Poetry.

THE BEAUTIES OF THE SPRING.

Come, love, with me, to the bowers of Spring,
Oh! come with me to the bowers,
And sweet shall be our wandering
Among the woodland flowers.

I'll weave a chaplet, love, for thee;
I'll bind it round thy brow,
And I'll sing a heaven-born lay for thee,
Thou'st ne'er heard heard till now;

A soft'ning lay for music wore,
To thee alone I'll sing,
While young birds chaunt, within the grove,
The beauties of the Spring.

We'll glide away, when daylight peeps
O'er the free and green-clad hills,
Where the fairest scene of nature sleeps
By the sound of crystal rills.

The mossy bank—the lipping stream—
The cooing of the dove,
Shall weave away the pleasant dream
That waits thee there, my love;

And thou wilt say, "How passing sweet
The breeze fresh odors fling,
Our hearts in joyful raptures greet
The beauties of the Spring."

Then come with me, while yet the skies
(Though not alike in hue
To the raven splendor of thine eyes,
Which doth eclipse the blue),
Cast down upon the gladden'd earth
One glance of happiness,
Pourtraying love and peaceful mirth
In signs of blessedness.

And we will roam together, love,
Where a hundred branches swing,
That tell in gentle whispers, love,
The beauties of the Spring.

From Major Edwards' Year on the Punjab.

A PICTURESQUE INCIDENT.

Moolraj's army marched into Leia at the same time that we landed on the opposite bank, and threw out a reconnoitering party to the Indus without delay to ascertain our position, and if possible to secure some boats; but neither were to be seen.

In the course of the day, however, as I afterwards learned, an ambassador from their camp managed to make his way over to mine, and deliver two or three pairs of gold bracelets, which Moolraj had sent to officers of the Futeh Paltan. This, of course, was unknown to me; but there was quite enough of dissatisfaction apparent among the Sikh soldiers to make me very anxious for General Cortlandt's arrival with the reinforcements. He could not now be far off; and my attempts to make out his exact distance produced one of the most striking incidents I ever witnessed. It was the custom of Sikh armies, when they wished to proclaim their own position to an ally, or ascertain his, to fire two guns as soon as it was still at nightfall, to which the ally immediately replied if he were within hearing. This was well known to me, and I determined to try it on the night of the third May.

About nine p. m. therefore our two horse artillery guns were fired, and I bent an attentive ear for the response. Scarcely had the echo died away when eight guns and countless numbers of camel swivels rent the air with their discharge, but not in the desired direction. It was the defiance of the enemy at Leia, who maintained it with successive rounds for an hour. Such a roar of hostile artillery, in the dead of the night, made a powerful impression on our little camp; and when it ceased dismay had fallen on many a faithful heart, when—hark!—due north there rolls down the Indus the deep boom of a distant gun; a minute's pause, and then another boom is heard. It is the answer to our signal heard and understood alike in those two hostile camps divided by the river Indus. We knew that our friends had come, and that their opportunity was gone. The long interval of an hour which occurred between my signal and General Cortlandt's reply, and which the enemy so efficiently filled up, was afterwards thus explained. Our two guns were heard by the general's fleet, while still floating down the river; and they had to pull to the nearest shore to disembark a gun before they could reply. By seven o'clock next morning the reinforcing fleet of twenty-five boats anchored alongside our camp, bringing the general with Soobham Khan's infantry regiment of Muhammadans, and six horse artillery guns. General Cortlandt brought this detachment from Bunno in the extraordinary short period of eight days, having marched to Dera Ishmael Khan, and thence taken boat. None saw clearer than he to what ends these events were tending; none knew better the value of an hour.

BURNING OF THE STEAMBOAT WEBSTER DREADFUL LOSS OF LIFE.

VICKSBURG, May 3.

The steamboat Webster, Capt. Samuel Reno, took fire yesterday afternoon, and was burned to the water's edge, at the head of Island Eighty-six, one hundred miles above Vicksburg.

The fire was first discovered and the alarm given about 3 o'clock, and almost instantly afterwards, the boat was enveloped in flames.

The pilot, (Mr. Buckman, to whom great credit is due,) having charge of the wheel, immediately endeavored to run the boat ashore. He was in part successful; but the flames finally drove him from his post, and the boat being unmanageable, floated again into deep water, thus depriving the passengers and crew of the first and last hope of safety.

At the first alarm a scene ensued which it is impossible to describe, and mingled as it was with the burning boat, from which the flames were spouting in all directions, became terrible in the extreme. Many rushed into the flames, while others crowded to the side of the boat, clinging convulsively to the guards, until driven away by the fire, and compelled to throw themselves into the current.

As soon as the fearful truth was known by the inhabitants of the shore, three or four boats were quickly rowed to the scene of disaster, and succeeded in saving the lives of several persons who were clinging to the sides of the boat, and to snags in the river.

The number of passengers and hands on board the Webster was about one hundred, of whom only about sixty can be found; the rest are supposed to have perished with the boat.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARCTIC.

Cotton further declined 1/4, with dull market Provisions were firmer.

LIVERPOOL, April 29th.

The low price of American flour has induced some other large purchases, and the general turn of trade has been very quiet. The demand for wheat was very confined, and in the lute business transacted, prices of Tuesday were hardly supported. Indian Corn was 6d. a bush. American flour pressing at a reduction of full 9d. per bush.

In the political aspect of Europe we discover nothing new. London is now the centre of observation. The great exhibition is absorbing much of the curiosity of the world. There is still a drain on the bullion of the Bank of England, the decrease set forth in the last return is £247,138.

SWITZERLAND.

The Courier Cozier, of the 25th, says the Hungarian refugees are awaiting, in the Canton of Neuchatel, the reply of the French Government relative to their passing through France to America. The cost of the transport to America is to be placed at the charge of the Canton of Tessaro.

The rumour which has been in circulation of other Hungarian Deserters having taken refuge in Tessaro, from the Austrian regiments, is confirmed.

Nothing from Germany.

From Simpson's Journey round the World. FEMALE HEROISM.

A man and his wife, both Christians, were passengers in a schooner, which foundered at a considerable distance from land. All the natives on board promptly took refuge in the sea; and the man, who had just celebrated his divine service in the ill-fated vessel, called his fellow-passengers to follow him, as well as himself, around him to offer up another tribute of praise and supplication from the deep in which they were struggling to tarry, with a combination of courage and humility perhaps unequalled in the world's history, in order deliberately to worship God in that universal temple, under whose roof the pavement the speaker and most of his hearers were destined to find their graves. The man and his wife had each succeeded in procuring the support of a covered bucket by way of buoy; and away they struck with the rest for Kahuilawa, finding themselves next morning alone on the ocean, after a whole afternoon and night of privation and toil. To aggravate their misfortunes the wife's bucket went to pieces soon after daylight, so that she had to make the best of her way without assistance or relief; and in the course of the afternoon the man became too weak to proceed, till his wife, to a certain extent, restored his strength by shampooing him in the water. They had now Kahuilawa in full view, having been about four-and-twenty hours on their dreary voyage. In spite, however, of the cheering sight, the man again fell into such a state of exhaustion, that the woman took his bucket for herself, giving him, at the same time, the hair of her own head, as a towing line; and when this exertion proved too much for him, the faithful creature, after trying in vain to rouse him to prayer, took his arms round his neck, holding them together with one hand, and making with the other for the shore. When a very trifling distance remained to be accomplished, she discovered he was dead, and, dropping his corpse, reached the land before night, having passed over upwards of twenty-five miles, during an exposure of nearly thirty hours.

MECHANICS' MEMORANDA.

The following convenient rules for Mechanics and others, although not perfect in their fractions parts, are, nevertheless, correct enough for all practical purposes. They were compiled by a writer in one of our exchanges:

To find the area of a Triangle—Multiply the base by the perpendicular height, and take half the product for the area.

To find the area of a Circle—Multiply half the circumference by half the diameter, and the product will be the area.

To find the circumference of a Circle from the diameter—Multiply the diameter by 22 and divide by 7; or, to be more exact, multiply the diameter by 355, and divide by 113.

To find the area of an Oval—Multiply the longest diameter by the shortest, then multiply the product by the decimal 7.854.

To find the contents of a Pyramid or Cone—Find the area of the base, and multiply that area by the perpendicular height, and take one-third of the product for the contents.

To find the solidity of a Spheroid Globe—Multiply the surface by the diameter, and take one-sixteenth of the product for the contents.

To find the weight of Wrought Iron—Find the number of cubic inches in the piece, and multiply by 2.6 (the weight of one cubic inch); or the product in pounds.

To find the weight of Cast Iron—Find as above and multiply by 2.607.

To find the weight of Copper—Find as above and multiply by 3.218; the product is the weight in pounds.

To find the weight of Lead—Find as above and multiply by 4.015; the product is the weight in pounds.

To find the weight of Brass—Find the number of cubic inches, and multiply by 3.112; the product is the weight in pounds.

To find the strength of Cables—Multiply the square of the circumference in inches by 120; the product is the weight the cable will bear in pounds.

To find the strength of a Chain—As many eighths of an inch as the chain is in diameter, take half of this sum and multiply by the other half; the product is the weight in tons it will bear.

To find the length of Iron to Form a Hoop or Band—Add twice the thickness of the iron to the diameter of the hoop, and multiply by 22; dividing by 7 gives the length.

To find the size of Nuts for Bolts—The nut should be twice the diameter of the bolt in breadth, and once the diameter in thickness.

To measure Stone for Building—Multiply the length by the width, and that by the thickness, and divide by 24.75, which gives the perches in it.

To measure Stone in a Wall—Measure the wall in the clear, and add the thickness of the wall; then find the circumference, which is the length of the wall, and divide by 24.75.

To measure Grain in a Bin—Multiply the length of the bin by the width, and that by the depth; this gives the cubical feet in a bushel.

To measure Corn in a Crib—Multiply the length and breadth of the house together, and also by the depth, which will give the cubic feet; divide the last product by 11, which will give the barrels of shelled corn in the crib, 3 bushels in a barrel.

To find the cubic feet in a Grindstone—To the whole diameter add half of said diameter and multiply by the same half, and this product by the thickness, and divide by 1.728, the number of cubic inches in a foot.

To find the cubic measure of Heave Timber—Multiply the breadth in inches, and that by the thickness in inches, and that by the length in feet.

Note—Square measure 144 inches to the square foot, and divide by 144; the quotient will be feet; the cubic measure has 1728 inches to the cubical foot.

To find the number of gallons in a Cistern or Reservoir—Find the number of cubical feet, and multiply by 7.48 for the gallons.

A cubical foot of water weighs 62.4 lbs. There are 280 cubic inches in a gallon of water.

THE CANADA DEPARTMENT OF THE INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION.

The Montreal Gazette inserts a letter, dated 18th April, from Mr. Leeming, Secretary of the Provincial Committee of the Industrial Exhibition, from which we extract the following incident relative to the Canada Division:—

The Canada Division, Mr. Houghton is determined shall not be behind for display in fitting up. He has certainly done everything to give as good an effect as possible to our productions, and I am convinced that by his attention to our interests, we shall not be inferior to other nations in competition with us.

Our goods, with one or two exceptions, have all arrived safe, and are now being displayed.—Hilton's Furniture is greatly admired for the wood and the workmanship. Herbert's Piano also attracts very great attention.

The Fire Engine is examined with close scrutiny, and draws much notice. Australia surpasses us in specimens of copper, some of them weigh half a ton containing 75 per cent. of pure metal.—Our grains are very much examined, as also our specimens of wood. I am sure we shall beat the Americans, both in our display, and in the prizes we shall draw. From their general puffing much more was expected of them and it is, and not much wonder, thought odd that after all their great bragging they do not occupy one half of the space allotted to them. As a nation they will not come up to a third class Power, and they will see this themselves by and by.

On Tuesday, while I was engaged arranging our goods, all at once there seemed to be something up, beyond the common. So after a few minutes, I heard a general speaking of the Queen's name. To me this chance was not to be lost, so on I rushed to where her Majesty was, and was much astonished when a gentleman pointed her out to me. There was England's Queen, without escort, or pomp, or pride, busily examining the statutory, dressed in plain black, leaning on the arm of Prince Albert and accompanied by the Royal children. For the first time, and only the first since Lord Elgin signed that outrageous Rebellion Losses bill, I felt as if I could have shouted God save the Queen. The people did not speak. All seemed dumb-struck from respect, as they surveyed the Royal pair. As her Majesty and the Royal family passed, every head was uncovered, and every one made them a salute, which was graciously returned.

The Canada Division was the first that her Majesty visited. Now, thought I, it is my time to speak to Queen Victoria. I made all haste to uncover some goods, but before my task was completed, they arrived where I was. Hilton's Furniture was the first thing that their attention was directed to. I showed it to her Majesty, explaining the wood of which she admired the beauty, and expressed her sentiments warmly. I then exhibited the grain, the wheat first. Her Majesty thought much of the Beans, and the Prince pronounced the wheat and the peas excellent. All the time the Queen was examining our goods, thousands stood round, uncovered, and I thought it no wonder that the people adored their Sovereign.

From Autobiography of Leigh Hunt.

A GENEVOISE RELIGIOUS PROCESSION.

In Geneva I first had the pleasure of seeing a religious procession. I found chairs brought out in one of the streets, and well-dressed company seated on each side, as in a music-room. The reader must imagine a narrow street with the company, as above-mentioned, and an arena left for the passage of the spectacle. The curiosity expressed in the company's faces was of a very wild description, the next thing to indifference.—The music was heard at a little distance, then came a bustling sound of feet, and you saw the friars advancing. Nearly at the head of the procession was a little live Virgin about four years old, walking in much state, with a silver-looking crown on her head, and a sceptre in her hand. A pleased relation helped her along,

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CHIVALRY.

The Carolinians really appear to be in earnest about leaving the Union. A convention has been sitting in Charleston discussing the matter, and have come unanimously to the conclusion that there is nothing but secession left for them.

1. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention, the institutions of South Carolina are no longer safe under the constitution, nor in the Union.

2. Resolved, That the concert of the Southern States in any systematic and decisive resistance to the power of the general government, has been hitherto sought in vain.

3. Resolved, That the only effective call upon the South must be by the appeal of a practical issue.

4. Resolved, That the committee to whom these resolutions are referred, be instructed, in the name of the Convention, to memorialize the Legislature of the State, to convene the State Convention at the earliest period practicable, after the 1st February, 1852, for the purpose of declaring South Carolina an independent State.

A writer who was present says, "these resolutions were received with cheers and hurrahs several times repeated, and the mass of the Convention joined in the applause. They were referred amidst a renewed outbreak of applause, which was positively startling to witness."

The committee consisted of 21 members, and they presented a report in terms of the reference. The address to the other Southern States, was referred back to be amended by the introduction of a resolution "declaring that this must be the last year that South Carolina will remain in the Union; that a new year must usher in a Southern confederacy, or South Carolina as an independent republic."

"The chivalry" are looking up. The compromise men in the North will, perhaps, begin to see what they have gained by subjecting their country to the degradation of the Fugitive Bill.

The steamer Crescent City has been chartered by the United States Government, and sent to sea with despatches.—The New York Herald says it is to watch South Carolina, but it is more likely to look after the Cuba Buccaneers.

MILITARY PENSIONERS TO CANADA.

We understand that the ship Hope, taken up to carry Military Pensioners to Canada, sailed from Liverpool on the 23rd of last month. A second detachment will be sent out in the Mary next month, for the purpose of being stationed at Amherstburg and Penetanguishene; a third detachment will arrive in the Autumn to be stationed at Toronto.

As the Military Reserve Lands around the above Towns are to be divided, out in small allotments of two or three acres to each pensioner, on which a cottage is to be erected, we are pleased to observe that every care appears to be taken by the Imperial Government to send out a good description of men, as the following qualification are required from candidates for this force:—

Certificates of character—accustomed to agricultural pursuits as laborers, or mechanics—to be in possession of £15, and a pension of not less than 9d. a day, and under 45 years of age. Pensioners now resident in Canada will not be required to produce £15, and may be taken up to the age of 48. This is the force alluded to in Earl Grey's last despatch, inserted in a late number of the Colonist.

Major Tulloh, of the War Office, who was lately gazetted as Military Superintendent to carry out these arrangements in North America, arrived by the last mail Steamer from England.

From the Galt Reporter. DIVISION OF COUNTIES.

We give at length in preceding columns the proposed enactments of the new Bill, to be brought in by Mr Hinks, for rearranging the territorial divisions of Upper Canada. It will be seen, that the nefarious scheme for dividing Dumfries, in order to aggrandize Brantford, is to be carried out, in spite of the well understood, and often-repeated wishes of the inhabitants, unless energetic means be taken by the people to prevent it. The whole plan is the concoction of Mr Ferguson, and one who knows how to make use of him, and is one of the most uncalculated, treacherous, and disgusting acts of public insult, that ever was accomplished by public men.

By the new arrangements it will be seen, that North Dumfries being united to Waterloo, Wilmet, Wellesley and Woolwich, in which two out of every three votes are Dutch, will be as much excluded from any share in electing County Officers, as if she was situated in the midst of Lake Erie; whilst Brantford is attached to three or four outlying Townships, all of which will not muster an equality of votes with the Township of Brantford alone, thus throwing the entire election of officers into her hands, for the opposition that may be raised in South Dumfries to her dominancy will be futile, seeing that but half a township is left to compete with a whole one; and this is the true secret of the unprincipled attempts so repeatedly made to divide Dumfries.

Should the Bill become a law, we shall be turned over to Guelph for our justice—Halton for our representation—and probably some unknown region in the Georgian Bay for our County business. This is a poor return by Mr Hinks to the Reformers of Dumfries, for all their sacrifices—their zeal and their activity—in the cause of Reform.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—The Bathurst Courier, states the Trial of Francis Barr and his wife, for the murder of William Barry, of Amnaston, came off on Friday week. It will be remembered that Barry was found dead in his own house, some where about the beginning of last December, and that Barr and his wife were immediately taken up on suspicion, having been found with the body of the deceased.

The evidence given is chiefly as to the knowledge of the parties mentioned. The wife was discharged with an admonition from the Judge, and Barr was sentenced to be hanged on the 17th inst. The Courier says that a petition has been forwarded to his Excellency the Governor General, praying that the sentence be commuted to imprisonment for life in the Penitentiary, with hard labor.

A WHOLE FAMILY BURNED TO DEATH.—A terrible calamity occurred in Harrison county, Indiana, a week or two since. It appears that an Irishman named John Hannagan, invited his neighbors to what is called a "house warming." The company came, and as a matter of course, the intoxicating cup was passed around.

The portion of the family, consisting of John Hannagan, his wife, and six children, Mrs. O'Donnell, Patrick Slave, one adult person and one child names unknown, went to sleep under the influence of liquor. While asleep the house caught fire, and the roof falling in, every one of the inmates, twelve in number, met with a horrible death. The Indiana Argus says the spectacle presented to the persons who first reached the scene of the disaster, was distressing in the extreme. No sound was heard, save the hissing of the fire, and crash of the falling timbers, every member of the family having already expired; but through the burning chimneys of the house, the by-standers could discover the still unconsumed bodies of its occupants.

There lay the mother with the body of her dead infant still clasped to her bosom, to which the little sufferer had clung in the last agonies of this horrible death, the bright flames shooting even from the eye sockets of the unfortunate mother. A sad, sad "house warming" it proved to be indeed.—Canada Christian Advocate.

FIRE IN THE WOODS.—The pine forest near the second toll-gate on the Waterloo road, was on fire on Friday last, and burned with such fury as to endanger much property in the vicinity. We are sorry to say that the barn of Mr Ho'son, with two or three log-barns were entirely destroyed, and so furious were the flames, and so dense the smoke, that travellers on the road were forced to turn back in some instances. By Saturday night, the flames had nearly expended themselves, although the fire had spread far and wide, presenting a novel appearance in the darkness of the night, from the variety and position of the burning objects.—Dundas Warder.

The Assizes closed in London, C. W., on Monday last. The action for libel, entered by Col. Prince against W. Sutherland, Esq., Editor of the Free Press, resulted in the acquittal of the latter gentleman.

CONVICTS.—A couple of convicts, one sentenced at the Essex, and the other at the Kent Assizes, passed through this city yesterday, en route for the Penitentiary. One of them is said to hold receipts to the amount of $50,000, being the proceeds of his profession as an accomplished thief.—Spectator.

INSTRUCTIVE.—The True Witness of Friday announces the formation of a Montreal branch of "the Catholic Defence Association," and urges the formation of similar societies throughout Canada and the United States, "for the purpose of manifesting the attachment of Catholics to their Church, and their detestation of the persecuting measures of the British Government."—Globe.

FIGHTING IN THE PRISON.—It will be remembered that a man named Ingram, who was convicted of the murder of a man, said to have been an Orangeman, but whose sentence was commuted to 2 years imprisonment, is now in the Montreal Jail.

Fleming, an Orangeman, who was convicted of the manslaughter of a Roman Catholic, and sentenced to two years imprisonment, is confined in the same place. Being sick, both men were placed in the Hospital, and yesterday having begun to discuss the subject of their respective creeds, they ended in fighting—Ingram got the worst of it; but both men were badly hurt. It seems that no warning will calm the evil passions excited by these religious animosities.—Herald.

Dr Naphegy intends shortly ascending in a balloon from the University grounds in this city, (Toronto.) The balloon is constructed, and the car is in a state of forwardness.—Christian Guardian.

PERVERSIONS.—The Church and State Gazette reports the number of "perverts" to Rome to have hitherto been,—From Oxford, 92; Cambridge, 43; Trinity College, Dublin, 5; Durham, 1. Of the Cambridge perverts, 19 were in holy orders, and of the Oxford perverts, 63. A few more are added since this table was prepared, and the work is going on more rapidly than ever. In the few days which have elapsed since the list of seceders from Oxford to Rome was published, the number has been raised from 92 to 100; and, at this moment, there are others who have only not declared themselves, two archdeacons (not including Archdeacon Harrison, of Maidstone) being of the number. During the same time, the number of seceders belonging to the other University has been increased by seven secessions.

It is said that Jenny Lind is to visit Canada sometime in July.

ATROCIOUS OUTRAGE.—We regret to state that an outrage of a peculiarly outrageous nature was perpetrated upon the person of a young female, in the neighborhood of Cooksville, on the evening of Sunday last. No fewer than five individuals were concerned in this act of heathen and revolting wickedness—the majority being lads of from fourteen to fifteen years of age. Only one of the accused parties has been apprehended, and we understand that he has been committed for trial at the current York Assizes.—The remainder of the gang have absconded, and it is conjectured that they have found their way to the other side of the Lake. We need hardly say that the occurrence has occasioned a deep and painful sensation in the village of Cooksville, which hitherto has maintained the reputation of being one of the most quiet and orderly of our Canadian villages. What renders matters the more distressing, is the fact, that most of the parties implicated are respectively connected.—Streetsville Review.

GUELPH HERALD.

TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1851.

THE LAST SESSION IN CANADA WEST.

The Third Parliament of United Canada meets to-day, to hold in Toronto its last Session, and which, if Mr Lafontaine finds his colleagues as docile, and the Upper Canadians as easily gulled or coerced as hitherto, will be the last in which Little York will possess the Seat of Legislation for many years to come, if indeed another Parliament of United Canada shall ever assemble in the Western section of the Province.

As yet, little seems to be known of the subjects on which the Provincial Parliament will be called to legislate, the New County Division Bill being the only one of which the provisions have been published; but although it is anticipated that the Session will be a short one, there are yet several subjects the Administration will be unable to shirk—Retrenchment, Reciprocity, Equalization of the Representation, and the matters mooted in the recent despatches from the Colonial Department—while the York Road job and kindred transactions will form fruitful themes for discussion. It is generally supposed that nothing will be done in the Clergy Reserve Question, for even should the promised bill authorizing Legislation in this Country be introduced into the Imperial Parliament during the present session, the opposition it will encounter in the House of Lords—should it eventually pass the Peers, which is not at all likely—will prevent its reaching the Colony until the present Provincial Parliament shall have dissolved.

What with the loss of Mr Merritt, almost the only member of the Administration in the Lower House who possessed the confidence of the country generally, and the virulent attacks they will have to sustain from the Clear Grits and their old ally Mackenzie—"an old friend with a new face"—to say nothing of their "natural enemies," the situation of Mr Baldwin and some of his colleagues will, during the next few months, be more interesting than agreeable. His own disposition and his French allies drawing in one direction, while the necessity for conciliating his party points to another, place the Attorney General between the horns of a dilemma. As for Hinks, hot war seems his natural element. A mere political adventurer can manage to add to his own resources, whoever pays the piper. The public may anticipate much fun, small benefit, and the privilege of footing the bill.

NEW WOOLEN FACTORY.

We are pleased to learn that a desideratum long felt and acknowledged, the want of a Woolen Factory in the locality, is at length about to be supplied, the Messrs. CAMPBELLS, late of Murphy's Mills, Eramosa, having leased for a series of years the "Red Mill," Waterloo Road. The interior of the building has been cleared of the milling gear formerly in use, and four Looms and a Warming Machine are already erected, while the preparations are nearly completed for setting up the Carding, Spinning, and other requisite Machinery. A new Flumme has been completed, and Messrs. Robertson and Watt, of the Guelph Foundry, are erecting a Water Wheel and necessary gearing of the most approved construction. The Messrs. Campbells having been for many years engaged in the Carding, Spinning, and Warming of the different branches of the Woolen Manufacture, and we doubt not will turn out as well proved of the value to parties in the locality, as they have already acquired. This much wanted addition to the manufacturing establishments in town, has been started under the most favorable circumstances of time, place, and adequate pecuniary means, and will, we are persuaded, merit and obtain the support of the inhabitants of the adjoining country.

THE NEW COUNTY DIVISION BILL.

We cut from a recent number of the Colonist a synopsis of the new Bill for the re-organization of the Territorial Divisions of Upper Canada, from which it will be seen that the County of Waterloo comes in for a full proportion of the proposed changes; but whether these will be carried out as now proposed, or be subjected to such further adjustment as may best subserve the pecuniary or political interests of the partisans of the Ministry, having an interest in the locality, we have yet to learn. It is desirable, however, that some definite arrangement be effected to remain undisturbed for a few years at least; for the changes made, and rumors of changes to be made in the mapping of the Colony, have recently kept the townships in a sort of uneasy transition state, and County officers and expectants on the qui vive.

The following new Townships are to be formed: 1. Howe Island, 2. East Nissouri, comprising the part of the Township of Nissouri, eastward of the line dividing the seventh from the eighth Concession. 3. West Nissouri, the remainder of the present Township. 4. North Dumfries, comprising the 6 northern Concessions of the Township of Dumfries, containing the residue of the 5, 6, North Dorchester, the portion of the Township north of the line between the third and fourth Concessions, south of the River Thames, Westminster, the part of the present Township, north of the fourth and fifth Concessions, and of the line between lots Nos. 65 & 66, and the "Tall Road North, and of the line between lots 10 & 10, in the Western Gore between the 12th and 13th Concessions, of the present Township—10, North Delaware, the portion of the present Township, north of the line between lots 12 & 13, in the several Townships. 11, South Delaware, the residue of the 12, Pilkington, East Gwillimbury, the part of Cartwright, north of Scugog Lake, is to be detached and annexed to Mariposa. And the Town plot of Elora is to be detached from Nichol.

It will be seen from the above, that the Pilkington Tract, so long sought to be annexed to Nichol, and of which from its situation it seems naturally and of which form a part, is to be erected into a separate township, and the village of Elora is to be detached from Nichol, already almost the smallest township in the Province, to form a capital for the new municipality; while it is rumored that the good folks of Garafraxa have an eye to Fergus, the only other village in Nichol, as specially convenient to form the head-quarters of their township, that the Pelebe's have a shankering for a cut from the one end, and that a shank from the other might be advantageously annexed to Guelph. "The Model Township" seems thus to be in a fair way to share the fate of Poland, and to be parcelled out among the neighboring powers and potentates, as policy may dictate.

"Oh, darkest record in the book of Time, Sarmatis fell, unwept, without a crime!" At the command of the Christian Alliance, Dumfries also to be partitioned between Brantford and Waterloo, despite the wishes and remonstrances of the inhabitants.

So much for the proposed alteration of Townships: next for those of Counties.

Essex and Darling are to be transferred from Lanark and Renfrew. Amherst Island from Addington to Frontenac. Wolf Island in Frontenac to include Simcoe Island, Garden Island, Horse Shoe Island, and Mud Island.

A new County, is to be formed called Victoria, consisting of the following Townships taken from the following: viz: Mariposa, Opa, Emily, Eldon, Fenelon, Baxter, Vesulam and Somerville.

Simcoe, is to be reduced by five Townships besides the slice taken off West Gwillimbury. These five Townships viz: St. Vincent, Ephraim, Collingwood, Ardena, and Osprey, are to form a part of the new County of Grey; the remainder of the new county being composed of the following Townships to be taken from the following: viz: Sydenham, Sarnia, Holland, Benzie, Guelph, Normandy, Egremont, Proton and Melancthon, with the Indian Reserve, and the Islands in the Georgian Bay, now belonging to Waterloo.

It is proposed to make grand havoc with the County of York. The divisions are to be the following: viz: York, to consist of Etobicoke, Vaughan, Markham, Scarborough, York and King. Ontario, to consist of Albion, Caledon, Chinguacousy, Toronto and Toronto Gore.

County of West York, to consist of Whitby, Pickering, Uxbridge, Rosch, Brock, Thorn, Mark, Sugg and Rama. County of East York, to consist of Whitby, Gwillimbury East, Gwillimbury North, Georgina and Scott. The name of this county has not yet been decided upon. It will likely be left for David Wilson to christen.

Huron is to be reduced to four Townships, viz: Evesham, Trafalgar, Nassagawaga, and Nelson. Waterloo is to be reduced to five, viz: North Dumfries, Waterloo, Wilmet, Woolwich and Wellesley.

Brant is to be composed of Brantford, Onondaga, Tuscarora, Oakland, South Dumfries and Burford.

Wellington is to consist of Erin, Pauline, Guelph, Nichol, Garafraxa, Eramosa, Peel, Maryborough, Minto, Arthur, Luther, Amaranth and Pilkington.

The Township of Mornington is to be attached to Perth. It is at present in dispute between Perth and Waterloo, both laying claim to it under the existing law.

Middlesex is to be divided into two Counties, to be called Middlesex and Elgin—Middlesex shall consist of Mosa, Ekfrid, Carradoc, Metcalfe, Adelaide, Williams, Lobo, Nissouri West, North Dorchester, North Delaware, North Westminster, and London. Nissouri West is taken from Oxford.

Elgin shall consist of Aldborough, Dunwich, Southwell, Yarmouth, Malahide, South Delaware, South Westminster, Bayham, and South Dorchester.

Oxford is to be strip of three Townships, viz: Nissouri West, Burford, and Oakland. It will therefore consist of Zorra East and West, Oxford, North, East, and West, Durham, Norwich, Bloenheim, Blanford, Nissouri East, and Woodstock.

Wentworth is to be composed of the following: viz: Beverly, Flamboro, East, Flamboro West, Ancaster, Glanford, Binbrook, Saltfleet & Barton. It is proposed to apply the provisions of the Counties Division Act of 1849, for the dissolution of Unions of Counties, &c., to the present Act, and that each of the Counties of Elgin, Waterloo, Ontario, Brant, and Grey, shall immediately have the benefit of a Provisional Council. It is further intended that this Act shall take effect on the 1st January, 1852. The Act will not increase the number of members of the Councils, as the above synopsis will prove of advantage to parties in the meantime, as it will enable them to consider the matter before the meeting of the Legislature.

These are the schedules attached to the Bill.—Schedule B shows the Unions of Counties, as follows: for all purposes, except for purposes of Representation in the Provincial Parliament, and Registration of Titles, viz: 1. Essex and Lambton. 2. Huron, Perth, and Bruce. 3. Middlesex and Elgin. 4. Lanca, Welland, and Haldimand. 5. Wentworth, Halton, and Brant. 6. Wellington, Waterloo, and Grey.

7. Northumberland and Durham. 8. Peterborough and Victoria. 9. Frontenac, Lenox, and Addington. 10. Leeds and Grenville. 11. Lanark and Renfrew. 12. Prescott and Russell. 13. Stormont, Dundas, and Glengary. [The Union of Haldimand with Lincoln and Welland, is evidently a mistake. Haldimand is now an independent County. The omission of "York, Peel, Ontario, and " from the above Schedule, is somewhat curious, and looks as if there were no serious intention of passing that part of the Bill. It is understood that Mr Baldwin is strongly opposed to dividing the present Metropolitan County of York.]

Schedule C shows the Unions, as follows, for the purpose of Representation in the Provincial Parliament, viz: 1. Essex and Kent—as the County of Kent. 2. Huron, Perth, and Bruce—as the County of Huron. 3. Middlesex and Elgin—as the County of Middlesex. 4. Wentworth and Brant—as the County of Wentworth. Waterloo, Wellington, and Grey—as the County of Waterloo. 6. Peterborough and Victoria—as the County of Peterborough. 7. Lenox and Addington—as the County of Lenox and Addington. 8. Lanark and Renfrew—as the County of Lanark.

The provisions for the dissolution of Unions remain the same as under the Act of 1849—with similar provisions for the adjustment of debts, viz: It is provided that each Court House and the land attached, as well as personal property, and taxes and other moneys due to any Union of Counties, shall be the property of the County in which it is situated.

It is also provided that the Townships of Wilmet, Waterloo, and Wellesley, and the portion of Woolwich not included in Pilkington, shall be included for their share of the debt, incurred or to be incurred for the construction of the Guelph and Dundas Road, in proportion to their respective assessments for 1848, relatively to the other assessments for that year in the County of Waterloo.

All suits pending, are to proceed to their final issue, notwithstanding any provision in the present Bill. There is no mention in the Bill, of County Towns, where they are to be fixed.

The long-talked-of County of Grey is to be formed of the townships previously proposed—five from Simcoe and ten from Waterloo, with the Indian Reserves and islands in the Georgian Bay, comprising a larger proportion of territory than of population. The propriety of this erection is admitted on all hands; the settlers in the northern townships had need to have their judicial business transacted nearer home than heretofore. At the last Assizes for this County, there were parties from the Sound brought down as jurors, who had travelled some 70 miles on foot, and had as many more to return—140 miles, a week's absence in road-time, to decide on a single civil case involving a trifling amount. The present County of York is to form four new Counties, the proposed arrangement of the townships appearing to be anything but cordially acquiesced in by the parties interested. Waterloo is to consist of only three townships and two halves, the north section of Dumfries and the west half of Woolwich, forming a sort of Little Germany, with head-quarters somewhere about Berlin. The good folks of Galt, as might be expected, grumble at the idea of being thus sold to the Hollanders, which they deem a poor return for the conscientious scruples they have overcome in the cause of Reform.

Guelph, it will be seen, retains thirteen townships including Pilkington, under the designation of the County of Wellington, and Grey, which considering how other Counties have been dealt with, is a pretty fair arrangement, albeit the loss of the revenue accruing from the township of Waterloo will effect a disagreeable alteration on the credit side of the Treasurer's books.

Although the new territorial arrangement does not involve any increase or alteration of the present Parliamentary representation, there is no doubt it is intended as a preliminary to legislation on that head, and that eventually the three Counties of Wellington, Waterloo, and Grey, will have separate representatives in the Provincial Parliament.

EARLY CLOSING.—We are requested to state that the Storekeepers in Fergus recommended closing at 7 p. m. on the 1st instant. We are assured that the system has hitherto wrought well, affording a great boon to the assistants in the stores—for which they express much gratitude—while neither their employers nor the public are put to any inconvenience by the change from the former half-day-closing and mid-morning opening of keeping open from 6 or 7 in the morning, till 9 or 10 o'clock at night—customers aware of the hour of closing making their purchases in due season. We cannot but think that the store-keepers of Guelph and Elora would do well to take a leaf out of the book of their Fergus brethren, and initiate a liberality which we are persuaded is in the end equally subservive to the interests of the employers and employees.

NEW POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS IN THE COUNTY.—In addition to the New Post Offices recently established in the County of Waterloo, as stated in another column, we understand that arrangements have been effected for a daily transmission of the Mail—Sundays excepted—to Fergus and Elora, and Semi-weekly to Sydenham, including the different Offices in the Owen Sound District beyond Fergus, and that a new Office is about to be established at the mouth of the Saigeon, the Mail Stage on this route leaving Guelph Wednesday and Saturdays at 6 a. m., commencing the 6th June. The Office kept for some time in Arthur Village by Mr. Young, and afterwards transferred to the residence of W. Gunn, Esq., some miles beyond the village, has been re-opened by Mr. Mitchell; the office occupied by Mr. Gunn, and recently known as Arthur Post Office, being now designated "River Mail Post Office." It is expected that two new offices will soon be opened on the Brock Road, in addition to the one recently established on that line—at Shaz's Mills, and Mr. Matthew Peoble's in West Flamborough.

The new arrangements will much facilitate business in the vicinity, and will be especially welcome to the inhabitants of the northern townships.

SOME IN THE TEMPERANCE HALL.—We would remind our readers in the vicinity, that the Soiree to the Rev. Messrs. Spencer and Griffin takes place to-morrow evening—commencing at 6 p. m. precisely. C. J. Mickle, Esq., will preside. It is desirable that parties intending to be present should provide themselves with tickets previously—to be procured of the Members of Committee, and at the Herald Office.

BEVOLUNTARY ASSOCIATION.—We are requested to state that the Annual General Meeting of this Society, which falls to be held on the 24th inst., (the Queen's Birthday) will take place on Monday, the 26th, in the School House, Nottingham Street, at 4 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is requested. As the books will be audited on the 24th, it is desirable that members pay up their subscriptions previous to that time.

THE "WESTERN FLAME."—We have received the two first numbers of this new Journal published at Chatham, (C. W.) by Messrs Dolson & Miller. The political creed of this new ally in the Conservative cause is, "British Connection and Constitutional Government," and it professes an honest but not factious opposition to the doings of our present Provincial Administration. We hail the accession of this new laminary to the galaxy which already enlightens the Western Hemisphere.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GUELPH HERALD. Sir.—When I spoke to you about inserting my reply to Mr Hoffmann's letter, I thought you informed me that there would be no more of it, and that you would not urge your publication in silence so far as concerns the Herald. But, on noticing in your last issue a piece translated from the Preston Farmer's Friend, which is no more than a re-echo of Mr Hoffmann's assertions, which are as false as they are malignant, and which you knew were contradicted by me before you published the above said extract, I think it right again to request the favor of your giving my said reply a place in your columns; if you have not room for it this week, I do hope it will not be omitted next. Before I conclude, I beg to inform you, your friend at Preston, and the public generally, that I have too much respect for the names in Waterloo, and too much confidence in their good sense, to suppose that his (F. F.) hints respecting erasing to a pap, &c., will in any respect entitle him to any more of his German friends' esteem (even should it happen to pass forth his energy in the way hinted at) than did his conduct to the lad at the post office some little time since; and he may depend upon it that his friend Mr H. (from whom he may not be so distant as he seems about the Lynch Statute of the Province, although a sworn conservator of the peace) will be of very little service to him when he shall appear to receive his second sentence from the Court. No doubt most of the Magistrates in the County will have noticed Mr H.'s significant allusion as a foul disgrace reflected upon themselves as a body, although they say nothing in the papers.

I beg to say that, so far from opposing the publication of the County Accounts in the German papers was I, that I repeatedly told Mr H. I should not oppose their publication even in twenty papers if the Warden thought fit, but that, in the Accounts to be published in one of the German papers, it ought to be the paper at Berlin, as the other, I am told, has a very limited circulation compared with the German Canadian. If this is disrespectful or insulting to any German, I am at a loss to understand it; nothing of the kind, however, was intended. Of this I am confident, that my German friends have good sense enough to know that by the Farmer's Friend's rules of judging, the greatest amount of disrespect to a German is shown by Mr H., as he opposes its publication in the paper which he knew had the most extensive circulation.

I hope the Farmer's Friend will be courteous enough to copy these few lines, as my reply to Mr H. I am, Sir, Your obedient servant, A. STEPHENS.

Guelph, May 19, 1851.

It is perhaps hardly necessary for us to state that our only reason for declining to republish Mr Stephens' letter after it had already appeared in the Advertiser, was, that it would be unfair to Mr Hoffmann, who, having only access to one of the German papers, would thus be attacked in the columns of both, while nearly all our readers, at least in this locality, having already had an opportunity of reading Mr S.'s letter entire, would scarce appreciate the boon of having it served up to them a second time. We regret that Mr S. should have indulged in personalities against the Editor of the Farmer's Friend, entirely irrelevant to the question, and which can only have the effect of provoking a rejoinder—namely, more agreeable to the parties than interesting to the public.—Ed. Herald.

To the Editor of the Guelph Herald. GUELPH, May 12th, 1851. Mr. Editor.—Can you inform me whether it is the intention of the inhabitants of this town to celebrate the Birth-day of our gracious Sovereign the Queen? I perceive by the different papers printed in the various towns and villages of the Province, that preparations are being made, and that the inhabitants of these different localities are to be celebrating that day. I am sure it would be a delightful spectacle to see the Market Square of Guelph beautifully lighted up, and crowded with thousands; there is plenty of room to exhibit them, without coming in contact with buildings of any sort. I cannot conceive how it is that Merchants and Mechanics do not close their establishments in this town on the four or five different holidays during the year, given in every other part of the Province. I hope, Mr. Editor, you will give the inhabitants of Guelph a hint, and oblige Yours truly, LOYALTY.

ARRIVALS AT THE BRITISH HOTEL.—From the 15th to the 20th May, 1851. Mr Phillips, Elora; D. D. McDougall, Ditto; D. McDougall, Hamilton; A. Sawers, Peterboro'; A. McFady, Smithtown; Wm. The Grain Markets in Galt remain as before—3s 6d being the price for Wheat, but there is very little doing, the quantity sent in being scarcely sufficient for domestic use, which appears to be the only reason that the price remains even as it is; the news from Britain being no dissatisfied, the news from France being so disastrous as regards Flour. Several Butchers from Hamilton and Dundas and Waterloo—and for any Lamb in good, 10s 6d York—a head was given. Milch Cows are advancing in price.—Reporter.
