TWO CENTS.

PREMIER-ELECT FORESHADOWS U.F.C. STAND ON C.T.A. AND HYDRO

MANY MINES CLOSED BOTH SIDES WAITING FOR DEVELOPMENTS

Nothing is Expected to Check Momentum of Walkout—Operators Have Made No Plans to Combat Strike—Troops Ready on Ground—Restraining Order May Be Disobeyed Today—Many Non-Union Miners.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Information obtained from the bituminous coal fields of the United States, in which more than 40,000 members of the United Mine Workers of America have been ordered out on strike, tonight indicated that there would be nothing which could check the momentum of the walkout, despite the temporary restraining order which was issued Friday in the United States district court at Indianapolis. Deprived of the restraining hands of its lawyers, as a result of the injunction, the membership of the union was prepared to enter the field full working day since the strike order became effective in an effort to demonstrate its ability to halt the production of soft coal throughout the country. The operators, so far as available reports show, have not yet made plans to combat the strike, notwithstanding the fact that troops, both federal and state, have been sent, in many instances, to localities from which they might best guard the coal properties in the contingency of violent efforts to prevent non-union men from taking the places of the strikers. On the other hand, there has been no reported picketing activity by members of the unions. Both operators and strikers apparently had decided to await developments before either of them takes a further definite step in the controversy.

SINN FEINERS RAID POLICE BARRACKS

Sentry Shot Dead Near Dublin And Rifles and Ammunition Carried Off.

Mullingar, Ireland, Nov. 2.—The police barracks at Bolliver, about 15 miles northwest of Dublin, were raided on Friday night by masked men. Constable Ogar, who was doing sentry duty at the barracks, was surprised and shot dead in the course of the struggle that ensued. The raiders carried off 200 pounds of ammunition and a several rifles and revolvers. Extra police have been drafted to patrol the district.

GERMANY TO REPLACE SUNK WAR VESSELS

Must Surrender Naval Equipment to Pay for Battleships Which Cannot Be Replaced.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Demand will be made of Germany that all violations of the armistice shall be made good. This has been decided upon by the supreme council, which has completed the protocol to the German treaty. The protocol provides that Germany shall surrender six and a half of the first-class battleships destroyed, which Germany cannot replace. There is no provision in the protocol as to how the warships and naval equipment shall be divided among the allied and associated powers. Germany has been asked to make a commission to Paris to sign the protocol and to the formal ratification of the treaty.

WILL ESTABLISH LABOR COURTS

London, Nov. 2.—An industrial court and courts of inquiry to examine into special labor disputes are among the principal provisions of the bill the ministry of labor proposes to introduce in the house of commons Monday. The industrial court's decision will be binding, but the parties to a dispute are not compelled to submit their case to the court. Courts of inquiry could be set up by the labor minister with power to summon witnesses and documents. Apparently their principal function would be to make a quick report on the facts, thus giving the public an opportunity of deciding upon the merits of the "wages act" by which war wages and bonuses are effective one year after its passage. This act expires Nov. 21.

CARDINAL MERCIER GUEST OF QUEBEC

Quebec, Nov. 2.—His Eminence Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, was the guest of the city of Quebec from early Saturday morning until he left this evening on board the steamer "L'Esperance" for Halifax. The entire city was gaily bedecked with flags, the Papal colors predominating in honor of the distinguished visitor. He was met at the station by the bishop, Mgr. Roy, auxiliary bishop of Quebec, Mayor Lavigne and other officials by whom he was escorted to the cardinal's palace.

Supreme Council May Grant Bulgaria Ten-Day Extension

Paris, Nov. 2.—The answer of the allies to Bulgaria's representations regarding the peace treaty with that nation will probably be presented tomorrow. The supreme council is expected to grant the Bulgarians ten days within which to submit their final answer.

Appointments to Senate In View of Close G. T. Vote

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—In anticipation of a close vote in the senate, the government has selected the men to fill the senatorial vacancies. If necessary, Hon. Martin Burrell will be transferred from the commons to the White, Ex-M.P. North Renfrew, is also certain of appointment, and will go to the second chamber, even if his vote is not required on the Grand Trunk. The other selections are from western Ontario and northern Ontario. It is doubtful if the Grand Trunk bill will be proceeded with in the commons tomorrow, also it was announced as Monday's business on the adjournment of the commons on Friday night. If it is, a final vote may be reached tomorrow night. If the government decides to delay the vote until Tuesday, the report of the committee on soldiers' civil re-estab-lishment or the prohibition measures will be the order of the day in the commons tomorrow. There is no change in the relative strength of the supporters and opponents of the Grand Trunk measure in the senate. Nine senators are opposed to the bill either on the principle of government ownership or some details of the agreement.

CANNOT LINK WITH EITHER OLD PARTY, DRURY DECLARES

Premier-Elect to Take Two Ministers From Outside Immediate Ranks.

By Staff Reporter.
Barrie, Nov. 2.—"In forming the cabinet we will only have to go outside our own immediate ranks for two ministers, the attorney-general and the minister of education," said E. C. Drury, premier-elect, to the World this afternoon. "We have good cabinet material; there was never better."

PRINCE OF WALES IN TOWN TODAY

H. R. H. in Need of Rest—Few Functions to Be Attended.

Up to a late hour last night it was unknown by the authorities at what hour the Prince of Wales would arrive in Toronto this morning. A Government House had no information on the subject, but were expecting to receive a telegram in the early hours of the morning naming the hour at which the prince's special train would arrive at the Government House private railway siding. The prince is expected, however, to arrive before the lunch hour and preparations have been made to that effect. Nothing definite has been settled as to the program to be followed by the prince during his stay here excepting, of course, the Massey Hall meeting on Tuesday and the dance of the Bishop Strachan School the same evening. The lieutenant-governor cannot make any arrangements to settle his witness, and nothing will be done in that matter until he arrives.

LABOR DELEGATES BLOCK THE PROGRAM OF BIG CONFERENCE

Seek to Throw Out the Votes of All Countries Not Represented by Workers.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Dissatisfied with the present basis of representation in the international labor conference, the labor group delegates decided yesterday to make an effort to throw out the votes of all countries which have not sent workers' delegates and are represented only by governmental appointees. More than ten Latin-American countries, as well as China, Rumania and Asia Minor, have not sent labor delegates, and are represented by a diplomatic officer stationed in the country. Labor delegates contended that these officials were not acquainted intimately with conditions in their home countries and are not qualified to represent them. The grievance goes back to the provisions of the Versailles treaty, which gave the government two delegates, employers one and labor one. At the Amsterdam meetings of the international federation of trade unions, which will hold its second session here on the arrival of the German and Austrian representatives, the demand was made that the government delegation in each case also be reduced to one. The raising of this issue blocked the program of the conference to take up on Monday the question of an eight-hour day and forty-eight hour week. The commission on selection, which is the conference's main business, was postponed.

GOAL WILL CONTINUE TO COME FROM U. S.

Shipments to Canada From Bituminous Fields to Keep On in Spite of Strike.
Special to The Toronto World.
Ottawa, Nov. 2.—The Canadian government does not anticipate action on the part of the United States to prevent shipping of bituminous coal to Canada during the strike in the bituminous coal fields across the line. It is understood that the proportion of output in normal times, shipped to Canada, will be continued in regard to the output during the strike. What is causing more alarm is the probable effect in the Cape Breton coal fields. If American ships, unable to secure coal in American ports, attempt to bunk at Sydney or Halifax, Nova Scotia miners may go out in sympathy with the American miners. It is hoped to prevent this. There is little fear of a coal strike in the western Canadian fields.
In Central Canada.
In central Canada bituminous coal supplies are sufficient for the transportation companies for some time and there should not be any serious dislocation of industry or traffic in Canada. Hon. N. W. Rowell, in attendance at the international labor congress at Washington, is looking after Canada's coal supply from the United States.

PREMIER-ELECT DRURY OUT FOR ENFORCEMENT OF TEMPERANCE LAW

Will Support Any Hydro Project for Benefit of Province—Denies Farmers Profiteers—Future Premier at Sunday School as in Old Days.

By Staff Reporter.
Barrie, Ont., Nov. 2.—E. C. Drury, Ontario premier-elect, will leave here by automobile at an early hour tomorrow for Newmarket, where he will take the train for Toronto in order to respond to the call of the lieutenant-governor to meet the latter at 11 a.m. to discuss the formation of a government. Asked by The World when he would assume office Mr. Drury said: "I think not this week, but the beginning of the following week." He added that Sir William Hearst had kindly consented to carry on in the meantime.

ACCLAMATION FOR PREMIER-ELECT

Drury Will Accept Seat Offered Him in Centre Simcoe.

By Staff Reporter.
Barrie, Ont., Nov. 2.—The Ontario premier-elect, E. C. Drury, in forming the cabinet this afternoon, he had decided to accept the offer of the seat in the legislature made to him by H. G. Murdoch, member for Centre Simcoe.
Mr. Murdoch had a majority of 1400 at the recent election and it is officially stated here that, for more reasons than one Mr. Drury will not be opposed.
Mr. Drury expresses his regret at losing the services of Mr. Murdoch in the legislature. The member for Centre Simcoe who is a prosperous farmer in the township of Tully, insists, however, upon giving way in favor of the U. F. O. leader.

CITY OF OPEN GATES IS TORONTO'S FUTURE UNION STATION THE KEY

The First of a Series of Articles Dealing With the Remarkable Transportation Situation of Toronto, in Which Public Ownership Has Won Many Victories and Will Win More, With the New Union Station as a Front-Line Trench.

(From The Chronicle of Perthino Picub, Chapter XXIX)
And The Traveler pitched his tent beside ARAG-A-IN in the place of the Falling Waters and sojourned there for the space of seven days, and he marvelled at a wonder exceeding all that he had seen in the heavens above or the earth beneath.
And the sound thereof was like unto a mighty rushing wind, and Thinder, and he was neither day nor night; for the waste, which descended from a great fountain, had been satisfied by the rivers of a country of mountains and forests and plains that no man could measure, so vast was it, and blessed with rain in summer and snow in winter.

And he arose and left that place, and passing by great cliffs on the rocks, thru which the waters leaped furiously, he came to a tideless sea.
And on the Coast he found a fisherman who fished with his nets in the sea, the water whereof was good for Man and beast to drink.
And the fisherman gave him a boat that was made from the bark of certain white Trees which grew in that region, and he spent the Night there.

And early in the morning, the sky being clear and the wind fresh, the Traveler spread his night covering as a sail, and journeyed upon the tideless Sea.
And, steering to the north, towards the place where he saw a mountain covered with goodly trees, and fields stretched thereon, whereon was much grass and corn, and horses, and cattle, and many swine, and sheep not a few.
And set in this plenty he saw a city, in the midst of which was a High Tower, which the sun lighted as it were a beacon to warn Mariners against the perils of the night wind upon the tideless sea.

And as the Traveler drew near the city he saw that it had walls. But there were no Armed men upon the walls, nor any promise of war.
And about the middle of the walls' length, on the sea side, and against a place whence the citizens did Enmarch their boats to take their seas, he saw trading ships with much cargo, he saw two galleys of exceeding size and beauty.
And, leaving his boat with one who met him at the landing place, the Traveler walked towards the city, which were opened wide, and found standing beside them five men whom he supposed to be the watchmen of the city, and he sought to shut them before the darkness should cover the land.

And he desired to know at what Inn he should find lodging, and he asked them if they said they were the governors of the city, which was called KAND-ING-YENGO, and they had come to greet him for the watchman in the tower had discerned his Boat upon the tideless sea.
And concerning the gates, the chief of the city, whose name was MA-YOROM-MY said they were now never shut, forasmuch as there were no enemies in all the land, and he had never known these many years borne the tramping of soldiers.

And he said also to the Traveler that the gates were open in the Welcome to all who would rest from their Labors, or seek trade in the town, and he said he would show the Wise men of that city were fain to teach those who resorted unto them.
And even as the rulers of KAND-ING-YENGO spoke with the Traveler two caravans appeared with much people and merchandise, and he saw oxen, camels, or horses, one from the Eastern, and one from the Western highway, and they entered each a gate.

And when they had passed within the city other caravans came out of the gates; for it was a custom among the people of the city, that they should carry their Journeys in the cool of the evening.
And again the five chief men of the city with one accord gave their hands Gladly to the Traveler, and brought him to the great hall of KAND-ING-YENGO wherein they did the city's business.

And from the top of the tower they showed him the country to the North and to the East and to the West, and it was fair to look upon, and rich to the uttermost reach of the eye.
And he saw a wide street, with many people upon it, dividing the city, from the Tideless Sea, to the northern wall, and the day was now far spent, he saw other two gates in the northern wall, and the people were going out and coming in, and caravans also, without horses, of Oxen or Camels, even as they did in the southern part.
For these gates also were never shut, but were swung so that the commerce of KAND-ING-YENGO might serve those who tilled the Soil, and Hewed down the forests, and delivered into the earth for precious metals, and caught the fish from many rivers and lakes between the city and the Ocean of the bear, the walrus and the seal.

And the Traveler gazed upon all this and spoke not, until the darkness fell.
And he beheld, in the twinkling of an Eye, the city was light with lamps as numerous as the Sands upon the shore of the Tideless sea.
And he was astonished and lifted up his hands and said "How can these things be?" and MA-YOROM-MY answered him: "Be not alarmed; this light is taken from the waters of the Thunder and Wind which which thy tent was pitched. But come now, thou art weary and it is time to eat and rest thyself."

And while the Traveler was still dumb they took him to a chamber in the Wall of the tower, from which he could look out upon the city, and they set meat and drink before him.
And when he had eaten and drunken he said to a man and said to him thus: "This day at even I can't see the City of the Open Gates and have seen thee, and thou art a man and a citizen of this city, and thou art a citizen of the City of the Open Gates, which are of camels, and night turned into day by the magic of the falling waters which no man can see or hear, because they are distant two days' journey from the city."
And he shod these many days.
And the words which he had there perceived, and the things which he had seen, told him were still to be given to the citizens of the Open Gates, which he had found in the Book of Remembrance, which he did write for his children and children's children, in the chamber of the Tower wall.

The citizens of Toronto are in a very similar position to the United Farmers of Ontario. A fortune has been lying so close to their hands that they have not realized its importance.
This week the farmer will step into the spacious halls of Queen's Park with the tread of a proprietor of all his surveys. He used to go up there almost with bated breath and whispering humbleness. Now he will stave his hat behind the door and run the pace from cabinet to cabinet. He could have done it years ago if he had had a little more nerve, and had understood how big and powerful he was.
Toronto Citizen Was Cripple.
The Toronto citizen, like the Ontario farmer, has long regarded himself as a hardy up being. When he wanted to stir around, inside the limits of his city, or to pass out of or come into his own city, he was a cripple. He had a street railway company within a municipal boundary, but the law, which was an ass long before Shakspeare made an irritated sufferer say so, made him build little railways for himself, if he would not be suffocated on his own doorstep. He lived in discomfort with himself, and in chronic anger against the street railway.
His fitful consolation was that in 1921 he would really become boss of his own car and would never more waste his duty thru turbid rivers of wasted energy.
When he went abroad the railway station always made him vexed with his own impotence. While the Montrealer took train in a Palace of the Flying Wheel, the Torontonian found himself groping about a soot-sprinkled barn, dodging down as he picked his way across bewildering tracks.
And when he returned to his city, behind steam, he never knew how long he would be held up upon the wily way which has been imposed upon the waterfront.
Where Hamilton Excels.
If he journeyed into the country by electric car he was (and is) everlastingly reminded of the way his Hamilton business competitors crowd over him because they can go from a radial station, in the heart of the city, in half a dozen directions.
Does the Torontonian want to visit Brampton by trolley? He must change systems at West Toronto. Would he travel to Aurora?—the delays on Yonge street will tell him that it is a counsel of perfection to let patience have her perfect work. Did the heights of Scarborough and the cliffs thereof lure him from the city? He must wait for a car in a shack between Orchard Park and Woodbine, and reflect upon the vanity of human wishes as applied to convenience and speed.
If this long-suffering martyr of the Transportation That Didn't ever stumbled upon statistics that tell how his neighbors across the line are situated, he was rendered bilious as he read that, comparing the population of his own city and the adjacent country for 25 miles with similar populations, the Toronto area has a mile of radial electric railways to 7,594 people, and that the average of Indianapolis, Dayton, Cleveland, Toledo, Milwaukee, Boston, Detroit and Cincinnati, and their zones is 2,565 people per mile—just about one-third of the Toronto quantity.
Coincidence and Romance.
And all these years a fortune in transportation was at the Torontonian's hand, even as there was another fortune for the Ontario farmer, only he would pick it up. The prevented happiness was in civic control of civic services and the use of public money for the public good.
For some years the great asset has been partially understood and has been realized, in isolated chunks. It is a remarkable coincidence that public ownership as a whole is becoming remarkably crystallized for the Toronto citizen at the very time when the farmer, on whose prosperity the well-doing of us all so largely depends, is coming into his own as a governor of the province which he "thiefly owns, and which has been transferred from a wilderness into a garden because his fathers labored, and he has toiled also. This happy juncture is more than a coincidence; it is a romance in government for all who will read clearly the events that are occurring before their eyes.

H. C. OF L. SOLUTION IS CO-OPERATION

George Keene Twits Manufacturers at People's Forum Meeting.

The People's Forum meeting at Foresters' Hall yesterday afternoon was poorly attended, but those who were present were well repaid by hearing a most instructive and interesting speech on the co-operative solution for the high cost of living.

George Keene, who is the general secretary of the Co-operative Union of Canada, is a master of his subject, and what he does not know about co-operation is hardly worth learning. He contended that the present high cost of living was against the principles of high moral citizenship. When men and women were taken from their ordinary avocations to manufacture munitions those who control the market of supply and demand used the fact to their advantage.

It would have been far cheaper if they were now. Mr. Keene contended that it was not essential in business to make a profit—people were but to be good citizens and to help one another. When war broke out people generally spent their last dollar on foodstuffs and stored them up. The manufacturers took advantage of that situation to raise prices all round. One-third to one-quarter of England was covered by co-operative societies, and during the war they had increased their prices very slightly, and the government when they fixed selling prices of commodities always took the co-operative stores as a basis.

Mr. Keene contended that the only thing that kept Russia going today was its co-operative societies, and the true leaders of the people in Russia had been compelled to recognize its usefulness.

Not Like Old Times. The speaker said that today we had no manufacturers as the old-time people knew them. No Canadian manufacturer could stand on a platform and give the details of his business. Today the manufacturer was a capitalist, exploiting the people for his own good.

If it was not for co-operation, the world's business uprightness would rapidly decline. After tracing the history of co-operation from its inception, Mr. Keene said that no one had a right to profit. The co-operative societies limited their profits to five per cent, and returned part of that to the contributor. In co-operation there was no dishonesty, no dishonest and no second-hand goods, and all the preaching in the world would not produce such a result as was seen in the present-day co-operative societies. They had helped to eliminate such business people as degenerated their trade six days in the week and preached the gospel on Sundays. There was no incentive in co-operation to raise prices, as all profits went back to the consumers. The English and Scottish wholesale societies were the largest producers of flour in the world, were the largest distributors of tea in the empire, possessed the biggest boot factory in England, had a 60,000-acre farm in Canada, and factories and stores in all parts of the world. They had 162,000 employees, who were all out, not for profit, but for service.

In Ontario there were seven co-operative stores, and he had been asked if the general idea of co-operation could succeed in Canada. It would do so if the ideals were the same as in the old country. At Sydney Mines, where there were 15,000 people and co-operation in trading pretty general, $33,000 had been saved to the consumers. "If 15,000 people could save that sum, what amount could eight million average up to?" he asked. Co-operation was teaching the democracy of business, and if all Canada was as well organized as Sydney Mines co-operators would be owning their own mills and factories in all parts of the Dominion. Co-operation taught the economy of distribution, and if they had 200 shops in Toronto the vast sums now spent in distribution would be saved, and the cost of the articles bought would be necessary be cheaper.

"Jim" Clynes, the British food administrator, was an old co-operator, and owed his whole success to his early days in the co-operative stores at Acricington.

OPEN NEW THEATRE FOR VICTORY LOAN

Two Thousand Persons See Function Before City Hall.

More than 2000 people were in attendance outside the city hall on Saturday to witness the opening of the new outdoor theatre to be used in the Victory loan campaign and publicly to welcome the American tank contingent, who are at present in the city in the interest of the loan. Brigadier-General John Gunn received Lieut. Arthur Snyder, the American officer in charge of the tank, and expressed his pleasure at their presence.

Another feature of Saturday's campaign happenings was the judging of the fancy costumes worn by the school children in their recent school parades. About 150 of the children who had won prizes at their respective schools attended at the city hall to be judged for the city prizes.

Bedford Park School succeeded in winning both the boys' and girls' city prizes for the cleverest costumes, and the boy winner, Willie Moore, who represented a crippled soldier, 11 only five years old. The children were first judged in the hall and then taken out on the open air theatre stage and photographed. The results are as follows: Boys—1, Willie Moore, Bedford Park

CONFESES TO MURDER OF FORMER PREMIER

Budapest, Nov. 2.—A man named Stenkyowak, one of the band which brought about the assassination of Count Stephen Tizi in November, 1918, has confessed to having fired the first shot in the course of an investigation into the assassination of the former premier.

A former marine, named Dobo, admitted having received 10,000 crowns from War Minister Lindner after the murder was accomplished, and that two weeks later he received another 10,000 crowns from Secretary of State Lahne. Dobo said, however, he was not aware if Lahne knew why he was ordered to pay the money.

Guelph Gets Building Advice For the Next Hundred Years

Steel Worker Falls Forty Feet, But Continues His Duties

Kitchener, Ont., Nov. 2.—While engaged in construction work at the Ames-Hodden tire plant here last night Gordon Uttley fell 40 feet from a steel girder. His fellow worker expected to find him dead, but to the surprise of all he got up himself and continued his work. He has been confined to his home here today, however, and it is believed he developed internal injuries.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Brantford, Nov. 2.—Walter England, a well-known employe of the Verity Plow Company, received probably fatal injuries here on Saturday when an emery wheel broke and pieces struck him in the head and back. His condition today was very critical.

ONLY FOURTEEN HOUSES ARE TURNED OVER

Commission Has Cancelled One Hundred Applications for Homes.

To date only 145 persons have bought houses that are being erected by the housing commission and paid down the required deposit. Of the 420 applications for homes received by the commission, 101 cancelled their applications, and the others, besides the 145, have not made good their applications with a deposit. Up to the present only fourteen houses have been completed and turned over to the purchasers. The present program calls for 286 houses for this year.

In reply to the complaint by purchasers that the prices of houses have been raised since they signed the contract, W. Swaine, manager of the housing commission, points out that carpenters' wages have been boosted twice since the commission began operations last May, and plumbing supplies and lumber have also advanced. Owing to the uncertainty for the future, Mr. Swaine says it is impossible to quote prospective purchasers a definite figure; perhaps not within $200 of what the final price will be.

FACTS RELATING TO COAL STRIKE

Reasons Which Have Led Up to the Demands Made by the Miners.

Following are some of the facts relating to the strike of bituminous coal miners in the United States. The industry is now on a basic eight-hour day and three and a half cents' bonus paid for overtime work.

The actual miner works on a tonnage basis, and when miners are in demand it is easy for him to report on such days as it pleases him, and often to quit when he feels he has earned enough for the day.

The miners are now getting $6c a ton for the coal they mine, and the day laborers are getting about $5 a day. The miners admit that they did well during the war, because the demand for coal was so great and so continuous that they did not suffer from unemployment.

The miners enjoyed a 70 per cent. increase of pay during the war. They now demand a 60 per cent. increase on top of that, which would make a total increase on the original base of 172 per cent., considerably greater than the steel workers now enjoy.

The Washington Agreement. Heretofore agreements between operators and miners have expired with the ending of the commercial coal year, March 31. The miners now wish to change this date to Nov. 1.

Without any general or long-continued agitation of the nationalization of the mines and without any real demand from their followers for a 30-hour week, the miners' officials have conceived it within the last few months and have put it thru a convention, with other demands, in such a way that its rejection by the operators automatically entails a national coal strike without a referendum authorizing one—and that on scarcely more than a month's notice.

Stockholm, Nov. 2.—A despatch to The Tidens from Helingsfors says the famine in Petrograd is assuming terrible proportions. Forty thousand persons have died from starvation within a month, it is declared.

NO HELP GRANTED SULLIVAN'S WIFE Man Who Served With Open Letter to Re-establishment Committee.

Comrade Mike Sullivan, a New York Irishman of British sympathies and with a long record as a soldier in the Imperial Army, in an open letter to Hon. A. J. Calder, chairman of the committee on re-establishment, has strongly criticized the action of the committee in paying so little attention to the needs of returned men. In this letter he points out that he wrote twice to the committee upon his own case, but received no reply. In part the letter says: "Your committee has seen fit to flatterly ignore the just demands of the men who sacrificed everything so that Canada should live."

1917; neither could Sir James Lougheed, the head of the S.C.P., see his way to allow my wife and family to be given the proper allowance. Why, because I, a British subject, living in the States before the war, volunteered and served twice in the war. No, sir, your committee or the government had no intention of keeping the promises that were made us. However, there is a day of reckoning. The man who loved his country and his flag and proved it by shedding his blood will not surely lie down because you and your callous have broken faith, not only with him, but those who sleep beneath the mud in France. We will certainly "carry on" the fight, not only for ourselves, but also for the widows and orphans whose bread-winners laid down their lives that Canada should live.

McGill and Tigers Win Knocking Varsity and Argos Out of Running

Great Crowd See Students Play College Rugby Game at the Stadium.

The game at Varsity on Saturday was checked full of features and equal to the standard of the inter-collegiate in previous times. McGill won by 15 to 6, and easily deserved a victory. A couple of venerable school teachers from Kingston acted as officials in their governing didn't injure either side much. The crowd was wonderful, every seat occupied and the singing of the boys and girls equally great. The girls gave the "Hold that line, Varsity" with a gusto that was rewarded by the men with a mighty cheer. The students gave the McGill yell show heard on the field, and the bleacher gang wanted Tommy Church, his worship and Frank Smith, the nifty as a curiosity. Ghat went across and bowed, but not Tommy.

Local critics all agreed that McGill's interference was illegal as a close season, but that was what Sitter and Malcolm let it pass. At that McGill could have won playing the old army game of two backs and a kick.

The visitors were the husker and much better drilled team. They filled their plays with a precision that was refreshing. They didn't worry much about the officials. Malcolm seemed worried to leeway, while Sitter had his own signals mist and stood in the rear of the defending side—perhaps fearing he might spoil a pass or something. McGill halves worked well before time and at the half the sub kickers held a warm up.

They started late on a perfect field. Varsity won the toss and deflected the north goal with a little wind aster. Varsity kicked down and the first scrum was down at McGill's line when the real work began and on a series of trick plays, line interference and the like, McGill advanced to scoring distance, and then halted for a moment. Varsity scored twice by indulging in a short time with a lead 2 to 1.

Then McGill smashed thru the Varsity line for a try by Allen which was converted, and McGill led 3 to 0. Varsity had a second period, the McGill scored the only point and it looked as though the good work of Brown, Holmes and Bix might still pull the game out. But thereafter it was all McGill. The visitors played safe, adding a safety touch the third period to one for the home team.

McGill introduced Defoley on the half and he kicked high and long with the wind one that went behind the line being muffed by Holmes, when Scott fell on the ball and the crowd started to cheer and the crowd started to cheer.

TIGERS BEAT ARGOS JUST AT THE FINISH

McKelvey Went Thru the Crowd for Try and Only Two Minutes to Go.

Hamilton, Nov. 1.—Tommy Riddell and Silas Quilty field their best to control the game and the crowd which failed at the finish when the players and throng mixed up and McKelvey trotted thru for the touchdown that put the Tigers three ahead and knocked the Argonauts of Toronto out of the running. Score, 3 to 0.

Immediately after play ceased Hamilton Laidlaw handed in a protest on the ground that McKelvey went in to touch before crossing the goal line, also on the ground that McKelvey, in the crowd, and no poles protection. McKelvey, the touch line judge, reported that McKelvey ran outside, but referee Riddell took no notice.

The visitors brought up their best team of the year and great attendance greeted the teams, as they lined up on the slippery field. Argos won the toss and defended the south goal with a gentle breeze behind them. There was a lot of fumbling and interference on the part of Argos first half, but they pretty even generally in mid-field and defended the south goal with a gentle breeze behind them.

McKelvey went thru the crowd for a try and only two minutes to go. The goal was converted, and McKelvey of the Tigers was the hero of the day. The crowd was wonderful, every seat occupied and the singing of the boys and girls equally great.

Incidents at Montreal and Hamilton on Saturday indicate that there is something wrong in the rugby situation. The Argonauts and the Tigers were worked overtime, while at Varsity the officials would stand a lot of improving and they were fortunate in having a busy game to handle.

Leonard Smith and Reg DeGruchy report a clean, clever and fast game in the senior City League Saturday morning at Rosedale, when Arlington beat Devonians came together in the second and third quarters Argos led 6 to 2. Tigers were the best of the first period and scored a goal. New Zealand there was great confusion, some one blew a whistle and the game was stopped. Argos were ahead, 6 to 3, and two minutes to go when McKelvey went around for a try and only two minutes to go. The goal was converted, and McKelvey of the Tigers was the hero of the day.

Argonauts went into the game at Hamilton with full knowledge of conditions, and few will be in sympathy with the protest. As it is regarding a matter of fact nothing is likely to result.

Tigers and Montreal play off for the Big Four championship next Saturday at Hamilton, while Ottawa and Argos perform at Varsity for third honors.

At Scarborough Beach Capitals beat Beaches Saturday afternoon in an intermediate O.R.F.U. fixture before a Newcast outside winds. St. Aidan's played much better their usual form.

After thirty minutes extra time, during which Scottish were awarded a penalty, but failed to score, the score was still 1 to 1, and another game will have to be played. The game was featured by the spectacular display of Neate in goal for the Abions, and it is estimated that over 1000 spectators were present. The game was a fast and clean one, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd. Herb Lennox, M.I.A., was an interested spectator.

In the singles at the Varsity tennis tournament, the original entry of 108 men has at last been narrowed down to ten. There are 11 teams in the match, some really fine tennis. The matches were very close. The play was spectacular, the driving hand and the net play. The men were very good. C. S. Dickson and C. S. Dickson sets the last shot, going to 10-8. W. C. Little played C. S. Dickson. The latter annexed the first set without much difficulty, but his persistent lobbing began to tell in the second set. He eventually winning the match. He defeated Allen in three long-drawn-out sets. Both men game replete with long rallies. Mackay in a bad great difficulty in putting the ball. The latter's strategy was court- inging ability is remarkable, as he "lets" off almost impossible balls. The ten men still in the singles are:

When Montreal Was Defeating Ottawa Man in Stand Died From Heart Failure

Montreal, Nov. 2.—By spectacular play here on Saturday, Montreal defeated Ottawa, 15 to 6, and earned the right to battle with Hamilton for the championship of the Interprovincial Rugby Union. The game was considered by old time football authorities as one of the most thrilling games ever witnessed here. It kept a fine crowd of 6000 fans alight with excitement from start to finish, and during one of the tense moments in the last quarter, a spectator, Harry L. Shaw, died from heart failure. The match was fast, but nothing was evinced by a number of players repeatedly during the struggle, so that fights were frequent. The crowd broke out to the field from the grand stand in the last quarter when Kilt and Abnhovitch mived it up. Varsity four other players had to be held back by main force from engaging in the fight. The police intervened, and Montreal officials warning that its action might mean the loss of the game on a protest. This appeal was heeded, and the game was resumed and was not interrupted again.

The star player of the afternoon was McCann of Ottawa. He worked a hesitation play repeatedly for good gains and Ottawa's only touchdown was scored on his successful employment of this trick. He was always working hard to the finish without a let up, he brought back a kick and his line gave him a water-tight protection to the end. He was on the whole more effective than the Montreal players.

The local team won its victory on the sterling playing of its backs, Herovitch, McGill, Brophy and Barwick. Their catching and punting was always superior to that of the Ottawa backs, and Brophy and Barwick, and Herovitch got greater length and height out of his punts than Gilhooly. He put up a heavy ball and his line and his linemen were sure tacklers, to be they could either kick or run. In the passing of Jacques and Brophy, saving Montreal from many a dangerous contingency. E. Tubman played a heady

Daughters of Canada

The mother, the nurse, the women with the needle, the ambulance driver, the canteen worker, the "farmerette" and the daughters of industry in factory, office and store—all-inspired the manhood and ennobled the womanhood of Canada by their labours of love and sacrifice in the days of the nation's anguish—now happily past.

And their response, to give and to lend of their money time and time again—was beyond all praise.

And—Canada—being mindful of their past example—and conscious of their all-pervading influence again asks her Countrywomen to buy Victory Bonds. Yes, she asks them to buy them, even at the sacrifice of some cherished longed-for purchase.

It is self denial to do without something that will lend background to ones charm, but the time is not long and the debts of honour must be paid.

There is another thought, too, that wives and mothers will appreciate. The success of the Victory Loan makes for Prosperity. Steady employment is dependent upon prosperity. Without prosperity uncertainty will follow.

Hence Canada sounds a clarion call to her daughters for their aid in making an abundant success of the Victory Loan 1919.

London, Nov. 1.—In the house of commons yesterday, the under secretary of state for the colonies informed Perry Hurd that payment to Reuter's in respect to the imperial news service hitherto sent to Canada, would not continue after October 31, but the question of continuing the imperial service on similar lines was under consideration with the Canadian government.

The under secretary added that payment to enable Reuter's to meet the actual expenditure in sending an amplified cable service to other parts of the Empire had been approved till December 31.

The total loss to the government funds involved in the imperial news service was, after October 31, at the rate of nine thousand pounds per annum, part of which was met by the government and part by other British administrations interested.

ONE EVERY MINUTE

THERE'S something about a big husky cogg trending on a little fellow's physiognomy what amuses a certain class of patrons at a rugby game. I'm sure enjoy the little tricks that time, I sure enjoy the little tricks that the sly guys pull—you know, clever, but dirty.

by, I'll confess, before the first beautiful serum began, war shouts and conflicts meant nothing in my young life. I was a solitary party, but I didn't feel strange long. I was sandwiched between Hogan the Blue, and Jim Kelly, alias Shady Bill. But when the two teams came together I lost my location, there was hand shakes all round, and on I hooted and roared till my voice sounded like an overgrown newsway's and my visage looked like a busted overcoat. I picked out a smooth-looking hero, but I didn't have him long. A big giant trailed him to earth and rammed his spiked heel into his face. Good-bye, hero! It was then I found I'd been all for the wrong side.

BRIDGEPORT DISTRICT IN FOR MILD WINTER

Special to The Toronto World. Bridgeport, Ont., Nov. 1.—If the prophecies of goose-bone prophets can be believed, we are in for a mild winter. Some of the predictions that have been issued in this vicinity by weather seers are highly interesting.

Of course, there is the old-story about the hides of animals being thin, the fact that the squirrels are not backing away any large supplies of nuts in the adjacent woodlands, and also the usual story about the bark of the trees, but along comes a farmer in the vicinity of Crystal Beach, near here, with the announcement that he is picking his second crop of strawberries. This is declared to be a sure enough sign of a mild winter.

Of all predictions, however, that regarding the goose-bone, which, it is declared, is crooked just the right way for a light winter, is declared by seers in this district, to be the surest. As no predictions have been issued to an opposite effect, it is believed that the seers have it.

BRITISH "FLAPPERS" PLAN MIGRATION

London, Nov. 1.—England's demobilized "flappers" are already turning their thoughts towards the colonies and scores of Whitehall girls have been making inquiries at the dominion emigration offices to know what prospects there are abroad.

An official woman superintendent of women's emigration had been interviewing all classes of English to go abroad. "I have had to explain to all these girls that the only positions vacant were for farm work and domestic service, but they are not only willing to go out as domestic servants but possess adequate qualifications. One young person who interviewed me yesterday produced ten years' references as domestic experience."

Asked why girls would go as servants to the colonies when so many were wanted here she replied: "To be frank, it is just English snobbery which has caused domestic work in this country to be stigmatized. Take a typical case of a suburban mother with two daughters. One becomes a clerk and is an expert in the family; the other a domestic servant, who gets a good living and can help support her mother. But she has to withstand the criticism of the other sister and eventually seeks a situation abroad, where the spirit of household servitude is very different."

GOVERNMENT OUT; DRURY IS CALLED

Lieutenant-Governor Hendrie Communicates With Leader of United Farmers.

"Sir William Hearst today tendered to the lieutenant-governor his resignation and that of the government. His honor has communicated with E. C. Drury, who will, it is understood, be asked to undertake the task of forming a new government."

The foregoing statement was given out by Sir William Hearst at parliament buildings on Saturday morning. The Ontario premier personally placed the resignation of himself and his colleagues in the hands of Sir John Hendrie, who subsequently stated that he had telegraphed to E. C. Drury, the Farmers' leader, to come to his office on Monday.

Sir William Hearst will, of course, carry on the government until Mr. Drury is ready to assume control.

Drury Returns Monday. Mr. Drury had already arranged to return to Toronto from his home near Barrie on Monday morning, so that he might be able to see the lieutenant-governor without delay. He will come back, it is stated, with his cabinet slate in his pocket, and be prepared to take over the government within a very short time.

In the latter respect, Mr. Drury and Sir William Hearst came to a mutual understanding last week, to the effect that when one was ready to come out the other would be prepared to get in.

"R. J." Not for Cabinet. R. J. Fleming, manager of the Toronto Railway Company, was the last man to shake hands with Sir William Hearst, just as the latter came out of his office on his way to tender his resignation to Sir John Hendrie. Mr. Fleming expressed his regret that the Ontario premier was leaving office, and afterwards jocularly informed the newspapers that, although he was the original U.F.O. he was not looking for a cabinet or any other position.

Father Sudden, Morrison Says. "We had not anticipated anything like this," said J. J. Morrison, U.F.O. secretary, when he learned of the Hearst resignation. "There's no occasion for a rush. We are not contemplating any ugliness from anybody. We feel there will be an honest attempt to carry on the government. Mr. Drury made no arrangements for that eventuality."

POSSIBLE TO EXTEND T. AND N. O. RAILROAD. Survey Party Returns From Trip Thru the North Country.

The survey party which was sent out last spring by the T. & N. O. to find a route from Cochrane to James Bay for a possible extension of the railway were obliged to abandon their work, owing to their failure to secure adequate help for packing supplies, and have returned to North Bay. The Indians who were engaged for this work proved unsatisfactory.

The party covered half the distance to James Bay, or about 100 miles. The job will be completed next year. Engineers taken, who were in charge of the party, is now preparing a report on the season's work, and this will be published in course of a couple of months.

It is understood that the surveyors found a pretty fair route over the first 75 miles, but beyond that the country was too rough to make a road. The route thru this district, it is said, will be difficult, but quite possible.

CITY'S COAL SUPPLY. Property Commissioner Chisholm has assigned a member of his department to make a survey of the city's coal supply of soft coal. He will commence a survey of public institutions on Monday and a report on the situation will be made in a few days.

Mr. Earnest Clark, Police Officer, 338 King St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"For three years I suffered from nervousness and sleeplessness. I believe my condition was brought about by overwork. I had frequent headaches, neuralgic pains and twitching of nerves and muscles. I had indigestion, was short of breath and easily tired. I commenced a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and seven boxes of this medicine cured me of all my symptoms. I am now feeling one hundred per cent. better than I was, and have to thank Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the good health I am now enjoying."

DOLLAR DOZEN ASKED FOR NEW LAID EGGS

Shoppers at St. Lawrence's Market on Saturday received the stunning intelligence from the complacent farmers and their equally complacent wives that strictly new laid eggs were selling at $1 a dozen. It mattered not that the housewives threatened and cajoled, spoke darkly of the fair price committee and the reprisals which might be expected, but they eventually dug down and produced the price asked. Other prices ranged from 80 to 95 cents, but they were not guaranteed.

Many city stores were selling fresh eggs at 63 cents per dozen, but they had no strictly new laid to offer. Others had strictly new laid at 90 cents.

TO PROBE STRIKE, DESPITE PROTEST

Inquiry Into Street Car Tie-Up is to Be Further Prosecuted.

The enquiry into the responsibility for the electricians' strike of Sept. 3, will be resumed on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. This date was agreed upon at a conference this morning between Judge Barron, James Gunn, Mr. Corley and representatives of the Toronto Street Railway Company.

"In these investigations the same responsibility rests on me as on counsel and I have to delve into matters," stated Judge Barron with reference to the statement of James Gunn that he was not proceeding fairly in delving into the affairs of the union. "I think that you will do me justice to say that again and again I have declared that the affairs of the union might be investigated only so far as they affected the question of the strike. I have all the powers of a judge, and the court rule is that anything bearing on the issue which is asked by either counsel must be given."

James Gunn stated that there was no intention of reflecting on the judge's fairness, but that during the enquiry some of the questions could only have been asked with the purpose of securing information on which could be used in the event of another strike taking place. He added that, from such interference with this, trades unionism had to be protected. "We think, too," said Mr. Gunn, "that the government is wrong in investigating a strike after it has taken place. I will tell you frankly that we intend to fight it and we have been sent here to object."

B. H. Symes, who appeared for the Toronto Street Railway, denied that any questions had been prompted by animus. He said that in all the questions there had been a effort not to find what was the private business of the union, but to ask only what had a bearing on the cause of the strike.

Clarkson, liquidator of the Standard Reliance Mortgage Corporation, announced on Saturday that it was expected that all the properties of the old company would be transferred to a new company at the beginning of next week. PULLED OUT GUN TO SCARE OFFICER Excitement Caused at King Edward Hotel by Alleged Sneak Thief.

Pointing a revolver at Detective Bart Cronin standing in the lobby of the King Edward hotel Saturday afternoon, Arthur Freeman ran thru the revolving doors to King street and after a charge of several blocks, during which time shots were fired by the police, Freeman was captured in a lane in the rear of the post office. Many women standing in the hotel became frightened at the sight of Freeman fleeing from the hotel with a revolver directed in front of him. Making his way past the hysterical women, Cronin ran after his fugitive, but was delayed many seconds by the revolving doors.

Freeman crossed King and went north on Toronto street. Just above the taxi stand he stumbled and fell. He hurriedly picked up his gun, and cutting across the east side of the street he turned east to go on Adelaide street. Detectives McConnell, McMahon and Plainclothesmen Sullivan and Knight were talking on the corner when they saw Freeman running along with the revolver in his hand. They cornered him off with their revolvers and forced him to turn north in a lane. Plainclothesman Sullivan called to Freeman to drop his gun, but Freeman did not do so and Sullivan opened fire, the shot burying in the ground, where Sullivan had directed his shot. Constable Pillinger was in the lane and he took hold of Freeman while the detectives hounded him.

Freeman is now locked up in Court street station charged with the theft of two fur-lined overcoats from the Robert Simpson store. He is also charged with pointing a loaded revolver at the police.

It is alleged that two days ago Freeman, an alleged sneak thief, entered Simpson's store and stole a lined overcoat valued at $200 from one of the racks. Saturday afternoon it is charged Freeman returned and stole a second coat. He was followed to the hotel, where it was discovered he was registered. Cronin accompanied by two employees of the store went to the hotel to arrest Freeman. As Cronin approached him, he whipped out the gun and after flashing it across a detective's face made a bolt for the front door.

Examined in the police station, Freeman gave his age as 21, and said he was born in Calgary. He had $42 in cash on him and a number of printed cards of a man living in the United States. The Colt revolver was one issued by the United States army. It was fully loaded. The two alleged stolen coats were found in his hotel room.

SOFT COAL SHIPMENTS HAVE BEEN RESTRICTED

U. S. Government Passes Drastic Order—Affecting Canada.

From today until the big coal strike in the States is settled, soft coal will be shipped into Canada only for public utilities, hospitals, food manufacturers and newspaper publishers.

H. A. Harrington, Ontario fuel commissioner, says stocks in Ontario are fair, and he anticipates no serious shortage unless the strike is unexpectedly prolonged. To the manufacturers, however, who have only a few weeks' supply and who do not come under the "priority" publishing, the strike will be more or less alarming.

The fuel commissioner has wired to the mayors of Ontario towns and cities to make surveys of their requirements to be forwarded to Dr. Garfield, who has charge of soft coal distribution in the United States.

ENGINEER CRUSHED BENEATH LOCOMOTIVE

Engineer Frank Bignell was seriously injured Saturday morning when he was crushed beneath a C.P.R. engine at the Union stock yards. Bignell, the police said, was under the locomotive, oiling up, when the engine, in a mysterious manner, started to move slowly and as it traveled gathered momentum. A yard man standing close by mounted the engine and brought it to a standstill, but not until it had dragged Bignell several feet. Bignell lives at 81 Clendenan avenue. He was removed to the Western Hospital.

GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS HAVE PLENTY OF COAL

The strike of the miners in the United States soft coal mines will have little, if any, effect on the Canadian National Railways locally unless it continues for any considerable time. D. B. Hanna, president of the system, stated to The World Saturday that so far as the coal supply was concerned the railway was stocked up for some time to come and had enough to carry it over a period of at least three months. "We are in a very happy condition," he said.

BROUGHT BODIES HOME.

A Panorama of the Entire War ---Pulsing With Great Deeds, Big Sacrifice and Fine Success

WHEN the god of war stretched his hand across Europe and gathered almost the entire world into the seething cauldron of conflict—What a story it makes, what an interest it holds for all time. And our own sons and brothers in the midst of it—an atom perhaps of the whole, but the deciding factor in many of the hardest fought and most crucial battles of the war. Told by Col. Nasmith, himself an eye-witness and possessing an enviable war record, this splendid history of Canada's part and the entire war, is the one great story of the war you will feel you must possess and one you will never tire reading.

Men Who Know Say: "Read the Book"

Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Commander of the Canadian Army Corps, says: "To me it seems a good thing that soldiers like Col. George Nasmith, C.M.G., should record what they themselves have seen on the battlefields of France and Flanders. It is almost impossible to recover the spirit of past years; official histories, though correct in fact, often lack the personal touch of the eye witness. I, therefore, welcome this work, and confidently recommend it to the Canadian public."

Brig.-Gen. C. H. Mitchell says: "It is a splendid feature of the War, especially insofar as the Canadian services are concerned, and is full of many references to incidents of local interest, besides those features of scientific interest, with which the writer is particularly familiar."

Hon. H. J. Cody, Minister of Education, says: "A very comprehensive and valuable summary of the course of the great struggle. A book like this may do much to strengthen sound, patriotic sentiment."

Hon. Mr. Justice W. R. Riddell says: "A vivid and accurate account that should be read by all who desire to know what our Canadian boys did and—more important still—what they were and are."

A Returned Officer of the Third Battalion says: "It strikes me as being the book on the war for which I have long been looking."
