Six Shows Daily All Next Week of the Grand Cheer-up Picture—Thousands Will See The Bainsfather Heroes—First Show at 1.30

For four years soldiers' mothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts have rightly avoided war pictures, but the reverse applies to "The Better 'Ole'", which is known as the grand cheer-up picture of the day. It is a happy peace film and there has never been anything like it before. The conflict just closed has produced an epoch making motion picture that will brighten the folks at home and the boys coming home. Readily to accommodate the thousands who are planning to see "The Better 'Ole'" the show will run continuously from 1.30 until 10.30, that is, the theatre will not be closed at the supper hour as usual. The matinees are bound to prove popular for ladies as does the relatives of every soldier at the front or who has been there are planning to see "The Better 'Ole'."

Its terms were estimated to provide for back pay of approximately $500,000 under a retroactive arrangement. The award abolishes all bonuses except one of five per cent to men employed five years or more. Night workers will be on the basis of a ten-hour day, instead of twelve hours. DROP IN THE PRICE OF CLOTHING

Information Gives Out By Scovill Brothers, Limited

While speculation is rife in the streets these days in regard to the cost of living generally, it will be pleasing news to men to know that the price of clothing has dropped. Not universally, of course, but at the well known men's store, Oak Hall, in particular. Here in the custom tailoring department, $25 suits can be procured for a limited time at the specially reduced price of $39.50. This is an opportunity well worth while taking advantage of as there are no indications that the general run of clothing prices will be any lower in the near future than they are today.

Oak Hall guarantees that all orders taken at this price will be delivered for Easter Sunday.

Few Eyes Need Medicine

Near-sight, far-sight, astigmatism, and other defects in the eye as an optical instrument, are not due to disease. The trouble is due to the shape of the eye, and medicine cannot correct it.

Few eyes are diseased, but a very large percentage of eyes are defective in shape and are greatly benefited by properly fitted glasses.

Sharpe's optical department makes a specialty of the scientific fitting of glasses to correct defects in refraction.

TWO NEW SONGS OF MERIT

A SOLO AND A DUET OF ESPECIAL BEAUTY

In "That's What God Made Mothers For" we have a song melodiously telling of mother-love, sacrifice, toil and teaching which is always unstintingly poured out by the mother for her boy with joy in the doing of it. —"for that's what God made mothers for." Henry Burr is particularly happy in his singing of this, and the orchestra seems to have caught the spirit of it in a most pleasing manner. The introduction of a few bars of that old favorite, "Rock Me to Sleep, Mother," seems especially appropriate, and adds a good deal to the beauty of the melody. "In Berry-Pickin' Time," by Campbell and Burr, on the reverse side, rounds out an especially good record. Doubled sided, 10 inch, 90 cents.

LARGE NUMBERS AT RETREAT

The enormous crowd of men, who attended the exercises in the Cathedral last evening in connection with the retreat, was strong evidence of the interest being manifested in it. Rev. Father Cox, S.J., who is giving the retreat, delivered an eloquent and forceful sermon on Sin, the Greatest Evil. His sermon was a most impressive one, and large numbers attended the masses at 6.30 and 7 o'clock this morning. As today is the first Friday of the month and coming in connection with the retreat, there was an exceptionally large number of communicants at the masses. At the 10 o'clock mass there was exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

GIRLS' WORK COMMITTEE

The St. John committee for co-operation in girls' work held its first regular meeting yesterday afternoon and the members were introduced to Miss Yeans, the girls' work secretary from the Dominion Council who is to have charge of the classes in leadership for the Canadian Girls in Training programme. There were about forty members present representing the various churches in the city and much progress was made with the development of girls' work in St. John. Mrs. F. H. Wentworth presided at the meeting which was held in the new Y. W. C. A. building in King street.

Four definite undertakings were considered and finally decided upon. A survey of the Sunday school work for teenage girls was arranged for and a committee of three with Miss Estabrook and Miss Parks as two members was appointed to co-operate with the provincial committee in arranging a summer camp for girls. The Young Men's Christian Association had made an offer of its physical training equipment to the Y. W. C. A. and this offer it was decided to accept with many thanks and classes were arranged for accordingly. The training course for the leadership in the Canadian Girls in Training programme it was decided should be made up of four classes to be held once a week commencing next Thursday.

The report of the nominating committee which was adopted unanimously was as follows: chairman, Mrs. John Hunter; secretary, Miss Bettie; vice-president, Miss Marjorie McKim; assistant secretary, Miss Alice Oliver; representatives to the Girls' Cabinet, Miss Hazel Clark and Mrs. Flagler.

LOCOMOTIVE JUMPED TRACK.
The wreck on the C. P. R. yesterday was caused by a locomotive jumping from between two freight cars and going over an embankment, derailing a dozen cars. The derailed locomotive was being hauled as a "lead" engine with one man in the cab. Near Annapolis it suddenly jumped from the track and slid down a thirty foot embankment. Wrecking trains were sent from McAdam and West St. John, but it was several hours before the line was cleared and traffic resumed. The engineer escaped injury.

TERMS FOR GERMANY.

GOOD HOUSING PAYS.

The last number of the Canadian Municipal Journal contains a striking article by Mayor R. Prieur of Pointe-aux-Trembles, near Montreal, on the urgency of the housing question.

the houses already built more than pay the interest and a sinking fund created to retire the bonded debt at maturity. It is noted that Mr. Thomas Adams visited the town last year and in his report said—

The scheme will afford a valuable object lesson to the rest of Quebec, and indeed to the whole of Canada. Mayor Prieur adds that this is the first attempt of its kind ever made by a French-Canadian municipality. Would it not pay St. John to send a practical builder to Pointe-aux-Trembles to study the plan on the spot and report to our own city council?

The opening of the N. B. Legislature yesterday was marked by two excellent speeches by Messrs. A. A. Dyras and J. G. Robichaud and the elevation of Dr. J. E. Hetherington to the office of Speaker.

Trade says, is a railway pivotal centre and that it is in the common interest of the maritime provinces that this pivotal centre shall be maintained in its integrity. The Transcript may say incidentally that it is equally in the common interest of Moncton and every other point in the maritime provinces to support St. John and Halifax in the fight against the transference of steamers from this country to American ports.

Apple Shipments. Since the lifting of the embargo approximately 212,000 barrels of Nova Scotia apples have been exported via Halifax, as follows: To Great Britain, 205,111 barrels; to the West Indies, 2,687 barrels; to New England points, 4,407 barrels. In addition to these, 86,698 barrels and 15,297 boxes, including shipments from Ontario, British Columbia and Nova Scotia, have been exported from St. John up to date. Shipments from Nova Scotia are now reported to have been about completed.

Cadet Charles W. Scott, son of Alexander Scott, of Main street, who arrived home yesterday from England, via Halifax, was warmly welcomed by his relatives and friends. He left St. John with the 4th Siege Battery and later was transferred into the Royal Air Force.

Your New Shoes Need the Protection that Only Rubbers Can Give

It won't do your new shoes any good to get them soaking wet. It may not ruin the leather; but the feet, pressing against the wet, soft kid or calf, will push the leather out of shape.

Repeated wettings also harden the sole leather and make it wear out faster.

An inexpensive pair of rubbers will prevent all this. They will also prevent your feet getting wet and protect you against taking cold and being laid up with "flu".

Rubbers are a wise economy and a rainy day necessity. Now that two or three months of bad weather can be expected, get rubbers and make your new shoes waterproof.

You can get a perfect fit in these six brands of long-wearing, guaranteed rubbers:

- "Jacques Cartier" "Merchants" "Maple Leaf" "Granby" "Dominion" "Daisy"

The Dominion Rubber System makes rubbers for the whole nation and provides styles and shapes for the shoes of every man, woman and child in Canada.

These Trademarks are your shopping guide to satisfaction. You will find them on the rubbers offered by the leading stores, because most stores have found that it pays to handle rubbers of guaranteed quality that can be had in a complete range of sizes, styles and shapes. Look for the Dominion Rubber System Trademarks whenever you buy.

Wearing Quality!
SHOES THAT WEAR
As Well As They Fit.

There is more to a good shoe than its appearance or its fit. And the beauty of these shoes is more than in the lustre and smoothness of the leather, or the true shaping of the lasts; for these shoes are made of leathers selected to hold their shape in the uppers and give full service to the last step in the soles. The sewing and finishing is given the most careful workmanship—and the price is no more than you would pay for shoes not half so good in make or wear.

FOR WOMEN

We carry a wide range of suitable spring shoes in the following high-grade makes—"Dorothy Dodd," "J. & T. Bell," "Winnie Walker" and "W. & R. Specials," at prices from $6.00 to $12.00, in blacks and browns.

FOR MEN

Shoes made by the following firms—well known for their wearing quality—"Hart's," "Just Wright," "J. & T. Bell" and "Slater," guarantee you the best in footwear. Prices from $7.00 to $12.00, in blacks and brown.

A $10,000 Fire

Fire which broke out at an early hour this morning in the store formerly owned by Edmund H. Duval, 15-17 Waterloo street, and now owned by J. Gilbert, caused damage amounting to about $10,000 to the building itself, to the stock and also to the store and stock of Amand Brothers, 19 Waterloo street.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have started in the rear of the Duval store. The alarm was rung in from box 12 at about 12:30 o'clock by Harry Golding, who happened to be passing.

The furniture store of Amand Bros., which is situated next to Duval's, because filled with smoke, and it was feared that the fire might possibly break through. The firemen started to cut through the wall and it became apparent that the flames were working through. The chemical was then brought into play, and extinguished them before they spread to any extent. There was considerable water in the store, damaging the furniture to some amount. The salvage corps were very active and covered much of the furniture, thus preventing further destruction. W. C. Amand said that there was $10,000 insurance on the stock, and $2,000 insurance on the building. The insurance was carried by several companies, of which C. W. H. Grant, H. H. McLean and White & Calkin are agents.

The store and stock of the late Edmund H. Duval was sold about three weeks ago to J. Gilbert, son of H. Gilbert, Dock street. The transaction was carried out by K. Wilson, and the purchase price, according to J. Gilbert, this morning, was $8,700. Mr. Gilbert said that he did not know just how much insurance he carried, but thought that it might probably be in the vicinity of $3,000, which was carried in several small policies.

Mrs. Duval will suffer some loss to her furniture, and it is understood that there is no insurance.

Y. W. P. A. BUSY

The meeting of the Young Women's Patriotic Association, last evening, was addressed by the sales manager of the Y. W. P. A., on the work which is done in providing reading matter on the troop trains and transports to St. John and on the splendid work of the women of England for the soldiers. The work which the association did on Thrift day received due recognition and two members were presented with $5 stamped thrift cards by M. E. Agar, who also explained the aims of war savings societies and organized one among the members. Miss Alice Fairweather, acting president, was in the chair. A vote of $100 for the military Y. W. P. A. were brought to the meeting.

Two appointments were made, Miss Clara Collins to be standard bearer, and Miss Gertrude Howard to be assistant standard bearer. Great letters of thanks were read from Miss Irvine and Miss Desoyes for flowers received during their illness. A vote of $100 for the nurses' rest room in the St. James Street Hospital was passed unanimously.

Miss Dodge in her report of the work done by the Y. W. P. A. on Thrift day, said that 1,315 cards were placed, $1,298.88 in thrift stamps collected, and $1,000 bought by the association. She then read a letter from J. C. Berris, of the war savings committee, expressing deep appreciation of the work done by the association on Thrift day. Sir Douglas Hazen also thanked the Y. W. P. A. by letter.

Miss Helen Church reported that the proceeds from the sale of candy, tickets and programmes for The Man in the Box by the Y. W. P. A. had amounted to $854.82. Reports of the Seaman's Mission work and of the new equipment bought for the canteen were given and arrangements were made for holding a concert there at an early date.

M. E. Agar's address on War Savings Societies was listened to with much interest, and when he had concluded he made the formal presentation of two $5 stamped thrift cards, the first to Miss Storm, who took in the most money on Thrift day, and the second to Miss Baynton, who sold the most cards. When the association formally organized its war savings society of members pledged to save one twenty-five cent thrift stamp per week, the following officers for the society were appointed: Miss Thorne, secretary; Miss Pike, president, and Miss Price vice-president.

The treasurers' report showed in the general fund $1,272.43; reserve fund, $20.16; and returned soldiers' fund, $3,651. Seven new members were elected at the meeting.

After INFLUENZA, GRIP
 And Other Prostrating Diseases That Exhaust the Strength.

There is always a depleted condition of the blood, that extreme tired feeling, nervousness and digestive weakness from which recovery is slow unless a good medicine is taken.

The lack of red corpuscles in the blood makes it too thin properly to nourish the body, and the general prostration, annoying humors, boils, loss of appetite and poor digestion prevent progress towards health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla meets these conditions perfectly, as many people know. It has proved the greatest blood-purifying, vitalizing medicine. Nothing else so good in spring.

It is made from a formula comprising ingredients often used by the best physicians for impure blood, scrofula, rheumatism, weakness. Truly it purifies the blood and makes the weak strong. For a fine family cathartic, take Hood's Pills.

GOVERNMENT MAY PAY $2,000,000 FOR HARBOR

Mayor Hayes and Commissioner Bullock, who are in Ottawa negotiating with the government officials for the taking over of the port of St. John, had another conference last evening with federal ministers in regard to the amount the government will allow St. John. Present indications are that the government will pay $2,000,000. The absence of Hon. Mr. Ballantyne, minister of marine, through illness, is delaying the reaching of a final agreement.

THE NEED OF A SPEEDY PEACE

(New York Times)
With all allowance for suspicion, distrust, a percentage of ulterior motives and the general confusion and obscurity in German affairs, the situation in Germany looks sinister, as it has looked for some time. The tardy course of the Ebert government in scotching the Spartacists, the result of both the local and the National Assembly elections, the apparent easy supremacy of the moderate elements, the convocation of the National Assembly, have reasons to hope the reign of order and the establishment of a satisfactory polity and a government with which the Peace Conference could deal with some confidence.

WOULD UNIFY ROAD SYSTEMS

Good Roads Delegation Will Interview Dominion Government
It will be remembered that in December a delegation waited on the Dominion government representing a number of Good Roads and Motor associations and Boards of Trade, and urging the adoption of the plan announced later by Hon. Dr. Reid as the government's policy for the building of these national highways. It is probable that a similar delegation will visit Ottawa shortly to present views on the question of maintenance, a feature of good roads quite as important as construction itself.
The inquiries made by A. W. Campbell, Dominion Highways Commissioner, have revealed road conditions and legislation which vary widely in the different provinces. One effect of his work and of the inauguration of the national system undoubtedly will be the co-ordination of the highway laws throughout Canada. There is a highway association which has members in almost every province. It is called the Canadian Good Roads Association, and while its activities have not been of a very definite character to this date, a new field of usefulness has opened up to it through the participation of the Dominion government in road building. It is safe to predict that the energetic director of this association will take full advantage of the opportunities which now present themselves.
There seems to be some uncertainty as to the intention of the Dominion government regarding the maintenance of roads to which Federal aid is proposed. On behalf of the government, it has been stated by Dr. Reid, to whose department the Dominion Highways Commissioner has been attached, that the Dominion will provide its share of whatever money is spent by the provinces on these national highways during the next five years. The money will be voted on foot to which period, it is said, so that there will be no uncertainty from year to year as to the amount which is available. Unofficially it has been said that the Dominion will bear 40 per cent. of the cost of the national highways, and the provinces 60 per cent. while the municipalities will be asked to bear only 10 per cent.
No public official statement has been made as yet regarding the maintenance of these roads. It is not known whether the bill which it is to be introduced into the House of Commons will provide that maintenance is to be upon the same basis as the construction is provided for. The question is extending many of those who have been engaged on good roads propaganda, and movement is being made to make representations to the Dominion government upon the matter.
London, March 7 - John Pomeroy, an Englishman, was tried in the London criminal court yesterday on a charge of receiving an automobile which had been stolen from the American army. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and Pomeroy was discharged. Pomeroy is the inventor of an anti-Zeppelin bullet.

LOCAL NEWS

END OF THE DERELICT. Word was received at the marine and fisheries department this morning that the government steamer Lansdowne sailed from Yarmouth at 8.30 this morning to where the derelict was reported floating near the Lurcher light. She arrived at her destination at 9.30 o'clock and found that the derelict had broken up and that only one large piece remained. As weather conditions were favorable, the captain reported that he would take this piece in tow.

THE SOLDIERS' RECOMMENDATION. A complaint has been made to The Times that a returned soldier, honorably discharged after serving in the trenches, refused a job at manual labor for which he applied to a local concern because he could show no recommendation other than his discharge papers. The citizen who tells of the incident considers on behalf of the returned soldier service as sufficient recommendation for any man, particularly a smart, clean young chap, for work such as he had applied for.

LETTER RE THE METAGAMA

Repatriation Committee's Appreciation of Report and Recommendations

Capt. G. Earl Logan, as president of the G. W. V. A., has received the following letter from Vincent Massey, director of the repatriation committee at Ottawa:

Dear Captain Logan,—I hope you will let me, on behalf of the repatriation committee, thank you for your kindness in bringing to their attention the conditions on board the S. S. Metagama on her last inward voyage.

The committee greatly appreciate the concise clearness of your report and the concrete recommendations presented for their consideration. I am sure that, if all such matters could be dealt with in this satisfactory manner, there would be a great deal less difficulty in arriving at intelligent conclusions and in taking necessary action.

Perhaps you will have an opportunity of expressing to other members of the delegation the appreciation of the committee.

I think we have taken steps that will clear up satisfactorily the difficulties in connection with the transportation of soldiers' dependents. I shall let you know about them later.

Yours faithfully, (Sgd.) VINCENT MASSEY, Director.

PRESENTATION MADE AT HAPPY CHOR PARTY

The choir committee of Portland Methodist church entertained the members of the choir and their friends at a social gathering on Thursday evening in the Y. M. A. hall. The evening was spent in games and music. Refreshments were served and at the close, F. S. Thomas, on behalf of the members of the choir, presented to Miss Sadie Kelly, who is soon to leave for the west, two beautiful pieces of cut glass as a reminder of the many happy days spent together in musical work in connection with the church. Miss Kelly made a suitable reply of thanks for the gift. F. J. Harlan, leader of the choir, thanked the committee on behalf of the choir for the very pleasant evening.

BOOMING NEW BRUNSWICK

In the Royal Hotel last evening a meeting of Tourist Association representatives and others interested in the proposed movement to press the claims of this province more vigorously among the pleasure seeking people of the United States and Upper Canada, was held and tentative plans for inaugurating the work were made. Those present were E. A. Schofield, H. C. Rankine, F. B. Ellis, R. L. Rising, Guide Harry Allen, W. E. Kaymond and Mr. Seymour of the C. P. R. The meeting was informal and it was decided to hold another session soon to arrange for a large and fully representative provincial gathering on May 21, when the definite plans will be worked out and set in motion. At this later convention important speakers from the United States will be present, new New Brunswick moving pictures shown and committees appointed for carrying on the work.

SAYS LEAGUE AT PARIS IS BUT A SHADOW.

Berne, March 7.—Pleas for an effective league of nations marked the opening of the international conference of league of nations societies here yesterday. Mrs. Philip Snowden, a delegate from Great Britain, emphasized the necessity of completing the work of the peace conference at Paris. "We must have a real and effective league of nations," she said, "not merely the doubtful shadow that has appeared at the Paris conference."

HON. MR. BAXTER TRIES AN OLD TRICK IN HOUSE

Seeks to Draw a Herring Across the Trail in Connection With the Speakership—The Government's Advantage and Its Strength

Fredericton, March 6.—As was expected the election of a new Speaker gave additional interest to proceedings that never lack in variety. Today Hon. Premier Foster was in an unusual position. Events during the recess had not, however, without a speaker, but Henry Rainsford, the veteran clerk of the House, went to the majority, and the familiar figure of George Diblee was on a sick bed in a St. John hospital. There were plenty of people who thought a legitimate means to open or function without Rainsford and Diblee, but apparently the world was on for there. It was always somewhat to fill gaps. Messrs. Bidlake and Keefe did their new work wonderfully today. They even had to put a new speaker through his paces. Of course they had a cool and apt candidate in Dr. J. E. Hetherington. He found his way, with the assistance of the premier and attorney general to the day made his little neat speech of acceptance and later on went through the formalities of passing the gaudium with the aid of the sergeant-at-arms and the acting clerk and making his speech to the government. All very simple, apparently, but any young fellow who has passed through the ordeal of a fashionable church wedding could appreciate with "the Dip" this afternoon.

The premier looked the part of a prime minister. He is one of the youngest men in the House and even if a stranger were unaware of his official position he would at once select him as a leader. Few realize that he has not yet been in office two years—will not be for another month—and yet this is his third session of parliament. Few know that, until W. E. Foster took his seat in the legislature as premier, in May 10, 1917, he was never even in the parliament buildings. Surely everything was strange to this new man. Parliamentary procedure was closed book to him. Rules of debate as practised in parliament were unknown to him. All of the blunder and one article of parliamentary life had to be acquired and the new premier set out to learn his way as needed to carry the business of the country with propriety and decorum. If he was nervous at times, he did not act so that people knew about it; if he worried over his lack of parliamentary practice amid so many old fogies, he did not carry it over into his sleeve, but always bobbed up smiling with unvarying courtesy to friend and foe, attended to constant meetings of the government and the caucus, and all kinds of delegations; lost about twenty pounds in weight, but kept his temper, his head and his hands.

Today he faced the House in veteran fashion. In spite of the fact that there are undoubtedly grave matters to be considered, he seems to look to the future with untroubled mien, confident that his efforts to give a clean government and have only clean men in the legislature will command the respect and support of the people.

High Aim. In the premier's purpose lies the premier's strength. He has no political goal in sight other than the future of the province. He has said that if he cannot have a clean government and honest legislators he will go back to private life. With no personal purpose to serve he simply aims to serve the people and there surely he is no higher ambition.

There was an alert look of confidence in the eyes of the government men when Mr. Dyarst of Kent began to make his speech. Mr. Baxter for the opposition, in the absence of Hon. Mr. Murray, had them supported the selection of Dr. Hetherington, and yet in his few remarks he sought to make it appear that the Assiniboia had been slighted because Clem. Legere, the deputy, was not elevated to the chair, which makes it apparent that the opposition need the French, coming and going.

They seek to whip the government with being too French and then whip the government for neglecting the French. Their campaign has been based on the French and the fact that there are ten Acadian members in the House. After 1912 there were Melanson of Westmorland, Landry and Bourque from Kent, three from Gloucester, all supporting Fleming, and several others who ran and would have been accepted if they had been elected. French domination was not feared then, but French domination will serve the Tories today as a herring across the trail of potato graft and railway steals proved by sworn evidence before a royal commission.

To return to the House opening, Messrs. Dyarst and Robichaud acquitted themselves and even the ladies, who do not usually like to listen to political speeches, paid more attention than usual. But five feathers were ruffled out of doors on a fine day and soon crowds thronged the streets and many sought the reception rooms of the governor's lady, Mrs. William Pugsley, and exchanged pleasant greetings with them and each other.

Some of the wives and daughters of the members of the government and the members were present at the House today and, of course, at the reception later. Mrs. W. E. Foster, wife of the premier, was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Vassie, who has been so long in England during the war period. Mrs. E. A. Smith of Shediac, and her son, who is at the university, were home representatives of the minister of lands and mines. Mrs. W. F. Roberts came up this morning with her husband, the next minister, that of health.

The minister of the treasury, Robert Murray, looks happier than usual with a returned son—an officer—and his sister as his family guests. The wife of the attorney-general, Mrs. J. P. Byrnes, lent brightness and interest to the ministerial suffragists. Mrs. Veniot was unwell to be present because of convalescing from influenza, but the minister of public works found consolation in anticipation of what he will say some day soon to the Standard in showing up the falsity of statements today about the work in his department.

This fighting attitude of the warlike Peter is indicative of the temper of the supporters behind the premier. They have the goods on their opponents; they feel that the latter stand discredited before thinking men of the country, and if ever parliamentary life is made miserable for offenders, it will be at this session.

Hovering on all sides is the public, watching intently as to the result, for it means much to the people.

SPANIARDS FACE A NEW SITUATION

After Four Years of Absolute Isolation, Spain Is Again in Touch With Rest of Europe at Her Own Initiative

Madrid, Spain, Feb. 20.—(Correspondence)—Now that the country is coming down after the foolish ecstasies and impossible expectations that were attached to the recent visit of the premier to Paris, where he had a series of chats with the eminent persons who are gathered there, the true situation of Spain in international politics is beginning to be understood, and it is perceived that a hard but not unprofitable task lies before the country. The true advantage of the recent expedition by the Count de Romanones lies in the fact that, after more than four years of such absolute isolation from the rest of Europe as would hardly seem to have been possible, Spain at last is in touch again, and as it is put, has resumed her conversation with France and England, and that is everything. It is plausibly asserted now that it is highly fortunate she has thus got into touch again by her own initiative at this moment when the rest of Europe begins, for it might not have been quite the same in some respects if the initiative had had to be taken by the other side.

It is now learned that the count did many good things in Paris besides those which were most publicly announced. For example, it has just been officially stated that the Franco-Spanish commercial agreement has been extended, and it may not be generally appreciated that this was entirely due to a long and highly important conversation that he had with M. Clemenceau, the French minister of commerce. Others with whom he had conversations of great importance and consequence were M. Hanotaux, former minister of foreign affairs; M. Barthou, former president of the council; M. Andre Tardieu and M. Jules Cambon, former French ambassador in Berlin. The only real omission was the count's failure to meet any of the leading British statesmen, and that was not his fault. It had been hoped that he would have

Pimples Broke Out All Over Face, Arms and Neck

Pimples are a sure sign that the blood is not in its proper shape. While the skin is the seat of the irritating, unsightly pimples, the real disease is in the blood. Medicated lotions and powders may soothe the itching and irritation, but never cure no matter how long and faithfully continued, and the condition is often aggravated and the skin permanently injured by their use. The disease is more than skin deep; the entire circulation is poisoned. Burdock Blood Bitters quickly and effectively cures blood and skin troubles, because it goes direct to the root of the disease and stimulates and restores normal, healthy action to the different organs, cleanses and enriches the blood, and thus relieves the system of all poisonous secretions. B. B. B. cures permanently because it leaves none of the original poison to ferment in the blood and cause a fresh attack. Miss E. M. Davidson, Dayland, Alaska, writes: "Last summer I was greatly troubled with pimples breaking out all over my face, arms and neck. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking two bottles, the pimples had almost all disappeared. I shall always recommend this remedy to anyone afflicted with skin troubles." B. B. Why Can't Get to Sleep?

Thousands of people all over the country ask this question, but still continue to toss night after night on a sleepless bed, and it is impossible for them to get a full night's refreshing sleep. Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and distressed the nervous system that it cannot be quieted except by the persistent use of opiates or narcotics. Or again, you have heart palpitation, and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake up in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and the only way you can get relief is to sit up in bed.

disposed to proceed in such a way that our rights in this matter may be attended to. And so that the people may know what we fix upon, let us enumerate briefly the problems that may interest us: Morocco, Tangier, the Straits of Gibraltar, the railway from London to Dakar, the status of Nations, and the freedom of the seas. It is the proposal of France and England that the Act of Algiers shall be annulled at the present conference. From the results of that conference there have followed serious dangers and small disturbances of French industry.

Spain and Morocco. "The conference of Algiers was a formidable weapon in the hands of Germany. Now the two conquering powers are about to study the question of the management of Morocco after Spain remains absent from deliberations in which the future of Morocco is concerned. Truly there was a time when we were at such a point that that subject might have occurred; but the last five years led us. Today the situation has been changed in a sense that is highly favorable to us, and the concrete questions are not so prejudicial (because that would be impossible), at least the Moroccan situation, and the African problem in this respect is detached from the general subjects of the conference so that Spanish representation may be included for the occasion. Morocco is not Spain a colonial problem, as some critics have imagined. France and England are African for a policy of expansion, nor is it necessary to imitate France or England in their desires to extend their dominions to the extent of forming a grand empire of colonies. For us Morocco is a problem of general policy, intimately bound up with the destiny of our position before the world, the only door through which we are permitted to intervene in the affairs of the world, and the means also of presenting to the peoples a claim that there shall be given to the position that is appropriate to us in the family of the world.

"It would have been disastrous for Spain to be absent from the conference at which the revision of the treaty of Algiers will be determined. We have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Medicine with good results. She is much better and teaching now and I give your medicine the praise. You are welcome to use the result for the benefit of other suffering women."—Mrs. F. A. GAINES, R.R. No. 1, Steele, Ala.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach. Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed. Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is fermented and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, then the lymph ducts which should only nourishment to sustain the body. A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is an alkaline way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing.

Tariff Matter Threatens Peace of Government

Tentative Agreement Reached by Another Caucus Will be Held—Dr. Clark Pledges Support to Administration

Ottawa, March 6.—The Unionist ship of State is having some difficulty showing off from the tariff rocks to leeward. A Unionist caucus this morning led to smooth sailing for this session at least, but it is understood no channels acceptable to all were found. The question was finally postponed until Thursday next when another caucus will be held. Meanwhile, it is significant that pressure upon the western Unionists from their constituents to insist on immediate tariff reductions is apparently increasing. Tonight, a prominent westerner read a strongly worded telegram from a constituent, a member of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, which boasts a membership of several hundred thousand.

Mr. Wood declared: "The feeling of western farmers on the tariff question is very intense. Will not stand for any tampering. There should be a sharp leveling of the tariff downward. The tariff members we are in dead earnest and expect them to stand by their guns." Today's caucus also discussed again numerous complaints made by members of the new no-patrons system, and the civil service commission came in for some hard knocks. Conservative members also made their protest against the government's highway legislation, declaring that there should be some safeguards against allowing the "Grit" provincial governments to handle the money for their own political advantage.

Such Women Just Have to "Give Up"

"Man may work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done." That's why women are overworked, nervous, all run down, no appetite, and can "hardly drag around." Vinol creates a hearty appetite, strengthens the digestive organs, induces sound sleep, invigorates the nerves, and in this natural manner creates working strength.

Narragansett Pier, R.I. "I kept house for my little family, but got into a weak, nervous, run-down condition, tired all the time and no ambition. My doctor told me to try Vinol, and in a week I felt like a new person. I am now strong again, look after my baby, and do all my housework."—Mrs. G. H. Lamson. For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

Millions of people all over the country ask this question, but still continue to toss night after night on a sleepless bed, and it is impossible for them to get a full night's refreshing sleep. Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and distressed the nervous system that it cannot be quieted except by the persistent use of opiates or narcotics. Or again, you have heart palpitation, and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake up in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and the only way you can get relief is to sit up in bed.

A Tonic for Miners

True tonics restore and build up strength naturally, not by stimulation but by nourishment. SCOTT'S EMULSION is a true tonic and a safe means of defense against the debilitating tendency that threatens to drain a miner's vitality. In times of weakness the body does not need drugs or stimulation quite so much as it does tonic-nourishment—the kind that enriches the blood and builds up rugged strength and stamina. A miner may safely depend upon Scott's for strength. Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont.

The executive of the St. John Local Council of Women met yesterday afternoon in the King's Daughters' Guild, under the presidency of Mrs. E. Atherton Smith. A letter was read from Mrs. Douglas Hazen with regard to the formation of war saving societies, and each of the federated societies was earnestly urged to take up this matter immediately in order to respond to the nation's appeal. Matters which will be brought up at the local council annual meeting were held in Ottawa on March 11, 12 and 13, were discussed and as far as could be ascertained yesterday, it was understood that there would be no representative from the St. John local council at this meeting. Should such be the case Miss Carmichael, of New Glasgow, will be appointed to represent the St. John council. The date for the local council annual meeting was from Miss Sinclair on equal moral standards. In her report she brought out strongly the need for improved quarters for women in the St. John jail and of the establishment of a Protestant rescue home for wayward women of the city.

Plans for Camouflaging Vessels
Carefully Worked Out and Applied According to Scientific Principles

There is a department of Burlington House, now closing which is called the Dazzle section. A stranger who should come there by chance might suppose that the New Art, Futurism, and Cubism and what not, had penetrated the Royal Academy. But the hundreds of little model ships which line the walls in a strange decoration of straight and waving lines, stars, and streaks indicate that this is the home of marine camouflage.

On marine camouflage a widespread error exists. Most people suppose that its object is the concealment of ships, and wonder how it affects that purpose. Of course, it is nothing of the sort, but an attempt to break up the form of a ship in such a way as to make it difficult for an attacking U-boat to estimate the course. Though it is impossible to say how many ships have escaped destruction by means of "Dazzle," strong evidence has been forthcoming of its value, together with grateful tributes from merchant captains.

The originator of "Dazzle" is Lieutenant-Commander Norman Wilkinson, the well-known painter of ships and the sea. In May, 1917, he submitted his scheme to the admiralty. At that time most transports were painted black, tan which no color could be more favorable for a submarine on the lookout for prey. Commander Wilkinson's argument was that if a ship could be broken up into strongly contrasting design her course could not be observed without longer periscope observation and even then not exactly. The delay and uncertainty might prevent the submarine getting into firing position until the ship had obtained a chance of escape.

The admiralty storeship industry was the first to be painted, and served well as an experiment. "Dazzle" was next tried on fifty transports, from which encouraging reports were received. Afterwards the scheme was extended to the whole of the merchant marine under the defence of the realm act, which meant that it became compulsory on ship owners to have their ships painted. A staff, mostly of artists and architects, was collected and trained at the Royal Academy; this being the start of the Dazzle section. This company sent out its members to the various ports, each officer being supplied with a complete set of the plans and designs in hand. From time to time new patterns were evolved which were sent to the scattered staff. As soon as a merchantman reached port she was painted under the direction of the "Dazzle" officer in conjunction with the director of shipyard repairs.

When the scheme was extended to all the mercantile marine, models could not be made of every ship. Type ships were therefore adopted, and for each type, according to demand, a number of designs were prepared. Thus, on a ship's arrival in a port where there was a "Dazzle" officer, her type was first settled and one of the requisite designs applied to her. The task called for considerable skill sometimes, as for example, when a design intended for a ship 200 feet long had to be accommodated to one of 280 feet.

"Dazzle" did not make its way into the respect of the mercantile marine without a little struggle. In his room at Burlington House, Commander Wilkinson has a demonstration theatre, which has brought conviction to some very great naval authorities; or, if they did not need convincing, has proved to them what odd tricks "Dazzle" can play even with experienced eyes. A model of a camouflaged ship is placed on a board behind a screen. In the screen is a periscope, to which the experimenting lookout man applies his eye. He is asked to indicate the course of the ship he sees on a compass-dial by his side. This indication is then compared with the direction in which the ship's bows are actually pointing; and the discrepancy between the two is found to be wide—as a rule, ludicrously wide. Similar demonstration theatres were set up at the ports for the persuasion of sceptical mariners, whose discomfiture was exceeding when they discovered how the dazzle had led astray their wildest perceptions.

From the Academy school practically every maritime Allied nation has been trained. All the American destroyers and patrol boats have been painted from designs supplied by Commander Wilkinson, and his assistants. France sent over four officers for lessons, and then started a dazzle section of her own in Paris. Italy was supplied with the British plans and designs. At the request of the United States navy department and the Shipping Corporation, Commander Wilkinson went to America to advise with the result that his scheme was adopted. So also every merchantman at sea in the last eighteen months has been "dazzled" on British lines.—London Times.

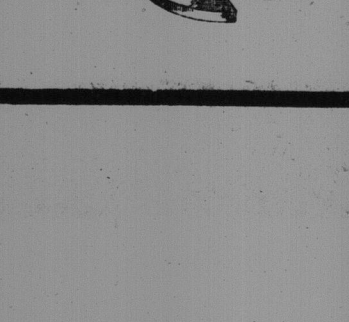

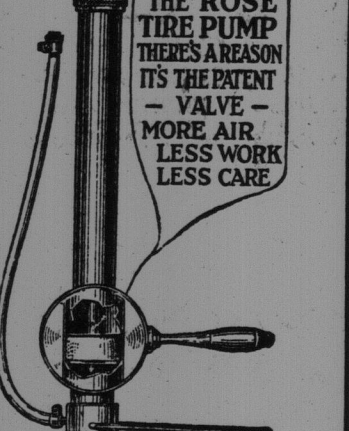

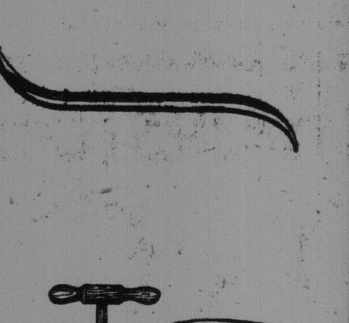

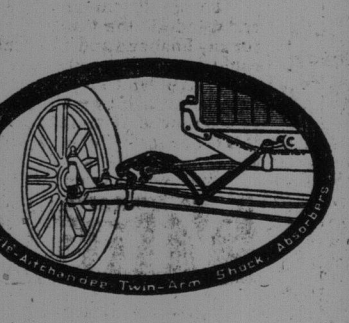

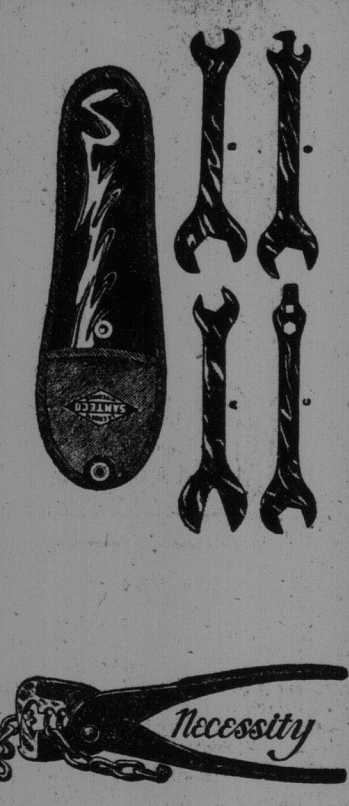

MR. CALDER ON THE TARIFF.

(Toronto Globe.)

It was not surprising that the house of commons became unusually attentive when Hon. James Calder touched on the tariff question in his speech on the address. No subject is more debated in the country, but in parliament it is regarded as a high explosive, to be handled with care, for the present at least. Special interest attaches to the views Mr. Calder, because he is a western liberal member of the government. Admitting that the west was virtually unanimous and frankly associating himself with its views, he held that the tariff issue should not be precipitated in the midst of problems growing out of war, which ought to be solved without the loss of time that would be caused by a period of political turmoil and a general election.

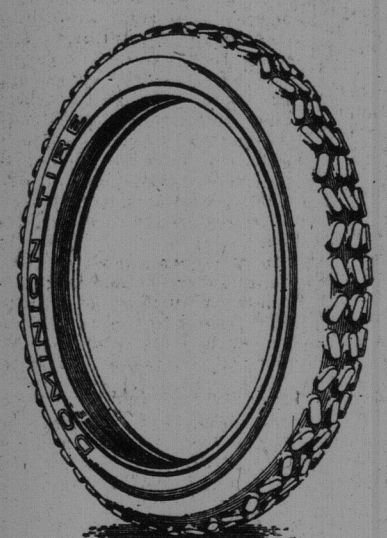

The Globe believes that most Canadians will share Mr. Calder's protest against a disruption at this moment. Probably all the Liberal Unionists in the house of commons are of the same opinion. Probably also the opposition has no desire to plunge the country into an election until demobilization has been completed and the reconstruction programme well advanced. The government, however, ought to remove the oppressive tariff war taxes during the present session. Perhaps Mr. Calder fore-shadows this relief when he says the house will have an opportunity to discuss the tariff question later.

"Did you ever try to convince a man that he is wrong?"
"Well, not exactly. I usually get him to believe that I am right, and let it go at that!"—Judge

Opening of Legislature Marked by Brilliant, Sincere and Eloquent Speeches

Dr. J. E. Hetherington Elected Speaker of the House—Younger Members, A. A. Dysart and J. G. Robichaud Make Splendid Impression in Replies to Speech From the Throne

Fredericton, March 6—The opening of the legislature was the most brilliant for many years. The day was fine and the air fresh and pure after a light snowfall during the night. Crowds were out early in the afternoon and shortly after 6 o'clock the guard of honor from St. John marched down Queen street, the band playing, and the men moving with the smart precision of the trained troops. A great crowd was assembled in Parliament square and the quick movements of the men as they responded to the orders snapped out by the speaker were a reminder of the more serious work in which these veterans had lately been engaged. When Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley arrived, attended by Lieutenant-Colonel Osborne, A.D.C., Major Heron and R. S. Barker, the usual salute was given.

Already the legislative assembly room was filled, every available space on the floor being taken with chairs for visitors, while the galleries were crowded. The scene was especially brilliant when his honor in Windsor uniform and attended by khaki-clad officers, entered the chamber and advanced to the speaker's chair. Among the ladies for whom special seats were reserved on the floor on the right were Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. J. P. Byrne, Mrs. J. E. Hetherington, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilly, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Mrs. E. A. Smith and Mrs. Peck. Many well known people from various parts of the province were also in the chamber.

Prior to the entry of the lieutenant-governor, J. E. Hetherington had been elected speaker. His nomination was made by the premier, and made the subject of complimentary remarks by the acting leader of the opposition, and Hon. Mr. Hetherington acquitted himself admirably in the subsequent proceedings. He will be a popular speaker of the house.

The address in reply to the speech from the throne was moved by Mr. Dysart of Kent and seconded by Mr. Robichaud of Gloucester. Both admirable speeches, touching upon the various matters referred to in the address and were highly applauded. The debate on the address will be continued on Monday evening. The delay was agreed to out of consideration for Hon. J. A. Murray who hopes then to be present.

Hon. Mr. Baxter arrived before the house opened and once assumed the office of acting leader of the opposition. An official announcement given out after three o'clock stated that the speaker had said that all is harmonious and satisfactory and that lines of action for the session were determined on as well as the provincial convention in the near future. The assurance of harmony is taken with a large grain of salt.

Not less brilliant than the opening of the legislative session was the afternoon reception by Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley at the Queen Hotel for 4 till 6. The rooms were thronged and not for many years has so popular a social event marked the opening of the session. The lieutenant-governor and Mrs. Pugsley were assisted in receiving by Mrs. G. M. Brown, Mrs. E. Foster and Mrs. T. Carleton Allen, and in the tea room were Miss Hilda Gregory, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Stockford, Miss Louise Sterling and Misses Richardson, Barry and Crockett.

The State Dinner. The following attended the state dinner given by Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley this evening: Chief Justice McKeown, Bishop Richardson, Mr. Justice Barry, Premier Foster, Messrs. Yonick, Murray, Robichaud, Hetherington, Tweeddale, Smith, Byrne, Roberts and Dugal, the Earl of Ashburnham, Chancellor Jones, A. A. Dysart, J. G. Robichaud, Colonel Osborne, A.D.C., Major Donnelly, Sheriff Hawthorne, R. W. L. Tibbitts, M. E. Dixon, Capt. Smith, W. A. Loudon, Dr. Y. C. Allen, Major Heron, Peter Hughes, E. S. Carter, Lieut.-Colonel Leggett, Rev. B. L. Peck, Mr. W. S. Carter, Major Wetmore, E. P. Braat, and R. S. Barker.

After the formal opening ceremonies and the speech from the throne, the house proceeded to business. Hon. Mr. Byrne introduced a bill to confirm an agreement between the trustees of the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium and the department of the soldiers' civil re-establishment, which was read in first time. Hon. Mr. Foster moved that John Murray Keefe take his seat as clerk assistant of the house, he having been nominated from the position of acting clerk assistant.

Hon. Mr. Foster announced the resignation of Rev. Milton Addison, chaplain of the house, and on his motion Rev. Z. I. Peck was appointed to the vacancy. Mr. Dysart's Fine Speech. The address in reply to his honor's speech was moved by Mr. Dysart, of

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it becomes gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing, and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows: Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Paris (Double) Strength Iodo-Potassium and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little crystallized sugar; stir and drink 1/2-8 one tablespoonful four times a day.

Paris is used in this way not only to reduce and soothe the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tube, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretion in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

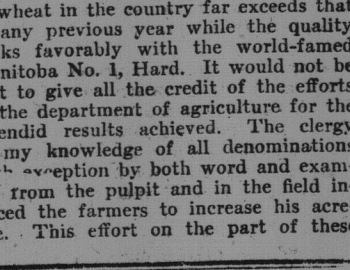

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

DON'T WASTE BACK-ACHE!

money in useless experiments. When you, or one of your family, are in need of a good ointment, buy Zam-Buk—the ointment that has been proved by thousands to be the best on the market. Zam-Buk cures when other treatments fail, and Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Recently, C. Oakley, of the 96th Highlanders, writes: "I could have saved myself $40 if I had only known of Zam-Buk sooner." He continues: "I cut my leg very badly, and immediately went to a doctor, who sewed it up and attended me for five weeks, during which time I was obliged to give up my work. The wound, however, got no better, and the doctor advised me to go to a hospital for treatment, but as I had already paid the doctor $40 and received no benefit, I defected to try something on my own account. I heard Zam-Buk highly recommended, and commenced using it. In two weeks' time the wound was as far healed that I was able to return to my work and perseverance resulted in a complete cure. I had used only one bottle's worth of Zam-Buk and it had exceeded where $40 spent in doctor's treatment had failed. I do not intend to try anything in future use any ointment but Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, skin eruptions, hemorrhoids, ringworm, blood-poisoning, boils, burns, scalds and all other skin troubles. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

Catarrh Of The Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Ignored—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from indigestion, flatulence, acid breath, sour burping, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, quick acidity and indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

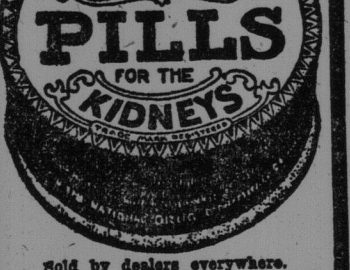

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection through out the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisurated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the Bisurated Magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and creates the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach, and sweeten its food content. Eat, and draw the blood to the stomach, and draw the blood to the stomach.

Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, such as citrates, etc. but get it in the pure bisurated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

Send No Money—Just Your Address. Years of awful suffering and misery have taught this man, Mark H. Jackson, of Syracuse, New York, how terrible is, and have given him sympathy with all unfortunate who are with him in his grasp. He writes: "I had rheumatic pain in my back and neck, and I was unable to know how he was cured. Read what he says:

"I Had Sharp Pains Like Lightning Flashes Shooting Through My Joints." In the spring of 1888 I was attacked by rheumatic and inflammatory rheumatism, and I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried every remedy until I was nearly driven to the grave, but I received only temporary relief. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try after doctoring long and expensively. Don't send a cent; simply fill out the coupon below and I will send it free to you. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Why were there no fervent bleatings from members of the then government in support of the women's claims as they are now and were last year from the same source, bleedings of mingled anguish on the one hand and consolation on the other? I would say to the ladies, Mr. Speaker, harken not to the wails of those politicians in the outer world, politically speaking.

The Oil Shales. Among other important matters done on in the speech is one relating to the further development of the oil shales of the province. It is a highly significant fact that these English capitalists should first go to the country from which all good things emanate. At the present moment extensive preparations are being made for the sinking of a well within one mile of Buctouche, Kent county. I am confident, Mr. Speaker, that if these men go about this matter in a systematic and whole-souled manner, as I have every confidence they will, and go deep enough, they will reward the province substantially benefited.

The Water Powers. Another matter is the proposed legislation that will facilitate the development of the water powers of the province. This is highly opportune. Edmundston boasts of her, St. John of hers, now Westmorland and Albert have served notice that they are on the brink of great prosperity in the harnessing of the waters of the Pettoicodale. Kent county through the energy and foresight of some of our enterprising citizens, has already harnessed the waters of the Pettoicodale and the people are today enjoying the benefit of light and cheap power.

Another matter referred to in the speech touches Canadians as perhaps no other. I refer, sir, to the great old wars which has just been brought to a close with the signing of the armistice. It is gratifying to note that the treaty of peace is gradually assuming form. The gigantic struggle which held mankind in its grip for the past four years has denuded practically the whole world in blood, doomed millions of the flower of the nation's manhood to a soldier's grave and consigned to desolation countless myriads of bright, happy and prosperous homes, and plunged nations into hopeless bankruptcy. The issue so succinctly put by his excellency, the Governor-General of Canada, on the blood-stained floor of the parliament, between two ideals, the British ideal of freedom and liberty on the one hand, and the German ideal of the doctrine of the muffled fist, "that might is right" on the other. The cause of freedom and liberty has triumphed over the doctrine of the muffled fist and democracy saved.

The deathknell to military autocracy was sounded when Great Britain defeated the German military power, and the final and complete overthrow of the German military power, and the associated with her. Ominous days hung over Britain and her Allies, but undaunted to the end, they held fast. All sections of the long line from the North Sea to Switzerland trembled, swayed and broke in the face of the invincible.

All seemed impregnated with the truth so aptly expressed by that great master of strategy, "A battle won is a battle lost." The province was a battle in which one's self was not one's own. The province was a battle in which one's self was not one's own. The province was a battle in which one's self was not one's own.

Another very important matter referred to in this speech will be of special interest to the ladies. I refer to the proposed amendment to the election act whereby the franchise is to be extended to the women of the province. Some there are in the province of the feminine persuasion who do not desire that such legislation pass and become law, but it is not altogether unlikely that there are likewise those women who feel that the province is now under an unparalleled disgrace in that such legislation was not brought down before. Those comprised in the latter group doubtless have received much consolation from our friends in opposition. They tell these fair ladies that though they may have been guilty of certain innocent wrongs in this regard while in power, yet the very first thing they were to do when returned to power in 1917 was to enact the required legislation. For the full nine years, Mr. Speaker, and while the gentlemen of the political benches of those who adorn this court of your left were in power, the women of the province were not only denied the right of suffrage, but were also denied the right of being heard in their own defence.

highly patriotic efforts of the allied forces, we had faith in the passionate motto of the French poilu and the steadfast valor of our Tommies. We had everything to hope for from our fresh and vigorous ally to the south, and above all we had the fullest confidence in the hero of so many victories, Marshal Foch. Our hopes have been realized, our confidence has been justified, and today, Sir, we meet with hearts rejoiced at the thought that the world's greatest conflict has come to an end and that for us

The end has been a glorious one. But, Sir, in the midst of these rejoicings, the province mourns many useful lives. Hardly a home within the precincts of this province but one vacant chair is there.

The Influenza.

Besides the toll of the bloody fields of France and Flanders, a severe drain was made on the population of this province by this dread disease known as "Spanish influenza." Numerous mothers and fathers, devoted wives and husbands, have disappeared, men engaged in useful occupations have been removed from the list some of its distinguished members, the pulpit has also lost some of its brightest ornaments, including a former chaplain of this legislature, the late Rev. J. E. Wilson, and many other young and vigorous ministers of the church, who have fallen martyrs to their sacred calling. It is really pathetic to note that our people have borne these afflictions with an unlimited degree of fortitude. It was with great pleasure, Mr. Speaker, that I take this my first opportunity to tender to you my heartfelt congratulations on your elevation to the Speaker's chair. It is certainly a pleasure to me to see you in your new sphere of action. Knowing as I do your integrity as a public man, your sturdy independence, your keen vision and broadness of mind, I am convinced that your selection for the honorable and dignified position has been a judicious one and will meet with the cordial approval of all classes. I sincerely express the hope that your duties as our chief commiserator will be most agreeable to you.

The visit of the governor-general was certainly a great honor to New Brunswick, it came to us at a time when every heart rejoiced at the great victories of the Allies over our enemy, more dreaded for its propaganda and cruelty of power against righteousness than for its strength of arms. This visit has given us a splendid opportunity to manifest our loyalty to the crown and it remains to be hoped that our most distinguished visitors have carried with them favorable impressions of the reception they have received from the province and its people.

The Death of Laurier.

Of the great events occurring since the prorogation of this legislature last year is one which certainly deserves special mention, it is, Sir, with unanimous expressions of affection and admiration that all Canada mourn the death of her most illustrious son, the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Few deaths have ever occurred in Canada, which have caused greater general and more sincere sorrow. Admired by his political opponents and idolized by his followers, he was invariably spoken of by all parties in terms of respect. His love for Canada was the strongest motive operating in his career. His death removes from the scene of life a figure standing high in the history of our country, and his name will go down to posterity coupled with that of Sir John A. Macdonald.

The women's franchise bill as proposed by the government, will, I hope, meet with the approval of the citizens of this province. The great part played by women during the war has more than once proven that woman's energy and wisdom, if taken in the right light, can be of great help to British institutions. Great care, however, will be exercised in the enactment of a law providing for such a radical change in our franchise act and I have the fullest confidence in the government of this province in this respect.

Water Power Development.

I was very much pleased, Mr. Speaker, to note that a commission appointed last year to co-operate with the conservation commission of Canada to investigate the water powers of this province, will report the results of their inquiries and great legislation looking into the development of this important natural resource will be introduced during the present session. New Brunswick is richly blessed in water power and in this respect the county of Gloucester, which I have the honor to represent, takes second place to none. I hope the day is not far distant when the great falls of the Nepisiguit river will be harnessed and furnish power and light for the betterment of our industries and life in the northern section of the province.

I also take it as a duty to congratulate the government and more particularly the hon. minister of agriculture and his staff on the wonderful showing made in New Brunswick last year in the campaign of greater production. The organization for the purchase and distribution of seed was an excellent one and brought very satisfactory results. In the matter of wheat production, a record was established for the province in an output of one million bushels. In my own county of Gloucester, farmers responded most nobly to the call. So great was the yield that all grain mills in the county (many of which had been idle for years) have been kept busy turning the high priced product into flour.

I share the regret expressed in his honor's speech that owners of the Carquet & Gulf Shore and Kent Northern railways have failed to come to an agreement with the federal government for the taking over and operating of the lines as part of the Canadian National system.

In the county which I have the honor to represent a branch line has been in operation for more than thirty years. The service rendered has attained a point where it has become a peril to the lives of the traveling public, a sorrowful drawback to our commerce and industry and a real provocation to every one who has at heart the advancement and welfare of his country. When we consider, Sir, the great possibilities of that rich section of the province, it is provoking to note that a betterment of the situation has seemed to be an impossibility. In that section of New Brunswick east of the fifty mile tangent of the Canadian National Railway, extending from the Nepisiguit valley to Newcastle, stretching eastward to the shingling shores of Bay Chaleur, washed by the waters of the gulf on the east and forming the picturesque northeastern shore of beautiful Miramichi Bay, that peninsula is beyond any doubt one of the most attractive sections of the province. All these, Sir, seem to be abandoned to the mercy of a dilapidated railroad, managed by a company inspired with adverse culture, a company which must be brought to terms or get out of business. The time is now ripe for action and the whole province will cheer all drastic measures.

It is gratifying, Mr. Speaker, to note that the government of this province has already given due consideration to the

Fletcher Peacock Tells of Value of Vocational Training in Developing Good Citizens

That vocational education is a necessity at the present day when ninety per cent of young folks eligible for high school keep out of it is the emphatic opinion of Fletcher Peacock, director of vocational training for the province, who addressed the Canadian Club at Bond's last evening. Sheriff A. A. Wilson was chairman.

Mr. Peacock, at the beginning of his address, remarked that vocational education is not a social sort of thing and has not for its idea the piling up of wealth, as some have supposed. The activities of the vocational training department are confined to secondary conditions. The matter of higher education is not considered. There are two things necessary. The high school boy should become a first class mechanic if he is going into that sort of thing and he should also become a first class citizen, the latter by the teaching of government systems, etc. In vocational education there is a great field for conservation. Here is ninety per cent of the country's material going to waste, as only ten per cent of the boys are getting a high school education when all are entitled to it. Thousands are going into the world unprepared. Some will make failures and many make out as have the police courts. It is a public duty to educate them, make them self-sustaining and an asset to the country.

The danger in the west today is Bolshevism and it is from the uneducated youths that this class comes. It is up to us to see that all the boys are properly educated unless we are to have very undesirable results. There is an economical side to the question, a country to have influence must have wealth and great employment institutions. We are entering on a great competitive war, one in which there will be no armistice. Mr. Peacock spoke of the danger of many of the workers becoming part of a mere machine. He believed that those who did not want Greek and Latin should take up other subjects which would be of vocational value. Greek and Latin are useful but too much emphasis has been put on them to the exclusion of other subjects. Manual training had been a great advance but it did not prove to be what manufacturers thought they were getting. It was but a kindergarten to real vocational education. The apprenticeship system had broken down and the division of labor system took its place, under which men learned only one part of a machine and really became part of the machine itself, useless for anything else.

In vocational education Massachusetts had taken the lead in the United States and under Governor Douglas developed a system in 1906 which has now been adopted by all the other states and several of the provinces. Congress had appropriated several million dollars to the work in the various states. New Brunswick fell into line last year and it was a step in the right direction. The province will pay the municipalities one-half of the cost of maintenance where such training is undertaken. There are nearly 20,000 students of high school age in the province out of high school. In St. John there are 600 in the high school and 2,000 of the right age out of high school. This is the situation that must be grasped. The captains of industry, the labor men and educationalists in St. John must get together. The dominion government should come forward and assess the provinces in this question of national importance in order more readily to contribute to the development of this vast country. Such a system will contribute to the upbuilding of St. John and make the city great.

Mr. Peacock spoke of those who leave the city to obtain employment elsewhere and of the value of vocational education to those who take up shipbuilding. He considered that the situation was ripe for action all over the province as the people everywhere are interesting themselves in the question of equipping their children. It was necessary to build up a vocational high school so that the ninety per cent of pupils not in the classical high school may attend and learn to become good citizens.

Your Freckles

Need Attention in March or Face May Slay Covered. Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish to look well the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othine—double strength.

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and flaking of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

ROYAL STANDARD CHAPTER I. O. D. E.

The monthly meeting of Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E., held in the chapter rooms in Germain street yesterday morning with the regent, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, in the chair, was busy indeed and most enthusiastic. It was very largely attended, nearly every member being present.

After the opening formalities, reports were received from the various committees. Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine, convener of the committee in charge of the recent pantry sale, said that gross receipts from that successful event were in the vicinity of $80, which was most gratifying to the chapter. Everyone present cordially thanked the convener and her committee for the excellent manner in which the sale was conducted. Mrs. Rankine and Mrs. Shirley Peters also reported that a bridge party given by them and held at the residence of Mrs. Rankine on Tuesday afternoon had realized the sum of $65, which they wished to be regarded as their talent money and to be added to the proceeds of the pantry sale for the furnishing of the rest room and library in the East St. John County Hospital.

The furnishing committee for this recreation room, consisting of Mrs. F. A. Peters, convener and Mrs. A. S. Bowdler and Mrs. W. B. Tennant reported on the visits which they had made to find what would be most suitable for the recreation room, decorations, comforts and furniture. They were given full authority to take charge of this matter and $500 was voted them for expenses with the assurance that more would be given them if it was needed. Mrs. J. P. Barnes reported most satisfactory progress as convener of the book committee for the hospital library.

Fortcoming activities were discussed and final arrangements made for holding a reception in honor of Nursing Sister Miss Agnes Warner on her return to St. John, and for the St. Patrick's Day tea in aid of the County Hospital recreation room which the chapter has planned to make a very pleasant and bright event to take place in the Studio in Germain street.

A committee of ten members with the regent was appointed to meet the stranger Granpian and assist the women soldiers' dependents in every way. The committee will send five members in the morning and five in the afternoon. The matter of forming a war-savings

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Use "Tiz" for Puffed-up Burning, Aching, Calloused Feet and Corns

Use "Tiz" for Puffed-Up, Burning, Aching, Calloused Feet and Corns.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet? "Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot troubles.

The advisability of forming a municipal I. O. D. E. chapter engaged the attention of the meeting also, and having already gone on record as favoring the formation of a municipal chapter, yesterday's meeting again endorsed the notion.

Canadian Soldier Athletes Return

Never Donned Jersey Before the War. Now Champion Army Athletes

Halifax, March 7.—Those who are looking forward to a wholesale revival of every branch of sport with the return of Canada's fighting men are going to have their wishes gratified, according to Sergt. B. Rushion, 65 Ellerslieck avenue, and Sergt. W. F. Coleman, 84 Gladstone avenue, Toronto, who arrived on the Belgic.

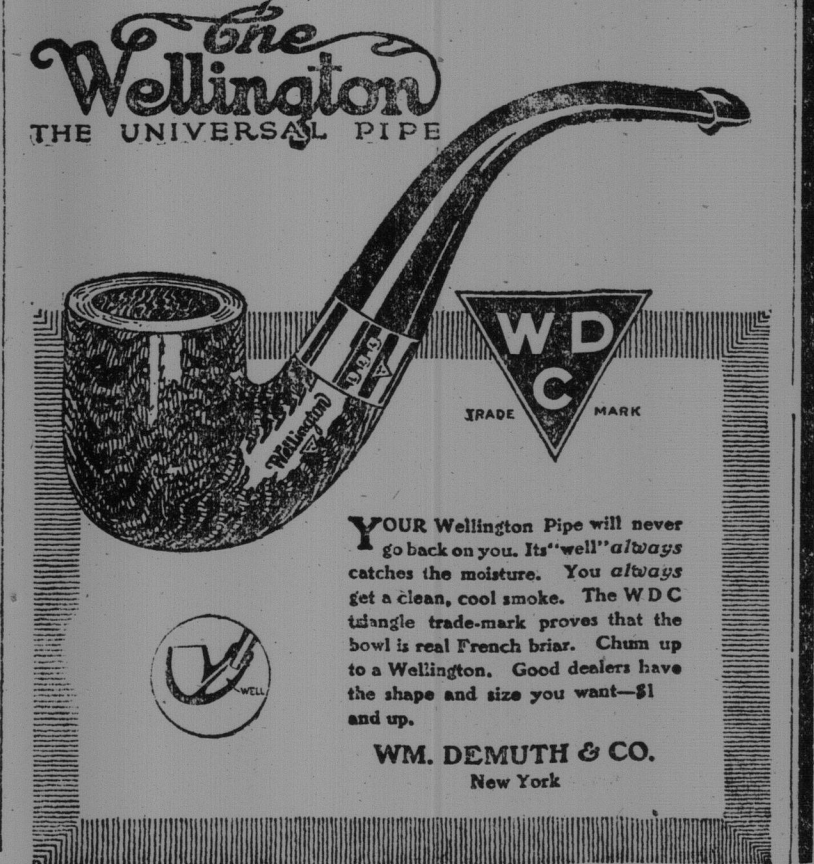

Through many of the Dominion's classiest athletes made the supreme sacrifice in France and other theatres of war, these two men assert that army games are athletic meets developed countless sport experts who never thought of donning a jersey before the war. And they ought to know, for they are two of those who discovered their ability "over there."

URDANG'S

A LESSON TO THEIR PARENTS

OVERESTIMATED HIMSELF. Hohenzollern a Bumblepuppy in Comparison with Napoleon.

War is the gambling of kings, Caesar, Hannibal, Alexander, Frederick the Great, Napoleon were arch-gamblers. William Hohenzollern was a gambler, but he was not an arch-gambler. He thought he was, and therein was the seed of his undoing. Like Napoleon, he thought he could deal a hand with every monarch in Europe and win out, inasmuch as the cards he played with were marked. But even the arch-gambler Napoleon lost when he dealt his cards to his cool, long-waiting British adversary. The Hohenzollern lost when he invited John Bull and Uncle Sam into the game. But the Hohenzollern was a bumblepuppy player compared with Napoleon. Only in one respect does the defeated Kaiser resemble the Corsican conqueror, Napoleon the Great was a consummate liar. But even the great Corsican made mistakes. His most egregious mistake, the mistake that eventually brought about his ruin, was the invasion of Russia. This was a mistake in psychology. He was a man of the Latin race, and the Latin race has never understood the Slav. Will it ever understand the Slav?

Napoleon thought that the Russians would act as his enemies of the Latin race had acted. "They are savages," he said. "It is a barbaric and stupid instinct that makes them destroy their own property for the sake of hampering us. As we approach Moscow we shall find that the more civilized inhabitants of the village, enervated by an easy life, rendered selfish by possession of wealth, will not abandon their property, but will barter and sell to us, and find themselves the victims of our might." And the army believed him. The army always believed him. The soldiers of the Grand Army had superstitious faith in their leader and his star, such a faith as is supposed to move mountains. But Napoleon found that the further he advanced into Russia the more willingly the Russians destroyed their crops and their property. And when he arrived at Moscow the city was in flames. The people had put the torch to their own city. He did not know that the Russians, for all their lack of self-confidence, for all their dreaminess and indecisiveness, are idealistic and fatalists. He did not know that they would perform prodigious acts of self-sacrifice in order to drive the invader from their marshes. If Napoleon had been a better psychologist he would never have invaded Russia. And if the Kaiser had been a better psychologist he would never have taken the chance of America's entering the war. But he told his army that Amer-
