Warm Fight Brewing Over Garbage Contract—Liberals Expect to Win Manitoba Election—Hundreds of Cadets Under Canvas at Carling's Heights—Londoner From Mexico Discusses Situation.

KEEPING "TABS" ON CARTS THAT HAUL GARBAGE

Opponents of Boss Contract
Claim That Many Wagons
Could Be Cut Off.

HOW DOES MAYOR STAND?

Some Claim He Is for Contractor,
Others That He Is Not Committed.

WHO STARTED THE ROW?

Stated That Utilities Commission
Is at Bottom of Fight for Civic Control.

There promises to be a fight to the end over the question of garbage collection in the city of London. The mayor is said to believe that the present contractor should be allowed to have the contract, but a section of his erstwhile supporters assert that Contractor Boss is making at least $5,000 a year out of the work, although he asserts his profits do not amount to more than $2,000, which he considers is a small return on his investment.

City Should Operate It.

Some of the aldermen believe that if the contractor is making $5,000 a year, the city should take over the operation of the system. Mayor Graham has been able to rally other aldermen to his support, and it is believed that the attempt to introduce municipal ownership in this department will prove to be a failure.

"It looks rather odd on the mayor's part to be talking for consideration of private ownership," said one alderman. "Some of us had come to think that he was the inventor of public ownership. I understand that there are some 'high-ups' who also object to the contract being taken away from Mr. Boss, but if he is making as much as is reported, the city should have the profit. It is odd to see the Graham crowd and the garbage superintendent lining up in defence of Mr. Boss."

Is He Committed?

Others say that Mayor Graham is not committed to the contractor's support, and that he is merely waiting to see the evidence of garbage collection cost in other cities.

There is one story going the rounds to the effect that the opposition to the Boss contract came about through Chairman Philip Pocock of the public utilities commission. Mr. Pocock, it is stated, objected strenuously to the payment of $70 on the Horton street plant for garbage collection. The churches have also opposed the tax, and some have maintained that this tax is necessary because a considerable profit is going to the contractor.

Keeping "TABS" On It.

It is said that those opposed to the continuance of private collection have been keeping tally on the number of loads brought to the incinerator during a day, and that the claim has been made that six wagons will do the work that is now being done by 32 wagons.

EGERTON ST. SEWER IS BEING ADVANCED

Street Is Trenched From River to Within Block of Hamilton Road.

People who visited the construction work on Egerton street yesterday were told by Contractor T. W. Nicholson that a $150,000 storm water and sanitary sewer saw a long contrivance in the street that looked like an elevated railroad. The apparatus is used in excavation work.

Mr. Nicholson is an old London boy who has been successful in the states on big public works jobs, but this is the first time he ever undertook a job in this city. He started in two weeks ago and Egerton street today is torn up from the river to a point about one block from Hamilton road. He has 12 months to finish the job. It is the most important construction work undertaken this year, and when completed this sewer will intercept the water in Carling's creek on Dundas street and divert it to the river. A unique feature of the work will be encountered when the contractor reaches the G.T.R. tracks. This point in the route of the sewer is known as a natural watershed and in order that the sewer have a proper level an excavation of 25 feet will have to be made at the tracks. The sewer is being constructed of concrete, one section being for the storm water and the other for sanitary drainage.

BRANTFORD YOUNGSTER PLAYS PART OF HERO

Rescues Another Lad From Drowning in the River
Grand.

[Canadian Press.]
Brantford, Ont., July 6.—William Smith, a youngster living in Eagle Place, had a narrow escape from death in the Grand River, being saved by the heroic conduct of Arthur Ratcliffe. He had been swimming and turned over on his back to rest. Then he dropped, to put his feet on the river bottom but found it was over his depth. He yelled, and two companions answered but failed to get him. Smith was taken down by the current when Arthur Ratcliffe, a boy smaller than Smith, dove for him. He failed, but dove again and grabbed Smith by the hair. Smith fought and Ratcliffe stunned him, then holding him up until a canoe was brought, the two being taken to shore. Ratcliffe was exhausted. Both were revived.

LONDON DISTRICT BOY SOLDIERS GO UNDER CANVAS

1,400 Strong They Arrive in London Today for Annual

Contingents Bring In Several
Bands—Chatham Pipers
Scoring a Hit Again.

Nearly fourteen hundred boys from all over Western Ontario arrived in London today for the annual summer cadet camp, which is being held at Carling's Heights for the next six days.

The first contingent, numbering about one hundred, from Goderich, Clinton, Kincardine and points north, came in on the regular Grand Trunk train, detraining at East London, from where they marched to the camp grounds. The Ingersoll boys, to the number of 20, arrived on the Grand Trunk at 10:55, and a similar number on the regular G. T. R. train at 11:10.

Two hundred came on the M. C. R. from St. Thomas, Essex and the surrounding district at 11:20, and a G. T. R. special brought 250 more at 11:30.

The first eastern contingent, representing Guelph, Galt and other eastern towns, came over the C. P. R. to Quebec street, and the regular train from the west brought 240 from Windsor, Chatham and other points.

From Kingsville and Leamington 35 travelled over the Pere Marquette, arriving at 1 p. m. A special G. T. R. train carried a contingent of 230 from Waterloo, Stratford, etc., and the last batch arrived at 1:10 on the regular G. T. R. train from Sarnia.

Kitties Band Scores Hit.
Several of the corps had bands; the boys from Chatham had two, a pipers' band and a bugle band. The former, in their robes, created quite a sensation, being greeted with cheers and hand-clapping.

GRAND TRUNK RAISES TRACKS WEST OF CITY

Bridge That Spans the Thames
Is Also Being Elevated at Present Time

West of the city and between the west end of the city and the elevation of the Grand Trunk Railway is raising its tracks several feet. In addition to that, work was started yesterday in raising the bridge that spans the River Thames south of York street.

Officials of the company in charge of the work, are non-committal regarding the ultimate reason for the change in grade separation. It is rumored, however, that the construction is the forerunner of subways.

There is a drop of about ten feet from the elevation on the west, and the tracks through the station and yards in the East End. Heavy freight trains have had considerable difficulty in making the grade, and the company has been considering the raising of the tracks through the city for some time.

CANINE MOTHER, DYING, SAVED PUPPIES' LIVES

Valuable Setter Killed by Strychnine Refused to Let Litter Feed.

Princess Patricia, a setter, owned by John S. Brown, of 391 Queens avenue, is dead, and her eight two-week-old puppies are motherless.

The setter went out Saturday evening for a few minutes and on a nearby lawn picked up a piece of meat upon which strychnine had been sprinkled. When she came back she was gasping and in half an hour she was dead. Before she died she lay in such a position that her puppies could not feed, her animal instinct saving their lives. Had she secured the poison in their food everyone of them would have been killed.

He said because all the English papers had tried to put him on the street, never again would he allow an English-speaking candidate to be elected mayor of Montreal without contest and promised that if he was not in Montreal when the election came on he would return and enter the fight.

MANY PARTICIPATE IN LAST TRIBUTE TO CHAMBERLAIN

Thousands of Citizens of Birmingham Line Route Along
Which the Funeral Passed to the Cemetery.

[Canadian Press.]
Birmingham, Eng., July 6.—The late Joseph Chamberlain, the Unionist leader who for many years, occupied a prominent place in British politics, was buried today in Hockley Cemetery, which is situated in the constituency he represented in the House of Commons for so many years.

Previous to the burial a memorial service was held in the Church of the Messiah, which was attended by the lord mayor of Birmingham, the members of the city council, and other civic dignitaries. Apart from the civic element the mourners at both the church and the cemetery consisted solely of members of the Chamberlain family, as the late statesman had expressed the desire that his funeral should be free from everything of a public nature.

Nothing could, however, prevent a great crowd of the citizens of Birmingham, among whom Joseph Chamberlain was a popular hero, from lining the route along which the funeral passed from the dead statesman's residence at Highbury to the church, and from there to the cemetery. As the procession passed, the men reverently uncovered.

Inspector Edwards Receives
Plans Of and Comments on Rochester Building.

Inspector of Schools C. B. Edwards has received more information concerning the one-story school plan which he has been looking up in connection with a new building on Princess avenue. The plans of the one-story school in Rochester, together with a photograph and favorable comment of several educational journals will be placed before the members of the board in the consideration of a new building on the Macbeth site on Princess avenue.

The board holds a meeting tomorrow afternoon, when the purchase of the site will be consummated and the plan of the new building discussed. As it will have a twelve or fourteen-room school some members of the board believe the one-story building will be too squat.

RIDOUT ST. SUBWAY NOW IN SIGHT CITY'S SHARE WILL BE $13,000

Advertiser's Agitation Bears Fruit in Request for $5,000—
Mayor Drafts Resolution That Application Be Made to Railway Board.

That the cost to the city of London for a subway on Ridout street would be about $13,000 was a statement made at the board of control meeting today in the consideration of a report by the special committee which had been probing the subway question. Mayor Graham and Controller Moore, members of this committee, drafted a resolution that was submitted with the report which provided that immediate application should be made to the railway board commission for the Government grant which London would be entitled to under the circumstances. This report goes to the council tonight.

G. T. R. PAYS BIG SHARE.
The city engineer's estimate of the cost of the subway is about $51,000 including brick pavement and brick sidewalks which alone are estimated at $9,000. Under Dominion act the G. T. R. is liable for two-thirds of the whole cost, which would bring London's share of the expense down to about $13,000.

NEW PAVEMENTS UP.
The passing of bylaws for an asphalt pavement on Wellington street from the G. T. R. tracks to Clark's bridge and for a brick pavement on Dundas street hill are new improvement questions to be taken up by the council tonight. There is some opposition to the pavement of Wellington street expected, as a petition with a majority of the property owners upon it will be presented in protest.

GARBAGE QUESTION, TOO.
The garbage question is also to come up, although it is not scheduled. Some aldermen want to know what the board of control has done to probe the public ownership plan which was suggested by Alderman McDonald. Mayor Graham has received a number of letters bearing on the subject but will not make them public until the board is ready to submit the entire question to the council.

Alice Church, the young woman from whom the money had been taken, appeared to testify against her. After a cross-examination, in which the prisoner stated that she had come to London in February and that her home was in Toledo, the court decided to remand her until the police can find something of her past-history.

EXPLOSION SHOWS A PLOT TO BOMB THE ROCKEFELLERS

Tenement House Wrecked by Dynamite Kills Four Alleged Anarchists.

AGITATORS AMONGST DEAD

Extra Guards Have Been Placed Around the Court
Room at Tarrytown.

[Canadian Press.]
NEW YORK, July 5.—In the ruins of the Lexington avenue tenement house wrecked yesterday by the premature combustion of a powerful explosive which killed Arthur Caron and three other people, the authorities today found evidence that Caron's apartment was a centre for the distribution of inflammatory literature, which was printed there, and that at the time of the explosion it was apparently a bomb factory, filled with the ingredients of death dealing missiles.

A small printing press, revolutionary pamphlets and circulars, an electric dynamo, two electric batteries, cartridges and bits of steel were among the things uncovered in the search, which tends in the opinion of the police to show an anarchistic plot at assassination. That a demonstration halted by the bursting of someone who was preparing an electric machine for its mission, was planned against the Rockefeller family in Tarrytown, is the theory upon which the authorities are working.

Agitators Among Dead.
Two of those killed in the wrecked apartment were prominent agitators who were to be placed on trial in Tarrytown tomorrow on charges of disorderly conduct in connection with the campaign of demonstration inaugurated against John D. Rockefeller Jr., as a protest against his attitude in the Colorado coal mine strike.

The body of the fourth victim of the explosion was found today. It was that of Charles Berg, known in I. W. W. circles as "The Big Swede," an associate of Arthur Caron, who was also killed. The other victims were Charles Hanson and Mary Cleaves. The woman lived in an apartment next to the one occupied by Caron and his associates.

Equally interesting with the discovery by the police of anarchistic literature and electrical machinery in the ruins of Caron's room, was the assertion by I. W. W. leaders that Caron was not a member of that organization, having recently been refused admission. They declared that the I. W. W. had nothing to do with the explosion.

A gruesome but suggestive piece of evidence uncovered was a severed hand, which clutched two pieces of wire made ready for connections. The authorities believe that the owner of this hand was in the act of making an electric connection for one of the bombs and a battery, when the explosion occurred, and he was blown to pieces, leaving the hand as a mute witness of the manner in which the tragedy occurred.

Trial of Agitators Today.
A party of sympathizers, including Berkman, the anarchist, will go to Tarrytown tomorrow to attend the trials of the I. W. W. agitators.

No unusual precautions to guard the large Tarrytown courtroom have been taken. The sheriff stated that he did not anticipate any trouble from the friends of the Caron who are to be arraigned. John D. Rockefeller went to church this morning at Pocantico Hills. He motored to church, but insisted on walking back to his estate, accompanied only by his superintendent. There were no I. W. W. agitators about the place today or tonight, and the guard on duty at the estate had little to do.

Extra Guards for John D.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 6.—Nine associates of the three men and one woman killed in New York on Saturday by the premature explosion of a bomb were to be arraigned in court here today on charges growing out of their demonstrations against the Rockefellers, father and son. Two of the defendants—Arthur Caron and Charles Berg—died in the explosion.

Special guards surrounded the courtroom and extra guards patrolled the always closely-guarded Rockefeller estate near here. There was talk for time of postponing today's hearing because of the excitement created by the bomb tragedy, but the town officials after a conference with the New York police, decided to proceed with the cases. It was expected that a large crowd of the prisoners' sympathizers would be on hand.

Can't Find Murphy.

New York, July 6.—Michael Murphy, 19 years old, the only member of the group of free-speech advocates who escaped with his life from the fatal explosion on Saturday morning that wrecked the tenement on Lexington avenue, is being sought by every policeman and detective in New York today, as the one person most likely to know the real story of what occurred in the little flat. Murphy disappeared after being in the hands of the police before they were awarded the identity of the victims of the explosion. He visited a nearby police station, was given clothes to replace his own, which were torn to bits, and then dropped out of sight.

Just what charge could be placed against Murphy, the police say they do not know, but it is believed he might be induced to throw some light on the cause of the explosion and perhaps explain why alarm clocks and other things used in the making of bombs were kept in the Berger apartments. Louise Berger, step-sister of Carl Hansen, one of the men who lived in the flat where the explosion occurred, remains firm in her first story that she knew nothing about what happened prior to the explosion and that she knew explosives were kept in the rooms.

Man Thought To Be From
Oshawa Killed by an M. C.
R. Train at Dutton.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DUTTON, July 5.—The body of a man supposed to be John Kolybian, of Oshawa, was found tonight horribly smashed, a few feet from the Michigan Central tracks among tall weeds. He had evidently been dead for about ten days, having been struck by a train, and hurled into the high weeds, which prevented passing engineers from seeing the body. The remains were found by Charles Hales, aged 15, when he was out for a stroll. He at once ran home, and told of the discovery.

Coroner in Charge.

Coroner Ling took charge of the body tonight. He found that the back part of the man's head had been torn off, and that both legs were broken. The feet had swollen so that they had burst the shoes. Nearby was found a small round hat with gold braid on it, and this leads to the supposition that the dead man was employed by a circus which was here about ten days ago. In his pockets were found letters postmarked "Aska," and addressed to John Kolybian, Oshawa. In his pockets were found a tack-hammer and a box of tacks, a pipe and a lead-pencil. The last two had been badly smashed. A small notebook was filled with names.

Trying To Read Letters.
The authorities have spent the evening trying to find someone who can read the letters. Oshawa has been communicated with, also, and an effort is being made to locate any relatives who may be there.

The dead man is about 50 years old.

GODERICH, July 5.—The closing service of the Presbyterian summer school was given at Hotel Sunset at nine o'clock this evening. Resolutions were passed thanking Rev. Geo. The feeling of the delegates is that Goderich will have the school again next summer.

NEW CHAMBER TO TAKE PLACE OF THE LORDS

Proposals To Be Laid Before
House of Commons
This Month.

PLEDGE IN KING'S SPEECH

Hereditary Principle Likely To Be Largely Eliminated.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, July 5.—During the month of July the Prime Minister will lay before the House of Commons the proposals of the Government for a constitution of a new Second Chamber, to take the place of the House of Lords. It is not expected that any attempt will be made this year to translate these proposals into law, but they are being made in accordance with a promise in the King's speech at the opening of Parliament that they would be submitted for consideration during the present session.

While the scheme is not yet complete, it is known that the hereditary principle, which even many Unionists oppose, will be largely or entirely eliminated, and that the other chambers of the kingdom will be given similar representation to that now enjoyed by the Established Church of England. What the Liberal party, except those opposed to any second chamber at all, aims at is to secure that the new second chamber shall, to a large extent, be in union with the House of Commons. In order to obtain this it is probable that every freshly-elected House of Commons will have the right to nominate a certain proportion, perhaps one-third of the second chamber. Thus if a House of Commons is Liberal, so will be the other branch of the Legislature, and if, on the other hand, it should be Conservative, it will be able to constitute the second chamber in harmony with its own views.

A House of Groups.
As the House of Commons is becoming more and more a house of groups, it would follow that the various groups would have representatives in the second chamber, and England may yet live to see Laborites, Socialists, and even Irish Nationalists, seated on the benches now sacred to peers of the realm.

If this plan were adopted, it would be a question whether it would be necessary to continue those provisions of the Parliament act, which prohibit the Upper House from vetoing House of Commons bills more than twice.

Nonetheless, it is one of the tremendous tasks which the Liberal party has undertaken, and to carry which it must overcome not only the opposition of the Unionist party, the church, the present peers, but that great body of English conservatism, which will brook no change in established things and customs.

TRAINS MUST NOT SPEED TO MAKE UP LOST TIME

Grand Trunk Issues a New "Safety First" Order to Engineers.

MONTREAL, July 5.—The Grand Trunk Railway has decided on an extension of its policy of putting the lives of passengers before speed and time. A new set of instructions has been prepared and tomorrow will be sent to every man connected with the running of their trains in Canada.

Engineers are urged in the manifesto to live up to the rules of the company. They are prohibited from speeding the train to try to keep it up to time, if for some natural cause it has come a little behind time. Engineers are also requested to watch and report any defects they notice in passing on tracks, bridges or signal appliances.

Talk of War Between Japan and Australia Is Called Foolish.

[Canadian Press.]
TOKIO, July 5.—The promotion of a better understanding among the nations of the world, especially between Japan and the United States, Canada, New Zealand and Australia, is the aim of a new society that is to be founded here by Baron Shibusawa and other leading Japanese businessmen. It is explained that the new organization will particularly address itself at present to questions arising in Australia and New Zealand, but an attempt will be made also to do "good work" in the United States, as well as China.

Yana Yamamoto, the editor of the organ of the Japanese Peace Society, said: "These days we hear many sinister rumors about Japan circulated in Australia and New Zealand. Some Australians even dream of invasion by Japan, and talk of a war between that country and Japan. Nothing can be more foolish and laughable."

The plans of the society include the creation of a membership as large and as influential as possible, and drawn from all classes of Japanese. Correspondents or committees will be secured in the Australian states, and a committee will be appointed in London. The countries will be urged to arrange for exchange visits of students, correct possible mis-statements appearing in the press, and in a general way by correspondence and publicity try to eliminate all misunderstandings arising between Japan and other countries.

The proposed society is one of the indications in Japan of today that this country desires an opportunity to increase her material welfare by an extension of her commerce and industry, which can only come by a period of peace.

BRITISH PRESSURE DENIED REGARDING PANAMA TOLLS

Former Ambassador Bryce
Gives Emphatic Denial to Report.

LONDON, July 5.—A flat denial that Great Britain had brought pressure on the United States in connection with Panama tolls was made last night at the banquet of the American Society by Viscount Bryce of Dechmont, the former British ambassador at Washington.

Lord Bryce said he had simply advised his Government that "if the President thinks it right to repeal or go to arbitration, he will do it."

Lord Bryce added: "No country in the world has a stronger desire than the United States to do what is right and honorable."

The American ambassador, Walter H. Page, said that the letter to the Washington Government relating to Panama was written by Ambassador Bryce before the end of the Taft administration.

All the speakers referred to the international polo match and the Henry regatta as evidence of the generous feeling between the two countries.

EXPIRES AT WHEEL OF HIS MOTOR CAR

John Shopland Succumbs to Heart Failure Near Hyde Park.

STRIKES VEHICLE AHEAD

Masterless Auto Crashes Into Buggy, Tearing Off Wheel and Breaking Axle.

Succumbing to an attack of heart failure, John Shopland, 321 Dufferin avenue, one of the best known contractors of the city, died at the wheel of his auto, near Hyde Park, on the Samia road Sunday evening. With the lifeless hands guiding the machine, it crashed into the rear of a buggy ahead of it and but for the providential stopping of the engine, as a result of the collision, might have been the cause of a fatal accident.

Early in the afternoon, Mr. Shopland, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Mathewson, 486 Dufferin avenue; Miss Elsie Mathewson, Mrs. Cook and Miss Kathleen Ralph, sister and grand-daughter of Mr. Shopland, left for a drive through London Township, going first to Ballymore, then to Arva and from there to Hyde Park, from where they intended to return to the city.

Near Hyde Park a buggy was noticed ahead. As the auto drew closer to the rig, Mr. Mathewson, fearing a collision, turned to Mr. Shopland, exclaiming: "You are getting very close." There was no answer to the remark, and the next moment the car struck the rear wheels of the buggy. The collision, fortunately, stopped the motor of the machine, and saved the breaking of one of the buggy axles and the ripping off of a wheel, no other damage was done.

Mr. R. W. Shaw was telephoned for, but expressed the opinion that Mr. Shopland was dead when Mr. Mathewson spoke to him.

Mr. Shopland's body was brought back to the city by Dr. Shaw in his auto, Mr. Mathewson returning with the other members of the party in Mr. Shopland's car.

Besides his wife, Mr. Shopland is survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Ralph, Mrs. W. R. Kerr, and Mrs. J. S. Rear. Mr. Shopland was 48 years of age. George Taylor, of London, now of New Liskeard, and T. W. Taylor, M.P., of Winnipeg, are brothers-in-law. The late Mr. Shopland was born in England 71 years ago and came to Canada when a young man. For many years he was one of the best known contractors in the city. He formerly resided on King street, where he conducted an extensive carpentering and general contracting business.

JOSEPH WAGNER DROPS DEAD AT PORT.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PORT STANLEY, July 5.—Joseph Wagner, formerly wine clerk in the Tecumseh House at London, but for some months past wine clerk in agents' bottling at St. Thomas, dropped dead here this evening as he was stabling his horse, after having driven around for some time with his wife.

Mr. Wagner was 54 years old, and went to London from Toronto. His wife and family have been at Port for several weeks, and he spent every Sunday with them.

After having taken them for a drive most of the afternoon, Mr. Wagner was putting his horse in the stable when he suddenly complained of not feeling well, and fell over dead.

Mr. Wagner had had troubles with his heart lately. Only a few days ago he had to catch a street car, and after boarding it was overcome and fainted.

Dr. Nettleton, who was called this evening, found that death was due to heart failure, and decided that no inquest was necessary.

Difficulties Between Carranza

WILL HUERTA STEP OUT?

If Given Unanimous Vote of Confidence by Electors He May Resign.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, D. C., July 6.—President Wilson and members of his cabinet were encouraged today by news that an early adjustment was indicated of difficulties between the Constitutional leaders. Secretaries of the parley between representatives of Carranza and Villa declared they expected the meeting would end today with satisfactory results. With the promised removal of such a stumbling block, administration officials and some of the revolutionary agents in Washington saw added cause for hope that Carranza would send agents to confer with Huerta's delegates over establishment of a provisional government.

Elections at Mexico City.

Developments in the election about Mexico City yesterday in which Huerta apparently was named for president and General Blanquet, now secretary of war, was elected vice-president, anxiously maintained in circulation to the effect that after Huerta had obtained an almost unanimous "vote of confidence," such as he was said to have received, he would retire in favor of Pedro Lascurain, who in turn would surrender the government to a Constitutional. However, doubt that the Federal dictator would adopt such a course was expressed in many circles. Details of the election were not readily forthcoming today, beyond reports that re-election of all members of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies was indicated and that the vote in the capital and nearby towns was the lightest of all recent balloting.

Torreon, Coahuila, July 6.—When the Carranza-Villa conference adjourned last night after a long session, both sides apparently were confident that all differences between the two Constitutional leaders would be eliminated today, when the final session of the conference will be held.

AUSTRIAN NOBILITY REPLY TO SLIGHT

Not Invited to Archduke's Funeral They Decide to Follow
Bier Nevertheless.

[Canadian Press.]

VIENNA, July 4.—The restricted number invited to the funeral service over the late Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, the Duchess of Hohenburg, in the imperial chapel yesterday, although attributed solely to the limited accommodation, gave great umbrage to many titled friends of the couple who were not invited.

A protest against their exclusion, about 120 members of the noblest families in Austria and Hungary, some of them being privy councillors and court chamberlains, and nearly all holding court offices, decided to march in the funeral procession from the Hofburg to the railroad station.

Council Feared To Act.

This coming to the ears of Prince Montenuovo, chamberlain of the emperor's court, he hastily summoned a ministerial council to decide upon what action should be taken to prevent a demonstration, but the council, when informed that the nobles intended to resign their office if interfered with, decided to do nothing. Consequently, when the nobles appeared, many of them wearing their official uniforms, the police made way, and allowed them to fall in behind the hearse.

Those who joined in the protest also resented the discrimination manifested in the court ceremonial against the late Duchess of Hohenburg, on the ground of unequal birth with the Hapsburgs, whereas, they point out, she was a member of the ancient Bohemian family of Chotek, her rank standing similar to their own.

Emperor Appreciates Sympathy.

Emperor Francis Joseph has written an autograph letter to the Austrian and Hungarian Press, in which, after referring to the assassination of the Archduke and Duchess, he says: "If anything can comfort me in this heartfelt sorrow it is the innumerable proofs of warm affection and sincere sympathy which have reached me the last few days from all sections of the populace."

To Army and Navy.

In a proclamation to the army and navy issued today, the Emperor says: "We bow in our grief before the inscrutable will of the Almighty, who has demanded an immeasurable sacrifice from me, my forces and the fatherland. Nevertheless, I do not abandon hope of a prosperous future, convinced that in every trial by which we may be visited the monarchy will find its refuge in the devotion, even unto death, of those Austro-Hungarian forces, whose loyalty cannot be shaken."

THREE TOREADORS GORED

Bulls Have All the Better of the Fight in the Ring at Barcelona.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 6.—A cable from Barcelona to the Tribune says: "The most tragic bull fight in the history of the local bull ring occurred Sunday, when one after another of Barcelona's three leading toreadors were retired to the hospital, only one of the six bulls having been killed."

The first accident occurred just at the beginning of the fight. Rafael Gomez, one of the most noted fighters in Spain, was gored in the right thigh and sustained a broken collarbone.

Punteret, who was called to finish the wounded man's work, was also wounded in the leg, but he succeeded in killing the bull. The next bull had not been in the arena for more than five minutes when Belmonte also fell with a serious wound in the leg, whereupon the day's "amusement" was suspended. Gomez is in a dying condition.

The large collection of illustrations has cost years of labor by hundreds of artists, and all this means an immense outlay of money before the exhibit could start. Public auditoriums rather than churches are used, so that all Catholics, Protestants, Jews, and others, may feel the freer to come. The exhibits are free, so that all rich and poor may profit.

This drama is run in four parts, part one running until Tuesday, part two from Wednesday to Saturday. The drama is advertised as free, but to defray expenses and to supply those with reserve seats who prefer them in advance, the opera house has reserved the first nine rows of the orchestra, and the boxes, which will be on sale at the box office for ten cents, at ten every morning. No person admitted after performance starts. Twice daily all week at 3 and 8 o'clock.

PERMANENT PAVEMENTS.
The present board of control is to be commended for having introduced an active permanent paving program in the city of London. There are several miles in course of construction, or to be undertaken before the summer is over, and with all the agitation of years, this is the first time that the situation has been taken hold of and advanced.

The Advertiser believes the men not favorable to the paving of Wellington street will quickly bury their opposition when they come to the realization of the benefit to the city and to their property to be derived from the presence of an asphalt pavement on that principal highway. The city and street railway will pay a considerable portion of the cost, and the work, when completed, will serve as a model to that section of the city below the Grand Trunk tracks, which is sadly in need of permanent pavements.

If Londoners would realize how far behind they are in regard to permanent pavements, they would not hesitate to commence a broad program of improvement. There are some small cities in Western Ontario, Chatham for instance, which have more miles of permanent pavements than London. And there is no good reason why every street of London should not in time be paved with asphalt or some other suitable material. The upkeep is much less than for the poor roads we have at present, and it is a small, provincial spirit that objects to having a road put down because of the first cost. The opponents of good pavements in London are the opponents of the city's progress.

ORGANIZE NOW.
LIBERALS should begin the work of organization for a Dominion general election at once. There is every indication that there will be a contest in October, and there is a certainty of it. If the Government machines in the West, combined with the Federal influence, are strong enough to retain Manitoba.

In the recent provincial election hundreds of Liberal votes were not recorded, because the Conservatives had control of the polls, and did not let a single opportunity pass to prevent Liberals from voting. Organization is the only thing that can get the full vote out, and organization can make sure that the vote is recorded and not barred from the polls, or tricked at the time of registration. Vote early is good advice, but it is never necessary where there is a strong organization at work.

THE STANDARD-BEARER.
SOME of the Conservative papers are speculating as to the prospects of a change in the Liberal leadership in the province. They have the idea that because Mr. Rowell has not been successful in securing a majority in the last election, therefore the Liberals will want to discard him and look for another in his place. If they are sincere in the interest they are taking in our affairs they have a poor conception of what a leader should be, of his qualifications and his work.

Among the political leaders of the day Mr. Rowell occupies a position of which he may be proud, and of which we who follow him may be proud as well. Others are eminent in a greater or less degree for statesmanship, or for that cleverness which often achieves success. But he is the apostle of social reform. His abilities, second to none, are devoted in the political field to the betterment of humanity. It is not claimed that he alone of party leaders is an honest, clean-living man; but it may justly be claimed that he is the one who in a special manner has made himself the standard-bearer of moral advancement.

Personal or party success has not been his main object. That was shown, when in proposing the abolition of the bar he offered it first as a suggestion to the Government, and tendered the support of the Opposition for its enactment. His desire was not so much that his own party might succeed by the adoption of a temperance policy, but that both parties might unite together in destroying what all men recognize as a giant evil. He was willing to abnegate himself and follow a Conservative leader, if only that leader would lead in the reformation of the province. The success of principle has been and is more important in his eyes than the success of a party.

It may be admitted that a leader of such a character is somewhat in advance of his times. There are entrenched business interests and party interests in close alliance against him. And that combination carries in its trail, though not with any pride in it, the looser element that turns instinctively from social purity and high ideals.

There is an urgent need in Canada for just such a leader as Mr. Rowell. The majority of the voters may not want him just now; but they need him, even if they do not realize the need. And the Liberal party desires no better man than he. It would be only natural if he felt some measure of discouragement at the slow response to his call, if he were tempted to devote his great talents to the promotion of the welfare of the community outside the field of politics. But we are disposed to believe that he feels the call to labor in the sphere where his labor is badly needed, and while he leads the Liberal party of Ontario will gladly follow.

FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC.
WITHIN a few weeks' time an attempt will be made to cross the Atlantic in a Wanamaker hydroplane "America," which has been built especially for the trip. A few years ago such a proposal would have been considered the raving of a lunatic. Now we are so accustomed to witnessing amazing feats of airmen that a proposal to fly to the moon would hardly startle us. Doubtless there are some who will consider it foolhardy, and yet there is every reason to believe that the flight from America to Europe will be an achievement of the early future, even should the "America" fail.

Recent flights over the earth's surface have demonstrated that it is quite feasible to reach the Azores from some point on the coast of Newfoundland without a stop. Those behind the adventure have figured to a dot just how much fuel will be required, and the maximum of strain of which the machine is capable. Of course, accidents cannot be foreseen—that is the accidents of wind and wave, but at this season of the year on the Atlantic the chances of disaster are very small.

The flight will furnish a severe test of physical and mental endurance. In a few hours will be crowded a strain as terrific as that experienced in Arctic or Antarctic dashes without the respite of an occasional rest possible to a Peary or a Shackleton. It seems appropriate that the adventurers, Lieut. Porte, of the British Navy, and Mr. Gash, an American airship expert, should represent the two great English speaking nations, which, more than any other, have led in the heroic achievements that have conquered the unknown and the apparently insurmountable.

RECIPROCITY A LA BORDEN.
[Brockville Recorder.]
The first year's operations under the Government's boasted reciprocal trade agreement with the West Indies did not justify the boasting which was done in the Government press when the agreement first went through. The returns of the department of trade and commerce for the fiscal year which ended March last, show that Canadian trade with the West Indies amounted to $4,254,849, a decrease of $1,662,281 as compared with preceding twelve months. Exports totalled $4,770,200, an increase of only $41,998. With the reciprocal agreement in force there has been an actual decrease in trade of over $1,500,000!

THE EVIDENCE.
[Browning's Magazine.]
"If, as the poet remarks, 'The loving are the darling, there isn't a love of doubt, said the milktoast philosopher, judging from the feminine fashions, that the women of today are the most affectionate creatures ever.'"

THE CHURCH PROSPEROUS.
[Christian Register.]
"Do you have matins in this church?" asked the high church visitor of the verger of the village church.
"No, indeed," replied that dignitary, with scorn. "We has o'clock, and right up the chancel, too!"

HE WANTED TO KNOW.
[Puck.]
Mrs. McLuberty—Here's some pills, Murty, that Mrs. Hogan was after stidin' over to yez. She says they'll either kill or cure yez.
McLuberty (who is ill)—Begorra, did she say which they would do forst?

WUFF!
[Cincinnati Enquirer.]
He took his car apart, did Ben, And thought he was in clover; But when he put them back again He had ten parts left over.

SOLICITOUS.
[Washington Star.]
"Is your wife fond of dancing?"
"Not as fond as I wish she was," replied Mr. Meekton. "Henrietta ought to have more relaxation. I hate to see a woman so intellectual that she'd rather talk than tango."

NO AILMENTS TO DISCUSS.
[Kansas City Journal.]
It is nice to be perfectly healthy, but it doesn't leave you much to talk about.

From Western Ontario Press.

WHERE IS HE?
[Quebec Mercury.]
Our idea of an optimist is a man who really expects to live to see the day when Toronto will elect a Liberal.

THE ROBIN'S RIGHTS.
[Windsor Record.]
[Brantford Examiner.]
It may not be generally known, but no person can shoot robins unless they are doing damage to fruit on his premises. It is too valuable a bird to be destroyed by reckless and heartless youths.

GET READY, LIBERALS.
[Windsor Record.]
Will there be a Dominion election this fall? The decision of Sir R. L. Borden in this matter is said to hinge on the verdict given by Ontario and Manitoba in the provincial contests. This being so, it would seem to be the part of wisdom for Liberals everywhere to get ready.

INDEPENDENT ALLAN.
[Stratford Beacon.]
The labor element must be strong in Hamilton as the efforts, to dislodge Allan Studholme, the only representative of labor in the Legislature failed. Mr. Studholme has manifested a sturdy independence that stamps him as well fitted to occupy the position which he holds.

Buying Out of Season

MANY buyers of every class of merchandise come to decisions with respect to their plans and purchases during the summer months. Aware of their needs, they are responsive to influences, appeals and opportunities months in advance of the season of their necessities. An advertiser who withdraws his messages to the buyers of his wares during the summer months chills buying ardor and postpones the fruit of his manufacturing labor. The buyer's resistance strengthens and the buying impulse subsides, by the withdrawal or weakening of the pressure of advertising. The restoration of adequate pressure later on is accomplished at a cost which represents no saving in advertising bills, and the chances are that many sales have been hopelessly lost in the meantime. The buying impulse which expresses itself in pre-season buying is capable of stimulation, and it is good business on the part of advertisers to maintain during the summer months their customary newspaper announcements. You can obtain helpful advice on advertising free of cost and without obligation by consulting the business department of The London Advertiser.

GOOSEBERRY RECIPES

Gooseberry Fool.

Top and tail a pound of green gooseberries, boil with three-quarters of a pound of sugar and a cupful of water. When quite soft press them through a coarse sieve, and mix with them, very gradually, a pint of milk. Milk and cream make a richer dish, cream alone makes it delicious. Serve cold in custard glasses or large glass dish.

Gooseberry Trifle.

Cut up a quarter of a pound of sponge cake in thin slices, and place at the bottom of a deep glass dish. Boil half a pint of water with a pound of loaf sugar for ten minutes. Put in a pint and a half of green gooseberries, picked, washed, and drained. Boil till they are tender, but unbroken. When cool, place on the sponge cake. Make a pint and a half of good plain boiled custard, flavored with lemon or vanilla. Pour it over the gooseberries, and ornament with a little whipper cream, or with the beaten white of an egg.

Gooseberry Cheese.

Allow one pound of loaf sugar to each pound of fruit juice. Top and tail the gooseberries, wash them, and place in a large pan, with about a teacupful of water—just sufficient to prevent them sticking to the bottom. Stir occasionally, cook until quite soft, then rub through a wire sieve. Measure out pulp and juice, and put back in pan, with sugar in the given proportion. Stir all well together, and cook for half an hour, or longer, until the cheese will set quite firmly when a little is cooled on a plate. Place in small, dry jars, and cover when cold.

This season one of the prime favorites in fashion accessories is the amber-tipped parasol. It is not real amber, of course, but an amber composition.

AMERICAN WOMEN WHO ARE WIVES OF THE GREAT

Good-Natured Mrs. Bryan "Master" of Home.

Clever, capable, good natured, Mrs. Bryan stands between her husband, Wm. Jennings Bryan, and the coachman, the chauffeur, the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker.

That is, she issues the orders in the household, pays the checks and engages and dismisses all help.

But don't get the wrong impression of her. She doesn't make that the main issue of her daily life by any means.

She is so capable and efficient a housekeeper that she can do all this admirably and still devote the major part of her time to something more interesting and less mundane.

For instance, Mrs. Bryan spends each summer studying some standard author. She is intellectual in her tastes and delights in travel as well as books.

Soon after her marriage the wife of the American secretary of state studied law and was admitted to the bar in the state of Nebraska. At that time Bryan was a practicing lawyer. Her object in acquiring legal knowledge was to be able to help her husband with his work. No sooner had she finished her law course, however, than did Bryan enter politics.

Throughout the years of Bryan's life his wife has been at his side. She travels with him when he needs her; assists in handling his vast correspondence and in receiving the scores of visitors who come from all parts of the country to see him.

As the wife of the secretary of state she holds the place of first prominence among the cabinet women of America. During the recent season many social duties devolved upon her.

Quinine and Vinegar.

Dear Miss Grey.—I. Will you please publish the recipe of rhubarb wine.

2. Do you know of anything that will turn the hair gray so it will be the same shade all over?

3. What will keep my daughter from biting her finger nails? It has become a bad habit. She is fifteen years old.

4. Please publish the songs "Sweet Belle Mahone," "Molly Darling."

MRS. T. D.

Ans.—1. Four pounds rhubarb stalks cut fine; pour on one gallon boiling water; add four pounds brown sugar; let stand covered 24 hours. If desired a little cinnamon, allspice, and cloves, bruised finely, may be added with the sugar. Strain and let work a few days before bottling.

2. Why do you not instead try to restore the hair to its natural color? This formula is said to be most excellent:—Green tea one ounce, garden sage (dried) one ounce; put in a closely covered pot (iron if you have one) and add three pints boiling water. Simmer till reduced one-third; take off fire and leave in the pot twenty minutes; strain and bottle for use. Wet the hair thoroughly with the lotion every night, and massage the scalp night and morning. The liquid will probably stain the pillow if not thoroughly dry before retiring.

3. It is an unfortunate habit, and one hard to break free from. I heard of a mother who cured an 8-year-old girl of the habit by making her dip her finger ends into a mixture of quinine and vinegar. The combination had a fearful taste, proving a reminder every time the girl's finger went to her mouth. I pass the hint on to you—perhaps you can persuade your girl to try it.

4. Referred to our readers.

Budget From Buster.

Dear Miss Grey.—If it is not too much trouble could you answer me the following questions through your columns in the morning edition of The Advertiser?

1. I have heard of some way of drying rose leaves and putting some preparation on them, and they will perfume a room in the winter time. Could you tell me what the preparation is, and how to use it?

2. Could you tell me if there is any harm or danger in keeping company with a young fellow of a different religion than myself?

3. Will sport coats be worn this fall?

4. What are the meanings of the following girls' names—Lauretta, Fern, Hazel, Mabel and Edith?

5. What the meanings of the following boys' names—Stanley, Joseph, Orval,

St. Louis Captured Sunday's Contests by Close Scores.

ED. WALSH A COMEBACK

White Sox Veteran Pitches Innings Against Naps and Allows Three Hits.

DETROIT, July 5.—St. Louis won both ends of a double-header here today, the first game 6 to 5 in 14 innings, and the second, 2 to 0, in the regulation distance. The visitors took an early lead in the first game, because of Boehler's wildness, but Hall, who relieved him, pitched fine ball, keeping the hits well scattered. Hamilton went the whole 14 innings for St. Louis, and was strong in the pinches. The winning run came on singles by Shotton, Pratt and Leary. Heilmann's home run over the fence, with a man on base, and a brilliant one-handed catch by C. Walker, followed by a run, got a bad start in the second game, but would not have been scored on except for Burns' error. He allowed only three hits. Weismann, though hit often, was airtight when danger threatened. Scores:

CHICAGO, July 5.—Ed Walsh made his "come-back" today. He started against Cleveland and pitched seven innings, allowing three hits and three bases on balls, netting the visitors three runs. He was taken out to let a pinch hitter bat for him in the seventh, and Faber finished the game, which the White Sox won, 6 to 3. BRAMPTON LACROSSE TEAM FAILS TO LIFT MANN CUP

Vancouver A. C. Team Beat Excelsiors by 6 to 2 in Final Game for Trophy.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 5.—Another challenge is awarded for the Mann Cup, the V.A.C. defeating Brampton of Athletic Park, before 5,000 people, by six goals to two, turning the adverse margin of one, on the first game, into a three goal lead on the series. A couple of years ago it would have been a joke to talk of the professional game of lacrosse. The attendance on Saturday was a very gratifying sign, that, although the professional game of lacrosse is in the dump, the national game has still a big and enthusiastic following and the same old fashioned way of stick handling comes second to no other form of sport on the coast. A great deal of enthusiasm was shown during the game and at the conclusion of it.

The result was achieved by three changes in the Vancouver team, all of which seemed to make for strength, and by improved condition. There is not the least doubt that the Brampton team stepped on the field in the first game in far better shape than the local team, but they had little advantage over the locals on that side of the account in the game. Vancouver gave a brilliant display, clearly outplaying the challengers in the last three quarters. These total goals on the series were: Vancouver 16, Brampton 7.

Two new players, members of last year's team, were added to the Vancouver lineup and performed brilliantly. Lineup: Vancouver..... Position..... Brampton

NATIONALS BEAT TORONTO.
MONTREAL, July 5.—One of the best-played and cleanest exhibitions of lacrosse seen on the Montreal grounds this season, the Nationals administered defeat to Toronto yesterday to the tune of 16 goals to 9. The visitors from the Queen City showed a great improvement over their previous showing here, and held their own well on in the third period.

GEORGE CHIP KNOCKED OUT BY MURRAY

Newcastle Middleweight Lands Sleep Punch in Fifteenth.

RIVERS BEAT SUBSTITUTE

Carl Morris Shows Improvement by Knocking Out Kubiak in Six Rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—George Chip, of Newcastle, Pa., knocked out Fighting Billy Murray, of Petaluma, California, in the fifteenth round here today. It was all Murray's until the eleventh round, when Chip planted a hard left on Murray's stomach. After that the tide began to run increasingly toward the easterner. Coming out of a clinch, Chip, aspirant for the middleweight championship, shot three terrific right hooks to the Californian's jaw. Murray's arms dropped to his sides, his eyes closed, and as he crumpled, Chip caught him flush on the jaw with a heavy left uppercut. It was fully ten minutes after he had been counted out that Murray was revived. The bout was scheduled for twenty rounds.

JOE RIVERS BEAT MCCUE.
LOS ANGELES, July 4.—Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, light-weight, defeated Ad Wolgast, in the second round of their fight at Vernon arena today. Rivers knocked McCue down in the first round. In the second, a blow to the jaw sent McCue to the floor again, and while the referee counted, McCue's seconds threw a towel into the ring as a token of defeat. McCue is a sparring partner of Wolgast.

MORRIS KNOCKED OUT KUBIAK.
PORT SMITH, Ark., July 4.—Carl Morris, of Sapulpa, Okla., stopped Al Kubiak, of Michigan, in the sixth round of their scheduled ten-round bout here today. Morris showed improved form over any of his former efforts, and knocked out his former conqueror in the sixth round. He was master of the situation at all times. Tommy Dixon, former feather-weight fighter, referee, and got in the ring of a wild right from Kubiak, and went through the last round with his left eye severely cut.

JACK BRITTON WON.
CANTON, Ohio, July 4.—Jack Britton, of Canton, defeated Johnny Griffiths, of Akron, Ohio, in a hot twelve-round battle today. There was no decision, but the popular verdict was for Britton.

LEACH CROSS GOT DECISION.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 4.—Leach Cross won a decision over Red Watson in their twenty-round fight here this afternoon.

MANDOT AND DUNDEE DRAW.
NEW ORLEANS, La., July 4.—Joe Mandot, of New Orleans, and Johnny Dundee, of New York, fought a ten-round draw here today, according to a newspaper decision.

Cincinnati Scored a Victory Over Cardinals When Benton Pitched Air-Tight Ball.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Zimmerman's daring base running in the tenth inning gave Chicago a 5 to 4 victory over Pittsburgh today. He walked, stole and went to third on Hyatt's wild throw, and scored a minute later on Sweeney's sacrifice fly. Konecny was overruled on the game by Umpire Evans for arguing. Score:

PRINCE ALBERT
CRIMP CUT
LONG BURNING PIPE AND
CIGARETTE TOBACCO

P. A. strikes 13 every time you fire up!

Prince Albert smashes the big joy gong whether you jam it into a jimmy pipe or roll it into an ace-high makin's cigarette, the like of which you never got next to before before.

Pretty quick you forget about the chaff-brands and fire-brands! For P. A. is all there—signed, sealed, delivered!

Men everywhere smoke P. A. because it's a revelation—can't bite the tongue! The bite's cut out by a patented process. Hence, no tobacco can be like the inter-national joy smoke

Listen: You can never tell from where you're sitting how your picture's going to look. Nor can you tell how bulky P. A. is until you fire up! It's a case of "show me." We've made a "show down" for millions of men everywhere.

In five years Prince Albert, from a little stranger in a big land, has become the largest selling pipe and cigarette tobacco in the United States.

Got the nerve to put up the price for a tidy red tin to find out something for what all your smokappetite?

Prince Albert is imported into Canada by wholesale dealers and is on sale, in one-eighth-pound tidy red tins, by all of the leading retail dealers.

PETES GET REVENGE SUNDAY FOR SATURDAY'S DEFEATS

Louie Schettler Kept Yankees' Hits Scattered, While Close Was Hit Freely.

ERIE, Pa., July 5.—Peterson took revenge on the Erie Yankees today for their double defeat of Saturday, and won the afternoon's contest by a score of 7 to 4. Louie Schettler stood on the mound for the visitors, and allowed the locals nine hits, but they were scattered, and three tallies were all they could garner from this assortment. Close, who twirled for Erie, was hit safely eleven times. Score:

ERIE TOOK BOTH ENDS OF HOLIDAY STRUGGLES

Petes Beaten Twice by Yankees Who Seemed to Be Infested With Spirit of Independence Day.

ERIE, Pa., July 4.—No Canadian team could possibly have a look-in with the Yankees today. Independence Day was celebrated on the south side of the great inland seas, and the Yankees led by Frank Gygli played with the spirit of '76. In the morning battle, Dorbeck was invincible, and he shut out the visitors 4-0, before a large holiday crowd. Only four safe bingles were made off his delivery, and at no stage of the game did the Petes have a chance to win.

The afternoon battle was another victory for the stars and stripes. The Eagle screamed and Buster Brown cut loose on the Brits with his curves, every bit as effective as the artillery of Mad Anthony Wayne on that memorial July 4 in '76. Only one safe hit was made off his delivery, and the game went to the Yankees by a score of 5-2. Score:

POOR DECISION BY "UMPS" GAVE HAMS WINNING RUN

Dereau's Club Dropped Another Game to Rejuvenated Athletics on Saturday.

HAMILTON, July 4.—Although the Athletics had three errors and Brantford none and both teams connected safely eight times, the locals won the Canadian league encounter 3 to 2. The claim of the Hamilton players on Thursday that the "umps" cost them the game was reversed yesterday. Barrett was called safe for Athletics today in the third, when he should have been called out; this run was in great form and tightened up in the pinches, else the result would have been different. Athletics were the first to score. In the opening innings, Dudley singled to leftfield and Barrett was walked. Cunningham hit into a double and Barrett was out with the Hamilton second baseman. Dudley was on third and Corrie doubled, the first bases scoring. In the third, Dudley doubled to rightfield and Barrett singled. Cunningham went out and Corrie was walked, filling the bases. McGrawy bled out, the latter scoring Dudley and Barrett. The latter should have been called out in the third, showing of the Athletics under White, and he will doubtless be continued as manager for the remainder of the season.

PARROT & CO.

BY HAROLD MACGRATH.

Author of "The Man on the Box," "The Carpet From Bagdad," "The Plan of Honeymonds," etc.

What a dust-ridden, poverty-stricken, plague-ridden world she had seen! Ignorance wedded to superstition, yet waited upon by mystery and romance and incomprehensible beauty. As the Occidental thought rarely finds analysis in the Oriental mind, so her mind could not gather and understand this amalgamation of art and ignorance. She forgot that another race of men had built those palaces and temples and forts and towers, and that they had vanished as the Greeks and Romans have vanished, leaving only empty spaces behind, which the surviving tribes neither fill nor comprehend.

"A rare old lot of dust, eh, Miss Chetwood? I wish we could travel by night, but you can't trust this blooming old fellow after sundown. Charts are so much waste paper. You just have to know the old lady. Bars rise in a night, shift this way and that. But the days are all right. No dust when you get in mid-stream. What?"

"I never cease wondering how those poor coolies can carry those heavy rice-bags," she repeated to the pursuer.

"Oh, they are used to it," he said. "The great great stack of paddy-bags seemed in the eyes of the girl, fairly to melt."

"By Jove!" exclaimed the pursuer. "There's a Parrot & Co. here. The events and the winners follow:

Miss Haines' class, boys—J. Speers, W. Swindle, A. Royley.

"Lonesome"
"It's the way, you know. These poor beggars drop aboard for the night, merely to see a white woman, to hear decent English, to dress and dine like a human being. They disappear the next day, and often we never see them again."

"What do they do?" The question came to her lips mechanically.

"Faddy-fields. White men are needed to oversee them. And then there's the railway, and there's the new oil country north of Prone. You'll see the wells tomorrow. Rather fancy this Warrington chap has been working along the new pipe-lines. They're running them down to Rangoon. Well, there goes the last bag. Will you excuse me? The lading bills, you know. If he's with us tomorrow I'll have him put the parrot through its turns. An amusing little beggar."

"Why not introduce him to me?"
"Beg pardon?"
"I'm not afraid," quietly.

"By Jove, no! But this is rather difficult, you know. If he shouldn't turn out right, with commendable hesitance, I'll take all the responsibility. It's a whim."

"Well, you American girls are the eighth wonder of the world." The pursuer was distinctly annoyed. "And it may be an impertinence on my part, but I never yet saw an American woman who would accept advice or act upon it."

"Thanks. What would you advise?"
"With dangerous sweetness."

"Not to meet this man. It's irregular. I know nothing about him. If you had a father or a brother on board—"

"Or even a husband!" laughing.
"Then you are!" resignedly. "You laugh. You women go everywhere, and half the time unprotected."

"Never quite unprotected. We never venture beyond the call of gentlemen."

"That is true," brightening. "You insist on meeting this chap?"
"I do not insist; only I am bored, and he might interest me for an hour." She added, "Besides, it may annoy the."

The pursuer grinned reluctantly. "You and the colonel don't get on. Well, I'll introduce this chap at dinner. If I don't—"

"I am fully capable of speaking to him without any introduction whatever." She introduced this chap at dinner. If I don't—"

When he had gone she mused over this impulse so alien to her character. An absolute stranger, a man with a pale, pale face, a fugitive from justice, and because he looked like Arthur Ellison she was seeking his acquaintance. Something, then, could break through her reserve and aloofness? She had travelled from San Francisco to Colombo, unattended by an elderly lady who had risen by gradual stages from nurse to companion, but who could not be made to remember that she was no longer a nurse. In all these four months Elsa had not made half a dozen acquaintances, and of these she had not sought one. Yet she was asking to meet a stranger whose only recommendation was a singular likeness to another man.

The pursuer was right. It was very irregular. Parrot & Co. she murmured. She searched among the phantoms moving to and fro upon the ledge, but the man and the cage was gone. It was really uncanny.

She dropped her arms from the rail and went to her state room and dressed for dinner. She did not give her toilet any particular care. There was no thought of conquest, no thought of dazzling the man in khaki. It was the indolence and carelessness of the East, where clothes become only necessities, and are no longer the essentials of adornment.

Highly interesting and in many ways instructive is the photo-drama of Creation presented by Pastor Russell in the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the International Bible Students' Association. Accompanying the picture is a gramophone lecture, which explains the story of creation as it is held by the followers of Pastor Russell. The creation of the world is spread over seven days or epochs of 7,000 years each. In many respects the story corresponds to that advanced by science, beginning with the Nebular hypothesis and ending with the creation of Adam and Eve. The present era is held to be the seventh day or epoch which is drawn to a close when Christ will rule for a thousand years on earth. The Edenic legends of Adam and Eve are interestingly explained. Pre-Adamic man was hermaphrodite, according to Pastor Russell, and his origin has been at least hinted at by a number of scientists. The differentiation of the sexes began when Eve was created out of the rib taken from Adam's side.

In the beginning the world was surrounded by a canopy which preserved an even temperature. When the canopy was broken, a large part of the earth was frozen from the resulting cold, and the heat of the tropics followed as another extreme. This occurred suddenly, it is claimed, because a mastodon has been found buried in ice in Siberia with food between its claws. The deluge, Noah's Ark and the animals entering, the incident of the lives of Abraham, Isaac and other patriarchs, and other Bible stories are all graphically pictured. The same program will be continued twice daily, today and Tuesday. Three other programs will follow in the course of a two weeks' engagement.

MANHATTAN CLUB HAS GREAT ANNUAL PICNIC

Interesting Ball Game Staged on Beach Features Outing at Port.

Over seventy-five members of the Manhattan Club invaded Port Stanley Saturday afternoon, on the occasion of the club's annual picnic.

The boys' left on a special traction car at 1:30, lunch being served en route by the Manhattan chefs, Jepson, Walker and Hornsby.

On arriving at the beach Peck Caruthers, who is at present living in Port Stanley, read an address of welcome, after which some fast ball, a la Canadian league, was pulled off.

As all the boys wanted to play, a league was formed on the spot.

Drinkwater's crew defeated Jeffries' London West Stars in the first contest, while McCormick's Pool Sharks gobbled up Macle's Babes in the second game. The final game was won by the Sharks; the Stars wanting towards the end.

The committee team challenged the winners, but after the first inning someone in the large crowd of spectators shouted that the game was on, which abruptly terminated the affair.

The club is arranging for another outing to be held during Old Boy's week, when a number of the old members will be home, and a good time is being looked forward to.

The success of the picnic, which was the best in the history of the club, was due to the committee in charge, composed of D. Matchett, C. Coyne, J. Walker, L. Cossey, and Frank Hornsby.

REV. R. W. NORWOOD REJECTS THEORY OF SOUL'S DAMNATION

Declares That It Is Fundamentally Divine and Will Find Its Way to God.

WHOLE BIBLE A PARABLE

Literal Interpretation Cannot Be Defined, Says Rector in Evening Sermon.

Rev. R. W. Norwood, preaching last night in Crown Memorial Church, "scouted the theory of damnation of any human soul as untenable.

"The soul," he said, "is fundamentally divine, and ultimately will find its way to God."

Mr. Norwood took as his text the 24th and 35th verses of the XII chapter of St. Matthew, commencing: "All these things shall Jesus unto the multitude in parables and without parables speak: He will not unto them."

Jesus, he pointed out, did not want to be taken literally. He had spoken in parables because He could only convey to his hearers a conception of divine, unknown things, by the use of metaphor. The preacher added:

"And the whole Bible is a parable from beginning to end; it is only a figure of speech, an illustration, a narrative told in the same way that you tell fairy stories to children. When they grow up they understand the inner meaning of those stories and that they are not to be taken literally."

"The man or woman who takes the Bible literally is a child, like a boy or girl who takes a fairy story literally. The minister who thunders from his pulpit that the Bible must be taken literally cannot expect to carry conviction to his hearers."

"When you take the Bible as a parable you are rid of all the difficulties which face the man or woman who takes it literally. The Bible is a parable which can defend consistently the literal interpretation of the Bible."

Many people, said Mr. Norwood, had an entirely wrong conception of what Jesus had intended to convey in his parable of the wheat and tares. A young minister once had asked him how he could tell of a belief that every soul would be saved in the face of this parable. This young minister had taken Jesus' meaning of the word "field" to mean the world, whereas it was a matter of fact that Jesus was referring to the field in which the wheat was sown to a human soul.

"Jesus did not mean that some souls would be saved and others damned," he continued. "He meant that in every soul good and evil influences were at work, and that the fires of God's discipline would destroy the evil. The good, which is immortal, will live; nothing can destroy that."

Kingdom of the Human Soul.

The preacher asserted his belief that Jesus, in referring to the kingdom of God and the kingdom of heaven, was referring to the human soul. The prophets had used the term to convey the ultimate salvation of the whole world, while the Jewish conception of it was Jerusalem as the capital of the world.

Another argument, sometimes used to refute the theory of the soul's immortality, the preacher said, was that Jesus, in interpreting the parable of the wheat and tares to the disciples, had explained that the field was the world, the wheat those who accepted His doctrine and the tares those who rejected Him; and that at the end of the world these would be separated.

This argument, he contended, was based on a misconception arising out of faulty translation. In the English the one word, "world," has two entirely different meanings in the original Greek. The first of these was cosmos, meaning universe, and the second kosmos, meaning an age.

What Jesus intended was to convey to the Jews, who believed that they were referred to as the wheat and the Gentiles as the tares, that the kingdom of God was evolution; that all must grow up together without distinction until, at the end of a certain time, or period, He would make his own selection.

"The age to which the Master was referring," continued Mr. Norwood, "was that which was rapidly drawing to a close, which was to cease when He was rejected by His own people. The mistake the average preacher makes is in thinking that this reference to the end of the world was a reference to something a long way in the future. As a matter of fact, the prophecy was fulfilled hundreds of years ago when Jesus, after His rejection, chose Paul and His other disciples to be His ministers. They were the wheat, those who rejected Him the tares."

SUNDAY BALL GAME STOPPED AT PT. STANLEY

REV. A. J. THOMAS ENTERS ON HIS NEW PASTORATE

Preached Opening Services in Dundas Centre Methodist Church Sunday.

Rev. A. J. Thomas, the new pastor of Dundas Street Methodist Church, preached yesterday morning and evening the opening sermons of his pastorate. At the morning service, Rev. Mr. Thomas preached from the text, Peter II, 4 and 5:

"To whom, coming as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifice, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."

"From vital, living contact with Jesus Christ," said Mr. Thomas, "is built up the sin of mankind, then is the church fulfilling its mission. St. Paul said, 'We preach Christ and Him crucified.' This is a fundamental truth."

The text also reveals the apostle's contention that the church, "Ye also, as living stones, are built up into the spiritual kingdom of God. The Christian experience is not merely a belief in the great facts of the gospel or the following of the precepts of Christ, but essentially it is a regeneration of the heart, an indwelling of the life of Christ in the soul of the individual."

"The great question," said the speaker, "is 'Are we, this morning, living stones?' Are we in reality repetitions of the Lord's commandment to 'be holy'?"

Rev. Mr. Thomas, at the morning service, said, while his personal history as a former pastor that it was a privilege to labor among the congregation of Dundas Centre Church. He would like to pay tribute to the members of all the churches who had occupied that pulpit in the past. They had built well for God, and with humble faith he desired to add his labors unto the work that they had done.

"We are here to serve, it is our joy to preach the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, but we want also to help in the sorrows, temptations and problems of the great fact of the gospel and the following of the precepts of Christ, but essentially it is a regeneration of the heart, an indwelling of the life of Christ in the soul of the individual."
