DEATH ENDS AWFUL AGONY

W. H. Munce Victim Of Scalding Accident, Succumbs To Injuries

Was A Fireman On Board The Port Stanley Tug "Gibbert"

St. Thomas, July 28.—W. H. Munce, the fireman of the Port Stanley tug, "Gibbert," who was terribly scalded on Thursday afternoon when the boat was opposite Merlin, died last night at the hospital.

His conveyance from the boat to the village was attended with painful events. When he was being carried from the boat to land he pleaded with the men to drown him to end his misery. When they reached the beach they found they had to use ropes to pull him up to the top of the cliff. When they got there they placed him under a tree and his friends, after scurrying around, got a farmer to convey him in his wagon to the village, seven miles away. He was ten hours without medical attendance.

He was in his 26th year and is survived by his mother, one brother, Stanley, a Wash fireman, and two sisters, Mrs. T. C. Barry, of this city, and Miss Lily, of Toronto. He was born in Lindoch, where his remains will be taken for interment, by way of the Grand Trunk at 6.25 on Tuesday morning. He was a member of Royal Camp, No. 4, W. O. W. Memorial services will be held at the residence of his mother, Eagle street, on Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

A BLENHEIM REPORT

Blenheim, July 27.—The crop outlook in South Kent is a hundred per cent. more promising than it was a month ago. The showers and warm weather have pushed things along so fast that they were sufficient in some places to almost offset the lateness of the earlier part of the season.

The crop is all in now and was much better than it was thought it would be. In some cases, especially in the clover fields, the crop was even very heavy. The first fall wheat is being out this week and the yield is extra good.

Oats are turning out heavy and will be ready to cut in another week. Beans are also coming along fine and only depend upon the weather not being too dry to make this the crop for which this district is famous, quite up to the mark.

Growers of vegetables are not meeting with the same success this year as in past seasons. The dry spell of a couple of weeks ago stopped the growth of potatoes and they are turning out just about half the crop they were last year. Already several car shipments have been made from here to dealers in London and Toronto.

The acreage in tobacco is much smaller than last year, and the crop does not promise to turn out very well anyway, owing to the backwardness of the season.

FINE MUSICAL SERVICE

The music in First Church was especially fine yesterday. In the morning a duet was given by Misses Peate and McGeorge, and in the evening a solo, The Divine City, was excellently rendered by Wilfred Smith, and a Ladies' Quartette selection, Beautiful Isle of Somewhere, was given by Misses Peate, Beatrice Smith, Helen Smith and Flora McGeorge. This last selection was a great treat to the congregation. The voices of these four young ladies blend perfectly and the shading and expression of their singing is all that could be desired.

Mr. MacGillivray announced to his congregation yesterday that he intended to be away from them during the month of August. During that time, the pulpit of First Church will be filled by able men, as Mr. MacGillivray has been very fortunate in the selection of substitutes.

BRIGHT SERVICES

The services at the William St. Baptist Church yesterday were very bright and interesting. Rev. Mr. Cameron, leader of the Evangelistic Band, preached at both services and is undoubtedly one of the cleverest preachers who has visited Chatham for some time.

The music was very good on both occasions. In the morning the anthem, Glory to Thee, was well rendered by the choir, and the solo, The Ninety and Nine, was sung by J. D. McAlpine. In the evening, Miss Minnie Tyburnt sang the solo, The Plains of Peace. The male quartet, composed of Messrs. Carter, Wanless, Buron and McAlpine, gave an excellent rendition of the number entitled, He's Knocking at My Heart.

OTHER CITIES CANNOT COMPARE WITH CHATHAM

George A. Wintemute Thought Windsor Was A Good Town Until He Visited The Maple City—Fine Residences And Streets

"I am carried away with Chatham, its up-to-date appearance and its courteous, kindly people." This was a voluntary expression on the part of Mr. George A. Wintemute, of Sandwich, County Treasurer of Essex, who is spending a few days here.

A Planet reporter met Mr. Wintemute in County Treasurer Fleming's office this morning. Mr. Wintemute, like nearly all visitors to the Maple City, was enthusiastic in his praises of this place.

"I once thought Windsor was a nice place," said he, "but Windsor cannot compare for a minute with Chatham. Chatham is indeed a pretty place. You have such beautiful, clean, paved streets. I went for a walk around the city this morning and I was greatly surprised to find that you have so many miles of pavement here. The residential streets are particularly attractive, and every citizen seems to take so much pride in beautifying his premises. I was greatly struck with the fine houses, too."

POOR, HOMELESS BEINGS DUMPED INTO CHATHAM

Stories Of Want and Neglect Told by Penniless Paupers Brought Here By The Trainload—A Standing Disgrace

"It is a shame and a disgrace." This is the manner in which the English immigrants who arrived in this city last night at ten o'clock describe the treatment they have received in Canada. There were forty in the party which arrived last night, and they all have the same story of neglect to tell.

A Planet reporter visited the station this afternoon and interviewed a number of them and found out a few more disgraceful features of the present immigration policy.

The party arrived in the city yesterday, some at one o'clock and the rest at ten o'clock at night. They claim that they were unceremoniously dumped off in Chatham with no information to go by. There was not even any person at the station to meet them or give them instructions as to what to do or where to go. They had no money, as they were to be paid by the Dominion Government's representative here. They could not find him at all. As a result, they had no money to engage a night's lodging and the most of them were forced to sleep on the station platform. They had nothing to eat, and no money to buy anything, and it was stated that many of them were not able to get anything to eat from noon on Sunday until this morning at ten o'clock, when they were paid their money, about two dollars apiece.

It was rather a pitiful sight to see them all hanging around the depot, their faces showing the signs of hardships recently gone through, and their clothes, hands and faces bearing evidence of travel in dirty cars. One woman was seen walking around with her baby in her arms and two or three women hanging around her skirts. They were among those who had to sleep on the depot platform.

THE "FRONTENAC" IS BURNED

Nine Women And Children Meet Death By Drowning

The Terrorized Passengers Jumped Into The Water—Crew's Gallantry

Albany, N.Y., July 28.—The steamer boat Frontenac was burned and beached opposite Farley's Point, on Lake Cayuga, yesterday, and nine lives were lost. The unfortunate were all women and children passengers, and all were drowned. Several other passengers were severely burned before the boat could be beached. She was burned and blackened in seven feet of water. The bodies of the victims have been recovered, and the injured are being cared for at the homes of persons near the scene of the wreck.

The steamer Frontenac, an old side-wheeler, double-deck craft, which had plied between Ithaca and Cayuga, on Lake Cayuga, for the past 25 years, left the former place yesterday afternoon for the upper lake points, carrying 50 passengers and a crew of 12 men.

In mid-lake fire broke out in the engine-room, fanned by a stiff north-east wind, it spread quickly to the after section of the boat. The crew behaved bravely and fought the flames at first. Then seeing that nothing could save the boat, they turned all their attention to the passengers. Life-preservers were put on everyone who could be found in the short time given, but despite their efforts nine women and children perished. Captain Brown directed this work, and was the last to leave the burning boat.

The strong contrast with the coolness and courage of the crew was the panic, and in some instances, cowardice, of many of the men passengers. In their efforts to save themselves, they seriously impeded the work of the crew and endangered the lives of everyone on the steamer. This is according to the statements of the crew. It is not known how the nine women and children were thrown into the water. It is thought, however, that in terror they either jumped into the water as the boat reared the shore, or were forced overboard in the rush to get into the boats that put off. The bodies were recovered near shore.

A NARROW ESCAPE

Erieau July 29.—What might have been a very serious accident was averted by the presence of mind of Mrs. Robt. Hoig on Saturday evening. She with her son Willie, her daughter Martina and little Irene Paxton were fishing off the Pere Marquette bridge over the creek when Willie, in some unaccountable manner, fell in. The creek is full of weeds at this spot and although Willie is a splendid swimmer he was unable to take a stroke. The little children became so excited and frightened that they were unmanageable, but Mrs. Hoig was able to quieten them and assist her son to get out of the water.

Thin ice and budding genius don't always bear.

It is sometimes easier to remember than to forget.

Most people would fall short if measured by the golden rule.

HE ROCKED THE CANOE

John Landz, Deck Hand on City of Chatham, Nearly Drowned

Was Rescued By Ed Potter Just in the Nick of Time

John Landz, of Dresden, a deck-hand on the City of Chatham, narrowly escaped being drowned in the Thames last night. Landz had rented a canoe and was enjoying a ride by himself in the vicinity of the footbridge.

A number of persons who saw the young man in the canoe expected that something would happen. He was sitting away to the rear end with the bow of the canoe tilted high up in the air. A few minutes later—about eight o'clock—when Ed Potter was coming down stream in his gasoline launch, he saw a man struggling helplessly in the water. It was Landz. His canoe had scooped from under him, and left him floundering in the water, just as a canoe could be expected to do under such circumstances.

Landz was going down for the last time when Mr. Potter came to the rescue. Ed peeled off his coat and prepared to dive in after the young man, but Landz came up to the surface about this time, and Ed grabbed him by the hair of the head and pulled him into his launch. A few minutes more in the water, and Landz would have been a goner. He told Ed that he thought he could have swam to the shore without assistance, but those who saw the young man's predicament at the time are inclined to think differently.

WORK IS PROGRESSING

The work on the C. W. and L. E. extension to Lake Erie is still going on, though it was reported this morning that it had been discontinued on account of the Robertson of inches injunction.

The officials of the road along with their solicitor, Ald. J. G. Kerr, are at the Grand Trunk depot this afternoon where they are meeting with the Grand Trunk company's engineers to make arrangements regarding the Electric Company's overhead wires at the steam road's crossing on Queen Street.

The C. W. and L. E. people are making a commendable effort to push the extension through as rapidly as possible, despite the many difficulties they are meeting with.

Trapped Himself.

Binks Siding, July 28.—While rifling the trunk of J. M. McCully, secret service man with the T. & N. O. engineering staff here, Alex. Garnier, a French-Canadian cook, found a pair of handcuffs, tried them on and promptly handcuffed himself.

Sir Charles at the Ranges.

Ottawa, July 28.—Sir Charles Ross was at Rockcliffe ranges on Saturday. He shot over the 900 yards range and made 49 out of a possible 50 with a Ross rifle. A gale was blowing.

THE MILLERS STILL LEAD.

Two games of baseball were played on Tecumseh Park on Saturday afternoon by which the Tammany Healers now hold second place in the league.

The first game was played between the Canada Flour Mills team and the Motor Car team, and was a dopy game throughout. There were very few brilliant plays all through the game and for the spectators the game was very slow and draggy. For the C. F. M.'s the star players were Robert, Clements, Clark and Dyer, and they were the means of winning the game. Clark made a home run and throughout played a brisk game. Robert showed up well as pitcher, striking out twelve men, and Clements behind the bat was there with the merchandise. Dyer made several nice catches on third base and showed up well at bat. For the Motor Cars Davis, pitched the first four innings, and Hird, who made his first appearance with the Motor Cars on Saturday, pitched the game from the fourth to the finish. Hird is strong at bat and plays a steady game. Brundage was not as good as he usually is, and Depew was caught napping once or twice. Head, formerly with the Tammany Healers, now plays with the Motor Cars.

The score resulted 7 to 13 in favor of the C. F. M.'s, and is their fourth straight victory. Their line-up was as follows: C. F. M.—Clark, Ward, Clements, West, Robert, Tickner, Dyer, Duff, McDonald.

The game which followed between the Tammany Healers and the Wagon Works was a much cleaner and snappier game. The Tammany Healers play good ball at bat and in the field, and will no doubt be the best ball team of Chatham in the near future. A good attendance was present and the game was interesting throughout. Pleasence and Taylor for the Tammany Healers played an excellent game, as usual. Hardacre and Raynor were also prominent players in Saturday's game, as was also Peck, who made his first appearance with the team. The Wagon Works team are a heavier bunch, but they haven't the steam. Myers on first base was on the dopy list Saturday, and did not play his usual game. Westfall pleased the rooters and Baxter did much candy work. Grandbois in the box handed out a bewildering collection of benders and was also satisfactory at the bat. The game was an interesting one and, but it was evident from the first that the Tammany Healer were out to win. The score resulted 7 to 11 in favor of the Tammany Healers. The first game was umpired by Oldershaw and the second by Cook and Trotter.

FOUR WERE SENTENCED

Two of the Lindsay Counterfeiters Set at Liberty.

Three Years for Burke, Two for Logie—Bouyeau and Wynn Get One Month Each—Eveleigh Released on His Own Bail—Miller Acquitted Upon the Evidence—Information Withdrawn Against Goslin.

Lindsay, July 27.—The Lindsay counterfeiters, and those accused with them, were sentenced yesterday as follows: Burke—Three years in the penitentiary. Logie—Two years in the penitentiary. Bouyea and Wynn—One month in jail, each. Eveleigh, released upon his own recognizance. Miller—Acquitted upon the evidence.

The crown had already withdrawn the information against Goslin. The speeches by counsel for the various defendants, and the remarks from the bench occupied precisely one hour and a half. Promptly at 10 o'clock the magistrates ascended the bench and called the case of George Miller. Miller's case fell under Magistrate Moore's jurisdiction. It had been enlarged from Tuesday last, and little doubt existed as to how it would be disposed of. Nevertheless, his worship read a long opinion, in which he scored the testimony given by Burke and Logie as "tainted evidence." They had differed between themselves, he pointed out, as to the date of the "money-making," which they claimed young Miller had assisted. The information lodged by the crown had charged Miller with having counterfeited bills in his possession on Jan. 25, 1906. Logie's testimony fixed the time at March or April, 1904. Burke's recollection was still more astray. He had located the crime as being committed in the autumn, and he was uncertain about the year. The magistrate held that these discrepancies were fatal. The charge laid the crime as committed on Jan. 25, 1906. No witness could recall that date. But apart from that, the court held that he could not convict upon the uncorroborated evidence of two accomplices.

Hence, Miller was discharged, amid loud applause, followed by handshakings and general congratulations. Three Years for Burke. Burke was next called for sentence. By common consent he was acclaimed as the ringleader of the gang when the counterfeiters were arrested, and picked upon for the awful example. It was known that his sentence would be severe. He might have gotten 14 years, but Magistrate Jackson made it three. Next came Logie. He was said to be 30 years old. He was mixed up with Burke and counterfeiting, as far back as 1905, and then again, in 1907. Magistrate Moore, however, found him less guilty than Burke, and gave him two years in the penitentiary. Bouyea and Wynn came next, and each man got 30 days in jail. Please the People.

The last defendant to be called was Eveleigh. The crown moved for sentence and suggested that a remand would be satisfactory. He left the court room a free man, upon giving his own recognizance. He was the first man to be arrested and likely led to the capture of the others. The crowd, which cheered the acquittal of Miller, was no less enthusiastic when Bouyea and Wynn escaped with a nominal sentence, and Eveleigh with no sentence at all. Magistrate Jackson intimated that a higher power might reduce the sentence of Burke and Logie's attorney applied for a certificate that his client had been used by the crown as a witness, thus indicating that he would apply for commutation.

New Oil Area Opened. Chatham, July 27.—The beginning of a new oil area in the district hitherto unknown in oil production was heralded with authentic news that a 175-barrel-a-day well was struck in Tilbury West Township, and a 40-barrel well Mersea, adjoining, both in Essex County.

The records are according to official measurements. Lightning Strikes Yacht. Montigny, Que., July 27.—The yacht Raoul, owned by Judge Simard of Baie St. Paul and occupied by himself and his family, was struck by lightning near Cone Island about 3 p.m. Fire caught the vessel, which sunk about 9 p.m. Judge Simard, his family and crew were saved by the lighthouse-keeper.

Fire in a Tenement. Ottawa, July 27.—In the height of a gale fire broke out in a wooden row of tenement houses on Lisgar street. Only by the prompt work of the department was a big part of the town saved, after some $3,000 damage was done. It was a period of excitement and anxiety for half an hour.

At Hull, too, prompt work by the fire department put out a threatening fire in Gilmour and Hughson's lumber yards, after some piles had been partially destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Fire feathers may not make fine birds, but they make fine bonnets. It is better to be carried away by enthusiasm than by a patrol wagon. When a man gets into a tight place he feels rather small.

Admitted to Royal College. London, July 27.—The following have been admitted as members of the Royal College of Surgeons: N. Allan and John Duncan of Toronto University, and F. W. Aris of Montreal.

Dead at 107. Quebec, July 27.—Agnes Hunt, wife of the late William Hunt of this city, died Thursday at the Ladies' Protestant Home, at the age of 107.

BARGAINS OFFERED TO REGULATE FISHING ELABORATE PLOT DISCOVERED. MARKETS

Among The Planet's many bright advertisers there are none whose "ads" are more worthy of a careful perusal than those of The Ark, Gray's China Hall, J. C. Wanless, and McGeachy's City Dairy.

At The Ark, as will be seen from to-day's "ad," some desirable odds and ends are now being offered at sacrifice prices. These include complete outfits for the kitchen. Mr. Gray, of the China Hall, has just opened up in stock a fine new line of goods, including imported pitchers, tumblers, cut jugs, flute pattern tumblers, tin covered jelly glasses and many other pretty and serviceable articles of common use.

The J. C. Wanless people are specialists in metal work, and are pushing this line at present, and are now prepared to attend promptly to all orders. McGeachy's Dairy is a comparatively new concern in Chatham, but they are fast working their way into the public confidence. They sell milk exactly as it is represented to be, and this is the secret of their success. Astringent milk, cream, butter, eggs, buttermilk and ice cream are all handled by this firm. They deliver to any part of the city.

First Philippine Elections. Manila, July 27.—The approach of the first Philippine general election on July 30, when a Philippine congress will be chosen, is marked by a steady stream of reports from the provinces indicating that less than ten per cent of the entire voting population has registered.

Butler Electrocuted. Ottawa, July 27.—Philip O'Meara, foreman at Labatt's bottling establishment, was electrocuted last night. He was engaged in washing bottles, the brushes being worked by electricity. He was 30 years of age and leaves a wife and two young children.

Women Took Leading Part in Plot Against the Czar. St. Petersburg, July 27.—While searching a house in this city, the police found a detailed plan of the Baltic Railway, which is an imperial line, and also a plan of the imperial yacht Alexandria.

The authorities will very soon be in a position, as a result of their investigations to issue indictments in the matter of the recent plot against the life of Emperor Nicholas. It is now known that women took the leading parts in this conspiracy. The principals are Madame Fodossief, wife of a well-known St. Petersburg lawyer; a woman called "Comrade Nina," alias Petrova, who took the most prominent part in the activities, and who succeeded in making her escape to a foreign country; Boris Nikitenko, a retired naval lieutenant; Naoufou, a mail clerk; M. Emme, an instructor in the Imperial Lyceum, and three lawyers—Brusoff, Chisbroff and Zavsky.

The man actually chosen to kill the Emperor is named Klosevsky. The plan of the conspirators was to have this individual make his way into the presence of the Emperor while clad in the uniform of a sergeant of the Imperial Convoy. The indictments detail the various stratagems employed by the plotters to obtain the desired information of the habits and movements of the Emperor, and show that espionage to this end was conducted in part through the medium of milk maids who supplied the royal kitchens.

Lorne has a contrivance on the front of his wheel in the shape of a box in which he carries the meat he delivers. He was passing along Park St. when a couple of dogs ran out at him. One of the dogs got in front of his wheel, upsetting him and throwing him to the pavement. He was unconscious for some time afterwards, and when taken to a surgeon it was found that his head was badly bruised, and that he had received a nasty gash on the shoulder. No bones were broken.

THE JUDGE TO CHARGE

Closing Scene at Hand in the Haywood Case.

Senator Borah Sums Up for Prosecution—Impelling Force, He Declares, Came From Denver—Petitioners' Silence Significant—Judge Wood Addresses the Jury To-day—Haywood's Family In Court.

Boise, Idaho, July 27.—Senator Borah concluded his address at 7:20 p.m., and Judge Wood announced that he would charge the jury in the Haywood case at 10 a.m. to-day.

As early as 7 o'clock yesterday morning the court house doors were besieged by hundreds seeking admittance to the courtroom. Inside the court, as the next to the last day of the trial began, Haywood sat, surrounded by his family. His invalid wife, whose helpless condition and pallid face have attracted so much attention and sympathy, sat immediately at his side, and next to her was the gray-haired mother, who, Thursday, could not restrain the tears which welled to her eyes as Clarence Darrow made the last plea for the life of her son. The prisoner's daughter and sister were also in the family circle.

Mrs. Frank Steunenberg, the wife of the murdered governor, and her stalwart son, Julian, were early in the courtroom, and when they had been shown to seats inside the attorney's rail found themselves within seven or eight feet of Haywood himself. Attorneys from many cities in the west constituted a large proportion of yesterday's big audience.

Senator Borah began by reviewing briefly the points made in the opening hour of his address to the jury Thursday night. He said he would go briefly over the trail of blood left by Harry Orchard, taking first the murder of Governor Steunenberg and harking back over some of the most important incidents developed in the testimony.

"I hardly need to tell you sensible men," declared the pleader, "that Pinkerton detectives had nothing to do with the assassination of Frank Steunenberg. That is one of the most absurd of the many absurd things brought into this case by the learned counsel of the defence.

Senator Borah, in laying the foundation for his argument of conspiracy, pointed out that Orchard went to Caldwell from Denver, and there formed an association with the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, who regarded Steunenberg as an enemy.

"Harry Orchard left Denver with crime in his heart," said the speaker. "The impelling and compelling force came from Denver. George Pettibone helped Orchard pack his utensils of murder in his trunk. Why is Pettibone not here to deny it? His silence is a confession of his guilt. Pettibone's absence is an absolute corroboration of Orchard's story.

Moulders to Help Haywood.
Philadelphia, July 27.—The convention of the Iron Moulders' Union of North America, now in session in this city, yesterday adopted a resolution expressing sympathy with Haywood and recommending that the executive board send circulars to all affiliated lodges soliciting financial aid for his defence.

Jack-the-Ripper in Berlin.
Berlin, Germany, July 27.—A fiendish and atrocious criminal made his appearance on the streets of this city yesterday, and five little girls are his victims.

The man approached the children on the streets, and by a deft stroke ripped open their stomachs with a knife. One of the children is dead.

Each crime was committed in a different locality, in the northern and eastern parts of the city. The criminal approached his victims rapidly, one after another. He would seize a child with one hand and gash her rapidly with some sharp instrument held in the other.

Providing For Poor Years.
Ottawa, July 27.—An order-in-council has been passed relating to the British Columbia salmon fishery, providing that in 1907, 1908, 1910, 1911, and 1912, known as "poor" years, no one shall fish for salmon east of or above New Westminster Bridge, Fraser River, with nets of less than 7 inch mesh, from 6 a.m. Saturday to 6 a.m. Monday, during the period from July 1 to Aug. 25.

Had Adventurous Career.
Philadelphia, July 27.—Col. Philip Pylemeany, Hungarian patriot and fighter of fortune, and friend of Kosuth and Garibaldi, is dead, at his home in this city.

While he was making a new record for himself in America, the Russian Government set a price on his head.

Three Dead.
Brookville, July 27.—Grant Kilborn, a farmer residing near Brookville, discovered three valuable two-year-old hammers dead in his barn. One had its throat cut and the other two were supposed to have been poisoned. The matter will be made the subject of a searching investigation.

LITERARY

So much interest has been taken in the Harry Orchard case that his confession and autobiography, which commences in the July number of McClure, will attract much attention.

Other articles of special note in this number are: Will the America Fly to the Pole; The Battle of Gettysburg; The Fight for the Minnie Healy; Mary Baker G. Eddy; and the continuation of the Autobiography of Ellen Terry.

There are three stories by popular writers and the usual number of poems.

Rubber as a World Product is the leading article in the July number of Review of Reviews.

Looseness of The Bowels.

It is very seldom during the summer months that most people are not troubled with "looseness of the bowels."

Sometimes it only goes that far, but generally it develops into Diarrhoea, Dysentery or Summer Complaint and has a tendency to weaken the whole system.

When the bowels get loosened up in this way and you wish to check the unnatural discharge without bringing on constipation, there is only one remedy to use, and that one is Dr. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY. This remedy is not an experiment as it has been used in thousands of families during the past sixty-two years.

When you ask for Dr. FOWLER'S be sure you get it, as many unprincipled druggists will try to palm off a cheap substitute on you.

Miss M. Hopkins, Roseview, Sask., writes: "I have used Dr. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY and found it is all it is recommended to be for Diarrhoea and Summer Complaint. We would not be without a bottle of it in the house."

MARRIAGE MEDAL.

Now In Vogue, It is Done in Silver or Some Precious Metal.

Now it's the marriage medal. It is not conferred by some society for the promotion of the conjugal tie. Rather not. Indeed, those interested order the medals made. The groom gives the medal to the bride, or vice versa, or a friend may send it as a gift.

Of silver, about two inches in width, the marriage medal is a novelty worth

MARRIAGE MEDAL POPULAR IN FRANCE. Considering it exquisitely done. It is a French idea, and the man who originated it was for years connected with the Paris mint. Classic figures, as a rule, adorn the medal, though special designs may be ordered showing the portraits of husband and wife. On the other side there is likely to be a laurel wreath, together with the words "SOUVENIR DU MARIAGE," the date, the names of the contracting parties and then some good wish, such as "Prosperite," "Bonheur," or the like.

Next summer one may expect the engagement medal. Some girls might make an interesting collection of medals.

These will no doubt be wreathed with forgetmenots and adorned with cooling turtles doves hovering above a new nest.

E. J. Roine, who introduced the idea, also has a reputation for portraits on silver in relief. These range from the size of a quarter to large panels and plaques.

THE MONOGRAM FAD.

Everything That Can Show a Name Does So.

To the ultra fastidious the proclaiming of one's identity to the public by means of monograms on every article of apparel and adornment may appear in somewhat poor taste. It is the fashion of the moment, however, and like other fads and fancies, may be modified or exaggerated at one's own discretion.

Everything that can show an embroidered name does so, and there are the distinctive designs for underwear, those in which flowers appear being most liked. Collars, chemisettes, gloves, the long chiffon scarfs, the draped veil, fan and even the undersleeves, when these are put into a band, are also inconspicuously lettered.

For the purse, card case and pocket-books there are initials and monograms, as also larger ones for larger articles. These monograms are made in gold, silver, gun metal and enamel.

They have tiny prongs at the back with which to attach them to the article as desired, and at some places one may have one's own design made up by a trifling increase in expense. Many a gift this year consisted of a set of initials, three sizes—two of each—nicely put up in a leather case ready to be applied to desk pad, engagement book, traveling case or to any of the hundred and one articles for which they might be suitable.

Then there are the more expensive jeweled monograms, each letter consisting of solid stones. A beautiful effect is produced by one letter of turquoises, another of topazes and a third of brilliants.

Enameled letters are much less expensive and for general use prettier. A recent bride received as a gift a set of six initial plates. They were in script, the three letters being made of sterling silver intertwined with tiny blue and white enameled forgetmenots with rhinestone centers.

Dimity For Little Miss.
Dimity, ever associated with the children's wardrobe, comes in especially pretty designs and colorings this season and made up in a simple model, with a lace tucker cradling the plump little neck, is an ideal frock for general warm weather wear.

It launders so well, too, and though sheer, is really durable. A dainty little dress seen recently in a shop was of pink dimity with a gray white figure. It had a full skirt taken into the belt, with groups of small side plaits, tucks and a hem being the finish on the bottom. The waist was a simple surplice, the front edges tucked as they met a V of fine nainsook insertion sewed together with veining. The belt was of fine nainsook beading threaded with black velvet, and the bands confining the puff sleeves corresponded.

In warm weather the small yokes could be removed, and the frock would be decidedly pretty and comfortable.

Becoming Mourning.
Fashions in mourning have undergone a very great change since the wonderful improvements that have been made in crepe. In the first place, it has been successfully waterproofed and is no longer expensive wear. Then the soft finish crepe is particularly well adapted to the picturesque and artistic gowns of the present day. Instead of the gowns being trimmed with folds and volants of crepe this season entire empire and empress gowns will be worn of this soft and graceful crepe.

Not was the great poet ashamed to roll his leg even at a funeral. He seized the opportunity at the obsequies of one of his own sons. It happened that on the way to the cemetery the procession passed a traveling menagerie, and the lions, for whatever reason, stopped roaring just as Victor Hugo was in front of their cage.

When the Foreman's reduce the prices they have an object in view, and that is to clear the line of goods they have out in price. Once they reduce the price on a line of goods they reduce the price on that line for all time.

The Foreman's do not have sales from January to December. They do not buy cheap shoddy merchandise that is useless before it leaves the Store.

For Special Sales the Foreman's buy the highest quality of goods at the lowest market prices, and mark them at a legitimate profit.

If a line of goods do not sell or if they think their stock is too heavy they cut the price on the slow moving lines regardless of cost, and keep pegging away at such lines until they are cleared.

They are clearing many lines of good goods during the next few weeks, and it will pay you well to visit their Store.

Steeplechase Park And Twenty Hotels Are Burned Down

Damage Totals $1000,000—Fire Started in Cave Of Winds

New York, July 29.—Coney Island, the playground of New York's millions, was visited by a disastrous fire early yesterday and seven blocks in the amusement zone were completely destroyed.

Tilyou's Steeplechase Park, and nearly 20 small hotels were wiped out, and for a time the flames threatened Luna Park and Dreamland and the scores of smaller places which fringe the water's edge for a mile.

A lucky shift of the wind to seaward aided the firemen and probably saved the whole picture area, but not until a million dollars damage had been done.

Three persons were injured, one of them, Gottfried Messerli, a fireman, probably fatally.

Only the advance guard of the 300,000 people who flocked to Coney Island yesterday saw the fire, but the thrilling tales of the fearless rescues of Sam Dora, the armless and legless man, and the flight of Francesco, the fire eater, when the alarm was sounded, were told and retold along noisy Surf avenue and in the less particular Bowers.

Coney Island has had four big fires in the last ten years, the last previous one being in 1903. "The Steeplechase" on that occasion being swept out as it was yesterday.

"The Island," as New Yorkers familiarly call it, was just turning in for its early morning nap—the only sleep it ever gets—and the last thin line of Saturday night merry-makers were swinging gaily, if somewhat unceremoniously, when Geo. Frost, a watchman at Steeplechase Park, spied a wavering trail of smoke coming from the "Cave of the Winds," one of the many shows in the park.

Scarcely had Frost bestirred himself when a flash of flame shot out of the maw of the cave and lighted up the place with a weird glare. A patrolman heard the cry of "fire," for that shout at Coney Island is an ominous one—and alarm after alarm was rung in until the fourth had been sounded, bringing scores of engines and hose-carts to fight the flames now being borne along by the smart west wind.

The inflammable character-wood staff and paper mache of the constructive material of the many attractions, made fine food for the flames.

Fire Commissioner Lantry, seeing that nothing could be saved in the park, ordered that all efforts be concentrated on the east side of the burning blocks to keep the fire from reaching the flimsy buildings in the Bowers, and thus reaching Dreamland and Luna Park. The firemen were massed at the entrance of the Bowers and, although a Japanese skating rink, a small dance hall and a restaurant were destroyed there, the fire was checked.

CORN GOOD; OATS DAMAGED

Leamington, July 27.—Notwithstanding the lateness of the corn crop, the yield promises to be a heavy one if the present weather continues for a month longer. For over five weeks we have had perfect corn weather, and heavy rains at night, causing an extraordinary growth of the corn.

Farmers are jubilant over the appearance of their corn field after the miserable outlook of six weeks ago. The rust or red blight on the oat has seriously damaged that crop and not more than half an average yield is now looked for.

Potatoes are looking well and will likely be an average yield.

Raspberries are very scarce and selling here at 15c per quart. The peach crop is light and apples also.

The hay is now all in barn and is a good yield.

The address presented to Mr. Parnham was as follows:—

Dear Mr. Parnham,—We, your fellow employees of the machine room of the Wm. Gray & Sons Co., Limited, have learned with deep regret that you have severed your connection with the above firm, and that you will shortly depart from amongst us, your fellow workmen, to accept a position in a field of labor elsewhere.

In conclusion, on behalf of all, we ask you to accept this umbrella as a slight token of our regard for you.

Not Guilty of Murder of Steunenberg Says Jury

Verdict after Twenty-one Hours' Deliberation—Thanks Jury.

Boise, Idaho, July 29.—William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners is not guilty of the murder of Governor Frank Steunenberg.

The verdict of the jury was rendered at 7:58 a.m. yesterday, after an all-night session.

The court proceedings were very brief. After he had taken his seat on the bench Judge Wood said: "Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon a verdict?"

"We have," said Thomas B. Gess, juror number one, who had been elected foreman.

He handed an envelope to the judge, who handed it to the clerk, who read the verdict.

The prisoner's attorneys jumped to their feet and slapped Haywood on the back and all tried to grasp his hands at once.

Judge Wood ordered Haywood's discharge, and said that at 10 a.m. today he would fix the time for the trials of Moyer and Pettibone.

Thanked the Jurors.

The jury stood despatched at 10 to 2 most of the night and ballots were taken at frequent intervals. On the very first ballot taken after the jury retired, the vote was eight for not guilty, three for murder and one undecided. Then the undecided man went over to the majority. One by one the members of the minority were won over until just before day-break an agreement was reached.

The first intimation that a verdict had been reached came shortly after 7 o'clock and word immediately was sent to the attorneys and the newspaper correspondents that the jury was about to come in. Judge Wood was the first to reach the courtroom, and he was followed quickly by the attorneys. At 7:45 Haywood was brought in and took his seat by the side of his counsel. A minute later the jury filed in and a few minutes later the verdict was rendered.

Governor Gooding was in the courtroom when the verdict was rendered. He had nothing to say and left in company with James W. Hawley, leading counsel for the state.

Haywood thanked each one of the jurors in turn and told them if they came to Denver there would be a warm reception for them at the Haywood home.

E. F. Richardson of counsel for the defence said: "We have had a fair trial. Idaho may indeed be proud of herself."

It was four minutes past 11 o'clock Saturday morning when the jury, after receiving instructions, which were read by many to favor the defendant, retired to deliberate.

When the luncheon and the dinner hours arrived, the jurors, many of them well along to 70 years of age, were escorted to the house, where they commenced.

The court proceedings were over, the prisoner was discharged and the jury dismissed in less than three minutes.

Leaving the court-room with Attorney Nugent, Haywood walked to the jail portion of the building, shaking hands as he went with guards, employees and friends. He bade farewell to Moyer, who, when he heard the verdict, said: "That's good," and to Pettibone, whom Darrow described to the jury as a "sort of 'Happy' hot dog," and who called, "give my regards to Broadway." Then he walked to St. Luke's Hospital and rushed into his mother's room. Next Haywood went to the little cottage where his wife and daughters have been staying. He had to enquire his way. Once home, Haywood said: "I want to thank the people of Boise for their kindness to my wife, my mother, my family and my friends."

There has been widespread sympathy for Mrs. Carruthers, Senator Borah, when first apprised of the verdict, said: "I feel glad for Haywood's mother."

The verdict was received in Boise with general surprise. Expectation was that there would be a disagreement.

Samuel D. Gilman, the last juror man to be won over to the defence, declared that a majority of the jurors seemed convinced that the general tone of the court's instructions indicated that the defendant should be freed.

James Robertson, the good-natured Scotchman at whose house in Boise Governor Steunenberg boarded for more than two years, said: "I could not reconcile myself to voting any other way than with the defence from the very first, and I think that under the law and the evidence there was nothing else for us to do. There was some talk of a compromise on a second degree verdict, but it had to be acquitted or I would have stayed there forever."

Struck by Lightning.

Brookville, July 29.—A cottage occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Hackett of Ogdensburg, at Thompson's Point, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Mrs. Hackett, who was standing in the kitchen, near the stove, was thrown down by a bolt of lightning. Every pin was drawn from her hair by the electricity.

Drowns In Pond.

Portage la Prairie, July 29.—James MacPhelin, a Scotchman in the employ of the G.T.P. Railway, was drowned in a small pond on the farm of Thomas Sisson.

Choked by Meat.

Brookville, July 29.—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crozier of Adamson was choked to death by a piece of meat lodging in his throat.

UNIQUE BUT TRUE

Mr. C. H. Mills, of Chatham, dropped into town on Friday on his way home from Penetang, where he spent ten days at Wee Forest Hill, the guest of Mr. Rumpel. He enjoyed the outing to the limit, and landed some fine trout and pike.

Mr. Mills tells a peculiar occurrence that he saw when out fishing on the lake this week with Mr. Oscar Rumpel at Penetang. The latter had let down the line beside the boat. A medium sized sunfish took the bait and was being drawn up. A big pike grabbed the sunfish about the middle of the body and imbedded its teeth so firmly that he hung on and was landed without the hook entering him at all.—Berlin News-Record.
