Maude McMonagle also a teacher in the west and Elizabeth and Muriel at home.

LONDON PAPERS ON SUGGESTION OF U. S. PRESIDENT

(Canadian Press Cable.)
London, Nov. 29.—Increasing attention is given by the London press to President Harding's suggestion of an "association of nations" through a series of international conferences, the conclusions of which will be observed under a gentlemen's agreement rather than by treaty.

The Times says that Mr. Harding's conception of the principle underlying such an association has in itself a "tonic effect." The newspaper adds: "It is heartening to know that the president, inspired by the results of the Washington conference, is already looking forward to a future from which the possibility of active co-operation by the United States in the solution of acute international problems is not excluded."

The Morning Post says: "The president's aspiration demands serious and respectful consideration."

The Post, however, expresses itself as being not a strong believer in any league or association, and is not especially enamored of the present proceedings in Washington.

Interest in, and sympathy with the "growing movement in the U. S. for greater participation in world affairs" is expressed by the Daily News which says that the refusal of the U. S. to enter the League of Nations was never regarded in England as a proof of her intention to return permanently to the policy of isolation which the war temporarily made impossible.

PITCHED BATTLE IN STRIKE ZONE AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., Nov. 29.—Quiet reigned today in the zone of a pitched battle last night on the waterfront between police and sympathizers of the union dock workers. It was indicated today that early settlement of the strike was a possibility, the agreement's union having voted to open negotiations with the New Orleans Steamship Association.

BIG FIVE DID NOT MEET TODAY

Postponement at Request of One Delegation.

The Washington Conference Faces Insistent Demands of the Ratio of Her Naval Strength.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The scheduled meeting of the big five naval experts, the first general meeting held by the naval men for nearly a week, was postponed today until tomorrow at the request of one of the delegations.

No official statement as to the reason for the postponement or the delegation making the request was given.

The question of a sixty or seventy per cent. naval ratio for Japan, upon which there has been no indication of an agreement in the committee, had become the outstanding issue of the conference through a definite announcement by Vice-Admiral Kato, chief Japanese naval expert, that Japan wants the seventy per cent. status. In the first authoritative announcement that Japan sought to replace the 55-53 ratio basis of the Hughes naval limitation proposal, giving her a sixty per cent. status with a seventy per cent. ratio for her fleet, Vice-Admiral Kato declared that this was the minimum necessary for Japan's security.

Against this, the U. S. naval experts still gave every indication today of firm adherence to the view that sixty per cent. for Japan was the maximum naval strength that could be accepted in view of the U. S. liabilities and interests in the Pacific.

In addition to a final agreement looked for today gradually to abolish the system of extra territorial rights in China under which foreign governments have set up their own courts there, the Eastern committee of the conference also was prepared to take up China's request for withdrawal of foreign troops stationed on her soil without treaty sanction.

Stirling in Tokio.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—After listening to addresses by a group of Tokio publicists who have held out for a greater naval ratio for Japan than provided for in the Hughes' naval holiday proposal, a meeting in Shiba Park today adopted resolutions opposing the 5-3 ratio and favoring abolition of fortifications in the Pacific ocean.

Besides the publicists, who urged adoption of the resolutions, Vice-Admiral Kato delivered an address in which he was quoted as saying that if the Japanese delegates accepted the sixty per cent. naval ratio for Japan instead of securing the seventy per cent. status they would not only prevent their return but will appeal to the League of Nations for ratification of the agreement reached at the conference.

HEINZ OVEN BAKED BEANS

with Tomato Sauce

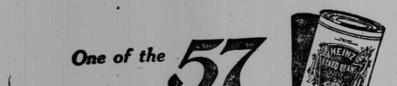

In its original state the bean is a humble vegetable. In a can labeled "Heinz Baked Beans" it is a thing of distinction.

When you open a can of Heinz Baked Beans, you are greeted with a most appetizing odor—you become hungry at once.

We have baked these beans in dry heat in real ovens and brought out the nut-like flavor, and we have then added the most delicious tomato sauce.

Every grocer everywhere can testify to their great popularity, for to be "out" of Heinz Baked Beans is like being "out" of flour and sugar and salt.

THE WRIGHT STREET HOME.

To the Editor of the Times:
Sir—Referring to a letter published in the Globe and Times on Saturday, the 28th instant, and signed by D. C. Clarke, W. S. Morrison and W. H. Golding relating to the purchase price of the real estate now belonging to the Provincial Memorial Home on Wright street, this city, I beg to say:
The property was never offered by the owners to the St. John Protestant Orphan Asylum or anyone else, either directly or indirectly, for any sum like two-thirds what Rev. Mr. Robinson purchased it for. Some years ago an offer of $14,000 was made for the property and refused. About the same time a second offer for about the same amount (a little more) was made and declined. The owners did not wish to sell. Early in 1919 the St. John Protestant O. A. could have purchased for $12,000 and assume a mortgage of $3,000, but their committee decided the property was not suitable.
I have been called upon repeatedly to check absurd stories about the sale of this property to Rev. Mr. Robinson, but never intended to enter into any newspaper controversy and won't now.

Yours truly,
T. A. LINTON,
Trustee for Linton Heirs.

ST. JOHN-ALBERT

What are the chief issues to which the electors of St. John-Albert should give attention in this campaign? They are tariff revision, transportation and port development.

The electors know how prosperous Canada was under the Liberal tariff between 1896 and 1911. The Conservatives have admitted that tariff revision is long overdue, but would revise it upward, and place a greater burden on the people of the maritime provinces, who cannot develop industries of their own because the local market is so small and the excessive freight rates shut them out of a larger one. The people would be even more than they now are at the mercy of the protected interests of the more populous provinces. Their interest, therefore, lies in a downward revision of the tariff, which would not, however, destroy any legitimate industry.

The question of transportation is vital to these provinces. Ocean-borne traffic is essential to their prosperity. If the traffic of the west goes to American ports, it is not only a violation of the pledges made by Laurier and Borden, but a severe blow to the ports of St. John and Halifax, and to those who should be given employment on railways and at terminals in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The record of the Meighen government offers no hope. Despite Hon. Mr. Baxter's assurances, there is no prospect of a square deal. The Liberal policy prior to 1911, if carried out by the Conservatives, would have brought the traffic to our national ports and provided facilities to handle it with despatch. A return of the Liberals to power would mean the restoration of that policy.

The people of St. John-Albert want a revision of the tariff in the interest of all, and not of a favored class. They want a national transportation policy which will not assume that the maritime province are of no account. They want the national ports developed and Canadian trade carried on through Canadian channels. The candidates who stand for these policies are Dr. Brodie and Mr. H. R. McLellan.

FOOLING THE PEOPLE

Tory manufacturers in Canada are filled with horror at the mere thought of American goods flooding the Canadian market. Some are not averse, however, to putting an American label on their own goods if they think it will make the goods move more quickly off the shelves. For example, Mr. Frank S. Scott, the Conservative candidate in South Waterloo, Ontario, is a manufacturer of boots and shoes. He has been in the habit of putting an American label on some of the products of his factory. This was brought out at the annual banquet of the National Shoe Retailers' Association last year. When Mr. Scott was asked about it by the Toronto Globe, he admitted that some of his boots and shoes had been stamped that way, saying:

"It has been a well known fact that goods are sold as imported goods when they have been actually made right here in Canada. How often we are told that materials are imported when they are not—that cloth is sold as imported, whereas, if the facts were known, it came from a Canadian mill."

This is an extraordinary admission. Even while he was making fervent appeals to the people to purchase Made-in-Canada goods he was putting an American label on some of those turned out from his own factory. While he was protesting against the purchase of American goods he was turning out alleged American goods for sale. As the Toronto Globe points out:

"Every Canadian manufacturer who puts a foreign label on his products is promoting the custom of buying foreign goods, and is discrediting Canadian industry and Canadian brains."

The Globe says further:

"Mr. Scott says the subterfuge is, or has been, a prevalent one. He specially mentions the textile industry. He implies that many Canadian manufacturers have so flexible a code of business ethics that they are, or have been, prepared to put any American label—Brooklyn, Harvard, Yale—on their goods in order to cater to the demand for United States merchandise. Such a charge calls for a reply and an inquiry."

It is the habit of Canadian manufacturers to humbug the people in the manner described and practiced until quite recently by Mr. Scott. The Toronto Globe is very reluctant to believe it, and calls for a denial. If the electors of South Waterloo approve of Mr. Scott and his business methods they can have very little regard for business methods which do not deceive. If manufacturers generally approve of the Scott methods they ought to be taught a lesson.

CONFESSION OF DEFEAT

The Standard devotes a column today to an election forecast by Hon. J. A. Calder, who is Ottawa correspondent says "has long been recognized as one who has the necessary 'sixth' sense to forecast with some degree of certainty the results of elections." What does Hon. Mr. Calder predict?

"Summing up the whole situation, Hon. Mr. Calder expressed the view that the government was certain of having elected from 105 to 115 supporters. This is a confession of defeat. There are 238 seats in the House. If in so many an estimate as one which gives Meighen "three and probably four seats" in Prince Edward Island, seven in Nova Scotia, five in New Brunswick and "a comfortable following from Quebec," Mr. Calder can only see 105 to 115 seats (or less than half the house safe) for the unbiased elector can see at once that the government is doomed. Vote the Liberal ticket."

THE MANUFACTURERS

Canadian manufacturers have been amply protected for more than forty years. They have had control of the home market for that period. They have had more than forty years' experience in manufacturing. They have had ample time to study methods and make comparisons; and have been in a position to import skilled help from the greatest industrial centres in the world. By this time, if they are not inferior to the captains of industry in other countries, they should be able to compete in the world's markets. With a home market which they control they are in an advantageous position to go after other markets. Have they done so to any large extent? Or have they been content to sit down safely under the protection of the tariff and take no risks at all? The best thing that could happen them would be to invite them to put a little more energy into their business and help to build up the export trade of Canada. There are many markets where Canadian-made goods would be welcome if placed there on a competitive basis. What peculiar advantages have other countries that enable them to do what Canada can not do? And why should Canadian manufacturers require a high tariff to enable them to compete in the home market? In what are they inferior? Are they willing to admit inferiority? If not, they should not expect the people to penalize themselves in order to provide huge profits for the benefit of a favored class. The Canadian tariff should be lowered downward and it can be done to benefit the consumer without imperilling a single legitimate industry. Canadian manufacturers should be reaching out for export business, or getting ready for it when world-conditions have improved; and that improvement is now approaching.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The adjourned annual meeting of the Commercial Club was held last evening, with the president, C. H. Peters, in the chair. E. W. Coombs acted as secretary in the absence of H. R. McLellan. The report of the treasurer, W. S. Allison, was read, and showed receipts for the year of $3,620 and expenditures of $3,609. The report of the athletic committee was presented by the chairman, F. W. Coombs. He reviewed the work which the association had done through the year to promote sports in the city. The secretary's report was read, and the resignation of Mr. McLellan as secretary was read and accepted.

The officers as finally elected were as follows: President, F. C. Beasley; first vice-president, R. D. Patterson; treasurer, T. E. Simpson; executive, F. W. Coombs, Frank White, J. F. Brittain, R. A. McAvity, George Oland, D. J. Barrett, W. S. Allison, B. R. Armstrong, H. W. McKinnon, H. E. Kane, W. J. Mahoney, Watson Hill, LeBaron. The appointment of a secretary was left to the new executive.

BUZZARDS REVEAL BODY.

Atlantic City, Nov. 29.—Attracted by buzzards which had been circling over the meadows near Longport, David Haley, a bridge tender, discovered the body of "Gumby" Johnson, one of the victims of the recent Anglessa tragedy which cost the lives of eleven fishermen. Haley had been watching the buzzards for several days from his post on the Longport-Somers Point Boulevard. He rowed to the spot over which the birds hovered and in the mud found the body. In the pockets of the drowned man were a pocketbook containing $294 and an identification card.

The Municipal chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire met yesterday afternoon in the government rooms in Prince William street and transacted the usual routine business relative to the primary chapter's work. Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, the regent, was in the chair.

Story Bits About Canadian Authors

ERNEST THOMPSON SETON.

Author of "Wild Animals I have Known," "Monarch," "The Big Bear," "The Trail of the Sandhill Stag." Canada has produced a remarkable number of nature lovers, but it is safe to say none of these have achieved a wider reputation than Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton. Coming to Canada from England at the age of five, Mr. Thompson-Seton laid the foundation for his literary career in a life in the backwoods for ten years following, and then peculiarly spent some time as an art student at the Royal Academy, London. His books and stories about animals are so numerous as to be difficult to mention. The engaging herewith is reproduced from a most characteristic photograph taken in North Carolina last summer. It will be seen from this that Mr. Thompson-Seton, in spite of his very strong literary success and all the adulation which has been poured on his shoulders, is not a bit spoiled, nor has he developed a high-brow attitude. He still maintains his early love for the simple things of nature and of life.

PEACE CONFERENCE, 1921.

(Rev. George Scott.)

There's a blessed rumor flying
From the west to furthest east,
That our ancient days are dying,
And the kingdom of the beast,
And our murderous ambitions,
From the greatest to the least.

For the world was sore a-weary
Of the burden of the years,
Of the carnage red and dreary,
And of women's bitter tears,
That a raging fire might batten
On their martyrdom of fears.

Long had death climbed in their case-ment,
Snatched away the young and strong,
To their manhood's foul debasement,
While the cry went up, how long
Shall this bitterest condition,
And this crushing load of wrong?

There's a rumor 'mongst the nations
That their word of wit is past,
That their bloody tribulations
In the balance should be cast,
That our God hath pity on us,
And the morning breaks at last!

For Columbia hath spoken
To the elders in her gate,
And she gathered them and token
Into every kingly state,
And she gathered them together,
All the wisest and the great.

And they saw each other's faces,
Not frowning, but in peace,
And they stood up in their places,
Proudly knowing they were free,
And their clasped the hands of kindred,
Each to each across the sea.

So they came their wisdom bringing,
To the counsel board they came,
And their challenges were ringing
'Till the sun had set in flame,
'Cease your fratricidal slaughters,
And your centuries of shame!"

There's a wondrous rumor flying
Into every race and clime,
That shall end their bitter crying
In a brotherhood sublime,
That the King of Glory tenneth,
On His own in His good time.

LIGHTER VEIN.

An Authority.
"Young women bear pain more heroically than men," said a doctor to-day. "I suppose a doctor told you that?"
"No, a shoemaker."

The Wrong Foot.
From a telegram recently received by the district superintendent of an Indian railway from a Babu station-master: "Coming on duty early in the morning, clad in my new and white uniform, I perceived a man seated on a box in a naked and aggressive manner. Taking him to be an ordinary passenger, I proceeded to slap him, whereupon he hastily arose, unlocked the said box, clad himself in a policeman's uniform there-out and arrested me. The shoe it thus situated on the erroneous pedicle. Please arrange."

Not For Amusement.
The lady's face was wrinkling under a white veil in a series of remarkable contortions. In one hand she carried an umbrella, in the other a brown-paper parcel. Several passersby paused to watch her, some of them wondering whether she expected money for her performance.

Then a girl acquaintance approached her hurriedly and gazed at her face. "Why," exclaimed the newcomer, "what on earth is the matter?"
"The fact is, acrobatics ceased, and a sweet smile succeeded."
"With me? Why, nothing!"
"But you looked ill! Your face—you were twisting it into all sorts of shapes."
The lady held out her hands—one with the paper parcel in it, and the other the umbrella.
"I was only trying," she exclaimed, "to work better my veil down under my chin, dear."
Whereupon the crowd dispersed.

Champion Accepts Challenge.
Oscar Mathieson, the world's champion speed skater, has accepted a challenge from the United States professional champion, Arthur Staff of Chicago, for a series of races to be held on Saranac or Lake Placid.

Zbyzsko Retains Title.
Stanislaus Zbyzsko retained his heavyweight championship title by defeating "Strangler" Lewis at Madison Square Garden, New York, last evening. He lost the first fall, but was awarded the second and third.

PRINCE DROVE IN GEM-STUDED CAR THROUGH BARODA

Cheering Thousands Crowded to Catch Glimpse of the Gaekwar's Royal Guest.

(Associated Press Cable.)

Baroda, Ind., Nov. 28.—The Prince of Wales is experiencing his first taste of the opulence and splendor of Indian princes as the guest of the Gaekwar of Baroda, one of the most powerful native rulers, whose resources are said to be almost unfathomable and whose yearly income is placed at many million of dollars.

The Gaekwar's son, Prince Jasraj, was educated at Harvard, and his allowance was so great as to make him a sort of mysterious Monte Cristo among his less fortunate comrades.

It is a novel experience even for the heir to the throne of the world's greatest empire, for undoubtedly no present-day monarch has at his disposal the facilities for such gorgeous display and pomp as the Gaekwar and many other Indian potentates who will play host to their future sovereign.

The Prince's train drew up at the station today amidst the thunder of cannon, and awaiting him was the Gaekwar himself, with his shining retinue. From a barouche scintillating with gold and jewels, through the elaborately decorated streets in which cheering thousands crowded to catch a glimpse of the heir to the imperial throne.

Guns of Gold.
It was a most imposing procession. At one point were arranged the famous battery of gold and silver guns with silver carriages and richly caparisoned horses, together with his colossal elephants bearing silver and gilded thrones, each one of which represented a fortune. The procession was followed by the durbar (as the official reception is called), which took place in Durbar Hall, with its carpet of gold and walls of marble and oak. Everywhere gorgeously attired dignitaries participated in the state ceremonies reserved for British royalty.

During the afternoon there was a garden party in the spacious grounds of the palace, where Indian musicians, acrobats and dancers entertained. The prince also was shown the famous Jew and saw displayed the glittering mass of gems of inestimable value.

Tonight the city was illuminated on the same scale of lavish magnificence. For hours the capital was a blaze of colored fire, with the city's multitudes wandering in the midst of glowing colonnades, minarets and pylons.

This is a sample of what the Prince of Wales is expected to meet throughout India.

Price at Udaipur.
Udaipur, India, November 28.—The Prince of Wales on his visit to India camped here today. He was tendered a banquet by the Maharana of Udaipur, which was given with the customary magnificence of Indian feasts.

Replying to a toast to his health, the prince made an appropriate speech, which was filled with historical allusions to India. He recalled the unwavering friendship of the Rajput states and the valuable services rendered by the Maharana during the world war.

Not since 1908 has this been equalled. The department of public works had twenty teams and sixty men at work clearing away the snow.

Other suggestions are to provide a home for aged and infirm ex-service men, to provide a relief fund for war among returned men for a period of five or ten years, and to provide prizes from $100 to $1,000 for bona fide returned men.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

It was on the firm foundation built by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Wm. Pugsley and their colleagues that the scheme of franchise for women was built, thus making a way for the opportunities which face them today.

As the effect of good government is felt more keenly by the women folks than by the men, it is natural that they should be expected to take a keen interest in the coming election.

Where Their Power Lies

The great majority of women today realize that the Meighen Government, by catering to the big interests, is making the masses of the country suffer. It is in their power to assist in cleaning out this government and putting in its place one which will lift the burden from the common people.

The comfort of the women folk depends on the prosperity of men who earn the wages that keep up the home. With Canada denied employment by the sidetracking of commerce through United States ports, the earning power of a great many of our men is reduced or entirely cut off.

High tariffs mean high living costs and a day's wages will not go nearly so far as under a moderate tariff. The remedy is at hand.

FLIM-FLAM ARTIST WORKS STOREKEEPER AT HAMILTON
Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 29.—Following a complaint from Mrs. J. Gedir, a storekeeper, at 863 Barton street east, the police had a short change problem to puzzle over. A man entered the store and asked for a cake of soap and a $10 bill was offered in payment. When the change had been made the man said he had found the necessary ten cents, and after Mrs. Gedir paid over $9.90 cents change, he handed her ten cents. "Here's your money back," he said, and handing her a $5 bill, he left. The storekeeper saw through the game after the man was gone for some time, and the police was notified.

DEFENCE IN PARIS CASE CONTINUES

Three witnesses were on the stand yesterday in the case of John Paris, charged with the murder of Sadie McAuley. The cross-examination of Stanley Nichols was resumed and his testimony shaken in some points.

The seventh afternoon session of the trial began with the calling of the jury roll and after other preliminaries had been disposed of, Stanley Nichols, the owner of the Truro garage, where it is alleged Paris sold about five gallons of gasoline on Aug. 2, was recalled to the witness stand and cross-examination of his testimony was resumed by Hon. J. P. Byrne for the prosecution.

The witness admitted that there was no record from whom he had bought the five gallons on Aug. 2. He was only relying on his memory that it was the accused.

The prosecutor wanted to know how the entry book had arrived and why Nichols had not brought it with him at the first trial here and both trials in Truro.

The witness replied that as Mr. Byrne had questioned it at Saturday's session, he told McNaught, who left for Truro Saturday night, to send it along. He admitted after some hesitation that the employees could have access to all the books if they desired.

The prosecutor wanted to know why the witness had bought five gallons of gasoline at a higher price than the prevailing one, when his tank contained about 235 gallons already, including the 50 that he had just bought that day.

The witness replied that he thought Paris had come by the gasoline in an unusual way.

This finished cross-examination and Mr. Vernon for the defence requested Nichols to identify the receipt as the one given him by Robinson on Aug. 5, which he did. Mr. Vernon offered it in evidence but this was objected to by Mr. Byrne.

After short argument it was allowed, subject to examination. Mr. Vernon then tendered both slips to the jury for their examination.

The receipt received by Nichols from the oil company on Aug. 5 was admitted to the jury for examination.

In reply to Mr. Vernon, the witness said that he made entries in the book as to have a record of gasoline purchased. Asked if he made a "2" in the book on July 2, the witness replied in the affirmative. This item of July 2 was then allowed as evidence. The next witness was Gordon Hayman, of Truro. He had known John Paris for about fifteen years. He had a son, Yull Hayman, twenty-one years old. Yull went west on the night of Aug. 3. He left from Truro. Witness went to the station previously at night. He was the only occasion he remembered being at the station when No. 9 left except when the witness left recently for St. John. He saw John Paris at the station in Truro on the night of Aug. 3. He fixed the date as Aug. 3, because his son went away that night. He did not mark the date down. He was never down to the station previously at night that summer. He would not swear Paris left on that train. He did not see Paris on the train. There were other colored people at the station besides Paris.

Miss Christina McKenzie, who was on the stand on Saturday morning, was recalled. She is a bookkeeper of the Eastern Hat and Cap Company. She identified the original receipt received from Paris. It was in her hand writing. Mr. Vernon offered the receipt in evidence. It was closely examined by a magnifying glass.

To Mr. Byrne, the witness said that it was all in her hand writing. One word was changed. She had started to write "given" and changed it to "paid." The document was examined by the jury.

Argument then took place as to the admissibility of the slip as evidence. The court would not permit it as evidence, although the jury had the right to see the slip.

The witness then produced a journal of the company and identified an entry in it as being in her writing. Mr. Vernon offered this item in evidence but the court ruled it out.

Individually the name of Miss Beatrice Mooney was omitted from the list of conveners for the doll booth at the Cathedral High Tea.

McCloskey, assisted by Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald and Miss Minnie Durick. Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table, at which Mesdames J. J. Walsh, Kathleen Sweeney, and William O'Connor, presided. Assisting in serving were: Misses Florence Kiernan, Isabel Gormley, Mary MacDonald, Marion Murphy, Marion McCloskey, Mary McGovern, Beatrice MacDonald, Marjorie Graman, Anna McGarrigle, Kathleen McCormick, Vera George, Teresa Maxwell, Helen Corkery, Ethel Creary, Mary Sharkey, J. CATHEDRAL HIGH TEA. The Cathedral high tea was continued in the Y. M. C. I. last evening. All the booths were well patronized and a large number partook of the supper served in the tea room. The City Cornet band furnished a musical programme.

The mysterious young lady who partook of supper and afterwards remained for a time in the hall last evening and for identifying whom a $5 gold piece was offered was identified by Thomas Beck. She was Miss Louise Glennie.

The following were the prizes and the prize winners last evening: Door prize, load of coal, ticket A453; peanut booth prize, oil painting, ticket 22; country store, pair of chickens, won by Miss Mary McGrath, 48 Elliott Row; apron or towel, won by Mrs. Edward McDonald, Richmond street; Valentine booth, pair of chickens, won by Daniel Corr; Children of Mary booth, embroidered runner, won by Mrs. F. Carr; ice cream and handkerchief booth, guessing, a-tish-booth, pair of slippers, ticket No. 893.

The Association of the Methodist Sunday School Superintendents of the city held its annual meeting last evening at the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria and, before the business was taken up, supper was served and enjoyed. E. E.

STUPENDOUS PRODUCTION IS WAY DOWN EAST

Imperial Thronged and People Held in Tense Interest as Gripping Picture Story is Told—Ice Scene Marvelous.

The Imperial theatre was filled to capacity last night for the first evening showing of D. W. Griffith's "Way Down East" and the large gathering was held spellbound throughout. A new stage setting was in use. After the preliminary picture the curtain was lowered and the audience filled into their places. The curtain was raised on a representation of a little old-fashioned cottage with a pair of figures with twined arms making their way towards the goal of home. The story is simple and is centuries old; a country girl the central figure. She goes to the city to see her rich relatives and there meets one with a reputation as a lady-killer. There follows a mock marriage and the girl's happiness before she is disillusioned is remarkably sweet. After the pseudo-husband turns her away and her mother dies she goes to a small hotel in a country town and registers as a married woman. The old maid in charge of the hotel becomes suspicious and her action is reminiscent of the intolerance of a less developed age. The girl manages to get work with a farmer and his son gradually falls in love with her and asks her to marry him, only to be paroled by the way she refuses in spite of her apparent happiness at the proposal.

FAIRVILLE RALLY WAS ENTHUSIASTIC

Convincing proof of the deepening interest that is being taken by the electors of St. John-Albert in the cause of Liberalism was strikingly afforded last night when several hundred people crowded into the Temperance Hall, Fairville, and listened to three spirited addresses on the issues of the present campaign by the two Liberal candidates, Dr. W. P. Broderick and H. R. McLellan, and Dr. L. M. Curran, M.P.P. The reception given the candidates was inspiring. Practically every seat was taken and the late arrivals were forced to stand. The feature of the evening was the challenge by Mr. McLellan to Mr. Baxter to meet him on the public platform.

In the course of his remarks, Mr. McLellan said: "I want to say here tonight that I will meet Dr. Baxter on any platform in the city of St. John in the presence of the electors to discuss with him this railway crime, and as for his statement that the Grand Trunk is not being operated by the Canadian Government at this time, I want to say that it is malicious misrepresentation. He knows better."

The picture and the picture of the river in summer, winding peacefully along until it is transformed at the falls to a leaping, living sheet of white must have tugged at the heart strings of many a lover of nature. The home and farm scenes also would take a man back many years to the time he was in the country, of those less fortunate it would bring a reminder of a short visit to a farm or a motor trip through the fresh countryside.

Lillian Gish, in the central role, has scored what is probably the greatest success of her career. Her portrayal of country life and of a country girl's arrival in the big city are wonderfully true to life. Richard Barthelmess, the hero of the picture, has also grasped a wonderful chance and made good in a rather difficult role.

With all the pathos and soul stirring in the picture, there is enough real, wholesome comedy to keep the audience in good humour and to relieve some of the scenes where the tension is greatest. Altogether, "Way Down East" may be noted one of the greatest successes of the season. It will be the Imperial's attraction all this week.

"Thunderclap," the big William Fox picture, opened at the Queen Theatre yesterday for a run of four days. This production brought with it some of the greatest sporting incidents that have ever been shown on the local screen, as well as an excellent cast.

Mary Carr, the great mother in "Over the Hill," played the leading part with Violet Mercereau, Paul Willis, J. Barney Sherry, John Day, Murphy and others supporting. Again the "great mother" scored, but this time she was deprived of the use of her body and her great opportunity for Mary Carr and a wonderful performance by her.

Paul H. Sloman, scenarist of "The Thief," "Tiger's Cub," "Over the Hill," "Beyond Price," and several other successful William Fox productions, depicted the story to the screen, while Richard Stanton, a widely known Fox director, made the picture.

The truly remarkable scene showing young Tommy, on top of a board, riding a tempestuous rapid was a thrill number one. The second was the horse race. This race set the spectators applauding and shouting for victory.

The picture told the story of a convent-bred girl brought by her step-father to his gambling establishment to act as hostess. She discovered that her mother was paralyzed and unable to move or speak. Although the girl did not know it, this injury was inflicted by her step-father because the mother threatened to reveal her crooked methods. The hero working as servant to the gambler, rescued the girl from an opium den in Chinatown and rode his horse to victory, thus preventing his sweetheart's marriage to the gambler's friend of her step-father. A customer who had found out the crookedness of the step-father killed him just as he was about to shoot the mother of the girl.

The shock of this tragedy restored the mother's power to move and speak and she was left to comfort her daughter and her daughter's sweetheart.

"THE HEART OF MARYLAND" A SUPER-SPECIAL

Photodrama Superior to Famous Play—A Credit to the Screen—Unique Scenic Effects and Clever Acting.

One of the big pictures of the year was shown at the Unique yesterday. Crane Wilbur and Catherine Calvert and an all star cast were seen in a Tom Ferriss production, "The Heart of Maryland." This is a visualization of the famous stage success by David Belasco and no better picture has been shown this season. "The Heart of Maryland" is a historical classic and as such should outlive the films of the day. It depicts one of the most interesting and intensely dramatic periods of American history. A clean, sweet love story interwoven in a background of war is a theme bound to appeal to all. There is just an indication of battle, just enough of the war of the rebellion to set the story and not enough to convey the horrors and unpleasantness of those stirring days. The bell scene, a spectacle for which this production will always be known, is handled in a capable manner. While this scene was the big one in the stage play, in this picture there are as many spectacular scenes of equal importance. The film was photographed on locations which played important roles in the conflict of 1861-1865. This picture will be shown tonight and tomorrow for the last times.

present vaudeville attractions now being offered. The Five Musical MacLarens are appearing at the Opera House again in an entirely new act, and offer a programme of music, song and dance which, judging from the hearty applause received at all performances, is proving popular with patrons.

Another splendid feature on the bill is "Little" Jerome Mann in character impersonations of leading vaudeville stars. To see this little child perform and hear him is a treat well worth enjoying. He is one of the cleverest, if not the cleverest, ever appearing on a local stage. That he was a favorite was evident from the appreciative applause tendered.

Other features include: Doc and His Pals; this act consists of one man and two very clever dogs, whose various feats and comedy antics are making a big hit with both young and old. Wood and Lawson entertain very nicely with several comedy songs and dancing. While West and Ollie excel in comedy chatter and songs.

The entire programme is good and is one of the best seen here for some time. In addition to the vaudeville there is a political meeting.

Strength
Strength of muscle does not indicate strength of nerve. On this account many people who look healthy enough suffer from nervous troubles and cannot understand what is ailing them. Sleeplessness and irritability are among the early symptoms. Indigestion and tired feelings soon follow.
Read this letter from an Ontario man:
Mr. W. L. Gregory, Charles St. E., Ingersoll, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled for quite a while with indigestion. At times there would be a twinging of the nerves of my stomach, and I also found it difficult to get a good night's sleep. I am a model, and owing to the nature of my work my system became run-down. I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found great benefit from this medicine. They did me a great deal of good. I have not been bothered at all with indigestion since, and can sleep much better. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, as I think it is a most valuable run-down and feeding tonic."

DECOY SENTENCED.
Lured Victims into Lanes to Be Robbed by Bandits.
Windsor, Ont., Nov. 25.—Lillian Vallick, nineteen years of age, accomplice of two bandits for whom she lured victims from Detroit dance halls to Windsor alleys, where they were attacked, was sentenced to not less than three months and not more than two years in Mercer Reformatory by Magistrate Gouin in Windsor police court. She belongs in Hamilton. She changed her plea to one of guilty. Her companions, Edward Howe, of London, and Charles Taylor of Hamilton, likewise changed their pleas and were remanded for sentence.

SATISFACTION AND GREAT HOPE

British Official View of the Washington Conference.

Government Determined to Answer U. S. Summons in Every Way That Will Help Rid World of War Menace.

(Canadian Press Cable)
London, Nov. 25.—The following authorized statement is issued by Reuters:
"Apprehensions expressed in various directions concerning the proceedings at the Washington conference are not shared in authoritative British quarters. While the possibility of differences of opinion arising and temporary set back being experienced is never lost sight of, yet the British view is one of real satisfaction and great hope, for on the naval questions alone more has been done than most people before the opening of the conference would have been prepared to expect.
"But, apart from naval restoration of world peace, which cannot be effected merely in this way.
"There is great anxiety regarding the moral atmosphere of the world and it is pointed out that one cannot isolate a hemisphere or distinguish between naval and other armaments. It is felt that the recovery of the world and the restoration of financial stability must depend upon the treatment of armament questions as a world wide issue.
"So far as Great Britain is concerned she was to employ her unemployed and pay her debts and she is gravely disquieted by any symptoms which seem to threaten the continuance of insincerity and unrest, whether in Europe or elsewhere.
"The British government is determined to answer the U. S. summons in every direction in the general purpose of riding the world of the menace of a new war."
The statement adds that this being the premier's view, his desire to go to Washington is stronger than ever, but until a week—a fatal period in Irish history—is passed, it is impossible to say whether he will leave England.
Paris, Nov. 25.—French newspapers of all parties, in view of the discord between France and Great Britain coupled with the Italian display of hostility, emphasize the urgent necessity of a frank face to face talk between the Allies in order to reach a genuine and lasting understanding.
The Journal des Debats, which seldom pleads the British cause, strongly criticizes Mr. Brand for failing to reach an accord with Great Britain on the Air-ga affair before going to Washington.
"France has no interest," the paper says, "in having the premier proclaiming the greatest orator in the world by incessant bearers, but prefers a statesman who can settle affairs to the satisfaction of all."
La Liberté says that recent demonstrations in Italy, owing to a divergence of views between that country and France, should serve as a warning that Great Britain and France must learn to understand each other.
The Temps on Sunday and other newspapers yesterday approved the suggestion that the two countries talk things over, but many, like the Intransigant, are of the opinion that there is a great deal of violent talk over very little. Nearly all the papers endorse Mr. Brand's attitude at Washington.

HEART WOULD BEAT LIKE A Trip Hammer

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain catches you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, or beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.
You have weak and dizzy spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath.
We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regular in strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy, normal condition as will

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes:—"I had palpitation of the heart, and the least exercise, such as going upstairs or up a hill, my heart would beat like a trip hammer, and I was dizzy-headed and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near."
A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I procured three boxes, and by the time the first box was finished, I felt a great improvement. In all I took six boxes, and now, although in my 66th year, I feel as young as any girl, and I can walk miles without fatigue. At the time of illness I weighed 120 lbs., now I weigh 100 lbs."

BELIEVED TO BE SPOTTER, COULD GET NO FOOD
C. P. R. Baggage Man Has Hard Week of It in District in Ontario.
Sea, Ont., Nov. 25.—Believed to be a liquor "spotter," Sam Biggins, a C. P. R. baggage man of this city, is reported to have been near death from privation while on a trip up the Algoma Central Railroad to Michipicoten.
Before his arrival in the district, settlers had been told that a "spotter" was on his way there, and Biggins, dressed in regulation railway uniform, was taken for the man. For a week the baggage-man endeavored to obtain food and lodging, but the people were suspicious and would have nothing to do with him. After a long trip to neighboring settlement he was finally taken in and given attention. He was in a critical condition on arrival.

TRAGEDIES OF WEST
Frozen Body of Man in Garage—Another in a Shack With Brains Blown Out.
Regina, Sask., Nov. 25.—In a garage two miles west of Prince Albert, the body of A. L. Minard, farmer, was found frozen yesterday. It is believed he perished in the extreme cold last week.
A body identified as that of Joseph Turner, farmer, of the Biggar district, was found in a shack seven miles from Perdue, Sask., yesterday. It is believed he committed suicide. His brains were blown out.

Clark. The bride and groom were unattended. They will take up their residence at 14 Richmond street and have the good wishes of many friends for their future happiness.

GERMAN STEEL HE SAYS IS CRIPPLING INDUSTRY
London, Nov. 25.—(Canadian Press)—Sidney Dooly, premier of New South Wales, says a Reuter cable from Sydney, Australia, attributes the closing down of portions of the New-casting steel works with the dismissal of several hundred men, to the action of the Commonwealth government in allowing unrestricted inflow of camouflaged German steel, which he says is crippling Australian industry.
J. Murray Gibbon, president of the Canadian Authors' Association and author of "Drums Afloat," "Conquering Here," etc., will be the guest of the Canadian Club at a week when he will deliver an address to the club.

"Then I started with a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bought more, and I used four cakes of soap and three boxes of Ointment which healed her."

SIR ROBERT HAS A COLD BUT STICKS TO CONFERENCE WORK

Washington, Nov. 25.—(By Ben Deacon, staff correspondent Canadian Press)—Sir Robert Borden has been suffering from a cold, but this did not prevent him continuing his work in connection with the armament conference yesterday. He devoted the day to the preparation of preliminary data in connection with the investigations of the sub-committee on the Chinese tariff questions on which he is the British representative.

A Danger Signal—Tender and Bleeding Gums

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.
Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.
Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.
Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used conscientiously. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.
35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U.S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

Forhan's FOR THE GUMS Checks Pyorrhea

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.
Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.
Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.
Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used conscientiously. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

HEADS THAT ACHE AND PAIN

It is hard to drag along with a head that aches and pains all the time. In nine cases out of ten, persistent headaches are due to poisoned blood, the blood being rendered impure through some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels, but no matter which organ is to blame the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be obtained.
BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS which has been on the market for the past forty years, removes the cause of the headache by starting the organs of elimination acting freely, and when the impurities are carried off from the system, purified blood circulates in the brain cells, and the aches and pains vanish.
Miss Clara Murphy, Centre Dummer, Ont., writes:—"My system was greatly run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health. I took another bottle and it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to some of my friends who were in a similar condition and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

PLAN TO PUBLISH LONDON PAPER IN ULSTER'S CAUSE

(Canadian Press Cable)
London, Nov. 25.—Preparations are being made here to publish a newspaper with morning and evening editions devoted to the cause of Ulster, according to the Daily Mirror, which says £250,000 has already been raised for the purpose. The enterprise was started, the Mirror says, in view of the fact that "so many London newspapers which formerly advocated Unionist principles have lately let Ulster down very badly."

HERO OF "LOST BATTALION" IS MISSING

Colonel Whittlesay Disappears from Ship on Voyage from New York to Havana.

New York, Nov. 25.—Lieut.-Col. Chas. W. Whittlesay, hero of the famous U. S. "Lost Battalion," has disappeared from the steamship Toloa on which he sailed on Saturday for Havana, according to a wireless message received here last night. This has been confirmed by officials of the United Fruit line, operators of the ship.
The reply "you go to hell," given to a demand by a German officer that he surrender his command, brought Col. Whittlesay into fame. He was surrounded in the Argonne with his command, the first battalion of the 308th United States Infantry, 77th division, and had been without food or water for four days when asked to surrender at dusk, October 7, 1918. All but eighty-seven of his men had been killed or wounded. A few hours after his refusal to surrender an advance by the United States troops rescued him.
His exploit was rewarded with the United States Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest United States war time decoration for valor.

Big Purse Offered Leonard.
 New York, Nov. 28.—Benny Leonard, lightweight boxing champion, last night was offered $75,000 to meet Jack Britton, welterweight title holder in a bout in Cleveland in February. Details were not disclosed, but Leonard's manager said he would announce his decision on December 1. The lightweight champion is to meet George Ward, New Jersey welterweight, in a ten round bout in Madison Square Garden today. His manager explained that because this was to be a charity affair no decision would be made.
Top Much for Reed.

RESTIGOUCHE AND MADAWASKA.
 Campbellton, N. B., Nov. 28.—This constituency was established under the Redistribution Act of 1914 by adding Madawaska, previously united with Victoria, to the former federal constituency of Restigouche. Although the threat of a fire-breathing governor of Maine, the province, once nearly irrevocable legislation, to detach Madawaska from the British Empire, which has long had a distinct provincial existence has for federal election purposes become a mere appendage. In 1898 the Governor of Maine claimed jurisdiction over Madawaska and sent over officials to count the noses of the inhabitants, and wood cutters to get out timber. Washington told the governor to keep quiet, and the people of Madawaska escorted his nose counters and wood choppers back across the border. Whereupon the governor shook one fist at Uncle Sam and the other at the British Empire, and called out 8,000 militiamen. New Brunswick called out 800. At that time the governor of New Brunswick was Sir John Harvey, a cool cutter, and one of the few popular governors the province had during the regime of the Family Compact. His whimsical and tact prevented any war-like demonstration on the part of the people of the province, and the casualties of Madawaska were confined to a few broken heads and duckings. Presently, Washington woke up to the fact that the Governor of Maine was liable to start something, and sent General Winfield Scott to call off the scraps. Scott sent the militia home, and the boundary question was finally settled by the commission which negotiated the Ashburton day or two, probably today. Ruth violated one of the rules of the major leagues by taking part in a barnstorming trip after the world's series. There was no official intimation last night as to whether Judge Landis would impose the maximum penalty of suspension from baseball or merely fine the star of the New York Americans.

"WAY DOWN EAST" REPRESENTS A THOUGHT which had been in Mr. Griffith's mind for some time. It is "an evening's entertainment," not an ordinary attraction. It is full of appeal. The pathetic little Anna Moore demands the full sympathy of the audience throughout. The screen seldom presents an appeal as strong as this. From the moment Anna leaves home to go to Boston, her fate compels the closest attention, and the director has built up the character with a wealth of detail. As Anna moves from one phase of life to the next, the appeal becomes stronger, until she meets David. In that moment Lennox, the villain, is forgotten, and at odd moments, through her despair, we see Anna glad because the big love of her life has dawned upon her. Interest centres upon the web of gossip being woven about Anna, and when she is driven from her haven of refuge among those who loved her, and whom she loved, one finds the greatest appeal for the wronged child. Mr. Griffith has enhanced several of his characters with a distinct appeal—Mrs. Bartlett, the Squire, Martha, David, so admirably played by Richard Barthelmess; and Lillian Gish, who does the best work of her career as Anna Moore.

AGAINST ANIMAL ACTS.
 Humane Societies Seek Dominion Legislation.
 Toronto, Nov. 28.—An animal act of new kind will come into existence at the next session of parliament if the mobilized efforts of humane societies and their friends are successful. At a meeting of the Toronto Humane Society, J. H. Wilson, the manager, in the course of his report stated that a campaign will be launched as soon as possible to get public opinion behind an effort to have a bill prohibiting the exhibiting of trained animals at theatres and other public performances. This will be modeled along the lines of one now before the British House of Commons, and called a bill to prohibit the exhibition of performing animals and birds in places of public entertainment, with the exception that the latter's provisions for the issuance of licenses would, it is hoped, be deleted from the Canadian measure. The first step will be the circularization of the sixteen humane societies throughout Ontario, as well as those in Winnipeg, Regina, Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver, advising them of the details of the plan. Then blank petitions will be issued to be filled in by sympathizers with the proposed legislation.

THREE HOURS ON THE STAND TODAY

Miss McKenzie Still Under Cross-Examination.

Goes Over Story of Paris Receiving 90 Cents in Truro Office for Work Done—Her Third Session as Witness.

Miss Christina McKenzie of Truro, a bookkeeper for the Eastern Hat and Cap Co., was for three hours this morning subjected to a severe cross-examination by Hon. J. P. Barré, attorney-general, in the case of John Paris, charged with the murder of Sadie McAuley in St. John on August 2. This is the third session at which Miss McKenzie has given evidence. She was on the stand for the first time Saturday morning and was stood aside. Yesterday afternoon she was giving evidence when the session closed, and she was still under cross-examination when recess was taken today at noon.

Miss McKenzie's evidence was in connection with a payment which the defence alleges was made to John Paris, the accused, in the Truro office on the afternoon of August 2.

On the opening of the session, Miss Christina McKenzie resumed the stand. Judge Chandler asked permission to put a few questions to her.

To the judge she said she made the entry in the completed order binder on August 2. When the man was paid ninety cents, another girl whose name she did not remember said Mr. McNaught was in the office with her. The first note she made of the payment was on a completed order sheet.

Judge Chandler said that he had rejected these entries as evidence yesterday, but after questioning the witness he concluded that the entry was made in the ordinary course of business and he thought it fair to let her say what she should be admitted. He therefore ordered to that effect.

To Mr. Vernon Miss McKenzie said it was Paris, the accused, to whom the ninety cents were paid on August 2.

Cross-examined by the attorney-general, the witness said her father was living, but her mother was not; she had some brothers and sisters. She said she lived in Truro for four years, three years of which she worked with the Eastern Hat and Cap Co. She knew Mr. McNaught for about a year.

Miss McKenzie said that she knew she would be a witness on the Monday before she came to St. John. Mr. Vernon, she said, was at the office early in September; she could not remember if it was before Paris' trial. Pressed on this point by Mr. Byrne, she said it must have been before the first trial that Mr. Vernon called for the first time. She said when Mr. Vernon called he saw O. L. Horne. She was present, but did not hear the conversation. Mr. Horne asked her to look up the entry of the 90 cents paid and told her that this was the man who was being held for the murder of a little girl in St. John. Up to that time she said there was nothing to fix the entry in her mind.

She said the copy of an invoice covering the transaction which she brought to court was given her by Mr. Horne. The witness said it was not made out by her. Mr. Horne told her there was no receipt attached, but she was of the opinion that there should have been a receipt taken, as it was usual. The order sheet produced in court, she said, was made out by her.

She said she had never seen Paris, the accused, before the day when she was paid the ninety cents. She said she knew an old John Paris who sometimes did work for Mr. Ogilvie, and if the amount due him was small it was usually paid for in cash. She knew of occasions when this had been done.

She said she believed there was another person besides herself and Mr. McNaught in the office when the accused was there. She could give no reason for thinking so, but knew there was a girl there, and the sitting machine, she thought. She said she did not try to find out who it was. She said there were two or three lady clerks and any one of them might use the adding machine. She said she knew all the girls but not the boy which one was in the office at the time. She named all the girls for the attorney.

Miss McKenzie drew a plan of the office for the attorney-general and it was marked by the court for identification, and she explained to the jury. It was then placed in evidence.

Miss McKenzie said she could not say to whom the money was given on August 2. It was the duty of Miss Olden and an invoice clerk to be there. There was no invoice clerk on duty at the time.

Mr. Ogilvie, she said, was in the shipping room. She saw him there in the morning and the afternoon. She said she had left her own office during the afternoon to go to the shirt office and saw Mr. Ogilvie and Harry Feehnam, the shipping clerk, there. This was before the accused was in the office.

She said Mr. Ogilvie had a room upstairs which he sometimes used as an office but the witness was not upstairs on the afternoon of August 2.

She said the outside door was open when the accused entered. She was at her desk and had her back to the wicket, but turned to see who had come in. She said on further questioning that she was working at Mr. McNaught's desk with him.

"To the attorney she said that when she said she was working at her own desk, she was mistaken as to the prosecutor's question.

"Then you can be mistaken?" asked the attorney.

"Yes," said the witness.

"But you say you cannot be mistaken as to the accused coming in."

"Yes, I do," answered the witness.

She said the lady working on the adding machine was facing the wicket but the witness and McNaught had their backs to the wicket. She turned around and saw the man at the window. She had never seen this man before.

She said she would swear that work could not have been done by old John Paris. She said there was a bill presented by McNaught to her, she said, Mr. Ogilvie had said the work was worth only ninety cents.

She said she knew Paris and McNaught talked but she did not hear the conversation. She was not sure if the wicket was open or shut when Paris entered. She said she did not hear him say that Mr. Ogilvie had sent him to the office.

Paris remained at the window while McNaught went outside. She said she looked at him long enough to know him again if she saw him; he had on a dark suit and a colored cap; he had no

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE.
At the home of Miss Lillian Turner, 32 Clarendon street, on November 24, a lovely shower was held in honor of Miss Florence G. Haslett, who is soon to be a principal in an interesting event. About thirty friends were present and Miss Haslett was made the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Music and games were enjoyed, and dainty refreshments served.

CRASH AVOIDED.
What looked to be a certain crash between a Haymarket street car and an automobile driven by a lady, was averted this morning by the prompt action of the motorman. The automobile was partly onto the car track and could not be driven to one side in time to escape being struck by the car. The motorman applied his brakes in record time and brought the car to a grinding stop, so that the fender just touched the automobile.

A WORK OF MERCY.
The work of the Animal Rescue League progresses satisfactorily. It is now the hands of an excellent caretaker. With the coming of cold weather an increasing number of unfortunates, dogs and cats, stray, diseased, injured, blind, or starving; also pigeons are brought to the kind shelter of the league, and with few exceptions are put to sleep. Through this humane and sanitary work, carried on for seven or eight years, much has been done to lessen the numbers and end the miseries of hundreds of defenceless animals which, but for this league of mercy, would have died a lingering death in our yards and by-ways, sometimes, doubtless bringing disease. The work is a benefit to the community.

A PROPERTY CASE.
In Chambers this morning before Mr. Justice Barry the case of Herbert Logan vs. E. A. Dykeman was heard. This is an action arising from the sale of a lot in Alexandra Heights by the defendant through his agent C. B. D'Arcy to the plaintiff upon an installment agreement. It was stated that he paid $100 cash and began paying off the balance in monthly instalments of $25 until $800 had been paid upon the purchase price of $900. The plaintiff contends that Mr. D'Arcy told him that water and sewerage would be placed in the lot by the fall of 1919 or the spring of 1920 and when this did not happen he stopped payments and he is now bringing action for rescission of the contract and repayments of his instalments. Evidence was given today by C. E. Wardroper, Commissioner Jones and the father and stepmother of the plaintiff, G. E. Logan and E. J. Henneberry appear for the plaintiff and Dr. F. B. Taylor, K. C., for the defendant.
