Ottawa, Jan. 1.—A decided theatrical success was scored here today by Miss Blossom Baird, the young St. John actress, who appeared as leading lady in the Cup of Life company. The play was put on at the Russell, the chief theatre of Ottawa, which was well filled both afternoon and evening. Miss Baird, who was supported by a strong company, showed decided histrionic capacity. Critics unite in predicting a career for her.

GREAT CHANCES HERE

The Financial Post in pointing out that the large eastern cities offer good opportunities for investment, says: "In the extreme west, at St. John and Halifax, important harbor and terminal improvements have awakened interest, and a considerable movement in real estate has followed. These two cities offer excellent chances for good real estate investments. The investor who buys or has recently bought there has an advantage over those purchasing in many other cities, in that he is buying at the outset of the movement. These cities, too, have large populations, and buyers are certain that both these ports will increase in importance and size as Canada's trade increases."

Little Beauty Chats

By BLANCHE BEACON

The Night Toilet of the Face

PROBABLY you think your face perfectly clean, but is it? Nine out of ten women content themselves with dabbling a damp cloth caustily over the skin, but while this will suffice to remove superficial grime, it will not wash the dirt out of the pores.

Unless you covet a crop of blackheads and pimples, repair to the bathroom tonight and scrub your face with soap and water and friction intelligently applied, can make it.

Begin by filling the basin full to the brim with hot water, then throw into the steaming liquid a handful of rolled oats, as they will not only soften the face, which is important, but whiten the face.

Next you must attack the face with a complexion brush dripping with hot water and soap suds, frictioning the skin with this beauty tool until your skin is hidden from view by a mass of snowy lather.

A thorough rinse with warm, perfumed water follows. Rinse and rinse and rinse and then rinse some more, as soap suds, if left to dry on the face, will inevitably coarsen and clog the pores and the skin.

Be sure you dry the face thoroughly, as carelessness in this regard will result in your acquiring a host of wrinkles, and this is not all! Quite frequently, the ill-dried skin becomes red and rough.

Do not be afraid to friction your face well, both with the complexion brush and the face towel, as the facial skin likes nothing better than to be scrubbed and rubbed, or at least we may safely assume this, as the well-frictioned cuticle is nearly always minus open pores and blackheads and looks as fresh as a newly opened rose.

Finish this beauty task by massaging a soothing cream into the face with a light, rotary movement of your pink fingertips. Receipts for a particularly dainty face paste is given below. I think you will like it.

White wax . . . . . 1 1/2 ounces
Spermaceti . . . . . 1 1/2 ounces
Almond oil (sweet) . . . . . 4 ounces
Rosewater . . . . . 4 ounces
Oils of rose . . . . . 10 drops
Beat content with this grooming of the face and let it off to bed.

TORONTO CITIZENS BY VOTE MAKE DEMAND FOR TAX REFORM

Toronto, Jan. 1.—The most striking feature in Toronto's civic elections today was the large majority polled in favor of reform, the vote standing: Yavos, 38,434; says, 6,404.

The city council is thus given a mandate to ask the Ontario legislature for local option in taxation, so as to empower the city to tax income and a power rate than land values. Whether Sir James Whitney will yield to the fast growing insistence on tax reform in consequence of this vote, in the seemingly unalterable Tory city of Toronto, remains to be seen.

Eight money bills voted on were all carried by very large majorities, indicating a feeling of prosperity and spirit of optimism on the part of the citizens.

Works Commissioner R. C. Harris has had about $250,000 worth of work done on duplicate water works, garbage disposal, floor street viaduct, and storm drains.

Grants of $250,000 to the hospital for sick children; $200,000 to a national sanitarium and $100,000 for good roads have also been included in the by-law.

An addition to the filtration plant, Mayor H. C. Hecken was re-elected, defeating Thos. Davies by 77,983 to 9,993. The only change in the council was the marriage of Rev. D. M. Macdonald, who has had the seat since Mayor Hecken was elected in 1907, to Miss Geary (third term), appointed couple of months ago corporation council.

EVERYBODY WHO USED GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY OBTAINED FINE RESULTS

At the time I commenced using your Swamp-Root I was so bad that I had to give up work. The pains in my back would be like some sharp instrument piercing my kidneys, and I could hardly get out of a chair without help. I finally resolved to give your Swamp-Root a trial and the results were so fine that I have recommended it to others, and it seems to produce the same beneficial results with everybody that uses it. I am very thankful to you for your great remedy, Swamp-Root, as I know that it will do all you claim for it.

A SPLENDID GIFT.
(Woodstock Press).
Woodstock, on Thursday night, stepped into ownership of a school building worth $75,000 through the loyalty and liberality of the late L. E. Fisher. Those who took part in the exercises paid full and sincere tribute to his memory in a way that it is impossible to add more. Mr. Fisher's devotion to public duty and his deep interest in educational matters were touched upon by all the speakers, who pointed to the school as a lasting monument to his worth and devotion to public interests. The magnificent building is striking evidence of the good common sense, business ability and desire of the donor to solve the educational problem in a way that would be in touch with views of the people.

TURKS GIVE WAY TO MAJORITY OF DEMANDS MADE BY ALLIES

London, Jan. 1.—After protracted diplomatic skirmishing, the Turks finally capitulated to a majority of the demands of the Balkan allies at today's session of the peace conference in St. James Palace.

Threateningly the whole of the Ottoman empire's European dominions, except Adrianople and the territory between it and Constantinople to their victorious but traditionally despised neighbors.

The terms of the Turkish delegates presented the conference as a counter proposal to the demands of the allies were:

First—The Aegean islands to remain Turkish.

Second—The question of the status of Adrianople to be settled by Turkey and Bulgaria direct.

Third—The cessation of the remainder of European Turkey, including Janina and Scutari, to the allies.

Fourth—The Albanian and Cretan questions to be solved by the powers.

During the conference Michael Madjaroff, the Bulgarian minister to England, had uttered a sharp protest against the dilatory tactics of the Ottoman peace plenipotentiaries, concluding with the declaration of his intention to inform the British foreign office that the allies would resume the war.

M. Madjaroff's action brought the proceedings of the conference to a sudden standstill. After his threatening remarks he promptly left the council chamber in St. James Palace and walked off on his mission to the British foreign office.

M. Madjaroff's threat was not, however, taken too tragically by his colleagues, who decided to take a temporary recess, evidently expecting that M. Madjaroff would return and that the conference would continue.

Turri about is fair play—except when applied to a hand organ.

JAMES J. HILL PROVIDES FOR BOY CRIPPLED BY ONE OF HIS RAILWAY TRAINS

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 2.—Walter Barrow, a 17-year-old wanderer, lost his legs in an accident on one of James J. Hill's lines. After the accident the boy was confined to a hospital, where he was cared for by Mr. Hill, abating the rough from blame, and asking for a position of some sort.

The letter elicited a reply that Mr. Hill would not only give Barrow a job, but would supply him artificial limbs, clothing, money, and an education, if he desired it. Although he has been an orphan and a wanderer for many years, Barrow speaks four languages.

The gift is always practicing a game she never intends to play.

GERMANY'S BID FOR FIRST PLACE WITH AIR FLEET

Twenty Great Zeppelin Airships in the Spring as a Start

LARGE FUND SUBSCRIBED

Decision as to Jesuit Law — Attempt Against Life of Crown Prince—Critical Letter of Kaiser on Education Comes to Light

(Times Special Correspondence) Berlin, Dec. 30.—It is confidently believed in the quarters most closely interested that the production of a German aerial navy bill is certain, and that the bill will be introduced in the Reichstag in the next session of the Reichstag in the spring. It is said on reliable authority that the recommendations of the German war office and admiralty include the creation of a fleet of Zeppelin airships, of about 20,000 cubic feet capacity, twenty at the outset, and capable of travelling at fifty-one miles an hour and remaining aloft for four days and four nights without a landing. They are also to be capable of carrying and discharging one ton of explosives.

Germany is secretly training air pilots in large numbers. At the present moment Great Britain has no more than forty-five effective aeroplanes, and at the lowest estimate Germany has 120, besides possessing some 50 more of older types, and twenty aimed at the beginning of this year to possess 400 military aeroplane pilots, and the writer is advised almost in trustworthy sources that she possesses nearly this number already. It must not be assumed that they are all of the first class, but a large number of them are experienced cross-country fliers and many have experience in the use of bomb-dropping machinery, and in the employment of guns on aircraft. So great is the enthusiasm in Germany that the national fund, which started this year, has already reached a total of 500,000, showing that previous patriotic efforts, including the great Zeppelin fund of four years ago, have not exhausted the Fatherland. Two separate gifts indicate the national spirit. The first is the work of the Essen city council each gave $25,000. But the gifts range from half a mark upwards.

In Germany there are now about seventy-five aeronautical societies and clubs, with upwards of 70,000 members. The Kaiser's various orders and decorations and the keynote is always the direct encouragement of German brains and German hands, even though temporary aid may be incurred thereby, or in some point there may be inferiority to France.

Germany also has a number of aeroplanes against aircraft. Nearly four years ago the chief-researcher, such as Krupp and Ehrhardt, were ordered to design and build a number of aeroplanes of high speed and provided with special propellers.

The latest announcement is that the German ministry of war has ordered a new military Zeppelin airship to be ready next May.

The Jesuit Law

The federal council has rendered a decision regarding the Jesuit law, which has been the subject of the still unrepealed article of the imperial law for the suppression of the Jesuit order in the German states, which was first enacted in 1875.

The unrepealed clause forbids the members of the order to teach in the various functions of their order in Germany. As the prohibition was interpreted differently in various German states, the federal council gave an authoritative decision in the Bavarian elections and Baron Hertig, hitherto the leader of the centre party in the Reichstag, became prime minister. The question resolved itself in a decision of the federal council and the German chancellor.

The authoritative definition just handed down by the federal council is a victory for Dr. von Behrmann-Holweg, who undoubtedly has the largest majority in the empire behind him. What is forbidden to members of the Order of Jesus by the law is to teach in the various functions of their order in Germany. As the prohibition was interpreted differently in various German states, the federal council gave an authoritative decision in the Bavarian elections and Baron Hertig, hitherto the leader of the centre party in the Reichstag, became prime minister. SICK DAUGHTER NOW WELL Mrs. C. Cole Tells How Her Daughter Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound. Fitchville, Ohio. - "I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what your medicine has done for my daughter. Before taking your medicine she was all run down, suffered from pains in her side, could not walk but a short distance at a time, and had severe pains in head and limbs. She came very near having nervous prostration. She had begun to cough a good deal and seemed melancholy by spells. She tried two doctors but got little help. I cannot find words to express my gratefulness for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for my daughter. She feels and looks like another girl since taking it, and I shall always feel that I owe you a great debt. You can use this letter for the benefit of others if you wish, as I shall always be glad to recommend your medicine for female troubles." - Mrs. C. Cole, Fitchville, Ohio. Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass. Young Girls, Heed This Advice. Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dizziness, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. "Look here, you marched all yesterday and you fought all last night, the colonel said.

"Yes, sir," said the young soldier respectfully.

"Well, then, what are you carrying the dog for?"

"Because, colonel," said the soldier, "the dog's tired."

WHAT IT MEANT.

A Member of Parliament has been showing round a letter that he has just received from one of his constituents. The writer is evidently worried about the provisions of the Deceased Wife's Sister Act, and in the course of the letter he asks if it is compulsory.

"By that I mean," he goes on to explain, "if my present wife dies, am I compelled to marry her sister?"

CLOSED SEASON FOR BEAVER IN ALBERTA EXTENDED TO 1916

Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 2.—Benjamin Lawton, chief game warden for Alberta, has issued instructions to trappers and hunters that the closed season for beaver, protected since 1908, has been extended from December 31, 1912, to December 31, 1915. He reports also that the beaver has multiplied rapidly during the last four years, notwithstanding raids by law-breakers. The regular hunters and trappers in the north country, he adds, have not killed one of season, but have assisted in enforcing the laws.

There are many who believe that the beaver, the standard by which other furs were rated in western Canada until a few years ago, is doomed to extinction. Evidence of its fast approaching extermination are seen in the decaying stumps, the broken dams and the deserted lodges along the upper waters of the Fraser and Peace rivers, which may be considered the last home of the patient animal, which for more than two centuries, contributed largely to Canada's substantial advancement and stimulated enterprises, and laid the foundation for strong commercial development.

The rarest beaver pelt is pure white, fawn and brown sprinkled with silvery hair. Less than a score of such pelts have been found in an exportation of 100,000 skins. Black beaver are more abundant. Generally the color ranges from pale yellowish brown to chestnut.

Gary, Ind., Jan. 2.—One thousand concrete paving blocks, each in a separate stamped parcel, will be the first installment of parcels post mail to leave this city. COURT CROWDED TO HEAR NEW YEAR'S EVE CASES

Prisoners Remanded, However, As Several Out on Deposit Did Not Appear—Others Reported—Interesting Evidence in Case of Whisky Stealing

Standing room was at a premium in the police court this morning, many people anxious to hear the case of those arrested for creating a disturbance in the streets on New Year's eve. They were disappointed, however, as those who appeared to answer to the charge were remanded until this afternoon as they did not appear. They had been allowed out on deposits of $5, and His Honor said that he would allow them until two o'clock this afternoon to appear.

The police sheet contained the names of fourteen prisoners, a record for the day after New Year's. Most of those arrested were charged with drunkenness, although there were several who had more serious charges to answer to. The names of nine young men, their ages ranging from 21 to 24 years, were called, this contingent having been arrested on the charge of acting disorderly in the streets on New Year's eve. Those arrested were: Harold Chamberlain, Stanley Evans, Daniel McLaughlin, Frank Wilson, Bernard Moore, Harry Dunfield, Ambrose Wells, Harold Fielding, and Gerald O'Brien. Wells, Fielding and O'Brien were the only ones to appear this morning. Wells was charged with interfering with the police while they were making an arrest in Charlotte street late on Tuesday night, after the crowd had gathered to usher in the New Year. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded until two o'clock.

Harold Fielding, a young Englishman, charged with shouting in Charlotte street on New Year's eve, pleaded guilty and was fined $8 or thirty days in jail. He asked for a chance to get back to his ship, and was allowed to go on paying $3.

Gerald O'Brien, charged with shouting in Charlotte street, and also with using profane and obscene language, pleaded guilty to the first charge and was fined $10 or thirty days in jail on the first charge and was remanded on the other. The other six were charged with being members of a disorderly crowd, but none appeared.

Chief Clark showed two large streets that had been thrown at the police while they were making the arrests on New Year's eve. The police had some difficulty in making the arrests, but were able to hold the crowd in check.

Samuel Craig, a middle-aged man, charged with stealing a case of whiskey from No. 4 shed at South Hill, pleaded guilty to the property of the Donaldson Line Company. He pleaded not guilty. Walter Banks, a checker for the Donaldson Line, told of missing the case from the shed. The liquor was part of a shipment on the S. Letitia. The case contained twenty bottles of Scotch whisky, and about six bottles of Scotch whisky, and about six consigned to Sudbury, Ont., and was taken on New Year's eve.

 Detective Walsh told of seeing the prisoner around the wharves yesterday under the influence of liquor. He followed Craig and saw the latter disappear beneath the wharf. He followed him and saw Craig walk along under the wharf about 200 feet. When the prisoner was coming out from under the wharf, the witness took a bottle of liquor out of his pocket. The bottle was the same kind that was contained in the stolen case. He took the prisoner to the Donaldson Line office and had him detained there. The witness went back under the wharf where the prisoner had previously been and found the stolen case of liquor. Sergeant Finley told of making the arrest.

Craig denied stealing the liquor. He said that on Tuesday night he saw two men taking it and placing it under the wharf. He had gone under the wharf and had found one bottle. He admitted having been drinking yesterday. His Honor remanded him to jail to enquire as to his character.

Laura Parks, charged with being drunk and disorderly in the Union Depot, pleaded guilty and was fined $8 or thirty days in jail.

George Gillespie, charged with drunkenness, appeared in court with his head wrapped in bandages. He was arrested on Tuesday and yesterday the services of a physician had to be requisitioned to attend to his wounds, he having been badly cut about the head. In consequence of information given to the police James Currie was also arrested, and charged with having committed an aggravated assault on Gillespie. Currie pleaded guilty and was remanded for sentence. Gillespie was fined $8 or two months in jail.

George Clancy, charged with lying and lurking in a yard off North street, pleaded guilty and was fined $8 or two months in jail.

John Peterson, charged with being drunk and profane, was remanded.

Four other prisoners, charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or thirty days in jail. His Honor took occasion to deliver a strong and impressive lecture, and warned the prisoners that they were starting the New Year in a very bad way.

George King, William Johnston, Charles Breen, and William Morrison have been reported for creating a disturbance at the corner of Pond street, and Harold Cassidy, for creating a disturbance in Frederick street.

GUN CLUB SHOOT

In spite of unfavorable weather conditions the St. John Gun Club had a most successful shoot on New Year's Day. The heavy rain in the morning did not discourage the enthusiasts and they shot through the rain from 10.30 a. m. until lunch time and resumed at 2 p. m. until the weather conditions were a little more favorable. A strong wind also made shooting difficult but in spite of the handicaps some very good scores were made. The scores were as follows:

Competitor	Shot At	Broke
Hare	105	85
Andrews	105	80
Holman	105	60
Dowling	95	62
