HE CLAIMS THE ACT WAS ONE OF BURGLARY

This is Contention of R. B. Bennett of Waterways Legislation—Moss and Ford Also Addressed Court—Confusion of Case May Be Reached Late This Afternoon.

(From Tuesday's Daily) That the purpose of the act passed by the provincial government in December, 1910, declaring the proceeds of the A. & G. W. bond sale to form part of the general revenue of the province, was a legislative burglary...

Constitutional Aspect of Case—Frank Ford, K.C., representing the Canada West Construction Company, went at some length into the constitutional aspect of the case. A provincial legislature has no power under the British North America Act to levy direct taxes on property situated within the province...

Legislative Burglary of Bank.—Mr. Bennett, following Mr. Ford, directed the attention of the court to the argument that the act was an effective to accomplish the purpose aimed at in other words that the statute showed that the act was a legislative burglary of the safe of the Royal Bank. The language of the statute was not sufficiently precise and unambiguous...

Whose Money Was It?—In the ultimate analysis, the act passed by the legislature of Alberta was a deliberate attempt to override the provisions of the Banking Act of the federal government. Whose money was it that the government was to appropriate?

Proof of Broken Contract.—There had been some little evidence, vague and indefinite, that some work had been done somewhere by the Royal Bank, according to Mr. Bennett's legal interpretation of it. It did not leave the province a leg to stand on in its suit to recover the $8,000,000 in deposit in the bank...

Wednesday Morning.—Mr. Bennett concluded his argument with a summing up of the facts of the case and of the position taken by the defence. The position taken by the Royal Bank, according to Mr. Bennett's legal interpretation of it, did not leave the province a leg to stand on in its suit to recover the $8,000,000 in deposit in the bank...

FIELDING AND GRAHAM WILL NOT BE OPPOSED

Premier Borden Will Advise Against Conservative Opposition to These Two Men if Liberals Do Not Oppose Cabinet Ministers Who Seek Re-election.

Ottawa, Ont., October 11.—The writs for the necessary bye-elections consequent upon the acceptance of portfolios by the new ministers were issued yesterday afternoon, but the dates have not yet been fixed. It was understood that Hon. Mr. Hazen will take Dr. Daniel's seat in St. John County, the latter being compensated by a seat in the Senate. Attorney-General Fleming will succeed Mr. Hazen as premier. Hon. Frank Cochrane will be given W. R. Smyth's seat in East Algoma, and Hon. W. T. White is booked for election in his native county, Halton, in this favor.

It is hardly likely that any of the ministers will be opposed. In return, Hon. W. S. Fielding will, in all probability, be returned in "Yarmouth, Ontario," where the first Senate vacancy in Ontario, Hon. Robert Rogers will, it is expected, secure a seat in Saskatchewan through the retirement of Mr. McKay in Prince Albert.

Mr. Moss' Reply.—Mr. Moss' reply to the A. & G. W. admittance that the government might have repealed the guarantee act, but what had been done under the act was not the property of the construction company. He contended that the clause in the act requiring construction work to be commenced in a year's time was merely directory and not imperative as the stipulation of the General Railway Act must be commenced within two years. The legislative assembly had not taken any steps to repeal the charter of the company. It had simply helped itself to the money.

Young Canadian is Apprehended in Utah on Charge of Forgery and Uttering False Drafts on Union Bank at Winnipeg.—Sgt. Lake City, Oct. 11.—The honeymoon of J. W. Hill, the alleged son of an influential Canadian family, who arrived here last week from Los Angeles, where he married Miss Mary Sweet, was suddenly interrupted by a secret service operative today, just as he was about to board the train for the east. Presenting warrants charging forgery and uttering of fraudulent drafts on the Union bank, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, the detectives, after following Hill to his wife's parental home, brought her here and caused her to examine Hill in full to ascertain if he was the man who had been arrested six weeks ago in New York, according to the officers who claim to have followed his movements. He was accused in cashing one draft in a New York bank, securing $5,000. It is alleged that he disappeared suddenly, being next heard from in the Pacific coast. Another draft for $5,000, purported to be drawn on the Union bank, of Winnipeg, was presented by Hill in Los Angeles, it is alleged.

ITALIANS WON FIRST BATTLE IN EASY FASHION

Turks' Night Attack on Italian Delegates at Tripoli Failed Utterly—Small Guns Aided Turks Very Materially.

London, Oct. 11.—The Daily Telegraph publishes a despatch from its correspondent, Bennett Burleigh, dated Tripoli, in which he says that the Italians won their first land battle in fine shape. The friendly Arabs gave the Italians warning of the probable attack by the Turks. These Arabs said that the Turks would not doubt attempt an attack at night. Ample precautions were taken to reinforce the outposts in the new works to the south. The warships were about four miles off shore. The Turks were discovered about one o'clock in the morning advancing in two columns supported by machine guns and field artillery. The intended Turkish surprise entirely failed, but the Ottomans stood to the attack courageously, replying to the gunfire with their own heavy guns, striving to press home the action on the west bank. The Italian marines, however, were not shaken. They were undaunted and fought most valiantly, firing with steady and deadly accuracy. They broke back every attempt of the enemy. From 1.30 to 2 a.m. the rifle fire was fierce. After that it dwindled and heavy losses. The enemy retired with the loss of many prisoners.

Turkish Troops Fled.—London, Oct. 11.—A despatch to the Times from Malta says that on October 10, two hundred Turkish cavalrymen advanced to within two miles and a half of Tripoli and tried to surprise the garrison, but were repulsed, three Turks being killed. A majority of Turkish troops have fled, says the despatch, but 2,500 are concentrated near Chauran, some distance from Tripoli. They have only four guns, as the others were abandoned at the Tripoli forts. The Times correspondent at Tripoli, in a despatch dated October 8th, describes the Turkish army as including an unenviable platoon of 1,000 men.

British Army in Bad State.—London, Oct. 11.—The Morning Post's Tripoli despatches, dated October 10, reports that the Turkish army, under Munir Pasha, is in a bad state from lack of provisions and water and that Munir Pasha has opened negotiations with the Italian commandant. The Chronicle's Constantinople correspondent says that no Turkish troops will be allowed to pass through Egypt, and declares that Bulgaria and Roumania have decided on a general mobilization. A run on the branch of the Bank of Rome in Constantinople has resulted in the withdrawal of many millions.

Daley Says Jones Did Harm.—Winnipeg, Oct. 10.—R. J. WATERWAYS CASE IS FINALLY CONCLUDED

Abse Argument Submitted by E. P. Davis for the Province—J. C. Moss Ends in a Dramatic Manner—Mr. Justice Stuart Now Takes the Case Under Adjudication.

Hearing of the Great Waterways case was concluded in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon and judgment was reserved by Mr. Justice Stuart. At the afternoon session, E. P. Davis, K.C., concluded his argument which was supplemented by W. L. Walsh, K.C., the other counsel representing the province. The reply of the defence was made by J. C. Moss, K.C., and was a dramatic one. Rather dramatic was the conclusion to the three days proceedings. Mr. Moss wound up his reply to the argument of the counsel of the province by declaring: "The argument has been presented that it was necessary for the legislature to protect Alberta by its legislation, to that all I have to say is that if it is necessary to preserve the interests of the people of Alberta in this way, then may God help Alberta."

That is our last word," interjected Mr. Bennett. E. P. Davis, K.C., concluded his argument briefly on the sittings of the court, and then adjourned for the afternoon. He took the ground that the right of the province to tax the funds of the A. & G. W. railway was separate from the right to contract and that the province might exercise the latter right without having the former. The terms "successors and assigns" used in the act were clearly applicable to the construction company and the bank. An astounding proposition. The defence had propounded the astounding proposition that not a cent of the money deposited in the bank on the bond money held by it since the passing of the act because it was not a bank as defined in the act. The attempt of the Royal Bank to hold the government's $8,000,000, without paying a cent of interest, was a gross attempt of a bank to misappropriate the money held by the bank for ten months since the passing of the act. The bank was likely to be held for a couple of years longer.

It might have had grounds for claiming exemption from paying interest on the money deposited in the bank. When the bank went beyond this and laid claim to the whole sum it had forfeited its right to the satisfaction of the court. Mr. Walsh concluded his argument by citing cases to show that no bank could attach the money of the bank because of advances made by the bank to the construction company, as the money deposited was not the property of the construction company. Mr. Moss' Reply.—Mr. Moss' reply to the A. & G. W. admittance that the government might have repealed the guarantee act, but what had been done under the act was not the property of the construction company. BORDEN SHOWS THE EFFECT OF HARD WORK

Has Worked Steadily for More Than a Year Without Rest—Conservatives Do Not Like Cabinet—Rogers Will Take Seat of Alex. Haggart in Winnipeg.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—Premier Borden is determined to do everything in his power to facilitate public business and with this end in view, the privy council today advised His Excellency to issue Governor General's warrants for a sufficient sum to meet necessary expenses of the country. This will mean that many public servants who have not received any salaries for two months will next week be able to pay their butchers and their bankers. So far there is no indication as to the choice of private secretaries by the new ministers. Premier Borden is retaining the services of his faithful secretary, Mr. R. E. Blount, for a while at least, and he is now in charge of the office which has for so long had E. J. Lemaire, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's secretary as the presiding genius. Hon. Frank Cochrane will bring down his own secretary, Geo. Yates, formerly newspaper man in London and Toronto, and Hon. Robt. Rogers will call to Ottawa from Winnipeg his secretary, Mr. Bunker, Dr. Koche, the secretary of the Conservative Party, and John Mitchell, secretary of the Conservative whip for some time past as his private secretary.

Borden Shows Strain.—Ottawa, Oct. 11.—The Ottawa Evening Journal says: "Hon. R. L. Borden is showing the wear and tear of the work he undertook during the past year. For twelve months he has not had a holiday, and he is now in a state of strain. He has done during that time the most arduous campaigning in the history of the public man in Canada. He looks so much in need of a rest that it has been suggested, said one of the ministers to the Journal, that a few days' rest before the session begins. Sir Wilfrid Laurier will not attend. HE THREATENED TO REFUSE ABSOLUTION TO THE LIBERALS

Strong language used by French Canadian Catholic Curate in Denouncing Laurier—Blamed Him for Godless Schools—How Rodolphe Forget Won One Division.

Quebec, Oct. 16.—Mr. Lucien Cannon, lawyer, Liberal candidate, defeated by Mr. Rodolphe Forget in Charlevoix county, declares that he owes his defeat to the intervention of the Roman Catholic clergy against him.

He gives on this intervention the following interesting particulars: "On the 11th of September last, Rev. Mr. Larouche, curate of the parish of St. Fidele, County of Charlevoix, made a violent attack in his pulpit, during the high mass, against Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his party of friends who were in the parish school, he exhorted his parishioners to withdraw their consent from men who had betrayed their religion and their fellow citizens."

After the high mass, Mr. A. Courville, K.C., and Rodolphe Forget, at-law, held a meeting near the church in favor of Mr. Cannon's candidature. Curate Larouche was present at this meeting, and began to discuss politics with those gentlemen on the hustings. He vigorously denounced Laurier's attitude on the school question.

On the 13th of September, two days after this meeting, accompanied by a friend, Mr. Larouche, Mr. Cannon paid a visit to Curate Larouche. He told him that he belonged to a Catholic family, that he was sincerely attached to the Catholic religion, and that he was ready to discuss politics with his regular religious authorities.

More Catholic Than Pope. After this interview Mr. Cannon addressed the electors. On the school question he said: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not given everything he would have liked to give, but he gave all that was possible in the circumstances. In this election there is no more question of these schools, but only of reciprocity. It does not belong to a simple curate to resuminate these burning problems. We must not be more Catholic than the pope. I will do what the pope and the bishops command me, but I will wait, before discussing anything more, until they have spoken."

On the 17th of September, Curate Larouche, from his pulpit in his church, gave to his parishioners the following address: "The children must go to the school to become learned, and who can not let themselves be fooled by the first comer (qui ne se laisse pas tromper par les premiers venus), and who should be able to distinguish good newspapers and bad ones, such as those which are now set on in so great quantities."

It has been announced by the Soleil that the Liberals will get majorities for Mr. Cannon in St. Simon and St. Fidele. As to St. Simon, it is possible, but as to St. Fidele, he had (1) a merit.

My bishop, Mr. Labrosse, has never before in his career ventured to mix up religion with politics. Even if he wanted to take away from our rights of citizen, he could not do it.

Will Refuse Absolution. "The people who rely on this authority to shut our mouths are mistaken. They call themselves Catholic Liberals. There are too many of these Catholic Liberals in this parish. There are also many Catholic Liberal women. These women are worse than the men. We can see them applying to the Liberal speakers in the public meetings. Damned women! Get away from this parish. Do not want to see you any more. Do not come and confess your sins to me any more. I will refuse you the absolution!"

The settlement of the Manitoba school question has been condemned by the pope, because this settlement was made by a Liberal Catholic.

Recalling Mr. Cannon's words as the priest's intervention into politics, Mr. Larouche said: "This is Catholic Liberalism condemned by the church, and this means that the priest must take by his sacristy. It is true that he, the priest, are Holy God's dogs, but I do not want to be a dumb dog, and I shall bark."

Curate Larouche then read a part of the encyclical entitled "Affari Vos," and continues: "You are a Liberal, read this!" "You see that the pope condemns the neutral schools, the schools without God. If the pope condemns the neutral schools, he must also condemn the chief of the party which has established these schools. Do you want to know who? It is... I shall not give his name in this pulp. Come to my presbytery, and I will tell you."

If the pope condemns the neutral schools, he condemns the members of parliament who approved these schools. And do you believe that the pope will forbid the bishops to blame this politics? And do you think that the bishops will forbid the curates to condemn these schools and the candidates who approve this politics? "If you do not believe that the pope has said so, I shall call anyone amongst you to read this part of the encyclical."

Then Curate Larouche turned to Mr. Ernest Bouchard, one of the principal Liberal leaders of the place, and told him: "You are a Liberal, read this!" And he commended Mr. Bouchard to read this part of the encyclical where is mentioned the settlement of the school question.

Date for Bye-Elections Fixed—Borden Extends Concessions to Laurier—Similar to Those Accorded Him by Sir Wilfrid Laurier—Fighting for High Commissioner.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—The new cabinet ministers spent the day trying to find their bearings as the assembly heads of their respective departments of state and getting acquainted with their staff and with the accumulated contents of the ministerial basket. There is already enough routine work ahead of the administration to keep the cabinet very busy for several days before the larger matter of government policy can be considered.

In the morning, as a preliminary to carrying on the administration, an order-in-council was passed appointing Hon. Messrs. White, Foster, Doherty, Cochrane, Monk and Rogers to constitute the treasury board, which has to authorize all money voted. It is the first work to be done way and means of meeting the country's needs for the services in cases where the supplies voted by the last parliament have been almost exhausted.

Recourse will probably be had to governor-general warrants pending the passing of additional supply for the fiscal year by the new parliament next month.

SEE TROUBLE BREWING FOR BORDEN CABINET

London News Comments on Mr. Borden's Inclusion in the Cabinet of the Nationalist Leaders—Morning Post Thinks Someone Will Have to Surrender Conventions.

Canadian Associated Press. London, Oct. 12.—The Daily News, in an editorial comment upon Premier Borden's newly appointed cabinet, says: "The very composition of the cabinet promises not to be long-lived."

Unless Mr. Borden or Mr. Monk surrender some of their convictions the two can hardly avoid a clash, according to the Morning Post's editorial. "The constitution of the new cabinet shows it is well fitted to carry out a broad national policy, although only one of the ministers (Hon. Geo. B. Foster) previously held office in a Dominion government."

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of the railway board to be held on Tuesday next the C. P. R. and G. T. R. will be called on to justify the recent increase in their freight rates on apples between Nova Scotia and Western Canada.

It is asserted that the company is endeavoring to hire men through local employment agencies and that a colonel coach has been fixed up with mattresses to bring men in over the line to take the place of the strikers.

Forty-five men in all are now on strike. The only men at work now at the Calder shops are employed in the wood-work department.

The men have picked out all round the shops in anticipation of the importing of strike-breakers by the company. The strikers are anxious to avoid trouble, but they will gain their ends by peaceful means.

MANUFACTURERS ARE COMING TO THEIR OWN

Discussion Question of Pointing Out to Borden That They Are Opposed To Any Further Increase in the British Preference.

Toronto, Oct. 11.—The question as to whether or not the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in convention should forward a resolution to the Hon. R. L. Borden and his government, drawing his attention to the fact that the manufacturers would oppose any further preference to Great Britain, stirred matters up somewhat at today's convention.

Finally a resolution by Messrs. Fraser, of St. John's, Quebec, and R. S. Gourlay, of Toronto, was passed without opposition, requesting the tariff commission to thoroughly investigate trade conditions in the interests of the whole of Canada, and that the members of the association give every assistance in furnishing data to assist them in carrying out their work.

ROYAL HIGHNESS REACHES OTTAWA ON SATURDAY

May be Surplus in Calgary. Calgary, Oct. 11.—The prolonged weather is keeping all farm work on the jump and good progress is being made. In some parts hands are still at work grain cutting, but in the south threshing is taking up most of their time. In the city, there is prospect of lots of work. The building permits do not show any sign of letting up and tradesmen will be kept busy all through the winter.
