MRS. HATTIE MORRIS

Got New Life From Dodd's Kidney Pills.

She was Totally Run Down in Health - A Constipated Sufferer Whom no Medicine Helped Till She Took Dodd's Kidney Pills and was Cured.

BERT'S CORNER, N. B. April 17.-The women of Canada are the strongest believers in Dodd's Kidney Pills because they are in closer contact with sickness than men are and know better what remedies produce the best results in the sickness of their friends.

Women are more subject to disease than men, though they complain less. Therefore, they know more than men do about all the virtues of the many remedies on the market.

It is perfectly safe to take the opinion and advice of a lady on this matter. Take Mrs. Hattie M. Morris, of this place, for instance. She is an earnest advocate of the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills in all cases of "worn-out constitution," thin, weak, watery blood, and similar complaints. And her reason for this is that a year ago, last spring, she was completely run down, to use her own expression. The usual indications of defective kidney action were noticeable.

Mrs. Morris became dull and low spirited, lost all interest in her work, and, in short, became a striking example of what deadly injury any defect in the kidneys will cause.

She was advised to use Dodd's Kidney Pills for her trouble, and, although she says she had little or no faith in them, she began to take them. Three boxes cured her, made her a girl again, gave cheerfulness to her complexion, brightness to her eyes, and springiness to her step.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are a sure cure for all kinds of Female Troubles.

They are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Chipman.

April 8.-An enthusiastic meeting was recently held at Kings Hall, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of erecting a cheese factory in this section.

The meeting was unanimously in favor of erecting such a factory, and a committee of seven was appointed to look up the matter.

The committee has now reported in favor of erecting a factory, and it is expected that the necessary arrangements will be completed in a few days.

On motion resolved: Robt. Ward, Dr. Hay and Richard Hetherington were appointed a committee to procure all the necessary information in regard to the erecting and running a cheese factory, to be established at Chipman, and to call another meeting of the farmers at such date as they saw necessary, to fully lay the matter before the farmers and those interested.

On a vote being taken every farmer present expressed himself in favor of a cheese factory established at Chipman.

Motion to adjourn.

"Briggs Corner Public Hall Company" was duly organized on the 15th inst., with a membership of 19, citizens to commence business. The officers elected for the ensuing year consists of E. D. Chase, President; J. G. Nugent, M. D., Secretary Treasurer; and a prominent board of directors, Christopher J. Wilson, James K. Lackey and George S. Chase Esq., in addition to the president and secretary.

In a brief space of time 43 shares were taken up and stock amounting to $215.00 was subscribed towards the erection of a public hall at Briggs Corner. The directors with the consent of the meeting have decided to build a commodious hall 50 feet long by 26 feet wide and 19 feet high on a very slightly locality on Webbers hill. The past two days men and teams have been at work hauling and getting ready the frame and next week will see the frame up and boarded in, if the weather permits and the men are not called away steam driving, which is almost daily expected. As this is the only "Public Hall" in all this section of country abounding in halls and also the only incorporated one, the people ought to patronize it well and subscribe liberally towards making it an ornament in the community.

The two or three game wardens lately sworn in have entered upon their duties by taking incursions through the forests for the better protection of wild animals mercifully slain by unlawful hunters; but as yet they have not succeeded, if they Did She Kill Her Father.

New York, April 14.-Suspected of having murdered her aged father by battering in his skull with an axe, Mrs. Dora Jeffries is locked up to-day at the Liberty avenue police station, Brooklyn.

It required the combined efforts of four policemen to place her in the patrol wagon and take her to the station. She and her father, Thomas Hannon, lived on Atlantic avenue, and it was there he was assaulted. He died at St. Mary's hospital shortly after midnight. Late yesterday afternoon Mrs. Jeffries ran into a barber shop near by and cried out that something was the matter with her father. A policeman was summoned and an examination was made. He was lying across the bed, the whole left side of his head crushed in. The bed was saturated with blood, and lying beside the wounded man was an axe covered with blood and hair.

There were the marks of several distinct blows in the man's skull. He was very nearly dead when Policeman Carroll went up to him.

Mrs. Jeffries was extremely nervous about the entire matter. All that could be elicited from her was that there were no one in their rooms all day except herself and her father, and that he must have inflicted the injuries upon himself. She also said in her excitement that her father must have fallen. Finally the floor placed the woman under arrest. She became infuriated and struck the policeman squarely in the face, then she screamed and struggled and fought and it required the efforts of four officers to subdue her.

Hannon died at the hospital without regaining consciousness. Mrs. Jeffries raved and fought at the station, and screamed hysterically that she could not tell her father had been killed if she were to be put into the electric chair for it.

Mrs. Jeffries is twenty-six years old, and her father was sixty.

Mr. W. "No, we are full in every department, and you are the twentieth man I have refused today. Why don't you take up a line in which there is less competition and better pay?"

Mr. W. "When I was 20 years of age, I was a stranger in a strange land, with neither work nor money, when a friend of mine, a lawyer, advised me to take a book agency saying he had educated himself by selling like downy men gump at street. Mr. Tomkins. IN MEMORIAM.

Lines written on the death of James Hawks, of Chipman, Queens county, who was injured in a brew of logs in New Hampshire, on the 28th day of April, 1886, and died the 2nd day of May, after six days severe suffering, in the 25th year of his age.

The Doctor told him he must die,
He could no longer live.
"Oh, God!" he said, "can that be so?
How will my parents grieve.

"I have a praying Father home,
Likewise a mother, too,
But, ah! alas! here am I doomed!
No one to pray for me."

And, oh! how hard it seemed to him,
So far away from home;
No earthly friend to cheer his heart
That he could call his own.

But he had friends he knew not of
Who watched him night and day,
Attended him in every need,
To God for him did pray.

"Oh, God!" they cried, "this dear one spare,
If it should be Thy holy will,
If not wilt Thou his soul prepare
At Thy right hand to dwell."

Their prayers were heard on his behalf,
God's grace it did appear;
He died rejoicing in the Lord,
Which did their spirits cheer.

And unto God he cried, himself,
His precious soul to save,
His last expiring words were,
"Tell my parents I am saved."

He told his friends around his bed
He was happy in the Lord,
And hoped to meet his parents soon
In heaven's bright, blessed abode.

He being young and in his prime,
And resolute also,
He ventured where none others would
Which caused his overthrow.

But God works in mysterious ways
By His own sovereign will,
In various ways we know not of His purpose to fulfill.

When the sad news had reached the home
Of his own parents dear,
A note was sent by his kind friends
That did their spirits cheer.

It stated that their son was saved
Through Christ our risen Lord;
He hoped to meet them all one day
In Heaven's bright, blessed abode.

His spirit has fled, his soul has gone
To its eternal rest;
He's left earth's dear ones just behind,
For mansion of the best.

His life a sweet example gave
Of kindness, peace and love,
And actions that have budded here
Will bloom in heaven above.

In bloom of youth he was laid low,
He knew that death was near;
But calmly felt resigned to go,
Tho' strong were home ties here.

Rejoice ye broken hearted ones
He just has gained the shore
A little while, and we shall meet
Where parting is no more.

THE POET AND THE GRIG.

John Calahan McCarthy is a citizen of St. John, who is well known in St. John. The public have recognized him thus far as a yeoman, but henceforth he will be known to the literary people as a minstrel of rare intelligence. London has recently been thrown into a whirl of excitement by the poems of Francis Thomas, a man who rose from the depths of Bohemianism to the utmost heights of literary possibilities. Mr. McCarthy is most unpretentious in fact, exceptionally backward. Yet he is possessed of a gift that would make Tennyson, Longfellow, or Shakespeare blush with shame. His writings have a depth that no poet has yet attained, combine the humorous, pathetic and descriptive, and best of all, retain an originality that is most enterprising. The following lines were written by Mr. McCarthy a short time since.

A man in his carriage was riding along,
A gayly dressed wife by his side;
In satin and lace she looked like a queen,
And he like a king in his pride.

A wood-sawyer stood on the street as they passed,
The carriage and couple he eyed,
And he said, as he worked with his saw
On a log,

"I wish I was rich and could ride."
The man in the carriage remarked to his wife,
"One thing I would do if I could—
I'd give all my wealth for the weary road
And the health
Of the man who is sawing the wood."

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work,
Whose face as the morning was fair,
Went tripping along with a smile of delight,
While humming a love breathing air,
She looked in the carriage, the lady she saw,

Arrayed in apparel so fine,
And said, in a whisper, "I wish from my heart,
Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work,
So fair in her calico dress,
And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth
Her beauty and youth to possess.

Thus it is in this world, whatever our lot,
Our minds and our time we employ
In longing and sighing for what we have not,
Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

We welcome the pleasures for which we have sighed,
The heart has a void in it still,
Growing deeper and wider the longer we live,
That naught but Religion can fill.

THE GRIG.

How often a trifle might save a man's life,
When he is near starving from want,
He tries to live happy all through his life time,
But finds in the end that he can't;

His friends seem to shun him, he knows not the cause,
But he thinks it is poverty's curse,
Oft times he is tempted to steal but he don't,
It is bad, but it might have been worse.

Chorus.

Then give what you can to a man in distress,
Let it be but a dime or a penny,
And remember that many can always help one,
While one cannot always help many.

And then he takes sick, laid low by the grip,
His rich friends they all pass him by,
They know not his needs, they care not for his wants,
He is left there alone for to die.

But then the reporters in looking for news,
Many cases of want they lay bare,
Then the people they strive to keep poor folks alive,
Destitution is now very rare.—Chorus.

Once I was wealthy but now I am poor,
No money is mine to bestow,
But if kind words will help a poor person through life,
I will cheerfully give as I go.

Sometimes a kind word is as good as a coin,
When a poor man is not feeling right,
If you speak from the heart see how cheerful he looks,
He was downcast, but now he is bright.—Chorus.

When a poor man feels gloomy, some loved one has died,
Try to cheer him up as if you can,
He may not want to say, but give a kind word,
And you surely will cheer up that man.

Now my friends one and all when they found I was sick,
They offered their help with a will,
Which shows that St. John is free-hearted and good,
And will give the poor people their fill.—Chorus.

The schooler Annie M. Allan is gallant and gay,
And is owned by Captain Craft from Maco's Bay;
The captain is a man of high renown,
And is liked by every one in the town.

Her cabin is the finest I ever seen,
And is fit for any king or queen,
Her banks are made of the finest down
That can be got in Boston Town,
Her decks are polished most and clean,
And everything is grand to be seen,
Her sailors are fine to be seen,
There ain't one of them that looks green.

The captain he is good to McCarthy,
And gave him a meal that was good and hearty.
DOCTOR CALLAGHAN MCCARTHY,
Poet Laureate of Canada.

OUR TEACHER.

We have got a brand new teacher,
His christen name is Mike,
And whispering in school
Is something he don't like.

When he catches you talking
He stands you on the floor,
And makes you cast your eyes around
To see if there are any more.

And there you stand and reconnoitre,
With the crimson on your face,
Until you see some unfortunate one
Which you call to take your place.

Each morn he reads the Bible,
And prays into the Lord,
Each night he drives the whole way home

To save his weekly board.
For now he's got a horse,
At least he's got the frame
No more he rides the train.

His face and legs are pretty thin
His clothing is like-wise
His hair is light, his mustache brown,
And azure are his eyes.

But in spite of his thinness
We dare not raise a squeak,
For we poor, timid chickens,
Are frightened of the Hawk.

ST. JOHN LETTER.

Bishop Potter, of New York is reported to have said a few days ago that "war is a relic of barbarism, as there is no more reason that it should survive among Christians, than that you and I should settle our differences by pounding each other with clubs." Leigh Hunt, the essayist, was of the same opinion and more than fifty years ago he wrote how "private wars" should be conducted with the same formalities as "public ones." "When two gentlemen dispute over their wife they should immediately put on two lead hats, call in a band of music from the street, and after hearing a little of it, and marching up and down the room with an air of dignified propriety, fall to it with their fists, and see which can give the other the most logical bloody nose. The blows would grow heavier and heavier till one of the two fell insensible—that being an evil necessary to the termination of the argument. When the band had played again the conqueror would clear his throat in the most dignified manner, strike up a hymn, and thank the author of his vitality that the defeated party had been beaten to a jelly, to the special satisfaction of the beater, and the eternal honor and glory of the Author of the Universe." But after all, Christians will have to engage in both public and private wars, in self defence, as long as barbarism exists in the world.

Markets generally are very steady and quotations are generally the same as last week. Wheat is rather dull but while the present demand for export continues no material change in prices is anticipated. Sugars have advanced 1/2 cent per pound, port 20 cents per barrel. New Porto Rico molasses continues firm at 35 cents; some small lots of Barbados are expected to arrive in a few days. Eggs sell at 14 cents today but in a week they will be plentiful at 10 or 12 cents. Choice butter is in fair demand at 16 cents. Messrs. George S. deForest & Sons are shipping daily from 1000 to 2000 pounds of their four grades of Union Blend tea, but still they are unable to keep abreast with the urgent demands of their customers.

EDWARD EDWARDS,
St. John, April 16th.

The Local Legislature.

FREDERICTON, April 8.—On the bill amending the law relating to municipalities coming up for its third reading, Mr. Hazen moved that it be referred back to the committee on law practice and procedure. He said the bill was entirely different from the original bill as introduced. There seemed to be a good deal of doubt as to the effect of some of the amendments made to the bill, and there was an impression that as it now stood it might effect the franchise for the Dominion parliament.

Mr. Burchill—The bill only deals with municipal franchise.

Mr. Hazen—I know that was the intention, but the lines for the Dominion being now made up from the municipal and civic lists, the bill might have a far-reaching effect.

Mr. Emmerson said the bill was one only affecting municipal affairs. The chief attendants to the bill were those which would not permit a non-resident to vote in any parish election without having his taxes paid, and that no non-resident be allowed to vote in such parish election unless he owned and was assessed on one hundred dollars worth of real estate. The bill in no way affected nor was it intended to affect the Dominion franchise.

The motion to refer the bill back was lost and the bill was read a third time. Replying to Mr. Humphrey, Mr. Emmerson said the Record Foundry had received a contract for putting on the superstructure of the Kingston bridge. He did not know the weight of the same. Tenders were asked for the bridge completely erected, and the work was awarded by tender, which exclusive of carriage, amounted to $28,290 and included the extra hardwood for flooring. Mr. Emmerson said that Henry Bales had first asked for tenders, the lowest received being $270 and the highest $1,094. They had concluded that the tenders were too high, and Millidge Crossman was put in charge of the work, and he had constructed a permanent structure of stone, earth and gravel, with iron pipe railing at a total cost of $936.65. As to the breakwater at Stoney Creek, Albert, that was a Dominion-Government affair.

Mr. Robertson introduced a bill amending the act authorizing the city of St. John to supply water for inhabitants, manufacturers and corporations in the parish of Lunenburg, and for other purposes; Mr. Veniot a bill to exempt the pulp industry at Bathurst from certain taxation; Mr. Veniot a bill to authorize the trustees of school district No. 16, parish of Bathurst, to effect temporary loans.

FREDERICTON, April 11.—Mr. Tweedie read letters from the Principal of the Normal School, the secretary of the board of health and its inspectors, written in reference to his enquiries as to the Normal School building. These letters emphatically stated that the sanitary condition of the building was perfect, and despite the prevalence of typhoid fever in Fredericton there had been but ten or twelve cases since the opening of school last September. There was no cause whatever for alarm on the part of the parents of the students.

The bill to enable the commissioners of the General Public Hospital in St. John to make a further issue of debentures was referred back to a representative committee to allow a representative of the municipality to be heard.

Mr. Robertson introduced a bill amending the act incorporating the Women's Christian Temperance Union of St. John. Bills amending the act incorporating the town of Woodstock and acts in amendment thereof, amending the law for the better prevention of confiscations in the city of St. John (to allow the erection of the I. C. R. elevator in the fire district), authorizing Albert municipality to grant partial exemption from taxation of the property of the Mineral Products Co., situate in Hillsboro, Albert county; authorizing St. John municipality to issue debentures for the purpose of paying off a certain indebtedness and for heating and other permanent improvements upon the almshouse and workhouse of St. John, were agreed to.

FREDERICTON, April 13.—After routine business this afternoon the House took up consideration of Hon. H. R. Emmerson's resolution in favor of women's suffrage and in the two hours' discussion five of the ablest, most eloquent and best speeches of the session were delivered. Three of these were in favor of women's suffrage and two against, but when the vote was taken the proposition was defeated by a vote of 4 to 1. The subject will be up again in a few days, but the probability is that it will be disposed of without further discussion. The second consideration will be on a bill introduced by the Premier granting the privileges and rights that his motion said should be provided. These are that every woman 21 years of age owning $100 of real property or $400 of real or personal property or in receipt of $400 of income shall be entitled to vote. The bill also provides that married women entitled to vote are to be assessed separate from their husbands.

The resolution of Premier Emmerson voted down at this afternoon's meeting was as follows:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this House the time is now ripe for the enactment of a law providing that the rights of citizenship shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex, but that full franchise be granted to the women of this province on the same terms as to the men.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson, in opening the discussion, went at some length into the question. He argued that despite the criticisms of the past, experience had shown that no mistake was made in granting municipal franchise to women, and then asked if it were right for an unmarried woman to exercise the franchise, why should she lose that right when married? Mr. Emmerson said his only doubt was as to the expediency of a bill. So many persons now enjoying the franchise regard it as a matter of barter, that he sometimes doubted if it was wise to enlarge the franchise. He expressed the belief that when women are given the right to vote the sentiment of the country regarding the salaries paid to women laborers, particularly teachers, would change so that they would get equal pay for equal work.

Mr. Porter seconded the resolution, in what Mr. Hazen termed an eloquent and classical address. The other speech in favor of the bill was by Mr. Robertson and was one of the best of the debate. Mr. Robertson spoke with force and vigor, answering the arguments of Dr. Pagsley in opposition, that the Legislature had no mandate to deal with the subject that women when they are given the franchise should take up all the burdens of citizenship. Mr. Pagsley said the government had it in their power to correct the inequality in the salaries of female teachers. He moved an amendment to the resolution as follows:

That all the words of the resolution after the word "House" be struck out, and that the following words be substituted in lieu thereof: "That the petition which have been presented praying that a law may be passed giving full parliamentary suffrage to women on the same terms as those now enjoyed by men are entitled to the respectful considerations of this House, but that in view of the important change which would be effected by the enactment of such a law, and the duties and burdens which would thereby be cast upon women, as a result of the conferring upon them of the right of suffrage, it is desirable that the fullest possible information should be obtained as to the results of such a policy in those countries where it has been adopted, and that a committee of five members of this House be appointed, whose duty it shall be during the recess to enquire into the results which have followed the conferring of the right of suffrage on women in other countries, the extent of which women have availed themselves of the privilege, and generally to obtain such information as may guide the House in reaching a wise conclusion of this question; the committee to report the results of their investigations at the next session of the Legislative Assembly."

Mr. Hazen seconded the amendment, and in the course of his speech said that only 2,005 women had signed the petitions in favor of the franchise, although the census shows there are 81,000 women over 21 years of age. He said the legislation was in advance of the time. Mr. Emmerson briefly replying said the petition, except that from St. John was only representative of the W. C. T. U.'s out of the women of this province.

The vote of the amendment was as follows: Yes—Pugsley, Hazen, Purdy, Melanson, Humphrey, McCain, Wells, Robinson—8.

Nays—Emmerson, Tweedie, Dunn, Labllois, Farris, Mott, Lawson, Thompson, Whitehead, Scovil, Osman, Burchill, O'Brien (Northumberland), Fish, O'Brien (Charlotte), Porter, Barnes, McLeod, Gibson, Campbell, Veniot, Robertson, Shaw, MacKeown, Carvell, Todd, Smith, Russell, Glesier, Carpenter, Johnson, Gagnon, Poirier—33.

The vote on the original motion was: Yes—Emmerson, O'Brien (Charlottetown), Porter, Robinson, Russell, Glesier, Smith—7.

Nays—Tweedie, Dunn, Labllois, Farris, Whitehead, Scovil, Osman, Burchill, O'Brien (Northumberland), Fish, Robinson, Barnes, McLeod, Gibson, Campbell, Veniot, Patsley, Hazen, Shaw, MacKeown, Carvell, Todd, Purdy, Melanson, Humphrey, Carpenter, McCain, Johnson, Gagnon, Poirier—34.

SPRING MEDICINE.

It is Absolutely Necessary to Give Some Attention to the Blood at this Season.

In the springtime the blood needs attention. The change of the year produces in everyone, whether conscious of it or not, some little heating of the blood. Some people have pimples, a little eczema, or irritation of the skin; others feel easily tired and depressed and have a poor appetite. A tonic is needed, and the best tonic—the best spring medicine for man, woman or child—is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills do not purge and weaken like other medicines. They make rich, red blood, build up the nerves and make weak, depressed and easily tired people feel cheerful, active and strong. No other medicine in the world has offered such undoubted proof of merit, and what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for others they will do for you if given a fair trial.

Miss Ella M. Kelly, North-West Harbor, N. S., says: "I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any person suffering from any form of weakness, as I have proved their worth in my own case." Remember that pink colored pills in large jars, or in any loose form or in boxes that do not bear the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" are not Dr. Williams'. No one was ever cured by a substitute. Sold by all dealers or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes at $2.50.

McChesley, Fred Duffy and others for several hours. Report says a company was formed to be known as the Stuart Brook Gold Mining Company. It is also said that the company will erect a stamp mill, the cost to be about $5,000. Quartz mining will be commenced at once. There were some gold nuggets shown in town. It is a well known fact that they came from Stuart Brook. A large number of additional applications for mining areas in Cross Creek and vicinity have been made at the crown land office recently. A syndicate headed by A. S. Yerxa, has taken out no less than 300, some of which are located on Rocky Brook. G. T. Duffy has taken 30 acres on the Southwest Miramichi, Donald Ross and others 25 acres on Taxis river, and Samuel Cook 25 acres on Ryan's brook.—Fredericton Herald.

BEVERLY PERLEY.—Mr. George F. Beverly, the popular young hardware merchant of German street, was united in marriage yesterday with Miss Mabel Louise, youngest daughter of Mr. D. J. Parry, M. P. P. Rev. J. A. Gordon performed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents, Main street, at an early hour yesterday morning. The parlor where the happy young couple were wedded was prettily decorated with plants and flowers. The bride was given away by her father. She was unattended. Her dress was a tailor made gown of blue cloth with hat to match. The groomsmen were Mr. Frank Watson, breakfast was served at the conclusion of the ceremony, and then Mr. and Mrs. Beverly drove to the depot where they took the train for Boston and New York on their honeymoon. On their return they will reside on German street. They were heartily congratulated on the happy event, and will have the best wishes of hosts of friends. Mr. Beverly's prospect to his bride was a very beautiful brooch of pearls and diamonds. The bride's father presented her with a complete set of dining-room furniture in oak, and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nass presented a dozen cut glass tumblers. Mr. Jarvis Parry's present was a very handsome inlaid table. There were a great many other costly gifts. The wedding was witnessed by the following relatives and friends: Mr. and Mrs. C. Phelps, Mrs. Chesley, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Chesley, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Chesley, Miss Edith Chesley, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chesley, Miss Chesley, Miss Kate Cowan, Miss Helen Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Cowan, Miss Nellie Cowan, Miss Ada B. Cowan, Miss Susie Jones, Mrs. A. L. Cowan, Miss Mabel Cowan, Mr. C. K. Woman's Influence

Has Made
Paine's Celery Compound
The Great Home Medicine.

As a Spring Remedy It Meets the Wants of Women in Every Sphere of Life.

When weakly, sick and broken down women are seen to gain health and vigor from day to day from the use of Paine's Celery Compound, no room for doubt is left to the most sceptical individual.
Medical science devised Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine uniformly successful in banishing the troubles that afflict the great majority of women, and honest physicians are always pleased to recommend it.
It is a well known fact that all the women who have recovered health and strength by means of Paine's Celery Compound were induced to use it through the influence and persuasion of other women—sisters, mothers or friends.
In the spring time, when women are weak, overworked, nervous, have tired feelings, dyspepsia, backache, headache, neuralgia, blood troubles or any of the many nameless ills from which they suffer in silence, Paine's Celery Compound will quickly banish all dangers and sufferings; it will impart that strength, health and vivacity that make women womanly and admired.
Paine's Celery Compound is at present carrying on this joyous transformation work all over Canada, and women, young and old, of all ranks and conditions, bless the memory of Dr. Phelps who conferred such a blessing on their sex.
Dear women of our country, why continue in misery and suffering, when such a friend as Paine's Celery Compound is within such easy reach, and ready to do for you all you so much desire?
Do not be deceived by any of the many nervous, bitter, sarsaparillas or advertised pills; they cannot bestow that pearl of great price—good health. Paine's Celery Compound has given new life to your friends; it will not fail in your need; a few hours of need. Bear in mind that Paine's Celery Compound makes sick people well.

Literature.

Before his companions had ceased laughing at his remark they were startled by the cry, "Help! Help! Oh God have mercy!"

The saloon was situated near a high bridge that spanned a large stream of water that swept along towards the sea. Not many moments elapsed before men with lanterns could be seen fitting here and there making search for the unhappy victim, but no trace of him could be found. The next day his body was found lodged against a large rock in the stream. My friends, I helped to carry that young man to his father's beautiful home. The agonizing cries of his mother and sisters as they kissed again and again the cold white face of the one they had loved so well is branded upon my memory never to be obliterated while life lasts. I could fill a volume with scenes of horror, caused by the rum traffic. I will just relate another scene quite as heartrending.

It was a pretty little village, where I was stopping a few days with a friend. It was one of the prettiest places I visited. But the curse of the licensed saloon had thrown its blight over many homes.

Walking with my friend one evening in the out skirts of the village we heard a shriek that sent the "chills" over us. It proceeded from a poor looking house near by. We hastened to learn the cause when we reached the door a woman with her hair dishevelled her eyes, I cannot describe them, so full of agony, horrors and fright. She caught hold on my friend and shrieked out "for God sake look" and pointed toward the fire place and then swooned away. She had been away all day doing washing for someone.

When she returned home there lay her husband. He had in her absence staggered home drunk and fallen with his head into the fire. It was burned to a crisp and past all recognition and by his side stood a small whiskey jug. It is so in every lad I visited, wherever there is a grogshop, it is an agency from the infernal pit doing the devil's work to perfection.

The Son of God came down to earth suffered and died to destroy the works of Satan, and lift the human race up out of sin and degradation and raise them to a higher life. Shall we insult the Eternal God by starting one of Satan's agencies in one quiet town to ruin our neighbors homes and send there souls to perdition? Our friend Leich says let me try: saloon for one year, I say No! no, a thousand no's. Better turn fifty rattlesnakes loose upon one street, they would not cause as much misery, for they could only kill the body. But a grog shop is a wholesale slaughter house, where every tender feeling of manhood is slain and his soul prepared for the devil and his angels. He will keep an orderly house. That means he will give a man drink until he transforms him into a brute, a devil, then turn him out to go home to beat or kill his helpless wife and children. He says he will be responsible, will take the responsibility upon himself and see that his own son does not become a drunkard and gambler. Will he be responsible for taxation upon the community for crimes committed in his saloon? Will he be responsible to God for the souls that will go down to hell through the influence of his grogshop for one year? Will he be responsible for the peace of homes destroyed, for broken hearted women sent to an early grave, for children sent to the almshouse to be supported by taxation? In the face of those facts I call upon you my neighbors, my fellowmen and townsmen to arouse yourselves like men and put your heel upon the head of this slimy monster before it coils itself around you and you feel its deadly fangs pierce every fibre of your manhood.

He bowed and sat down, amidst a loud applause. Then the chairman called upon Freeman—a small slight young man with a very pretty face and figure and a general favorite in the town, especially among the ladies. His musical voice made him a welcome guest in social amusements. He stepped to the front of the platform shrugged his shoulders and smilingly swept his eyes over the audience, that broke out into loud cheering, when order was restored he said:

"Ladies and gentlemen it would be of no use for me to try to make a speech like Hamilton, for I was not cut out by that pattern."

Some one in the audience said, "give us a song Frank."

"That is just what I am going to do if you will have a little patience until my nerves get steady for I have listened to Hamilton's description of horrors until I feel shaky. I hope it has had the same effect upon the audience. If so, we see a congregation of shakers (laughter) and I will sing you a song to cheer you."

Never before had his voice been so full of soul stirring pathos.

Licensed to make a strong man weak;
Licensed to lay a strong man low;
Licensed to fond wife's heart to break,
And make the children's tears to flow.

Licensed to do thy neighbor harm;
Licensed to kindle hate and strife;
Licensed to nerve the robbers arm;
Licensed to wet the murderer's knife.

Licensed thy neighbors purse to drain,
And rob him of his very last.
Licensed to heat his feverish brain,

ARMY BILL PASSED.

Dear Union Signal:—Sections 17 and 18 of the Army Bill as passed by the Senate February 27, 1899, and concurred by the House, read as follows:

Sec. 17. That no officer or private soldier shall be detailed to sell intoxicating drinks, as a bartender or otherwise, in any post exchange or canteen, nor shall any other person be required or allowed to sell such liquors in any encampment or fort or on any premises used for military purposes by the United States; and the Secretary of War is hereby directed to issue such general order as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this section into full force and effect.

Sec. 18. That all laws or parts of laws which conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

This is indeed a notable victory, for which so many have labored long and arduously. The Senate committee were largely in favor of a continuance of the canteen; Senator Hawley declaring that "beer was a necessity for the troops, and the committee would so report," etc. I therefore determined to make one more earnest effort with the states from which the members of this committee came, special attention being paid to Connecticut, as Senator Hawley was chairman; so last week I sent fifty letters to prominent parties in that state, telling them it would be a crying shame if the canteen amendment failed to pass because of the influence of a Connecticut senator, and urging each one to get one or more voters to write him by return post. One gentleman, a clergyman of the state, wrote me that upon receipt of my letter, he mimeographed a circular letter to one hundred and fifty voters, asking them to write Senator Hawley at once. When Hawley's weak report as a substitute for the Johnson amendment came out, I mimeographed Connecticut, urging voters to telegraph him in return, as the bill was coming up for final consideration the next day. Sewell, of New Jersey, a member of the committee, had said, "I am dead set against that Johnson amendment, and shall so declare at the proper time."

New Jersey had been appealed to in the same manner as Connecticut and with the result, when Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, on the floor of the Senate offered the amendment as passed by the House, and with the added direction to the Secretary of War to issue orders to make the law effective, not a man opened his mouth in opposition. The secret of it all lay in the reply Hansbrough gave to Mr. Crafts, who thanked him for his action, "You need not think we did this because of your desire; we have been receiving letters from home about it." That's it! "Hearing from home," if only the call is loud enough, will cause even United States senators to hear and heed.

Secretary Long's reasons for issuing his order closing the canteen in the Navy, viz: "It was done at the solicitation of naval officers themselves. . . . After a careful consideration of the matter these officers reported a majority of them favoring the absolute prohibition of beer and liquor on board, and the department felt that its duty to the boys and men in the service required such an order" was printed, with the testimonies of one hundred military officers condemning the army canteen, and sent through the mail to each senator, and by the courtesy of Hon. A. M. Todd, of Michigan, who gave directions to the postmaster of the House, they were placed in the box of each representative without the expense of postage.

Blessings upon every man who has placed his signature to a petition, and upon the tireless women who have carried and sent thousands of them for presentation! Numberless interviews with members, accompanied by letters of introduction from parties in their own state, have perhaps helped, as nearly all expressed their willingness to do as their constituency desired.

The Roberts matter has received much careful consideration, and before another session a still more vigorous protest must be made against the seating in our national legislature of this lawbreaking politician.

The Senate to-day voted to substitute high licence for the present prohibitory law of Alaska, 11 to 49. Governor Brady has been here for weeks working in its favor, more's the pity; for of course his influence has been great. Hon. W. W. Grout, of Vermont, will present a bill to-morrow in the House, identical with the Ellis bill with the clause concerning the canteen stricken out, and so we gain little by little.

Nothing has been done with anti-cigarette or anti-gambling bills by Congress. Next session we will try again.

COOK'S NEW BLOOD PILLS.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

Contributed by the I. O. G. T. INDICTMENT OF THE RUM TRAFFIC.

By Rev. W. W. Hicks.

The questions that disturb us and that demand our immediate attention are home and heart questions and propound themselves to all.

Shall rum rule and ruin? What shall be done—shall anything be done—to regulate and uproot an evil which all acknowledge; which is fearfully on the increase and whose terrible havoc and contributions all dread? The rum traffic is an unmitigated evil, not one honest word can be said in its favor. All other trades have just and honorable foundations; but this is the trade of death. It has no regard for honor. It knows no trace. It hears no cry of remonstrance—no appeal for quarter. It is savage and relentless. It is insidious to the last degree, stealing upon its victims with the subtlety of a serpent; finding its refuge in a houseed basement under that certificate sales forth on its dreadful mission, prowling through our land with locks and hands and garments red and dripping with innocent blood. It dogs the step of the husband and father until he falls into its hungry jaws. It patiently tracks the unthinking youth until, by deceit and intrigue, he yields to its charms. It hides in the gorgeous halls of the rich and crochets low in the bowels of the poor, to blind and destroy. It has devastated a larger area than war or famine, or pestilence. It has blasted more homes and broken more hearts than all these combined. It has claimed freedom from regulation and entrenched itself behind decisions of law. It has increased its force, multiplied its attractions and widened its avenues of infamy until they are the unsightly giddings of every street and the blighting attractions of every corner. It has employed all means to entrap and hold fast the youth of our land—by night entertainments of music, whose sounds in themselves innocent and inspiring, decoy to death; by arraying temptation in the fair form of woman whose charms and attractions robbed of virtue are prostituted to vice. It has hurled defiance at the God of Heaven, and with impunity insulted the Christian people, by disregarding the sanctity and claims of the holy Sabbath, making greater exertions on that day in its destructive work, and filling our streets with drunks and brawlers and imposing heavy burdens upon the charities and loyalty of the sober and Christian public. It has raised large sums of money to buy protection from your reckoning and vengeance; to buy shelter from the wrath and curse of mothers whose sons have fallen by its keen blade; from wives whose husbands come to them no more in peace, love and fidelity; from children whose parents have been sent to untimely and dishonored graves, and whose patrimony has been stolen to gild and enrich the palaces of rumsellers, which are indeed vestibules of hell. To buy decisions of law in its favor; hoping to purchase successfully, to the corruption of the courts by large fees of gold. To buy long and learned legal sophistries on the constitutional rights of men to denounce themselves and scatter "broadsheets, arrows and death" abroad through all the land. To buy up ignorant and unscrupulous legislators and secure their election who will barter away the dearest rights of the people for the gold of the rum seller, which has cost the blood of innocent families. It has formed leagues, large and numerous sworn to uphold the usurped and unnatural right to disregard entreaty or threat and go on in its thirst for blood and ruin. These leagues would rule in our courts as well as in our prisons and almshouses. They would fill the judiciary as well as the graveyard with their abettors and victims offering their spoils. They can stand the melting pangs of blasted homes and broken hearts, because they are not plus—they cannot coerce; they only beg. They can quell these cries, or so harden their hearts as that they shall be as the sighing of the winds through leafless trees mournful but natural. But law they fear. Law they would conciliate. They would gain so much legal place and political power that should they not be able to buy with gold, they might awe into silence, and thereby commence by terrible threats. Where justice cannot be brought they hope to intimidate. When by these plots and deep-laid schemes, these leagues fall (as fall they must) it is their hope to divide our ranks—the ranks of honest men, men of temperance and virtue—by sowing discord and creating contentions among us. This they will do by slandering our motives; by attributing to us political aims in the interest of certain parties or party. They know that politically we sympathize with different parties as regards civil and governmental questions. But let us teach them that while thus differing as to civil and political affairs we are one in the arena of domestic peace and moral virtue. We are one in the triumphs of Temperance and against the traffic of Rum. We can know no party here. Here we are brothers with strong arms to defend and resolute will to persist in defending our homes and families against the efforts of its gigantic embodiment of wrong. Let us withhold our outrage without regard to party politics from any man who solicits our confidence and vote, if he is a friend or abettor of the rum traffic.

Farm and Household.

Sheep in Orchards.

When apple trees thrive naturally the apple crop is one of the most profitable that can be grown. Many trees are met where they can never amount to such because the land is not adapted to their growth. A few can be grown most anywhere, by giving the trees extra care, but they are not profitable as a market crop on thin, sandy loam, or on that which is low, level and wet. A strong, deep loam on a hillside is usually better, and it is nothing against it if there are too many rocks for easy cultivation, provided the land is otherwise favorable to the crop.

I would certainly cultivate the ground, by hand or otherwise, directly around the trees while they are small, and before the roots have filled the soil, but when once well started I would not object to a grass seed, provided the grass is kept close by a flock of sheep well fed on grain every day in addition to what they pick up in the orchard.

I would so overstock the orchard that the sheep would eat every apple that fell as soon as it was large enough to become the home of any kind of insect. We can never have fair fruit in any of the older states unless the windfalls are destroyed soon after falling. Sheep will eat greener apples than will swine, and there is less danger of the trees being injured by the former. Hogs will sometimes root the ground over too deeply.

If only few sheep are kept, so that they can find all the food they want in what grows on the ground, there will be nothing added to the soil to replace what is removed in fruit, wool, and manure, but if a liberal allowance of grain be fed, the unusual value will be left to enrich the soil and keep it fertile enough to give abundant crops of apples, and fair ones, too, if all the insects are destroyed before they have time to mature and lay eggs for future broods.

Spraying will destroy some kinds of insects, but the apple maggot is not kept down by any method yet discovered, except picking up and destroying all the infected fruit that falls. Nothing can do this so cheaply as a flock of sheep. The apple maggot is the worst thing the apple grower has to contend with now, and in small gardens with only a few trees, and neighbor's grounds covered by fallen fruit, it seems very discouraging to try to raise good apples. It would be cheaper for most such villages to purchase winter apples from men who keep sheep to do the insect killing free of cost, for sheep will more than pay their keeping in growth and wool. Dogs are the greatest drawback to sheep farming, but wire fences will pretty well protect the sheep, especially if graded nights. Sheep must also be provided with good water every day.

Little Things That Make Success.
There are men who raise poultry by the thousands and with a percentage of loss not greater than those who raise but a few. Their success is due to their personal attention and the strict observance of proper feeding, good houses, sanitary conditions; in fact, the carrying out of all little things in careful detail that an experience has taught them is necessary.
There are men who become infatuated with the poultry business and imagine that because they have the proper pocketbook backing to start in on a large scale they will be successful. Experience is a wise but often a costly teacher, but in poultry keeping experience properly followed will lead the follower on to success and it is the only way by which you can reach that goal. Remember this—Little things make the success or failure on the poultry farm.

For House Plants.
"Tobacco water," says a woman whose house plants are a joy to the entire neighborhood, "is a most excellent wash.
Take a handful of tobacco stems and steep them by pouring boiling water over them until the water looks like strong tea. When the water is cool, wipe off the leaves and stems with a soft cloth.
This removes insects and keeps the plants in good condition. The infusion weakened still further may be poured about the roots with good effect."

Many people complain that they cannot drink milk without its disagreeing with them. The most common reason why milk is not readily digested is that it is taken too rapidly and it enters the stomach and becomes one solid mass difficult to digestion. If it is sipped it is so divided on reaching the stomach that when coagulated, as it must be by the gastric juice while digestion is going on, instead of being in one hard mass it is more in the form of a sponge, and in and out of the entire bulk the gastric juice can perform its duties.

Lime Water as a Disinfectant.
The value of lime water as a purifier,
a disinfectant and a germicide is not generally known says R. Crowe, assistant dairy expert in Victoria, Australia. Its adaptability for use in dairying places is far ahead of other things on that line. The chief points of advantage are in cheapness of application, efficiency and harmlessness; for it is not poisonous, as many disinfectants are. No remedy is known that will permanently sweeten a badly contaminated churn which should be distroyed. To prevent a churn from going off, it should be filled periodically, say once a week, right up to the top with lime water, and let it stand over night.

This water may be used again to wash walls, floors, etc.

To make lime water, put a quantity of unslacked lime in a tank or barrel. Fill up with water, when stir well. After settling the water will be clear, with a scum (carbonate of lime) on the surface.
Use the clear water without disturbing the lime in the bottom. When empty fill up again with water and stir, then leave to settle and so on. The quantity of lime may serve for many fillings of the vessel with water. As long as the carbonate of lime appears on the surface after settling, it may be considered of sufficient strength.
Every factory should have a tank in a high position with lime laid on to places repaired. Lime water should be used by all milk suppliers to rinse buckets and milk cans after cleaning. The cause of milk turning sour is caused quickly in often on account of the bacterial starter left in the vessel used. A simple experiment will demonstrate this to be true. Rinse one can, after cleaning, with lime water, and after leaving the cover on for some time, compare with another which has not been rinsed with lime water, leaving the cover on this also. Again, if we take cans, one cleaned in the former way and one in the latter, it will be found that milk will keep much better in the one rinsed with lime than in the other.

Sinks for Farm Kitchens.
Every farm kitchen should be furnished with a sink into which both hand and soft water should be brought by pump.
It is not always convenient to have the well water thus brought, but there is no reason why the cistern water should not be. The sink should connect with a drain for the carrying away of waste water. If water must be brought into the house in pails, it surely is too much to ask that it be carried out in the same manner and thrown on the ground to make a spot offensive to sight and smell and a breeding place for flies. At one end of the sink a long broad shelf makes a good place to put dishes as they are wiped, and under this should be drawers for dish wipers and kitchen aprons, and a cupboard to rest and catch fat.

A horse that has been brutally handled while being broken to the saddle or harness ought not to be expected to have a good disposition, or to be a safe animal in any kind of work. He knows man at first only as an animal that inflicts pain and it is often a long time before he learns what is required of him that he may escape the punishment of the whip or spur.
There ought to be no such a process as that which is known as breaking. The training that leads gradually to excellent performance of all his duties should begin with the colt, and be accompanied always with kindness and patience, yet with a firmness that exacts obedience always.

The grade of eggs required for the British market is one that will weigh a pound and a half to the dozen, and for every half pound which eggs weigh less than fifteen pounds to each ten dozen, the value is lessened by about one cent per dozen.
It is believed by those engaged in the import trade that in large eggs the albumen is thicker than in small ones, and that ninety per cent. of the stale or bad eggs are small eggs with white shells.
Shells of a brown color are preferred, and must be clean without having been cleaned.

Clover Smothered by Manure.
It is very easy to destroy clover by covering it with coarse manure at any season of the year. The large leaf of the clover dies down very quickly if not allowed access to light. But if manure has been partially rotted, and is spread on clover in fall or early winter, frost will so penetrate it that when rolled or harrowed, as clover always should be in spring, the lumps of manure will become scattered and benefit instead of injuring the crop.

It is foolishness to make the coats of young children of heavy material. Children must be kept warm, but weight does not always mean warmth, and a child should not feel its clothes a burden.
Many a little toe comes in from what ought to have been a refreshing walk, weary and well-nigh exhausted because of the weight of the coat it has worn. A layer of wadding between the material and its lining gives warmth without adding much to the weight of a pretty coat, and velveteen, satin, poplin, cashmere, camel's hair, Bedford cord and other soft coatings are much improved in appearance by using it.
Well-Ripened Potatoes for Seed.

The fact that a potato is mealy when cooked shows that it is well ripened.
Such a potato is much better for seed than the poor, watery potatoes that have not secured their proper amount of starch through destruction of their leaves. We are always suspicious of seed of a potato that in winter or spring appears watery and deficient in solid matter when cut into. It may have come from a hill that had not time before it was dug to ripen the crop of tubers beneath. But in nine cases out of ten it was eaten by potato bugs or its leaves blighted before the potatoes reached maturity. Such potatoes cannot make good seed.

Sunlight is our great natural germicide.
There is then a scientific basis for the housewife's placing her pans and other dairy utensils in the sun. She has been calling in the sun's aid to add to the effectiveness of her cleaning. The cheese and butter maker as well might in like manner make use of this important adjunct to cleanliness. It is in the dark places that bacteria flourish best; and to this fact may be ascribed much of the unhealthfulness of poorly lighted stables, cellars and the like. Of course we have also to consider in many of these cases dampness and filth as well. Sunlight dispels the one and shows up the other, and as we in Canada see much of the sun we might employ it more.

Have we any good reasons for complaining about the boys leaving the farm when we are educating them away from it? Have we any right to lament about it when by our short-sighted action we drive them from it? What inducement are we offering the boys to stay on the farm? What hope of becoming the possessor of a home of his own are we holding out to our boy? These are questions worthy of our closest attention and most serious thought.

prove disastrous if followed by our Correspondence.

Stylo News Items Gathered by Gazette Correspondents
Bolestown.

April 12.—James A. Hughes, late teacher of our school has accepted a lucrative position as principal of Regent Street School, Fredericton. N. Foster Thorne, who lately taught the school at Armstrong's Corner, Queens Co., is his successor.

Gold mining is the chief topic at present. Wm. McMillan, Fred Duffy, and W. R. McCloskey and others have formed a syndicate and will operate on Stuart Brook. It is said that a crusher costing $5000 is to be at once secured. Some fine specimens have been found near that locality.

The concert given in the hall recently was the success of the season. The large building was completely filled and excellent attention was paid to the very interesting programme. Surely too much thanks cannot be tendered all those who contributed towards the literary entertainment. The sale of baskets produced a very spirited contest, the young men bidding furiously for the tempting delicacies enclosed in the tastefully decorated baskets. As a result $85 was realized.

Bicycles are beginning to arrive. W. A. Campbell, our genial councillor and merchant, has the Red Bird Agency; J. D. MacMillan, the very popular Evan & DeLage bicycle agency and Station Agent Sharpe handles the well known product of the Welland Yale Company. All are doing a rushing business and the dust will doubtless fly, if it ever shows up through the snow.

H. A. Cendall has found that his rapidly increasing business necessitates more ample quarters and has removed into the store in the Whalen block.

Flowers Cove.

April 7.—Owing to the great quantity of snow the hauling throughout the whole winter has been a great success.

Mr. W. G. Green, who has charge of the McFarlane coal fields has between three and four hundred chds. of coal ready to be shipped as soon as navigation opens.

It has been reported that Mr. J. S. Butler and L. E. Flower while on their way from Fredericton had to put up at the Brouse Hotel until an early hour in the morn. on account of the bad roads.

Mr. H. C. Flower, who has been stricken with a severe attack of tonsillitis is recovering slowly.

A very pleasant surprise took place at the residence of Capt. Jas. Flower, when his son, Capt. R. D. Flower, accompanied by his wife and Misses Estella Flower and A. Maud Flower and Mr. E. J. Miles of Gibson, arrived at an early hour Sunday morning. A very pleasant day was spent. The party left for home about 4 o'clock and arrived at Gibson about eleven o'clock that night.

We are sorry to hear that Capt. A. E. Flower met with a sad loss of a very fine hog. Mr. B. B. Flower, who had a number of his friends to a wood frolic last week met with great success. Over 30 young men were present, besides a number of young ladies assembled in the afternoon to a quilting. A very enjoyable evening was spent when at an early hour the party left for home feeling they had enjoyed themselves extremely.

Mill Cove.

April 8.—The fine warm days of spring have come at last and the travelling on the roads is bad.

Mrs. James Stephens of this place is very sick she is under the treatment of Dr. Earle.

The school at this place is flourishing under the skilful management of our teacher Miss Pearl White.

McLaughlin Bros are busily engaged in sawing wood at this place.

The Rev. L. H. Crandall occupied the pulpit here, on Sunday last.

The many friends of Rev. G. W. Corey are glad to learn of him taking to himself a helpmate. We wish him success in life.

The people of this place are at a loss of a neighbor, Mr. Young, who has gone to Fredericton, where he intends keeping boarding house.

Johnston.

April 8.—J. W. Patterson wife and family, who have been at West Quaco all winter, returned to Starkey's to-day.

Our popular station agent, Jas. F. Roberts, is partially laid up with a touch of rheumatism.

Mortimer Thorne has been assisting in the series of meetings which have recently been held at the Narrows.

Capt. James Joslyn of Cole's Island, Captain of the Dreadnought, who was asked to be a running mate with H. W. Somerville at the forthcoming election in the fall for Councillor has declined the nomination.

Foster Foster who has been in St. John for the last few months returned home on Wednesday last.

Miss Arthuretta Branscombe is home on a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. Fred Perry, of Salmondale, who is very sick. Guests to the number of nearly one hundred, assembled at the residence of Councillor John Leonard of Annsdale on Friday last, the occasion being the 40th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard's wedding day. A large number of valuable and useful presents were given to the happy couple. Among the prominent people from Cady's were Mr. Geo. Cady, Mrs. James McEwen, Fred Leonard and Dr. and Mrs. Armstrong. Refreshments were also indulged in, the merry party breaking up in the small hours of the morning.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curran, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as ever was. Sold by all Druggists, large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

To EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE.

Kindly allow me space in your paper to say a few words to "Episcopalian," not as an opponent but as a friend.

I am a Baptist and sincerely hope that "Episcopalian" will not judge us all by one—for Baptists, as a denomination are not so narrow minded as the "Pastor of the Mill Cove Baptist Church." I read in your issue of March 22nd., an article of which the writer need not be ashamed, and in my judgment, was a just rebuked, kindly given, anything but "cowardly." I am sorry that we Baptists have to be subjected to ridicule on account of the bigotry and narrowness of one. We are all sailing for the same port, with the same Pilot, and the moment the man at the wheel leaves our ship to navigate for the "Episcopalian" brother, his own vessel is in danger of shipwreck. If we all cannot agree to worship God in the same form, why not mind our own affairs—keep our own churches right, and by the time we have done that, well, we may be quite aged, with no chances to give away on being "saved in that land where the wicked cease from troubling."

I am ashamed of the article in your issue of April 5th, by the so-called Rev. Mr. Crey. Had it been written by a schoolboy, he should be punished severely, but as it was a man, and a minister, too, his case seems hopeless. He states that "no insult was intended and none offered," and in the same article he admits that he made use of an expression which, (in my opinion), might wound all right in a bar room, but from the pulpit, it was disgusting and disgraceful. Now, he is either too ignorant to know what is an "insult," or so insular as does not care whose feelings he wounds. He advised "Episcopalian" to "keep out of print," and I would say unless he has a better record than the "Pastor of the Mill Cove Baptist Church," he would do well to take the advice offered, or he might see something that would not look well in print.

Wedding Anniversary.
The 7th inst, was quite a fete day at the residence of Mr. John Leonard, Annsdale, Queens county, when the numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard assembled at their residence to celebrate the 40th anniversary of their marriage. The weather was very fine and fortunately the house was large, as its capacity to accommodate was taxed to the utmost, people attending from all the surrounding country; from Chipman, Norton and Springfield. We noted the presence of the Rector, Rev. C. S. Warnford and Dr. Armstrong and his lady among the guests. All the sons and daughters of the family—eight in number—were also present. The tokens of esteem for the worthy couple were most truly valuable and useful, and it was remarked that the presents were all of good quality and such as might well be treasured as keepsakes. The first part of the entertainment, consisted of excellent music, singing, accompanied by Miss Leonard, Miss Brand and Miss Minnie, on the organ. The supper was first class in every respect—as everyone acquainted with the family knows it would be. About ninety people took tea, besides quite a number who came afterward.

BAPTIST. Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so ill for five years, that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, indigestion, headache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists.

in or lending them for the sleighing season as it were—Good obliging people all round.

But to my knowledge he gathered in no sleighs since he left Fredericton, on that trip up to the day he came here or the day he left, without he left them with the Oakham correspondent before he came to my place.

J. Clark & Son may have a secret agent in the place, and that may be the correspondent but if he so I shall have to be very particular in what I do or say in the future.

I will have to ask Clark & Son if they have. I have sold for the firm of Clark & Son several sleighs during the two years I have worked for them and they can and will no doubt give engaging friends a true and impartial account of all sleighs gathered in by Mr. Morrell that I have disposed of and I am quite willing they should do so.

Mr. Morrell being here twice inside of six months is also false as he has not been here since the first of July last.

It is Mr. Morrell's business to collect and gather in sleighs in Oakham, and do whatever J. Clark & Son advises him and he visits each and every agent and every Oakham twice a year if possible, but I think he does not call on your Oakham correspondent but perhaps some one else will in the near future.

In regard to the magnificent lumber operation spoken of I will not say anything suffice to say, that your correspondent cannot be as busy as those operators have been or else there would not have been so many idle notes from Oakham this winter.

I think this should be a satisfactory explanation, of gathering in sleighs, to clear myself of the slander and likewise to show up the characteristics of our noted correspondent.

Yours, etc.
IRVIN THOMPSON.
