CORRESPONDENCE

UNSIGHTLY

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN,

Dear Sir,—There has been given through the columns of the press considerable publicity as to the desirability of attracting the tourist business to our town.

Wolfville has in many ways responded nobly and almost everyone who visits out town goes away loud in its road and the attraction it would be to tourists.

A few days ago a visitor to our town was shown over the route of the proposed street and while charmed with the distant view was utterly disgusted with the foreground of the picture. He could not understand why the people of the neighbourhood and the citizens of the town as a whole should allow these unsightly piles of old lumber, to remain undisturbed throughout the tourist season. As he truly quoted, "Where every prospect pleases and only man is vile".

I understand that a petition to the Town Council is now being circulated. May I ask for its favorable consideration.

MORE INFORMATION WANTED
To the Editor of The ACADIAN
Dear Mr. Editor,—I am flattered by the reply by the Town Manager to my letter of the 3rd inst. in your columns—all the more so because a busy man like Mr. Stairs could hardly be expected to reply to anonymous communications. A further reference to my letter, I think, will indicate that such a condecension on the part of the manager was not contemplated. No one presumed that the specifications for the sidewalk had been prepared without full consideration, and the work has progressed sufficiently to demonstrate pretty well as to the policy regarding excavations. It was not necessary that the time of a busy man should be occupied in re-stating in words what flad already been made apparent in action.

What was hoped for was that some of the citizens whose judgment on such matters should, because of past experience, be of value, and who have not hesitated in criticizing the present method of work might state fully their grounds for so doing.

Wolfville is only beginning to lay

Wolfville is only beginning to lay concrete sidewalks which will eventually be extended to other parts of the town. I understand that in some sections soil conditions are far more favorable than in others. Because of the excellent drainage facilities which Main street is claimed to possess such work there, it is said, might be done at much less cost than in some parts of the town where the soil is of an entirely different character.

Experience, although a good teacher, is often an expensive one, as past operations here may well testify.

RANDOM COMMENT

Although the authorities of the Baptist church, so far as we know, have made no formal protest, it must be a source of annoyance that their groundar are made to serve as a thoroughfare by pedestrians. retiring character and are not likely to experience the shame of being asked to occupy a smore lowly place. The best seats—the front ones—are always reserved for strangers, and those who reach church after the services begin are not obliged as formerly to occupy the back row.

The interdenominational Sunday-school plenic is an institution of which Wolf-ville apparently has a monopoly among Nova Scotia towns. It has been held for three successive years with most favorable results and may prove a step towards what some citizens would like to see—a community Sunday School, At any rate the idea is a good one, and those who are responsible for its introduction and continuance are deserving of public thanks. Its success denotes a cordiality and fraternal spirit among the members of the different denominations which didnot always exist in Wolfville and is unknown in some communities even now.

PHIL.

The first concert of the season by the Wolfville Band was much enjoyed last Thursday evening. A new bandstand was recently erected on the vacant lot between the telephone exchange and the store of Waterbury Co. Lick, and the music was heard to much better advantage than last year. Another concert will be given tonight when it is expected that a large number will gather from the surrounding country to hear it.

DENTISTS IN SESSION

Nova Scotia Dental Association Holds Successful Convention.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the Nova Scotia Dental Association and Provincial Dental Board opened at eleven o'clock on Tuesday morning at the Science Building of Acadia University. This is the first time in recent years that the meeting has been held outside of Halifax. There was a good attendance of representatives of the profession from various parts of the profession from various parts of the profession from various parts of the province, and Dr. G. N. Stultz, of Halifax, the president of the association, who by the way is a former resident of Wolfville, was in the chair. Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Dr. J. Stanley Bagnall, and the president's address, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. Warren C. Oxner, Halifax, 1st Vice President, Dr. J. T. Roach, Wolfville, 2nd Vice President, Dr. T. Melanson, Yarmouth; Secretary, Dr. J. S. Bagnall, Halifax, read the report of the Provincial Dental Board. There were 204 names on the dental register at the beginning of the year. During the year, 52 names had been removed, by request, for nonpayment of dues and various other causes, while 23 were added.

Recommendations were made wheel, wifer some discussion, was a any world.

read.

The sessions were continued Wednesday morning when papers were read by Drs. MacKenzie and Bagnall. Dr. MacKenzie spoke on "Some phases of Dentistry for Children", and Dr. Bagnall on "Recent developments in partial denture prosthesis".

Following these an interesting discussion took place on matters of interest to the convention.

In the afternoon the guests were taken by motor to the Ken-Wo club, where a pleasant afternoon was spent

REGAN-CHRISTIE

REGAN—CHRISTIE

The home of Mrs. Christina Christie was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday, July 12th, at 3 o'clock, when Levelyn Belle, chief operator of Telephone staff of Wolfville, became the bride of Bernard Reveris Regan, son of Mrs. Ella Regan of Wolfville, The bride was charming in gown of white canton crepe and lace, with conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and sweetpeas with maiden hair ferm. She was given in marriage by her mother, who wore a beautiful imported own of grey crepe-de-chene.

The ceremony was performed beneath a beautiful arch of white roses and daisies by Dr. A. C. Chute. The win-some little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Regan, wearing white silk, carrying a basket of sweet peas, was flower girl. Both bride and groom were unattended. The wedding march was played by Miss Ceva Wyman, of Kentwille. Mr. Edward Stackhouse added much to the beautiful service by his vocal solo, "The Voice that Breathed of the Christie, assisted by Mrs. A. Phinney, Mr. and Mrs. Regan left on a motor friendly and the south shore. The bride wore a travelling suit of sand, with hat to match.

The popularity of bride and groom was shown by the numerous presents received. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring; to the little flower gift, a signet ring, pianist, an amethyst brooch; and soloist, a tie pin.

On their return the happy couple will reside at Wolfville.

WALKED FROM WASHINGTON TO WOLFVILLE

Albert E. Coldwell, a boy of sixteen, and a former resident of Wolfville's tourist camping ground arrived on Friday evening last. It included a company of three gentlemen and two ladies, all members of one family from Baltimore, Md. The Acadian made a call upon the visitors on Saturday morning and was cordially recived. They expressed themselves as much pleased with the accommodation provided and stated that having campidate various places during their trip at no stopping-place had they been so comfortable as at the Wolfville campistic. Our representative tendered them the freedom of the town and surroundings and any courtesy which citizens might be able to render, but was informed that nothing more could be done than had been done.

They travel in a fine roomy car and have an elaborate and most complete camping outfit of tents, sleeping cots, cooking utensils, etc., and are evidently out for a most enjoyable trip. They have already visited points of interest in the provinces of Quebec and New Brunswick, and were en route for Halifax. and the south shore. The personel of the party included Misses Frede and Helena Scharf and Messes, Frederick, Carl and William Scharf, all of whom we found most interesting and agreeable.

The Wolfville Junior Cricket Club played their first mratch this season with the Windsor Juniors last Thursday on the Windsor Athletic grounds.
They were accompanied by the President, (Rev. R. F. Dixon), who acted as scorer, and Mr. A. C. Cox, the manager, who played with the team. The game commenced about 3 o'clock and consisted of an innings apiece, the home club going in first.

Considering everything the Wolfville boys made a very creditable showing.
The bowling of Grant (Captain) and Spencer was excellent and well up to the average of the senior bowling of the last few years. The fielding also was good. The batting of the Wolfville team with a few exceptions was weak, but it will improve with practice.

McElhiney's batting for the home team was brilliant. Mr. H. Anslow, the veteran cricketer, who came down to see the game, was asked to take a hand and acquitted himself in his usual efficient style. Messrs. Cox and Grant made a good stand for Wolfville but unfortunately went in too late.
Cohen's wicket keeping for Wolfville was admirable and equal to anything seen in the Valley during the last three or four years. The best of feeling prevailed and both teams parted on the most cordial terms. A return match is being played today in Wolfville.

(As we go to press we haar the result was 45 to 7 in favor of Wolfville.)

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF CANNING AND VICINITY

CANNING AND VICINITY

Professor Landry and Professor Harlow, of Truro Agricultural College, delivered an illustrated address before an enthusiastic audience in Camning Armory, Thursday evening, July 10, their subject being "Poultry Raising". As Professor Landry proceeded descriptive moving pictures were shown, including incubation, raising of flocks and culling. The audience, while not large, was very appreciative. Captain A. W. Bowser presided and pleasingly introduced the speaker. A government expert will before September first visit the Valley and farmers having flocks of 25 or under, and wishing them culled, by communicating with Captain Bowser will benotified of a central place where they may take their flocks. Farmers having larger flocks on notifying Captain Bowser will be notified at what date the expert, will visit them. An expression of appreciation was extended to the speaker for an evening of information and pleasure.

The W. N. Reinhardt, Captain Lowers, 271 net tons, the first three masted schooner to come into Canning since the launching of the "Fieldwood", after discharging her cargo of 419 tons of hardcoal consigned to Blenkhorn and sons, sailed for Parrsboro on Friday, July 11. The W. N. Reinhardt will, after painting, sail for a United States port.

Our roads are daily improving. A fine piece of work has been done at the lower East end of Canning, where the road has been widened and a dangerous bank removed. A coat of gravel has also been placed on the Look Off mountain. This work has been in charge of Avery Wood. A mile of fine road has been completed at Scotts Bay Road, by Roland Legge, and the Gospel Woods Road, under the direction of Sherman mother, has been greatly improved.

BIG BAZAAR A GREAT SUCCESS

One of the most interesting events of the season was the Mammoth Bazaar in aid of the Canning Athletic Association, held in the rink, June 9, 10, 11, and which proved very successful. On the opening afternoon Canning Citizens' Band, followed by the Boy Scouts and the Girl/ Guides, marched to the rink, playing en route. Here the auditorium presented a very attractive appearance, the booths nestling in amongst the spruce being gay with colors, and the bright gowns of the bevy of pretty girls assisting added to the scene.

The following were the committees in charge of the booths:

KINGSPORT

The Sabbath School of Kingsport Congregational Church, assisted by the pupils of the Episcopal Sabbath School, held a delightful Cantata, Sunday evening, July 6, under the direction of Miss Ruby Dickie, Rev. Mr. Knowles presiding. The auditorium, which was filled with an enthusiastic audience, was very beautiful with flowers and potted plants. The programme included recitations, duets and solos, which were delightfully rendered from the tiniest tot to the advanced pupil. The Cantata in which all of the children took part was very beautiful. Sixty children represented flowers, each reciting a verse relative to the flowers they represented. The evening reflected much credit on Miss Dickie, who is doing such splendid work, and on the pupils, who afforded an evening of such pleasure.

CANARD

Mrs. Hayward, nee Sarah Cox, has arrived from tne West, after an absence of several years, and is visiting her Porter, Mrs. William Cox, Canard. Miss Violet Reid, a former teacher of Upper Canard, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kinsman. Mrs. Bertha O'Brien, who has spent the past six months in the West, where she taught successfully, has been added to the staff of Lower Canard School. More than sixty parents and their little ones, ranging in age from two months to two years, attended the annual reception given in Upper Canard Baptist Church, in honor of the Baby Band, superintendent, Mrs. Byard Brown, on Thursday afternoon, July 10. The little ones were entertained on the church grounds by the older ones, and supper was served in the vestry. On this, occasion the members presented their Mite Boxes, which on being opened to the Stone Boxes, which on being opened to make the cort of the right sort—those, perhaps, who is the right sort in camping of the right sort—those, perhaps, who is the right sort in the right is for the right sort in the right

FREE MOTORISTS' CAMPS OP

Maine Bureau Advises Moderate Charge for Use.

Charge for Use.

AUGUSTA, Me., July 1.—While favoring the establishment of camping sites for motorists, for which there is a constantly growing demand in this State, the Maine Publicity Bureau issues a word of caution to municipalities against the free use of such camps. It is the opinion of the bureau that free camping sites should not be generally encouraged, for, as a rule, people who are not willing to pay the modest fee which is charged by several camping places in Maine are not the sort of people desired in Maine.

"California", the bureau says, "finds itself at the present time confronted with a serious problem in the case of people without money, who have taken up a sort of "squatter's" existence on free camping sites, and are becoming a burden to the State.

Trail Riders Hold First Pow-wow

PLENTY OF GUIDES AND PACK HORSES ON HAND AT YORO VALLEY CAN

July of this year witnesses and promotery secretary. Among the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies in Yoho Valley, the wonder valley of Canada's mountain play-ground where, in addition to the regular accommodation at Yoho Bungalow Camp, a camp of tenis is being put up with capacity for one hundred guests. Last year a group of outdoor lovers made an initial trail ride and found it so fascinating that they decided to form an organization to foster riding in the Canadian Rockies of fifty miles or more, is eligible to membership, irrespective of race, creed, sex, age or color. So far as the Trail Riders' Pow-Wow is concerned, all that is necessary is that intending members should ride in on horseback.

INCREASING INTEREST.

The Better English Class has become a real institution and each meeting becomes more interesting and instructive, if possible, than the one prestructive, if possible, than the one previous.

The good attendance, the cool, attractive class-room, and the eager attention of the class all contribute towards the undoubted success of the work. Miss Archibald feels in starting the class in Wolfville that it is all worth while and the effort expended is fully justified.

QUEBEC ANNOUNCES $1,000,000 SURPLUS

QUEBEC. July 11.—Preliminary to the official financial statement of the province of Quebec, which will be given out in the first week of August, Premier Taschereau announced today a surplus of $1,000,000 for the fiscal year 1923-4 ending June 30, thus making the 25th surplus recorded in this province.

From a $22,000 surplus registered by the Marchand government, in 1899-1900, the surpluses have gradually gone up to the present figure, which was first registered six years ago under Sir Lomer Gouin's regime.

Here and There

Shipments of grain from the Grande Prairie and Peace River districts over the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway during the past season have totalled 2,471,000 bushels of wheat and 1,700,500 bushels of other grains.

The longest solid train of red cedar edge grain shingles ever hauled across the continent left Vancouver, B.C., recently for Chicago and the Eastern States. Several other long trains of this product will be shipped in the near future by the Hunting Merritt Lumber Company, by whom the consignment was forwarded.

A despatch recently sent from London states that Professor Carlyle, of the E. P. ranch, is sailing for Canada shortly, taking back with him a number of brood mares and other stock for the ranch. The Prince of Wales continues to evince the deepest interest in all the doings of the ranch and keeps in close touch with things there.

Approximately the same acreage as produced the West's bumper crop last year will be under cultivation this season. The outlook now is that over 14,000,000 acres of land will be ready for seed under generally favorable conditions. The estimated acreage to be seeded this year, by provinces, is as follows: Manitoba, 4,450,400; Saskatchewan, 3,354,190; Alberta, 3,472,315.

The value of boots and shoes exported by Canada during the year ended March, 1924, more than doubled the value of Canadian boots and shoes bought by other countries during the preceding year. Last year the exportations were valued at $304,918, and for the preceding year at $130,034. The United States was the chief buyer, taking 2,227 pairs, with Japan second, taking 1,628 pairs.

Concluding her round-the-world cruise, the palatial Canadian Pacific steamship "Empress of Canada," docks at Vancouver on May 24th. Reports indicate that this four-months' pleasure voyage under the genial care of Captain Robinson, hero of the Japanese disaster, has been a splendid success, the passengers being loud in their declarations of satisfaction.

During the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1924, Canada imported goods to the value of $893.335.491, an increase of $91,000,000 compared with the previous similar twelve months, while she exported $1,045.141.086, an increase of about $110,090,000. The total trade increased in that twelve-month necessariants. priod by about $210,000,000, compared with the corresponding period a year ago.

It is expected that negotiations between the British Government and the Province of British Columbia will lead to the settlement of several shiploads of immigrants from the Hebrides in the province this summer. Each Government proposes to grant $300, or $600 in all, to each family and shelters will be provided them close to the sea, where they can engage profitably in their accustomed pursuit, fishing.

The itinerary of the personally conducted tour of the Canadian Teachers' Federation, en route to their annual convention to be held at Victoria, B.C., August 12th to 16th, has just been anneunced. Starting from Teronto, a special train for the teachers will proceed west by Canadian Pacific Railway, halts being made at Western Canada's chief points of beauty and interest. It is expected that about 150 will make the trip.

That Sweden is capable of sending 25,000 men to Canada as immigrants yearly was the statement of Otto Elander, prominent Swedish editor, when in Montreal recently. Mr. Elander is touring Canada with the object of studying conditions as they exist in Swedish settlements here and reporting upon them to his fellow-countrymen desirous of immigrating to this country.

THE APPLE-SUCKER IN NOVA SCO-

A pampulet that should prove invaluable to apple growers in Nova Scotia has just been issued by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa. The apple sucker, of which it treats, was discovered in the province referred to near Wolfville in 1919. In the five years that have elapsed since, the pest has been found in seven different counties, namely, Annapolis, Kings, Hants, Cumberland, Colchester, Halifax, and Lunenburg. Owing to the prevailing winds, the insect has spread rapidly in an easterly direction; but it is now travelling westward, and it is feared will soon cover the whole Annapolis Valley. Every section of Nova Scotia in which apples are grown commercially will then be infested. It is stated that so far the pest has not been found in any other part of America. Egg-laying commences in the latter part of August and continues into late autumn. Although there is but one generation, the life of the insect extends approximately over seven months, more than five of which are passed in the adult stage. This fact, says Mr. A. G. Dustan, Assistant Entomologist, and author of the pamphlet, is very important when looked at in the light of fungous control, for it indicates that the insect is open to attack over a period of from four to five months. A full nistory of the sucker and of fungus control methods is given. Suggestions are offered as to control measures that can be taken by orchardists first, in the early spring, second, when the blossoms are showing pink, and third towards the middle or the latter part of August before egglaying commences and when the insects have returned from winged excursions to the shade trees. BUYING POWER AND WAGES

The continued advance in wage scales during the last year has been one of the most peculiar, and at the same time one of the most peculiar, and at the same time one of the most significant, business developments of the period, states the current issue of the Guaranty Survey published by the Guaranty Trust Company of New York. This advance has proceeded in spite of the general industrial recession and declining price level which characterized the greater part of the year. Considered in connection with the changes in business activity, commodity prices and the cost of living, the fluctuations in wage scales throw a strong light on the broader aspects of the general economic situation.

During the greater part of the period since the spring of 1923, it should be noted, the trend of the general level of commodity prices has been distinctly downward. Such a trend is commonly characterized by narrowing profit margins, smaller trade volume, and reduced demand for labor, with a consequent decline in wage levels.

demand for labor, with a consequent decline in wage levels.

The peculiarity of the situation during the last year lies largely in the relation between the movements of different groups of commodity prices, the Survey says, which has been such as to prevent a general drastic reduction of profit, margins. While wage levels, representing one important group of costs, have been high, the prices of raw materials and other producers goods, representing another group of costs, have declined with relative rapidity.

goods, representing another group of costs, have declined with relative rapidity.

Moreover, it must be remembered that wages, which are a pag of production costs on the cne hand, represent consumers' purchasing power on the other; so that high wage levels, while tending to restrict profits, at the same time operate to stimulate consumers' demand and to sustain a large volume of trade. It appears that this tendency has made itself felt during the last year. The record of sales at retail, the amount of railroad freignity traffic, and the general firmness of retail commodity prices lend support to this conclusion.

The real wages of industrial workers—that is, wages expressed not in terms of money, but in terms of what they will buy of the commodities which the proper make a simple club sandwich, add the proper and may be served hot by dipping it in a mixture of beaten egg and with the proper part in a pan over a camp fire.

To make a simple club sandwich, add the firms of rice bacon to sandwichs already whate with butter, lettuce and chicken. A few sandwiches which have made special appeal to many "picnickers" are given as helpful suggestions:

Massachusetts prown apples and atimulating their sale at hone will be redoubled in vigor this year. Whereas about 10 chambers of commerce participated in the campaign last, year, it is estimated by E. G. Stacey; secretary of the state organization, that more than 30° will put their shoulders to the wheel this fall to make "Apple Week" an unparalleled success.

A joint committee of the Massachusetts State Department of Agriculture, the Massachusetts Fruit Growers' Association, and the Chamber of Commerce, soon will be named to draw up a comprehensive program for Apple Week. The precise date of the week nas not been determined, but it will probably be some time in the latter part of October. Last year it was from Oct. 31 to Nov. 7.

The general outline of the campaign will be the same as last year, only on a much larger scale. It will consist of exhibits of local apples in store windows in all cities and towns of the State. There will be cups, ribbons, and other prizes given by the State and local chambers of commerce and trade associations and by the state Department of Agriculture to merchants who arrange the most attractive store window displays of Massachusetts apples.

When Apple Week opened in Boston last year thousands of fancy apples were distributed free at the theaters by the minute men of the Boston Chamber of Commerce. Each apple was carefully wrapped and packed in individual boxes, sealed with an apple sticker.

The work of distribution really began on the Monday preceding Hallowe'en, when a staff of men and women supplied by the Boston Chamber of Commerce and the State Department of Agriculture assembled and packed selected apples in attractive, individual cartons. On the outside of the cartons were painted slogans' calculated to stimulate the desire for apples.

Something similar to this will be done this year. Posters proclaiming the ments of the apple as a luscious fruit will be sent throughout the State. No opportunity will be spared to impress the people of Massachusetts that, in the first plac

PREPARING SANDWICHES FOR PICNICS

PREPARTINE SILVANCE PICNICS

As soon as summer makes its appearance thoughts of picnics and all the joys of eating out-of-doors come to our minds.

To prepare food which is appetizing and such as to be easily packed into baskets or boxes, and which is at the same time substantial enough for appetites increased by exercise and the fresh air, is sometimes rather difficult. Here is first aid for you in these picnic sandwich fillings.

Sandwiches with a meat filling are often a favorite part of the lunch. The ingenious housewife will take a little extra time to surprise and please her family or guests with some new sandwiches. Vary the sandwich by using graham bread or whole wheat bread, rye bread, brown bread or rolls cut in half.

When sandwiches are prepared at home, wrap each in wax paper. If bacon or frankfurters are to be broiled over the fire and added while hot to the sandwich just before it is eaten, it will help to butter the bread or rolls at home before packing the lunch. Any cold sandwich may be served hot by dipping it in a mixture of beaten egg and milk and frying it in a pan over a camp fire.

To make a simple club sandwich, add

A careful survey of the apple orchards of the province of Nova Scotia indicates, from the present conditions, that the crop will be about 90 per cent of that of 1923. Some varieties are light, particularly Starks, Baldwins, Kings and Blenheims. Owing to the continued dry weather, it was expected that the Black Spot would not make its appearance to such an extent as formerly, but it is now showing up. Bud moth is prevalent again this year. THE POTATO INDUSTRY ...

Although during late years the most of the revenue which ha come to the Valley has been connected to a very great extent with the apple-growing industry, it must not be forgotten that not so long ago the growing of potatoes provided a very considerable portion of the wealth of our people. In the days when potatoes were shipped in bulk on sailing vessels Kings county farmers prospered because of attention given to the production of tubers. Later, when the West Indies markets were open to us and potatoes were transported by steamer and carried in packages the business maintained ample proportions. Since those days the cost of production has materially increased, but it must be borne in mind that prices have also increased, even in local markets. Today very few potatoes are grown in this county.

In our sister provinces of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, however, the cultivation of the potato is regarded as a safe and profitable occupation. There is a good demand for shipment to the southern states where the market is said to be practically unlimited and the prices good. It might be worth while for the people of this vicinity to consider the advisability of devoting more attention to this branch of agriculture than has been done in recent years. It used to be claimed that our potatoes were of a better quality than most of those grown elsewhere. Our facilities for growing and shipping them are unexcelled.

CANNING INDUSTRY IS GREAT NEED

This section has again experienced a bumper crop of strawberries, the quality of which it would be found difficult to equal in any other country. Because of the lack of a sufficient demand in berries, the quality of which it would be found difficult to equal in any other country. Because of the lack of a sufficient demand in any available market, however, prices have ruled decidedly low, and as a consequence growers have found the production far from profitable. It seems a pity that the facility for growing this lucious crop which, the Annapolis Valley enjoys could not be better taken advantage of. Our local markets are quickly satisfied and the perishable nature of the fruit renders its export with profit impossible under present conditions.

The solution of the problem of the disposal of this and other similar products might readily be found in the establishment of any our present products might readily be found in the establishment of any our present production of strawberries and other small fruits which if attractively put up would find a ready sale in our own and for eign markets. We would suggest the promotion of a co-operative organization along the same line as the Acadia Dairy Co., in which the producers are themselves interested and which may provide for the profitable disposal of their crop under the most avorable conditions.

CHANGE IN ELECTORAL DISTRICTS

The fact that in consequence of the re-distribution of seats in the federal house made necessary by the last census Nova Scotia was likely to lose two members has been a source of great uneasiness among provincial politicians for some time back. Hurried pilgrimages made to Ottawa where heated conferences have taken place apparently have had no effect in saving the situation, as a measure has finally been brought down which seems to confirm the worst that has been feared. According to the proposal made Kings measure has finally been brought down which seems to confirm the worst that has been feared. According to the proposal made Kings and Hants will in future constitute one electoral district. Queens will be attached to Lunenburg for electoral purposes and Shelburne

The pl n appeals to us as being a fairly reasonable one. of two members or even more is far from being a we see it the loss of two memoers of even more is far from being a calamity. If the constituencies interested were able to secure from the federal treasury the amount saved by the reduction it might be regarded as far from a serious loss. The estimates for the current year, unless we have over looked some of the items, make no provision whatever for any expenditure in this county in spite of the fact that an allotment was promised for necessary harbor improvements at this part and that the condition of public works in provements at this port, and that the condition of public works in other sections are said to require immediate attention.

STAY WITH IT!

Here in the Annapolis Valley is where the sky is a little bluer, where the air is a little purer, where it is pleasanter to live and where you will live longer. Stay with it.

You should appreciate the charm of your environments and think of what you can do to make your surroundings even better and brighter. Help your home. Stay with it.

CONSTANTLY ON THE JOB

Human wants are constant, bourly, daily and continuous. Food, clothing, shelter and their infinite subdivisions are every day needs. There is not a clock that ticks that does not register a million human wants. The newspaper is the closest thing in the world to the people's wants. It is an expression of the ever-pressing desire for news, The advertiser who uses the newspaper reaches people with his message exactly at the right time. There is no advertising medium on the job so completely and so close to the people as the newspaper.

THE INDELIBLE IMPRESS
Faces tell many a story, Right living and good hearts make kind faces. Innocence glows in the face of the pure. Wicked hearts, if there are any, blacken the features. Every day of our lives we are recording acts on our faces to be read by the world.

WIDER STREETS

It is a matter of frequent comment, especially of late, that the sidewalk on Main street is considerably wider than need be, while the roadway, in view of the congestion caused in recent years by the more common use of the motor vehicle, is narrower than it really should be. The Acadian referred to the matter a year or so ago, when it suggested that the necessary correction might be made by moving the curbing a foot or eighteen inches in on either side and extending the roadway to correspond. When the work of sidewalk construction was begun would have been a favorable time for making the change, which might then have been done at a very small cost.

MAIL ORDER PROFITS

The annual report of the Robert Simpson Company, Toronto, for the year ending January 31st, 1924, should give food for thought to those people who send their money from the smaller centres to help swell the profits of these big mail order concerns, says The Picton Gazette, an Ontario weekly, which comments as follows:

This company's net profits after paying all expenses, amounted to the very compared with $1,236,609 in 1922 and $766,858 in 1921. In the last three years this firm has made a clear profit of over three and a half million dollars. Last year an eight story addition was made to the store premises at a cost for building and equipment of over the store premises at a cost for building and equipment of over the store premises at a cost for building and equipment of over a million dollars, all paid out of profits.

Certainly the Simpson Co. are doing business at a very comfortable margin. And in this respect their experience is in no way different from that of the other big mail order houses.

They are all making good profits, over a million dollars, all paid out of profits.

Certainly the Simpson Co, are doing business at a very comfortable margin. And in this respect their experience is in no way different from that of the other big mail order houses.

They are all making good profits, building up enormous businesses, erecting magnificent stores and employing thousands of hands, largely out of the mail order business.

This will continue so long as the people from the rural sections and the smaller towns and villages keep on sending away their money from their home communities to help build up the cities.

cities.

The result is prosperous growing cities with enormously profitable businesses, while our smaller centres are being drained of their men and money to make these cities greater and wealthing.

ier.

There is a sort of popular idea that the mail order houses offer better value than the local store, but it is difficult to square this theory with the fact of the enormous profits of the mail order just quoted.

In fact it is largely a case of far off being green. If an honest comparison of prices and quality were made, the advantage would generally lie with the local store.

Without the prosperous small town and village, farm life would lose its chief asset. Prosperous towns make prosperous towns cannot exist if the money all goes to the big city. Every retail business is an employer of labour. Everyone admits the value of employment to the community. Towns and cities strive to secure manufacturing concerns to locate in their mid t. The hot summer weather is hard on the travelling

When one hinks of the hours he has to spend on stuffy trains, in dusty hotels and on sunbaked roads, one doesn't wonder that, at times, he almost envies his wife and little ones at the fresh, breezy seashore, enjoying vacation by the sounding sea, and wishes he might be with them

Some salesmen don't stop at wishing: they realize that wish!

They find that method as productive of business as a personal visit plan, and it so shortens the time needed to cover their ground, that they have the opportunity of spending an occasional "long week end" with the "missus and the kids" by the seaside.

they might some day return for a visit; and would always be interested in learning of the prosperity of their many friends.

Rev. Mr. Layton, in responding, said that while listening to the address read by Prof. Blair, he had hardly realized he was the man referred to as he felt he had failed to live up to his own ideal. He thought a minister should be more than a preacher; he should be a citizen; and so be himself had tried to stand for everything that was for the good of the town, and would do this also in his new field. Mr. Layton spoke of his enjoyment of his stay in Kentville; for though a minister, to a certain extent, led a lonely life, yet there had been many homes open to him, where he was always welcome. Since early boyhood, his had been more or less a roving life; and since their marriage, he and Mrs. Layton had never really had a home until they came to Kentville; and wherever they might go Kentville would be regarded as home. He, with Mrs. Layton expressed the hope to return some day; and bespoke for his successor the same true hearted support that he had received.

Mr. Layton preached his farewell symbol.

Speed maniacs, displaying their wares under the wrong circumstances, are in many cases potential murderers. As for the man who speeds in city streets, in populated areas, near schoolhouses around curves or similar situations—give him the limit whenever you catch him. But the reckless driver is tenfold more a menace to public safety than the speeder, and the terms "speeder" and "reckless driver" are by no means synonymous.

Dangerous Parking.
Consider another class, the careless parker". Many improved roads are not way traffic. Yet we all have seen, in a Sunday or holiday, dozens of cars arked in the worst possible places, on rests of hills, near curves or even in urves, taking up one-half the road withe traffic is halted in both directions and sudden stops made necessary. These allows make as many hazards as the beeders, or more. Their action in bonopolizing the highwafis opens adoportunity for another menace—those his stop suddenly without signalling.
