SITUATION IN BALKANS VIEWED BY BRITAIN WITH GREATEST SERIOUSNESS

Bulgaria Announces "Armed Neutrality" But London Believes She Will Be Ally of Germany - Athens In Turmoil

London, Sept. 22—While the German and Austrian artillery is bombarding the Serbian positions along the whole northern frontier, apparently paving the way for the long awaited thrust toward Turkey, the Balkan States are in a ferment.

The Times' Sofia correspondent says that M. Radostavoff, the Bulgarian premier, has announced to his supporters the signing of a convention with Turkey for the future maintenance of armed neutrality on the part of Bulgaria.

The Athens' correspondent of the Morning Post says all authentic information from Bulgaria indicates that warlike preparations have commenced. Orders have been issued by the Bulgarian government that all railway trucks, wherever found, must be unloaded immediately and reserved for government use.

Despite repeated assertions from Bulgaria leaders that the mobilization is merely for purposes of "armed neutrality," London now believes that Sofia is ready to throw in her lot with the Central Powers. The problematic factors in the crisis are Roumania and Greece.

Athens is in turmoil. On receipt of the news that Bulgaria had ordered a general mobilization of her troops, King Constantine summoned to conference Premier Venizelos and the members of the central staff of the army. The premier subsequently called a meeting of the cabinet.

The greatest activity prevails among representatives of the Entente powers in Greece. The British, French and Russian ministers held a conference. The Venizelos government, Athens' despatches say, faces the situation confidently.

Britain views the situation with the greatest seriousness. Conditions in Constantinople. Geneva, Monday, Sept. 20—(via Paris, Sept. 20, delayed in transmission)—A Swiss who has just returned from Constantinople, writes to the Gazette de Lausanne, that there is no gas, electricity, or candles in the Turkish capital, and that conditions of life there are almost intolerable for foreigners.

SNOWFALL IN ALPS EARLY

Work of Troops Fighting There is More Perilous UP MOUNTAIN BY ROPES

Italians Scale Precipice to Get At Austrian Stronghold - Several More Steamers Sunk by Mine or Torpedo

Lausanne, Switzerland, Sept. 22 (via Paris, delayed in transmission)—Winter snows are already falling in the Alps, rendering still more perilous the work of the Italian and Austrian troops who are engaged in warfare in the mountainous region near the border.

A correspondent of the Gazette de Lausanne, describes the recent battle for possession of the Austrian stronghold on top of Prielhof Mountain, 9,000 feet high. The attack was made under most difficult conditions.

Troops had prepared for an assault from the east. Two battalions of Italian Alpine troops made their way around the mountain and attacked the Austrian positions from the rear. To reach the summit they were compelled to scale the precipitous side of the mountain, clinging to ropes placed in position by mountaineers.

"Scandal of Sulphuric Acid"

Toronto Globe Gives Prominence to Another War Purchase Matter

London, Sept. 22—Great prominence is given by the Globe today to what it describes as "the scandal of sulphuric acid."

"In the spring of this year, for reasons believed to be good and sufficient, doubtless, but which we hope will be made the subject of an inquiry by the house of commons," says the Globe, "the firm of G. Tennant Sons & Company, recently connected in a family sense with a member of the cabinet, was commissioned to buy large quantities of sulphuric acid in America. Why no attempt was made to secure acid in this country we will not stop to inquire."

The Globe asserts that the methods employed in the shipment of the acid were so defective that hundreds of thousands of pounds were lost. It is asserted the acid was forwarded in an impure form, in iron drums, which, even had the acid been pure, would have corroded and leaked. It is said ships were damaged by escaping acid, which rendered them unusable, endangering the health of the crew.

More Than 80 Per Cent Of German Submarines Have Been Destroyed

Providence Journal Says That Explains Latest Berlin Orders - Brought to Complete Failure in Last Two Months

Providence, R. I., Sept. 23—The Providence Journal says: "The reason why the German government has consented to change its submarine methods is because more than eighty per cent of its submarines have been destroyed, and its under-sea warfare brought to complete failure within the last two months."

"It is positively known that since April 1 the following boats have been destroyed: U-10, U-15, U-16, U-18, U-22, U-23, U-24, U-5, U-7, U-7, U-4 besides four unnumbered boats of what is known as the Augsburg two-cylinder motor type and those of the Nuremberg motor type, which apparently have carried no numerical designation."

"These boats mostly were destroyed by the great iron nets placed in the path of the submarine by the British.

"The operations under the present methods have lasted over a period of four months, and they would have been brought to a successful completion many weeks ago if the British naval authorities had realized that some of the mechanical contrivances made use of were not fit for the work."

"Sixty-seven German submarines, twenty-eight of which are claimed to have been of the newest and latest construction have been sunk, and their crews destroyed by the British navy since May 5. It is stated on positive authority that the full capacity of the German shipyards for under-sea boats is not more than three a month, but that even if Germany were able to replace her submarines as fast as they had been destroyed, the most grave situation of the sea in regard to this method of warfare is the actual destruction of the morale of the officers and crews of such vessels."

He followed the occupation of hattermaker in his younger days and in later years was a tinsmith. He was taken ill with pneumonia only on last Saturday. He was one of the first members of St. Joseph's Senior Society of the Cathedral parish. There survive one son, John J. of Oak Hill, and one daughter, Mrs. C. M. Every time a window is opened in the house they get a draft. Not content with this they go away every year to get a little change, and while they are gone the gardener still continues to cut the grass and get a rake-off."

"There are not as many in America, sufficient horizons which promise sufficient hopes and feather beds. The young people, knowing this, are content to leave the settlement of their marriage to older heads. The story goes that once a hearty, managing dame of Wexford county was milking the cow. Worn out by negotiations which had not been entirely to her advantage, she looked sourly at the girl and remarked: "Well, Maureen, your banns 'll be put up tomorrow. IRISH MATCHMAKING Where Brides and Grooms Usually Obey Their Parents.

County Wexford conservatism shows in the keeping up of many of the old customs. In some quarters the marriage of a spinster or widowed girl and boy, as a sign of the prosperity of the county and even of adjoining counties.

The young people are not at first consulted; the parents of both are approached and the talk is at all of the inclinations of those who are to be married, but of how much dowry is to go with the girl, and what the young man's father will allow him. For all their warm hearts the Irish are practical enough; they have to be. There is plenty of innocent love-making which never leads to marriage, because the chances for a living in Ireland are limited, and a couple must have a little degree of certainty about the future.

Sometimes a young man cares so much for some particular girl that he breaks through custom and finds a way of marrying her.

One youth of Barony Four loved the daughter of a Wicklow farmer who had 200 acres and corresponding high ideals for his daughter. The youth had ten bare acres and a bare cottage. He appealed to the sympathies of his neighbors, who straightway lent him cows and horses and sheep, carts and machines and furniture, so that when the farmer came down to look over the claims of his prospective son-in-law he saw such shining prosperity that he gladly yielded the daughter.

But in general the parents are very keen about the settlements. More than once all negotiations have been dropped because the father would not get a better against the feather bed of the other father.

There are not, as in America, sufficient horizons which promise sufficient hopes and feather beds. The young people, knowing this, are content to leave the settlement of their marriage to older heads. The story goes that once a hearty, managing dame of Wexford county was milking the cow. Worn out by negotiations which had not been entirely to her advantage, she looked sourly at the girl and remarked: "Well, Maureen, your banns 'll be put up tomorrow. You'll be married in three weeks' time."

"Who to, mother?" asked Maureen timidly. Upon which her mother snapped, "What's that to you?"—Maude Radford Warren, in Harper's Magazine.

WINNING THE SAVAGE HEART Indians First Objected to Having Pictures "Took," But Later Consented

After his startling experience, when he tried to photograph a group of South American savages, Algot Leauge visited the Indians in their retreat and persuaded them to pose for him.

"I judged it to be the proper moment for taking photographs, because many of the more critical Indians were away working on a large canoe. It was a jolly act to bring forth again 'the little black thing that grows big and has an evil eye' but it was of vital importance for me to record my sojourn on a photographic film.

Slowly I lifted the camera out of the bottom of the knapsack, took the back off and held the open kodak in front of the chief's eye so he could see the empty bellows. He nodded and touched it. The ticking sound of the shutter amused the chief, and he imitated the sound by saying: "Tick tick!"

Then I set the shutter on a time exposure and let them look through the lens. That also pleased them. The chief even rolled the camera markabok, or plaything. I felt rather safe and ventured to roll a film in place and set the shutter for business. I pointed it at the chief as he sat in the middle of the clearing, and saying: "Tick tick!" a number of times, I finally pressed the bulb.

Only once did I come near a break in their confidence. When I walked down the clearing and focussed the chief

The Jewels in a Watch

As gems their value is not worth considering. When I walked down the clearing and focussed the chief

Watches are graded by the number of jewels they contain. The best watches have 17 to 23 jewels—more than that, can serve no useful mechanical purpose. Seven and fifteen jewel watches are fair time-keepers, though they are not as durable or permanently satisfactory watches as 17 or 23 jewel models.

Our advice is to purchase a 17 to 23 jewel watch if you are seeking lifelong watch satisfaction.

At Sharpe's you have excellent selections in the various grades of Howard, Hamilton, Waltham and DeWitt watches. You secure real watch value for every dollar you pay for a watch here.

lead and zinc supply found no adequate outlet, the Coeur d'Alene country was one of the first to feel it. Mines which had piled up fortunes closed down and hundreds of men were thrown out of work. The situation impressed itself keenly on the tributary towns. Mining stock brokers practically drew the blinds and went out to sell other commodities, and many, especially those in the inland Empire, embracing parts of Eastern Oregon, Idaho, and Washington, practically quit business. Yet there were a few who were fascinated by the romance and possibilities of mining stock. Clerks, bookkeepers, draymen and scores of men then utterly unknown in the business world kept the mining stock exchange doors ajar by their intermittent speculations in sums from $5 up. The element of gambling was evident, but they began to collect gilded paper. The majority of them invested secretly to escape taunts of less credulous friends. A few men of means also kept buying shares of stock at ridiculously low prices ranging from a cent to ten cents. There was a blind faith in fate or fortune. Suddenly the European war was precipitated and the copper, lead, zinc and kindred markets awoke with a start. Mines began to operate and stocks to sell and soar. Today in the Inland Empire and elsewhere, as a direct result, there is a new crop of rich men. These men were the invisible factors in business a year ago. Men who bought supposedly worthless stock at ten cents have awakened to find their holdings worth $20 a share. Those who bought for forty cents refuse to sell for $8 and $10. The war did it--Portland Oregonian.

RED CROSS PUBLICITY

It must not be forgotten that a great many Canadian soldiers are from Quebec and do not speak a word of English. Lying dangerously near death in an English hospital, nobody near them with whom to converse, they are in a deplorable condition.

"Dear Madam," writes one soldier from a London Hospital, "I received your letter this morning and it gave me infinite pleasure, especially since you write in French, for I can read English only with the greatest difficulty. You ask me whether I need anything. All that I need is that you write to me again."

The great majority of the Red Cross branches in Canada have been organized since the beginning of the war. A cursory inspection of the annual reports which are available show a record of Red Cross achievement which is not confined to any one province.

The Victoria branch in British Columbia has collected more than $20,000 since its inauguration, $11,800 of which has been sent to the head office of the society in Toronto. In addition to this cash donation more than $7,000 has been expended for materials made up by local workers.

Now that the preserving season is now in full swing, patriotic housewives who are doing up fruit for the Red Cross should take good care that the preserves will stand transit and retail.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the Standby in This Ontario Home

"Scotland, Ont., Aug. 20th, 1915. My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money, until we happened on Fruit-a-tives. We have used it in the family for about two years, and we would not use anything else as long as we can get 'Fruit-a-tives'."

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is made from fruit juices and tonics—its mild action—and pleasant in taste.

Hints for the Cook

Chicken and Macaroni Take equal parts of cold chicken, broken up, and macaroni. Put in layers in a shallow dish and put with buttered crumbs. Bake until brown.

Sift together two cups of flour, one cup of sugar (scant), two teaspoons of baking powder, and one teaspoon of salt. Add milk enough to make a soft batter, two tablespoons of melted butter and one egg. Cook in hot water about ten or fifteen minutes.

TWO FRENCH CHILDREN BAKE FOR THE VILLAGE

Paris, Sept. 22.—Danian, the only baker in the village of Exodun, Department of Deux-Sevres, being called to the front, was without bread.

PEACH CAPACITY

How many peaches can you eat? I mean at one sitting, of course. I remember one college boy, now an eminent politician, who ate at least a dozen peaches in the evening with an eleven quart basket beside him, from which he would eat absent-mindedly while turning up Greek roots or becoming more skilled in the "low cunning of algebra."

LEARNED COURT DECIDES THE TOMATO IS A FRUIT

Is a tomato a fruit or vegetable? There's a fruit! theme for family dispute as well as judicial interpretation. The matter came up for court decision in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Eva Schechter, who keeps a fruit and vegetable store, was arrested on a charge of selling tomatoes illegally on Sunday. Her defense was that she had a perfect right to do so, because the law permits the sale of fruits on the Sabbath, and a tomato is a fruit.

The defendant argued that there was no ground for action against him, because the turtle was not an "animal," and so, however uncomfortable he may have made that turtle, he wasn't guilty of "cruelty to animals." And on the expert advice of a Harvard biologist the court discharged him.

CLOSING CHAPTER OF "EXPLOITS OF ELAINE"

Gen Serial Demonstrates the Triumph of Science Over Crime—All-Canadian News Weekly The closing of the popular serial "The Exploits of Elaine," at the Gem Theatre, and the change of bill yesterday to be repeated today, proved of special interest to those who have been following the adventures of Pearl White, Craig Kennedy and the Clutching Hand. The closing chapter is entitled "The Beckoning," and shows the triumph of Science over Crime. The announcement that Pearl White and other favorites are to continue in another serial "The New Exploits of Elaine," opening next week, has aroused popular approval.

Did you contribute to the $700,000.00 sent from Canada in 1913 to corset makers in the United States, and to the $245,000.00 paid in customs on them? Keen Canadian Shoppers have for years bought the "D & A" and the "La Diva" Corsets in preference to the imported, because they are better value. "WHO PAYS," AT LYRIC, REST OF THE WEEK

The Lyric Theatre shows the second chapter of the great serial "Who Pays," tonight, tomorrow and Saturday. This chapter is entitled "The Pursuit of Pleasure," and the story concerns a young man who staked his honor for love and a young woman who didn't care. It tells also of a bad man who turned out better than most of us and what it brought him. The story is intensely interesting and should prove even more enjoyable than the first chapter which was shown last week. First evening show starts at 7.10, the matinee at 8. The vaudeville act of "Scotty Provan," a clever Scotch mimic, character singer, violinist and dancer will surely please all patrons.

FEWER LEAVE U.S. TO LIVE IN CANADA War Cuts Immigration Total From 167,750 For One Year to 57,775.

Immigration to Canada from the United States has been practically cut in half by the war. During the fiscal year 1914 the number of Americans to cross the border and take up homes in Canada was 107,280. Figures for the fiscal year 1915, just issued by the Canadian Department of Immigration, show that the number is reduced to 57,775. The total immigration to Canada from 1900 to March 31 this year was 8,050,811. Of these there came from the British Isles 1,159,628, from the United States 1,008,488 and from continental Europe 5,892,705. Of these immigrants the maritime provinces received 137,114, Quebec 485,078, Ontario 735,268, Manitoba 431,729, Saskatchewan and Alberta 521,284, and British Columbia 845,109. Of the 144,789 who came to the Dominion during last year 48,276 were from Britain, 59,779 from the United States and 41,734 from continental Europe. There was naturally a big decrease of immigrants from Austro-Hungary and Germany, but before the outbreak of the war 74,150 had come from the former country as against 28,428 in the previous year, and 2,472 from Germany as against 5,287 in 1914. There was also a large decrease in the Finnish, Russian, and Polish immigration, but a considerable increase in Bulgarian and slight increase in Greek and Serbian.

During the last fifteen years more than a million Americans have come to Canada and mostly settled in the prairie provinces. The greatest immigration to Canada from the United States was in the year 1913, when it reached 189,000 persons, although the year previous it was nearly as great, being 188,700. Of the immigration received by Canada in the last fifteen years 483,076 were farmers or farm laborers, 178,827 general laborers, 108,140 mechanics, 58,265 clerks and tradesmen, 16,022 miners and 14,451 domestic; and of the 59,759 who came into Canada during the last fiscal year 21,819 were farmers and farm laborers, 9,278 general laborers, 12,288 mechanics, 2,281 clerks and tradesmen, 611 miners and 2,871 domestic.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Their Health—Their Own Statements Follow.

Halliburton, P. E. I.—"I had a doctor examine me and he said I had falling of the womb, so I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. All the bearing-down pains have vanished. I have gained ten pounds in weight, the discharge is all gone, and I feel better than I have for a long time. I think any woman is foolish to suffer as I did for the sake of a few dollars."

Read What This Woman Says: New Moorfield, Ohio—"I take great pleasure in thanking you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had bearing down pains, was dizzy and weak, had pains in lower back and could not get on my feet long enough to get a meal. As long as I laid on my back I would feel better, but when I would get up those bearing down pains would come back, and the doctor said I had female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the only medicine that helped me and I have been growing stronger ever since I commenced to take it. I hope it will help other suffering women as it has me. RECRUITING PLAN ON WIDER SCALE

Will Extend Campaign to Outlying Sections of City—Ten Enrolled Yesterday—Last Night's Meeting

Since the start of the big recruiting campaign in the city a fortnight ago, 210 men have joined the colors, ten men enrolling yesterday. A further successful meeting in King Square was held last evening when Hon. J. G. Forbes and Corporal Burris, returned soldier in civilian home, were the speakers, Lieut. Col. Sturdee presiding. Both gave splendid addresses in which they were well received.

The committee plans to extend the campaign to West St. John, Fairville, and East St. John this week. The volunteers signing the honor-roll yesterday were—Alexander Longson, St. John; J. E. Waters, St. John; Charles Hughes, St. John; John L. Young, St. John; Ernest C. Coates, St. John; Samuel H. Bell, Birmingham, England; William Knox, St. John; John R. Irvine, St. John; Arvo Haronen, Finland; James J. Lavigne, St. John.

Corporal Burris then made a soldierly speech telling in somewhat disconnected form but interestingly some of the experiences he had gone through in the trenches. He mentioned that a soldier could not possibly spend all the money he earned and his wife would get a goodly sum. He could not understand why so many young men stayed away from the recruiting meetings. They were not obliged to join a killed regiment if they did not like to. He got five Germans, he said, and when he got his first he jumped a couple of feet in the trenches with joy! If he had not done so, added Corporal Burris, the German might have got him. (Laughter).

The Carleton Cornet Band played and the meeting closed with the playing of God Save the King. It is indicative of the spirit that is growing in the city that one young man who did not take his cap off when the National Anthem was being played got it knocked off by a soldier to the approval of many who saw it.

NO MONEY FOR PUBLIC WORKS

Common Council Discusses The Problem

APPROPRIATION ALL SPENT

Com. Potts Says Credit Vote Must Be Given or He Will Shut Down Work and Not Take His Own Salary—Action Deferred

The common council met in committee yesterday afternoon to discuss Commissioner Potts' report on the exhaustion of its appropriation.

Com. Potts reported on the amount of work that had been done in his department last year, the estimate of which was given in The Telegraph yesterday. The total number of square yards of street work paving of all classes was 23,261 at a total cost of $39,748. Out of the original appropriation of $111,000 there are fixed charges in the department of $50,000. The commissioner reminded his colleagues present at yesterday's committee of the council, Mayor Pink, and commissioners Wigmore and Russell, that when the appropriation was cut he was told by the mayor as far as he could. This he had done. Instead of spreading all his expenditure over the year he had preferred to do street work while it could be done well in the good weather and had put the material on the streets instead of having it over for the winter months. It was for the council to say whether they would continue the work of public works department, and if so, they would have to supply the money. He had done his best in expending it in the way he thought most advantageous to the city. If there was no more money to be spent, he would not take the balance over, but would go with the others.

Com. Wigmore said that the matter would have to be discussed more than at that meeting. He congratulated the commissioner of public works on the splendid work he had got for the expenditure. Compared with the work done under the old council, it was either a permanent or a semi-permanent nature. Under the old system, Tom Potts' old council, it was either a permanent or a semi-permanent nature. Under the old system, Tom Potts' old council, it was either a permanent or a semi-permanent nature. Under the old system, Tom Potts' old council, it was either a permanent or a semi-permanent nature.

Com. Potts—Not and do the work at the best time. The mayor added that there were only two courses open. Either to close down or to get an advance. He felt that if he should fall over ourselves to give it, he added. After further discussion it was decided to consider the matter and to re-visit the subject at next Tuesday's council meeting.

HORWOOD EXAMINED BY ROBLIN'S NEW LAWYER

Winnipeg, Sept. 22—When the preliminary hearing of the former Manitoba minister was resumed this morning, A. J. Andrews informed the crown, in response to a question, that he had a general retainer for all the defendants, and would represent Sir Rodmond Roblin, R. A. Bonser, crown counsel, recalled E. F. Johnston's statement at the opening of the case that he represented Sir Rodmond Roblin, and the withdrawal from the case.

ANGELIC CLERGY MUST NOT MARRY DIVORCED PERSONS

Toronto, Sept. 22—Two additions were made to the litany of the Anglican synod today, one relating to the parliaments of the empire, and the other to "the King's forces by sea, land and air."

There was some discussion of changes in the marriage service. A Rubric was added which enjoins clergymen from solemnizing marriage between persons either of whom had been divorced from one living at the time. Objections were raised to the wording, "union of man and woman as a protection against sin."

Liquor Problem Later. The British government is to deal separately with the matter of extra taxes on liquor, and, in fact, the entire drink question later in the session.

THE MAYOR'S WISH

He added whimsically that if "his wish" were to come true, he would like to see the mayor's wish come true.

Reviewing the position the mayor said that the appropriation asked for at the beginning of the year was $150,000 which was agreed to by the council and then the twelve months but that was a matter of opinion and if the commissioner was satisfied that he had given the public a better service in the other way he had nothing to say.

Com. Potts—That is all there is to do as the money is expended. The mayor—It has been said that it would be a breach of faith with those people who came here and demanded the reduction to make further expenditure. Perhaps an expression from those same people may be made that they think the expenditure is wise.

His worship then referred to the fact that Com. Wigmore was allowed to expend sums in his department last year for the sake of not letting men feel the pinch of unemployment and thought that that would be better than let many go, as otherwise they would have to go this winter. There was going to be a great deal of suffering through unemployment, added his worship.

Com. Wigmore agreed and referred to the fact that he would have to keep only a dozen men this winter against the 800 last winter. "If the people demand that we cut down let the people demand that we find employment for these people too."

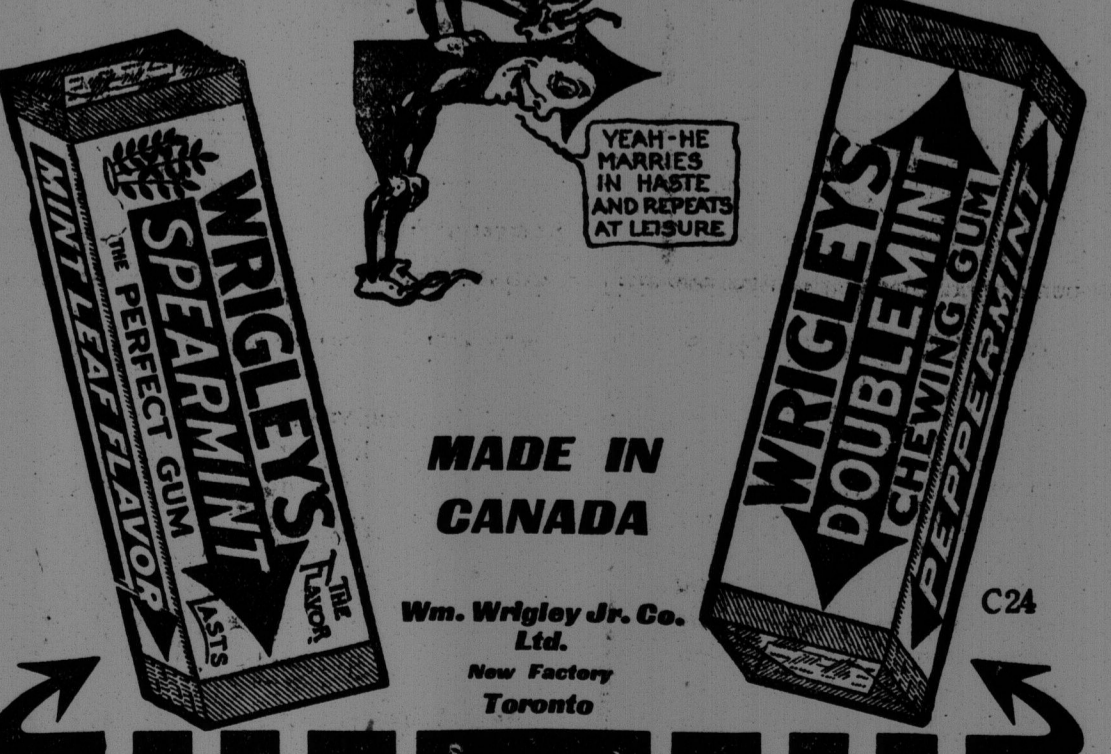

Com. Potts said that the trouble was that the commissioners let the outside public in some things run the council. "If the board of trade came to the council for $25,000 for the Patriotic Fund we should fall over ourselves to give it," he added.

MORNING WAR SUMMARY

London, Sept. 22.—Developments in Bulgaria threw into comparative obscurity the continued Russian retreat from Vilna, but, with the exception of the northern tip of the Polish front, where the Russians are on the offensive near Friedriehstadt, the Germans claim progress throughout mid-Poland as far south as Ostrow, which they have captured.

With great daring today French aeroplanes left the Allied lines and flying as the crow flies, about 120 miles, across Germany raided Stuttgart, capital of Wurtemberg, dropping bombs on the royal palace.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—The troopship Metagama, which sailed from Canada on Sept. 13, has arrived in England. She had on board the following troops: Infantry drafts from Alberta, 25 officers and 1,250 men; from Manitoba, 5 officers and 250 men; army service corps, 5 officers, 100 men; Medical Corps, 1 officer and 50 men.

London, Sept. 22.—Eight biplanes have been presented to the British government by overseas clubs. Three of them are from Montreal, St. Catharines (Ont.), and Nova Scotia.

Amsterdam, via London, Sept. 22.—A Berlin despatch received here says the German government has announced that a new mine field will be laid south of the outlet to the Sound, and that beginning next Friday a pilot service will be established to enable neutral shipping to traverse the danger zone.

In Bulgaria London, Sept. 22, 1915. p.m.—A war move that may reach the middle of the Balkans—Bulgaria's mobilization—has struck London with dramatic suddenness.

The afternoon newspapers, however, refrained from editorial comment, and neutral readers of these publications, except for drawing their own conclusions from large type heads and such captions as "Balkan Sensation," would be none the wiser as to whether England regarded the developments as a preliminary victory for the Central Powers, or merely another overnight turn of the Greco-Serbian-Bulgarian negotiations.

The consensus of opinion was that although the Bulgarian army is now on the move, Bulgaria has not yet cast her lot with one side or the other, but in, as her minister here expressed it, still neutral, still waiting, but armed.

The first bulletin announcing Bulgaria's mobilization reached London by way of New York. It was quickly followed by a stream of telegrams from the European capitals to the effect that mobilization, partial or general, had been ordered at Sofia, that Bulgarian cavalry had taken the field, and that Bulgars of fighting age were hurrying home.

Subsequently came the news of excitement at Athens and of the conference of the king with the political leaders. But from Sofia itself the British press received no details.

There is general activity of the Austro-German forces along the Serbian frontier. A semi-official despatch from Sofia, that the British press received, has been asked, in effect, to remain quiet while the Austro-Germans continued their campaign southwards.

Hard Hit But Happy London, Sept. 22.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—"Hard hit, but happy," is the Globe's summing up of the citizens' attitude toward the taxation proposals. This optimistic view is generally reflected in the press, while the universal opinion is that Hon. Reginald McKenna

Had "Cholera Infantum." WAS WASTED TO A SHADOW.

Cholera Infantum is one of the most common summer complaints of infants, and many die who could be saved if taken in hand on the first sign of the trouble. It begins with a profuse diarrhoea, very often accompanied by vomiting, and the matter ejected from the stomach has a bilious appearance. The child rapidly loses flesh and becomes weak and languid.

Mrs. W. Falls, 455 Jones Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for my three boys, and I do believe it saved their lives. One of them had cholera infantum so bad he was wasted to a shadow, and the doctor had given him up, but 'Dr. Fowler's' cured him. I have also used it myself for colic and find it an excellent remedy. I would not be without it in the house."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the original remedy for the cure of all bowel complaints. It has been on the market for the past 70 years.

When you ask for "Dr. Fowler's" see that you get "Dr. Fowler's." Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price, 35c.

GERMAN ATTEMPTS TO DETACH RUSSIAN ALLEES

London, Sept. 22.—Professor Sim'zon, of Edinburgh University, who recently paid a visit to Russia, writing to the Chronicle, says:

"There is not the least doubt that during the last few months Germany has made more than one effort to detach our Russian allies. Germany would make peace with Russia so soon as the latter country gave the slightest hint of wishing to retire from the conquest. Germany would ask no indemnity of Russia, she would even be prepared to retire from all Russian territory occupied and make a new trade treaty with that country that would be fair to both sides. The last trade treaty, made under pressure of Russia's situation during the Japanese war, was notoriously one-sided and unfair."

"It is difficult to imagine the manifold nature of the attempts that have been made upon the loyalty of our Russian allies, attempts not merely due to the obvious fact that should they succeed Germany would be in a position to devote all her energy to the struggle with France and Britain, but to the more important, because more fundamental, fact of the well-developed German consciousness that Russia is the one nation among her adversaries with whom she could whole-heartedly co-operate in economic and political endeavor."

SAMUEL GOMPERS WITH THE ALLIES

He Returned to Canadian Hotel to Secure a Pennant With Striking Patriotic Phrase

Niagara Falls, Sept. 22.—Samuel Gompers is one of the best friends of the allies in the whole of the United States.

The speaker was the proprietor of one of the best known hotels along the Canadian frontier. He has been a personal friend of the veteran labor leader for many years.

The group about him listened in silence as he said that Mr. Gompers had refused offers of very large sums of money to sell the support of American labor to the German propagandists.

"He certainly is a great man," observed one of the party and the others murmured their endorsement of the sentiment. At that moment a big touring car drew up before the hotel. A short, heavy set man stepped down. It was Samuel Gompers.

He entered the hotel, looked about him, and then seizing his friend, the proprietor, by the arm, pointed to a badly-colored pennant that hung on the wall.

"I came back for that flag. I know that you will give it to me." It was hard to refuse the wish of the labor leader, but still he had ignored similar requests from hundreds of others. He thought for a moment, and then he went over and took down the pennant, handing it to Mr. Gompers.

There was little ceremony in the transfer of the pennant. A curt expression of thanks and Gompers folded the pennant neatly, placed it under his arm, and walked out of the hotel.

MRS. W. J. CUNNINGHAM IS SEVERELY BURNED

An exploded lamp set fire to the clothing of Mrs. William J. Cunningham last night in her home, 55 Richmond street, and she was taken to the General Public Hospital in a critical condition.

She was not able to tell the exact story, but it is believed that she stumbled with the lamp in her hand.

A crash followed by screams alarmed Mrs. Jeremiah Danney, who resides in the lower floor. With some neighbors she rushed upstairs and found Mrs. Cunningham enveloped in flames. Her clothing had caught fire and the oil from the exploded lamp had run over the floor.

Someone rushed and rang in an alarm from box 14 and others remained and with blankets and quilts smothered the flames about the victim. She was in her home alone at the time—about 9 o'clock—and had her screams not been heard downstairs she would undoubtedly have perished then and there.

Mrs. Cunningham is the wife of William Cunningham, turnkey in the county jail. She is about 48 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham have many friends and intense sympathy will be felt for both.

"Now, Fat, tell the class why words have roots." "I guess, ma'am, that the only way the language could grow."

U.S. WILL BACK THE SURVIVOR

New Mexican Policy — Leaders of Factions Given Three Months to Show Who is the Strongest

New York, Sept. 22.—Official recognition of the failure of their plan to bring the warring factions in Mexico to agree was made by Secretary of State Lansing and the representatives of Central and South American countries in an announcement that they will now seek a solution of the problem through the second of the two alternatives which were decided upon at a conference in this city on August 11.

The alternative is the recognition, by each of the countries represented, of the fact in Mexico which can demonstrate most clearly its capacity to protect the lives and property of the Mexicans and foreigners who live among them. The various factions have three weeks in which to do this.

At the end of that time recognition of a de facto government will be made by the conference countries, and policies according to that country will be adopted.

While it was made clear that there will be no concert of recognition and that each country will pursue its individual policy toward such government as it recognizes, it is assumed that there is small likelihood that the situation with respect to Mexico will be further complicated because by a difference of opinion on the part of the conference countries as to which faction ought to be recognized. In other words, it is believed that the seven countries interested will arrive at the same conclusion, although they travel it along their individual routes.

MOTOR HEADLIGHTS

(Boston Paper)

J. H. MacAdman presided over a meeting held at the Bay State Automobile Association yesterday to take definite action on the regulation of the blinding glare from motor headlights. The other members of the committee present were Professor C. E. Stewart, Lawrence, H. Brooks, Doctor Herbert T. Boyd, and William G. Henwick. Various members made reports of experiments they had made.

It was decided that the committee should not endorse any particular device or lamp but try to evolve some regulation that would remedy matters. The opinion was unanimous that the Highway Commission should put in force a regulation rather than leave it to the legislature next year. A report was drawn up that reads as follows:

"To the Massachusetts Highway Commission, Boston, Mass. We the undersigned, comprising the advisory committee on motor headlights in the interest of public safety recommend a regulation by the Massachusetts Highway Commission prohibiting the use of any headlights and searchlights which shall project a beam of light to a greater height than four feet above level ground, and requiring such lights to illuminate ground from six to ten feet from each side of the car at a point 10 feet in front of the vehicle."

"From our investigations we find that to comply with such regulations will not impose a hardship upon any owner of a motor vehicle, for there are innumerable inexpensive devices available."

J. H. MACADMAN, Boston Automobile Dealers' Assn. PROF. C. E. STEWART, Franklin Institute. LAWRENCE H. BROOKS, Highway Safety League. DR. HERBERT T. BOYD, Bay State A. A. WILLIAM G. HENWICK, Massachusetts State A. A.

This report is in line with ideas that the Highway Commission has on the subject. The latter body has been awaiting the report of the advisory committee, and now it has a basis to work upon. The next step will be the drafting of some such regulation by the Highway Commission and submitting it to the governing council for approval. After it has been approved the commission will then advertise it for some weeks in newspapers in each county throughout the state.

Some specific date will be fixed for it to become effective and after that time it will be similar to an act of the legislature. It is probable that the regulation will not be in force until some time in October.

When the regulation is being advertised the Highway Commission will try to arrange it so that motorists may be told how to comply with the law without going out to unnecessary expense, and for some time after it is in effect a plan may be worked out to give owners such notice instead of arresting them. Visiting motorists will be told how to comply with the law.

This regulation being a state-wide one will prohibit any city or town from passing ordinances on headlights. The searchlights were included because the commission has found that many drivers use them to annoy people who are not on the road instead of trying to find dark spots in the highway.

So many accidents have been reported where people on the road were not seen when they were within a few feet of the car and where bridges and ditches were not observed that the committee felt the lamps should throw a light on either side of the vehicle for some feet.

To keep the rays not more than four feet above the ground will prevent their shining into the eyes of drivers of other cars and people walking along the highways without diminishing the power to see far enough ahead for perfect safety the committee feels.

There is more danger in this section of the country than in other sections, and the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure by local treatment, produced incurable results. Science has proven Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and cures mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

After the ceremony a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emery, 24 City Road, and later Mr. and Mrs. Emery left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York. They were the recipients of many valuable remembrances. The groom, who is a member of the firm of the Emery, Nordby Co., presented to his bride a handsome necklace. PRESERVES OR PICKLES MAKE AUCTION GIFTS
With Season of Preserving Housewives Can Aid in $50,000 Auction by Donations of Such Bottled Goods—The General Canvass

The preserving season is now going on. Many industrious housewives are getting ready their stock of plums, peaches, quinces, and other fruits to place away for the long months of winter, adding them to their store of berries, jellies and cherries "done up" prettily. This is the season for the bottling of home-made pickles, delicacies which equal or surpass even the famous brands of other manufacturers and the women of the house are priding themselves upon the success of their activities in this regard.
The hope has been expressed that women who have a plentiful stock of preserves, jellies, and pickles will give from their store to the $50,000 Patriotic Auction, and have their offerings sold during auction week, October 4 to 9, the proceeds to go to the Patriotic Fund. This is an exceptional opportunity. Contributions such as suggested would be greatly appreciated. A glance at other columns of this paper will show the generous spirit prevailing among all classes in their gifts to this big patriotic movement, not only men, however, but very many women are among the more liberal donors. They have given valuable ornaments, china, furniture, books, antique-ware, home-cooking, pictures, fancy-work, quilting, and a miscellaneous assortment of other articles. Now a further chance presents itself for other women who have not yet given, or who may be puzzled to know what to donate, they can contribute from their stock of preserves or pickles, and the money secured from the sale will go to help in the realization of that $50,000 is still in progress, but bearing a close, while the solicitors who have gone out into the rural sections in automobiles are reporting success in their efforts, the farmers showing a hearty readiness to give, and give well. There will be many in the city who will not be called upon; it is not expected that the solicitors will be able to make a visit from house to house—but all citizens who are not personally canvassed may aid in the success of the auction by communicating with the executive offices, 181 Prince Wm. street, H. A. Porter, manager, or sending in their donation to St. Andrew's or the Queen's rink during next week.

POLICE COURT

Several cases were before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning, but owing to it being city court day some were set aside until this afternoon.
Theodore MacLellan, proprietor of a shoe shine parlor in Dock street, appeared to answer a charge of selling picture post cards which had a tendency to corrupt morals. After the charge was read the case stood over until 2 o'clock.
A boy arrested on a charge of stealing a mesh bag containing about $7 from Mrs. H. H. Baker, was also sent below until this afternoon.
Frederick McAfee was remanded on a charge of wandering about Germaine street late last night and not giving a satisfactory account of himself. He was warned that he was liable to nine months in jail.
George Carney was remanded on charges of drunkenness, using obscene and profane language in Sheriff street last evening.
One man arrested on a drunkenness charge was fined $8 or two months in jail.

SEVERAL HOUSES IN CARLETON BURN

Loss of $12,000 or More in Morning Blaze

TOWER SCHOOL THREATENED

Poor Water Supply is Report—Richard Danery's Collection of Antiques Consumed by Flames; Also $350 Cash

Carleton was visited by a fire which caused damage estimated at from $12,000 to $16,000 this morning, and had the wind held, much greater damage would have been done. On the other hand, it is claimed that an adequate water service would have confined the blaze to one house.
Miss Susie Drummond lived and kept a store on Charlotte street extension. About 9:15 this morning she went out for a short time and found her store was on fire hurried back to find it in flames. The house between hers and the Tower school, and occupied by her mother, Mrs. Samuel Drummond, was soon in flames. Then the house owned by George West. The house and store of Thomas Smith were destroyed and a portion of the el of another house owned by him. All the houses mentioned were completely destroyed. Willie E. Battinhouse was sitting at the fire his own house, some six hundred feet in the rear of Miss Drummond's, caught fire, but he quickly put out the blaze. A barn also caught fire, as well as the Melrose house and the Morrison summer home, but all were saved without damage. The Tower school had a close call.
Miss Drummond's house was a two-story structure. Her loss is about $2,000 with $1,000 insurance. Mrs. Drummond's house was destroyed and she had three tenants, Richard Danery, Mrs. John Newman and Mrs. Magee. Mrs. Carr's and Mr. Smith's loss was fairly well covered by insurance. Geo. West carried $1,000, of which $700 was on his house and $300 on his barn. He also lost $100 in cash, and his insurance policies were burned.
Richard Danery lost with his house furnishings, the fine collection he had formerly stored in the Martello Towers, which he is said to have valued at $10,000. He also lost $350 in cash.
The West house was self-contained, two stories; the Carr house story and a half and the Smith house the same. All the houses were of wood and were consumed very rapidly. In all, five houses were destroyed, two barns, a few small sheds, and another house partly damaged.
The alarm was rung in about 10:15. Water from wells was used at first and was quickly exhausted. Had there been a good water supply, the fire would not have spread. A line of hose was finally stretched about a thousand feet to the C.P.R. roundhouse, with two lines, but even then the pressure was poor. Great indignation was expressed at the lack of water and there was much talk about the proposed stand pipe which has never been provided.
An elderly woman who tried to pass between two of the houses was overcome and had to be carried to safety.
Two companies came up from Paradise Island to aid in the salvage work, but there was little to do, so rapidly had been the spread of the flames.
Three members of the Drummond family suffered heavily in the fire, the mother, Mrs. Samuel Drummond, and her two daughters, Miss Susie Drummond and Mrs. Wm. Carr.
All during the blaze in the house occupied by Mr. Danery a series of explosions could be heard from inside caused by the discharge of cartridges, shells and ammunition stored in his collection. This collection of antiques has frequently aroused admiration. It had been removed from Martello Towers, where he was formerly caretaker, to his home. So far as is known none of it was saved.
The fire caused much excitement about Carleton and a large crowd gathered, many of whom tried to help in the work of salvage. The blaze could be seen from many parts of the city.

Proud of Your Boy?—Then Dress Him Well
Most any boy will answer to the influence of a new suit or overcoat. He will try to live up to it. The longer the garment is new the greater the influence.
If Oak Hall's label identifies the suit or overcoat rest assured it will give a good account of itself.
You can afford to put your boy in even better clothes than usual if you come to Oak Hall for them—that, too, without extravagance. And no wonder. If you take good fabric, put them together firmly and well, with silk thread, stay and re-enforce the garments wherever the wear and tear on them is the hardest, you're bound to get clothing that will make a boy work hard to wear it out. All the new fall styles are to hand.
