but unfortunately missed the train at that point, and consequently was unable to reach the ancient capital till last evening, but until he reached this city he had hoped that the steamer would not leave until this morning.

AMERICANS WANT TO ENLIST.

British Consul at Chicago Says He is Unable to Answer All Applications.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The British Consul in this city, W. Wyndham, has addressed a communication to The Times-Herald saying that the number of applicants who wish to serve in the British army is so great that he is unable to answer them, and for the information of those still in ignorance of the fact, he states that no volunteers have been called for. He also denies a Minneapolis report that he advised two men who wished to enlist to go to Canada to join the Canadian regiment, which is now full.

SECOND CONTINGENT SUGGESTED

In Order That Those Who Want to Go and Fight Should Have the Opportunity.

It is seriously suggested here in military circles, that the Canadian Government, in view of the recent disaster in South Africa, and the number of Canadian volunteers anxious for service abroad, should offer a second contingent of Canadian troops.

If this is not done, it is said that the dozen war officers who want to go should be sent.

There was a rumor going the rounds of the recent disaster in South Africa, and the number of Canadian volunteers anxious for service abroad, should offer a second contingent of Canadian troops.

A SEMINARY BURNED.

Loss About $300,000, With Only Half That Amount in Insurance—Methodists the Losers.

Hackettstown, N.J., Oct. 31.—The Hackettstown Seminary building, owned by the Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was completely destroyed by fire this morning, entailing a loss of about $300,000, on which there is only about $150,000 insurance. The structure was of brick, 250 feet long, 100 feet in width and six stories in height. It was located in the outskirts of the town. Two hundred students, half of them female, occupied rooms in the building. All escaped uninjured, but not more than a quarter of them were able to save their clothing and other belongings.

Britain Makes an Offer of Gilbert Islands to Germany.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—Regarding the Vossische Zeitung's statement that Great Britain has offered Germany the Gilbert Islands and the British portion of the Solomon Islands in return for a renunciation of Germany's claims in Samoa, the Foreign Office here does not deny that there is some foundation for the report. Although the statement is not altogether accurate, the Foreign Office continues the report that negotiations are proceeding in regard to Samoa.

African Potentate Ribah Exterminated Near Lake Tchad.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The Minister of the Colonies, M. Decrais, has received an official despatch confirming the report that a French detachment of thirty Senegalese sharpshooters, commanded by three French officers, MM. Bretonneton, Braun and Martin, has been completely exterminated near Lake Tchad by the famous African potentate Ribah. One wounded Senegalese escaped to the nearest French post with the news.

THE EARL OF MINTO ON THE TRANSVAAL

Governor-General Says the Fortunes of War Will Be Retrieved Soon.

A TRIBUTE TO GEN. WHITE.

His Excellency Says the Commander at Ladysmith is a Splendid Officer.

EULOGIUM ON THE CONTINGENT.

Cordial Thanks From the Minister of Militia to the City of Quebec for Favors Shown.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Lord Minto, the Governor-General of Canada, in a speech delivered here to-night, before the Canadian Society, took occasion to refer to the situation in the Transvaal. Lord Minto, who is an old English army officer, declared that the recent news showed a disaster. It might be a reverse, but it would stimulate the English for the end they had in view. Lord Minto also praised Gen. White, who, he said, had won the Victoria Cross over and over again, and who was a credit to the Gordon Highlanders, which had turned out so many splendid officers.

LORD MINTO'S SATISFACTION

At the Soldierly Appearance and Discipline of the Canadian Contingent on Embarkation.

Quebec, Oct. 31.—The following military orders were issued this evening in compliance with orders received from the general officer commanding the militia of Canada. I am instructed to convey to Military District No. 7 that His Excellency the Governor-General has been pleased to express his cordial satisfaction at the soldierly appearance and disciplined embarkation of our comrades and representatives of the second special service battalion, Royal Canadian Regiment, on Monday, the 30th inst. The general officer commanding also desires to express his congratulations to all concerned upon this auspicious event in Canadian military history. By order, Gen. Holt White, colonel, acting D.O.C., M.D. 7.

In accordance with instructions received from the Deputy Minister, I am requested in the name of the Hon. the Minister of Militia and Defence, to convey his cordial thanks to His Worship the Mayor and to the citizens of Quebec, and to express his extreme satisfaction at the loyal demonstration accorded to the second special service battalion, Royal Canadian Regiment, on the 30th inst., on which there is only about $150,000 insurance. The structure was of brick, 250 feet long, 100 feet in width and six stories in height. It was located in the outskirts of the town.
