HAMILTON NEWS

HAMILTON FACES A BIG OVERDRAFT

Nearly All the Committees Have ϵ eeded Their Appropriations.

VICTORY LOAN DRIVE

Shield to Bear Honor Roll Erected in City Hall Still Blank.

Hamilton, Dec. 1.—That Controller T. M. Wright knew of what he spoke when he objected so strongly to promiscuous salary increases and willy-nilly grants and expenditure was amply proven yesterday by the announcement that the city would wind up its fiscal year with a substantial overdraft. At the beginning of the year only a shoe lace was left to work on, but some controllers, forgetful of this, sanctioned every expenditure that was recommended. Many times in the past few months the mayor has hinted of an overdraft on the horizon, and from a reliable source yesterday came the information that it would be of surprising proportions. Nearly all of the committees, with the exception of the works committee, are already over their appropriations and the works committee has but a scant margin on which to close out the last month of the year.

Civic Employees Bought Well.
If all citizens had been as patriotic as the city hall employees the attainment of Hamilton's objective would have been assured. A. P. Kaszpe, city hall campaign organizer, announced yesterday that practically 38 per cent of the employees had subscribed. Members of the board of control, who made it easy for the employees by arranging to have the city buy the bonds out right and then deduct a small amount from the pay envelope each week, also set a good example. The city will retain possession of the bonds until they are paid for by the employees. In the event of an employee leaving he will be given a cheque for all that he has paid on his bonds, with interest at 5 1/2 per cent.

Honor Roll Remains Blank.
Late in 1914, when Hamilton had sent several thousand of her sons overseas, a costly shield was erected in the lobby of the city hall and marked "Honor Roll." The intention was to inscribe upon it the names of those heroic Hamilton boys who gave their lives for freedom's cause. Three years later the board is still there and still devoid of names. Members of the council claim it was an oversight.

No Word Yet.
Enquiries yesterday elicited the information that no word has been heard from the Dominion railway board relative to the application of the T. H. and B. for permission to extend its road.

Bent on Breaking the Continental Record.
Bent on breaking the continental record of holding the largest number of bonds in proportion to the population, this city, which up to present time last night had subscribed $10,053,750 towards the Victory Loan appeal, will be the scene of a superbman effort on the part of the army of canvassers to reach the objective of $12,000,000 before night, when the campaign was inaugurated.

Yesterday witnessed one of the greatest and most enthusiastic drives since the campaign was inaugurated. Canvassers covered the city until midnight. In all the sum of $1,123,250 was subscribed for the cause. It is the last chance to get behind the boys in the trenches with your dollars and the committee appeals to all in the name of humanity to give and give again today in order that Hamilton may not fall below the $15,000,000 mark.

Declared Out of Bounds.
Bootlegging among the soldiers has resulted in Lieut.-Col. Belson, O. C. of the C. E., declaring that part of the city, bounded on the east by Wellington street, on the south by Barton street and on the west by the bay and the inlets, to be out of bounds.

Veterans To Be Employed.
Owing to the Christmas rush commencing earlier at the post office than usual, 44 returned soldiers will be added to the staff, commencing Dec. 15. The wages will be $2.50 per day. Applicants should apply at once to Secretary Kaye of the soldiers' aid commission.

Will Buy Victory Bonds.
The Irish Protestant Benevolent Society will invest their entire funds in Victory bonds. This decision was reached at a well-attended meeting of the society last night, when addresses were delivered by Major O'Reilly and C. E. Kelley.

Attacked Him With Knife.
Enraged because she has been "filleted," Helena Martmick, an Italian girl, attacked Antonio Schuntari with a carving knife. The woman was taken into custody last night on a charge of assault, cutting and wounding.

Man Injured by Auto.
William Smith, 44 Stuart street, reported to the police that while driving one of Finch's motor trucks last night he knocked down F. McCallum, 62 South

Catherine street, while the latter was crossing the corner of Jackson and James streets. McCallum sustained slight injuries to his head and was driven to his home by Smith.

Auto and Car Collide.
While driving past the corner of York and Caroline streets last night, J. W. Emerson, of Dundas, drove his motor car into street car number 32. No one was injured, but the motor was damaged and the fender of the street car was knocked off.

WON DISTINCTION OVERSEAS

Another Hamiltonian has won distinction overseas. Major Frank Anderson, D.S.O., has been appointed deputy-adjutant general and which makes him second in seniority in England of the Canadian forces, he being next to the overseas minister. The appointment carries the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

REFUSED TO ACCEPT AID.

Judge Menck, the chairman of the court of revision under the Military Voters' Act for Hamilton, has refused to accept the first list handed in by J. W. Roberts from the east end of the city in the county, and will contest the general returning officer at Ottawa in reference to who has the right to receive the enumerated lists of voters in the county riding.

SCORES'S BUSINESS SUITS AT ESTATE SALE DISCOUNTS.

Time was when most men ordered their suits by the calendar—a spring suit at Easter time, a summer suit about June time, and the fall and winter suit when there was a first likelihood of a snow flurry. Today it's not just that way, for men place his order when and where he knows he can buy to best advantage, either in the choice of the woollens or the price is expecting to pay. And that is why clothing requirements and are taking the fullest advantage of Scott's late Sale, offering fine Scotch tweeds in LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE, at this Saturday—how about a little fresh sorting of your necktie collection? R. Score & Son, Limited, 17 King street west.

Keeping the Quality Up
LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE, the Most Famous Cure for Colds and Grippe, is now 10c per box. SPEAKS FOR SCHELL

Hon. George P. Graham Appears in Platform in South Oxford.

Special to The Toronto World, Ingersoll, Ont., Nov. 30.—The visit of Hon. Geo. P. Graham was heard on the political platform here tonight endorsing the candidature of Mr. S. Schell in South Oxford. The Mass Theatre was jammed to the doors and a large overflow meeting was held in the town hall. Dr. J. M. Rogers presided, and Malcolm Schell and Major Buchanan also spoke.

The address by Mr. Graham was a resume of the work of the Dominion administration and a presentation of his own position, as well as that of Mr. Schell in regard to conscription. He claimed there was interference with the Military Service Act, stating that there was a greater desire to get men to the polis than to the trenches. In this connection he alluded to the appointment of Gen. Masbuhm. Many ladies attended the meeting.

WOULD GLADLY STEP DOWN

Special to The Toronto World, Waterloo, Nov. 30.—W. E. Weichel addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting at Waterloo tonight. He was supported by Dr. Housheer, Rev. C. A. Sykes, J. G. Mahon of Moose Jaw, Sask., and Alderman Robbins of Toronto. Mr. Weichel put the issue of winning the war before his hearers in no uncertain terms. Speaking of the disturbances of last Saturday night, when the prime minister was insulted, he said: "If I could undo the wrong of last Saturday night I would gladly step down and forego all the honors you can bestow upon me. Let every working man go home and make up his mind that we must stand true to British institutions or we will answer for it."

Our Canadian Authors

THE Book Department is a busy place these days. Here you will find all sorts and conditions of men and women drifting in and out of the great Department. Near the centre of the great Department is a square library table, whose upright corners are the Canadian flag. And all day long this table is being visited by a host of people. One can hardly imagine a more interesting collection than that of our own writers, covering so wide a range of thought and material that by merely reading the titles the observer must realize that no longer can the charge be laid against us of narrow vision or provincialism.

To mention only a few of these Canadian books, there are among the novels: "The Major," by Ralph Connor, that charming story, "Up the Hill and Over," by Isabel Ecclestone Mackay, "Anne's House of Dreams," by L. M. Montgomery, "The Inner Door," a story of Capital Labor, by Alan Sullivan, and "More Letters From Billy," that delightful Canadian soldier. These have recently been published, but we find also such an old favorite as the first Canadian historic novel, which was written by Major John Richardson and published in London, England, nearly one hundred years ago. It is called "Wacousta," and appears in a new dress with fine illustrations by W. Jeffers.

There are also "Secret Trails," by Charles G. D. Hertz, "Wild Animal Ways," by Ernest Thompson Seton, "The Wandering Dog," by Marshall Saunders, a reprint of "Old Man Savarin Stories," by E. W. Thompson—all classics in their way—and a good holiday edition at the of the popular novels of the Rev. R. E. Knowles.

In poetry we shall all welcome the latest book by Robert Norwood, "The Piper and the Reed," in which music and color abound, and Heart of the Hills, by Albert Durrant Watson, with its thoughtful message. In a heroic little volume, called "A Canadian Twilight," by Bernard Freeman Trotter, are verses which show the touch of the true poet, written by a young soldier who gave his life at the Somme last May. He has been compared with Rupert Brooke and Alan Seeger. There are the ever-popular "Rhymes of a Red Cross Man," by Robert W. Service (of which the illustrated edition is now obtainable at $2.00), and "Kitchener," that poem by Robert Kitchener, which sent its author's name around the world, giving title to a volume of his poems. These are only a few of the Canadian gifts in verse and in fiction which you may choose from this decorated library table.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The Germans with strong forces made a heavy counter-attack yesterday against the British on a wide front near Cambrai, failing to get on in the region of Bourlon village and wood, but penetrating the British lines as far as Lavacquerre and Gouzeaucourt in another place. The British launched immediate counter-attacks and drove the enemy from Lavacquerre, Gouzeaucourt, and a ridge west of the village. At other points the Germans advanced. This action is proceeding. It looks like the opening of a tremendous struggle. It must be remembered that the British approach to the Berlin-Fair trunk railway has compelled the enemy to give battle.

In Palestine the Turks have been making demonstrations from a point near Jerusalem to the Mediterranean Sea. They launched an attack at only one point, Neveh Somel, and the British man artillery is steadily destroying the mosque containing Samuel's tomb, a holy place since revered by Christian, Jew and Muslim. In a brilliant outpost affair, British troops, 50 strong, attacked the Turks, 100 strong, on the Nahr-el-Aziz, killed 50 and captured many more. The demonstrativeness of the enemy may signify that Von Falkenhayn has taken command. He may attempt a counter-offensive.

The letter of Lord Lansdowne, which calls for a revision of allied war aims and a negotiated peace, has created a sensation, but in view of Lord Lansdowne's prominence in diplomacy, it may well be a diplomatic move to influence Russia. Under the surface affairs in that country seem to have taken a more favorable turn for the allies. A distinct change has come over the propaganda of Washington. This had been preparing public opinion for an open breach with

This will help relieve the situation materially.

RECIPE TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

This Home-made Mixture Darkens Gray Hair and Makes it Soft and Glossy.

To a half pint of water add:

- Bay Rum 1 oz.
- Oriole Compound a small box
- Glycerine 1-4 oz.

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost and mix them yourself. Apply to the hair once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used.

A half-pint should be enough to darken the gray hair and make it soft and glossy. It is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. It should make a gray-haired person look 20 years younger.

Toronto Must Have $12,000,000 More By Midnight To-night

15 King Street East,
December 1st, 1917

Dear Toronto:

You have made a magnificent showing — it is a gratification and pride to know that up to midnight last night you had subscribed $63,000,000 to Canada's Victory Loan—represented by the subscriptions of 101,467 of Toronto's patriotic citizens — and I repeat — it is magnificent.

But, Toronto, you set an objective of $75,000,000, and you have a name that is historical for going through to the limit with what you have set your mind to do. To sustain your reputation, this is what you must do to-day:

You must subscribe for $12,000,000 in Victory Bonds.

The eye of all Canada is on Toronto to-day — there are those who may have treated Toronto's objective as a boast — but there are those who have accepted it as a PROMISE TO PAY — and will rejoice with us in its achievement.

What will your answer be?

Will it be the full $75,000,000, and more — or will Toronto fall short? Will Toronto fail to reach the goal?

Toronto fail! With your help, loyal citizens — NEVER!

But — apart from the pride of reaching the objective — the sentiment in being a winner — there is the need — the great need — for every dollar that Toronto can raise — that you can spare — to help win the war.

For to-day the war clouds make us sit back and wonder just when Victory will come — but it will come — and all the sooner with your help — YOUR DOLLARS.

Canada's fighting men might well be war-weary — but — Canada's fighting men will fight on and add glory to glory in bringing in world peace — if you will fulfill your pledge to stand behind them.

To-day will be the last opportunity you will have to buy Victory Bonds and express in dollars your determination to support our boys with food, clothing and other supplies. Do not make it a matter of how little you can buy — but how much you can sacrifice — the utmost limit you can do to help finish the war — and bring the boys home.

I believe that Toronto will meet her obligation — reach her objective — to the full — that when Big Ben strikes midnight it will be — TORONTO — $75,000,000.

Sincerely yours,

Honorary Chairman, Toronto Committee

SOONER REPUDIATE NATIONAL DEBT

Than Obligations to Men at the Front, Declares Premier.

By a Staff Reporter.

Peterboro, Ont., Nov. 30. — Seven thousand people were stirred to a high pitch of enthusiasm in Peterboro armories tonight by the spirited addresses of Sir Robert Borden, Hon. N. W. Rowell, General Sir Sam Hughes, and Captain J. H. Burnham, Unionist for West Peterboro. They gave unqualified support to Union government and its war-time policy. Premier Borden brought forth terrific applause when he declared that as long as he remained prime minister of Canada there would never be a referendum on whether the Military Service Act should be enforced. Sergt.-Major A. Whistley, secretary of Peterboro great war veterans, in a forceful address said they had been criticized for taking part in the contest. But he considered that this was no ordinary election, and said they were going to stand by the government that had stood by the men overseas.

Sir Sam Hughes, discussing the Union government, said it was true that it had not "had a scrap yet," but judging by the incident at Kitchener he thought it was time the "boys got their sleeves rolled up."

Sir Sam was not in favor of granting wholesale exemption to sons of farmers. He wanted to know by what right could any farmer who had four or five hundred acres say that his three or four sons should stay at home while the boys of poor parents had had to go overseas and give up their lives for their country.

Borden and Rowell. Sir Robert Borden dealt principally with the need for reinforcements and declared that so long as he was prime minister of Canada there would never be a referendum.

"Now is the time of salvation!" cried a voice. "My friend says now is the time. He has put it very cogently; I firmly agree with him," commented the premier.

Hon. Mr. Rowell detailed the various steps taken by the government to curtail the profits of cold storage plants and packing houses, the abolition of the patronage list, and an amendment to the outside civil service laws. These reforms were just instances of what the government intended to do to curtail profits and bring about much-needed reforms. The government was committed to the conscription of wealth as well as the conscription of man power in order that Canada could properly play its part in prosecuting the war to victory.

Before the meeting was held Premier Borden met two deputations at the Empress Hotel. One was from the farmers of the district asking that the appeal boards in connection with the exemption tribunals be more generally distributed, and the other represented labor, requesting that the government take over the patriotic fund.

To the farmers Sir Robert promised to consider their request and to the labor men he promised to deal with the patriotic fund at the next session of parliament.

SEVEN ALDERMEN ASKED TO RESIGN

Kitchener Board of Trade Passes a Unanimous Resolution.

Special to The Toronto World. Kitchener, Nov. 30.—The board of trade of this city at the largest and most representative meeting ever held in its history this evening unanimously passed a resolution requesting the resignation of the seven members of the city council who voted in favor of the motion on Monday afternoon to take no action in the matter of expressing regret and apologizing for the insult to Sir Robert Borden at the Unionist mass meeting here last Saturday night. The criticism of the aldermen was severe, the consensus of opinion being that while the Canadian people could overlook the disturbances of last Saturday night, they could not forgive the council for practically giving its sanction to the disturbances. This was termed as the "deal" and the meeting enthusiastically applauded the proposal that the "deal" be smashed.

WOMEN NOT FITTED FOR MACHINE SHOPS

A warning about the results of employing women in men's trades on account of the war was issued last night by Wm. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, in addressing the Toronto association at the Labor Temple. He declared that in Great Britain both the government and the people generally were beginning to realize that to have women go into machine shops and do similar heavy labor was tearing down the health of the womanhood of the country and that civilization would suffer thereby.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 1

The Last Big Chance.

Toronto has the greatest task of her career before her today in completing the quota assigned her for the Victory Loan. That total is $75,000,000, a sum which bears a $20,000,000 handicap. It came about in this way. Last year Toronto raised about $45,000,000, but of this amount $20,000,000 had come from the United States. This was not considered in lifting the present year's total to $75,000,000 when $55,000,000 would have been a more equitable allotment.

But Toronto is not going to balk because of a handicap. The full sum is going to be made up, although the men who must put up the last $12,000,000 which has to be raised before 12 o'clock tonight must sweat blood. Montreal has put up about the same amount as Toronto so far, although Montreal has been assisted by two subscriptions of $10,000,000 each from the Sun Life Co. and the C. P. R. With one of these contributions Toronto would have been far ahead. Toronto has the spirit to go ahead anyway. It will take a great effort, and everybody must help, but the citizens must make up the total of $75,000,000 today or surrender her boast of supremacy.

Toronto being the largest holder of the old loans is also somewhat of a handicap, but those who have already invested what they thought they could spare are looking around and figuring ahead to see how much more they can spare before May next. Many people forget that the loan is payable in instalments, and if they have a settled income the best thing they can do is to save as much as they can of it, and buy bonds as the best way to do it.

Some people wonder why so much effort is being made to double the subscription asked for to the loan. There is an idea about that all the money will not be taken by the government, but allotments made, as was the case elsewhere. The government, however, will accept every dollar subscribed. If there is not $300,000,000 raised now there will have to be another loan in six months. The best thing for the people to do is to put up the money now, and let the Germans see what happy little lenders the North American people are when necessary.

That the raising of the twelve millions needed today is not an impossible task is the assured belief of the committee in charge. One of the committees had $2,500,000 in sight last night, and among others a total of $8,000,000 was considered fairly certain. The other $8,000,000 must be put up by the general public. It is hoped that all who have already subscribed will give a little more. If it is only another $50 it will help. Every new bond subscribed today for whatever amount will lessen the deficit. All the money that is subscribed will be needed, and will be returned to the country in circulation very soon. It will be lent to our allies to pay for goods and material made in our manufactories and native to our soil. We shall all be the better off for having loaned the money. The big subscribers are also doing what they can. One who is down for $1,000,000 will make it $1,050,000. The banks will remain open till six o'clock to facilitate the business, and there will be no excuse on account of inaccessible funds.

All the people who have left it over till the last day, in the hope, perhaps, that their loan would not be required, now have their chance. What they have needed, and if a canvasser has not called upon them let them not stand on ceremony or on the order of their going, but go voluntarily to the nearest bond office and subscribe according to ability.

The record for subscriptions is held by Detroit, where there were 200,000 subscribers out of a population of 800,000, or one in four. Toronto's record is 1 in 4.6, but today should break all records. The people who have not yet subscribed should turn out and beat the record of numbers. The people who have already subscribed must increase their amounts and beat the record of totals. We can put Toronto on the map once more as a record-breaker, even if we have not so many millionaires as Montreal. It is the common, everyday people that are relied upon to make the big record today in fifties, hundreds and thousands.

This is the best win-the-war business that anybody can do until they vote on the 17th. It is to invest your spare cash on the best security at the highest interest.

Lord Lansdowne's Letter.

Lord Lansdowne's letter has excited a great deal more attention than it merits, and had it been signed by a third-rate member of parliament would never have been heard about. There is nothing new in it for either side, and the fact that the German papers print it with joy and their people hail it as a sign of a disposition for peace in Britain only indicates their eagerness to clutch at a straw in their desperation as they feel the international waters closing over their heads.

There is nothing in the letter to console the Germans beyond the pious hope that the war should be ended as speedily as possible. This is, of course, the same pious aspiration that inspires the kaiser and his following. We may doubt the piety, but we need have no doubt about the sincerity of his desire for peace. It is the result of pressure.

Similarly the desire of Lord Lansdowne for peace is probably also the result of pressure. He has large estates and vast revenues, and the demands of war in the shape of taxes bear heavily on his most noble shoulders. He is also an aristocrat of the bluest blue, and the development of democracy under the stress of war is a phenomenon which he could scarcely fail to note. No doubt the spectacle produces qualms in the most noble bosom.

For the rest his thought and even his language parallels that of the representative German statesmen. He thinks the "wanton prolongation" of the war would be a crime. Von Hertling, the German chancellor, spoke of the "criminal lengthening" of the war by the allies at the same time that Lord Lansdowne's letter was being published. Certain types of mind think alike. That Lord Lansdowne does not represent the British mind in this matter is evident from the utterances of the British press. Yet it is not so much what he says that matters as the inopportune time in which he says it, and the assumption that he does represent a considerable British sentiment.

He admits that "the enemy have, the reluctantly challenged, refused to formulate their war aims, and have limited themselves to vague and apparently insincere professions of readiness to negotiate with us." Yet he would have us join the Russian Bolsheviks and ask for an armistice. He has altogether forgotten President Wilson's declaration that it is impossible to deal with those whose word is worthless. "The force of the argument cannot be gainsaid," as his lordship admits on the same score of insincerity.

We are all agreed that we want to inflict a signal defeat upon the central powers, "not out of mere vindictiveness, but in the hope of saving the world from the recurrence of the calamity which has befallen this generation." To end the war for this purpose honorably would be a great achievement. A suspension of hostilities at present would not achieve this, and what other object than a suspension of hostilities Lord Lansdowne's letter can have it is difficult to imagine. It will certainly not induce Germany to sue for peace. He is satisfied himself the next war would be "even more dreadful than this. The prostitution of science for the purpose of pure destruction is not likely to stop short." Yet he thinks that "it should be possible to secure posterity against the repetition of such an outrage as that of 1914. If the powers will under solemn pact bind themselves to submit future disputes to arbitration," and so forth. But this is the whole point for which the war is being fought. Germany refused arbitration because the kaiser thought he was going to conquer the world. As long as the kaiser or the crown prince or any Hohenzollern trained in the same tradition rules in Germany solemn pacts would be treated as the solemn pact with Belgium was treated, as a ruse and a stratagem behind which to prepare to overwhelm Europe. President Wilson and the people of the United States are awake to the kind of people they have to deal with at the head of the German Government. We could deal with the German people, but not with those persons. Lord Lansdowne has more faith in the aristocracy, because it is aristocracy, than in the democracy.

Of the questions in dispute he admits that "the reparation due to Belgium remains, and must always remain, in the front rank." But Germany does not admit that any reparation is due to Belgium. Nor is Germany willing to evacuate Belgium except at the point of the bayonet. If reparation remains in the front rank, and Germany refuses even to withdraw from Belgium, will the most noble marquis say who is wantonly prolonging the war?

Another admission, and a cardinal one, is "that the German Government has contrived, probably with success, to misrepresent the aims of the allies, which are supposed to include the destruction of Germany and the imposition upon her of a form of government to be decided by her enemies, her destruction as a great commercial community, and her exclusion from the free use of the seas." If Germany is indulging in all these misrepresentations, as Lord Lansdowne admits, and as there is no doubt, why is he wantonly prolonging the war, and for what purpose? Germany is under the thumb of the kaiser, who is now fighting for the preservation of himself and his dynasty. He is a clever as well as a wicked man, and Lord Lansdowne's proposal is that we should treat with him. If it is not that, it has no meaning.

Victory means the overthrow of the Hohenzollerns and the erection of a new form of government by the German people. What that form may be it is for the German people and not for us to decide. But as long as they stick to the kaiser we must continue to fight. Russia is telling them the same thing. President Wilson made it so clear that his statement was regarded as offensive. If that point were settled our other aims in the war might be discussed. But as long as Lord Lansdowne wants to save the kaiser and the German aristocracy he is wasting his most noble ink.

A Grateful Aviator.

Editor World: A soldier recipient of many noble and generous kindnesses at the hands of those admirable ladies engaged in the multiple branches of the Y.M.C.A. endeavors that embrace the soldiers' well-being and comfort would, in the fulness of a profound gratitude, make public expression and acknowledgment of the tremendous indebtedness and deep appreciation. To have actually enjoyed the favors of these Samaritan gentlewomen of Toronto, is to have tasted the cognance of their goodness, kindness and immense charity, to have marvelled at their never-tiring patience, unflagging zeal, and wholesomeness of personal charm and spirit that has ever graced their kindly attentions and considerations. We thank-clad legions upon whom have been showered everlasting gratefulness, that in our memories we shall never carry a cameo of the sweetness, kindness and greatness of their hearts. Our wishes to them are that they may ever dwell in the light of a supreme and lasting happiness, and share generously in the most bounteous of heaven's favors.

Princess Arthur of Connaught never forgets the birthday of his intimate friends, and is generous in her gifts. Highness has to a certain extent kept it up during the war. But the people who can be described as intimates of the Princess Arthur are not very numerous—a select little band of about a dozen—so she cannot be accused of ignoring the demands of duty. The princess has a happy knack of finding out exactly the kind of gifts process of most admire, and then getting duplicates of such articles made to give away.

When Dr. Van Dyke made his speech at the Lafayette anniversary celebration he closed it with the following stirring words:

"Give us a name to fill the mind
 With the shining thoughts that lead mankind,
 The glory of learning, the joy of art,
 A name that tells of a splendid part
 Of the long, long toll and the strenuous fight
 Of the human race to win its way
 From the ancient darkness into the day
 Of Freedom, Brotherhood, Equal Right—
 A name like a star, a name of light—

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well-Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"Fruit-a-tives"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicine—Will Protect You.

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the kidneys and skin are overworked in their efforts to rid the blood of this poison.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes indigestion, loss of appetite and disturbed stomach. It may produce headaches and sleeplessness. It may irritate the kidneys and bring on pain in the back, rheumatism, gout and rheumatic pains. It is the chief cause of eczema, and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure auto-intoxication or self-poisoning, as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

Mrs. VanKoughnet pointed out that to elect a Union government was the most patriotic work any woman could do now, and every woman who wanted to have a Union government elected must make other women understand the vital importance of the work before them. ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING FOR MAJOR COCKBURN

Soldiers' Candidate Received Warm Welcome at Masonic Hall, Balsam Avenue, Last Night.

Perhaps the most inspiring and enthusiastic of the meetings held by the soldiers' candidate, Major E. G. Cockburn, was that held last evening at Masonic Hall, Balsam avenue, in the course of which John Ross Robertson, a stirring orator of the candidate, emphasized the fact that the major had the complete endorsement of the British Legion, the Y.M.C.A. Association of Toronto, which fact was further confirmed in a communication received from General Secretary W. E. Turley of the G. V. V. A. by the meeting's committee on Greenwood avenue, yesterday afternoon. Other stirring words were directly appealing to the women of the East York riding and definitely discounting the unfounded rumor that Major Cockburn was a Laurier man were given by Capt. W. D. Patterson, G. Tyler, W. Underwood and Geo. Shields, who presided. The candidate himself addressed a few words, and the meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the speakers of the evening.

WILL SUPPORT BORDEN

In His Win-the-War Policy Declares Labor Candidate at Suburb.

Special to The Toronto World, Sudbury, Nov. 30.—Chas. Harrison, labor and designated Unionist candidate in the riding of Nipissing, declared at a large meeting here tonight that he was in complete accord with the win-the-war policy of Sir Robert Borden. While untrammelled by political trifles, he pleased himself to exercise his efforts, there was no choice for the men at the government and see that the men at the government were Hon. Hugh Guthrie, F. G. Macdaniel and Chas. McCrea.

DEATH BY DROWNING.

That Samuel Lwaghenbaum came to his death by drowning while in the employ of the Canadian Stewart Company was the gist of the verdict handed out by the jury investigating the death of the man at the morgue last night. The jury added a rider to the effect that they found the same care was not taken by the company to ensure the safety of the men. Coroner G. Russell conducted the enquiry.

ALREADY JUSTIFIED ITS FORMATION

Canada Has Real Union Government, Says Premier Borden at Millbrook.

Staff Correspondent.
 Millbrook, Nov. 30.—Not since Sir John A. Macdonald visited Millbrook 40 years ago and won the plaudits of its citizens has been extended to a statesman of Canada a reception equal to that accorded to Sir Robert Borden this afternoon, when he visited the riding of Durham County in support of the candidature of Hon. N. W. Rowell. From more than 25 miles around Millbrook the electors of Durham gathered in the town hall and armories and gave their unanimous support to the Union government and its win-the-war policy.

Despite inclement weather both buildings were taxed to capacity, and many who were desirous of hearing equal expounded had to content themselves with joining in the welcome to Sir Robert Borden.

The premier was accompanied by Hon. Mr. Rowell, J. J. Preston, M.L.A. for East Durham, and Mrs. Plumtree, wife of Canon Plumtree of Toronto, who delivered addresses at both gatherings. Sir Robert gave a clear exposition of his platform, and made an urgent appeal for unity. Mr. Rowell had a splendid welcome, and created a fine impression by his presentation of the great need for reinforcements for Canada's army. Mrs. Plumtree had a word of advice for the women on how they should make use of their votes, and Mr. Preston urged the electors to rally behind Mr. Rowell.

Sir Robert Borden said that the issues at stake in this election must appeal with special force to the people. And as the war was being waged against barbarism, it seemed to him the women should take a deep interest in what they should do on December 17.

Canada did at the present time a real Union government. He had addressed many audiences, but no man or woman had ever told him why there should not be a Union cabinet. The new government had performed notable work already, and even if it were defeated on December 17 the fact that it had abolished the patronage list had justified its formation. Sir Robert fully explained his war-time policy. He realized that the industrial country must be maintained, and he wished to tell the women that the time might come when they would be called upon to present the same sacrifice and, perhaps, the same duties as their fathers in the old land. In enforcing the provisions of the Military Service Act, he said, General Mewburn would be present, and he would see that justice was done to all, and that it would be applied fearlessly in every part of Canada.

Plumtree, wife of Canon Plumtree of Toronto, told of the work of women since the war started, and appealed for a continuance of their effort in support of the men in the trenches. She said that the women of Canada were actuated by their love for their men in the trenches and so they had responded to the call to the cry for socks, but the men overseas were not now calling for socks. They were calling for feet to put into the socks.

A Fitting Celebration.
 Hon. Mr. Rowell said that there could not be a more fitting celebration of confederation than the operation of both political parties of Canada at this time. The Liberals of the country took the stand that the differences of both parties were as dust in the balance when their liberty and existence was menaced by barbarism and Prussianism. He learned with great surprise that statements had been made in the riding that Canada was made to stand the brunt of the battle by the moorland. Such statements, he declared, were part of German propaganda carried on in the United States to prevent that country from entering the war on the side of the allies. It was being done in Canada with the sole purpose of destroying the relationship between Canada and Great Britain. He did not need to tell them that these statements were false then and were false now. In the returns recently issued, Mr. Rowell stated that they showed that of the British troops at the front 70 per cent. were English, 8 Scotch, 2 Irish and 16 from the overseas dominions.

Concluding an impassioned appeal for support of the Military Service Act, Mr. Rowell asked that the people of Canada send reinforcements overseas to grip the flag released by those brave men who had fallen, and carry it on to victory, and as their forefathers did against Napoleon, until another despot was

WOMEN PASS RESOLUTION

National Council Meeting at Peterborough Determines Policy.

The executive committee of the National Council of Women of Canada met at Peterborough Wednesday and Thursday this week. Representative women from nearly every province were present. "Lady Falconer" was elected recording secretary, assisted by Mrs. Rhys Fairbairn, who was appointed corresponding secretary. Among the many resolutions passed were: To petition the postmaster general to adopt the plan of mailing now in force in the United States; to procure data regarding personal qualifications together with nature and cost of training required for entrance in vocational training schools for girls; to petition the government to make regulations that all retail establishments handling groceries and meat have prices based on the "cash and carry system"; that owing to the shortage of sugar let extravagant manufacture of confectionery be curtailed.

The executive endorsed the request of the Toronto Local Council to bring to the attention of Sir William Hearst the industries of the province assessment act of Ontario whereby widows pay full income tax and are not allowed any rebate as are men householders.

FIRE ENQUIRY ADJOURNS

Investigation into Aberdeen Chambers Blaze Not Yet Finished—More Evidence to Come.

At the third sitting of the investigation into the Aberdeen Chambers fire, held before Fire Marshal E. P. Heaton last night, several new witnesses were heard.

"Presumably you were the last person to leave the building on the night held before Fire Marshal E. P. Heaton previous to the fire," said Lieut.-Col. Greer after he had questioned Schofield.

Wm. Small, the policeman on duty in the district of the Aberdeen Chambers at the time of the fire, gave evidence to the effect that he had seen a man at the corner of Adelaide and Victoria streets about 3 o'clock in the morning, but as he did nothing to arouse Small's suspicions...

Ontario Hockey Association Annual Convention on Today

SIX-MAN HOCKEY AT O.H.A. ANNUAL

Big Hockey Association Convention This Morning—News of the Players.

The O.H.A. annual convention will be held in the Temple Building this morning. The organization, which will provide senior hockey for winter and spring, was formed at a largely-attended and enthusiastic meeting held at the M. C. A. With forty players, including many professionals that are known, and probably the many more, drawn from the league now hopes to form more than four strong teams capable of keeping up the standard of senior hockey in this city.

The officers elected were: Devonshire, Major-General J. Hughes, Brigadier-General Ruttan, Lieut.-Col. Hugh O'Shea; president, Major W. T. Howat; president, Capt. Jack Ruttan; first vice-president, Capt. Doig; second vice-president, Lieut. W. G. Atkinson; treasurer, Lieut. Stan Jackson; executive, one representative from each unit.

In his endeavor to make the league a success, the president, Major Howat, has secured the services of the Allan Cup. He remarked that there were at least forty players in the city who he knew, and that undoubtedly there were many more to choose from. He thought the players should be pooled, and the four teams could be balanced as evenly as possible, in order to give the winners the best possible game.

It was decided that only players coming under Class 1 of the Military Service Act, and who have registered, and any returned men, together with those already in the military service, are eligible to play. This means that some of the married men, who are not subject to draft, will be ineligible to play.

The veterans, or returned soldiers, had three representatives at the meeting. They are: Lieut. W. G. Atkinson, Morrison and Blinnis, former 61st Battalion, and Lieut. W. G. Atkinson, former 61st Battalion, and Lieut. W. G. Atkinson, former 61st Battalion.

Mr. G. B. Dawson of Sarnia will introduce the most important subject, the "Towers" from the line-up, and adding the following clause:

In addition to the players mentioned, each team may use an extra player as a substitute, but there shall not be more than six players on the ice at any one time during the match.

This amendment was supplemented by another, introduced by Mr. J. Ross Robertson, covering the playing of the substitute and proposing that the extra player be discarded and the following adopted in his place:

The extra player only may act as a substitute on each team during a match (making seven players altogether), and a change of players may be made any time by the substitute reporting to the referee when the referee has stopped play, but must not get on the ice while play is in progress; such substitute must be ready to play and take the position without delaying the game.

The player for whom the substitute is made must also leave the ice promptly when the substitute appears. Should any player be injured during the game, the referee may order a player to leave the ice, to equalize the teams, and the match proceed until such time as the player is ready to return. Should more than one player of one team be injured, the referee may order a player to leave the ice to equalize the teams.

A Montreal despatch says: The opening of the National Hockey League will not take place until after Christmas. The league was organized by President Frank Calder today following an exchange of telegrams with the president of the Pacific Coast League, in which the head of the western organization stated that he would not take place much before the first of the year, Dec. 28 or Jan. 1 being the probable date.

The opening of the east's new professional body, the National League, will probably be set for Dec. 28. The champion Canadians will go to Ottawa for the opening game, while Toronto Blue Shirts will meet Wanderers here. Dec. 28 has not been definitely fixed but it is the most likely opening date, President Calder said.

The western champions come east to play for the Stanley Cup this season, and with both leagues getting off to a late start, the Toronto Blue Shirts will run into the Pacific Coast League, with a five-day trip east, and a couple of days for the team to get into the visiting club, the big games will not get under way much before March 22, and a full season would run the plan is April.

The eastern body was prepared to open its season earlier, but on account of exemption difficulties over the Pacific coast players, it was decided that it is possible to get under way as early as had been planned.

FOR THE INTER-CITY TITLE ON SATURDAY

Hamilton Tigers II, winners of Hamilton City League, and Excelsior, winners of Toronto City League, will stage the return game of the inter-city championship at Scarborough on Saturday afternoon. As this will be the last game of the season all followers of the past-time would do well to try the game a visit.

The two teams are very evenly matched, as last Saturday's score would indicate, viz., 3-1. What Excelsiors lack in weight they make up in speed and the best game of the season should result. Bellwoods Park last night, the team is working fine and Manager Scanlan is confident his team will increase the two-point advantage gained in Hamilton last week.

"Billy" Stewart will bring along his strongest team and promises a battle worth a full season. Excelsiors have been hampered by a recent injury to their best player, but they have won both city championships, winning every game they have started in, with one exception. This season resulted in a draw.

In the five games played this year Excelsiors have secured 77 points, while Bellwoods have secured 72. This average is a little better than the average of the compared to an average of ten. They have only had one victory over Bellwoods against them in as many years—one each season. This is a record few teams in any city could boast of, and the deserving of public support in their endeavor to capture the inter-city championship for Toronto.

CLEAN GAME SAVS REFEREE

Referee F. F. Munro, who officiated at Woodstock, gives the University School half back credit for winning the game over the lower line of the Strath Col. legiate Institute. Play was clean throughout. Murray was injured by a solar plexus blow, but soon recovered, and remained over in Woodstock until today.

WHAT ABOUT BOXERS? ARE SLOW TO ENLIST

Pittsburg, Nov. 27.—President John K. Tener of the National League, who is known to be one of the most influential men in the history of the sport, has expressed his belief that the number of boxers enlisting to the army is small. If there is one class of men desirable in the army it is the professional boxer, and he is compensated for his long education, he is compensated from the time of his enlistment until the end of the war. And the war has proved military authorities desire boxers. The theory is the same as bayonet fighting. The boxer who now breaks into print, goes about the country yelling about big money, should pause and consider certain things.

The other members of the Williams' team never had been gloomer. Walker had drilled his men secretly and none knew it until the day of the match. At the outset of the season, Williams was without a football mentor. Just at that time Walker decided he would like to try out a job as tutor for a football squad. Back in 1914, in the days of the "Brooklyn Dodgers," Walker was one of the best players in the city. After graduation he went into business and later drifted into baseball, working his way thru the minor leagues. Unfortunately, when he got his big league tryout he had a poor arm and was sent back into the "busbs."

And then the "impossible" happened! Williams beat Rensselaer Polytechnic triumphed over Union the following week, and then came the game with Cornell. The Ithacaans averaged around 185 pounds, while Williams averaged 150. Williams triumphed about 150. Williams triumphed about 150. Williams triumphed about 150.

The football season is over and the Williams team is history, "tutor" to his brotherhood in giving the real credit for the splendid triumph of Cornell. Boynton, the aerial attack, led by Bert Williams' fame time and again.

Three months ago Fred Walker wanted a football coaching job and had a long time to look for it. He felt that the plays which he had mapped out during his spare time in the past few years would be practical and successful on a field of battle. But he had a hard time convincing the country coach, who had gone to France, and no other football coach would take the job.

SOCCER NOTES

At the Dunlop Athletic Field today, the T. and F.A. will stage the final game of the international series, the contesting teams being England and Scotland. It will be remembered that these two teams were able to draw two weeks ago, and in order to decide which should be the holder of the handsome Star Trophy another game was necessary. The teams which played in the previous game have been selected on bloc and those who saw that game will know that they are capable of putting up a great game. The Dunlop Athletic Association, on whose grounds the game is being played, have arranged for extra seating accommodation, and the favorable weather, the soccer enthusiasts of the east and west, and a good afternoon's sport. The game will be handled by Referee Sid Banks, assisted by C. M. Hall and George Mills, both well-known referees, and will be called at 2.45 p.m. sharp.

WIND UP RUGBY SEASON WITH TODAY'S GAME

The last and probably the best rugby game of the season will be staged at Scarborough Branch this afternoon. Hamilton Tigers II are bringing down their strongest aggregation in an endeavor to overcome Excelsior's two-point lead and carry the inter-city rugby championship back to Hamilton with them. These two teams met in Hamilton last Saturday and after an hour of high-class rugby, Excelsior were on the long end of a 3 to 1 score. This is a pretty fair indication of how evenly the two teams are matched.

RACE EIGHTY DAYS DURING THE YEAR

English Season Will Open at Warwick in March—The Dates.
London, Nov. 30.—The great success which attended English flat racing during the season which recently closed, brought every encouragement to owners, trainers and breeders throughout the country. In spite of many difficulties the sport was enjoyed without interfering in any way with government rules and regulations. The use of the railways was barred, but the thoroughbred jockeys and patrons of the turf journeyed to the various racourses by road, every kind of motor vehicle being used. This has resulted in a big let-up in the restrictions for next season, for which 80 days flat racing have been arranged for. The season will open up at Warwick on March 23. Birmingham has been allotted two days, Brighton two, Gatwick three, Haydock Park two, Leicester three, Lewes three, Lingfield three, Manchester five, Newmarket 25, Nottingham three, Salisbury two, Stockton three, Warwick three, Wolverhampton two and Worcester two and Windsor three. The stewards of the Jockey Club, in publishing the list of fixtures, wish to state that they submitted to the government the details of all courses on which meetings were held in 1915 and that the fixtures have been allotted with the approval of the war office, board of trade, ministry of munitions and the railway executive. This full schedule arranged is as follows:
March 23rd Warwick.
April 1st Birmingham, 6th Windsor, 13th Lewes, 15th, 17th and 18th Newmarket, 20th Worcester, 27th Stockton and 30th Newmarket.

SOCIAL DISEASES SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

Social Service and Evangelism Institute Hold Meeting in Riverdale Methodist Church.

A meeting of the Social Service and Evangelism Institute, Toronto East district, was held yesterday, in Riverdale Methodist Church to discuss ways and means of bettering social conditions and correcting certain city evils. After a short introductory address by the chairman, Rev. J. D. Simpson, the Rev. W. B. Smith, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Moore, general secretary, gave a very interesting address on "Battleline of our Department." Mr. Smith, in addressing the audience, dealt with the liquor traffic, the white slave traffic and several other evils which have a very degrading influence on the community.

The most important address of the afternoon was one given by Dr. C. K. Clarke, medical director of Toronto General Hospital on "The Menace of Social Disease." Dr. Clarke, while speaking of the dreaded venereal disease, said that one reason why it had made such headway was because people were afraid to speak of it. "We speak of tuberculosis," said Dr. Clarke, "and this disease is ten times as great a menace as tuberculosis. There is no reason why the truth shouldn't be told to everybody."

A number of figures were given by Dr. Clarke to show the headway that was being made by the disease in Toronto. He said that the young girls who were walking the streets were responsible to a great extent, and their condition was laid down to feeble-mindedness. His remedy was to give the young men and women proper education, to put the feeble-minded in proper schools, to arouse the public, to see that persons with the disease got suitable treatment and to have the contagious disease law so amended so as to include venereal diseases.

JOIN IN TOUR.

The prime minister of Ontario, Sir William Hearst, and Hon. N. W. Rowell, president of the council in the Union government, are to tour together through Northern Ontario next week.

The premier and Hon. Mr. Rowell speak at Sault Ste. Marie Wednesday night, Dec. 5; North Bay, Thursday night, Dec. 6; New Liskeard, Friday night, Dec. 7. Sir William Hearst speaks at Aurora Tuesday night. In addition to the meetings with the premier Hon. Mr. Rowell will address the following meetings next week: Monday, Dec. 3 (afternoon), Waterford; (evening), Port Dover; Tuesday, Dec. 4 (evening), Midland; Friday, Dec. 7 (3 p.m.), Cobalt.

ELECTORS MUST HELP.

T. H. Barton, returning officer for West Toronto, has written to The World to draw the attention of the electors in that riding to the fact that the lists will be accessible to them at the polling booths on Monday and Tuesday of next week. He suggests that all electors should look to see that their names are included, and if not they should apply at once to the board of appeal to see that their names are added.

There are 89 sub-divisions in the constituency, and Mr. Barton says it would be a physical impossibility for him to go over the lists and see if all the names were on.

Doctors Said Operation

When Chatham Lady Suffered From Extreme Nervous Exhaustion—Now Feeling Fine and Working Large Garden.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 30.—This letter will interest every lady reader because it describes a condition for which many doctors advise an operation. That the operation is often unnecessary and very often leaves the patient an invalid for life is well-known.

You will read here of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done for this lady and will then understand the great good it is accomplishing in many thousands of similar cases throughout the continent. Every woman should think long and earnestly before consenting to an operation of this kind. It is a simple matter to give Dr. Chase's Nerve Food a trial and the results are almost always entirely satisfactory. You not only avoid the risk and expense of an operation, but find yourself restored to health and vigor.

Mrs. E. M. Reed, 82 Delaware avenue, Chatham, Ont., writes: "For four years I suffered from my nerves. I was restless and could not sleep well. I had headaches, neuritic pains through the body and backache. There was a buzzing in my ears and twitching of nerves and muscles. I also had palpitation of the heart, which caused shortness of breath. I was easily tired and always drowsy after eating. When walking or on my feet very much my feet would seem to go dead in my shoes. I consulted two doctors and both told me that I would have to have an examination and probably an operation, but I would not have either. Shortly after this I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after a treatment of this medicine I can say I am now feeling fine. I am able to do my household duties without difficulty, and besides I attend to a half-acre of garden. I can go about without that dead feeling in my feet, and am grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for my cure. I think very highly of this medicine, and recommend it to other sufferers whenever I have an opportunity."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 53 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmansan, Eates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

FOREIGNERS PAY FOR EXEMPTION PAPERS

Get Documents to Show They Are Russian Subjects and Pay a Dollar Each.

The exemption tribunals will soon cease to sit, many of them finishing their work this week, except for adjourned cases. However, a few tribunals will still be sitting next week. The appeals start to be heard next week, Judge Winchester's tribunal at the city hall continuing to sit for that purpose. Col. Greer will personally represent the military as often as possible. Over 7000 appeals are in, but as the tribunals expect to be able to do $0 a day the work ought to soon be finished. How soon the new army will be called out is not definitely known, but Gen. Mewburn says it will be soon.

"I've got sore feet and sore legs, and I can't walk," said Barney Wolf, 82 Kensington avenue, Russian born. "Have you got cold feet also?" Mr. N. B. Gash queried.

"I certainly have got cold feet," he replied, not gathering the full import of the remark.

"Buy five cents worth of the Essence of True Manhood and you'll feel better," said Oliver Hesselwood, as he wrote out a "disallowed" claim.

"I'm not going to be a soldier," Wolf mumbled as he started out.

"Come back here and say that. Men have been put in jail for talking like that. Be very careful, young man, or we'll hand you over to the police."

"You Russians come over here and sponge on the country, and don't want to fight for it."

"There are more Russians in the Canadian army than British subjects," he replied.

"Don't lie like that," said Mr. Stagg, the M. R.

Dozens of affidavits are brought in by foreigners to prove that they are not British subjects. The tribunals are getting to know the sheets when they appear.

"It is one of those well-known documents," said Mr. Urquhart, scanning a sheet brought in by M. Shilnok, 3 Walter street, in proof of his not being a naturalized British subject. The declaration was made out by Louis Gurofsky, of West Queen street.

"How much did you pay for this?" asked the tribunal.

"One dollar," was the reply.

"Ah! now we are getting at it," commented Mr. Urquhart. "All the other fellows who brought these in said they were given free of charge."

JARVIS COLLEGIATE TO HAVE MEMORIAL

Pupils Will Invest Money in Victory Bonds and Later Use Proceeds for Work.

Jarvis Street Collegiate Institute held its annual commencement meeting yesterday afternoon in the school assembly hall. Principal John Jeffries occupied the chair and was surrounded on the platform by the staff and speakers of the afternoon.

A total of 355 Jarvis old boys are on the honor roll of the school as serving their King. Of this number 16 have laid down their lives in defence of the right. A suitable and permanent memorial and scholarship will be made to these men at the close of the war. Toward this fund already $1275 has been subscribed by the pupils and a few friends. An objective of $2000 has been set, and as the campaign is now only a week old, the prospects are good for reaching the desired amount. The money for the present is to be invested in Victory bonds.

The speakers during the afternoon were Col. George Williams, Major Church, Miss Vokes and Chancellor A. L. McCrimmon of McMaster University. The valedictory address was delivered by Miss Dorothy S. Hardy.

The following prizes and scholarships were awarded: Toronto University Matriculation Scholarship—Mattie Levy, Lillian Phillips, Dorothy Hardy, Ada Urquhart, Ralph Prendergast.

Centenary Scholarship—Clarence Avery.

Centenary Athletic Prize—Lawrence Wallace.

Chase Prize—Corinne Moskowitz.

Cadet Prize—Maunsell Wolsey.

HARD AFTER MOTOR THIEVES.

That motor thieves are to be more severely sentenced was the gist of a statement made by Magistrate Denison yesterday. "I have received a letter from the attorney-general practically instructing me to treat these cases very differently in the future," said his worship. "The same instructions have been sent, I understand, to all judges and magistrates in the city." The need for stricter sentences has long been felt in police circles, and it is thought that this new ruling will greatly lessen the number of car stolen.
