Vote on Report of Customs Probe Is Cause of Much Speculation OTTAWA, June 23.—Parliament will see before dawn what is considered the most crucial division of the present session. Tilly Wright, Millstream, May Have Fractured Skull VISITORS HURT

Miss Ola Matheson, sister of Laurie, leg slightly injured; badly shaken up.

The scene of the accident was at the intersection of the Millstream road leading to the village and the main trunk highway from Saint John to Moncton. At this point the view is obstructed by a house on one side of the main road and a cemetery on the other, car drivers coming up the trunk highway not being able to see automobiles on the Millstream road.

Wright was in a semi-conscious state when extricated from the wreckage, but Soper escaped injury. Wright was carried to the Cross Roads Inn, where Dr. Kirkpatrick and Dr. McAllister, both of Sussex, attended him, assisted by Miss Greta Connolly, an Apohaqui nurse who was recently graduated from the Maine General Hospital at Portland. JULY 22 SET AS LAST DAY FOR TAX DISCOUNT

Retail Merchants Advocate Making Payments During Three Months

COUNCIL REFERS MATTER TO MAYOR

County School Fund Question Again—East Saint John Lighting

The Common Council yesterday afternoon set Thursday, July 22, as the last day on which taxes could be paid to get the discount. It was decided to allow the usual discount of 5 per cent on all amounts paid by that time.

The chairman of the Board of Assessors sent a formal notice of the filing of the 1926 assessment, particulars of which have already been published.

R. M. A. SUGGESTION

The Saint John branch of the Retail Merchants' Association wrote asking if the council could not make arrangements to have the taxes paid in three monthly instalments, the discount to be allowed on the amount paid each time and interest at the rate of 6 per cent be charged on all amounts due after three months.

A communication from E. P. Raymond in connection with the granting of a permit to Miss P. K. Hanson to repair her building in North Market street was referred to the committee of the whole.

A communication from the Board of School Trustees in connection with the non-payment of the county school fund cheque by the county was referred to the finance committee of the Municipal Council, the opinion being expressed that that was the proper place to consider the matter, the Council not being directly interested in the matter.

Commissioner Harding said he hoped when the matter was taken up the someone could throw some light on the school law and render it understandable and explain how the assessment for the county school fund was arrived at.

FIRE PREVENTION IN SCHOOLS.

Dr. S. A. Worrell, superintendent of schools, wrote that fire prevention was now being taught in the public schools. Commissioner Harding said he was glad to hear this and moved the communication be filed. Carried.

Commissioner Harding's motion that the tenders of J. S. Gibson & Co. for hard coal, and R. P. & W. F. Starr for soft coal be accepted was carried.

The recommendation of the committee of the whole that the Power Commission of the City of Saint John be authorized to make an expenditure of $7,709.53, payable by bond issue for the extension of the system to East Saint John, was adopted.

John Sands, Burwick, England, Prepares For Hundredth Birthday Celebration

He is John Sands, of Burwick Common, the father of seven children, the eldest of whom is 77 years of age. Four of his family are still living.

Mr. Sands worked regularly on a farm until he was 57 years of age, and in that time was hardly ever ill. He became, at the age of nine, earning 12 cents a day. He was paid only 25 cents a day when he was 20.

The town will celebrate its tercentenary from July 2 to 17.

WOMEN TO SEEK LOWER AGE LIMIT

LONDON, June 23.—British women are about to open a vigorous fight to go away with present suffrage laws which exclude them from the right to vote until they are 30 years old.

Many prominent men have agreed to join a great meeting staged by 40 women's societies in July in the interest of women's political rights.

Among them are Lord Balfour, of Burleigh, Lord Cecil, of Chelwood, and Pettit Lawless, member of the House of Commons. George Bernard Shaw, the noted playwright, however, has declined to participate.

Latvia has just ordered 12,000 metric tons of rails for the new Glauva-Libau railway.

WORLD FAMOUS GAME HUNTERS HOLD MEETING

Many Tales of Hairbreadth Escapes Told at London Dinner

LONDON, June 23.—Thirty of the world's most famous big game hunters, with the Duke of York and the Earl of Londsdale among their number, dined together in London recently.

It was one of the rare gatherings of the Shikar Club—an exclusive private club formed some years ago by Lord Londsdale. Membership of the club is confined to redoubtable Shikaris—men who have sought after big game beyond the edge of civilization.

The King, who has shot more than a score of tigers, is the honorary president of the club.

Many tales of hairbreadth escape from lion and tiger, lion and elephant were told by the skikaris at the dinner. The bare list of remote countries in which the members of the club have hunted provokes curiosity, not only about the wild game there found, but about the physical geography of some of these unknown lands and their inhabitants.

There was Colonel Glasford, who met the forests of Central India a panther that tackled him on the edge of a cliff, over which they both fell.

Upon arrival here I only expected to remain here one or two days, and then proceed to Newfoundland, and Labrador for the summer. But my first impressions were good, as I scanned the list of names and saw that I was to meet some of the greatest things that had ever happened in the world.

Everywhere I find nice clean-cut, friendly people, extending the hand of good will. Whether they be lawyers, merchants or common laborers they take a pride in telling you, what to see and how to see it. Wouldn't you at once tell me that I had gone far enough; that this was the place to spend the summer, and was the thing that I will remember Saint John for many years to come.

It was this same spirit, this same glad hand stuff that put Florida on the map, and made her the greatest of all our United States.

Saint John certainly has a drawing card in that she has these splendid spirited people, not educated to it, but who from their very nature are on the lookout for an opportunity to direct some stranger, or talk to him, if he appears to be a stranger.

And the policeman at the corner hasn't the appearance of a bully, who wants to demonstrate his authority on the erring citizen. He is polite and gentle. I approached one inquiring for the car for Rockwood Park; he was apparently very glad to tell me, and walked at least a half block to show me and be certain I found the right car.

The bankers are very courteous and nice, meet you as though you were one of the home boys, any body of all are the splendid doctors you have who prescribe such palatable medicines for us boys from beyond the border. They are indeed a friend in need.

As stated above today the state of Florida is the most progressive of any in our United States. It has developed from the obscurity of a little peninsula of dazzling huts, sandy dunes and wilderness, into a great winter resort, into a great agricultural and manufacturing country, and is now practically covered with a network of asphalt roads, 30 to 60 feet wide. That is what the new blood accomplished! That's what to stop in the street and say to myself, "She's just where Florida was six years ago, or may be one year or a score or more before she comes into her own, but New Brunswick is destined to be a beautiful and lovely city. Her destiny is in the hands of her people, and she has the coming of the greater things at her will."

Organize a club offering prizes to the parties who bring in the greatest number of souvenir cards of Saint John, each to be stamped and pressed ready to go to some friend of the party bringing in the cards, together with an invitation to the party.

I could continue with a long list of the suggestions, which we used with success, but it is not necessary; all you have to do to make your town good is to place it above all things, keep its welfare in your mind and never lose an opportunity to do something for it.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JUNE 23, 1926.

A VISITOR FROM THE SOUTH

A visitor from Florida has been in Saint John. He likes the city, he likes the people and he has taken the trouble to write and say so, for which he deserves our thanks.

Then: "As I admire the beautiful hills, and think of the great summer climate you live in, and of the many opportunities lying at your feet, I am forced to stop in the street and say to myself, 'She's just where Florida was six years ago, it may be one year or a score or more before she comes into her own, but New Brunswick is destined to be a beautiful province, and Saint John a great and lovely city."

That is an outsider's opinion and well worth noting. The friendliness of our citizens, their readiness to oblige and to put themselves out to help a stranger are flattering commentaries and long may we preserve this reputation.

THE CASE OF MRS. GALLOP.

A few days ago, a woman, Mrs. Emily Gallop, was sentenced to be hanged, having been convicted of the murder of her husband by a jury of her countrymen.

For one, who has not had the opportunity to follow the progress of a case in court, to express an opinion on the verdict arrived at, is, in most instances, speaking without sufficient knowledge of the facts, but the history of murder trials is such that it would seem reasonable to presume the evidence in this particular case proved the accused guilty beyond any shadow of doubt.

Where the accused is a woman the possibility of her conviction on the charge of murder is much more remote than were the accused a man. For this reason while no jury deserves to be congratulated for going its obvious duty, still in view of the modern tendency towards absurd leniency, particularly noticeable in the United States, the verdict of this Quebec jury must give satisfaction to those who are the great majority—whose desire it is to see the law upheld.

As the metropolis of Canada, Montreal is not only a fast-growing center of industry and commerce, but it is one of the great vacation cities of the world.

Concrete is chosen because thorough investigation showed that this permanent type was meeting traffic requirements in thousands of other cities, and doing so with very little maintenance.

TARIFF ALTERATIONS. (Three Rivers Bien Public.) It is quite possible that, taken together, the modifications in the tariff may amount to an improvement, but nevertheless it appears that it would have been more just to all concerned not to have touched the tariff before the promised commission, whose need was recognized, had had the time to investigate and advise the government.

STRIKES' BAD EFFECT. (New York Sun.) There are cases where neither employer nor employee is directly to blame for failure to resume work at the old speed. The engineering work in Yorkshire attempted to get going, but found it impossible to use more than 40 per cent of the men. That is a good example of what a general strike leads to. It stops the momentum of trade and it is a difficult matter to regain the old swing of the pendulum.

(Youth's Companion.) Have you ever been curious about a letter that some friend has written about you to introduce you to another? Then imagine how trying it would be to have the letter in a language you could not read. In the early days of the Hudson's Bay Company they used to give "certificates" of good character to those Indians who seemed to deserve it. These the Indians called "tespots," since that was as near as they could get to the pronunciation. They valued them greatly, carried them around with them and always presented them when they wished to do some trading with a white man. One old Indian kept one for years, presenting it whenever occasion offered, and never guessed that what it said was: "This old fellow is a regular scamp. Watch him or he will cheat you out of everything. He lies like the mischief."

BIRKENHEAD MAKES ATTACK ON MINER HEAD

Accuses Cook of Working for Destruction of Coal Industry

LONDON, June 23.—Following closely upon a decision of the Labor Party to offer strenuous opposition to the government's new bills which have as their purpose a reorganization of the mining industry, the Earl of Birkenhead, secretary for India, has delivered a verbal broadside against A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation.

Cook was charged by Lord Birkenhead in a speech last night of aiming at the destruction of the coal industry and nationalization of the industry by means of a reorganization of the industry.

READY FOR STRUGGLE

Lord Birkenhead said that he and his colleagues were fully determined that if they were driven to it, "by this attempt to blackmail society by men who declare they have a strange hold on the vital chords of industry, we shall once again, sorrowfully, but resolutely, grid ourselves for a great struggle; we shall not permit the nation to be destroyed."

"We who have broken down every despot in Europe," Lord Birkenhead added, "will not be broken down by men who take their buildings from a discredited revolutionary junk in the most poverty stricken country in Europe."

Local People Were Granted Special Seats

CHICAGO, June 22.—Pilgrims from Saint John spent a very happy day at the International Eucharistic Congress here today.

Arising shortly after daybreak, the Saint John delegation ate a hurried breakfast and left for the great open air cathedral at Soldier's Stadium. Because of excellent foresight on the part of the leaders, the group had seats reserved for it at all services and exercises.

Although there were thousands attending the mass this morning the Saint John delegation got to its reserved section 30 minutes before the service started. The seats were among the best in the immense stadium, about 100 feet from the altar.

In the afternoon the delegation toured Chicago for three and a half hours.

STARTS NEW FIGHT

CHICAGO, Ill., June 23.—Russell T. Scott, financial wizard, bandit and convicted murderer of Joseph Maurer, 19 year old drug clerk, began what may be his last battle to evade the gallows, when a court started selecting a jury to determine if he is sane enough to be hanged.

Three times before he has waged a fight for life and twice before he was ordered hanged but in the third battle—a sanity hearing—he was declared insane and ordered sent to the Chester Asylum for the criminal insane, until such a time as he might recover.

In the present proceedings the state will seek to prove that he has recovered and that nothing now stands between him and the gallows. Eight jurors were selected yesterday.

Revolt of the Middle-Aged Wife Whose Husband Hasn't Taken Her Out in Ten Years—The Engaged Girl Who Repeats Her Fiance's Confidences to Her Mother—The Old-Fashioned Parent Whose "Consent" Must be Asked.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married twenty-eight years. Have four grown children. My wife has been a model wife and mother. Three years ago she seemed to lose all respect for me and my opinion, learned to swim and took to going to the movies, of both of which she knew I disapproved. Lately I have found out that she flirts with men and goes riding with them day or night. What shall I do? I have not taken her out in ten years. Never go myself. Am a firm believer that home is woman's place and man the head of the house.
DESPERATE HUSBAND.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER:

I should say that your wife's conduct is the direct result of the way you have treated her. She has revolted against the narrow, dull, drab life you have forced on her.

You have denied her all sorts of innocent little pleasures. You have never tried to bring joy into her life, and now when she is middle aged and her children are grown, she suddenly wakes up to the fact that if she doesn't have some pleasure now she will never have any at all.

Every man who has any intelligence encourages his wife to go to the movies because it gives her something new and romantic and thrilling to think about while she does her housework, instead of her thoughts dwelling morbidly upon him and his imperfections.

Of course, if your wife does flirt and go riding with men she is doing wrong. She is going too far. But the fault is yours because you have held her down too tightly. If you had been reasonable and human with her you would not have to complain of her excesses now.

I don't blame a woman for almost anything she may do if she has a husband who hasn't taken her out anywhere for ten years. She has such areas of pleasure coming to her that she can never catch up with the happiness of you that you would have to complain of her excesses now.

Why, Mr. Man, didn't it ever occur to you that your wife wasn't just a piece of household machinery? Didn't you ever think that she was a woman, with a woman's desire for pleasure and tenderness and love and good times, and not just an automaton that mechanically did your sweeping and cooking and washing and mending and baby-tending?

Didn't you ever suspicion that if you made matrimony too hard and dull for her she might some time fly the coop? And didn't it ever dawn on you that you would kill her love if you tyrannized over her?

You have only yourself to blame for your troubles, and the only way you can win your wife back is by turning lover again and showing her a good time yourself.

It is all very well to say that the woman's place is in the home, but if you want to keep one there you have to make it attractive to her.
DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am engaged to a splendid young man. He is a man of strong individuality and likes to keep his affairs to himself. We have frankly and thoroughly discussed our plans for the future, he believing that I will keep them secret and not divulge them to any one. Instead of this, I have talked them over freely with my mother. Lately I am beginning to believe that this young man suspicious this and that my mother stands between us, as he is not so free in talking to me as he used to be. Am I doing right in telling my mother about our private talks, thus letting her advice determine my viewpoint?
BAB.

ANSWER:

I think you are doing very wrong, because you are betraying the confidence of the man who trusts you and who would not tell you the things that he does if he knew you were going to blab them to your mother.

Of course, you feel that you can trust your mother and you are accustomed to relying upon her judgment. You also feel that she has a right to know all about your affairs, but you must remember that your fiance does not share this view of the subject. He does not know whether your mother is as leaky a vessel as you are or not, and, anyway, he doesn't want his private affairs thrustled over in your family circle.

One of the great grievances of married women is that their husbands never repose any confidence in them and never talk over their business affairs with them. It is because so many women are like you—having to run to mother with everything—that makes men afraid to tell their wives anything they don't want broadcast to the world.

A lot of the jealousy that men show toward their mothers-in-law is likewise due to the fact that many wives are tactless enough always to throw mother's opinion up to their husband. It is always "Mother thinks we should do so and so." "Mother says this and that." "Mother objects to this plan." "Mother favors that plan" and so on.

This is more than masculine vanity can stand, for naturally a man likes to believe that he is an oracle to his wife and that she looks up to him and defers to his judgment.

A husband's confidence in his wife should be sacred, and she should put the soft pedal on mother. Take this tip if you want to be happy though married.
DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—Do you think any right-thinking girl could marry a man who has not had principle enough to seek out her parents and ask their consent before he proposed marriage to her? My daughter of 23 is contemplating marriage with a young man who has acted in this manner. He is a dear, likable fellow and I would have no objection, except that I think that he has treated me with great disrespect and that it will bring no happiness to wed him. Do you think that I am wrong in feeling injured?
HEART THROBS.

ANSWER:

Why, my dear lady, your grievance sounds like something out of a hair trunk in the attic. I don't suppose that in all America any young man has spoken to the parents first and requested permission to court their daughter and asked her hand in marriage in fifty years. Parents are lucky these days if they get invited to the wedding.

Of course, it is good manners for the young man to "ask" for the girl, but that is merely a matter of form. The young people have settled the question, and all that the parents are expected to do is to sign on the dotted line.

So don't harbor ill feelings against the young man because he is acting just as every other young man does in this day and generation.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

THE STYLISH ALLIGATORS
The pink ticket in Nancy's pocket stuck up its head and looked at her with accusing pink eyes. "What did you do that for?" it said.
"Do what for?" said Nancy in a bewildered voice.
"Let that giant boy pick you up and throw you over the mountain," explained the ticket. "It's my job and the job of the other ticket in that boy's pocket, to take you places as long as you are in Drowsy Land. We got cheated, so we did. Another thing! We never intended to bring you here. You won't like it a bit! But I'll say this much and then I'll go back into your pocket again. If you get into a predicament, just say, 'A pink trip slip for a ten-cent fare.' That will fetch us both in a jiffy. We can take you out of trouble if you did bring yourself in. Don't forget the words."
"Yes, don't forget the words," said the other ticket, sticking its pink head out of Nick's pocket. "A pink trip slip—not a pink slip trip."
With that both tickets rolled themselves up again and disappeared and the Twins stood looking at each other wondering what it was all about.
"Well, what for this place is?" said Nick, looking around. "It cannot be any queerer than the one we just left. Drowsy Land has more queer places than any place we've ever been before. No wonder the Fairy Queen said that Inco and Flops had come here. An elephant with pink roses all over him isn't half as queer as—"
"Baa! Maa!" went something behind them. And the Twins turned just in time to see two big black goats.
But before they had time to wink, much less to run, the goats lowered

CHIFFON ROSE PETALS FOR PARTY FROCKS

By Marie Belmont
Roses of rose petals, seipiped from a length of pale pink chiffon, form the cunning little party frock adorned by any child of five.

In making this simple frock, various shades of rose color can be used, deeper tints graduating toward the bottom, or it can be kept pale pink. Nosegays of ribbon add a finishing touch at shoulder and on the small pocket near the bottom.

IT WILL be some time, apparently, before the word "bartender" is out of the dictionary.
Although the Bartender's Union is gone, Manhattan has in its place the Bartenders' Benevolent and Protective Association and each day you will find three little groups who refuse to desert the sinking ship.
"Soft drink" resorts that have sprung up in old-time bars offer a few jobs, but the dead-in-the-wool mixologist does not find this particularly exciting.
During the summer months any number of jobs are open. I am told. Country clubs and fashionable summer resorts want their "near drinks" mixed in old-fashioned style and there are innumerable opportunities to cater at picnics of various societies.
Some of the real old-timers still refuse to believe that the old order has changed. One old boy of seventy-odd comes up to head-quarters insisting on a regular bar job.
"An old-time bartender would rather earn $25 a week at his old job than $50 a week as a waiter," says one official.

HEAVYWEIGHT BOUT MAY GO OUT WEST

Refusal of Sanction by N. Y. Commission Forces Rickard to New Fields

NEW YORK, June 23-Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney will probably fight in September, either in Jersey City or in the west. Many close followers of boxing pick the west, with Chicago a possibility.

Refusal of the New York State Athletic Commission, by a two to one vote, to sanction the match in New York City, as proposed definitely by Tex Rickard yesterday, has opened the way to consideration of Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City. But there are no decisions in New Jersey bouts, under the state law, and those close to the situation would not be surprised at selection of some other section of the country.

With the situation as it is, Rickard's leading promoter rival, Humbert Furey, has seen a chance for a major attraction and has offered to pay Tunney $25,000 the minute he puts his name to a contract to meet the winner of the Paul Bernbach-Jack Delaney bout in Brooklyn July 15.

MONTREAL TREND IS SLIGHTLY UPWARD

B. C. Fishing Makes Gain But Later Recedes—Asbestos in Good Demand

NEW YORK, June 23.—Stock prices moved irregularly higher at the opening of today's market with the oil and gas the centres of speculative interest. Rails continued to respond to the publication of unusually favorable May earnings reports, and oils were helped by reports of a decrease in crude oil production last week. Case Theatricals opened 2 1/2 points higher and General Electric advanced 1/4. Union Oil of California and Pan Handle Producers and Refiners were heavy on profit taking.

MONTREAL MARKET

MONTREAL, June 23.—There was a fair volume of trading on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning, with values displaying a firm to slightly downward trend. B. C. Fishing, the leader, opened at 7 1/4 for an overnight gain of a half point, touched 7 1/2 in later trading, but subsequently reacted to 7 1/4 for a net gain of three-quarters point. Brazilian was fairly active and steady selling around 52. Asbestos preferred was in good demand at 7 1/4. Other changes included Steamships preferred, off three-quarters at 79; Alcohol off an eighth at 18 1/2; Dominion Bridge, off an eighth at 100 1/4; Breweries up a quarter at 60 1/2; and Price Bros of three-quarters at 67 1/2.

Rhode Island Governor Refuses to Call Meeting for Extension

FREDERICTON, June 23.—A special despatch to the Daily Gleaner from Providence, R. I., says: "Governor Aram J. Pothier has, for the third time within the past two weeks, refused to call a special session of the General Assembly to extend the charter of the defunct Southern New England Railroad for another year.

"This charter expires June 30 unless extended, and the road will be junked. The property is now being sold by the Federal District Court for Rhode Island.

"In a letter to George L. Crooker, chairman of the Rhode Island Foreign and Domestic Commerce Commission, the Governor refused the request of the commission chairman to call a session. He refused a similar request made last week by Senator John J. Barry, of Central Falls.

"The Governor told Chairman Crooker that he found no new facts giving 'tangible assurance' that if the charter were extended the road, on which $7,000,000 already has been expended, would be completed. He said he had talked with leaders of the Legislature and that they held the same view."

Dog's Bark Probably Saves Score of Lives

NEW YORK, June 23.—A five-year-old mongrel, Fritzle, pet of a chauffeur's family, probably saved a score of persons early one morning recently by barking an alarm of fire. After policemen and civilians had helped firemen rescue the occupants of 431 Fremont and 433 East 103rd street, the Bronx, Fritzle ran out, barked some more, frolicked a bit and then disappeared. Whether the dog followed its owner to the new quarters he took up, the whereabouts of which were not learned, no one knew.

HISTORIC CHURCH IN LONDON SOLD

Structure Once Occupied by French Huguenots of Metropolitan Area Became Anglican

(By Dominion News Service)

LONDON, June 23.—After having been closed for 18 months the French (Anglican) church of the Savoy, in Shaftesbury avenue, has been sold. Founded by French Huguenot refugees, who in 1601 received letters patent from Charles II, the congregation had latterly consisted mainly of people who wished to improve their knowledge of French.

This fact was revealed in a report by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in 1907, when they pointed out that very few French-born Protestants remained, the descendants of the Huguenots having been mostly absorbed into the Church of England.

The church was under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of London, and was the only such in the diocese where the English service was held in the French language.

King Lends Coach For Big Pageant

(By Dominion News Service)

LONDON, June 23.—The visit of King George III to Oxford in August, 1786, is to be enacted at a Georgian pageant and fair.

King George V has lent for the occasion, the famous Albemarle coach, which is being sent down from Windsor.

Many of those taking part in the pageant are the descendants of those actually present at George III's visit.

BULL KNOCKS DOWN 20 MEN, INJURING 3

Injured Animal Breaks Loose at Dockyards Near Birkenhead, England

More than 20 people were knocked down and three of them injured—one man seriously—by a bull in a mad charge near the Liverpool docks recently.

A number of cattle had been driven off the Birkenhead lagoon boat up the floating roadway on their way to the Liverpool abattoir. A young bull which had been resting since leaving the ferry broke loose when it reached the street and dashed back along the Dock road towards the pierhead.

Workers who tried to stop the infuriated animal were bowled over.

At the top of the floating bridge led to the roadway a policeman extended his arms in the hope of frightening the bull, but made his escape when the animal lowered its head and charged.

When the bull reached the bottom of the floating bridge it dashed at the policeman who tried to stop it. A porter named William Madden was struck by the bull, and he was killed by its horns. The bull charged and fell on him. The policeman, named Blythe, then went to the rescue, smashing his baton by the repeated blows on the animal's head.

While the bull was temporarily stunned Madden was pulled from underneath. No sooner was a rope attached to its head than the animal staggered to its feet and dashed at a driver named James Kinsella, aged 21, Hanover square, Dublin, who was almost thrown over the railings into the river.

Kinsella was seriously hurt and removed to hospital. Before the animal had been secured a number of other men were knocked down, but they escaped serious injury.

The final capture of the bull was made into higher ground by the pier-head overlooking the landing-stage.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, June 23.—Hornblower & Weeks.—We would not be surprised to see Radio go over a hundred points and we believe CIP will duplicate the recent move of Union Oil at California. Reading and Erie have been bought by same banking interests and moves in all three issues are expected. Developments in Erie also suggest higher prices and consistent buying of Texas Oil is being re-viewed.

Housens.—In our opinion the long positions in the rails and in better oils are solidly entrenched with no intention of disturbing stock at current prices. Stocks in general—See no change in the general situation. We still believe the trend in all good stocks is upward.

J. S. Bach.—Look for the market to move into higher ground this week, subject to corrective technical reactions. Highland, aside from its good earnings, is an excellent merger possibility. Hornblower & Weeks. Oils and rails are particularly well bought and should work higher.

HEAD OF BOY HELD IN BRIDGE

Firemen, Doctors and Police Save Lad After 45 Minutes

By Dominion News Service

LONDON, June 23.—For three-quarters of an hour recently firemen, doctors, police, medical students, ambulance men, and workmen strove hard to release a boy aged six, who had faced his head in the ornamental balustrade of Westminster Bridge.

Before the terrified child was freed by the breaking of part of the thick metal with a cold chisel, the following steps had to be taken by the various authorities concerned:

Scaffolding erected outside the bridge over the river.

Boats stationed beneath.

Fire escape and fire emergency van summoned.

Body of police drafted to spot.

Permission obtained from the London County Council to cut their bridge.

An attempt to file through metal-work with a hacksaw.

All this time the boy, who was held by his little brother and sister, he thought he would like to look at the steamers in the river below.

Against the advice of his brother, William, aged eight, he pushed his head through one of the shamrock-shaped openings.

The points of the shamrock are only 4-1/2 inches apart, and though Daniel pushed his head through without difficulty and had a good look at the river, he was unable to withdraw it.

SCREAMED SHRILLY.

At once he set up a shrill screaming as a crowd began to gather.

A message was sent to St. Thomas's Hospital, and three medical students went to the spot with vials. They smeared Daniel's head and the metal with the substance—but still he could not be freed.

The crowd, which had now assumed considerable dimensions, was increased by the arrival of a plain patrol of the London Fire Brigade.

Brass-helmeted firemen examined the bridge on either side by two men, so as to relieve any pressure on the bridge, and it was decided that the only way to free him was to break away part of the metal work.

Before the demolition set of willfully damaging the fabric of Westminster bridge could be taken, however, a message was sent to the Council of the London County Council. A constable was sent to the County Hall, where he courteously asked if a little bit of the bridge might be broken to release a small boy, and had his request courteously granted—the usual formalities being waived for this occasion.

A piece of metal was finally chipped off with a chisel and the boy, who was by now purple in the face, was freed.

He was immediately carried to a motor-ambulance, which had been waiting half an hour to receive him, and was taken to St. Thomas's Hospital, where lacerations behind his ears, caused by his own efforts to free himself were dressed.

LOCAL ATHLETES NOT GOING TO MEET

Lack of Funds Said to be the Cause—Plan to Help Suggested

Entries for the Maritime Interscholastic championship meet at Moncton on Saturday are pouring in according to a word received from the railway centre. The meet will be held on the M. A. A. field. Thus far the members of the Saint John High School track team have not sent in any entries. It was reported this morning. Lack of sufficient funds to pay the expenses was understood to be the reason.

Several persons interested in the local field said this morning that perhaps some of the "Old Grads" would like to contribute to sending four of the team to the meet. It was estimated that about 800 or 850 would cover the expenses. Many felt that it was too bad if Don Rivers, who smashed the interscholastic records for the 100 and 200 yards at the recent meet, did not get an opportunity at Moncton. Don Rivers, who won the hammer throw and is a good shot putter, Peters for the distance race and Russell Naves for the high jump were among the names mentioned as ones who should go. Little time has been left arranging for entrants. No part entries will be accepted for the meet.

Regulation championship medals will be awarded in every event, for first and second places. Seventeen events will probably be carried on the program making seven medal sets necessary. Merchants of the city are cooperating in the affair by donating the cost of a medal and in many cases the whole set.

NEW N. S. TOURIST COMPANY PLANNED

Yarmouth Hears of Project to Develop Western Part of Province

YARMOUTH, June 22.—Many Yarmouth people are much enthused over the reported movement for the promotion of a concern which probably will be known as the International Development Company, composed of United States and Canadian capitalists. The purpose of the enterprise is to establish accommodations to meet the coming requirements of the traveling public, tourists, etc., by acquiring property, building and operating hotels, boarding houses, establishing camping grounds, also the providing of various features of amusement and entertainment for the visitors. The capitalization will be extensive. Primarily, the operations will apply to western Nova Scotia. Options on certain properties have already been secured for the purpose of expansion and improvement. In a few weeks, proposals from contractors will be solicited. This will be for the start on a somewhat elaborate scale, but notwithstanding it is expected by the promoters, that by the season of 1927 much of the proposed program will be, by them, carried out to completion.

DAMASCUS FACES TOTAL DESTRUCTION

Third of City Now in Ruins and Rest is Practically Lifeless

Canadian Press
DAMASCUS, June 22.—There is no cessation in the daily bombardment of the outlying gardens by the French, and daily there is the same exchange of rifle and machine gun fire that has been going on for the last eight months. A special correspondent of the Associated Press has been unable to ascertain the loss of life that has occurred in these daily encounters. The damage to property, however, is known approximately. Neutral witnesses of this guerrilla warfare on the one side and artillery and plane bombing on the other side since October, 1925, say the property destroyed amounts to about six million dollars. Neutral business men and diplomats say Damascus will be entirely wrecked inside of a year should the present situation continue. One-third of the city is now in ruins, and the other two-thirds are practically lifeless. Stores and shops are closed and business is at a standstill.

JOHN SMITH SEA WRITER
What is believed to have been the first known book on seamanship and nautical practices was published in 1620 by Captain John Smith, the historian of Virginia and here is the now famous Pocahontas story. Many of the facts therein laid out are applicable and fundamental today.

RECOVERS SPEECH AFTER 18 MONTHS

Maine Boy Was Made Dumb by Stroke of Lightning—Recovery Surprised

BOSTON, June 22.—Forest Dinmore, 20, of Madison, Maine, has recovered his voice at the Boston City Hospital after a silence of a year and a half. Eighteen months ago, while employed as a bell hop in a hotel near his home, he was struck by lightning and lost the power of speech. After trying numerous cures, he entered the City Hospital three weeks ago. Everything possible was done for him, but without success. Monday afternoon he complained to Dr. McNolphe Kappus of a pain in his throat. The doctor placed a gag in his mouth and instructed him to hold it there as long as he could. A few minutes later it was pulled without warning from his mouth. Then, for the first time since the accident, Dinmore spoke. Dr. Kappus was as surprised as the patient and could give no explanation as to what actually brought about the recovery.

Government Refuses Reprieve in Murder Case of Mrs. L. Calvert

LONDON, June 22.—The British government, by refusing a reprieve for Mrs. Louis Calvert, sentenced to die on Thursday at Manchester for murder, has approved of arrangements for what will be the first legal hanging of a woman in England since 1923. Mrs. Calvert was convicted for the murder of Mrs. Lily Waterhouse, whom she strangled. She was permitted to see her baby son, Kenneth, for the last time on Tuesday. (Edith Thomson, the last woman to hang in England was convicted for helping her lover to murder her husband. ## FIGHT FOR FISH

LONDON, June 22.—One of the best stories told by Cambridge undergraduates who did volunteer work during the strike is that related by a Varsity boxer who was sent with the lorry to Grimby for fish.

When he got there he was informed by the four men who guarded the fish that he could not have it without fighting for it. "I cannot fight you all at once," he said, "but I will take on any one of you." The best man was selected and was soon "outed." The story goes that the strikers took the sporting view and not only handed over the fish, but helped to load it. Anyhow, the boxer arrived back with the fish.

ITALIAN'S DEATH VERDICT PROTESTED

LONDON, Ont., June 22.—At a meeting which organized a branch of the Canada Labor Defence League last night it was decided to forward a protest to the Governor of Massachusetts against the death sentence on two Italian labor organizers, Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti, who, it was claimed, are the victims of a "frame up."

It was stated by Alberta Graves that because the Canadian Trades Congress had "fallen down" on the job of assisting labor men in the recent strike in Alberta the new organization was necessary.

with your GAS man

Non-regulated gas ovens should be pre-heated only for pies, quick breads and meats.

2.—Cakes, unless baked in a regulated oven, should be put in a COLD oven. For a loaf or sheet cake, requiring approximately a one-hour baking period, the rack should be placed in the CENTRE of the oven. Turn ONE burner on slightly less than half-way for the first quarter of the baking period. Then turn gas down until burner is on about one-quarter way. Leave at that height for the remaining three-quarters of the baking period.

Layer cakes, requiring approximately a thirty-minute baking period, should be placed in a cold oven and the burner turned on half-way for the first half of the baking period, at which time it should be lowered to one-quarter way.

This gives the gases in the leavening property (the eggs, soda or baking power) an opportunity to work gradually as the heat increases gradually. The heat reaches the maximum desired at the end of the first quarter of the baking period and the gases have, for the most part, expended themselves before the batter actually starts to cook.

The oven door SHOULD NOT BE OPENED during the SECOND and THIRD QUARTERS of the baking period, for the cells at that time are not firm and a slight jar may cause them to settle. The warm expanded air which makes the cake light has already been evolved, and there is nothing present to lighten it again.

3.—Angel-food cakes may be put into a cold oven and the heat allowed to come on very gradually, or should be put into a very slow oven that has not been pre-heated more than three or four minutes.

4.—Quick breads should go to the top-most part of the oven, and a hot oven should be ready for them. Muffins, which require from twenty to thirty minutes for baking, should be placed in the top of the oven. Biscuits should not be in the oven more than twelve to fifteen minutes at the most, and should be baked with a very hot oven, at the top-most part.

5.—Broiled meats must be handled very carefully. The oven should be pre-heated at least ten minutes before the meat is put in, but the broiling pan should be removed from the oven before the heat is turned on.

A hot porcelain broiling pan draws the juices from the under side of the meat, and prevents it from browning nicely when turned.

VOLCANOES MAR GLACIERS

In New Zealand are a number of geysers worthy of visiting, and in past years they were more beautiful than today. Volcanic eruptions in 1886 destroyed the terraces around the geysers in many instances. Iceland also has some notable geysers and strangely enough their waters are the hottest in Europe.

BURGLARS HAD TREE BEFORE TO ROB GROCERY

Chase, With Gun Shots, at Vanwart's, Recalls Other Attempts

Burglars who gave the police a run last night were not the first who attempted to enter the premises of Vanwart Brothers, grocers, at the corner of Charlotte and Duke streets, it was said this morning. About a year ago entry was gained and two coats and some keys were taken and previous to that breaks had been made.

It was said today that since the keys had been taken by the police, bolts had been placed on doors facing the street, and only a week or so ago these doors had been unlocked but the bolts had secured them.

CHASE OVER ROOF

Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of Duke and Charlotte streets last night when a man believed to be a burglar was discovered on the roof of Vanwart's grocery store. It was thought he had a companion in his flight by George Crowell, 97 Duke street, that persons were trying to break into the store, brought Detectives Kilpatrick and Ganter and Policeman Phinney to the scene, but the marauders effected their escape. One of the men was chased across the roof of the building by Detective Kilpatrick who discharged two shots from his revolver in an effort to make the fugitive halt.

While the detectives only saw one man, W. Bean, of the Victory garage, said that he saw two young men leave an alley off Duke street and run towards Germain, Frederick J. McInerney, 248 Charlotte street, saw one man run out of an alley near the Queen Square theatre and run through Queen Square. This man was wearing a dark raincoat and according to Detective Kilpatrick, the man he saw on the roof had on a similar coat.

OVER EDGE OF ROOF

When the detective reached the roof he saw someone walking there and he discharged his revolver in the air the youth slipped over the edge of the roof and dropped about 20 feet. He next saw the man running down Duke street towards Germain but when the detective had reached the street, the man had got away.

Arthur Wedge, of the United Garage, also heard the shots, and reports from other citizens were that two men had run across Duke street into the rear and climbed over a fence in the rear of the Queen Square theatre. Both were said to have been wearing light raincoats and peaked caps.

MACKEREL SCHOOLS ARRIVE IN STRAIT

Shediac Visitor to City Tells of Large Catches—Good Tourist Season Outlook

Schools of mackerel, which every spring and early summer appear in northern waters, have arrived in the Northumberland Strait. Allan Tait, of R. C. Tait, Ltd., Shediac, who with Stuart McDougall, also of that town, is in the city today, said that large catches are being made in that section. The fishermen here had good luck all the spring. Mr. Tait said, catches of various kinds of fish having been large.

The Shediac men said that the farming season in that section of the province was about three weeks late this year. Seeding was still in progress.

GOOD TOURIST OUTLOOK

The numerous occupants of summer cottages and bungalows at Shediac and vicinity are moving to the shores and when the schools close the summer colony will be almost complete. The outlook for tourists and other summer visitors is considered good, despite the cold and wet season.

Mr. Tait is a brother of Mrs. Stewart, wife of William Stewart, chief accountant in the Saint John main office of the Bank of Montreal.

Champlain Here 322 Years Ago Tomorrow

Tomorrow, the feast day of St. John the Baptist, and the anniversary of the discovery of the Saint John river by Samuel de Champlain, French explorer, in 1604, will be observed by many Masonic bodies, particularly the Knights Templars, in Canada and the United States, although there will be no special celebration in this city. In the neighboring State of Maine, several commanderies of Knights Templars will make excursions or pay fraternal visits in their communities.

St. John the Baptist has long been a patron saint of France, and it is indirectly due to this circumstance that this city bears the name it does. The day is a holy day in the Anglican churches and is also honored in the Catholic churches. The Mission Church of St. John Baptist, Paradise Row, observed its patronal festival on Sunday last.

Early Closing Law To Be Taken Up

An application of A. E. Everett to have the early closing by-law as it relates to furniture stores amended to provide that they shall not keep open on both Friday and Saturday evenings during the summer months will be taken up at a committee meeting at City Hall tomorrow morning. It is expected a delegation will be present to oppose any change in the by-law.

ACTION BROUGHT

H. N. DeMille, Union street merchant, has brought an action in the Supreme Court for damages against the executors of Richard Doerflinger, custodians of the Opera House building. Mr. DeMille claims damages for water leaking from a drainage pipe, through his ceiling on the stock in his store, last March. The amount of the alleged damage is not named.
