POETRY.
WHAT A WORLD IT MIGHT BE!
BY C. SWAIN.

O! what a world it might be,
If hearts were always kind;
If friendship, none would slight thee,
And Fortune prove less blind!
With love's own voice to guide us—Unchangingly and fond—
With all we wish beside us,
And not a care beyond
O! what a world it might be!
There blest than that of yore!
Come, learn, and 'twill requite ye,
To love each other more,
O! what a world of beauty
A loving heart might plan—
If man did but his duty,
And helped his brother man!
The angel-guests would brighten The threshold with their wings, And love divine enlighten
The old forgotten springs.
O! what a world of beauty
A loving heart might plan—
If a man did but his duty,
And helped his brother man!

On the 6th instant the British schooner Abel, Hicks master, arrived at Fovey, from Savannah, having on-board Mr. Bullock, an extensive railway defaulter, and for whose apprehension a reward of 5000 dollars was offered. He was immediately on his arrival recognised and taken into custody by Mr.
Asa O. Bataan, an officer from the United States, who had been at this place waiting for the arrival of the vessel, in which port she was bound for orders.
It is estimated that the reductions which have recently taken place in the coast guard

Horrid Murder.—One of the most awful murders we remember ever to have heard of has recently taken place in Decatur, (Miss.).
The details are as follows:— Dr. G. W. Buchanan was arrested for stealing a watch in the summer of last year, which caused at the time, and for months after, much excitement in Newton county.
Public opinion seemed to sway to and fro for a long time in reference to the matter—but there are circumstances attending the commission of the last offence, which go far to substantiate the truth of the first charge which was preferred against Buchanan. The facts connected with the commission of this most aggravated offence, have been communicated to us somewhat in detail.

It appears that during the excitement in reference to the charge which was first preferred against Buchanan, that Lashly was one of the number who believed him innocent, until Buchanan, presuming upon his friendship, inquired frequently if he ever heard John Dunn, (who was the principal witness for the State in the watch case), "say anything about him or threaten his life," to which Lashly replied that he had not—Buchanan then stated to Lashly, "that it made no difference whether he had heard Dunn say so or not, so he would tell him so, and stand up for it in a court of justice."
"That," he said, "would answer the same purpose, and that three or four hundred dollars was no object to him."

He also reminded Lashly that he was very poor and dependent, and had to work hard for a living, and therefore, he had better accept the offer. To all of which, Lashly indignantly replied, "that he would not swear a lie and send his soul to hell for him or any other man." Lashly kept the particulars of this conversation to himself as long as he could, but finally, he could contain himself no longer, and communicated them to several citizens, who advised him to take out a warrant and have Buchanan arrested. He said, "he had resolved to make Buchanan's propositions public; even at the sacrifice of his life—that he would permit no such vil-lany to remain concealed within his breast."

On the 21st ult. about 10 o'clock, A. M., Buchanan went to the house of Mr. Lashly, about half a mile from Decatur, where he was at work. Some conversation immediately ensued, which was in part heard by the sheriff and another person at a short distance, who went to arrest Buchanan and hear what passed between him and Lashly. Buchanan first inquired of Lashly if he had any water, Lashly pointed him to a spring about fifty yards from the house, and came down from the roof and started with Buchanan in that direction, as he knew before him. About half way between the house and spring, Buchanan drew down his double-barrel gun and shot Lashly, placing the gun nearly to his head, and shooting off his left cheek and nose. He then deliberately took the gun which Lashly had, (having been out turkey hunting that morning) placed it to his head and shot him again, nailing it to a most shocking manner. He then laid Lashly's gun down by his side, and left in a fast walk in a westerly direction.

The murderer, fancying himself unseen, went to the house of a neighbor, and quietly ate his dinner, when it was announced that Lashly had been killed.
Doubling-Cape.—A jolly good natured dog of a voyager to El Dorado gives the following account of his experience in doubling Cape Horn. "Those who are contemplating a voyage to the 'Gold Diggings' would do well to give it a perusal: It is impossible to describe the scenery in the vicinity of Cape Horn. It is all it is 'cracked up to be.' The elements were in such an incessant turmoil, that we had to lash everything on deck and below, but sometimes we would be struck by a 'sockdologer', which would knock our calculations into the Chaos, chests, trunks and boxes, would be away 'pell mell' to the leeward, and when the vessel righted, they would tumble back again in the most admirable confusion. We used to lie in our bunks and call cushions for them to dance; first four forward, balance, turn partners—all hands round—great grand right and left—promenade to your seats.— No one could walk on deck without clinging to something—and sometimes we would be struck unaware by a heavy sea, and suddenly find ourselves crawling out of the life-scupper, rubbing our shins! Thus we were dandled about by the perpetual turmoil of the elements, until we arrived at Talcahuano.— Of all the untrusting, unaccountable and unspeakably 'savage' rampages ever kicked up in human nature, Capt. Horn takes the banner. I have sailed boats on the Delaware and Merrimac, a raft on the 'raging canal,' have been fishing and wrecked on Long Pond, among the ferocious horn-points, and did think I was some 'punkin', but Cape Horn can 'take my hat.'"

Kid gloves may be cleansed with milk—Husbands may be subdued by the use of the broomstick. Paint of adhesive quality may be removed from the cheeks by washing with strong ley, and to prevent the skin from becoming rough, anoint afterwards with lamp oil. Monkey jackets, it is said, will not be the fashion this summer.

There are some horribly obliging people in the world—they will bore you to death for the sake of doing you a favor, you cannot refuse or get away with any sort of grace. A man of this stamp once started a friend from his midnight slumbers to ask if he had lost anything for said he, "I am going out of town, and didn't know but I might find it, if you had."

Romance in Real Life.—The Cincinnati Gazette vouches for the truthfulness of the narrative:—
"About four years since, a poor, miserable, intemperate woman wandered about the streets of Cincinnati, accompanied by a delicate but bright little daughter of about six years of age. They called together at the house of a lady then living in Broadway, and asked for charity. It was freely dispensed, and the lady being pleased with the lovely appearance of the child, insisted upon taking it into her keeping, which was granted.— The mother went away, and was not heard of again about a year afterwards, when the lady who had charge of the little girl, to whom she had now become strongly attached, was sent for to an obscure part of the city. She there found the woman in a filthy and dying condition, with just strength enough to tell her that the child had an uncle, its father's brother, living somewhere down the river, but where she knew not; also that there was no dishonor attached to its birth, and the woman died. From that time until about a week since, the foster-mother of the little girl has made every effort to ascertain the truth of the dying mother's statement, when she succeeded, and, on Monday last, the uncle of the little girl came up from Louisville, and took the little Miss away. That little unfortunate is now the sole heir of an income of fourteen hundred dollars per annum, bequeathed to her by her own father."

Says the Boston Post.—We have no longer any women—or at least, no acknowledged specimens of that interesting portion of the human race. The women have gone extinct, (according to the popular phraseology), and have been superseded by 'ladies.' Alack-a-day for the change! We regard woman as the noblest work of God; but 'a lady' at her highest pitch of perfection, is only the noblest work of a French milliner. Just apply the term, for example, as well to the highest as the lowest grades of the gentler, and the ludicrous absurdity of its use will make you chary of the word forever after. A person claiming to see the female ward in a prison, was answered by the jailer—'Sir, we have no ladiesphere at present.'

HEROIC ACHIEVEMENT.
The following affecting narrative, which appears in the Memoirs of Dr. Chalmers, recently published, will be read by many of our readers with much interest. The chief actor, it will be seen, was Mr. John Honey, father of the respected minister of Inchtute, and of J. M. Honey, Esq. writer, Perth:— "One fearful day the intelligence circulated through St. Andrews, that a vessel had been on a sand-bank in the bay to the eastward of the town. A crowd of sailors, citizens, and students, soon collected upon the beach; for the vessel had been cast ashore but a few hundred yards from the houses, and she lay so near that, though the heavy air was darkened by the driving sheet, they could see, at intervals, the figures of the crew clinging to rope or spar, or each breaker burst upon her side, and shrouded all in surly mist and darkness. In a calm sea a few vigorous strokes would have carried a good swimmer to the vessel's side; but now the hardest fisherman drew back, and dared not face the fearful surge. At last a student of divinity volunteered. Tying a rope round his waist, and struggling through the surf, he threw himself among the waves, forcing his slow way through the raging element, he was nearing the vessel's side when his friends on shore, alarmed at the length of time and the slow rate of recent progress, began to pull him back. Seizing a knife which he carried behind his teeth, he cut the rope away, and reaching at last the stranded sloop, drew a fresh one from her to the shore; but hungry, weak and wearied, after four days' food-less tossing through the tempest, not one of the crew had strength or courage left to use it. He again rushed into the waves—he boarded the vessel—took them man by man, and bore them to the land. Six men were rescued thus. His seventh charge was a boy, so helpless that twice was the hold let go, and twice had he to dive after him into the deep. Meagrely, in breathless stillness, the crowd had watched each perilous passage, till the double figure was seen, tossing landward through the spray. But when the deed was done, and the whole crew saved, a loud cheer of admiring triumph rose round the gallant youth. This chivalrous action was performed by Mr. John Honey, one of Mr.

Chalmers' early and cherished college friends, afterwards ordained as minister of Bendochy, in Perthshire. Though his great strength and courage bore him apparently unimpaired through the efforts of that exhausting day, there was reason to believe, that in saving the lives of others, he had sacrificed his own.
The seeds of a deep malady were sown, which afterwards proved fatal. Mr. Chalmers was asked, and consented to preach his funeral sermon on the 30th October, 1814, the Sabbath after the funeral."—[Scotch Pap.]

The following are the ships either now in search or going out in search of Sir John Franklin, and the two missing ships of his expedition to the Arctic Seas, the Erebus and Terror.

In search, in Davis' Straits, the North Star, in Bhering Straits, the Herald, Plover, Enterprise and the Investigator.

Going in search to Jones' Sound and Wellington Channel, the Lady Franklin and Sophie.

Going in search to Cape Walker, Bank's Land, and McVillie Island, the Resolute, Assistance, Pioneer, Intrepid, and the Felix, with old Arctic Veteran, Sir John Ross.

The foregoing are all British ships. The following is the American expedition: Lady Franklin, Captain De Haven, and Rescue, Captain Griffin, going, if not disappointed, to the point of danger, where Sir John Franklin is to be found, if living, and to convey him to England under the Yankee flag.

It is no small encouragement the vetera-nary sailor, Sir John Ross, that knows the Northern seas like a book, has faith in the safety of the missing, and in that faith embarks for the search, with the snows of seventy winters upon his head.

Speak not lightly of a Woman.—We find the following in a late number of the Richmond Republican. It deserves to be ineffably impressed on the memory of all:— "Of all the self-acknowledged puppies, the young man who speaks lightly of female character, and female virtue, deserves the highest place in the congregation of moral lepers. There is no more certain indication of a weak brain or a rotten heart, than the tongue which would disparage female virtue—which would forget its mother, or sister, in casting its foul venom upon a purity which it can never hope to attain."

Arrival of the Steamship

Cambria.

The steamship Cambria arrived at Halifax, on the 29th ult. The English mail reached St. John on the 1st instant. Liverpool dates are to the 13th April.

Commercial affairs present a dull aspect without any immediate prospect of improvement.

The Corn market of the United Kingdom remain unchanged, except that in some instances holders were willing to accept lower prices for Wheat and Flour, in order to effect sales.

Cotton has advanced 1/4 per lb.

LIVERPOOL TIMBER MARKET.

The market remains unusually depressed for the time of the year, mainly owing to the country districts being well supplied, and the large stock of yellow Pine on hand in the port, sufficient at least for eighteen months to come, at the present rate of consumption.— Deals, notwithstanding a fair consumption, rule low in price, and are likely to do so under the present prospects. It is now ascertained that the import of Pine Timber has been overdone to some extent within the last few years, and that its extreme depression has gradually followed in the wake of the disasters which railway affairs have taken in this country. It is impossible at present to foretell when a favourable change may take place, until we find the general public restoring their confidence to this now large and peevish but decayed interest, coupled with a reactionary movement in building affairs, now so long dormant, and which, from a return published last week of the number of untenanted houses in this town alone, precludes the possibility for the present of this desirable change. Up to this period their price has been sustained, as will be seen on reference to the prices current. Pencil cedar of inferior quality is perfectly unsaleable, as also Hickory Handspikes, except at very low rates.

joining farms were fired, and a strong westerly breeze soon conveyed the flames to the adjacent property. The villagers adopted every means in their power to arrest the progress of the destructive element, but in vain. Farm after farm became fired, and so extensively has been the destruction that the loss is estimated at £20,000 to £30,000.— The origin cannot at present be stated, but the labourers did their utmost to suppress the conflagration.

The Flag-list.—No less than five flag-officers have died during the last quarter, four of whom were on the active list. If the flag list and captain's list be proportionately decimated by deaths during the ensuing three quarters of 1850, adding six first lords' promotions to the list, the captains will be reduced to the established number of 500, when the system of promotion for commanders will be the same as the captains, one promotion to every vacancy. The death of a flag-officer will then make two vacancies, one for a rear-admiral, the other for a captain.

FILE IN PORTLAND!—Shortly before one o'clock yesterday, a fire broke out in the house belonging to Mr. John Weeks, in Portland. A strong wind prevailing from the south-west, the flames spread very rapidly, and in a short time they communicated to the adjoining house, owned by John Pollok, Esq., and occupied by Mr. Campbell; thence to two houses owned by Mr. Connelly and the sheds adjoining, all of which were consumed. The Volunteer Fire Companies were early on the ground, and exerted themselves to the utmost to subdue the fire; and through their instrumentality it was eventually got under. The Methodist Chapel was imminent danger, but the plentiful supply of water obtained from the harbour, the tide being nearly full at the time, and the exertions of several indefatigable individuals who were on the roof of the building, fortunately saved it, and consequently the buildings near by, from destruction. The Hon. Charles Simonds dwelling opposite, was considerably scorched. The Volunteer Engine Companies, Nos. 2, 3, and 4, were worked admirably, and they deserve the greatest credit.
The volunteer system works well, and the officers and men of these Companies have more than once saved a large amount of property from destruction.
Mr. Pollok's Engine also did good service. We understand was no insurance in any of the buildings destroyed.—[New Times-walker, May 2.]

IRELAND.
The culture of flax has now become a subject of great interest in all parts of Ireland, and it is generally acknowledged that the soil is well suited for it.

A national synod of the presbyteries and priests of the Roman Catholic Church in Ireland is to assemble in June next, at which Primate Cullen, of Armagh, will preside. There has not been a synod convened in Ireland for more than a century.

There are twelve vessels taking in emigrants for America at the quays of Limerick. One of them, the Jessy, has accommodation for four hundred passengers, and it is probable that considerably over 2000 persons will leave their native land in these ships. There is a decided preference manifested by the emigrants for the States; only a few take passage to the Canadas.

The ratifiers of an electoral division in the union of Lifford, in the county of Down, have complicated Lord Roden by unanimously electing his Lordship, first, as their representative guardian, and secondly, as chairman of the board, thus restoring the noble earl to the position he held previous to his dismissal from the commission of the peace, and consequent incapacity to act as an ex-officio guardian. It is due to the noble earl to state that his election was supported by men of all parties.

A meeting of the citizens of Dublin was held on Tuesday, the Lord Mayor presiding to petition Parliament against the abolition of the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland—a measure which would be alike destructive to the interests of the metropolis and the kingdom. Although it has now become the universal opinion that the office of Viceroy is doomed, there was a numerous attendance at the meeting, which afforded an opportunity for giving vent to the prevailing discontent on account of the system of centralisation of which the removal of Lord Lieutenant is considered a part. There was remarkable unanimity on the occasion, and the various parties, who differ so widely and bitterly about every other question, were of one accord in denouncing the contemplated measure. Among the movers and seconders of the various resolutions were Mr. W. Long, Mr. John O'Connell, M.P., Mr. W. Digges Latouche, Mr. Grogan, M.P., Alderman Kinnahan, and Mr. S. Ferguson.

FROM PAPERS BY THE CANADA.

The Ministry have suffered another defeat, which arose out of the discussion on the Stamp Duty Bill. On the item charging a duty of 2s 6d on bonds for sums less than £50, Sir H. Willoughby moved an amendment reducing the duty to 1s. The division left Ministers in a minority of 29 in a house of 299. The Ministry have thus been outvoted four times within eight days.

A motion to reduce the taxes on knowledge has been negatived by a majority of 101. It would appear that Messrs. Gibson and Bright appeared to get advantage in favour of the proposition; the Premier and his supporters resting their arguments on the question of revenue alone. Sir G. Gray has introduced a measure to regulate interments in the metropolis. Mr. Fox's bill for giving secular education to the people has been met with coldness on the part of the Premier. Mr. Labouchere's measure for the regulation of the Mercantile marine is loudly condemned at the various sea ports.

The Bishop of Exeter has put the Gorham case in suit before a lay tribunal—the Court of Queen's Bench. The Bishop of London is maturing a measure for establishing a court of appeal to decide on all questions of false doctrine; the Bishop of Bath and Wells has come out strongly against the judicial decision.

The trade and navigation returns prove that the prosperity of the country is undiminished. February and March of the present year show an increase over the corresponding months of '49 of twenty per cent. The exportation of yarns, manufactured cotton, silks, linen goods as well as iron and copper are steadily increasing.

Germany is in a very unsatisfactory state. While the comedy of accepting the charter of the constitution, as agreed upon at Erfurt, is being enacted, the Russian forces are being concentrated on the Prussian frontiers, 50,000 of which are Prussian and Cossack horsemen. And in the event of the agitation in Germany menacing the peace of Europe, Russia is evidently preparing to dictate terms to her neighbours. The Danes are preparing for a renewal of war with the Duchies. The Prussian Ministers are bent upon a rupture of some kind or other. Austria now coincides with England, Russia, and France on the question of the Duchies; and it is evident that Prussia, by opposing her more powerful neighbours, is getting into trouble.

IRELAND.—The county of Donegal is in a bad state; in almost every part of it an organised system of robbery prevails. Several hundred emigrants left the city of Cork on Saturday, by the Nimrod and Albion steamers for Liverpool, to take passage for America. The deck of the former Nimrod steamer was densely crowded with men, women, and children, the greater number of them comfortably attired.

The Limerick Chronicle states that upwards of 2000 persons have left that district since January last to proceed to America.

many of them of a superior class. Persons of good means are departing, leaving the streets crowded with idle beggars, who distress the inhabitants by perpetual importunities and petty thefts.

Two frightful murders have been committed in the county of Clare. Mr. Arthur O'Donnell was returning from the house of his friends, when a party of ruffians met him and killed him with a hatchet. He was a quiet, unassuming gentleman. The herdsman of Mr. Scalan went out to look after some sheep, when a party of ruffians met him and cut his throat.

A monster meeting in favour of tenant protection was held on Sunday at Kilmacumshingaun, county of Tipperary. There were eight Catholic clergymen present, several of whom addressed the meeting with great eloquence and effect. Resolutions affirming the principles that rents should be reduced in proportion to the decline in the prices of agricultural produce, and that the right of the tenant to the benefit of his improvements in the soil should be legalized, were unanimously adopted.

The following is a resolution passed at a meeting of the Kilmacumshingaun branch of the Irish Democratic Association:—"That we, the Kilmacumshingaun branch, do not recognise any law, human or Divine, which could be interpreted as giving to any one man the right to reveal in possession of thousands of acres, oppressing his tenantry and siding with tyrants, whilst our fellow-countrymen are daily dying with hunger, and the tiller of the soil perishes for want of that which, next to God, he is the producer."

DREADFUL ACCIDENT IN FRANCE—THREE HUNDRED LIVES LOST.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post writes as follows on Wednesday:—

"A frightful catastrophe has occurred at Angers, which was lately the scene of tumult and disorder. The third battalion of the 11th regiment, accompanied by the staff officers of the regiment, were marching, across the suspension bridge which leads into the town; the staff had reached the left pier, close to the Chateau, when suddenly the chains were heard to crash, and with a sudden severe and oscillation the bridge broke down, and upwards of 600 men, armed with bayonets and sabres, were plunged into the river, swollen to twice its usual size by the recent rains. The appalling scene which followed surpassed all description. An eyewitness of the horrible occurrence, who has come post haste to Paris with the news, has just recounted to me the horrors of the scene. The chains of the left pier continued to hold, and the remainder of the regiment, including the last file of the Voltigeurs, sprung with distraction to the pier and clung to the chains, which happily did not fall. The rain was falling in torrents, and the swollen and muddy stream, which rushes by 'black Angers,' as our King John called this city, carried away with it scores and scores of struggling soldiers."

Meantime, as the troops had their bayonets fixed, several of the men inflicted frightful wounds on their sinking comrades, until at last the river became completely ensanguined from the blood which streamed from their wounds, thus unconsciously inflicting—as the rain still continued to pour, the occurrence was not witnessed by many persons; but the alarm was quickly given, and all the boatmen and fishermen of the Loire and Maine came up with drags, &c., and several dyed and half-drowned men were saved from a watery grave. You may perhaps remember that Black Angers stands on a strip of land forming an angle or delta, at which the Lower Maine joins the Loire, some distance below the town. During heavy rains the stream becomes swollen into a 'revolutionary torrent,' as it was called by Carrier, in the good old days of the Noyades. Unhappily, the water was in this state at this dreadful moment; and never since the same waters closed over the corpses of the murdered priests and children at Nantes, in '93, have they witnessed so hideous a scene."

There were five companies of 117 men each, marching over the bridge, exclusive of the regimental band, and the many groups of laughing children and women, who are ever to be seen greeting the arrival of a new regiment. These were all precipitated into the dark and angry waters, and upwards of 300 are known to have perished. About twenty corpses have been picked up, and several wounded men have been dragged ashore still alive. Amongst them is the lieutenant-colonel of the regiment, who is, however, in a 'dangerous state.'"

In the assembly, on Wednesday evening, General d'Hautpoul stated the iron bridge at Angers had broken down while four companies of the 11th Legers were passing, and that 300 had been drowned. He added, 'The government, on its side, intends to submit to your deliberation a project of law, with a view to allay the grief of some disconsolate mothers.' ("Immediately," cried several members.)—M. Leon Faucher said that he was sure of being the interpreter of the sentiments of the Assembly in declaring that it shared the emotion of the Minister of War.

INDIA.

We have news from India and China by the Overland Mail, with dates from Bombay to the 16th March, and from Hong Kong to the 27th February. On the frontiers at Peshawar Sir Colin Campbell has had some trouble with the predatory hordes on the hills, and in the direction of Kohat there seems to have been a good deal of fighting in the passes of the hills, and our men have returned without having done much towards preventing the future incursions of the enemy. In a dangerous defile, of thirteen miles in length, our troops suffered considerably from the constant fire of the matchlock men. Two European officers and 150 privates were killed. The whole of the rest of India is tranquil, but the dominions of the Nizam are fast verging to some financial and political crisis. Every thing appears quiet in the various Chinese ports.

We learn, by the way of Egypt, that Mr. Layard and his party are carrying on their successful excavations at Nimrod and Nineveh; and a vast number of copper vessels, beautifully engraved; and fine alabs, illustrative of the rule, conquests, domestic life, and arts of the ancients, are daily brought to light.

The Rifleman war-steamer, has at last caught the slave-ship Providentia, celebrated for her fleetness and successful voyages. When, at day-light, the Providentia saw the Rifleman, she bore straight down upon her, in order to deceive her; then pretended to give chase to a sailing felucca; but she had gone too near her captor, and was overhauled after a three hours chase, and some "advice" from the heavy guns.

The expedition organized under Captain Penry, consisting of the Lady Franklin, commanded by himself, and the Sophia, Capt. Stewart, of Peterhead, left Aberdeen on the 13th ult., at two o'clock, on their perilous enterprise.

The Cornwall Gazette tells a marvellous story of the discovery of an original portrait of Charles I., by Vandyke. It had been kicked about amongst rubbish, and was supposed to be a valueless rag. It was purchased for 2s., the dirt was brushed off it, and the possessor has been offered £2,000 for it, but it is considered worth £20,000!!

Later from California.—The New York Sun has received from its correspondent at Vera Cruz, advices from California to the 9th ult. These accounts state that the markets continued dull, goods of all kinds being plenty.

The rainy season had not completely passed over and was preventing the transportation of provisions to the mines. Provisions, consequently, were very scarce, and the miners were reported to be suffering severely.

The winter had been severe and prolonged in the remote places, and it was feared that from the scarcity of food much sickness might ensue among the miners in some sections. Gold is said to be found in greater abundance than ever, and heavy quantities have been lately worked out. The continuance of the rainy season has prevented the gold being brought down to San Francisco, for shipment home or to exchange for the necessities of life; but the merchants were anticipating better times as soon as spring had fairly set in.

From Mexico.—We have received some further details of the storm which visited the city of Mexico on the 29th March. From midday till 5 o'clock in the evening the hurricane raged with inconceivable fury; walls were overthrown, and twelve large trees in the Alameda were blown down. The streets were filled with debris, and were rendered for a time impassable. At Puebla the effects of the hurricane were less severely felt than at the capital.

When this tempest was at its height a fire broke out in the carriage shop of Wilson and Hope, Sapo street, which destroyed that and many adjacent houses. The high wind carried the burning embers to a great distance, and a general conflagration was threatened. Happily, however, the general solidity which characterizes the structure of Mexican houses stopped the progress of the flames about 5 o'clock in the evening. About one hundred families were deprived of their homes. The damage is estimated at $500,000.

The hurricane of the 29th of March did great damage at Orizaba. The crops, fruits and trees in the vicinity were destroyed.

The authorities of the State of Chiapas had positioned that the port of Carmen be opened to foreign commerce.

The British Minister, Mr. Bankhead, on his arrival at Vera Cruz was received with all the honors due to his rank.

The Indians continued their depredations in the State of Chihuahua. They attacked the hacienda of Carmen, and a sharp fight took place, in the course of which some on both sides were killed.

The cholera had not diminished. It had appeared at Queretaro, within fourteen leagues of the capital. In some places, as at Morelia, La Piedad, Silao and La Luz, the hurricane had driven the epidemic away. Thus at La Luz there were on Thursday 50 deaths, on Friday twenty, and on Saturday not a single one. At Piedad, containing a population of 3000, about 1000 had died. At many other points, the disease was raging, and in some of them very violently.

CANADA.

The Gazette publishes a list of the reduced scale of salaries to be made at the Montreal Custom House. The difference between the new and old scale is a better commentary on the extravagance which every Government marks the expenditure of the Imperial Government. Instead of a Collector at £1,500 a year, the future head of the Customs establishment in Montreal will receive £600, and all the other officers in proportion. It is thus that John Bull pays "through the nose" for every service performed for him. For instance, the present Deputy Post Master General has been receiving a salary of from £2,000 to £3,000 a year, but no sooner will one Department pass into the hands of the Provincial authorities, than we shall find the same duties performed for £600 or £650. It is these abuses which the people of England have mistaken for the "Colonial System," and no wonder they were getting sick of it.—(Montreal Transcript.)

RAIL ROAD MEETING.

The Annual General Meeting of the Stockholders of the St. Andrews & Quebec Rail Road Company, was held at the Town Hall yesterday, the 7th instant, pursuant to notice. The President of the Company, John Wilson, Esquire, explained the object of the meeting, which he stated, was held for the purpose of electing Directors, and laying a report of the proceedings of the Company before the Stockholders.

The Secretary then read a full, clear and satisfactory Report of the Directors' proceedings for the past year, which was unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were then elected Directors for the ensuing year, viz:—

Rear Admiral W. F. W. Owen,

Hon. H. Hatch,

Hon. G. S. Hill,

Capt. J. J. Robinson, R. N.,

John Wilson,

Charles Connell,

George D. Street,

Harris H. Hatch,

Geo. J. Thomson,

Thomas Moses,

John Farmer,

Edward Wilson,

J. R. Tupper,

Messrs F. A. Babcock, R. Ker, Wm. Mahood and T. Berry, were appointed a committee to examine and report upon the accounts for the past year.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors the following office bearers were re-elected.

John Wilson, Esq. President.

John Rodger, Esq. Treasurer.

S. H. Whitlock, Esq. Secretary.

Since our last publication, the Contractors with the carts, and machinery for the work on our Rail Road, have arrived, and we are happy to state the work will be commenced to-morrow, Thursday.

Mr. Myers advertisement for Men, will be seen in another column.

The steamship Canada, Capt. Harrison, arrived at Halifax on Wednesday night, in 11 1/4 days from Liverpool, bringing dates to the 20th April, one week later. The English Mail arrived here on Saturday night.

No improvement can be noted in the market for threadstuffs; on the contrary Flour has receded 6d per barrel, and Indian Corn 6d per quarter.

The iron trade continues depressed, without any disposition to sell at any material abatement in price. The quotations at Liverpool are merchant bar £3 2s 6d; best rolled £6 15s; railroad £6; hoop £9; sheet £7 15s; No. 2 Scotch pig £9 12s.

Trade in the manufacturing districts was rather more satisfactory, and in some articles an advance in prices had taken place. In the woolen districts a fair amount of business is going forward.

The Money market remained easy at previous rates.

The Pope entered Rome on the 12th April, at four o'clock. He was received with the most enthusiastic acclamations by vast numbers of the people, who went out to meet him.

The differences between England and Greece are considered as settled. An official announcement of facts was daily expected.

F. W. Hatheway, Esq., an enterprising merchant of Fredericton, has built and launched a new Steamer named the "Anna Augusta." The boat draws only two feet water with most of her machinery on board, and when completely fitted up, with fuel &c., she is not expected to draw over 2 1/2 feet.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—From the Courier we learn, that the Royal Gazette of law Wednesday contains a Government notice with reference to the acts of last Session, which, by a law recently passed, are arranged in three classes, viz:—1st, Public General Acts; 2d, Local Acts; and 3d, Private or Personal Acts.

The attention of parties interested in the private acts is directed to the regulation, that in future no private act shall be of any force unless printed by the Queen's Printer, within three months after the passing thereof, and 100 copies furnished the Provincial Government, at the expense of the parties interested.

By the official lists attached to this notice, we find, that the Legislature, at its late Session, passed sixty-five public acts, twenty-three local acts, and twenty-one private or personal acts—in all 109 acts. It cannot therefore, with any justice be averred that the Assembly was idle during the late Session, as many of the bills, especially those introduced by the Government members, were of a highly important character, and involved a great amount of labour and responsibility, for which full credit should be given; at the same time it cannot be denied, that various measures affecting the best interests of the Province, and its general prosperity, were passed over hastily, or were wholly neglected.

ADesperate Wound in the Thigh cured by Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Extract of a letter from Mr. J. S. Mundy, farmer, residing at Kennington, near Oxford, dated March 21, 1848. "To Professor Holloway,—Sir, Having received a wonderful cure by the application of your Ointment to a dreadful wound in my thigh, and from which I had long suffered, I feel it my duty to acknowledge the speedy and extraordinary effects produced by your valuable Ointment and Pills in my own case, having previously used several other remedies without success. I have also had various opportunities of witnessing the beneficial results attending their use among my labourers."

Holloway's Ointment.
EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A CASE ABANDONED BY GUY'S, THE METROPOLITAN, KING'S COLLEGE, AND CHARIING CROSS HOSPITALS, LONDON.

This Affidavit was sworn to before the Lord Mayor of London. WILLIAM BROOKE, of No. 2, Union Street, Southwark, London, Messenger, maketh Oath, and saith that he (the deponent) was afflicted with FIFTEEN RUSSING ULCERS on his left Arm and Ulcerated Sores and Wounds on both Legs, for which the deponent was admitted an out-door patient at the METROPOLITAN HOSPITAL, in April, 1841, where he continued nearly Four Weeks. Unable to receive a cure there. THE DEPONENT sought relief at the three following Hospitals—KING'S COLLEGE HOSPITAL, in May, for five weeks, at GUY'S HOSPITAL, in July, for six weeks, and at CHARIING CROSS HOSPITAL, at the end of August, for some weeks more; which the deponent left, in a far worse condition than that in which he had quitted GUY'S, when SIR BRANSHY COOPER, and other medical Officers of the Establishment held told the deponent, "that the only chance of saving his life was to leave his Arm."

THE DEPONENT, thereupon, called on Dr. BAIGUT, chief Physician of Guy's, who, on viewing deponent's condition, kindly and liberally said, "I am utterly at a loss what to do for you, but here is a half sovereign, go to Mr. Holloway, and try what effect his Pills and Ointment will have, as I have frequently witnessed the wonderful Effects they have in Disperate Cases! You can tell me you are again!" THIS UNPREJUDICED advice was followed by the deponent, and a PERFECT CURE was effected in THREE WEEKS by the use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, after Pains, Rheumatism had failed! When Dr. BAIGUT, was shown, by the deponent, the result of his advice and charity, he said,—"I am both astonished and delighted! for I thought, that if ever I saw you again, it would be without your Arm—I can only compare this cure to a charm!" Sworn at the Mansion House of the City of London this 5th day of March, 1842. Before me, J. PIRIE, Mayor.

This extraordinary Ointment will cure the most Dangerous Wounds and Ulcers, Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sore Nipples, Sore Throats, Chicago-foot, Yaws and Gonor-Ray, or Achan, King's Evil, Stoney and Ulcerated Cancers, Piles, Tumours, Swellings, Contracted and Stiff Joints, Scrofula, Ringworms, Burns, Scalds, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, G. ut Rheumatism, and almost every other External Disease.—The Bile of the Mosquitoes, and Sand Flies.—Sold at the Proprietor's Establishment, 244, STRAND, LONDON, and by almost all respectable Vendors of Medicines throughout the Civilized World.
