VETERANS VOICE OPPOSITION TO THE INCREASES

Send Protest to Premier and Members of Government Regarding Increased Indemnities—Comment by Montreal Gazette.

Edmonton, Alta., June 28.—Opposition to the government's action in increasing the salaries of cabinet ministers and judges and raising the indemnity of members was voiced at a meeting of the Edmonton Great War Veterans on Saturday.

Telegrams of protest have been sent to Premier Borden and members of the government.

New Regulations Ottawa, June 27.—Members of the House of Commons, now that they are in their indemnity, are to be subject to new attendance regulations.

Hitherto a member must put in thirty days to draw the indemnity, and for every day in excess of fifteen days' holiday he has had to forfeit $20. The new proposal is that a man must put in fifty days to get the $4,000. If he puts in less he will not be deducted $20 per day, but he will be paid $20 each day of absence.

This, it is pointed out, will overcome the complaint of many regular attenders who contend that other members are seen within the precincts of the House should be paid on a basis of $20 per day for an absence of 200 days rather than deduction of $200 per day from the full stipend as outlined above.

Montreal, June 28.—Commenting on the increased seasonal indemnity the Gazette says editorially, that making it increased dependent on the length of the session, puts a premium on delay, and dilatoriness in the despatch of public business, because there will always be the inducement to spin out the session until full indemnity can be obtained.

The Gazette concludes that it will be an advantage and may at times mean the saving of much money to fix the indemnity irrespective of the length of the session.

Fatal Disorders Are Prevailing in Italy

Suspect Plan to Overthrow Social Order Throughout Country

Reports of Many Killed and Wounded—Two Trains Attacked and Six Die—Red Flags Hoisted—Soldiers and Police Called Out.

Dresina, Italy, June 28.—Socialists and Populists have clashed at Resazze. Police forces intervened and in the fighting one policeman was killed and it is believed there were several other victims.

Pisa, Italy, June 28.—Barracks were attacked here Saturday, but the assailants were repulsed. The rioters built barricades in the streets and pillaged liquor and clothing stores until order was restored by reinforcements to the garrison.

Two of the rioters were killed, and many have been arrested. There were several cases of arson among the police and soldiers.

Trains Attacked Rome, June 28.—Further disturbances in and around Ancona are reported in despatches from that city today. Anarchists are concentrating around the labor bureau in Ancona and despatches indicate they have a machine gun. There have been killed in encounters with policemen. An attack was made upon Carabinieri barracks and a number of hand grenades were thrown, but the anarchists were unable to enter.

Forematters rushed to the scene were met with shots from neighboring houses. Two trains were attacked near Borgocasa. On one train eight passengers were wounded and five of them subsequently died.

The other train was carrying police, of whom four were wounded and one killed. A destroyer has arrived at Ancona and reinforcements for the troops there.

The impression prevails here that these disorders are part of a deep scheme to overturn social order throughout the entire country. Unemployment is the alleged reason for the strikes now in progress and for rioting.

The lists of guests included many names that will live long in British history, from Captain Carpenter of the "Vindicator" which attacked Zebrugga and Ostend, down to two drivers who saved a number of civilians among the police and soldiers.

Private Lynn, who won the Victoria Cross, the D. C. M. and the Cross of St. George and was then killed, was represented by his fiancee.

New Proposal RE TROUBLES IN N. S. COAL FIELDS

Halifax, June 28.—The Halifax Herald publishes the following under date of June 27 from its Sydney correspondent: A new proposal by the minister of labor for the settlement of the labor difficulties in the Nova Scotia coal fields, has been brought forward at least. The minister has brought forward a new proposal which has been known by J. B. McLachlan when he addressed a mass meeting of miners at Glace Bay today. The minister, in a message to the secretary, declared that the royal commission demanded by the miners had been found impracticable because some of the operators refused to agree to it. He suggested, therefore, that the miners consent to have the Nova Scotia colliery difficulties handled by a purely government commission. McLachlan strongly advised the miners to accept, not because he considered it particularly desirable, but because he thought it the best they could get at the present time, and to refuse it would be a tactical error.

Prohibition Fight in Democratic Convention

Battle Over Platform as Well as the Candidate

Bugle Call Replaces Rapping of Gavel at Start of Meeting—Proceedings of the Opening Day.

San Francisco, June 28.—Delegates and leaders were prepared for a fight over both platform and candidates as the democratic national convention assembled today for its opening session. The actual convention work itself was only preliminary and perfunctory but the arrival of convention day served to bring more into the open the questions which had been dividing delegates and perplexing the older politicians in their pre-convention conferences.

The keynote speech of Homer S. Cummings as temporary chairman was the principal feature of the day's programme. Later in the day the newly selected convention committees were to furnish the first real developments as they began their task of writing the platform, hearing appeals from contests over delegate seats, and making up the convention rules and a slate of permanent convention officers.

Prohibition The liveliest subject in the minds of the delegates manifestly was the impending prohibition fight, but talk of candidates was gaining more and more attention as the rival managers got down to cases with the big body of unattached and unpledged delegates.

An innovation planned for this convention was the silencing of the great gathering by a bugle call instead of the usual pounding with the gavel. As the bugler's notes came to an end and the buzz of conversation on the floor ceased, a detachment of marines standing in front of the platform were to raise the national colors and present arms, while the band, high up behind the chairmen, played the Star Spangled Banner.

The formal call to order by Vice-Chairman J. Bruce Kremer was to follow. The arrangement was made by Secretary of the Navy Daniels at the suggestion of first sergeant H. Hornbostel, who is chief of the secretary's personal escort during his visit to San Francisco. Following was today's programme for the convention opening.

Bugle call by a detachment of marines at noon. Presentation of colors. Singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Call to order by Vice-Chairman Kremer. Invocation by Monsignor Ryan, vicar general of the Catholic arch-diocese of San Francisco.

Reading of the call for the convention by secretary E. G. Hoffmann. Announcement of temporary presiding officer. Kycote speech by Chairman Cummings. Announcement of committees. Adjournment.

Bryan and The Proletiers. State commissions, similar to the United States federal trade commission, to prevent profiteering are a feature of a plank on profiteering proposed by Bryan.

It reads in part: "The democratic party pledges the nation to rid it of the profiteer and to close the door against the return. It will endeavor to eliminate all unnecessary middle men by the encouragement of organizations among producers that will bring those who sell and those who use nearer together."

For Soldiers. Service men among convention delegates today perfected plans for obtaining the endorsement of the Democratic party for bonus legislation. It was decided to adopt the American legion "four way" plan of awarding veterans of the late war, extending paid up insurance, rural or urban home aid, vocational education or flat cash compensation.

At the Hospitals. Frederick McCain, the C. N. R. brakeman who sustained a broken leg at the Union Depot last week, was reported this afternoon from the General Public Hospital to be resting fairly comfortably. Doctors White, Ady and McLaren have his case in hand and every effort is being made to save the patient's leg. The presence of gangrene makes this difficult.

Joseph Thompson, of Grand Bay, who was injured in an automobile accident early Sunday morning, is doing as well as can be expected, and his general condition is fairly satisfactory.

"Mother Patrick's" condition is about the same. She is seriously ill and there is no marked change this afternoon.

THE MILL POND IS DISCUSSED AGAIN

Commissioners Talk of Needed Improvements

Mr. Jones to Go Fully Into Matter of Sewerage System and Report—Lumber Tenders Opened.

At a meeting of the common council this morning Commissioner Jones brought up the matter of sewerage conditions in the mill pond, West St. John. He said the engineer estimated that it would cost $80,000 to put in a proper system.

Commissioner Bullock said the mill pond was not much better than a cess pool and it was getting worse every year. He felt that something should be done and suggested that a trunk sewer be extended into tidal waters and subsequently the filled in area could be properly developed.

Commissioner Prink said that the city was obliged to carry sewers to the low water mark and told about similar conditions formerly existing in the old Lily pond.

After further discussion Commissioner Jones was asked to go fully into the matter and report back.

Tenders for lumber for the harbor department for the repair of wharves, etc. were opened. J. A. Gregory offered 150,000 feet of three inch deals at $42 a thousand and 400 pieces of spruce at $55 a thousand. The Purdy Ice Cream Company offered a quantity of lumber for $44 a thousand. J. Roderick & Sons tendered for $85 and $75 a thousand. The Eastern Mercantile Company offered eighty pieces of large timber for $1,222 and 600 pieces of smaller size for $2,840. Thomas Bell's tender was $68.50. On motion of Commissioner Bullock the tenders were referred to him to report back.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock George W. Belyea was granted a renewal lease of property in Charlotte street, West St. John, at $20 a year.

The appointment of Edwin John East as a city constable was approved by Commissioner Jones read a communication from the city solicitor regarding a claim against J. G. Burke, Douglas avenue, for damage resulting from collapse of a water boiler in his home during the winter. He said the property referred to was much lower than the street.

Commissioner Prink said he had promised Mr. Lane to look over the ground and had to date been unable to do so. He asked that the matter be held up pending his visit to the scene.

AGREE TO THE LAYING OF TRACKS

Commissioners Consider and Act on Application re Water Street.

An application of the C. N. R. for permission to put additional tracks in Water street along the McLeod and Pettit wharves was favorably considered by the members of the common council at a committee meeting this morning.

The railway agreed to put down proper foundation and planking and in addition was arranging to take over a city shed, which is under lease to T. McCarty & Sons, for $300 a year.

Commissioner Bullock told about the application and a subsequent meeting he held with some of the shipping men. He said it was strongly favored by some and was satisfactory to others provided that it would not interfere with them securing accommodation. He told of good which would be derived by the extension as it was assumed that the elevator would be kept running to capacity during the coming winter. He said that the railway officials considered it so urgent that they were taking money appropriated for other purposes to have the work done.

After plans had been looked over and the matter was discussed Commissioner Bullock moved that the application be complied with on condition that the work be done to the satisfaction of the city engineers and that the placing of cars, etc. be under the control of the harbor master or civic officials. This was unanimously passed.

"Pussyfoot" Sees Doom Of Liquor In England

American Prohibition Agent Discusses the Progress of the Campaign and Explains the Recent Increase in the Briton's Drink Bill.

(By G. W. Harris.) Recent news dispatches from London have appeared in various American newspapers to the effect that the consumption of intoxicating liquors in the United Kingdom in the year 1919, measured in terms of absolute alcohol, showed an increase of approximately 50 per cent over 1918, but was still about 33 per cent less than in 1913.

There is deep-seated resentment against the whole liquor trade in Britain today. The principal thing that is gripping the people is the economic pressure. England cannot produce enough to live on. She must bring in raw materials and sell manufactured products. She is buying twice as much abroad as she is selling abroad.

Today England sees America free from the handicap of drink and selling twice as much as she buys—and England is convinced that she cannot compete with America in the markets of the world without prohibition. Now the capitalists of industry in England have got that in their heads—and they are not naturally prohibitionists, either.

As for Ireland, Ulster is represented in parliament by twenty-six members, twenty-three of whom were elected on their pledged word to vote for a "local veto law," as they call it over there, that is, local option—and they are making good. Now, when the dry elect twenty-three out of twenty-six representatives in the House of Commons, that is, local option, Scotland and Wales today have elected seventy-six Sinn Feiners and I was surprised to find that a large majority favor local veto and a lot of them are prohibitionists. They are all total abstinence men.

Wales and Ireland are both calling for the same treatment as Scotland, that is, for local option. The probability is that if England gets local option, Wales and Ireland will also get it. It is possible that Wales and Ireland may get it before England does. The power of the big brewers which has halted the liquor trade is not far off.

THREE LITTLE BLAZES

The fire department was called out for three small fires on Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday evening, about 7:30 o'clock, an alarm was rung in from box 136 for a slight fire on Hillyard's wharf.

The blaze was extinguished before any damage was done. About an hour later an alarm was rung in from box 19 for a fire in an unoccupied flat at the rear of St. David's street. The fire originated in a cupboard and was quickly extinguished by the chemical. Yesterday afternoon box 8 was rung in for a fire in the rear of Day's fish store in North street.

The fire started on the floor under a pot used for boiling lobsters. The flames were easily quenched by the chemical, and the only damage was a slight scorching of the floor.

A DANGER SIGNAL—TENDER AND BLEEDING GUMS

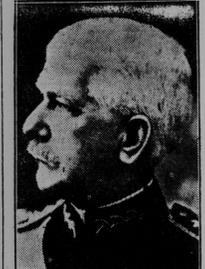

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.
Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.
Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.
Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

HARDING AS KNOWN BY BANGOR MAN

Republican Nominee Has Remarkable Personality, Says Colonel Parkhurst.
(Bangor Commercial.)
Col. Frederic H. Parkhurst of this city spoke interestingly of his personal acquaintance with Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, when interviewed by a Commercial representative Monday.
"I have met Mr. Harding a number of times at national headquarters in Washington. About a year ago I had lunch at the same table with him, and as it happens with Mr. Johnson, my impression of Mr. Harding are, however, those which come closer to Maine people than my acquaintance with him in Washington, for I have had opportunities to know him and observe the impressions made by him upon Maine people when I have been on the speaking campaign programme with him. We were in Valde county together and among other places we spoke at Belfast and Unity.

"Mr. Harding's personality is remarkable. He is of commanding presence, considerably above the average in height, is not heavily built, but is not spare. His voice, of wonderful quality, is a great asset as a speaker. He was received by those Maine people who heard him then with great enthusiasm, I remember. He impressed me, too, as a man having a broad and comprehensive grasp of national and international problems; and then, too, he seems to have the quality of adaptability perhaps characteristic of him as a newspaperman, a result of that training, showing in his ability to understand local problems. He is, in short, one of the most effective campaigners I have ever met."
"So far as comparing him with McKinley is concerned, I think I would say that his poise, his kindness, his general bearing would remind one of General Gorgas, His Majesty complimented him on his great achievement in conquering Malaria in the canal zone by medical science, saying that in this way the construction of the canal was made possible."
"His record in the senate has established the fact that once he states his convictions he stays put with those convictions. And yet, his outstanding characteristic as a man is kindness, and his attitude toward people shows that some rare quality of real kindness. This quality is perhaps due to the fact that he is a man who has made his own way up. He worked his way through college and made his own way in the world."

The Murray Call property, situated between Mount Pleasant and Hawthorne avenues, now owned by John Gallagher, which was to have been sold by auction at Chubb's corner on Saturday, was withdrawn at the highest bid was only about $4,000. Another property advertised for sale also was withdrawn.

REVIVAL OF ATHLETICS.

An event of much more than passing interest and importance was the revival on Saturday of field sports in St. John. But little more than a year ago the old shipyard beyond the Marsh Bridge was an unsightly dump. A few persons could see possibilities in it, and on Saturday more than a thousand people witnessed the final stage of an Olympic trial. The dump had become a recreation field, with baseball diamond, running track, and facilities for other sports, besides swings and other things for the children. The faith and the continued labor of a few have made this possible. They were rewarded yesterday when they saw the large crowd, the keenly contested sports, and the large group of former athletes, some growing gray, who acted as officials on the field and manifested the keenest interest in the various events. A great number of boys who witnessed the sports on Saturday will now desire to train for future events, and the interest in clean athletics will spread over the city. The next step should be to provide facilities for running and jumping in each of the other three sections of the city, so that each neighborhood may have its training field for future competitions. The south and west ends can easily do it, for they have the grounds; and the city council should see to it that the north end also gets its neighborhood playground. The tendency for the past two years has been to acquire everything else for baseball, but that is not fair to the boys and girls. Facilities must be provided for all-round athletic training. The Commercial Club will conduct sports in July, August and September. There should be some new competitors in the field for these, and no doubt there will be if opportunity for training is afforded.

ST. JOHN NEGLECTED.

The following editorial, headed "Union Government Careless of Rights of East," appears in the Montreal Transcript: "St. John no doubt has some right to complain of the lack of representation in the Dominion cabinet, so have other parts of the maritime provinces. Everybody is interested in the development of the winter port of St. John, and also in the development of the business of the C. N. R. and the C. E. R., the volume of the whole country.

"Last winter St. John was complaining of the inadequacy of its terminal facilities. Ships were lying idle in the harbor, while cars were blocked on the sidings. From the Moncton yards were crowded with cars loaded with freight for the ships waiting for berths in the harbor of St. John. However, the conditions were somewhat exceptional. Allied governments had undertaken to move grain in a hurry to Europe. Owing to the war unusual pressure has been put upon the port of St. John by the exports of grain and flour, and relatively St. John is much better equipped for handling grain than general cargo. There we have a port without a single crane, and the grain conveyors have been so constructed that cranes could not be installed on most of the existing piers.

"Next winter the eastern movement of grain and flour may not be so considerable as in recent years. Reports from the west say that there is anticipation of a heavy movement of wheat from Pacific ports to Europe during the coming fall. Even so it is important to have representation in the cabinet in order that the needs of our maritime ports may receive proper attention, and also being well represented in the cabinet is now demanding the control of the C. N. R."

THE CHILDREN SUFFER.

The need of a court of domestic relations is keenly felt in the city of Montreal. Judge Choquet of the juvenile court says there are in the city at present no less than three thousand separations of husband and wife, as to bed and board. One result of such a condition of affairs is the throwing of young children on the community when they should be cared for by their parents. A conference of representatives of child welfare and other social organizations was held this week in the juvenile court, with Judge Choquet in the chair. It was agreed that "one of the main difficulties in dealing with defaulting husbands was the tendency on the part of the wife to forgive when the husband came before the bench." It was stated that in New York the total cost to the community in regard to abandoned children was a million dollars or more per year, and that the formation of a National Desertion Bureau, originated by a Jewish society, had produced good results, saving the United Hebrew Charities alone a hundred thousand dollars in four years.

With regard to Montreal, the general opinion was that a court of domestic relations, to sift all such cases, would be of great advantage.

St. John is a much smaller city than Montreal, but it would probably surprise the average citizen to learn how many homes have been broken up and children suffering because of the separation of parents or the desertion of husband or wife. And in this city we do not even have a juvenile court with protection officers. We are therefore worse off than the city of Montreal.

The Quebec Telegraph believes Sir Lomer Gouin will retire from provincial politics. It says: "Much as the fact will be deplored by all well-wishers of the province, it appears impossible to disbelieve any longer in the persistent rumors of Sir Lomer Gouin's very early retirement from the leadership of the government. It has been known for a considerable time past that the premier was anxious to withdraw, and that he had only remained up to the present time at the head of the provincial administration in response to the urgent appeals of his supporters in the house and in the country."

The Democratic convention in the United States must now say whether it has a clear-cut policy relative to the League of Nations or whether it proposes to follow the lead of the Republicans and another issue in words. It also will be invited to discuss prohibition and the Irish question, and the discussion is likely to be interesting all round. Having the Republican platform to study, the Democrats should be able to take advantage of its weaknesses and make a strong appeal for popular support of a policy concerning which there could be no two opinions.

Saturday evening and yesterday the Long Reach was dotted with motor boats. A few sailing yachts were also out, with a stiff breeze. The closing of the schools on Friday enabled families who spend the holidays along the river to get settled in their cottages before Sunday, and yesterday the summer life of the river was nearly at its height. The fact that it is now possible to go up any evening and return to the city early next morning gives many more people an opportunity to enjoy the pleasures of the river resorts.

St. John did not send a delegation to Ottawa. The supplementary estimates give no comfort to St. John. Aside from the speech of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the needs of the port were not pressed upon the house. The visit of the western members of parliament to the port does not appear to have been followed up. Is parliament to prosecute without any further presentation of St. John's case?

The farmers of Halifax county have organized and it is planned to nominate a number of farmer candidates in Nova Scotia. The movement has just been given a great boost in New Brunswick. The old parties must look to their laurels. The Nova Scotia provincial elections will take place on July 27.

Mayor Schofield wants to see more St. John entries in field sports. Let us all encourage the boys and young men to train for these events. On Saturday, and that evening the boys was running around the square in imitation of what he had seen.

The citizens of St. John have invited the farmer to increase the price of milk, and have also given them a fine illustration of the effectiveness of a strike. "We have the reins of power in our hands now, and we propose to drive said a milk producer last week. Evidently he knew what he was talking about."

The members of the house of commons are to get the increased indemnity. Will they want another session? The crop of candidates may be larger hereafter.

The next sporting event of interest will be the aquatic field day at Crystal Beach on Dominion Day. There will doubtless be a record crowd at that lovely river resort.

Sir Robert Borden still keeps the country guessing.

SETTLEMENT IS REACHED IN THE EXPRESS CO. CASE

National Express Co. Employees to Get 25 Per Cent. Increase — 600 Employees Affected.

Winnipeg, June 28.—The board of arbitration in the matter of the Canadian National Express Company and their employees has finally settled the wage dispute. The agreement signed on Saturday provided increases ranging from ten dollars to thirty-five dollars per month or an average of twenty-five per cent. It is estimated.

The yearly increase of the company's wage bill will be over $200,000. There are over 600 employees involved at various points from Quebec to Vancouver.

VIEWING WITH ALARM.

I thought, when nations were at bay, that when the war was ended, we'd all get busy baling hay, with diligence quite splendid; I thought we'd lay aside the sword, the shotgun and the sabre, and try to earn our bread and board by sane and useful labor. It never occurred to me that we would all be dotty, that from the useful tasks we'd flee, for pastimes vain and naughty. And when I saw the country crazed, I ventured to defend it; I said, "By war we have been dazed—a month or two will end it; a month or two then rolled away and other months followed, and still the country was at play, and in its orgies wallowed. The speeding mouths are making tracks, and into years they're growing, and still we don't get down to tasks, or make a decent showing. One needs a searchlight if he'd find the man who works with ardor, who has declining years in mind, as he digs in the harder. A joyride life the boys would lead, and blow in all their winnings; in vain I rant and preach and plead the sports last have their claims."

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

CROWNING VICTORIA.
On June 28, 1887, an event of great interest to all the British territory as well as to Canada, took place in Westminster Abbey, London; it was the coronation of Queen Victoria. The old city was awake very early that day and by 6 o'clock in the morning strings of vehicles were pouring into the West End. Everywhere platforms had been erected from which to see the young queen pass to the abbey.

At 10 o'clock a salute of twenty-one guns announced that the queen had entered the state carriage. Preceded by trumpeters and a detachment of the Life Guards and followed by a great procession of the elite of the land she rode to the famous abbey. The state coach was drawn by eight cream colored horses through immense crowds of loyal subjects who cheered their loudest as she rode along to take the oath of the sovereign.

At 11:30 o'clock the abbey was reached and the grand procession began to enter the choir. It was a great march, headed by the Dean of Westminster. There were princesses of the royal blood, an officer bearing the regalia, others carried St. Edward's crown, the sceptre and the various swords of office. Officers of the highest rank in the empire, each with a part to play in the march into the choir.

THE GOSPEL OF LABOR.
They who tread the path of labor, follow where Christ's feet have trod. They who tread the path of labor, do the holy will of God.

Where the weary toil together, there am I with my own.
Where the tired workman sleeps, there am I with him alone.

SUNSET FIRES.
(By Mary Chappelle Billings.)
Away across the hilltop
At night I used to see
A house with colored windows
As lovely as could be,
Plain glass they were, like ours;
And flashing crimson light;
Oh, how I wished our windows
Would shine like that at night!

THE GINGERBREAD MAN.
Oh, say, have you seen the gingerbread man?
He's rolled on a board and baked in a pan;
He has currants for eyes, a clove for a nose,
And baby has nibbled his fingers and toes.
Oh, the gingerbread man is liked at our house,
Although he is always as still as a mouse.
For he's spiky and funny and tasty to eat,
And the children all think he's a very great treat!

Emerson & Fisher Ltd.

At present prices this is a huge thing, for the whole world is crying out for Australian merino wool, and the result has been that at the sales in England during the last few months wool has fetched enormous prices—prices far in excess of the flat rate at which it was bought by the Imperial government. But while values are now unprecedentedly high, there would be small likelihood of their continuance if the London market was swamped by 200,000 bales of "contract" wool within a few months, to be followed immediately by our 1920-21 clip, which will be ready for sale at the end of the year.

It is now proposed to form a voluntary pooling organization to control the marketing of the whole clip. After this scheme had been mooted, representatives of the brokers and the growers consulted Sir John Higgins, who has been the head of the war-time government wool pool, and he made the significant statement that if this view has been supported, concerned the brokers and the growers could be brought to agree to some pooling arrangement "they would be in a position to dictate the world's price as far as merino wool is concerned." Naturally this remark led to some adverse press criticism on the ground that it was being sought to form an iniquitous monopoly. This view has been supported by the fact that the pooling scheme proposers suggested that after obtaining the necessary to seek legislative authority to compel the remainder to come into the pool. The reply to these criticisms is that the pool is only to cover the transitional period until the trade can return to the free marketing of wool; that it has been, by a government controlled committee, but by a national wool course, which all interests will appoint their own representatives; but that as the shipping shortage is the outstanding difficulty it will be necessary for that

PATRONAL FESTIVAL OF MISSION CHURCH
ST. JOHN BAPTIST

The Sunday within the octave of St. John Baptist's day was celebrated yesterday at the Mission church and all services attended by large congregations. These were celebrations of the Holy Eucharist at 7 and 8 a. m. and at the Choral Eucharist at 11 o'clock special music was given and hymns suitable to the day were sung. The sermon was by Rev. H. M. Little, rector of the church of the Advent, Westmount, who told of the wonderful life of St. John and of his work as the forerunner of the Saviour, being sent to prepare the way as the open path and instilled a Baptist or Presbyterian ministering in an Anglican church whose religion he did not believe in and vice versa. He thought the union by the church of England with the Eastern or Greek church never looked brighter than at present and hoped that the coming Lambeth conference, when a delegation from the eastern orthodox church would be present, would result in a further step in that direction.

In the afternoon there was a children's service and in the evening, at seven o'clock, Rev. Mr. Little again preached to a crowded church. He is a fluent and easy speaker and his sermons were listened to with marked attention.

CHANGES TOMORROW

With the announcement last night that the Sussex suburban train will revert to standard time on Tuesday, June 29, leaving Sussex at 6:50 a. m. standard time as formerly, milk dealers and commuters in the city hope that the milk famine has ended and that Tuesday's train will bring to the city the usual supply of 1,600 cans from Kings county milk-producers, instead of the 200 or 300 cans that have been arriving each day since the producers declared two weeks ago that they would not send milk to the city while their train ran on daylight time.

Callouses and tender soles

Will usually be found to indicate trouble with the arch which runs across the ball of the foot. Pains at the place where the finger points in the illustration above are also indicative of the same trouble.

When the cross-arch of the foot becomes weakened, one or more of the metatarsal heads (first joints of the toes) is apt to become depressed below the others, throwing the whole structure of the arch out of balance and usually impinging or squeezing some of the delicate nerve fibres. The result may be merely soreness or it may be pain of the most intense nature.

Callouses upon the ball of the foot nearly always indicate a condition such as described above and are due to the contacting with the shoe of that part of the arch which is normally out of contact and is not designed to bear weight.

Dr. Scholl's Anterior Metatarsal Arch Supports

are scientifically designed to support this cross-arch naturally, and they are capable of such adjustment as will give extra support to any particular metatarsal head which may tend to depression. If you have trouble of this nature, or, indeed, any foot trouble, we recommend that you consult a graduate Practitioner (foot specialist) in any shoe store selling the Dr. Scholl's appliances. His services are always free and he knows all about feet and their correction. Take advantage of this service.

Mrs. John Hay, Dorcas secretary of the W. A. packed two large boxes of knitted goods to be sent to the lepers at the hospital of the Resurrection of Hope to Miss H. Ridell at Kunoto, Japan. These articles were given by the Mission church, Sussex, Hampton and Moncton Women's Auxiliaries.

An over-zealous citizen, seeing sparks issuing from the chimney of McLaughlin's bakery, 218 Brussels street, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning, rang in an alarm of fire from Box 412, corner of City Road and Gilbert's Lane. The fire apparatus was quickly on the scene, but an unnecessary run.

The first of the united services of the German street Baptist and the St. Andrew's Presbyterian churches, which are to be continued until the end of August, were held yesterday. The morning services were in St. Andrew's church and the evening services were in the German street Baptist. Rev. S. S. Wolfe conducted both services. During the months of July and August St. Andrew's and the Christian church, Douglas avenue, will unite for their services.

There is a vote of $940,223 to provide for the purchase of several branch railway lines an done of $78,000 to provide for raising, repairing and maintaining the C. G. S. Aramoor.

The mayor said that as yet he had issued no licenses for a show in that locality.

GLEN FALLS SCHOOL.
The closing of the Glen Falls school took place this afternoon in the presence of about seventy-five visitors. Similar exercises were enjoyed by the senior grades under the direction of Miss Eva Higgins.

MAY HAVE CADET CAMP.
It was announced at local military headquarters this morning that information has been received regarding the probability of establishing a cadet corps camp in Sussex and also a cadet instruction course in this city. This announcement will be of much interest to many, but no definite information has been received.

In the West End Sunday school League the game between the St. Jude's and Presbyterian S. S. teams was won by the latter 11 to 3. There have been notices in the papers lately to the effect that the C. P. R. will either put up a new station at Fredericton or that they will combine with the other road, and a Union Station will be built. J. M. Woodman of the C. P. R., said to a Times reporter this morning that there was absolutely nothing definite settled. He said that when he was last in Fredericton he heard that a committee was to be formed to wait on him to see if a station could be secured, but as yet the matter has not come before him. He said there is little likelihood of any station being built there this year.

Mr. Woodman will leave for Megantic tonight on an inspection tour.

CANON KUHRING ADDRESSES THE BAND OF HOPE

Annual Meeting of Black River Branch Held at Gardner's Creek—Three New Members.

The annual meeting of the Black River branch of the Band of Hope was held on Thursday evening, the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, at Gardner's Hall, Gardner's Creek. The Band of Hope is a temperance organization for children in connection with the Church of England. The meeting was well attended, and the weather was favorable. Three new members were enrolled, and an excellent programme was given, for which great credit is due to Miss Holt, the school teacher at Gardner's Creek, who took much trouble in training the children of the Band of Hope. The programme consisted of appropriate songs and recitations.

The rector (Rev. C. W. Follett) introduced the speaker, Canon Kuhring, who gave a very forcible address with regard to the importance of the issue before the people of the Province on July 10th.

He urged everyone present to vote for straight prohibition and against the sale of light wines and beer. He gave good reasons why it was the duty of every true citizen to do so.

A collection of over $80 was taken, which will be sent to the fund for Armenian relief.

The rector then showed some views of Paris with the microscope and the meeting closed with the national anthem.

POLICE COURT.
Automobiles driven by Andrew Jack and Samuel Smith, of Smith Brothers, were in collision on Sunday at the corner of Sydney street and King street. The collision was reported by the police and in the police court this morning, after some evidence had been taken, the case was postponed until Friday at 2 o'clock.

William Lean was charged with speeding twice in Mill street. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 for each charge, but one was allowed to stand.

Three arrests were made over the week-end the smallest number for some time. James McCann, on suspicion of breaking and entering and stealing from the summer cottages of P. E. Williams-Fred deForest and S. Robinson, at Loch Lomond. He pleaded guilty and the magistrate remanded him but said he would impose a term in the penitentiary.

Two men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were remanded.

AUTHORITY FOR $35,000 OVERDRAFT

Commissioner Frink on Financial Troubles of City Public Works Department.

That the Public Works department of the city is in financial difficulties and that an overdraft is necessary to continue operations was said by Commissioner Frink at a committee meeting of the common council this morning. He said the appropriation for the year was $198,882 and that fixed charges for bond issue and overdrafts in 1919 cut this down by more than $87,000. He said that they had on hand 400 tons of asphalt which had not been paid for and this would make an additional cut of about $16,000. At the present time he said he had $24,500 to carry on with until next January. He said that the asphalt was to have been taken care of through bond issue in connection with Prince William street pavement, but as cement was not available the work had not been proceeded with. He said he proposed to have the plans changed so that a solid bituminous foundation be laid with concrete between the car rails in Prince William street as he hoped to be able to secure sufficient cement for that work.

He emphatically said that if the department was to operate there would have to be additional money procured. He told about work being undertaken at present by the department for road work and sidewalk repairs, but said that it would have to terminate unless assistance was granted. He expressed the hope that next year enough money would be available to mop up the "financial dirt," which was placing the department in these straits. If the citizens wanted sidewalks and good streets he said money would have to be forthcoming. "They curse you if you don't repair the streets," he said, "and they curse you when the tax bill comes to hand." He moved that he be authorized to make an overdraft of $85,000 when necessary. After some discussion the motion was put and unanimously carried.

RAIN IS NEEDED FOR THE CROPS

Summer Life of the River Now in Full Swing—Water Sports Thursday.

More rain is the need of the crops along the river. As the season advances the shortage of the hay crop becomes more apparent. On the whole, however, the crops, especially potatoes, are looking well. Farmers at Public Landing have potatoes in blossom and oats show a fairly healthy growth.

The passengers who went up on the Dream on Saturday evening saw the river at its best. There were sailing yachts and motor boats out in Grand Sand Point, while at Belyea's Point there were five yachts and a dozen motor boats of various sizes. The D. J. Barrett, a motor launch, crowded with people, sailed from Crystal Beach. A glorious sunset beyond the Nerepis hills, combined with the oily smoothness of the river surface and the vivid greens on the shores, made a picture beautiful beyond description. Earlier in the afternoon the Dream took her first Saturday afternoon excursion party up the Kennebec as far as Ferry's Point. They ran into a heavy shower, though no rain fell in St. John. The Dream will now make daily trips on the river night and morning for the convenience of suburbanites. She had a large list down this morning. The Dream was crowded going up Saturday afternoon and brought many down again this morning.

There was a dance at the pavilion at Belyea's on Saturday evening and the first of the season at Public Landing. At Sand Point the people propose to form an association and enlarge the pavilion there.

Everybody along the lower part of the Reach is talking about the water sports at Crystal Beach on Thursday next. At the Cedars they are eagerly anticipating the visit of sixty or more members of the Cam'ron Girls in Training, who will spend a week there. A group of St. John boys are going today to Sand Point to tent for a water polo match. The attraction will soon be Beulah Camp. The highway along the Reach yesterday and last evening was traversed by great numbers of motor cars.

ROTARIANS AND THE WILD WAVES

Also Pink Bathing Suits—St. John Delegates at Atlantic City—Honors for Halifax.

A letter written on June 24 by Rotarian Alex. Wilson from Atlantic City has caused local Rotarians some misgivings for letting President Terry and Chaplain Armstrong go on the trip. There are dark hints about pink bathing suits and what the wild waves are saying, but Mr. Wilson testifies that he has exerted a restraining influence and hopes for the best. Among other things he says:—

"This (the International Rotary Conference) is certainly a magnificent convention, looked at from every angle, and it putting Rotary on the map, to stay there are over 7,000 of the craft here from all points of the compass. Some of the addresses have been beyond all praise, and none of them any better than the one made by our own Clarence Maskinson of Halifax. The convention listened to his oratory spell-bound, and at the close rose to their feet en masse and cheered him for a long time. We Canadians felt proud of him."

MURDER CLUE BARES $250,000 DRUG PLOT

500 Persons Involved in Wholesale Narcotic Traffic on Brooklyn Waterfront—Smuggling is Confessed.

(New York Times.)

In a confession yesterday, after narcotics valued at $250,000 had been found in the possession of Louis Mauro, his father and brother-in-law, Mauro, a "chameleon" who owns a fast motor car and not a little Brooklyn real estate, told the police that at least 500 persons were involved in a wholesale traffic in smuggled drugs along the Brooklyn waterfront.

The cache of narcotics was found by police of the Italian squad on April 17, a clue to the murderer of Salvatore Messina, who was shot and killed in front of 17 Stanton street at 4.30 o'clock on the afternoon of April 17.

Shortly after 4 a. m. on the afternoon of April 17, Detectives Fiaschetti, Dardis, Trezza, Ertola, Patrizio, Capone and Repetto went to Mauro's home at 160 Carroll street, Brooklyn, in question Mauro and his father, Giovanni, as to their whereabouts on the day Messina was killed. Messina, the police had learned, had been killed in a fight over cocaine.

In searching Mauro's four-story house, Detective Fiaschetti found a carton containing large packages of cocaine and two sachets full of drugs valued at $75,000, a pistol, several knives and an Italian army bayonet.

From Mauro's house the detectives walked to the home of Giuseppe Gangarossa, 170 Carroll street, where they found $100,000 worth of drugs in packages and bottles, a double-barrelled .45 calibre pistol of Italian make, and a sword and a club. Gangarossa is Louis Mauro's brother-in-law.

At police headquarters, where the three men were locked up, charged with a violation of section 3082 of the penal code and the Sullivan law, an additional charge of homicide was piled against Gangarossa. Detective Fiaschetti said he had evidence that it was Gangarossa who killed Messina.

Mauro, in his alleged confession, said he found his chief market, Brooklyn waterfront, but that often he sold large quantities of cocaine to "a man from Philadelphia."

Sailors, he said, smuggled it to him from Italy, though the last lot of cocaine received had come from Greece. The arresting officers said Mauro was not an addict, but sold it to smaller dealers.

Mauro's purported confession took the form of several statements. One said he had received his last shipment of drugs two weeks ago.

"A sailor, who claimed he had come from Germany, sold me forty-five packages, for which I paid him $25,000," he said. "I did not sell any of the last lot. I kept it, expecting to sell it to some one who would use it. The other day I sold two packages to a man in Philadelphia."

Mauro's father and Gangarossa refused to discuss the case.

DRESSMAKER SAVED FROM OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Ithaca, N. Y.—"Three years ago I suffered from pains in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an icebag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles I feel well and strong, do my own work and do not dread going to others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. FANNILLA BIRDAUER, 218 E. Fall St., Ithaca, N. Y.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BUSINESS MAN NOW CONVINCED

Says He Thought Merits of Tanlac Were Exaggerated Until He Tried It.

"Wrap me up four bottles of that Tanlac medicine to take back with me to Gamba, for after the wonderful way it has helped me I wouldn't be without it on any account."

Joseph Thompson of Grand Hay, president of the Thompson Manufacturing Co. of that place, was badly injured early Sunday morning in Douglas avenue. He and Mrs. Thompson were returning from a motor trip to Parrsboro and reached the city about two a. m.

As they were driving out the avenue something went wrong with the motor and Mr. Thompson got out to see what was the trouble. He turned off the bright headlights, leaving the dimmers and the tail-light. As he reached into the engine another car came along at the fast rate of speed and crashed into the Thompson car, tearing the door off and hurting Mr. Thompson about ten feet along the road, where he landed on his face. The second car then continued on its way without stopping and it was going too fast for its number to be seen.

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health.

Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy?

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. F. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N. S., writes—"I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Body of Calgary Woman Found in Burning House—Associate Held by Police.

Calgary, June 28.—Anna Gordon was shot and instantly killed by an unknown person at 830 Ninth avenue east early Saturday and the murderer tried to conceal the crime by setting fire to the house. Firemen extinguished the flames and found the body of the dead woman partly burned on a bed with a bullet hole at the base of the neck.

Little is known of the woman here and no motive can be advanced for the murder.

James Royce, said to have been an associate of the woman, is being held as a witness.

BUY DOGS NOW TO MATCH COSTUME

Women Go Shopping for Pets Much as They Do for a Yard of Ribbon or New Gown.

(New York Evening Post.)

Fashions in pet dogs, in cats, in canaries change as rapidly almost as do fashions in gowns, ribbons and hats. It's all a state of mind—not only Boston, but the practical world of business and supposedly cut and dried commercial transactions—and if any one feels inclined to discredit this statement he should spend a few hours in a dog shop and see how much psychology affects buying and selling. The fact that pets are viewed by would-be owners as adjuncts of costume and a final elaboration of the ritual of doing the correct thing under all circumstances certainly influences the variety that becomes popular and salable.

If, for instance, a woman, on her way to the scene of her vaudeville activities, suddenly erupts on the peaceful canine ascension and demands the love of a Persian cat, white, and only so big," an expressively definite measure given by beaming hands and accompanied by a seductive pouting of carmine lips, one understands clearly that to this vision of ornament shopping for a pet is exactly the same as shopping for a new gown or a few yards of ribbon—you order it, you buy it, you take it home and there you are; the thing is yours. Of course, the patient and courteous explanation that a Persian cat is not at that moment in stock and under the most favorable conditions does not come in the type of mind like this. If you have the money—and everything about the pet's shopping's costume and the waiting

EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N.B.

THREE BIG MEN ON HYDRO BOARD

They Represent the Three Kinds of Men—Prophets, Priests, and Kings.

SIR ADAM A PROPHET Mr. Lucas Stands for Cold Reason and Conservatism and Col. Carmichael Practical Action.

By J. E. MIDDLETON.

THREE men form the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario: Sir Adam Beck, manufacturer and sportsman; Hon. I. B. Lucas, lawyer and former Attorney-General of Ontario; and Col. the Hon. D. Carmichael, D.S.O., M.C., who entered the army as a farm boy, winning promotion and decorations by sheer merit as a fighter.

The prophets are the ones who see visions and dream dreams; the poets, the writers, the artists, the statesmen. They are vigorous and articulate. They see ahead of the crowd and make the things of their imagination vivid and real.

The priests are not the clergy alone, but lawyers, judges and officials. It is their temperament to prevent us from casting aside the old and the tried things while we run after the prophet's novelties. They are the dampers of enthusiasm, the men who appeal daily to cold reason, to common sense, to the theory of philosophy's doubt.

Who are the kings? Who other than the men of action, the fighters who plunge into the battle of competition and endure hard knocks for the pleasure of it?

In this democratic land, where every opinion counts for something, in the polling booth, at least, the king, or the "plain business man," is well-beloved. The people listen to this king's judgments on public affairs and are content. He is known as a hard worker. Very likely he began as a poor boy.

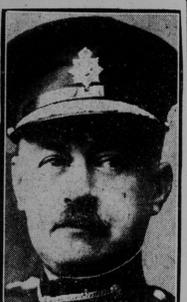

THE priests know that they and their predecessors have been stoned from the foundations of the world. They know that men hate those who jolt them out of old habits, or afflict them with new ideas. For reasons of common prudence the prophets affect colloquial habits of public speech and put brakes on their enthusiasm.

The tendency is observed at its best in Parliament. No one nowadays speaks like Gladstone or Edward Blake. Orators cease, but they know full well that oratory is discredited. How frequently one hears that statement: "I am not an orator, therefore you must listen to me and follow the course I outline as the one desirable above all others."

A Well-Balanced Commission THE prophets know that they have been stoned from the foundations of the world. They know that men hate those who jolt them out of old habits, or afflict them with new ideas.

More than Ecotism is required. The spirit of Dominion must be present. Most prophetic reforms must compel attention and drive folk into action. A statesman of the highest rank makes the people go his way, but uses such diplomatic methods that few will be offended. Sir Adam Beck does not believe that he is a statesman. He fancies that he is a business man talking business. Yet his enemies call him a demagogue. They can see into a grinsome as far as any philosopher. They know that Sir Adam is the protagonist of a New Idea. They know that he can command the sympathy and support of any audience, that he can hold the confidence of Grit and Tory, of farmer, labor man and business man. Plainly, they know full well that he is the most accomplished statesman, or politician, of our day. They express that belief by flinging at him the epithet which every politician has won frequently in his time.

Dismal was called a demagogue. Gladstone, thundering about the Jugurthine atrocities, was called a demagogue. Sir John Macdonald was called a demagogue. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was called a demagogue. Roosevelt was called a demagogue. All these and more were called demagogues—until they died. Then they were distinguished statesmen, even in the tributes of eulogy delivered by former enemies. Sir Adam Beck sees in the great Hydro-Electric enterprise the real

Brig.-Gen. W. T. F. Horwood

NEWLY appointed commissioner of the London Police, to succeed Gen. Sir Nevil Macready, Gen. Horwood won several decorations in the World War and was cited seven times for bravery. He has been connected with Scotland Yard for many years.

British Soldiers Who Became Potentates

Instance of Adventurous Spirit Who Won High Rank.

KAID SIR HARRY MACLEAN, who died recently, was not the only British soldier who found in foreign lands the fortune he did not find at home. Sergeant Baiding was given £6,000 a year by the Emperor of Morocco in 1909 to instruct the imperial cavalry in European line and one in Trooper Ward of the Yorkshire Yeomanry, made such an impression on the Prince of Parma as to be promoted to the rank of lieutenant in the army, reforming chief of that army, Ambassador at Vienna, commander-in-chief of the army of Parma. On his return to England Lord Palmerston received him, and described him as "one of the most remarkable men of the age."

Then there was Pte. James Hattie, of the old 5th Foot, whose comical career may be summed up in this wise—promoted sergeant at Madagascar. Given a commission as lieutenant for bravery in extinguishing a fire. Entered the Governor's service. Appointed tutor to the sons of Radama, King of Madagascar. Returned with these sons to Madagascar. British Resident at Madagascar. Abolished the export slave trade. Reorganized the Malagasy army on the European model. Became chief adviser to the King, and—creating distinction—had the honor of taking the salute from his old captain and company of the 5th when they attended an important State ceremony.

DR. BOREM took Miss Gushing in to dinner. "So you write poems, doctor?" she said. "A little—a little; just to kill time." "Why?" asked the lady. "Have you no patients?"

MAC LANG, M.P. FROM FAR NORTH

Represents Porcupine Miners, Cochrane Farmers, and Hudson Bay Trappers.

ESKIMOS LOOK TO HIM

This Mining Contractor and Prospector Is One of Legislature's Interesting Characters.

By A. G. DAVIE.

MAJOR MALCOLM LANG, M.P.P., representative in the Ontario Legislature of the most northerly constituency of Ontario, is one of the most interesting of the varied types of humans who infest Queen's Park during the winter and action's Major Lang's books and actions might not indicate that he was any different from the general run of legislators. U.P.O. Labor Liberal or Conservative, he is not given to much speech or any form of self-advertising.

Major Lang is a mining contractor and always a prospector with a great faith in the wonderful wealth of Northern Ontario. As a mining contractor, he undertakes assessment and development work on other men's claims, as well as doing the necessary work of his own claims.

Major Lang's constituency starts where Capt. Tom Maguire's leaves off, somewhere north of New Liskeard, and embracing a wide circle of clay belt, forest wealth and gold mines, sweeps off northward to Hudson Bay and even to the Arctic circle as far as any fixed boundaries are concerned. Indians and Eskimos are part of Mac Lang's care as representative.

Mack's Camp Open House

WHEN Porcupine was scourged by the first great forest fire in 1911, Mac Lang had a camp at Pottsville, which old-timers will remember as "a whoop and a holler" from Golden City across the lower part of Porcupine Lake. Mac's camp was open house for everybody. Pottsville was wiped off the map with the Golden City and South Porcupine, and all the buildings round about, by the great fire and Mac's cabin and effects with them.

The Moderator of Presbyterian General Assembly is a Diplomat

Professor James Ballantyne Has Been on the Staff of Knox College Since 1896—Fine Scholar, Specially Gifted With Talent.

By W. L. EDMONDS.

PROFESSOR James Ballantyne, the moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, had followed in the footsteps of his father, the late Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, his life's vocation, he would have been connected with the dairy industry and not with the Church. And it would have been a natural thing for him to have done, for while his lectures do not favor the making of butter and cheese as the Ocell family of England to which he belongs takes as a side line, he has taken to Provincial politics, as did his father, and like him eventually graced the Speaker's chair in the Legislature.

But if Prof. James Ballantyne had the blood of a dairyman in his veins it was the lure of the Church that decided the vocation he should follow. And when that lure came upon him he set himself to the task of acquiring the subjects he does so ably on the subjects he does so ably.

He had obtained a good educational foundation at Dr. James's famous school at Toronto. But just as he wanted more food he entered the University of Toronto, specialized in modern languages, English and history, and in 1880, at the age of 23, graduated with first-class honors. Still unsatisfied he took a course at Leipzig, Germany.

Then he took up the more serious study of theology, in the course of which he entered in turn Knox College, the Princeton Theological Seminary, and the Edinburgh University. In 1885, five years after graduating from the University of Toronto, he was ordained into the ministry, and became pastor of Knox Church, London, where he remained nine years, leaving to accept the pastorate of Knox Church, Ottawa.

When in 1896 Knox College wanted a professor of Church history, the lot fell upon the Rev. James Ballantyne. Whatever it might have been to others, it was unexpected by himself, but after due consideration he accepted. Twenty-four years he has since elapsed, but he is still lecturing to Knox students in Church history, Church government, and a few odd subjects.

Although Professor Ballantyne had again a candidate for the Legislature in the 1913 election two opponents. As a matter of biography, Mac Lang was born at Edgely, Edgely County, Ontario, February 25th, 1874, the son of Daniel Lang and Ann Jane Graham, both Scotch, ver-y.

His Crowded Life

AN amusing story, illustrative of the Indian's way of looking at things, is told by Mr. W. Douglas Newton in his book descriptive of the recent Canadian tour of the heir to the throne. "Westward With the Prince of Wales."

He was on a hunting expedition in the wilds, and struck a tiny clearing in the forest where were a few stags inhabited by a score or so of Indians and half-breeds. He stepped into conversation with a young Indian lad, asking him how he liked the place. The boy replied that he didn't like it at all.

Prince Age of Denmark

WHO because of his marriage to the daughter of Count Calve de Bergo, the Italian envoy at Copenhagen, was compelled to give up all his prerogatives and status as well as his place in the line of succession to the Danish throne, and to descend to the ordinary nobility with the title of Count Hlorenberg. In view of this he found it more convenient to sever his connections with the Danish Army, and secured a commission as captain in the French Army, in which capacity he is serving in the French stronghold at Metz. His wife and child are with him.

George N. Barnes, M.P.

THE fact that George Barnes, the son of humble workpeople, himself a mechanic without early advantages, who has recently resigned from Lloyd George's Cabinet, became a British Cabinet Minister, is no longer remarkable. English politics has instances like it. Spencer and Carlyle, and on the eve of his introduction to the world of trade-unionism was a convinced radical.

Governor Carries Lunch in a Bucket

Oklahoma's Head Has Reason for His Democacy.

IF Governor Robertson of Oklahoma ever attempts to revive the old campaign of "a full dinner pail," he will be prepared to speak with authority, and not as one of the pattered few who can eat only at richly appointed tables. A score or so of half years separating Governor Robertson from the days when he plowed on a low farm have not taken from his memory the practical lessons that a farmer boy can learn.

When Governor Robertson went to the office at the Oklahoma Capitol a year ago he took with him a lunch in a tin bucket. And virtually every day since then he has done the same. It was no lack of regard for hot food that led the Governor to adopt the lunch bucket, nor was it affectation to appear one of the masses in appeal to voters. He had a practical reason.

"Lunch time is almost the only period in the day when I can shut out visitors and do any work," Governor Robertson explained. "By carrying my lunch with me I can shut the door when noon comes, eat my lunch in ten or fifteen minutes and get rid of a big pile of papers before the people to see me get back from eating."

A CHEAP HOUSE

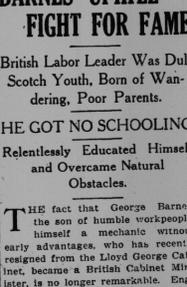

GEORGE ROBEY, the famous English comedian, tells the following story which will appeal to all house hunters: "A friend of mine had been up and down the land for months, vainly seeking a small house at a reasonable rent."

"At last, when he was almost in despair, he found one which had one to let—rent £22 per annum. "My friend went to view it in high hopes, but alas! he returned shortly afterwards very much disillusioned."

"That house you sent me to," he said, addressing the agent in an appalling state of despair, and damp as damp. Why, there are ten stools growing in the kitchen, and the dining-room walls are covered in mildew."

Col. Piccio, Italian Ace

Col. Piccio, Italian Ace ONE of the most noted officers in the Italian Air Service, the first Italian aviator to become an ace, was shot down on his arrival in New York from France. During the war he downed 32 enemy planes and two observation balloons. He is on business for his Government.

George N. Barnes, M.P.

THE fact that George Barnes, the son of humble workpeople, himself a mechanic without early advantages, who has recently resigned from Lloyd George's Cabinet, became a British Cabinet Minister, is no longer remarkable. English politics has instances like it. Spencer and Carlyle, and on the eve of his introduction to the world of trade-unionism was a convinced radical.

How He Plugged

THE rise of George Barnes in the world of British labor was a slow one. He had to be content with doing the drudgery of the "sec" relationship and with keeping the accounts. He had the quiet plodding efficiency of the hard worker. Until his advent in the trade union world, collective bargaining was a happy-go-lucky thing. The administrative genius of this Scot evolved a working arrangement that keeps all parties to a dispute within bounds. Another great achievement was economy in the management of the trade union funds, in which he devised a system of strike benefits and strike assessments that has spread all over Great Britain. Barnes is deemed a sort of financial wizard in the trade union world.

Another reform had to do with the organs of the trade union. They were the mouthpieces of proletarian discontent and nothing more. Barnes hit upon the idea of publishing articles on the technical aspect of particular trades. He ran courses in elementary knowledge. Trade union organs in England are to-day, in consequence, of a distinctly educational tendency.

It looked for a long time as if Geo. Barnes would not get into the House of Commons. He tried and tried without success, because he could not strike the imagination with a speech. However, some fourteen years ago he was chosen by a Glasgow labor constituency and he came to the front at once.

Barnes lives with his wife and children—six of his sons were old enough to lose his life in the war. In a small flat in a cheap London neighborhood on a scale of extreme frugality. The one ambitious room is the library with its books and its reproductions of great masterpieces on the walls, for George Barnes will confess that if he were rich he would rather have a collection of works of art.

George Barnes is summed up in the press of Great Britain as a conscientious labor leader. He gives no anxiety even to the Tory London Post.

Given a Start

THE parents of young Barnes had contrived to save a little out of their joint earnings, and George was bound apprentice to an engineer when he had attained the age of fifteen. For the next five years he was dependent on his own earnings, very nominal. He stuck to his engineering and learned book-keeping—when there was any—and tea. He often went up to the office and took to tending the highway from town to town, sleeping by the side of the road with the gypsies and the tramps. His only companion was the little Bible his mother had given him. His mother is still alive at a venerable age.

Although George Barnes is not what would be called "clever" or brilliant, in spite of his keen sense of humor, he had learned early in life that he stood in need of a great deal of practical knowledge. He was not naturally alert, nor was he out of work and took to tending the highway from town to town, sleeping by the side of the road with the gypsies and the tramps. His only companion was the little Bible his mother had given him. His mother is still alive at a venerable age.

That professor to Ballantyne is eminently fitted to perform the duties of moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada there can be no doubt. There is nothing of the theoretic pedagogue about him; he is a plain, practical man, fortified with sound judgment, happy in lecturing, and as a presiding officer always cool and collected.

Rev. Prof. Ballantyne

not prior to his appointment to the staff of Knox College in 1896 specialized particularly in Church history, his education had been so broad and deep that he had become a recognized authority on the subject, hence his unexpected call to the professorate.

As to his qualification for teaching the subjects he does so ably on the subjects he does so ably. He is an indefatigable worker, and as a student he is just as keen as he ever was. He has to go to date. As a lecturer he never attempts five or six oratory. What he has to say, having been well thought out, is lucid, concise, logical, full of oratory that are made interesting by the fund of information they contain and the spice of dry humor with which they are punctuated.

Professor Ballantyne seems to cover completely the whole of church history during the course of his lectures. That professor to Ballantyne is eminently fitted to perform the duties of moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada there can be no doubt. There is nothing of the theoretic pedagogue about him; he is a plain, practical man, fortified with sound judgment, happy in lecturing, and as a presiding officer always cool and collected.

MARINE NOTES.

The steamer Governor Dingley arrived here on Saturday from Boston with freight and passengers and sailed for Boston Saturday evening.

The steamer Grand Manan, which plies between St. John and Grand Manan, will change her berth from the McAvity wharf to the south side of the Eastern Steamship pier. Repairs and alterations are being made to this side of the wharf and a drop is now being laid.

The steamer Turret Cape from Sydney was the only arrival yesterday. She carried a cargo of soft coal for the Dominion Coal Company and is at present lying in the stream.

Seascope Jennie V. Merriam is loading lumber at Porsboro for Queenstown, Ireland, for orders. J. Willard Smith, agent.

J. T. Knight & Company, report the following charters: Motor schooner Centennial, Miss Trentowsky under deals for the United Kingdom. Four-masted schooner Charlotte Caman, from St. John to the River Plate. Steel ship Alfrid from Restigouche to Buenos Ayres.

The concrete steamer Permanencia, the first of her kind to be built in Nova Scotia, will be ready for sea about the middle of the month. The engines for the new craft, which was recently launched at Sydney, are on the way out from Sweden, and J. Aider, of the Swedish Steel and Importing Company, is in Sydney to install the motors when they arrive. The engines will be placed in position at the Scotia piers at North Sydney.

In connection with the completion of the Permanencia, the following dated Copenhagen, June 8, is of interest: The concrete ship Bartola, said to be the largest ship of its kind in Europe, was launched yesterday at Copenhagen by the shipbuilding company Patria. Its dimensions are as follows: Length, 70.41 metres; breadth, 11.13; depth, 7.75. The deadweight tonnage is 1,500 and the displacement 3,900.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES.

The property consisting of a house and barn belonging to P. L. Davis, Bridgetown, Albert county, was destroyed by fire on Saturday. The loss amounts to $5,000 but since Mr. Davis recently bought the house there is no insurance on it.

The employees at the Harsard office in Ottawa have struck for more pay. They claim that they have been led to believe that the increase would be forthcoming. All Saturday afternoon Harsard reporters had to get out their own notes by hand and on the typewriter.

Yesterday morning at three o'clock at the boundary bridge at Milltown a truck was ordered to stop by Customs officials. The driver, who was a Canadian, was struck him, knocking him down and dragging him several yards. It was suspected that the car contained sugar, but this proved to be not the case. It is not known what action will be taken.

A Famous Baseball Game.

Two teams from the Customs will battle for the supremacy of such department in the city of St. John, on the Nashwalk Pulp and Paper grounds, Tuesday evening, June 29, at 7 p.m. daylight time.

COMMENT ON IRON AND STEEL. In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for the week ended June 24, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment:

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" on Aspirin is of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which like sterling silver. It positively contains proper directions for the use of the Aspirin prescribed by physicians.

Scope of Merchant Marine Challenge to Extend Trade

Additional Service to Australasia and New Route to India From Atlantic Ports Point to Greater Trade Opportunities—Fifty Vessels by End of Season.

(Toronto Globe.) Expansion of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine during the coming months will be rapid. There are now thirty vessels operating on the various trade routes; twelve months ago there were only two ships flying the flag of the C. G. M. M. By October 1 there will be fifty boats in service if the deliveries are up to schedule. There are unavoidable delays in construction that will probably postpone deliveries beyond the specified dates. Before the end of the present navigation season, however, the Merchant Marine fleet will be considerably larger than at present, and it will be necessary to find a larger quantity of goods to ensure full cargoes for the vessels on both inward and outward voyages.

Starts Route to India. Notable among the recent decisions of the executive staff of the Merchant Marine has been the inauguration of a service between Atlantic ports and the East Indies, which will commence with the sailing of one of the craft of the $4,000 ton type from Montreal some time in August. It is proposed to put two ships on this route at first, and if trade develops to a sufficient degree other boats will be added as the situation warrants. An equally interesting decision was to start a service between Montreal and Cardiff and Swansea, Wales. It is believed that there is a good opportunity for trade by boats plying on this route, especially on the outward voyages from Canada.

Developing Australian Trade. A few months ago George Bunting, general agent of the C. G. M. M. at Toronto, was commissioned to investigate possibilities of extending trade with Australia and New Zealand. After spending some time in Australia, Mr. Bunting has been placed in charge of the C. G. M. M. offices in Auckland. The fleet will also have direct representation in Sydney and Melbourne. Good cargoes have been reported on boats that have recently cleared from Australian ports.

Another important development in connection with Australian trade has been the decision to install refrigeration equipment on several of the vessels. There will probably be about ten vessels in all that will be fitted with refrigeration facilities, to the extent of about 300 tons of their carrying capacity. This will be available both in connection with the importation of food products from Australia and New Zealand and the transatlantic trade in meat and dairy products from eastern Canada ports.

Investigation in Other Directions. Investigation has been conducted as to the possibilities for trade between eastern Canada and the west coast of South America, but there has been no announcement yet of intention to institute a service with those countries. In the past much of the goods reaching Canada from the East Indies has been transhipped from American ports. Importers will henceforth be able to secure products direct from India, the Dutch East Indies and from Ceylon. On the other hand, export trade with those countries can be carried on much more advantageously after the commencement of direct shipping connection. This makes it imperative that Canadian interests should make an effort to extend their markets for manufactured goods, regardless of the present demands of the from Ceylon. The executive officers of the C. G. M. M. believe that there is a good future for this service, in view of the goods that are imported indirectly through American ports, and the greater facilities for development of export trade through direct shipping connection with the countries in question. A line from Vancouver to the Orient is a development that may be decided upon in the future.

"LET'S END THAT ANCIENT GRUDGE," FAMOUS AMERICAN NOVELIST'S PLEA

Owen Wister, the American novelist, whose book, "The Pentecost of Calcutty," did so much good at a critical moment of the war, does further fine service by his new book, which he calls "A Straight Deal, or The Ancient Grudge," in which he tries to point out the folly of ill-will between America and the United Kingdom. He writes frankly and wisely to both peoples, and bids them end their "Ancient Grudge." Hatred is Not Wise. Owen Wister's intention is thus set out: "To persuade a few readers that hatred of England is not wise, is not justified today, and has never been more than partly justified. It is based on three foundations, fairly distinct, yet meeting and merging on occasions. "First and worst, our school histories of the Revolution; second, certain policies and actions of England since then, generally distorted or falsified by our politicians; and lastly, certain national traits in each country that the other does not share, and which have hitherto produced perennial personal friction between thousands of English and American individuals of every station in life."

Bad History Books. "All this virtue doesn't in the least alter the fact that we like everybody else in having some dirty pages in our history," says Mr. Wister. "These pages it is a foolish mistake to conceal. I suppose that the school histories of every nation are pretty bad. I imagine that most of them implant the germ of international hatred in the boys and girls who have to study them. "How much better and wiser for the whole world if all the boys and girls in all the schools everywhere were henceforth to be started in life with a just and true notion of all flags and the peoples over whom they fly. "Of forty school histories used twenty years ago in sixty-eight cities and in many more unreported, four tell the truth about King George III's pocket parliament and thirty-two suppress it. Today our books are not quite so bad, but it is not very much better. Thousands of our American children all over our country are still being given a version of our revolution and the political state of England then which is as faulty as was George III's government. "These books have laid the foundation for prejudice against England. It has descended from father to son. . . and it plays straight into the hands of our enemies."

Blakest Page of American History. "The blakest page of American history," says Mr. Wister, "would take a long while to read. No work of art did I ever see in my school textbooks. They were written on the plan that America can do no wrong. Just as we love our friends in spite of their faults, and all the more intelligently because we know how many centuries first. We are selfish, a Frenchman, sailed down the Mississippi river. This gave him title to the land. "There were people on the bank already, long before La Salle came by. It would have surprised them to be told that the land was no longer theirs because a man had come by on the water. But nobody did tell them. They were Indians. They had wives and children and wigwags and other possessions in the land where they had always lived; but they were red, and the man in the boat was white, and therefore, they were turned into trespassers because he had sailed by in a boat. That was the title to Louisiana which we bought from Napoleon Bonaparte."

England True to Form. "England ran true to form," says Mr. Wister, writing of the great Civil War and the slavery question. It was in September, 1862, that Lincoln proclaimed the freedom of the slaves to take effect on Jan. 1, 1863. He recalls the great act of the cotton spinners in Manchester. They sent an enthusiastic message to Lincoln which showed no sign of any grudge, ancient or modern. "These men said that they would rather remain unemployed for twenty years than get cotton from the south at the expense of the slave. "The heroic sufferings of the Manchester men are the things to remember, and not that cargo of Boston tea."

TO REPRESENT CANADA.

Mr. Wister says that America's blakest page in history is her treatment of the Red Indians. "This land was the Indian's house, not ours. He was here first, nobody knows how many centuries first. We arrived and we shoved him, and shoved him and shoved him back and back and back. Treaty after treaty we made with him and broke. We drew circles round his freedom, smaller and smaller. We showed him such and such a picture, and then took it away and gave him less and worse in exchange. Throughout a century our promises to him were a whole basket of scraps of paper. "The other day I saw some Indians in California. It had once been their place. All over that region they had hunted and fished and lived according to their desires, enjoying life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. We came. Today the hunting and fishing are restricted by our laws—not the Indians—because we wasted and almost exterminated in a very short while what had amply provided the Indian with sport and food for a very long while. $15,000,000 for Louisiana. "In 1803 we paid Napoleon $15,000,000 for what was then called Louisiana. Napoleon had his title to this land from Spain. Spain had it from France. France had it—how? She had it because La Salle, a Frenchman, sailed down the Mississippi river. This gave him title to the land. "There were people on the bank already, long before La Salle came by. It would have surprised them to be told that the land was no longer theirs because a man had come by on the water. But nobody did tell them. They were Indians. FANCY LEATHER GOODS.

The British fancy leather goods trade, once of only third-rate importance, owing to the great vogue of Continental goods, has now advanced to a prominent place in point of value of output, says a correspondent of the London "Times." The variety of purposes to which leather is so easily and readily applied has resulted in the production of a very large number of small articles, so numerous indeed that the section probably comes first in point of difficulty provide all the material for an exhibition of its own that could not fail to appeal to old and young of both sexes. The section is divided into at least three branches, if we exclude the suit and attache case section—viz., ladies' bags, purses, and wallets, which today are produced in endless variety of styles, colors, and descriptions of leather and fabrics, and absorb so immense a volume of calf, goat, and sheepskins, that the supply for the past few years has been inadequate. Besides causing prices of both raw and finished material to advance abnormally in value, the expansion of the industry has paved the way for the introduction of a great number of substitutes for leather. Pigskin, once so generally used for men's purses, is nowadays much scarcer, and largely imitated as to pattern of grain by embossing. The value of a real pigskin purse lies, of course, in its wearing quality,

Thomson is joint holder of the world's record of the 45-yard high hurdles. An extraordinary wound. An extraordinary illustration of how hard to kill are some men, is given in the Lancet, London, by Dr. H. J. B. Fry. A British soldier was hit by a German bullet on the left side of the abdomen. This bullet gouged the surface of the external iliac artery, penetrated the internal iliac vein, passed up this to the heart, passed through the heart and lodged in the left branch of the pulmonary artery. An x-ray photograph did not show it; there was no pain near the heart, but the left leg became gangrenous from its circulation being cut off, and was amputated ten days after the wound was received. Finally the patient went into shock and died. He had survived this extraordinary wound a whole month. USE The Want Ad Way"
