THE FOSBURG MURDER.

The Attorney for the Prisoner Outlines the Theory of the Defence.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 23.—In the trial of Robert L. Fosburg, charged with the murder of his sister May, the attorney for the defence concluded his address this morning. He said it would be shown that the murder was committed by burglars, as stated by the members of the Fosburg family. Mr. Joyner further said:

"We know, and the government does not know, that it was the defendant's pistol which shot his sister. Counsel said the firm of R. L. Fosburg & Co. has many men in its employ, the pay for labouring to some $4.00 weekly. The men were non-English speaking and were paid in money at the office of the company. Mr. Fosburg, sr., would take money from the bank to the office as an electric car. The men knew this, and because of the risk the chief of police had once remarked that if any man needed a pistol they (the Fosburgs) did. For this reason the defendant and his wife occupied the kitchen bedroom, but they discovered a disagreeable odor in the sink and moved to another room, leaving some wearing apparel and a pistol in the bureau. The theory of the defence is that the crime was not the performance of skilled burglars, that the stock-drawn on over shoes to muffle the sound of steps; that the tracks seen were made by men while trying to steal. The men were said to be running down Benedict street," said the lawyer, "after the tragedy, and it is the theory of the defence that they doubled on their trail and when the posse came along joined in the pursuit, thus diverting suspicion from themselves."

In conclusion Lawyer Joyner said: "The defence will show that the family has done its utmost to bring to justice the men who entered the house, and that whatever may be the theory, Miss May was a woman without an enemy. In her home and in her church life she won the affection of all who knew her. She was her brother's companion, her mother's idol, and to the younger members of the family, she was ever helpful. There was no estrangement between any members of the family."

When Mr. Joyner had concluded his address the witnesses for the defence, including neighbors, members of the Fosburg family, and Miss Bertha Sheldon, were sworn in a group.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—The wheel of a sleeping car on the St. Petersburg express broke when the train was near Okonowoc at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The car fell over on its side and 13 persons were injured, among them Mrs. Beard of Boston, Mrs. Marion of San Francisco, and Mr. Calendar of New York, whose injuries were slight. A physician arrived upon the scene immediately and the injured were taken to Moscow during the forenoon.

Cranfill of Dallas, Texas, will deliver addresses. The conference proper will open at the Coliseum tomorrow.

DENVER, Colo., July 24.—W. W. Moore, formerly a leading man of the New York bar, is dead of paralysis aged 59 years. Mr. Moore achieved international fame while acting as consul at Constantinople during the Russo-Turkish troubles.

TWENTY-TWO DEATHS IN ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 24.—Twenty-two deaths, due to cholera to the head, were reported in St. Louis yesterday. The record for prosecutions and deaths was never equaled in one day in the history of St. Louis.

WAGES INCREASED.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 24.—The firemen employed on the main line of the Philadelphia and Reading railway have been granted an increase in wages from $2.25 to $2.50, together with important concessions. LONDON, July 24.—King Edward held a privy council at Marlborough house this morning, when Cecil Rhodes was sworn as a member of the council.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY

Demands That the Charges Against Him Be Investigated.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Last night the Post telegraphed Admiral Schley that in an editorial it insisted he owed it to himself as well as to his family to begin proceedings against Mr. Macmillan, the author of the History of the United States Navy, to disprove the latter's charges, adding: "Will you do this? Please wire statement." Today the Post received the following telegram:

"Great Neck, L. I., July 23, 1901.—Editor Washington Post: I believe the first step should be an investigation of all matter by a court, then a civil action afterwards. I am preparing to take this course." (Signed) W. S. SCHLEY.

The Post in the morning will say in part: "The Schley court of inquiry will undoubtedly be one of the most celebrated cases in the naval or military history of the country. The high rank of the officers involved in the controversy and the intense public feeling which has been aroused will combine to give to the investigation a dramatic interest."

WASHINGTON, July 23.—It is expected that as soon as Secretary Long receives the request for a court of inquiry from Admiral Schley he will name its personnel and issue an order for its assembling. It may be some time, however, before the court can get squarely down to work. A host of naval officers will have to be summoned as witnesses, and these officers are now scattered over a wide area. A court of inquiry differs from a court-martial, in that it has no power to inflict a sentence. It is organized simply for the purpose of investigating questions of fact, but it has ample authority to make the inquiry complete and exhaustive. Recent congressional enactment conferred upon these courts simple authority to compel witnesses to testify, including civilians.

THE BENDER FAMILY.

It Is Believed This Gang of Murderers Has Been Located.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 23.—Four persons, believed to be members of the Bender family, accused of committing a score of murders at their home near Galena, Kas., twenty years ago, are believed to have been located near Fort Collins, Colo., and Governor Stanley has issued requisition papers on the governor of Colorado for their return to this state.

The first steps towards bringing the suspects to Kansas were taken upon the representations of Frank Ayres of Fort Collins, who asserts that one of the quartette, Kate Bender, was once his wife.

The Benders lived on a small farm near Galena, and for years had lured travellers to their place, murdered them for their money and buried their bodies.

An investigation into the disappearance of a man who had stopped at the Bender's, and whose bones were found beneath the house, led to their flight. They were never found. The family consisted of man, wife, daughter and one son. The parents would now be in the seventies and the children about 50 years old.

It is officially announced they will reach Halifax at 2.30 Thursday afternoon.

A very pretty wedding took place at an early hour yesterday morning at the residence of William A. Magee, when his niece, Miss Lottie Magee, daughter of Richard G. Magee, of the postal service, was married by the Rev. F. W. M. Bacon to James Maxwell Anderson of Musquash. After the ceremony the bridal pair left on their honeymoon trip through the provinces. At Digby Monday night Miss Ella, daughter of George M. Wilson, was united in marriage to James Stocumb, of Lower Granville. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. W. H. Evans.

STRONG OBJECTION

To Project of Ship Canal From Lakes to New York.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Strong opposition to the ship canal project was expressed at a meeting yesterday of the sub-executive committee of Great New York Canal association, and the canal committee of the Produce exchange. The purpose of the conference was to consider the report of the deep waterway commission on the ship canal proposition. After a prolonged discussion of the subject it was unanimously decided to continue the campaign for the improvement of the state waterways by the state along the lines already mapped out. According to the statement of the chairman of the meeting, Henry B. Herbert, the sentiment of the conference was unanimously against the ship canal proposition.

Principal among the reasons for this opposition, Mr. Herbert said, was the feeling amounting almost to a certainty that New York would never abandon her canals, or in other words, turn them over to the national government, as would be required, according to the commission's report, before the government would undertake the construction of a ship canal. Mr. Herbert said that serious doubts were entertained as to whether the deep waterway proposition would be carried out.

They are accompanied by an architect, who took the dimensions and made plans of the castle, with a view to the construction of a similar mansion in the United States.

THE KING'S OATH.

NEW YORK, July 24.—In the British house of lords last night, the second reading of the bill altering the terms of the royal declaration was carried by an overwhelming majority, says a despatch to the Tribune from London. The Roman Catholic peers did not, however, vote for the bill, and the extreme Protestants will be alarmed lest security for the maintenance of a Protestant succession should be diminished; it is impossible to expect that the measure will be passed into law without a prolonged and acrimonious debate.

LOCOMOTIVE PLANT

NEW YORK, July 24.—The American Locomotive company has appropriated $650,000 for the purpose of enlarging its plant at Schenectady, N. Y. It is stated that the capacity of the plant will be increased from 425 to 1,000 locomotives yearly. The idea is to make this plant the central one, and it will be developed to the greatest extent, although other plants are to be improved and enlarged.

FELL SIX STORIES.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Early today a young woman, supposed to be Mrs. B. Degraft of Racine, Wis., fell from a window on the sixth floor of the hotel Garrison. She struck an awning and her fall was so broken that she was not killed outright. It is not thought she will recover. It is believed she fell asleep in the window while trying to get air.

TRACKMEN'S PAY INCREASED.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24.—The section men on all railroads entering Columbus, with the exception of the Norfolk and Western, have been granted an increase of ten cents a day and have decided not to strike. The men on the Norfolk and Western struck, and their places were immediately filled by men imported here from other quarters.

RECENT DEATHS.

James Byrne of Charlottetown died yesterday morning. He was a member of the city council a few years ago and was a prominent liberal. He leaves his widow and five children.

Thos. Allen died a few days ago in Boston, aged about 70 years. Deceased was only brother to Robert Allen of the marine and fisheries department of this city, who proceeded to Boston last evening.

WASTED ENERGY.

Who Will Pack Power Into Its Light and Cheapest Form?

(London Telegraph.)

Why, it has been asked, did electric automobiles not figure in the Paris to Berlin race? The answer is because of the weight of electric storage. Lord Kelvin, with his wonted presence for the coming event, attacked this question in 1881, and he found that "a Faure accumulator weighing 165lb. can store and give out again energy to the extent of an hour's work of one-horse power (2,000,000 foot pounds)." To this Professor Osborne Reynolds replied that a single pound of ordinary coal held within it 11,000,000 foot pounds of energy, so that it took an over 50th of stored electricity to do the work of 11-2 oz. of coal. The one made a rather bulky parcel of practically six-stone weight, the other you could carry in your waistcoat pocket. "Granted," replied Lord Kelvin, "but you can charge your accumulator again and again from the same source of power—say a waterfall—but you can burn your coal only once." He added: "The problem of converting energy into a preservable and storable form is one of the most important in the whole range of science." There we stand to-day. Improvements have been made on Faure's spongy lead battery, but the problem is unsolved. Every year we waste in this country in factories, furnaces, ovens, and kilns heat that would be worth millions of money if we could only catch and store it for future use. In four hundred years Britain's unrivaled coal mines will be exhausted, and he will be Britain's and the world's greatest benefactor for all the ages that are to come who learns from Nature how to pack the power of running and falling water, sunlight, wind, and perhaps the internal heat of the globe, into its lightest and cheapest form. But Mother Nature exacts her price for such secrets.

CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

The Bloemfontein Post Shows That the Boers are Well Treated.

LONDON, July 24.—A parliamentary paper issued today gives the numbers of persons in the concentration camps in South Africa in June as follows: White, 85,410. Colored, 25,489.

There were 777 deaths among the whites in the camps, the list including 673 children. The deaths among the colored persons numbered five.

The Bloemfontein Post of July 11 gives the following particulars of these camps, and answers its own question, "Where in the history of nations has any precedent occurred of an enemy not only harboring, but also feeding and clothing well, too—teaching and providing for the wants of the families of their foes?" After stating that on June 1 there were 40,829 refugees, of whom 25,489 were white, the Bloemfontein Post continues: "The camps are of white refugees' ration, viz., 1-12 lb. of flour, 1 oz. of coffee, 2 oz. of sugar, 1 oz. of salt, and 1-12th part of a tin of condensed milk per head per diem—is more than sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the most stultious. If it be taken into account that a woman with, say, three little children, draws the same amount of rations as four grown-up people would, and that there are very few Boer families indeed who do not exceed that number, it is quite evident that they are more probably overfed than that they have any cause of complaint on that score. The monthly fuel-bill for the different camps must also show a pretty large figure, considering that during the month of May not less than 386 tons of coal alone, at 8s. 6d. a ton free in trucks at Springs (Transvaal) was used, in addition to the large quantities of firewood are also distributed.

The camp has been formed at a pleasantly situated spot about forty minutes' easy walk, southwest from the centre of Bloemfontein. A walled round camp will soon contain the most blessed critic of the extremely good treatment to which the inhabitants of this veritable town are subjected.

Sixty tons of coal and 4300 worth of firewood were distributed to the inhabitants during the past month. A most comfortable hospital camp has been constructed. This institution consists of four galvanised-iron structures—namely, a ward for grown-up women, one for men, and one for children, the fourth being a large and well-provided kitchen. The nursing establishment is under the personal supervision of Sister A. Kennedy, a lady of great experience and ability. She is assisted by three nurses and a few Boer women anxious to assist in the noble work. Another large iron building, one of those which were originally inhabited by refugee families, has now been cleared and cleaned out, and will in a few days' time, be ready for the accommodation of at least 100 sick children. It is an ideal ward, well lighted, well ventilated, and abundantly heated. An adjoining special kitchen has also been provided for. A dairy with some seventy-five cows provides fresh milk for the sick and for the baby occupants of the camp.

Those who wish to purchase any luxuries have ample opportunity of doing so in any of four well-stocked stores, where provisions may be bought at prices as regulated by the provost-marshal, the same as are in force in Bloemfontein.

It will be deduced from the above that, although many slanderous and libelous statements have been made in public and in the renegade press as regards the treatment of refugees, they are, after all, as favorably situated as many true and loyal Britishers, whose daily fare, in many cases, would not compare with that of Boer refugees in South Africa.

NORTHWEST BOOMING.

Kansas and Missouri Farmers Likely to Sell Out Their Present Homes—and Locate in the Territories.

(Manitoba Free Press.)

Six farmers, arrived from Kansas and Missouri Thursday as delegates from various parts of these two states. They report that their wheat crop has been harvested, but they have serious misgivings with regard to the corn crop, owing to the low, continued drought. They relate that there are some parts so dry that if a match is thrown down the whole field is afire. They leave this morning for Prince Albert district, where they understand prospects are of the very best. If they decide favorably with regard to the district, some will remain and the others go back and report, in which event a large number of Kansas and Missouri farmers will trek this way. Their land in Kansas is selling from $60 to $85 per acre, and they express considerable surprise that Canada so generously offers even better land for nothing.

TO SWIM NIAGARA RAPIDS.

A Buffalo Woman Says She Expects to Go Through on Her Back on Sept. 25.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 22.—Cora Beckwith, a single woman of Buffalo, declares in apparent sincerity that she intends swimming the Whirlpool Rapids on Wednesday, Sept. 25. "I expect to go through on my back," she said. "That is the way I swam the rapids at Egg Rock Lighthouse in the harbor of Lynn, Mass."

She says that she is the only woman who has swum across the English Channel. She made the trip in company with the late Capt. Webb, standing at Calais, France, the distance being twenty-one miles. Three nations are said to have recognized her bravery in rescuing people from drowning. She is of fine physique and recently remained under water three minutes and fifty-four seconds. The current will carry a person through the rapids to the whirlpool in three minutes.

HORSE SWALLOWED $230.

A Few Days Later Had a Coughing Fit and Coughed It Up Intact.

Elwyn Phillips, employed by O. C. Gardner, a baker in Southampton, lost $230 a few days ago and was unable to find any trace of the money. The bills were in a roll held together by an elastic band. One of the baker's horses had a coughing fit a few days later and coughed up the roll of bank notes intact. The rubber band had held them securely, and the money was returned to Phillips. He believes that he accidentally dropped the roll from his trousers' pocket, and that the horse picked it up and swallowed the cash.

D. J. HENNESSY'S.

A Runaway Horse Crashes Through the Big Front Windows and Kills Himself.

(Anaconda Standard, July 16.) For a second time three of the big windows in the front of Hennessy's store in Butte were smashed to atoms last evening, and $750 worth of plate glass destroyed. The accident was caused by a maddened runaway horse, whose wild dash for freedom cost the animal his life.

The horse belonged to ex-Governor Rickard and was being driven by Ed. Ensign, his bookkeeper. While driving down Main street the horse became frightened at a piece of paper flying across the street and started on a dead run. At Cooper street Mr. Ensign lost one rein and control of his horse. He managed to escape from the carriage before the horse crashed through the windows at Hennessy's. The animal was almost cut to pieces, and it was necessary to shoot it. Mr. Ensign escaped without injury.

The three windows broken are valued at about $50 apiece, so the damage for a runaway is pretty large.

[Mr. Hennessy is a Frederickman and has a number of New Brunswickers in his employ.]

GERMAN DUTY ON GRAIN.

The grain section of the board of trade of Toronto has decided to request the British government to urge Germany to remove the discrimination against Canadian grain and produce. When Canada gave Great Britain the preferential tariff, Germany put a tariff of 10 cents per bushel on Canadian grain, which practically shut Canadian grain out of the German market. Now that there is a movement on foot in Germany to raise this tariff on Canadian grain, the local grain men feel something should be done to help them.

A MICMAC POW-WOW.

The Micmac Indians of the Lower Provinces will assemble at Buctouche, N.B., on the 28th inst., to celebrate the feast of St. Anne. On that occasion a Capuchin monk of Restigouche will give a sermon in their own language at the morning service. In the afternoon at three o'clock there will take place the blessing of a very beautiful statue of St. Anne, erected in the church, and a solemn procession. A sermon in French will be delivered by the same orator.

A MOUND BUILDER'S SKULL.

(Manitoba Free Press, July 19.) Wednesday at a depth of eight feet the steam shovel at St. Andrew's lock exhumed the skull and other parts of the mortal remains of probably an ancient moundbuilder. The skull, although apparently centuries old, is in a fair state of preservation, the teeth being still in place, and should furnish a rare opportunity for ethnical speculation to our learned societies.

DAY OF LAMENTATION AND PRAYER.

Special services will be held in the synagogue tomorrow in memory of the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. The day which commences at sun down this evening and ends tomorrow at the same time, is one of fasting, lamentation and prayer. In the synagogue tomorrow the story of the destruction of the temple will be read by the rabbi and the people will sit on low stools. Another service will be held in the evening. In Europe it is the custom to decorate the graves of the dead on that day, but that ceremony will not be observed here.

POLICE COURT.

The Salvation Army and the Wild Scotchmen.

Mr. McDonald's Livers—The Alleged Theft and Assault Cases.

The complaint against the Salvation Army, which was heard a week ago, came before the court again today and occupied most of the forenoon. Recorder Skinner stated that on last Sunday the army services were so conducted that the noise did not prove a nuisance to the neighbors. He said that if in the future the same plans were adopted the case might stand over.

E. H. McAlpine, who appeared for the army, spoke of many other things which might be considered a nuisance but which have not been complained of. He mentioned the curling rink, in which during the winter dozens of wild Scotchmen, including himself, gathered to watch the curling, making night hideous with their racket.

A great deal of time was spent in discussion of the matter, and the parties finally agreed to let it stand over for a time until a satisfactory arrangement could be made, the army promising that in the meantime the meetings would be conducted as they were on last Sunday night.

John MacDonald was reported by Market Clerk Potts for occupying a stall not assigned to him and for exposing a bad liver. MacDonald pleaded guilty to the first charge, and in regard to the second stated that his livers were good.

By Mr. Potts' story MacDonald's livers were so bad that they were thrown out, as they were making an unpleasant odor. MacDonald keeps his livers in a chest, where on account of being warm they make a small, it took them out of his chest on account of this and hung them on hooks. MacDonald was fined four dollars.

In the case against Frank Roberts, the witnesses for the prosecution who have been sent for have refused to come. D. Mullin moved that the prisoner be discharged from custody, but A. W. Baird, who appears for the prosecution, promised to have the witnesses here at two o'clock tomorrow, until which time the case was adjourned.

Richard Gallery, who was found drunk on Union street, was fined four dollars, and John Tufts, picked up on Haymarket square, was fined eight dollars or two months.

The examination of Alexander Waters, charged with indecent assault, was taken up again this morning. Evidence was given by the defendant and by W. J. Donahue, with whom he was employed, and the case further adjourned. W. H. Trueman appeared for the defence.

William Hanson and Sigfried Ralken, sailors on the ship Norge, were given in charge yesterday by the second mate, Carrol Johnson, for assaulting and beating him on Monday night. It appears that the men went on board the ship considerably under the influence of liquor, and Hanson got into trouble with the mate. During the row, in which Hanson was getting the worst of it, Sigfried rushed in to help, and by his own story today struck the mate twice in order to get him away from Hanson. The latter this morning seemed anxious to have Ralken's plea guilty, but had himself no recollection of the affair. He explained to the court how much he worried over the fact that his memory always left him when he had been drinking. The case was stood over until the arrival of the captain.

In the case of the youth Alex. Waters, charged with assaulting a little girl, the magistrate today, after hearing the evidence for the defence, dismissed the prisoner.

BURGLARY AT CARLETON.
A Cool Rascal Called on Tertulius Ketchum Last Night.

Between midnight and one o'clock this morning Tertulius Ketchum, of Water street, Carleton, thought he heard his cat clawing at papers. Waking up he discarded the theory of the feline and asked "Who's there?" when a light was suddenly blown out and a man disappeared.

Mr. Ketchum has a good description of the intruder, who was a customer of the coolest character. He had entered by the window, lighted a lamp, carried it into Mr. Ketchum's bedroom, taken a large bunch of keys from a pair of trousers hanging up there, sorted them over until he found one to open a chest and was calmly going over the contents of the chest within a foot or so of the bed when the old man awakened.

A few dollars was all he got for his daring exploit, though it is said he missed a considerable sum of money which was in the house. The police are awaiting further developments.

TO BE WEDDED THIS EVENING.

This evening in St. Peter's church Driver Matthew Cavanaugh of No. 2 Hook and Ladder company and Miss Annie Rogers, daughter of James Rogers, confectioner, of City Road, will be united in marriage. The ceremony will take place at seven o'clock.

Last evening in No. 2 H. & L. station, Main street, the groom was presented by his fellow-members of the company with a handsome china dinner set and by a number of friends with a check for $100. The life of a conductor is not by any means conducive to extreme good nature, and all the men admit to many imperfections in their conduct, but under extraordinary conditions they try their utmost to maintain a cheerful and obliging manner. Their work is monotonous, and many little incidents tend to irritate them, so patrons of the cars should show a little regard for the employees and act in a considerate manner towards them.

What the conductors complain most about is that class of people who habitually present bills of large denomination in paying their fares. The

SCHLATTER THE HEALER.

This Celebrated Man Has Been in the City Several Days.

The celebrated divine healer Schlatter, about whom the American papers have for the last few years been devoting columns after columns, who has preached in almost every large city in the civilized world, and who by all accounts has cured thousands of sick, has been in this city for the past three days. This gentleman—for he is a gentleman in every sense of the word—will in all probability hold a series of meetings here, but as yet no definite arrangements have been made.

Schlatter, or to use his real name, Dr. McLean, is of Scotch descent. He was born in New York in the year 1846, and has graduated in both medicine and theology.

In appearance Dr. McLean, or Schlatter, as he is better known, is tall and slight. He wears a long flowing beard and braided hair. His voice, which is soft and low, has a distinct Scottish accent, and in his conversation Dr. McLean conveys the impression of one who is a keen observer of human nature, an apt scholar and a gentleman.

In regard to his work, about which so much has been written, Dr. McLean says that no matter what may have been said about him he makes no pretensions whatever to any miraculous power. He is simply a believer in Christ and is following out Christ's order to His disciples to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Consequent upon that order the disciples were able to raise the dead and heal the sick, not by any power of their own, but by the will of God. And Dr. McLean puts no bounds upon God's power. If, he says, many have been healed, it is not by me, but by our Lord, who is merely using me as His servant.

Dr. McLean's work in all parts of the world has been most successful, and he hopes to continue it for many years to come. As he makes absolute ly no pretensions to divine power, he acts in any way outside the law, but simply preaches the gospel, he has been enthusiastically received everywhere. Through the western states such enormous crowds attended his services that many of the churches were closed and those who in bodily health were benefitted by hearing him are almost countless. While staying at the Palmer house in Boston so many called to see him that in order to attend the place where he was holding a meeting he had to be taken out the hotel window.

Dr. McLean is engaged in this work solely because he believes in obeying Christ's commands. He does not accept any money for anything he may do, but carries out the commands of his Master in as true a sense as possible. He lives simply, and is even plainly dressed. His whole appearance is striking, and he seems so deeply in earnest with his work that he would hold any services here the public no matter what their private opinions may be of persons like Dr. McLean, will not fail to be impressed with his strong personality and devoutness.

HELP THEM OUT.

The Street Car Conductors Ask for a Little Consideration.

The electric car conductors wish to register a complaint against certain classes of people who are helping to make life a burden to the rest of the city. The life of a conductor is not by any means conducive to extreme good nature, and all the men admit to many imperfections in their conduct, but under extraordinary conditions they try their utmost to maintain a cheerful and obliging manner. Their work is monotonous, and many little incidents tend to irritate them, so patrons of the cars should show a little regard for the employees and act in a considerate manner towards them.

conductors have to supply their own change—it is not furnished by the company, and many of them cannot afford to carry a large amount. They do not object to persons who accidentally get on the cars with nothing but a bank note, but only to those who, as often happens, have small silver in their pockets and, instead of using it, produce a bill. This is especially annoying when the cars are crowded. A conductor who holds the fare box in his hand, supports himself from the rail with the same hand and tries to make change with the other is liable to make mistakes.

Then the Americans who come to the city religiously ignore the fare box and insist in attempting to pay the fares into the conductor's hand. Besides these, quite a few other cents regularly, knowing that so doing gives the conductor a little more trouble.

The old rule of the company is that conductors need not furnish change for any bill or higher denomination than two dollars, and the men wish the public to bear this in mind and act accordingly.
