WEDNESDAY MORNING MARCH 5 1919

VOL. XXXIX.—No. 13,993 TWO CENTS

Sir Sam Hughes Charges Waste At Canadian Lives at Mons

Prohibition Causes Breach In Ontario Conservative Party

COLLUSION WITH PARTY OVER PROHIBITION

Col. Machin Renounces Allegiance to Conservatives, and is Amazed That the People Are So Uncompromising in Face of Hearst Government's Drastic Regulation Interfering With Personal Liberty.

The legislature had a full sized, double action sensation at the night session, when the U.F.O. member for Manitoulin vindicated that party and its policy and Colonel Machin of Kenora, now engaged in Ottawa in connection with the military service act, renounced his allegiance to the Conservative party on account of the Hearst prohibition legislation.

Colonel Machin spoke through in vibrant tones, and was listened to with the closest attention by the sides of the houses. A pin could be heard to drop while he was speaking.

On resuming the debate at 8 o'clock, Dr. G. Massey, Niagara Falls, said the government intends some day, or other to place the price of school books at cost. He admitted decline of the rural population from 25 to perhaps 30 per cent, but he said the farmers never had little fear on account of falling wheat prices because prices would keep up for cattle, pigs and poultry.

Beniah Bowman, the U.F.O. member for Manitoulin, was applauded when he rose to make his maiden speech. He heartily agreed with no earnest declarations made by members to help the returned soldiers. The two farmers did not like the idea of spending money unnecessarily, he assured the house that no expenditure could win more hearty approval from the farmers than that to be directed to assisting the brave men who have overseas to fight for freedom and liberty.

The U.F.O. man then went after the government on account of the after-speech of Mr. Hart, "I was surprised," he said, "when I heard we are accused of stealing our way into this house. It has been mentioned that the government has said very little about the by-elections—(applause)—and I did not intend to say anything about the by-elections. But if you see all the efforts of the government in the by-elections—and I know what those efforts were in the case of my own election—such an accusation as that which I have heard today is leveled at us, all I will say is that he will laugh best who laughs last. (Loud applause.) I do not want to say the government put up, we won out; and do we come here to be accused of stealing our way into the house? (Applause.) I am afraid the phrase has taken a hold of me, I have been trying to forget it. I have not spent one dollar on my own election, and I made no promises. I only said I would stand in this house by the interests of the people, and upon that declaration I won. I cannot but wonder whether any member who heard that expression towards us this afternoon is not measuring us by his own standard. (Applause.)

Mr. Bowman's declaration of the faith of the farmers' party, including the initiative, referendum and recall, and the principles of real democracy, government by and for the people and by the people. He did not deny that political parties could serve a good purpose when in accord with noble motives, but when party government becomes a mere scramble for office it could not fall to display all the evils of the spoils system. (Applause.) The United Farmers, seeing these evils in the political system of this province, decided to use their strength to elect good men and women of Ontario to serve the general interest, and especially the interest of the returned soldiers. (Applause.)

Colonel Machin, Kenora, recalled that the last time he had sat in the house was the session of 1915. He had then left his battalion at Port Arthur to come down for a few days because he learned that the government intended bringing in very drastic legislation with regard to the liquor traffic. He would have spoken on the question then but for the agreement of the leader of the government and the leader of the opposition. He had, however, spoken out in caucus, and had spoken to the order of the government. This being the first occasion afforded him to speak out in the house, he would do so.

He then continued: "If I do not speak out now I would commit a breach of faith with the people who elected me, and while I was perfectly prepared for a war-time temperance measure, which would be some measure of suspension, I was not prepared in British Columbia to agree to a promise made by the legislature."

He went on to refer to the hotel regulations preceding the O. T. A., which placed the liquor trade under great expense to meet the financial demands made upon it, and he could not regard the drastic legislation adopted afterwards as anything but a plainable upon the people of this province. He desired to see confiscation

ANXIETY IN BERLIN

London, March 4.—"Extreme anxiety prevails in all circles," according to the Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail, "at fifteen years of age, among foreign residents regarding their position, especially after the anti-American demonstration of Sunday, and the anti-Italian disturbance at another hotel. It is rumored that the swarms of tourists do not feel able to guarantee the security of strangers, but no individual of this class has reached the entente authorities."

BRITISH PROPOSALS FOR LABOR CHARTER

Regulations for Women and Children and System of Maternity Insurance Included.

London, March 4.—The main proposals of the British draft, adopted with minor alterations by the international legislation commission at Paris, as the new international charter of labor, are given in a special despatch from the labor correspondent of The Daily Telegraph.

The provisions of this draft include the employment of children under fifteen years of age in industrial occupations, and of children between fifteen and eighteen for more than six hours daily. At least two hours each day must be devoted to these young workers to technical or regular educational classes, and they will not be permitted to work at night, or on Sundays or holidays.

A Saturday half holiday will be introduced into all countries, and workers will be allowed a weekly rest of at least thirty-six hours, while the hours shall not exceed eight daily or forty-eight weekly, and even less than this in dangerous trades.

Women shall not be employed at night and employers shall not give women work to do at home after their regular day's work. Women shall not be employed in specially dangerous trades, which it is impossible to make healthy, nor in mines, above or below ground. Women shall not be allowed to work for ten weeks altogether before or after childbirth, six weeks of which shall be taken after confinement.

Maternity Insurance. In every country a system of maternity insurance shall be introduced, providing for compensation, at least equal to sickness insurance benefit payable in the country concerned.

Women shall receive the same pay as men for the same job.

The use of poisonous materials shall be prohibited in all cases where it is possible to procure substitutes for them.

Workers shall have the right of free combination and association in all countries. A system of unemployment insurance shall be set up in every country; the new armistice conditions have been postponed until Premier Lloyd George returns to Paris, which he is expected to do this week.

The German delegation which will meet the inter-allied mission to Poland to discuss the boundary dispute between Poland and Germany has been named. According to a despatch received here the German delegates will be Baron von Rechenberg, Dr. Drews, the Prussian minister of the interior, General Doames and various officers and experts. The first meeting will be held at Kreuz, near Bromberg.

The second sub-committee of the commission on ports, waterways and railways continued today its discussion of the draft regarding the international regime of ports. The first eight clauses of the draft were agreed upon this morning, subject to verbal arrangement by the editing committee.

BEER AND WINE OR PROHIBITION; QUEBEC TO DECIDE

Bill Providing for a Referendum is Presented and Read a First Time.

NO LOCAL OPTION

If People Decide for Beer and Wine Number of Licenses Will Remain as at Present.

Quebec, March 4.—The forecast of the Quebec license bill given by the Canadian Press last week was confirmed in the main today, when the bill was distributed and explained in the house by the Hon. Walter Mitchell, provincial treasurer.

The bill provides for a referendum to be called between now and the 15th April next, to permit the people to choose between beer and wine on the one hand, and prohibition on the other. It was made plain by Mr. Mitchell that should the majority of the people decide in favor of beer and wine, it would only apply to those places in the province where prohibition is not at present in force.

Places where Canada temperance act is in force, it will remain in force until it is repealed, and beer and wine licenses will not be issued for those places. Even if a county or municipality now under the Canada temperance act should cast a majority vote in favor of beer and wine, it will not be able to sell beer and wine as long as it remains under the act.

Mr. Mitchell stated explicitly that there would be no local option in the referendum. It would be a vote of the whole province and the majority would say whether they wanted beer or wine, or not.

The questions which will be submitted in the referendum will be as follows: "Are you in favor of beer and other malt liquors or wine and cider, being sold for beverage purposes, providing the maximum alcohol contained in beer and other malt liquors does not exceed 2.51 per cent. weight measure, and provided the maximum amount of alcohol contained in wine and cider does not exceed 18 per cent. weight measure? The answer will be 'yes' or 'no'."

"If the majority vote is in the affirmative," Mr. Mitchell said, "then we will permit the sale of beer and wine under the strength mentioned. This will mean that the strength of beer will be 2.51 per cent. weight measure, and that of wine and cider will be equivalent to 15.09 per cent."

Going on to explain the measure as introduced, Mr. Mitchell said that he provided, first of all, for the prohibition of intoxicating liquors of all kinds and descriptions except that the government might authorize the number of vendors not to exceed 25, who would be placed in charge of depots in Montreal and other places where prohibition was not in force. Licenses to supply industrial, mechanical, artistic, sacramental and medical purposes. These vendors would not have the right to sell for beverage purposes, and the license fee in Montreal would be $5000. In Quebec the fee would be $4000 if the Canadian temperance act is revoked, but if the act remained in force, there would be no authorized vendors in that city, as the temperance act was paramount.

Will the No Bar? "If the vote should be in favor of beer and wine the intention of the government was to issue about the same number of licenses throughout the province as exist at present. The government intended that there should be no bars, and that prohibition of the old act in this regard as well as prohibition of treating should remain unchanged.

Mr. Mitchell also explained that the measure would permit the importation of liquor from Europe and ten licenses would be issued for this purpose, but these importers would only be permitted to sell to authorized vendors and to other provinces which were authorized to purchase. He explained that the licenses to authorized vendors and to importers would be granted by the license commissioners.

The bill was given first reading.

INSPECTORS GET TRUNK AND MONEY

Daring Robbery Nets Thieves Over Three Thousand Dollars.

WOMAN IN CELLAR Held Her Attention While Confederate Ransacked the House.

On obtaining entrance to the home of Myrtle Kosow, at 32 Draper street yesterday morning, by representing themselves as health inspectors, three men were successful in getting a trunk containing $3000 in money, clothing and other articles from the house. One of the men, Yfuf Rosenberg, 3 Brant place, was arrested last night by Detectives Muhlolland and Nursey, charged with theft. The police are still searching for the trunk containing the money and the two other men implicated in the case.

The story of the theft, as told to detectives by Mrs. Kosow, came to her door yesterday morning at 8.30. Introducing themselves as "inspectors" from the health department at the city hall, they asked to be shown to the basement of the house to make an inspection. Mrs. Kosow, complied with the request and showed them to the cellar. They roused around the cellar, holding the attention of the woman, while the third man drove up to the house with a horse and wagon. Entering the house the man went to one of the upstairs rooms, carried the trunk and hid it in the room. The two men in the wagon drove off, and the woman who had witnessed the affair, told the police that Rosenberg was the man who was driving the wagon and that they had seen him carry the trunk from the house. Several hundred dollars of the money, longed to Kosow, and the remainder to roomers. Rosenberg was released last night on $6000 bail.

TROOP TRAINS ARRIVE

The first train from the S. S. Belle will arrive in North Toronto at 9 o'clock this morning, bearing men whose names commence with the initials "A" to "J". There will be also on board, F. J. Jankowski, G. E. Jennings and H. M. Jennion.

The second train carries the men whose names commence with the initials "J" to "W", and on the third train are 48 Toronto men, and the remaining 106 are for Hamilton.

The exact hour of arrival of the last two trains was not definitely known last evening, but may be ascertained by phoning 34, 3415 and 3417, or Aelaide 3180 and 3181, after 9 o'clock this morning.

CHARGE MURDER ON HIGH SEAS

Captain of Brigantine and Two Sons Brought From Capetown to New York.

New York, March 4.—Captain Adolph C. Pedersen of the American brigantine Puako, nicknamed "Hell Fire" Pedersen by his crew, and his two sons, A. E. and L. B. Pedersen, mates of the ship were brought here today by the United States steamer Rochester, and locked up pending investigation of charges of murder on the high seas. Six members of the crew of the Puako also arrived on the Rochester, to be held as material witnesses.

According to the charges forwarded by the American consul at Capetown, South Africa, Captain Pedersen and his sons are accused of violating the section of the seaman's act, forbidding corporal punishment, during a seven months' voyage last year from San Francisco to Capetown. This punishment is alleged to have resulted in the deaths of the ship's cook and a seaman.

Handcuffed followed by beatings with knotted towels and a club, are charged against Pedersen and his sons. Members of the crew assert that when Seaman Axtel Hansen jumped overboard two months out of San Francisco, he repented of his act and clutched a rope trailing from the stern of the brigantine, begging to be hauled back on board, which Captain Pedersen is alleged to have forbidden any member of the crew to do.

Part of the charge of murder on the high seas is based on the assertion that when Seaman Axtel Hansen jumped overboard two months out of San Francisco, he repented of his act and clutched a rope trailing from the stern of the brigantine, begging to be hauled back on board, which Captain Pedersen is alleged to have forbidden any member of the crew to do.

WILSON SCORES OPPONENTS OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Cannot Imagine How They Can Live, and Not Live in Atmosphere of World—Will Not Return Until Nations Are Assured of the Permanency of Peace.

New York, March 4.—President Wilson told the American people in an address here tonight on the eve of his return to Paris, that he was going back to the peace conference with renewed vigor for the creation of a league of nations.

"The first thing I am going to tell the people on the other side of the water is that an overwhelming majority of the American people is in favor of the league of nations," said the president.

Speaking after former President Taft had expounded the main features of the proposed covenant of nations, Mr. Wilson told the vast audience, which filled the Metropolitan Opera House, his opinions of opponents of the league plan in America.

"No party has the right to appropriate this issue, and no party will in the long run dare oppose it," he asserted.

Asserting that the league of nations is "meant as a notice to all outlaw nations" that the peoples of the world will no longer tolerate international crime, the president said that: "Europe is a bit sick at heart at this very moment because it seems that statesmen have had no vision and that the only vision has been the vision of the people."

Amazed at Ignorance. "And I am amazed, alarmed, but amazed, that there should be in some quarters such a comprehensive ignorance of the state of the world," continued Mr. Wilson. "These gentlemen do not know what the mind of men is just now. Everybody else does. I do not know where they have been cloistered, I do not know by what influences they have been blinded; but

ONLY FEW MILLIONS LEFT IN TREASURY TO RUN RAILROADS

Adjournment of Congress Without Appropriation Without Appropriation Results in Chaos.

PRIVATE LOANS LIKELY

Possible That Roads May Immediately Be Relinquished to Private Control.

Washington, March 4.—Adjournment of congress without appropriating $750,000,000 for railways left the railroad administration with practically empty coffers, about $31,000,000 back debts and no funds with which to finance the extensive program of improvements planned for this year as a measure to take up slack in the materials and labor market.

Immediate relinquishment of the roads to private management loomed as a possibility, but officials said this would be done only if it finally appeared not feasible for the railroads to borrow privately the millions needed, or to have the war finance corporation extend large loans to the companies.

Director-General Hines, conferring with Secretary Gass tonight, made this statement:

"The railroad situation is so complicated, and there are so many possibilities that I cannot say at this time what may be done with the railroads. It will take a good deal of investigation before the conclusion is reached."

May Get Private Loans. Several officials expressed belief that the railroads could obtain loans privately to tide them over the next few months. In this connection a conference of bankers with treasury and railroad administration officials was proposed.

Only a few million dollars remain in the railroad administration's original sinking fund—barely enough to run the administration's machinery itself. In addition to paying $381,000,000 to railroads for settlements of 1918 accounts, the railroad administration had planned to use its year $491,000,000 for improving and extending tracks, erecting new buildings, installing bridges, and other capital enterprises; $288,000,000 for cars and locomotives already ordered; $200,000,000 for financing the Boston and Maine, and $12,840,000 for inland waterways. Unless funds can be found soon, the railroads will remain unpaid, and in turn they may be slow in paying their bills for supplies and materials, it was pointed out.

The treasury is anxious to avoid throwing railroad securities on the market before the Victory Liberty Loan campaign, and for this reason will try to arrange a means of supplying credit thru the war finance corporation, if this is possible.

Several hundred nominations, including those of A. Mitchell Palmer, to be attorney-general, and John Skelton Williams to succeed himself as justice of the peace, remained unconfirmed today when congress adjourned. On the list were approximately 1,000 postmasters, 500 army officers and 200 naval officers.

UNIONIST SCORING BY SIR SAM HUGHES

Federal Government, He Says, Allowed Useless Sacrifice of Canada's Troops—Extravagance in Floating Victory Bonds—Attacks Sir Joseph Flavelle.

Ottawa, March 4.—If Mr. Hocken of Toronto yesterday occupied the center of the stage in the debate on the address, that place was certainly taken in the house of commons today by Major-General Sir Sam Hughes. If Mr. Hocken yesterday scourged the Union government with whips, Sir Sam today scourged them with scorpions. Mr. Hocken for nothing much wrong except the civil service commission, but General Hughes found pretty nearly everything wrong with the Union government.

His most serious charge was that the government had badly handled the contract of the war, at least after the time he ceased to be minister of militia. Canadian soldiers, he claimed, had been recklessly and uselessly sacrificed in the taking of Cambrai, "a dirty one-horse town, not worth the life of a single Canadian soldier, and filled with machine guns and booby traps." The assault upon Mons after the signing of the armistice and within four hours of the time fixed for the cessation of hostilities was soundly denounced. Sir Sam said that the government had not only had no hesitation in saying that the commander of the Canadian Corps should have been court-martialed.

Neither did General Hughes believe that the government addressed itself properly to the problem of demobilization. He did not think the stern, cap-

MONTREAL "FISH" WAS IRISH WHISKEY

Police Seize Another Big Consignment at Union Station.

One hundred and ninety-one bottles of Irish whiskey were seized by Plainclothesmen Marshall and Sullivan at the Union Station yesterday morning. The whiskey was smuggled in with a shipment of fish from Montreal, and had no one of the bottles broken and the whiskey run out on the station platform the police did not have suspected the shipment.

Packed in four cases and labeled "fish" from a fish company of Montreal and destined to a fictitious address in the west end of the city the four cases containing whiskey arrived. Packed in cracked ice with the fish and carefully wrapped was found quart bottles of a well-known brand of Irish. One of the cases, however, was subjected to rough handling by the expressmen, and altho the water dripping from the melting ice in the case was visible, the smell of the broken whiskey bottle attracted the attention of the police. The other cases were then opened and found to contain whiskey also.

The liquor was taken to Court Street station and further investigation is being made.

DEFER DISCUSSION OF ARMISTICE TERMS

Will Be Taken Up by Supreme Council When Lloyd George Returns to Paris.

Paris, March 4.—The peace conference commission on Belgian affairs at its session today, reached a decision regarding solution of the question of the revision of the treaty of 1839, which finally brought peace between Holland and Belgium. The decision of the commission on this question will be submitted later to the supreme council.

The supreme council at its meeting Wednesday, will hear a delegation from the royal government of Montenegro, at the request of the Italian delegation to the peace conference.

Discussions of the new armistice conditions have been postponed until Premier Lloyd George returns to Paris, which he is expected to do this week.

The German delegation which will meet the inter-allied mission to Poland to discuss the boundary dispute between Poland and Germany has been named. According to a despatch received here the German delegates will be Baron von Rechenberg, Dr. Drews, the Prussian minister of the interior, General Doames and various officers and experts. The first meeting will be held at Kreuz, near Bromberg.

The second sub-committee of the commission on ports, waterways and railways continued today its discussion of the draft regarding the international regime of ports. The first eight clauses of the draft were agreed upon this morning, subject to verbal arrangement by the editing committee.

MIDDLE AGES WERE NOT DARK AGES

On Contrary, Period Was One of Greatest in World's History.

So great was the desire to hear... Professor de Wolfe, who opened his... series of lectures on "The Civilization... and Philosophy of the Middle Ages,"... at the university yesterday, that the... audience had to move from the first... hall into a larger one, in order to be... accommodated, and even then space... was lacking. A still larger apartment... will be secured for the next lecture...

In order to "penetrate into this... period, called by the speaker one of... the greatest in men's history, it was... necessary to become another man, was... an introductory statement. The... mediaeval man had peculiar qualities... and defects. Too long had the middle... ages been considered the dark ages, and... too their study had been neglected. Just... as when men in the seventeenth, eighteenth... and the beginning of the nineteenth... centuries beauty in the Gothic cathedral... because they had been built up by the... Before the dawn of the... eleventh century men's minds were in a... state of flux, and by the end of the... twelfth all creative pores were at... work and a new civilization burst out.

Europe a Checker Board. Professor de Wolfe said that to appreciate... the middle ages it was not necessary... to compare them with the present. In the new movement... France was the first to appear. Europe... was at that time divided into principalities... like a checker-board, and men were... related to one another according to whether they received... or gave land. The feudal system... spread over France, England and... western countries. The monks carried the same attitude... towards the people as did lay seignors, but they treated them like bro-... thers, and under them developed the... sentiment of the dignity of individual... life. All branches of art flourished. Romanesque... abbeys and churches arose, the hymns of St. Bernard were... heard in the purest Latin; architecture, sculpture, glorious stained win-... dows were seen, and the schools be-... came localized. Even war did not succeed in... injuring the teaching of the schools, because at that time war... was the business of professional fighting... men only.

Thirsting for Independence. The things taught were described by the speaker as the seven liberal... arts—grammar, rhetoric, logic, arith-... metic, geometry, music and dialectics, and... philosophy was placed definitely outside of the realia of these subjects. Art was... considered the initiation to higher studies. That this classification... was definitely accepted was shown by the illustration of a... window of a cathedral, where philoso-... phy was placed in the very centre of the... rose. The man of these times—of the... feudal middle-ages thirsting for independence, and this was assisted when it was declared that the only... existing reality is an individual reality... a personality, and that king or subject, master or servant, all have the... same essential constituents, and that... person of itself admits of no de-... pendence. The reliance of the individual... was proclaimed, and the speaker said... England has never forgotten the lesson... she learned at that time from the... teachings of the schools of France.

HYDRO COMMISSIONERS ARE SUED FOR DAMAGES

On the claim that the Hydro-Electric power commission compelled them to connect up their system with the Hydro-Electric system by compulsion, the Canadian Niagara Power Company is suing the Hydro-Electric commission for $74,000. On Dec. 21, it is alleged the company's plant was badly damaged by reason of trouble originating on the defendant's lines with the result that the company's service was dislocated.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Charles Armstrong, aged 30 years, was found dead at 173 Jarvis street at 6 o'clock last evening. Armstrong retired at 4 in the afternoon, and complained of feeling ill. Death is thought to have been from natural causes. The body was removed to the morgue.

CAPT. CLEM KING WINS WAR HONORS

Decorated at Buckingham Palace for Gallantry in Action.

Captain Clem King of the 61st Battery, Canadian Field Artillery, son of T. W. King, parliamentary correspondent of The World, was corated at Buckingham Palace a few days ago. Captain King was awarded the Military Cross for gallantry in action which is officially described in The London Gazette as follows: "Captain Clem King, 45th Battery, 8th Brigade, Canadian Field Artillery. For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on August 29th, 1918, near Monchy-le-Preux. Noticing a creeping bombardment coming towards his wagon lines, he commenced to clear them, but before the clearing was completed, the bombardment burst on them, wounding a number of men and horses and the only other officer present. By his coolness, he kept his men steady, and passing several times thru the barrage, led out horses and wounded, eventually clearing the lines."

VETERANS

St. John, N.B., March 4.—The Great War Veterans' Association last night issued a resolution to request the Dominion, provincial and city governments to disclose all positions filled, and all appointments made since August, 1914, that these positions be now declared vacant and be filled by returned soldiers, six months after actual demobilization of all overseas troops.
