THE WORLD'S EASTER HOPE

The importance of the fact of the bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ cannot be overstated, nor even overestimated. It is of equal value in the true faith with the fact of the incarnation. Denial of the resurrection leads eventually to a denial of a true incarnation. What was only a dim but growing belief and expectation in the earlier pre-Christian centuries, grew clearer in the later prophetic utterances, and reached a glorious climax of realization in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. His experience of death was the common experience of men. His rising was the uncommon experience, but His rising into higher resurrection life that distinguishes the immortal from the mortal, was the first full blown flower on the world's tree of hope. It was the first demonstration of bodily resurrection that confirmed the world's long cherished hope of another life.

In place of confirming belief in a mere existence of the spirit in the death period, Christ's rising on the third morning was the undoing or abolishing of death. It was the end of the death period for Him, and it was the beginning, the demonstration and assurance of that glorious life that humanity in all ages has hoped for. But the resurrection of Christ was not only the assurance of a future and resurrection life for men; it also demonstrated the character or reality of that life. It was a demonstration on one hand that left a rifled, vacant tomb, and showed on the other, a man who re-lived after being dead, and furnished numerous proofs of His substantial reality. Jesus Himself bore testimony against the theory of a mere reappearance in spirit. He denied such a theory, and affirmed an existence and life in the body that could be adequately expressed only by use of absolutely material terms. "A spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see Me have." With these unmistakable terms, and with a close contact with the disciples, He left no opportunity for missing the real lesson. There need be no apology for our gladness in connection with the Easter season. It is a very fitting occasion for flowers, for the song of birds, for the happiness of children, and for the spring awakening of all nature. It is our way of saying that the joyous certainty of a blessed and real resurrection life, as demonstrated by the resurrection of Christ, is ten thousand times better than the old world's hope and fear of a mere spirit existence beyond death in an underworld of dark dust-begrimed shades. As superior as is the snow-white lily to the mud from which it springs, still greater is the resurrection hope in Christ to the dim and uncertain expectation that had been springing in the minds of men. May we in conclusion exclaim in the words of the great apostle. "Thanks be unto God which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ." The hope of the world is Jesus. F. O. STEWART.

DEPRECATES USE OF AFRICAN TROOPS

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, Harvard professor and noted historian, in an address on "The Gentle Art of War," before the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, deprecated the use of Senegalese troops by France in her army.

Alpha Phi Alpha Plans to Reach Five Million Persons

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Washington, D.C., April—"Go to High School, go to College week" pronounced by leading educators as the most forward-looking movement ever inaugurated by a group of college students will be observed this year throughout the United States during the week of May 4-11, inclusive, by the 50 odd chapters of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. This year marks the fifth annual conduct of this great nation-wide education campaign to encourage Negro youths to continue their education. During the year 1923 more than three million parents and students were reached through circulation of literature, the display of placards, through the press, and the holding of meetings by the chapters and members of the Fraternity in the various sections of the United States.

COLORED MINISTER STARS IN DRAMA

(By The Associated Negro Press)

On April 7th, afternoon and evening performances were given of Eleanor Wood Whitman's five-act drama, "Jeremiah," at Tremont Temple, by the Greater Boston Federation of Churches.

Sixteen ministers assumed principal parts; or ninety per cent. of the speaking parts were taken by them. Denominations represented in the cast were Methodists, Episcopalians, Baptists, Unitarians, Congregationalists, Swedenborgians, Presbyterians, Jews, Universalists and Quakers.

Rev. E. E. Thompson, pastor of the Massachusetts Ave., Baptist Cambridge, took the part of Ebed-Melech, the Ethiopian eunuch, who influences King Zebekiah to transfer Jeremiah from the miry dungeon, where he had been left to die, to the prison court-yard, and who later receives, through the prophet Jeremiah, God's promise of deliverance from the Babylonians, because of his faith, and of his fealty to Jehovah. Ebed was one of the principal characters portrayed; and Rev. Thompson acted the part with understanding and dignity; and his work has been most favorably commented upon.

A CALL FOR CO-OPERATION.

We have noticed with much pleasure, in the past few months, the tendency of our group to enter business. In the City of Toronto, several business places have been established which reflect credit on the individuals who established them as well as upon the race and upon the city at large. A business league has also been formed in order to co-relate and to assist these business enterprises. In Windsor a young colored man invented a combination ice plough, snow shovel and snow cleaner. He formed a stock company and immediately the colored citizens subscribed for and paid for enough stock to give Mr. Platt, the inventor, enough capital to work with. Also, in the city of Windsor, Mr. J. T. Bishop has organized a stock company for the purpose of dealing in all kinds of merchandise.

From first one city and then another reports reach us, telling of the advent of colored business places, and of a measure of success they meet with. Judging from reports the greatest handicap which they must reckon with is the lack of sufficient capital. It seems as though they have no difficulty in drawing patrons from white people as well as from our own group whenever they have sufficient capital to open first-class businesses.

It would appear then, that what we need most is co-operation. We are aware, I am quite sure, that we must add to this country our business quota as well as our share of labourers if we would become an integral part of the nation. We must make places for our talented boys and girls if we intend to keep them in Canada.

If now as individuals, we are unable because of lack of finance, to begin business enterprises, we can accomplish it through co-operation. In an emption essay on "Co-operation", Mr. F. O. Stewart suggested that The Dawn of Tomorrow call convention some time during the coming summer, a convention of all colored citizens who are interested, in order to discuss plans for co-operation for Colored Business Enterprises.

Therefore, the Dawn is now sending out a call to all Colored Canada, to preachers, teachers, leaders, businessmen, professional men, laborers—to all colored men and women—to meet in a convention which we shall hold during the coming summer, at a time and a place to be decided upon at a later date. The Dawn shall be pleased to receive letters of suggestions as to the plans, the date and the place for the coming convention. Remember this, your race pride and your race consciousness is to be gauged by the interest you show in this very vital issue.

OUR COUNTRY.

(By S. E. G. Allen)

Dear Canada, of her we're proud.
In true nobility of worth
When direct need makes cry aloud
Her sons rise up in pride of birth.

Forced into what she most abhors.
Bravest among the nations wide,
Through terrors of the hottest wars,
Her sons were filling her with pride.

Brave boys, while faith and trust abound
In trenches deep with mud and mire,
With faith unwavering held the ground,
Nor faltered in the hottest fire.

Some day will pass this saddest sight
And He who notes the sparrows fall
Will prove that only "Right is Might."
God's in His Heaven and watched all.

THE EDUCATIONAL FIELD

It is stated that fully 500 persons interested in community welfare were in attendance at the Cheyney Community League on occasion of its "Citizenship Day." Students from the Cheyney State Normal School furnished musical selections of a high order which were well received. This league stands for uplift and advancement of the race. Prominent citizens, including Judge Isaac E. Johnson, of Media, Mrs. Alice Dunbar Nelson and Miss Martha G. Thomas, of the State Legislature, delivered addresses.

"Climbing the ladder with the three R's" formed the basis for an educational programme for the B.Y.P.U. of the First African Baptist Church, when stirring addresses on the educational outlook for the Negro were delivered by Mr. Daniel A. Brooks, Principal of the Reynolds-Gratz School and Mr. George Lyle, Principal of the Logan School. Both speakers held the audience spellbound, while each told in an interesting heart to heart manner what the education of the boy and girl of today really stands for. The pupils of the Logan School, about twenty in number, rendered a musical programme that has been seldom equalled, and never beaten in these quarters. Miss Edna Mae Hazelwood a young singer with an excellent voice and much promise rendered very delightfully, "Let Me Sing."

GROWING DEMAND FOR COLORED LAWYERS.

Washington, D.C., There is a growing demand for Negro lawyers throughout the United States and especially the sections where large numbers of Colored People are residing, according to information received in the office of the secretary of the school of Law of Howard University. This demand, it is said, is an outgrowth of the great migration movement which has been in process during the past few years.

TORONTO NOTES

The B.M.E. Sunday School will hold their Annual Easter Concert on Monday evening April 21st. A good programme will be rendered. Silver collection will be received at the door.

Rev. Ball has recovered from his recent illness and occupied the pulpit at the B.M.E. Church both services on Sunday.

On Friday evening, April 4th, the doors of Mrs. Wright's home, at No. 4 Sullivan St., were thrown open to welcome the guests of the Starlight Social Club to their first public entertainment.

The house was crowded to its capacity with patronizing people, who, after buying all the hot dogs, punch, ice cream, coffee and cake, spent the rest of the evening swaying gracefully to the sweet strains of music as they float from Mr. Wright's victrola; and from the piano played by Miss Ethel Skanks.

At the close of the entertainment, the President of the Club, Miss Clara Jordan addressed the audience, thanking them for coming out; also telling them that some of the money raised would go to buy flowers and fruits for the sick and lastly introducing the other officers of the club as follows: Miss Evelyn Carey, Vice Pres., Miss Elme King, Treasurer and Miss Edith Murdock, Secretary.

Again the Starlight Social Club wishes to thank the patrons for helping them to raise $18 successfully, and hope they will attend their next entertainment.

Members of the Grant African Methodist Episcopal Church rejoiced last evening. Before a large audience of jubilant members and sympathetic friends the mortgage documents, which for years have clouded the horizon of this little church, otherwise happy and serene, were formally handed over in cancelled form to the Board of Trustees.

Rev. William E. Guy, pastor, in his remarks as Chairman, emphasized the fact that, had it not been for the devoted and continued interest of John MacDonald, the mortgage of some $5,800 would still be burdening the congregation. Mr. MacDonald, as Treasurer of the committee, had not merely given of his money; he had done what was more difficult—he had given himself wholeheartedly to the cause of lifting this load of debt. For many months he had worked ceaselessly, interesting friends and gathering moneys, and now the fruit of his labors was before them. Other members of the Mortgage-Lifting Committee who had rendered valuable assistance were ex-Controller W. P. Hubbard, Chairman; C. L. Burton, J. W. Montgomery, W. Claude Fox and F. L. Hubbard. Mr. S. S. Scott, Secretary of Grant Church received the cancelled mortgage and made an address of appreciation for the church.

Miss Edith Murdoch, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. MacDonald with a beautiful illuminated address, expressing deep appreciation and lasting gratitude to the church's benefactor. Mother Amelia Scott, one of the first members of the church, with a few appropriate words, unveiled a handsome bronze tablet erected in honor of Mr. MacDonald.

IN MEMORIAM

Of our dear mother, Mrs. Catharine Smith, who departed this life five years ago, March 18th.

Sad are our hearts since our dear mother left us,
Darkened our life by the stroke that bereft us.

Only one love in this world like no other

Faithful and true is the love of a mother.

Children are dear, but they love us, and leave us

Friends that are truest will oftimes grieve us;

Thoughtless or careless a sister or brother;

No love abideth, like the love of a mother.

Patient and kind, although heartsick and weary,

Smiling and sweet, though life's path-way be dreary.

Neglect or ill-treatment her love cannot smother,

Faithful till death is the love of a mother.

Sadly missed by Daughters, Sons, and Grandchildren.
