The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contains the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

obtained from the officers of the jurisdiction in which the candidate resides.

Sec. 2. All candidates for membership by deposit of card, or certificate of dismissal, or as Ancient Odd Fellows, shall deposit their cards or certificates with their proposition, or furnish satisfactory evidence that such card or certificate has been lost. In the case of the application of a brother who, within six months previous to such application, has been a member of a lodge which has merged into or united with this lodge, the vote necessary to receive shall be a majority vote.

Sec. 3. No suspended or expelled member of the Order can be admitted to membership in this lodge, except on a dismissal certificate, or on being reinstated, and receiving a withdrawal card from the lodge which suspended or expelled him, or from the Grand Secretary, as prescribed by law, and this lodge shall not admit to membership any member of an expelled lodge without permission of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia.

Sec. 4. A non-affiliated Odd Fellow who has been regularly initiated in the Order, and has retained membership in the Order for at least five consecutive years, and who at the time of making application for reinstatement to membership shall be over 50 years of age, may be admitted to membership in this lodge as a non-beneficial member, upon such terms as the by-laws may prescribe, by presenting a petition as required under Section 1, Article III., for proposals for membership by initiation, which shall be disposed of according to said section.

The membership of a brother admitted by deposit of card, or as a non-affiliate, shall date from the time of his signing the Constitution and By-laws of the lodge he joins.

Sec. 5. The lodge receiving such communication shall appoint a committee of three to investigate the character, standing and health of the petitioner. in the same manner as if the application were made directly to such lodge. Such committee shall report at the next regular meeting of the lodge, and a certified copy of the report, together with a certified copy of the minutes showing the action of the lodge upon the request for consent to receive and act upon the application (if such consent was necessary) shall be forthwith forwarded to the lodge in which such application is filed, and said last named lodge may then proceed upon such application as in other cases, except that, if it be a case where the consent of the other lodge is necessary, and that consent be refused, the petitioner's money (if any has been paid) shall be returned, and no further action shall be had in the premises.

Sec. 6. Every applicant for membership must furnish a certificate of good health from a qualified medical practitioner before being balloted for.

Sec. 7. After a brother has become sixty years of age, and has been a contributing member for twenty-five consecutive years, his name shall not be dropped from the roll by virtue of his being more than one year in arrears for non-payment of dues, but he shall be retained as a non-beneficial member and as such shall be entitled to the pass-word and fellowship of Lodges. Such non-beneficial member shall have all the privileges of active members, except benefits. They cannot be required to pay dues, and Subordinate Lodges shall not be compelled to pay per capita tax on them. Such non-beneficial members may be reinstated in the manner provided for the reinstatement of dropped members by the Constitution and By-laws of the Lodge.

Sec. 8.—A member of the Order in possession of an Official Certificate or Visiting Card changing his residence from the Territorial Jurisdiction of his Lodge to the Territorial Jurisdiction of another, and desiring to unite with a Lodge at his new place of residence, upon making application for membership, accompanied by his Official Certificate or Visiting Card, showing his dues paid in advance and being elected as provided by local law, upon notice being sent by the Secretary to his Lodge, said Lodge shall, unless charges are pending against him, without ballot and upon the payment of a fee of 25 cents, issue a Transfer Certificate and send the same at once to the Secretary sending for the same, and upon receipt of the Transfer Certificate, the member shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and become a member of his new Lodge without the payment of any admission fee; provided, that if a physician's certificate is required he must pay the expense of the same.

The Secretary shall immediately report to the Secretary of the Lodge issuing the Transfer Certificate the date of signing the Constitution of the new Lodge and he shall make a record thereof, and the old Lodge shall immediately refund to the member all dues paid in advance of the date of signing the Constitution of the new Lodge.

The issuing of a Transfer Certificate shall sever membership in the Lodge issuing it; provided that if the member becomes sick or disabled, or should die before the date to which his dues are paid and before completing his membership by signing the Constitution of his new Lodge, then said Transfer Certificate shall be cancelled and returned to the Lodge issuing the same and said member shall retain his beneficial standing in his old Lodge the same as though the Transfer Certificate had not been issued.

If a member fails to sign the Constitution of the new Lodge within three months after the date of his election, the Transfer Certificate shall be cancelled and returned to the Lodge issuing the same and the member shall hold the same standing in his own Lodge as though the Transfer Certificate had not been issued.

ARTICLE III.

Of Propositions for Membership

Section 1. The name of a person offered for membership, by Initiation, Transfer Certificate or Deposit of Card, with his age, residence and occupation, must be proposed by a member in writing, signed by the applicant with the names of two persons as references attached and entered upon the record; and forthwith be referred to a committee of three members for investigation, who shall report at the next succeeding regular meeting (unless extraordinary circumstances prevent), when the candidate may be balloted for with ball ballots, and, if no more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be declared elected; but if three or more appear, he shall be deemed rejected.

Sec. 2. No reconsideration of an unfavorable ballot can be had unless all the brothers who may cast black balls against an applicant for membership voluntarily make a motion for a reconsideration of the ballot, and never more than one motion for the reconsideration in the same case shall be allowed: and in such case the vote on the reconsideration shall be taken by ball ballots, and, if the balls be cast in favor of it, the reconsideration shall be had; whereupon the application shall lie over until the succeeding meeting when another ballot shall be had with ball ballots, and, if the same be unanimously in favor of the applicant, he shall thereby be elected; but if one or more black balls appear in either ballot, the applicant shall be rejected. Provided, always, that such reconsideration shall be had within the four meeting nights next succeeding the rejection.

If a person has been irregularly elected through fraud or error (and by the word "irregularly" illegally or fraudulently is meant) a majority of the Lodge can, previously to the applicant's initiation, order a new ballot.

In all cases where a candidate for membership has been elected, but subsequent to his election and prior to his initiation the Lodge shall become satisfied that he is unworthy, it shall be competent for the Lodge to annul such election and declare it void by a majority of two-thirds of the members present, in which case a fresh ballot shall be taken.

Sec. 3. If it is alleged that an error has been made in depositing black balls at the balloting for a candidate for membership, the Lodge may immediately thereafter take a second ballot in order to verify the alleged error.

Sec. 4. Every member shall sign the Constitution and By-laws of this Lodge on his admission thereto.

Sec. 5. When a candidate for initiation has been rejected, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary, and he cannot be proposed again in any lodge for the space of one year after such rejection. All other applications for membership may be renewed at any time.

Sec. 6. A proposition can be withdrawn after being referred to a committee, and before the report of the committee has been read to the lodge, but not afterwards.

Sec. 7. If any person shall gain admittance to any lodge upon a petition containing any false representation, he shall be expelled.

Lodges may make provision in their By-laws to set aside 5 per cent. of their receipts from Dues to form a Contingent Fund to be used for the payment of necessary and proper obligations which every Lodge must meet, and for which purpose a Subordinate Lodge under existing laws cannot expend its funds; Provided, that Lodges whose receipts from rents and interest on invested funds equals or exceeds its receipts from dues may at the end of each term set aside Five per cent. of these receipts to the Contingent Fund. Lodges may assess their members to meet any assessment levied by the Grand Lodge for the purpose of building, repairing and maintaining Homes for aged and indigent Odd Fellows and Widows of deceased members of the Order and for the care, protection and education of Orphans of deceased Odd Fellows; or they may pay such assessments from the funds of the Lodge.

Provided further, that Lodges whose dues are not less than $2 per month and whose sick benefits do not exceed $10 per week may set aside 10 per cent of the amount received for dues to the Contingent Fund.

Sec. 2. Every member qualified, as required by the By-laws of his Lodge, shall in case of being disabled by sickness or bodily accident (not occasioned by drunkenness or other immoral conduct on his part) from following any occupation, or otherwise earning a livelihood, be entitled to and may receive such weekly benefits as may be fixed by By-law, from the funds of the Lodge; Provided, always, that such benefits shall not exceed the rate of ten dollars per week for each dollar of monthly contribution, and provided, always, that no Lodge shall continue to pay the above rate of benefits for a longer period than six months' continuous sickness, after which time it shall not exceed the sum of seven dollars and fifty cents for each dollar of monthly contribution, and further that after the expiration of twelve months' continuous sickness no lodge shall pay greater benefits than at the rate of five dollars per week for each dollar of monthly contribution. Lodges may by By-law limit the payment of sick benefits to fifty-two continuous weeks for the same sickness.

Lodges may provide by By-law that no benefits shall be paid to members for the first one week or two weeks' sickness, nor to any but Scarlet Degree members.

In all cases where a sick member has received benefit and by reason of the recovery of his health ceased to be entitled to benefits, if he fall sick again within six months from the date of his ceasing to receive benefits, such sickness shall be considered as a continuation of his previous sickness, and he shall be placed in the same position as when he ceased to receive benefits, but if six months shall have elapsed from the date of his restoration and he fall sick he shall be entitled to receive full benefits.

Sec. 3. All fines and assessments of any nature shall, at the end of each term (June 30th and December 31st, respectively), be charged as dues against a Brother.

Sec. 4. When any member's account shows an indebtedness of thirteen weeks' dues, the brother shall not be entitled to benefits, and the Secretary shall notify the Brother of the fact without delay.

Sec. 5. In case of the death of a member, qualified as required by the By-laws of his Lodge, there shall be allowed from the Lodge not less than thirty dollars to defray the expenses of the burial, to be paid by the N. G. on account of the funeral. In the absence of competent relations, the N. G. shall take charge of the funeral, and render an account of the disbursements. Where no expense has been incurred in the funeral of a member or where the expense of the funeral is borne by the Government, no appropriation from the funds of the Lodge shall be made for this purpose.

Sec. 6. The funeral expenses and sick benefits shall be regulated by the By-laws of the Lodge, and all orders drawn for the above shall be by vote of the Lodge.

Sec. 7. Lodges may provide by By-law to employ a Physician to attend members in good standing when sick and furnish them with medicine, and pay a stipulated sum per annum for such services out of the funds.

Sec. 8. Lodges may by By-law fix the time after admission at which a member shall become entitled to benefits, but a member admitted on an unexpired Withdrawal Card shall be entitled to benefits upon his admission to membership after signing the Constitution and By-laws.

Sec. 9. Any Subordinate Lodge of this jurisdiction may enact a By-law providing that any member of this Lodge residing within a radius of two miles of this Lodge failing to visit his Lodge at least once in every three months, may be fined the sum of one dollar for each three months of continuous absence, the same to be charged at the end of each term as dues. Sickness of self or family, or absence from the locality of the Lodge, shall be deemed sufficient excuse and therefore not liable to the fine. Lodges shall furnish a suitable register for members' signatures, which shall be in charge of the O. G.

ARTICLE V.

Section 1. A member who has been in membership one week, may make application for election to any or all of the three subordinate Degrees, which application shall be accompanied with the amount required therefor, and be presented to the Lodge, when open in that order of business, when the Lodge shall ballot upon the application, and if not more than two black balls be cast he shall be declared elected, if he be rejected no application shall be again received from him within three months thereafter. Each Lodge shall confer the Degree on its members except in case of absence from the city, in which case the Brother shall be furnished with a certificate under seal, signed by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary, authorizing another Lodge to confer the same, providing the same is done without charge.

All candidates for Degrees shall be required to pass a satisfactory examination in the secret work and obligation of the preceding Degree before being advanced to the next higher Degree.

Sec. 2. All business other than conferring the degrees shall be conducted in the Third Degree.

ARTICLE VI.

Section 1. The elective officers of this Lodge shall consist of a Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall serve a regular term each, and the Lodge may elect a Secretary, Treasurer, and Financial Secretary for the same time, or for one year, to take charge of the accounts between the Lodge and its members. Lodges may provide by by-law for the election of Trustees, whose duty it shall be to manage, invest and control the money, property and effects of the Lodge in such manner as the Lodge may direct, and may define their duties and prescribe their terms of office. No member shall be elected to fill more than one elective office at the same time; except the Recording Secretary, who may also act as Financial Secretary.

Sec. 6A. All officers handling Lodge funds must be bonded in such sums as the Lodge shall determine and shall receive their bonds through the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. The minimum amounts of the bond shall be as follows: Financial Secretary and Trustee, $100; Treasurer, $200; and before any officer can be installed the receipt for the premium of his bond must be produced to the installing officer for his inspection.

Sec. 7. Any officer absenting himself from the Lodge for three successive meetings, except in case of sickness, or any officer, for misconduct or neglect as such, may be removed by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting at the next meeting, after a resolution therefor has been offered to the Lodge.

Sec. 8. Vacancies in any elective office may be filled by the Lodge, by nomination and election, at the next regular meeting after nomination; and until so filled the Noble Grand shall appoint a member to the office pro tem.

Each Lodge shall at the same time elect an alternate for each representative elected, and in case a representative shall be unable to attend the session of the Grand Lodge, then the alternate receiving the highest number of votes may attend in his place and have all the powers and privileges of a representative.

Sec. 12. This Lodge may join with other Lodges located in the same city in organizing a General Relief Committee for the purpose of visiting and relieving sick sojourning brothers belonging to other Lodges and paying such benefits as may be authorized by the sick member's Lodge, and may contribute towards the necessary and legitimate expenses of such committee.

Such committee may raise funds to enable it to carry out its work by any legitimate means, provided that a Dispensation for the same be first obtained from the Grand Master.

All such committees must furnish the Grand Secretary annually with reports of their proceedings, viz., number of brothers relieved, amount paid for relief, amount paid for management expenses, total amount of receipts.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1.—Clause 1. Any member neglecting or refusing to make payment of his dues or demands against him to the Lodge, according to its By-laws, for the space of eleven months. shall be notified by the Lodge in writing of the state of his account, and if after one month his account still remains unsettled, he may be suspended from membership; Provided, that no person shall be so suspended until after the fact of his dues being in arrears and unpaid for twelve months shall have been announced in open Lodge at two regular meetings; and provided further, that no person shall cease to be a member under this section, whilst charges are pending against him; Provided that in case of absence of a Brother at a distance of fifty miles from his Lodge, two months' additional time shall be allowed him to pay his indebtedness.

(b) A member suspended from membership in this jurisdiction for non-payment of dues, upon proper application and the payment of one dollar, may, at the discretion of the Lodge by a majority vote of the members present, be granted a Dismissal Certificate to enable him to join a Lodge in this jurisdiction within five years from the date of suspension.

Clause 4. A member after being suspended in this jurisdiction for non-payment of dues for the space of five years, wishing to join a Lodge in this jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall grant him, upon proper application, a dismissal certificate, upon the receipt of one dollar.

Clause 7. Dismissal certificates may be received from the holders thereof on application for membership in Subordinate Lodges, in the same manner, and with the same effect as Withdrawal Cards; and applications made on such certificates shall be received and acted on in like manner as upon Withdrawal Cards; but the holders of such certificates shall in no case be allowed to visit thereon.

Clause 8. The certificates named in this section shall be only those provided by the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. All applications for Withdrawal Cards or Dismissal Certificates must be made in writing over the signature of the Brother applying for the same.

Rule 3.—The Lodge shall, immediately after the reading of the charge, if the accused Brother be present, proceed to the choice, by ballot, of a Committee of Trial, consisting of five, who must, if possible, have the same or a higher degree than that attained by the accused. Any member nominated as one of the Committee of Trial may be challenged for cause by the accused, accuser or any member of the Lodge, in which case the Lodge shall proceed to the election of the members against whom no challenge has been made. The grounds of challenge or challenges shall then be stated, when the vote shall be taken, and if two-thirds of those voting shall vote in favor of the challenged brother, he shall be declared elected. Should such brother fail to be elected new nominations must be made and proceedings had until the committee is filled. Should the accused Brother be absent the choice of the committee shall be postponed for two weeks, and the Secretary of the Lodge shall notify the absent Brother of the fact that charges have been preferred against him, and of the time when the committee is to be appointed; and should the Brother fail to appear at the time aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have waived his right of challenge, and the Lodge shall proceed to the choice of the committee as herein provided.

Rule 4.—The Secretary shall make a copy of the charge and specifications, affix thereto the seal of the Lodge, and certify it substantially according to Form 2, Section V. of the Code, and serve or cause the same to be served upon the accused. He shall also certify, under seal, the original charge and specifications; and deliver the same to the first named member of the committee according to Form 3, Section V. of the Code, and shall notify each member thereof of his appointment, according to Form 4, Section V.

Rule 5.—The first named member of said committee shall, within one week after receiving notice of his appointment, call a meeting of the committee for organization when a chairman and secretary shall be elected, and a suitable time and place be appointed for an adjourned meeting which shall not be held in less than two weeks, at which the accuser and accused shall be notified to appear and proceed with the trial. The notice shall be in accordance with Form 5, Section V., of this Code, and must be served upon the parties personally, if they can be found, otherwise by leaving the same at their last known place of residence. if in the town or city where the Lodge is located, at least one week prior to the time of trial. If the accused resides out of town, the notice shall be directed to his last known place of residence and left at the post office, and if the Brother so notified shall not appear at the time specified or offer satisfactory reasons therefor, the committee shall proceed as if he were present, or they may report by resolution, to expel the member so refusing to appear, for contempt of the Lodge.

Rule 6.—At the time specified for the trial, the accuser and accused being present and answering, the charge and specifications shall be read, and the accused be required to make answer to each specification contained in the charge. Should the accused object to a specification on the ground of indefiniteness, the accuser shall have leave to amend, provided such amendment be made immediately. The accused may then plead to each specification either of the following answers:

1. That the alleged offence is not within the legal jurisdiction of the Lodge.
2. That the complaint contained in the specification is frivolous.
3. Admit the facts stated and justify the alleged offence.
4. Guilty.
5. Not guilty.

Rule 7.—The report of the committee shall state the findings on each specification and on the charge according to Form 6, Section V., of the Code, and shall be accompanied by an accurate record of their proceedings, rulings and decisions, together with the evidence taken during the trial, and a resolution or resolutions for adoption by the Lodge, which shall be submitted to the Lodge within one month after the case has been submitted to them. Should there be a minority report, it shall be drawn and presented in a similar manner.

Rule 8.—The report of the committee shall be received and entered in full in the records, without discussion, and laid over for action at the second regular session thereafter. The Secretary shall immediately transmit to the accuser and accused a copy of the report or reports, and also notify them of the time when the same will be acted upon, in the manner prescribed in Rule 5. At the time fixed upon to consider the report the Lodge may proceed to consider and determine the matter, whether the accused Brother be present or not, and in all cases involving the suspension or expulsion of a member, it shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members present to adopt the resolution, the vote to be taken by ball or paper ballot, and the Lodge shall be fully competent, while such motion is under consideration, to vary the penalty from the original motion. Either party may object to any of the rulings and decisions of the committee, when the Lodge shall take up the report for consideration.

Rule 9.—At the regular meeting of the Lodge two weeks after the report of the committee, the case shall be taken up; the findings, rulings and resolution of the committee read and considered, and all testimony, if any, bearing thereon; and the Lodge shall, by vote, adopt or reject the resolutions which may be submitted by the committee, subject to the provisions of Rule 8.

Rule 10.—When the Lodge shall have taken final action as aforesaid, the Secretary shall at once give notice thereof, under seal, to the party against whom the decision is rendered, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving it at his last known place of residence, or forwarding to him by mail, from which decision he may appeal to the Grand Lodge of British Columbia within two weeks after the service of such notice, by filing with the Secretary a written notice of such appeal and the grounds thereof according to Form 7, Section 5, of the Code, and also by serving notice of appeal upon the Grand Secretary, according to Form 8, Section V.

Rule 7.—After the evidence of the accused shall have been put in, the prosecution may introduce testimony in rebuttal of the witnesses for the defence, but for no other purpose.

Section IV.—Appeals.

Rule 1.—All appeals by Subordinate Lodges, or their members, shall be presented within twenty days from the action of the Lodge appealed from, with all papers properly certified, to the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia; and no appeal will be considered unless such course is taken.

All applications for membership must be accompanied by the recommendation of a member of this Lodge in good standing, together with not less than two references. Should an applicant be elected and not appear for initiation within thirteen weeks thereafter, having been duly notified, he shall not be admitted, and shall forfeit his deposit, but he may present a new petition, which must take the usual course. No candidate shall be initiated on the same evening of his election without a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Every person, upon being admitted a member of this Lodge, shall sign the Constitution and By-laws, thereby pledging himself to support, maintain and abide by the same, and to pay promptly all demands against him as soon as they shall become due. He shall also inform the Financial Secretary of his place of residence, and should he change it, he shall immediately give notice to the Financial Secretary of such change.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Investigating Committee, if they consider the candidate a fit and proper person to become a member of this Lodge, to instruct him to procure a Medical Certificate from the Physician appointed by the Lodge, who shall report in writing to the Secretary, and the candidate will pay the cost of such certificate; but should the candidate be black-balled, the amount shall be refunded at the expense of the Lodge.

A majority of all the ballots cast shall be necessary to elect, and the N.G. shall require all members to vote. They shall canvass all votes and declare the result to the N.G., by whom it shall be announced to the Lodge. If on the second ballot no candidate shall have received a majority of all the ballots cast, a third ballot shall be had between the two highest candidates on the list.

ARTICLE XIX.Benefits

Sec. 1. Every brother who is a member of this Lodge of the Degree of Truth, and is not disqualified by the Constitution or these By-laws, if rendered incapable of following his usual or other attainable occupation by sickness or disability, not proceeding from drunkenness or other immoral conduct on his part, shall receive a benefit during such sickness or disability at the following rates: For the first week, no benefits shall be paid. For the next ten weeks, seven dollars ($7.00) per week; for the next ten weeks, eight dollars ($8.00) per week; for the next five weeks, ten dollars ($10.00) per week; for the next six weeks, seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) per week, and for the following twenty-one weeks, three dollars ($3.00) per week. Benefits shall not commence more than one week previous to the date of being reported to the Lodge, except the member be absent from town, in which case he must comply with Section (2) of this Article, when benefit shall not commence more than four weeks previous to the date of being reported. Provided always that a brother shall be a member of this Lodge for a period of six months before receiving above benefits, and further provided that only full weeks benefits shall be paid. In all cases where a sick member has received benefits, and by reason of his recovery of his health ceases to be entitled to benefits, if he falls sick again within six months from the date of his ceasing to receive benefits, such sickness shall be considered as a continuation of his previous sickness and he shall be placed in the same position as when he ceased to receive benefits; but if six months shall have elapsed from the date of his restoration and he falls sick, he shall be entitled to receive full benefits. If a member's sickness or disability be occasioned by any constitutional disease or bodily infirmity which existed at the time of his admission, and which was concealed intentionally from the Lodge, he shall not be entitled to receive any benefit; and further provided that members having come in on unexpired withdrawal cards shall be entitled to sick benefits, commencing with the date of such sickness, at the full rates above specified.

All fines and assessments of any nature shall at the end of each term (June 30th and December 31st, respectively) be charged as dues against the brother, and a member owing more than three months' dues shall not be entitled to any benefits; provided always that each brother shall not have less than seven days' notice that fines and assessments are charged as dues against him.

Sec. 2. To entitle a member taken sick at a point remote from this Lodge to benefits, he must send, or cause to be sent, to the N.G., a true statement of his case, complaint and circumstances, and the cause and origin of his illness, attested by the N.G. of some Lodge near him; but if there be no Lodge near him, then the same must be stated by the certificate of the physician, a magistrate, or a master of a vessel.

Sec. 3. No member, who may be taken sick whilst out of benefit, shall be entitled to receive benefits by reason of any payment he may make during such sickness or bodily infirmity.

On the death of the wife of a brother entitled to benefits, he shall receive fifty dollars ($50.00) to assist him in defraying the funeral expenses. On the death of the widow of a brother who was at the time of his death in good standing, the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be appropriated to assist in defraying her funeral expenses, and paid to relatives or representatives, if any, unless otherwise ordered by the Lodge. If, however, in the discretion of the N.G. or acting N.G., the above sums are insufficient to afford a suitable burial, he is hereby authorized to draw upon the Treasurer for such sum as he deems necessary, but not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) in the case of the death of a brother, or seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the case of the death of a brother's wife or a brother's widow. If no funeral expenses shall have been incurred by the death of a brother, a brother's wife or a brother's widow, the Lodge may, at its discretion, appropriate a modified sum to be paid as benefits to the relatives or representatives of the deceased.

Sec. 5. If a deceased member or deceased member's widow leaves no relative or representative to take charge of the funeral, it shall be the duty of the N.G. to make arrangements for the interment of the deceased, but in no case shall the sum paid for such expenses exceed the sum provided in these rules.

Sec. 6. This Lodge may, if deemed necessary, engage a physician to visit any sick member, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature, cause, and origin of his sickness, or affliction, and report the same to the Lodge, the physician to be accompanied, if possible, by one of the Visiting Committee. Should he (the sick member) refuse to be examined by the visiting physician, he shall forfeit all claims to benefits for such sickness or affliction, and any member detected imposing, or trying to impose on the funds of the Lodge, shall be fined ten dollars ($10.00), in addition to the amount he has received by such imposition, if any, the said fine to be charged to his account, and at the end of the term in which such fines occurred they shall be recorded against him as dues and be governed in all respects by Section 2, Article XXI., of these By-laws.

ARTICLE XX.

Cards

Sec. 1. Withdrawal cards may be granted to members who are clear of the books by a majority vote, by ballot of the members present when the application is made. Should the Lodge refuse to grant the card, the applicant, on tendering a written resignation of membership, shall be entitled to receive from the Secretary a certificate under seal of the Lodge to that effect, and such certificate shall be sufficient evidence of good standing at the time of resignation. The applicant shall pay a fee of two dollars and fifty cents ($2 50) for the withdrawal card at the time of his application.

Sec. 2. Visiting cards may be granted upon application in open Lodge, or they may be issued by the N.G. and Recording Secretary to members in good standing upon application in writing; but in either case the dues of the applicant must be paid up to the end of the time for which the card is granted, which time shall not exceed one year from the date of the card, and the applicant shall pay twenty-five cents ($0.25) for the card.

ARTICLE XXI.

All proceedings under this section shall be conducted in conformity with Article VII. of the Constitution.

Sec. 3. Every member of a committee who may fail to perform his duty shall be fined not less than fifty cents (50c) or more than three dollars ($3.00) for each neglect.

Sec. 4. If any member shall disregard the authority of the N.G. by persisting in using improper language, or shall be guilty of improper conduct either in or out of the Lodge, or shall knowingly propose an unworthy candidate for membership, or shall be guilty of habitual drunkenness, or of any infamous offence against the laws of the land, or of feigning sickness with a view to abuse the benevolent intentions of the Order, or shall divulge (except to a member of the Order) the proceedings of this or any other Lodge required of him to be kept secret, or the name of any brother who opposed the admission of any candidate, or reveals any of the secrets of the Order, shall be fined, expelled, or suspended at the discretion of the Lodge.

Sec. 5. Every officer who shall be absent at roll-call after opening of the Lodge, at a regular or special meeting, shall be fined as follows: N.G. and other elective officers, one dollar ($1.00); Warden and other appointed officers, twenty-five cents (25c), unless a reasonable excuse be given.

Sec. 6. Any member residing within a radius of two miles of this Lodge, failing to visit the Lodge at least once in every three months, shall be fined the sum of one dollar ($1.00) for each three months of absence, the same to be charged at the end of each term as dues.

Sec. 7. Absentees shall render their excuses in open Lodge. Absence from the city, sickness of self or family, attendance on the sick, and on Lodge or official duties, impossibility to attend on account of some unavoidable cause, shall be good excuse for non-attendance; but without any of these excuses the fines shall be enforced. Any officer or member having been fined may appeal to the Lodge to have his fine remitted, and if the appeal be sustained by two-thirds of all the members present the fine shall be remitted.

ARTICLE XXII.

Funds

Sec. 1. Benefits due, relief granted, or the current expenses of the Lodge may be paid at any regular meeting of the Lodge, by a majority vote of the members present; but the stocks, investments, securities and funds of the Lodge shall not be otherwise disposed of, or transferred, in whole or in part, except by a resolution to that effect, offered at a regular meeting, which shall be acted upon at the second regular meeting from date of notice; and a notice sent to all the resident members of the Lodge, when, if two-thirds of all the members present concur therein, it shall be adopted. All notices of motion to be given in writing to the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Miscellaneous

preparations for the funeral, and, as soon as possible after the death of a brother is made known, summon every member of the Lodge to attend the funeral by advertising a notice thereof in as many of the newspapers as the exigency of the case will admit, unless otherwise requested by the nearest relatives of the deceased.

Sec. 2. The brothers shall assemble at the Lodge Room, where the roll of members shall be called, and all who are absent shall be subject to fine of fifty cents (50c); sickness or attendance upon the sick, burial of the dead, absence from the city, or attendance as a juror, shall be sufficient excuse to remit the fine, but in no other case shall the fine be remitted, except upon a vote of two-thirds of all the members present.

Sec. 3. Any brother who shall be present and answer to his name at roll call, and afterwards leave the Lodge, or the procession, without the permission of the N.G., shall be fined fifty cents (50c), and it shall be the duty of every brother to report all such cases to the N.G.

Sec. 4. No part of these By-laws shall be repealed, amended, suspended, altered, or annulled, unless a proposition in writing be made at least two regular meetings previous to the

All motions must be put from the N.G.'s chair.

Rule 3. No question shall be stated unless moved and seconded, nor be open for consideration until stated by the N.G.; and when a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be received unless (1) to lay on the table, (2) the previous question, (3) to postpone to a particular time, (4) to postpone indefinitely, (5) to re-commit, (6) to refer, (7) to amend; and they shall have preference in the order in which they are here arranged; the first two shall be decided without debate.

RULES OF ORDER

take his seat until the question of order is determined, when, if permitted, he may proceed again.

Rule 9. No brother shall speak without rising in his place, respectfully addressing the N.G. by his title, and having his name announced by the chair. Brothers shall confine themselves to the question under debate, and avoid all personalities and indecorous or sarcastic language.

Rule 10. If two or more brothers rise to speak at the same time, the N.G. shall decide which is entitled to the floor; and no brother shall speak more than once on the same subject or question until all who wish to speak may have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without permission from the N.G. Each brother, while speaking, shall designate the brother spoken of by his proper rank or title, according to his standing in the Order.

Rule 11. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum or number and on the longest time proposed.

Rule 12. Any brother may call for a division of a question when the sense will admit of it. And any five brothers calling for the yeas and nays, they shall be ordered by the N.G. and recorded upon the minutes.

If no brother rise to speak, he shall rise and put it, and after he has risen and put the question no brother shall be permitted to speak upon it. While the N.G. is addressing the Lodge or putting the question, silence shall be observed in the Lodge Room.

Rule 15. When a brother has been called to order for the manifestation of temper or improper feeling, he shall not be allowed to speak again at that meeting, unless by special permission of the Lodge.

Rule 16. No brother shall vote on any question in which he is immediately interested.

Rule 17. Every brother present shall vote, unless for special reasons, except in the case specified in the preceding rule, and provided this rule does not interfere with the provisions of the By-laws regarding new members, etc.

Rule 18. In speaking on points of order, the N.G. shall have precedence; but he cannot speak on any other subject, except to state facts within his own knowledge, without previously vacating his chair and filling it with a qualified brother.

If decided in the negative, the question shall lay over until the next regular meeting.
